SAN FRANCISCO BAY AREA RAPID TRANSIT COMMISSION
1182 MARKET STREET, SAN FRANCISCO 2, January 5, 1956

To: The Honorable Members of the Legislature of the State of California

Under the provisions of Chapter 1760 of the Statutes of 1951, this commission was assigned the responsibility of bringing about the development of a master coordinated rapid transit plan, adequate to meet the requirements of the San Francisco Bay Area for the foreseeable future. In the view of the commission, such a plan must embody the following essential elements:

(a) A clear determination of the facilities required together with estimates of the costs that will be involved in providing these facilities;
(b) A practical plan of financing the costs of providing the facilities required; and
(c) A determination of the legislation required to make possible the establishment of a workable organization empowered to bring into being the facilities required and to administer their operation

Appreciating the vast amount of public interest inherent in the exploration of a problem of this magnitude, it is the view of the commission that, to the fullest extent practicable, the public should be kept informed of the progress being made in carrying out these investigations

Transmitted herewith is the report of the engineering consultants engaged by the commission to determine the facilities required to meet the rapid transit needs of the San Francisco Bay Area.

Studies to arrive at a practical method of financing the costs of the facilities required are now in progress

Studies relating to the legislation required will be undertaken.

It is the intent of the commission to hold hearings on the proposals brought forth by the studies mentioned and, thus, to obtain an indication of the desires of the public with respect to the proposals.

On the basis of its review of the studies, its evaluation of the proposals, and its consideration of the views expressed at the hearings, the commission will submit to the Legislature a complete report covering its investigations

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. William C. Pearson:

Almighty God, Who hast called us as a people to a large place of trust and responsibility throughout the world, lead us so to resolve our problems at home that we may prove ourselves worthy of Thy favor and regardful of Thy greater ends. Create a clean heart within us, and let the silent ministry of Thy spirit be effectual in our thoughts. Especially help and undergird those who serve in the Legislature of our State that we may be governed in all things righteously and in Thy fear. This we ask in dependence upon Thee—AMEN.

2. The committee shall consist of the members of the Rules Committee. The Chairman of the Rules Committee shall be Chairman of the Legislative Process Committee.

3. The committee is authorized to act during this session of the Legislature, including any recess, but not after final adjournment, with authority to file a final report not later than the last legislative day of said session.

Motion carried.

PRO BONO PUBLICO

(For the Public Good)

To the Honorable Members of the California Legislature, in Gratitude and Appreciation.

Honored and legislative sirs,
Given the trust of high degree,
Who labor with absconding time
In right and legal dignity,
So little do these poor words tell
Your vested, sacrificial years;
But where the spirit moves, the heart
Will heed, and flesh obey its peers.
So little do the people know
Your will of service, all you give
Of substant life in chattel for
The right to let blind justice live.
But you have turned the long day back
In darkness laden without sleep—
Yet paused to give quick legal mind
Literate value. So I keep Humble remembrance of your purpose,
Lavished on the whims of fate,
Eloquent selflessness of duty,
To the people and the State.
These poor laudatory lines
Can never speak your pure intent,
Can only hint your wage of time,
Your deeds, your moral testament.

GORDON W. NORRIS

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Collier arose to a question of personal privilege.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO PRINT STATEMENT IN JOURNAL

Mr. Levering asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent that the following remarks by Mr. McGee relative to the introduction of a constitutional amendment be ordered printed in the Journal in 10-point type:

STATEMENT BY MR. PATRICK D. McGEE

I have a constitutional amendment to offer in reference to water matters. Specifically, it deals with the much discussed problem of areas of origin and areas of need.

I have done considerable thinking and work on this problem, as I am sure many other members, including the co-authors here, have done since a similar amendment was introduced by myself and others at the last session.

There has been considerable confusion in some quarters relative to the position of Southern California, its Legislators and water officials on various aspects of the water problem. I believe it is time that we should set the record straight.

Our friends throughout the State should understand that we in Southern California are heartily in favor of the Feather River Project as an important element in the development of a State-wide Water Plan

We are also in favor of provisions in the Governor's Budget at this session to purchase the Oroville and San Luis Dam and Reservoir sites. But we from Southern California must also insist that both sites be purchased at the same time and we vigorously oppose the suggestion that the actual purchase of the San Luis site be postponed for any reason.

In support of my statement that we are heartily in favor of the FRP, I would point out that this constitutional amendment not only sets up the machinery for the determination of water rights but also would authorize the Legislature to issue up to $1,500,000,000 of general obligation bonds of the State to finance construction of the entire FRP.

I would further point out that this proposed constitutional amendment comes mainly from Southern California Legislators, and it is the first concrete proposal to finance this project.

Before we can ask the people to approve a bond issue of such magnitude, financing this or any other water project, we must, in all honesty, see to it that the water rights of both the areas of need and the areas of surplus are firmly established. They will be under the proceedings authorized by this constitutional amendment. Certainly the people in the areas of need, who will be called upon to pay the greater portion of the cost of the project, will insist upon this reasonable protection before they will approve either bonds or General Fund expenditures of any substantial sums for the construction of this project.

Let me say, in conclusion, that we in Southern California are very sympathetic to the need for flood control work upon such streams as the Feather River. We wish to cooperate in bringing about such flood protection. Our approval of the items for the FRP in the Governor's Budget is a definite manifestation of our interest and sympathy and our desire to cooperate.

We feel that if we all work together in a spirit of cooperation, we will accomplish something for the welfare of the entire State.

We are offering this constitutional amendment as a means of solving some of the pressing water problems of the State. We do not ask that it be adopted at this session. We do ask that it be referred to an appropriate interim committee for serious study and recommendation to the next session of the Legislature. We urge that all interested Legislators and other interested citizens make their views known to the interim committee.

PAT McGEE

CONSIDERATION OF DAILY FILE

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

CONSIDERATION OF MOTION TO ADOPT TEMPORARY RULES AS PERMANENT RULES

Pursuant to his notice of motion to adopt the Temporary Rules as the Permanent Standing Rules, Mr. McCollister offered the following resolution:

RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was offered:

By Mr. McCollister:

House Resolution No. 13

Relative to the adoption of Permanent Standing Rules of the Assembly

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Temporary Rules of the Assembly for the 1956 First Extraordinary Session be and the same are hereby adopted as the Permanent Standing Rules of the Assembly for this session.

Resolution read.

AYES—Allen, Beaver, Bee, Belotti, Bonelli, Bradley, Brady, Brown, Burke, Caldecott, Chapel, Clarke, Collier, Conrad, Coolidge, Cunningham, Dahl, Davis, Dickey, Dills, Dolwig, Donahoe, Donald D. Doyle, Thomas J. Doyle, Elliott, Erwin, Gaffney, Ernest R. Geddes, Samuel R. Geddes, Grant, Hansen, Hawkins, Hegland, Henderson, Holmes, Johnson, Kelly, Kilpatrick, Klocksiem, Levering, Lindsay, Lowrey, Luckel, MacBride, Maloney, Marsh, Masterson, McCollister, McFall, McGee, McMillan, Meyers, Miller, Nielsen, Nisbet, Pattee, Porter, Rees, Rumford, Schrade, Sedgwick, Smith, Stanley, Stewart, Thomas, Weinberger, and Wilson—67.

NOES—O'Connell, Sankary, and Unruh—3.

Explanation of Vote on Adoption of Rules

I voted against accepting the Temporary Rules as Permanent Rules because I felt that the rule of sending all bills with implied appropriations to the Ways and Means Committee is unnecessary and unfair. This has been used in the past to bottle up bills which should never have gone to the Ways and Means Committee.

If any bill is introduced which does not contain the signature of such author or co-author, the same, on motion of the member whose name appears thereon without such signature, shall be stricken from the file by a recorded vote of a majority of the elected membership. In each legislative session, on the first day when bills are introduced under "Introduction and Reference of Bills," the roll shall be called from A to Z and then back from Z to A, and as each member's name is called, he may introduce one bill, constitutional amendment, concurrent or joint resolution.

After these two roll calls, any member desiring to introduce bills, constitutional amendments, concurrent and joint resolutions may at any time during a session send the same to the Clerk's desk.

When received at the Clerk's desk it shall, under the proper order of business, be numbered, read the first time, referred to a standing committee, be printed, and a copy placed upon the desk of each member before final passage.

All bills, constitutional amendments, concurrent and joint resolutions introduced before the standing committees of the Assembly are appointed, shall be referred to committees, references to take effect when the committees shall be appointed.

b. Whenever a rule of the Board of Control requires approval of the Director of Finance or of the Governor with respect to any claim for expenses, such rule shall be applicable to committee employees but shall be deemed to require the approval of the Assembly Rules Committee rather than the approval of the Governor or Director of Finance.

In all other respects Board of Control rules shall govern as to the time, place and amount of expense allowable, and travel expense claims shall be submitted in form and supported by data and vouchers as required by Board of Control rules.

Mileage is an allowance in lieu of actual expenses of travel by private conveyance, and shall be allowed only to the operator of, and not to passengers in, a private vehicle. Mileage shall not be allowed in lieu of actual fare when travel is by train or other common carrier. Claims for mileage must be accompanied by the license number of the vehicle and the names of state officers and employees riding as passengers.

69. All bills shall be read the second time in the order of their appearance upon the second reading file Upon second reading, Assembly bills reported without amendments shall be ordered engrossed, and Senate bills reported without amendments shall be ordered to third reading.

Committee Amendments

70 Committee amendments reported with bills shall be considered upon their second reading and such amendments may be adopted by a majority vote of the members present. Assembly and Senate bills amended on second reading, whether by committee amendment or amendment from the floor, shall be ordered reprinted ~~and engrossed~~ and returned to the second reading file. Assembly bills so amended shall be engrossed after printing.

71. Any member may move to amend a bill during its second or third reading and such motion to amend may be adopted by a majority vote of the members present.

Before debate four copies of the proposed amendment must be delivered to the Clerk's desk and one copy made available to the author of the bill. Bills so amended on second reading shall be treated the same as committee amendments. Any bill so amended upon second or third reading shall be reprinted and re-engrossed. The Chief Clerk shall order printed as many copies of all amended bills as he may determine to be necessary.

73. Constitutional amendments, concurrent and joint resolutions may be amended by a majority of the members present and shall be treated the same as bills, except that they shall be read but once. The ayes and noes shall not be called upon the adoption of concurrent resolutions, except those presenting charter amendments or authorizing expenditures of money, unless regularly demanded or required by statute or by the Constitution

Bills Transmitted to the Senate

74. Upon the final passage of any bill if no notice of motion to reconsider such bill be given, the Speaker shall order the bill transmitted to the Senate under signature of the Chief Clerk. Senate bills refused passage shall forthwith be returned to the Senate under similar signature.

Bills Considered During Period Prior to Final Adjournment

75. See Joint Rule 23 for provisions governing bills considered during this period.

Concurrence in Senate Amendments

76. It shall require the same affirmative recorded vote to concur in any Senate amendment to an Assembly bill as the vote required by the Constitution for the passage of such bill. It shall require an affirmative recorded vote of two-thirds of the entire elected membership of the Assembly to concur in any Senate amendment to an Assembly bill which contains an item or items of appropriation subject to reduction or elimination under the provisions of Section 34a of Article IV of the Constitution. The vote on concurrence shall be deemed the vote upon final passage of such bill. When Senate amendments to an Assembly bill are concurred in, the bill shall be forthwith ordered enrolled, and the Chief Clerk shall notify the Senate of such concurrence.

Nonconcurrence in Senate Amendments

77. If the Assembly refuse to concur in Senate amendments to an Assembly bill, and when notified that the Senate has refused to concur in Assembly amendments to a Senate bill, the Speaker shall appoint a committee of three (3) on conference, and the Chief Clerk shall immediately notify the Senate of the action taken by the Assembly and request the appointment of a like committee.

Committee on Conference

78. The Speaker, in appointing a committee on conference, shall select two members from those voting with the majority on the point about which the difference has arisen, and the other member from the minority, in the event there is a minority vote.

Whether a member has voted with the majority or minority on the point about which the difference has arisen is determined by his vote on the appropriate roll call, as follows:

(a) The roll call on the question of final passage of a Senate bill amended in the Assembly when the Senate has refused to concur with the Assembly amendments;

(b) The roll call on the question of concurrence with Senate amendments to an Assembly bill.

Meetings and Reports of Committees on Conference

79. The chairman of the Senate committee on conference for the same bill shall arrange the time and place of meeting of such committee. It shall require an affirmative vote of not less than two of the Assembly members and two of the Senate members constituting the committee on conference to agree upon a report, and the report shall be submitted to both the Senate and the Assembly. Such report is not subject to amendment, and if either house refuses to adopt such report, the conferees shall be discharged and other conferees appointed. No member who has served on a committee on conference shall be appointed a member of another committee on conference on the same bill. The presentation and consideration of any report of a committee on conference shall always be in order, except during a roll call or when a member has the floor. It shall require the same affirmative recorded vote to adopt any conference report as required by the Constitution upon the final passage of the bill affected by such report. It shall require an affirmative recorded vote of two-thirds of the entire elected membership of the Assembly to adopt any conference report affecting any Assembly bill which contains an item or items of appropriation which are subject to reduction or elimination under the provisions of Section 34a of Article IV of the Constitution.

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE
Motions and Questions

Precedence of Motions During Debate

82. When a question is under debate or before the Assembly, no motions shall be received but the following, which shall take precedence in the order named:

First—To adjourn;
Second—To recess to a time certain;
Third—To lay on the table;
Fourth—For the previous question;
Fifth—To set as a special order;
Sixth—To postpone indefinitely;
Seventh—To refer to or re-refer;
Eighth—To amend.

Questions of Order Decided Without Debate

83. All incidental questions of order, arising after a motion is made for any of the questions named in Rule 82 and pending such motion, shall be decided by the Speaker without debate, whether on appeal or otherwise.

Appeal From Decision of the Speaker

84. Any member may appeal from a decision of the Speaker without waiting for recognition by the Speaker, even though another member has the floor. No appeal is in order when another is pending, or when other business has been transacted by the Assembly prior to the appeal being taken.

Upon the appeal being seconded, the Speaker may give his reasons for the decision, and the member taking the appeal may give his reasons for making his appeal, and the Speaker shall forthwith put this question to the Assembly: "Shall the decision of the Speaker be sustained?"

An appeal cannot be amended and yields only to a motion to recess or adjourn, to lay on the table, or a question of personal privilege. If an appeal be laid on the table, such action shall have no effect on the pending question.

An appeal cannot be debated when relating to indecorum, transgression of Rules, or priority of business. A majority vote of the members present shall decide any appeal.

Speaker Explains Order of Business

85. The Speaker may, on his own motion or upon the motion of any Member of the Assembly, explain the order of business when the motión pending before the Assembly is not debatable. Such explanation is not to consume more than two minutes.

To Adjourn

86. A motion to adjourn is not debatable and cannot be amended, and is always in order, except (a) when another member has the floor; (b) when the Assembly is voting; (c) during a call of the Assembly. The name of any member moving an adjournment and also the hour at which the motion was made and adjournment taken shall be entered in the Journal. A motion to adjourn must be adopted by a majority vote of the members present.

When a motion to adjourn is made and seconded, it shall be in order for the Speaker, before putting the question, to permit any member to state to the Assembly any fact relating to the condition of the business of the Assembly which would seem to render it improper or inadvisable to adjourn. A statement shall not occupy more than two minutes and shall not be debatable.

To Recess to a Time Certain

87. A motion to recess to a time certain shall be treated the same as a motion to adjourn, except that such motion is debatable when no business is before the Assembly, and can be amended as to the time and duration of the recess. It yields only to a motion to adjourn.

To Lay on the Table

88. A motion to lay on the table is not debatable and cannot be amended.

A motion to table a bill, constitutional amendment, concurrent or joint resolution requires a majority vote of the entire elected membership.

Any motion to lay on the table, if carried by a majority vote of the entire elected membership, carries with it the main question and everything that adheres to it; provided, however, that a motion to lay an amendment on the table, if adopted, does not carry with it a bill, constitutional amendment, concurrent, joint, or House resolution.

A motion to lay an amendment on the table may be adopted by a majority vote of the members present.

The Previous Question

89. The previous question shall be put only when demanded by five members, and in this form: "Shall the question be now put?" And its effect, when sustained by a majority of the members present, shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the House to a vote only on the question then pending; except that the proponent of the matter pending shall be allowed not to exceed five minutes to close the debate.

Motion to Set Special Order

90. A motion to set any matter before the Assembly as a special order of business must be adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members elected. It is debatable only as to the propriety of setting the main question as a special order of business, and may be amended only as to the time.

Motion to Postpone to a Time Certain

91. A motion to postpone to a time certain shall be deemed and treated as a motion to set as a special order.

Motion to Postpone Indefinitely

92. When a motion is made to postpone indefinitely any bill, motion, or amendment, it opens the main question to debate. Should the motion to postpone indefinitely prevail by a majority vote of the entire elected membership, the main question shall not be acted upon again during the session.

Motion to Amend

93. A motion to amend may itself be amended, but no "amendment to an amendment" can be amended. A motion to amend is debatable, except where the main question to be amended is not debatable. Any motion to amend may be adopted by a majority vote of the members present.

A motion to amend having been decided in the negative, shall not again be in order on the same day, or at the same stage of proceeding. A motion to amend by striking out certain words having been decided in the negative, shall not preclude a motion to amend by adding words, or a motion to amend by striking out and inserting words; but in no case shall a further amendment be substantially the same as the one rejected.

Subject to the above provisions of this rule, a motion to amend is in order during the second or third reading of any bill.

A motion to lay an amendment on the table may be adopted by a majority vote of the members present, as provided in Rule 88.

Amendment to Be Germane

94. No amendment to any bill, whether reported by a committee or offered by a member, shall be in order when such amendment relates to a different subject, or is intended to accomplish a different purpose, or requires a title essentially different from the original title of any bill.

No amendment shall be in order which adds or deletes the name of a member as an author or co-author, or which changes the original number of any bill.

Substitute Motion

95. A motion to substitute shall be deemed and treated as a motion to amend.

Motions in Writing

96. Upon request of the Speaker all motions shall be reduced to writing and shall be read to the Assembly by the Speaker before the same are acted upon.

Constitution of Motions

97. No motion, whether oral or written, shall be adopted until the same shall be seconded and distinctly stated to the Assembly by the Speaker.

Division of Questions

98. Any member may call for a division of the question, and the Speaker shall order the question divided if it comprehend propositions in substance so distinct that, one being taken away, a substantive proposition shall remain for the decision of the Assembly.

Withdrawal of Motions

99. After a motion is stated by the Speaker, or a bill, resolution, or petition read by the Clerk, it shall be deemed to be in the possession of the Assembly.

Motion to Be Germane

100. No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted as an amendment.

Motion to Withdraw and Recall Bills

101. A motion to withdraw a bill or resolution from committee, or to re-refer a bill or resolution from one committee to another committee may be made during the regular order of business. A motion to re-refer shall only be debatable as to the propriety of such reference, and shall require a recorded vote of a majority of the elected members.

No bill or resolution shall be withdrawn from committee and placed upon the file except upon two days' notice thereof and except by a recorded vote of a majority of the elected members.

Bills Stricken From File

102. A motion to strike from the file any bill or House resolution requires a majority vote of the entire elected membership. Such bill shall not be acted upon again during the session.

Motion to Rescind Action and Expunge Record

103. Previous to the approval of the Journal by the Assembly, any action may be rescinded and its record ordered expunged by an affirmative recorded vote sufficient to take such action originally; except that no action shall be rescinded and the record expunged by a vote less than a majority of the entire elected membership. No motion to rescind the action and expunge the record shall be made twice on the same proposition.

Whenever any action of the Assembly is rescinded and its record ordered expunged, the record of the action expunged shall not appear in any form whatsoever, but the record of the proceedings on the motion to rescind and expunge shall appear in the Assembly Journal as and when printed.

Reconsideration of Vote

104. Notice of a motion to reconsider on the next legislative day, the vote whereby any bill, constitutional amendment, concurrent or joint resolution was passed or refused passage, must be given on the same day such vote to be so reconsidered was taken.

A notice of motion to reconsider a vote must be given by a member voting on the bill, constitutional amendment, concurrent or joint resolution, and shall take precedence over all motions, except a motion to adjourn. Upon such notice of motion being given, the bill, constitutional amendment, concurrent or joint resolution shall forthwith be placed upon the unfinished business file, and no further action shall be taken prior to the next legislative day. When a notice of a motion to reconsider has once been made, the same shall be considered to be the property of the Assembly.

Any member voting on any motion, amendment, concurrence, Assembly resolution or proposition other than a bill, constitutional amendment, concurrent or joint resolution, may give notice of reconsideration of the vote whereby the same was passed or refused passage on the same day such vote to be reconsidered was taken, which notice shall suspend all further consideration until the next legislative day; provided, however, that a motion to reconsider on the same day the notice was given shall take precedence over and above such notice and upon demand of any member must be put to an immediate vote. A motion to reconsider any proposition other than a bill, constitutional amendment, concurrent or joint resolution shall require an affirmative recorded vote of a majority of the entire elected membership.

No notice of motion for reconsideration shall be in order on the day preceding the last day for consideration of Assembly or Senate bills in the Assembly. No motion to reconsider shall be adopted except upon an affirmative recorded vote of a majority of the entire elected membership, except that it shall require a two-thirds vote of the entire elected membership to reconsider the vote on any matter originally requiring a two-thirds vote for its passage or adoption.

When reconsideration is granted, the bill shall resume its exact position before the Assembly previous to its being voted upon.

Call of Assembly

105. After the roll has been called, and prior to the announcement of the vote, any member may move a call of the Assembly. A majority of the members present may order a call of the Assembly, and the Speaker shall immediately order the Sergeant-at-Arms to lock all doors and shall direct the Clerk to prepare a list of absentees as disclosed by the last roll call, which list of absentees shall be furnished to the Sergeant-at-Arms. Thereupon no members shall be permitted to leave the Assembly Chamber except by written permission of the Speaker, and no person shall be permitted to enter except such member as is taken into custody as herein provided, or Senators, officers, attaches, or employees of the Legislature in the official performance of their duties.

Those members who are found to be absent, and for whom no leaves of absence have been granted, shall be forthwith taken into custody wherever found by the Sergeant-at-Arms or his assistants or any person designated by the Sergeant-at-Arms, including members of the California Highway Patrol, the State Police, and sheriffs or their deputies, and brought to the Assembly Chamber. No recess or adjournment shall be taken during a call of the Assembly. During such call, the Assembly may consider and transact any matter of business by unanimous consent. No call of the Assembly shall be ordered on any matter while the Assembly is already under call A call of the Assembly may be dispensed with at any time upon a majority vote of the members present, such action to become effective upon the completion of the roll call and the announcement of the vote upon the matter for which the call was ordered.

THIRD READING OF ASSEMBLY BILLS
CONSIDERATION OF HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 9

By Mr. Lowrey:

House Resolution No. 9

Relating to notice to interested legislators of public hearings

WHEREAS, The people and the courts of the State of California have recognized that it is necessary for the Legislature and the members thereof to be fully informed on many subjects in order that effective legislation may be enacted; and

WHEREAS, To carry out this obligation to the people and to their individual constituents it is necessary for individual Legislators, from time to time, to attend the meetings of various public agencies to observe how particular matters, issues or cases are handled and disposed of by such agencies; and

WHEREAS, While many state officers and agencies cooperate fully with Members of the Legislature in this respect by responding to the Legislators' requests for information concerning the time and place at which particular matters will be heard or considered, other state officers and agencies have either ignored such requests or have furnished the desired information at so late a date as to render it virtually impossible for the Legislator to attend; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Assembly hereby requests every state office and agency (whether created by statute or Constitution) to forward, upon a Legislator's request, written notice of the time, date and location of every public hearing within a reasonable time prior to the date set for such hearing; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is hereby directed to transmit suitably prepared copies of this resolution to the Honorable Goodwin J. Knight, Governor of California.

(e) To make available to any Assembly or joint committee or any Member of the Assembly such assistance in connection with the duties of the committee or other legislative matters as the personnel under direction of the committee or its other facilities permit.

(f) To make available to and furnish to Assembly investigating committees created at this session and to each of the members thereof such secretarial and stenographic help as may be reasonably necessary for such committees and each of the members thereof to make and carry on the studies and investigations required by or of them by the resolutions creating such committees, and for such purposes the Legislative Process Committee may employ such additional stenographic and secretarial assistants as may be necessary, assign, re-assign and discharge such assistants and prescribe amounts, times and methods of payment of their compensation.

(g) To incur and pay such expenses of the Assembly not otherwise provided for as the committee determines are reasonably necessary, during sessions, including any recess, including the repair, alteration, improvement, and equipping of the Assembly Chamber and the offices provided for the Assembly in the State Capitol and the Capitol Annex.

March 15, 1956

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
State Capitol, Sacramento, California

SIRS: There is transmitted herewith a report of the Special Committee Assembled to Coordinate Flood Legislation

This report contains summaries of statements made by various individuals and agencies describing the extent of the recent floods, the extent to which assistance is being granted or repairs undertaken at the present time, and proposed legislation.

This report of the special committee is intended to provide factual and descriptive information for the use of the Legislature in considering flood bills at the Special Session of 1956. Your committee has undertaken to identify flood problems and to draft and to consolidate various proposals for dealing with flood matters at the current session. No recommendations with respect to individual bills, however, are contained in this report, since these will be heard by and reported by the Committee on Conservation, Planning, and Public Works.

Respectfully submitted.

INTRODUCTION

Shortly after the severe floods of December, 1955, and early January, 1956, request was made by Speaker Luther H. Lincoln to the Chairman of the Assembly Interim Committee on Revenue and Taxation to call together this committee to consider proposed legislation dealing with relief for the disaster areas which, at that time, had been indicated by the Governor would be placed on the call for an extraordinary session to meet concurrently with the budget session in March, 1956

It was recognized that not all of the matters of proposed flood relief legislation would be tax matters. However, since a considerable part of the problem of California counties centered around the destruction of assessed valuations, a prospective reduction in tax revenues and the necessity for funds for local governmental operations, it was felt that this committee should undertake to hear evidence as to the amount of flood damages, proposals for legislation at the 1956 Session, and serve to see that these bills were coordinated and properly placed before the Legislature for its consideration.

The first meeting of this committee on the subject of flood legislation was held in Sacramento on February 27 At this time not only members of the committee were invited to attendance but also other legislators who represented counties which had suffered flood damage At this initial meeting the committee considered background information as to the extent of flood damages and the type of legislation which had been enacted in the past and which might appropriately be proposed at the coming session

A representative of the Office of the Legislative Auditor discussed for the committee a history of legislative policy within recent years in dealing with natural disasters, such as earthquake and flood, and gave a summary of the status of existing legislation and funds available for relief in flood damaged counties

At the same meeting a representative of the Governor's Office indicated that although the call had not been issued for the special session, that it would be issued and that it would be broad enough to consider all aspects of relief from flood damage, including assistance to the counties through loans or grants, and other possible proposals for tax relief.

Representatives from the Division of Highways gave to the committee the results of a recent survey prepared by that department of damage to state highways and to roads and bridges

In addition, the Director of the Office of Civil Defense outlined for the committee the steps which had been taken by the California Office of Civil Defense and particularly its activities in administering federal funds made available to local governments under Public Law 875

The committee further discussed aspects of the problem of devising legislation which would provide relief for the local governments and at the same time be consistent with traditional state policy and constitutional requirements as to the expenditure of public funds

Prior to the adjournment of the meeting, the Chairman appointed a subcommittee, with Assemblyman McCollister as chairman, to contact other members of the Legislature, particularly those from flood damaged counties, and determine through this process the type of bills which would be presented to the Legislature in extraordinary session

Meeting, March 2, 1956

The second meeting of the committee was held in Sacramento on March 2, 1956. At this meeting the subcommittee, chairmanned by Assemblyman McCollister, reported that it had held several meetings and had received the suggestions of other legislators for types of bills which would be proposed at the coming session The Chairman of the subcommittee explained that his subcommittee had made an effort to avoid duplications by placing in one category or another all subjects dealing with flood relief which had been requested by various members

The subcommittee also had met with representatives of the administration to receive an indication of the types of bills that would be proposed by the Governor and by the departments.

This process resulted in ten subjects (covered by Assembly Bills 17 through 26) which were explained to the committee and which were as follows·

1 Financial assistance to local government agencies for repair and restoration of flood damaged public property;

2. Financial assistance to school districts for repair, replacement or reconstruction of flood damaged school buildings;

3. Financial assistance to public districts for replacement, repair or reconstruction of flood damaged utilities;

4 Creation of a Water Facilities Fund to provide loans to local agencies for water projects in the public interest;

5. County tax relief to property owners of flood damaged property;

6. City tax relief to property owners of flood damaged property;

7. State grants to counties to reimburse them for tax losses resulting from decreased valuations of flood damaged property;

8. Creation of a Local Disaster Fund to provide assistance to local areas in the event of disasters not of such magnitude as to require a proclamation of extreme emergency;

9. State allocations to local government agencies for repair and replacement of flood damaged public facilities;

10. Approval of the federal project for flood protection on the San Lorenzo River in Santa Cruz County

Prior to the adjournment of this meeting, it was decided that bills would be drafted on each of these subjects if they had not already been prepared and that these bills would be the subject matter of hearings by the committee at its next meeting.

