Eternal Lord God, We are honored by Your presence and we come to You on this day with thankfulness in our hearts, because You have made it possible through Your divine providence to give these lawmakers a great sense of purpose, responsibility, and most of all, brand new opportunities to serve the citizens of California and very humanity.

Grant to each of them a stern willingness to stand up for what is right, though the heavens fall. May the creative power of Your word produce in them a stronger faith and an indomitable hope. Bless each of them with insight, foresight, wisdom, and discernment, and give them the humility to ask for Your help and guidance whether they are receiving the accolades of praise, or in the divisive heat of focused matter in the spotlight.

Teach them that greatness cannot be truly realized until they become great in their service. Lord we ask that this house will be known by the committed, honorable, and courageous service exemplified of the people, for the people, and by the people. We ask for Your guiding hand of grace and truth to keep them in all their ways, for it is in Thy mighty, omniscient, and omnipresent name we pray.—AMEN!

ADDRESS BY SPEAKER

Good afternoon. Thank you for the faith you have shown in electing me once again as Speaker of the people's house. I want to begin my brief remarks this afternoon by acknowledging the families here today. We all deeply appreciate the sacrifices that you are making so that the members of the California State Assembly can be up here in Sacramento doing our jobs. The returning members know—and the new members will learn—the personal challenge of spending most of every week away from your families.

Members, in ordinary times we would organize the Assembly today, take our oaths, celebrate with our colleagues, and then return to the Capitol in January. But these are not ordinary times. Our state continues to be rocked by the deepening national recession and the ongoing global economic turmoil. Foreclosures and unemployment are still going up. Revenue is still going down. Our projected deficit is growing, and the cash we need on hand is disappearing. As the circumstances warrant, the Governor will call a special session and we will need to continue addressing the crisis this week.

These are not ordinary times. But then again, you are not ordinary people. You were willing to go out on a limb and put your name out on a ballot. You were willing to walk and knock and talk and do the hard work to win election. You are willing to step away from your real lives and spend time away from your families and come to Sacramento to make a difference. You all have it in you to do what needs to be done to rise up and meet the extraordinary challenges facing California.

But this year all of us—Democrats and Republicans—will face the challenge of acknowledging our ideology—acknowledging all those commitments and pledges we made during our campaign—we face the challenge of acknowledging this then taking a real hard objective look at the crisis we face. And then we face the challenge of putting our ideology aside and doing what we need to do for California.

Remembering the oath that we just swore to uphold is the single most important pledge we can hope to take as a member of this body.

If we put the people first we owe it to them to keep this state running and to get California's economic engine back in gear to help lead a national recovery. And we don't have a lot of time.

As the nonpartisan Legislative Analyst notes, while anything we do regarding the deficit has economic consequences, the consequences of doing nothing—or not doing enough—are even worse. And remember the Analyst has made it very clear—the sooner we act the smaller the problem.

To aid us in moving forward, Senate President pro Tem Darrell Steinberg along with Leader Villines, will be calling an extraordinary joint session of the Assembly and Senate for an objective public briefing from Treasurer Lockyer, Controller Chiang and the Department of Finance regarding the current economic situation and the looming cash crisis.

I am also pleased the four leaders in both houses joined in establishing two short-term bodies to help spur economic recovery and reform in California.

The California Economic Recovery Task Force, working in conjunction with the respected Public Policy Institute of California will move quickly to propose to the Legislature this month policies that can stimulate California's economy.

The bipartisan Commission on the 21st Century Economy will report back by April 15 with recommendations to modernize the state's outdated revenue system. These are important tools in addressing the state's needs for short term recovery and long term stability.

I have also asked Assemblymember Hector De La Torre to lead a new committee—with members from both parties—that will take a hard look at the state's expenditures. And we will be providing you with more details about that important new committee.

We should all be very mindful the clock is ticking—we need to use our time to solve problems.

Members, as your Speaker I pledge to you that the Assembly will continue to run professionally and with civility. Leader Villines and I will continue our respectful relationship that allows this house to function and allows us to disagree without being disagreeable.

I pledge to work closely with my new colleague in the Senate, President pro Tem Darrell Steinberg, to minimize the unnecessary inter-house frictions that can get in the way of good work.

I pledge to work with the Governor in a mutually respectful way that allows for resolution of differences in a productive manner.

And most of all, members, I pledge to do whatever I can to help you help the people we came here to represent.

To those people . . . to the people of the great state of California . . . I want to close by saying this: We know the struggles you are having. And we will step up and do the right thing to help ease those burdens. We also know your sense of hope and optimism—displayed most prominently in this historic election. And we will build on that optimism and make sure your hope has a solid foundation in reality.

As our new President has said help is on the way.

These are not ordinary times. But California has prevailed through tough times before. And with your spirit, your vigilance and, yes, your pressure—this Assembly and this Legislature will do the right thing to ensure that our state can once again prevail.

SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE APPOINTED

Speaker Bass announced that she had appointed Assembly Member Lori Saldaña to serve as Speaker pro Tempore of the Assembly.

APPOINTMENT OF SELECT COMMITTEE

Speaker Bass appointed Assembly Members Block, Caballero, Cook, Fuller, Hall, and Yamada as a Select Committee on Escort to escort Speaker pro Tempore-elect Lori Saldaña to the Rostrum.

OATH OF OFFICE

Speaker pro Tempore-elect Lori Saldaña appeared at the bar of the Assembly and took and subscribed to the following oath of office administered by the Honorable Kathryn M. Werdegarr, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of California.

OATH

for the Office of Speaker pro Tempore of the Assembly

If the closed session is held pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (e), the notice of the closed session shall identify the real property that the negotiations may concern and the person with whom the negotiations may take place.

If the closed session is held pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (e), the memorandum shall include the title of or other identification of the litigation. The committee is allocated all subjects within the scope of legislative regulation and control, but may not undertake any investigation that another committee has been specifically requested or directed to undertake. The Assembly General Research Committee may act through subcommittees appointed by the Speaker in consultation with the Committee on Rules, and each of these subcommittees may act only on the particular study or investigation assigned by the Speaker in consultation with the Committee on Rules to that subcommittee. Each subcommittee shall be known and designated as a select committee. The Speaker is the Chairperson of the Assembly General Research Committee and may be a voting member of any subcommittee. Each member of the Assembly General Research Committee is authorized and directed to receive and investigate requests for legislative action made by individuals or groups, and to report thereon to the full committee. The Committee on Rules is authorized to allocate to any subcommittee from the Assembly Operating Fund those sums that the Committee on Rules deems necessary to complete the investigation or study conferred upon that subcommittee. The Committee on Rules shall further allocate, from time to time, to the Assembly General Research Committee from the Assembly Operating Fund those sums that are necessary to permit the Assembly General Research Committee and the members thereof to carry out the duties imposed on them. The committee has continuous existence until the time that its existence is terminated by a resolution adopted by the Assembly, and the committee is authorized to act both during and between sessions of the Legislature, including any recess.

(b) The committee and its members shall have and exercise all the rights, duties, and powers conferred upon investigating committees and their members by the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly and the Standing Rules of the Assembly as they are adopted and amended from time to time at this session, which provisions are incorporated herein and made applicable to the committee and its members.

(c) The committee has the following additional powers and duties:

Assembly Legislative Ethics Committee

22.5. (a) The Assembly Legislative Ethics Committee is hereby created. The committee shall consist of six Members of the Assembly, appointed by the Speaker. Notwithstanding any other rule of the Assembly, three members of the committee shall be from the political party having the greatest number of Members in the Assembly and three members shall be from the political party having the second greatest number of Members. Any temporary or permanent vacancy on the committee shall be filled within 10 days by a member from the same political party. All appointments, including appointments to fill permanent or temporary vacancies, of members from the political party having the second greatest number of Members in the Assembly shall be made from a list of nominees that the Minority Floor Leader provides to the Speaker. The Speaker shall designate one member of the committee from the political party having the greatest number of Members in the Assembly and one member of the committee from the political party having the second greatest number of Members to serve as co-chairs of the committee. The Speaker shall designate one of the co-chairs to serve as the presiding officer at any meeting or hearing conducted by the committee.

If a verified complaint is filed against a member of the committee, the Speaker shall temporarily replace the member with a Member from the same political party, who shall serve until the complaint is dismissed or the Assembly takes final action on the complaint, whichever occurs first.

(b) The provisions of this rule, and of Rule 11.5 related to investigating committees, apply to the committee and govern its proceedings.

Prior to the issuance of any subpoena by the committee with respect to any matter before the committee, it shall, by a resolution adopted by the committee pursuant to a vote in accordance with subdivision (n), define the nature and scope of its investigation in the matter before it.

(c) Funds for the support of the committee shall be provided from the Assembly Operating Fund in the same manner that those funds are made available to other committees of the Assembly.

(d)(1) The committee has the power, pursuant to this rule and Article 3 (commencing with Section 8940) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to investigate and make findings and recommendations concerning violations by Members of the Assembly of any provision of Article 2 (commencing with Section 8920) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 2 of the Government Code or of any other provision of law or legislative rule that governs the conduct of Members of the Assembly, hereafter collectively referred to as “standards of conduct.”

(2) The committee may, on its own action pursuant to a vote in accordance with subdivision (n), initiate an investigation of a Member of the Assembly.

(e) Any person may file with the committee a verified complaint in writing, which shall state the name of the Member of the Assembly alleged to have violated any standard of conduct, and which shall set forth the particulars thereof with sufficient clarity and detail to enable the committee to make a determination. The person filing the complaint thereafter shall be designated the complainant.

If a verified complaint is filed with the committee, the committee promptly shall send a copy of the complaint to the Member of the Assembly alleged to have committed the violation complained of, who thereafter shall be designated the respondent.

A complaint may not be filed with the committee after the expiration of 12 months from the date the alleged violation is discovered or three years from the date of the alleged violation, whichever occurs first.

(f)(1) If the committee determines that the verified complaint does not allege facts, directly or upon information and belief, sufficient to constitute a violation of any standard of conduct, it shall dismiss the complaint and so notify the complainant and respondent.

(2)(I) If the committee determines that the verified complaint does allege facts, directly or upon information and belief, sufficient to constitute a violation of any standard of conduct, the committee promptly shall investigate the alleged violation and if, after this preliminary investigation, the committee finds that reasonable cause exists for believing the allegations of the complaint, it shall fix a time for a hearing in the matter, which shall be not more than 30 days after that finding. The committee may, however, seek an extension of this period, not to exceed an additional 30 days, which may be granted by a majority vote of the Committee on Rules.

(ii) If, after preliminary investigation, the committee does not find that reasonable cause exists for believing the allegations of the complaint, the committee shall dismiss the complaint. In either event, the committee shall notify the complainant and the respondent of its determination.

(3) The committee shall make its determination under paragraph (1) or (2) of this subdivision, pursuant to a vote in accordance with subdivision (n), not later than 90 days after first receiving a complaint that satisfies subdivision (e). The committee may, however, seek an extension, not to exceed 30 days, which may be granted by a majority vote of the membership of the Committee on Rules. If the committee has requested a law enforcement agency to investigate the complaint or if the committee knows the complaint is being investigated by a law enforcement agency, the time limits set forth in this subdivision shall be tolled until the investigation is completed.

(4) The committee’s determination under paragraph (1) or (2) of this subdivision shall be stated in writing, with reasons given therefor, and shall be provided to the Assembly, and, in any case concerning an alleged violation of Article 2 (commencing with Section 8920) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 2 of the Government Code, shall be provided to the appropriate law enforcement agency. This written determination is a public record and is open to public inspection.

(5) Any deliberations of the committee from the time of receipt of a complaint until it decides to dismiss the complaint or to set a hearing shall not be open to the public unless the respondent requests a public meeting.

(g) After the complaint has been filed, the respondent shall be entitled to examine and make copies of all evidence in the possession of the committee relating to the complaint.

(h) If a hearing is held pursuant to subdivision (f), the committee, before the hearing has commenced, shall issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum at the request of any party in accordance with Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 9400) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 2 of the Government Code. All of the provisions of that chapter, except Section 9410 of the Government Code, shall apply to the committee and the witnesses before it.

(I) At any hearing held by the committee:

(1) Oral evidence shall be taken on oath or affirmation.

(2) Each party shall have these rights: to be represented by legal counsel; to call and examine witnesses; to introduce exhibits; and to cross-examine opposing witnesses.

(3) The hearing shall be open to the public.

(j) Any official or other person whose name is mentioned at any investigation or hearing of the committee, and who believes that testimony has been given that adversely affects him or her, shall have the right to testify or, at the discretion of the committee, to testify under oath relating solely to the material relevant to the testimony regarding which he or she complains.

(k) The committee shall have 15 days following the hearing within which to deliberate and reach its final determination on the matter as follows:

(1) If the committee finds that the respondent has not violated any standard of conduct, it shall order the action dismissed, shall notify the respondent and complainant thereof, and, in cases concerning an alleged violation of Article 2 (commencing with Section 8920) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 2 of the Government Code, shall transmit a copy of the complaint and the fact of dismissal to the appropriate law enforcement agency. The complaint and the fact of dismissal transmitted pursuant to this paragraph are public records and open to public inspection.

(2) If the committee finds that the respondent has violated any standard of conduct, it shall state its findings of fact and submit a report thereon to the Assembly. This report shall be accompanied by a House Resolution, authored by the committee, which shall be introduced at the Chief Clerk's desk and then referred by the Committee on Rules to the Ethics Committee. The House Resolution shall include a statement of the committee's findings and the committee's recommendation for disciplinary action. Within seven days, the committee shall adopt the final form of the House Resolution and report it to the Assembly for placement on the Daily File. The committee also shall send a copy of those findings and report to the complainant and respondent, and, in cases concerning an alleged violation of Article 2 (commencing with Section 8920) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 2 of the Government Code, shall report thereon to the appropriate law enforcement agency. The report submitted pursuant to this paragraph is a public record and open to public inspection.

After the receipt of a copy of the committee's final report and House Resolution, the Assembly expeditiously shall take appropriate action with respect to the respondent.

(l) The filing of a complaint with the committee pursuant to this rule suspends the running of the statute of limitations applicable to any violation of any standard of conduct alleged in the substance of that complaint while the complaint is pending.

(m) The committee shall maintain a record of its investigations, inquiries, and proceedings. All records, complaints, documents, and reports filed with or submitted to or made by the committee, and all records and transcripts of any investigations, inquiries, or hearings of the committee under this rule shall be deemed confidential and shall not be open to inspection, without the express permission of the committee, by any person other than a member of the committee, or an employee of the committee or other state employee designated to assist the committee, except as otherwise specifically provided in this rule. The committee may, by adoption of a resolution, authorize the release to the Attorney General or a district attorney of the appropriate county of any information, records, complaints, documents, reports, and transcripts in its possession that are material to any matter pending before the Attorney General or that district attorney. All matters presented at a public hearing of the committee and all reports of the committee stating a final finding of fact pursuant to subdivision (k) shall be public records and open to public inspection. Any employee of the committee who divulges any matter that is deemed to be confidential by this subdivision shall be subject to discipline by the Committee on Rules.

(n) The committee may take any action authorized by this rule only upon the vote of not less than two members from the registered political party having the greatest number of Members in the Assembly and two members from the registered political party having the second greatest number of Members. Any vacancy on the committee does not reduce the votes required to take action.

(o) The committee may render advisory opinions to Members of the Assembly with respect to the standards of conduct and their application and construction. The committee may secure an opinion from the Legislative Counsel for this purpose or issue its own opinion. Any committee advisory opinion shall be prepared by committee members or staff and shall be adopted by the committee pursuant to subdivision (n).

(p) The committee shall conduct, at least semiannually, an orientation course on the relevant statutes and regulations governing official conduct. The curriculum and presentation of the course shall be established by the Committee on Rules. At least once each biennial session, each Member of the Assembly and each employee of the Assembly shall attend one of these courses.

(q) Pursuant to Section 8956 of the Government Code, the committee shall do each of the following:

(1) Conduct, at least semiannually, an orientation course on the relevant ethical issues and laws relating to lobbying.

(2) Impose fees on lobbyists for attending the course specified in paragraph (1) at an amount that will permit the participation of lobbyists to the fullest extent possible.

Printing of Committee Reports

23. All requests for the printing of reports of Assembly committees shall be referred to the Committee on Rules. The Committee on Rules shall determine the number of copies needed and whether the report shall be printed in the Journal. In no event may more than 1,000 copies of any committee report be authorized by the Committee on Rules on the first printing, exclusive of the Journal copies if the report is to be printed therein, unless the Committee on Rules finds and determines that there is a special need for that report in greater numbers.

Upon determination by the Committee on Rules that additional copies of an Assembly committee report are required at any time following the first printing of the authorized number of copies, the Committee on Rules may authorize one or more additional printings in the numbers found by it to be necessary and may make funds available therefor.

An Assembly committee report may not contain more than 100 pages, including the front and back cover thereof and any appendix, unless a greater number of pages has been approved and authorized by the Committee on Rules.

24. Every employee who works for a committee of the Assembly or a subcommittee of a committee, for a Member of the Assembly, for the Chief Clerk's office, or for the Sergeant at Arms, is an employee of the Assembly. Every applicant for employment by the Assembly shall prepare a formal application for employment on forms prescribed by the Committee on Rules. The application shall include a statement of his or her present employment, his or her employment during the preceding two years, and other pertinent information that the Committee on Rules may require. All applications shall be retained in the records of the committee.

Every employee shall complete the Assembly ethics course in the first six months of his or her employment. Thereafter, every employee shall take the course in the first six months of every legislative session.

