Mr Brown seconded the motion

Point of Order

Mr Conrad arose to the following point of order :

The motion to reconsider is now before the House, and a motion to expunge is not in order, as it is not a motion having higher precedence

Ruling by Speaker pro Tempore

The Speaker pro Tempore ruled the point of order not well taken, as Mr Unruh had been recognized to make the motion, and any action taken by the body can be rescinded.

Point of Order

Mr. Conrad arose to the following point of order

That Assembly Rule 85 requires that no motions be received "when a question is under debate", except the motions listed in the rule, and that the motion to expunge the record and rescind the action is not one of those motions contained in the rule

Ruling by Speaker pro Tempore

The Speaker pro Tempore ruled the point of order not well taken, and stated that there is a motion and not a question before the House

Parliamentary Inquiry

Mr Winton arose to the following parliamentary inquiry :

To which vote does Mr. Unruh's motion to expunge the record apply, the vote whereby Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 1 was adopted, or the vote whereby the rules were temporarily suspended to permit Mr Crown's motion for reconsideration to be considered at this time?

God Our Father—The Speaker has announced the presence of a quorum, the ancient application of such makes reference to Justices of the peace, a body duly assembled and competent to transact business.

May the quorum present bespeak the importance of this occasion,

A necessity for reverent action on behalf of the people of our great state,

A clear vision for a common understanding among men who express honest differences of opinion,

A respect for law and order which makes possible the very presence of a quorum here today

Let us ask for divine guidance in our deliberations, a sober consciousness of our responsibilities, to the end that justice, equality and mercy shall prevail.

We ask all these in Thy name—AMEN.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Bee, the following prayer was offered by the Honorable Robert S. Stevens, Member of the Assembly from the 60th District

Our Father in Heaven.

Again we come before Thee at the opening of another day's deliberations in this Legislature, and we are thankful to Thee on this occasion for many things. We are grateful that this very institution exists. We are grateful that we are citizens of our great nation and state that are blessed with a constitutional system of government that allows a free people to be represented in the process of making of the laws which govern their lives. Wilt Thou keep us and those whom we serve ever mindful that if at times there are faults and failures in that system, they are the faults and failures of men, and not of the basic system of government in which we labor.

We thank Thee for our health and strength and for our associations and friendships as colleagues. We ask Thee to bless us as individuals this day and at all times, with continued health and vigor of mind and body to carry our responsibilities, and with patience and with understanding for each other. Help us to realize that each one of us is confronted with individual problems, and help us to be slow and wise in our judgments of each other, that we may work in harmony for the solutions to the many and complex problems which continually face us.

We particularly ask Thee, Our Father, as we approach the Memorial Day Holiday, that we may remember and be grateful for the supreme sacrifices of life itself which have been made by those who have been called upon to fight and die for their country's sake. Help us to soberly reflect upon the responsibility which we carry as elected members of a legislative body which is an embodiment of that for which men have died and are yet dying on the battlefield.

Grant us proper perspective in our work, that we may know something of the road which lies behind us, that we may have wisdom in our immediate travels, and that we may have vision to also see the longer view down the road ahead.

All of these things we pray for, and for all that Thou knowest we need, in our Lord's name—AMEN

Let us with sincerity, dedication and devotion do what is our task, remembering with deepest humility Thy love for us and for all men alike. Let us go forth as stewards of Thy manifold blessings seeking to do all the good we can.

Thou hast searched our hearts and known our ways and as much as we may know ourselves we must ask Thy forgiveness for our sins, our wanderings and our goings astray and all that is displeasing to Thee.

O Thou Who Art Our Creator and Redeemer, Grant that we may worship Thee in sincerity and in truth Wash us all, thoroughly from our iniquities and sins.

Oh, God, give us grace to follow the Master who delighted to serve others and who gave to dusty roads and tiresome toil and commonplace drudgeries, a new dignity and glory May we too weep over our cities when injustice and unbelief cast lengthening shadows across areas of poverty and wretchedness

Enable us to stand up and courageously speak out against the pretense and sham and hollow mockeries of our day, as the Master did, even though it leads us to a cross Give Thy divine guidance to these public servants as they deliberate on the problems of the day—and may all that is done be done to Thy glory—through Christ Jesus—AMEN

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Bee, the following prayer was offered by the Honorable Pauline L Davis, Member of the Assembly from the 2nd District:

