Upon invitation of the Chief Clerk, the following prayer was offered by Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell, Chaplain for the Assembly for the 1991-92 Regular Session:

Gracious God, the Source of Life and Being, Our Maker and Eternal Friend, In these days of anguish coming with clouds of war and strife, and gathering murmurs and yearnings for peace, be our hope and stay. Be near to all leaders of this world's nations, and especially our own. Guide them in every decision affecting tomorrow and prospects of peace to come.

As we gather here to begin a new legislative year, as we dedicate ourselves to this high purpose, be our guide and shield. We would remember those Assembly members and staff who were here in sessions past, but today others are in their seats. We would lift up to You those bearing election who are here for the first time. We are thankful for all those of many sessions who bear maces of continuity with the past. Lord, keep us mindful of what we face in the words of the young king, who prayed, "Oh my God I am but a little child. I know not how to go out or come in. Give therefore Thy servant an understanding heart, that I may discern between good and bad, for who is able to judge so great a people."—AMEN.

As Your Spirit was moving over the face of the deep when life began, so move today in our midst. Guide us, O Thou Great Jehovah in every decision with understanding and light more than these. Teach us the power of listening, that we may hear You speak. Help us to grow in humility, that we may walk an open road. Lead us, and we will know our duty—our duty to make clear a highway for the good and welfare of Your people. All this, we pray, in the name of Him Whose life and death and victory binds us to You.—AMEN.*

Life becomes a charade and we are alone in our misery as we repress our deepest concerns". Thank You, loving Lord, that we have no secrets from You. You know our hearts, our secret thoughts and desires, our foibles. In mercy and grace, compassionate Father, touch each of us with forgiveness, healing and renewal. Gracious God, Who Is of More Wisdom, Power and Strength than Our Finite Minds Perceive, Be near to us, Lord, We bring to You this Tuesday morning, a burden which binds us captive to this floor. In the quiet of these moments relieve us of doubt and fear, loose us from anxieties of so many hectic concerns. Refresh us from the toil of yesterday, so that we might begin today anew. Grant us courage with endurance to confront what ever hang ups this day may bring. Enliven our hope, beyond where we are to the victory which comes by faith. So may it be for us, Lord, as the prophet of old proclaimed, "Let us not grow weary in well doing for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not."—AMEN.

Absent from families and home, forgetting personal needs, they have borne the burden of people's needs. MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following message from the Governor was received, and ordered printed in the Journal and the item veto placed on the unfinished business file:

Item Veto—Assembly Bill No. 12

Governor's Office, Sacramento
October 5, 1991

I am reducing the appropriation contained in Section 4 of Assembly Bill No. 12 from $16,277,000 to $15,277,000 by eliminating the following:

- (a) To the Resources Agency, one million dollars ($1,000,000), to be allocated as follows:
  - (1) Fifty percent of the funds shall be available for the low-interest loan program established pursuant to Section 12807.6 of the Government Code.
  - (2) Fifty percent of the funds shall be available for the grant program established pursuant to Section 12807.6 of the Government Code.

I do not believe that this General Fund expenditure would be of sufficiently high priority to justify the use of limited state resources.

With the above reduction, I hereby approve Assembly Bill No. 12.

PETE WILSON

Be with them, for they are confronted with the problems and needs, the uncertainties of today and tomorrow. We pray Your Presence in each discerning mind and heart. Grant to each of them, a unity of purpose above all else, be it party, district, region, cause or issue, that the People may be served. As he was wont, the Young King Solomon, who in a similar situation prayed, "O my God, I am but a little child. I know not how to go out or come in. Give therefore, Your servant an understanding heart, that I may discern between good and bad, for who is able to judge so great Your people."—AMEN.*

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Hamilton T. Boswell:

Gracious God, Whose Gifts to Us Are Many and of Every Different Kind, We rejoice in Your gift of a world of science and technology. By these You have enabled us to benefit so greatly especially in the health and welfare of people everywhere. Especially now we would reflect prayerfully on the age of technology and its common tools fulfilling duties in this house. We are surrounded by computers, their charts, graphs, polls and records. How thankful we are for computerization serving us from tiny chips, a flip of a button revealing so much, so very much. But Lord, we miss faces, with smiles, or other human expressions of hurt or wonder, for now we envision them darkly, etched in a cold collection of data. Help us, Lord, in all advancements with working numbers, that we forget not the people behind the numbers. Is it not the face of a child rather than a numbered chip, which is Your miracle of creation? Tell us again, O Lord, about the shepherd, who left his flock, the ninety and nine, to find the one, who was lost.—AMEN.