An employee may not engage in any outside business activity or outside employment that is inconsistent, incompatible, or in conflict with his or her functions or responsibilities as an employee of the Assembly. Any employee who engages in any outside business activity or employment that is in any way related to his or her functions or responsibilities as an employee shall promptly notify the Committee on Rules of that business activity or employment.

(f) To mail, before the commencement of each regular session of the Legislature, to each Member a blank form on which the Member may indicate his or her committee preferences. Accompanying the blank form shall be mailed a stamped envelope addressed to the Chief Clerk of the Assembly for returning the form. After their receipt, all those communications shall be held by the Chief Clerk of the Assembly and the information contained in the forms shall be forwarded to the Speaker.

(g) To perform other duties that are prescribed by law or the Committee on Rules.

(h) To make technical changes in measures and amendments pending before the Assembly. The Chief Clerk shall notify the Speaker and the author of the measure of any such change.

(I) To compare all bills, ordered or considered engrossed by the Assembly, with the engrossed copies thereof; before they pass out of the possession of the Assembly, to see that each engrossed bill is a true copy of the original, with those amendments that may have been made thereto; and to see that all engrossed bills are reported back in the order in which they were ordered engrossed.

(j) To assist the Committee on Rules, upon its request, in recommending the reference of bills to the appropriate standing committee.

The Assistant Chief Clerk shall have the powers and perform the duties of the Chief Clerk during his or her absence.

The Chief Assistant Sergeant at Arms shall have the powers and perform the duties of the Sergeant at Arms during his or her absence.

Filling Interim Vacancies—Assembly Elected Officers

34. In the event a vacancy in any office, except Speaker, elected by the membership of the Assembly occurs during joint recesses, the Committee on Rules shall fill the office until the session reconvenes. If a vacancy occurs in the office of the Speaker during a joint recess, the Committee on Rules shall notify the membership within 15 days from the time the vacancy occurs and shall call a caucus of the membership of the Assembly for the purpose of filling the vacancy. This caucus shall be held at the State Capitol within 30 days from the time the vacancy occurs. Notice of the caucus shall be in writing and shall be mailed not less than 10 days prior to the meeting of the caucus. If the Committee on Rules fails to act within 15 days from the time the vacancy in the office of Speaker occurs, the Chief Clerk of the Assembly shall act in its place, following the procedure set forth in this rule. Any person selected to fill any vacancy pursuant to this rule holds the office until the session reconvenes.

An affirmative recorded vote of a majority of the duly elected and qualified Members is required for the selection by the Assembly caucus of a person to fill a vacancy pursuant to this rule. The procedure for selecting the Speaker at the caucus is the same as the procedure required for the election of the Speaker at a session.

B. Printing

Authority for Printing

35. The State Printer may not charge any printing or other work to the Assembly other than as provided by law or Assembly rule, except upon a written order signed by the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or the Chief Administrative Officer of the Assembly. All invoices for printing furnished to the Assembly shall be itemized and rendered by the State Printer within 30 days after completion of the printing. When necessary, the Chief Clerk of the Assembly or the Chief Administrative Officer of the Assembly may order certain printed matter completed in advance of its regular order by the issuance of a rush order.

Ordering of Printing

36. The Chief Clerk is authorized to, and is responsible for, ordering, the printing of bills, resolutions, journals, daily files, histories, and related documents.

The Chief Clerk of the Assembly, or the Chief Administrative Officer of the Assembly, shall order other printing as directed or authorized by the Committee on Rules, and the written order for that printing shall be countersigned by the Speaker or a person designated by the Speaker. The Chief Clerk of the Assembly or the Chief Administrative Officer of the Assembly shall also order other printing as directed or authorized by resolution or motion of the Assembly.

Printing Assembly History and Legislative Handbook

37. During the session, the Chief Clerk shall cause to be printed and placed upon each Member's desk, prior to convening on Monday of each week, a complete history showing all actions taken upon each measure up to and including the legislative day preceding its issuance. For each legislative day intervening between the issuance of each Weekly History, there shall be printed a Daily Supplemental History showing only actions taken upon any measure since the issuance of the preceding Weekly History.

The Chief Clerk of the Assembly shall, as soon as practicable, in each even-numbered year, commence to compile a legislative manual or handbook, pursuant to Section 9740 of the Government Code.

V. LEGISLATIVE PROCEDURE

Order of Business

40. (a) The order of business of the Assembly shall be as follows:

1. Roll Call
2. Prayer by the Chaplain
3. Reading of the Previous Day's Journal
4. Presentation of Petitions
5. Introduction and Reference of Bills
6. Reports of Committees
7. Messages From the Governor
8. Messages From the Senate
9. Motions and Resolutions
10. Business on the Daily File
11. Announcements
12. Adjournment

(b) With the exception of Special Orders of Business, the Speaker may determine that a different order of business will result in a more expeditious processing of the business of the Assembly by ordering resolutions honoring an individual or an organization, introductions, and adjournments in memory of individuals to be taken up in a different order than that listed in subdivision (a).

Pledging of Allegiance to the Flag

41. At each session, following the prayer by the Chaplain, the Members of the Assembly and its officers and employees present in the Assembly Chamber shall pledge their allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America. The Speaker shall invite guests present in the Assembly Chamber to join in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

Reading and Correcting Journals

42. (a) The reading of the Journal of the previous day may be dispensed with, on motion, by a majority vote of the Members present and voting.

(b) All journals of the Assembly shall be corrected by the Minute Clerk and delivered to the Chief Clerk.

(c) A motion to correct any day's Journal or to print a letter in the Journal shall always be in order and shall require a majority vote of the Members present and voting.

Presentation of Petitions

43. Whenever petitions, memorials, or other papers are presented by a Member, a brief statement of the contents thereof may be made verbally by the introducer. Petitions are not debatable and shall be filed, or referred to a committee as the Speaker shall determine. Receipt of that presentation and its disposition shall be noted in the Journal.

Upon receipt of a petition for the impeachment of any person subject to impeachment by the Legislature, the Speaker shall, without comment or debate, forthwith refer the petition to committee.

Messages From the Governor

44. Messages from the Governor shall be delivered to the Chief Clerk or an assistant, and shall be read and ordered printed in the Journal unless otherwise ordered by an affirmative recorded vote of 54 or more Members.

Messages From the Senate

45. Messages from the Senate shall be delivered to the Chief Clerk or an assistant, and shall be read and ordered printed in the Journal. The Committee on Rules shall refer each bill to a committee, unless upon a motion the Assembly, by an affirmative recorded vote of 41 or more Members, refers it to some other committee. The action to refer a bill is not debatable. The reference shall be entered in the Journal. Assembly bills that have been passed without amendment by the Senate shall be ordered to enrollment.

An Assembly bill amended by the Senate shall be placed upon the unfinished business file but shall not be eligible to be acted upon until it is on the unfinished business file for one legislative day, except that when the Assembly bill is placed upon the unfinished business file during the last two legislative days preceding (1) the January 31 bill passage deadline specified by Section 10 of Article IV of the California Constitution, (2) the scheduled commencement of the interim study recess, or (3) the scheduled commencement of the final recess as specified by the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly, it may be acted upon immediately.

Presentation of Guests or Memorials in the Assembly

45.5. These rules do not prohibit the Speaker or Speaker pro Tempore from permitting the introduction of a special guest or guests. A request that a session of the Assembly adjourn in memory of a person shall be made in writing. The request shall be read by the presiding officer immediately prior to adjournment.

A. Bills and Resolutions

Bills Defined

46. (a) The word "bill," as used in these rules, includes a constitutional amendment, a concurrent resolution, and a joint resolution, except as otherwise specifically provided.

(b) A concurrent resolution and a joint resolution, other than a resolution ratifying proposed amendments to the United States Constitution and a resolution calling for a constitutional convention, shall be treated in all respects as a bill except as follows:

- (1) It shall be given only one formal reading.
- (2) It shall not be deemed a bill within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 8 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

Introduction and Reference of Bills

47. (a) Each bill shall be signed by each Member who is an author or coauthor of the bill before it is introduced. If any bill is introduced that does not contain the signature of its author or coauthor, the bill, on motion of the Member whose name appears thereon without that signature, shall be stricken from the file by an affirmative recorded vote of 41 or more Members.

(b) After the introduction of preprinted bills, and subject to the provisions of the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly, any Member desiring to introduce a bill, constitutional amendment, or concurrent or joint resolution may at any time during a session send the same to the Chief Clerk's desk.

(c) When received at the Chief Clerk's desk each bill shall, under the proper order of business, be numbered, read the first time, printed, and referred to a standing committee, and a copy thereof shall be placed upon the desk of each Member before final passage.

All bills and constitutional amendments introduced before the standing committees of the Assembly are appointed shall be referred to committee, the references to take effect when the committees are appointed.

(d) The Committee on Budget may introduce a bill germane to any subject within the jurisdiction of the committee in the same manner as any member. Any other standing committee may introduce a total of five bills in each year of a biennial session that are germane to any subject within the proper consideration of the committee.

(e) No committee, except the Committee on Budget, may introduce or author a House Resolution, Concurrent Resolution, or Joint Resolution.

(f) A committee bill may not be introduced unless it contains the signatures of a majority of all of the members, including the chairperson, of the committee. If all of the members of a committee sign the bill, at the option of the committee chairperson the committee members' names need not appear as authors in the heading of the printed bill.

(g) Subdivision (d) or (e) of this rule may be suspended with respect to a particular bill or resolution by approval of the Committee on Rules.

Bills Authored by a Former Member

47.1. Whenever the author of a bill in the Assembly is no longer a Member of the Legislature, upon a request of a committee or current Member of the house in which the bill was introduced, the Assembly Committee on Rules may authorize that committee or Member to be the author of that bill. Absent that authorization, an action may not be taken by a committee or the Assembly with respect to a bill authored by a former Member.

Limitation on the Introduction of Bills

49. (a) A Member may introduce not more than 40 bills in the regular session. As used in this rule, “bills” includes constitutional amendments.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of this rule, a Member may introduce not more than five resolutions in the regular session. As used in this rule, “resolutions” include House, Concurrent and Joint Resolutions, but do not include resolutions introduced by a Member for the specific purpose of organizing a session that is convened pursuant to Article IV, Section 3 (a) of the State Constitution or resolutions introduced by the Speaker as part of a session honoring a retiring Assembly Member.

(c) This rule may be suspended with respect to a particular bill or resolution by approval of the Committee on Rules.

Reference of Bills to Committee

51. Except as otherwise provided in this rule, the Committee on Rules shall refer each bill to a committee by a majority vote of the membership of the committee, unless upon a motion the Assembly, by an affirmative recorded vote of 41 or more Members, refer it to some other committee. A motion to refer a bill is not debatable, except as to the propriety of the motion, and it may not open the main question to debate.

The Committee on Rules may require that, if a bill is reported out of the committee to which it has been referred, it shall be re-referred to another committee that shares jurisdiction of the subject matter of the bill.

Spot Bills

51.5. A bill that upon introduction makes no substantive change in or addition to existing law, and would not otherwise affect the ongoing operations of state or local government, except a bill stating legislative intent to make necessary statutory changes to implement the Budget Bill, may not be referred to a committee by the Committee on Rules. If the author subsequently proposes to the Committee on Rules to make substantive changes in the bill as introduced, the Committee on Rules may refer the bill to a committee, together with the proposed changes for consideration as author’s amendments. A vote on passage of the bill may not be taken, however, until the bill with its amendments, if adopted, has been in print for at least 15 days.

Delivery of Bills to State Printer

52. After introduction and first reading, all bills shall be delivered to the State Printer.

Resolutions

53. All resolutions shall be numbered and may be referred to the appropriate committee by the Committee on Rules.

Each resolution shall be signed by each Member who is an author or coauthor of the resolution before it is introduced.

Resolutions by Member

54. A concurrent resolution or a house resolution may be introduced relating to a present or former state or federal elected official or a member of his or her immediate family. Other resolutions for the purpose of commendation or congratulation of any person, group, or organization, or for the purpose of expressing sympathy, regret, or sorrow on the death of any person, shall be prepared as a Rules Committee Resolution and presented to the committee for appropriate action.

The Committee on Rules may approve exceptions to this rule for house resolutions. The Chief Clerk may not accept for introduction any house resolution that is contrary to this rule unless it is accompanied by the approval of the Committee on Rules.

B. Standing Committee FunctionsStanding Committee Rules

55. Subject to the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly, the Rules of the Assembly shall govern the conduct of all committee and subcommittee meetings.

Meetings of Standing Committees and Subcommittees

56. All standing committees and subcommittees shall meet at the hour and place provided by the schedule established by the Speaker, unless permission for a different hearing time is granted by the Speaker. A committee or subcommittee may not meet during any session of the Assembly, nor may any Member of the Assembly attend a conference committee meeting on any bill during any session of the Assembly without first obtaining permission from the Assembly.

When an unscheduled meeting of a standing committee or subcommittee has been so ordered, the meeting shall convene in an area that is readily accessible to the public and the Assembly shall take care that every effort is made to inform the public that a meeting has been called. An unscheduled meeting of a committee or subcommittee may not be held in the Assembly Chamber.

No bill may be set for hearing, nor may any notice thereof be published by any Assembly committee or subcommittee, until the bill has been referred to the committee or subcommittee. Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent a committee or subcommittee from acting with regard to a bill referred to it where the only action taken is to cause the bill to be reported to the Assembly with the recommendation that amendments be adopted and the bill be reprinted as amended and re-referred to the committee or subcommittee.

The several standing committees and subcommittees and their chairpersons may adopt a procedure under which bills are scheduled for hearing on the basis of like subject matter groupings.

Setting and Hearing Bills in Committee

56.1. All bills referred to a standing committee pursuant to Assembly Rule 51 shall be set and heard, if requested by the author, as specified by the Joint Rules. If the analysis of an author's amendment that is subsequently adopted pursuant to Assembly Rule 68 discloses that the amendment makes a substantial substantive change to the original bill as referred by the Rules Committee, the bill as amended shall either be set and heard by the committee having jurisdiction of the bill as amended or re-referred to the Committee on Rules pursuant to the Assembly Rules.

Committee Analyses

56.5. Except as otherwise provided in this rule, each standing committee and subcommittee shall prepare an analysis of every bill it has set for hearing, which shall be available to the public in the office of the committee or subcommittee one working day prior to the date on which the hearing is to be held. In the case of a special meeting, or a meeting of the Committee on Appropriations or the Committee on Budget, or their subcommittees, the analysis shall be available to the public at the beginning of the hearing. No question concerning a committee's compliance with this rule with regard to any bill shall be in order following a vote on passage of the bill in that committee. As used in this rule, a "working day" is any day on which a house file is published.

A copy of each committee analysis shall be transmitted by the committee secretary to the Assembly Floor Analysis Unit at the same time it is made available to the public.

Committee Consultants: Floor Analyses

56.6. Except as otherwise provided in this rule, the consultants of a standing committee or subcommittee are responsible for monitoring bills assigned to their respective committee or subcommittee throughout the entire legislative process. Except for resolutions and bills on the Consent Calendar, a consultant of the appropriate standing committee shall prepare, in a timely fashion, an analysis of every bill on third reading or the unfinished business file, and of any amendment to a bill that is on the Assembly floor, as directed by the Assembly Floor Analysis Unit.

The committee consultant who prepares the analysis shall transmit a copy of the completed analysis to the Assembly Floor Analysis Unit. The Assembly Floor Analysis Unit is responsible for final editing for grammar and format of all floor analyses.

Consent Calendar

56.7. If the chairperson of a committee or subcommittee, in advance of a hearing, proposes to recommend any bills for consideration on the Consent Calendar without hearing testimony on those bills in committee, a list of those bills shall be made available to the public at the same time as the committee analysis required under Rule 56.5.

Committee Quorum

57. Except as otherwise provided in this rule, a majority of the membership of any standing committee constitutes a quorum for the transaction of its business, including the decision to recommend the adoption of any amendments to any bill. A majority of the membership of the committee, or a subcommittee thereof, is required to report a bill out of the committee or subcommittee, respectively. Any vacancy on a standing committee shall not reduce the votes required to take action on a bill in that committee.

Whenever a member is disqualified pursuant to Joint Rule 44 or the Political Reform Act of 1974 (Title 9 (commencing with Section 81000) of the Government Code) from voting or taking any other action related to the passage, defeat, or amendment of a bill in committee, that disqualification shall be treated the same as a vacancy. The member shall advise the chairperson of a disqualification, and the chairperson shall announce which members are so disqualified at the commencement of the hearing on the bill.

Reconsideration

57.1. After a committee has voted on a bill, reconsideration may be granted only one time. Pursuant to subdivision (a) of Joint Rule 62, reconsideration may be granted within 15 legislative days or prior to the interim study joint recess, whichever occurs first. A vote on reconsideration may not be taken without the same notice required to set a bill for hearing unless that vote is taken at the same meeting at which the vote to be reconsidered was taken and the author is present. An action taken by a committee may not be reconsidered except by a majority vote of the membership of the committee.

Bills Reported Back to Assembly

58. All committees shall act upon bills referred to them as soon as practicable, and when acted upon each bill shall be reported back to the Assembly forthwith; the chairperson of each committee is charged with the observance of this rule. The chairperson of each committee shall, insofar as practicable, report back bills in the same order as they were acted upon by the committee.

Appropriations Suspense File

58.2. The Committee on Appropriations may maintain a suspense file, to which bills may be referred by vote of a majority of the members of the committee present and voting, pending further consideration by the committee. A bill may be taken off the suspense file and heard, upon two days' notice published in the file, by a vote of a majority of the members of the committee present and voting. A bill removed from the suspense file for the purpose of amendment only, pursuant to Rule 68, shall be re-referred to the committee and shall be placed on the suspense file pending further consideration by the committee.

