Compassionate and Gracious God, All authority is yours.

You hold the universe within your hands and all of us within your loving embrace.

You touch the hearts of rich and poor alike,

You speak to the powerful and the powerless.

We ask your blessings upon the women who are leaders in this State and especially the women who are members of the State Assembly.

Grant that these women who are called to leadership may genuinely serve the people of this State.

May they continually search for policies and make decisions that will be for the good of all.

Give them vision to see far into the issues of this State, courage to uphold what they believe is right, and integrity in their motives.

Grant that they may bring to this work compassionate hearts and open minds so that they may always see, behind the budget and programs, the faces of the men, women and children they serve.

Be their security in times of anxiety and their inspiration in times of opportunity. By their plans and actions may they be co-creators with You, that your kingdom may come and your will be done.

We pray this in your Holy Name.—AMEN.

Lord, In our postmodern, progressive and supposedly secular culture, people still cry out for meaning, significance and a reason for being. Yet, from society, the response is often a very loud silence. But through the eyes of faith, Lord, we know that we matter to You and to others. You care for us, You watch over us, and You desire the very best for us. Bless us today, Lord, and help us to live our life in the light of Your love for us.—AMEN.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Lieber, the following prayer was offered by Monsignor Eugene J. Boyle, retired from the priesthood of the Catholic Church after 60 years of service:

I was closely associated with Cesar Chavez as friend and confidant from the day I first met him in 1966 during the March from Delano to this State Capitol—a Peregrinacion (a pilgrimage) he called it—until his death in Arizona on April 23, 1993.

I dare to say the prayer that I believe Cesar would be substantially uttering with you this day:

O God, You have gifted us with the beauty and challenge of this new day. For this we are thankful!

You have brought us into the company of people, who, bound strongly together in the union of brotherhood and sisterhood, are striving to join their efforts with yours and to extend the full measure of justice, equality and freedom to all. The evidence of your presence in the midst of this gathering of the caring and concerned is palpable. For this too we are grateful.

Strengthen in us, O Lord, the conviction that effective labor unions, like ours, the United Farmworkers of America, AFL-CIO, are by far the most powerful force in society for the achievement and protection of workers' rights and the improvement of their conditions; that no amount of employer benevolence, no campaign to achieve a sympathetic attitude on the part of the public, no increase of beneficial legislation, as helpful as all these are, can adequately substitute for organizational efforts on the part of workers themselves to achieve a living wage, adequate benefits, especially health insurance and decent working conditions. Never let us forget, O Lord, the word of Pope John Paul II that labor unions are indispensable in modern industrial society and enable us to spread that word far and wide.

We pray, Lord, for all who are deprived of the benefit of union and have to live in poverty—the hungry, the homeless, the immigrant, the working poor in our midst, and all who lack adequate health care. We pray that you awake us to the realization that we all have a vital stake in closing the swelling income gap between the more affluent in our community and the low-paid contingent worker with no job security, no benefits, no health insurance and only the most precarious tomorrow.

We pray for those of your people who are without legal rights, who are despised and maltreated because of the color of their skin, the tenets of their creed, or orientation of their sexual preference. We pray not only for those who suffer these injustices, but also for those who foster and increase them.

We pray, Lord, for the world today racked with violence and threats of violence. Give us the strength to break this vicious spiral first, in our own hearts and then in the world around us.

We pray for those who are broken and crippled by violence, exile and war. We pray that the way to peace will continue to be pursued in the Middle East. And we pray especially for the safety and well-being of our service men and women in these troubled countries.

Give us all the wisdom and strength of your spirit and help us to continue to call forth leaders from among us on the local and national level who will ever remind us of what makes for a just and peaceful society and contributes most surely to the common good.

Above all, make us gentle and forgiving and be yourself merciful to us. Teach us to pardon one another and give us the strength to be compassionate.

