PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, the Reverend Robert S. Romeis:

Almighty and Everlasting God, The source of all wisdom and the Father of all peace; grant us the power to see ourselves as others see us; help us to be certain that we know the difference between standing firm for principles and being just plain obstinate, between being cautious and simply dragging our feet, between having our eyes on a goal and merely being blind to any solution but our own. Search us, O Lord, and purge from our souls all that would hinder the accomplishment of Thy holy will; through Christ, our Lord.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, the Reverend Robert S. Romeis

Gracious God and Heavenly Father, Who hast given to us the precious gift of life; grant us also, we beseech Thee, the wisdom and the will to devote the days of our years to worthy purposes. Remind us that life is not a toy, but a tool; not a possession merely to be enjoyed, but one to be employed for the welfare of others. Help us so to live each moment, O Lord, that when finally our lives are given back to Thee, they may be judged as having contributed not to the problems of the world but to their solutions; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord.—AMEN.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of the Speaker, the following prayer was offered by the Reverend Philip W. Bergstresser, Assistant Pastor, St. John's Lutheran Church of Sacramento:

O Merciful Father in Heaven, Who holdest in Thy hand all the might of man, and who hast ordained government for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well, and of whom is all rule and authority: we beseech Thee, graciously regard Thy servants, the Governor of our State, and the men of the Legislature. Enlighten and defend them by Thy name, O God. Grant them wisdom and understanding, that, under their peaceable governance, Thy people may be guarded and directed in righteousness, quietness, and unity. Protect and prolong their lives, O God of our salvation, that they may show forth the praise of Thy name; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, the Reverend Robert S. Romeis.

Gracious God and Heavenly Father. Whose love is limitless and whose patience is everlasting, grant that we do not take advantage of Thy love by allowing pride and self-interest to dictate our actions; grant that we do not continue to try Thy patience by maintaining attitudes that refuse to see the possibility of compromise. Make us remember that victory is hollow triumph if it leaves bitterness in anyone's heart; through Christ, our Lord—AMEN.