PART II

SURVEY OF EVENTS AND AREAS OF MAJOR DAMAGE

The so-called Christmas Floods of 1955, among the worst in California's history, were the result of a well-developed storm system of relatively long duration and high precipitation intensity affecting much of the Pacific Coast. The storm was accompanied by relatively warm weather, with precipitation occurring as rainfall at relatively high elevations. Heavy rains started about December 15 and kept up for nearly a week. This, coupled with melting snow in the mountains and precipitation falling on saturated watersheds, swelled streams and rivers to flood levels, and levees sodden and weakened by the continual rainfall threatened to break at several spots on several rivers. On December 22 Governor Knight proclaimed a state of emergency. On December 23 the President declared the flood damaged parts of the State a major disaster area.

The Division of Water Resources in its publication, Floods of December, 1955, presents a comprehensive report of the December storms, precipitation, stream flows, reservoir storage and areas flooded. The following resume draws from this report and the U. S. Weather Bureau's Climatological Data, California for December 1955 (Vol. LIX, No. 12).

North Coast

Northern coastal areas were the first in California to suffer severe floodings Many communities were cut off from all outside contact except by radio as bridges, roads, railroads and communication lines were severely damaged. The first major disaster occurred on December 20 when the Russian River overflowed and flooded the town of Guerneville. Three rivers rose to their highest recorded marks on December 22: the Klamath River near Klamath to 49.7 feet, (6 feet higher than previous maximum); the Eel River at Scotia to 61.9 feet, (7 feet above previous recorded high); the Russian River to 49 7 feet, (3 feet above previous high and 20 feet above the flood stage of 29 feet).

Central Coast

Central coastal communities felt the full brunt of the storm about the same time as the north coast did. Parts of Palo Alto were flooded when San Francisquito Creek rose to 13 6 feet on December 22, 3 feet above the previous high. Pescadero Creek near Pescadero flooded the town on the 22nd, and reached a record high on the 23rd of 21 27 feet, compared to a previous maximum of 15 61 feet. The San Lorenzo River rose to 22.25 at Big Trees on the 23rd, surpassing a previous high of 21 1 feet, and downtown Santa Cruz was flooded with 4 5 feet of water. Other coastal areas were severely threatened, or suffered localized damage, such as highways blocked by slides and occasional homes flooded.

Sacramento Valley

In the Sacramento River basin, inflows into the Sacramento River below Shasta Dam and into the Feather and Yuba Rivers were so great that bypasses were soon filled to capacity. In addition to flooding of the bypasses, major floodings in the Sacramento Valley were at the following three areas: (1) A levee break on December 23 of the Feather River below Nicolaus flooded the town of Nicolaus and Irrigation District 1001. (2) At the confluence of the Bear and Feather Rivers, a large area of lowland was flooded, mostly due to backwater from the Feather River. (3) The worst disaster of the Christmas floods occurred when 3,000 feet of levee gave way along the Feather River below Yuba City on the night of December 24. Before the levee gave way a record high was reached at Marysville 6 feet above the previous high of 76.2 feet.

San Joaquin Valley

Floodings of the San Joaquin River basin were less severe than floodings of the Sacramento River basin. The following were the major flood areas of the lower San Joaquin Valley: (1) the confluence of Cosumnes and Mokelumne Rivers between Franklin and Benson where large agricultural areas and some homes were flooded; (2) the northeastern area of Stockton where flooding was due largely to inadequate drainage capacity of Mormon Slough and the Calaveras Rivers;

(3) lowlands near the mouth of the Stanislaus and Tuolumne Rivers; (4) delata region where exceptionally high tides and gusty winds added to the abnormally high inflow created an extremely dangerous situation for about a week even after major flood levels subsided.

Visalia was flooded December 24 when the Kaweah and St. John Rivers broke their weirs and levee systems. Parts of Visalia were flooded to 4 feet and a lake 10 to 15 miles long was formed east of the city. Other areas, in the San Joaquin Valley that suffered flooding, when rivers and creeks overflowed, were generally agricultural areas.

Southern California

On January 26, Los Angeles experienced flash floods resulting from continued heavy rains, but the floods quickly passed without loss of life or the extensive property damage suffered in the northern part of the State. These floods were not the result of the storm system producing the disastrous Christmas floods of Northern California.

Loss of Life and Damage to Homes and Buildings

The following table summarizes the loss of life and damages in California from the December storm as reported by the Red Cross in a preliminary survey.

PART III

PRIOR STATE LEGISLATION AND APPROPRIATIONS FOR DISASTER RELIEF

In view of the recent flood damage in the north coastal counties and in the Sutter, Yuba and Butte County area, this part of the report is designed to summarize state legislation since 1933 in providing aid to local jurisdictions in the restoration of public facilities damaged by earthquake or flood.

In cases of a natural disaster of this magnitude and kind, chief reliance for aid in both services and financial assistance is upon the Federal Government where various emergency programs are available and have been used in relief from disaster in other sections of the country. This part, however, is confined to a summary of state legislation, since time has not permitted a review of the various federal emergency programs and the policy and circumstances under which they will be used.

EARTHQUAKE LEGISLATION

Long Beach Earthquake (1933)

Following the Long Beach earthquake in 1933, the Legislature enacted Chapter 602, Statutes of 1933 (now Government Code, Sections 54091-54116) which authorized the Governor, on behalf of the State, to accept a loan of not to exceed $15,000,000 from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for the reconstruction of buildings destroyed by earthquake after January, 1933. The Board of Public Reconstruction (now State Allocation Board) was authorized, upon application of a local government, to replace or reconstruct local public buildings destroyed by earthquake and to rent such reconstructed buildings to the local agency upon such terms and conditions as it might determine. Local agencies were similarly authorized to enter into such rental agreements and, upon doing so, were to include in their budgets amounts sufficient to provide for rental payments. Any buildings thus constructed remained the property of the State until reconveyed to the local government.

Under this legislation, approximately $2,480,000 was borrowed from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and was expended for the purpose of the act. This same procedure for assistance to local jurisdictions was used following the Tehachapi earthquake in 1952 as outlined in the next section.

Tehachapi Earthquake (1952)

Following the earthquake in the Bakersfield and the Southern California area in July, 1952, the Legislature enacted Chapter 21 of the Second Extraordinary Session in August of that year. This chapter appropriated $3,000,000 from the General Fund to be administered by the State Allocation Board for the restoration of public facilities damaged by earthquake occurring after July, 1952. This legislation authorized alternative methods of providing financial assistance to local governments, (a) using the procedure in the "Long Beach Act" the State could perform (or contract for) the reconstruction work, in which case it rented the facility and retained title until the amount of the loan was repaid, or (b) the State Allocation Board could make direct loans on terms to be negotiated. Both of these methods were used in the case of the $3,000,000 appropriated in 1952. The applications and arrangements under which these loans were made are described in a report of the Legislative Auditor entitled "Loans to Cities for Restoration of Public Buildings Damaged by Earthquake, Under Ch. 21, Statutes of 1952 (2nd Ex Sess)", printed in the Assembly Journal for March 9, 1954.

Subsequent Legislation

The Act of 1952 contained a termination date of December 31, 1953, for the submission of applications Further legislation was adopted at the 1953 Session of the Legislature which amended this act by Chapter 1777 of 1953 This chapter extended the final date for making applications for loans from December 31, 1953, to December 31, 1954, and added a section authorizing the Board, in making a loan, to waive any of the provisions of the original 1933 Act which "it deemed not applicable to or feasible for use in connection with such loans" Chapter 18, Statutes of 1953, amended the act to authorize the making of the loan by the State and the acceptance of the loan by the local agency notwithstanding any other provision of law prohibiting the creation of an indebtedness on the part of the local agency.

Applications which have been approved under this law are as follows:

1	Alpaugh Irrigation District (Replacement of well and storage tank)	$22,370
2	City of Shafter (Replace earthquake damaged city hall)	57,941.79
3.	City of Bakersfield (City Hall)	800,000
4.	City of Monrovia (City Hall)	190,000
5.	County of Tulare (Courthouse)	750,000
	Total	$1,820,311.79

Other pending applications for the remaining funds under the Earthquake Act are as follows:

1.	Kern County	$1,000,000
2.	Humboldt County	1,750,000
3.	City of Eureka	500,000
4	Eureka High School District	250,000

It should be pointed out that the loans made on the approval applications are being paid back at two percent interest on a twenty-year term, with the exception of the Alpaugh Irrigation District, which is repaying on a term of ten years.

Chapter 1008 of 1955 has now repealed obsolete sections of the Government Code which authorized the Governor to accept, on behalf of the State, a $15,000,000 loan from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and also the provisions for its expenditure, leaving, however, provisions for collection of rentals to repay any outstanding loans. The loan from RFC and the amounts expended from its proceeds for restoration of cities have subsequently been repaid in accordance with their original terms. The Public Building Reconstruction Fund, as a consequence, has been inactive for a number of years and provision was made in Chapter 1008 for the transfer of a small remaining balance in the fund to the General Fund.

FLOOD DAMAGE RELIEF

Legislative History

To provide local governments and districts with the means for repairing damage to public property resulting from floods and storms, the State Legislature has, since the Extraordinary Session of 1938, appropriated approximately $11,000,000 to provide for flood and storm damage repairs. The initial appropriation was in the amount of $5,000,000 in 1938, which differed from subsequent appropriations in that there was no matching required by the local interests benefiting. All of the initial $5,000,000 was expended on projects for which applications had been filed with and approved by the Department of Public Works and the Department of Finance. The counties receiving such aid were required to declare an inability to participate in the cost of the project before the State would commit the full amount of the cost. Pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 11 of the Extraordinary Session of 1938, and Chapters 17 and 655 of the Statutes of 1939, applications in the amount of $14,158,351 were received by the Department of Public Works of which the department approved $4,991,532.99 for expenditure.

All subsequent appropriations that have been made have required the local interests to deposit in the State Treasury an amount equal to or in excess of the amount expected to be expended by the State. Only in a very few cases has the Legislature authorized an allocation from the money so appropriated for defraying the entire cost of the project. Two exceptions were made by Chapter 125, Statutes of 1951, in which allocations, without the matching requirement, were authorized for the restoration of Stockton Creek Dam in Mariposa County and for the construction of a bridge in Mono County in the amounts of $70,000 and $75,500 respectively. This exception was based upon a legislative finding, as expressed in Section 3 of the act, that the two counties "have been determined to be priority cases for aid in repair of flood damage and have been determined to be without the ability to provide such aid by local sources."

Table of Appropriations

The following table shows the appropriations that the State has made for repairs necessitated by flood and storm damages:

Authority	Appropriation	Allocation
Chapter 11, Stats. 1938 (Ex. Sess.)	$5,000,000 *	$5,000,000
Chapter 1, Stats. 1940	500,000	542,000
Chapter 1071, Stats. 1943	500,000	417,725
Chapter 1459, Stats. 1945	500,000	41,500
Chapter 1550, Stats. 1947	458,500 †	15,000
Chapter 609, Stats. 1949	425,806 †	361,600
Chapter 13, Stats. 1951	1,500,000	1,147,550
Chapter 3, Stats. 1952, Item 428	2,000,000	639,050

* Only appropriation not requiring matching by local interests
† Reappropriations of unexpended balances of previous bills

Except in the cases of reappropriations for subsequent flood damage repairs as noted in the above table, generally any excesses of non-allocated appropriations have reverted to the General Fund surplus, and as has been pointed out, the appropriations were based on estimates of cost of specific repair projects. Therefore, of the money appropriated to date, there remains no balance to be expended for any projects not included in the proposed projects used as a basis for the original appropriations.

The general procedure for repair of flood damage, particularly as reflected in Chapter 13, Statutes of 1951, and a subsequent budget item, is described below. This subject is further covered in a report of the Legislative Auditor entitled "State Expenditures for Flood Control and Storm Damage Repair" dated November 19, 1952.

1. The procedure used requires the local interest to make an application pursuant to the provisions of a specific bill.
2. The Division of Water Resources then conducts an inspection to determine the extent of the damage directly attributable to the specific flood or storm
3 The Division prepares an estimate of the cost of repair and a recommendation of allocation to the Director of Public Works.
4. On approval by the directors of Public Works and Finance in that order, the agreement between the requesting local agency and the State is established.
5. The local agency is then required to deposit an amount equal to or in excess of the amount expected to be expended by the State.
6. The Department of Public Works is required by law to make the repairs by contract or it may delegate responsibility to the local agency.
7. The State, with the authorized allocation together with the local agency's matching funds previously deposited in the State Treasury pays for the costs of construction.

Flood Control Program

California has actively participated in flood control projects authorized by various federal legislation Pursuant to the directives of the Water Resources Act of 1945 which established the Water Resources Board to serve as the state agency to carry out the provisions of Public Law 534, the Flood Control Fund was established in 1946.

This fund was to defray the costs of lands, easements and rights of way and the costs of relocation of any utilities appurtenant thereto on any federally authorized projects Of a $700,000,000 federal program, the State has expended approximately $40,000,000 to fulfill its commitments.

The flood control projects are of a preventive nature and there is no statutory state provision authorizing the expenditure of funds earmarked for cooperative flood control projects which would allow such funds to be expended for an emergency. However, the Federal Government, in conjunction with its Flood Control Program, has enacted legislation (Act of June 28, 1938 as amended by Section 216 of the Act of May 17, 1950) which authorizes the Secretary of Agriculture to undertake emergency measures for runoff retardation and soil erosion prevention. This program is also further discussed in the report of the Legislative Auditor of November 19, 1952, cited above.

Emergency Fund

Each annual Budget Bill has contained an item making an appropriation to the so-called Emergency Fund for expenditure within the specified year upon written authorization of the Department of Finance.

The appropriation for 1955-56 is in the amount of $1,000,000 as contained in Item 276 of the Budget Act of 1955.

This fund has traditionally been used to augment departmental appropriations where insufficient appropriations are made, and may be used, to the extent that funds are available, for emergencies not otherwise provided for. There are limitations upon this source, however, for financing any considerable amount of disaster relief. The chief of these limitations are: (a) At this time in the fiscal year the greater part of this fund may already have been expended or committed to departments. For instance, in this fiscal year approximately $300,000 was expended for emergency fire suppression work by the Division of Forestry for the forest fires occurring in the fall of 1955 (b) The funds are authorized for expenditure by the Department of Finance, ordinarily, only if the expenditure is clearly within existing legislative policy.

Civil Defense: State Appropriations

Chapter 43 of the 3rd Extraordinary Session of 1950, appropriated $200,000 to provide certain essential facilities, supplies, materials and equipment for civil defense which were not to be provided by the Federal Government. Subsequently, Item 362 1 of the Budget Act of 1951 appropriated $12,000,000 to be expended in addition to any federal funds that might be allotted to the State Disaster Council for civil defense purposes. This appropriation was broken down in the Budget Act as follows:

A. Construction, improvements, and equipment of communication facilities	$1,000,000
B. Medical and first aid supplies and equipment (provided that $2,000,000 of this amount shall be available only if matched by a like amount from federal grants)	3,167,000
C Instruments and equipment for radiological services, including installation and maintenance	300,000
D. Other civil defense requirements (provided that no expenditure shall be made from this category until federal grants are available for matching and until this item is implemented by a specific enactment of this state describing the basis for matching the federal grant and for allocating this category)	7,533,000
E. Total of schedule	$12,000,000

Item 362.1 of the Budget Act of 1951 also reappropriated the unexpended balance of Chapter 43, Statutes of 1950, 3rd Extraordinary Session, which brought the total amount appropriated for civil defense purposes of $12,200,000. At the present time it is estimated that $5,576,373 of the above amount has been expended through various matching arrangements involving the state, federal and local governments. Chapter 971 of 1952 reverted the remaining $6,623,628.

The $5,576,373 expended for civil defense was provided in the capital outlay section of the Governor's Budget. This was in addition to the annual amounts expended by the Office of Civil Defense for support and was used to provide tangible items of equipment such as fire engines, rescue trucks, radiological and medical supplies that could be used in the event of a disaster.

CIVIL DEFENSE: FEDERAL FUNDS FOR DISASTER

Under Public Law 875 federal funds have been made available to the State of California for allocation for temporary repairs of flood damaged facilities. These funds have been made available by the Federal Civil Defense Administration and, upon designation by the Governor, have been administered through the State Office of Civil Defense.

As of March 6, 1956, 289 applications have been received from 128 local governmental units for amounts totaling $6,447,805.66. Of this amount $3,904,740.94 has been approved by the Federal Civil Defense Administration and $2,543,064.72 is pending.

These applications, by governmental unit, are as follows: On Schedule I

PRIVATE RELIEF: PROPERTY TAXES

As a result of a series of earthquakes in Kern and neighboring counties which occurred during the summer of 1952 shortly before the convening of the Second Extraordinary Session of that year, the Legislature at that session provided by statute for tax relief to owners of property damaged by these earthquakes.

One act (Stats., 2nd Extraordinary Session, 1952, Chapter 11), provided that any owner on the first Monday of March, 1952, of taxable property that was subsequently destroyed or damaged in an amount exceeding $500 as a result of the earthquakes, could apply to the county assessor for a reassessment of the property at its value after the earthquake damage. The property owner before September 1, 1952, could apply to the county assessor for a reassessment, delivering a written statement under oath, accompanied by a certificate of a disinterested person or authority showing the condition and value, if any, of the property immediately after the damage or destruction by the earthquake. The assessor on or before September 15, 1952, was obligated to assess the property according to its condition and value immediately after the damage, or reassess at such a value if it had already been assessed. If reassessed, this information was transmitted to the State Board of Equalization. On proper notice, the local board of equalization had until October 1, 1952, to equalize the assessment or reassessment.

The act further provided that the tax rate on the newly assessed or reassessed property would be the same as the rate on the original assessment roll. If the resulting tax was smaller than the originally computed tax, the taxpayer was liable only for the smaller amount, and the difference was cancelled. If the original tax was paid, the difference was refunded.

A similar act was passed enabling cities in which property had been damaged or destroyed by earthquake prior to August 1, 1952, to provide by ordinance for a similar type of tax relief (Stats., 2nd Extraordinary Session, 1952, Chapter 12).

Assistance to Local Assessors

Following the floods in December and January, request was made by the Board of Equalization for an allocation from the Emergency Fund to hire additional appraisers to give assistance to counties which had suffered severe damage to assessable property. Pursuant to this request an allocation of $100,000 was authorized by the Director of Finance for hiring additional appraisers in the Division of Assessment Standards. At the present time it is reported that 41 appraisers are engaged in this work, 25 of which were provided for by the Emergency Fund allocation.

A summary of this appraisal program reported by the chief of the Division of Assessment Standards, March 12, 1956, is as follows:

"Indicated below are rough estimates of the extent of the flood damage in the counties of Sutter, Del Norte, Humboldt, and Sonoma. No estimate has been obtained from Santa Cruz County because of the extensive nature of the flood damage for substantial distances along certain of the creeks. This made it difficult to estimate and no one was willing to venture a guess.

Estimated Flood Damage in Four Counties

Urban property	Sutter	Del Norte	Humboldt	Sonoma
Residential	7,000	2,600	2,000	5,000

Structures	3,200	--	--	--
Trees and vines—acres	17,400	--	--	--
Pumps	1,350	--	--	--

The deployment of the staff on flood assistance as of today is as follows:

Sutter	24	Santa Cruz	4
Del Norte	5	Sonoma	3
Humboldt	5

The Santa Cruz assistance will be completed next week. The staff have new assignments, one man reporting to Humboldt on Monday the 12th, two reporting to Sonoma on Thursday the 15th, and the fourth reporting to Sonoma on Monday the 19th.

There was very substantial flood damage in Tulare, Lassen, and Siskiyou Counties and the latter two in serious need of assistance. The assessor of Lassen indicates that it will not be practical to start work there until May and there are still heavy snows in Siskiyou.

The programs in the respective counties are being carefully coordinated with the respective assessors offices. The work is being carefully supervised and is being pushed along as rapidly as possible. As more accurate estimates can be made of the flood damage in the respective counties and as weather permits, personnel will be transferred to Siskiyou, Lassen, and Tulare. The workload in Sutter County will require most of the existing staff until the end of the season. Procedures and techniques are being constantly reviewed to assure the maximum progress and efficiency.

REVENUE DEFICIENCY RESERVE (RAINY DAY) FUND

The so-called "Rainy Day Fund" created by Chapter 958, Statutes of 1947, is a reserve fund to which has been appropriated $75,000,000. This fund was created for the purpose of meeting the "needs of the State for revenues for the General Fund, when revenues from taxes, fees and other sources do not equal the estimate for such revenues as set forth in the fiscal year budgets." Under the terms of the act, the Governor, State Controller and Director of Finance, acting jointly, are authorized to transfer from the reserve fund to the General Fund with respect to any fiscal year, "an amount equal to the difference between the actual revenues received for the General Fund and the amount which it was estimated would be received."

No General Fund revenue deficiency of any consequence, resulting from over-estimates of revenue, has occurred since this fund was created and no transfer has as yet been made.

Shortly after the reactivation of the State Disaster Council and the creation of the Office of Civil Defense, an amendment was made to the Budget Bill which authorized a transfer of any amount from the Revenue Deficiency Reserve Fund to the Emergency Fund as contained in the Budget Bill in the event of a state of "extreme emergency" as defined in Sections 1505 and 1505.5 of the Military and Veterans Code. This transfer is upon the direction of the Governor, the State Controller and the Director of Finance and pursuant to the recommendation of the State Disaster Council. The authorization has been extended in each subsequent budget act and is Item 33 of the Budget Act of 1955.

A further contingency under which funds from the Revenue Deficiency Reserve Fund could be transferred to the General Fund was provided, with respect to the 1955-56 Fiscal Year only, by Item 33.1, Budget Act of 1955. This authorizes a transfer to the General Fund of such amounts as are determined by the Governor, Controller and Director of Finance to be necessary or advisable (1) to avoid issuance of registered warrants, (2) to minimize borrowing from other funds, and (3) to maintain the solvency of the General Fund and balance the General Fund budget. This provision was written into the Budget Act at a time when the budget predicted a deficit unless additional taxes were imposed at the 1955 Session. It now appears that no transfer under the authorization contained in Item 33.1 will be necessary nor will be made.

A state of extreme emergency may be proclaimed and terminated by the Governor and is defined in Section 1505 of the Military and Veterans Code as follows:

> " 'State of extreme emergency.' As used in this chapter, 'state of extreme emergency' means the duly proclaimed existence of conditions of extreme peril to the safety of persons and property within the State caused by an enemy attack or threatened attack by land, sea, or air, or when upon the advice of the commanding general of this area, such an attack is imminent, an air raid alarm, sabotage, or other cause such as air pollution, fire, flood, storm, epidemic, riot or earthquake, which conditions by reason of their magnitude are or are likely to be beyond the control of the protective services, personnel, equipment and facilities of any single county, city and county, or city and require the combined forces of a 'mutual aid region or regions' to combat. 'State of extreme emergency' does not include nor does any provision of this chapter apply to any condition resulting from a labor controversy."

The Government Code (Sections 14120-14123) also provides for the declaration of an emergency by the Director of Public Works "In times of extraordinary stress and of disaster, resulting from storms and floods . . . if, in his opinion: (a) The emergency is a matter of general public and state concern; and (b) work and remedial measures are required to immediately avert, alleviate, repair or restore damage or destruction to property having a general public and state interest . . . "

It is further provided that the Director of Public Works shall transmit any such declaration of emergency to the Department of Finance with a recommendation and request that money be allocated from any available money appropriated for that purpose or to meet state emergencies within the meaning of the section. Upon such a declaration, the Director of Finance, upon his finding and declaration that such an emergency exists, may allocate available funds in any appropriation or emergency fund.

PART IV

ESTIMATES OF FLOOD DAMAGE TO PUBLIC PROPERTY

The Red Cross has estimated that the total flood damages, to both public and private property, amount to $150,330,000. The largest part of this is damage to private property which, presumably, cannot be restored through public funds of the State but for which assistance will be granted through (a) Red Cross and similar private agency contributions, and (b) assistance in loans, largely through federal loan programs to home owners and small business owners.

The principal categories of public property for which the State is asked for assistance for financing reconstruction and rehabilitation include (1) highways, roads and bridges, (2) public schools, (3) public works other than schools, roads and bridges, and (4) state facilities.

Although it cannot be known at this time what requests will be made for state appropriations for the repair of flood damage, the following statements prepared by various state agencies, indicate estimates of damage to both public and private property and estimates of expenditures which face the State in the way of flood rehabilitation.

Highways, Roads and Bridges

The Division of Highways has estimated damage to state highways, county roads and city streets in two categories: (a) amount necessary for emergency repair for use, and (b) the further expenditure necessary for repair to existing standards. These total $33,063,055 and are indicated in Schedule II which follows. It is assumed that the expenditures for the state highways system will require no legislative appropriation other than existing provisions.

Schools

The Department of Education recently surveyed damage to school systems in the areas of more severe flood damage. The emerging picture of flood damage to schools in California, while perhaps not as serious as first reported, is still extensive. Although at this time there is no detailed report of extensive structural damages, losses in supplies, materials and equipment will be great. Many damaged schools were required to delay reopening after the Christmas holidays from one to two weeks, and in some instances schools will not reopen for sometime, if at all, during this school year. Dislocation of families and damage to roads preventing pupil transportation severely disrupted schedules in some schools. Most schoolroom facilities were available and open by January 16, but opening of schools in Sutter County was, in many instances, delayed.

The following is a review of school damages estimated by the Department of Education early in January.

FLOOD DAMAGE TO SCHOOLS

Prepared by Division of Public School Administration
State Department of Education

January 16, 1956

Humboldt County

The following schools received damage or schedules were disrupted:

Cuddeback Union. Classrooms on the lower floor together with the furnace room were flooded to a depth of two feet. Damage was mostly confined to the heating system, equipment and supplies. Silt removal is already underway. The estimated total loss is in the neighborhood of $1,000. School opened January 3 with one bus run curtailed due to road conditions.

Eel River. This one-room school was flooded as to a depth of about three feet. Silt removal will be necessary. Equipment and supplies were damaged—probably to the extent of $500. School opened January 9.

Georgeson. One-room school seriously flooded. Building and supplies were considered to be a total loss—building washed off its foundation. Replacement costs in the neighborhood of $15,000. The date for reopening this school has not yet been determined; there is no possibility of transporting to another school. Temporary rehabilitation is going forward.

Grant Union. This two-room school received minor damage due to water on the lower floor. Opened January 3.

Holmes. Two-room school flooded to a depth of 2½ feet with heavy silting. Damage to heating system, water supply, equipment and supplies to a probable total of $1,000. Silt removal underway. School opened January 9.

Island. One-room school flooded but no information as to extent. Building seems to be intact. No estimate of damage. Opening date unknown.

Orick. Seven-room school. Water flooded to a depth of 2½ feet in the three lower rooms and in the gymnasium Damage to heating system, to cafeteria equipment and to classroom floors The wind storm which accompanied the flood caused serious damage to the roof of the gymnasium. Heavy silting in the buildings and on the grounds occurred. Total damage estimated at $8,000 to $10,000.

The Orick school was flooded in 1953. As a result of this experience school employees and members of the community joined forces to move most of the equipment and supplies to the upper rooms before the flood. Except for this foresight the losses would have been much higher School opened January 3.

Pepperwood. This two-room school was flooded to a depth of eight feet in the classrooms, accompanied by very heavy silting. The building and its contents are a total loss with only the possibility of slight equipment salvage. Replacement costs will run to $50,000 Arrangements are being made to send children from this district to the Scotia Union School as a temporary measure.

Port Kenyon. One-room school received some structural damage and heavy silting. Considerable loss of supplies and some equipment. Total estimate in the neighborhood of $3,000 Arrangements have been made for pupils from this school to use one room in the Ferndale High School until the building can be repaired. School started January 9.

Price Creek. One-room school in flooded area Considerable water and silt, loss of materials, supplies and some equipment.

Trinity Valley Joint Union. Opening postponed until road and bridge conditions permit bus transportation.

Following is a list of schools in the Southern Humboldt Unified School District:

Myers. A new two-room school suffered heavy damage. Flood waters reached 12 to 13 feet in depth in the building. Windows were battered out by floating debris and there is some structural damage. The area around the school lost about 50 homes. Pupils will be transported to Miranda where school started January 9.

Sequoia. One-room school flooded, but extent of damage not determined. Quite possible that building is total loss.

McCann One-room school washed off of foundation, heavy structural damage. Teacher's cottage washed away. Likely both are total loss. Pupils will be transported when roads permit.

Whitehorn. Three-room school. Some flooding, loss of supplies and materials No other extensive damage. School started January 9.

Bull Creek. Two-room school. Some flooding, damage to water supply.