You have given us life, this day, this company. Make us always ready to share with others so that the joy and happiness and achievement we experience this day may be the joy and happiness of all forever.—AMEN.

COMMUNICATIONS

The following communication was presented by the Chief Clerk from:

Mark Leary, Executive Director, California Integrated Waste Management Board, dated March 10, 2008, submitting letter of transmittal regarding the delay on a report to evaluate the waste diversion rates and the implementation of waste reduction and recycling plans of the top ten percent of large venues and large events as reported by local governments (pursuant to Assembly Bill 2176, Chapter 879, Statutes of 2004).

Referred by the Speaker to the Committee on Natural Resources.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2007-117
March 25, 2008

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the State Board of Chiropractic Examiners' (chiropractic board) enforcement, licensing, and continuing education programs and the role and actions of the chiropractic board members.

This report concludes that board members' lack of understanding about state laws related to their responsibilities as board members, including the Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act, resulted in some violations of state law and other inappropriate actions. The chiropractic board also did not ensure that its designated employees, including board members, complied with the reporting requirements of the Political Reform Act of 1974. Additionally, board members inappropriately delegated responsibility to approve or deny licenses to chiropractic board staff. Because staff rather than board members made final decisions on approving licenses and board members did not review staff-determined denials when applicants did not formally appeal those denials, the chiropractic board did not comply with the Chiropractic Initiative Act of California.

The chiropractic board has not developed comprehensive procedures, such as the length of time it should take to process complaints and, as a result, staff do not always process complaints promptly. Further, the chiropractic board's weak management of its enforcement program may have contributed to inconsistent treatment of complaints as well as unreasonable delays in processing. In fact, the chiropractic board's handling of complaints is so flawed that it fails to promptly process its most serious complaints—those it defines as having priority. Our review of 11 priority complaints revealed that it took the chiropractic board from one to three years to process nine of them, potentially leading to repeat offenses and a failure to protect the public. Although the chiropractic board's regulations have required it to establish chiropractic quality review panels, it has never complied with its regulation. Finally, many of the chiropractic board's current practices for administering its continuing education program are not consistent with its regulations and written policies and procedures.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE
State Auditor

Lord, Even though we enjoy traveling in California where there is so much to see and to experience, we can take a different type of journey that doesn't involve going miles from where we are right now. The psalmist David wrote, "The one thing I ask of the Lord, the thing I seek most, is to live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, delighting in His perfections." (Psalm 27:4 NLT) Guide us, Lord, to take an inner journey to meet You in the divine sanctuary of our soul and grant that we may find peace with You there and in our whole life.—AMEN.

REPORTS

The following letters of transmittal were presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2007-001
March 28, 2008

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: The Bureau of State Audits presents its Independent Auditor's Report on the State of California's basic financial statements for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2007. These financial statements are presented on a basis in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). The financial statements show that the State's General fund had revenues and other financing sources that were approximately $4.6 billion less than expenditures and other financing uses. The General Fund ended the fiscal year with a fund deficit of approximately $1.9 billion. The GAAP basis government-wide statements include all liabilities owed by the State while the budgetary basis statements that are used to report on the State's budget do not reflect all liabilities.

We conducted the audit to comply with the California Government Code 8546.4.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Budget.

California State Auditor

Investigative Report I2008-1

April 3, 2008

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: Pursuant to the California Whistleblower Protection Act, the Bureau of State Audits presents its investigative report summarizing investigations of improper governmental activity completed from July through December 2007.

This report details seven substantiated allegations in state departments and universities. Through our investigative methods, we found waste, mismanagement, and misuse of state funds and resources, wasteful economic decisions, and failure to take appropriate action. For example, the Department of Justice (Justice) created inefficiency by entering into a series of side letters that were negotiated directly with a bargaining unit, rather than using the formal approval and ratification process. As a result, Justice absorbed the salaries and benefits of four employees who were released from work full-time over a 12-year span to participate in union-related activities at a cost of $2.4 million.

