REPORTS

The following letters of transmittal were presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2003-002
March 23, 2004

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As required by the California Government Code, Section 8542 et seq., the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning our review of the State of California’s internal controls and compliance with state and federal laws and regulations for the year ended June 30, 2003.

This report concludes that the State continues to experience certain problems in accounting and administrative practices that affect its internal controls over financial reporting and over compliance with federal requirements. As a result, the State has not always complied with some state and federal regulations. Although none of the problems we identified is significant to the State’s financial statements or the federal programs it administers, weaknesses in the State's internal control system could adversely affect its ability to provide accurate financial information and to administer federal programs in compliance with applicable requirements.

Respectfully submitted,

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Yee, the following prayer was offered by Father James Murphy, Rector of the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament, in Sacramento:

Reading from Isaiah
This rather is the fast that I wish:
Releasing those bound unjustly,
Untying the thongs of the yoke;
Setting free the oppressed,
Breaking every yoke.

Gently God,

We thank You for the life and example of Cesar Chavez.

He showed us the power of nonviolence in the struggle to free those bound unjustly.

He showed us the power of personal sacrifice—like fasting.

But he showed us also that fasting is not enough;

that the fasting most acceptable to You is fasting that leads to action:
 setting free the oppressed, breaking every yoke.

Help us to learn from that example.

That we may carry on his legacy;

And make this world a better place for all Your children.

Father Murphy then led the Assembly in the following prayer:

César E. Chávez
 Farm Worker Prayer:
 Show me the suffering of the most miserable;
 So I will know my people's plight.
 Free me to pray for others;
 For you are present in every person.
 Help me to take responsibility for my own Life;
 So that I can be free at last.
 Give me honesty and patience;
 So that I can work with other workers.
 Bring forth song and celebration;
 So that the Spirit will be alive among us.
 Let the Spirit flourish and grow;
 So that we will never tire of the struggle.
 Let us remember those who have died for justice;
 For they have given us life.
 Help us love even those who hate us;
 So we can change the world.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Yee, Assembly Member Negrete McLeod then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2003-117
April 6, 2004

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the California Department of Corrections' (Corrections) processes to contract for health care services not currently available within its own facilities.

This report concludes that Corrections does not adequately ensure that it enters into medical service contracts that are in the State's best interest. Specifically, Corrections staff who negotiate contracts tend to rely on a 30-year-old state policy exemption that allows them to award contracts for most medical services without seeking competitive bids. Another barrier to cost-effective medical service contracts is Corrections' flawed negotiating practices. Some hospital contracts leave out information vital to ensuring that the State receives the discounts specified in the contracts. Other contracts do not justify awarding rates that are higher than Corrections' standard rates, violating this requirement of Corrections' contract manual. Additionally, Corrections sometimes exceeds the authorized contract amount and fails to obtain proper approvals before receiving nonemergency services. Finally, Corrections' prisons are not adhering to its utilization management program, established to ensure inmates receive quality care at contained costs. Consequently, prisons are overpaying for some services, incurring unnecessary costs for the State.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE
State Auditor

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2003-111
April 13, 2004

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the State's oversight structure of six long-term care programs that the departments of Health Services, Aging, and Social Services oversee.

This report concludes that government oversight is critical to protect vulnerable clients in long-term care facilities; however, a balance should exist between appropriate oversight and allowing providers to operate independently. Significant opportunity exists to streamline oversight activities for three programs. For the adult day health care program, consolidating the licensing and certification reviews that Health Services and Aging separately perform could make oversight more efficient and less burdensome on providers. Further, creating a separate license unique to the program of all-inclusive care for the elderly could streamline oversight. In addition, Health Services needs to finish a pilot project for oversight of the multipurpose senior services program and either develop a reasonable rationale for the number of oversight visits that it attends with Aging or assume responsibility for the program itself.

For two other programs—the adult day program and the Alzheimer's day care resource centers—better communication between Social Services and Aging, respectively, with other entities that oversee these programs is needed to ensure that all parties are aware of each others' oversight concerns. Finally, because of federal funding requirements, there is limited flexibility for Health Services to change how it oversees skilled nursing facilities.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Aging and Long-Term Care.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Yee, the following prayer was offered by Rabbi Daniel Pressman, of Congregation Beth David, in Saratoga:

Two weeks ago Jews around the world observed Passover—celebrating liberation from slavery. The Exodus story taught the world that God hates tyrants and sides with the oppressed—a lesson humanity is still learning. Today marks Yom Haskoah, Holocaust Remembrance Day. The Holocaust teaches us many lessons. One is that in 1934, the German people confirmed Hitler as absolute ruler of Germany, by a 90% vote. He didn't just seize power—the German people gave it away.

We Americans can be grateful that our rights and freedoms are more deeply rooted in law and governance, and that our legislatures are alive with debate and deliberation.

And so we pray that we will always remember that there is no freedom without justice, and no justice without freedom. That American patriotism is founded on the right to differ and dissent. And that truth is best discovered not through declarations handed down by exalted authority, but by the free discourse of equals.

On this Holocaust Remembrance Day, may we take to heart the ancient lesson, to abhor tyranny, and the modern lesson to treasure freedom, and may we remember always what the prophet Jeremiah taught us, that God delights in kindness, the rule of law, and justice.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Yee, Assembly Member Goldberg then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Yee, the following prayer was offered by His Eminence Archbishop Hovnan Derderian, Primate, of the Armenian Church of North America Western Diocese:

Almighty God, We give thanks to You for guiding our steps in this most meaningful gathering in the State Assembly of California. This day is certainly a special day in the life of humanity. It is a day to be remembered with respect and prayer for the one and a half million Armenians who gave their lives for their Christian faith, their homeland Armenia, and for freedom. This is a day which deepens in our hearts the respect for history and justice for humanity.

