Will you please join me in prayer? Loving God, Thank You for the abundant freedoms we celebrate as Californians! What a joy to call California home! Today, I pray for Your blessings as we celebrate Pride Month, a time when the LGBTQ+ community, allies, and supporters come together to celebrate the progress made towards full equality, while acknowledging the work that still needs to be done.

As we have seen an increase in hate crimes towards members of the LGBTQ+ community, may we take the opportunity to lead and set an example on how to foster a sense of civility and justice and to protect the most marginalized among us, regardless of who they are or who they love.

Oh God, in today's world, we need civility more than ever. Help us to create opportunities for dialogue, understanding, and mutual respect, even in the face of disagreement. Loving God, may we all be inspired to act with courage, empathy, and respect as we strive to bring about a more inclusive and loving world this Pride Month.

I pray this in Your many names—AMEN.
