Lord, If You made everything happen right away, or whenever we wanted it to happen, nothing would be required of us. If everything came easy, we would never grow in character and in faith. When our faith is tested, when we trust in You—even though our minds say to move on to something else—our faith and character are strengthened, and we move one day closer to Your promised blessings. Lord, thank You for working in us as we stand in faith, and trust You in all things and at all times.—AMEN.
