MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following veto message from the Governor was received and ordered printed in the Journal and the bill ordered to the unfinished business file:

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 160

Governor's Office, Sacramento
February 11, 1998

To the Members of the California Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill No. 160 without my signature.

This bill would require health care service plan contracts which provide outpatient prescription drug benefits and disability insurance policies to include coverage for a variety of federal Food and Drug Administration approved prescription contraceptive methods.

Comprehensive reproductive health services, including contraceptive services, are an essential element of women's health care and central to preventive care strategies. As I noted in my 1991 State of the State Address, "massive human and financial costs are associated with each unintended child that is born. Family planning education and contraceptive services are among the most sensible and humane investments we can make in our strategy of prevention."

Consistent with this commitment, I have led California in implementing a far-reaching, comprehensive prevention strategy to prevent unintended pregnancies. We have established the Partnership for Responsible Parenting (PRP) to support mentoring, information and outreach activities and a wide array of community-based prevention strategies. We have also developed the Family P.A.C.T. (Planning, Access, Care and Treatment) program, designed to make contraceptives more available to low-income women of reproductive age. All low income women with incomes below 200% of the federal poverty level are now guaranteed access to family planning services through this program. Taken together, PRP and Family P.A.C.T. have made a significant contribution to lowering educational and financial barriers to contraceptive services for the women of California.

This bill assumes that insured women do not have access to contraceptives because their health plans and insurers do not provide coverage for contraceptives. To the contrary, all but a few health care service plans and insurers in California provide policies and contracts that offer a variety of family planning services and contraceptive options. I have asked the author and sponsors to provide me with any evidence that insured women have difficulty obtaining medically appropriate family planning and contraceptive services from their plans and insurers. The author and sponsors have not been able to provide any such evidence.

However, honoring my commitment to assure that all women have access to family planning and contraceptive services, I will sign legislation similar to this bill if it exempts religious employers and organizations based on their religious beliefs, in the manner provided in AB 2601 (1992), Chapter 915, enacting Labor Code Section 1102.1.

Were this bill to be enacted without a conscience clause, it could have an effect opposite to that intended by the author and supporters. Those religious organizations, such as Catholic diocesan offices, that object to providing coverage for contraceptives could simply drop all coverage for prescription drug benefits in order to avoid violating their religious teachings. Thus, this bill could actually decrease, rather than increase, prescription drug benefits for many women.

I invite the author and Legislature to continue working with me on this issue.

Cordially,

97014

February 24, 1998

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As required by Chapter 16 of the Statutes of 1990, the Bureau of State Audits presents in its audit report entitled "California Transportation Commission and Department of Transportation: The State's Use of Transportation Funds Generated by the 1989 Transportation Blueprint Legislation." This report concludes that the State allocated and expended transportation funds in accordance with statutory requirements. It also concludes that revenues anticipated by the legislation are only 57 percent and expenditures only 47 percent of the legislative estimate after seven years of the ten-year program. The report also concludes that the department allowed $1.1 billion in spending authority to expire primarily, according to the department, because of savings between estimated and actual project costs.

Additionally, redirections of blueprint revenue totaled approximately $736 million. The department stated that these redirections were diverted to seismic retrofit or, pursuant to legislation, primarily to the General Fund.

Respectfully submitted,

KURT R. SJOBERG
State Auditor

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Kuehl, the following prayer was offered by Father Gregory J. Boyle, S.J., of the Dolores Mission in Los Angeles:

Let us pray that God will shower blessings on this day and on the leadership of our native son and brother, Antonio.

O God, Compassionate and merciful, draw us into Your light and wisdom this day. We seek to conform our hearts to Your own. We long to inhabit Your same care for the widow, orphan and stranger. We seek to find root room for a love that cannot be contained. And so we extend ourselves in love and with Your own magnanimity to the “rechazados y marginados”, to those left out, powerless and without a voice, to those on the margins and whose burdens and needs are more than they can bear.

In so doing, may our hearts be broken by the very same things which break Your own. Through it all, we pray to take seriously what You take seriously. As we build Your kingdom of justice and peace, we are heartened by the words of Monseñor Oscar Romero, who knew that Your kingdom is “not only beyond our efforts, it is even beyond our vision”. “We may never see the end results,” he writes, “but that is the difference between the master builders and the worker. We are workers, not master builders, ministers not messiahs. We are prophets of a future that is not our own.”

And so, Creator and generous God, bless our brother, Antonio. Guide him, console him, challenge him. May this sacred trust enable his efforts and quicken him to serve the State of California with integrity and a profound longing to do Your will. And may we all work together to restore the relations of the human family in truth, in justice, in love and in freedom.

May this communal endeavor to make the Kingdom palpable, real and true, be brought to faithful completion.

For we know that we cannot “Do great things on this earth, only small things with great love”.

Bless us, Bless Antonio and bless the bond that unites us all.—AMEN.

SPEAKER BUSTAMANTE ADDRESSES ASSEMBLY

The following remarks were offered by Speaker Cruz M. Bustamante to the assemblage:

Before we get on with the swearing in I'd like to announce a few committee changes and office reassignments.

As the first Speaker to really serve under term limits, I knew going in there were going to be constraints on this office.

I couldn't be a Speaker to rule by reward.

I couldn't be a Speaker who smited with my rod.

But I knew I could move people together to find consensus.

I knew with Antonio Villaraigosa and Sheila Kuehl and Joe Baca and Kevin Shelley we could set an example of how this house can function under term limits.

The fact that we are celebrating the first peaceful Speakership transition in memory is one sign we succeeded.

As I mentioned last night, we all started out being seen as the gang that couldn't shoot straight.

The term limit babies.

And we showed the doubters.

We reduced class sizes and reformed welfare and cut taxes and—thanks to a bill by Assemblyman Antonio Villaraigosa—extended health insurance to 600,000 low income kids.

To the members of this house, I thank you for your support and your encouragement during my term as Speaker.

I thank you for the way you have supported and encouraged the Speaker-elect.

I know he and his leadership team will have a phenomenal year.