In our prayers we thank God for our many great friends in the California State Legislature who have stood with the Armenian American Community throughout the many years in reaffirming the record on the Armenian Genocide and establishing relations with the Republic of Armenia.

This is also a day to thank the United States of America for sheltering the survivors of the first Genocide of the century, which to this day remains unrecognized. This country of America has not only been a shelter for the survivors of the Genocide, but has also strengthened their lives in a most unique way, thus enlightening the founders of our community to become loyal and good standing citizens of America.

Today, as we commemorate the Martyrs of the 1st genocide of the century, we also remember in our prayers our troops in Iraq and all those who have fought and given their lives for freedom and justice. May the Good Lord bless their memory and strengthen their families and children.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

California State Auditor

2002–018
April 29, 2004

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As required by Chapter 6, Statutes of 2002, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the effectiveness of the Fraud Assessment Commission (fraud commission), the Fraud Division, the Department of Insurance, the Department of Industrial Relations (Industrial Relations), and local law enforcement agencies in identifying, investigating, and prosecuting workers' compensation fraud and employers' willful failure to provide workers' compensation benefits for their employees.

This report concludes that although employers are assessed annually to pay for efforts to reduce fraud in the workers' compensation system—an amount that has averaged about $30 million per year for the past five years—the fraud commission and the insurance commissioner have not taken adequate steps to measure fraud in the system, develop a strategy to reduce it, or ensure that the fraud assessment funds are distributed to most effectively investigate and prosecute workers' compensation fraud. Because the Department of Insurance's Fraud Division (fraud division) does not conduct adequate strategic planning, it does not allocate a sufficient amount of its resources to meet its noninvestigative responsibilities, including those relating to researching and reporting on the level and affects of fraud in the system and monitoring county district attorneys' compliance with the requirements of the workers' compensation antifraud program and insurers' compliance with suspected fraud-reporting requirements. Improvement is needed in sharing information between Industrial Relations and the fraud division to identify potential workers' compensation fraud. Industrial Relations has not implemented three statutory programs intended to identify employers who fail to provide workers' compensation insurance or benefits for their employees; implement a protocol for reporting medical provider fraud; and to annually warn employers, claims adjusters and administrators, medical providers, and attorneys who participate in the system about the legal risks associated with committing workers' compensation fraud.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Insurance.

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Yee, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Member Bonnie Garcia, of the 80th Assembly District:

Padre Nuestro Que Esta en El Cielo, Sante Ficado Sea Tu Nombre

As we gather together today to work on behalf of the people of California, we ask that You provide the elected officials here today to be led by Your wisdom and that their work be a reflection of Your will.

If we have turned from Your way in our busy world lend us Your light and Your truth to guide us back to work together to overcome prejudices and conquer stereotypes.

Help us lift people out of poverty and eliminate policies that degrade and debilitate entire communities.

Help us strengthen our state to celebrate diversity and offer dignity and opportunity to all through our works.

Allow us to use our authority and actions not as pillars of oppression but as forces for justice.

Help us to honor and support the efforts of those who have felt disenfranchised as they seek greater self determination.

Guide us, Lord, as we nurture the development of leaders that focus on bringing together people of diverse socio-economic, religious, cultural and racial backgrounds.

And use us to promote the exchange of ideas and hopes.

Dios Mio, as we work together to address the root causes of poverty and prejudice we pray You help us—all children of immigrants—no matter how we pronounce “California” to be equitable and just as we honor the rich diversity of our state,

Te lo pido, en El Nombre de El Padre, El Hijo y El Espiritu Santo—AMEN.

We also join millions of Americans in seeking Your divine guidance as we live our lives and as we proclaim the value of liberty to all people. Holy God, bless us and all people, on this National Day of Prayer and always.—AMEN.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following veto message from the Governor was received and ordered printed in the Journal and the bill ordered to the unfinished business file:

Governor's Office, Sacramento
May 7, 2004

To members of the Assembly:

I am returning AB 347 without my signature.

AB 347 would authorize the 22nd District Agricultural Association (Del Mar Fair) Board of Directors to approve recruitment and retention differential of up to 35% for its excluded and exempt employees.

This bill would bypass the existing authority for the Department of Personnel Administration to establish recruitment and retention differential in identified high cost-of-living areas. This issue should follow the existing administrative process so the Department can establish the appropriate level of pay differential and whether it is justified. Authorizing these differentials through legislation would establish a dangerous precedent others would be sure to follow. During these times of severe fiscal constraint, it is important that these issues be handled through the appropriate administrative process.

However, I am well aware of the challenges that this very successful fair and nationally acclaimed race track has in paying competitive salaries in the Southern California market. Retaining skilled managers is difficult if an entity cannot provide competitive compensation. I am therefore directing the Department of Personnel Administration to initiate the process of paying suitable retention bonuses to exempt and excluded employees of the Del Mar Fair.

Sincerely,

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER

Receipt of Bills

I acknowledge receipt this 10th day of May at 4:05 p.m., of AB 347 without the Governor's signature, together with a statement of his objections thereto, signed by the Governor, delivered to me personally by Nanette Madsen.

