Heavenly Father, We thank You for this day. We come before You with gratitude for the privilege to serve the people of California. We are grateful for the hearts of those called to serve and for their dedication to the betterment of our state.

Lord, we ask that You bless every member of this body, both old and new, with wisdom to discern, courage to act with integrity, and strength to persevere in the face of challenges.

Guide our decisions and guard our hearts and minds, keep us focused on the well-being of those we represent. Grant strength to our leadership as they guide us toward success, and may we all remain joyful and steadfast in our shared purpose.

We lift the families and friends who support us, both near and far. Thank You for their unwavering encouragement, patience, and love as they walk alongside us on this journey. Bless them with peace, strength, and the assurance that we see and appreciate their sacrifices and care.

We give thanks for the mentors, staff, and colleagues who equip us to lead with impact and effectiveness. May we never take their efforts for granted, and may their contributions be a testament to the power of unity and shared purpose.

Lord, as we take on the challenges facing our state, instill in us a spirit of collaboration and a resolve to find meaningful solutions, setting aside divisions and labels. Remind us that no task is too great when we look to You. Give us humility to listen, empathy to understand, and perseverance to make a difference in the lives of those we are called to serve. Let us not grow weary in our work. Give us daily strength and passion to meet the needs of our communities.

And finally, may the work we do and all that we accomplish be acceptable in Your sight.—AMEN.

PROCLAMATIONS OF THE GOVERNOR

Without objection, the following Proclamation of the Governor convening the Legislature in Extraordinary Session was deemed read:

A PROCLAMATIONBY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

WHEREAS on November 6, 2024, it became clear that Donald J. Trump has won election as President of the United States, setting the stage for President-Elect Trump to assume office for a second term on January 20, 2025; and

WHEREAS the track record of the first Trump Administration, combined with the statements made by President-Elect Trump on the campaign trail, as well as statements and policy papers issued by individuals close to his campaign and by Republican congressional leadership, indicate the consequences of his presidency for California may be significant and immediate, including:

- Continuing the assault on reproductive freedom by limiting access to medication abortion, expanding conscience objections for employers and providers, and pursuing a national abortion ban;
- Undoing clean vehicle policies that are critical to combating climate change and dismantling other long-standing environmental protections for clean air and clean water;
- Repealing Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) and reinstituting immigration policies that lead to family separations;
- Withholding disaster response funding and individual assistance for victims of disasters as political retribution; and
- Politicizing grant programs to commandeer state and local governmental resources for federal purposes; and

WHEREAS during President-Elect Trump's first term, California developed a successful roadmap for fighting back and standing up for our State's values and our people's constitutional rights, including filing more than 120 lawsuits challenging actions taken by the Trump Administration; and

WHEREAS lawyers from the Attorney General's Office and my office have been preparing for a potential second Trump term for more than a year, and we are marshaling the arguments and evidence needed to be ready to challenge in court unconstitutional and unlawful federal policies, and to mount robust and vigorous defenses of California's laws, policies and programs, on issues critical to Californians; and

WHEREAS preparing to litigate regressive potential actions on these major policy issues with the urgency and comprehensiveness called for in this moment necessitates ensuring the state's legal apparatus is sufficiently resourced; and

WHEREAS these extraordinary circumstances require the Legislature of the State of California to be convened in a special session.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GAVIN NEWSOM, Governor of the State of California, in accordance with Section 3(b) of Article IV of the California Constitution, hereby convene the Legislature of the State of California to assemble in extraordinary session in Sacramento, California, on the 2nd day of December 2024, at a time to be determined, for the following purposes:

To consider and act upon legislation necessary to:

- a. Provide additional funding to the California Department of Justice and other agencies, departments, boards, and offices within the Executive Branch to support the ability to immediately file affirmative litigation challenging actions taken by the incoming Trump Administration, defend against litigation or enforcement actions brought by the incoming Trump Administration, and take administrative action authorized under state law to mitigate the impacts of actions by the incoming Trump Administration.
- b. Make conforming changes to existing law consistent with the preceding paragraph.

I FURTHER DIRECT that as soon as hereafter possible, this Proclamation be filed in the Office of the Secretary of State and that widespread publicity and notice be given of this Proclamation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 7th day of November, 2024.

GAVIN NEWSOM
Governor of California

ATTEST:

SHIRLEY N. WEBER, PH.D.
Secretary of State
