LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

Resources geological sciences, mining

There is, under present law, the State Mining and Geology Board and the Division of Mines and Geology of the Department of Conservation, vested with certain powers and duties with respect to mining and geology

This bill would abolish the State Mining and Geology Board, and create the State Board of Geological Sciences, prescribing its organization and composition The new board would generally succeed to the powers and duties of the abolished board, but would be vested with additional powers and duties governing surface mining operations and reclamation This bill would also change the name of the Division of Mines and Geology to the Division of Geological Sciences

The bill would enact a new law, the Surface Mining Reclamation Act of 1975, to govern surface mining operations and provide for the reclamation of mined lands The bill would, by such provisions, declare legislative intent and define terms, require the board to establish surface mining districts and to appoint a district technical advisory committee for each district, provide for the adoption of surface mining rules and regulations by the board, provide for the issuance of annual permits to engage in surface mining operations, create the Surface Mining Reclamation Fund; provide for the submission to, and approval of reclamation plans by, the State Geologist, as specified, generally require the filing of a surety bond or the deposit of cash or certificates of deposit, as specified, prior to commencement of surface mining operations in not less or more than an unspecified amount per acre of land included in the reclamation plan, provide for the enforcement of such provisions by the State Geologist or the Attorney General, and require the State Geologist to report annually to the board and the Legislature on such enforcement

The bill would also do the following

(a) Create the Geologic Hazards Technical Advisory Committee and prescribe its organization, composition, powers, and duties

(b) Define and redefine terms for purposes of the provisions pertaining to geology, mines, and mining

(c) Require the Office of Planning and Research, in cooperation with the State Geologist, to formulate and submit to the Legislature on or before July 1, 1977, a planning process classifying lands with respect to mineral deposits and suitability for surface mining operations.

The bill would further provide that neither an appropriation is made nor an obligation created for the reimbursement of any local agency for any costs incurred by it pursuant to the act

Preprint S.B. No. 11—Carpenter.

An act to amend Sections 17041, 17054 and 17171 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

Preprint SB 11, as proposed, Carpenter (Rev & Tax) Personal income taxes

Under present law, income tax rates, credits for personal exemptions, and the standard deduction are fixed by statute

This act requires the Franchise Tax Board to annually recompute such income tax brackets, credits for personal exemptions and the standard deduction and adjust such rates, credits and deduction according to the inflation adjustment factor, commencing with the computation of taxes for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1975

The "inflation adjustment factor" is determined by increasing the income brackets, credits for personal exemptions, and the standard deduction by the same percentage as the percentage increase in all items in the California Consumer Price Index over a specified period

This act is to take effect immediately, tax levy, and is to be applied in the computation of taxes for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1974
