PRAYER

Upon invitation of Assistant Speaker pro Tempore Bauer-Kahan, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Member Jesse Gabriel, of the 45th Assembly District:

Last Wednesday afternoon, I received “the call.”

Summoned out of the blue, I joined a family FaceTime where my father shared disturbing news. After complaining for several months of persistent neck pain, an MRI had revealed concerning abnormalities.

Based on the MRI and other symptoms, the doctors raised the prospect of a rare and highly deadly form of metastatic blood and bone cancer, with an expected survival rate that left us breathless.

In a moment, my world was turned upside-down.

Prior to “the call,” my afternoon had been filled with the typical frustrations and annoyances that too often mark end-of-session in the Legislature—distractions from the real and urgent work of serving the people.

In the moments after “the call,” all of that melted away.

We are approaching the season of the High Holidays, which will be celebrated by communities in California, Israel, and around the world.

In ways subtle and obvious, the High Holidays urge us to consider our mortality—to confront the inescapable reality that our time on this planet is finite.

The confrontation with our own inevitable death is not meant to scare us, but rather to encourage the difficult work of reflection and introspection—to help us ask ourselves the tough questions. Are we living the life we intended? Are we being true to ourselves? Are we spending our precious time and energy on what really matters?

With luck, we will come out of the High Holidays with a renewed sense of purpose and perspective. We will lay down old grievances, set aside needless distractions, and refocus on that which is most deserving of our time and talent and energy.

Over the past several days, my Dad has been subject to a battery of blood tests and scans. My family has endured sleepless nights and extreme fear.

Somehow, by the incredible grace of G-d, the results of those tests have surprised his doctors and delighted our family. Gone is the shadow of cancer, replaced by a diagnosis of ailments that—while difficult—are far less scary. We have stepped back from the abyss.

Eloheinu v’elohei avoteinu v’imoteinu, Our G-d and G-d of our ancestors, As we approach the final days of a difficult session, may we be granted the perspective and insight to decipher what really matters.

To separate the holy work of public service from the distractions of petty politics.

To see the best in each other.

To appreciate the passion of our colleagues, staff, constituents, and advocates, including those with whom we may not always agree.

To rise above the noise and focus on the immense privilege we have before us: the opportunity to make laws that can uplift our communities, advance justice, and heal our world.

To recall with clarity why we are here, and what we are fighting for.

And may we, our entire Capitol community, and all humankind be granted the ultimate blessing of good health.—AMEN.
