Lord, When the people of Israel were in the wilderness headed toward the Promised Land, You gave them manna each morning to eat. But you instructed them to gather up from the ground, only enough for one day's supply. In fact, if they gathered more than that, it wouldn't last . . . it would spoil. Lord, help to trust Your grace every single day; not for a year, or even for a month, just for today. For we look to Your help and guidance the same way we make it through the seasons of our life, one day at a time.—AMEN.
