Eternal God, Whose Love and Concern Cannot Be Contained in Calendar, Clock or Time, but Is Evident Throughout Eternity, Be near to this Assembly. Bless these who are elected for the high purpose of serving the people of California. Without You, O God, Your care and grace, all of their efforts here are like ships which are rigged but cannot sail. Without Your truth, all labor here is in vain. Brood over this Assembly on this first day of new session. Bind all their efforts together, that they may become a working force for good in the lives of so many, Your people. As You have brought them from many districts, from North, South, East and West of this state, as You have brought to these desks, men and women of many skills, gifts and graces, blend them together to do so great this work. Help them, that their eyes may see and their ears may hear signs and cries of the world state and clime. As we move forth into and beyond this day, be their guide and stay. We hold up to You, O Lord, Speaker Willie L. Brown who is in the throes of loss and grief because of the death of his mother. We ask You to sustain him and keep him and he may return in peace and satisfaction.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell:

Eternal God, How challenging it is to be at these desks, a part of the legislative working of the State of California. We ask You to make us truly aware of the privileges we share and the serious responsibilities with which we are entrusted. You have permitted us to be in these high offices aware that the state awaits on us to make the process work.

Grant us therefore, O Lord, wisdom and understanding above the common display and a sensitivity to life in our time as it unfolds and change as it evolves faster each day.

Save us from ourselves and our fears which blind, that we may be more serious and honest as we face urgencies and alarming issues which abound. Cause us not to forget any who are afflicted, the homeless widow, the orphan child, the poor and innocent, the victims of plenty but have no way. Be near to us, Lord, in all we do, that what we do will make dangers recede and opportunities abound. In the name of all those who seek peace and the greening of the future.—AMEN.

Eternal God, As the ancient one acclaimed: "Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised." So may we this morning, praise God. As You have blessed California with rain, storm and snow replenishing the good earth that things may grow, so grant us understanding with courage to engage the voluminous tasks which we are here to undertake. Cause our efforts to bring results that the life and economy of our state might grow. Although we face the same problems with differences across the aisle, grant us a tension which is creative, a challenge to our best. Call us to a unity of purpose that our work may proceed in kind. All this we pray in the names of all those who are heralds of good news that our work gives light to Your kingdom to come.—AMEN.

As we are met to labor on this Floor, illumined by the light of a beautiful day, open our eyes to the prospects, so many which surround us, heralding the dawn of a better tomorrow. Inspire us to reach high, though sometimes the goal is unseen and victory elusive. May we know that we can never stray beyond Your love and care, so patiently there, a bulwark against fear, a roadway above doubt. Give us understanding and courage for today as we face whatever task, need or cause which lies in darkness, waiting for light.—AMEN.

O Lord, We buzz around like busy flies on the windowsill of life. Shock us into remembering that we are sent here for a purpose: To stand up when others would want us to be still; to speak out, when others would want us to be silent; to reach out when others would have us turn inward. You have given us eyes to see the unemployed and the underemployed. Ears to hear the cries of hungry children. Lips to speak up for civil and human rights. Lord give us minds that work for economic justice and peace in the world. Give us hands that reach the edge of freedom and liberty wherever they are denied. Give us feet that can't be moved and feet that stand on principle.—AMEN.

What it means to have the responsibility of so great this power and trust. Help us this day, O Lord, to have patience as we seek answers to the perplexing problems confronting our California state. As through many years You have brought this Assembly "through many dangers, toils, and snares", so inspire us anew, in the early hours of this day, and as we come to these desks, with the confidence and assurance that beneath whatever the challenge we face, are the Everlasting Arms deep to contain us, strong to hold us, always there, now and every hour of the day.—AMEN.

We come to these desks, this morning, as one body of elected officials, yet we are aware of our brokenness and division. PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell:

An Anonymous Prayer, paraphrased for the morning prayer

Gracious God, Being a member of this Assembly means serving on committees. And being on an important committee is good for one's career, to be where the action is. Like this new bill I agreed to support. My constituents are pleased, the committee is pleased and even my spouse is proud. The problem is with me, Lord, when I think about the things that really need attention, and I don't give them the same commitment, I hurt deep down inside. Unemployment, equal education, homelessness, fair housing, civil and private protection, they don't win points. Why, Lord? Why do meet and eat groups get so much of my life, while many who are lonely have nothing to eat, and have no committees and can't give me brownie points for my efforts? Forgive us for looking for wrong rewards and for pretending, so many times, that what we are doing is important.—AMEN.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker Brown, the following prayer was offered by Rev. Deacon Walter J. Little, Chaplain of the Senate:

God of Creation, Before time began, You called us each by name. You emblazoned Your stamp of love upon our spirits and called us into being. As we gather in this holy place this morning we lift our hearts to You in thanksgiving for all that we have been blessed with. We invite You into that still place at the center of our emptiness where You empower us to serve as we could never serve alone. Keep us mindful, as we struggle with the affairs of state, that we are Your arms and legs and heart; that we are called to serve all Your people, especially the poor, the voiceless, and the disenfranchised. Instill in us a joyful awareness of Your eternal presence, even in these difficult times, sharing the pain of we who serve as well as the pain of those who are served.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell:

Gracious God, Whose Mercy Extends to All Those Who Seek Your Presence, We commend to Your love and care people whose joy and peace are dimmed and do not brightly shine. We remember thousands of victims of flooding waters of many rivers, whose powers are made deadly, by overflow storm and rain. Immediate in our minds are our own memories of fire, flood and quakes. Help us, to do for them, what was done for us. This afternoon of a bright day in California, we remember, before You, the hurting and everyone who suffers need; the unemployed, and those who face unemployment to come. We lift up to You the tired who greet another weary day. We know children who cannot play, blind who cannot see and the oppressed who seek freedom but are not yet free. Reveal Your healing spirit, in oceans of goodness and mercy upon our world, and grant us as we begin our work, such a vivid sense of what we can do, that darkness will take flight from the light our work can bring today.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell:

Gracious God, Each day, and especially in this time of the legislative year, time makes its demands upon us. Each day presents tasks that are demanding of our thoughts, decisions and actions. And through it all, we remember with concern the days gone by, when we were unable to finish tasks which were so ever with us. We remember with regret, the days spent in indolence when we fell short of fulfilling the responsibilities with which we were entrusted. And how well, O Lord, do we remember with gladness, the days of achievement, when we finished work committed to this floor.

As we are positioned this morning behind these desks, our heads bowed, our minds alert, grant us understanding, vision and willingness, so that come the end of this day, we may leave these desks with glad memories of great tasks, well done.—AMEN.

The prayer this morning is in memory of James Lyle Meyer and Michelle LaFranca, members of the Assembly staff.

Gracious God, so far above Us, so wide around Us and so deep within Us, Awaken us to the enlightenment of Your presence; cause us to rejoice in Your truth, power and glory. As we are called to this new session endow us with the strength of Your spirit for we are amid the clamor, noise and pain of world, national and local events, so much before us.

Be with this government and especially with this Assembly as they confront the agenda for this new session. Give to them the consciousness and direction that leads to sound and just legislation which meets Your people's needs. Make a reality, the high purposes for which they are sent here. Save all of us from ourselves, our fears and inner doubts. May no cross-purpose hinder our way, that we all, leadership, members and staff may serve in full measure and care. In all that we do may we make goodness attractive and justice with mercy, real in all we do this day.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell:

Gracious God, Our Help in Ages Past and Our Hope for Years to Come, Be near to us. For without Your presence, Your care and grace, we are as ships, rigged, but cannot sail. Without Your truth, we labor here but in vain. This is what we are except You guide us, O Lord. Gather us together, make us a working force for the good and better, for this state and its people. As You have brought us from north and south, east and west, as You have bestowed upon us a multiplicity of skills, gifts and graces, meld us together for this cause. In the midst of so much hurt and suffering among people who cry for help, the homeless whose bedrooms are the streets, the poor and unemployed and children who live in fear. Bind us together Lord, to do this work. As Your word affirms a time for everything. Bring us together, to do this work.—AMEN.

Gracious God, Who Is as Close to Us as Waters Surrounding an Island Shore, Call us, to know, You are near. From counties, cities and rural towns of California, these, our public servants have come, and are now confronted with the problems, needs and uncertainties of today, tomorrow and time unborn. Grant to each of them, and to every working hand, a clarity of purpose above all else, be it party, district, cause, or issue, that Your people of state, nation and world, may be served. So brood over us, Lord, that Your Spirit may lift us to a higher ground of insights into the many tasks at hand. Send us forth, Lord, now to serve.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain
Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell:

Gracious God, Whose Powers of Might and Strength Amaze Us,
The more, when we behold twisted and broken masses of freeways and structures across acres of destruction, chaos and ruins. There was once the pride of our work and the fruit of our genius and hands. Be near to Your people caught so in this disarray. So deal with us this day, that high business may be done in this room, for the healing and restoration of wounded communities asunder, and homes and businesses destroyed. Grant us a full working of Your powers, inherent in us, that through our efforts, walls may rise again, and highways shall be made straight and life and light shall shine again.
Although we face problems which perplex us and tasks difficult to complete, we ask Your guidance and strength, committing us, that this work, be done, with big steps today.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell:

Gracious God, Whose Presence Is from Everlasting to Everlasting and Whose Love Each Day Is Fresh as Morning Dew, Be near to us and accept our gratitude as we come to these desks. We come this morning carrying in our hearts deep feelings of sorrow for Assemblywoman, Jackie Speier and Assembly Speaker, Willie Brown. For death has intruded into both their lives. Assemblywoman Jackie Speier's untimely death of her husband, Dr. Steven Sierra. Speaker Willie Brown, in the passing of his beloved father, Lewis Brown. Keep them both under the shadow of Your wing. You have been our hope and stay in all our days in this House. You have been wisdom in perplexities, strength in every crisis and hard situation, sure guidance in peril and courage, in each urgent hour. All our years have been hedged in by Your love and presence. All praise to You, this day, for Your shepherd like care Your rod and staff comfort us, and we find in You, confidence, in such times as these.—AMEN.

