PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rabbi Mona Alfi:

Thomas Paine commented on the difference between our reputation and our character. He said that "Reputation is what men and women think of us; character is what God and the angels know of us."

As difficult as it is to live a life in the public eye, it may be more difficult to have to create a public façade of who we appear to be. Because no one wants to see their flaws in public, it is tempting to construct an image, or a reputation as Thomas Paine calls it, of what we think people want us to be.

But, our character is the thing we live within. Our character is what we see when we look at our own reflection. And it is ultimately by our character, and not our reputation, that we will be judged by God, history, and ourselves.

May it be the will of the Creator that our public and private selves live in harmony with one another.—AMEN.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk, and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2001-104
August 29, 2001

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the Department of Corrections' (department) Parole Outpatient Clinic Program (program). This report concludes that the program has failed to serve many of the parolees that the department has determined could most benefit from clinic services. These are primarily mentally ill parolees, but also include other parolees who may pose a threat to public safety, such as sexual offenders. Even though recent changes have resulted in some improvement, the program still failed to serve almost 40 percent of mentally ill inmates who were paroled between October 2000 and March 2001. The program expects additional improvement in its ability to serve mentally ill parolees when it implements a new data management system shortly. However, because the data management system was not yet in use when we concluded our work, we could not assess its effectiveness. Recent changes, both inside and outside the program, will likely increase the demand for program services and highlight the program's need to increase its effectiveness.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Public Safety.