If this man can find such spark and inspiration hanging out at the UCLA Library waiting for Gil Cedillo, just think what can happen now that he has access to the Speaker's office.

Members of the Assembly, I am proud to be your colleague.

I am proud to have served this house as Speaker.

And I am proud to turn the gavel over to my friend and brother Speaker Antonio Villaraigosa.

APPOINTMENT OF SELECT COMMITTEE ON ESCORT

Pursuant to the election of Antonio R. Villaraigosa on January 26, 1998 (Assembly Journal, p. 5196), Speaker Bustamante appointed Assembly Members Cardoza, Hertzberg, Leonard, Mazzoni, Migden, Ortiz, Pringle, Shelley, and Napolitano as a Select Committee on Escort to escort the Speaker-elect to the Rostrum.

OATH OF OFFICE ADMINISTERED

Speaker-elect Villaraigosa appeared at the bar of the Assembly and took and subscribed to the following oath of office administered by Judge Stephen Reinhardt, United States Court of Appeals, Ninth District.

OATH

for the Office of Speaker of the Assembly

I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of California; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties upon which I am about to enter.

ANTONIO R. VILLARAIGOSA

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 26th day of February
A.D. 1998

JUDGE STEPHEN REINHARDT
United States Court of Appeals
Ninth Circuit

PRESENTATION OF SPEAKER VILLARAIGOSA

Former Speaker Bustamante then presented the 63rd Speaker of the Assembly, Antonio R. Villaraigosa.

ADDRESS BY SPEAKER VILLARAIGOSA

Speaker Antonio R. Villaraigosa then gave the following address to the assemblage:

Mr. Speaker, constitutional officers, past speakers and majority leaders of this house, my colleagues in the Senate and the Assembly, my family and friends, and my fellow Californians.

Thank you for that warm welcome and for the honor of choosing me as your Speaker.

I want to thank several people today.

First, my wife Corina and my children Marisela, Prisila, Antonio, Jr. and Natalia Fe. Also my sisters Mary Lou and Deborah. My brother, Rob, my Aunti Vera, my cousins, John, Yvette, Ramon and Lynn. My nephew and nieces, Isaac, Aaron, Christopher, Jason and Jessica—whose support and love makes it possible for me to be here.

I also want to thank Federal Circuit Court of Appeals Judge Stephen Reinhardt for coming all the way from Los Angeles to swear me in today, and Father Boyle, who provided the morning prayer.

No thoughtful member of this House would prepare to assume the Speakership without first looking back at the history of this post and the Assembly itself.

Allow me also to welcome former Speaker and Lieutenant Governor Leo McCarthy, who, like Bob Moretti, is a giant of this Legislature who will never be forgotten.

I want to pay special tribute to the late Jesse Unruh, who has a permanent memorial on this floor—a desk which proclaims him our 81st member. Jesse Unruh built this Legislature into a truly co-equal branch of government.

But I would be remiss if I did not acknowledge the presence of the Mayor of San Francisco, Willie Lewis Brown, Jr., who served as Speaker longer than anyone in history. He left his imprint on every area of public policy in this state, and is still doing so. I am so thrilled he is here today to be with me. I am proud to call him my teacher and my friend.

Please rise and join me in a tribute to all of our former and great leaders.

I also want to take a moment to thank my mother. Like many children coming of age today, I was raised in a home without a father. But I was blessed with a mother who held our family together through love, faith, strength of character, and many years of hard work.

She did her best to provide her children with the comforts of a home, to impart a deep sense of pride in our ethnic heritage, and to teach us the values she knew we would need to succeed. She would be so proud to see me here today. And so I say from the bottom of my heart, thank you, mother.

And finally, thanks to all my compadres and friends from Los Angeles. Your love and support has always been so special to me.

Everyone in this chamber today and all my friends gathered outside know that Cruz Bustamante is my friend. They know the depth of our affection for one another.

So I want to talk for a few minutes about his too-brief tenure as Speaker of this Assembly.

While term limits cut short his legislative career, what could not be cut short is the quality of his character, the passion of his beliefs, a reputation for fairness, and the quiet, modest strength of a man who loves his family, his state, his country and his God.

And that, my friends, was enough to lead us to what everyone has acknowledged was one of the most productive sessions in recent memory.

And so I say to you, Cruz Bustamante, my friend, my leader, my brother and my teacher, that you have taught us how to be a leader without gifts to bestow, without punishments to be meted out, and you have succeeded on the strength of your character alone.

And in this era of term limits, of truncated careers, that is what it will take to be a great leader in this House. Someone with real convictions, real beliefs, real passions, and the ability to communicate that vision, even to one's adversaries.

Someone like Cruz Bustamante. Please rise and join me in a salute to our great leader.

Cruz, the best to you.

Today, I assume the office of Speaker of this House. But it is more than a job. It is a position of great trust, granted to me by my colleagues and my peers.

To be here—to have been elected by my constituents and then again by my colleagues—proves that we do live in a nation where the American dream is still alive.

But I didn't get here without help. Many people held open the door for me. And it is our responsibility to all the children of California to keep those doors of opportunity open, to thrust them open even wider and hold them open.

Some days as Majority Leader, when a contentious issue was being debated on this Floor, I have looked up into that gallery and I have seen the faces of school children visiting this great institution.

I thought about how important it is that we inspire them with the best of what can happen here, the passion, the honesty, the occasional flashes of rhetorical brilliance that light up this house.

And so, each day before we walk onto this Floor, I call on every one of us to stop and consider that there will be children here, soaking up and never forgetting what they see and hear during their visit to the Capitol.

We have an enormous responsibility to ensure that they leave here knowing that we conducted ourselves with civility, that our debate was thoughtful and courteous, and that what we do here is in fact an honorable pursuit.

One of the things they will see is a clash of ideas. Indeed, that is the reason we are here: to debate the issues of the day.

But make no mistake about it. There are some things on which we should all agree. Values that are neither Democratic nor Republican, but uniquely American.

Members, we should all be able to agree:

That every child in our state should have health insurance and that doctors, not accountants, should make the medical decisions that affect our lives.