Fort Seward. No flood damage to school, but loss of bridge separated pupils from school requiring establishment of second attendance center in area.

Hoopa Valley Unified. No damage to either elementary or high school buildings, but loss of bridge isolated about 200 of the 500 pupils. Schools will start when emergency bridge is completed and it is estimated about January 23.

Del Norte County

Klamath Union. Twelve-room schools. Heavily flooded with 7-8 feet of water in building with very heavy silting. Structural damage probably at a minimum, but grounds greatly eroded and silted and fencing gone. Material, supplies, and much equipment total loss. Many families dislocated. School was expected to start on January 9 with about one-half of the pupils present.

Sonoma County

Guerneville. Nine-room school. Flooding 3 to 4 feet with resulting silt. Complete loss of materials and supplies and much equipment. No structural damage. School started January 9.

Tulare County

Three Rivers. No flood damage but loss of bridge separated about one-half of pupils from school. Will start school when emergency bridge has been completed.

Woodlake High School. School started as scheduled in January, but attendance restricted because of loss of bridges and damage to roads hampering transportation.

Slight damage from water was reported in Visalia to elementary schools and the College of Sequoias. No description in schedule.

Yuba County Schools

In the Arboga District, one of the barracks buildings used as a classroom at the Arboga School had 18 inches of water over the floor. Also, minor damage was done to certain equipment used in the repair and upkeep of the grounds.

In the Ella School District, the Olivehurst School had approximately six inches of water over its floors; also, a considerable amount of water seeped into the furnace room and the motor used for heating will have to undergo extensive repairs.

While the Marysville School in the Marysville District was not damaged by the flood waters, some of its buildings are being used as headquarters by the American Red Cross. It is anticipated that damage to the floor of the gymnasium and to certain equipment that is being used will amount to a considerable sum.

Sutter County Schools

In Yuba City, the Park Avenue School (approximately 520 pupils) was extensively damaged by water which reached to the eaves. All of the contents of the school was totally lost or severely damaged. The extent of the damage will not be known until walls and floors have had time to dry.

A small amount of water reached the Bridge Street School (approximately 900 pupils) and the Gray Avenue School (approximately 630 pupils), but damage was not extensive except to floors in the Bridge Street School which were covered with 8 inches of water.

The Yuba City High School (approximately 876 A.D.A.) had slight damage to the main building with the exception of the cafeteria floor which has been undermined or pressed upward to some extent. Two of the older buildings on the campus have been moved off their foundations and has resulted in extensive damage to floors and walls. Much of the equipment in the shops has been damaged and will require either replacement or rehabilitation before being used.

The Barry Union Elementary School (approximately 193 A.D.A.) suffered total loss to all books and supplies that were stored in the basement and slight damage to floors because of water.

The Frankiln Elementary School (approximately 127 A.D.A.) suffered slight damage from a small amount of water and some loss in supplies and materials

The Lincoln Elementary (approximately 387 A.D.A.) was inundated with 3 or 4 feet of water and was swept 3 feet off its foundation. There was a total loss in supplies and materials and equipment in the building.

The Central-Gaither Union Elementary School (approximately 178 A.D.A.) has been inundated since Christmas Eve and can be reached at this time only by large vehicles. The facilities are in a shambles and the school has suffered a complete loss of all equipment and supplies with the possibility that some of the desks may be rehabilitated. The shed which housed the school buses was washed away and the two buses have been inundated since the date of the flood.

The Wilson Elementary School (approximately 67 A.D.A.) was completely covered with water and as of this time has not been accessible for examination as to the extent of structural damage. It is assumed that supplies and equipment are a complete loss.

The Nicolaus Elementary School (approximately 31 A.D.A.) has not been damaged by water, but is not accessible because of inundation of the surrounding area. The children of Nicolaus are attending schools in adjoining districts.

The Sutter County Schools able to open had planned on opening Monday, January 16, but because of the new crisis during the weekend, have postponed opening until a more appropriate time.

Public Works (Excluding Schools, Roads and Bridges)

The following schedule is the estimate made by the Division of Water Resources of the estimated cost of repair to public property other than roads, bridges, sanitary and water works, and schools. The survey was made by representatives of the Division as its part in covering all damage in the State which will be compiled and published by the Corps of Engineers at a later date.

Beaches and Parks

The December floods caused some of the most serious damage in the history of the State Park System, with the greatest damage occurring in Humboldt Redwoods State Park. The Division of Beaches and Parks reported on flood damage as follows in its monthly publication, News & Views for February, 1956:

"It is too early to predict the extent to which our camp and picnic grounds can be put in shape, as this will depend on weather conditions and the funds and labor made available. The greatest damage to facilities occurred in Richardson, Stephens and Williams Groves. To put these back in shape will be comparable to the Labors of Hercules. There are literally tons of debris and sediment to be dealt with. But except for possible limitation of use in the three areas named, at least five of the campgrounds in the Redwood Region will be in full operation as usual. The great loss in natural values occurred on Upper Bull Creek, where hundreds of large trees, some of them 10 to 15 feet in diameter, were undercut by the stream due to log jams."

In addition to destruction to the natural features of the redwoods parks, damage to facilities including flooding of rangers' residences, offices and other buildings, covering of camping areas with several feet of silt, road damages, and destruction of water supply and sewage disposal systems.

Damages occuring in other state park areas were of lesser magnitude and consisted largely of isolation of the areas during inundations and until roads could again be made passable. The following is the report made by the deputy chief, Earl P. Hanson in the January issue of News & Views:

"Apparently the extreme northern Redwood parks were not as badly damaged from flood and Prairie Creek was used as a refuge center, housing 40 persons from flooded Orick. The park was also treated to an emergency single engine plane landing on the highway to evacuate refugees. Many trees are down there, as is the case in most of our forested parks.

"D. L. Bliss and Emerald Bay State Parks reported 27 inches of rain for the week involved, with all roads closed by washouts and power and phone lines down. Fortunately, cooler weather brought snowfall instead of rain.

"Clear Lake State Park had its recently completed water system, the well, the pump, the pumphouse, and power poles, and about 250 feet of pipe main washed out and destroyed During the week the new campground was flooded three different times, a maximum of five feet of water flooding into the area.

"Mt. Diablo reported that the park has been closed since Thursday, December 22, after a week long rainfall of 10 20 inches. Thursday night and Friday the storm dumped 6.25 inches on the mountain, closing both roads.

"The Tuolumne River campground at Turlock Lake State Park was flooded from Friday, December 23 to Tuesday, December 27. The combination building was flooded to the eaves and large areas of parking surfaces were seriously damaged or destroyed.

"Although Seacliff Beach was not flooded due to rainfall, high waves and winds washed driftwood, logs, seaweed and other debris upon the beach, including one 22 foot Basking Shark. Portions of the cliffs above the beach eroded and silted in the shop area, otherwise no serious damage occurred there in spite of the terrific rainfalls and floods throughout Santa Cruz County.

"Big Basin Redwoods suffered some losses in connection with their water mains and some temporary destruction of power lines. However, in spite of the more than 25 inches of rain that fell in the week preceding Christmas in the Santa Cruz area, Big Basin suffered little more than roadslides and the above mentioned damage.

"Gold Discovery Site was again flooded and Ranger Otis Lyons suffered considerable damage to personal property because of water rising some 36 inches into his residence. The water supply lines, of course, were out, and the Division of Forestry brought in a generating plant, and similar equipment was brought in from Calaveras Big Trees.

"The entire water system, including a 20,000 gallon redwood tank was destroyed or severely damaged at El Capitan. Serious erosion also occurred there

"Some flooding occurred in the south and main campgrounds at Pfeiffer-Big Sur The biggest damage there was in the south campground where erosion caused by 17 inches of rainfall for the week brought down large amounts of dirt and debris.

"Curry-Bidwell Bar State Park lost their boat and experienced three feet of water in the lower floor of the tollhouse. Doors were floated off the new restrooms and a large deposit of silt may result in additional area for picnic development!

"George J. Hatfield State Park, being near the mouth of the Merced River, was the last to be flooded and all day-use facilities were under water at last report.

"Humboldt Redwoods, from Richardson Grove to Dyerville, will be months digging out. Showers have and will continue to fall there intermittently until spring. No estimate of damage to the virgin redwood groves can be made at this time, but it is undoubtedly heavy "

Cal-Vet Loans[1]

A six-month deferment of contract payments was offered by the State Department of Veterans Affairs to veterans whose "Cal-Vet loan" homes were severely damaged in last December's floods Any ex-servicemen whose state-financed homes could not be repaired were to be allowed to have their debts "written off the books" while retaining the right to take out new loans.

Preliminary estimates showed that of the 159 Cal-Vet properties in and around Yuba City 110 were damaged, 57 of them in major ways

Ten Cal-Vet farms in the Yuba City area and one farm in Humboldt County were reported hit by floodwater, with damage ranging from serious destruction to silt deposit

At Visalia in Tulare County some 50 veterans' homes suffered comparatively minor water damage

Emergency and long-term repair loans are being made available by the department wherever practicable. The current 3 percent Cal-Vet rate applies All veterans with Cal-Vet contracts were contacted by appraisers or construction examiners, who were authorized to offer immediate assistance.

Following are the details of the measures which are being put into operation by the department on behalf of its flood-stricken veteran clients

1. Veteran contract holders whose homes have been demolished or damaged beyond repair are not being held to their contractual obligations. These veterans retain the right to buy or build homes with state financing in the future.

2 A six-month moratorium of contract installments was made available to veterans who requested it due to financial setbacks caused by the flood It may be prolonged beyond six months if necessary. The deferment period began January 1, 1956

[1] This is a reprint of a report on "Flood Damage" appearing in the Department of Veterans Affairs News Bulletin, February 1956, pp. 4-5.

While interest on the loan continues to be added to the contract balance during the moratorium, no monthly payments are due, and the term period of the contract is extended to permit normal repayment of the deferred installments

Veterans are expected and urged to resume regular payments before the moratorium ends if they are able to do so, since it will result in a saving of interest charged to their accounts.

3. Long-term repair loans are being made available wherever practicable, after a survey of each property to determine whether its reconditioning is economically feasible.

Contract holders were cautioned not to start major repairs until local officials gave assurance that there was no hazard of further flooding, and until the property was thoroughly dried out, and an intensive survey of the necessary repairs had been made by the department's staff.

Repair loans are being added to unpaid balances and the repayment term periods will be extended to permit monthly installments in accordance with ability to pay.

4 Many loans were approved to make immediate necessary repairs to provide safe temporary occupancy wherever possible

5. Personnel from several of the department's offices were sent into the flood-hit areas. Each contract holder who suffered flood damage was visited by one of the department's appraisers or construction examiners.

Fish and Game

Damage to fish and game installations is reported in the following excerpt from Outdoor California, monthly publication of the Department of Fish and Game for February, 1956.

"The winter floods caused damage to Department of Fish and Game installations from Siskiyou south into Kern County and engineering surveys were ordered to determine the extent of the destruction.

"The Cedar Creek Experimental Station in Mendocino County, and its nearby adjunct, the Snow Mountain egg-taking station, were the most severely damaged. More than 170,000 subcatchable-sized steelhead trout were lost when rearing ponds were flooded.

"A bridge was dynamited to clear debris which caused water to rise dangerously near residences at the hatchery. There was other structural damage, including loss of the fish ladder at Snow Mountain

"A loss of 170,000 subcatchable-sized trout, plus another 80,000 newly hatched fish, was reported at the Kern River Hatchery above Isabella Dam on the Kern River. There also was damage to buildings, fences and other structures.

"About 20 percent of the 900,000 trout in the Moccasin Creek Hatchery in Tuolumne County was lost and 12 new rearing ponds were damaged.

"Sequoia Hatchery in Tulare County apparently lost most of the 250,000 newly hatched trout in its troughs as well as suffering damage to wells, pumps and structures.

"Losses of newly hatched salmon at Nimbus Salmon Hatchery in Sacramento County from heavily silted water in the unit's water supply were not as heavy as first feared.

"Minor damage was reported at the Yountville Game Farm, Napa County; the Woodbridge salmon counting station on the Mokelumne River, and the Benbow Dam fishway in Humboldt County.

"The experimental trout feeding program at Moccasin Creek Hatchery was ended by the floods. Fish which had been kept in separate ponds for observation were hopelessly mixed together by the swirling floodwaters."

PART V

I

Assembly Bill No. 17

This bill provides state financial assistance to local agencies (city, county or public district) for repair and restoration of public property destroyed or damaged by storms or floods since October 1, 1955. The State Public Works Board administers the act, which includes an appropriation for flood relief assistance of $20,800,000 from the General Fund and State Lands Fund in equal parts. The following three conditions must be met before the board can make expenditures for flood relief assistance:

1. The expenditure and the purpose for which it is made must first be approved by the Director of Finance.
2. The board must have investigated the proposed work, found it to be in the general public and state interest, estimated its cost, and filed a report thereon with the Department of Finance.
3. State expenditures must be matched by sums, to be determined on a sliding scale, from public sources other than the State Treasury or funds of any agency which is a part of the Executive Department of the state government. A local agency may use federal funds for the matching purpose. If the board determines the local agency is unable to meet the matching requirement, the board shall complete the project, but the local agency shall be required to make its contribution by means of deferred payments.

II

Assembly Bill No. 18

This bill provides state financial assistance to school districts for the replacement, repair or reconstruction of school buildings destroyed or damaged by storms or floods subsequent to October 1, 1955. The State Allocation Board allocates funds for this purpose out of state moneys available therefor upon application of the governing body of the school district. The bill does not specify the amount to be appropriated or the fund from which it is to come.

III

Assembly Bill No. 19

This bill provides state financial assistance to public districts "for the replacement, repair, or reconstruction of any utility, water, or sewer system or facility" of the district destroyed or damaged by storm or flood since October 1, 1955. The State Allocation Board allocates funds for this purpose out of state moneys available therefor upon application of the governing body of the district.

No allocations shall be made unless

1. The district has levied the maximum tax permitted by law, and
2. The total outstanding bonds of the district exceeds 95 percent of the maximum amount of the bonds which the district may issue.

The bill does not specify the amount to be appropriated or the fund from which it is to come.

Assembly Bill No. 20

This bill creates a Water Facilities Fund from which loans would be made to cities, counties and districts at 2 percent interest over a 50-year period. To create this fund, $12,500,000 is transferred from the General Fund. Administration of the fund is the responsibility of the State Water Resources Board.

If the board determines that a proposed project has engineering possibility and if it determines that the estimated repayments together with repayments from other sources equal the total estimated cost of the project, the board shall make an allocation for the project. Before allocating any funds the board must determine that the project is necessary in the public interest and that it cannot be financed by the local agency. If the cost exceeds the project's ability to repay the entire amount, the board may, nevertheless, make an allocation for the project, if the project is approved by the Legislature. Not more than $3,000,000 may be allocated for any one project.

After the board makes an allocation to any agency for a project, the Director of Finance is required to enter into appropriate agreements with the local agency.

V

Assembly Bill No. 21

This bill provides county property tax redress to owners of property destroyed or damaged in excess of $500 by the winter floods of 1955-56. Owners, upon proper application to the county assessor, can have their property assessed or re-assessed at its value after the flood damage, rather than at its value on assessment day, March 1955 The county Board of Equalization may equalize any such assessment or re-assessment. The owner then is subject to taxation only on the re-assessed basis, and if the higher tax were already paid, he is entitled to a refund of the difference.

VI

Assembly Bill No. 22

This bill permits cities to provide for tax redress to owners of property destroyed or damaged in excess of $500 by the winter floods of 1955-56. If the city passes an ordinance as permitted by this bill, owners, upon proper application to the city assessor, could have their property assessed or re-assessed at its value after flood damage, rather than at its 1955 value. The owner would be liable for tax only on the re-assessed value, and if he already paid the higher tax, he would be entitled to a refund of the difference.

VII

Assembly Bill No. 23

This bill provides state grants to reimburse counties for losses of property tax revenue resulting from decreased assessed valuations of property destroyed or damaged by the winter floods.

County assessors re-assess flood damaged property and determine the amount by which the reassessed values would be less the originally assessed values for 1955-56. The boards of supervisors then determine the loss of tax revenue as a result of the lower assessments and apply for grants to reimburse the counties for such loss.

Amounts paid to the counties may be spent only for purposes in which there is a state interest.

VIII

Assembly Bill No. 24

This bill creates a Local Disaster Fund to provide emergency assistance in the event of local disasters not of such magnitude as to require a proclamation of extreme emergency

The Governor in the event of such a local disaster—flood, fire, earthquake or similar cause—may direct the Office of Civilian Defense to provide shelter, food, clothing, medical care or other needful assistance

The sum of $5,000,000 is appropriated from the General Fund to the Local Disaster Fund to carry out the provisions of this bill.

IX

Assembly Bill No. 25

This bill provides state allocations to local government agencies for the repair or replacement of public facilities damaged or destroyed by the winter floods. The sum of $20,000,000 is appropriated from the General Fund for the purpose of reimbursing local agencies for the cost of repairing all types of public facilities for which such funds may lawfully be expended by the State. The State Allocation Board is responsible for determining the qualification of proposed projects and that a state interest exists. If a project qualifies, the board then determines the cost of the project and if sufficient unallocated funds exist, approves the allocation.

X

Assembly Bill No. 26

This bill would adopt and authorize the project for flood protection on the San Lorenzo River in Santa Cruz County recommended by the Federal Government.

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee on Engrossment and Enrollment has examined:
Assembly Bill No. 5

And reports the same correctly engrossed.

BURKE, Chairman

Above reported bill ordered to third reading.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT REQUEST TO PRINT STATEMENT OF VOTE IN JOURNAL

Mr. Brady asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent to print a statement of his vote on Assembly Bill No. 3 in the Journal, not to exceed 150 words.

STATEMENT BY ASSEMBLYMAN BERNARD R. BRADY OF VOTE ON ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 3

The Conservation and Planning Act was codified in 1951 after several years of study Since that time it has been necessary only to provide for the appointment of members to the State Conservation and Planning Board.

The proposal handed us this Saturday morning repealed essential parts of the well thought out Conservation and Planning Act (1947 through 1951;) and proposed to change the whole theory of organized state-wide planning by giving the financial arm of our State Government this incompatible control of engineering.

There was no notice that this extremely important matter was to be considered by the Assembly. The rule which demands second reading and engrossing had been suspended hours before Assembly Bill No. 3 was presented to us—in order to "clear the File" as the Assembly desired

Therefore, this Assembly Bill No 3 had never been in print in our Daily File since it was noticed soon after the bill's introduction that it was to be heard in committee. Hence, there was no knowledge by the membership of the Assembly that the proposal was to be before us.

If the work of years resulting in the Conservation and Planning Act is to be radically changed in essence as well as in direction surely the Members of the State Assembly are entitled to have the mandate of the Constitution of the State of California obeyed in that part which states, "NOR SHALL ANY BILL BECOME A LAW UNLESS THE SAME BE READ ON THREE SEVERAL DAYS IN EACH HOUSE."

BERNARD R. BRADY

ADJOURNMENT

At 12.30 p.m., on motion of Mr. McCollister, the Speaker declared the Assembly adjourned until 11 a.m.. Monday, March 19, 1956.

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

ASSEMBLY, CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE
COMMITTEE ON FINANCE AND INSURANCE, March 19, 1956

HON. L. H. LINCOLN
Speaker of the Assembly
State Capitol, Sacramento, California

DEAR MR. LINCOLN: Pursuant to House Resolution 200, 1955 General Session, I am transmitting the Preliminary Report of the Subcommittee on Unemployment Insurance and Workmen's Compensation, functioning under the Assembly Committee on Finance and Insurance. I am also making the request that it be printed as a separate document.

Each of the subcommittees availed itself of the services of the Legislative Counsel. Mr. Bernard Czesla was assigned to work closely with the full committee and he attended all public hearings. Appreciation is expressed for the exemplary cooperation we received and the speed with which requests for services were fulfilled. In addition, each subcommittee is indebted to many individuals, representing both public and private agencies, for assistance in gathering important information and furnishing suggestions for corrective legislation.

Sincerely yours,

WM. A. MUNNELL

HON. WM. A. MUNNELL, CHAIRMAN
Assembly Committee on Finance and Insurance
State Capitol, Sacramento, California

DEAR MR. MUNNELL: We transmit to you the Preliminary Report of the Subcommittee on Lending Agencies which contains our recommendations for a continuation of the investigation started during the 1955 interim.

The report is the product of the combined effort of the subcommittee members and the staff of the Legislative Auditor and the Legislative Counsel. Particular appreciation must be expressed for the services of Fred Lewe, Harris Hogan, and Les Miller who constituted our investigating staff, interviewed all borrowers and other witnesses, and helped in the prepartion for our public meeting. Bernard Czesla, Deputy Legislative Counsel, conducted the interrogation of witnesses at our hearings, wrote the Analysis of Chapter 1791 (A.B. 3192), prepared the draft of the tentative legislation proposed, and performed sundry other services of a legal nature.

Findings set forth in the attached report are in no way to be construed as a blanket condemnation of any group, either within the field of real estate or lending institutions. It is rather a revelation of the practices pursued by a relatively small number of mortgage loan brokers; however, even though their number is small, their clients are many, and their transgressions legion.

Sincerely yours,

COMMITTEE ON FINANCE AND INSURANCE, March 19, 1956

HON. L. H. LINCOLN
Speaker of the Assembly
State Capitol, Sacramento, California

DEAR MR. LINCOLN: Pursuant to House Resolution 200, 1955 General Session, I am transmitting the Preliminary Report of the Subcommittee on Fiscal Agencies with the request that it be printed as a separate document.

SUBCOMMITTEE LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

SUBCOMMITTEE ON FISCAL AGENCIES, March 12, 1956

HON. WM. A. MUNNELL, CHAIRMAN
Assembly Committee on Finance and Insurance
State Capitol, Sacramento, California

DEAR MR. MUNNELL: As chairman of your subcommittee investigating problems in the field of the prorate business, I have the honor to present herewith the first preliminary report with the request that it be published during the Budget Session, 1956.

Your Subcommittee on Fiscal Agencies held two hearings: One in San Francisco and one in Los Angeles. Attendant at these hearings was a majority of those engaged primarily in the prorate business, as well as a number licensed as collection agencies but engaged in prorating. The writer, as far as he was able to obtain the names of persons interested in the subject matter, sent everyone notification and invitation to be present in person, to be represented by an association spokesman, or to be represented by personal counsel.

To sum up, the report which follows indicates unanimous agreement by all parties that there is a menace to the public in not having more rigorous controls over persons or firms engaged in the prorate business, or, as it is sometimes called, "debt counselling." The only differences of opinion that were expressed before the subcommittee may be summarized as follows: Some favor the enactment of legislation based on Assembly Bill No 2319 of the 1955 Regular Session which would leave the regulation of proraters in the Department of Corporations, but suggest additional definitions and more stringent requirements than now expressed in the proposed act; others favor setting up an entirely new board for the licensing and regulation of proraters. Joining the latter, is the Director of Collection Agencies, who agrees with the collection agencies themselves that prorating is no part of the collection business.

It is the recommendation of this Subcommittee on Fiscal Agencies that the study already initiated be carried to completion, although there is enough evidence already presented to warrant a repeated endorsement of corrective legislation. It would, however, be the plan of the writer, and a majority of the members of your subcommittee, to make an investigation of the total number of debtors involved with proraters during the past two years, the total amount of debts listed by such persons with a classification as to their nature, but, more important, a finding as to the number of accounts in the hands of the proraters which have been carried through to completion and those lying dormant on the books after little or no result in relieving the debtor in his unfortunate situation. Incident to this, and very pertinent, would be a finding of the amount paid by the debtors as fees, whether or not there were commensurate benefits obtained.

We believe that the attached report will amply support the basis for these recommendations. The recommendation for continued study is predicated on the fact that the committee does not now have available sufficient funds to make a detailed study as suggested above. It, therefore, carries the additional recommendation that the funds allocated to the Committee on Finance and Insurance be augmented in sufficient amount to carry this project to completion.

We feel it is proper in this letter of transmittal to express to you the appreciation of the Chairman and members of the Subcommittee on Fiscal Agencies for your cooperation, and for the assignment of the Committee Secretary, Marian Kober, who has been of inestimable value in handling the details of correspondence and record keeping. Our thanks also go to Mr. Bernard Czesla, Deputy in the Office of the Legislative Counsel, who was in attendance at our hearings, and to Mr. Ryan M. Polstra who prepared a summary of Assembly Bill No 2319 which appears in the body of the report.

On behalf of the committee, I am
Very truly yours,

WHEREAS, In order to provide the men of the Navy with the most modern, reliable and efficient ships which man is capable of producing it has been the policy of the Department of the Navy to award construction of such vessels only to those shipyards able to furnish the ultimate in precision and speed in fulfilling the complex requirements specified by the Navy; and

Mr. Dahl asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent that the following opinion of the Legislative Counsel be ordered printed in the Journal:

OPINION OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL
SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA, February 27, 1956

HONORABLE ARTHUR H. BREED, JR.
Senate Chamber

Real Estate License Fees—No. 1121

DEAR SENATOR BREED:

Question

You ask whether a bill consisting of the provisions of A. B. 3604 of the 1955 Regular Session which revise the schedule of fees for real estate licenses making renewal license fees payable every four years rather than annually, and the provisions therein for payment of a portion of all license fees collected to the credit of the Real Estate Education and Research Fund, could properly be introduced at the budget session as a revenue measure.

Opinion

In our opinion a bill embodying such provisions would constitute a "revenue measure" and as such could properly be introduced and considered at the budget session.

Analysis

Section 2 of Article IV of the Constitution of California restricts the scope of legislation which may be considered at a budget session. This section reads in part:

> "All regular sessions in even-numbered years shall be known as budget sessions, at which the Legislature shall consider only the Budget Bill for the succeeding fiscal year, revenue acts necessary therefor, the approval or rejection of charters and charter amendments of cities, counties, and cities and counties, and acts necessary to provide for the expenses of the session." (Emphasis added.)

To come within the scope of this provision the measure in question would have to qualify as a revenue act necessary for the Budget Bill.

While this provision of the Constitution has not been construed by a court, this office has previously considered the effect of this provision and has concluded that the term "revenue acts necessary * * * ." for the Budget Bill as used in the Constitution includes any act which imposes, alters or eliminates a monetary charge (whether it be a tax, regulating fee, special assessment, rental, royalty, or other source of income) which affects the amount of funds available for appropriation in the Budget Bill or which affects the amount of funds the Legislature could appropriate therein (1948 Assembly Journal, pp. 27 to 31 and pp. 388 to 390).

We adhere to our previous opinions that any measure which would increase or decrease the general revenues of the State available for appropriation by the Legislature in the Budget Bill would be within the scope of legislation which could be considered at a budget session.

A "revenue act" need not be restricted to revenue provisions only. It may contain provisions for its administration (15 Ops. Cal. Atty. Gen. p. 81), and it may contain other provisions of a regulatory character incidental to its primary purpose of producing revenue. The test appears to be whether the primary purpose of the legislation is the production of revenue, or is some other purpose (Compare: Public Utilities Commission v. Manley (1936 Colo.) 60 Pac. 2d 913, 916; In re Opinion of the Justices (1936 Ala.) 166 So. 710, 711; State v. Woodall (1932 Ala.) 142 So. 838; In re Opinion of the Justices (1935 Mo.) 178 Atl. 620).

The provisions of the proposed bill would, by revising the schedule of fees for real estate licenses, directly affect the amount of funds which will be available for appropriation. It is immaterial whether the act would result in an increase or decrease in the total funds to be available. Similarly, the fact that the bill, by requiring the payment of the increased renewal license fee every four years rather than annually would have the effect of extending the term of a license from one to four years would not change the nature of the bill. Such effect would appear to be incidental to the over-all effect of accomplishing a revision in the schedule of fees and therefore in the total state revenues.

The fact that the bill provides for the crediting of a portion of all fees collected to a new fund created therein would not of itself change the purpose of the bill. The revenue credited to such fund would still be available for appropriation by the Legislature.

It is therefore our opinion that the bill would directly affect the state revenues and would therefore constitute a "revenue measure" within the meaning of that term as used in Section 2 of Article IV of the Constitution.

Very truly yours,

RALPH N. KLEPS, Legislative Counsel
By BERNARD CZESLA, Deputy

1. HEARINGS ON APPLICATIONS FOR CERTIFICATES

As to some kinds of utility businesses the commission may, "with or without hearing," issue or refuse to issue requested certificates of public convenience and necessity. As to other kinds of utilities, the commission may, "after hearing," issue or refuse to issue such certificates.

Hearing is not required on applications for certificates by express corporations, Sec. 1010 freight forwarders, Sec. 1010 passenger stage corporations, Sec. 1032 warehousemen, Sec. 1052 highway common carriers, Sec. 1064 petroleum irregular route carriers, Sec. 1064.