Gracious God, Before Whose Face, Empires of the Past Have Risen and Fallen Away, Make our foundations sure. Give us the grace to respect and honor all those men and women who give us leadership in these trying times. We would remember in Your presence our leaders in nation and state, in church and community, in home and school. Their wisdom has saved us, their devotion has shamed us and their character inspires us. Especially today, we would join with the Roman Catholic Diocese of Sacramento in high respect and honor of Bishop Francis Quinn, for so long in our midst, an advocate and doer of good works. Our prayers go with him as he retires from a work well done. Give us this morning, O Lord, something of his example, that here from this room, we may keep bright lights shining, making clear, by what we do, the wide perspectives of state.—AMEN.

PRAYER

Gracious God, Never Far from Any One of Us, Yet Often Unrecognized by Us, as in the Haste and Business of Our Ordered Lives, Be near to us. Speak to us this morning, through some worthy purpose. Save us from the fruitlessness of misguided goals and the futility of looking back. Let our minds, this day, pursue some noble purpose, far above the climate of fear. Disturb us with the sounds of grief and hurt, so loud about us, the echoes and sighs of all who look, in vain, for housing, health and work. O God, show us the way, to open channels, to make glad the hurting people of this state. We would that You guide our hands, as we bend to the task of fulfilling and forging the common life, for all, of health, home and peace.—AMEN.

PRAYER

Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell:

Gracious God, Who Is Closer to Us Than We Will Ever Know; Who Understands Our Needs Before We Ask, and Is Patient with Our Doubt, Even as We Ask, We are so grateful for Your presence as we seek common light upon what we are here to do. Give us listening ears and responsive wills to Your light and truth that our ways might follow Your ways. Sometimes we are bewildered by the perplexities and uncertainties of a turbulent world, and we lose certitude and embellish doubt, tempted as we are by the angry emotions, so prevalent in the human state. Guide us, O Lord, in these days of difficult decisions. . . . For in You, are resources of power, adequate for our every need.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell:

Gracious God, The Source of Our Being and Creator of All Living Things, Be near to us as again we are at these desks, anticipating the magnitude of tasks which loom before us. Send down Your light and Your truth upon us, that we may see again how wondrous and vast are the works of Your hands, the deep places of the earth, the strength of Your mountains and hills. You have made us in Your image and crowned us with glory and honor. Inspire us anew, to know who we are, and Whose we are. Renew in us power and strength to undertake the responsibilities which challenge our understanding and courage. We confess that there are days when ideals we cherish seem so remote and far away. The outlook for a better world seeming lost and in a sea of haze and gloom. As You have been our Help in ages past, so be our Hope for days to come. Be with us today.—AMEN.

An Anonymous Prayer

Gracious God, This room is so quiet, at this hour. Arriving early has brought a dimension to things, I seldom see when the tempo picks up.

Now, while it's quiet, and the whole day lies before me, unopened and unspoiled, help me to remember what tranquility is, and how it remains hidden under shouts and bells and knocks and confusion. Help me to reach back during the day, today, and get the strength I feel right now, from the knowledge, that in Your world there is peace, even when we hide it in brief moments, not at all like these.—AMEN.

As children seeking comfort from mother, we bring to You, this morning, our fragmentary lives to be perfected in wholeness. Take our transient thoughts, and lodge them with the causes and purposes which are the concerns of this office. And though, this day, we may not see all the great issues clearly, help us to see some plainly. In Your justice and strength, help us to make California richer, brighter and full, because we are here.—AMEN.

Gracious God, Who Gives Us the High Privilege of Sharing Responsibilities of the California State Assembly, Guide us in this session. Grant us that in all we do, that we fail not ourselves, the people of California, nor Your trust in our presence here. Keep in vivid memory before us, those great souls of the past, who once labored here, and may we, as they, make the image of this state more meaningful in serving the common good. As we begin the work of today, we would bring to You our personal lives, for there may be among us, those beset with burdens of circumstance, weighted with sorrow and bereavement, undone by anxiety and overwhelmed by uncertainties of the future. May, by Your grace, let there come to us, the strength that hope brings, and faith in the trust, we are here to keep.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell:

Gracious God, Marvelous, yet mysterious is Your world. We, behold in awe, powers we cannot control, questions we cannot answer and problems we dare to face. As we are at these desks this morning, grant us illumination and insights to cope with the agendum, so much before us. Lift us up from hesitation to readied action, from fear to courage, and self-interest to unfettered service. Remind us of downcast and stricken lives. Open our eyes as to what happens in prisons, the streets and shacks where the poor lie down, the underprivileged areas of cities, and the world where blessings we take for granted are little known. Wake up within us, a deeper concern for all that we do, and may hills and mountains rejoice, that because we are here, the sun of our lives will brighter shine, and with Your blessing, this work shall be done.—AMEN.

