PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Lowenthal, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Member Ahrens, of the 26th Assembly District:

Lord God, Grant us hearts that remain open—open to truth, open to reason, and most importantly, open to the suffering of others. Scripture reads, “Whoever has two coats must share with anyone who has none; and whoever has food must do likewise.”

Let us be reminded: Charity is not optional. It is commanded. Make us a people known not for exclusion, but for compassion. Not for hoarding, but for sharing. Not for fear, but for love.

Scripture further warned: “Do not oppress a foreigner; you yourselves know how it feels to be foreigners, because you were foreigners in Egypt.”

We dishonor our own history—and Your word—when we deny welcome and protection to the vulnerable.

Let us not forget that the strength of a nation is not measured by how it treats the powerful, but by how it cares for the least among us.

May our actions reflect not just political will, but divine commandment. May our policies reflect Your justice, and not just our convenience. And may we never forget that in serving the poor, the hungry, and the stranger, we serve You.

May this be Your will.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Lowenthal, Assembly Member Patel then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2024-115
July 17, 2025

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 319
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As directed by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, my office conducted an audit of the Division of Occupational Safety and Health (Cal/OSHA) and its efforts to enforce health and safety standards that protect California's nearly 20 million workers. We reviewed 60 case files that Cal/OSHA handled from fiscal years 2019–20 through 2023–24 and found deficiencies in Cal/OSHA's enforcement processes and staffing levels that may undermine some of California's workplace protections.

In general, we determined that Cal/OSHA did not demonstrate that it had sufficient reasons for closing some workplace complaints and accidents without conducting an on-site inspection. In nine of the 30 uninspected complaints we reviewed, we questioned Cal/OSHA's rationale for deciding not to inspect because the case files lacked evidence to support that Cal/OSHA had complied with its own policies. Some accident cases also lacked support for Cal/OSHA's decision not to inspect.

We also observed some critical weaknesses among the on-site inspections that Cal/OSHA did conduct. Cal/OSHA did not consistently document effective reviews of employers' injury and illness prevention programs, causing us to question whether it may have overlooked potential violations in some instances. When Cal/OSHA identified hazards and cited employers for violations, it did not always document that those employers had abated the hazards. Furthermore, the fines that Cal/OSHA assessed employers were sometimes less than the violations may have warranted, and Cal/OSHA often did not document a clear rationale for further reducing fines in post-citation negotiations with employers.

Cal/OSHA's process deficiencies and staffing shortages are root causes for many of the concerns we identified. Cal/OSHA has left key policy documents unrevised for years, conducted internal audits inconsistently, and relied on paper-based case files. Cal/OSHA had a 32 percent vacancy rate in fiscal year 2023–24 and even higher vacancy rates in many of its district offices, significantly limiting its ability to protect workers.

Respectfully submitted,

GRANT PARKS
California State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Labor and Employment.