Voting in Committee

58.5. When a standing committee or subcommittee takes action on a bill, including reconsideration, the vote may be by roll call vote only. All roll call votes taken in a standing committee or subcommittee shall be recorded by the committee secretary on forms provided by the Chief Clerk of the Assembly. The record of a roll call vote shall show, for each proposal voted upon: all votes for and against, all members absent, and all members not voting. The chairperson of each standing committee or subcommittee shall promptly transmit a copy of the record of the roll call votes to the Chief Clerk of the Assembly, who shall cause the votes to be published in an appendix to the Journal on a monthly basis.

The committee secretary of each standing committee or subcommittee shall promptly transmit a copy of the record of the roll call votes to the Assembly Floor Analysis Unit.

A member may submit a written explanation of his or her vote, absence, or failure to vote on any bill or resolution, and that explanation shall be printed in the appendix to the Journal in the appropriate place, provided that no explanation may exceed 50 words in length.

At the request of the author or any member of the committee, the committee shall hold the roll open on any Assembly bill until the adjournment of the committee meeting. At no time may a bill be passed out by a committee without a quorum being present.

This rule does not apply to any of the following:

- (a) Adoption of author's amendments to a bill.
- (b) Withdrawal of a bill from a committee calendar at the request of an author.
- (c) Return of bills to the house where the bills have not been voted on by the committee.
- (d) Votes of subcommittees of the Committee on Budget when considering the Budget Bill.
- (e) Votes of the Committee on Rules when referring bills to committees.

Subject Matter of Bill Recommended for Interim Study

59. Whenever it is the decision of a standing committee that a bill referred to that committee shall not be given a do-pass recommendation, but that the subject matter of the bill should be referred for study, that standing committee shall retain the bill in its possession and report its recommendation to the Assembly that the subject matter of the bill be referred to the Committee on Rules for that committee's assignment of the subject matter to an appropriate committee.

Nothing in this rule shall be construed to prohibit a committee from subsequently reporting the bill to the Assembly with a do-pass or do-pass as amended recommendation or from reporting it out of committee without further action on the final day of the session.

Committee Chairperson as Author

60. A chairperson of a standing committee may not preside at a committee hearing to consider a bill of which he or she is the sole author or the lead author, except that the Chairperson of the Committee on Budget may preside at the hearing of the Budget Bill by the Committee on Budget.

Reports of Committees

61. Specially prepared reports of standing and special committees shall be delivered to the Chief Clerk or an assistant, and shall be read and ordered printed in the Journal unless otherwise ordered by the Speaker or a majority vote of the Members present and voting.

When a report of a joint legislative committee is delivered to the Assembly Desk, the Speaker shall refer it to a standing committee for review and appropriate action.

Constitutional Amendments

62.5. All constitutional amendments shall be referred to the policy standing committee having jurisdiction of that subject matter and, upon being reported out of that committee, shall be re-referred to the committee having constitutional amendments within its jurisdiction.

C. Passage of Bills

Daily File

63. There shall be printed an Assembly Daily File for each legislative day. The following listing shall constitute the order of business on the Daily File:

1. Special Orders of the Day
2. Second Reading, Assembly Bills
3. Second Reading, Senate Bills
4. Unfinished Business
5. Third Reading, Assembly Bills
6. Third Reading, Senate Bills

All bills on the Daily File shall be called for consideration, provided that Rule 58 has been complied with in the order of their listing. All scheduled committee hearings, together with the list of bills to be heard, shall be published in the Daily File.

Copies of Bills for Action on Floor

64. A bill may not be considered or acted upon on the floor of the Assembly unless and until a copy of the bill as introduced, and a copy of each amended form of the bill, has been distributed to the desk of each Member in hard copy or in portable document format (PDF) via computer.

Second Reading of Bills

66. All bills shall be read by title the second time in the order of their appearance upon the second reading file. Upon second reading, Assembly bills reported without amendments shall be ordered engrossed, and Senate bills reported without amendments shall be ordered to third reading. All bills reported out of committee shall be placed on the second reading file for the next legislative day, and may not be read a second time until the next legislative day under that order of business. As used in this rule, "bill" does not include a joint or concurrent resolution, but does include a constitutional amendment.

Bills Requiring General Fund Appropriation

66.6. Until the Budget Bill has been enacted, the Assembly may not send to the Governor for consideration any bill appropriating funds for expenditure during the fiscal year for which the Budget Bill is to be enacted, except emergency bills recommended by the Governor or appropriations for the salaries and expenses of the Legislature.

Passage of Budget Bill

66.7. The Budget Bill may not be voted upon for final passage on the floor of the Assembly unless it complies with subdivision (f) of Section 12 of Article IV and Sections 1.3 and 20 of Article XVI of the California Constitution.

Committee Amendments

67. Committee amendments reported with bills shall be considered upon their second reading, and the amendments may be adopted by majority vote of the Members present and voting. Assembly and Senate bills amended on second reading by committee amendment shall be ordered reprinted and returned to the second reading file. Assembly bills so amended shall be engrossed after printing.

Committee amendments reported with bills shall be prepared, or approved as to form, by the Legislative Counsel. Five copies of the committee amendments to Assembly bills and five copies of the committee amendments to Senate bills shall be delivered to the Chief Clerk's desk.

The Chief Clerk shall cause to be transmitted to the Assembly Floor Analysis Unit a copy of each committee report and committee amendment, unless the committee report or committee amendment is relative to a joint, concurrent, or house resolution.

Adoption of amendments to any bill in the Assembly prior to third reading, other than by a roll call, shall not preclude subsequent consideration in committee, or on the third reading by the Assembly, of the bill, those amendments, or any part thereof.

Author's Amendments

68. Upon request of the author of a bill, the chairperson of the committee to which the bill has been referred may, by his or her individual action taken independently of any committee meeting, cause the bill to be reported to the Assembly with the recommendation that amendments submitted by the author be adopted and the bill be reprinted as amended and re-referred to the committee.

Notwithstanding any other rule, a bill to be amended pursuant to this rule may not be placed on the second reading file for the adoption of those amendments.

Vote on Passage of Bill as Amended

68.5. Except as otherwise provided in this rule, a vote on passage of any bill in a standing committee or subcommittee shall be taken only when the bill is in print, including any previously adopted amendments to the bill. A vote on passage of an amended bill, when the amended form of the bill is not in print, may be taken only if the sole effect of the amendment is to add coauthors to the bill or if the committee determines that the effect of the amendment upon the bill can be readily understood by all of the members and audience present at the hearing. In that circumstance, any member may require that the amendments be in writing at the time of their adoption.

Bill Analysis Prior to Third Reading

68.6. A bill, concurrent resolution, or joint resolution may not be considered on third reading unless and until an analysis of the measure has been distributed by the Assembly Floor Analysis Unit and placed upon the desks of the Members, unless otherwise ordered by the Speaker.

Analysis of Conference Committee Amendments

68.7. A report of a conference committee on any bill, other than the Budget Bill, that recommends the substantive amendment of a bill may not be considered unless and until an analysis of the proposed amendment has been distributed by the Assembly Floor Analysis Unit and placed upon the desks of the Members, unless otherwise ordered by the Speaker.

Printing of Conference Committee Reports

68.8. A conference report may not be heard by the Assembly until it has been in print for two days prior to being taken up by the house.

Conference Committee: Substantial Policy Change

68.9. (a) A conference committee on any bill, other than the Budget Bill or a bill that is making statutory changes to implement the Budget Bill, may not approve any substantial policy change in any bill if that substantial policy change has been defeated in a policy committee of the Assembly within the current legislative session. For purposes of this rule, the most recent action of a policy committee with regard to a substantial policy change is deemed the only action taken when the policy committee has taken inconsistent actions with respect to a substantial policy change.

(b) For purposes of subdivision (d) of Joint Rule 29.5, the term “heard” means that a printed bill with substantially similar language was before the appropriate committee and taken up at a regular or special hearing of the committee during the current legislative session; or that an amendment, which was drafted and given a request number or approved as to form by the Legislative Counsel, was before the committee and taken up at a regular or special hearing of the committee.

Amendments From the Floor

69. (a) Any Member may move to amend a bill during its second or third reading, and that motion to amend may be adopted by a majority vote of the Members present and voting.

Amendments to a bill offered from the floor, except committee amendments reported with bills, amendments offered with a motion to amend and re-refer a bill to committee, amendments deleting any number of words, or amendments previously printed in the Journal, are not in order unless and until a copy of the proposed amendments has been placed upon the desks of the Members. A copy of a bill that has been amended only to add coauthors to the bill is not required to be placed upon the desks of the Members if both the Speaker and Minority Leader grant an exemption.

Amendments offered from the floor during a bill’s second or third reading shall be prepared, or approved as to form, by the Legislative Counsel.

Before debate five copies of the proposed amendment to Assembly bills, and five copies of the proposed amendments to Senate bills, shall be delivered to the Chief Clerk’s desk. One copy of the proposed amendment shall be transmitted by the Chief Clerk to the Assembly Floor Analysis Unit. Bills so amended upon second or third reading shall be reprinted and re-engrossed. The Chief Clerk shall order printed as many copies of all amended bills as he or she may determine to be necessary.

(b)(1) Amendments from the floor during a bill’s second or third reading that would make a substantive change in the bill shall be submitted to the Chief Clerk’s desk by 5:00 p.m. or the time of adjournment, whichever is later, the business day before the start of session on the legislative day at which they are to be considered.

(2) Upon receipt of the proposed amendments by the Chief Clerk, an analysis shall be prepared by the committee of origin in conjunction with the Assembly Floor Analysis Unit, and a copy of that analysis shall be distributed to each Member’s desk prior to the beginning of debate on adoption of the proposed amendments, unless otherwise ordered by the Speaker.

(3) As used in this subdivision, “bill” does not include a joint or concurrent resolution, but does include a constitutional amendment.

(c) Paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) does not apply to (1) amendments to a bill taken up without reference to file, (2) amendments to a bill to add or delete an urgency clause, (3) amendments to a bill that are identical to other amendments submitted to the Chief Clerk’s desk in accordance with the requirements of this rule, (4) amendments to the Budget Bill or to a bill that is making statutory changes necessary to implement the Budget Bill, or (5) amendments to a bill to make the bill contingent upon the enactment of another bill, or to incorporate one or more statutory amendments proposed in another bill to avoid superseding those amendments.

(d) Any bill amended on the second or third reading file shall be ordered reprinted and returned to the third reading file, and may not be acted on by the Assembly until the bill, as amended, has been on the Daily File for one calendar day. This subdivision does not apply to a bill that is amended to add or delete an urgency clause or to a bill that is amended to make statutory changes to implement the Budget Bill.

(e) A motion to amend a bill on the second or third reading file, other than committee amendments reported pursuant to Rule 57, is not in order on (1) the last two legislative days preceding the January 31 bill passage deadline specified by Section 10 of Article IV of the California Constitution or (2) the last seven days preceding the scheduled commencement of the interim study recess or the scheduled commencement of the final recess as specified by the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly. This subdivision may be suspended temporarily by two-thirds vote of the Members present and voting. This subdivision does not apply to amendments to a bill pursuant to Joint Rule 23.5, amendments to a bill to add or delete an urgency clause, or amendments to a bill to incorporate one or more statutory amendments proposed in another bill to avoid superseding those amendments.

Consideration of Political Reform Act Bills

69.1. Pursuant to Section 81012 of the Government Code, any bill that would amend the Political Reform Act of 1974 (Title 9 (commencing with Section 81000) of the Government Code) may not be passed until, 12 days prior to being considered for passage, the bill in its final form has been delivered by the Chief Clerk to the Fair Political Practices Commission for distribution to the news media and to every person who has requested the commission to send a copy of any such bill to him or her.

Electronic Distribution of Bills, Conference Reports, Amendments, and Analyses

69.5. Any requirement that bills, conference reports, amendments, or an analysis be placed on the desks of the Members is satisfied by electronic distribution of the same information in portable document format (PDF) via computer to the desk of the Members through the Assembly Floor System, unless otherwise ordered by the Speaker.

Consideration of Bills Re-referred to Committee

70. Whenever a bill that has been amended and re-referred to committee is reported out by that committee, it shall be placed on the second reading file and may not be transferred therefrom to the third reading file until the following day.

Uncontested Bills

71. A bill may not be placed on the Assembly Consent Calendar unless it has met the requirements of Joint Rule 22.1 with respect to each Assembly standing committee to which the bill has been referred.

Consideration of Concurrent and Joint Resolutions

73. A concurrent or joint resolution may be amended by a majority vote of the Members present and voting. The ayes and noes may not be called upon the adoption of concurrent resolutions, except those authorizing expenditures of money, unless regularly demanded, or required by statute or the California Constitution.

Adoption of Resolutions

74. Any resolution upon which a roll call vote is demanded requires an affirmative recorded vote of 41 or more Members for adoption.

The adoption of any resolution authorizing the expenditure of money requires an affirmative recorded vote of 41 or more Members.

Printing of Resolutions

75. When any previously printed house resolution is before the Assembly for adoption, it may be printed in the Journal only if amendments to it have been adopted, in which case it shall be printed as amended. In the absence of those amendments, house resolutions before the Assembly for adoption shall be referred to by day and page of the Journal as printed upon introduction. For the purposes of this rule, the adding of a coauthor shall not be deemed an amendment.

Concurrence in Senate Amendments

77. Concurrence in any Senate Amendment to an Assembly bill requires the same affirmative recorded vote as the vote required by the California Constitution for the passage of the bill. A vote on concurrence may not be taken until the bill has been on the unfinished business file for one calendar day, except that when the bill is placed upon the unfinished business file during the last two legislative days preceding (1) the January 31 bill passage deadline specified by Section 10 of Article IV of the California Constitution, (2) the scheduled commencement of the interim study recess, or (3) the scheduled commencement of the final recess as specified by the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly, it may be acted upon immediately. The vote on concurrence shall be deemed the vote upon final passage of the bill.

Senate amendments to Assembly bills may not be concurred in unless and until an analysis of the measure has been distributed by the Assembly Floor Analysis Unit and a copy placed upon the desks of the Members, unless otherwise ordered by the Speaker. As used in this rule, "bill" does not include a joint or concurrent resolution, but does include a constitutional amendment.

Digest of Bills Amended in Senate

77.1. Whenever the Senate amends and passes an Assembly bill, the Legislative Counsel shall, within one day after the bill is passed by the Senate, prepare and transmit to the Chief Clerk and the Speaker a brief digest summarizing the effect of the Senate amendment. Upon receipt from the Legislative Counsel, the Chief Clerk shall cause the digest to be printed in the Daily File immediately following any reference in the file to the bill covered by the digest.

Substantially Amended Bills

77.2. If the analysis of an amendment adopted on the floor discloses that the amendment makes a substantial substantive change to a bill as passed by the last committee of reference, the bill, as amended, may be referred by the Speaker to the appropriate committee.

A bill that was previously reported from a policy or fiscal committee of reference in compliance with Joint Rule 61 is not subject to the deadlines in Joint Rule 61 if the bill is subsequently referred to a policy or fiscal committee pursuant to this rule.

If the digest to an Assembly Bill that has been returned to the Assembly by the Senate for concurrence in Senate amendments discloses that the Senate has made a substantial substantive change in the bill as first passed by the Assembly, the bill may be referred by the Speaker to the appropriate committee.

Inactive File

78. Whenever a bill has been passed twice on the third reading file on two successive legislative days, it shall be placed forthwith upon a special file to be known as the inactive file. A bill also may be placed on the inactive file at the request of the author. When a bill has been placed on the inactive file, it may be returned to the third reading file by request of the author. Notice of the request to return the bill to the third reading file shall be published one day in advance in the Assembly File. The bill, when returned to the third reading file, shall then be placed at the foot of the third reading file.

When a bill, placed on the inactive file from the second reading file or the unfinished business file, is removed from the inactive file, it shall be returned to the foot of the second reading file or the unfinished business file, respectively, in the next published Daily File.

Engrossing and Enrolling Bills

79. The Engrossing and Enrolling Clerk shall engross and enroll all bills that come to his or her hands for that purpose, in compliance with the provisions of Section 9503 of the Government Code, and in the order of time in which the same shall be acted upon by the Assembly.

After final passage by both houses, any Assembly bill not amended by the Senate shall be ordered by the Speaker forthwith to be enrolled, as provided in Sections 9508 and 9509 of the Government Code. The Chief Clerk shall report both the day and hour each enrolled bill is presented to the Governor, which report shall be entered in the Journal.

VI. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDUREA. Motions and Questions*Precedence of Motions During Debate

80. When a question is under debate or before the Assembly, no motions shall be received but the following, which shall take precedence in the order named:

- First—To adjourn;
- Second—To recess to a time certain;
- Third—To lay on the table;
- Fourth—For the previous question;
- Fifth—To set as a special order;

- Sixth—To postpone indefinitely;
- Seventh—To refer to or to re-refer;
- Eighth—To amend.

Questions of Order Decided Without Debate

81. All incidental questions of order, arising after a motion is made for any of the questions named in Rule 80 and pending that motion, shall be decided by the Speaker without debate, whether on appeal or otherwise.

Appeal From Decision of the Speaker

82. Any Member may appeal from a decision of the Speaker without waiting for recognition by the Speaker, even though another Member has the floor. An appeal is not in order when another is pending, or when other business has been transacted by the Assembly prior to the appeal being taken. Upon the appeal being seconded, the Speaker may give his or her reasons for the decision, and the Member making the appeal may give his or her reasons for the appeal, and the Speaker forthwith shall put one of the following questions to the Assembly:

- (1) "Shall the decision of the Speaker be sustained?"
- (2) "Shall the decision of the Speaker be overruled?"

