SEC. 11. In every proceeding prescribed by this Act for the taking of private property, for public purposes, all persons interested may be joined in the same petition to the Board of Supervisors, for the appointment of Commissioners as aforesaid, and may be joined and proceeded against jointly in every other stage of said proceedings until the full and final determination of the same.

SEC. 12. It shall be the duty of the Common Council to provide for the accountability of all officers and other persons elected by them, or the qualified electors of the city to whom the receipt and expenditure of the funds of the city shall be entrusted, by requiring from them sufficient security for the faithful performance of their duties or trusts, which security shall be given by them before entering upon the discharge of their respective duties; in case such security becomes insufficient, additional security may be required, and if not given, the Common Council, by a vote of two-thirds of the members, may declare the office vacant, and elect another person to supply the vacancy.

SEC. 13. It shall be the duty of the Common Council to publish in one or more newspapers, printed in the city, one month before the annual election of the city officers in each year, for the general information of the citizens of Marysville, a full and detailed statement of the receipts and expenditures of the city during the year ending on the last day of the month previous to that on which the publication is made; and in every such statement the different sources of the city revenue, and the amount received from each, the several appropriations made by the Common Council, the objects for which the same were made, and the amount of money expended under each, the moneys borrowed on the faith and credit of the city, the authority under which each loan was made, and the terms on which it was obtained, shall be clearly and particularly specified.

ARTICLE IV.

OF THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE CITY OFFICERS AND THEIR COMPENSATION.

SEC. 1. It shall be the duty of the Mayor—First, To communicate to the Common Council, quarterly, a general statement of the situation and condition of the city in relation to its government, finances and improvement; Second, To recommend to the Common Council the adoption of all such measures as he shall deem expedient, relative to the police, security, health, cleanliness and ornament of the city, and the improvement of its government; Third, To be vigilant and active in causing the by-laws and ordinances of the Common Council to be duly executed and enforced; Fourth, To exercise a constant supervision and control over the conduct and acts of all subordinate officers, and to receive and examine into all such complaints as may be preferred against any of them for violation or neglect of duty; Fifth, To preside over the Common Council when present at their sittings; Sixth, To maintain the peace and good order of the city, and generally perform all such duties as may be ury and all warrants issued in pursuance thereof; also, to keep an account in an appropriate book of all licenses issued, with the persons to whom issued, the date of the issue, the time for which the same was granted, and the sum paid therefor.

SEC. 11. It shall be the duty of the Clerk of the city to procure from the County Assessor a list of all the taxable property, real and personal within the city, and a list of all the names and occupations of all residents within the city, and furnish the Marshal with the same, which list, subject to the approbation of the Common Council, shall be the assessment roll and basis of taxation for municipal purposes; and such list of taxable property shall be furnished on or before the first Monday of August in each year.

Compensation.

SEC. 12. The clerk of the city shall receive for his services such compensation as may be allowed by the Common Council, not to exceed the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars per year.

Duty of City Attorney.

SEC. 13. It shall be the duty of the City Attorney to attend to all actions and proceedings wherein the city is a party or interested; to give his advice and opinion in writing, whenever required by the Mayor or Common Council; to draw up all contracts and instruments to which the city is a party, and to perform such other services connected with his profession as an Attorney, as may be required by the Common Council. The City Attorney shall receive for his services such compensation as may be allowed by the Common Council, not to exceed two thousand dollars per annum.

ARTICLE V.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

Assessments on property.

