PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Lowenthal, the following prayer was offered by Reverend Patti Oshita:

While shopping at Takashimaya, one of Japan's largest department stores, I recall taking a wrong turn into a small empty lobby area. There was just one door across the room. Just as I was turning to leave, I noticed a young woman approaching that door with purse and jacket in hand. Before opening the door, she turned around and bowed deeply to the empty room, then departed. It was the employee exit. And I was the sole witness to her respectful bow; she was expressing her gratitude to the store, just as if the company president were standing there. I was impressed.

I began to notice that throughout our trip—conductors on the trains checking tickets, bowing as they entered and left each car. Even the ground crew around our plane, bowed in unison as we pulled away from the gate, when we departed. From my seat, I bowed in return. Bowing is literally; gratitude expressed with one's whole body.

The Roman philosopher, Cicero said, "Gratitude is the parent of all other virtues." And there is a reason why every spiritual tradition emphasizes the nurturing of gratitude.

In our many years of being invited into people's homes, when a loved-one's life was being measured in hours instead of years, we found that almost without exception, the one feeling expressed, was gratitude so deep, there were no words. Even when unable to speak, we saw the depths of gratitude in their eyes; felt it in their hands holding ours; or with their palms pressed together.

On this final day, Bob and I know there is much deep gratitude within this chamber . . . and we hope you can feel ours too. We know that being here has been a rare and wonderful gift.

Let us continue to do our best to nurture ever-deepening gratitude—for we have found that, when all is said and done . . . deep, deep within us, what will remain, will be the wish to say, "Thank you."

Namo Amida Butsu—Let us try to live with kindness and gratitude beyond words.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Lowenthal, Assembly Member Irwin then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 1776

August 31, 2026

*Sue ParkerChief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 319
Sacramento, California*

Dear Ms. Parker: As the author of Assembly Bill 1776, I submit this letter to clarify my intent around the bill's implications for the enforcement and interpretation of the Cartwright Act and California's antitrust laws. This bill seeks to update the Cartwright Act and make it clear that the purpose of California's antitrust laws is the promotion and protection of free and fair competition and deterrence of anticompetitive behavior (Clayworth v. Pfizer, Inc. (2010) 49 Cal.4th 758, 783).

This bill was introduced in response to the recommendations of the California Law Revision Commission regarding Single Firm Conduct. During the legislative process, the bill has been amended for various reasons. I am writing this letter to clarify two points:

1. When Business & Professions Code section 16731(f) references "this section" four different times, "this section" means the section it is in, Section 16731. Business & Professions Code section 16731(f)(3) in part also provides: "This subdivision does not apply to . . . or limit the scope of, an action that is not brought pursuant to this section." Thus, the provisions of subdivision (f) do not apply to any cause of action that does not allege a violation of section 16731. The inclusion of subdivision (f) is not intended to nor shall be interpreted to bar, modify, or limit any rights of action that exist under existing law at the time of codification, regardless of whether the underlying conduct also constitutes a violation of section 16731.
2. Nothing in the legislative history of this bill should prompt courts to depart from longstanding and settled case law regarding what can be inferred from amendments that deleted parts of a bill. "California courts have frequently noted, . . . the very limited guidance that can generally be drawn from the fact that the Legislature has not enacted a particular proposed amendment to an existing statutory scheme The light shed by such unadopted proposals is too dim to pierce statutory obscurities. As evidence of legislative intent they have little value." (Marina Point, Ltd. v. Wolfson (1982) 30 Cal.3d 721, 735, fn. 7.) "Unpassed bills, as evidences of legislative intent, have little value." (Granberry v. Islay Investments (1995) 9 Cal.4th 738, 746, see also Grupe Dev. Co. v. Superior Ct. (1993) 4 Cal. 4th 911, 923, 844 P.2d 545).

There are many reasons for provisions to be stricken from bills during the legislative process, including provisions in other bills or laws already fulfilling the same purpose, or existing case law being sufficient to accomplish the goal. Removal of provisions shall not be misconstrued as being the result of legislative opposition to any said provision.