An appeal may not be amended and yields only to a motion to recess or adjourn, or to lay on the table, or a question of personal privilege. If an appeal is laid on the table, that action shall have no effect on the pending question.

An appeal may not be debated when relating to indecorum, the transgression of rules, or the priority of business. A majority vote of the Members present and voting decides any appeal. In the event of a tie vote, the appeal is lost.

Speaker Explains Order of Business

83. The Speaker may, on his or her own motion or the motion of any Member, explain the order of business when the motion pending before the Assembly is not debatable. That explanation may not consume more than two minutes.

To Adjourn

84. A motion to adjourn is not debatable and may not be amended, and is always in order, except: (a) when another Member has the floor; (b) when the Assembly is voting; or (c) during a call of the Assembly. The name of any Member moving an adjournment, and the hour at which the motion was made and adjournment taken, shall be entered in the Journal. A motion to adjourn shall be adopted by a majority vote of the Members present and voting.

When a motion to adjourn is made and seconded, it shall be in order for the Speaker, before putting the question, to permit any Member to state to the Assembly any fact relating to the condition of the business of the Assembly which would seem to render it improper or inadvisable to adjourn. That statement may not occupy more than two minutes and is not debatable.

An affirmative recorded vote of a majority of the duly elected and qualified Members is required to adjourn any session of the Assembly sine die.

To Recess to a Time Certain

85. A motion to recess to a time certain is treated the same as a motion to adjourn, except that the motion is debatable when no business is before the Assembly, and can be amended as to the time and duration of the recess. It yields only to a motion to adjourn.

To Lay on the Table

86. A motion to lay on the table is not debatable and may not be amended.

A motion to table a bill, constitutional amendment, or concurrent or joint resolution is adopted by an affirmative recorded vote of 41 or more Members.

Any motion to lay on the table, if carried by 41 or more votes, carries with it the main question and everything that adheres to it, except that a motion to lay an amendment on the table, if adopted, does not carry with it a bill, constitutional amendment, or concurrent, joint, or house resolution.

A motion to lay an amendment on the table is adopted by a majority vote of the Members present and voting.

A motion to lay on the table may not be applied with respect to reconsideration.

The Previous Question

87. The previous question shall be put only when demanded by five Members, and its effect, when sustained by a majority vote of the Members present and voting, shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the Assembly to a vote only on the question then pending, except that the proponent of the matter pending shall be allowed not more than five minutes to close the debate.

Motion to Set Special Order

88. A motion to set any matter before the Assembly as a special order of business is adopted by an affirmative recorded vote of 54 or more members. The motion is debatable only as to the propriety of setting the main question as a special order of business, and may be amended only as to the time.

Motion to Postpone to a Time Certain

89. A motion to postpone to a time certain is deemed and treated as a motion to set as a special order.

Motion to Postpone Indefinitely

90. The making of a motion to postpone indefinitely any bill, motion, or amendment opens the main question to debate. If the motion to postpone indefinitely prevails by an affirmative recorded vote of 41 or more Members, the main question may not be acted upon again during the session.

Motion to Amend

91. A motion to amend may itself be amended, but an “amendment to an amendment” may not be amended. A motion to substitute is deemed to be a motion to amend and is considered the same as an amendment.

Only one substitute is in order when an amendment is pending. A motion to amend or to substitute is debatable, except where the main question to be amended is not debatable. Any motion to amend may be adopted by a majority vote of the Members present and voting.

A motion to amend that is decided in the negative is not again in order on the same day, or at the same stage of proceeding. The fact that a motion to amend by striking out certain words is decided in the negative does not preclude a motion to amend by adding words, or a motion to amend by striking out and inserting words, except that in no case may a further amendment be substantially the same as the one rejected.

Subject to the above provisions of this rule and Rule 69, a motion to amend is in order during the second or third reading of any bill.

Amendment To Be Germane

92. An amendment to any bill, other than a bill stating legislative intent to make necessary statutory changes to implement the Budget Bill, whether reported by a committee or offered by a Member, is not in order when the amendment relates to a different subject than, is intended to accomplish a different purpose than, or requires a title essentially different than, the original bill.

A motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration may not be admitted as an amendment.

An amendment is not in order that changes the original number of any bill.

A Member may not be added or deleted as an author or coauthor of a bill or resolution without his or her consent.

Consideration of Motions

93. A motion, whether oral or written, may not be adopted until it is seconded and distinctly stated to the Assembly by the Speaker.

Motions in Writing

94. Upon request of the Speaker, all motions shall be reduced to writing and shall be read to the Assembly by the Speaker before being acted upon.

Withdrawal of Motions

95. After a motion is stated by the Speaker, or a bill, resolution, or petition is read by the Chief Clerk, it is in the possession of the Assembly.

Motion to Withdraw or Re-refer Bills

96. (a) A motion to withdraw a bill or resolution from committee, or to re-refer a bill or resolution from one committee to another committee, may be made during the regular order of business. A motion to re-refer may be debated only as to the propriety of the reference, and shall require an affirmative recorded vote of 41 or more Members.

(b) A bill or resolution may not be withdrawn from committee and placed upon the file, unless a motion to withdraw has been heard by, and has been approved by a majority vote of, the Committee on Rules. This subdivision does not apply to a bill in a fiscal committee that has been amended so as not to require its reference to a fiscal committee, as indicated by the Legislative Counsel's Digest.

(c) A motion to continue a motion to withdraw a bill or resolution from committee requires a majority of those members present and voting. A motion to withdraw a motion to withdraw is not in order.

Re-reference of Measures on File

97. A motion to re-refer a bill or resolution that is on the Assembly Daily File to committee may be made during the regular order of business. The motion is debatable only as to the propriety of that reference and shall require an affirmative recorded vote of 41 or more Members.

Bills Stricken From File

98. A motion to strike from the file any bill or resolution requires an affirmative recorded vote of 41 or more Members. That bill or resolution may not be acted upon again during the session.

Motion to Rescind Action or Expunge Record

99. Previous to the approval of the Journal by the Assembly, any action may be rescinded and its record ordered expunged by the affirmative recorded vote sufficient to take that action originally, except that an action may not be rescinded and the record expunged by a vote less than an affirmative recorded vote of 41 or more Members. A motion to rescind the action and expunge the record may not be made twice on the same proposition.

A motion to rescind is not in order on any matter upon which a vote to reconsider has previously been taken in the Assembly.

Whenever any action of the Assembly is rescinded and its record ordered expunged, the record of the action expunged may not appear in any form whatsoever, except that the record of the proceedings on the motion to rescind and expunge shall appear in the Journal as and when printed.

Reconsideration of Vote

100. (a) A motion to reconsider a vote on the next legislative day shall be made on the same day the vote to be reconsidered was taken. A motion to reconsider may not be adopted unless it receives an affirmative recorded vote of 41 or more Members. A motion to reconsider may be voted on without a second.

A motion to reconsider a vote shall be made by a Member voting on the question, and takes precedence over all motions, except a motion to adjourn. Upon that motion being made, the matter to be reconsidered forthwith shall be placed upon the unfinished business file, and further action may not be taken prior to the next legislative day. When a motion to reconsider has once been made, the motion is the property of the Assembly. When reconsideration is granted, the matter to be reconsidered shall be before the Assembly in the same status it had prior to the vote being reconsidered.

(b)(1) Interim Study Recess:

No motion to reconsider the vote whereby amendments are concurred in on Assembly bills, the vote whereby a Senate bill is passed and returned to the Senate, or the vote whereby a conference committee report is adopted is in order on the last two legislative days preceding the interim study recess.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby amendments are refused concurrence on Assembly bills, the vote whereby Senate bills are refused passage, or the vote whereby a conference committee report is refused adoption is in order on the last legislative day preceding the interim study recess. The motion may be taken up before the end of that legislative day.

As used in this paragraph, “bill” does not include a joint or concurrent resolution.

(2) January 31—Even-numbered Year:

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby an Assembly bill is passed to the Senate is not in order on the last two legislative days preceding January 31 of the even-numbered year.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby an Assembly bill is refused passage on its third reading is in order on the last legislative day preceding January 31 of the even-numbered year. The motion must be taken up before the end of that legislative day.

As used in this paragraph, “bill” does not include a Senate bill, a constitutional amendment, or a joint or concurrent resolution.

(3) Spring or Summer Recess:

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby a bill is passed is not in order on the last two legislative days preceding the Spring or Summer Recess as established by the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly.

(4) Deadline for Passage by House:

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby an Assembly bill is passed to the Senate is not in order on the last two legislative days preceding the last day for the Assembly to pass a bill introduced in the Assembly, as set forth in the Joint Rules of the Senate and the Assembly.

As used in this paragraph, “bill” does not include a Senate bill, a constitutional amendment, or a joint or concurrent resolution.

(5) Final Recess:

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby a bill is passed is not in order on the last two legislative days preceding the final recess.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby a bill is defeated is in order on the day of the final recess. The motion must be taken up before the end of that legislative day.

(c) Any Member voting on any matter may move to take up on the same day the motion, previously made by another Member, to reconsider the vote on that matter. A motion to take up on the same day a motion to reconsider the vote on a bill requires an affirmative recorded vote of at least 41 Members. A motion to take up on the same day a motion to reconsider the vote on any motion, amendment, Assembly resolution, or proposition other than a bill requires an affirmative vote of a majority vote of the Members present and voting. The motion to take up the reconsideration on the same day takes precedence over the motion to reconsider and, upon demand of any Member, the motion to take up the reconsideration on the same day shall be put to an immediate vote. If the motion to take up the reconsideration on the same day is adopted, the motion to reconsider is the next order of business before the Assembly.

(d) A second motion to reconsider the same question is not in order, nor is a motion to reconsider reconsideration in order.

(e) A motion to continue a motion to reconsider requires a majority vote of those Members present and voting.

Call of Assembly

101. After the roll has been called, and prior to the announcement of the vote, any Member may move a call of the Assembly. The Members present may order a call of the Assembly by a majority vote of the Members present and voting, and the Speaker shall immediately order the Sergeant at Arms to lock all doors and direct the Chief Clerk to prepare a list of absentees as disclosed by the last roll call. The list of absentees shall be furnished to the Sergeant at Arms, whereupon no Members shall be permitted to leave the Assembly Chamber except by written permission of the Speaker, and a person may not be permitted to enter except Members, Senators, or officers, or employees of the Legislature in the official performance of their duties.

Each Member who is found to be absent, and for whom a leave of absence has not been granted, shall be forthwith taken into custody wherever found by the Sergeant at Arms, his or her assistants, or any person designated by the Sergeant at Arms, including members of the California Highway Patrol, and sheriffs or their deputies, and brought to the Assembly Chamber.

A recess or adjournment may not be taken during a call of the Assembly. Additional business may be conducted and calls placed regardless of the number of calls in effect. A call of the Assembly may be dispensed with at any time upon a majority vote of the Members present, that action to become effective upon the completion of the roll call and the announcement of the vote upon the matter for which the call was ordered, unless, prior to the announcement of the vote, the call is continued by a majority vote of the Members present.

Division of Question

102. Any Member may call for a division of the question, and the Speaker shall order the question divided if it comprehends propositions in substance so distinct that, one being taken away, a substantive proposition would remain for the decision of the Assembly. This rule does not apply to an individual bill or resolution.

B. VotingMembers Voting

104. Every Member in the Assembly Chamber when a roll call is required shall record his or her vote openly and without debate, unless the Assembly excuses that member by a majority vote of the Members present and voting.

A Member may not operate the voting switch of any other Member, except that a Member presiding at the time of a roll call, who is not the Speaker or the Speaker pro Tempore, may direct another Member on the floor to operate the voting switch of the presiding Member, and any Member so presiding, including the Speaker and the Speaker pro Tempore, may also operate the voting switches at the rostrum of the Speaker and the Speaker pro Tempore, at their direction.

The name of any Member who refuses to vote as required by this rule, after being requested by the Speaker to do so, shall be entered in the Journal, together with a statement that he or she was present and did so refuse to vote. Any Member who refuses so to vote may, if he or she so desires, and immediately after the announcement of the vote, submit a written explanation of the failure to vote and that explanation shall be printed in the Journal, provided that no explanation may exceed 50 words in length.

In addition to the entry of his or her name in the Journal, any Member who refuses so to vote when required, and who has not been excused from doing so, may, immediately after the announcement of the vote, at the discretion of the Speaker or upon demand of any Member, be summoned to appear before the bar of the Assembly for public censure by the Speaker or by any Member designated by the Speaker. Censure of a Member as provided by this rule does not constitute a bar to proceedings for his or her expulsion from the Assembly pursuant to Section 5 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

A Member may submit a written explanation of his or her vote on any bill or house resolution, and that explanation shall be printed in the Journal immediately following the vote, provided that no explanation may exceed 50 words in length.

A Member, prior to adjournment on the same legislative day, in the absence of any objection, may instruct the Chief Clerk to add his or her vote to any previously announced vote that had been taken during his or her absence, so long as the outcome of the vote is not thereby changed. The Chief Clerk shall record any vote additions or vote changes in the order signed by the Members at the Clerk's desk.

Ayes and Noes

105. The ayes and noes shall be recorded by the electrical voting system on the final passage of all bills, when an affirmative recorded vote of 41 Members or any vote above that number is required, when demanded by three Members, or when ordered by the Speaker. The names of the Members so voting shall be entered in the Journal.

Voting and Vote Changes

106. When once begun, voting may not be interrupted, except that, before the vote is announced, any Member may have the total pending vote flashed on the visible vote recorder. Prior to the announcement of the vote, the presiding officer shall instruct the Chief Clerk to record verbal votes from Members not at their desks. Any Member may move a call of the Assembly after the completion of the roll. A Member, prior to adjournment on the same legislative day, and in the absence of any objection, may instruct the Chief Clerk to change his or her recorded vote after the vote is announced, so long as the outcome of the vote is not thereby changed. The Chief Clerk may record any vote change only after the Member making the change has announced it to the Assembly.

Tie Vote

107. In case of an equal division, or tie vote, the question shall be lost.

VII. MEMBERS' DECORUM AND PRIVILEGES

Order in Speaking to Questions

108. When a Member desires to address the Assembly, the Member shall rise from his or her seat and respectfully address himself or herself to "Mr. Speaker" or "Madame Speaker." Upon being recognized, the Member may speak, confining himself or herself to the question under consideration. When two or more Members rise at the same time, the Speaker shall designate the Member who is entitled to the floor.

A Member may not speak more than once during the consideration of any one question on the same day and at the same stage of proceeding, except that the author of a bill or resolution or the mover of a question has the right to open and close the debate thereon. A Member may not be allowed to speak more than five minutes to open and five minutes to close the debate on any question, including amendments, and no Member other than the author or the mover of the question may be allowed to speak more than five minutes thereon. A Member may not yield to any other Member the time for which he or she is entitled to speak on any matter.

Rules of Decorum

108.1. (a) In accordance with Rule 10, Members of the Assembly shall conduct themselves in accordance with the rules of decorum specified in Sections 120 to 126, inclusive, of Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the Committee on Rules may adopt additional rules of decorum by majority vote of the membership of the committee.

Motions

109. When a Member desires to make a motion, the Member shall obtain recognition as provided in Rule 108. Upon being recognized, the Member shall open by stating his or her motion, except in the case of a nomination, and in any other case may not speak to the merits of the motion at that time, but shall confine his or her remarks to those necessary to explain the motion. If the motion is in order and is seconded, it shall be stated to the Assembly by the Speaker. If the motion is debated, the Member who made it shall then be entitled to recognition to open the debate on the motion.

When a Member obtains the floor during debate upon any question that is pending before the Assembly and addresses the Assembly regarding the merits of the pending question, the Member may not be permitted to conclude his or her debate by making any motion or by demanding the previous question.

Leave of Absence

110. A Member may not absent himself or herself from attendance at any session of the Assembly without leave of the Assembly. A Member may not obtain that leave of absence or be excused for nonattendance except by a vote of 54 or more Members or by unanimous consent. A Member who obtains a leave of absence for personal business, or is excused for nonattendance for personal business, thereby waives his or her per diem allowance for attendance upon any session of the Legislature for which he or she secures that leave of absence or excuse. A Member may not obtain a leave of absence for legislative business or be excused for nonattendance for legislative business unless the Member has filed with the Speaker a statement of the legislative business for which he or she seeks that leave of absence or excuse. That statement shall be printed in the Journal.

If a Member is not recorded on the attendance roll within 30 minutes after the scheduled start of the session, the Member shall stand up before the Assembly and explain the reason he or she is late before he or she is recorded on the roll call for any vote. If a Member does not explain his or her reason for being late, any other Member may raise a point of order under this rule, whereupon the tardy Member's vote may not be recorded until an explanation is made.

Personal Privilege

111. Any Member may rise to explain a matter of personal privilege. A matter of personal privilege is a matter involving the Member's integrity, dignity, or honor. Upon rising to explain such a matter, the Member forthwith shall be recognized by the Speaker, but may not discuss a question in that explanation. Matters of personal privilege yield only to a motion to recess or adjourn.

Objection to Reading of Any Paper

112. Any Member, upon recognition by the Speaker, may object to the reading of any paper before the Assembly. When that objection is made, the question of reading shall be determined without debate by a majority vote of the Members present and voting, upon a brief statement by the Speaker of the substance of the objection.

Members at Chief Clerk's Desk

113. A Member or other person may not be allowed at the Chief Clerk's desk while the ayes and noes are being recorded or the votes counted.

