PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Ma, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Constantine C. Pappademos:

Lord, Sometimes when we're hungry, we're not sure what to eat to satisfy us. We're not sure what will hit the spot. Our spiritual hunger works the same way. We may feel restlessness or unsettledness and we can't figure out what will satisfy it. Even though we may try to fill that need with other things like food or addictions or more friendships, that hunger is still present. Guide us to know, Lord, that only You can satisfy that hunger in our soul. And lead us to take the time to become spiritually satisfied by living a life that strives to imitate Your goodness.—AMEN.

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Ma, Assembly Member Niello then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2009-114
July 8, 2010

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the California State Auditor presents this audit report concerning the Department of General Services' (General Services) strategically sourced contracting practices and the effects these practices have on California small businesses and Disabled Veteran Business Enterprises (DVBES). This report concludes that documents indicate that as a result of its initial strategic sourcing efforts, the State accrued at least $160 million in net savings from 33 contracts through June 30, 2007. General Services stopped formally calculating savings at that time. Further, although it has not strategically sourced 20 other categories of goods or services that its consultant recommended, General Services indicates that it has used traditional methods to issue statewide contracts for many of the categories. However, it has not determined that these contracts have resulted in savings commensurate with what it would have achieved under strategic sourcing. General Services has not entered into any strategically sourced contracts since July 2006, and it is not reviewing comprehensive purchasing data that will allow it to identify new opportunities effectively.

General Services does not have all the necessary data to determine the change in the number of small businesses and DVBES participating in a category of goods that was strategically sourced. Additionally, our review of contracts awarded to small businesses and DVBES by five large state agencies does not indicate a clear relationship. Further, General Services determines whether the planned use of subcontractors complies with statutory requirements designed to ensure that they play a meaningful role in any contract in which they participate. However, it does not monitor to ensure compliance once the contract has been awarded. Finally, General Services does not yet have standard procedures to recover state funds when it identifies a contractor that has not complied with the pricing terms of the contract.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Business, Professions and Consumer Protection.