Thank you for this opportunity to clarify the legislative intent of AB 1776.

Sincerely,

CECILIA M. AGUIAR-CURRY, Assembly Member
Fourth District

August 30, 2026

Sue ParkerChief Clerk of the AssemblyState Capitol, Room 319Sacramento, California

Dear Ms. Parker: I write to express my intent in authoring AB 353, to establish a governor-appointed Inspector General position to oversee the California Public Utilities Commission Internal Audit Unit.

It is my intent that AB 353 not be interpreted to authorize the Inspector General to bypass existing law related to document confidentiality and public disclosure that other employees, officers, and commissioners must abide by, nor does it implicitly or explicitly authorize the Inspector General to ignore such laws. In particular, Public Utilities Code Section 583 already makes a present or former officer or employee of the commission guilty of a misdemeanor for divulging confidential information. My bill does not seek to create an exemption to that statute, or similar statutes applicable to current or former employees, officers, and commissioners of the CPUC.

Furthermore, while PUC Section 307.6, subdivision (d), paragraph (3) in AB 353 functionally enables the work of the Inspector General by providing that the authorized representatives of the Inspector General “may enter any public office or institution . . . and access, examine, and reproduce all records,” it provides this is “for any audit or investigation.” Section 307.6, subdivision (b), specifies that “the Inspector General shall be responsible for the oversight of the internal audit unit and shall plan, initiate, and perform audits . . . within the commission to improve accountability and transparency”. A plain reading of Section 307.6 thus applies the scope of the Inspector General’s work shall only be within the commission and that its authorized representatives are only authorized to access records for any audit or investigation of the commission, not records beyond that scope, such as those of other state offices or institutions.

Thank you for the opportunity to clarify the intent of the changes proposed by AB 353.

Sincerely,

TASHA BOERNER, Assembly Member
Seventy-seventh District

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 2244

August 31, 2026

*Sue ParkerChief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 319
Sacramento, California*

Dear Ms. Parker: The purpose of this letter is to clarify my intent in enacting AB 2244, specifically with respect to the designation of food products as “Non-Ultraprocessed Certified” under Section 104672 of the Health and Safety Code.

With respect to Section 104672, it is my intent that the use of the term “or B” in subparagraph (1) of subdivision (b) not be interpreted to mean that the presence or addition of salt or sodium chloride, spices or other natural seasonings or natural flavorings, or natural colors, by themselves, exclude an otherwise qualifying food from pursuing a “Non-Ultraprocessed Certified” designation. Rather, the inclusion of “or (B)” in subparagraph (1) of subdivision (b) is intended to ensure that a food remains eligible to be designated as “Non-Ultraprocessed Certified” so long as the presence of these additives would not, by themselves, make a food an ultraprocessed food.

In particular, it is my intent to preserve the eligibility of products that may contain salt, natural seasonings or flavorings, or natural colors to be eligible for the designation as “Non-Ultraprocessed Certified”.

Thank you for the opportunity to clarify the intent of AB 2244.

Sincerely,

JESSE GABRIEL, Assembly Member
Forty-sixth District

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 1642

August 31, 2026

Sue Parker

*Chief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 319
Sacramento, California*

Dear Ms. Parker: I submit this letter to the journal in order to clarify the intent of AB 1642.

The limitation on the application of the temporary standards in proposed Section 25402.3 of the health and safety code in this bill to “residential properties located within a wildfire impact zone, as defined in Section 2060.1 of the Insurance Code” is intended only to make clear that this bill does not relieve insurers of obligations applicable under existing lead and asbestos standards, pending the development of the new standards in regulations or guidelines to be developed pursuant to this bill.

The standards described and specified in section 25402.3(a) and (b) are existing standards that apply universally to lead and asbestos remediation. The use of the catch all “or any more stringent applicable standard” makes clear that the standards are those that already apply to all areas of the state. The reference to that phrase “within a wildfire impact zone” in no way affects the current application of insurance laws and regulations, or any other laws and regulations, applicable to areas outside of “wildfire impact zones.” It merely confirms that those standards are not changed within those zones.

