Explanation of Vote—Assembly Bill No. 347

March 18, 2010

Mr. E. Dotson Wilson
Chief Clerk of the Assembly
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Dear Mr. Wilson: During Assembly Floor Session on January 27, 2010, I inadvertently voted ''No'' on Assembly Bill 347 by Assemblymember Bass. However, I am a co-author of this measure, and when the bill returned for concurrence in Senate amendments on March 4, I voted ''Aye.''

Charitable donations are vital to Haiti's recovery from the January 12, 2010 earthquake, and I support this important measure because it encourages immediate donations to Haiti earthquake relief by allowing taxpayers to deduct those donations on their 2009 tax return. Therefore, I am submitting this letter to the Assembly Journal to clarify my unequivocal support for the bill.

Respectfully submitted,

JOEL ANDERSON, Assembly Member
Seventy-seventh District

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Ma, the following prayer was offered by Guest Chaplain Father Vahan Gosdanian, representing Archbishop Moushegh Mardirossian, Prelate of the Armenian Church, Western United States:

Heavenly Father, We thank You for this day, and for Your many blessings and graces.

We thank You for granting us this opportunity to gather here to remember the one and a half million martyrs of the Armenian Genocide, who 95 years ago gave their lives in defense of their faith and their nation.

Today, as we pay tribute to their loving memory, we remember also all victims of genocide, praying for the repose of their souls, and reaffirming our commitment to attaining recognition and justice for all.

We ask You to bless our governor and elected officials for their courage and dedication in taking the initiative to commemorate this solemn occasion with our community each year. May Your divine wisdom and guidance be upon them always in their service to the people of this great state.

Grant us all the gifts of insight and strength to think, speak, and do what is right; help us to accept our responsibilities and act with courage; and inspire us to overcome challenges, suffering, and hardship so that we may continue undeterred in our tireless fight to have our voices heard and to have truth and justice prevail.

Encourage our minds, embolden our hearts, empower our spirits, and help us to fulfill our purpose so that we may be able to reach our ultimate goals.

Protect us from evil and keep us in peace, safe from enemies visible and invisible, and have mercy upon us all.

May the souls of our faithful departed, through Your mercy, rest in peace.—AMEN.

The Honorable John Pérez
Speaker, California State Assembly
State Capitol, Room 219
Sacramento, California

Dear Mr. Speaker: I respectfully request permission to be excused from session on Thursday, April 15, 2010 for official business in my district.

Mrs. Obama has invited me to visit the New Roots Community Farm in San Diego in my district with her to highlight a community site that is promoting healthy living and nutrition and to share remarks regarding a commitment from the CA Endowment to invest in underserved communities.

Because the event begins promptly at 1 p.m., I regret I would not be able to attend session that morning and make the event on time. Please let Monica Hatley, my scheduler, know if this request is approved or if you have any questions.

Thank you for your assistance. Please contact my office should any questions arise.

Sincerely,

MARTY BLOCK, Assembly Member

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Ma, the following prayer was offered by Guest Chaplain Rabbi Denise L. Eger:

Holy One of Blessings, We call You by many names. On this spring morning we ask Your abundant blessings upon our great state of California and all of its inhabitants.

Our Golden State is filled with Your glory, Holy One, from our stirring mountain vistas to our ocean panoramas to our velvet desert landscapes.

As the Book of Psalms (24:1) teaches us: The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof the world and they that dwell therein.

Bless our land in these difficult economic times. When our California residents struggle to maintain our way of life, to care for their children and families, to find access to jobs and meaningful work—bless these legislators who work hours on end to find solutions to our state's woes.

Help them work together in the spirit of cooperation across the partisan aisle.

Help them to see that their actions or inactions create success or suffering in our state.

Help them to serve with compassion and fairness.

As this House of the Assembly attends to the work of government, let each of our elected leaders govern with distinction and merit.

Let each member bring her or his wisdom and heart to the work of California and its citizenry.

Let each know that they are making a positive difference in the lives of millions each day.

So too bless their families, their children and grandchildren, partners and spouses with the special patience and love that it takes to support this work.

As the prophet Malachi (4:6) teaches: Turn the heart of the parents toward their children and turn the hearts of the children toward their parents.

Dear Holy One on this day—be near to each person here, our legislators and their families, the many who work in this Capitol and fill them up with strength and clear thinking, good health, and Your abundant blessings.

