The noted journalist, Anna Quindlen observed that “a finished person is a boring person.”

Life is a process. When we stop growing and being affected by what we see and who we interact with, we stop living.

The spark of life, the joy of life, is found not merely in the attainment of a goal, but in its pursuit.

May it be God’s will that we be blessed to always find ourselves to be interested in life and for life to be interested in us.—AMEN.
