In the name of God, the most gracious, the most merciful:

Almighty God, We know that all good comes from You, and this beautiful state in which we live is one of those gifts. We thank You today for the many ways that You have blessed us, from our bountiful natural resources to our freedom to work and to speak and to worship. And it is because of these blessings that You have also given us a great responsibility to live and to lead by example. So, by Your grace today, I humbly ask that You would help these leaders of our state to bring hope to those that have lost hope. We confess now our need for Your help and Your guidance, for You have told us in Your Word to trust not in our own understanding, but to trust You and acknowledge You in all of our ways and You would make our path straight. May we do this today and in the future.—Ameen.