SECTION 1. Every assessment and every levy of taxes duly made for any purpose in conformity with the spirit and provisions of this Act, shall remain as a judgment and lien, and have the force and effect of an execution against the party and property liable for the same; and the Marshal is hereby empowered and required to seize and sell at any time, except as provided in the following section, whenever any assessment or taxes for any purpose are due and unpaid, any property on which the assessment or taxes shall not have been paid, by giving ten days' notice in one or more newspapers published within said city, designating the time and place of sale, and the name of the owner of such property when known, and when not known, stating such fact, as also a description of the property so seized and where situated, which said notice shall also be posted in three public places in the ward where the property is situated. If said property be real estate, it shall be sold at the City Hall, between the hours of ten A. M. and four o'clock P. M., and if personal property it shall be sold between the same hours, in the ward where it was so seized. The purchaser or purchasers of all or any property sold for the payment of any assessment or taxes levied under this Act shall acquire and enjoy all the rights and privileges which are given by the laws of this State to purchasers of real and personal property, under the Sheriff's sale, for the payment of delinquent taxes, except as otherwise provided in this Act; the City Marshal shall have the same power in collecting any assessments and taxes, and in selling real or personal property of delinquent taxpayers as are now possessed by the Sheriff in collecting State and

CHAPTER XXXI.

AN ACT

Concerning the Collection of Taxes now due in the County of Marin.

[Approved March 8, 1855.]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

- SECTION 1. That David Clingan, recently appointed and commissioned as Sheriff of the county of Marin, in place of J. T. Stocker, who has absconded from the State, shall continue the collection of State and county taxes due therein, until the first Monday of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five; and for that purpose he shall have the same powers that are given Sheriffs by an Act passed May fifteen, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, entitled "an Act to Provide Revenue for the Support of the Government of this State," and in said collections he shall be governed in all respects by the said Act, except so far as the same may be governed by this Act.
- SECTION 2. That the said David Clingan shall not be required to make a final settlement or return his delinquent list until the first Monday in May; provided, however, that prior to proceeding under this Act he shall take oath before the Treasurer, (which oath shall be filed with the Auditor and recorded in the Recorder's office) that he has not in his hands any moneys collected for taxes other than such as he verily believes he is entitled to as fees and costs.
- SECTION 3. That said David Clingan shall post up on the Sheriff's office in said county for ten consecutive days, a description of all real estate and improvements, for the taxes of eighteen hundred and fifty-four, upon which any taxes may be due and unpaid; and at the expiration of the said ten days he may proceed to sell the same from day to day, without further notice, in like manner and with the same effect as sales made under the Act referred to in "section one" of this Act. He shall also make out an alphabetical list of all persons, firms and corporations from whom any tax may be due, which list shall also be posted up as before directed; and if any tax shall not be paid at the expiration of the ten days, he may proceed to take and keep possession of so much of any personal property of whatsoever kind or nature belonging to any party owing said tax, as he may deem necessary to pay the taxes and costs; and shall post a description of the same on the door of his office, and at the expiration of five days he shall sell the same in front of the Court House door of the county without further notice. If where personal property has been assessed, no personal property can be found, he shall levy upon the real estate of the party, and proceed to collect the tax out of such real estate in the manner provided in the aforesaid Act of May fifteenth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.
- SECTION 4. All costs and fees arising in consequence of the proceedings authorized above, shall be added to the taxes due, and be collected therewith or be returned and allowed in the delinquent tax list as the case may be.

CHAPTER XXXII.

AN ACT

To Re-incorporate the City of Sonora.

[Approved March 9, 1855.]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. The people of the city of Sonora shall continue to be a style, body politic and corporate under the style of the "Trustees of the City of Sonora," and by that name they shall have succession, may complain Powers, and defend in all courts and in all actions and proceedings; purchase, receive and hold property, and sell or otherwise dispose of the same, for their common benefit, but shall have no power to purchase real estate.

SEC. 2. The city of Sonora shall hereafter be bounded as follows, ^{Boundaries.} viz.: (According to Trask's survey) beginning at a point on the bridge about sixty feet from the northwest corner of the City Hotel, and running N. 65° E. one half mile, thence N. 25° W. one half mile, thence South 65° W. one half mile, thence S 25° E. one mile, thence N. 65° E. one mile, thence N. 25° W. one half mile to the middle of the eastern line or place of beginning.

