PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rabbi Mona Alfi:

When writing about the importance of finding meaning from one's work, Chaim Stern, a contemporary rabbi and author wrote a spiritual meditation on the topic. He teaches: "My work matters to me, or should. It will not save the world; it may not even save me. But to the extent that I do mine and others do theirs, the world will be that much the better, and to that extent, it will save us all. And since I cannot do the work of others, let me do mine."

When we choose to do work that is meaningful to us, we are given the opportunity to heal the world, beginning, but not ending, with ourselves. When each of us does his, or her, share of working on their corner of the world, we begin to see that the world is indeed a better place than we found it.

May it be the will of the Creator that each day we find meaning and pleasure in the work that we have chosen, and may we be so blessed as to see the impact of our work on the lives of those around us.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, Assembly Member Daucher then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.
