PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Robert S. Romeis:

Almighty and Everlasting God, We seek Thy guidance as we begin another day and another session. In an age when not only is the world spinning around but man-made moons are spinning around the world, grant that we may not lose our sense of proportion and forget that Thou art God and we are Thy creatures. In a time when men's eyes are gazing into the vast reaches of space, grant that we may keep our feet on the ground and see the work which lies immediately at hand. In a day of tremendous programs and billion-dollar budgets, grant that we do not lose ourselves in the idea of bigness but that we ever remember that we are the servants of individual men and women, each called upon to do his task and to do it well. Lend us Thy wisdom, O Lord, that we may be good stewards of Thy gracious gifts; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Robert S. Romeis:

Gracious God and Heavenly Father, As we stand before this day, help us to see it as a portion of eternity, a cluster of hours whose events can never be erased from the calendar of time, but also a segment of existence which can never be lived over again. Cleanse our minds that we think only that which is pure; direct our eyes that we see only that which is good; guard our lips that we speak only that which is true. Grant that all who touch the circle of our influence this day may find their hearts gladdened, their hopes lifted, and their burdens lightened; through Christ, our Lord.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Robert S. Romeis:

O God, Our Heavenly Father, Grant us grace ever to act according to principle, and not react according to pressure; help us to meet the anger in others with calmness, their stubbornness with understanding, their selfishness with self-sacrifice, and their hatred with love. Make us realize, O Lord, that evil can never be conquered by evil. Send Thy Holy Spirit into our hearts so that by Thy strength we may make goodness dominate, and thus become the agents for bringing peace on earth and good will among men; through Christ our Lord—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Robert S. Romeis:

Gracious God and Eternal Father, Who hast taught us by Thy word that in quietness is our strength; grant that we may spend less time in idle talking and more in serious listening. Help us to hear the voice of history which declares that when morality weakens, nations begin to die; help us to hear the voice of others who speak from experience, and make us humble enough to heed their advice; help us to hear the voice of conscience as it commands us to halt when we would pursue unworthy aims; help us to hear Thy voice, O Lord, as it teaches us that love is the foundation of true living. Make us listen that we may learn; make us learn that we may lead; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Robert S. Romeis:

Almighty God, the Creator and Sustainer of All Men Who Dwell Upon the Face of the Earth; Forgive us our pride in believing that we can manage life without Thy help; forgive our folly in thinking that we know all the answers when we haven't even understood all the questions; forgive our unfaithfulness as we again and again fail to practice what we profess. Cleanse our hearts, sharpen our minds, stiffen our wills, so that in facing the grave decisions which stand before us we may do that which is honest, considerate, fair to all, and pleasing in Thy sight; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Robert S. Romeis:

Almighty and Everlasting God; The Author of Goodness and Truth; Help us to realize that life is not a playground, but a battleground, and that at every moment of every day the forces of right and wrong, freedom and slavery, greed and generosity, honor and dishonor, are locked in vicious conflict. Give us the will and the courage, O Lord, to enter the struggle, to be not merely observers but active participants. And help us by Thy Grace to choose the right side, to fight with Thee and not against Thee, for Thy cause shall ultimately be victorious, and only as soldiers of Thine can we ever fulfill the highest purpose of life; through Christ, our Lord.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Robert S. Romeis:

Eternal God and Heavenly Father, Who hast brought us to the beginning of this day; help us to realize the opportunity it offers to us, an opportunity to make up for the mistakes of yesterday, to live above the pettiness of personal ambition, and to use these present hours in service to Thee and our fellow men. Bless our State, her institutions, her schools, and her people. Cause Thy glory to dwell among us, and let justice and truth, righteousness and peace ever prevail: through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Robert S. Romeis:

Almighty God and Everlasting Father, Who art our refuge and our strength, a very present help in trouble; grant us the courage and the faith to face life without fear. Remind us that even in days of cloud and darkness the sun is still shining. Make us remember that beneath the surface confusion and chaos of our time Thou art still standing, steady and secure, man's only rock and sure foundation. Help us to put our trust in Thee, O Lord, for Thou wilt never fail; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Robert S. Romeis:

Gracious God and Heavenly Father, Grant us the wisdom to separate the important from the trivial, the matters which are worthy of serious attention from those which deserve but small consideration. Help us to have the clarity to see beyond the figures in the Budget to the human element—the people to be served, the sick to be cared for, the aged to be helped, the weak to be strengthened, the warped to be straightened, the youth to be educated. We are dealing with a living thing; grant that we may not smother it with words or bury it beneath high-sounding phrases. Make us remember that the Budget represents the State's service to its people, and help us as those who determine the dimensions of that service to choose not the good, not the better, but the best; through Christ our Lord.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Robert S. Romeis:

Almighty and Everlasting God, We give Thee thanks for the examples of men like St. Patrick, men who carried forth the light of Thy truth into the darkness of ignorance, superstition, and unbelief. Grant that in our time, O Lord, when the shadows of greed, intolerance, lust for power, and spiritual anemia threaten to engulf our world, we may stand as shining lamps in the darkness, giving promise by our words and our deeds that the midnight of evil shall be broken; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Robert S. Romeis:

Our Father, Who Art in Heaven, Creator and Sustainer of the World and Its People; Remind us that we are our brothers' keepers, that the welfare of all who touch the circle of our lives becomes our chief concern and responsibility. We are given the gift of life not that we might exploit it for ourselves, but that we might expend it and expand it for the benefit of our fellow men. Help us this day, O Lord, to test each action according to the standard of unselfish service. Make us push ourselves out of the way, so that Thy will might be done; through Christ Our Lord.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Robert S. Romeis:

Almighty and Everlasting God, Our Father and Our King; Grant that our eyes be not so filled with the perplexing picture of today's problems that we fail to catch a vision of Thy purposes and Thy glory; grant that our ears be not so crowded with the discordant sounds of today's busy confusion that we cannot hear Thy voice calling us to discipleship; grant that our mouths be not so occupied with telling the world what we want that we forget to speak a word for Thee and for our fellow men. This day, O Lord, we dedicate our whole beings to Thee; use us, we pray, as instruments for bringing Thy kingdom truly to the earth; through Christ, Our Lord.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Robert S. Romeis:

O Lord God, Creator of the World, Author of Life, and Sustainer of Men; We give Thee thanks for all Thy good gifts. Especially today do we thank Thee for the rain which falls from Heaven, the springs which rise from the land, the rivers which flow down to make the earth bring forth her fruit, the desert to bloom, and man to produce and prosper. Water is a gift from Thee, O Lord; we are its stewards, not its owners. Make us mindful of our sacred trust, and in the decisions which still must be made help us to act not from sectional rivalry, political expediency, or stubborn pride, but rather from an honest desire to bring about the accomplishment of Thy holy will; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Robert S. Romeis:

Gracious God and Heavenly Father, While we live in the world, grant that we be not of the world. Make us realize that happiness does not come from having things, that success is not measured by figures in a bank book, or that satisfaction is not the result of having a full stomach. While we may rightly enjoy the bread of this world, make us ever mindful that man does not live by bread alone. Grant that we may see Thee, O Lord, as the center of all existence, and help us to understand that only as we serve Thee and our neighbors will we ever know the heart of happiness, the real meaning of success, and the true joy of living; through Christ, Our Lord.—AMEN.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of the Speaker pro Tempore, the following prayer was offered by the Reverend Sidney J. Jorgensen of Our Saviour's Lutheran Church of Oakland:

O Lord, Our Lord, How majestic is Thy name in all the earth! When I look at Thy heavens, the work of Thy fingers, the moon and the stars which Thou hast established; what is man that Thou art mindful of him, and the son of man that Thou dost care for him? Make us to know Thy ways, O Lord, teach us Thy paths. Lead us in Thy truth, and teach us, for Thou art the God of our salvation. Give us wisdom and understanding, for the gain from it is better than the gain from silver and gold. Blessed be the name of the Lord from this time forth and forevermore.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Robert S. Romeis:

Almighty and Most Merciful God. We give Thee thanks for the privilege of beginning over again. Thou dost not condemn us to remain forever in the ruts of our own mistakes, but dost give to us the chance of making new paths each day. Give us the wisdom to see where we have been wrong, the humility to admit our mistakes, and the courage to do something about making amends. Help us, O Lord, to keep this new day bright with the light of truth, clean with the rays of justice, and radiant with the warmth of brotherly love; through Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Our Lord.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Robert S. Romeis:

Almighty and Everlasting God, the Source of All Knowledge and the Author of All Wisdom; Make us wise enough to realize how little we know. Grant that we may appreciate the value of education; but help us also to understand that education is a two-edged sword; in the hands of moral men it can carve out progress and peace, but when wielded by demons it only makes more clever and efficient the accomplishment of their evil purposes. Grant that as we seek to train the minds of men, we may not forget the needs of their souls. Cleanse the hearts of men, O Lord, that their intellects may build a better world and a happier generation; through Christ, our Lord.—AMEN.