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the California Public Utilities Commission's (commission) use of fees paid by railroad corporations. The California Public Utilities Code (code) dictates how the commission must spend Railroad Safety Program fees, which it collects from railroad corporations to cover the cost of regulating their industry. According to the code, the commission can only spend the fees on the salaries and per diem and travel expenses of (1) railroad safety employees directly involved in inspecting railroads and enforcing rail safety regulations, (2) employees who perform clerical and support functions directly associated with railroad safety inspections, and (3) legal personnel who actually pursue violations of rail safety regulations beyond the formal complaint level. In 1999, the code was amended to allow the commission to also recover a portion of its overhead costs while state personnel actually occupy the above positions and perform the duties related to these three activities.

This report concludes that the commission cannot ensure that the fees it collects from railroad corporations are spent only on the direct labor charges of Railroad Safety Program employees because it does not have an effective method to track the time they spend working on railroad safety activities. The commission also lacks policies and procedures to ensure that employees charge only allowable travel-related expenses to the Railroad Safety Program. Further, the commission has no formal process to update its cost allocation plan (plan) nor does it maintain its accounting system's cost allocation table, which contains the basis of the allocation of costs that cannot practically be charged directly to the programs that benefit from these costs. By failing to update its plan and table, the commission cannot ensure that appropriately charges indirect costs to all its various programs, including the Railroad Safety Program. Without an effective system to track direct and indirect costs, the commission cannot establish reliable budgets and set appropriate fees for the Railroad Safety Program.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Transportation.

California State Auditor

2003-131
May 13, 2004

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the process used by the Franchise Tax Board (board) to collect delinquent fees, wages, penalties, costs, and interest (claims) referred by the Department of Industrial Relations (Industrial Relations).

This report concludes that the board's success in generating collections for these claims is limited. Specifically, our analysis of 310 claims filed in fiscal years 2001–02 and 2002–03 shows that Industrial Relations received payment on only 20 percent of them. Furthermore, our review of 60 claims shows that, as of February 2004, the board has taken an average of almost 18 months to process these claims, and it still has not completed processing many of them. Between 2001 and 2002 the board conducted two studies to improve its collection activities by automating its system, however, the board abandoned the project after realizing it would not receive the additional funding to implement the changes. Although state law requires Industrial Relations to adopt rules and regulations to charge the employer a fee to cover the board's collection costs, it currently does not do so. By charging such a fee, the board and Industrial Relations could use the fees to automate the collections process and pay for additional staff.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Revenue and Taxation.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Yee, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Member Tim Leslie, of the 4th Assembly District:

Lord, Is it possible that the days and months and years can fly by so quickly? Once again our budget looms before us. And, although much has been done, critical issues still remain. For many of us, our families wait for us at home sacrificing while we are away. Lord, bless our families. In the Bible it is stated that we are to pray for those in leadership and authority, so that we may live quiet and peaceful lives. Oh God, how we covet the prayers of the people of California, as we wrestle with the problems of the day. But have we forgotten that this administration is for us as well. We are to pray for our President, the Supreme Court, our state and local officials, and of course, ourselves, asking Your blessings and Your divine wisdom on each of our actions; actions that in some way be pleasing to You.

I pray this prayer in the name of Jesus Christ.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following veto message from the Governor was received and ordered printed in the Journal and the bill ordered to the unfinished business file:

Veto Message—Assembly Bill No. 124

Governor's Office, Sacramento
May 19, 2004

To the Members of the California State Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 124 without my signature.

This bill allows the State Allocation Board to consider for the Bret Harte Union School District only, eligible project costs previously incurred on a facility project as a credit toward meeting their local matching funds requirement for school lease purchase program (LPP) funds, if costs were incurred and paid by January 1, 1999.

While I respect the author's intent to provide a benefit to the school district, it is inappropriate and inconsistent with the statutes outlining the LPP Joint Use Program to use these funds in this manner. I am vetoing this measure because it sets an inappropriate precedent of allowing a project to receive retroactive eligibility. I do not believe it is fair to provide one school district preferential funding treatment when other districts may have built projects under the same circumstances. Finally, this bill would create funding pressure on existing bond funds and potentially displace future eligible school construction projects.

For these reasons, I am unable to sign this bill.

Sincerely,

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER

RECEIPT

I acknowledge receipt this 20th day of May at 2:05 p.m., of AB 124 without the Governor's signature, together with a statement of his objections thereto, signed by the Governor, delivered to me personally by Nanette D. F. Madsen.

LAWRENCE A. MURMAN
Assistant Chief Clerk of the Assembly

Please accept this letter as an “explanation of vote” to be printed in the Daily Journal.

Sincerely,

And so we pray this day, Lord, that You grant rest to Your servant, Ronald Reagan, in a place of light and a place of peace, where there is no pain, or grief, or suffering. Make his exit from this life, an entrance into Your Kingdom and number his soul with those who have pleased You through the ages. For You, Lord, are the life and the hope of us all and we give glory to You forever.—AMEN.

REMARKS IN MEMORIAM

OF

PRESIDENT RONALD W. REAGAN

1911–2004

Speaker Nunez was joined by the Members of the Assembly in adjourning this day's session out of respect to the memory of President Ronald W. Reagan, the 40th President of the United States from 1981–1989, and former Governor of California from 1967–1975.

