REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Speaker and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2021-112
May 31, 2022

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 319
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: Our audit of the California Department of Justice's (DOJ) Child Abuse Central Index (CACI)—the database that is meant to be a comprehensive list of individuals with substantiated reports of child abuse—found that less than half of the 52,000 reports of child abuse that social workers substantiated from July 2017 through June 2021 were in CACI. This difference means that authorized users of CACI cannot depend on the database to help protect children when they make decisions about hiring individuals to work in day care centers or group homes, or about whom they can entrust with the care or custody of a child.

The audit found that the current child abuse reporting process is cumbersome and error-prone, and it revealed multiple reasons for CACI's incomplete data. Specifically, DOJ did not always enter into CACI the reports of child abuse it received from counties, and counties did not always send reports of child abuse to DOJ for entry into the database. Furthermore, state law allows for differing interpretations of which child abuse reports the counties should send to DOJ. As a result, at least one county requires that a social worker interview a suspected child abuser before it will submit a substantiated report of child abuse to DOJ, while other counties do not generally follow this interpretation.

To better protect children from individuals with a history of perpetrating abuse, the Legislature should streamline the process for sharing reports of child abuse, which would help DOJ provide the most complete and accurate response to the background checks authorized users request.

Respectfully submitted,

MICHAEL S. TILDEN, CPA
Acting California State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Public Safety and the Committee on Human Services.