That every man and woman should have access to good and secure employment, because without that you can never provide a nurturing environment for your children.

That every family should be able to feel secure in their home and safe to walk the streets of their neighborhood, because if we lose our sense of community, we will cease to be the nation we set out to be.

That all Californians should be confident that this government will protect the quality of our air, our water and our natural heritage of beauty, because these are our birthrights and must be handed down to our children.

And we should all be able to agree that every child is entitled to a fundamentally sound education, because without that, you are handicapped from the start. Every California child deserves the opportunity to reach his or her full potential.

It falls to us, as it falls to every generation, to re-ignite America's great beacon of hope; to make sure we shine out over the darkness of the world as a nation of freedom, a nation of justice, a nation of equality, a nation of opportunity.

And it falls uniquely to this generation to learn and teach tolerance. For while we are many cultures, we must be only one nation.

We have enacted many laws to ensure that people of different ethnic and racial backgrounds, of both sexes, of different orientations, and those with disabilities are treated equally under the law, and with fairness in our society.

But we have seen all too often that while the laws of our nation and our state may guide our minds, they do not always guide our hearts.

Recently, I was asked who would have made a great president—and I answered without hesitation, Martin Luther King.

Reverend King taught us many things, but perhaps his greatest and most enduring lesson is the lesson of tolerance, because tolerance leads us to understanding and understanding leads us to love one another.

He was a great visionary, and Martin Luther King taught us the value of inclusion. When we look into the faces of those immigrants among us, who may not yet be citizens or whose citizenship, like mine, dates back only a generation, we must embrace the values that Dr. King taught.

While it's the federal government and not the state that sets immigration policy, those who do come to our state should be a cause for celebration, not concern.

To these new residents I say: "You—with your passion and hard work—you were the hope and the future of our nation over 200 years ago; and you are its hope and its future today."

As we look forward to the next century and develop a vision for action, it is instructive to learn from one of the most productive eras of our past, when we all worked together, Democrat and Republican, the Legislature and the Administrative Branch, to lay the foundation for much of what California is today.

Working together, we developed our world class public university systems;

Together, we built the transportation infrastructure that made us the seventh largest economy in the world;

Together, we helped our farmers develop the world's most efficient and productive agricultural industry when we created the California Water Project;

And, by working together, we led the nation in per pupil spending on education.

However, like any investment left untended, the investments we made during the golden era have begun to decay.

I hope that this body will engage in a serious effort to ensure that California does not become merely an empty husk of the giant we once were.

We must ensure that our merchants can get their products to market and that our workforce can get to their jobs;

That our employers have the best educated workforce in the world to draw from, and that it is worth good wages and benefits to get California workers;

That our schools are safe and our teachers excellent and that our kids have access to the technology they will need in the next century;

And that we praise these institutions when they are successful and that we hold them accountable when they are not.

In short, it is long past time that we begin to reinvest in California.

Some of those investments must be financial. Some things we have let go so long that they cannot be repaired or upgraded without a significant investment of resources.

We must invest in a new U.C. campus for the Central Valley, one of the last regions of our state still unserved by a major research university.

And we must not allow our public education system, the great equalizer in a democracy, to fall into disrepair.

But I am not calling for a huge new round of spending. On the contrary, I am calling for an investment in our greatest resource: our people.

I am calling for an investment of creativity, of originality, and of new thinking that will make sure every child has access to medical attention; to begin the process of moving California from the bottom half of the nation in per pupil spending to where we belong—back at the top.

Part of that effort must be to make sure that the school buildings are safe, that they don't leak during heavy rain, that the walls aren't crumbling and that they honor rather than degrade our children.

To that end, I have informed the Governor that I am ready to meet with him today, tomorrow, over the weekend, and as long as it takes to produce a school facilities bond that the Legislature can pass.

It was not so long ago that the nation considered California the great testing ground for new ideas.

It was not so long ago that where California led, the nation and indeed the world followed.

If we invest in our young people and the institutions that help them grow, if we have patience and tolerance, if we treat the ideas of others with respect and dignity and learn to listen as well as talk, we can be a great state again.

So I call on all of us, Members of this House and of the Senate, our Governor and constitutional officers, on our expert and loyal staff, and most of all on the people of California:

Let us be ambitious in our dreams and strong in our commitments.

Let us steer this great state toward a future that rivals and even surpasses its past.

That, my friends, is the challenge that is before us. That is the opportunity that awaits us.

Thank you. And God bless you.

California State Auditor

97019
February 26, 1998

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As required by Chapter 518, Statutes of 1995, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning Los Angeles County's (county) fiscal condition and the status of issues we previously reported. This report concludes that the county achieved a budget surplus of $273.8 million for fiscal year 1996-97. To help balance its 1997-98 budget, the county budgeted the following: the use of approximately $300 million of its $1.2 billion of unused Los Angeles County Retired Employees' Association excess earnings, the receipt of approximately $200 million from its health services relief package, and approximately $200 million of additional funding for its hospitals with a high disproportionate share of indigent patients. However, we estimate that the county may exceed its overtime budget for 1997-98 by $67 million. Finally, to maintain a balanced budget for 1997-98, the county will have to receive the revenues it has budgeted as well as control its overtime usage and find ongoing funding sources to pay for the salary increases it approved.

Respectfully submitted,

KURT R. SJOBERG
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Local Government.

COMMUNICATIONS

The following letters of transmittal were presented by the Speaker, and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

 March 11, 1998

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the status of excess surplus balances in the low- and moderate-income housing funds in the State's community redevelopment agencies. This report concludes that actual excess surplus balances in the low- and moderate-income housing funds are far less than reported and problems exist with the administration of community redevelopment. In addition, because the law does not provide clear guidance, redevelopment agencies do not utilize consistent methods to determine excess surplus balances, resulting in unreliable statewide information on the status of redevelopment funds that are mandated for affordable housing. Finally, the audit suggests that more statewide oversight may improve reporting of excess surplus balances and improve redevelopment agencies' compliance with statewide requirements regarding the set aside and spending of property tax increment revenue for affordable housing.

