PRAYER

By unanimous consent, upon invitation of the Chief Clerk, the following prayer was offered by Right Rev. Monsignor Richard W. Power, Pastor, Our Lady of Westlake, Daly City:

Before I begin this brief invocation, I would like to tell you what a privilege it is for me to stand before this great Assembly.

To an ordinary person like myself the responsibility placed upon your shoulders of directing the lives of 22,000,000 people is terrifying. Every word spoken here, every law enacted, every amendment introduced affects the lives of each and every one of us in this great state. And so it is apparent that we certainly need the Blessing of Almighty God to start the New Year. And so we ask God, the Author of the Ten Laws upon which all human laws are based, to bless first of all our Governor upon whom so much and we all depend. We ask that same God to bless each and every one of you, to bless your homes and to instill into your hearts the truth and belief that you are God's instruments in helping all of us to attain liberty, justice, and peace.

My New Year's gift to each and every one of you is to thank you for doing so much for us and to wish you all the happiness possible on earth in this year, 1978.

For your attention today I thank you, and for following God's Divine Laws in the enactment of the human laws of men I congratulate you.—AMEN.

*O God, You are the author of harmony, of reason, and of progress

Help us now in this chamber to struggle through the difficulties which divide us Help each one to use his or her own particular talent to bring about a meeting of minds for what is best for our people and state.

Save us from the tragedy of complacency and idleness and make us ever aware that all that is necessary for the triumph of evil is that good men do nothing.—AMEN.

Help us to find ways to share what we have with those in need. Our spirit is willing but sometimes our performance is weak.—AMEN.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Knox, the following prayer was offered by Bishop Yeprem Tabakian of the Armenian Apostolic Church of America, Los Angeles

Our Father in Heaven and on Earth, Who has given us life and the promise of life eternal, on every hand we see evidence of Your goodness to us For the beauty of the earth, for the glory of the skies, for the love which from our birth over and around us lies Lord of all, to You we raise this our prayer of grateful praise

We thank You for Your presence in our hearts making us strong, giving us confidence, and helping us to live in goodwill with our fellow men We thank You for our Country—this land of the free and the home of the brave May we now and always play our full part in keeping the flag of freedom forever flying over our land and ultimately over the whole world

We thank You for these men and women in Legislature for their devotion to our Golden State and Country and their dedication to You

As a religious leader of the Armenian Community in California, the descendants of victims of the first genocide of the century, I beg of You, O Lord, to grace these men and women with wisdom, foresight and courage in pursuit of their endeavors and in order to help us achieve the noble aims of our sacred cause, the Armenian Cause

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Reverend Walter R. Link

Our Heavenly Father, We pray today not just for the members of this legislative body, or the citizens of our state, but for the cause of freedom around the world. We reflect on the fact that for our brethren of the Jewish faith this is the week of Passover. We note that Passover is, above all else, a commemoration of the freedom God granted the children of Israel from the physical and spiritual bondage of Egypt.

Grant us, O Lord, the strength and courage to fight for human dignity and liberty everywhere and bestow upon our efforts Thy blessings.—AMEN.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Knox, the following prayer was offered by Archbishop Vatche Hovsepien, Primate, Armenian Church of North America Western Diocese

Mr Speaker and Members of the Assembly

For four evenings of last week, people throughout the United States watched the film "Holocaust" on TV. During that nine hours of viewing, we all became witnesses to the senseless cruelty and butchery to which the Jewish people were subjected during the dark days of World War II.

We watched, we listened, and it is no exaggeration to say, that in some degree, we all felt the tragedy that the Jewish people were experiencing at first hand. The true story of that horrible Holocaust of the Jewish people was told and told well.

Yet, we as Armenians, also have our story. It is a story filled with loss, suffering, exile, persecution, and the First Genocide of the Twentieth Century.

Some 63 years ago today, on April 24, 1915, the Turkish Government began a dramatic extermination of the three million Armenians. They were able to massacre two million of our people, amongst them thousands of clergymen, writers, educators and scholars, who were systematically murdered, and the survivors were scattered or deported to the four corners of the world.

Sixty-three years have gone by since the first Genocide, and yet, nothing has been changed in Turkey today.

They have killed the Greeks, they have killed and deported the Jews, and they tried to annihilate the Armenian people. Today, we are a pathetic minority in Turkey, yet our simple human rights as human beings are denied. Our people are being discriminated, our churches are left in ruins, because we are not permitted to repair or restore them.

As a servant of God, I have conducted services everywhere in the world, including the most atheistic countries, however, I am not allowed to conduct services in Turkey.

A few years ago in Turkey, His Eminence Archbishop Yakopos, Primate of the Greek Diocese of North and South America, was about to start the Celebration of Divine Liturgy, when Turkish policemen abruptly stopped him and ordered him to leave the country immediately.

Irrespective of who the victim is, it is totally incomprehensible that a thinking and reasoning man, created in the image of God, could be so passionately savage, so cruel, that he would be so inhuman against his fellow man.

Still some of our people had the good fortune to be led to this glorious and free United States of America. Here, we began to rebuild our lives, our homes, our churches, our schools. And this, with God's Grace, and the freedom of this new land, was successful.

However, we have not yet been able to tell our story as the Jewish story has been told. Both Jews and Armenians have been subjected to systematic Genocide. Both had to painfully watch their lives, their homes, their families, their churches, and their schools be destroyed. Both had to endure the painful silence of the rest of the world which in spite of the horrors, remains untold.

The Jewish story has been told yet, when we Armenians try to make our movies, the Turkish Government brings pressure to bear on the United States, the United States State Department in its terms brings pressure to bear on the film makers and producers, and the film is never made.

When we try to hold our exhibitions, the long hand of the Turkish Government reaches even into the halls of learning, as at the University of California at Berkeley, and exhibitions are withdrawn. Still, we wait, we work, and we pray, to be able to tell our story as it should be told, as truth and justice demands. We want the world to know about our Holocaust.

It has been reported that when Hitler was questioned about world reaction to his extermination to the Jewish people, he replied very cynically, "Who now remembers the Armenian Genocide?"

One cannot help but wonder if the Jewish Hell in the 1940's could have been avoided if the world had demanded justice for the Armenians in 1915.

With these feelings and hopes, we now pray.

In Your Mercy O Lord, Remember and grant rest and illumination to the souls of our Martyrs of 1915 who died at the hands of the Turks. Likewise, we beseech You, O Lord, have mercy and compassion, and grant rest to all those in all times, in all places, who have suffered and died at the ruthless hands of conscious and Godless aggression. O Lord, let us the creation of Your hand, no longer hate, but grant us the wisdom that we may heed Your command that we love one-another, even as You have loved us. O Lord, teach us all, that it is only as we live according to Your love for us and our love for each other, that suffering and injustice will pass from this world. Give us, O Lord, the grace and the wisdom to see this truth, and the strength of soul to carry it into practice in all our daily thoughts, words, and actions.

O Provident and ever-compassionate Father of all, bless the President, the leaders, the lawmakers of our country, and, particularly, the members of this Chamber, upon whose judgement and decision is committed the destiny and happiness of us all. We ask that You lead, guide, and direct their most important tasks to the end, where justice may always be established and the freedom which You have given us, is safeguarded.

We humbly beseech You, O Lord, hear and grant our supplication now and forever. AMEN