In addition, this report provides an update on previously reported issues and describes any additional actions taken by state departments to correct the problems we previously identified. For example, the California Highway Patrol placed 51 vans into service in November 2007 after it had purchased and left them virtually unused for more than two years.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE
State Auditor

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Acting Speaker Levine, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Father Constantine C. Pappademos:

Lord, When the word "holy" comes to mind, we often think of the cliché "holier-than thou." But true holiness, Lord, has its source in You. You are holy, and as Your children, our lives are to be characterized by a sense of holiness that indicates we belong to You. For those who know You, holiness means being set apart and is born out of a sense of profound humility. Give us a clearer vision of Your holiness, Lord, and a practical understanding of how we can grow in holiness daily.—AMEN.

Upon request of Acting Speaker Levine, Assembly Member Runner then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Heavenly Father, We thank You for granting us this opportunity to join the California Legislature in commemorating the 93rd anniversary of the Armenian Genocide. As we pay tribute to the loving memory of our martyrs, we come before You to ask for repose for the souls of the victims of the Armenian Genocide, and for all those who have been subjected to similar atrocities and lost their lives for the love of freedom, for the love of nation, and for their faith.

We thank You for Your divine guidance and for leading us on our decades-long pursuit of justice, truth, and human rights for all mankind. We beseech You to grant us the strength and determination needed to overcome the challenges we face, accomplish our goals, and fulfill the noble mission we have embarked upon.

Lord, bless our Governor and our elected officials who have faithfully stood by our side and continue to do so in our common quest to bring recognition to the Armenian Genocide. We thank them for paying homage to our martyrs by designating this time as California Days of Remembrance of the Armenian Genocide, which we hope will foster awareness and help to end the devastating cycle of genocide that continues today. Guide them in their daily endeavors and in their mission as guardians of public interest, and lead them to serve the very best interests of our beloved golden state of California with dignity and honor.

We thank You for Your abundant blessings.—AMEN.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2007-115
April 17, 2008

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the State's process for placing sex offenders in residential facilities.

This report concludes that state laws, regulations, and departmental policies do not require licensing departments to consider the criminal background of potential clients, including registered sex offenders, that the licensed facilities plan to serve. State law does not generally allow sex offenders on parole to reside with other sex offenders in a single-family dwelling that is not a "residential facility." However, we found several instances of two or more sex offenders on parole residing in the same hotel room, which is not permitted according to the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation's (Corrections) interpretation of the law. Additionally, although state law allows two or more sex offenders to reside at the same "residential facility," it does not clearly define whether residential facilities include those that do not require a license, such as sober living facilities. We identified several instances in which two or more adult sex offenders on parole were residing in the same sober living facilities. Furthermore, state law is also unclear as to whether the residency restriction applies to juvenile offenders. In fact, we found several instances in which Corrections had placed more than one juvenile sex offender parolee at the same location.

Moreover, local law enforcement agencies generally told us they have not performed formal assessments of the impact sex offenders have on their resources and communities. In addition, state laws generally do not require the departments or their contractors that place registered sex offenders to consider the impact on local communities when making placement decisions, and the departments generally do not have policies calling for assessments of the impact such placements have on local communities. Finally, although Corrections generally followed its policies when monitoring sex offender parolees, it did not always adhere to its policies for notifying local law enforcement agencies of the impending release of parolees into their jurisdictions and it did not always ensure that parolees registered with the appropriate law enforcement agency within five working days of being released from prison.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE
State Auditor

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Lieber, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Alternate Chaplain Pastor Ivan L. Williams, Sr.:

Our Father, It is with great expectation and anticipation that we give You our time, talents, and gifts. Because we know in Your hand nothing is lost and because of Your all seeing eye, nothing is hidden.

Thank You for giving us this new day we've never seen before and will never see again. Help us to seize the time given as stewards of this day so that we may live out a passionate yearning to serve, help, lift, and give hope in these challenging times.