Let them attune their spirits and souls on this day with right intentions and right actions to fill Your world with an ancient gift of peace—shalom.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Ma, Assembly Member Yamada then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Memory Is a Must: A Legacy of Memory Guides Our Lives
Holocaust Memorial Day: April 19, 2010
Rabbi Denise L. Eger

Mr. Speaker, Distinguished Assembly Members, staff, and honored guests:

I thank you for the invitation to speak with you this morning. On this morning we have gathered to honor Holocaust Memorial Day and Remembrance Week. The Jewish calendar calls it Yom Hashoa v'hagvurah—Holocaust Memorial and Heroes Day. Today, here in this Chamber, is a legacy of memory for all of us and we have heard about so many lessons that must guide our lives. As was said, this is a time not only to memorialize the dead but pay tribute to those who survived. We honor all of you who fought so valiantly against the evils of the Nazi and Axis regimes. We honor you who served in the military and those in ghettos and camps who rose up to fight back.

Why do we mark this day—April 19th? April 19, 1943 was the beginning of the Warsaw Ghetto uprising. The Nazis had marched into the ghetto that they had made. It was a desolate and dark place where they had forced the Jews of Warsaw to live. It was a place of disease and destruction, starvation and danger at every corner. The Nazis as part of the Final Solution—proceeded with plans to liquidate the remaining 50,000 Jews there, down from more than 550,000 at its height, through death and transfer to concentration camps. On that April 19, 1943—67 years ago today—the Nazis entered the Ghetto only to find it empty. The residents, over the course of several months, had built underground tunnels and bunkers, and they hid. They hid and fought back against their Nazi terrorists and murderers. For three weeks they engaged the Nazis in a fierce guerrilla battle—street to street, house to house, building to building. They stymied the Nazis in the first couple of days, the young Jewish fighters of the Jewish Combat Organization (ZOB), until the leadership was killed on May 8th at their headquarters at Mila 18.

And so on this morning in our Capitol, in this Special Session we come together to remember all the victims of the Nazi terror and to honor the lives of the dead, to honor the lives of you who have survived and to those who fought to restore dignity, human civility, and life. We honor the memory of the six million Jews targeted by the Nazis, and we also remember that the Nazis targeted so many groups that did not fit their image of perfection. In addition to the Jews of Europe, the Nazis targeted the physically and mentally disabled, Jehovah's Witnesses, Labor Organizers, Gay Men and Lesbians, The Roma people known as Gypsies, political prisoners, Communists, and more than two million Polish gentiles and Slavs were the victims of Nazi terror. More than 15 million people were murdered by the Nazis and their killing machines. In California terms that is like murdering everyone in the Los Angeles, Long Beach and Santa Ana metropolitan corridors. Think about it. It is hard to imagine that many people. It is hard to imagine the children and grandchildren who will never be.

Today our commemoration reminds us that this kind of human evil—the mass murder and destruction of our fellow human beings—must always be stopped. We cannot sit idly by the blood of our neighbors. Today, in our world there are genocides happening as we stand here this day. In Uganda there is a proposed bill to target gay men and lesbians. It would proscribe the death penalty for even saying you are gay. In other parts of Africa, Darfur and the Congo, entire groups are being targeted, murdered, raped, and disfigured as government militias roam the countryside routing out and killing all who are of a different faith, or a different tribe. On this Holocaust Memorial Day—we must pause to remember and reflect—to be advocates for others.

But today we honor those of you who survived. You courageous and strong people who are the living testimony to those who would falsely claim that the Holocaust never happened. We honor your tenacity, your fortitude and endurance. We honor you who served in the Allied forces to liberate Europe and the Pacific from the hands of the Axis troops; those who liberated the concentration camps and torture centers. They worked through grueling and often inhumane conditions to restore humanity to our world. We thank you for your service to our country, and to the world as a force for good. Your actions and heroism are a legacy for us. The Talmud teaches that if you save one life, you have saved the world—and you veterans, honored soldiers—saved more than one world, many worlds, by your service.

I close with a powerful story of memory and how it can keep us moving forward in life—to action. For that is the essence of this Holocaust Memorial Day—move forward to a full life—conscious of our duties to our fellow human beings; conscious and fully aware that genocide, ethnic cleansing, and injustices must be addressed not only by individuals but, yes, by governments.