Respectfully submitted,

KURT R. SJOBERG
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Housing and Community Development.

California State Auditor

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning security measures for forensic patients at the Department of Mental Health's four hospitals. This report concludes that the State's annual security costs at the four hospitals could be reduced by approximately $7.4 million. Cost reductions could be achieved by replacing security officers in fixed guard posts with double-fencing, electronic detection systems, and mobile patrols. In addition, internal security at the hospitals could be improved by centralizing security decision-making and standardizing important operating practices. Also, when transporting forensic patients off-grounds, officers should be armed to protect themselves and the public. Finally, we found that after June 2003, patient population growth will exceed the number of available beds.

Respectfully submitted,

KURT R. SJOBERG
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Health.

Holy are You, O God. Blessed is Your name. You create and You sustain. You are our beginning and our end, our salvation and our hope.

Before everything that is You were. All nations and people are Yours. All our days are in Your hands. Great is Your faithfulness. Your promises never fail. You bless us in prodigal measure.

We give You thanks and praise. We remember Your mercy with gratitude and thanksgiving.

You have fashioned us in Your image. You call us to live in the world as Your children. You have made us the caretakers and stewards of Your creation.

You command us to proclaim truth, promote peace and practice justice. You put Your word on our lips and write Your law on our hearts.

Free us from the fear which divides and the self-centeredness which destroys community and life.

Give wisdom to those who lead. Make them worthy of the calling they have received. Give them the will to choose what is right and the courage to do it. In all decisions may they please You first.

Direct us all with Your Spirit. Fill us with Your power. In the living of our days may we show ourselves as a people whose ways bring honor and glory to Your name.

Thanks be to You now and for ever, God most good.—AMEN.

In Memory of Maynard Amerine

Maynard A. Amerine, 86, a professor emeritus at UC Davis, and world renowned authority on wine, died of natural causes Wednesday, March 11, 1998, in his St. Helena home.

Professor Amerine's research on the technical aspects of grape growing and wine making invigorated the California wine industry as it recovered from Prohibition. His work is considered by many to be the cornerstone for the industry's success in the world wine community.

Born in San Jose, Professor Amerine grew up on farms near Modesto. He attended Modesto high school and junior college, then earned a bachelor's degree in plant science at UC Davis in 1932. He received a doctorate in plant physiology from UC Berkeley in 1936.

In 1935, while working on his doctoral degree at UC Berkeley, he was hired to join the UC Davis faculty in the viticulture and enology department. His first assignment was to study the relationship of grape variety, climate and location to the quality of California wines. This research would eventually lead to the adoption of recommended grape varieties for specific regions, significantly boosting the quality of California wines.

In collaboration with fellow researcher Albert J. Winkler, Amerine developed the system of classifying wine-growing regions by measuring heat. He worked closely with the California wine industry to restore and advance the technical knowledge that had been lost during Prohibition.

Amerine served as chairman of the viticulture and enology department from 1957–1962. He was honored by his peers for his research accomplishments in 1962 and 1964 as the All-University Lecturer and in 1964 as the UC Davis Faculty Research Lecturer.

He also was the recipient of numerous literary awards, decorations and honors from virtually every wine-producing nation. Those honors included the Croix d'Officier of the Ordre National du Merite, the Chevalier de Merite Agricole, the Merit Award and presidency of the American Society of Enology.

In addition to his research, Amerine was recognized as an outstanding teacher, training hundreds of students who went on to become wine makers and grape growers.

Amerine retired from UC Davis in 1974, but remained active as a writer and recognized expert on wine. He served as a member of the board of directors of the Napa Valley Wine Library Association.

He was preceded in death by his parents and by his sister, Velma Ethyl Winn, and is survived by many cousins and two nephews.

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the State's and the vendor's project management for the Statewide Automated Child Support System (SACSS). This report concludes that Lockheed Martin Information Management Systems failed to deliver on its promises for the SACSS. Moreover, the State failed to take adequate and timely corrective actions on the expert warnings which resulted in SACSS' failure. Lastly, the State's failure to manage the project cost the taxpayers millions of dollars.

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the Office of Real Estate Appraisers (department). This report concludes that the department has a large backlog of complaints that it has been unable to resolve promptly. Delays in resolving complaints are attributable to staffing decisions and turnover and the department's lack of adherence to internal procedures. In addition, certain of its personnel practices have violated state and federal rules. Finally, the department needs to improve some of its licensing procedures to enhance their effectiveness.

Respectfully submitted,

KURT R. SJOBERG

Real Property Disclosures #6281

Dear Mr. Torlakson:

QUESTION

In the context of transfers of residential real property and the disclosures relating to flooding and fire hazards to be required by Section 1102.6c of the Civil Code, must those disclosures be made on either a Natural Hazard Disclosure Statement or the Local Option Real Estate Transfer Disclosure Statement, the forms of which statements are prescribed by statute, or may those disclosures also be validly made in the form of an expert report, pursuant to Section 1102.4 of the Civil Code, without the use of either statutory form?

OPINION

In the context of transfers of residential real property, the disclosures relating to flooding and fire hazards to be required by Section 1102.6c of the Civil Code must be made on either a Natural Hazard Disclosure Statement or the Local Option Real Estate Transfer Disclosure Statement to be valid. Those disclosures may not validly be made in the form of an expert report, pursuant to Section 1102.4 of the Civil Code, without the use of either statutory form.

ANALYSIS

Initially, by way of background, Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 1102 of Chapter 2 of Title 4 of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Civil Code¹ (hereafter Article 1.5) generally requires that in certain transfers of real property in this state, the seller or transferor of the property, and his or her agents, must deliver to the prospective buyer or transferee a written statement known as a Real Estate Transfer Disclosure Statement.

Section 1102 provides that the requirements of Article 1.5 apply to any transfer, by sale, exchange, installment land sale contract, lease with an option to purchase, any other option to purchase, or ground lease coupled with improvements, of real property, or residential stock cooperative, improved with or consisting of not less than one nor more than four dwelling units (subd. (a), Sec. 1102). Section 1102.2 specifies exceptions to the disclosure requirements of Article 1.5.