Members Called to Order for Transgressing Rules

114. If any Member transgresses the Rules of the Assembly, the Speaker shall, or any Member may, call the offending Member to order. The Member so called to order immediately shall take his or her seat, until the Speaker, without debate, has determined whether the Member is in order. That decision by the Speaker shall be subject to an appeal to the Assembly.

If any Member is called to order for offensive words spoken in debate, the person calling him or her to order shall state to the Assembly the words to which exception is taken. No Member may be held to answer, or be subject to censure by the Assembly, for language used in debate if other business has been transacted by the Assembly prior to exception being taken to the words spoken.

VIII. MISCELLANEOUS

Committee of the Whole

115. The Assembly may resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole at any time by a majority vote of the Members present and voting. While sitting as that committee, persons other than Members may address the committee. The Speaker of the Assembly, or any Member named by the Speaker, shall preside as Chairperson of the Committee of the Whole.

A motion that the Committee of the Whole "do now rise and report back to the Assembly," shall always be in order and shall be decided without debate. All actions of the Committee of the Whole shall be reported to the Assembly by the chairperson, but may not be entered in the Journal except upon motion and a majority vote of the Members present and voting.

Use of Assembly Chamber

116. The Assembly Chamber may not be used for any public or private business, other than legislative matters, except upon approval of the Speaker or the Chair of the Committee on Rules.

Use of Assembly Facilities: Smoking

117. The smoking of tobacco products is prohibited within any building, or portion of a building, occupied or used by Assembly Members or employees if the building or portion of the building is under the jurisdiction or control of the Assembly. This smoking prohibition shall apply to any outdoor area within five feet of an entrance or exit to any building or portion of a building subject to this rule. This smoking prohibition shall apply to the Assembly Chamber, Assembly hearing rooms, and Assembly offices, and to hallways, stairways, and bathrooms within any building or portion of a building subject to this rule.

Floor of the Assembly: Telephones

117.5. A cellular telephone may not be used on the floor of the Assembly during any session of the Assembly.

Meeting of the Assembly: Firearms

117.7. A person, except a peace officer acting within the scope of his or her employment, may not carry or possess a firearm on the floor of the Assembly during any session of the Assembly or in a committee hearing room during any meeting of a committee or subcommittee.

Persons Admitted to Floor of the Assembly

118. A person other than Members of the Legislature, officers, employees of the Legislature, accredited members of the press, and guests may not be admitted to the floor of the Assembly during any session of the Assembly. A guest of any Member may be admitted only upon presentation of a guest card of the Member countersigned by the Speaker. A guest card is valid only on the legislative day for which it is issued. A lobbyist, as defined by Section 82039 of the Government Code, may not, under any circumstances, be admitted to the Assembly Chamber while the Assembly is in session.

Persons admitted to the Assembly Chamber, other than Members, may not be permitted to stand in the lobby in the rear of the Assembly Chamber while the Assembly is in session, but shall be required to occupy the seats provided for them.

Guests may be seated only in the chairs in the back of the rail in the rear of the Assembly Chamber, and may not be permitted to sit at the desks of the Members. No person other than an accredited newspaper representative may be permitted to sit at the press desks. A special section in the balcony may be reserved for those holding guest cards. Neither any person mentioned in this rule nor any other person, except a Member of the Legislature, may engage in influencing the passage or defeat of legislation in the Assembly Chamber.

A person other than a Member of the Legislature, the Sergeant at Arms or his or her assistants, the Chief Clerk or his or her assistants, or the Legislative Counsel or his or her representatives, may not be permitted in the area of the floor of the chamber which is occupied by the desks of the Members.

Business Attire

118.1. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Rules, a Member of the Legislature, officer or employee of the Legislature, accredited member of the press, or any other person may be admitted to the floor of the Assembly during any session only if dressed in appropriate business attire.

Qualifications and Elections of Members

119. An affirmative vote of 41 or more Members shall be required to determine the qualifications and election of any Member pursuant to Section 5 of Article IV of the California Constitution. A motion to disqualify a Member is not in order at the convening of a legislative session until a Speaker has been elected in accordance with Section 9023 of the Government Code.

Compensation and Expenses of Member Convicted of Felony

120. If a Member of the Assembly is convicted of a felony by a superior court, his or her right to further compensation or expenses is thereupon suspended, and his or her membership on any committee is thereupon suspended. E. Dotson Wilson
Chief Clerk
State Capitol, Room 3196

Dear Mr. E. Dotson Wilson: As the debate about budget reductions moves forward, I believe we need to demonstrate prudent oversight of the public's money.

Now I am asking that my own personal Per-Diem be retroactively reduced to the level that it was at before October 1, 2008.

The challenges ahead are difficult, but I am confident that we will bring our budget into balance, and move forward to reshape California's future into one of hope, confidence, and renewed prosperity.

Sincerely,

CATHLEEN GALGIANI, Assembly Member
Seventeenth District

JOINT CONVENTION ON CALIFORNIA'S FISCAL EMERGENCY

INTRODUCTION OF CONSTITUTIONAL OFFICERS AND SPECIAL GUESTS

Speaker Bass introduced and welcomed Hon. John Garamendi, Lieutenant Governor; Hon. Bill Lockyer, State Treasurer; Hon. John Chiang, Controller; Hon. Darrell Steinberg, Senate President pro Tempore; Michael Genest, Department of Finance Director; and Mac Taylor, Legislative Analyst.

ADDRESS BY SPEAKER KAREN BASS

Good afternoon members and guests. We have recessed the Regular Session and we are convening the Joint Convention. The California Senate and our invited guests are in the Assembly Chamber. With us today are constitutional officers: our Lieutenant Governor, John Garamendi, State Treasurer Bill Lockyer, State Controller John Chiang, Legislative Analyst Mac Taylor, Department of Finance Director Michael Genest, and Senate President pro Tempore, Darrell Steinberg.

Members and guests, all of us here today, are aware that the fiscal crisis facing California is part and parcel from the financial meltdown that is having devastating consequences across the nation.

We have been struggling in California to balance the budget and to address the looming 28 billion dollar deficit facing the state. The urgency and severity of this crisis is what has led the legislative leaders to convene this historic Joint Convention of the Legislature.

A meeting of this type where both houses of the Legislature come together to address the crisis is unprecedented in California history. The urgency and severity of this crisis requires that all of us, all 120 legislators, come together with the LAO, the State Treasurer, Controller, and the Department of Finance, to ensure in full public view that we are all hearing the same information at the same time.

The urgency and severity of this crisis requires all of us to act, and to act immediately.

As we work through the process, as our budget committees review options, as we negotiate solutions, and as we vote on proposals, Senator Steinberg and I wanted to ensure that we are all operating from an objective set of facts.

This session will provide that objective review of the state's fiscal picture and will I hope, lay the groundwork for bipartisan solutions. While acting on the tough solutions will be difficult, we will learn today from our panel of experts, that inaction will have catastrophic results for California.

We need to act, to shore up our cash, preserve our credit rating, and solve a major share of our 28 billion dollar problem.

Closing our massive budget gap will take tough decisions and true leadership from each and every one of us.

I want to thank the presenters today for helping to provide a framework for the difficult choices we will have to make.

And it is now my pleasure to welcome to this Chamber for the first time as President pro Tem, my partner Senator Darrell Steinberg.

ADDRESS BY SENATE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE STEINBERG

Thank you very, very much Madame Speaker for suggesting this unprecedented forum and inviting my colleagues and me to your Chamber.

Thank you as well to our State Treasurer, Controller, our Lieutenant Governor, to the Department of Finance Director Mike Genest, and to Mac Taylor our Legislative Analyst.

We have all spent a great deal of time members—not just over the past month or past months—but over many years debating the solutions to California's chronic budget deficit.

But the fact of the matter is we cannot effectively even argue about the right solutions unless and until we agree on the urgency and the gravity of the problem itself.

While partisanship is aplenty here under the Dome, this is not, I assert, a partisan or ideological problem.

The nation's largest economic crisis since the Great Depression—an international crisis—is mostly responsible for our gathering here today.

We all know that in times of national crisis, that our country has a history of parties and ideologies coming together to do what's right for our nation.

Let it be said about us that when all is said and done we rose to the moment on behalf of the people of California.

Our message is simple today:

Before we begin arguing the solutions let's understand the problem;

Let's defy the expectations;

Let's live up to the challenge.

Thank you very much and I look forward to the panel.

PRESENTATION OF DIRECTOR OF DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

Speaker Bass presented Michael Genest, Director of the Department of Finance, whereupon he addressed the assemblage.

Remarks by Director of Department of Finance

Let me begin by expressing the governor's gratitude and my own to all of you for holding this joint session. I think we all know that the first step towards solving any problem is to recognize that you have a problem. And I think today you are doing that in an historic fashion.

Of course the next step to solving a problem, or to recognizing the problem, is to understand its magnitude and its urgency. And that is what I am honored to try and help you with today.

Members the problem is severe. The need for a solution is urgent. As the Speaker said and as Mr. Taylor just said we have to act now our financial situation is too dire to wait.

I think the first . . . if you'll open this document and look at the first page of it. This page illustrates something, one of the reasons that Mac alluded to as to why it is so urgent that we act immediately as opposed to waiting.

In December when we had a special, I mean, in November when the Governor called the last special session in the previous Legislature, we proposed a set of solutions whose value to the budget was 9.2 billion dollars. That means that in a budgetary basis we would reduce that deficit that we are all looking at, by 9.2 billion dollars.

However, in this special session, since you have 45 days to act, we thought it would be prudent to score these exact same solutions as if they are already taking effect on February 1. I would remind you that just because the law goes into effect on February 1 doesn't necessarily mean that every change goes into effect.

Maybe there are things before that we haven't noticed and had time to implement.

But that delay of a few months, 2 months, reduces the value of those savings or of those solutions by 2 billion dollars from 9.2 down to 7.2.

We don't have an exact number for how much it would be worth if you enacted them, for example on June 30 or June 1. But it would be something like 3 billion dollars. You might wonder how could you get any at all given the passage of time—and that number is a very significant number because there are very few things in this budget that you can take an action on late in the year and get the full value.

The biggest single thing like that is proposition 98. What that means is that you have the legal and practical power to take money away from the proposition 98 appropriation right up until the last day of the fiscal year. Most everything else has to be enacted and then begin to have its effect, tax increases other pragmatic reductions, reductions in the work force, all of those things take a while to materialize.

So by waiting we point the gun more directly at Proposition 98 than if we have now, even though in our solutions Proposition 98 unfortunately is part of the equation.

If you'll turn to the next page, quick action now is the key to making next year's budget problems manageable. Now we often hear that the best thing to do is to wait until the May revision, size and magnitude and details of the problem are understood, and hearings have occurred, and there is time to thoughtfully prepare a budget by June 15.

And in a normal year that does make a great deal of sense. This is not a normal year.

Now, I don't have, and I should make it clear, that these numbers shown on this page, these are numbers that our department of finance revenue update in November. They will get worse. I can tell you with certainty you will get financially worse Mac Taylor has already shown you numbers that are slightly worse than this. It would be wonderful if we thought that Mac's numbers were as bad as it gets and that even his numbers are as bad as we are going to see in January when we release the Governor's budget.

But for now, this is the numbers that we have. And what these numbers show is that if you adopt the Governor's proposal equivalent dollar value of the Governor's proposal in all of them, by February 1st, you will have a budget deficit at the end of this year of 2.3 billion dollars that's a lot, but it could be manageable. As Mac said there is no constitutional requirement to end the year in balance. And you would have facing you with 6 billion budget problem for next year which by recent standard would be a walk in the park.

However, if you do not adopt anything and simply wait for the normal course of the budget enactment you will end this year by these numbers and may I remind you, they will get worse when we do our January 10 estimates. You would end this year with 9.5 billion dollar in deficit and you would have to pass a budget next year that had 25.2 billion dollars of spending cuts or revenue increases all next year.

Clearly, acting now would be a good idea and it would help our Spring to be a lot more manageable.

On the next page, this chart shows that quick action now will make our cash situation manageable. Now I need to caveat this, by saying a couple of things: first cash numbers are always subject to quite a bit of variation. This last summer we had a month where the cash turned out to be 2 billion higher than we thought.

Now once we reconciled and discovered there were some payments made just a few days later and some revenue was received a few days early, we were pretty much right back where we thought we were. But month to month, cash can go up and down quite a bit. So these are our best estimates.

The other caveat is that these are based on our revenue forecast for November, and, as I said, and I will say several more times, it will get worse than this. But if it was only this bad and you adopted everything that we proposed, you could see that we could make it through this year and make it through the month of July with a cash balance.

Now, the Department of Finance and the Controller like to have a cash cushion of $2.5 billion. By the way when I say cash it's not general fund cash, under all of these numbers the general fund cash will be gone. This is all of the cash that we have at our disposal including borrowable resources from other funds and things that we have control over.

So, we would have enough money to pay the bills- we would owe money, but we would have enough money to pay the bills. We get pretty uncomfortable if you look at March, at $1.8 billion that could turn out to be zero pretty easily that's the way cash works. But at least we have positive numbers here and I would say if you act immediately the situation on a cash basis is manageable unless it gets worse, and as you know and as I have said, it will.

But far better than the next page, if you look at this, failure to act now would create a financial disaster.

First in the month of February you would have only $300 million in total resources available after paying all of the bills. That's not enough to be confident that you actually will pay all of the bills because that number could be up or down a couple of billion dollars. But February looks pretty good when compared to March. In March we will have to tell $2.4 billion worth of folks out there that they are not getting paid.

This is the job of the controller and I think he would very much appreciate it if we could avoid the situation. We will be with these numbers kind of like that old joke with the frog and the water and you gradually raise it up and he doesn't know he's dead till he's gone to heaven because he's getting used to the warmer and warmer water.

That's what this would be like, for a while this year. We've seen months, we saw one in June, we saw one in July and August and part of September in which we did let people go have to wait for their money because we didn't have a budget. And we've done more than 2.4 or 1.0 or 1.5 of these numbers. So I guess we could make it through like this, it would be an embarrassment frankly to the state, to all of us to so. But we could probably struggle through somehow.

But look what happens in July. By July we will have no borrowable resources left at our disposal. If we do not have a budget, and the controller and the treasurer will talk more about this later, if we do not have a budget, we can't possibly borrow from exterior sources. They won't loan us money without a budget plan.

We will have no money to borrow of our own, we will have no money from external sources to borrow and in that month our bills will be 7.6 billion dollars greater than our revenue in that month.

So if you can only imagine, in fact, I've got as an illustration who might not get paid in that month of July and this is just the payments from last July or I should say, the payments that would have been made last July if we had had a budget on time. These are the categories of expenditures that are in jeopardy in that last month.

None of this is pleasant but you can see again delaying action, points the gun very directly at schools. There's a lot about how we ill manage that situation if it should come to pass or even if you do all of these actions we are still going to have to manage through cash, it's still going to be a tough Spring and it might get a lot tougher as I said.

But I am not going go into those details because I think that what the controller will be talking to you about.

Thank you.

PRESENTATION OF THE CONTROLLER

Speaker Bass presented Hon. John Chiang, Controller, whereupon he addressed the assemblage.

Statement by Controller John Chiang

Mr. Pro Tem, Madame Speaker, and distinguished members of the Legislature, let me first commend you for convening this joint session to address the dire financial circumstance that threatens the current and future solvency of our state.

Make no mistake, a delay in action would be catastrophic. As unpalatable as tax increases or further program cuts may appear, neither is as toxic to the State's fiscal health as doing nothing.

Failure to act threatens our ability to respond to natural disasters, our ability to provide life preserving care to the elderly and the ill, and our ability to protect our communities from crime.

If we are to avert sure disaster, together we must set aside blame, proceed with speed, pursue practical solutions, and, most importantly, summon the political courage to make the decisions necessary to protect the programs and services that Californians depend on every day.

Before I speak to the State's cash flow problem, and why attacking the $28 billion deficit is needed to stave off an immediate shut down of public services, let me begin with a critical distinction between "budgeting" and "cash available."

As you know, the "budget" refers to the financial plan based on estimated revenues and disbursements for a fiscal year. This plan and its projections are a primary responsibility of the Department of Finance.

"Cash" refers to what is actually in the State Treasury on a day-to-day and month-to-month basis. Monitoring the amount of cash available to meet the State's financial obligations is the core responsibility of my office.

Part of that responsibility is to address the monthly cash "gaps" we see throughout the year when revenue collections are lower than payments. This is both routine and expected: Most of the State's expenses come during the first part of the year, while much of its revenues are collected in the final quarter. To smooth those gaps, we use a combination of internal and external borrowing, and also work to maintain at least a $2.5 billion cash cushion.

We borrow internally from 600 of the State's 1,100 special funds to minimize the costs associated with external borrowing. The total amount available from this type of borrowing is approximately $18 billion. As of November 30, there were only $4 billion remaining—and by March there will be nothing left to borrow from these funds.

We borrow from several large funds that support public goals like oil spill prevention, beverage container recycling, and air pollution control. But State law prohibits borrowing from 500 other funds including CalPERS and CalSTRS, and other protected accounts such as the Local Agency Investment Fund.

Internal borrowing is short-term—just like external borrowing—and it must be repaid in a manner that will not interfere with the operations of the special funds.

When internal borrowing cannot suffice, we can also look to Wall Street in a normal market to smooth out cash flow. Short term external borrowing is achieved through a Revenue Anticipation Note—or a RAN—which must be repaid by the end of the fiscal year. RANs are used to bridge the cash gaps between what comes in and what goes out.