We bless Your Name forevermore!

In Thy Name we pray.—AMEN.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Lieber, the following prayer was offered by Rabbi Nathaniel Ezray, Temple Beth Jacob in Redwood City:

Invocation for Yom HaShoah

On this day, we gather to commemorate the unfathomable. Yom HaShoah is the official day of mourning and memorial for the victims of the Holocaust. How can any commemoration capture that which is so horrific, so incomprehensible, so overwhelming?

It can't.

Words are inadequate. No author can capture its evil. No philosopher can analyze its reality. No Rabbi can express its emotions. I stand before you lacking words, and of uncertain faith—yet aware that our souls cry out to respond somehow.

The beginning of response is memory. There is an imperative to remember, for in memory we begin to find the sparks of illumination amidst darkness. So today I ask you to embrace the imperative—z'chor—remember:

Memory allows us to tell the stories of those who have been torn away from us. In lifting up their stories, their dreams, their pain and taking them into our hearts, they begin to transform from an anonymous number to a sacred human with a precious legacy.

Memory connects us to the courageous and important stories of those who survived. We learn from them. We honor them as we share their pain. Their stories are holy.

Memory creates a dynamic where we explore and learn from the variety of historic realities: Jewish spiritual and physical resistance, righteous gentiles who risked their lives to save Jews, apathy amongst our allies, lost communities. So much is revealed when we access memory.

Memory demands that we confront the political and social conditions that resulted in this terrible moment of human history. As we remember the failure of law, education, science and religion in Nazi Europe, we respond by creating conditions where the dignity of each individual is safeguarded.

We respond with vigilance and activism. When we see racism, prejudice, oppression, genocide—we make by the words, “Never Again!” the touchstone whereby we order our lives. Encounter with memory drives home the truth of Eli Wiesel that “Whenever a community is threatened, all are affected. Whenever a single human being is humiliated, the human image is cheapened. Whenever a person suffers . . . and no one is there to offer a hand . . . something is wrong with society.” Memory motivates engagement with social and political realities.

On this day of sacred memory, Yom HaShoah, we declare our faith. We will remember. We will let those memories touch us. We will let those memories inspire us and in so doing we give honor to those who are no longer with us. May their memories endure as a blessing.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Lieber, Assembly Member Wolk then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Lieber, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Father Constantine C. Pappademos:

Lord, Our faith in You is not a logical certainty, but instead, a personal relationship. And like any other relationship, it needs to develop further. That is why it is possible for faith to coexist with doubt . . . the two are not mutually exclusive. Help us to realize, Lord, that faith does not involve complacency, it involves taking risks. Show us that faith does not mean shutting ourselves off from the unknown, but rather boldly advancing to meet it.—AMEN.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Lieber, the following prayer was offered by Hon. Alberto Torrico, Assembly Member, District 20:

Lord, We gather this morning to begin another week of the people's business, in this the people's house. We ask that you grant each legislator the wisdom to lead our great state, and the humility to discern your will.

As we honor the Latino Spirit Award recipients this morning, we thank you for all of their contributions and service on behalf of others.

Let Our Latino honorees, and their lifetime of public service remind us of a verse from the Book of Matthew (25:35), which implores each of us to feed the hungry, and welcome the stranger.

Let the diverse heritage of our Latino honorees, remind us of Leviticus 19:33, which commands us to treat immigrants as if they were native born.

Finally, Lord, we ask that you

Bless the hands of the people of the earth

The hands that plant the seed

The hands that bind the harvest

The hands that carry the burden of life

Bless the hands of the workers

Bless the hands of those in power above them

That the measure they deal will be tempered with justice and compassion

Lord we ask that you bless all of our recipients, today's ceremony, and the important work that this body will conduct this week.