Let us bow our heads

Most Merciful God, since none of us can escape from our responsibilities of life, let us face the challenges courageously. Help us not to wander somewhat aimlessly through the capitol corridors as if endeavoring to find our way out of a maze

Assist us that we may all be aware of the immediate concern of our great state, not only the immediate problems confronting various districts but also the problems of our individual constituents

Help us to give thanks to You, Our God, that we may recognize the privilege given to each and every one of us in this Assembly in making decisions on issues of far-reaching import

We know good laws can only be achieved by strong, courageous, independent lawmakers—lawmakers who are not concerned with only a position of popularity, but lawmakers of vision and strong convictions, rather than personal advantage or advancement

So Help Us, Thy Servants, to direct our minds, that when we cast our votes they will be for the best interests of the people we are sent here to serve

Give us the wisdom which lifts us above the spirit of partisanship and makes us instruments of Thy Will

May Your Blessing rest upon my fellow colleagues and myself in this Assembly our deliberations, not only today, but also in the days ahead
I ask this in the name of Jesus Christ, Our Lord — AMEN

Not later than the fifth legislative day following the submission of the Governor's Budget in the 1967 Regular Session of the Legislature, the Director of Finance shall report to the Legislature the amount, if any, by which the then current estimate of expenditures for public assistance programs in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1967, will exceed the limitation on aggregate expenditure in this section. If such report is not required following submission of the Governor's Budget but the Director of Finance determines during the third quarter that the estimate of expenditures will exceed the authorized expenditure in this section, he shall so report to the Legislature prior to the end of the third quarter. At such time as a report is made, the amount of the limitation shall be increased by the amount of such excess unless and until otherwise provided by law "

Our Father and Our God As always the darkness gave way to the light of day and we are here in it because Thou hast willed it so, yet in that darkness of last night while we lay sleeping Thou wert creating within us new strength and energy for the challenges of today.

So grant unto us both the wisdom and the will to do that which is right and well pleasing in Thy sight, create within each of us the passion for service, good will, and brotherhood, and let us deal with the matters before us in such a way, that all may understand that we work "not alone," but with Thee.

This is our prayer for now—AMEN

Explanation of Vote

July 1, 1966

Hon. Jesse M. Unruh

Speaker of the Assembly

Dear Mr. Speaker: The following members reluctantly voted "aye" or changed their vote from "no" to "aye" on the budget bill, SB 1. This was done to ensure that the budget was passed before the end of the fiscal year and to prevent some legislators from carrying out the threat to block the budget to prevent passage of more to riot legislation. We preferred to vote against the budget, but could not be a party to this irresponsible action.

We respectfully request that this statement be printed in the Journal.

Respectfully submitted,

BOB MONAGAN

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Acting Speaker Zenovich, the following prayer was offered by the Honorable Milton Marks, Member of the Assembly from the 21st District:

Yesterday Americans throughout the nation and throughout the world celebrated the 190th Anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Since that date when men of courage pledged their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor to the formation of a new nation dedicated to a resistance of tyranny, millions of people of every land, of every creed and color have come to our shores to devote themselves to the building of a great country. Although we are divided by differing origins and different philosophies of government we are united in a common purpose to make this land a beacon of freedom and of opportunity. As public servants charged with the responsibility to represent one out of every ten Americans we ask the blessing of Almighty God to whom we look for strength and inspiration to give us the wisdom to so conduct ourselves that our beloved country and state will continue to remain free, and the United States a leader in the family of nations—AMEN

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Speaker pro Tempore Bee was granted unanimous consent that the following poem delivered by Assemblyman Garrigus be printed in the Journal:

The Session of '66

Hail, Friend; Hail—and Farewell!

The hour has struck to cease our striving and depart

Time has new innings for fresh wills to strike at circumstance,

New hearts to beat upon the anvil of fatigue;

But ours must now be reconciled to how

The public judgments weigh our deeds

Charged with the task of needful constitutional change,

We labored here, divided by the fierce fratricide
 Of reapportioned seats, by selfish needs, and partisan attempt—
 And all of this more-burdened by the budget of the State
 How can mature counsel, rational judgment,
 And a fine, efficient effort function here,
 When we are thus encumbered by distraction in our work?
 Our errors here are only tears for what we tried to do;
 And if the people grieve and fret at what we did,
 We have the right to ask, "What have you done?"
 What did you do to help us wisely act?"
 Can part-time workmen do a full-time task?
 And in democracy, amid the ceaseless passing of our hopes,
 Who draws the line through duty to assign
 The proper share to representatives and those they represent?
 Who of us within this blessed State shall have the right
 To live unto himself and criticize his fellows
 For their choice of government?
 Then let us rather bend our thoughts to labor on
 With patience and endurance so that we
 May lead our people to a better understanding of our needs
 Thus what we now resolve shall forcefully foretell
 Our faithfulness and service to the public good
 Then Hail, Friend, Hail—and Farewell!

