Lord, The people You have placed in our life are not there by accident—You have brought them to us for a purpose. Rather than thinking “what can that person do for me?”, or “what do they have to offer?”, our attitude should be “what can I do to help them?” Guide us, Lord, to use our talent, influence and experience, not just to accomplish our goals, but to help someone else become better. Help us to use our influence to encourage others and to honor You always.—AMEN.