In the past 25 years, RANs have been issued every year but one. The Treasurer's Office has issued RANs ranging from $1 billion in 1999 to $12.5 billion in 2002. My office determines the amount of RANs needed, and the Treasurer's office then sells them. This is made possible when budgets are balanced and the markets are functioning, but we know that this year is different.

Under normal conditions, we have a balanced budget for the year and we are able to manage shortfalls with internal borrowing and RANs. This year we needed a $7 billion RAN, but due to the severely weakened condition of the State's finances coupled with the global financial crisis, only $5 billion was sold. That left a $2 billion cash gap.

Now, compounding our problems, the global financial crisis has continued to erode revenues. The size of the revenue shortfall for the remainder of the fiscal year was most recently estimated at $7.8 billion by the Legislative Analyst, and at $9.7 billion by the Department of Finance. My office's economists think even $9.7 billion may be an understatement.

My office tested the latest cash flows associated with this $9.7 billion deterioration, and what we found was a clear threat to the State's ability to pay all of its bills starting this Spring. By February, we will only have $882 million in cash on-hand. By March, we will have exhausted our general and borrowable funds and run more than $1.9 billion in the red. If revenues continue to deteriorate, this number will only grow.

My office is about to issue a report showing November revenues were down even further than expected. In the past four weeks that we have argued about the budget, our problem grew by as much as $500 million above and beyond the $9.7 billion loss projected a few weeks ago.

The responsible course of action is to solve the $28 billion problem for the combined current and budget years. Solid budget solutions have a cascading effect. If we address the budget shortfalls now, we tackle much of next year's problems as well. Left unaddressed, current year shortfalls compound in the following year.

It would also be a mistake to think our problem is only the $1.9 billion cash crunch in March. Addressing this Spring's cash problem alone would be like burning the furniture to heat the house. And while March poses a real challenge, here are four reasons why this Summer looks much worse.

First, July and August are usually low in revenue and high in expenditures. For example, in July 2007, we collected $4.1 billion and spent $10.3—that is a $6 billion dollar gap and is typical of the gap that we see as the fiscal year opens.

Second, there will be no cash balance or borrowable funds to carry over to the new fiscal year. In other words, we will begin the fiscal year with our cupboards bare.

Third, special fund revenues could follow general fund revenues and turn downward with this economy. The more special fund revenues deteriorate, the smaller our pool of borrowable funds becomes.

And finally, state law requires that borrowing from internal funds cannot interfere with the operations of the funds. If the special funds need cash and the State's general fund cannot provide that cash, there will be a liquidity crisis in the Pooled Money Investment Account that could significantly impact the special funds from which we borrow.

These four facts are red flags that demand immediate legislative action. The problems we face are real, and the only true solution is to address the $28 billion budget problem. Without a budget solution, my office has few choices to deal with the immediate cash crisis. None of these options are in our best interest, nor do they offer any guarantees. But I will go through them individually for you today while explaining the pitfalls and complexities that each presents.

The first is to try to "cash-manage" the problem. I have directed my staff to determine the exact date we will run out of cash, how many days we will be in the red, what payments are due, what payments have statutory due-dates, which payments can be moved, and what the penalties and interest are for moving those payments.

This fact finding will determine if there is flexibility in the payment schedule to buy us a few days for a limited amount of dollars.

This is nothing more than a Band-Aid. The crisis we face this spring and summer is of such magnitude and duration that it cannot be adequately addressed by this type of triage.

The next option is a Revenue Anticipation Warrant—or a RAW—which is another form of external borrowing. But unlike a RAN, it can cross fiscal years, it does not require a budget, it has only been used in fiscal emergencies, and it is extremely expensive.

My office ventured to put a RAW together as a financial backstop this summer. We were able to line up $5 billion, but the financing would have cost taxpayers more than half a billion. This came when we saw only symptoms of a credit crunch—before it became a worldwide credit and liquidity pandemic.

Now, my financial team includes some of the most experienced advisors in California, who have put together nearly every RAW in the State's history. But even they warn that market access is terribly difficult, and we may not be able to find lenders willing to take a leap of faith.

The bottom line is selling RAWs may well be impractical if not impossible.

The last option is issuing Registered Warrants—or IOUs. They bear interest and are issued to replace regular warrants when there is not enough cash available to pay the State's obligations. IOUs are rarely issued—only once since the Great Depression has California used them.

There is no reason to believe an IOU is a viable option. It sends the wrong message to our creditors by showing that we cannot pay our bills. And their use is limited—litigation already bars IOUs for most state payments. I have directed my legal staff to review what IOUs can and cannot pay, but we already know they cannot be used to pay salaries of employees covered by the Fair Labor Standards Act. Nor can they go towards schools, debt service, or federal payments like Medi-Cal.

There is no prohibition against using these for vendor payments, income tax refunds or the salaries of judges, elected officials and their appointees.

But there is another catch to issuing IOUs—if one is used, all revenues received afterwards must go to pay back the IOU before any standard payments can be made. State law already determines the priority for many payments. But the IOU repayment could jeopardize that order by putting non-priority payments ahead of priority payments. This could put the State in serious legal and financial trouble, and frustrate our ability to manage cash.

Failure is not an option here. Without coming together to address our budget problem, we will create a financial catastrophe from which it would take years to recover.

Failing to enact a responsible, long-term solution to this financial crisis could mean liquidated damages, federal penalties, and exposing our state to expensive litigation when it can least afford it.

You would see a chain reaction far worse than new taxes or program cuts. It would endanger local governments, schools, small businesses, nursing homes and hospitals. We would pass our financial problems on to millions of Californians by deepening and prolonging the current recession.

We cannot waste time arguing about how we got here today. We only have time to quickly come together and pursue solutions and make the tough decisions that will protect our future.

PRESENTATION OF THE TREASURER

Speaker Bass presented Hon. Bill Lockyer, Treasurer, whereupon he addressed the assemblage.

Address by State Treasurer

What you've been hearing about is the State's current "zombie" budget. It's a "walking dead" plan. And it's definitely not "Sleeping Beauty"—though there is a poisoned apple.

As your banker, I'd like to provide some specifics about the result of prolonged debate and delay.

About $2 trillion flows through my office each year.

One significant financing hub is the Pooled Money Investment Account. It functions like a "rainy-day" fund. Unfortunately, it's about to go dry because too many demands are now being made on it—for cash to pay bills, for internal borrowing, for infrastructure projects, and there are too few revenues to invest.

Prior speakers have outlined our cash flow problems, complicated by our inability to borrow in the short term debt markets.

I want to focus briefly on the diminishing state dollars in the Pooled Money Account.

State agencies like CalTrans, Water Resources and others draw on the account through loans approved by the Pooled Money Investment Board when projects are ready; the fund is replenished by regular bond sales throughout the year.

Due to frozen credit markets and our own broken budget, we can't sell those bonds to meet our urgent cash and infrastructure investment needs.

Large institutional investors that we need are being very selective about what they buy—and they aren't buying California. . . . This isn't just a theory.

Three weeks ago, we went to market with $1/2 billion in California power revenue bonds—better-rated than our general obligation bonds.

We had to reduce the transaction by 2/3rds because of the lack of buyers. That is extraordinary but it's not hard to see why.

Expecting investors to purchase our bonds NOW, when we can't agree on a budget that lenders can rely on, is like expecting someone to buy a stock when they know it's losing value.

The result is that in 9 days when the PMIB next meets, we'll be forced to start shutting down planned expenditures for highways, schools, flood control, etc. If California can't sell bonds, we can't repay the PMIA for the loans it makes to pay for projects. There is a limited supply of assets in the PMIA and we can no longer both lend money for projects and lend money to the General Fund for cash flow.

It means that economic stimulus we all want, won't occur.

Billions of dollars that would have gone to thousands of private sector businesses, creating tens of thousands of jobs, will be cut off.

I've provided partial lists of impacted projects. It isn't selective; it isn't discretionary. There's no choice. Every region will be affected if we can't spend the nearly $5 billion that had been expected for the rest of the year, and $8 billion more next year.

Schools from Eureka to El Centro, hundreds of projects.

Here is a little sample from CalTrans: 38 local traffic light synchronization projects could lose funding. Folsom Boulevard in Sacramento, Clovis and Shaw Avenues in Fresno. Large projects in San Jose, Corona, and San Diego.

Highway projects will be delayed, or interrupted. Federal matching dollars may be lost. Examples are:

- bridge replacement on Interstate 5 in Shasta County.
- HOV lanes on Interstate 80 in Placer County.
- two-lane HOV projects on Highway 101 in Sonoma County.
- the "Fourth Bore" tunnel project on Highway 24 in Alameda County.
- widening Highway 198 in Kings County.
- a new Interchange on Highway 1 in Monterey County.
- HOV lane on I-5 in LA County.
- widening Highway 118 in Ventura County.
- replacing bridges on Highway 99 in Merced County.
- adding an eastbound lane on Highway 91 in Orange County.

And that's just road projects. Our kids will go without needed schools, too.

$3.1 billion of school construction projects will lose funding. Projects are up and down the state:

Los Angeles, Fresno, Rocklin, Sonoma, San Bernardino, San Francisco, Oakdale, Merced, Novato, Maricopa, Perris, to name a few communities where children families would be hurt.

Conservatively estimated, those infrastructure projects represent a $12.5 billion hit in lost revenues to the private sector and 200,000 jobs we need. That is the poisoned apple that nobody asked for and nobody wants. But it's what California is going to eat if there is no budget.

Let me just make one last point about the cost we are imposing on Californians and our state economy by any further failure to balance our budget: Delay doesn't just result in spending cuts. The hit on the private sector from delay is about as big as the tax increases the Governor recently proposed.

There's only one way to prevent these shutdowns. Adopt an honest, balanced budget very soon. No gimmicks; no phony accounting; no borrowing that merely postpones the day of reckoning. Those cupboards are bare. Stop relying on the tooth fairy and other fantasies.

I was honored to serve in this Legislature for 25 years—during the recessions of 73–74, 86–87 and 91–92. This downturn is significantly more challenging, and will likely be deeper and longer.

This budget problem is genuinely different from previous ones because of years of deficit financing that have depleted our reserves, coupled with an inability to borrow further, internally or externally.

For years, I regularly watched the internal interactions of legislators who thought of themselves as advocates or mediators. I believe that robotic advocacy misses the unique role of a Legislature: providing the social glue in an economically, ethnically and philosophically diverse state.

Now, each of you gets to decide the extent to which you'll be a thermometer or a thermostat—reflecting external realities or setting your own course.

What I can say for sure is that both sides playing budgetary chicken simply kills Foster Farms. Rhetorically speaking.

Good Luck!

REPORTS

The following letters of transmittal were presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2008-112
November 18, 2008

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the disposal of electronic waste (e-waste) by state agencies. This report concludes that a lack of clear communication from oversight agencies, coupled with some state employees' lack of knowledge about e-waste, contributed to state agencies improperly disposing of some electronic devices in the trash. We reviewed the disposal practices of five state agencies, and found that all five had either discarded some of their electronic devices in the trash, or indicated they had done so. The Department of Motor Vehicles and the Employment Development Department collectively discarded 26 electronic devices in the trash. These items included fax machines, speakers, calculators, and a videocassette recorder. The three remaining state agencies in our sample—the California Highway Patrol, the Department of Transportation, and the Department of Justice—did not have records clearly indicating how they disposed of 382 electronic devices; however, they asserted that more than 350 of these items were discarded in the trash.

As a result, oversight agencies such as the Department of General Services (General Services), the California Integrated Waste Management Board (Waste Management Board), and the Department of Toxic Substances Control have an opportunity to collaboratively find ways to more effectively communicate how state agencies should manage their e-waste. Because e-waste can contain toxic metals such as lead and mercury, the improper disposal of this waste by state agencies can have adverse consequences for the environment and the public's health. It is difficult to quantify the amount of e-waste that state agencies generate and dispose of. At most, we saw that some state agencies annually report the amount of solid waste they divert from municipal landfills. Although some state agencies include information specific to e-waste in these reports, the Waste Management Board explained that e-waste is not solid waste, thus state agencies are not required to report this information.

Finally, our review found that state and local oversight of e-waste is infrequent and may not always identify instances when state agencies improperly dispose of e-waste. A state agency's decision regarding how to dispose of its e-waste is subject to review by General Services and local entities. General Services' reviews have focused on whether a state agency obtained proper approval prior to disposing of its surplus property, which can include e-waste items, and whether it disposed of these items promptly. Until recently, these reviews did not evaluate how a state agency actually disposed of its e-waste. For state agencies located within its jurisdiction, Sacramento County performs periodic inspections of those that generate hazardous waste; however, these reviews do not take place for those that only generate universal waste—a less-regulated type of hazardous waste that includes e-waste. Instead, Sacramento County will evaluate a state agency's compliance with universal waste requirements if it is also a generator of hazardous waste.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Environmental Safety and Toxic Materials.

California State Auditor

2008-103
November 20, 2008

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the California Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board's (appeals board) hiring, procurement, and administrative practices.

This report concludes that the appeals board's hiring managers were not always allowed to consider all applicants for a given position because of a freeze on outside hires and did not consistently document their reasons for hiring a particular candidate. In addition, nearly half of the employees who responded to our survey believed that the appeals board's hiring and promotion practices were compromised by familial relationships or employee favoritism. Deficiencies in the appeals board's hiring practices may contribute to this perception among employees. In response to concerns about nepotism, the appeals board recently adopted a more restrictive policy stating that it retains the right to refuse to appoint a person to a position whose relationship to another appeals board employee has the potential for creating an adverse impact on supervision, security, or morale, or involves a potential conflict of interest. However, we believe that the appeals board cannot currently enforce its new nepotism policy against persons who are not presently employed by the appeals board because the new policy should have been submitted to the State's Office of Administrative Law for approval as a regulation. Furthermore, over roughly the past five years employees submitted few equal employment opportunity (EEO) complaints or grievances, and 40 percent of employees who responded to our survey indicated that they would have some fear of retaliation from their supervisors or upper management if they were to file either an EEO complaint or grievance.

We also found that a former board may have violated conflict of interest laws. As required by audit standards, we referred the matter to the Sacramento County District Attorney and the California Attorney General for their consideration. Finally, certain weaknesses in the appeals board's controls over travel expenses prevent it from demonstrating the business purpose of some travel expenses and resulted in some questionable costs that may need to be recovered.

Respectfully submitted,

RECESS JOURNAL NO. 13

RECESS UPON CALL OF THE SPEAKER

Assembly Chamber, Sacramento
Friday, January 9, 2009

Pursuant to the provisions of Joint Rule 59, the following Assembly Journal for the 2009–10 Regular Session was printed while the Assembly was in Recess upon Call of the Speaker.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following message from the Governor was received and ordered printed in the Journal:

Governor's Office, Sacramento
January 9, 2009

To the Senate and Assembly of the Legislature of California:

In accordance with Article IV, Section 12 of the California Constitution, I submit to you the Governor's Budget for 2009–2010.

Our state faces the most challenging budget in its history. The combined effect of our structural deficit and the dramatic decline in revenues due to the international economic crisis have produced a two-year deficit of $41.6 billion—nearly half of our projected 2009–10 revenues.

A problem of this magnitude requires immediate action. Last fall, as the economic situation deteriorated, I realized that we needed to act quickly to bring our current-year budget back into balance. That is why I called a special session on November 16, 2008. When the previous Legislature failed to act, on December 1, I called you into special session in a fiscal emergency pursuant to Proposition 58. When you closed that session without acceptable action to address the problem, I immediately called you back on December 19, again pursuant to Proposition 58.

Now, I am presenting you with my Budget for 2009–10, which not only addresses this year's shortfall, but provides a comprehensive and balanced set of solutions for next year as well. The shortfall is too large to be addressed only with spending cuts, or only with tax increases. We have to use every tool at our disposal.

At the same time, we cannot ask the people of our state to accept cuts in government services and increases in taxes without doing all we can to bring this economy back. That is why I believe that we have to include a sensible, targeted package of fiscal stimulus measures in any budget solution. Similarly, as we ask for sacrifice from our citizens, we must be able to assure them that state government itself is doing everything it can to cut costs and improve efficiency. Thus, my budget has a variety of measures to do both.

There are honest and sincere differences among you regarding how we should resolve this crisis. But, these differences have prevented you so far from seeing that you share a larger duty to compromise on the best possible plan for resolving our budget crisis.

The time of delay is past. The solutions I propose are difficult and unavoidably painful. Delay, however, will only make the ultimate solutions even more painful.

Now it is time to act decisively to bring our state back from the brink of financial catastrophe.

Sincerely,

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER

Receipt

I acknowledge receipt this 9th day of January 2009 at 2:22 p.m., of the budget for the 2009–10 fiscal year, together with an explanatory message delivered to me personally by Jacque Roberts.

Thank you for the leaders who have given their lives so that all people could be treated equal. We recognized that we have come a long way, but yet a long way to go.

We pray that the life, the legacy, the hope, the honor that was so easily bestowed on Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. shall continue in the lives of all men and that men might know the freedom that exists within themselves.

Now God,

As we move forward to serve your people, I pray that you would grace every decision-making leader to recognize the seriousness of our responsibilities and the accountability to you and those we serve.

Bless this Legislature and the people of California.—AMEN.

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 2794

December 8, 2008

*E. Dotson Wilson
Chief Clerk
California State Assembly
State Capitol
Sacramento, California*

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 2794 (Blakeslee, 2008)

Dear Mr. Wilson: The purpose of this letter is to clarify my intent with regard to Assembly Bill AB 2794, pertaining to physician billing practices. AB 2794 added Section 655.8 to the Business and Professions Code and prohibited a physician from billing for performance of the technical component of specified diagnostic imaging services not rendered by the physician or persons under their supervision.

