You are closer than the very air we breathe. Your peace is always with us. Your joy is always with us. Your power and Your blessings are always with us. The next time we feel alone, remind us, Lord, that we are never alone because we serve the God who is always with us.—AMEN.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2011-030
May 26, 2011

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As required by California Business and Professions Code, Section 6145, the California State Auditor presents this audit report concerning the State Bar of California (State Bar).

This report concludes that the Lawyer Assistance Program (assistance program) of the State Bar lacks controls to ensure that the case managers for the program's participants submit reports of noncompliance promptly and consistently to such disciplinary bodies as the State Bar Court of California. Our review of case files for 25 participants in the assistance program showed that it does not have adequate procedures for monitoring case managers to ensure that they are appropriately sending reports of participants' noncompliance, such as missed or positive laboratory testing results for drugs or alcohol. In fact, case managers failed to send six reports to disciplinary bodies when participants missed laboratory tests and failed to send 10 other reports in a timely manner.

Further, the assistance program lacks adequate controls and procedures to ensure that case managers treat all noncompliance issues consistently. The assistance program relies on case managers to bring participants' noncompliance to the attention of the program's evaluation committee when appropriate; however, the program has issued only limited guidance to help case managers determine when to notify the evaluation committee. Further, the assistance program does not have any formal process for monitoring case managers' adherence to policies and procedures. Nine of the 25 participants we reviewed each had 10 or more instances of noncompliance, but we did not always see evidence that the case managers brought these issues to the attention of the evaluation committee.

Finally, the assistance program needs to adopt mechanisms to better gauge its effectiveness in achieving its mission of enhancing public protection and identifying and rehabilitating attorneys who are recovering from substance abuse or mental health issues. Until it develops these mechanisms, the State Bar will be unable to determine how well the assistance program is performing.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Business, Professions and Consumer Protection.