Sincerely,

JOHN HARABEDIAN, Assembly Member
Forty-first District

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 1815

August 30, 2026

*Sue ParkerChief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 319
Sacramento, California*

Dear Ms. Parker: As author of Assembly Bill (AB)1815, I write to clarify its legislative intent. Due to a drafting error, Health and Safety Code (HSC) Section 19993.1 (e) incorrectly references “this subdivision” where it should reference “this section.”

It is my intent that HSC 19993.1 (e) correctly reference “this section”, so that in interpreting or applying that section, there shall be a rebuttable presumption in favor of a determination that facilitates the use of factory-built housing and allows a project to qualify as a factory-built housing structure under that section. I intend to address this error in subsequent legislation next year.

Sincerely,

BUFFY WICKS, Assembly Member

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 1156

August 31, 2026

Sue Parker

*Chief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 319
Sacramento, California*

Dear Ms. Parker: I write as the author of AB 1156, which provides a landowner with the option to terminate a Williamson Act designation without penalty for purposes of locating solar and appurtenant facilities on land parcels which are designated “critically overdrafted” under the Sustainable Groundwater Management Act.

It is my intent that the provisions of the chapter added by this legislation sunset on January 1, 2032. I am committed to the introduction of legislation next year to codify and effectuate this change.

Thank you for the opportunity to clarify this matter.

Sincerely,

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 2383

August 31, 2026

*Sue ParkerChief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 319
Sacramento, California*

Dear Ms. Parker: This letter is to clarify my intent regarding amendments taken to my legislation, AB 2383, on August 28, 2026. The language of Public Utilities Code (PUC) Section 945.6, subdivision (c)—which explicitly does not authorize the California Public Utilities Commission (the commission) to regulate the rates or terms and conditions of service offered by a community choice aggregator or an electric service provider—is the principal text to guide interpretation of PUC Section 945.6. While the commission is referenced in PUC Sections 945.6(b)(5)(A) and 945.6(b)(5)(E), it is my intent that PUC 945.6(c) is the guiding provision of this section. I will introduce legislation next year to clarify my intent.

Sincerely,

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 69

August 26, 2026

*Sue ParkerChief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 319
Sacramento, California*

Dear Ms. Parker: The purpose of this letter is to clarify the intent of the amendment to Section 10095.5 (b) of the Insurance Code in AB 69. The question raised is whether the methods set forth in subparagraphs (1) through (4) of paragraph (b) are each required to be performed by the insurance agent or broker providing assistance to a person obtaining property insurance, or whether subparagraphs (1) through (4) identify the alternative permissible methods by which that assistance may be provided by the agent or broker?

It is the intent of the author that the list of methods operates as a menu of authorized forms of assistance, with the appropriate method depending on the applicant's circumstances, request, eligibility, and available market options. This reading gives effect to the statute's evident purpose—ensuring that consumers receive meaningful help obtaining basic property insurance—without converting each listed means of assistance into a rigid, mandatory universal checklist of obligations, some which are mutually exclusive or would be in conflict or inapplicable with others.

Sincerely,

LISA CALDERON, Assembly Member
Fifty-sixth DistrictLegislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 306

August 27, 2026

*Sue ParkerChief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 319
Sacramento, California*

Dear Ms. Parker: The purpose of this letter is to express my intent in enacting Assembly Bill 306, which would require the California Building Standards Commission (CBSC) to hear and decide appeals regarding a local agency's implementation of the California Building Standards Code. It is my intent that the changes made to Section 18945 of the Health and Safety Code should only apply to sections of Title 24 of the California Code of Regulations that were adopted by CBSC, excluding those sections that are adopted by other agencies that have their own separate appeals processes.

Sincerely,

NICK SCHULTZ, Assembly Member
Forty-fourth District