American Indian Prayer

O Great Spirit, Whose voice I hear in the winds, and Whose breath gives life to all the world, hear me!

I am small and weak; I need Your strength and wisdom.

Let me walk in beauty, and make my eyes ever behold the red and purple sunset.

Make my hands respect the things You have made and my ears sharp to hear Your voice.

Make me wise so that I may understand the things You have taught my people.

Let me learn the lessons You have hidden in every leaf and rock.

I seek strength not to be greater than my friend, but to fight my greatest enemy—myself.

Make me always ready to come to You with clean hands and straight eyes.

So when life fades, as the fading sunset, may my spirit come to You without shame.

PRAYER

Gracious God, As we seek help for our spiritual lives, taxed, so hard by these uncertain times, we also pray for our troubled state. As the ills of the world are no denial of Your presence and care, but rather, a judgement of the moral order, forgive our folly and sins. As You speak to us in thunder, earthquake and light, encourage us, today, with some victory of justice over wrong, some evidence of togetherness instead of ill will, and some healing of the communal spirit confronted with fear and despair. Grant us this morning as again we come to these desks triumphant spirits imbued with faith and guided by hope, to do this work.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain
Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell:

Gracious God, Our Help in Ages Past and Our Hope for Years to Come, We come to these desks, this morning with a need for courage to face responsibilities of the day and a right to choose directions to ensure a brighter tomorrow. Let Your presence become so vivid for each of us that we may know Your reassuring power. For life sometimes weighs us down with circumstances hard to bear. As sickness or death never overlooks any household, never invited but the possibility always there. Friendships and relationships can harbor disappointments and family ties can break as does a thread. O God, grant us the spirits of all those great men and women, of every culture and faith, who revealed the splendor of their souls when days were difficult and nights were dark. Speak to us, as You did to them, saying, be not afraid.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell:

Gracious God, So Far Above Us and Yet So Deep Within Us, Be near to us as we undertake the workload of the session, today. For the clamor of the world in all its sordid events, and the noise of strident needs in California are so much with us, and we find ourselves burdened and tossed by many winds. Open our minds and fill us with wisdom and understanding, to do our work. Give us great ideas to overcome, so great the tasks before us. Leave us not to our own doing, but send us forth into the hours of today, sufficiently clad to make justice and goodness attractive. Grant us the courage, to be, and the strength to fulfill these hours. Lift us up until what we do will acclaim victory, and sing, as a song in our lives.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell:

Gracious God, Who without deserving, You have brought us this far along the way. Guide us, that we fail not ourselves, this office or You. This morning, leave us not to ourselves, but abide in all we plan and do, our thoughts, our hopes and ways. From the superficiality of so much of the Capitol scene, we would find in You, a rock of stability and strength. From the thinning of our spiritual resources, we would find in You a strong reserve. Make these moments, a time of searching the past. Recall to us those high moments in our lives which inspired, encouraged, and brought us to these desks, with so much eagerness and faith. And may we never forget, but always remember, as You were with us in beginning, You are with us now, the same yesterday, today, and forever.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell:

Gracious God, Before Whose Face Kingdoms of the World Both Rise and Fall, We pause in gratitude and thanksgiving for our nation and state. We would lift up to You, this morning, all those presidents and leaders, whose service has sustained us, whose wisdom has led us, whose devotion and sacrifice shed light upon the path in darkness and speak loudly of the demands of state. In particular we remember President Richard Milhous Nixon who has departed this life and place. And we pray Your comfort for the nation and especially his family, who but so recently are in sadness again and find another empty space in their sky. And by our love for our nation and leadership may we measure the love of others for theirs, honoring their devotion and respect, as we honor our own.—AMEN.

PRAYER

Eternal and Most Gracious God, Our Refuge and Strength; to Whom We Never Turn in Vain, Just as we look into a mirror to see any blemish on our face, so let us look to You. As again we are assembled in this important place, so do we pray Your strong presence with us. For we meet in a time of trouble and strife, and problems of state perplex us from our state and nation, and areas throughout the world. Yet how thankful we are, that in Your hand every crisis of chaos and ruin is shadowed by given opportunities for better days to be. So lead us forth this morning to the secret places, to the wells of water that never run dry, always there, behind every concern and fear, the opportunities, reaching out to be.—AMEN.