In Jesus' name we pray.—AMEN.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2007-121
April 24, 2008

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the Veterans Home of California at Yountville (Veterans Home), with a specific emphasis on the adequacy of health care and accommodations provided for members with disabilities.

This report concludes that the Veterans Home has experienced shortages in key health care positions, such as nursing, that have limited the Veterans Home in serving the veteran community. Some nursing staff have worked substantial amounts of overtime to meet staffing guidelines for providing care to members who live in the skilled nursing and intermediate care facilities. Despite these staffing shortages, the Veterans Home has not had a coordinated and comprehensive strategy for filling chronic staff vacancies in especially important occupational areas. In addition, weak oversight of its medical equipment maintenance contract provides the Veterans Home little confidence that the equipment has received regularly scheduled testing and maintenance, thereby risking not having properly functioning equipment available when needed and making inappropriate payments to its medical equipment contractor. Moreover, the Veterans Home has not assessed its compliance with Americans with Disabilities Act requirements to ensure people with qualifying disabilities have access to the Veterans Home's programs and services, or designated a representative to respond to complaints of inaccessibility from members. Further, state agencies responsible for investigating and resolving complaints by Veterans Home members regarding the Veterans Home's programs and services, the Veterans Home, the California Veterans Board, the California Department of Veterans Affairs, and the California Department of Public Health, could improve their practices regarding those responsibilities.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE
State Auditor

The Book of Proverbs tells us:

“Where there is no vision, the People perish.”

As we gather this morning to begin another week of the people’s business, in this the people’s house, we ask that you grant each legislator the wisdom to lead our great state, and the humility to discern your will.

As we honor Asian Americans from throughout California this morning, we thank you for their vision, contributions and service on behalf of others.

As California’s elected leaders gather this morning to seek your guidance, compassion and vision, we pray that California’s vision be a shared vision for all of our residents.

And we pray that California’s vision leaves no one behind and gives each Californian the opportunity to fulfill the potential you have bestowed upon each of us.

We ask that you bring stability and prosperity to our state’s businesses. We ask that you bless the hands of the workers, and those in power above them that the measure they deal will be tempered with justice and compassion

We ask that you provide support for all of the organizations that are serving our community’s poor, elderly, homeless, disabled and afflicted.

And finally Lord we pray that you:

Bless the hands of the people of the earth

The hands that carry the burden of life

And we ask that you Bless this great state of ours and especially today’s honorees.

All of these things, we pray in the Name of Jesus and in your blessed and Holy Name, Lord.—AMEN.

Eternal Spirit: We give thanks for this day. This is the day you have made and we will rejoice and be glad in it. We rejoice with the Speaker-elect Karen Bass in her arrival at this place in her own personal and professional journey. We rejoice in her steadfastness to a quality of life for all persons that regards the humanity and dignity that is in all of us. We rejoice that as an African-American woman, she stands on the shoulders of women and men who have struggled to make the promises of democracy real. May she stand tall in this place. In a day of an unprecedented state budget deficit, may she stand tall. In a day where difficult decisions must be made in our care for the most vulnerable among us, may she stand tall. May she not stand alone. May she continue to find league with old allies and form new alliances where honest debate and creative ideas will yield laws and policies which will enrich our collective life.

This is the day you have made, we rejoice in the potential and possibility of the day bringing a brighter day of justice and prosperity for all Californians. We offer this prayer in hope.—AMEN.

SPEAKER NUÑEZ ADDRESSES ASSEMBLY

May I say first, looking at all these former Speakers, what a pleasure it is to see how happy, healthy and prosperous you all look.

Members, as pleased as I was about Assemblymember Bass being elected Speaker, I have to tell you that after working with her during this transition I am even more excited.

Karen Bass is not only qualified to hit the ground running, she can hit it running, dancing, and doing cartwheels. She is that impressive.

As the people who are filling this chamber to overflow capacity know, Karen Bass is a terrific mix of strength and compassion and diligence and grace.