This is a Chasidic tale retold by Yaffa Eliach based on an interview with Kalia Dingott with Anna in May 1976.[1]

Anna was among the tens of thousands who succumbed to the typhus epidemic in Bergen Belsen. Her friends gave her up for dead and told her that her struggle with death was useless. But Anna was determined to live. She knew that if she lay down, the end would come soon and she would die like so many others around her. So, in a delirious state, she wandered around camp, stumbling over the dead and the dying. But her strength gave way. She felt that her feet were refusing to carry her any farther. As she was struggling to get up from the cold, wet ground, she noticed in the distance a hill shrouded in gray mist. Anna felt a strange sensation. Instantly, the hill in the distance became a symbol of life. She knew that if she reached the hill, she would survive, but if she failed, the typhus would triumph.

Anna attempted to walk toward the hill, which continually assumed the shape of a mound of earth, a huge grave. And yet the mound remained Anna's symbol of life, and she was determined to reach it. On her hands and knees she crawled toward that strange mound of earth that now was the essence of her survival. After long hours passed, Anna reached her destination. With feverish hands she touched the cold mound of earth. With her last drop of strength, she crawled to the top of the mound and collapsed. Tears started to run down her cheeks, real human, warm tears, her first tears since her incarceration in concentration camps some four years ago. She began to call for her father. ''Please, Papa, help me, for I cannot go on like this any longer.''

Suddenly, she felt a warm hand on top of her head. It was as if her father were stroking her as when she was a small child, just as he used to place his hands over her head every Friday night (at the Sabbath table) and bless her. Anna recognized her father's warm, comforting hands. She began to sob even more and told him that she had no strength to live any longer. Her father listened and caressed her head as he used to. He did not recite the customary blessing but, instead, said, ''Don't worry my child. You will manage to survive for a few days, for liberation is very close.''

This occurred on Wednesday night April 11, 1945. On Sunday April 15, the first British tank entered Bergen Belsen. When Anna was well enough to leave the hospital in the British Zone where she was recovering from typhus, she returned to Bergen Belsen. Only then did she learn that the huge mound of earth in the big square where she spent the fateful night of April 11 in her combat with typhus was a huge mass grave. Among thousands of victims buried beneath the mound of earth was her father, who had perished months earlier in Bergen Belsen. On that night when she won her battle with death, Anna was weeping on her father's grave.

But the memory of her father's blessing helped Anna summon the strength even through her fever. That is a legacy of memory. So too on this day of commemoration—the legacy of memory helps us summon strength to face the future. May the memory of the millions of people murdered by the Nazis inspire us to action around the world and in our homes. May hatred be erased from our existence and instead the milk of human kindness influence our days.

May the memory of those who died in the camps and ghettos and murder fields of Europe and all those who have been the victims of genocides around our globe inspire us in right action and mindfulness of each person's dignity and humanity. May the memory of the righteous live for a blessing in our lives—Zicronam livracha.

May each of you, the survivors and the liberators, go on from this day in peace and health, from strength to strength—so may it be God's will.

Lord, It's easy to get so focused on our dreams and goals, that it consumes us. But if we have to have something in order to be happy, our lives are out of balance. Freedom comes to us, when we can say, ''Lord, I'm turning it all over to You. You know my desires and what's best for me. I choose to trust You and trust Your timing.'' Help us to be content with our circumstances, so that we can live in peace and in joy, knowing that You have only good things in store for our future.—AMEN.

Lord, The Book of Psalms tells us that we need to stop and be still, so we can focus on knowing You. (Psalm 46:10) When we face a challenge, Lord, at times we may want to run to a friend or talk about it with a co-worker. But at some point, we have to stop and say, ''God, I know You have me in the palm of Your hand.'' Help us to take time to be still before You and to remember that the battles we face belong to You.—AMEN.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Ma, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Constantine C. Pappademos:

Lord, As we prepare to celebrate the victory of Mexican bravery and love for liberty that is Cinco de Mayo, we thank You for Your gift of faith. Faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen (Hebrews 11:1). We have all been given a measure of faith, but it is up to each of us to put it into action. As our faith in You grows, Lord, help us to see the blessings You send upon us.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Ma, Assembly Member Salas then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

RECESS

By unanimous consent, at 10:50 a.m., Speaker pro Tempore Ma declared the Assembly recessed to permit the introduction of a special guest.

Speaker John A. Pérez introduced baseball legend Willie Mays. Speaker Pérez recognized Willie Mays, who began his career in a segregated semi-professional league in Birmingham, as a symbol of America's equality, and a hero to millions of Americans across the decades. Speaker Pérez noted that Willie Mays' career spanned 22 years, in which he hit 660 homeruns, had more that 3,000 hits, nearly 2,000 RBI's, played in 24 All-Star Games, and still leads professional baseball in the number of put-outs by an outfielder, becoming one of the greatest players in Major League baseball history.

