PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Mullin, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Bob Oshita:

Please join me in a moment of reflection.

Building the foundation of character begins early. I feel it begins with parents and with the adult role models in our children's lives. Seeds of integrity and responsibility are planted early in life. And nurtured, they will take root and grow deep into the young hearts and minds of our children.

Once, while a leader of a Cadette Girl Scout Troop at our temple, my wife, Patti, shared an incident that occurred during a planned Friday-night activity. The plan was for the girls to bake lemon tarts. After examining the recipe the week before, each girl chose one ingredient that they would bring. That evening, the girls arrived, excited to bake their collective treat. But the one girl, who agreed to bring the lemons, arrived empty-handed. Then with a nonchalant shrug just said, "Oh, I forgot the lemons . . ."

Patti said, "There was absolute silence." I asked, "What did you do?" She said, "Nothing."

She explained that it was obvious that this young girl was accustomed to being bailed out by the adults around her. She was expecting one of the leaders to say, "Oh, that's okay. I'll go get some." Instead, Patti allowed the girls to feel their shared disappointment. Then Patti asked, "Well, we have no lemons. So, girls, what can we do with the ingredients we have?" They excitedly explored the temple kitchen and found a can of cinnamon. So the girls experimented, and attempted to bake cinnamon squares.

I was amazed at how tough my gentle wife could be! Then, she said, "Because I care for each of my girls, they have to learn now that people are depending on them. And if they are going to fail and let people down, let it be now when they are young; and let the failure just be: not remembering the promised lemons." Although Patti shared this with me over 15 years ago, I was so impressed with her leadership vision; and I admire it still.

Building the foundation of our character begins early. I feel it begins with parents and with the adult role models in our children's lives. Seeds of integrity and responsibility are planted early in life. It requires us to take ownership of our mistakes and grow from them. If these seeds are nurtured, they will take root and grow deep into the young hearts and minds of our children; and help them to become leaders who will live with integrity and be worthy of responsibility.

—Namo Amida Butsu, with kindness and gratitude beyond words.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Mullin, Assembly Member Acosta then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

MOTION TO DISPENSE WITH READING OF THE JOURNAL