The following remarks were offered as a collective expression of tribute to President Reagan and as an expression of condolence to the Reagan family:

by

Speaker Fabian Nunez

Members, several of you approached us yesterday and asked that under Motions and Resolutions we adjourn in memory of the 40th President of the United States of America, President Ronald Reagan. A man who left an imprint not only in this State, but in this nation. A man who understood the value of kindness, understood how to reach out to folks, and bring people together. A man who, through the voices and cries of many throughout this nation has been able to set a new tone and tenor of how presidents in this country are judged. Whether you're a Democrat or Republican, Ronald Reagan was our President, Ronald Reagan was our Governor. And so, we honor his memory today as Americans. We honor the work that he did while Governor of the State of California and as President. We honor his life and legacy here today. Without any further ado, let me mention to you that at 3:30 today, Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger has invited all of us to join him in the Rotunda for a signing of a memorial to foster and demonstrate the goodwill of this Legislature to work together and to show our respect for the family of President Ronald Reagan. So, I ask committees to break at 3:15 so we can join the Governor at 3:30 in the Rotunda. With that, it is appropriate at this time to call upon one of our colleagues, Mr. Strickland, in whose district the Ronald Reagan Library is located.

by

Assembly Member Tony Strickland

On behalf of 34 million people across the State of California it is my honor to adjourn in the memory of President Ronald Wilson Reagan. Not only is the Reagan Library in my district, but I'm lucky enough to live right off the Reagan Freeway. I have two heroes in my life, one is my father, and the other is President Ronald Reagan. Ronald Reagan meant a lot to me and countless other young people who got involved in politics. My story is not uncommon—I was in fourth grade at Simi Elementary School and I got to watch the Reagan Inaugural Address and I went to my parents after that address and I said, "I want to be politically active." Now, my mom and dad thought I was crazy but they always were supportive of their young son, so they got me involved and dropped me off at the headquarters of a local candidate running in the area. But, it was Ronald Reagan's inspiration and the inspiration to many, many other “Reaganites” as we call them, who were part of the Reagan revolution. And, in Junior High I was asked by a local reporter, “If I could give President Reagan a gift, what would that gift be?” Being 13 years old, and in Junior High, I said “An American Flag, because Ronald Reagan is a true patriot.” It’s not just Ronald Reagan the man. Everyone talks about how wonderful he was at going across the party lines and how he was the great communicator but Ronald Reagan stood for something. He had ideas, and he had principles that there was no compromise on. And, as a young child I grew up in the Cold War and every day I was scared of nuclear war breaking out. I’d like to quote, if I can, Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher’s quote about President Reagan: “Ronald Reagan had a higher claim than any other leader to have won the Cold War for liberty, and he did it without a single shot being fired.” I don’t think that I could say it any better than the former Prime Minister of Great Britain, that it was Reagan’s leadership that allowed young people, my children and my grandchildren, to not have that same fear that I had as a young child. Now, he also started a revolution. A lot of people on this Floor asked me about why it is that I always fight against tax increases and I always want tax cuts. Well, that was called “Reaganomics” and under “Reaganomics” he went forward and cut taxes and he spurred the longest peacetime expansion in this nation’s history during those cutting of taxes when he was President of the United States. He cut inflation by one-half and, I noticed people didn’t really call it “Reaganomics” anymore after he did a good job of stimulating the economy. Ronald Reagan’s wit, his humor, and everything about Ronald Reagan is something that, when I have a child, hopefully a son or a daughter, I can make sure that they look at the character of President Ronald Reagan, and it’s people like my father and President Reagan that I want my children to grow up to be just like them. So, on behalf of the people of California, on behalf of the Reagan Library in my District, and the Reagan Freeway, it’s an honor for me to adjourn in the memory of a hero of mine and the hero of many other Californians that got involved in politics because of his inspiration, and because of his leadership. Thank you.

Assembly Member Mervyn M. Dymally

One is influenced by one’s experiences and my experience with Governor Reagan was a very pleasant one. I did not have very much contact with him in Washington, but for the eight years he served the people of California, I was a Member of the Senate and I remember him for his accessibility, his availability; and he gave us some very significant pieces of legislation. As for me, every day I drive to work I see his legacy in the form of the Drew Medical School; he gave that to the people of Watts and Willowbrook. He signed the first therapeutic abortion bill in the United States, authored by Senator Beilenson; gave a COLA to welfare recipients; a school lunch program authored by Senator George Moscone; gave Willie Brown large sums of money for the Langley Hospital in his district; equal property rights for women (and this was made possible by his daughter Maureen Reagan); child growth and development; child abuse prevention; Bilingual Services Act; Child Care Construction Act; and, although he did not have to sign these next two pieces of legislation, the 18-Year-Old Vote and the ERA was passed under his Administration in California; Medi-Cal Reform with Dr. Earl Brian; a tax increase, when it was necessary. He rose above politics and I recall, very vividly, I was involved in negotiations and the majority of Senators in the Democratic Caucus were opposed to a tax increase and we released Senator Roberti at the request of the United Teachers of Los Angeles, to vote for that measure and he did in fact vote to implement a tax increase when it was necessary. But my most memorable moment of Governor Reagan is this one: He campaigned against fair housing in 1966 and when he came here, his Deputy Chief of Staff, Bob Keyes, an African American, former Vice President of Lockheed Burbank, was denied housing in Sacramento and when the Governor heard about this denial, he changed his position against fair housing and came out instead for fair housing and the whole of California changed as a result of it. People can live wherever they can buy now. And that was my fond memory of Governor Reagan. I share the sentiments of Members and all Californians in expressing our deep sympathy to his wife and family. May he rest in peace.