In recognizing the historic nature of her becoming the first African American woman to serve as Speaker, Ms. Bass has acknowledged that she stands on the shoulders of others before her.

I know as Speaker she will continue to make room on her own shoulders for others as well.

Karen Bass is going to be a phenomenal leader for this house and this state.

Trust me. What used to be known as “The Big 5” is now going to be known as Speaker Bass and those four other guys. Sorry, guys, but it’s true.

Ms. Bass, I am proud and happy to pass the torch, to turn over the gavel and to submit the following requests to be excused from session.

It is truly an honor for me to be the one swearing you in today and to be the first person who has the great privilege of calling you Madam Speaker.

APPOINTMENT OF SELECT COMMITTEE ON ESCORT

Speaker Núñez appointed former Speakers, Hon. Robert T. Monagan, Hon. Willie L. Brown, Jr., Hon. Cruz Bustamante, Hon. Antonio Villaraigosa, and Hon. Herb J. Wesson, Jr., as a Select Committee on Escort to escort Speaker-elect Karen Bass and her step-daughter Yvette Lechuga to the Rostrum.

At 1:03 p.m., Speaker-elect Karen Bass appeared at the bar of the Assembly and took and subscribed to the following oath of office administered by Hon. Fabian Núñez, Speaker of the Assembly. Yvette Lechuga held the Bible during the administration of the oath.

OATH

for the Office of Speaker of the Assembly

I, Karen Bass, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of California; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties upon which I am about to enter.

KAREN BASS

Subscribed and sworn to before me,
this 13th day of May
A.D. 2008

THE HONORABLE FABIAN NUÑEZ
Speaker of the Assembly

PRESENTATION OF SPEAKER BASS

Former Speaker Núñez then presented the 67th Speaker of the California State Assembly, Hon. Karen Bass, whereupon she addressed the assemblage.

Address by Speaker Karen Bass

To the former Speakers who joined me today as my escorts—you honor us with your presence the way your service honored this house and this state. Thank you for taking the time to be here today. Since I have been in the Legislature I have sought each of you for your guidance, critique and solidarity. And I thank you for that—and assume you'll be available for many more phone calls.

Members . . . honored guests . . . dear friends and family . . . since my election on February 28th to be the 67th Speaker of the Assembly, I have had the opportunity and experience to be part of an incredible transition—part of a complex and comprehensive process of receiving the torch from the 66th Speaker of the Assembly, Fabian Núñez.

I know the job ahead of me as Speaker will be both easier and harder because of the example set by Speaker Núñez.

Easier because of the outstanding processes he has put in place for this house. Harder because of the high threshold he has set for results.

Mr. Speaker, thank you so much for your leadership, your friendship, and, especially, for the enormous generosity of spirit you have shown me during this seamless transition.

Members, as Mr. Speaker mentioned, I do feel the weight of history on my shoulders today—as the first African American woman in U.S. history elected to head a state legislative body.

Consistent with the African side of African-American tradition, I begin today by acknowledging and honoring those people who have shaped my life but are no longer here to share my life.

My mother who taught all of us that the most important words in our vocabulary must be dignity, integrity and honor.

My last image of her was watching her walking down the hospital corridor—she held her head high—yet I knew she knew her life was about to end.

My father who never wanted me to run for office—because he was afraid I'd be hurt.

But yet he was the one who introduced me to politics, watching the civil rights movement on the nightly news and trying to help me understand the concept of legal segregation in the South where he was from—he instilled in me the passion to fight for justice and equality.

They are not here, but their presence is constantly felt and is represented today by my three brothers—Kenneth, Keith and Kevin Bass.

Will my brothers please stand.

My beloved daughter and son-in-law—whom I miss every single day.

I look out on the floor—I sat where Assemblymember Eng sits and the memory is seared in my mind—of my daughter Emilia, who sat next to me during my first swearing in and giggled at the formality.