Speaker Pérez was joined by the Members of the Assembly in recognizing Baseball Hall of Fame Member Willie Mays for his outstanding athletic accomplishments and wished him well on the occasion of his 79th birthday, whereupon Willie Mays addressed the assemblage.

Without objection, Willie Mays was escorted to the front of the Assembly Chamber and was joined by the Members of the Assembly for a photograph to commemorate the historic occasion.

RECONVENED

At 11:02 a.m., the Assembly reconvened.

Hon. Fiona Ma, Speaker pro Tempore of the Assembly, presiding.

REPORTS

The following letters of transmittal were presented by the Chief Clerk and ordered printed in the Journal:

California State Auditor

2009-001
March 10, 2010

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: The Bureau of State Audits presents its Independent Auditor's Report on the State of California's basic financial statements for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2009. These financial statements are presented on a basis in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). The financial statements show that the State's General Fund had revenues and other financing sources that were approximately $11.9 billion less than expenditures and other financing uses. The General Fund ended the fiscal year with a fund deficit of approximately $16.1 billion. The GAAP basis government-wide statements include all liabilities owed by the State while the budgetary basis statements used to report on the State's budget do not reflect all liabilities.

We conducted the audit to comply with the California Government Code, Section 8546.4.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Budget.

California State Auditor

2009-002
March 30, 2010

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: As required by California Government Code, Section 8545 et seq., the State Auditor's Office presents its audit report concerning our review of the State of California's internal controls and compliance with state and federal laws and regulations for the year ended June 30, 2009.

This report concludes that the State failed to comply with certain requirements for nine of the 37 federal programs or clusters of programs we audited to such a degree that we had to qualify our opinion. Additionally, we were unable to obtain sufficient documentation to express an opinion on whether the State complied with relevant federal requirements for 10 programs or clusters of programs. Further, the State continues to experience certain deficiencies in its accounting and administrative practices that affect its internal controls over financial reporting and over compliance with federal requirements. Deficiencies in the State's internal control system could adversely affect its ability to provide accurate financial information and to administer federal programs in compliance with applicable requirements.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Budget.

California State Auditor

2009-106
April 29, 2010

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the California State Auditor presents its audit report concerning the High-Speed Rail Authority's (Authority) readiness to manage funds authorized for building the high-speed rail network (program) in California, including the $9 billion in general obligation bonds the voters authorized in November 2008.

This report concludes that the High-Speed Rail Authority has not adequately planned for the future development of the program. For example, in its 2009 business plan, the Authority outlined the sources from which it expected to receive the funds necessary to meet the estimated $42.6 billion cost of the program. The Authority stated it would need $17 billion to $19 billion from the federal government; however, the Authority has received a federal commitment of only $2.25 billion. In addition, the business plan does not make clear which government would be responsible for a revenue guarantee needed to attract private investors, or how much it might cost. The program risks significant delays without more well-developed plans for obtaining funds.

The Authority also needs to improve some administrative practices. State law requires the Authority to establish an independent peer review group (review group) to review the Authority's plans, but only five of the eight members have been appointed. Thus, the Authority cannot fully benefit from the expertise the review group would provide. Additionally, the Authority does not currently categorize and track expenditures for administration, which state law limits to 2.5 percent ($225 million) of the $9 billion in bond funds authorized. Unless it tracks these funds and develops long-range plans for spending them, it risks running out of them prematurely.

Finally, a primary tool for monitoring the program has been inadequate and the Authority has not implemented effective controls over invoice processing and in some cases has paid for work that was not part of contracts or work plans. Three recent monthly progress reports the contractor managing the program (Program Manager) submitted to the Authority contained inconsistent information and did not compare actions performed and products created to what contractors promised to complete in their work plans. Additionally, the Authority paid at least $4 million of invoices for which it had no evidence from the Program Manager that the contractors had performed the work invoiced. The Authority also paid more than $268,000 for work that was not included in contractors' work plans, impairing its ability to measure performance against those plans, and it misused public funds when it paid $46,000 for furniture not covered in the contract with its Program Manager.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

Above report referred to the Committee on Transportation.

