PRAYER

Upon invitation of Assistant Speaker pro Tempore Kehoe, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rabbi Mona Alfi:

The American writer and educator, Anna Julia Cooper wrote about her hopes for society in 1892. She wrote:

‘Tis woman’s strongest vindication for speaking that the world needs to hear her voice. It would be subversive of every human interest that the cry of one-half the human family be stifled . . . The world has had to limp along with the wobbling gait and one-sided hesitancy of a [person] with one eye. Suddenly the bandage is removed from the other eye and the whole body is filled with light. It sees a circle where before it saw a segment. The darkened eye restored, every member rejoices with it.

Today the Assembly honors women from around the state. These women offer singular and powerful visions. Their insight and foresight enables our communities to recognize what vitally needs to be done and shows us how these dreams can be actualized. And in their achievements we see Anna Cooper’s ideal of a society realized—a society that is yearning to be healed, to be made whole, and to shine with renewed promise.

May the Holy One of blessing give each of us the opportunity and courage to reach within ourselves, so that, as we strive to achieve our highest potential, our entire society will be blessed as well. May this be God’s will.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Assistant Speaker pro Tempore Kehoe, Assembly Member Aroner then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rabbi Mona Alfi:

The inheritance of every American is a desire to live free. It is also our lot to contemplate what that means. Goethe, the 19th century German writer offered this observation. He wrote:

“None are more hopelessly enslaved than those who falsely believe they are free.”

He reminds us that freedom is more than a physical state, it is an approach to life.

No person is fully free, free of responsibility to others or to themselves. But it is how we live with those responsibilities that determines how free we are.

When we embrace those obligations, learn from them, grow from them, and find meaning from them, then freedom is within our grasp.

But when we believe we are not beholden to anyone, what we embrace is not freedom but apathy and self-indulgence.

True freedom can only exist in a society in which each of us recognizes that freedom is synonymous with responsibility—responsibility to self and to others.

May it be the will of the Creator that each of us embrace the responsibilities we have been given, and may we find a sense of freedom and blessings in each of them. May this be God’s will.—AMEN.

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, Assembly Member Matthews then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Member Dean Florez, of the 30th Assembly District:

Our heavenly Father, We thank You for the opportunity You have given us to gather here today in Your presence. We thank You for the bountiful blessings You have bestowed on us. We especially come before You to thank You for the life of Cesar Chavez.

We thank You for the years You gave him to us as an advocate for the downtrodden and as a defender of the most vulnerable in our society. He was a humble man who dedicated his life to the fight for justice. Against all odds, he won rights and dignity for those laboring in our fields who daily provide us with a bounty of fruits and vegetables unlike any other place on earth.

We pray, as Cesar did, that we would dedicate ourselves to carry on his legacy, his dream, and his vision of equality and justice for all people.

As Matthew Chapter 5 verse 5, states, "Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth."

Give us wisdom as we carry out this task that we may honor You and the memory of Cesar Chavez.—AMEN.

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 1695

April 3, 2002

*The Honorable Herb Wesson, Jr.
Speaker of the Assembly
State Capitol
Sacramento, California*

Dear Speaker Wesson: This letter is being sent for publication in the journal.

Last year, the Legislature passed and the Governor signed AB 1695 (Chapter 653, Statutes of 2001) as an urgency measure. AB 1695 primarily related to the placement of children in foster care with relative caregivers. However, as part of that legislation, Welfare and Institutions Code (WIC) section 361.5(b)(10) was amended in response to the State Supreme Court's ruling in Renee J. v. Superior Court (2001) 26 Cal.4th 735. The Supreme Court's interpretation of this section in the Renee J. case did not reflect the Legislature's meaning in crafting the statute. Therefore, our purpose in rewriting WIC section 361.5(b)(10) was to make clear the Legislature's original intent in establishing this section of law, not to establish a new meaning.