Her then boyfriend—Mike—who would soon become my son-in-law, sat in the gallery with eyes as big as saucers at the enormity of it all.

Emilia and Mike are not here, but their presence is constantly felt and she is represented today by her siblings—my step children—who have been in my life since the day you were born—Scythia, Omar and Yvette Lechuga—please stand.

And Emilia's best friends—my other daughters—who are very much a part of my life—Denise-Julia, Rolanda, Sterling, Ebony and Tiffany—will you please stand.

Members, throughout the past 18 months I have experienced the best of your hearts—and I'm not sure I can fully express how much that has meant to me.

So many of us have faced personal tragedies and losses—we have stood with each other—we have embraced each other—and helped each other through the bad times.

And we've embraced each other through new children—Lori Krekorian—and grandchildren—life's blessings as well.

If we could only harness the power of our common humanity, I don't think there's anything we couldn't do for the people of this state.

And members, they truly do need us now.

People are losing their homes. People are losing their jobs. People are scared about the future in a state that should be all about hope for the future.

Think about it. We represent California—the 8th largest economy on the planet. If California was our own nation, we would be better off than Russia or India or Spain.

We have it all.

The movie studios I represent in the 47th Assembly District use software created in Ms. Lieber's district.

Professors at Ms. Wolk's UC Davis help Mr. Berryhill's farmers improve their crops.

And who wouldn't enjoy a glass of Ms. Evans' Napa Valley chardonnay watching the sun set over Mr. Plescia's La Jolla coast?

More than 50,000 companies in our districts export products around the globe.

20% of all U.S. trade—about a half a trillion dollars—passes in some way through California. Workers at our ports handle more than 40% of the nation's container cargo.

Almost one-third of all U.S. biotech firms are located in California, and we have more biotech jobs here than all the other states put together.

And it's no coincidence the biotech industry was founded here when more than 50 Nobel Prize winners have been associated with the University of California.

We are a $94 billion tourism industry and the nation's top travel destination. Millions of visitors come here every year to enjoy 1100 miles of coast and 300-foot redwood trees.

The laptops on our desks should remind all of us that the California visionaries who founded Silicon Valley in a garage, have changed the way the world lives, learns and leads.

Thanks to California you can find anything you could possibly want on Google . . . and then when you get tired of it you can turn around and sell it on E-bay.

Our 80,000 farms and ranches produce more than $30 billion worth of goods. And we export more than $10 billion of those goods—350 commodities in all—everything from almonds and artichokes to turkeys and tangerines.

Among us we represent Koreatown, Little Saigon, Little Ethiopia, Little India and Little Armenia—little pieces of a lot of places.

California is a giant of a state—but we are a giant in crisis.

Over the last two months I have visited with business leaders in the Silicon Valley who are relocating overseas. I've met with farmers in the Central Valley who can not afford to plant crops—resulting in the abandonment of the workforce in nearby small towns. I have visited schools and met with teachers and school board members in San Diego and Norwalk where teachers received layoff notices.

I have met with students who are saddled with debt when they finish college—we should be able to provide more opportunity than that for the next generation.

California is a giant in crisis—and now it is up to us to solve that crisis.

It is up to us to take the fear out of California's future.

Tomorrow, the governor will unveil his May budget revision.

By all accounts it will not be good news. We have to decide how we will address that news. We have to decide how we will come together to mobilize the incredible assets and resources at this state's command to solve the budget crisis.

If we can mobilize our resources to respond to major disasters like Northridge and Whittier and Loma Prieta—we must be able to respond to the budget crisis.

The wildfires in Sierra Madre in April reminded us all too well of the infernos we faced in 2007.

The combination of economic recession, the mortgage meltdown and skyrocketing prices for food and fuel are having the same destructive force as an earthquake or fire.

When you lose your home, can't feed your family, or can't afford health care for your kids, it's an earthquake.