The intent of the bill was to close a problematic loophole in the state physician self referral prohibition that was resulting in fraud and increased medical costs. Specifically, the bill required radiological facilities or imaging centers to directly bill either the patient or the responsible third-party payer for the services performed by those facilities, not the referring physician.

Sincerely,

SAM BLAKESLEE, Assembly Member
Thirty-third District

GOVERNOR'S ADDRESS PRINTED IN JOURNAL

Without objection, the following text of Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger's State of the State Address was printed in the Journal:

Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger
2009 State of the State Address
January 15, 2009

Lt. Governor Garamendi, Chief Justice George, President pro Tem Steinberg, Speaker Bass, Senate Republican Leader Cogdill, Assembly Republican Leader Villines, Members of the Legislature, ladies and gentlemen, we meet in times of great hope for our nation.

Although we hear the drumbeat of news about bailouts, bankruptcies and Ponzi schemes, the nation with great anticipation is also awaiting the inauguration of a new president.

Our nation should be proud of what President-elect Obama's election says to the world about American openness and renewal.

President Reagan used to tell about the letter he got from a man who said that you can go to live in Turkey, but you can't become a Turk.

You can go to live in Japan, but you cannot become Japanese. And he went through other countries.

“But,” the man said, “anyone from any corner of the world can come to America and become an American.”

And now, we know that any American child, no matter what corner of the world his father or mother comes from, can even become President of the United States.

What a wonderful national story for us. This nation rightfully feels the hope of change.

Californians, of course, desire change here in their own state as well. Yet they have doubts if that is possible.

For months, in the face of a crisis, we have been unable to reach agreement on the largest budget deficit in our history.

We are in our third special session and we’ve declared a fiscal emergency—and every day that goes by makes the budget problem that much harder to solve.

As a result of all this, California, the seventh largest economy in the world, faces insolvency within weeks. The Legislature is currently in the midst of serious and good faith negotiations to resolve the crisis, negotiations that are being conducted in the knowledge we have no alternative but to find agreement.

The importance of the negotiation’s success goes far beyond the economic and human impact.

People are asking if California is governable. They wonder about the need for a constitutional convention.

They don’t understand how we could have let political dysfunction paralyze our state for so long.

In recent years, they have seen more gridlock in Sacramento than on our roads, if such a thing is possible.

I will not give the traditional State of the State address today, because the reality is that our state is incapacitated until we resolve the budget crisis.

The truth is that California is in a state of emergency. Addressing this emergency is the first and greatest thing we must do for the people.

The 42 billion dollar deficit is a rock upon our chest, and we cannot breathe until we get it off.

It doesn’t make any sense to talk about education, infrastructure, water, health care reform and all these things when we have this huge budget deficit.

I will talk about my vision for all of these things . . . and more . . . as soon as we get the budget done.

So, no, I did not come today to deliver the normal list of accomplishments and proposals. I came to encourage this body to continue the hard work you are doing behind closed doors. There is a context and a history to the negotiations that are underway. It is not that California is ungovernable.

It’s that for too long we have been split by ideology. Conan’s sword could not have cleaved our political system in two as cleanly as our own political parties have done.

Over time, ours has become a system where rigid ideology has been rewarded and pragmatic compromise has been punished. And where has this led?

I think you would agree that in recent years California's legislature has been engaged in civil war.

Meanwhile, the needs of the people became secondary. Our citizens do not believe that we in government are in touch with their needs. These needs are not unreasonable.

At the end of the day, most people do not require a great deal from their government. They expect the fundamentals. They want to live in safety.

They want a good education for their children. They want jobs. They want to breathe clean air. They want water when they turn on the faucet and electricity when they turn on the switch.

And they want these things delivered efficiently and economically.

One of the reasonable expectations the public has of government is that it will produce a sound and balanced budget. That is what the legislative leaders are struggling to do right now.

There is no course left open to us but this: to work together, to sacrifice together, to think of the common good—not our individual good.

No one wants to take money from our gang-fighting programs or from Medi-Cal or from education. No one wants to pay more in taxes or fees.

But each of us has to give up something because our country is in an economic crisis, and our state simply doesn't have the money.

In December, we even had to suspend funding that affects 2,000 infrastructure projects that were already underway.

So, now, the bulldozers are silent. The nail guns are still. The cement trucks are parked. This disruption has stopped work on levees, schools, roads, everything.

It has thrown thousands and thousands of people out of work at a time when our unemployment rate is rising.

How could we let something like that happen? I know that everyone in this room wants to hear again the sound of construction. No one wants unemployment checks replacing paychecks.

So, I am encouraged that meaningful negotiations are underway. And, as difficult as the budget will be, good things can come out of it.

Because, in spite of the budget crisis, when we have worked together in the past, we have passed measures that moved this state—and even the nation—forward.

When a budget agreement is reached, when some of the raw emotions have passed, I will send to the Legislature the package of legislative goals and proposals that a governor traditionally sends.

These proposals are sitting on my desk. Let me tell you, I have big plans. They include action on the economy, on water, environment, education, health care reform, government efficiency and reform, job creation.

But, our first order of business is to solve the budget crisis. And I have an idea going forward. As you know, in the last 20 years of budgeting, only four budgets have been on time.

So, if you don't mind, let me make a little suggestion. We should make a commitment that legislators—and the governor, too—lose per diem expenses and our paychecks for every day the budget goes past the constitutional deadline of June 15th.

You have to admit it is a brilliant idea. I mean, if you call a taxi and the taxi doesn't come, you don't pay the driver.

If the people's work is not getting done, the people's representatives should not get paid either. That is common sense in the real world. And I will send you some other reforms, too.

Let me close by saying something about the fires of 2008.

At one point, I got a phone call that we had 875 wildfires burning all at the same time. I said to myself, how do we deal with this?

The next morning I get a call, "Governor, there are now 2,014 fires burning all at the same time." The largest number on record.

Imagine, 2,000 fires, a huge challenge, and every one of those fires was put out. You know why? Because we have the best trained, the most selfless, the toughest firefighters in the nation.

Thirteen of whom lost their lives. They gave their lives for this state.

Ladies and gentlemen, the courageous examples of those firefighters should not be lost on us. In our own way, we, too, must show courage in serving the public.

Ladies and gentlemen, let this be a year of political courage. Let us be courageous for the people.

Let us be courageous for the common good of California. Let us resolve the budget crisis, so that we can get on with the people's work.

Thank you.

REQUEST FOR UNANIMOUS CONSENT TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Legislative Intent—Assembly Bill No. 2193

January 26, 2009

E. Dotson Wilson

*Chief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 3106
Sacramento, California*

Re: Letter to Assembly Journal regarding AB 2193 (Tran)

Dear Mr. Wilson: AB 2193 (Tran), enacted as 2008 Cal. Stat. ch. 231, establishes the Interstate and International Depositions Act. This Act was drafted by the California Law Revision Commission and is based in part on the Uniform Interstate Depositions and Discovery Act. It provides much-needed guidance on the procedure for conducting discovery in this state for purposes of a lawsuit pending in another state or country.

A provision in the Interstate and International Depositions Act directs the Judicial Council to prepare certain forms to implement the Act. That provision became operative on January 1, 2009. The remainder of the Act will not become operative until January 1, 2010.

Unfortunately, the legislation failed to make clear that the predecessor of the Act (Code Civ. Proc. § 2029.010*) remains in effect until January 1, 2010. As a result, this provision was inadvertently repealed on January 1, 2009, a year earlier than intended. Technically, there is no statutory law specifically governing this area for the ensuing year.

The California Law Revision Commission has expressed its regret for the drafting error, and confirmed that the intent of the legislation was to leave this provision in place and have courts and litigants follow its procedures until the new Act became operative. This was also my intent as the author of the bill, and it is my hope that courts and litigants continue complying with the provisions of former Code of Civil Procedure section 2029.010 until the new law become operative on January 1, 2010.

Respectfully submitted,

VAN TRAN, Assembly Member
Sixty-eighth District

The Honorable Darrell Steinberg
President pro Tempore
California State Senate
State Capitol, Room 205
Sacramento, California

The Honorable Karen Bass
Speaker
California State Assembly
State Capitol, Room 219
Sacramento, California

Dear Senator Steinberg and Speaker Bass,

At a time when California families and businesses are tightening their belts, state government must do the same—we have a responsibility to use taxpayer dollars efficiently. As such, I am submitting for the Legislature's review a Governor's Reorganization Plan (GRP) that if allowed to take effect will consolidate statewide information technology (IT) functions under the Office of the Chief Information Officer (OCIO).

The GRP proposes to realign state IT resources in order to:

- Integrate four agencies—the Office of the State Chief Information Officer (OCIO), Office of Information Security and Privacy Protection (Office of Information Security), Department of Technology Services and the Department of General Services—Telecommunications Division—into an expanded OCIO.
- Provide the State Chief Information Officer with authority for IT procurement policy and enterprise IT management.
- Achieve consolidation of software contracts, office automation tools, data centers/computer rooms, servers, storage and networks to realize estimated cost savings and cost avoidance of $1.5 billion over the next five years.
- Preserve program-specific IT systems and budgets at the agency level.

I look forward to working with you to ensure that the state's technology systems efficiently serve the needs of the people of California.

Sincerely,

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Saldaña, the following prayer was offered by guest Chaplain, Rabbi Laurie Coskey:

In this moment of prayer and meditation today we lift up the sacred feminine. We celebrate women from every corner of this state—those who are here and those who toil unrecognized by this honor.

The women honored on this day in this awe inspiring sanctuary, touch the lives of others with gifts of spirit, mind, heart, energy, skill, and commitment. They reach out to create well-being and blessing in their communities, their counties, state, country, and throughout the world. We do so through the work of our hands so this morning let us bless that work through a moment of prayer.

Blessed be the works of your hands,
O Holy One.

Blessed be these hands that have touched life.

Blessed be these hands that have nurtured creativity.

Blessed be these hands that have held pain.

Blessed be these hands that have embraced with passion.

Blessed be these hands that have tended gardens.

Blessed be these hands that have closed in anger.

Blessed be these hands that have planted new seeds.

Blessed be these hands that have harvested ripe fields.

Blessed be these hands that have carried out endless tasks contributing to communities throughout our state.

Blessed be these hands that are wrinkled and scarred from doing justice.

Blessed be these hands that have reached out and been received.

Blessed be these hands that hold the promise of the future.

Blessed be the works of your hands.

O Holy One.

Amen, Amen, Halleluyah.

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Saldaña, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Father Constantine C. Pappademos:

Lord, You have said, "No city or house divided against itself will stand." (Matthew 12:25) The same holds true for our own life. When we constantly try to hide who we really are, we can't devote ourselves completely to others, to our work, or to You. Help us to understand, Lord, that it takes less time and less effort to be honest and genuine. Teach us that we cannot hold on to false things with one hand and to You with the other, for if we do, we will enjoy neither those things nor You.—AMEN.

Prayer of the Farm Workers Struggle

Show me the suffering of the most miserable;

So I will know my people's plight.

Free me to pray for others;

For you are present in every person.

Help me take responsibility for my own life;

So that I can be free at last.

Grant me courage to serve others;

For in service there is true life.

Give me honesty and patience;

So that I can work with other workers.

Bring forth song and celebration;

So that the Spirit will be alive among us.

Let the Spirit flourish and grow;

So that we will never tire of the struggle.

Let us remember those who have died for justice;

For they have given us life.

Help us love even those who hate us;

So we can change the world.

AMEN.

Oración del Campesino en la Lucha

Enséñame el sufrimiento de los más desafortunados;
Así conoceré el dolor de mi pueblo.

Líbrame a orar por los demás;
Porque estás presente en cada persona.

Ayúdame a tomar responsabilidad de mi propia vida;
Sólo así seré libre al fin.

Concédeme valentía para servir al prójimo;
Porque en la entrega hay vida verdadera.

Concédeme honradez y paciencia;
Para que yo pueda trabajar junto con otros trabajadores.

Alúmbranos con el canto y la celebración;
Para que levanten el Espíritu entre nosotros.

Que el Espíritu florezca y crezca;
Para que no nos cansemos entre la lucha.

Nos acordamos de los que han caído por la justicia;
Porque a nosotros han entregado la vida.

Ayúdanos a amar aún a los que nos odian;
Así podremos cambiar el mundo.

AMEN.

Almighty God, Gathered today we remember the victims of the Armenian Genocide of 1915 and give thanks with a heart full of gratitude to all those who observe April 24 as a day of remembrance.

Our Faith in God obliges us all to be true towards historical facts. As sons and daughters of the Genocide survivors, we uphold firm our respect not only for the lives of the victims who perished in 1915, but above all for the victims of all Genocides since the first Genocide of the 20th century.

Today, we pledge our allegiance for the well-being of the United States of America, where democracy and freedom continue to be the most cherished values of this great nation.

Almighty God, bless the Leadership of the State of California. Grant them all wisdom and perseverance to continue the observance of April 24.

Today, citizens of the United States of Armenian descent praise God for the gifts of this wonderful nation. Today, on this day of commemoration, we also remember the departed souls of the brave men and women of the United States Army who have fallen in defense of this nation.

Today, American Armenians throughout this country look highly upon you and are filled with pride and gratitude for your vision and honorable stance in recognition of the truth.

Today, as the official representative of the Western Diocese of the Armenian Church of North America, we give thanks to God for your leadership as you work towards building a stronger America which stands firm to protect those who are deprived of justice.—AMEN.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker Bass, the following prayer was offered by Guest Chaplain, Rabbi Mona Alfi:

Zachor—Remember. The Hebrew Bible commands us to remember. God commanded us to remember the stories of Creation, so that we will treasure the earth and protect it. God commands us to remember that we were slaves in Egypt, so that we will remember what it felt like to be the stranger, the outsider, the oppressed. Throughout Jewish history, we have been commanded “Zachor!”—remember.

After the Holocaust, we heard the call again—remember! But this time the call was not just to the Jewish people, but to humanity. We are commanded to remember so that the memories of those who perished, and those who suffered, will be honored. And we are commanded to remember so that the future can be different than the past.

Those who lived through the Holocaust became witnesses for the world about what happens when we fail to see, and to honor, the humanity in each other. They became witnesses to what happens when people say “I was just following orders,” rather than taking personal responsibility for their own choices. They became witnesses to the dangers of a society whose citizens do not speak out when injustices are committed.

Elie Weisel said that “there may be times when we are powerless to prevent injustice, but there must never be a time when we fail to protest.”

One of the lessons of the Holocaust is that we all have the responsibility to speak out when injustices are committed, because we have seen what happens when people do not.

We each have an obligation to look around at the world we live in and reach out to those who are oppressed or discriminated against. We have an obligation to say stop when innocents anywhere in the world are being murdered. Because with remembrance comes the obligation to do more than remember, we must also act with a sense of integrity and responsibility for one another.

We pray to the Holy One of Blessing, the Creator of all humanity, to open our hearts to all people. May we not be so blinded by our differences that we fail to remember that the Divine Image is reflected in all of humanity.

May this be God’s will.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Hard Times

We live in hard times. Even with spring's arrival and glimmers of hope, the economy slumps, war rages, and humanitarian crises—including those in Darfur—are relentless. Suffering has our nation and world in its grip. It is not hard to be discouraged, for we live in hard times.

In hard times, what good can it do to remember the Holocaust? Doesn't such remembrance invite more disappointment, when we consider how little the world has learned from that catastrophe, when we realize that the cry "Never again!" echoes unconvincingly as atrocities large and small take place again and again?

Understandable though discouragement may be, disturbing though it is to contemplate the Holocaust when there is so much human need all around us and demanding our attention now, remembrance of Nazi Germany's genocidal attack against the Jewish people and other groups that Hitler and his followers deemed inferior can help us in our hard times. Such remembrance can bolster resolve that discouragement and despair do not have to be, indeed must not be, the last words.

Elie Wiesel—Holocaust survivor, humanitarian and author, recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize—remembers the arrival of American troops at Buchenwald in mid-April 1945. “I will never forget the American soldiers and the horror that could be read in their faces,” he writes. “I will especially remember one black sergeant, a muscled giant, who wept tears of impotent rage and shame, shame for the human species, when he saw us. He spewed curses that on his lips became holy words.” Wiesel adds, “We tried to lift him onto our shoulders to show our gratitude, but we didn’t have the strength. We were too weak even to applaud him.”¹

With help from people like that black American sergeant, but above all from their own determination and inner resources, survivors of the Holocaust found renewed strength. Enduring the hardest of times, they went on, reestablished their lives, gave birth to children, built new homes, learned new languages, brought their professions and skills to new places, adding immensely to the nations and communities where they sometimes had to battle antisemitism and insensitivity that urged them to leave that past behind, which, of course, they could not do, at least not completely.

Holocaust survivors have blessed American life in countless ways, but in our current hard times their greatest gift to our nation and to California in particular, where many found homes, is this: They tell us do not give up. In their special ways, they show us that life is good and it can be better.

In his 1978 book A Jew Today, Elie Wiesel includes an imagined post-Holocaust dialogue between a father and his son. Perhaps the exchange is between himself and his father, who died in Buchenwald. The father asks: “How are you able to resist despair? How are you able to resist?” The son replies: “Easy. Whenever something pleasant happens, I close my eyes and see myself thirty years ago; and whatever seems good is not so good, after all. And whenever sadness and disappointment enter my life, I close my eyes and see myself thirty years ago; and what seems terrible is not so terrible, after all.”²

In our hard times, remembrance of the Holocaust can and should help us to see that what seems terrible is not so terrible, after all. Remembrance of the Holocaust can and should help us to resist the forces, including our own discouragement, that would lead us to give in, to give up, by settling for “good” that is not so good, after all, because it is less than we can and should achieve.