SEC. 3. The Legislative power of the city shall be vested in the ^{Trustees.} following persons, who shall compose the Board of Trustees for the government of said city, viz.: Alonzo Green, Wm. G. Heslep, C. L. Street, L. C. Gunn and P. McD. Collins, whose term of office shall continue one year from the passage of this Act, and the Trustees shall ^{Term of office.} be elected annually thereafter.

SEC. 4. In case of vacancy by resignation or otherwise, the remain- ^{Vacancy.} ing Trustees shall have power and be required to fill such vacancy at ^{How filled.} their next regular meeting.

SEC. 5. The said Trustees shall, within ten days after they have taken the oath of office, organize as a Board, by choosing a President ^{President.} from among their own number. The duties of the President, besides those herein imposed, shall be such as may be prescribed by the Board, not inconsistent with this Act.

SEC. 6. The Trustees shall have power to appoint a Clerk and ^{Clerk.} Collector, and provide for their compensation. The Clerk shall keep

Duties of Clerk.	distinct and proper minutes of the proceedings of the Board, and shall record the name of every Trustee present at each meeting, and the ayes and nays on such questions as the Board may desire. His minutes and records shall be open to public inspection during business hours, and he shall furnish a copy of the proceedings of said Board at each meeting to the city papers.
Meetings public.	SEC. 7. The meeting of the Board shall be public, and shall be held on the first Monday of each month, and at such other times as the Board may appoint. The Board shall have power to rent an office at an expense of not more twenty-five dollars per month.
Office.	SEC. 8. The said Trustees, after they have taken the oath of office, shall, as speedily as possible, and they are hereby empowered to enter upon and take possession of all the property and interest of property of whatever description of the said city, and to dispose of the same if they see proper, to bring and maintain all suits and proceedings at law or equity in any Court of this State, or the United States, and to do any other acts or exercise any other power necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act, not inconsistent with this Act or the Constitution and laws of this State.
Trustees to take possession.
Conveyances.	SEC. 9. Every act of the Board of Trustees for the disposition of the property or interest of property of the city shall require a vote of at least three of the Trustees, and every conveyance or agreement for a conveyance shall have the signature and seal of the President of the Board, attested by the Clerk thereof.
Revenue.	SEC. 10. The Trustees shall have power and it shall be their duty semi-annually to raise by tax on the real and personal property in the city a revenue not to exceed one per cent. in any one year, agreeable to the County Assessor's books; or they may appoint an Assessor if they think proper, and provide for his compensation. They shall also have power within the city to pass all proper and necessary laws for the regulation, improvement and sale of city property, and for the levy and collection of city taxes on all taxable property not exceeding the amount per annum herein before prescribed.
Laws.
Levy and collect tax.
Tax list.	SEC. 11. It shall be the duty of the Assessor to prepare within such time as the Trustees may direct, a correct list of all the taxable property within the city, with the true valuation thereof, and to present the same certified to the Board of Trustees. The mode of making out said list and of ascertaining the value of property, and of collecting all taxes, shall be the same as it is or may be prescribed by law for assessing and collecting the State revenue; should the owner of any property assessed as aforesaid not be satisfied with the valuation thereof, he may apply to the Board of Trustees for the reduction of the assessment, and their decision shall be final.
Same as State tax list.
Property over-assessed.
Police.	SEC. 12. The Trustees shall have power to organize a volunteer police, and shall continue the organization of the fire department. The Trustees also shall have power to provide for the supply of the city with water for the prevention and extinguishment of fires, by regulating the storage of gunpowder, hay, tar or other extremely combustible materials; and to pass all necessary ordinances for the protection of the "Gold Mount Water Works," and to regulate the sale and distribution of water in the city; and to affix penalties to the violation of any ordinance.

AN ACT

To create a Board of Supervisors in the Counties of this State, and to define their duties and powers.