Minority Leader Kevin McCarthy

Members, I join today to honor, truly, a hero. An ordinary man who did truly extraordinary things. Not just for our state, not just for our nation, but for the world. You know, I grew up in a family of all Democrats and I happened to be the youngest in my family and I came to my party based upon Abraham Lincoln and Ronald Reagan. He was the first President I could vote for and the reason I went down at 18 to register—I saw what he stood for. In the 80's when he became President, if you remember back, America was held hostage for an entire year. Americans didn't believe they could still be the super power. Didn't believe that economically we could as well. And he did it in a unique manner. You know, in my party we have what we call the eleventh commandment—the Reagan commandment. You don't speak ill of a fellow member. And when he served they had a speaker, Tip O'Neill. He said, "We may have a difference of opinion during the day, but at 6 o'clock we all become friends again." And that's the way he carried it out—his character. He based it upon the power of the idea. Saturday night, this past Saturday night, I had the honor of sitting down for dinner with Judge Clark. Judge Clark happened to be his Chief of Staff when he was Governor. He happened to be his advisor when he was President. And as I sat there and talked to Judge Clark I was speaking to his wife and I was talking about the former President and I asked her what was her greatest moment with this President? And she said, "You know, I immigrated from the Eastern Bloc. When I stood with him on that wall and he told Gorbachev 'Tear down this wall', that was moving because that's how I came through." And when you think of what the accomplishments are, this weekend was not an ordinary weekend. It was the 60th Anniversary of D-Day. That was the liberating of Europe. I would argue that Ronald Reagan finished the job of liberating Eastern Europe with the power of the idea, the concept of freedom, of liberty, and moving it forward. You know, I'd like to finish with a quote by Ronald Reagan in a speech in 1992. He said, "Whatever else history may say about me when I am gone, I hope it will record that I appealed to your best hopes, not your worst fears; to your confidence, rather than your doubts." I believe he accomplished that—I believe history will be very kind to all that Ronald Reagan has done. Thank you.

by

Assembly Member Bonnie Garcia

I want to say that it's really popular today to say that you're a passionate conservative. I don't think that it started with our generation—it actually started with Reagan. And, as an example of that, ten years ago, when he was first diagnosed with the disease, we didn't hear about it from the press, we heard it from him directly. In his own hand he wrote a letter explaining the disease and how it was going to rob him of his health and he really did not want to forget all of the imprint he had put on us as Americans, and really our job of moving us forward. As the 40th President of the United States, not only did he serve eight years as President, but had served eight years as Governor here in California. And you know, we had just come from the worst of times and we were headed to the best of times. The Vietnam War and its impact had really impacted this country; Watergate had also impacted us, and during his presidency I remember I was in New York at the time, my daughter was five months old and we watched as that rocket ship blew up with our astronauts during his presidency. I was really not involved politically, but I understood the impact that he had, not just for us as Americans but also for people around the world. It was during his presidency, that amnesty meant so much to millions of Latinos here in the United States. For the first time, they had an opportunity to bring themselves out of the shadows and to become real Americans, and in fact, to bring their families legally here to this country, and to give them all of the opportunities that this great country provides for all of us that have the privilege, the absolute privilege of being an American. And, for those people, in Europe, I guess the defining moment for them was when President Reagan actually challenged Gorbachev during that time, and I wrote down what he had to say. The date was actually June 12, 1987, when he stood at the Brandenburg Gate in Berlin and he challenged Gorbachev to dismantle the Berlin Wall. He said "Mr. Gorbachev, open this gate. Mr. Gorbachev, tear down this wall." And we all know what happened afterwards, the wall did come down; a divided country again became one. And it had not just torn down a wall that visually divided a country, but actually let in democratic principles and the free market economy that we have here today and we're able to enjoy. So, today, as we are closing in his honor, I just want all of us as Americans, all of us as human beings on this earth to remember contributions that this man made, sacrifices that his family made, in allowing him to serve us in every capacity that he did and reminding each of us that in some small way we can make a difference because it is leaders like him that have blazed that trail for us.

Assembly Member Alan Nakanishi

I rise to adjourn in the memory of President Reagan. He was an inspiration. I never met him but felt that he knew me. He touched all of our lives and made this world a better place to live. I want to relay a story that many of you don't know about. This happened in 1945. The war had ended. There was a Sgt. Matsuda who had received the Distinguished Service Cross serving in Germany. He died. His family was in Orange County and the award was to be given to the Sergeant there in Orange County. There was a movement to repel this. General Stillwell came from Washington to present this medal. Hollywood celebrities were asked to come also and Ronald Reagan was there. He said he was proud of Sgt. Matsuda, and this is what he said: "America stands unique in the world. The only country not founded on race but on a way, an ideal. Not in spite of, but because of our polyglot background, we have had all the strength in the world. That is the American way." Later, as President of the United States, he signed Redress HR 442 that acknowledged the Americans of Japanese ancestry. He was a great man and we will miss him dearly. Our thoughts and prayers are with Mrs. Reagan and the entire Reagan family.