Hearing is required on applications for certificates by electric railroads, Sec. 1005 street railroads, Sec. 1005 gas utilities, Sec. 1005 electric utilities, Sec. 1005 water utilities, Sec. 1005 telegraph or telephone utilities,[1] Sec. 1005 for exercise of franchise rights by any of above utilities,[1] Sec. 1005 common carrier vessels, Secs. 1007 and 1008.

[1] However, Public Utilities Code Section 7901 (formerly Civil Code Section 536) has been construed as the direct grant of a state franchise (Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, 44 Advance California Reports 299), accepted by construction of lines, and it has been held that a telegraph company which has acquired rights under that section need not obtain a certificate from the commission. (Postal Telegraph v. Commission, 200 Cal. 463.)

Where the statute does not require a hearing many routine noncontroversial applications are handled by ex parte orders. However, it is the policy of the commission to hold hearings on contested applications and those where hearing appears warranted before taking action thereon. Normally, hearings are held in the area affected by the subject matter of a proceeding.

The present requirement of a hearing on specified certificate applications results in the holding of hearings in many instances for no reason other than the statutory requirement that there be a hearing. For example, gas or electric utilities are required to obtain a certificate before they may exercise rights under franchises granted by cities or counties Many such franchises are for periods of 50 years As such franchises expire, new franchises are obtained, and certificates to exercise the franchise rights are requested. The statute requires a hearing, although practically all of such routine matters could be handled ex parte, at a substantial saving in time and expense.

It is recommended that the committee consider legislation amending the Public Utilities Code as follows:

(a) "1005. The commission may, ~~after~~ with or without hearing, issue the certificate as prayed for, or refuse to issue it, or issue it for the construction of a portion only of the contemplated street railroad line, plant, or system, or extension thereof, or for the partial exercise only of the right or privilege, and may attach to the exercise of the rights granted by the certificate such terms and conditions, including provisions for the acquisition by the public of the franchise or permit and all rights acquired thereunder and all works constructed or maintained by authority thereof, as in its judgment the public convenience and necessity requires."

"1007. No corporation or person shall begin to operate or cause to be operated any vessel for the transportation of persons or property, for compensation, between points in this State, without first having obtained from the commission a certificate declaring that public convenience and necessity require such operation, but no such certificate shall be required as to termini between which any such corporation or person is lawfully operating vessels in good faith under this part as it existed prior to August 17, 1923, under tariffs and schedules of such corporations or persons, lawfully on file with the commission. Every applicant for such a certificate shall file in the office of the commission application and evidence in the form required by the commission. The commission may, ~~after~~ with or without hearing, issue the certificate as prayed for, or refuse to issue it, or issue it for the partial exercise only of the privilege sought, or issue it for operation between certain points only, and may attach to the exercise of the rights granted by the certificate such terms and conditions as, in its judgment, the public convenience and necessity require."

(c) "1008. Any municipal corporation or port district operating or maintaining a port may apply to the commission for the issuance of a certificate of convenience and necessity to require any person or corporation operating vessels between points in this State, to serve that port. The commission may, ~~after~~ with or without hearing, issue the certificate as prayed for, or refuse to issue it, or issue it for the partial exercise of the rights granted by any such certificate, upon such terms and conditions as in its judgment the public convenience and necessity require, and upon making the order the person or corporation to which the certificate is issued, shall be compelled to perform the service."

2. FOREIGN CORPORATIONS

It is recommended that the committee consider legislation amending Public Utilities Code Section 704 as follows:

"704. Except as otherwise provided in this section, no foreign corporation, other than those which by compliance with the laws of this State are entitled to transact a public utility business within this State, shall henceforth transact within this State any public utility business, nor shall any foreign corporation which is at present lawfully transacting business within this State henceforth transact within this State any public utility business of a character different from that which it is at present authorized by its charter or articles of incorporation to transact. No license, permit, or franchise to own, control, operate, or manage any public utility business or any part or incident thereof shall be henceforth granted or transferred, directly or indirectly, to any foreign corporation which is not at present lawfully transacting within this State a public utility business of like character Foreign corporations engaging in commerce with foreign nations or commerce among the several states may transact within this State such commerce and intrastate commerce of a like character ~~:~~, provided, however, that no such foreign corporation shall be permitted to engage in intrastate commerce within this State until it shall have first complied with the laws of this State respecting foreign corporations. Any foreign corporation which complies with the laws of this State respecting foreign corporations, and which owns at least 90 percent of the outstanding capital stock of any other foreign corporation transacting a public utility business in this State, may succeed to the public utility business, franchises, and rights of such latter corporation and, thereafter continue and carry on such public utility business."

Reason: Although such a foreign corporation is obligated to so comply because of the provisions of the Corporations Code (Secs. 6400 et seq.), the suggested amendment of the Public Utilities Code would foreclose any possible argument that the contrary is true.

3. RAILROAD HOSPITALS

Labor Code Sections 2500 through 2509 relate to employers who provide and charge for hospital service for their employees. Every such charge shall be just and reasonable The Public Utilities Commission may decide what is an unreasonable charge where a charge is made by a hospital maintained by a common carrier by rail. In all other cases, the Industrial Accident Commission may decide what is an unreasonable charge. Annual reports re hospitals maintained by railroads are required to be filed with the Public Utilities Commission, while all others file reports with the Industrial Accident Commission.

Annual reports concerning railroad hospitals have been filed with the Public Utilities Commission since 1915. A check of our records indicates that the only interest evinced in these reports was in 1925, when the Commission, at the request of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, caused an examination to be made of the records of a particular railroad hospital.

It is recommended that the committee consider legislation amending the Labor Code to provide that all such reports be filed with and that jurisdiction over all such hospital charges be placed in the Industrial Accident Commission. Suggested Labor Code amendments are set forth below.

"2503. Every hospital charge demanded, collected, or received by an employer shall be just and reasonable. The ~~Public Utilities Commission may decide what is an unreasonable charge in all cases where such charge is made by a hospital maintained by a common carrier by rail. In all other cases the~~ Industrial Accident Commission may decide what is an unreasonable charge."

Repeal Labor Code Section 2505.[2]

Amend Labor Code Section 2507 as follows:

"2507. Every employer ~~other than a common carrier by rail,~~ required to report under this chapter is subject to the jurisdiction, control, and regulation of the Industrial Accident Commission in respect to the auditing and inspecting of all books, records, and accounts. The Industrial Accident Commission may, by appropriate orders and processes, enforce the provisions of this chapter."

Amend Labor Code Section 2508 as follows:

"2508. ~~The written reports made by a common carrier by rail shall be filed with the Public Utilities Commission.~~ All ~~other~~ written reports shall be filed with the Industrial Accident Commission."

4. SPECIAL APPROPRIATION FOR GRADE CROSSING PROTECTION

The 1953 Legislature appropriated $500,000 for allocation by the Commission to assist local agencies in paying their shares of the cost of constructing protection at grade crossings of railroads and city or county highways. No allocation thereunder shall exceed half of the local agency's share of the cost of such work. The 1953 appropriation

[2] Section 2505 now reads as follows

"Every common carrier by rail who is required to report under this chapter shall be subject to the jurisdiction, control, and regulation of the Public Utilities Commission in respect to auditing and inspecting of all books, records, and accounts. The Public Utilities Commission may enforce its orders in the same manner and to the same extent as under the Public Utilities Act" does not permit allocations from the crossing protection fund in connection with crossings involving state highways, nor for grade separation projects. The 1953 statute is set forth in the footnote.[3]

As of September 15, 1955, the status of the 1953 appropriation was as follows:

	Number of Requests for Allocation	Estimated Total Cost of Protection	Amount Requested	Amount Allocated
Granted	132	$1,353,825	$324,807	$307,181
Denied	4	46,482	22,809	----
Pending	16	186,248	53,780	----
Totals	152	$1,586,555	$401,396	$307,181

It is expected that the total amount appropriated in 1953 will have been allocated by July of 1956.

It is recommended that the committee consider legislation appropriating an additional $500,000 for the same purpose specified in the 1953 appropriation.

5. SAFETY REGULATION OF TRUCK OPERATIONS

It is recommended that the committee consider such legislation as may be appropriate to place safety regulation of all trucks under the administration of a single state agency.

At present the Public Utilities Commission has certain jurisdiction over the safety of operations of public utilities as defined in the Public Utilities Act. (Public Utilities Code, Sections 451, 761, 763, and 768.) By definition, included in the term "public utility" (Sec. 218) are "highway common carriers" (Sec. 213) and "petroleum irregular route carriers" (Sec. 214). Under the Highway Carriers' Act (Secs. 3501-3809), the commission may regulate safety of operations of "petroleum contract carriers" (Sec. 3546), but is not empowered to regulate safety of operations of "highway contract carriers" (Sec. 3517) or "radial highway common carriers" (Sec. 3516). Nor is the commission empowered to regulate safety of operations of "city carriers" under the City Carriers' Act (Secs. 3901-4149), nor of "household goods carriers" under the Household Goods Carriers' Act (Sec. 5101-5319).

[3] Statutes 1953, ch. 1739, reads as follows:

"An act making an appropriation for allocations to counties and cities for the construction of grade protections

The people of the State of California do enact as follows

SECTION 1. The sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated from the State Highway Fund to the Public Utilities Commission, without regard to fiscal years The commission shall allocate and expend such money, together with any other sums which may hereafter be appropriated for the purposes specified herein, to cities, counties, and cities and counties, on the basis of need as determined by the commission, to assist them in paying their shares of the cost of constructing grade crossing protection works on city, county, and city and county streets, roads, and highways In no event, however, shall the commission allocate or expend to any city, county, or city and county a sum exceeding one-half of its share of the cost of such work

SEC 2. At the time the commission makes each allocation under this act, it shall certify such to the State Controller The commission shall present claims for reimbursement of the State's share of the cost of construction of projects under such allocations to the State Controller for payment The State Controller shall make such audit as he deems necessary, before or after disbursement, for the purpose of determining that the money allocated has been expended for the purposes and under the conditions authorized under this act"

The Vehicle Code contains numerous provisions relating to motor vehicle equipment (Secs. 615-684), as well as size, weight, and loading of vehicles (Secs. 690-716). Enforcement of the Vehicle Code lies with the Department of Motor Vehicles and the California Highway Patrol. It is our understanding that there are approximately 1,000,000 licensed commercial vehicles in the State.

As of April of 1955 approximately 90,000 trucks were being operated by carriers for hire subject to varying degrees of regulation by the commission. Of this number the commission has jurisdiction over the safety of carriers for hire which operated approximately 28,000 trucks.

It is recommended that all trucks in the State, those operated by carriers for hire subject to commission regulation, as well as those engaged in proprietary not for hire private operation and which may not be regulated by the commission, should be subject to safety regulation by a single state agency.

6. TRUCK CARRIER OPERATION BETWEEN TWO CITIES, ONE CITY BEING WITHIN THE EXTERIOR BOUNDARIES OF THE OTHER CITY. (SUCH AS TRANSPORTATION BETWEEN BEVERLY HILLS AND LOS ANGELES, OR BETWEEN PIEDMONT AND OAKLAND.)

If such operation is that of a "highway common carrier" within the meaning of the Public Utilities Act (Public Utilities Code Sections 213 and 1063), it would be subject to regulation under that statute. However, if such operation (although not that of a "highway common carrier") is for-hire truck operation, it could be argued that there is a "blind spot" in the code resulting in such operation not being subject to any regulation under the code, for the reasons set forth below.

Code Section 3503 provides that the Highway Carriers' Act does not apply to "(a) Transportation service all of which is rendered in territory within the exterior boundaries of a city, or city and county including the area of any city situated wholly within such outside limits; * * *." This exclusion from the Highway Carriers' Act implies that regulation of such operation is to be covered by the companion City Carriers' Act, the obvious legislative intent being to provide for regulation of all for-hire truck operation. The City Carriers' Act provides that it applies to operations "in any city or city and county * * *." (Sec. 3911.)

To make the legislative intent crystal clear, remove possible ambiguity, and prevent raising of the "blind spot" argument, it is recommended that the committee consider amendment of Public Utilities Code Section 3911, (a part of the City Carriers' Act), as follows:

> "3911. 'Carrier' means every corporation or person, their lessees, trustees, receivers or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever, engaged in the transportation of property for compensation or hire as a business over any public highway ~~in any~~ within the exterior boundaries of a city or city and county in this State, including the area of any city situated wholly within such outside limits, by means of a motor vehicle, except that 'carrier' does not include:
> (a) Any farmer resident of this State who occasionally transports from the place of production to a warehouse, regular market, place of storage, or place of shipment the farm products of neighboring farmers in exchange for like services or for a cash consideration or farm products for compensation.

(b) Persons or corporations hauling their own property.

(c) Any farmer operating a motor vehicle used exclusively in the transportation of his livestock and agricultural commodities or in the transportation of supplies to his farm

(d) Any nonprofit agricultural cooperative association organized and acting within the scope of its powers under Chapter 4, Division 6 of the Agricultural Code to the extent only that it is engaged in transporting its own property or the property of its members ''

7. LESS THAN MINIMUM RATES, CARRIERS REGULATED UNDER PUBLIC UTILITIES ACT

As to transportation of property, Public Utilities Code Section 726 provides that in any rate proceeding where more than one type or class of carrier, as defined in the Public Utilities Act or in the Highway Carriers' Act, is involved, the commission shall consider all such types of carriers, and fix as minimum rates applicable to all such types the lowest of the lawful rates determined for any such type of carrier.

Section 452 provides that the Public Utilities Act shall not be construed to prevent a common carrier subject to regulation thereunder from establishing a ''lower than a maximum reasonable rate'' when needs of commerce or public interest require, subject to specified qualifications.

The Highway Carriers' Act, applicable to permitted carriers regulated under that statute, provides as follows:

> ''3666. If any highway carrier other than a common carrier desires to perform any transportation or accessorial service at a lesser rate than the minimum established rates, the commission shall, upon finding that the proposed rate is reasonable, authorize the lesser rate.''

There is no specific comparable provision in the Public Utilities Act. It is recommended that the committee consider amendment of Public Utilities Code Section 726 as follows:

> ''726. It is the policy of the State in rate making to be pursued by the commission to establish such rates as will promote the freedom of movement by carriers of agricultural commodities, including livestock, at the lowest lawful rates compatible with the maintenance of adequate transportation service.
> In any rate proceeding where more than one type or class of carrier, as defined in this part or in the Highway Carriers' Act, is involved, the commission shall consider all such types or classes of carriers, and, pursuant to the provisions of this part or the Highway Carriers' Act fix as minimum rates applicable to all such types or classes of carriers the lowest of the lawful rates so determined for any such type or class of carrier. This provision does not prevent the commission from granting to carriers by water such differentials in rates as are permitted under other provisions of law.

If any common carrier subject to this part desires to perform any transportation or accessorial service at a lesser rate than the established minimum rates, the commission shall, upon finding that the proposed rate is reasonable, authorize the lesser rate."

8. LESS THAN MINIMUM RATES, CARRIERS REGULATED UNDER CITY CARRIERS' ACT

It is recommended that the committee consider amendment of Public Utilities Code Section 4015, applicable to city carriers, as follows:

"4015. If any carrier desires to perform any transportation or accessorial service at a lesser rate than the established minimum rates, the commission shall, upon finding that the proposed rate is reasonable ~~and consistent with the public interest~~, authorize the lesser rate."

Reason: Except for the language proposed to be stricken, Section 4015 (applicable to city carriers) is identical with Section 3666 (quoted supra at page 10, and applicable to carriers regulated under the Highway Carriers' Act). No good reason appears for the additional requirement as to city carriers. Transportation for a single shipper may involve both highway carrier and city carrier operations.

9. UNIFORM FILING FEES ON APPLICATIONS OF TRUCKERS FOR ISSUANCE OF CERTIFICATES OR PERMITS

The code now requires a $50 filing fee on each application for certificate as a highway common carrier (Sec. 1904(a)) certificate as a petroleum irregular route carrier (Sec. 1904(a)) permit as a household goods carrier (Sec 5136).

A filing fee of $100 is required on each application for permit as a highway contract carrier (Sec. 5004) permit as a petroleum contract carrier (Sec 5004) permit as a radial highway common carrier (Sec. 5004) permit as a city carrier (Sec 5004).

It is recommended that the committee consider legislation providing for uniformity of filing fees on applications by truckers for the issuance of certificates or permits. Such uniformity can be achieved by amending each of the following sections as indicated below.

"1064. Each application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity made under the provisions of this article shall be accompanied by a fee of ____ ____ dollars ($_____).

The commission may, with or without hearing, issue the certificate as prayed for, or refuse to issue it, or issue it for the partial exercise only of the privilege sought, and may attach to the exercise of the rights granted by the certificate such terms and conditions as, in its judgment, the public convenience and necessity require."

NOTE: The above section applies to highway common carriers and petroleum irregular route carriers.

"1905. The commission shall also charge and collect the following fees:

(a) For filing each application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity (except as otherwise provided in Section s 1036 and 1064), or for the mortgage, lease, transfer, or assignment thereof, fifty dollars ($50).

(b) For a certificate authorizing an issue of bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness, one dollar ($1) for each thousand dollars ($1,000) ~~of the~~ face value of the authorized issue or fraction thereof up to one million dollars ($1,000,000), fifty cents ($0.50) for each one thousand dollars ($1,000) over one million dollars ($1,000,000) and up to ten million dollars ($10,000,000), and twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each one thousand dollars ($1,000) over ten million dollars ($10,000,000), with a minimum fee in any case of twenty-five dollars ($25). No fee need be paid on such portion of any such issue as may be used to guarantee, take over, refund, discharge, or retire any bond, note, or other evidence of indebtedness on which a fee has theretofore been paid to the commission. If the commission modifies the amount of the issue requested in any case and the applicant elects not to avail itself of the commission's authorization, no fee need be paid."

NOTE: Amendment of subdivision (a) of Section 1904 is required to achieve uniformity of filing fees on applications by truckers for certificates or permits, as that section is applicable to other public utilities in addition to highway common carriers and petroleum irregular route carriers.

"5004. The following fees shall be paid to the commission, pursuant to permits issued under the Highway Carriers' Act and the City Carriers' Act.

~~One hundred~~ _____ dollars ($ ~~100~~ _____) for filing each application for a permit.

Twenty-five dollars ($25) for filing each application to sell, mortgage, lease, assign, transfer, or otherwise encumber any permit."

NOTE: The above section applies to highway contract carriers, petroleum contract carriers, radial highway common carriers, and city carriers.

"5136. Each application for issuance of a permit under this chapter shall be accompanied by a fee of ~~fifty~~ _____ dollars ($ ~~50~~ _____).

The filing fee for an application for transfer of a permit is twenty-five dollars ($25).

All fees paid to the commission under this chapter shall be deposited in the Transportation Rate Fund."

NOTE: Section 5136 applies to household goods carriers.

10. KEEPING OF RECORDS OF "PERMIT" TRUCK CARRIERS WITHIN THE STATE

Part 1 of the Public Utilities Code is the Public Utilities Act. Section 791 provides as follows:

"791. Each public utility shall have an office in a county of this State in which its property or some portion thereof is located and shall keep in that office all the books, accounts, papers, and records required by the commission to be kept within this State.

No such books, accounts, papers, or records shall be at any time removed from the State except upon such conditions as the commission prescribes."

There are no comparable provisions in Part 2 of the code, which contains the Highway Carriers' Act, the City Carriers' Act, and the Household Goods Carriers Act. The staff has had some difficulty in conducting expeditious investigations of out-of-state carriers not maintaining records in California. It is recommended that the committee consider legislation amending various sections in Part 2 of the code, as follows:

"3701. Each highway permit carrier shall have an office or place within this State in which it shall keep all books, accounts, papers, and records required by the commission to be kept within this State. No such books, accounts, papers, or records shall be at any time removed from the State except upon such conditions as the commission prescribes.

The commission may require annual, periodical, or special reports to be filed by all highway permit carriers, prescribe the manner and form in which reports shall be made, and may require specific answers to all questions upon which the commission deems information to be necessary. The reports shall be under oath whenever the commission so requires."

NOTE: The above section applies to highway contract carriers, petroleum contract carriers, and radial highway common carriers.

"4041. Each carrier shall have an office or place within this State in which it shall keep all books, accounts, papers, and records required by the commission to be kept within this State. No such books, accounts, papers, or records shall be at any time removed from the State except upon such conditions as the commission prescribes.

The commission may require annual, periodical, or special reports to be filed by all carriers, prescribe the manner and form in which reports shall be made, and require specific answers to all questions upon which the commission deems the information to be necessary. The reports shall be under oath whenever the commission so requires."

NOTE: The above section applies to city carriers.

"5221. Each household goods carrier shall have an office or place within this State in which it shall keep all books, accounts, papers, and records required by the commission to be kept within this State. No such books, accounts, papers, or records shall be at any time removed from the State except upon such conditions as the commission prescribes

The commission may require annual, periodical, or special reports to be filed by all household goods carriers, prescribe the manner and form in which reports shall be made, and may require specific answers to all questions upon which the commission deems information to be necessary. The reports shall be under oath whenever the commission so requires."

NOTE: The above section applies to household goods carriers.

11. LAPSE OF TRUCK CARRIER PERMITS FOR NON-USE

The following types of permits lapse and terminate if not exercised for a period of one year:

highway contract carrier permit (Sec. 3573)
radial highway common carrier permit (Sec. 3573).

But the following permits lapse and terminate if not exercised for a period of six months:

petroleum contract carrier permit (Sec. 3605)
city carrier permit (Sec 3945)
household goods carrier permit (Sec. 5284)

Such periods should be uniform for all types of permit carriers. It is recommended that the committee consider legislation amending as many of the following sections as may be necessary to achieve uniformity.

"3573. Any operating permit not exercised for a period of ~~one year~~ _____ shall lapse and terminate."

NOTE: Above section applies to highway contract carriers and radial highway common carriers

"3605. A permit shall remain in effect until suspended or terminated by the commission, except that any permit not exercised for a period of ~~six (6) months~~ _____ shall lapse and terminate."

NOTE: Above section applies to petroleum contract carriers.

"3945. A permit shall remain in effect until otherwise ordered by the commission, except that a permit shall lapse and terminate if not exercised for a period of ~~six months~~ _____, and a permit issued to engage in the transportation of unprocessed agricultural commodities from a point of production to a processing or storage plant shall expire on December 31st of the year in which issued unless sooner terminated or revoked by order of the commission."

NOTE. Above section applies to city carriers

"5284. A permit shall remain in effect until suspended or terminated as provided in this chapter. Any permit not exercised for a period of ~~six months~~ _____ shall lapse and terminate. No permit shall be sold, leased, assigned or otherwise transferred or encumbered by the holder thereof without first having secured from the commission an order authorizing the same. Any such sale, lease, assignment, transfer or encumbrance made otherwise than in accordance with the order of the commission authorizing the same shall be void."

NOTE: Above section applies to household goods carriers

12. TRUCK CARRIER OPERATION BETWEEN SAME POINTS UNDER DIFFERENT KINDS OF PERMITS

For purpose of clarification, it is recommended that the committee consider legislation amending the Highway Carriers' Act as follows:

"3542. No person or corporation shall engage or be permitted by the commission to engage in the transportation of property on any public highway, both as a common carrier and as a highway contract carrier or petroleum contract carrier of the same commodities between the same points."

13. TRANSPORTATION RATE FUND FEE COLLECTION UPON REVOCATION OF OPERATIVE AUTHORITY

Fees under the Transportation Rate Fund Act (Public Utilities Code, Secs. 5001-5011) are payable each quarter. It has been difficult to collect, at the end of a quarter, fees due from carriers whose operating authority has been revoked during the quarter, as many of such carriers move to other counties or leave the State soon after revocation of operating authority.

It is recommended that the committee consider legislation amending Section 5007 as follows:

"5007. If any transportation agency referred to in this chapter is in default in the payment of the fees prescribed, other than filing fees, for a period of 30 days or more, the commission may suspend or revoke any certificate of public convenience and necessity, permit, or license of such agency, and shall estimate from all available information the gross operating revenue of such agency, and shall add to such estimate a penalty of 25 percent for failure, neglect, or refusal to report. The transportation agency shall be estopped from complaining of the amount of such estimate. In no event shall such penalty be less than one dollar ($1) Upon payment of the amount estimated and the penalty thereon, the certificate, permit, or license of such agency theretofore suspended in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be reinstated.

The commission may grant a reasonable extension of such 30-day period to any transportation agency, upon written application of the transportation agency and proper showing thereunder of the necessity for such extension

Upon revocation of any operating authority issued to any transportation agency subject to this chapter, all fees provided for herein shall become due and payable immediately."

14. OBSOLETE STREET CAR FARE PROVISION

Public Utilities Code Section 454 provides that no public utility shall increase any rate "except upon a showing before the commission and a finding by the commission that such increase is justified." Street railroads or interurban railroads are public utilities within the meaning of the above section

It is recommended that the Committee consider legislation striking the first sentence of Section 462. The language proposed to be stricken is obsolete.

"462. ~~No street or interurban railroad corporation shall charge or receive more than five cents ($0.05) for one continuous ride in the same general direction within the corporate limits of any city or city and county, except upon a showing before the commission that such greater charge is justified.~~ Every street or interurban railroad corporation shall upon such terms as the commission finds to be just and reasonable furnish to its passengers transfers entitling them to one continuous trip in the same general direction over and upon the portions of its lines within the same city or city and county not reached by the originating car."

UNANIMOUS CONSENT REQUEST TO PRINT REMARKS IN JOURNAL

Speaker Lincoln asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent that the following remarks by Dr. Charles F. Oehler be ordered printed in the Journal:

REMARKS BY DR. CHARLES F. OEHLER

Nearly 50 years ago, when I was Pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church on 12th and K Streets in this city, still in my early forties, when the political headquarters were in the Golden Eagle Hotel on Seventh and K, and when James H. Budd was Governor of California, I was Chaplain of this Assembly, the Thirty-second, imploring God's blessing upon our Golden State and the lawmakers here assembled.

Today, by your kind invitation, which I ever so much appreciate, I am here once more, and have offered prayer in your behalf, that God would bless you and the people which you represent, and the Country which we inhabit.

I need not tell you that your task is a most noble one, and that you have a very responsible position. The inscription here above in Latin expresses it most fittingly: 'Legislatorum est justas leges facere." "It is the duty of the legislators to make just laws."

You realize that fact, and I am sure that you honestly and sincerely do your best to make laws which benefit our State.

Three thousand years ago God gave to Moses on Mt. Sinai the Ten Commandments, the perfect and eternal law. This law has never been changed, never amended or repealed, and after 3,000 years it is still the standard, unchangeable law, because it is divine. If our laws and ordinances are in conformity with this divine law, they must be right and good.

I am thinking there is a question in your mind today, which you would like to ask me: What did I do to reach the age of 92 and still have the vigor and ability of a young man, and be an old man with a young body. Time does not allow us to enter this subject at length. Let me just tell you this: Don't ever do anything to hurt and abuse your body and your health, and when you retire, don't quit. Keep on, reasonably, working, exercising, planning. Have a couple of hobbies. Worry is a great killer. But here is the remedy: "Cast your burden on the Lord for He careth for you." It never fails. Keep close to God, close to Christ.

Let me close with story or rather the parable of the two frogs, it has a very fine lesson.

Two frogs entered a barnyard, and after looking around a little entered the milkhouse. They hopped onto a cream vat, and jumped in. They swam around for a while, and had a gay time. They tried to get out, but they could not reach the rim. So they kept on swimming, but by and by they got very tired. Finally one frog said, "I am tired, I cannot go any more, I've got to give up." He held up his arms, he went down to the bottom, he was dead! The other frog was tired, too, but he kept on swimming, kicking, moving, for a while longer. Finally he had churned the cream into butter, and he was sitting on top.

Let us be grateful to God, for all His benefits and blessings. And let me thank you for the privilege and pleasure to have been with you today.

Receive the blessing. The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord make His face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you, the Lord lift up His countenance upon you, and give you peace —AMEN.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT REQUEST TO PRINT REPORT IN JOURNAL

HONORABLE L. H. LINCOLN
HONORABLE MEMBERS OF THE ASSEMBLY
State Capitol
Sacramento, California

GENTLEMEN: Pursuant to House Resolution No. 241 of the 1955 General Session, the Honorable Donald D. Doyle, Chairman of the Assembly Interim Committee on Education, appointed the following persons as a Subcommittee on Teachers' Tenure and Retirement.

Your subcommittee presents herewith this Progress Report.

Respectfully submitted.

DOROTHY DONAHOE, Chairman

BRUCE F. ALLEN	CARLOS BEE
PAULINE L. DAVIS	EDWARD E. ELLIOTT
ERNEST R. GEDDES	SHERIDAN N. HEGLAND
CARLEY V. PORTER	JESSE M. UNRUH

PROGRESS REPORT OF THE SUBCOMMITTEE ON TEACHERS' TENURE AND RETIREMENT

The present subcommittee was created by action of the Chairman of the Assembly Interim Committee on Education following adjournment of the 1955 General Session of the Legislature, for the purpose of studying (1) all aspects of bills relating to present tenure provisions of the law and possible revisions of the law to extend (or restrict) its scope and terms and to expand its coverage, and (2) certain specific problems arising out of teachers' retirement legislation passed at the 1955 General Session.

