PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Ma, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Constantine C. Pappademos:

Lord, Sometimes we may feel like we have wasted our time or even years of our life in the wrong job, associating with the wrong people, or doing the wrong things. But with You, Lord, nothing is wasted. You never waste an experience or a dream we may have. You can take those experiences, even when others meant harm for us, and turn them around for our good. Grant us a sense of encouragement today, Lord, because with You, all things are possible and nothing is wasted.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Ma, Assembly Member Hill then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

MOTION TO DISPENSE WITH READING OF THE JOURNAL

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2010-124
September 6, 2011

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the California State Auditor presents this audit report concerning the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitations' (Corrections) use of the Correctional Offender Management Profiling for Alternative Sanctions (COMPAS), which is a software tool that helps to identify the characteristics that cause offenders to commit crimes so they can participate in rehabilitative programs and thereby lessen their likelihood of reoffending.

Our report concludes that the benefits from Corrections' use of COMPAS are, at best, uncertain. Specifically, Corrections' use of COMPAS in its reception centers—facilities where inmates entering the correctional system are evaluated and assigned to a prison—does not meaningfully affect its decision-making concerning prison assignments, and by extension, the rehabilitative programs inmates might access at those facilities. Our discussions with staff from eight of Corrections' 12 reception centers revealed that other non-COMPAS factors, such as an inmate's security level and limited bed space at receiving prisons, play more prominent roles in determining where inmates can be housed. Furthermore, the COMPAS core assessment identifies up to five different needs; however, Corrections has rehabilitative programs that address only two. Corrections has not established regulations defining how COMPAS assessments are to be used despite legal requirements to do so. As a result, we recommend that Corrections suspend its use of COMPAS until it issues regulations addressing these issues and develops a methodology for measuring whether COMPAS is achieving its intended outcome, helping Corrections reduce the State's recidivism rate.

Our review also revealed other problems with Corrections' deployment of COMPAS that negatively affect its usefulness. Some correctional staff we spoke with at reception centers and parole offices indicated a lack of acceptance of COMPAS, suggesting the need for further training or clarification regarding COMPAS's value. Further, Corrections use of COMPAS for placing inmates into its in-prison rehabilitative programs is limited to its substance abuse program. However, we found that many in this program either lack COMPAS assessments or have a low COMPAS-identified need for substance abuse treatment. Moreover, relatively few inmates with moderate to high substance abuse treatment needs, as determined through the COMPAS core assessment, are assigned to a treatment program. Finally, we found that Corrections lacks accounting records demonstrating how much it cost to fully deploy and implement COMPAS at its reception centers, prisons, and parole offices. The lack of such information prevents Corrections from demonstrating accountability for its spending on COMPAS.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Public Safety.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following veto messages from the Governor were received and ordered printed in the Journal and the bills ordered to the unfinished business file:

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 446

Governor's Office, Sacramento
September 7, 2011

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 446 without my signature.

This measure would authorize the use of restorative justice programs, but the courts already have the authority to create such programs. While the provisions of this bill are well-intended, they create a clear expectation that our courts—already struggling with painful budget cuts—will establish a new program.

Given current budgetary constraints, the decision to adopt this kind of program is better left to the sound discretion of judges.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 1216

Governor's Office, Sacramento
September 7, 2011

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 1216 without my signature.

This bill would give affected tenants and public entities the right to sue owners of assisted housing developments who are ending their participation in a subsidy program.

I strongly support preserving assisted housing units. Unfortunately, the bill fails to specify clearly the remedies available. This could lead to unnecessary litigation and delays.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.

Receipt of Bills

I acknowledge receipt this 7th day of September, 2011 at 1:05 p.m., of the following Assembly Bills without the Governor's signature, together with a statement of his objections thereto, signed by the Governor, delivered to me personally by Jacque Roberts.

AB 446

AB 1216

SUE PARKER

Assistant Chief Clerk of the Assembly

The following message from the Governor was received and ordered printed in the Journal:

Governor's Message—Assembly Bill No. 412

Governor's Office, Sacramento
September 7, 2011

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am letting Assembly Bill 412 become law without my signature.

While this bill would enable increased funding for local emergency medical and trauma care services in Santa Barbara County, I am concerned about the growing use of penalty assessments and placing such a burden on a small group of people.

A person who commits an offense with a $100 fine can end up paying more than $500. A $1,000 offense often becomes a $3,700 liability. Increasing penalty assessments may have unintended consequences, such as forcing people of modest means to choose jail time over paying sums they can't afford.

Obviously, these penalty assessments are for good purposes: emergency medical services, the DNA data bank, court security, courthouse construction, traumatic brain injury, pediatric trauma centers, the fish and game preservation fund, and the automated fingerprint identification fund.

Costs of such projects, however, should not be borne by a narrow class of citizens. Those who break the law should be fairly punished for their transgressions, but not be subjected to ever-increasing costs that are more properly the responsibility of the public at large. Sooner or later, we must find better ways to pay for the public goods we truly need.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