[Approved March 20, 1855.]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. There shall be in each of the counties of this State a ^{Creation.} Board of Supervisors, to consist of three members, to be elected and to possess such qualifications and have such powers as hereinafter given; provided, that in the counties of Los Angeles, Tuolumne, Placer, Ala- ^{Provisos.} meda and Yuba, said Board shall consist of five members; and further provided, that this Act shall not apply to such counties of this State as have, or hereafter may have, Boards of Supervisors provided by special enactment.

SEC. 2. Said Supervisors shall be qualified electors of their respect- ^{How elected.} ive counties, and shall be elected at the next general election, and at the general election annually thereafter; they shall enter on their duties on the first Monday of the month subsequent to their election, and shall ^{Term of office.} hold their office one year, or until their successors are elected and qualified; but no county or township officer shall be eligible to the office of Supervisor; and provided, that in all those counties where no Board of ^{Proviso.} Supervisors now exists, the County Clerk, the County Assessor and the County Surveyor shall constitute a special board, who shall, previous to the first election herein provided for, divide the county into a number of districts corresponding with the number of Supervisors to be elected; but in such divisions no township shall be divided unless said township shall contain an incorporated city or town; and the qualified electors of each district so formed shall elect only one supervisor, who shall be a resident of that district; and the Board of Supervisors in these counties shall have authority at their last session before the general election in ^{Authority.} each year, to change the boundaries of the districts in their said respective counties.

SEC. 3. In each of the counties, except the county of Contra Costa, ^{Election.} where no Board of Supervisors now exists, there shall be an election

- held for Supervisors on the second Monday in April, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five; and the Supervisors elected under this Act, shall qualify on or before the first day of the first regular meeting of the Board, as provided in this Act, and shall hold their office until the next general election, and until their successors are elected and qualified; provided, that in the counties of Sacramento and Yuba the first election for Supervisors to be held under the provisions of this section, shall be held on the first Monday in April, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five; and provided further, that in the county of Klamath the election be held on the first Monday in May next; and provided further, that in the county of San Joaquin the first election for Supervisors to be held under the provisions of this section shall be held on the same day of the municipal election of the city of Stockton, next following the passage of this Act,
- Term of office.
- Proviso.
- Meetings. SEC. 4. The regular meetings of the Board of Supervisors shall be held at the county seat of their respective counties, on the first Mondays of May, August, November and February, and shall continue from time to time, until all the business before them is disposed of. The Board shall also meet on the second Monday after each general election, to canvass election returns.
- Special meetings. SEC. 5. If at any time after the final adjournment of a regular meeting, the business of the county shall require a meeting of the Board, a special meeting of the same may be ordered by a majority of the Board. The order shall be entered on the Records of the Board, and the Clerk shall give at least five days' notice of such special meeting to any member of the Board not joining in the order. The order shall specify the business to be performed, and no other shall be transacted at such special meeting.
- Quorum. SEC. 6. A majority of the Board shall form a quorum for the transaction of business, and all sessions of the Board shall be public. They shall elect one of their number as Chairman of the Board, and the County Clerk shall be Clerk thereof. The Clerk shall keep a full and complete record of all the proceedings of the Board, and all their proceedings shall be entered on the records, and the vote of each member on every question where there is any division, shall be entered on the record. The record of proceedings shall be signed by the Chairman of the Board and the Clerk.
- Chairman and Clerk.
- Compensation. SEC. 7. The Clerk shall receive a compensation for his services, to be fixed by the Board, (in no case to exceed two hundred and fifty dollars a year,) and no fee or other compensation whatever shall be allowed the Clerk for any service connected with the proceedings or business of the Board of Supervisors; provided, that in the counties of El Dorado, Nevada, Placer, Tuolumne and Yuba, a greater allowance to the Clerk may be made, but it shall in no case exceed the sum of eight dollars per day for each day of actual service, nor shall he receive in the aggregate more than five hundred dollars per annum; provided further, that in the counties of Butte, Plumas, Los Angeles, San Bernardino, Napa, Solano and Yolo, the compensation of Clerk shall be four dollars per day for each day actually engaged in service of the Board while sitting, and no other fee or compensation for any services as Clerk of said Board; and provided further, that in the counties of Klamath, Sacramento, San Joaquin, Shasta, Sierra and Trinity, the Clerk shall receive a per diem compensation which shall not exceed three hundred dollars in the aggregate for the year, and he shall receive no other compensation whatever for any service connected with the Board.
- Proviso.