During the interim period thus far two hearings of the subcommittee have been held—the first in San Francisco on September 13 and 14, 1955, and the second in Los Angeles on October 6 and 7, 1955. A total of 32 witnesses were heard by the subcommittee, most of them appearing in connection with the subject of tenure, in view of the fact that the subject of retirement in its basic considerations was settled at the last session of the Legislature with the enactment into law of Senate Bill No. 1445. This progress report, therefore, will deal with both subjects, but at more length with Teachers' Tenure.

TEACHERS' TENURE

At the two hearings of the subcommittee testimony was received on both sides of the tenure question. On the one hand, representatives from the School Board of the City and County of San Francisco were heard, advocating repeal of present provisions of the law which establish special tenure rights for probationary teachers in the City and County of San Francisco and in Los Angeles County. On the other hand, many spokesmen were heard advocating the extension of tenure to school districts of less than 850 average daily attendance.

In connection with its considerations of the subject of tenure, the committee had brought to its attention repeatedly the fact that authoritative information was not available as to the actual situation existing with respect to teachers' tenure in the State. Consequently, at the conclusion of the second hearing in Los Angeles the subcommittee met in executive session and recommended to the chairman of the committee the making of a special survey to provide specific information on the following points:

(1) The present situation in the State with respect to the extent of established tenure status in the public schools.

(2) The relationship, if any, existing between tenure rights on the one hand and teacher turnover on the other.

(3) The opinion and experience of teachers as to tenure, including expressions as to its advantages and disadvantages.

(4) The desirability of extending tenure rights to teachers employed in schools of less than 850 average daily attendance, the lower limit school district size for obligatory tenure at the present time.

This suggestion for an Education Committee survey was approved by the chairman, and the committee consultant was directed to make necessary arrangements and to proceed, with the objective of having results from the survey available for report to the State Legislature at this Budget Session. The subcommittee is happy to report at this time that the above-mentioned survey has been completed, and will be published as a separate research report.

On the basis of the factual information contained in this research report, the subcommittee feels that it is now in a position to deal in a more effective way with the subject of tenure at its remaining hearings to be held before the Regular Session in 1957. At least one and possibly two additional hearings will be scheduled during this period.

The findings of the staff research study on teachers' tenure are summarized below. Copies of the Research Report will be available from the State Printer.

FINDINGS

I. General Characteristics of California Teachers

a. As between men and women certificated personnel, women predominate in elementary schools, constituting approximately 75 percent of the total. At all other levels in the Public School System, however, men are in the majority, accounting for 57 percent of the total for junior high schools, 68 percent for high schools, and 76 percent for junior colleges.

b With respect to non-teaching assignments in the schools such as counseling, supervision and administration, the results of the survey indicate that 22 percent of the men reporting are so engaged, as compared to 9 percent of the women reporting.

c. In regard to salaries, permanent teachers reporting indicated a median salary range of $5,600-$5,700, and probationary teachers a median salary range of $4,500-$4,600.

II. Non-tenure Districts

Approximately 12 percent of the teachers reporting in the survey are employed in school districts where the mandatory provisions of the State Tenure Law do not apply.

III. The Tenure Problem by Type of District

Lack of mandatory tenure rights for certificated school personnel is of considerable magnitude only in elementary and high school districts. Junior high schools and junior colleges are generally located in populous centers where the State Tenure Law applies.

IV. Tenure in School Districts in Relation to Credentials

Districts of less than 850 average daily attendance—not subject to the mandatory provisions of the State Tenure Law—represent in their certificated personnel approximately three times the state-wide average of subcredentialed staff members

V. Previous Teacher Tenure Status

Of teachers who now have tenure, over 10 percent have previously had tenure in some other school district in California. In addition, of teachers now in probationary status, approximately 9 percent report previous tenure status in another district in California.

VI. Age as a Bar to Tenure

Approximately 20 percent of the teachers replying to the questionnaire are of the opinion that an age of 40 to 50 is a bar to the gaining of tenure status in their districts.

VII. Marriage as a Bar to Tenure

Marriage to other teachers in the same district was frequently mentioned in comments of teachers as a bar to the gaining of tenure

VIII. Employment of Provisional Teachers

Approximately 5 percent of the teachers reporting expressed the opinion that their school boards favor the employment of provisional teachers as a means of maintaining lower salaries. Approximately 3 percent believed that provisional teachers are utilized by their boards to avoid the granting of tenure.

IX. Teachers' Opinions in Regard to the Desirability of Extending Mandatory Tenure

Teachers reporting from districts not now under tenure were in favor of tenure in the ratio of two to one A large percentage of replies (over 30 percent) expressed no fixed opinion.

X. Means Favored by Teachers for Improving the Teaching Program in California

The most frequently checked items listed as possible means of improving the teaching program in California public schools were the following policies and practices·

a. Grant two-year contracts during probationary period to fully qualified teachers

b. Make frequent, objective evaluations of teaching performance during probationary period

c Institute a practice of more frequent conferences between supervisors and teachers.

d Provide more adequate observation and direction from supervisors.

e. Offer a statement of cause in terminating employment during probationary period.

f. Shorten the general probationary period to two years.

g. Provide for the transfer of tenure credits from school district to school district within the State.

h. Reduce the pupil load of teachers through the assistance of student teachers where available, the use of more clerical help on records, and the employment of playground supervisors for service during lunch and recess periods.

i Restrict the number of meetings and extra hour activities required of teachers.

j Encourage the community to give proper recognition to the teaching profession and to train children at home to respect their teachers.

k Improve the real income of teachers so that it will compare favorably with that offered to professional people of similar training in business and industry.

TEACHERS' RETIREMENT SYSTEM

The Legislature at its 1953 Session increased the level of payments for teachers already retired, but left unchanged retirement provisions of the state law applying to teachers retiring in the future. The Legislature at the 1955 Session, however, devoted major consideration to the latter group.

Under the provisions of the 1955 legislation incorporated in Senate Bill No. 1445, retirement rights of teachers were made to compare favorably with retirement rights of state employees. As a means of financing increased benefits, teacher contributions to the retirement system were substantially increased, and for the first time contributions of local school districts were placed on more than a token basis. For example, under the terms of this legislation, which goes into effect July 1, 1956, school districts will be required to contribute an amount equal to 3 percent of the payroll covering all certificated personnel. Authorization is made available to school districts for the levy of a special override tax by the district if that is necessary.

Because of the fact that the Teacher Retirement Bill passed at the 1955 Session was drawn in general terms to apply to all districts with equal effect, some of the poorer districts were subjected by its terms to excessively high tax rates. It was agreed at the time by the sponsors of the legislation, and made a stipulation by the Governor in signing the bill, that remedial legislation would be prepared and introduced at the present Budget Session. Accordingly, this subcommittee cooperated in the task of getting the necessary facts together and in drawing the necessary legislation to establish a tax rate ceiling on contributions to the retirement system by any particular school district. This subcommittee, as a consequence, gives its full endorsement and support to the proposed legislation that will create this equity.

DEAR MR. SPEAKER AND MEMBERS OF THE ASSEMBLY: The Assembly Interim Committee on Public Health, authorized by House Resolution 174, was directed to study 15 separate matters during the 1955-56 interim.

The committee organized into working subcommittees to study those items given priority for the period June, 1955, to March, 1956, as follows:

Naturopathy. To determine whether any legislation is needed to regulate the practice of naturopathy in California and, specifically, to study the possible need for a Board of Naturopathic Examiners in the Department of Professional and Vocational Standards.

Hot Plates and Unvented Heaters. To obtain facts on possible regulations to be required for their use.

Schools of Practical Nursing. To study facts relating to the operation of such schools and if necessary determine possible standards required.

Explosives. To study the manufacture, sale, storage, transportation, use or possession of explosives and possible needed revisions in law relating thereto.

Hospital Districts. To study all facts relating to hospital districts including the laws relating to them.

Air Pollution. To continue the study of smog and air pollution and determine whether or not additional legislation is required.

Drugs for the Mentally Ill. Investigate the use of drugs and the possible effect on the amount of capital outlay needed for mental hospital facilities Abandonment of Private Cemeteries. Determine possible need for legislation relative to the power to declare the abandonment of a cemetery.

The following additional subjects were referred to the Committee, and subcommittees will be organized in the near future to conduct the required studies.

Health Needs of the State. To study the advisability of establishing a Commission on the Health Needs of California.

Cleaning and Dyeing. To investigate with the view of establishing a Minimum Price Law.

Campground Sanitation. To study all phases of this subject to determine any need for legislation and possible establishment of a Campground Sanitation Fund.

Waterworks Operators. Investigate with the view of licensing and regulating them under the State Department of Professional and Vocational Standards.

Radiation Protection. To determine the extent of state responsibility and study the possible establishment of a state radiation protection service in the State Office of Civil Defense.

Underwater Breathing Devices. To investigate the safety of the devices being sold in California and the validity of the advertising claims to determine need for possible regulation

ACTIVITIES:

The committee opened a new office in the Earl Warren Hall, University of California Campus and employed an executive secretary and a part-time office secretary to carry on the staff work.

During the interim period 1955-1956, the various subcommittees held hearings as follows:

Subcommittee	Date	Location
Naturopaths	August 19, 1955	Los Angeles
	October 7, 1955	Sacramento
	December 7, 1955	Los Angeles
Hot Plates, and Unvented Heaters	September 23, 1955	Los Angeles
Schools of Practical Nursing	October 13-14, 1955	Los Angeles
Explosives	January 20, 1956	Los Angeles
District Hospitals	September 13, 1955	Sacramento
	October 27, 1955	Sacramento
	November 18, 1955	Sacramento
Air Pollution	September 28, 1955	Los Angeles
	February 29, 1956	Oakland

The committee chairman appointed a committee member to tour the areas which suffered the greatest damage during the 1955-1956 winter floods to determine the existence of resulting health problems The following cities were visited: Marysville, Yuba City, Colusa, Williams, Calistoga, Santa Rosa, Guerneville, Rio Del, Fulton, Healdsburg, St Helena, and Napa. It was found that no additional health legislation was required

PLANNED ACTIVITIES:

The Subcommittees on Naturopaths, Hot Plates, and Unvented Heaters, and Schools of Practical Nursing will each hold one additional meeting to complete their studies

One public hearing will be scheduled for each of the following: Explosives, Abandonment of Cemeteries, Health Needs for the State, Cleaning and Dyeing, and Underwater Breathing Devices.

In addition, it is anticipated that two hearings each will be required to study the questions of licensing of waterworks operators and protection from radiation.

A three-day session will be planned to investigate campground sanitation. The session will include at least one hearing and a tour of selected campgrounds.

The committee will give serious consideration to the question of the use of the new drugs, especially chlorpromazine and reserpine in the treatment of the mentally ill A tour will be made of state and local hospitals presently using the drugs. Close coordination with the State Department of Mental Hygiene and the state hospital officials will require conferences and work sessions. The committee will also keep in contact with the Senate Interim Committee on the Treatment of Mental Illness to exchange information and avoid duplication of effort Three hearings are planned for the investigation.

The estimated cost for carrying out this program during the remainder of the interim was submitted to the Assembly Rules Committee on March 15, 1956.

Respectfully submitted.

WHEREAS, It has come to the attention of the Assembly that Mrs. Edith Swett is retiring from a teaching career that has spanned 56 years, 32 of these in Kern County; and

WHEREAS, In spite of the handicaps of poverty, isolation and distance, she attained a teachers credential at the age of 18; and

WHEREAS, In spite of the difficulties encountered she continued to add to her proficiency as a schoolteacher by taking extensive education courses during her summers away from school; and

WHEREAS, In the face of great personal sorrow Mrs. Swett continued to give to her pupils the examples of strength, wisdom and purity of heart, the attributes she possessed in abundance; and

WHEREAS, Mrs Swett was recently honored by the Kern County Educators for her years of service to the county in which she taught so many children, where she has demonstrated to all the people who came to know her the serenity, understanding and sense of humor that made her a person able to shape the pattern of so many lives and the symbol of all that is considered excellent and desirable in a school teacher; and

WHEREAS, We often fail to thank those people who have done so much for us and ours, to appreciate those few dedicated people who have lived outside of themselves for the benefit of others and to reward those people in life who have surmounted their own sorrows and seen fit to counsel and guide us in our encounters with the problems and grief life often offers; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That Mrs. Edith Swett is hereby heartily congratulated for spending 56 years as a teacher, confidante, disciplinarian, friend and mother to her pupils; and be it further

The following resolutions were offered:

By Mr. Lanterman:

House Resolution No. 25

Relative to extending congratulations to Marion L. Sherman of Altadena, California

WHEREAS, The action of the Legislature in providing funds for the removal of the remains of Captain John A. Sutter from Lititz, Pennsylvania, for burial at Sutter's Fort has prompted Marion L. Sherman, probably the sole surviving attendant at the funeral of Captain John A. Sutter, to write a letter concerning her experience; and

WHEREAS, This letter is of general interest to all, reading in part:

"My sister and I are proud of our record, we have never missed an election, since we have had the right to vote in 1916. A small paragraph in the Star-News, was the incentive to write this letter; at last the Government is going to honor a great man, General Sutter, by bringing his remains back to the old fort in Sacramento, which I enjoyed visiting a few years ago; he was closely associated with the early history of California and did much to develop its resources; he was respected and loved by the pioneers.

"My father, Charles Henry Sherman, left Boston in 1849 on a sailing vessel, which was delayed by storms rounding Cape Horn. He reached San Francisco in March 1850 but always thought of himself as a "49er." He joined the first Vigilantes, but his certificate of membership was lost when he sent it to a cousin in San Francisco, but he joined again in 1856 and we have that certificate, signed by Wm. T. Coleman

"He was in the carpet business and also established the first store for the sale of silverware. He traveled back and forth and spent much time in the East, but lived many years in San Francisco where I was born in August 1863.

"He knew General Sutter and admired him very much and felt that the United States Government treated him very unjustly. They confiscated his land and never reimbursed him. Several times a bill was presented in Congress, but never passed. The last time was shortly before his death. He was in Washington when Congress adjourned without passing the bill before them. The shock and disappointment were too much and he died in Washington June 17, 1880, a broken hearted man. We were in Philadelphia at the time and my father took me to the funeral. He had a simple home in the little Moravian town of Lititz.

"It was a perfect day in June. The trees were clad in fresh foliage, the fields a brilliant green, and the hills and mountains covered with Mountain Laurel in full bloom, making a lovely pink glow, a beautiful setting for the simple service. According to the Moravian custom, no women attended the service. I was the only exception.

"The casket was carried by the pall bearers along the rough narrow street to the grave yard, the service conducted by a Moravian clergyman and the trombones played the Requiem. Following the casket was a short procession of men, walking two by two. I brought up the rear and felt like "the daughter of the regiment." In the procession were Gen. Fremont and Gen. John Sickels, who came to honor their old friend. They joined my father and me for dinner at an old fashioned country hotel, after which we boarded the train for Philadelphia. General Fremont changed at a junction and went to New York, but General Sickels went on to Philadelphia and we were his guests for supper at a very swell restaurant on Chestnut Street with rich crimson draperies and crystal chandeliers which impressed me very much. I was only 16

"Thus ended a memorable day which lingers in my memory. I may be the only person living today who was present at the burial of a great man who played a large part in the making of California of which we are so justly proud. I am in my ninety-third year and have been ill for three years but am interested in world affairs."

and,

WHEREAS, It is the desire of the Assembly that this letter be suitably preserved; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That a copy of said letter be transmitted to the State Library to be deposited in the California Section thereof; and be it further

Resolved, That the Assembly of the State of California extends its thanks to Marion L. Sherman, daughter of Charles Henry Sherman, for her interesting and informative letter, and its congratulations to her and her sister, Sara Sherman, for the interest in public affairs evidenced by their voting record and by her letter; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly be directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to Marion L. Sherman.

Resolution read, and ordered referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Mr. McCollister:

House Resolution No. 26

Relative to legislative attaches and employees

WHEREAS, Generally, the attaches and employees of the Legislature are not presently included in any retirement system; and

WHEREAS, Such legislative personnel are also not covered under the provisions of the Social Security Act; and

WHEREAS, In this present day and age most employed individuals are within some type of retirement system, be it private, state, or federal, and in light of this it is extremely important that these people who are daily faithfully performing their duties in service to the Legislature be afforded the opportunity of retirement and some type of survivorship benefits; and

WHEREAS, It is necessary that a study of this problem be made so that all the facts are available to the Legislature in order that appropriate legislation may be considered; now, therefore, be it

STATE OF CALIFORNIA
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS
SACRAMENTO, March 26, 1956

Honorable Patrick D McGee
Member of the Assembly
State Capitol, Sacramento, California

DEAR MR. MCGEE: At the meeting between Governor Knight and the Los Angeles County Assembly Delegation on Thursday, March 23, 1956, I stated that the California Highway Commission did not contemplate, as a result of recent flood damage to state highways, the removal from the current State Highway Budget, or that for the 1956-57 Fiscal Year of any presently budgeted state highway project This letter will confirm that statement, and is in accordance with assurances given by the commission as a body to the Governor on the previous day

This position of the commission, however, as was indicated to the members of your delegation at the meeting with the Governor, contemplates the receipt by California of emergency federal-aid funds for flood damage rehabilitation on federal-aid highways of not less than $4,000,000. Legislation authorizing emergency federal funds for such purposes has passed the Senate and is now pending in the House of Representatives. The presently pending authorizing legislation is in accordance with the previous established policy of the Federal Government to assist the states in situations such as that resulting from the California floods of last December.

If, for any reason, however, such funds should not be made available by the Congress it will, of course, be necessary for the commission to reconsider the entire situation.

Sincerely,

FRANK B. DURKEE, Director of Public Works
(Name printed.)

Upon invitation of Speaker Lincoln, the following prayer was offered by Paul A. Kloth, Interne Pastor of Our Saviour's Lutheran Church of Oakland:

O Most Merciful and Gracious God, We unite our thoughts in prayer before Thee this morning, mindful of the fact that Thou art our Creator. We do thank Thee that in this land of democracy we are able to have a fellowship of men who are deeply concerned over the welfare of this State, men who take an interest in the problems that come before this Legislature. We are grateful for Thy guidance in the past, and we humbly come before Thee today, asking Thee for Thy continuing guidance upon the leaders of this State. Give unto them wisdom and understanding as they evaluate and consider practical solutions, to problems which arise out of our ever changing society. This we ask for Jesus' sake.—AMEN.

Relative to discharges of military personnel

WHEREAS, It has been the traditional policy of the Armed Forces to grant honorable discharges to all persons who have rendered honorable service, and

WHEREAS, The principle of granting discharges from the military service upon the basis of the quality and character of such service exclusively has long been regarded as just and equitable; and

WHEREAS, In the recent past a number of less than honorable discharges have been granted to servicemen which have been based on pre-induction activities and associations; and

WHEREAS, The termination of military service with less than honorable discharges in such cases has tended to brand and stigmatize the recipients thereof in a manner which offends the true American concept of due process and fair play; and

WHEREAS, The present policy of the Armed Forces is to grant discharges only upon the basis of the character of the service rendered; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Congress of the United States is respectfully memorialized to take such measures as may be necessary to rescind all less than honorable discharges issued former military personnel which were based solely on pre-service activities or associations and to allow these former servicemen to obtain discharges based solely on the quality and merit of their service; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly be hereby directed to transmit copies of this resolution to the President and Vice President of the United States, the Department of Defense, the Armed Services Committee, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each Senator and Representative from California in the Congress of the United States.

Resolution read, and ordered referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Mr. Erwin:

House Resolution No. 20

Relative to commemorating Phi Kappa Tau fraternity upon its Golden Jubilee

WHEREAS, It has been the logical habit for men of similar ideas and philosophies to band together under a common organization whether such organization be of nations, states, or college classes; and

WHEREAS, When banded together the principles and precepts of such groups are given added power by the energy, ability and labor of the members comprising the group; and

WHEREAS, In recognition of the benefits to be gained by consolidation, the camaraderie which results from the association of those with mutual ideals, the goals that could be accomplished by a united and intelligent effort, Phi Kappa Tau, then known as the Non-Fraternity Association, was founded at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, on March 17, 1906; and

WHEREAS, This fraternity based its charter on the following precepts: (1) Emphasis to be placed upon innate worth as a qualification for membership, (2) democratic internal operation of the association, and (3) Christian ideals; and

WHEREAS, The basic appeal and solidity of purpose of this organization immediately attracted other similar thinking groups and individuals who made known their desire to affiliate with the original chapter; and

WHEREAS, Since 1906 Phi Kappa Tau has grown to encompass a living membership of 22,000 on seven college campuses throughout the United States, making this American college Greek letter society eighteenth in size among 64; and

WHEREAS, In spite of this rapid and continued growth the ideals of Phi Kappa Tau have remained constant throughout the years, an achievement indicating the strength and universality of appeal of these aims; and

WHEREAS, The Assembly of the State of California numbers among its members two Phi Kappa Taus, the Honorable Allen Miller and the Honorable Carley Porter; and

Tideland Oil Leases—No. 969

DEAR MR. MILLER:

Question

You have asked if the State Lands Commission has the power to offer for bid, oil leases on tide and submerged lands "not within a known geologic structure," without first making surveys so determining.

Opinion

It is our opinion that such a survey would not be required in all instances. Where the commission has any reasonable basis for determining that the lands are "not within a known geologic structure," we believe that the courts will uphold that determination whether or not a survey was made.

Analysis

The provision to which your question is directed is contained in Section 6827 of the Public Resources Code. That section prescribes the royalties to be specified by the State Lands Commission in offering for bid oil or gas leases on state tide and submerged lands. The amount of the royalty differs, based on whether or not the lands are within a known geologic structure of a producing oil or gas field. The commission is required to make the determination as to whether the lands are within such a known geologic structure.

The determination involves, of course, the exercise of the judgment, a discretionary matter. Such a determination, if not arbitrary, capricious or fraudulent, will be sustained by the courts, generally speaking, if there is any reasonable basis to support it. (Bank of Italy (1926), 200 Cal. 1; McDonough v. Goodcell (1939), 13 Cal. 2d 741; 2 Cal. Jur. 2d 377). However, unless there are facts that justify the commission's conclusion, the act of making the determination is arbitrary (McDonough v. Goodcell (1939), 13 Cal. 2d 741).

Thus, we believe that the determination by the commission that certain tide and submerged lands are not within a known geologic structure will be sustained if there exist facts on which such a determination can be reasonably based. As to whether or not a survey would be required to obtain facts would depend on the circumstances and, conceivably, where no facts were available and no other means of securing them was possible, a survey would be necessary. However, if facts exist on which to base the determination, the manner in which they are obtained is immaterial to the validity of the determination.

Very truly yours,

RALPH N. KLEPS, Legislative Counsel

UNANIMOUS CONSENT REQUEST

Mr. McGee asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent that the following material, read by Miss Donahoe be ordered printed in the Journal:

REMARKS READ BY MISS DONAHOE

Taken From "This I Believe" Written for Edward R. Murrow

MY FELLOW MEN, MYSELF AND GOD

By Margaret Chase Smith

Many nights I go home from the office or the Senate floor tired and discouraged. There's lots of glory and prestige and limelight for a United States Senator that the public sees. But there's just as much grief and harassment and discouragement that the public doesn't see.

Of course, like everyone else, I went into public service and politics with my eyes wide open. I knew that any public official is fair game for slander and smear and carping criticism. I knew that ingratitude was to be expected. I knew that fair weather friends would turn on me when they felt I no longer served their purposes I knew that I would be called all sorts of names from crook on down. I should have known that chances were good that I would even be accused of being a traitor to my Country.

These things I knew. But I never knew how vicious they could get and how deeply they could cut.

It is these things I think of when I'm tired and discouraged—and when I wonder if being a Senator is worth all that I put into it. These are the times when I consider quitting public life and retreating to the comforts and luxury of private life.

But these times have always been the very times when I became all the more convinced that all the sorrow, abuse, harassment and vilification was not too high a price or sacrifice to pay. For it is then that I ask myself, "What am I doing this for?"

I realize that I am doing it because I believe in certain things—things without which life wouldn't mean much to me.

This I do believe—that life has a real purpose—that God has assigned to each human being a role in life—that each of us has a purposeful task—that our individual roles are all different but that each of us has the same obligation to do the best we can.

I believe that every human being I come in contact with has a right to courtesy and consideration from me. I believe that I should not ask or expect from anyone else that which I am not willing to grant or do myself. I believe that I should be able to take anything that I can dish out. I believe that every living person has the right to criticize constructively, the right honestly to hold unpopular beliefs, the right to protest orderly, the right of independent thought.

I believe that no one has a right to own our souls except God.

I believe that freedom of speech should not be so abused by some that it is not exercised by others because of fear of smear. But I do believe that we should not permit tolerance to degenerate into indifference. I believe that people should never get so indifferent, cynical and sophisticated that they don't get shocked into action.

I believe that we should not forget how to disagree agreeably and how to criticize constructively. I believe with all my heart that we must not become a nation of mental mutes blindly following demagogues.

I believe that in our constant search for security we can never gain any peace of mind until we secure our own soul And this I do believe above all, especially in my times of greater discouragement, that I must BELIEVE—that I must believe in my fellow men—that I must believe in myself—that I must believe in God—if life is to have any meaning.

LETTERS OF TRANSMITTAL

HONORABLE FRANCIS C. LINDSAY, CHAIRMAN
Committee on Conservation, Planning, and Public Works
Assembly Chamber, State Capitol
Sacramento 14, California

DEAR MR. LINDSAY: Transmitted herewith is the Report of the Special Subcommittee as it pertains to the ownership of public utility stock and other property by certain persons now or formerly employed in the Division of Water Resources, Department of Public Works. This report is in response to the resolution of your committee adopted August 15, 1955, at Monterey.

The subcommittee has found no evidence of wrongdoing on the part of any employee so examined However, the subcommittee otherwise recognizes that a degree of such property ownership by a state employee could exist to an extent that might create a conflict as between the private interest of the employee and the public interest of the State. Therefore, in order that the fullest public confidence in regulatory activities of the State be maintained, the subcommittee recommends to the Legislature the enactment of legislation as set forth in this report.

This report was adopted by the subcommittee and made public on January 7, 1956, except for the recommended statute which was drafted and approved by the subcommittee subsequent to that date.

Respectfully submitted.

THOMAS W. CALDECOTT

HONORABLE FRANCIS C. LINDSAY, CHAIRMAN
Committee on Conservation, Planning, and Public Works
Assembly Chamber, State Capitol
Sacramento 14, California

DEAR MR. LINDSAY: I do not concur in the recommendations of this report on the proposed statute.

The form of the proposal, particularly as regards property of a wife or minor child, and the automatic forfeiture of office are features not substantiated by any comparison with other conflict of interest statutes.

The research of this committee has failed to disclose any circumstances showing a need for a conflict of interest statute in the Division of Water Resources. The problem is theoretical, and such drastic action, which would eliminate capable employees from State service, is unnecessary.

Sincerely yours,

BRUCE F. ALLEN

(Enclosure.)

REPORT ON PROPERTY OWNERSHIP CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

By the Special Subcommittee of The Assembly Interim Committee on Conservation, Planning, and Public Works

At a meeting on August 15, 1955, the Chairman of the Assembly Interim Committee on Conservation, Planning, and Public Works appointed a special subcommittee consisting of Assemblymen Allen, Caldecott, Miller, Unruh and Weinberger, Chairman, ". . . to investigate the compatibility, in matters that lie within the jurisdiction of the committee, of stock holding by persons in State Government, whose decisions might be influenced by such stock ownership."

This special subcommittee met on September 15, and (1) requested the full committee to broaden its authority to include an examination into any conflicting property interest rather than merely stock ownership, which was done, (2) agreed, because of the magnitude of a full study of the subject and the lack of funds available, to limit its initial inquiry to selected persons in the Division of Water Resources, as the agency in which the question of stock ownership had arisen, and (3) approved, in essence, a questionnaire (a copy of which is attached as Exhibit A of this report) which would be submitted to the selected group of policy forming officials in that agency.

The special subcommittee determined that its assignment consisted of two propositions:

1. Whether there exists property ownership of the type in question by the designated officials in a degree that is incompatible with their assigned duties and the State's interests, and
2. Whether there should be statutory prohibitions against such ownership.

From the beginning it was apparent that these were two separate and distinct propositions, the second being determinable without reference to the first. Without knowing whether any employee of the Division of Water Resources owned any utility stock, it could be concluded that a degree of ownership could exist which might influence the decisions of such an employee and that a statutory prohibition would be desirable to preclude such a possibility. However, the subcommittee interpreted the assignment from the full committee to include a factual determination of stock ownership by the personnel in question even though it was initially determined by an opinion of the Legislative Counsel (attached hereto as Exhibit B) that the ownership of such stock was not, in itself, illegal.