Eternal and Most Gracious God, So High Above Us, Yet So Deep Within Us, How thankful we are for the triumph of justice and goodness in the world of human affairs; to be alive and witness the healing of brokenness, in the beleaguered life of a nation state. For as we peruse the birth of a new South Africa, and see Your hand at work, we are grateful for the inspiration we feel in the dawning of Your peace in that place. We thank You for the courage we can take for victories yet to be in other sundered nations, divided people, embittered classes and hostile faiths. As we come to this room this morning, this Capitol of so great this state, beget in us, so true a remembrance of the democratic ideals we espouse, that in all we do today, we too, shall rejoice.—AMEN.

Eternal and Most Gracious God, Unseen to Our Eyes, but Very Present in Mind and Spirit, How thankful we are for life and the privilege it is to be here this morning. In the freshness of the early day as we assemble in this room, be near to us. Renew in us understanding of the needs of our state, and the will to do something about them. Help us to be sensitive and alert to the good we can do today. Make clearer to us opportunities both hidden and obvious calling out for recognition, today. And when this day is done and our workload is put away, may we know deep within, as though Your voice, speaking to us saying, "Well done my faithful servant, you have been diligent in this vineyard, go in good conscience, take your rest, earned today."

Sovereign of the Universe, Whose glory is manifest in the highest mountain peaks and in the solitary flower, Whose wonders cannot be contained by the expanse of the universe, yet Who dwells within the human heart, share some of Your Spirit with us. Enable us to see the beauty of the sunrise or the blossoming of the flowers, to feel the warmth of the sun upon our faces and to fill our lungs with the fragrance of the world in bloom, to appreciate the beauty of Your world. Bless us also with the wisdom to see the difficulties in the world around us, and bless us with the understanding to find solutions. Bless us with compassion to remember that we are working for the benefit of Your creatures and our brothers and sisters. Bless us with the strength to persevere and not become discouraged by setbacks, despair, apathy and intolerance. Permit our eyes to capture glimpses of Your glory to inspire us, to fulfill the dream of making the world that we inhabit as beautiful and as whole as the world which we were given.—AMEN.

An Anonymous Prayer

O Lord, We buzz around like busy flies on the window sill of life. Shock us into remembering, that we are sent here for a purpose: to stand up when others would want us to be still; to speak out, when others would want us to be silent; to reach out when others would have us turn inward. You have given us eyes to see the unemployed and the under employed. Ears to hear the cries of hungry children. Lips to speak up for civil and human rights. Lord give us minds that work for economic justice and peace in the world. Give us hands that reach the edge of freedom and liberty wherever they are denied. Give us feet that can't be moved and feet that stand on principle.—AMEN.

Help us to face life with its blunt realities which confound our way. Cause us to use these solemn powers of state, to uphold the weak and allay the hurt of the poor. PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker Brown, the following prayer was offered by Rabbi David Feder, of Congregation Bet Haverim, in Davis:

Our God, Creator of the Vastness of the Universe, Shaper of the Human Spirit, We offer our thanks to You for the sense of justice that You have implanted within us. Though we apply that justice yet imperfectly and haltingly and falter and stumble in the darkness about us, may we be guided by Your light of justice that shines from within our hearts.

Help us to be more unwavering in our desire to do Your will. Cause us to recall that the men and women about us are our brothers and sisters, and fill us with love for them that we never wrong them, exploit them, or take advantage of their weakness or ignorance.

Kindle that passion for righteousness and justice in our hearts. Cause it to be a beacon casting light into the shadows of oppression and injustice, pain and suffering, bringing light to those who dwell in darkness. Give us the vision to see that only justice can endure, and only in acting justly with each other can we make our lives acceptable before You and our fellow citizens.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell:

Eternal and Most Gracious God, In the quiet of the morning and place, we lift up to You, our workload for today. Sometimes, our tasks can be overwhelming, and we can lose direction, shuffling through a mountain of papers on our desks. In other ways our spirits become faint amid the humdrum of voices. Make us more aware of the strength to be gleaned from Your presence. As You have been with us in the past, keep us in mind that we face not these tasks alone. Help us to know that what at first seems impossible is mostly fear. And that whatever is to be, awaits our courage to be. Reassure us, as we begin this day that in every voice we hear, and in every face we see, something of You is there.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell:

Eternal and Most Gracious God, the Source and Presence in Which We Move and Have Our Being, We come here, this morning, fully aware that what ought to be done in our work cannot be done by us alone, and we admit our need of light and guidance in this world of baffling and complex events. We can grow weary and feel so ill equipped to resolve the tasks of the day. Breathe on us power and enlighten us together in common purpose that we may meet the needs of the day and hour. Visit us this day, surprising us with fresh insights into the agenda before us. As we reflect on so many days in the past, when at our wits end, You move the stone away, how thankful we are that You are our guide and a lamp unto our feet. Help us to so embody truth, in what we do here, that all God's children may know that love is real and truth will never die.—AMEN.