Yes, we live in hard times. Remembrance of the Holocaust and all that was lost in that disaster can put our hard times in perspective. Honor rightly paid to the Holocaust’s survivors and to those who helped them to rebuild life in the ruins provides examples that our respect for them and our own self-respect urge us to follow.

Address Printed in Journal

Without objection, the address by Dr. John Roth was printed in the Journal.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Saldaña, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Member V. Manuel Pérez, of the 80th Assembly District:

Good Morning Members and Esteemed Latino Spirit Honorees.

In light of the cultural festivities of the day—I offer this prayer on behalf of the oppressed across the world and those humbly persevering the struggles of our day.

We pray . . .

O, Holy God, Heart of Heaven and Earth, Praised by your holy name, your daughters and sons, from all peoples of the world—regardless of origin, praise you.

We praise you and give you thanks because you have placed in our hands the immigrant pilgrims who make the earth flourish and produce, that bring food to the table of the rich and poor alike.

We praise you and give you thanks because you walk always with ALL those that search for well-being, doing their part in building the world you entrusted to us.

Lord Jesus, look with tender mercy upon the multitudes of our day who bear the indignities of this world.

Raise up leaders in every land dedicated to your standards of order, equity, and justice.

Grant unto us, Lord Jesus, the grace to be worthy members of your mystical body, laboring unceasingly to fulfill our vocation in the social message of your church.

Sharpen our intellects to pierce the pettiness of prejudice and to pursue the beauty of true human brother and sisterhood.

Guide our minds to a meaningful understanding of the problems of the poor, of the oppressed, of the unemployed, of all in need of assistance everywhere.

Guide our hearts against the subtle lure of earthly things and undue regard for those who possess them. May we hunger and thirst for your love always.

And you, O Lady of Guadalupe, empress of the Americas, be always our protector, our vehicle for reconciliation and the building of equality and peace.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Saldaña, Assembly Member Hernandez then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

REPORTS

The following letters of transmittal were presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2008-113
December 9, 2008

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the Victim Compensation Program (program). This report concludes that program compensation payments sustained a 50 percent decrease from fiscal years 2001-02 through 2004-05 as a result of the Victim Compensation and Government Claims Board (board) members' attempts to maintain the fiscal viability of the Restitution Fund. Compensation payments have increased since fiscal year 2004–05, but not to the level they reached in fiscal year 2001–02. Despite the significant decline in payments, the costs the board incurs to support the program have increased. These costs—ranging from 26 percent to 42 percent annually—account for a significant portion of Restitution Fund disbursements. In addition, although the board generally complied with state laws and regulations for determining whether applicants are eligible for program benefits, it did not always process applications and bills as promptly or efficiently as it could have. The board's procedures for following up with outside entities to obtain necessary information to verify applications and bills are not sufficiently detailed and contribute to inconsistencies in staff efforts to obtain the information promptly.

In late June 2006 the board began transitioning to its current application and bill processing system. Although the board expects to gain efficiencies and benefits from the use of the new system, it generally has not developed benchmarks or measured results. Further, the board has experienced numerous problems with the transition. Most troubling was our identification of payments that appeared to be erroneous. Although board staff provided explanations, asserting that the payments were appropriate and the data were flawed, the fact that they were unaware of these items indicates the absence of controls that would prevent erroneous payments from being made. In addition, the board's current process for managing its workload is informal: it has not established benchmarks, performance measures, or formal written procedures for workload management. Finally, the board has not established a comprehensive outreach plan to assist it in appropriately prioritizing its efforts and focusing on those in need of program services.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA

2008-109
December 16, 2008

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the administration of, and processes used for, hearings held by the Office of Administrative Hearings (Administrative Hearings) and the California Department of Education's (Education) role within the process. Specifically, the report addresses how Administrative Hearings has conducted its operations since taking over the special education hearing process from the University of the Pacific's McGeorge School of Law (McGeorge) during fiscal year 2005–06.

This report concludes that when we compared the costs incurred by McGeorge to conduct hearings and mediations to the costs incurred by Administrative Hearings, we found that the average cost per case closed had increased by 14 percent since Administrative Hearings began managing the hearings and mediations process. We also found that the average time McGeorge took to close cases was 185 days, whereas, Administrative Hearings took an average of 118 days. Moreover, the number of cases closed before administrative law judges issued a hearing decision has not changed significantly since the years when McGeorge administered the hearings and mediations. We also found that when reviewing the outcomes of hearing decisions issued by McGeorge and Administrative Hearings over the last six years, McGeorge's data show that during the earlier two years it issued decisions in favor of students more often than did Administrative Hearings. However, by fiscal year 2004–05 McGeorge's decisions favoring students had decreased to a level that more closely matches the data for all three years that Administrative Hearings has overseen the process. Further, for the six years covered in our review, we could not determine the total number and costs of hearing decisions that students or school districts appealed to higher courts because neither Education nor any other entity consistently or completely tracks this information nor do laws require them to do so.

Our review also found that Education has established standards that Administrative Hearings must follow when administering the special education hearings and mediations process. We observed that, in general, Education appropriately oversees Administrative Hearings' execution of its interagency agreement with Education; however, it could tighten its oversight of Administrative Hearings in a couple of areas. Specifically, our review of one of Administrative Hearing's quarterly reports for each fiscal year between 2005–06 and 2007–08 found that it had not consistently included in these reports 10 items that the interagency agreement requires. Additionally, Education has not taken the steps to verify that Administrative Hearings ensures its administrative judges receive the training required by state law and the interagency agreement. Finally, our audit also revealed that Administrative Hearings has not always issued hearing decisions within the legally required time frame, which could potentially lead to sanctions by the federal government and affect special education funding for the State.

2008-401

October 23, 2008

*The Governor of California
President pro Tempore of the Senate
Speaker of the Assembly
State Capitol
Sacramento, California*

Dear Governor and Legislative Leaders: This letter report presents a summary of the results of the Bureau of State Audits' assessments of the reliability of data for the purposes of its audits in a wide variety of databases and automated spreadsheets. Data reliability refers to the accuracy and completeness of the data, given our intended purposes for their use. The State uses these data in many ways, which include reporting on its programs, tracking licensees and recipients of funds, disbursing funds, and making program decisions. Although we have disclosed these data reliability assessments in 24 audit reports we issued during 2006 and 2007, this report is intended to call attention both to areas of concern, where important data are not always reliable, as well as to instances when information has been reliable. We have conducted our assessments in accordance with the provisions of the federal Government Accountability Office's Assessing the Reliability of Computer-Processed Data, which require us to assess and report on the reliability of the data from automated systems we use to reach our audit conclusions. We anticipate that this report will be the first in a series of reports on the subject.

Many systems had reliable data for our purposes, but some important systems did not. During the 24 audits, we assessed the reliability of specific data for 68 different purposes in 46 separate database and spreadsheet systems. For 30 audit purposes, we concluded the data were reliable, so that using the data would not weaken our analysis or lead us to an incorrect or unintentional message. We found, for example, that the Board of Equalization had reliable data allowing us to determine the level of additional revenues generated in fiscal year 2004–05 by new cigarette and tobacco licensing legislation.

However, for 19 purposes, we reported the data were not sufficiently reliable, meaning that using the data would most likely lead to an incorrect or unintentional message and that data have significant or potentially significant limitations, given the audit topic and intended use of the data. For instance, a Department of Education database had some obviously unreliable information about staffing levels at local school districts, in which certain individuals were credited with more than 1.5 full-time equivalent positions. As a result, we had to adjust the data to provide more reasonable information.

For the remaining 19 purposes, we were unable to determine the reliability of the data; therefore, we concluded that use of the data could lead to an incorrect or unintentional message and the data have significant or potentially significant limitations, given the research question and intended use of the data. In some cases, our conclusion that data were of undetermined reliability arose from issues that were either beyond the control of the audited agencies or were not a cause for concern. The undetermined reliability conclusion for cost-effectiveness data on proposed projects at the State Air Resources Board was not a cause for concern, for instance, because it arose from an acceptable business practice—the information was entered directly into the database. Nevertheless, without hard-copy documentation, we were not able to assess the accuracy of the cost-effectiveness data. At other times, however, we were not able to determine data reliability because the data had errors or omissions and we could not quantify the extent of the problems. Two compensation databases at the University of California and California State University, for example, suffered from inconsistent input or lack of supporting documentation from the various campuses providing data. As a result, we were not able to use the databases to provide complete and accurate university-wide compensation of highly paid individuals by type and funding source.

In our review of reimbursements to skilled nursing facilities for Medi-Cal services they provided, we discovered that the State's fiscal intermediary responsible for calculating and preparing remittance advices for those reimbursements authorized duplicate payments. In subsequent work, we reported that the system flaw resulting in the duplicate payments also existed for payments to other types of providers. After we discovered these duplicate payments and pointed out the magnitude of the system flaw, the Department of Health Care Services¹, which administers the Medi-Cal program, performed further analysis and identified $5.1 million in overpayments to 532 skilled nursing facilities, much of which it asserted it had recovered as of January 31, 2008. However, we could not validate this information because it did not retain the supporting documentation for its claims.

The Table on pages 10 through 13 summarizes selected information from the pages referenced in the Appendix. The data reliability assessment relates to the purpose we tested the system's data for during the audit as described in the Appendix. The agency's use of the system's data usually, but not always, is similar to our use of the system's data.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Business and Professions.

¹ On July 1, 2007, the California Department of Health Services was reorganized and became two departments—the Department of Health Care Services and the Department of Public Health. The Department of Health Care Services is now responsible for the Medi-Cal program.

Investigative Report 12008-0805

January 22, 2009

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: Pursuant to the California Whistleblower Protection Act, the Bureau of State Audits presents its investigative report concerning acquisitions of information technology (IT) goods and services by California Prison Health Care Services (Prison Health Services) with the assistance of the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (Corrections). When Prison Health Services discovered that some of its IT acquisitions had been made with a single vendor in 2007 and 2008 without complying with either the state contracting process or the alternative contracting processes established by a federal court, they requested that we investigate the matter.

This report concludes that staff at Prison Health Services ignored state contracting laws, as well as the alternative contracting requirements established by a federal court, when it acquired $26.7 million in IT goods and services in a noncompetitive manner from November 2007 through April 2008. Specifically, Prison Health Services used 49 purchase orders to acquire $23.8 million worth of IT goods from a single vendor when it should have sought competitive bids. It also contracted with the same vendor to provide $2.9 million in IT services again without using a competitive process. Further, staff at Corrections helped to execute the purchase orders for Prison Health Services after initially questioning the propriety of the process used. Consequently, the State cannot be certain that Prison Health Services spent $26.7 million in public funds prudently or that it received the best value for the money spent.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to Committee on Health.

California State Auditor

2008-603
February 3, 2009

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As authorized by Chapter 251, Statutes of 2004, the Bureau of State Audits (bureau) presents its report concerning its addition of the State's budget condition to its list of high-risk issues. In May 2007 the bureau published its initial assessment of the high-risk issues the State and select state agencies face. Our initial assessment identified five significant statewide risk areas and two specific state agencies facing challenges to their day-to-day and long-term operations. Based on the current fiscal crisis and a history of ongoing deficits, the bureau has added the State's budget condition to its list of high-risk issues. We believe that the record-breaking delays in passing the fiscal year 2008–09 budget, the need for subsequent special sessions focused on the budget, and the multibillion dollar budget gap lawmakers are attempting to close highlight the potential for the State's budget process and condition to add significant roadblocks to the tasks of managing and improving state and local government.

In analyzing information on budget deficits and surpluses during the last 20 years, using various methods of determining the budget condition, we found that all measures pointed to the same conclusion—the State has experienced ongoing deficits that greatly outweigh any surpluses. Although these results indicate that the State has faced a long-standing problem, we found that nearly half of the amounts related to the budget solutions implemented to resolve the shortfalls have only pushed the problem into the future. This report also identifies various factors that make it difficult for decision makers to reverse this course. Because we have designated the State's budget condition as high risk, the bureau will continue to monitor developments in this area, clarify issues when needed, and attempt to help decision makers find areas to streamline government or enhance revenues.

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly

State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: The Bureau of State Audits presents its Independent Auditor's Report on the State of California's basic financial statements for the year ended June 30, 2008. These financial statements are presented on a basis in conformity with general accepted accounting principles (GAAP). The financial statements show that the State's General Fund had revenues and other financing sources that were approximately $2.3 billion less than expenditures and other financing uses. The General Fund ended the fiscal year with a fund deficit of approximately $4.2 billion. The GAAP basis government-wide statements include all liabilities owed by the State while the budgetary basis statements used to report on the State's budget do not reflect all liabilities.

We conducted the audit to comply with the California Government Code 8546.4.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the Bureau of State Audits presents its audit report concerning the use of temporary workers by general law local governments. This report concludes that concerns regarding the possible improper classification of temporary workers by local governments generally were unfounded. We found that temporary employees in only 11 of 78 job classifications appeared to have limited opportunities to move to permanent jobs. Furthermore, the local governments using these 11 classifications had reasonable explanations for employing primarily temporary workers in these classifications. The remaining job classifications either constituted true temporary jobs that generally lasted for a relatively short time, were per diem (paid by the day) classifications in which most employees worked on a temporary basis by choice, or were classifications for which the temporary employees in them appeared to have good opportunities to get permanent jobs.

Temporary employees of the six local governments we reviewed, with one type of temporary employee in Kern County being the exception, generally do not receive employer-sponsored benefits or receive very few of these benefits until they have worked at least 1,000 hours. In contrast, most permanent workers and at-will management employees receive employer-sponsored benefits, the most common being retirement, health, dental, vision, vacation, sick leave, and paid holidays. However, the hourly wages of temporary workers in these six local governments were frequently the same as the wages of comparable permanent workers. Five of the six local governments we reviewed had temporary workers who exceeded their government's established maximum time limits for employees working in a temporary capacity over various periods during 2006 and 2007, although the number of instances was significant in only two local governments, Contra Costa County and Riverside County. Both counties had explanations for nearly all of the instances, including that the extra time may have been or had been authorized, or that the employees involved were not subject to the county's limits.

We surveyed 594 temporary workers from the six local governments and received 230 responses. The results of our survey indicate that respondents to our survey from the cities were more likely than respondents from the counties to be temporary employees by their own choice and less likely to have applied for permanent jobs with their local government employers.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Local Government.

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly

Members of the Assembly: The Bureau of State Audits (bureau) presents a review concerning the State's efforts to manage the risks associated with a large exodus of experienced employees due to retirement, which could threaten the ability of the State to deliver critical services. This review follows up on the discussion of human resources management as a statewide high-risk area in our May 2007 report titled High Risk: The California State Auditor's Initial Assessment of High-Risk Issues the State and Select Agencies Face (2006-601).

This review concludes that the State is poised to see a significant number of today's workers in leadership and rank and file positions retire within the next seven years, yet most departments are only in the beginning stages of preparing for this loss of institutional knowledge and expertise. Since the bureau issued its 2007 high-risk report, the Department of Personnel Administration (personnel administration) has hired a statewide workforce planning manager and, in partnership with the State Personnel Board, has offered departments extensive workforce and succession planning assistance. However, when we reviewed five departments that provide critical public health and safety services, we found that none of these departments had completed workforce and succession plans that address all of the steps in personnel administration's workforce planning model. Although departments are not required to follow this model, we believe it presents a thoughtful approach for developing workforce and succession plans. Despite lacking such plans, many departments have taken some steps to mitigate the effects of expected retirements, such as focusing on employee training and on efforts to improve the department culture and employee morale. While the current budget crisis may make it difficult for departments to initiate some programs, we identified several cost-effective strategies that departments can consider implementing, such as job-shadowing and mentoring programs.

April 22, 2009

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: As authorized by Chapter 251, Statutes of 2004, the Bureau of State Audits (bureau) presents its analysis concerning the addition of the State's system for administering federal funds received under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (Recovery Act) to its list of high-risk issue areas. As discussed in the enclosed analysis, the bureau has in the past identified internal control concerns related to state agencies' administration of federal programs. Because of these concerns and the vast amount of funds California expects to receive under the Recovery Act in the current and next fiscal year, the extensive requirements the Recovery Act places on recipients of these funds, the limited amount of time the State has to spend some of these funds, and the risk that California may lose Recovery Act funds if it fails to comply with the requirements, the bureau believes the State's system for administering the Recovery Act's funds represents a high-risk issue area.

Because we have designated the State's system for administering the Recovery Act's funds as high risk, we will exercise the bureau's authority to initiate audits of areas of high risk and conduct a review of the State's and selected departments' readiness to comply with applicable federal Recovery Act requirements.

Respectfully submitted,

Investigative Report I2009-1

April 28, 2009

*The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California*

Members of the Assembly: Pursuant to the California Whistleblower Protection Act, the Bureau of State Audits presents its investigative report summarizing investigations of improper governmental activity completed from July through December 2008.

This report details nine substantiated allegations in several state departments. Through our investigative methods, we found waste of state funds, improper payments, improper contracting, and misuse of state resources. For example, the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (Corrections) and the Department of General Services wasted $580,000 in state funds by leasing office space left unoccupied for more than four years.

In addition, this report provides an update on previously reported issues and describes any additional actions taken by state departments to correct the problems we previously identified. For example, Corrections reported that it established accounts receivable totaling $11,400 after we reported it paid nine office technicians $16,530 more than they should have received. However, because Corrections used the incorrect period for overpayment recovery when it initiated its collection efforts, it failed to collect $3,320 to which the State was entitled.