Therefore, the subcommittee, believing that the privacy of the state employees concerned should be protected unless evidence of wrongdoing were disclosed, resolved initially to consider the information obtained, pursuant to its assignment, confidential. The subcommittee proceeded as follows: First, it requested the Legislative Auditor to devise a questionnaire which could be sent to a selected number of officials in the Division of Water Resources and which would require them to supply detailed information about their ownership of stock or other utility properties. This questionnaire, as amended and approved by the subcommittee, was submitted to twenty-one employees of the Division, these having been selected because of (1) their apparent policy-forming status in the agency; (2) suggestions by the Director of the Department of Public Works; and (3) information furnished by the Chairman of the Assembly Interim Committee on Conservation, Planning, and Public Works.

The cooperation of the employees was commendable. All twenty-one questionnaires were completed and returned. Of these, ten answered all questions in the negative, thereby disclaiming ownership of any property in the specified categories. Six responses indicated ownership of properties such as "house and lot which is located in the Sacramento Municipal Utility District," bonds of the Federal Government, shares of a land company, and utility stock acquired and disposed of prior to 1935, which the respondents felt might be affected by decisions of the Division, but which, to the subcommittee, seemed to be all of a nature that could be dismissed because the possible effect on the property would be nebulous or so far removed from immediate actions of the Division that there could be no significant direct benefit. The remaining five responses contained statements of ownership of assorted properties, including stocks in California power and electric public utility corporations, ranging from a few shares to approximately fourteen hundred shares in one case.

A follow-up verification of the records of all the major California power and electric utility corporations was conducted. The records of these corporations were subpoenaed and the subcommittee was thus provided with all information in the records as to stock held by the twenty-one persons under reference. The reports of these corporations were compared against the questionnaires of the employees. The results of this comparison were considered satisfactory. In a few instances minor discrepancies existed which the subcommittee regarded as (1) oversights, because other utility stock holdings had been correctly reported by that person or because the holding was small or had occurred many years ago, or (2) the ownership reported by the corporation was actually that of another person of the same name or initials as the state employee.

In one instance the employee was interviewed personally by the subcommittee staff for the purpose of resolving what might appear to be an incongruous relationship between a modest state salary and investments of some magnitude, particularly in view of the relatively large holdings of public utility securities by that individual. In this connection, questions were asked of this employee and of his stock broker, concerning other investments, inheritances, outside incomes, et cetera, as a basis for ascertaining whether these investments appeared to be consistent with his total past and present income. The subcommittee reviewed the results of this staff investigation at a meeting held on November 4.

Finding No. 1. Responses provided by all employees have been reviewed by the subcommittee and it has concluded, on the basis of its examination and its review of the work of its staff, that no evidence of stock or other property ownership has been produced which, on its face, indicates any incompatibility with assigned duties of these employees and the State's interests.

The subcommittee has been advised by the Legislative Counsel that unlimited stock ownership by employees of the Division of Water Resources in the utility corporations being regulated by this same Division is perfectly legal. Nevertheless, the subcommittee believes that while ownership of a few shares or even a few hundred shares of such stock by these employees is probably not significant, there is a degree of ownership which would probably raise a very serious public question as to the ability of the employee to render impartial service to the State. Because of the difficulty of defining this degree in individual cases, and because of the right of the public to be free of even the slightest suspicion of their employees, the subcommittee believes that legislation designed to eliminate conflicts of interest should be enacted.

Although the subcommittee collectively and individually strongly supports the principle that all public business should be conducted publicly, the subcommittee feels that in this instance where there is no evidence of wrongdoing by any state employee it would be an injustice to that state employee to make any disclosure of his personal financial status in this report.

Recommendation No. 1. Therefore, the subcommittee strongly recommends to the full committee that the names of the twenty-one employees and the information obtained from them and from other sources pertaining to their financial condition not be made public. The subcommittee believes there is ample precedent and justification for protecting the private affairs of governmental employees, as well as other individuals, when it cannot be shown that they have committed an illegal act and where the disclosure of personal information does not serve a public purpose. To make public the questionnaires of individual employees under such circumstances would be as unjustified as it would be to publish the bank balances of any group of California citizens. For that reason the subcommittee is making the strong and unanimous recommendation to the full committee that the original questionnaires and supporting information not be made public and that they be deposited with the Legislative Auditor under Joint Rule 37 with a directive that they be kept confidential.

At the same time that it was receiving, verifying and evaluating the information as to property ownership by employees of the Division of Water Resources, the subcommittee placed a series of requests with the Legislative Counsel pertaining to conflict of interest statutes in other states and the Federal Government, as well as requesting a digest of such statutes now in effect in California. Copies of these materials are attached hereto (Exhibits C-1 through C-5).

Finding No. 2. The subcommittee finds that conflict of interest statutes are not uncommon among other large states, particularly as they pertain to those agencies which regulate business activities. Such statutes are also common in California, see, for example, Section 303, Public Utilities Code, pertaining to members and employees of the Public Utilities Commission, which prohibits ownership by both members and employees of the Commission of any stocks or bonds in any corporations "subject in whole or in part to regulation by the Commission – – –."

The subcommittee believes that a private interest of a public employee may reach a magnitude which would be contrary to the public interest. This magnitude, unfortunately, does not lend itself to exact definition. A major element of continuing good government is continuing public confidence. On this basis the subcommittee believes that the Legislature can enhance public confidence by providing a statutory guide for employees which will remove any possible public suspicion and which will also allow the employee a maximum of freedom to invest in areas not affected by his employment, for the subcommittee recognizes that investment of private capital in private enterprises was one of the great factors in building America, and the subcommittee believes that of course such investment should be encouraged to the maximum, consistent with the maintenance of the highest degree of confidence by the public in their employees

Recommendation No. 2. While the subcommittee believes this to be a problem which goes far beyond the employees of the Division of Water Resources and believes that our recommendation should be extended to include all state regulatory agencies, whether they be headed by elective or appointive officials, the enactment of the following statute is recommended, limited to employees of the Division of Water Resources, since that is the limit of this subcommittee's jurisdiction:

An act to add Section 1061 to the Water Code, relating to officers and employees of the Division of Water Resources in the Department of Public Works, concerning possible conflicts between private interests and official duties.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1061 is added to the Water Code, to read:

1061. No person possessing any property interest in, or owning stocks, bonds, or other securities issued by, any corporation, partnership, person, or public agency which (a) is constructing or maintains a dam subject to the supervision of the State Engineer or the Division of Water Resources, or (b) has a valid and existing permit or license issued by the State Engineer or the Division of Water Resources, or (c) has pending any application, petition, or proceeding before the State Engineer or the Division of Water Resources, shall hold the office of State Engineer or hold any office, position, or employment in the Division of Water Resources. The ownership of such stocks, bonds, securities, or property interest by the spouse or minor children of a person shall be deemed, for the purpose of this section, to be ownership thereof by the person.

Failure of any such person who, by gift, bequest, or operation of law, becomes the owner of such stocks, bonds, securities, or property interest to divest himself of such ownership within a reasonable time shall constitute a resignation from any such state office, position, or employment.

As used in this section the term "stocks, bonds, or other securities" does not include general obligation bonds of the United States or of the State of California.

If a Department of Water Resources is created at the 1956 Special Session, the subcommittee recommends that a statute similar to the one recommended in this report be included in the bill creating that department.

QUESTIONNAIRE OF THE SUBCOMMITTEE OF THE ASSEMBLY INTERIM COMMITTEE ON CONSERVATION, PLANNING, AND PUBLIC WORKS

(NOTE: This questionnaire, distributed by a Subcommittee of the Assembly Interim Committee on Conservation, Planning, and Public Works, is designed to secure information from employees of the Division of Water Resources, Department of Public Works, who are at a policy-making level, regarding their ownership, if any, of stocks, bonds, or debentures in public utility corporations which are regulated by or otherwise do business with the Division, and of other property ownerships which could have been affected by policy decisions of the Division.

Some states have laws or regulations pertaining to stock ownership by employees. California, generally speaking, does not, and whether such legislation is desirable is a matter with which the Committee is concerned.

The ownership of stocks, bonds or debentures in public utilities by employees of the Division of Water Resources is not illegal, nor is this questionnaire intended to imply any wrongdoing. Its purpose is to determine the extent of such ownership as a basis for legislative evaluation of possible conflicts of public and private interest and the advisability of legislative or other regulation. Therefore, the answers should be as complete and detailed as possible. Where space is insufficient, please use the back of the page or a separate sheet.

The cooperation of all employees will be greatly appreciated in securing a reply not later than October 15, 1955.)

Stock Ownership by Officers and Employees of the Department of Public Works—No. 202

DEAR MR. WEINBERGER: You have asked us to advise you regarding the law applicable to ownership of shares of stock by officers and employees of the Department of Public Works in cases where the corporations issuing such shares may be awarded contracts by the department or may be subject to some degree of regulation or control by the department or some division thereof.

Section 1090 of the Government Code provides that state officers, among others, shall not be interested in any contract made by them in their official capacity or by any body or board of which they are members. Section 1092 permits any such contract to be avoided and Section 1097 imposes a penalty, fine or imprisonment and disqualification from holding office. These sections would be applicable to members of the Department of Public Works who have the status of officers. However, Section 1091 of the Government Code was amended by Chapter 1325 of the Statutes of 1955 to provide that an officer shall not be deemed interested in a contract if his interest is ownership of less than three percent of the shares of a corporation for profit or if it is that of a nonsalaried officer of a nonprofit corporation.

Insofar as ownership of shares of stock in corporations subject to regulation or control by the department, there is no general statutory prohibition of ownership thereof by officers or employees of the regulatory agency. Whenever the Legislature has imposed such prohibitions, it has done so by making the prohibition applicable to a specific state agency. There are a number of such specific provisions such as Section 303 of the Public Utilities Code relating to officers and employees of the Public Utilities Commission, Sections 234 and 5209 of the Financial Code relating to banks and savings and loan associations, Section 12919 of the Insurance Code relating to insurance corporations and Section 19243 of the Business and Professions Code relating to officers and employees of the Horse Racing Board.

We have found no such provision in the law that relates to the Department of Public Works or any of the divisions of the department and it is our opinion that ownership by officers or employees of the department and the divisions thereof of shares of stock in corporations over which the department or any division thereof may have regulatory powers or which are affected by the activities of the department is not illegal. In expressing this opinion, it is made upon the assumption that any such shares were properly acquired by the officer or employee and that they were not given to him by or on behalf of the corporation under such circumstances as might constitute a violation of the laws relating to bribery or similar penal offenses.

The only statutory provision we have found that appears in any way to relate to this subject is contained in subdivision (s) of Section 19572 of the Government Code which lists as a ground for discipline of a state civil service employee any act which is incompatible with or inimical to the public service. With reference to this provision the Department of Public Works has filed with the State Personnel Board a statement of incompatible activities and the Personnel Board has approved that statement. However, there is nothing in that statement that would make it illegal or improper for an employee of the department to own shares of stock in corporations that are regulated by the department or a division thereof, or are affected by its activities.

Very truly yours,

RALPH N. KLEPS, Legislative Counsel

Stock Ownership by Officers and Employees of the Department of Public Works—No. 202

DEAR MR. WEINBERGER: We have prepared and enclose our opinion on the law applicable to ownership of shares of stock by officers and employees of the Department of Public Works.

As requested by you, we asked the department whether any change in their statement of incompatible activities of their employees was contemplated. We were informed that the statement is being reviewed generally and also with reference to this particular question but that as of the present date no determination had been made as to whether the statement should or could be amended with reference to ownership of shares of stock by employees of the department.

Also, as requested, we have made such examination as time would permit of the laws of other states to ascertain to what extent they prohibited ownership of shares in corporations by officers and employees of regulatory agencies. Unfortunately the indexes to the various state laws are not prepared in such fashion as to facilitate such a search.

We did not find in any case a general prohibition of such ownership but did find a number of specific provisions relating to particular agencies. We enclose a list of citations to such statutes but this list is more illustrative of such legislation, rather than all inclusive and there are undoubtedly a considerable number of other statutes of similar nature relating to other agencies that we were unable to locate with the research materials at hand and in the time available. If you wish us to do further research regarding the laws of other states on this subject, we would be glad to do so.

Very truly yours,

RALPH N. KLEPS, Legislative Counsel

Stock Ownership of Public Employees—No. 284

DEAR MR. WEINBERGER: As requested by you we have prepared and enclose our opinion regarding the circumstances under which the law relating to the Securities and Exchange Commission and the rules of that commission require disclosure of stock ownership.

We have also prepared and enclose a memorandum listing the federal laws we found relating to stock ownership by public officers and employees. While we believe the list is substantially complete it is possible that some laws were omitted by reason of the difficulty of ascertaining this information through available indexes.

We did not find either in the federal laws or in the list of State laws previously sent you any provision requiring disclosure of stock ownership as distinguished from prohibiting such ownership. However, we call to your attention Rule 203.3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission which appears in the pocket supplement to Volume 17 of the Code of Federal Regulations. The rule is designed to restrict stock transactions by members and employees of the commission strictly to investment purposes. Prompt disclosure of stock ownership and transactions to the commission is required with reference thereto. This includes transactions by the spouse as well as those in the name of the employee or member.

Very truly yours,

Securities and Exchange Commission Requirements of Disclosure of Stock Ownership—No. 284

DEAR MR. WEINBERGER: You have asked us to advise you under what circumstances and to what degree of relationship the federal law relating to the Securities and Exchange Commission, or rules adopted pursuant thereto, require disclosure of stock ownership.

The principal disclosure requirement as to domestic corporations is contained in Section 78p of Title 15 of the United States Code. Subdivision (a) of that section reads as follows:

"(a) Every person who is directly or indirectly the beneficial owner of more than 10 per centum of any class of any equity security (other than an exempted security) which is registered on a national securities exchange, or who is a director or an officer of the issuer of such security, shall file, at the time of the registration of such security or within ten days after he becomes such beneficial owner, director, or officer, a statement with the exchange (and a duplicate original thereof with the Commission) of the amount of all equity securities of such issuer of which he is the beneficial owner, and within ten days after the close of each calendar month thereafter, if there has been any change in such ownership during such month, shall file with the exchange a statement (and a duplicate original thereof with the Commission) indicating his ownership at the close of the calendar month and such changes in his ownership as have occurred during such calendar month."

As to public utility holding companies, subdivision (a) of Section 79q of Title 15 provides:

"(a) Every person who is an officer or director of a registered holding company shall file with the Commission in such form as the Commission shall prescribe (1) at the time of the registration of such holding company, or within ten days after such person becomes an officer or director, a statement of the securities of such registered holding company or any subsidiary company thereof of which he is, directly or indirectly, the beneficial owner, and (2) within ten days after the close of each calendar month thereafter, if there has been any change in such ownership during such month, a statement of such ownership as of the close of such calendar month and of the changes in such ownership that have occurred during such calendar month."

These were the only statutory provisions we found that imposed the duty of disclosure directly upon the stockholder. However, when an application is made for registration of securities, Section 77aa of Title 15 requires that the registration statement contain the names and addresses and amounts of securities held in the corporation by officers, directors and other interested persons Such information is also required under the rules of the commission in connection with persons soliciting proxies and as to nominees for election as directors as provided in Section 240.14a-10 of Title 17 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

CONSIDERATION OF HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 25

By Mr. Lanterman:

House Resolution No. 25

Relative to extending congratulations to Marion L. Sherman of Altadena, California

WHEREAS, The action of the Legislature in providing funds for the removal of the remains of Captain John A Sutter from Lititz, Pennsylvania, for burial at Sutter's Fort has prompted Marion L. Sherman, probably the sole surviving attendant at the funeral of Captain John A. Sutter, to write a letter concerning her experience, and

WHEREAS, This letter is of general interest to all, reading in part:

"My sister and I are proud of our record, we have never missed an election, since we have had the right to vote in 1916. A small paragraph in the Star-News, was the incentive to write this letter; at last the government is going to honor a great man, General Sutter, by bringing his remains back to the old fort in Sacramento, which I enjoyed visiting a few years ago; he was closely associated with the early history of California and did much to develop its resources; he was respected and loved by the pioneers

"My father, Charles Henry Sherman, left Boston in 1849 on a sailing vessel, which was delayed by storms rounding Cape Horn. He reached San Francisco in March, 1850, but always thought of himself as a "49er". He joined the first Vigilantes, but his certificate of membership was lost when he sent it to a cousin in San Francisco, but he joined again in 1856 and we have that certificate, signed by Wm. T. Coleman.

"He was in the carpet business and also established the first store for the sale of silverware He traveled back and forth and spent much time in the East, but lived many years in San Francisco where I was born in August, 1863.

"He knew General Sutter and admired him very much and felt that the United States Government treated him very unjustly. They confiscated his land and never reimbursed him Several times a bill was presented in Congress, but never passed. The last time was shortly before his death He was in Washington when Congress adjourned without passing the bill before them. The shock and disappointment were too much and he died in Washington June 17, 1880, a broken-hearted man. We were in Philadelphia at the time and my father took me to the funeral. He had a simple home in the little Moravian town of Lititz

"It was a perfect day in June. The trees were clad in fresh foliage, the fields a brilliant green, and the hills and mountains covered with Mountain Laurel in full bloom, making a lovely pink glow, a beautiful setting for the simple service. According to the Moravian custom, no women attended the service. I was the only exception.

"The casket was carried by the pall bearers along the rough narrow street to the graveyard, the service conducted by a Moravian clergyman and the trombones played the Requiem. Following the casket was a short procession of men, walking two by two. I brought up the rear and felt like "the daughter of the regiment" In the procession were Gen. Fremont and Gen. John Sickels, who came to honor their old friend. They joined my father and me for dinner at an old fashioned country hotel, after which we boarded the train for Philadelphia General Fremont changed at a junction and went to New York, but General Sickels went on to Philadelphia and we were his guests for supper at a very swell restaurant on Chestnut Street with rich crimson draperies and crystal chandeliers which impressed me very much. I was only 16.

"Thus ended a memorable day which lingers in my memory. I may be the only person living today who was present at the burial of a great man who played a large part in the making of California of which we are so justly proud. I am in my ninety-third year and have been ill for three years but am interested in world affairs."

and,

WHEREAS, It is the desire of the Assembly that this letter be suitably preserved; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That a copy of said letter be transmitted to the State Library to be deposited in the California Section thereof; and be it further

Resolved, That the Assembly of the State of California extends its thanks to Marion L. Sherman, daughter of Charles Henry Sherman, for her interesting and informative letter, and its congratulations to her and her sister, Sara Sherman, for the interest in public affairs evidenced by their voting record and by her letter; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly be directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to Marion L. Sherman.

Resolution read.

AYES—Backstrand, Beaver, Bee, Belotti, Bonelli, Bradley, Brady, Brown, Burke, Casey, Chapel, Clarke, Collier, Conrad, Coolidge, Cunningham, Dahl, Davis, Dills, Dolwig, Donahoe, Donald D. Doyle, Elliott, Gaffney, Ernest R. Geddes, Samuel R. UNANIMOUS CONSENT REQUEST TO PRINT POEM IN JOURNAL

Mr. Collier asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent that the following poem relative to Mr. Clarke, which was written and read by Mr. Coolidge, be ordered printed in the Journal:

POEM BY MR. COOLIDGE

In Eighteen Hundred Seventy-four
A stork came knocking at the door
In the Town of Bishop on a farm
The stork placed George on his mother's arm

A cute little cuss with a dimpled chin
No hair on his head—but a great big grin
He had six brothers, and a sister too
With that size family there was work to do

And at fifteen years in age—not looks
He had the job of keeping the family books
He did right well till seventeen
Then his father taught him how to drive a team

He drove a stage coach after school
Used to have a time with a lop-eared mule
He drove this stage without any harm
Until he decided it was time to farm

So farm he did, and I'm telling you
He did right smart till Nineteen-Two
That was the year—and this is no fable
He started making eyes at a girl named Mabel

She kept him on the right path living straight
Then she took away his freedom at twenty-eight
She got him into politics—that's no sin
George was elected on a pencil write-in

For four years after he brought home the bounty
For Mariposa, Mono, and Inyo County
And then Merced and Madera too
Having seen what George could do

Made him a full fledged resident
And back to the Assembly he was sent
For eighteen years, he gave them his best
So now he says he's gonna take a rest

He's been a Mason for fifty years and three Gonna gather round the boys, and have a little spree
George and Mabel, believe me it's true
You'll miss us and we'll miss you

In the parlance of Maloney, your genial host
I offer to you this little toast:

God grant that you, George, and your wife
Will have an ever-lasting life
That peace and happiness will be your score
From this date on forevermore

So good-by, George, good luck sublime
May God be with you till the end of time!

Statement of Vote

I voted against Assembly Bill No. 49, Item 1 on file, because there were three bills on the same subject but with material differences. I felt that they should not all be passed out if they conflicted. However, subsequent explanation satisfied me that the differences were not deep divisions. I consequently no longer have objections to passing out Assembly Bill No. 49 and also voted aye on Assembly Bill No. 52 and Assembly Bill No. 45.

FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF SENATE AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 9—An act to amend Sections 16463 and 16467.1 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utility districts.

Amendment No. 6

On page 1, after line 23, insert

"SEC. 3 This act is an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are

During and since the Second World War, the State of California has sustained an unprecedented growth The demand for and value of property has increased by reason thereof far beyond the adequacy of works for the collection and disposal of storm waters and the protection of life and property against flood waters.

There presently exists a period of heavy storms approximating the high point of rain water precipitation in a 100-year cycle.

Many public utility districts exist throughout the State in areas where works are needed for the collection and disposal of storm waters and for protection against flood waters.

A great urgency exists in many places in the State within such districts where such works are required to be completed before the water of 1956-57."

RESOLUTIONS

By Messrs. Meyers, Gaffney, O'Connell, Brady, Weinberger, and Maloney:

House Resolution No. 59

Relative to congratulating the University of San Francisco Dons upon winning their second consecutive National Collegiate Athletic Association Basketball Championship.

WHEREAS, On the night of December 17, 1954, a lightly regarded and nationally unranked University of San Francisco Basketball Team met Oregon State in the spacious, and only partially occupied, San Francisco Cow Palace; and

WHEREAS, The final score of 60-34, in favor of the University of San Francisco Dons, while impressive, gave no hint of the events which were to transpire; and

WHEREAS, One year and three months later, on the night of March 23, 1956, a favored and top-ranked USF Team met the University of Iowa in packed McGraw Memorial Hall at Evanston, Illinois, for the Championship of the National Collegiate Athletic Association; and

WHEREAS, The final score of 83-71, in favor of the USF Dons, impressively and finally gained for the University of San Francisco the accolade as "the greatest group of collegiate basketball players ever assembled"; and

WHEREAS, In their unparalleled climb to the Olympus of the basketball world, the NCAA Championship, the USF Dons had become the first team ever to win 55 straight games, the first undefeated basketball team ever to win the NCAA Championship and the third team in the 18 year history of the NCAA playoffs to win the championship two years in succession; and

WHEREAS, The Dons have shown that they are the best collegiate team in the world, and, perhaps, of all time, even though they had no court on which to practice; the Dons, now of legend, who have been chased from a basketball floor by only one team, the high school team on whose floor they practiced; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the University of San Francisco Dons are hereby congratulated on their come-from-behind victory in the National Collegiate Athletic Association finals against Iowa and on their past record of 55 consecutive wins; and be it further

Resolved, That these fabulous Dons receive further congratulations for their demeanor on and off the court which has been a credit to their home State of California and an inspiration for those who would emulate their records; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is hereby directed to transmit suitably prepared copies of this resolution to Fr. John F. X. Connolly, President of the University of San Francisco, Phil Woolpert, Coach, and to the individual members of the University of San Francisco Basketball Team.

RESOLUTION BY MOORPARK LIONS CLUB

WHEREAS, The State of California has had the honor of being awarded the 1960 Winter Olympic Games; and

WHEREAS, In the normal course of events these games could only be expected to be awarded to this State once in a hundred years; and

WHEREAS, The staging of these games will give the State of California an unparalleled opportunity to demonstrate the American way of life not only to the top athletes but to visitors from countries throughout the world; and

WHEREAS, California has, on many occasions in the past, successfully staged such events as the 1932 Summer Olympics at Los Angeles, the two World Fairs at San Francisco, and many other events; and

WHEREAS, The fact that such events benefit the entire State is well known by the residents of California; and

WHEREAS, The tourist business is one of the largest industries in California today; and

WHEREAS, It is estimated that the staging of the Winter Olympics in California in 1960 would increase the tourist spending in this State by 20 million dollars per year for a period of at least 10 years; and

WHEREAS, The California State Legislature made an initial appropriation of 1 million dollars in its 1955 Session for the establishment of a commission to stage the 1960 Winter Olympics if California received the award for the games; and

WHEREAS, This appropriation was the key factor which resulted in California being chosen over all the other areas throughout the world which were competing for the award; and

WHEREAS, A request is now before the California State Legislature for an additional appropriation of 4 million dollars to stage the games, such funds to come from tideland oil revenue to beaches and parks and to be paid back to this fund with interest from the revenues derived from the games; and

WHEREAS, The Olympic Commission appointed by Governor Knight has made careful surveys of the situation and states that a minimum of $3,432,000 in direct returns from the games can be expected, to refund the State; and

WHEREAS, If the State of California does not demonstrate by April 3d its willingness to finance these games they will be forfeited to Innsbruck, Austria, and California will have lost its only chance to receive the award; be it therefore

Resolved, That we recommend that the California State Legislature approve the 4 million dollar Budget item requested by Governor Goodwin J. Knight to bring the 1960 Winter Olympic Games to California; be it further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to our representatives in the State Legislature.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Mr. McCollister asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent to the consideration of Senate amendments to Assembly Bill No. 50, at this time, without reference to file.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE AMENDMENTS TO ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 50

Assembly Bill No. 50—An act to add Section 54902.5 to the Government Code, relating to the filing of statements and maps or plats for

On page 1, after line 10, insert

"SEC. 2. This act is an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

During December 1955, in many parts of the State the people suffered the ravages of disastrous floods, floods which not only destroyed their homes and land but also destroyed facilities and works that have, in some measure, protected them from flood and storm waters. The law provides for the creation of flood control, water conservation, levee, and other districts and zones thereof which can provide flood control facilities to protect life and property from the seasonal floods. However, in many instances newly created districts and zones cannot levy taxes or assessments unless a statement and map or plat is filed with the assessor or the State Board of Equalization on or before February 1 of the year in which the taxes or assessments are to be levied. In order to do the work necessary to protect life and property from the seasonal and other floods which can be anticipated next winter, districts and zones must be created with the power to levy taxes and assessments this year. It is necessary that this act take effect immediately to extend the time for the filing of the statements and maps or plats."

The roll was called, and the Assembly concurred in Senate amendments to Assembly Bill No. 50 by the following vote:

HONORABLE CHARLES W. MEYERS
Assembly Chamber

Election Expenditures—No. 2072

DEAR MR. MEYERS: Pursuant to your request, we have prepared and enclose our analysis of the state law governing the reporting of campaign contributions and expenditures.

Very truly yours,

By EDWARD K. PURCELL, Deputy

OPINION OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL
SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA, March 28, 1956

Reporting of Campaign Receipts and Expenditures—No. 2072

The provisions of law applicable to the reporting of campaign contributions and expenditures are Sections 4500 to 5302, inclusive, of the Elections Code.[*]

A. Persons and Organizations Required to Report

Every candidate must make and file a campaign statement listing in detail contributions for his campaign, the sources thereof, his own contributions or expenditures, the services performed for such expenditures, and the purposes of such contributions and expenditures (Sec. 4530).

Any committee or group of persons organized for the purpose, or charged with the duty of conducting the election campaign of any political party, or of any candidate or group of candidates, must have a treasurer and he must file a campaign statement in the same manner, and on the same type of form, as a candidate (Secs 4530, 4502). The regularly constituted state and county central committees are "committees" within the meaning of Section 4502, as are voluntary associations formed for the purpose of conducting the campaign of a political party or of any candidate or group of candidates

A candidate is not required to appoint a campaign treasurer. A recent attempt to impose such a requirement was unsuccessful (see A B. 1548 of 1955). A candidate may, however, act as the treasurer of his campaign committee, but may not act as treasurer for another candidate. When acting as treasurer of his committee, he may sign the campaign statement of the committee. (Sec. 4503)

The law does not require individuals and organizations, other than those previously mentioned, to report campaign contributions made in behalf of candidates.

[*] All section references are to the Elections Code, unless otherwise indicated.

B. Time of Reporting

Section 4532 requires all candidates for either nomination or election, and the treasurer of each campaign committee, to file their campaign statements within 35 days after the election or primary. This clearly requires candidates and treasurers to file campaign statements after both the primary and general elections. Prior to 1955, only candidates were required to file after the primary.

C. Contents of Report

A "campaign statement" is defined and described in Section 4504, as follows:

"'Campaign statement' means an itemized statement, prepared in duplicate by a candidate for nomination or election, and by the treasurer of a committee, showing under each of the subdivisions of Section 4505 (set forth below):

"(a) In detail all moneys paid, loaned, contributed, or otherwise furnished to the candidate or treasurer, or for use of the candidate or treasurer, directly or indirectly, in aid of the candidate's nomination or election.

