PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Mullin, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Member Eloise Gómez Reyes, of the 47th Assembly District:

As a body, I pray that we are ready to face the issues that plague our communities, so we can change them. I pray that we be the change we claimed and promised our communities we'd be.

Let us pray that the evil of some not be imputed on all. I pray that just as the evil has deep roots, that we prepare ourselves for the very hard work needed to get to those deep roots.

Lord, Help us to hear the righteous demands from the community. Help us to root out the evil of racism, discrimination, marginalization, and humiliation. Help us to recognize that all of Your children are important to You and all of their lives matter to You.

Help us also to understand the parable of the shepherd who had 100 sheep and found that 1 was in need; he left his 99 to help the 1. The 99 were still important to him, but the 1 needed help at that moment. He directed all of his attention to the one.

Remind us, Lord, why we fought to be here. It was to care for those who needed representation.

We are at a crossroads and we seek wisdom. The community is no longer asking. The community is righteously demanding. Help us to hear them.

When "those unaffected" hear the last words of a man begging for water, for air, for life, I pray that our reaction will be outrage. Our communities are burdened; they are tired, yet they are unified.

Help us, Lord, to address the deep-rooted inequities and racial disparities in our communities that are wrong and inhumane. We have not always responded appropriately.

Help us to be "outraged" that any human being lives under these conditions. Allow us to never forget the phrase, "I can't breathe," and let it forever be a reminder of our duty to dismantle structures of hate and ignorance.

Let this be our cry as we march forward to create a better California and a better United States. May we see that we were born for such a time as this, and may we continue the work we were sent here to do.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Mullin, Assembly Member Daly then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.