Eternal and Most Gracious God, Whose Mercy Is Everlasting and as Near as a Listening Ear, Would that we hear and feel, Your presence abounding within us, even as it surrounds and permeates the world. For as children come to mother for a touch of assurance, so do we come to You. Take our fragmentary lives and perfect them with wholeness. Amass our transient thoughts and dreams and fuse them with the causes and purposes which are the concerns of this high office. In the course of this day, although we may not see every issue before us clearly, do help us in what we see, to see plainly. And grant that we all, with our loyal staff in support, may engage what matters most for the life, health, and welfare of California.—AMEN.

An Anonymous Prayer

O God, Give me the strength to live another day. Let me not turn coward before its difficulties or prove recreant to its duties. Let me not lose faith in my fellow men. Keep me sweet and sound of heart in spite of ingratitude or meanness. Preserve me from minding little stings or giving them. Help me to keep my heart clean, and so live that no outward failure can dishearten me or take away the joy in this work. Open wide the eyes of my soul that I may see good in all things. Grant me this day some new vision of truth, inspire me with the spirit of gladness and make me a cup of strength to all who need; in the name of the strong deliverer and my friend.—AMEN.

Eternal and Most Gracious God, Who Opens the Gates of the Morning Giving Us Once More the Opportunities of a New Day, Be near to us and prepare us to meet the demands of our calling in such a time as this. The secret thoughts of our hearts we open to You. You know the motives we entertain, the expectations we cherish, and the spirit in which we are come together.

O Lord, grant us this day from the storehouse of Your grace, clear minds stayed and embued with lively hope for the present world and in the future to come. Help us to face each task with open minds and deep concern for the greening of California. Especially this morning we would hold up to You those of us whose days are few on this floor be within holding them forever in Your care. In the names of all who seek Your peace, reassure us, that whatever we seek to be, awaits our courage to be.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell:

An Anonymous Prayer

Gracious God, This room is so quiet, at this hour. Arriving early has brought a dimension to things, we seldom see when the tempo picks up.

Now, while it's quiet, and the whole day lies before us, unopened and unspoiled, help us to remember what tranquility is, and how it remains hidden under shouts and bells and knocks and confusion. Help us to reach back during the day, today, and get the strength we feel, right now, from the knowledge, that in Your world there is peace, even when we hide it as in uncertain moments, not at all like these.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore O'Connell, Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Eternal and Most Gracious God, Who Knows the Goodness in Our Intentions, as over against the Weakness in What We Do, Be near to us. Grant us wisdom. Grant us courage in all that is proposed on this floor. Help us to bring to California a fullness of life to be shared with all its people and in accord with every high purpose. Forbid that we should ever be satisfied with half measures or with unfinished tasks. As the days of this session are fleeing by, grant us to have a sense of urgency in our efforts, and a deep concern for so much at hand. But above all and more, as the ancient hymn sings, "Guide me O Thou great Jehovah", for we are "Pilgrims through this barren land".—AMEN.

A Prayer by Tom Whitecloud, Chippewa

O Father, Whose Voice I Hear in the Winds and Whose Breath Gives Life to All the World, Hear me. I am one before You; one of Your many children. I am small and weak. I need Your strength and wisdom. Let me walk in beauty and make my eyes ever behold the red and purple sunsets. Make my hands respect the things You have made, my ears sharp to hear Your voice. Make me wise so that I may know the things You have taught my people; the lessons You have hidden in every leaf and rock. I seek strength, Father, not to be superior . . . but to be able to fight my worst enemy, myself. Make me ever ready to come to You with clean hands and straight eye, so that when life fades as the fading sunset, my spirit may come to You without shame.—AMEN.

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell:

An Anonymous Prayer

Lord, Why do I label people? Why do I pass judgement before I really know? Like my neighbor who didn't like that boy because of his cut of hair; or the youth who thinks his teacher is a stuffed shirt. Or the fella who thinks a girl is mad at him because she didn't smile back. Help me to stop labeling people, Lord, by race, religion, party or sex before I know them one on one. Don't let me stereotype people in ways that may not be true. You can help me do this, Lord, because You labeled me when You gave me my name. You have labeled all of us, as forgiven, loved, and worthy.—AMEN.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker Brown, the following prayer was offered by Rabbi David Feder, of Congregation Bet Haverim, in Davis:

Eternal Spirit of the Universe,

At this time of our assembly, we ask for your blessing on ourselves and our families, our nation and our state.

