(Adopted by the Committee on Joint Rules on March 20, 1997)

The first and second floors of the West Wing of the California State Capitol will be restricted to use by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, President pro Tempore of the Senate, Speaker of the Assembly and scheduled through the Joint Committee on Rules.

The West Wing of the Capitol basement may be used for functions and will require a letter of request from a sponsoring member of the Legislature or the executive branch and approval from the Joint Rules Committee.

If food or drinks are being served in the basement, the event will be restricted to the dining area. As a general rule, no food or drinks will be allowed in the basement Rotunda areas. (Attachment 1—Rules and Regulations)

For every approved event in the Capitol basement, there will be a use fee of $750 dollars, a $500 refundable cleaning/damage deposit, and a charge for an event monitor to enforce the rules adopted for use of the Capitol. The presence and associated fee for the California Highway Patrol should be limited to specific requests by the sponsor and the users. (Attachment 2—Schedule of Charges)

Catering guidelines should be adopted and monitored to ensure compliance. (Attachment 3—Catering Guidelines)

Sponsorship responsibility should be clearly delineated so that the function will have a single point of contact and that the sponsor will be aware of all issues surrounding the event. (Attachment 4—Sponsorship Responsibility)