CHARLES B. GARRIGUS, Poet Laureate of California

To those of you who will return next year, I send my pledge of continued cooperation in moving this state ahead. To those of you who will not be back, I join all Californians in sending thanks for your service to our state.

Sincerely,

EDMUND G. BROWN, Governor

ASSEMBLY CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 1

Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 1—A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the state, by amending Section 14½ of Article XIII, thereof, relating to the taxation of insurance companies

[Filed with Secretary of State May 24, 1966]

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring. That the Legislature of the State of California at its 1966 Second Extraordinary Session commencing on the fifth day of April, 1966, two-thirds of the members elected to each of the two houses of the Legislature voting therefor, hereby proposes to the people of the State of California that the Constitution of the state be amended by amending Section 14½ of Article XIII thereof, to read

SEC 14½ (a) "Insurer," as used in this section, includes insurance companies or associations and reciprocal or interinsurance exchanges together with their corporate or other attorneys in fact considered as a single unit, and the State Compensation Insurance Fund. As used in this paragraph, "companies" includes persons, partnerships, joint stock associations, companies and corporations.

(b) An annual tax is hereby imposed on each insurer doing business in this state on the base, at the rates, and subject to the deductions from the tax hereinafter specified

(c) In the case of an insurer not transacting title insurance in this state, the "base of the annual tax" is, in respect to each year, the amount of gross premiums, less return premiums, received in such year by such insurer upon its business done in this state, other than premiums received for reinsurance and for ocean marine insurance

In the case of an insurer transacting title insurance in this state, the "basis of the annual tax" is, in respect to each year, all income upon business done in this state, except:

- (1) Interest and dividends
- (2) Rents from real property
- (3) Profits from the sale or other disposition of investments
- (4) Income from investments

"Investments" as used in this subdivision (d) includes property acquired by such insurer in the settlement or adjustment of claims against it but excludes investments in title plants and title records. Income derived directly or indirectly from the use of title plants and title records is included in the basis of the annual tax.

In the case of an insurer transacting title insurance in this state which has a trust department and does a trust business under the banking laws of this state, there shall be excluded from the basis of the annual tax imposed by this section, the income of, and from the assets of, such trust department and such trust business, if such income is taxed by this state or included in the measure of any tax imposed by this state.

(d) The rate of the tax to be applied to the basis of the annual tax in respect to each year is 2.35 percent.

(e) (1) Each insurer shall have the right to deduct from the annual tax imposed by this section upon such insurer in respect to a particular year the amount of real estate taxes paid by it, in that year, before, or within 30 days after, becoming delinquent, on real property owned by it at the time of payment, and in which was located, in that year, its home office or principal office in this state. Such real property may consist of one building or of two or more adjacent buildings in which such an office is located, the land on which they stand, and so much of the adjacent land as may be required for the convenient use and occupation thereof.

(2) In the event a portion of the real property described in paragraph (1) of this subdivision is occupied by a person or persons other than the insurer the deduction granted the insurer by said paragraph shall be limited to that percentage, not to exceed 100 percent, equal to the sum of (i) the percentage of occupancy of the insurer obtained by deducting from 100 percent the ratio that the square footage of said building or buildings occupied by the person or persons other than the insurer bears to the total square footage of said building or buildings plus (ii) the lesser of one-half of said percent of occupancy of the insurer or 25 percent, provided, however, that the limitation set forth in this paragraph shall not be applicable to such real property occupied by a domestic insurer as its home office or principal office in this state on January 1, 1970 or to such real property upon which construction of the home office or principal office of the domestic insurer commenced prior to January 1, 1970. As used in this paragraph, "domestic insurer" means an insurer organized under the laws of this state and licensed to transact insurance in this state on or before December 31, 1966.

(3) The phrase "person or persons other than the insurer" as used in paragraph (2) of this subdivision shall not include (i) another insurance company or association affiliated directly or indirectly with the insurer through direct ownership or common ownership or control, or (ii) the corporate or other manager of the insurer to the extent of its insurance management activities. The Legislature may define the terms used in this paragraph for the sole purpose of facilitating the operation of this paragraph.