Majority Floor Leader Dario Frommer

Like my friend and colleague Mr. Strickland, I was also a kid during the Cold War and came of age in that 1980 period and was very, very much influenced by President Reagan, not to the point like my friend Tony was, but Reagan was really a uniquely American story. He was a guy who came from very humble beginnings who worked his way up. He was a radio announcer; he was a lifeguard; he became an actor and did very well in Hollywood; went on to become the head of the Screen Actor's Guild, and then later launched a career in politics. It really was an extraordinary ride for this young man from Dixon, Illinois. But I think what's really amazing about Reagan as a leader, whether you agree with him or not, was his optimism and his humor, but also Reagan's pragmatism. He was a principled guy and he was a conservative but Reagan never missed an opportunity to do the right thing. When confronted in California with an opportunity to save Lake Tahoe in the 1960's where there were concerns about the lake being despoiled, he joined with the Governor of Nevada for the first time to form a conservancy that has helped to keep the waters of that lake very blue and very clean. He also fought damming of rivers and fought to protect parts of the high Sierra and to establish the State Water Resources Control Board and the Air Resources Board. Those were the accomplishments of a conservative Republican Governor. President Reagan, when he was Governor of California, campaigned against the lawlessness on the campuses of the universities at the time. Many of you remember that period of tumult. But as Governor, he increased spending for higher education three times. He tripled it while he was Governor and did much to improve the campuses and the availability of funds for students on those campuses. He came to government in 1966 as a tax-cutting conservative who vowed to cut the size of government, but when he was confronted with a huge budget gap and a choice between having dramatic cuts in services in education or closing it, he took a courageous stand. He increased taxes. And later, when he could, he reduced them. But Reagan was always a pragmatist who sought solutions and sought to do the right thing. I remember being a college student when President Reagan was President, and studying abroad when the President announced an unpopular plan to put more missiles in the European theatre and there were marches and protests and I know many of us here, and abroad, marched against those nuclear weapons. I marveled at how, just a few years later, President Reagan sat down with Mikhail Gorbachev and negotiated one of the most far-reaching accords on arms control and disarmament ever achieved. Again, Reagan the pragmatist seizing an opportunity, an historical opportunity and doing the right thing. He was an amazing man, even to the end of his life. In 1994, realizing that he was suffering from the devastating disease Alzheimers, made a courageous final farewell to the American people in a letter he wrote describing and disclosing his condition and talking about it. He and his wife Nancy were huge advocates to make this illness on the front border of America's consciousness to explain what it was, how it affects people, and why it was important to pay attention to it. Prophetically, he wrote a line in that letter that I think would be good to listen to today because I think it sort of captures the essence of Reagan. In that letter he wrote in his closing line, "When the Lord calls me home, whenever that may be, I will leave with the greatest love for this country of ours and eternal optimism for its future." That was Reagan. He loved this country and he was an optimist, and we are all better for him being with us.

Assembly Member John J. Benoit

I was a very young man in 1964 when I heard then actor, soon to be politician, Ronald Reagan make a speech in support of the Republican nominee for President and it was clear to me at that point in time that we had a man who was going to be involved and was going to have a future and in fact, was a great communicator. He inspired me at the time and I was proud to watch and follow his career as a young CHP officer working for Mr. Reagan, in some capacity I guess. It should be recalled that it was Willie Brown and Ronald Reagan that were responsible for this beautiful, refurbished Capitol that we all work in. He did some great things in California. But, I want to speak a little bit about the perspective of Ronald Reagan from those close to him. My experience was with the CHP officers who provided bodyguard services to the Governor at that time. I had the opportunity to get to know a lot of those guys. I wasn't on the detail myself, but they marveled at the man. Because as all of us in this room know, sometimes we get very busy in our jobs, and his certainly is as big as ours, and it's easy to forget to be friendly and open and thankful to the people working for you and around you, but Ronald Reagan was different. Many times after the motorcade had made its way through the streets, and after it was behind the barriers and out-of-sight, the officers would get off their motorcycles and as he exited his car he would make it a point to go down the line and shake the hands of every officer on the squad. And, they will never forget that—that was the kind of person that he was. As a result of that, several of the officers in 1981, five days before he was to be inaugurated, decided to make a presentation to him of a commemorative pistol honoring the 50th Anniversary of the Highway Patrol at that time, and I was asked to go along and make that presentation. So, standing on the steps of his Bel Air home where he died just a few days ago, I had the privilege of meeting the President, having my picture taken with him, and making the presentation to that small group. I will never forget the many, many wonderful things he's done for this country, nor will I forget that very meaningful day in my life. I honor his memory; may he rest in peace; and, all our best wishes to his family.

Assembly Member Sharon Runner

I rise today with great sadness that we've lost a President, a Governor, a man of integrity, a wonderful husband and father. I was fortunate just this last week to be at a meeting on Wednesday where Michael Reagan was the speaker. I got to sit with him and talk about his dad, and he asked me, "What should I say today to these business leaders who are gathered?" I said "Talk about your dad and your relationship with him through the years." Although at times it had been strained, they had a great relationship prior to his disease being diagnosed, and he did, he shared for nearly an hour story after story about his dad and even about his dad when he lost. In 1976 he lost the Republican nomination for the presidency and Michael was right by his side and he said "Dad, what would you have done if you were President?" And even back then he said "I want to end the Cold War." And he really knew that the time would be right at some point, which happened four years later, that he would serve our great country as the President and eventually that would happen. The Cold War would end. I also never met him. I've met Nancy on several occasions. One time, just a couple of years ago, standing in line for over two hours I think, at the Reagan Library waiting for her to sign a very unusual book. It was called I Love You Ronnie and it was letters that both Ron Reagan, she called him Ronnie, and Nancy had exchanged with each other. And, I got that book actually for my daughter-in-law and one for myself and talked to Nancy about that. And he was somebody, every day, who loved his wife. No matter what he did, he loved his wife. And I think that, to me, means something very special. I have a husband who loves me and it's great to see that relationship and how she took care of him down to the end. So, I do hope you remember to pray for his family this week and the great loss to our country and our world.

