PRAYER

Upon invitation of Assistant Speaker pro Tempore Friedman, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Member Jesse Gabriel, of the 45th Assembly District:

Every Saturday, Jewish communities throughout California and across the globe gather to read a portion of the Torah, a chapter of our people's story. This week, we read from Parashat Shoftim, in the Book of Deuteronomy, where God presents the people of Israel with a system of law and justice. God instructs the people to appoint leaders from each tribe, who will help guide them through their most challenging decisions.

As Moses is recounting God's instructions, one particular verse stands out: "Tzedek, tzedek tirdof," he says. "Justice, justice you shall pursue." Notably, the leaders of the bible aren't asked to find justice, or to affirm justice; they are obligated to chase after justice, to seek it and build toward it. To pursue it.

But justice is more than a religious principle. It is the common thread that connects our sacred American texts. The Preamble to the U.S. Constitution reminds us that the first purpose of our Union is to "establish Justice." We pledge allegiance to our flag because it is an emblem of "liberty and justice for all." The mandate of our judicial system is carved in stone above the entrance to the U.S. Supreme Court: "Equal justice under law." As public servants, the pursuit of justice is central to our work. It is why we are in this room.

We are approaching the season of the Jewish High Holy Days: a month in which we reflect deeply who we are and who we want to be. As we consider these questions, let us draw inspiration from those in our community, who teach us each day how to pursue justice. Let us look to the courage of our firefighters, who are risking their lives to protect our friends and neighbors. The commitment of our teachers, who this week opened their classrooms so that our children can grow and thrive. The compassion of our social workers and medical professionals, who give strength to the weary and hope to the downtrodden.

So let us pray: Eloheinu vaylohei avoteinu, our God and God of our ancestors, help us to remember our sacred obligation to pursue justice, stir us to action, and guide us as we work to build a state—and a world—that is truly just.

Tzedek, tzedek tirdof. Justice, justice we shall pursue.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Assistant Speaker pro Tempore Friedman, Assembly Member Kalra then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.