Sincerely,

DION LOUISE ARONER, Assembly Member
Fourteenth Assembly District

Explanation of Vote—Senate Bill No. 1227

April 4, 2002

*E. Dotson Wilson, Chief Clerk
California State Assembly
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Dear Dotson,

Today I cast an “aye” vote on File Item 21 / Senate Bill 1227 (Burton), commonly known as the housing bond bill. This vote merits explanation.

I’d like the record to reflect that I am personally opposed to this bill and under other, more normal circumstances would have cast a “no” vote on this measure as bad policy for California.

Today was not reflective of normal circumstances. One of our colleagues, Assembly Member Gil Cedillo, could not be with us. Had he been, he would have been the deciding vote in the passage of SB 1227 and I could have pressed the red button at my desk. However, Mr. Cedillo is dealing with devastating, tragic family issues and has properly chosen to remain at home today. Few of us can begin to understand the anguish he must be experiencing in helping his family and wife face her most grave illness.

Often Gil Cedillo and I disagree on policy matters as would have been the case today. Nonetheless, as a representative of his constituents, as a man, a father and loving husband, I hold him in the highest esteem for maintaining his life’s priorities to remain at her side.

As a consequence, I could not sit by and let the political calendar of our Legislature capitalize on the unthinkable misfortune that has befallen Assembly Member Cedillo and his wife. My vote today was a courtesy vote offered on his behalf. Should the Governor sign this measure, I trust the people of this State to decide its fate based upon its merits.

My thoughts and prayers are with the Cedillo family.

Sincerely,

TOM HARMAN, Assembly Member
Sixty-seventh District

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rabbi Mona Alfi:

In a world that seems to be increasingly engulfed by fear and conflict, and a distrust of those who come from different backgrounds than oneself, it is worth contemplating the words of Indira Ghandi. She observed that "Mankind will endure when the world appreciates the logic of diversity."

The strength that truly drives a community forward is found in the unique qualities of its members. Appreciating diversity is not merely about the philosophy of tolerance. It is about hearing the beautiful sound of the individual notes that come together not in dissonance but, rather, to form a wondrous and powerful symphony.

May the Holy One of Blessing help us to recognize that which is remarkable and worthy in all of humanity, and to have patience in that which we do not readily understand. May this be God's will.—AMEN.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rabbi Mona Alfi:

When we actively pursue a knowledge of self, we are offered the possibility of seeing our inner and outer world through clearer eyes. Too often humans live in a state of turmoil because we invest so much energy judging or criticizing those around us, rather than having the courage to look inward and examine our own state of being, our own motivations, our own actions.

However, there is an ancient teaching that tells us that we can obtain true freedom of self if we but ask ourselves these three simple questions:

Where do you come from?
Where are you going?
And to whom do you give an account?

(Mishna)

May the Holy One guide us on our way, and may we never forget the roads that we have traveled, may we be open to the paths we have yet to explore, and may we always remember that we are not alone on our journey. May this be God's will.—AMEN.

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 1258

April 9, 2002

*The Honorable Herb J. Wesson, Jr.
Speaker of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 219
Sacramento, California*

Dear Speaker Wesson: It has come to my attention that a question has arisen regarding the language of AB 1258, and whether it purports to alter pre-existing California law as to whether rental car companies may rent, for in-state use, cars that are registered in other states under certain circumstances. I am submitting this letter to the journal, which clarifies the legislative intent of AB 1258.

AB 1258 was an urgency bill that provides a safe harbor until January 1, 2002 from all California provisions regarding the in-state use of rental cars registered in other states, under certain circumstances. It was not my intent to permanently alter existing law as to whether rental car companies could rent, for in-state use, cars registered in other states.

Sincerely,

PATRICIA WIGGINS, Assembly Member
Seventh District

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rabbi Mona Alfi:

So often we seek something tangible to show for our life. We look for things to attain, or titles to show for our success. We want something concrete to show that we have been here, that we have affected the lives of those around us.

Yet, as the American artist, Nell Blaine observed, "In the end, what affects your life most deeply are things too simple to talk about."