We know that the service which is most profound is the dedication of ourselves to those causes which are noble and of abiding worth, to those causes which seek to bring wholeness and support to all.

So this assembly, united for the common good,
endeavors to bring benefit to the citizens of our state,
the residents of our nation,
the inhabitants of our world.

May we always remember this in our daily actions,
our discussions and our debate,
that we seek to bring healing to our world,
and to establish justice within our society.

Let us fulfill the words of the prophet,

“Thus says the Eternal One:

Let not the wise glory in their wisdom, let not the mighty glory in their might,
let not the rich glory in their riches;
but let them who glory, glory in this:
that they understand and know Me, that I am the One who practices kindness, justice and righteousness in the earth, for in these things do I delight. (Jeremiah 9.22-23)

An Anonymous Prayer

O God, Give me the strength to live another day. Let me not turn coward before its difficulties or prove recreant to its duties. Let me not lose faith in my fellow men. Keep me sweet and sound of heart, in spite of ingratitude, treachery, or meanness. Preserve me from minding little stings or giving them to others. Help me to keep my heart clean, and to live so honestly and fearlessly that no outward failure can dishearten me or take away the joy of conscious integrity. Open wide the eyes of my soul that I may see good in all things. Grant me this day some new vision of truth, inspire me with the spirit of joy and gladness, and make me the cup of strength to all who are weak and hurt.—AMEN.

You have been our hope and stay in all our many days in this House. You have given wisdom in a thousand perplexities, strength in every crisis and hard situation, sure guidance in peril and courage in each urgent hour. All our years have been hedged in, by Your care, and all our ways blessed by Your presence. We praise You this morning for Your shepherdlike care, Your rod and staff, which comforted us in all our yesteryears, and still in the now, giving us confidence in such trying times as now.—AMEN.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Assembly Member Rainey was granted unanimous consent that the following statement of legislative intent be printed in the Journal:

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 99

August 27, 1994

*Mr. E. Dotson Wilson
Chief Clerk,
California State Assembly
State Capitol
Sacramento, California*

RE: ABX 99

Dear Mr. Wilson: A question has arisen regarding the intent of my ABX 99.

I introduced ABX 99 in order to address a critical public safety issue. More than two thirds of convicted offenders are sentenced to county control. However, California has no mechanism for establishing and providing oversight of community based punishment options for these offenders.

While sheriffs and probation departments in several counties currently operate a variety of community based punishment programs, there is very little coordination or consistency from one jurisdiction to another. Today, these programs operate largely in a vacuum, without any means for comprehensively evaluating program effectiveness.

In its current form, ABX 99 would enhance public safety by authorizing the state Board of Corrections to oversee community based punishment programs in conjunction with county correctional staff and community leaders, pursuant to regulations and guidelines established by the Board. The Board would also be given the authority to regularly evaluate the effectiveness, efficacy and public safety impacts of all punishment options.

Some of the punishment options provided for in ABX 99 include:

- Short term "shock" incarceration
- Boot Camps
- Mandatory Community Service
- Work Furlough
- Intensive Supervision
- Electronic Home Detention
- Restorative Justice Programs such as Victim-Offender Reconciliation or Mandatory Victim Restitution

Similar programs have been tested and implemented in other states, and have proven to be more cost effective, and in some cases a more effective deterrent to recidivism, than incarceration. Perhaps just as important, punishment options such as these give correctional officials the tools they need to provide increased supervision of and control over individuals who have been released from custody.

ABX 99 would restrict the types of inmates who may be placed in a community based punishment program, and prohibit placement of violent, high risk offenders into any such program.

For purposes of this bill, 'violent' offenders are those with a criminal record which includes a charge or conviction for any offense listed in Section 667.5 of the Penal Code, or who fail to meet National Institute of Corrections guidelines for non-violent offenders, or who are found to pose a risk to the community according to the Correctional Administrator.

ABX 99 emphasizes the role of citizens in developing community based punishment programs, and places a strong emphasis on the needs of victims. The bill also describes the state and local partnership necessary for developing strong community based sanctions.

ABX 99 was introduced solely to aid in the development of community based punishment options for those first time, low risk offenders who are sentenced to county control. In order to clarify this point, all references to the California Department of Corrections and the California Youth Authority have been struck from the bill.

ABX 99 has the support of a wide range of law enforcement, corrections and civic organizations, including:

- The California State Sheriff's Association
- The California District Attorney's Association
- The California Peace Officer's Association
- The California Police Chief's Association
- The California Chief Probation Officer's Association
- The California Probation, Parole and Correctional Association
- The Little Hoover Commission
- The California State Association of Counties
- The American Association of Retired Persons
- The California Board of Corrections

The recent enactment of California's "3 Strikes" legislation was designed to deal with high risk offenders who are beyond reform. ABX 99 is intended to provide a long term solution to our state's growing crime problem. It will expand the use of effective punishment options at the local level which will prevent today's first time, non violent criminals from becoming tomorrow's hardened candidates for "3 Strikes."

