BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF BILLS AND CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS AS INTRODUCED IN THE ASSEMBLY AT THE FIFTY-THIRD (EXTRAORDINARY) SESSION.
(PREPARED BY LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL)

The following applies only to bills and constitutional amendments as introduced. Because of the time element no attempt has been made to digest each measure in detail. Each description purports to contain only a statement of the subject of the measure and what appears to be its principal features

A.B. 1—BASHORE AND OTHERS. Amends Secs. 2224 and 2227, adds Sec. 2225 5, repeals Secs. 2226 and 2229, W. & I. C., re aid to the aged.

Adds provision that board of supervisors is to determine if spouse or adult child of recipient of aid has filed a State income tax return and is pecuniarily able to support or contribute to support of recipient before proceeding against such person in manner now provided.

Prohibits recipient of aid from transferring real property except for valuable and reasonably adequate consideration. Provides for recording notice that aid has been granted. Provides for certificate of justice of peace or municipal court judge as to circumstances of transfer and adequacy of consideration. Provides for notice of discontinuance of aid.

Repeals provisions authorizing supervisors to take agreement that recipient will not transfer or encumber his property. Repeals provision for claim of county against estate of recipient.

Cancels agreements heretofore executed and provides procedure to effectuate cancellation.

A.B. 2—PELLETIER AND OTHERS. New act.

Authorizes city of the first and one-half class to create a municipal department under board of five commissioners. Authorizes department to establish and maintain buildings and adjuncts for public assemblies and other purposes specified in Sec. 2 of bill.
