PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Mullin, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Bob Oshita:

Please join me in a moment of reflection.

Two weeks ago, 103 passengers and crew survived the crash of their plane shortly after takeoff from Durango, Mexico. Although 97 were injured, there were amazingly no fatalities.

A few days ago, I listened to an interview with one of the fortunate passengers on NPR. The interviewer asked if this experience had changed his life. I have little doubt that his response was one that resonated deeply with everyone who was listening. He said that too often, we just take for granted our everyday life. We worry and even despair at times over things that are just material possessions. He then added, that although he has always tried, he must try to live with more love in his life. He encouraged: We must all live with more love in our lives. All people, we must care for each other more deeply and not take for granted a single day.

Clearly his Wisdom Eyes were wide open; and he is going to try his very best to keep them open from now on. With Wisdom Eyes open, we too will remember to live with love in our lives; and not take for granted a single day.

—Namo Amida Butsu, with kindness and gratitude beyond words.