Sincerely,

RICHARD K. RAINEY, Assembly Member
Fifteenth District

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following message from the Governor was received and ordered printed in the Journal:

Governor's Office, Sacramento
September 24, 1994

To the Members of the California Assembly:

I am signing on this date Assembly Bill No. 79X.

This bill would require the Department of Motor Vehicles to suspend or delay the driving privilege for six months of any person convicted of specified controlled substance offenses.

I continue to support the revocation of a driver's license when an individual has been convicted of any controlled substance offense. It is my view that regardless of whether or not the individual was operating a motor vehicle, revocation of the privilege to drive a car is appropriate when an individual has been convicted of a drug offense.

Cordially,

PETE WILSON

The following bills and accompanying veto messages were deposited with the Secretary of State, pursuant to Article IV, Sec. 10(4), of the Constitution:

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 14

Governor's Office, Sacramento
September 26, 1994

To the Members of the California Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill No. 14X without my signature.

This bill would authorize investigators of the Employment Development Department to carry firearms upon designation by the Department.

The premise of this bill is that investigators need to carry firearms to ensure their safety while performing high-risk activities. However, those who work for the Department and investigate or audit businesses for compliance with the unemployment and disability insurance laws should not be put in high-risk situations in the first place. To the extent this is occurring now, I am directing the Department to revise its policies and procedures to mitigate this concern.

Cordially,

PETE WILSON

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 28

Governor's Office, Sacramento
September 26, 1994

To the Members of the California Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill No. 28X without my signature.

This bill would authorize San Bernardino County to impose a surcharge on civil filing fees up to $35 to be used to fund courthouse security systems.

This bill is materially the same as AB 1973 which I vetoed last year. It suffers the same flaws.

Cordially,

PETE WILSON

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 65

Governor's Office, Sacramento
September 26, 1994

To the Members of the California Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill No. 65X without my signature.

This bill would require the Department of Corrections to establish a Deputy Director position in charge of educational programs. The Deputy Director would be charged with the mission of setting short and long-term goals involving literacy, testing, and educational priorities for all prison educational programs.

Under current law, the Department of Corrections is required to implement in every state prison a literacy program that is designed to enable inmates to achieve a 9th grade reading level.

There has been no demonstrated need to create another bureaucratic level in the Department in order to carry out an educational mandate currently implemented by existing staff within existing fiscal resources.

Should there be need to redirect the efforts of existing educational programs, the executive branch may implement such changes without legislation.

Cordially,

PETE WILSON

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 92

Governor's Office, Sacramento
September 26, 1994

To the Members of the California Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill No. 92X without my signature.

This bill would authorize the establishment of the East Bay Public Safety Corridor Juvenile Justice Program, applicable only to Alameda and Contra Costa Counties. Under the proposed program, parole authority for wards originally committed from Alameda and Contra Costa would be transferred from the Youth Authority to those counties. The county probation departments would be responsible for supervision of these parolees.

Under the provisions of this bill, 56 counties would function under existing parole authority while two others would maintain a discrete system. State funds would be transferred to Alameda and Contra Costa counties co-incident with their assumption of the parole function.

If enacted other fiscally challenged counties would likely seek to follow creating a patchwork of jurisdictions, a lack of uniformity, and a threat to public safety, if limited resources at the local level result in less parolee oversight.

Cordially,

PETE WILSON

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 96

Governor's Office, Sacramento
September 26, 1994

To the Members of the California Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill No. 96X without my signature.

This bill would provide that enhanced boot camps be given priority in the distribution of new federal funds allocated for alternative punishment programs.

It is premature to set priorities regarding the use of federal funds, especially since we have not had the opportunity to assess the federal limitations which may have been imposed on those funds.

I fully support the concept of boot camps and other types of intermediate sanctions that hold individuals accountable for their actions and reduce recidivism rates. However, the provisions contained in this bill raise many questions about eligibility for funding, administrative costs, and duplication of existing programs.

While expansion of boot camps and enhanced boot camp programs may have merit, programs should be considered for funding through a statewide competitive evaluation process which allocates public funds based on a combination of community/regional needs, merits of the program, and availability of funds as viewed from a statewide perspective.

Cordially,

PETE WILSON

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 102

Governor's Office, Sacramento
September 26, 1994

To the Members of the California Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill No. 102X without my signature.

This bill would require that the Department of Corrections develop and implement a plan to determine which parolees should be continued on parole and which should have their parole revoked.

There is clearly no need for this bill. The Department of Corrections long ago developed and implemented specific statewide criteria on who should be referred to the parole authority for revocation. For the author's information specific guidelines can be found in the California Code of Regulations, Title 15.

Cordially,

PETE WILSON