SEC. 8. The books, records and accounts of the Board shall be kept Books, etc. at the office of the Clerk of the Board, and shall at all times be open to public inspection, free of charge.

SEC. 9. The Board of Supervisors shall have power and jurisdiction Power and jurisdiction. in their respective counties: First, to make orders respecting the property of the county in conformity with any law of this State, and to take care of and preserve such property. Second, to examine, settle and allow all accounts legally chargeable against the county, and to levy, for the purposes prescribed by law, such amount of taxes on the assessed value of real and personal property in the county, as may be authorized by law; provided, the salary of the County Judge need not be audited by the Board, but the County Auditor shall, on the first judicial day of each month, draw his warrant on the County Treasurer in favor of the County Judge for the amount due such Judge as salary for the month preceding. Third, to examine and audit the accounts of all officers having the care, management, collection or disbursement of any money belonging to the county, or appropriated by law or otherwise for its use and benefit. Fourth, to lay out, control and manage public roads, turnpikes, ferries and bridges within the county, in all cases where the law does not prohibit such jurisdiction, and to make such orders as may be necessary and requisite to carry its control and management into effect. Fifth, to take care of and provide for the indigent sick of the county. Sixth, to divide the county into townships, and to change the divisions of the same, and to create new townships, as the convenience of the county may require. Seventh, to establish and change election precincts and to appoint inspectors and judges of elections. Eighth, to control and manage the property, real and personal, belonging to the county, and to receive, by donation, any property for the use and benefit of the county. Ninth, to lease or to purchase any real or personal property necessary for the use of the county; provided, no purchase of real property shall be made unless the value of the same be previously estimated by three disinterested persons, to be appointed for that purpose by the County Judge. Tenth, to sell at public auction, at the court house of the county, after at least thirty days' previous public notice, and cause to be conveyed, any property belonging to the county, appropriating the proceeds of such sale to the use of the same. Eleventh, to cause to be erected and furnished, a court house, jail, and such other public buildings as may be necessary, and to keep the same in repair; provided, that the contract for building the court house, jail or other public buildings, be let out, after at least thirty days' previous public notice, in each case, of a readiness to receive proposals therefor, to the lowest bidder, who will give good and sufficient security for the completion of any contract which he may make respecting the same; but no bid shall be accepted which the Board may deem too high. Twelfth, to control the prosecution and defense of all suits to which the county is a party. Thirteenth, to do and perform all such other acts and things as may be strictly necessary to the full discharge of the powers and jurisdiction conferred on the Board.

SEC. 10. The Board of Supervisors shall also act as a Board of Canvassers. Canvassers, and declare the election returns, and cause a certificate of election to be given by the Clerk to any person who shall be elected to any county or township office within the county; provided that, Proviso when the election shall be held for Supervisors, the County Judge shall canvass and declare the election returns for these officers, for which purpose all election returns shall be sealed up and delivered, according to law, to the County Clerk, and by him opened, in the presence of the County Judge, who shall declare the result as to Supervisors, and the Clerk shall give to each person elected as Supervisor a certificate of his election, and the Board of Supervisors shall then canvass the returns as to other officers.

CHAPTER XLIX.

AN ACT

Amendatory of and supplementary to an Act entitled " An Act to provide for the Incorporation of Towns," passed March 27th, 1850.

[Approved March 27, 1855.]

