Heavenly Father, This morning, we pause to remember the opening words of our California State Constitution:

“We, the People of California, grateful to Almighty God for our freedom.”

Lord, we are truly grateful—for the gift of life, the blessing of liberty, and the honor of serving the people of this great state. As we begin today’s work, we ask for Your guidance. Grant us strength to lead with diligence and integrity, humility to listen well, wisdom to choose what is right, and unity to serve the common good.

Protect us from pride, selfish ambition, division, and confusion. May our decisions be shaped by justice, compassion, and a sincere desire to do what is best for California and our nation.

We offer this prayer in Your holy name.

And I personally pray this in the name of my Lord and Savior.—AMEN.
