O Lord, During times of suffering and affliction, You allow us to see our priorities more clearly. In this time of great difficulty in our state and in our nation, we call out to You for help. We need wisdom, discernment, and most importantly, greater love for You and our neighbors.

Provide us the courage we need to denounce injustice, to uphold what is right, and to fight against what is evil. Give us humility, first to listen and then to understand, so that compassion may be the root of all we accomplish in this Chamber.

All strength and power comes from You, O Lord, and it is by Your mercy that we have this opportunity to gather and to work on behalf of the people of California. May all we do reflect Your love and grace, and may we remember our dependence on You as we seek to accomplish Your most holy will. In Your name we pray.—AMEN.