These "simple things" of which she speaks can not be purchased or acquired by anything other than our merit as good human beings. They are the things of true value, and affect us most deeply; teachers who have inspired us to follow our dreams, friends who stand by our side in difficult times, family who seeing us most clearly, love us still, and living true to who we are.

May it be the will of the Creator that we never take for granted those simple things which make our lives so blessed. May this be God's will.—AMEN.

Daily meditation of Mother Teresa of Calcutta:

To our children, to the poor, to all who suffer and are lonely, give always. Give them not only your care, but also your heart. Because of God's goodness and Love, Every moment of your life can be the beginning of great things.—AMEN.

From Bishop Jaime Soto, Orange County:

Tú que habitas al amparo del Altísimo
y resides a la sombra del Omnipotente, dile al Señor: “Mi amparo, mi refugio,
mi Dios, en quien yo pongo mi confianza”.
El te librá del lazo del cazador
y del azote de la desgracia;
te cubrirá con sus plumas
y hallarás bajo sus alas un refugio.
No temerás los miedos de la noche ni la flecha disparada de día ni la peste que avanza en las tinieblas, ni la plaga que azota a pleno sol.
Aunque caigan mil hombres a tu lado
y dies mil, a tu derecha,
tú estarás fuera de peligro:
su lealtad será tu escudo y armadura.
Basta que mires con tus ojos
y verás cómo se le paga al impío.
Pero tú dices: “Mi amparo es el Señor”, tú has hecho del Altísimo tu asilo.—AMEN.

REPORTS

The following letters of transmittal were presented by the Chief Clerk, and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2001-128
April 16, 2002

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning our review of the State's contracting practices in entering into an enterprise licensing agreement (ELA) with the Oracle Corporation (Oracle).

This report concludes that the State executed the ELA contract worth almost $95 million despite evidence suggesting the need for Oracle database licenses was limited. Additionally, the departments of Information Technology, General Services, and Finance approved the ELA without validating the cost savings projections presented by Logicon Inc. (Logicon), who helped the State negotiate the ELA with Oracle. Our analysis of Logicon's data indicates that rather than saving $111 million by entering into the ELA, as purported by Logicon, the State could spend from $6 million to $41 million more on Oracle database licenses and maintenance than it would if there was no contract. Furthermore, it appears Logicon stands to make more than $28 million from the ELA, a fact the State may not have been apprised of.

We also found that as of March 20, 2002, nearly 10 months after the ELA was approved, no state departments have acquired new licenses under the ELA. Moreover, by June 2002, when the Department of Finance expects to complete the method for charging the ELA's costs to departments, the State will have accumulated more than $17 million in ELA costs and interest charges.

Furthermore, the Department of General Services used an inexperienced negotiating team and it limited the involvement of legal counsel in the ELA contract and, as a result, many contract terms and conditions necessary to protect the State are vague or missing altogether. Finally, our legal consultant has advised that a court might conclude that the ELA contract is not enforceable as a valid state contract because it may not fall within an exception to the State's competitive bidding requirements.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Business and Professions.

California State Auditor

2001-116
April 30, 2002

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the San Diego Unified Port District (Port).

This report concludes that while many of the Port's actions we reviewed are in accordance with state law and Port policy, the Port can change some of its practices to better protect the public's interests in the San Diego Bay and the surrounding areas. Specifically, we found several notable exceptions to the Port's leasing and contracting policies, including offering below-market rent to one hotel that may lower Port revenues by more than $7 million over a period of 10 years and failing to seek competing proposals for three hotel development projects. We also found that the Port can do more to avoid conflicts of interest among its employees and is not completing disciplinary proceedings within its established timelines. The Port also needs to ensure that it properly notifies the public of the Board of Port Commissioners' closed session items at its public meetings and that the fees it charges for providing agendas do not exceed the costs of distributing them.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE
State Auditor

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rabbi Mona Alfi:

The 20th century educator, Professor Helen Wodehouse, explained her approach to life's challenges in this way, she said:

We think we must climb to a certain height of goodness before we can reach God. But God says not 'At the end of the way you may find me.' God says 'I am the way; I am the road under your feet, the road that begins just as low down as you happen to be.'

