Please join me in prayer.

As we gather here today as Members of the State Assembly, we pray and ask that You provide us with wisdom as we do the people's work.

Every day Californians are facing serious hardships during these difficult times. Remind us of all Californians we represent who look upon us for leadership.

Please protect our front line workers: our police officers and the firefighters battling against dangerous fires across California; our healthcare workers who are keeping our most vulnerable safe and healthy; our essential workers who perform critical duties while placing their lives on the line.

May we be challenged to give our best, to think of those who have entrusted in us this important responsibility, and we ask for Your providence.

Let us continue to be faithful in You and give us the courage to make the right decisions, not easy ones.—AMEN.