(f) The tax imposed on insurers by this section is in lieu of all other taxes and licenses, state, county, and municipal, upon such insurers and their property, except:

- (1) Taxes upon their real estate.

(2) That an insurer transacting title insurance in this state which has a trust department or does a trust business under the banking laws of this state is subject to taxation with respect to such trust department or trust business to the same extent and in the same manner as trust companies and the trust departments of banks doing business in this state.

(3) When by or pursuant to the laws of any other state or foreign country any taxes, licenses and other fees, in the aggregate, and any fines, penalties, deposit requirements or other material obligations, prohibitions or restrictions are or would be imposed upon California insurers, or upon the agents or representatives of such insurers, which are in excess of such taxes, licenses and other fees, in the aggregate, or which are in excess of the fines, penalties, deposit requirements or other obligations, prohibitions, or restrictions directly imposed upon similar insurers, or upon the agents or representatives of such insurers, of such other state or country under the statutes of this state, so long as such laws of such other state or country continue in force or are so applied, the same taxes, licenses and other fees, in the aggregate or fines, penalties or deposit requirements or other material obligations, prohibitions, or restrictions, of whatever kind shall be imposed upon the insurers or upon the agents or representatives of such insurers, of such other state or coun-

ing doing business or seeking to do business in California. Any tax, license or other fee or other obligation imposed by any city, county, or other political subdivision or agency of such other state or country on California insurers or their agents or representatives shall be deemed to be imposed by such state or country within the meaning of this paragraph (3) of subdivision (f).

The provisions of this paragraph (3) of subdivision (f) shall not apply as to personal income taxes, nor as to ad valorem taxes on real or personal property nor as to special purpose obligations or assessments heretofore imposed by another state or foreign country in connection with particular kinds of insurance, other than property insurance, except that deductions from premium taxes or other taxes otherwise payable, allowed on account of real estate or personal property taxes paid shall be taken into consideration in determining the propriety and extent of retaliatory action under this paragraph (3) of subdivision (f).

For the purposes of this paragraph (3) of subdivision (f) the domicile of an alien insurer, other than insurers formed under the laws of Canada, shall be that state in which is located its principal place of business in the United States.

In the case of an insurer formed under the laws of Canada or a province thereof, its domicile shall be deemed to be that province in which its head office is situated.

The provisions of this paragraph (3) of subdivision (f) shall also be applicable to reciprocal or interinsurance exchanges and fraternal benefit societies.

(4) The tax on ocean marine insurance.

(5) Motor vehicle and other vehicle registration license fees and any other tax or license fee imposed by the state upon vehicles, motor vehicles or the operation thereof.

(6) That each corporate or other attorney in fact of a reciprocal or interinsurance exchange shall be subject to all taxes imposed upon corporations or others doing business in the state, other than taxes on income derived from its principal business as attorney in fact.

A corporate or other attorney in fact of each exchange shall annually compute the amount of tax that would be payable by it under prevailing law except for the provisions of this section and any management fee due from each exchange to its corporate or other attorney in fact shall be reduced pro tanto by a sum equivalent to the amount so computed.

(g) Every insurer transacting the business of ocean marine insurance in this state shall annually pay to the state a tax measured by that proportion of the underwriting profit of such insurer from such insurance written in the United States, which the gross premiums of the insurer from such insurance written in this state bear to the gross premiums of the insurer from such insurance written within the United States, at the rate of 5 per centum, which tax shall be in lieu of all other taxes and licenses, state, county and municipal, upon such insurer, except taxes upon real estate, and such other taxes as may be assessed or levied against such insurer on account of any other class of insurance written by it. Deductions from the annual tax pursuant to subdivision (e) cannot be made from the ocean marine tax. The Legislature shall define the terms "ocean marine insurance" and "underwriting profit," and shall provide for the assessment, levy, collection and enforcement of the ocean marine tax.

(h) The taxes provided for by this section shall be assessed by the State Board of Equalization.

(i) The Legislature, two-thirds of all the members elected to each of the two houses voting in favor thereof may by law change the rate or rates of taxes herein imposed upon insurers.

(j) This section is not intended to and does not change the law as it has previously existed with respect to the meaning of the words "gross premiums, less return premiums, received" as used in this section or as used in Section 14 or 14½ of this article.
