PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Lowenthal, the following prayer was offered by Reverend Bob Oshita:

The late Joseph Campbell remains a revered authority on the religions and mythologies of humanity. He famously shared that from ancient times, virtually every culture had stories of a hero's journey. It was often a quest to discover a great treasure. In these stories, our universal seeker discovers that the greatest treasures are the clarity of knowing oneself and valuing life, for it is only momentary. The 4,000-year-old Mesopotamian, Legend of Gilgamesh comes to mind.

In one ancient parable, the hero/seeker finds that treacherous waters are the last obstacle, preventing him from reaching the land of Truth and Wisdom. Fortunately, along the shore, he discovers a sturdy boat. Only with the help of this boat is our hero able to safely navigate the seemingly uncrossable waters. His quest is fulfilled. Wisdom is attained. He is deeply grateful for the boat that delivered him to wisdom. However, if in gratitude, he tied himself to this boat and pulled it wherever he went; asking all to recognize the virtues of this wonderful boat, he would be foolish.

The boat in this parable are all the traditions that guide us to awakening. All of humanity's inspirational teachings are the proverbial, "finger pointing to the moon." Being attached to the boat would be like admiring the "pointing finger," causing us to miss the beauty of the "Full Moon."

The treacherous waters conquered represent the overcoming of self-centered egos. The journey's end, the land of Truth and Wisdom, are no other than Rumi's field beyond right and wrong; where we become Chuang Tzu's "mind that is right; where for and against are forgotten . . ."

Our quest is fulfilled when the seeker within us, attains the Wisdom to see that life is momentary and as Pope Leo has said and feels, ". . . all of humanity are my people."

Namo Amida Butsu—Let us live with kindness and gratitude beyond words.
