Creator of the universe, Sustainer of joy and love; You are known in many traditions and by many names, and You are known as the very essence of goodness and love.

We turn our hearts to You this day in celebration of goodness and love. We turn our hearts to You to celebrate growing awareness of the diversity of Your creation. We turn our hearts to You to celebrate persons who have overcome oppressive biases and restrictions to make significant and lasting impact on the world, reminding us that the arc of the universe does indeed bend towards justice, reminding us that hope will never be silent.

As we celebrate this day and this month, call and equip us all to continue this journey of restoration. Many traditions affirm that we are created in Your image, Holy One. As we honor progress and celebrate service, help us to see the incredible and colorful and beautiful diversity of Your unlimited and unimaginable love, and to know that sharing this love is nothing short of miraculous and nothing short of essential. Call us, equip us, guide us into this good work.

We pray as a people of joy and hope, and a people committed to continue to work.—AMEN.