God is ever present, even in those moments when we feel alone or discouraged, unsure of where to turn next, God is there, waiting to be recognized, and invited to join us on our way. All our paths have the potential for holiness, if we but open ourselves up to the sacred.

May the Holy One of Blessing illuminate our way and join us on our journeys. May this be God's will.—AMEN.

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rabbi Mona Alfi:

A former President of Yale University, Alfred Whitney Griswold, gave this advice on living a life of integrity:

Self-respect comes to us when we are alone, in quiet moments, in quiet places, when we suddenly realize that, knowing the good, we have done it; knowing the beautiful, we have served it; knowing the truth, we have spoken it.

The measure of a person is found not in the titles we bear, or the families we are born into, rather it is in our capacity to define our own character in the midst of challenges. It is not simply in how we see the world, but in how we interact with it, that is how our character is measured.

May it be the will of the Creator that in those quiet moments of reflection, we will be able to look at our actions with satisfaction and pride, knowing that we have done the good, served the beautiful, and spoken the truth. May this be God's will.—AMEN.

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 1087

May 10, 2002

The Honorable Herb Wesson Jr.
Speaker of the Assembly
State Capitol
Sacramento, California

Dear Mr. Speaker,

This letter is being sent for publication in the journal. The purpose of this letter is to clarify the intent of Assembly Bill 1087, relating to the certification of electricians.

It is not the author's intent under AB 1087 for electrical education and training gained through apprenticeship programs approved by the federal Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training could not be used to meet the requirements for certification under Labor Code Section 3099.

The language contained in Labor Code Section 3099.2 (d) in the April 30, 2002 amended version of AB 1087, makes clear that apprentices participating in federally approved programs may work as electricians without first obtaining certification and that these apprentices may take the certification examination when they are within one year of graduation and, upon passing the examination and completing the apprenticeship programs, be certified.

Section 3099.2 (d) reads:

“Notwithstanding subdivision (a), certification is not required for registered apprentices performing electrical work as part of an apprenticeship program approved under this chapter, a federal Bureau of Apprenticeship Training program, or a state apprenticeship program authorized by the federal Bureau of Apprenticeship Training. An apprentice who is within one year of completion of his or her term of apprenticeship shall be permitted to take the certification examination and, upon passing the examination, shall be certified immediately upon completion of the term of apprenticeship.”
[Emphases supplied.]

Indeed, AB 1087 treats apprentices in federally approved apprenticeship programs identically to apprentices in California-approved apprenticeship programs. There is no discrimination whatsoever against apprentices in federally approved programs.

Another provision added by AB 1087 (Labor Code Section 3099.4) also provides that any person may work as an uncertified electrician without enrolling in an apprenticeship program if the person has completed or is enrolled in an approved curriculum of classroom instruction. Once the approved curriculum of instruction is completed, moreover, the person may take the certification examination.

In short, the intent of AB 1087 is to provide a wide variety of avenues by which individuals may acquire the classroom instruction and on-the-job experience leading to certification as competent journeyman electricians.

I hope this will dispel any of the confusion that may have arisen when this measure was heard in Assembly Labor and Employment Committee on May 9, 2002.

Sincerely,

THOMAS M. CALDERON, Assembly Member
Fifty-eighth District

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rabbi Mona Alfi:

Roger Babson, a 20th century economist observed that: "Property may be destroyed and money may lose its purchasing power; but, character, health, knowledge and good judgment will always be in demand under all conditions."

Too often the essential and enduring wealth that is within our reach slips from our grasp in our pursuit of material gain. Fortunes can be won or lost. Yet, who we are, not what we have, will ultimately sustain us.

May the Holy One of Blessing bestow upon us the true wealth that life has to offer, the blessings of wisdom, character, health, and friendship. May this be God's will.—AMEN.

STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT—ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 1913

Pursuant to unanimous consent granted on Monday, May 13, 2002, the following statement of legislative intent was printed in the Journal:

May 13, 2002

*Speaker Herb Wesson
State Capitol, Room 219
Sacramento, California*

RE: AB 1913 (Lowenthal) Coastal Commission Recordings:
Prospective Nature of Bill

Dear Mr. Speaker: I have authored AB 1913 to give the California Coastal Commission the authority to record against the property of an owner who has violated the California Coastal Act. The bill provides due process for the property owner and expedites rescission of the recording once the violation has been resolved. It also provides constructive notice to potential purchasers of the property that there is a pending violation.

During the course of the legislative process, there has been some confusion about whether the provisions of AB 1913 could be applied to violations occurring prior to its effective date. Legislative Counsel has informed me that it would be unconstitutional to apply the provisions of AB 1913 retroactively. It is for this reason that I submit this letter to you now, expressing my intent that the provisions of AB 1913 are prospective only. The bill is not intended to apply to any violation prior to its operative date.

Thank you for printing this letter in the Assembly Journal on the same date as the Assembly Floor vote on AB 1913.

Sincerely,

ALAN LOWENTHAL, Assembly Member
Fifty-fourth District

Upon invitation of Assistant Speaker pro Tempore Kehoe, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rabbi Mona Alfi:

The late Katherine Graham said: "To love what you do and feel that it matters—how could anything be more fun?"

The hidden reward of leading a life of meaning is the joy it brings. The importance of our tasks, and the mental focus they demand, can sometimes make us forget that we do what we do because we love the very work itself. Graham reminds us that having fun is not a diversion from what we do, it is the reward of doing a job that is meaningful.

May it be the will of the Creator that our days be filled with all the rewards that pursuing one's calling can bring.—AMEN.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following message from the Governor was received and ordered printed in the Journal:

Governor's Message—Assembly Bill No. 1354

May 21, 2002

To the Members of the California Legislature:

I am signing AB 1354 which will allow the administrators of an emergency shelter or transitional housing facility to restrict occupancy to persons 24 years of age or younger.

Homeless and runaway youth are some of the most vulnerable members of our society. Not only are they faced with the trial of homelessness at such a young age, roughly one-third of homeless and runaway youth have been victimized by adults at some point in their lives. This undoubtedly impedes their willingness to seek out the services available to them as provided by general population emergency shelters. Shelters that provide services exclusively to those under the age of 24 can deliver a safe environment in which youth can learn the life skills necessary to avoid a lifetime of homelessness. Our youth will be better served and ultimately better protected—in an environment where they feel safe and secure.

I am mindful that signing AB 1354 may prompt legislation that provides for additional exemptions to current law on behalf of other subpopulations of homeless. While many homeless would benefit from receiving specially targeted services from emergency shelter providers, I am concerned that providing future exemptions to emergency shelter laws would undermine the State's primary responsibility which is to ensure that all homeless have equal opportunity and access to emergency shelter. Emergency shelters have been, and must remain, a refuge for anyone who may face a night on the street.

Sincerely,

GRAY DAVIS

Explanation of Vote—Assembly Bill No. 1968

May 23, 2002

E. Dotson Wilson

Chief Clerk

*State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

RE: My Abstention on the Vote on AB 1968

Dear Dotson: When the roll call vote was taken on May 23 on AB No. 1968, I inadvertently voted “aye”. Although I requested unanimous consent to change my vote from “aye” to “not voting”, in the last minute rush of session I did not verify my signature on the ballot at the Desk. This is to state for the record that it was clearly my intention to be an abstention on this measure.

Very truly yours,

ROBERT M. HERTZBERG
Speaker Emeritus of the Assembly

REPORTS

The following letters of transmittal were presented by the Chief Clerk, and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2000-016
May 23, 2002

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As required by Chapter 888, Statutes of 2000, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the operation and management of the Water Replenishment District of Southern California (district).