We thank You for this rainbow of creeds and the prism view of Your Holy Spirit. You have made them a blessing to our nation and a bulwark for the world. Gracious God, We praise Your Name for the many who have been blessed by Your Presence and have spoken of truth with lasting inspiration. We thank You for such spiritual gems, even as these words convey "... in quietness and confidence shall be Your strength." There is so much in the world which causes distress. In so many of our lives the weight of fear abounds. Each day has its troubles, the fruit of yesterday, peculiarly its own. Speak to us Lord, an inspiration for the living of these days. Give us a quietness within and a confidence without as an attitude of strength against the thick of uncertain events. We would hear the hush in Your words saying, "Be still and know" . . . lest we are deafened by the whirlwind, and we cannot hear the whisper.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Hamilton T. Boswell:

Gracious God, Who Is Not a Stranger to the Captive or Unknown Behind Prison Walls, Your scriptures tell us much of Your Presence in jails and where ever the prisoner is bound. You were with Daniel in the lion's den, You empowered Samson in the prison house, and You were with Paul and Silas in a Phillipian jail. From Isaiah to Jesus is Your insistent proclamation, "Proclaim liberty to the captive and the opening of the prison to them that are bound." As we begin this Assembly session cause us to remember the very many from our cities and towns and many rural places, those who are bound and behind jail and prison walls in California. Be with these this day who share responsibility for justice and equity for the prisoners of the state, that none shall be neglected or injustice shall abound. For as the psalmist exclaims, "What is man that Thou art mindful of him . . . a little lower than the angels but crowned with glory and honor".—AMEN.

Gracious God, Who Is with Us in Spirit, Sound and Word, Help us to be enlightened by the thoughts of the brother who mused with some regret, "Lord, why do I always prejudge people before I get to know them?" I'm like the woman who didn't like that boy, because of his ungroomed hair. Sometimes I'm like the youth who thinks all adults are stuffed shirts, even though I have never talked to them. I know what it is to think everyone is angry with me, just because they didn't smile or speak. Lord, why do we blindly label people by color or race, religion or party, before we take time to know them? Lord, help me to overcome stereotyping people. You can do this, Lord, because You have labeled all of us, as forgiven, loved and worthy.—AMEN.

We pray for all who serve people, for airline pilots and aides, bus and truck drivers, mail carriers, business and shop operators; clerks, teachers and enforcers of the law; for all who work for the public and are sensitive to needs of people, we ask Your blessings. For all who struggle for peace with justice in the world and in every community, we pray Your blessing and help. In a special way, Lord, we ask Your blessing upon all those in lower California desert areas who are victims of earthquake disaster. Their fears are many and their losses are great. May Your healing powers embrace them all. Grant unto each of us, O Lord, that our witness this day may place us in the company of servants, who lift humanity and "prepare the way". You are closer than near and Your Presence is here and beyond. Sometimes we are aware of Your Presence in the joys of good fortune, happy with family or prosperous in estate. Other times in sorrow or grief or when disappointments pain and hurt. Even there, we find You when empty and spent, exhausted by the bewildering problems so common on this floor. Grant us, this morning a clearer sense of Your Presence and a deeper assurance that we are never alone. Send us forth imbued in spirit to make dreams and visions come alive and real, the gift of Your eternal Presence and Purpose.—AMEN.

Give us radiance instead of gloom; give us stability instead of bewilderment; and set some sore, stricken and shaken one today upon such deep foundations that his or her house shall not fall. While the shadows of fiscal disability looms forbiddingly over the governance of our state, we are here with naught. Uncertainty is in the air and tomorrow, for many homes, cities and towns, offers to be bare. Lift us up, O Lord, from this unfortunate state to a level of wider service. Let our minds purview the state and condition this stalemate brings. Wake up in us our weakened efforts, this work to do. May multitudes be happier this day, because, praying to You, we now go forth, building on our prayers with deeds.—AMEN.*

If what has, or has not transpired, in this Capitol scene has embittered some spirits, bless them with a nobler mood. O God, touch some major chords of courage in our hearts today. Lift us up, on our feet again, revived and redirected. Help us to remember solons of other days, who once sat, where we now sit, and in difficult situations, followed through. And on this Monday morning in the spirit of unanswered prayer, may we, one-by-one, recall the admonition of Him who said, "And let us not be weary in our well doing, for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not."—AMEN.*

An Anonymous Prayer

Father in Heaven, We stand before You as mere mortal people, endeavoring to resolve legislative problems that can only be solved with the help of Your infinite wisdom and the strength of the Holy Spirit. Lord, I pray that You will fill this room, so that each person here feels that same Holy Presence that the founding fathers called upon while this nation was still in its infancy, to help them solve the legislative problems of this, our beloved republic. Lord, I pray that You will touch each heart present, so that the historians must set pen to paper, that on this day, these people did legislate transcending the aspirations of partisan politics or personal gain; that on this day Lord, these people did truly legislate for the betterment of humanity . . . and the Glory of God.—AMEN.

