PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Mullin, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Member Timothy S. Grayson, of the 14th Assembly District:

Lord, We stand in this Chamber today with the weight of responsibility upon our shoulders to serve as trustworthy stewards of the peoples' resources.

We give thanks for the wisdom, judgment, and good common sense to forecast in some cases, plan for in many cases, and endure in all situations—such as droughts, famines, other natural disasters, conflicts, and even pandemics—and may we never attempt to stand without the thought of leaning upon You for our provision and care.

As we have learned from nature, investing a kernel of corn into the ground will lead to a return of over 800 kernels. So, let us wisely invest in that which will lead to returns that can be counted as blessings for all Californians.

There are needs for the homeless and the hungry, there are needs for health services, our children deserve quality education, and all who work are worthy of their hire. While so many struggle for the very basics of life, while governments strive to provide for much-needed services, and while we as legislators endeavor to make the right decisions, give us the wisdom and knowledge as stewards to assure that the underserved rise by being served, the struggling are afforded relief, and future generations are provided the opportunities that we have been afforded and more.

Lay upon those who have to graciously make way for provisions for those who have not. Help us to know through truth that if we righteously give, it will come back pressed down, shaken together, and running over. Rebuke that which devours, and multiply what we have to meet the needs that press our communities on every side.

Just as the story of the miracle where over five thousand were fed with five loaves and two fishes, we have found ourselves facing a similar dilemma where the need is far greater than the resources. Oh! Hey, God, Any miracle You could send our way would be greatly appreciated and humbly received! In Your name—AMEN!

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Mullin, Assembly Member Medina then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

MOTION TO DISPENSE WITH READING OF THE JOURNAL