The People of the State of California represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. Section six of an Act to provide for the Incorporation of Towns, passed March 27th, 1850, is hereby amended, so as to read as follows: Section Sixth. The Board of Trustees shall have power to make such by-laws and ordinances, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the United States, and of this State, as they may deem necessary to prevent and remove nuisances; to prohibit disorderly conduct; to provide for licensing public shows, lawful games, and bars at which spirituous liquors are sold; to regulate and establish markets; to construct and keep in repair wharves; construct pumps, aqueducts, reservoirs or other works necessary for duly supplying the town with water; to keep in repair public wells; to lay out, alter, keep open and repair the streets and alleys of the town; to provide such means as they may deem necessary to protect the town from injuries by fire; to levy and collect annually a tax on all property in the town not exceeding fifty cents on every hundred dollars of the assessment valuation thereof; to impose and collect a poll tax of not exceeding one dollar per annum, on every male inhabitant of twenty-one years of age and upwards; to impose and collect a tax on dogs of not exceeding six dollars per annum on every dog found at large within the incorporated limits of the town; and to pass such other by-laws and ordinances for the regulation and police of such town, as they may deem necessary.

Special election. SEC. 2. Whenever the amount of revenue arising from taxes, licenses, fines, penalties, forfeitures and other sources, shall be found insufficient to carry out the objects which are given under the control and jurisdiction of the Trustees, said Trustees, or a majority of them, may cause a special election to be held for the purpose of ascertaining the sense of the qualified voters of the town, as to the propriety or necessity of imposing an additional tax of not exceeding fifty cents on every hundred dollars upon all taxable property in the town, according to the assessment valuation thereof.

Trustees to give notice. SEC. 3. The Trustees shall give notice of said special election by posting printed or written notices, two weeks prior to such election, in three of the most public places in the town, if no newspaper be printed therein, but in case a newspaper or newspapers are printed in the town, then the Trustees shall give notice of said election by at least two weekly insertions in said newspaper or newspapers, or in the one having the largest circulation; all said written or printed notices shall set forth the object for which a special election is called, and the time and place of holding such election.

Ballots. SEC. 4. The ballots used at said election shall contain thereon the words "Tax" or "No Tax," and if, when the votes are counted, it shall be found that a majority of all the votes cast, contained the word "Tax," then the Trustees shall cause the taxable property in the town to be assessed and a tax levied and collected thereon, not to exceed the amount specified in section two of this Act, in like manner as any other tax authorized by law for town purposes is levied and collected. But if a majority of all the votes cast shall contain thereon the words "No Tax," then no tax shall be levied or collected, and no other such special election shall be called within one year, and in no case shall two special taxes be imposed within twelve months of each other.

Special election. SEC. 5. Said special election shall be conducted, and the expenses thereof paid in like manner as any other town election.

Election of Recorder. SEC. 6. The Trustees shall have power to order the election of a Recorder at each regular town election, if they or a majority of them shall deem such an officer necessary, who shall receive for his services the same fees as are or may be allowed Justices of the Peace for the like services

Fees.

SEC. 7. The Recorder, as to offenses committed within the town, shall have like jurisdiction as now is or may hereafter be conferred upon Justices of the Peace; to examine and commit persons brought before him, and charged with the commission of offenses within the limits of the town; to take recognizances to appear; to keep the peace; and to issue all such writs and processes as a Justice of the Peace may lawfully do, subject to all the rules governing Justices of the Peace. The Recorder shall also have jurisdiction over all violations of the town ordinances, and may, according to the provisions of such ordinance, hold to bail, fine or commit to prison any person found guilty of any violation thereof.

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. The records of the District Court, County Court, Court of Sessions and Probate Court, of Nevada County, as the same are transcribed from Book "A" of each of said Courts, by order of the Judges of each of said Courts, are hereby legalized.

CHAPTER LXXIII.

AN ACT

To provide for certifying and removing certain cases from the Courts of this State to the United States Circuit Courts, and to remove, by writ of error, certain cases from the Supreme Court of this State to the Supreme Court of the United States.

[Approved April 9, 1855]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

Where sum exceeds $500.

Petition.

Surety.

Special bail.
Duty of court.

Cause may be removed.