Section 1102.6 sets forth the form of the Real Estate Transfer Disclosure Statement and requires a wide variety of disclosures regarding the subject property² including, among other things, disclosures with respect to structural defects and building additions; the appliances and other items included in the sale; environmental hazards, encroachments, and easements; flooding or drainage problems; zoning violations, deed restrictions, and homeowners' associations; and other pertinent information about the property (the complete text of Section 1102.6 is attached hereto as Schedule A).

In addition to the disclosures required by Section 1102.6, a city or county may elect to require other disclosures by sellers of property described in Section 1102, and their agents, on a form known as a Local Option Real Estate Transfer Disclosure Statement. Section 1102.6a sets forth the form of the Local Option Real Estate Transfer Disclosure Statement and provides, in part, as follows:

“1102.6a. (a) On and after July 1, 1990, any city or county may elect to require disclosures on the form set forth in subdivision (b) in addition to those disclosures required by Section 1102.6. However, this section does not affect or limit the authority of a city or county to require disclosures on a different disclosure form in connection with transactions subject to this article pursuant to an ordinance adopted prior to July 1, 1990. Such an ordinance adopted prior to July 1, 1990, may be amended thereafter to revise the disclosure requirements of the ordinance, in the discretion of the city council or county board of supervisors.

“(b) Disclosures required pursuant to this section pertaining to the property proposed to be transferred, shall be set forth in, and shall be made on a copy of, the following disclosure form: [the form for Section 1102.6a is attached hereto as Schedule B]

“(c) This section does not preclude the use of addenda to the form specified in subdivision (b) to facilitate the required disclosures. This section does not preclude a city or county from using the disclosure form specified in subdivision (b) for a purpose other than that specified in this section.”

Thus, in addition to the Real Estate Transfer Disclosure Statement, sellers and their agents may be required, by local ordinance, to make additional disclosures on a Local Option Real Estate Transfer Disclosure Statement.

With this statutory framework in mind, we now turn to Section 1102.6c. Last year, Assembly Bill No. 6 of the First Extraordinary Session of the Legislature was enacted (Ch. 7, Stats. 1997, 1st Ex. Sess.; hereafter A.B. 6). This measure, among other things, added Section 1102.6c to Article 1.5 to provide as follows:

“1102.6c. (a) This section shall apply only to any real property that is subject to one or more of the following:

“(1) Zone A of flood insurance rate maps issued by the Federal Emergency Management Agency pursuant to the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968 (42 U.S.C. Secs. 4001 et seq.).

“(2) Section 8589.4 of the Government Code.

“(3) Section 51183.5 of the Government Code.

“(4) Section 2621.9 of the Public Resources Code.

“(5) Section 2694 of the Public Resources Code.

“(6) Section 4136 of the Public Resources Code.

“(b) In addition to the disclosure required pursuant to Section 1102.6, the transferor of any real property that is subject to this section, or his or her agent, shall deliver to the prospective transferee the following natural hazard disclosure statement:

“NATURAL HAZARD DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

“(c) If an earthquake fault zone, seismic hazard zone, very high fire hazard severity zone, or wildland fire area map or accompanying information is not of sufficient accuracy or scale that a reasonable person can determine if the subject real property is included in a natural hazard area, the seller or seller’s agent shall mark ‘Yes’ on the Natural Hazard Disclosure Statement. The seller or seller’s agent may mark ‘No’ on the Natural Hazard Disclosure Statement if he or she attaches a report prepared pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 1102.4 that verifies the property is not in the hazard zone. Nothing in this subdivision is intended to limit or abridge any existing duty of the seller or the seller's agents to exercise reasonable care in making a determination under this subdivision.

“(d) The disclosure required pursuant to this section may be provided by the seller and seller's agent in the Local Option Real Estate Disclosure Statement provided that the Local Option Real Estate Disclosure Statement includes substantially the same information and substantially the same warning that is required by this section.

“(e) The disclosure required pursuant to this section is only a disclosure between the seller, the seller's agents, and the buyer, and shall not be used by any other party, including, but not limited to, insurance companies, lenders, or governmental agencies, for any purpose.

“(f) The specification of items for disclosure in this section does not limit or abridge any obligation for disclosure created by any other provision of law or that may exist in order to avoid fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit in the transfer transaction.” (Emphasis added.)

Thus, Section 1102.6c, when it become operative,³ will require sellers of residential real property or their agents, in addition to making other statutorily required disclosures, to disclose whether the subject property is located within a defined flood hazard area, area of potential flooding, a very high fire hazard severity zone, a wildland area that may contain substantial forest fire risks and hazards, an earthquake fault zone, or a seismic hazard zone. The question before us is whether those disclosures must be made by delivery of the Natural Hazard Disclosure Statement or Local Option Real Estate Transfer Disclosure Statement, as specified in subdivisions (b) and (d) of Section 1102.6c, or whether those disclosures may also be validly made by some other means.

To ascertain the meaning of Section 1102.6c, we begin with the language in which the statute is framed (Leroy T. v. Workmen's Comp. Appeals Bd., 12 Cal. 3d 434, 438). As set forth above, subdivision (b) of Section 1102.6c states, in part, that “. . . the transferor of any real property that is subject to this section, or his or her agent, shall deliver to the prospective transferee the . . . natural hazard disclosure statement” (emphasis added). Subdivision (d) of Section 1102.6c then specifies a single alternative means for making the required disclosures by providing as follows:

“1102.6c * * *

“(d) The disclosure required pursuant to this section may be provided by the seller and seller's agent in the Local Option Real Estate Disclosure Statement provided that the Local Option Real Estate Disclosure Statement includes substantially the same information and substantially the same warning that is required by this section." (Emphasis added.)