When there is a disaster like that, an earthquake or a fire or a flood, leaders put their ideologies aside and step up and say "people are suffering—what do we do to alleviate the pain?"

Members, we have to respond to the current economic crisis the same way we would a natural disaster.

We have to toss aside the boxes we put ourselves in and the labels we place on others and come together to get the job done.

I believe part of that job has got to involve looking at the big picture and really examining California's overall economic structure.

Most importantly, we have to ask the question of whether a tax structure that was established in the 1930s is sufficient to meet the needs of Californians in 2008.

And, frankly, members I think we need an answer to that question that is developed outside the day-to-day give-and-take here in the Legislature.

To answer this question I have asked for help. I have asked two former governors—Governor Pete Wilson and Governor Gray Davis to assist the Legislature in identifying the leadership and membership of an independent Commission to examine California's tax structure.

This will be a bipartisan group of California's brightest to work together for one year to develop recommendations on how we can identify more consistent sources of revenue—the way 12 other states have already accomplished.

As we work to resolve the immediate challenge before us, the efforts of this commission can help us find ways to prevent California from cycling through crisis after crisis after crisis.

Mr. Villines, I am just as committed to working with you and your team. I want to continue and maintain the high level of civility that has been a hallmark of Speaker Núñez tenure.

I want the urgency of our cause to be matched by the unity in our commitment.

The weight of history is not just on my shoulders.

As we all move forward, it should be with the understanding that a society will be judged on the way it cares for its people.

As Speaker, I want you to judge me on how I am able to bring together the best of your talents, your experience, and, yes—the best of your hearts—to help build the kind of society that California deserves.

Thank you members. Let's get to work.

Lord, Sometimes it seems like there isn't enough time in a day to accomplish everything we would like. But time is not our enemy. We all have the same amount of it in a day, which is why the way we order our priorities is critical. Lord, help us to keep our spiritual growth in our list of priorities each day and help us to focus on You. A mind saturated with You, Lord, in turn produces a life that reflects God and the reality of Your goodness within us.—AMEN.

REPORTS

The following letter of transmittal was presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2007-124
April 29, 2008

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the State's implementation of the Safely Surrendered Baby Law (safe-surrender law).

This report concludes that, although the intent of the safe-surrender law is admirable, it does not impose sufficient requirements on any state agency to publicize its availability, thus potentially reducing the law's effectiveness. Moreover, the State's failure to provide consistent funding for promoting the law may further reduce its effectiveness. However, the Department of Social Services (Social Services) did conduct a media campaign from October 2002 to December 2003 to increase public awareness of the safe-surrender law. We also found that many counties have developed interesting approaches to increase public awareness of the law. Although Social Services' initial efforts exceeded its statutory obligations, it has not developed any further goals for conducting additional activities to publicize the safe-surrender law because it believes it has fulfilled its minimal obligations. The department also stated that the ongoing awareness efforts at the local level, combined with the lack of an "alarming increase" in the number of abandoned babies mitigate the need for additional efforts. However, our audit revealed that Social Services is using understated statistics on abandoned babies when it concludes that further efforts to heighten public awareness are unnecessary.

Furthermore, after the Legislature amended the safe-surrender law to provide greater protection to individuals who surrender a child, Social Services supplied counties with guidance on managing confidential data on these individuals that is contrary to the law's intent. Potentially because of this guidance as well as improper actions by local staff, we found safe-surrender sites disclosed sensitive data on individuals who surrendered babies—a violation of state law—in more than 9 percent of cases since the amendment took effect. The availability of such information may cause counties to take actions contrary to the law's intent, such as contacting the person who surrendered the baby, which could discourage parents from safely surrendering their babies. Finally, according to Social Services, counties have incorrectly classified at least 77 babies as surrendered, or about 26 percent of all babies classified by counties as surrendered. Thus, these children may not have access later in life to information on their birth parents that they may have a legal right to view.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE
State Auditor
