PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Mullin, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Bob Oshita:

Please join me in a moment of reflection.

For decades, I've given bits of advice to our college-bound high school students. Many have come to affectionately call them, "Rev. Bob's Rules." One of the "Rules" is this: Never say, "I Love You," romantically until you are 26.

Just this past spring, one young college freshman called me from school. Her first relationship of commitment had ended and she was heartbroken. Through still fresh tears, she said to me, "You were right, Rev. Bob. I should have listened to you. I just didn't really understand."

She could tell I was smiling when I said, "My 'Rules' were made to be broken." I explained, "It only hurts because you really cared. What I had shared with you was just knowledge. What you feel and know now, that is wisdom." We still check in with each other and she is on the mend and doing well. But at her young age, she now knows well that real wisdom is experiential. In time, with Wisdom Eyes open, I am confident she will find herself in a relationship worthy of her love and trust.

When our knowledge is nurtured by our life experiences, wisdom takes root and deepens our understanding, our appreciation, and our empathy.

—Namo Amida Butsu, with kindness and gratitude beyond words.