California State Auditor

2009-107.2
May 18, 2010

The Honorable Speaker of the Assembly
The Honorable Members of the Assembly
of the Legislature of California
State Capitol, Room 3196
Sacramento, California

Members of the Assembly: As requested by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee, the California State Auditor presents this audit report concerning the effect of California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation's (Corrections) operations on the state budget.

This report concludes that inmates sentenced under the three strikes law, and a small number of inmates receiving specialty health care, represent significant costs. Specifically, about 25 percent of the inmate population was incarcerated under the three strikes law, which requires longer terms for individuals convicted of any felony if they were previously convicted of a serious or violent crime as defined in state law. On average, we estimate that these individuals' sentences are nine years longer because of the requirements of the three strikes law and that these additional years of incarceration represent a cost to the State of $19.2 billion. Furthermore, the current conviction for which many of these individuals are incarcerated is not for a serious or violent crime, as defined in state law, and many were convicted of multiple serious or violent crimes that occurred on the same day.

Our review also found that of the $529 million that California Prison Health Care Services incurred for contracted specialty health care providers in fiscal year 2007–08, $469 million could be associated with individual inmates. Among the inmates with specialty health care costs, 70 percent averaged slightly more than $1,000 per inmate and cost $42 million in total, while the remaining 30 percent of inmates amassed specialty health care costs totaling more than $427 million. Furthermore, specialty health care costs for 1,175 inmates, or just one-half of 1 percent of the inmates incarcerated during the year, totaled $185 million. In addition, specialty health care costs totaled $8.8 million for the 72 inmates who died during the last quarter of the year, exceeding $1 million in the case of one inmate.

Finally, a significant amount of custody staff overtime is the result of a medical guarding and transportation workload that does not have associated authorized positions. Overtime is also necessary when custody staff positions are vacant, but is decreased by staff who do not use the full amount of leave they earn. However, the unused leave of custody staff—increased by the additional leave provided through the furlough program—represents a liability to the State that we estimate is at least $546 million and could be more than $1 billion.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE M. HOWLE, CPA
State Auditor

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker Pérez, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Constantine C. Pappademos:

Lord, In the Bible, just before David fought the giant Goliath, David's brother tried to dissuade him. But David knew that his real battle was with Goliath and he didn't want to be distracted. He simply turned away from his brother and focused on what he was called to do. Today, most of our frustrations aren't worth our energy. When we avoid strife, it can be a mark of honor. Help us, Lord, to keep our focus on what You have called us to do, so that we may live in honor and move toward Your will in our life.—AMEN.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Upon request of Speaker Pérez, Assembly Member Fuller then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Ma, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Chaplain Rev. Constantine C. Pappademos:

Lord, Your very beauty, Your love, Your goodness and purity sometimes make human beings uncomfortable. Your sublime attributes and person and name, instead of eliciting reverence and awe, draw out hostility, anger and malice from some people. That is why You commanded: ''Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain.'' (Exodus 20:7) But for us who believe in You, Your person draws us closer, and from our love and esteem for You, we say, ''Hallowed be Thy name.'' Lord, may Your name be always blessed and honored until the end of time.—AMEN.

Upon request of Speaker pro Tempore Ma, Assembly Member Bill Berryhill then led the Assembly in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

PRAYER

Upon invitation of Speaker pro Tempore Ma, the following prayer was offered by Assembly Guest Chaplain Rev. Terri Miller:

The Prophet Isaiah 40:30 says: God gives power to the weak and to those who have no might God increases strength.

Please join me in prayer:

Gracious God, we come humbly before You today asking for Your wisdom and understanding.

I pray for this Assembly to use the insights of the Divine for direction in helping the weak, the less fortunate, those who don't have equal rights and the many issues you address.

I pray that the wisdom of the ages and ages to come would be present in every discussion and every vote.

I especially pray that the members of this great body would remember that they have been placed in a position to help others even in difficult times.

I believe there is enough; and I would ask for God's grace to do the difficult work that must be done with that in mind.

May each one of us remember the great cloud of witnesses who have gone before us to make a way where there seems to be none.

Teach us Great Spirit not to just whisper about justice, hope, insight and vision; but guide us to the mountain tops of courage and through the valley of healing.—AMEN.

Lord, One of our human tendencies is to tuck things away in tidy little compartments. We call one thing sacred and another secular. But the fact is that anything touched by Your presence has upon it sacred significance. Help us to live our lives always conscious of Your abiding presence, so that even the most mundane objects or activities can assume enormous significance in our life. Lord, when You are part of everything we do, everything we do becomes holy.—AMEN.