³ A.B. 6 states that Section 1102.6c shall become operative on March 1, 1998 (Sec. 14, Ch. 7, Stats. 97, 1st Ex. Sess.). Senate Bill 71, enacted as an urgency bill earlier this year, purported to extend this operative date to June 1, 1998 (Sec. 1, Ch. 2, Stats. 98). However, because A.B. 6 was enacted during an extraordinary session, its provisions will not become effective until the 91st day after final adjournment of the special session (Sec. 8, Art. IV, Cal. Const.) and, thus, because the 1997-98 First Extraordinary Session has yet to adjourn, none of the provisions of A.B. 6 can become operative until that time.

It has been held that the word "shall" is ordinarily used by the Legislature to express a mandatory requirement (Hogya v. Superior Court, 75 Cal. App. 3d 122, 133). Additionally, under the doctrine of "expressio unius est exclusio alterius," the enumeration of things coming within a statute will preclude the inclusion by implication of other things (Gonzales v. Concord Gardens Mobile Home Park, Ltd., 90 Cal. App. 3d 871, 874; People v. Mancha, 39 Cal. App. 3d 703, 713). Hence, by providing that the transferor his or her agent "shall" deliver the prescribed Natural Hazard Disclosure Statement, and by identifying the Local Option Real Estate Transfer Disclosure Statement as a single alternative means for making the required disclosures, it appears that the Legislature intended the use of one of those two forms to be mandatory and exclusive.⁴

Further, the Natural Hazard Disclosure Statement specifies that the representations contained in the statement are "made by the Seller and his or her agent(s) based on their knowledge and maps drawn by the state." (subd. (b), Sec. 1102.6c). The Natural Hazard Disclosure Statement does not contemplate that the seller and agent, or a public agency, may merely deliver copies of the maps to the transferee, but specifically requires the seller and agent to identify whether the property lies within any of the hazard areas designated on the maps. Subdivision (c) of Section 1102.6c then provides the following guidelines for sellers and their agents in the event of uncertainty:

"1102.6c. * * *

"(c) If [the] . . . map or accompanying information is not of sufficient accuracy or scale that a reasonable person can determine if the subject real property is included in a natural hazard area, the seller or seller's agent shall mark "Yes" on the Natural Hazard Disclosure Statement. The seller or seller's agent may mark "No" on the Natural Hazard Disclosure Statement if he or she attaches a report prepared pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 1102.4 that verifies the property is not in the hazard zone.

* * *'" (Emphasis added.)

The above-emphasized language of subdivision (c) is the only reference in Section 1102.6c to the use of reports or other information in connection with the required disclosures of that section and, clearly, the ⁴ See also Section 1102.17 of the Civil Code, as added by A.B. 6 (Sec. 2, Ch. 7, Stats. 1997, 1st Ex. Sess.), and Sections 2621.9, 2694, and 4136 of the Public Resources Code, as amended by A.B. 6 (Secs. 8, 9, and 12, Ch. 7, Stats. 1997, 1st Ex. Sess.), that state the disclosures required by those sections shall be provided by either the Natural Hazard Disclosure Statement or the Local Option Real Estate Transfer Disclosure Statement.

specified report is to be provided with, and not in lieu of, the Natural Hazard Disclosure Statement.

Similarly, with respect to the Local Option Real Estate Transfer Disclosure Statement, subdivision (c) of Section 1102.6a provides:

“1102.6a

“(c) This section does not preclude the use of addenda to the form specified in subdivision (b) to facilitate the required disclosures. This section does not preclude a city or county from using the disclosure form specified in subdivision (b) for a purpose other than that specified in this section.” (Emphasis added.)

Thus, this provision also appears to allow reports or other information to be used by sellers and their agents for disclosure purposes, but only if they are provided with, and not in lieu of, the Local Option Real Estate Transfer Disclosure Statement.

Accordingly, based on the provisions of Sections 1102.6c and 1102.6a, it is clear that delivery of the Natural Hazard Disclosure Statement, or its local alternative, is intended to be the exclusive means for providing the disclosures required by Section 1102.6c.

It has been suggested, however, that Section 1102.4 provides an alternative method for sellers and agents to make the disclosures specified in Section 1102.6c. That section provides as follows:

“1102.4. (a) Neither the transferor nor any listing or selling agent shall be liable for any error, inaccuracy, or omission of any information delivered pursuant to this article if the error, inaccuracy, or omission was not within the personal knowledge of the transferor or that listing or selling agent, was based on information timely provided by public agencies or by other persons providing information as specified in subdivision (c) that is required to be disclosed pursuant to this article, and ordinary care was exercised in obtaining and transmitting it.

“(b) The delivery of any information required to be disclosed by this article to a prospective transferee by a public agency or other person providing information required to be disclosed pursuant to this article shall be deemed to comply with the requirements of this article and shall relieve the transferor or any listing or selling agent of any further duty under this article with respect to that item of information.

“(c) The delivery of a report or opinion prepared by a licensed engineer, land surveyor, geologist, structural pest control operator, contractor, or other expert, dealing with matters within the scope of the professional’s license or expertise, shall be sufficient compliance for application of the exemption provided by subdivision (a) if the information is provided to the prospective transferee pursuant to a request therefor, whether written or oral. In responding to such a request, an expert may indicate, in writing, an understanding that the information provided will be used in fulfilling the requirements of Section 1102.6 and, if so, shall indicate the required disclosures, or parts thereof, to which the information being furnished is applicable. Where such a statement is furnished, the expert shall not be responsible for any items of information, or parts thereof, other than those expressly set forth in the statement.” (Emphasis added.)⁵

Subdivisions (a) and (c) of Section 1102.4 provide relief from liability for sellers and their agents for erroneous, inaccurate, or omitted information delivered to a prospective transferee if the error, inaccuracy, or omission was based on information provided by public agencies or other specified experts. Of more relevance to our present analysis, however, is subdivision (b). Under subdivision (b), if information that is otherwise required to be disclosed by the seller or the seller’s agent is delivered to the transferee by a public agency or other person, that delivery constitutes compliance with the requirements of Article 1.5 and relieves the seller and the seller’s agent from any further duty with respect to that item of information.

