Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Mullin, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Alternate Chaplain Rev. Patti Oshita:

Please join me in a moment of reflection.

Over the decades, when we have counselled couples before marriage, one point we have emphasized is this: “You would never have considered marriage if you never first became friends. Your friendship is the foundation of your love. The friendship you share will be at the heart of all that you will share in your life together; and it should never be taken for granted.”

The historical Gautama Buddha once said, “Friendship is not something we can ask for like a glass of water. Friendship is something we are offered like a cup of tea.”

Let us try to be grateful for every friendship we have in our lives, for every true friendship offered is a gift of loving kindness we are fortunate to receive.

—Namo Amida Butsu, with kindness and gratitude beyond words.