"(b) All money contributed, loaned, or expended by the candidate or treasurer, directly or indirectly, by the candidate or treasurer or through any other person, in aid of the candidate's nomination or election.

"(c) The names of all persons who paid, loaned, contributed, or otherwise furnished such moneys in aid of the candidate's nomination or election.

"(d) The names of all persons to whom such moneys were contributed, loaned or paid.

"(e) The specific nature of each item.

"(f) The service performed and by whom any services were performed.

"(g) The purpose for which the money was expended, contributed or loaned."

Subdivision (f) of the quoted section requires a candidate to report not only expenditures made by himself personally but also expenditures made through any other person in aid of the candidate's nomination or election. On its face, the subdivision appears to place upon the candidate an obligation to report all campaign expenditures made in his behalf. The view has been taken, however, by the Attorney General,† and we are inclined to agree, that the requirement applies only to those expenditures of which the candidate has knowledge To conclude otherwise would be to impose upon the candidate a duty which may be extremely impractical, if not impossible, for him to carry out.

Both candidates and committees are required to report the sources, as well as the amounts, of campaign contributions. Subdivision (c) of the quoted provision expressly requires that there be shown the names of all persons who paid, loaned, contributed, or otherwise furnished moneys in aid of the candidate's nomination or election

† 20 Ops. Cal. Atty. Gen. 197.

D. Lawful Expenses

No expenditures may be made either by a candidate or a committee except for "lawful expenses" (Sec. 4570), which are defined in Section 4505, as follows:

"Lawful expenses are expenses for the following purposes only:

"(a) For the preparing, printing, circulating, and verifying of nomination papers and for the candidate's official filing fee.

"(b) For the candidate's and campaign personnel's personal traveling expenses.

"(c) For rent, furnishing and maintaining headquarters, and halls and rooms for public meetings, including light, heat, and telephone.

"(d) For payment of personnel:

"1. Campaign manager or managers.

"2. Advertising agency or agencies and publicity agent or agents.

"3. Stenographers and clerks.

"4. Precinct workers.

"5. Speakers.

"6. Entertainers.

"(e) For the preparing, printing, and posting of billboards, signs, and posters.

"(f) For the preparing, printing, and distribution of literature by direct mail, including postage, throwaways, and handbills.

"(g) For newspaper advertising

"(h) For radio and television advertising and speech time.

"(i) For office supplies, precinct lists, postage other than that provided for in subdivision (f), expressage, and telegraphing relative to candidacy.

"(j) For making canvasses of voters, and public opinion surveys.

"(k) For conveying voters to and from the polls.

"(l) For supervising the registration of voters.

"(m) For watching the polling and counting of votes cast.

"(o) For petty cash items relative to candidacy."

There are also certain express prohibitions. No expenditures may be made for rent of premises where alcoholic beverages are sold for consumption on the premises or served to members of a club, society, or association (Sec. 4572). No payment may be made for any poster or other printed matter unless it bears the name and address of the printer or publisher (Sec. 4573).

If a candidate at the general election desires to avoid the responsibility of any illegal payment made by any other person in his behalf, he must set out the illegal payment in his campaign statement and disclaim responsibility therefor (Sec. 4531).

E. Filing Procedure

The procedure applicable to the filing of campaign statements is applicable both to candidates and to compaign committees (Sec. 4502).

The county clerk of the county in which the candidate resides is required to send to him the necessary forms for submitting his campaign statement not more than three days after the election (Sec. 4536). The county clerk must also upon request furnish the treasurer of a campaign committee with the necessary forms for submitting his statement (Sec. 4502).

All candidates and the treasurers of all campaign committees must file their campaign statements within 35 days after the election or primary (Sec. 4532).

The law requires that campaign statements filed after a primary be verified, the verification to state that the candidate or treasurer has used all reasonable diligence in its preparation, and that it is as full and explicit as he is able to make it (Sec. 4530).

The campaign statement is made in duplicate (Sec. 4504), and in the case of a candidate for the State Legislature or for Congress, and the treasurers of committees for such candidates, one copy is filed with the Secretary of State (Sec. 4533), and the other with the county clerk (Sec. 4534). No charge may be made by any officer for verifying, filing, or recording such statements (Sec. 4537).

The superior court of the county in which a campaign statement is filed or is required to be filed, may, on the completion of proper proceedings by a candidate or committee allow a campaign statement to be filed after the time limit specified or an incorrect campaign statement to be corrected (Sec. 4645). Proper proceedings consist of:

(a) The filing of an application in the office of the clerk of the superior court showing facts sufficient to entitle the applicant to relief.

(b) Such notice of the application as the court may require.

(c) Satisfactory proof by competent evidence of the allegations of the application. (Sec. 4649)

F. Claims Against Candidates and Committees

Every claim payable by a committee on or in respect to an expense incurred in the conduct and management of an election, or on behalf of the candidates of the political party, organized assemblage, or body which the committee represents, must be presented to the committee within 15 days after the election. If not so presented, the claim may not be paid, and no action may be commenced or maintained thereon. (Sec. 4640)

Every claim for expenses incurred by or on behalf of a candidate for the conduct and management of the election must be presented to the candidate within 10 days after the day of election. If not so presented, the claim may not be paid, and no action may be commenced or maintained thereon. (Sec. 4642)

Claims against either candidates or committees, which have been properly presented, must be paid within 25 days after the day of election, and not otherwise (Secs. 4641, 4643).

The superior court of the county in which a campaign statement is filed or is required to be filed, may, on the completion of proper proceedings by either the committee or candidate, or a creditor of either, allow a claim to be presented and paid after the time limits specified (Sec. 4645). Proper proceedings consist of:

(a) The filing of an application in the office of the clerk of the superior court showing facts sufficient to entitle the applicant to relief.

(b) Such notice of the application as the court may require.

(c) Satisfactory proof by competent evidence of the allegations of the application. (Sec. 4649)

To obtain the relief requested, the applicant must show that noncompliance with the applicable requirements was not occasioned by any want of good faith on the part of the applicant but by:

(a) The absence, illness or death of the candidate.

(b) The absence, illness or death of the treasurer of the campaign committee.

(c) The misconduct of any person other than the applicant.

(d) Inadvertence or excusable neglect.

(e) Any other reasonable cause. (Sec. 4648)

After an order by a superior court allowing a claim to be paid, and after payment, the committee or candidate must file in the same office as the original statement of the committee or candidate:

(a) An amended campaign statement in the same form and containing the same information, as supplemented, as the original campaign statement.

(b) A certificate of its allowance. (Sec. 4651)

G. Penalties

No officer may issue any certificate of election to any person until his campaign statement has been filed (Sec. 4536).

Any violation of the chapter of the Elections Code dealing with the reporting of campaign contributions and expenditures (Chapter 1 of Division 7) constitutes a misdemeanor (Sec. 5007), and any candidate at the primary election who is convicted of such a violation is disqualified from holding the office for which he was a candidate (Sec. 5008).

A misdemeanor is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by fine not exceeding $500, or both (Pen. C. Sec. 19).

House Resolution No. 62

Honoring Dr. Charles F Oehler

WHEREAS, The City of Sacramento is justly proud of Dr. Charles F. Oehler, one of its most distinguished senior citizens, and pastor emeritus of St John's Lutheran Church; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Oehler came to Sacramento from Illinois in 1890 to head the congregation of St. John's which is the second oldest Lutheran Church in the State; and

WHEREAS, During Dr Oehler's forty-five years of devoted service and leadership the congregation grew and prospered, and in that time erected its present church building at 17th and L Streets; and

WHEREAS, Dr Oehler recently took part in the ground-breaking ceremonies for the new addition to St. John's Church, which since his retirement has continued to develop and expand under the able direction of the Reverend Robert S. Romeis to become the largest church in the United Lutheran Pacific Southwest Synod; and

WHEREAS, In 1897 Dr Oehler served as Chaplain of the Assembly at the Thirty-second Session of the California Legislature; and

WHEREAS, On March 22, 1956, nearly 50 years later, the Assembly was again honored by a few words of wisdom and a prayer from this man whose strength of purpose and ideals are an inspiration to all who know him; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Members of the Assembly hereby accord recognition and pay honor to Dr Charles F. Oehler for humbly devoting his life to the service of his God and his fellow men; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is directed to transmit a suitably prepared copy of this resolution to Dr. Charles F Oehler, pastor emeritus of St. John's Lutheran Church of Sacramento, and to the congregation of St. John's Church in care of the pastor, Reverend Robert S Romeis.

Request for Unanimous Consent

Mr. Nielsen asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent to take up House Resolution No 62, at this time, without reference to committee or file

Resolution read, and adopted.

By Messrs. Kilpatrick, Elliott, Hawkins, Thomas, McMillan, Gaffney, Dills, Mrs Sankary, Messrs. Porter, Meyers, O'Connell, Munnell, McFall, Mrs. Davis, Messrs. Brown, Samuel R Geddes, Cunningham, Unruh, Nisbet, Wilson, and Miller:

House Resolution No. 63

Relative to health and medical needs of recipients of Aid to the Aged and Aid to the Blind.

WHEREAS, The California Social Welfare Board ruled in May, 1955, that recipients of aid to aged and aid to the blind who have outside income or resources could no longer have their medical and health needs confirmed and established in their budget, and, in lieu thereof, required the recipient to submit bills each month to the County Welfare Department by a given date, and required the County Welfare Department, after checking the validity of the bills, to direct the County Auditor to draw a supplementary check to the recipient for the amount of the bill allowed; and

WHEREAS, This new ruling has had the following results:

1. Due to lack of sufficient personnel in welfare offices to do a double check-writing job, recipients generally have to wait two, and often even more, months before their supplementary checks are issued to them.

2. Because of their uncertain income, recipients of aid are not considered "good credit risks" by doctors, dentists, and druggists. Therefore, in order to get the necessary medical attention, recipients must use money allotted for food and rent to meet these medical obligations.

3. The counties have had to hire more expensive personnel to handle the additional paper work involved, plus meeting the great expense of preparing and issuing two checks each month instead of one.

4. The new ruling requires these elderly people (average age of a recipient is 76) to be bookkeepers and go to the County Welfare Department every month with their records in hand. In addition to the physical strain of making the necessary trips to the doctor's office they must also make additional trips to the County Welfare Department every month.

5. This restrictive ruling has made it so difficult for recipients to claim their medical expenses, allowable under the laws enacted by the State Legislature, that some of them, in despair, have given up attempting to claim the money for the medical aid which is necessary to their health and to which they are legally entitled; and

WHEREAS, In addition to this ruling which has caused confusion and hardship for the recipients of aid, the Social Welfare Board has imposed another ruling which compounds the difficulty of securing necessary and lawful allowances for medical and health services. The board has estabished a ceiling on the allowable cost of medical and health services, including the price of hearing aids, eyeglasses, dentures, trusses, and other such health aids, and has ruled that notwithstanding the established ceiling each recipient who needs such a health aid must secure three estimates on the price of the aid and select the cheapest without regard to quality or service; and

WHEREAS, This ruling requiring three estimates places an unnecessary physical strain on the recipients in requiring them to expend the time and energy to obtain three estimates, and, since, no extra money is provided for transportation or streetcar fare needed in obtaining the three estimates, results in many of these people either finding it necessary to walk to places selling such health aids or, in complete discouragement, to do without the necessary health aid; and

WHEREAS, The State Social Welfare Board has also recently ruled that most health aids can be purchased only upon a doctor's prescription, so that even if the health aid costs only $5, the elderly recipient must first pay $5 for a call to a doctor's office in order to obtain a prescription of the health aid. This ruling results in an unnecessary waste of public funds, as well as causing inconvenience to the recipient; and

WHEREAS, On October 1, 1955, the State Social Welfare Board adopted a ruling which practically eliminates special diet allowances in recipients' budgets even though such diet may be prescribed by a doctor as necessary to the medical and health requirements of the recipients; and

WHEREAS, The law relating to aid to the aged and aid to the blind does not require these procedures for recipients of aid in need of medical and health allowances, but to the contrary, the purpose of the law, as stated in Section 19 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, is to provide for protection, care, and assistance to the people of the State in need thereof and it is the legislative intent that assistance shall be administered promptly and humanely, with due regard for the preservation of family life, and without discrimination on account of race, religion, or political affiliation; and that assistance shall be so administered as to encourage self-respect, self-reliance, and the desire to be a good citizen, useful to society; and

WHEREAS, The rulings of the State Social Welfare Board, referred to above, are in derogation of the expressed legislative intent with respect to the administration of aid to the aged and aid to the blind; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the State Social Welfare Board be hereby requested to discontinue these procedures and reinstate the former procedures with respect to the medical and health allowances referred to in this resolution; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor and to each member of the State Social Welfare Board.

Resolution read, and ordered referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Messrs. Henderson and McFall:

RESOLUTIONS

By Messrs. McFall, Allen, Coolidge, Donald D Doyle, Elliott, Hansen, Hawkins, Maloney, Masterson, Miller, Munnell, Porter, Thomas, and Unruh:

House Resolution No. 70

Relative to medical and hospital insurance for recipients of public assistance

WHEREAS, One of the increasingly more common, as well as more feasible, means used to protect large groups of persons from the financial hazards of sudden and unexpected illness is group medical and hospital insurance; and

WHEREAS, Recipients of the categorical aids including aid to the aged, aid to the blind, and aid to needy children, are not able to take advantage of such insurance since it is not now considered a basic need of such recipients; and

WHEREAS, Recipients of the categorical aids now receive state assistance to meet the costs of medical care incurred by them but only if they need such assistance and only if they have outside income, which leaves many recipients without any protection whatsoever and is detrimental both to their welfare and peace of mind and makes them a potential burden upon the counties and individual members of the medical profession mindful of their obligation to care for the sick; and

WHEREAS, Provision could be made to eliminate this condition and to provide to recipients of public assistance the same security now possesed by many other large groups of our citizens; and

WHEREAS, An allowance could be made by the State to each recipient of public assistance to enable the recipient to contract for medical and hospital insurance and to meet the premiums on the same; provided, that such insurance is approved by the appropriate state agency and guarantees to the recipient the right to select his own doctor and hospital; and

WHEREAS, Funds already allocated by the State to recipients for the costs of medical care could be used instead to meet the costs of the insurance premiums heretofore described by spreading the cost equally over several months with probably little or no additional cost to the State; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Assembly of the State of California, That the Assembly Interim Committee on Social Welfare is hereby authorized and directed to study the feasibility of the insurance program described in the body of this resolution, and to determine the exact extent of any legal or practical problems which may exist with respect to the establishment of such a program. The committee shall include in its report to the Legislature its findings in this regard.

Resolution read, and ordered referred to the Committee on Rules.

RESOLUTIONS

By Messrs. Conrad and Coolidge:

House Resolution No. 71

Relative to the lighting of the Capitol Dome

WHEREAS, In prior years the brilliance of the lighted Dome on the State Capitol against the night background presented a spectacular sight commensurate with the Capitol of the State of California; and

WHEREAS, The design and construction of the multimillion dollar Annex was carefully made to conform to the style and architecture of the Capitol in order that the grace and beauty of that structure, including its lighted Dome, would be preserved; and

WHEREAS, The stately brilliance of the lighted Dome in former years was due in no small part to the use of a multitude of small electric bulbs; and

WHEREAS, It is fitting that the Capitol of the State of California resume its place of splendor against the night skyline; and

WHEREAS, The use of neon type gas tubes in continuous strips, although they produce a light of equal intensity, would not produce the brilliance as was formerly achieved, and would produce an effect unsuited and not in keeping with the stately Capitol structure; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That appropriate action be taken immediately to provide for the relighting of the Dome of the State Capitol Building, by such means as would not use continuous lighted strips of neon type tubes, unless they were designed to appear as separate lighted bulbs; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor, Honorable Goodwin J. Knight, to the Director of Finance, Honorable John M. Peirce, to the Director of Public Works, Honorable Frank B. Durkee, and to the State Architect, Honorable Anson Boyd.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT REQUEST TO PRINT LETTER IN JOURNAL

Mr. O'Connell asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent to have the following letter printed in the Journal:

CALIFORNIA INSTITUTE OF SOCIAL WELFARE
LOS ANGELES 15, CALIFORNIA, March 22, 1956

Hon. Richard Richards
California State Legislature
State Capitol, Sacramento 14, California

DEAR SENATOR RICHARDS: Either intentionally or unintentionally the California State Social Welfare Board has been guilty of perpetrating a dreadful miscarriage of justice on the needy aged and blind of our State.

This has come about through a ruling made by the board in May, 1955, which said that recipients of Old Age and Blind Aid who had outside income or resources could no longer have their medical and health needs confirmed and established in their budget. Instead, the board ruled that the recipients must submit bills each month to the county welfare department on or before a given date. After checking the validity of said bills, the county welfare worker in charge of each specific case would then direct the county auditor to draw a supplementary check for the amount allowed.

Such a ruling sounds innocent enough. But, in effect, it is wreaking havoc with the lives of many of these people. Following are some of the general results:

1. Due to lack of sufficient personnel in welfare offices to do a double check-writing job, recipients generally have to wait two, and often even more, months before their supplementary checks are issued to them.

2. Because of their uncertain income, recipients of aid are not considered "good credit risks" by doctors, dentists, and druggists. Therefore, in order to get the necessary medical attention, recipients must use money allotted for food and rent to meet these medical obligations.

3. The counties have had to hire more expensive personnel to handle the additional paper work involved, plus meeting the great expense of preparing and issuing two checks each month instead of one.

4. The human element can hardly be minimized. The new ruling requires these oldsters (average age of a recipient is 76) to be bookkeepers and hie themselves down to the county welfare department every month with their records in hand. Now, it's difficult enough for some of the poor old souls to make the necessary trips to the doctor's office without having to make additional trips to county welfare and haggle every month.

5. It would appear that the intent of this restrictive ruling is to make it so difficult for recipients to claim their medical expenses, allowable under the laws enacted by the State Legislature, that they will finally give up in despair.

Testimony to the extreme confusion and hardship on the oldsters attendant to this one ruling was the great number of these people who flocked to the California Institute's main headquarters in Los Angeles and field offices throughout the State soon after the ruling was put into effect by most of the counties—along about July, 1955. On this one problem alone we handled several thousand inquiries and requests for help.

This one ruling is by no means the end of restrictions being imposed by the State Social Welfare Board An equally unfair one established a ceiling upon medical and health services including the price of hearing aids, eye glasses, dentures, trusses, etc. Even though this ceiling has been established, the board still requires the recipient to secure three estimates and then select the cheapest without regard to quality or service. And, in spite of all the traveling about required, no extra money is provided for transportation or streetcar fare for this purpose. As a result, many of these people either have to walk to the places to get the required estimates or else give up discouraged and do without the needed medical attention.

Compounding the aforementioned errors, the board then ruled that most of the allowable medical items could be purchased only after a doctor's prescription had been obtained. Therefore, in order to purchase a $2 bottle of vitamins, an aid recipient must first pay $5 for an office call to have the doctor prescribe the needed article.

To show just how ridiculous this ruling can get, I offer this actual case record. A recipient of aid had been required for many years to wear a truss. This item had always been included in his budget. A few months ago, he needed a new one, so he ordered it from an out-of-state concern with which he had previously done business He took the money order receipt for the item and wrapper in which the truss arrived to his welfare worker as had been his customary procedure.

Under the new rulings, his worker required him to write to the manufacturer and obtain an official receipt. This obtained, he then had to go to a doctor, pay $5 for a prescription for a new truss (already received), and only then was payment authorized.

And, under the ruling, he'll have to go through the same procedure the next time a new truss is required So, instead of paying just for the truss at $7 50, he'll have to also have a prescription at $5, making the total each time $13 50

I ask you, where is the economy?

These rulings have been made supposedly to assure the recipients actually do need and are receiving the reported medical attention Creating chaos in the lives of every aid recipient is not the answer to this problem, however. A simple solution would be to have the welfare department go back to the former method of having the medical and health needs of the recipients continued from month to month in their budget. A telephone call or letter from the welfare worker on each case to the doctor involved would easily establish whether or not the recipient was actually receiving and paying for the reported care.

Obviously the present ruling has cost the taxpayers more money than anything gained at the expense of every recipient

I point to another rule made by the State Social Welfare Board on October 1, 1955, which is, in effect, circumventing the intent of legislation passed by the State Legislature This drastic restriction practically eliminates the special diets allowance in recipients' budgets even though this diet may be prescribed by doctors for the individual recipient's requirements.

I have always maintained that the laws enacted by the State Legislature are fair to recipients of public assistance. The fault lies in its administration

The few examples I have given in this letter should serve as ample proof that the Legislature must do something to stop the State Social Welfare Board from circumventing the intents and purposes of the Welfare and Institutions Code at the expense of the recipients.

To correct this disgraceful situation we urge that the 1957 Regular Session of the State Legislature take the following steps:

(a) Return the administration of the public assistance laws to the State, thereby assuring uniformity of the laws in all counties and effecting an enormous saving to taxpayers by elimination of much duplication in records, etc

(b) Seek to restrict capricious rulings by the State Social Welfare Board by spelling out into law in greater detail the rights of recipients

(c) Require that rulings made by the State Social Welfare Board regarding recipients during the past 10 years be reviewed by the Attorney General to ascertain if such rulings are in conformity to the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(d) Require that future rulings made by the State Social Welfare Board shall be first reviewed and approved by the Attorney General's office.

(e) That the State Legislature now in budget session pass a resolution urging the State Social Welfare Board to set aside their ruling of May, 1955, with regard to medical needs.

Only by doing this will the State Legislature be assured that recipients are given the full advantage of laws already enacted by the Legislature and especially those provisions in the Welfare and Institutions Code which state:

"This Chapter shall be liberally construed," (Chapter I, Old Age Security Law, Sec. 2003), and

"The purpose of this code is to provide for protection, care, and assistance to the people of the State in need thereof, and to promote the welfare and happiness of all of the people of the State by providing public assistance to all of its needy and distressed. It is the legislative intent that assistance shall be administered promptly and humanely, with due regard for the preservation of family life, and without discrimination on account of race, religion, or political affiliation; and that assistance shall be so administered as to encourage self-respect, self-reliance, and the desire to be a good citizen, useful to society" (General Provisions, Sec. 19.)

In behalf of the needy aged and blind of California, I am,

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE McLAIN, Chairman

Attorney General;
Ralph W. Scott,
Deputy Attorney General

No. 55/240

MARCH 29, 1956

HONORABLE CHARLES W. MEYERS, Assemblyman of the Nineteenth Assembly District, has requested the opinion of this office on the following questions:

"(1) What authority does the California Highway Commission have in fixing the location of a freeway?

"(2) Is there any appeal, administratively or judicially, from the decision of the commission in such case?

"(3) Is there any way in which the San Francisco Board of Supervisors or any other city agency can prevent the California Highway Commission or any state agency from locating a freeway in San Francisco, and if so, would a majority of the Board of Supervisors be sufficient to accomplish this?

"(4) Would the proposed freeways adopted by the San Francisco Department of City Planning on May 19, 1955, or any other system of freeways, constitute part of the approaches to the Bay Bridge, the Golden Gate Bridge, or the proposed Southern Crossing?"

Our conclusions may be summarized as follows:

1. The authority of the California Highway Commission to fix the location of freeways is contained in the Streets and Highways Code, particularly Sections 71 and 75.

2. Procedural regulations adopted by the California Highway Commission on February 18, 1955, provide an administrative remedy with respect to the location or relocation of proposed freeway construction. Following exhaustion of such a remedy, recourse may be had to the courts when it is contended that in determining the location of a freeway the commission acted fraudulently, in bad faith or abused its discretion.

3. Neither the City of San Francisco nor any of its agencies can prevent the commission from locating a freeway in that city, provided, however, the city may indirectly affect the location of the freeway or the type of construction by withholding consent to the permanent closure of a city street under Section 100.2 of the Streets and Highways Code.

4. Portions of some of the freeways adopted by the San Francisco Department of City Planning constitute part of the approaches to the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge, the Golden Gate Bridge and the proposed Southern Crossing at least for the purpose of public access and use, but might not be considered as approaches from the standpoint of construction, maintenance, and policing.

Analysis

1. The authority of the California Highway Commission to determine the location of state highways is provided by the Streets and Highways Code, particularly Sections 71 and 75. A freeway is a highway with limited or restricted right of access (Sts. & Hy. Code Sec. 23.5).

Under Section 75 of the said code the commission may, among other things, "(s)elect, adopt, and determine the location for state highways * * *." Section 71 permits the commission to alter or change the location of state highways if in its opinion the same is for the best interests of the State. Sections 81, 82 and 83 of the said code are of interest here also. They empower the commission to adopt traversable highways as part of the State Highway System. A traversable highway is an existing road between termini of a route included in the State Highway System.

That the Legislature has the power to authorize the California Highway Commission to determine the location of a highway or freeway is unquestioned (Holloway v. Purcell, 35 Cal 2d 220; 20 Ops. Cal. Atty. Gen. 281). This power stems from Section 36, Article IV, of the State Constitution which provides in part that:

> "The Legislature shall have power to establish a System of State Highways or to declare any road a state highway, and to pass all laws necessary or proper to construct and maintain the same * * *."

2. On February 18, 1955, the California Highway Commission established procedural regulations "for determination of the location or relocation of any state highway, or portion thereof, which is proposed to be constructed as a freeway on a location not then in use as a traversable state highway". These regulations were adopted as a "policy" of the commission and are too lengthy to set forth in full here. Briefly, they provide for the submission of proposals for the location or relocation of a freeway to the city council or board of supervisors, or both, and conferences with them or their technical staffs on the merits of such proposals, for public hearings at the request of such legislative bodies, for rehearings, and for final action by the commission on the proposals Under the doctrine of exhaustion of administrative remedies, the procedure outlined by the California Highway Commission should be followed before recourse is had to the courts (Abelleira v. District Court of Appeal, 17 Cal. 2d 280).

In so far as judicial review is concerned, we are of the opinion that the commission's final determination of the location of a freeway is conclusive and may only be attacked in the courts on grounds of fraud, bad faith or abuse of discretion, in which event the burden of proving bad faith, fraud or abuse of discretion lies with the person challenging the validity of the commission's determination (cf. People ex rel. Dept. P.W. v. Schultz Co., 123 Cal App. 2d 925, 941)

3. We are not aware of any way by which the City of San Francisco or any agency thereof can prevent the California Highway Commission from locating a freeway in that city. But under Section 100.2 of the Streets and Highways Code it may indirectly affect the location of a freeway or the type of construction by withholding consent to the permanent closure of a city street which will be brought about by such freeway construction.

In 20 Ops. Cal. Atty. Gen. 281, we reached the conclusion that the State "may adopt a city street as part of a state highway, may alter such a street, and may go through a city, without the city's consent or agreement". What was there said with respect to a state highway is equally applicable to freeway construction. That opinion is dated December 9, 1952, and referred to Section 100.2 of the Streets and Highways Code prior to the amendment of 1953. In that year, however, the Legislature amended Section 100.2 by adding thereto the second sentence. The section now provides as follows:

> "The department is authorized to enter into an agreement with the city council or board of supervisors having jurisdiction over the street or highway and, as may be provided in such agreement, to close any city street or county highway at or near the point of its interception with any freeway or to make provision for carrying such city street or county highway over or under or to a connection with the freeway and may do any and all work on such city street or county highway as is necessary therefor. No city street or county highway shall be closed, either directly or indirectly, by the construction of a freeway except pursuant to such an agreement or while temporarily necessary during construction operations. No city street, county road or other public highway of any kind shall be opened into or connected with any freeway unless and until the California Highway Commission adopts a resolution consenting to the same and fixing the terms and conditions on which such connection shall be made and the said commission may give or withhold its consent or fix such terms and conditions as in its opinion will best subserve the public interest." (Calif. Stats. 1953, Ch. 1200, p. 2719; underscoring added.)

It will be noted that the underscored language of Section 100.2 prohibits any street or county highway from being closed permanently due to freeway construction except pursuant to an agreement with the city or county or except temporarily to accommodate construction operations. It would appear that pursuant to the said amendment a city or county might indirectly control the location of a freeway which would close a city street or county highway permanently by refusing in good faith to enter into an agreement with the Department of Public Works. This does not mean that the freeway would have to be relocated, for conceivably it might be elevated or sunk at additional expense so that no city street or county highway would be closed. In that event no agreement with a city or county would be required. On the other hand, the freeway could be relocated elsewhere so as to avoid a permanent closure of any city street or highway. In substance, if no city street or county highway is to be closed permanently by a freeway, that is, closed other than to facilitate construction, the State has power to build a freeway through a city or county at the location selected by the California Highway Commission without interference from or agreement with the city or county.

In passing, it should be noted that where the termini of the proposed Southern Crossing are different from those specified in Sections 30654 and 30654.5 of the Streets and Highways Code, the California Toll Bridge Authority shall advise the governing body of the City and County of San Francisco as well as the County of Alameda and all cities in the County of Alameda "as to the approaches it deems appropriate, and upon the request of any such governmental agencies shall hold public hearings concerning the location of said approaches before they are finally determined by the authority" (Sts. & Hy. Code Sec. 30655).