This report concludes that the district has eliminated excessive water rates by reducing the replenishment assessment it charges ratepayers. However, at the same time, the district has depleted its reserves from $67 million in fiscal year 1997-98 to a projected low of $6 million at June 30, 2002, thereby posing a threat to the district's ability to maintain the current quantity of groundwater in the West Coast and Central basins. This condition was caused by the district's lack of a long-term vision of its finances and temporary legislative constraints placed on the district's ability to raise funds. Moreover, the district's spending plans do not adequately explain its financing needs to the public nor clearly support its replenishment assessment. Further, the district has not adequately developed processes for the planning and implementation of its capital improvement projects nor implemented adequate accounting and administrative controls over its operating expenses.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Water, Parks and Wildlife.
California State Auditor

2001-126
May 28, 2002

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning assessments that the Department of Managed Health Care (department) charges to health maintenance organizations (HMOs) licensed in accordance with the State's Knox-Keene Health Care Service Plan Act of 1975. This report concludes that the assessments for specialized and full-service HMOs do not reflect the department's workload and have disparate financial impacts. The proportion of the overall assessments that are charged to specialized HMOs, at 48 percent, exceeds the 22 percent of work attributable to them based on data identifiable by class of HMO. The report recommends that the Legislature consider changing the assessment structure to reflect the proportion of documented workload devoted to specialized and full-service HMOs, and to reduce disparities in financial effects on HMOs. The report also finds that the department has increased the output for some of its core functions, has introduced several new services for HMO enrollees and is generally better at meeting statutory deadlines when compared to the same functions previously carried out by the Department of Corporations. Nevertheless, the department is having difficulty completing financial examinations and notifying HMOs of its decisions regarding requested health plan changes on time.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Insurance.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rabbi Mona Alfi:

Edward Everett Hale, the 19th century clergyman and a chaplain of the U.S. Senate, spoke about the ability of one person to make a difference. He said:

I am only one, but I am one. I cannot do everything, but I can do something. And I will not let what I cannot do interfere with what I can do.

Each of us has the ability to affect the world in which we live. Perhaps not to the extent that we would always like, but, still, each day provides us with the opportunity to do something to help make this world a better place, if only we focus on the many possibilities that lie within our reach.

May the Holy One of Blessing grant each of us the ability to fulfill our potential and our dreams and to have patience with our work. May this be God's will.—AMEN.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk, and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2001-129
May 22, 2002

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the Department of Health Services' (department) management of its Medi-Cal provider enrollment process. This report concludes that the department's Provider Enrollment Branch (branch), which is responsible for the enrollment process, lacks reliable data to determine the number of applications that are pending at any given time and thus cannot accurately determine the size of its backlog. In addition, the actions the branch has taken to streamline its process did not always result in an improved ability to review applications promptly, equitably, and effectively. For example, the branch did not always comply with state regulations that require it to approve applications within 180 days and could not substantiate decisions to designate certain providers as being at high risk for fraud, whose applications are subject to greater scrutiny. Furthermore, the branch did not always review disclosure statements required by the federal Health and Human Services Agency, aimed at identifying applicants with a history of defrauding or abusing the Medicaid system, increasing the risk of enrolling dishonest providers.

Finally, the branch has not developed a strategic plan that would help it address its performance deficiencies and has not fully implemented the Provider Enrollment Tracking System, which would assist its efforts to better manage its workload. Until the branch addresses these issues, it will continue to have difficulty meeting its regulatory timelines, securing additional staff, and effectively managing its operations.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Health.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rabbi Mona Alfi:

The noted journalist, Anna Quindlen observed that “a finished person is a boring person.”

Life is a process. When we stop growing and being affected by what we see and who we interact with, we stop living.

The spark of life, the joy of life, is found not merely in the attainment of a goal, but in its pursuit.

May it be God’s will that we be blessed to always find ourselves to be interested in life and for life to be interested in us.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Keeley, Assembly Member Salinas then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.