Subdivision (b) of Section 1102.4 states that it applies to “the delivery of any information required to be disclosed by this article” (emphasis added). Because Section 1102.6c is part of Article 1.5, the provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 1102.4 could apply to Section 1102.6c. Further, it has been held that, in enacting any law, the Legislature is presumed to have had knowledge of existing statutory law and judicial decisions pertaining to the subject matter of that law (see Bailey v. Superior Court, 19 Cal. 3d 970, fn. 10, at 977–978). Thus, because A.B. 6 does not create any express exception with respect to subdivision (b) of Section 1102.4, it is arguable that subdivision (b) of Section 1102.4 is intended to be applicable to, and provides an alternative means for compliance with, the disclosure requirements under Section 1102.6c. Section 1102.4 has not been interpreted by any published cases and the legislative history does not provide any guidance with respect to the intended scope of subdivision (b) of that section or its relation with other provisions of Article 1.5.

The above interpretation of subdivision (b) of Section 1102.4 would, if applied, create a conflict with the mandatory language of Section 1102.6c and the other terms of the section, discussed above. To resolve such a conflict, it is an axiom of statutory construction that a particular or specific provision will take precedence over a conflicting general provision (Sec. 1859, C.C.P.; Agricultural Labor Relations Bd. v. Superior Court, 16 Cal. 3d 392, 420; Fleming v. Kent, 129 Cal. App. 3d 887, 891) and a more recent statute will govern and take precedence over an earlier provision (Fleming v. Kent, supra, at p. 891; Palmer v. Agee, 87 Cal. App. 3d 377, 383). Hence, in this context, we think that the new mandate of Section 1102.6c would prevail over the more general, and older, provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 1102.4.⁶

In conclusion, it is our opinion that, in the context of transfers of residential real property, the disclosures relating to flooding and fire

⁵Section 1102.4 was added by Section 2 of Chapter 1574 of the Statutes of 1985 and was last amended by Section 4 of Chapter 460 of the Statutes of 1986.

⁶In reaching this conclusion, we do not suggest that the immunities provided to sellers and their agents by Section 1102.4 should not be available in the context of disclosures made pursuant to Section 1102.6c. To the contrary, if a seller or agent attaches a report, prepared pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 1102.4, to a Natural Hazard Disclosure Statement, as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 1102.6c, or to the local alternative, as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 1102.6a, the seller or agent would be immune from liability if the information in that report was later found to be in error (subd. (a), Sec. 1102.4).

hazards to be required by Section 1102.6c of the Civil Code must be made on either a Natural Hazard Disclosure Statement or the Local Option Real Estate Transfer Disclosure Statement to be valid. Those disclosures may not validly be made in the form of an expert report, pursuant to Section 1102.4 of the Civil Code, without the use of either statutory form.

Very truly yours,

California State Auditor

 April 8, 1998

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: As required by Chapter 1034, Statutes of 1994, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning its evaluation of the study the California Department of Corrections (CDC), the California Youth Authority (CYA), and the Department of Mental Health, in cooperation with the State Compensation Insurance Fund, prepared on the accomplishments of the Early Intervention Program. Our report concludes that it would be imprudent for the Legislature or the CDC and the CYA to rely on this study in deciding the future of the Early Intervention Programs. This is the second time we have reviewed a study the CDC and the CYA have prepared on the impact of early intervention. In July 1992, we also cautioned readers to be wary of the results of a similar study. These two attempts to measure the effectiveness of early intervention have produced inconclusive results.

Respectfully submitted,

KURT R. SJOBERG
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Labor and Employment.

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As required by the Budget Act of 1997, Chapter 282, Statutes of 1997, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the Department of Developmental Services (department) and its budget and allocation of funds for the 21 regional centers. In addition, the report contains an analysis of the regional centers' expenditures in total and for selected cost categories, and discusses the department's administration of its performance contract program with the regional centers. This report concludes that the department does not budget and allocate funds based on regional center needs; thus, the department cannot ensure that all developmentally disabled clients throughout California have equitable access to services. In addition, the department inadequately administers its performance contract program, and does not sufficiently monitor the regional centers' effectiveness.

Respectfully submitted,

KURT R. SJOBERG
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Budget.

Investigative Report I960143
April 21, 1998

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 219
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: The Bureau of State Audits presents its investigative report concerning California State University, Dominguez Hills (CSUDH). This report concludes that two officials, official A and official B, husband and wife, at CSUDH, had apparent conflicts of interest. In addition, official B improperly accepted gifts and failed to disclose them. Official A also imprudently signed a contract on behalf of CSUDH without obtaining the proper approvals and despite provisions in the contract that were in violation of state law. Moreover, official A improperly deposited $186,000 into a nonstate account even though state law required that the funds be deposited in a state account. Finally, official A improperly allowed more than $18,000 to be used for food, entertainment, and other questionable expenses.

Respectfully submitted,

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Assistant Speaker pro Tempore Baca, the following prayer was offered by Rabbi Marvin Schwab of the Sunrise Jewish Congregation:

Fifty years ago, I couldn't make the statement that I'm about to make to you. An airplane will land in Israel today. Fifty years ago, there was no state of Israel. The remarkable thing about this particular airplane is that it's carrying high school students from California. They are not flying from California to Israel, but they are on what is called the "March of the Living," an ultimate statement of hope, and renewal, and rebirth. As spring is the time of rebirth, so they go in the spring. And they go, and they tour the places in Poland where Jews were slaughtered during the Holocaust. And we survived. And in triumph, they arrived in the Jewish homeland, the state of Israel. It is a democracy, the only one in the Middle East. There is a linkage between Israel and this country that runs very deep. The year that I lived in Jerusalem, I lived on Rechov Avraham Lincolen. Translation: Abraham Lincoln Street. And now I'm privileged to stand beneath a portrait of Abraham Lincoln and pray on behalf of all of us, that this state and this country will always, always be symbolic of the message of the Jewish festival of Passover, which concluded recently, that none be slaves and none be masters. Eloheinu veilohei avoteinu v'imotenu. Our God and God of our ancestors, we ask that You pour upon this Assembly Ruach Chochma, the spirit of wisdom. Guide their decisions, guide their legislation that it will benefit all of us. That we may live together always in peace and freedom and security, each giving the other the freedom to worship, the freedom to pursue happiness as we each seek to be proper in the eyes of God.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Assistant Speaker pro Tempore Baca, Assembly Member Washington then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following veto message from the Governor was received and ordered printed in the Journal and the bill ordered to the unfinished business file:

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 626

Governor's Office, Sacramento

May 5, 1998

To the Members of the California Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill No. 626 without my signature.