4. Preliminarily, it should be observed that a portion of a freeway may constitute an approach to a bridge for some purposes but not for others. Thus proceedings authorizing the issuance of bonds for bridge construction may include financing for certain freeways as approaches thereto, whereas from the standpoint or policing or maintenance such freeways may not be considered as approaches. On the other hand, the motoring public may consider all or any portion of a freeway leading to a bridge as being one of the approaches in so far as public access and use are concerned.

The approaches to the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge are described in an act directing, among other things, the Department of Public Works to construct well defined approaches to that bridge, and declaring the said bridge and its approaches to be a state highway (Calif. Stats 1933, ch 9). In general, these approaches extend from First to Fifth Streets in San Francisco, and as such they constitute the statutory approaches to that bridge on the westerly side of the bay (cf. California Toll Bridge Authority v. Kuchel, 40 Cal. 2d 43). The said statute also declares that the Bay Bridge together with its approaches constitute a part of the State Highway System, and shall be maintained and operated by the Department of Public Works. These approaches were constructed with money derived from the sale of bonds authorized by the California Toll Bridge Authority and they are maintained with state funds.

The approaches to the additional toll bridge, generally known as the Southern Crossing which is proposed to connect San Francisco with Alameda County, are described and defined in the statute authorizing such construction (Calif. Stats 1953, Ch 1056; Sts. & Hy Code Secs. 30651-30658). These approaches include a freeway connection from the westerly terminus of the Southern Crossing in the vicinity of Third and Army Streets with the Bayshore Freeway (James Lick Memorial Freeway) in the vicinity of 26th Street with on and off ramps in both directions, together with various connections to the city streets (Sts & Hy. Code, Secs 30654 and 30654.5). The said approaches also include a freeway connection between the Embarcadero Freeway and Army Street together with a high level approach over the China Basin. Money for the construction of the Southern Crossing and its approaches is to be provided through the sale of revenue bonds to be authorized by the California Toll Bridge Authority (cf. Sections 30200, et seq., and 30656-30658 of the Streets and Highways Code). When constructed, presumably the Southern Crossing and its approaches will be incorporated into the State Highway System and maintained by the Department of Public Works with state funds

The approaches to the Golden Gate Bridge are not defined by statute. However, we are advised by the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District that it financed the cost of the bridge and the San Francisco approach through the sale of bonds under the authority of Section 27160, et. seq., of the Streets and Highways Code. This approach extends in an easterly direction from the Toll Plaza through the Presidio to Lyon Street with a branch to Marina Boulevard. The so-called connecting Funston Street "approach" was constructed and is maintained by the State, the same constituting a portion of Route 56 (cf. Sections 302 and 356 of the Streets and Highways Code). We are also informed that the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District maintains the Marina Boulevard branch of the approach to the Golden Gate Bridge as well as that portion of the approach from the Toll Plaza to its junction with the Funston "approach," while the State maintains the remaining portion of the said approach, namely, from its junction with the Funston "approach" to Lyon Street, as part of the highway system (cf. Section 302 of the Streets and Highways Code).

Pursuant to Section 27177 of the Streets and Highways Code, the California Highway Patrol is empowered to provide proper and adequate policing of all of the facilities of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District. By Section 139.25 of the Vehicle Code, the California Highway Patrol is directed to maintain adequate provision for the patrol of state highways at all times. We are also advised by the California Highway Patrol, the Division of Highways of the State of California and the San Francisco Police Department that the local authorities police the Bay Shore Freeway between the city limits and Fifth Street, but if necessary will pursue a suspect who reached the approaches to both the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge or the Golden Gate Bridge. Moreover, the said authorities will furnish first aid and ambulance service on both of the bridges as well as their approaches if the same are required.

On July 17, 1951, and pursuant to Section 116 of San Francisco's charter, the Department of City Planning adopted a plan of freeways within the city (Resolution No. 3948). This plan was amended on May 19, 1955, by Resolution No. 4423. The freeways are delineated on Plate 1 of the Transportation Section of the city's Master Plan and are generally described in said Master Plan. With the exception of the Marina Boulevard branch of the approach to the Golden Gate Bridge, portions of some of these freeways are similar to or correspond with the approaches to the three bridges above mentioned.

It thus appears that portions of some of the freeways adopted by the Department of City Planning constitute part of the approaches to the Bay Bridge, the Golden Gate Bridge, and the proposed Southern Crossing at least for the purpose of public access and public use, but might not be considered as approaches to said bridges from the standpoint of construction, maintenance, or policing.

SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA, December 2, 1955

Freeways—No. 677

DEAR MR MEYERS:

Question

You have asked the following questions:

(a) What authority does the California Highway Commission have in fixing the location of a freeway?

(b) Is there any appeal from the decision of the commission in such case?

Opinion

(a) The California Highway Commission has the power to locate state highways along the routes designated by law, and the commission may declare any section of a state highway to be a freeway.

(b) The law makes no provision for reviewing or appealing the decisions or actions of the commission with respect to the location of freeways.

Analysis

(a) Location of Freeways

The California Highway Commission has the power to select, adopt, and determine the location for state highways on routes authorized by law (S. & H. C. 75), and it may alter or change the location of any state highway if in its opinion such alteration or change is for the best interest of the State (S. & H. C. 71). Thus, when in the opinion of the California Highway Commission it is in the best interest of the State, the commission may locate or relocate any part of a state highway so long as such location or relocation does not change the route of the highway as designated by law (Holloway v. Purcell (1950), 35 Cal. 2d 220, 223).

With specific reference to freeways, the law provides that the Department of Public Works may do any and all things necessary to lay out, acquire, and construct any portion of a state highway as a freeway or to make any existing highway a freeway (S. & H. C. 100.1). Upon the adoption of a resolution by the California Highway Commission declaring any section of a state highway to be a freeway, the highway described in such resolution has the status of a freeway. However, no state highway can be converted into a freeway except with the consent of the owners of abutting lands or the purchase or condemnation of their rights of access (S & H. C. 100.3), nor can any county road or city street be permanently closed by the construction of a freeway unless pursuant to an agreement between the governing body of the affected county or city and the Department of Public Works (S. & H. C. 100 2).

The Supreme Court of California has held valid the provisions of law relating to the powers of the commission over freeways (Holloway

v. Purcell (1950), 35 Cal. 2d 220), and the court in speaking of these provisions, stated:

"The Legislature has adopted a policy of freeway construction in the public interest. It has properly delegated to the highway commission the authority to determine when and where freeways will be constructed, and it has properly required that the authority be exercised in accord with the needs of the public interest." (35 Cal. 2d 220, 231-2)

(b) Review of California Highway Commission's Actions

There is no law which specifically provides a means of reviewing or appealing the decisions or actions of the California Highway Commission, and in the absence of an affirmative showing of fraud, bad faith, or abuse of discretion we doubt that such an attack could be made in the courts on the decisions or actions of the commission (See People ex rel. Department of Public Works v. Schultz Company (1954), 123 Cal. App. 2d 925, 941).

STATE OF CALIFORNIA
OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Honorable Charles W. Meyers

Freeways—No. 715

DEAR MR. MEYERS:

Question

You ask whether there is any way in which the San Francisco Board of Supervisors can prevent the California Highway Commission from locating a freeway in San Francisco, and if so, would a majority of the board of supervisors be sufficient to accomplish this.

Opinion

The California Highway Commission has the power to locate state highways along the routes designated by law, and the commission may declare any section of a state highway to be a freeway. However, no San Francisco city street could be permanently closed by the construction of a freeway unless pursuant to an agreement between the San Francisco Board of Supervisors and the Department of Public Works, and to that extent at least it could be said that the board of supervisors could prevent the location of a freeway in San Francisco.

We believe that a majority of the board of supervisors would be sufficient to accomplish this.

Analysis

The California Highway Commission has the power to select, adopt, and determine the location for state highways on routes authorized by law (S. & H. C. 75), and it may alter or change the location of any state highway if in its opinion such alteration or change is for the best interest of the State (S. & H. C. 71). Thus, when in the opinion of the California Highway Commission it is in the best interest of the State, the commission may locate or relocate any part of a state highway so long as such location or relocation does not change the route of the highway as designated by law (Holloway v. Purcell (1950), 35 Cal. 2d 220, 223).

With specific reference to freeways, the law provides that the Department of Public Works may do any and all things necessary to lay out, acquire, and construct any portion of a state highway as a freeway or to make any existing highway a freeway (S. & H. C. 100.1). Upon the adoption of a resolution by the California Highway Commission declaring any section of a state highway to be a freeway, the highway described in such resolution has the status of a freeway. However, no state highway can be converted into a freeway except with the consent of the owners of abutting lands or the purchase or condemnation of their rights of access (S. & H. C. 100.3), nor can any county road or city street be permanently closed by the construction of a freeway unless pursuant to an agreement between the governing body of the affected county or city and the Department of Public Works (S. & H. C. 100.2).

The Supreme Court of California has held valid the provisions of law relating to the powers of the commission over freeways (Holloway v. Purcell (1950), 35 Cal. 2d 220), and the court in speaking of these provisions, stated:

> "The Legislature has adopted a policy of freeway construction in the public interest. It has properly delegated to the Highway Commission the authority to determine when and where freeways will be constructed, and it has properly required that the authority be exercised in accord with the needs of the public interest." (35 Cal. 2d 220, 231-2)

While, as we have indicated above, the California Highway Commission apparently has sole control over the location of state highways along the routes established by the Legislature and the establishment of freeways, no city street or county road can be permanently closed by the construction of a freeway except pursuant to an agreement between the Department of Public Works and the governing body of the affected city or county. Thus, to this extent at least, the San Francisco Board of Supervisors would have some control over the location of a freeway in San Francisco. By withholding its consent to an agreement for a freeway in a particular location, it is possible that the board of supervisors could effectively require the selection of a different location, and this, we believe, could be accomplished by a majority of the members of the board (Charter of the City and County of San Francisco, Sec. 13).

By Messrs. Conrad and Coolidge:

House Resolution No. 71

Relative to the lighting of the Capitol Dome

WHEREAS, In prior years the brilliance of the lighted Dome on the State Capitol against the night background presented a spectacular sight commensurate with the Capitol of the State of California; and

WHEREAS, The design and construction of the multimillion dollar Annex was carefully made to conform to the style and architecture of the Capitol in order that the grace and beauty of that structure, including its lighted Dome, would be preserved; and

WHEREAS, It is fitting that the Capitol of the State of California resume its place of splendor against the night skyline; and

House Resolution No. 81

Relative to federal construction of the San Luis Dam and Reservoir

WHEREAS, The Federal Reclamation Laws contemplate the construction and operation of facilities such as the San Luis Dam and Reservoir and provide a substantial portion of the construction funds on an interest-free basis; and

WHEREAS, Integration of the San Luis Reservoir with the Federal Central Valley Project and other works for the development of California's water resources would bring about a coordination of federal and local developments to the end that a comprehensive and unified state-wide plan for the water resource development may become a reality; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Assembly of the State of California respectfully memorialize the Congress of the United States to take such steps as may be necessary to provide for the immediate construction and operation of the San Luis Dam and Reservoir in such a manner as to provide full integration with the Central Valley Project and any other works, federal, state or local, constructed in furtherance of the comprehensive development of the water resources of California, including, but not limited to, the Feather River Project or projects which would provide for the distribution of water to Southern California; and be it further

UNANIMOUS CONSENT REQUEST TO PRINT LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL OPINIONS IN JOURNAL

Mr. Allen asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent that the following opinions of the Legislative Counsel be ordered printed in the Journal:

OPINION OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

HONORABLE BRUCE F. ALLEN
Assembly Chamber

Tidelands—No. 2314

DEAR MR. ALLEN:

Question

You have asked us for our opinion as to whether the State's control over the trust property and money retained by the City of Long Beach under Assembly Bill No. 77, would be affected by that bill as amended the second time on April 3, 1956.

Opinion

The State's control over the Long Beach tide and submerged lands, as distinct from the oil and gas revenues therefrom, would not be affected by the bill. In our opinion, the State's control over the unexpended trust funds, consisting of the oil and gas revenues from the tide and submerged lands, retained by the city under the bill for the purposes of the granting acts would be affected by the bill only to the extent that the State has claims, demands, or causes of action with respect thereto which accrued on or before January 31, 1956.

Analysis

The bill, as amended the second time on April 3, 1956, would have the following effect:

(1) It would authorize the Attorney General to enter into an appropriate stipulation or stipulations to finally determine any and all claims, demands, or causes of action as between the City of Long Beach and the State of California and arising out of, in connection with, or seeking to enforce any obligation of the City of Long Beach to account for or to pay oil revenue to and dry gas revenue to or for the benefit of the State under the bill or under the granting acts, which claims, demands, or causes of action accrued on or before January 31, 1956. The bill would authorize the stipulation to provide for other matters necessary to determine such claims, demands, or causes of action. The bill then prescribes various requirements which the stipulation must contain. (Sec. 3)

The bill would also require the stipulation to contain provisions relating to the handling and disposition of the dry gas and its valuation (Sec. 6).

(2) In addition to the payment prescribed in the stipulation, the bill would require the city to account for and pay to the State a portion of the oil revenue reserved after February 1, 1956, and all of the dry gas revenue received after that date (Sec. 5).

(3) In addition, the bill would clarify the purposes for which the city could expend the oil revenues not required to be paid to the State under the bill (Sec. 7).

The power of the State Legislature with respect to the Long Beach tide and submerged lands was discussed in Mallon v. City of Long Beach (1955), 44 Cal. 2d 199, beginning at page 206. The court declared that the State could partially revoke the trust as to the oil and gas revenues if it did not impair the public interest in commerce, navigation, and fisheries in Long Beach Harbor. The court further stated that the legislative finding that that portion of the revenues freed by the Legislature by Chapter 915 of the 1951 Statutes was no longer required for the purposes of the public trust and the granting acts was conclusive on the court in the absence of evidence indicating that the abandonment of the public trust would impair the power of succeeding Legislatures to protect, improve, and develop the public interest in commerce, navigation, and fisheries. The court went on to declare that the succeeding Legislature could reestablish the public trust on all the income derived from the production of oil and gas from the lands in question.

The question asked relates to how the bill would affect that broad power of the State over these tidelands.

"Any decree or judgment entered on the stipulation provided for in this act shall be final as to any and all claims, demands or causes of action as between the City of Long Beach and the State of California and arising out of, in connection with, or seeking to enforce any obligation of the City of Long Beach to account for or to pay oil revenue and dry gas revenue to or for the benefit of the State of California under this act or any of the aforesaid acts, which claims, demands or causes of action accrued on or before January 31, 1956; otherwise the powers of the State of California over the Long Beach tidelands and over the grants evidenced by the acts of 1911, 1925 and 1935, as modified by the act of 1951 and by this act, including oil revenue and dry gas revenue received before or after January 31, 1956, and unexpended for trust purposes, and still subject to the public trust for navigation, commerce and fisheries and to the uses, trusts, conditions and restrictions as were imposed by the acts of 1911, 1925 and 1935, are hereby expressly reserved. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, any net proceeds payable to said city prior to February 1, 1956, on account of extraction, production or sale of hydrocarbon substances derived from the Long Beach tidelands, and not received by said city prior to said date, shall, when and if ascertained and received, be accounted for and distributed in accordance with the provisions of Section 5 of this act."

The first sentence of the section relates to matters with respect to which the decree or judgment entered on the stipulation authorized by the act, and previously discussed, would be final. Those matters are all claims, demands or causes of action between the city and the State and arising out of, in connection with, or seeking to enforce, any obligation of the city to account for or to pay oil and dry gas revenue to, or for the benefit of, the State under the bill or the granting acts, which claims, demands, or causes of action accrued on or before January 31, 1956. The next sentence then, in effect, says that, except as those matters, the powers of the State over the Long Beach tidelands and the grants to Long Beach are reserved. Thus, whatever matters are not included in the first sentence are reserved to the State under the second sentence.

It is clear that the first sentence deals only with claims, demands, or causes of action in connection with oil revenue and dry gas revenue. Thus, clearly, the power of the State over the trust res, the lands and distinct from the oil and gas revenue therefrom, is not affected by the bill.

It is also clear that as to the State's claims, it is only those claims, demands, or causes of action (with respect to the oil and dry gas revenue) which have accrued on or before January 31, 1956, with respect to which the decree or judgment is declared to be final. Thus, the power of the Legislature over the oil and gas revenues to be retained by the city under the bill, including those trust funds which are now in the hands of the city, would not be affected except with respect to claims, demands, or causes of action of the State against the city which accrued on or before January 31, 1956.

In other words, the bill would provide for a final settlement only of the State's claims, demands, or causes of action which accrued on or before January 31, 1956. It would not provide for a final settlement of the trust funds in the hands of the city as of January 31, 1956, or thereafter, except to the extent affected by claims, demands, or causes of action against the State which have accrued on or before January 31, 1956.

Very truly yours,

OPINION OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

(COPY)

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

HONORABLE BERNARD R. BRADY
Assembly Chamber

Long Beach Tidelands—No. 2313

DEAR MR. BRADY:

Question

You have in effect inquired whether Section 7 of Assembly Bill No. 77 (First Extraordinary Session) might be held to constitute a reversion of a portion of the Long Beach tidelands revenues as was held by the California Supreme Court with respect to Chapter 915 of the Statutes of 1951, freeing a certain portion of such revenues entirely from the trust under which they were held (Mallon v. City of Long Beach, 44 Cal. 2d 199).

Opinion

In our opinion no.

Analysis

It is clear from that case that the State cannot make a gift of the revenues to the city, in violation of Section 31 of Article IV of the State Constitution, and that if the Legislature permits the city to use those revenues for a purely municipal purpose as distinguished from a state purpose an invalid gift would result (Mallon v. City of Long Beach, 44 Cal. 2d 199, at page 211).

Section 7 of the bill contains a legislative finding that the purposes therein described are matters of State, as distinguished from local, interest and benefit. The determination of what is a public purpose is primarily a matter for legislative discretion and will not be disturbed by the courts as long as it has a reasonable basis (Alameda County v. Jansen (1940), 16 Cal. 2d 276, 281).

Subdivisions (a) and (d) of Section 7 authorize the expenditure of the city's oil and gas revenues for harbor purposes. It is clear that the expenditure of trust funds for harbor purposes would constitute an expenditure for a state purpose since the grants were made primarily for that purpose (see Mallon v. City of Long Beach, supra, at p. 210). The construction, repair and maintenance of streets and roadways within the present boundaries of the Long Beach Harbor District, of bridges wholly or partly within the district (authorized by subdivision (b) of Section 7), and of protective and remedial works within the district (authorized by subdivision (c) of Section 7), constitute objectives designed to develop and maintain the harbor, and, therefore, would appear to constitute a state purpose. (They are not ordinary streets and highways held to be purely municipal affairs in the Mallon case.) The construction, repair, and maintenance of protective and remedial works within the Long Beach tide and submerged lands outside the harbor district (authorized by subdivision (c) of Section 7) are for the protection of the trust property itself and, in our opinion, would clearly constitute a state purpose.

Very truly yours,

OPINION OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

(COPY)

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

HONORABLE PATRICK D. MCGEE
Assembly Chamber

Appropriations—No. 2273

DEAR MR. MCGEE: You ask for our opinion as to the number of votes which would be required to appropriate money from the State Water Reserve Fund which would be created by Assembly Bill No. 77 of the 1956 Extraordinary Session if that bill is enacted.

In our opinion it would require a two-thirds vote of all members elected to each house of the Legislature in order to make an appropriation from the State Water Reserve Fund if the bill is enacted.

The question arises under the following language of Section 34a of Article IV, California Constitution:

> "Appropriations from the General Fund of the State for any fiscal year, exclusive of appropriations for the support of the Public School System, shall not exceed by more than 5 percentum the appropriations from such fund, exclusive of such public school appropriations, for the preceding fiscal year unless two-thirds of all the members elected to each house of the Legislature vote in favor thereof; * * *".

The answer to the question depends upon the proper meaning of the phrase "appropriations from the General Fund" as used in the above quoted provision.

This office has had occasion to study this problem on previous occasions and has concluded that money which the Legislature could constitutionally use or divert to the support of the State Government generally would be considered General Fund money for the purposes of the above quoted constitutional provisions even though deposited in what purports to be a "Special Fund." If the Legislature could constitutionally use or divert the money in any fund to the support of the State Government generally an appropriation from that fund would, under this construction, be subject to the limitation set forth in Section 34a of Article IV of the State Constitution.

The question then is what is the character of the money in the State Water Reserve Fund which would be created by Assembly Bill No. 77. The pertinent provision of the bill reads as follows:

> "SEC. 3. The total amount of oil revenue and dry gas revenue received or held by the City of Long Beach for the use and benefit of the State of California to and including January 31, 1956, is hereby found to be and fixed at the sum of one hundred twenty million dollars ($120,000,000). The City of Long Beach shall pay said sum to the State Controller, together with interest and other increment from investments and deposits thereof received by said city between February 1, 1956, and the date of payment. Said payment shall be made in the form and manner and at the time hereinafter prescribed. Said payment shall be deposited to the credit of the State Water Reserve Fund in the State Treasury which fund is hereby established, but no portion of which shall be expended unless and until specifically appropriated by the Legislature. The assets of said State Water Reserve Fund may be invested and reinvested by the Director of Finance in the manner prescribed by Government Code Sections 16430 to 16441, inclusive. Interest received on such investments shall be credited to said State Water Reserve Fund."

The only theory upon which it could be urged that the money described in the above quoted section could not be constitutionally used by the Legislature for the support of the State Government generally would be that under the theory of Mallon v. City of Long Beach, 44 Cal

(2d) 199, the money described is impressed with the trust for navigation, commerce and fishing. However, the majority opinion in the Mallon case construed the 1951 Statute which gave rise to this entire situation as a partial revocation of the public trust as to the revenue in question and held the act to be valid as so construed. Therefore the effect of the 1951 legislation was to declare such revenue free of the constitutional trust imposed by Sections 2 and 3 of Article XV of the State Constitution. In our opinion under the decision in the Mallon case the Legislature could use the money described in Section 3 of Assembly Bill No. 77 for the support of the State Government generally.

It follows that, under the construction of Section 34 of Article IV mentioned above this money would be considered General Fund money and appropriation from the fund would require the vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house of the Legislature.

OPINION OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

(COPY)

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

HONORABLE BERNARD R. BRADY
Assembly Chamber

Money in State Treasury—No. 2223

DEAR MR. BRADY: You have asked what difference there is between a fund, a special account, or a reserve in the State Treasury such as would be created by various bills now pending in the Legislature.

It is our opinion that the designation of money in the State Treasury as a "fund," a "special account," or a "reserve" does not by that fact alone, establish any legal difference affecting the use of such money.

In each instance and regardless of the name specified a bill to create a fund, a special account, or a reserve contemplates the setting aside of state revenues coupled with a legislative declaration of a policy as to the purpose for which such money is to be expended in the future. This declaration of policy is not necessarily binding as to the purpose for which such money may be used. If the source of the revenue is such that the money in the fund, account, or reserve could lawfully be placed in the General Fund, the money in the fund, account, or reserve may be appropriated at any time for any purpose for which an appropriation from the General Fund could be made

Very truly yours,

RALPH N KLEPS, Legislative Counsel

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE
SACRAMENTO 14, April 5, 1956

Honorable L. H. Lincoln, Speaker of the Assembly
California Legislature, State Capitol
Sacramento, California

DEAR MR LINCOLN: It is with humility I acknowledge the expression of appreciation which has been extended to me by the Members of the Assembly in the passage of Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 28.

Through the long period of years I have represented the Department of Finance in budget and legislative matters before your several committees, I have always received the highest cooperation and help

One of the regrettable things about my retirement from state service is the necessity of leaving the close association and fellowship I have had with the members of your House. I shall long remember each of them for the assistance they have afforded me in carrying out the assignments which have been given to me by Directors of Finance for three decades.

Please express to each of the Members of the Assembly my deepest appreciation for the kind good wishes and congratulations they have so generously bestowed upon me

Sincerely,

FRED W. LINKS, Assistant Director

Question of Parliamentary Inquiry

Mr. Lowrey arose to the following question of parliamentary inquiry: Does not a bill lose its place on file when it is withdrawn and re-referred to the Committee on Ways and Means?

Reply by Speaker pro Tempore

Speaker pro Tempore Maloney replied that Rules 69 and 70 having been suspended, it takes its place at the end of the file, which is the present situation.

Point of Order

Mr. Dickey arose to the following point of order: That Senate Bill No 1 is now before the House.

Ruling by Speaker pro Tempore

Speaker pro Tempore Maloney ruled the point of order well taken.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL NO. 1

Request for Unanimous Consent That Name Be Placed Upon Roll Call

Mr. Bee asked for, and was granted, unanimous consent that his name be placed upon the roll call on Senate Bill No. 1, and that he be recorded as voting "No".

Explanation of No Vote

I did not vote on this bill because of its double implications.

First: I believe the passage of this bill will tend to discourage federal interest in the tremendous water problem before us, and second I believe California will be the loser at the rate of many hundreds of millions of dollars due to the loss of free interest development money.

House Resolution No. 63

Relative to health and medical needs of recipients of old age security and aid to the blind

WHEREAS, The California Social Welfare Board in May, 1955, adopted a new regulation, entitled A 207 "Evidence of Special Need," which concerns the determination of special medical and health needs of certain recipients of old age security and aid to the blind who have outside income; and

WHEREAS, There have been many complaints alleging that this regulation has caused considerable hardship and confusion among recipients of old age security and aid to the blind including allegations of protracted delays in the receipt of reimbursements for medical and health expenses for persons with outside income depending upon these welfare programs; and

WHEREAS, The law relating to old age security and aid to the blind does not require these procedures for recipients of aid in need of medical and health allowances, but to the contrary, the purpose of the law, as stated in Section 19 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, is to provide for protection, care, and assistance to the people of the State in need thereof and it is the legislative intent that assistance shall be administered promptly and humanely and, as stated in Section 1033, with due consideration for the needs of the applicants and the safeguarding of public funds; and

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, That the State Social Welfare Board be hereby requested to give consideration to the modification of Regulation A-207, so as to prevent delays, confusion, and unnecessary inconvenience to recipients of old age security and aid to the blind who have outside income in receiving reimbursement for medical and health needs; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Governor, each member of the State Social Welfare Board, and the Director of the State Department of Social Welfare.

MOTION TO PRINT REMARKS IN JOURNAL

Mr. McCollister moved that the remarks by Mr. Coolidge relative to this Legislature's accomplishment be ordered printed in the Journal.

Mr. Gaffney seconded the motion.

Motion carried.

REMARKS BY ASSEMBLYMAN GLENN E. COOLIDGE

In the rush of business that is characteristic of the final hours of a legislative session, it is appropriate that the Members of the Assembly pause long enough to review their accomplishments during the past month.

When we came to Sacramento early in March, the problem of providing assistance to the flood-stricken areas of the State was paramount. It was heartening to those of us who represent these areas to see the way in which the members whose districts were not damaged by floods rallied to our support. In order to help the flood-damaged areas, we appropriated 25 million dollars for the repair and reconstruction of their public facilities. We appropriated another $3,500,000 for loans to enable redevelopment agencies to acquire property in the stricken areas, and augmented the emergency funds available for flood damage repair.

We also took steps to expedite the construction of flood control projects in order that future flood disasters might be averted. We appropriated more than nine million dollars to carry forward the Feather River Project, one of the principal benefits of which will be flood control. In addition to continuing the work on the Sacramento and San Joaquin Rivers, funds were made available to initiate new flood control projects in several river basins.

So I think it is correct to state that we have made an earnest attempt not only to alleviate the effects of the terrible destruction wrought by the recent floods but have, in addition, taken constructive steps to provide greater flood protection to the people of the State as a means of lessening the possibility of a similar disaster in the future.

We passed a bill to create a Department of Water Resources, which would permit greater integration of state activities in the several fields of water supply, flood control, and related aspects of water conservation.

While much of the time and effort of the Assembly has been devoted to a consideration of the State's pressing water problems. there were other important matters upon which we acted. For example, we created a state planning agency in the Department of Finance that will assist cities and counties in exercising their community planning functions.

We liberalized the conditions under which California veterans may obtain loans from the State for farm and home purchases and enacted a bill that will allow the people of California to vote upon a 500 million dollar bond issue at the next general election which will increase the funds available for loans to veterans.

We arrived at a compromise settlement of the tidelands oil controversy, which will result in the State's receiving 120 million dollars of the impounded funds and substantial annual revenue.

Finally, we passed a record Budget totalling almost $1,800,000,000, which included provisions for an expanded program of developing state beaches and parks, establishment of treatment clinics for the rehabilitation of alcoholics, and a special increase for state employees in the lower salary classifications in addition to the general salary adjustment.

Looking back over these and other measures enacted at this session, I feel that the Members of the Assembly can feel justifiably proud of their accomplishments in meeting some of the major problems facing the State.