Assembly Member Dave Cox

In 1965, I was the President of the University of San Diego Alumni Association, living in San Diego. One day, I received a call from the University office and they said, "Can you come out to the University and introduce a candidate for Governor?" So, I got out to the University of San Diego and Ronald Reagan was that candidate for Governor. By the way, as Governor Reagan soon to be, was making that presentation, there was another young gentleman by the name of Pete Wilson who was papering the parking lot with flyers saying "Vote for Pete Wilson for Assembly", so things are kind of close together. But, at any rate, I had the opportunity to introduce then citizen Reagan who would soon be the Governor and then ultimately the President. I remember I said, after a rather long presentation, that he would speak for 20 minutes and then take questions. Governor Reagan said, "No Dave, I'm going to speak for five minutes and then take questions." You know Mr. Speaker and Members, yesterday Alan Nakanishi and I were in a parade—the Sutter Creek parade. By the way, we talked to one of the persons who was responsible for that Sutter Creek Parade and he went on to tell us that Ronald Reagan was the last Governor to have ever been in a parade at Sutter Creek and they had the horse's saddle there. By the way, Mr. Dymally, I want to tell you that the Bob Keyes that you were talking about was my college roommate and we lived in a mortuary. I'll spare you the details today. But at any rate, Bob and I used to talk. We used to talk a lot about philosophy. Bob's an African American fellow and we talked about values. He was registered as a Democrat and the longer we talked I said, "Bob, you're not a Democrat, you're a Republican." And he said, "I think so." The next thing I know, he's in charge of the Young Republicans for Reagan in San Diego. And then, ultimately, moved to Sacramento and was part of the inner circle and as a result, by the way, I felt like I was part of the inner circle. Quite simply Members, Ronald Reagan was one of the greatest leaders of the 20th Century and I know that history will recognize him for his many accomplishments. We surely have Ronald Reagan to thank for stabilizing the world against communism. You know sometimes it's easy to take our freedom for granted, but I remember clearly when the threat of nuclear war was very real, just as Tony Strickland did. But you know, in face of all of the things that occurred during that period there was the ever-optimistic Ronald Reagan who knew that peace was not just possible, but vital.

Lord God, We know and believe in the love You have for us. You are love and whoever abides in love, abides in You. Lord, if there is a measure of greatness in this world, it must surely be based on our ability to love.

As our nation prepares for the funeral of President Ronald Reagan, and we see the outpouring of respect and affection shown by hundreds of thousands of people, we recall the love that President Reagan had for this country and its citizens. The spirit of optimism for which he is remembered, came from his faith in You.

And so, Lord our God, we ask that You let Your infinite mercy and love prevail. And that the soul of Your servant, Ronald Reagan, who has departed from our midst, be assigned to the place where the righteous dwell, granting it rest in the bosom of Abraham.—AMEN.

REPORTS

California State Auditor

2002-016
June 9, 2004

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As required by Chapter 941, Statutes of 2002, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the operations and management of the Water Replenishment District of Southern California (district).

This report concludes that although the district has implemented many recommendations of our May 2002 report, it has not fully addressed all our concerns. Specifically, our review revealed that the district adopted a reserve-funds policy that calls for increasing its reserve funds, but that policy lacks credibility, largely because since adopting the policy, the district allowed its reserve funds to further deplete. In addition, the district likely overstated its reserve-funds targets by using some faulty assumptions in calculating them. Moreover, although it included goals and objectives in its strategic plan, it did not include outcomes by which the district and public can measure the district's progress in meeting them. Further, the district spent district funds on items such as gifts and flowers that its policies specifically prohibit. Finally, the district incurred costs for items, such as award dinners, catered meals, and snacks and beverages for its staff and others, that do not appear to be the most prudent use of its funds.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Local Government.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2003-138
June 15, 2004

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee (audit committee), the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the Department of Insurance's (Insurance) effectiveness in improving consumer services and reducing organized automobile fraud activity as a result of the additional funding it received through Chapter 884, Statutes of 1999 (SB 940), and Chapter 885, Statutes of 1999 (AB 1050). This report concludes that Insurance lacks adequate data to determine how much it should have received since the enactment of these two bills. Using unaudited data from the Department of Motor Vehicles, we estimate the possible loss of as much as $7 million in assessments for fiscal year 2002-03 alone. Further, Insurance has not made sufficient efforts to follow up on most of the discrepancies in insurers' payments that it identified in a May 2003 analysis.

Insurance has used some of the SB 940 funds to increase its outreach and communication efforts to consumers related to several automobile insurance programs. However, Insurance needs to improve tracking the use of SB 940 funds; for example, the Legal Division cannot easily demonstrate that it used $9.4 million it received only for allowable activities. Further, Insurance used some AB 1050 funds to work on cases that do not meet the criteria in state law. Finally, Insurance does not monitor the use of AB 1050 funds by either the district attorneys or the Department of the California Highway Patrol, as state laws and regulations require.

The audit committee also requested that we examine the functions of Insurance's bureaus that perform market conduct examinations. Based on our analysis, it appears unlikely that Insurance could gain increased efficiencies, including time and cost savings for insurers, by combining the three bureaus that currently conduct market conduct examinations. However, Insurance may be able to realize some cost savings by combining some of these bureaus' administrative functions. Further, because the Market Conduct Division does not fully utilize Insurance's database, it cannot report on the time and cost associated with its examinations or measure the efficiency of its market conduct operations.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Insurance.

COMMUNICATIONS

The following communication was presented by the Chief Clerk, and ordered printed in the Journal:

June 15, 2004

Greg Schmidt

Secretary of Senate

*Senate Chamber, State Capitol
Sacramento, California*

Dear Greg: Pursuant to the direction of the Speaker of the Assembly, I am returning Senate Bill 9 to the Senate.

As you noted in your letter of June 14, the Senate passed Senate Bill 9 on July 27, 2003. The bill, as amended in the Assembly on June 7, was duly transmitted to the Senate on June 14, 2004. This action was taken pursuant to a duly recorded procedural motion that passed the Assembly by a vote of 42–31.

