Fiscal Emergency Proclamation
by Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger Convened January 8, 2010

WHEREAS last year, the nation and California confronted the most severe economic downturn since the Great Depression; and

WHEREAS in response to this dire fiscal situation, the Budget Act of 2009 was enacted in February, four months ahead of the constitutional deadline, to address a $42 billion projected deficit; and

WHEREAS as the recession deepened throughout the spring, the revenues eroded and there was additional pressure on spending, especially in state programs providing health and human services, which are most sensitive to economic downturns. The Amended Budget Act of 2009 addressed the additional budget gap of $24 billion that resulted from the deepening recession; and

WHEREAS at the time the Amended Budget Act of 2009 was enacted, the budget reserves for Fiscal Year 2009–10 totaled $500 million; and

WHEREAS California is slowly emerging from the recession, however, the economic growth is very modest and high unemployment persists. Baseline revenues fell by more than 20 percent from their peak and they are expected to remain about 30 percent lower than 2007–08 projections for several years; and

WHEREAS California's economy remains weak and revenues are depressed and additional pressures on spending exist. These and other cost drivers are projected to create a current year budget shortfall of $6.6 billion and a budget shortfall of $12.3 billion for fiscal year 2010–11 and no reserve; and

WHEREAS it is critical that more jobs be created to address California's economy and budget and fiscal crisis; and

WHEREAS interconnected with the difficult budget crisis, last year California faced a serious cash–flow problem such that the State lacked sufficient cash to make all General Fund payments in a timely manner; and

WHEREAS to address this serious cash–flow situation the State suspended loans from the Pooled Money Investment Account for thousands of capital projects and delayed issuance of taxpayer refunds, and for only the second time since the Great Depression, California issued registered warrants (IOUs) to preserve cash for essential payments; and

WHEREAS absent corrective action, the State will again face a serious cash–flow problem that may result in the State being unable to timely meet all the General Fund cash needs in 2010.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor of the State of California, in accordance with Section 10(f) of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, HEREBY DETERMINE that General Fund revenues for Fiscal Year 2009–10 will decline substantially below the estimate of General Fund revenues upon which the Amended Budget was based, and as the result of unachieved budget reductions, General Fund expenditures will increase substantially above the estimate of General Fund revenues.

I, ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor of the State of California, HEREBY DECLARE that a fiscal emergency exists.

I, ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor of the State of California, HEREBY IDENTIFY THE NATURE OF THIS FISCAL EMERGENCY to be the projected budget imbalance for Fiscal Year 2009–10 and the projected insufficient cash reserves and budgetary and cash deficits in Fiscal Year 2010–11.

FURTHER on this day, as required by Section 10(f) of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, I will cause the Legislature to assemble in special session to address this fiscal emergency, and I will submit to the Legislature proposed legislation to address this fiscal emergency.

Fiscal Emergency Proclamation
by Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger

WHEREAS on this date, pursuant to Section 10(f) of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, I have proclaimed a fiscal emergency; and

WHEREAS on this date, I am submitting to the Legislature proposed legislation to address that fiscal emergency; and

WHEREAS this extraordinary occasion having arisen and now existing, it requires that the Legislature of the State of California be convened in extraordinary session.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me in accordance with Section 10(f) of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, do hereby convene the Legislature of the State of California to meet in extraordinary session at Sacramento, California on the 8th day of January 2010, at a time to be determined, to consider and act upon legislation to address the fiscal emergency proclaimed by me this day.
