PRAYER

Upon invitation of Assistant Speaker pro Tempore Celeste Rodriguez, the following prayer was offered by Reverend Bob Oshita:

Sometimes I worry about the future of humanity. In a time when weapons of mass destruction can literally end life as we know it, I worry when sensing growing global tension and conflict. Will we reach a point where consequences are forgotten and hate prevails?

How can we move away from world wars and towards world peace. Regarding this, His Holiness, the Dalai Lama has said, “We can never obtain peace in the world if we neglect the inner world and don’t make peace with ourselves. World peace must develop out of inner peace.” He then added, “Weapons themselves do not act. Man has made them. But even given those weapons, those terrible weapons, they cannot act by themselves. As long as they are left alone in storage, they cannot do any harm. A human being must use them. Someone must push the button. Evil powers cannot push that button. Human beings must do it.”

Continuing down a contentious path will lead to anger; and anger grows easily into hate and rage. The consequences of rage are never good. In nurturing inner peace, we nurture reason and empathy, which are the seeds of kindness and compassion. We must choose the path of empathy and kindness, for the children of the world to have a future.

Namo Amida Butsu—Let us live with kindness and gratitude beyond words.