I need Your strength and wisdom. Let me walk in beauty and make my eyes ever behold the red and purple sunsets. Make my hands respect the things You have made, my ears sharp to hear Your voice. Make me wise so that I may know the things You have taught my people - the lessons You have hidden in every leaf and rock. I seek strength, Father, not to be superior to my brothers, but to be able to fight my worst enemy, myself. Free us, O Lord, from imprisonment of groping despair. Like the soaring eagles plying the sky, give us altitude, give us power. Soaring power, that this day we may rise above the malaise, which like clouds fogs out this place. Drive out our fearful doubts with a fresh faith. PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Hamilton T. Boswell:

Gracious God, in Whom We Live and Move and Have Our Being, Accept our praise. In the haste of this scene where we are hurried and pressed we often forget Your presence. We seem to be bound to things that are visible, tangible and sensual, they fill our eyes and occupy our hearing and we lose sight of what is spiritual. Yet this morning, at our wits end, we come to You. We do not come to urge on You our simple requests, but rather to put ourselves at Your disposal. O Lord, do in, and through us, and for us, such acts of duty we have been unable to do. You are eternal and we are but creatures in time. We aspire to be servants of the vows of our election, but the way is hard and our strength is weak. You are from everlasting to everlasting with all creation in Your hand. Make us instruments and implements of Your purpose. Release power through us, to overcome this stalemate. We pray, that because we are met here, this sabbath day, some great thing may be done, not by us but through us by You.—AMEN.

Dear Mr. Speaker and Members:

The Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee has brought to my attention a possible ambiguity in Assembly Bill 38X in relation to the hiring tax credit for construction.

It is clearly my intention that construction companies utilizing the Construction Hiring Credit are ineligible for any other employment hiring provision.

The Chapter shall be interpreted to require election by the taxpayer whether to accept the Construction Hiring Credit or any other credit made available by current law.

I will introduce legislation early next session to clarify this situation.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following veto message from the Governor was received, and ordered printed in the Journal.

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 34

Governor's Office
September 17, 1992

To the Members of the California Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill No. 34 without my signature.

This bill would revise the Natural Disaster Assistance Act funding criteria by increasing the state share for eligible disaster response and reconstruction projects from 75% to 100% for costs associated with the earthquakes and aftershocks in Humboldt, Riverside, and San Bernardino counties.

I have made it abundantly clear that the state is not willing to assume local governments' share of disaster recovery costs but for the unusual occasion when the local agency is financially incapable of meeting its match requirement. I repeated that policy when I signed SB 1293 this year which excepted Oakland and Berkeley from costs associated with the East Bay firestorm as a one-time assistance measure in response to a series of catastrophic events which depleted their resources.

Although Humboldt, Riverside, and San Bernardino counties have endured considerable damage and expense, there are no other crippling fiscal demands on any of these local governments to necessitate an exception. At the time of the event, the Director of the Office of Emergency Services refused to waive the matching requirement for this same reason. No change in the counties' status has been brought to my attention.

I recognize that providing their share of disaster relief costs can be difficult for local jurisdictions. But I do not think that a six percent local contribution, net of the federal share, is excessive. In fact, the total may be even lower since the local share may be partly offset through a redirection of base cost recoveries from the state and federal grants.

Cordially,

PETE WILSON

RECEIPT

I acknowledge receipt this 18th day of September 1992, at 11:35 a.m., of Assembly Bill No. 34, without the Governor's signature, together with a statement of his objections thereto, signed by the Governor, delivered to me personally by Karen Morgan.

RALPH ROMO
Acting Chief Clerk of the Assembly

The following message from the Governor was received, and ordered printed in the Journal:

Governor's Office
September 29, 1992

To the Members of the California Assembly:

I have signed this date Assembly Bill No. 35.

This bill would establish a permit process to ensure that permits for repair work to restore transportation facilities damaged during earthquakes in Humboldt, San Bernardino, and Riverside counties are issued as expeditiously as possible. AB 35 would also create an ad hoc earthquake emergency permit review panel which consists of the Secretary of Business, Transportation and Housing, Secretary for Environmental Protection, and Secretary of the Resources Agency.

I am directing the Office of Permit Assistance (OPA) within the Office of Planning and Research to coordinate the ad hoc earthquake emergency permit review panel. Permit streamlining and in particular the Permit Streamlining Act comes under the purview of OPA.

Cordially,

PETE WILSON