You administratively returned the bill to the Assembly on the grounds that the bill was “not properly before the Senate for consideration” pursuant to the protocol set forth in Joint Rule 26. The Assembly, however, did not take up the bill for final passage or request that the bill be placed before the Senate for consideration for concurrence pursuant to Joint Rule 26 or any other rule.

Joint Rule 26 is not applicable in this instance because this rule only applies to measures that have been amended, read a third time and passed by the other House, which in this case is the Assembly. Since the Assembly amended, but did not pass Senate Bill 9, Joint Rule 26 does not apply and the bill was properly transmitted to the Senate pursuant to a procedural vote on June 14, 2004.

Sincerely,

E. DOTSON WILSON

Chief Clerk of the Assembly

(NOTE: Please see Senate Journal for June 14, 2004 for the above referenced communication from Greg Schmidt, Secretary of the Senate.)

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2003-129
June 16, 2004

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the effectiveness of the Fiscal Crisis and Management Assistance Team (FCMAT).

This report concludes that FCMAT's recommendations, if implemented, should help financially troubled school districts improve their financial conditions. Although all of the school districts we reviewed appeared to have implemented or partially implemented some of the recommendations we selected to review, many of them continue to experience financial problems. Full recovery can take several years, depending on the nature and severity of a district's problems. Since its formation, FCMAT's scope of responsibilities has significantly expanded, primarily as a result of legislation, to include comprehensive reviews and periodic progress reports of specific school districts that received state emergency loans, and projects such as the California School Information Services system, which is an electronic statewide system that facilitates the exchange of student information. FCMAT's studies cost an average of $3.1 million annually for fiscal years 2000–01 through 2002–03, including $2.1 million per year for management assistance studies and $1 million per year for comprehensive reviews as mandated by legislation. Its billing rate of $400 per person per day spent working on site at school districts and county education offices is on the low end of what FCMAT pays its consultants, which is consistent with FCMAT's understanding that the Legislature intended it to assist financially troubled school districts to avert a financial crisis, such as bankruptcy. Finally, FCMAT's administrative costs appear reasonable and although FCMAT is not subject to competitive bidding rules, it uses a fair process for selecting consultants for its large comprehensive reviews of school districts.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Education.

Ray Charles

Memorial Statement

by

Assembly Member Mervyn M. Dymally

Mr. Speaker, Members of the Assembly:

Last week America lost a musical giant, in the person of Ray Charles.

His colleagues in the music industry called him a musical genius. He combined Country Western, Gospel, Soul, Jazz and Rhythm and Blues and brought joy to Americans in all walks of life. He loved a good laugh! Here is a picture of President Reagan and Mrs. Reagan with whom he is having a good laugh.

Some of his hits include: "Georgia on My Mind," 1960, No. 1; "Ruby," 1960, No. 28; "Hit the Road Jack," 1961, No. 1; "I Can't Stop Loving You," 1962, No. 1; "You Are My Sunshine," 1962, No. 7; "That Lucky Old Sun," 1963, No. 20.

He also won eight (8) Grammys:

- 1960: Best Vocal Performance Single Record or Track, Male, "Georgia on My Mind"
- Best Performance by a Pop Single Artist, "Georgia on My Mind"
- Best Rhythm and Blues Performance, "Let the Good Times Roll"
- Best Vocal Performance Album, Male, "The Genius of Ray Charles"
- 1961: Best Rhythm and Blues Recording, "Hit the Road Jack"
- 1962: Best Rhythm and Blues Recording, "I Can't Stop Loving You"
- 1963: Best Rhythm and Blues Recording, "Busted"
- 1966: Best Rhythm and Blues Recording, "Crying Time"
- Best R&B Solo Vocal Performance, "Crying Time"
- 1975: Best R&B Vocal Performance, Male, "Living for the City"
- 1990: Best R&B Performance by a Duo or Group with Vocal, "I'll Be Good to You" (with Chaka Khan)
- 1993: Best R&B Vocal Performance, Male, "A Song for You"

My favorite song which sends chills through me is: America the Beautiful.

America the Beautiful

O beautiful for spacious skies,
 For amber waves of grain,
 For purple mountain majesties
 Above the fruited plain!
 America! America!
 God shed His grace on thee
 And crown thy good with brotherhood
 From sea to shining sea!

Mr. Speaker, permit me to read a few paragraphs, written by the Los Angeles Times music critic Robert Hilburn, and I quote:

“What may ultimately prove his most enduring piece of music was his 1972 reworking of “America the Beautiful.”

Recorded amid the racial tensions that still plagued the country, Charles, working with arranger and longtime friend Quincy Jones, divided the song into sections and kept only what he felt were the most pertinent lyrics.

He introduces one section by saying, “You know, when I was in school, we used to sing it something like this, listen here.” He then sings with the sweetness and innocence of a child: “Oh beautiful, for spacious skies/ For amber waves of grain . . . ” Suddenly, though, he begins applying his soulful dynamics. “But now wait a minute, I’m talking about America, sweet America, you know, God done shed His grace on thee.”

He injects a transfixing passion and optimism into the song, evoking all that is good about the country. But he’s also determined to make it more than a patriotic, feel-good experience, so there’s a pain and longing in his voice that carries a reminder of the distance between the country’s ideals and its practices.

Few artists have been able to touch us as deeply and consistently as Charles. But then, few artists are such direct links to our heart and soul.

Mr. Speaker, today when we adjourn, let’s do so in his memory.
MAY HE REST IN PEACE.