This bill would require local governments, by January 1, 2000, to adopt veterans' preference systems that would give preference to a veteran over an equally qualified candidate, or to pass a resolution stating the reasons that they do not implement such preferences.

Although this bill has a laudable intent, it is unnecessary. Local governments already have the authority to implement veterans' preferences within their employment practices. Further, if veterans would like to see such preferences implemented they can, at any time, go before a county's governing board and publicly request such actions. At that time, their locally elected officials can and should decide if a veterans' preference in their employment practices is appropriate in their community—as I would hope and urge them to do. Veterans deserve preference for their service in my judgment, but the state should not usurp what is clearly a local policy decision.

Cordially,

PETE WILSON

RECEIPT

I acknowledge receipt this 5th day of May 1998, at 2:22 p.m., of Assembly Bill No. 626, without the Governor's signature, together with a statement of his objections thereto, signed by the Governor, delivered to me personally by Karen Morgan.

E. DOTSON WILSON
Chief Clerk of the Assembly

California State Auditor

97118.1
May 5, 1998

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the regulation of health care service plans performed by the Department of Corporations' Health Plan Division (division). This report concludes that to meet future challenges in the health care industry, the division needs to be placed in an organizational structure that has health care as a primary mission. Therefore, we recommend that the Legislature move the division from the Department of Corporations and the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency.

Options for the organizational placement of the State's health plan regulatory program exist such as placing it within an existing department or creating a stand-alone entity. If the Legislature decides to place the regulatory program within an existing department, it should consider the Department of Health Services because it has regulatory functions that are most similar in skills and focus to those of the division. However, regardless of which choice is made, we believe the Health and Welfare Agency is the best location for this regulatory program.

Respectfully submitted,

KURT R. SJOBERG
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Insurance.

California State Auditor

April 30, 1998

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As required by Chapter 518, Statutes of 1995, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning Los Angeles County's (county) fiscal condition and the status of issues we previously reported. This report concludes that, despite anticipated growth of $300 million in general purpose revenues, the county may face a budget shortfall exceeding $308 million by 2000-01 unless it can identify new sources of revenue or cut costs. Factors giving rise to the shortfall include the loss of about $380 million in program-specific revenues and net cost increases of about $228 million. After 2000-01, the county may also face an additional loss of about $300 million in surplus investment earnings from its retirement system, on which it currently relies.

Respectfully submitted,

KURT R. SJOBERG
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Local Government.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Kuehl, the following prayer was offered by Rev. Constantine C. Pappademos, Pastor of Saint Katherine Greek Orthodox Church:

Lord God, Having celebrated Mother's Day yesterday, we offer this prayer to You and ask that You protect the lives of our mothers who have brought us into this world. May our mothers know from day to day the deepening joy that comes from Your presence. Even though we cannot repay the debt for all they have given us and for all the love they have shown us, we ask, Lord, that You will remember their due reward in Your kingdom. Lord, bless our mothers both on earth and in heaven, this day and always.—AMEN.

ADJOURN IN MEMORY

Assembly Members Knox and Battin were granted unanimous consent that when the Assembly adjourns on this day it do so out of respect to the memory of Francis Albert Sinatra, of Beverly Hills, and that the following statement be printed in the Journal:

In Memoriam Frank Sinatra

The world has lost one of its brightest stars. I write today to express my sincere sympathy to the family of Frank Albert Sinatra, an unsurpassed artist whose heart and acts of charity grew as wide and boundless as his wonderful voice. When Frank Sinatra died last week, he passed into eternity with our heartfelt esteem and a world of lifelong devotees.

This was a man blessed with enormous amounts of sheer talent. An accomplished dancer, actor, artist, as well as legendary singer, he 'filled our hearts with song' for more than fifty years, and was known the world over as "an entertainer of substance." When he came on the scene in the early 1940s amid a world at war, Frank Sinatra's class and beautiful music gave a richness and style to his age, defining a generation's values while delighting all who would listen.

But along with this talent, Frank Sinatra possessed a charisma and presence that was born to hold the spotlight. When the 1950s began and his star briefly faded, he came back with his life's greatest performances, where his skill and aesthetic depth brightly shined through. In classics like Oceans 11 and From Here to Eternity, we saw a maturing talent, showing the struggles of his life through the passion of his art. Generations would grow with him, from the crazed "Bobby Sox" fans of '42, into refined adults who appreciated the subtle intensity and emotion of his film, dance and music.

No matter how famous he became though, Frank Sinatra would never lose his sense of charity, and willingness to help others in need. The son of Italian immigrants, Sinatra grew up in a working class New Jersey neighborhood where for many, he still embodies the American dream. These roots and a giving heart no doubt produced the great philanthropist he was in private, away from the glow of celebrity.

In our desert community where he drifted in and out of 'unofficial retirement,' Frank and his wife Barbara built the not-for-profit Barbara Sinatra Children's Center for abused children. Founded in Rancho Mirage in 1986 to counsel and treat abused children, the Sinatras' ongoing work provides comprehensive programs to combat the problems of child abuse. By combining and complementing the efforts of police, child protective services, district attorneys and the court system, the Barbara Sinatra Children's Center has assembled the resources for the gentle, measured healing of abused children.

We remember Frank Sinatra by the caress of his elegant music and his many acts of charity. And we all owe him our deepest thanks and to his family, our heartfelt support and sympathy. We have more than just the cultural legacy to help us remember the giving heart of this man. A rare talent who has passed on to the heavens his music sang about, and left behind for us the voice to every love story.

Eightieth District

WALLY KNOX, Assembly Member