SECTION 1. If a suit be commenced in any Court of this State, against an alien, or by a citizen of this State against a citizen of another State, and the matter in dispute exceeds the sum or value of five hundred dollars, exclusive of costs, to be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Court, and the defendant shall, at the time of entering his appearance in such Court of this State, file a petition for the removal of the cause for trial into the next Circuit Court of the United States, or District Court of the United States, having the powers and jurisdiction of a Circuit Court, to be held in the district where the suit is pending, and offer good and sufficient surety for his entering in such Court, on the first day of its session, copies of said process against him, and also for his there appearing and entering special bail in the cause, if bail was originally requisite therein, it shall then be the duty of such Court of this State to accept the surety and proceed no further in the cause ; and all subsequent proceedings which may be taken or had in such Court in contravention of the provisions of this section, shall be void and of no force or effect for any purpose whatsoever.

SEC. 2. A final judgment or decree in any suit in the highest Court of law or equity of this State in which a decision of the suit could be had, where is drawn in question the validity of a treaty or statute of, or an authority exercised under the United States, and the decision is against their validity ; or where is drawn in question the validity of a statute of, or an authority exercised under this State on the ground of their being repugnant to the Constitution, treaties or laws of the United States, and the decision is in favor of such, their validity ; or where is drawn in question the construction of any clause of the Constitution of the United States, or of a treaty, or of a statute of, or commission held under the United States, and the decision is against the title, right, privilege, or exemption specially set up or claimed by either party, under such clause of the said Constitution, treaty, statute or commission, may be removed by writ of error to, and be re-examined and reversed or affirmed in the Supreme Court of the United States, in the manner prescribed by the laws of the United States ; and upon the issuance and service of such writ of error, the Chief Justice or any Judge of the Court, rendering or passing the judgment or decree complained of, upon being applied to by the plaintiff in error, or his attorney, shall sign the requisite citation to the adverse party.

SEC. 3. After a final judgment shall have been rendered in any ^{Duty of court.} suit in the highest Court of this State, if the party against whom the decision may have been given, shall within ten days thereafter file notice, in writing, with the Clerk, of his intention to remove the cause, by writ of error, to the Supreme Court of the United States, and shall offer sufficient security, to be approved by the Judge of the Supreme Court, or any District Court of this State, for the prosecution of such writ of error, it shall be the duty of the said Court in which such final judgment was rendered, or any Judge thereof at chambers, to stay all proceedings for such time not exceeding four months, to be fixed by the said Court or Judge, as will be sufficient to enable such party to apply for and serve his writ of error in the mode prescribed by the laws of the United States, and upon the receipt of such writ of error the Clerk of the Court in which the record may be, and to ^{Duty of Clerk.} which the writ may be directed, shall make return thereto, and send up the record or a transcript, without the necessity of any other or further order or authority whatsoever.

SEC. 4. If any Judge, Clerk, or other officer of any Court of this ^{Misdemeanor.} State, shall knowingly and voluntarily act in contravention of the provisions of this act, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor in office and liable to impeachment and removal from office.

AN ACT

To amend an Act entitled "An Act to provide for the Incorporation of Railroad Companies," passed April 22d, 1853.

[Approved April 10, 1855.]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

Section 27
amended.

Surveys.

SECTION 1. Section twenty-seven of said Act is hereby amended, to read as follows: Every such corporation shall have power, First—To cause such examinations and surveys, for the proposed railroad, to be made, as may be necessary to the selection of the most advantageous route for the railroad, and for such purpose, by their officers, agents and servants, to enter upon lands or waters of any person or persons, subject to responsibility for all damages which they shall do thereto; Lands and waters. Damages.

Second, To receive, hold, take and convey such voluntary donations of real estate and other property as shall be made, to aid and encourage the construction of said road; To purchase lands. Donations.

Third, To purchase, and by voluntary grants and donations, receive and take, and by its officers, engineers, surveyors and agents, enter upon and take possession of, and hold and use, in any manner they may deem proper, the same as a natural person might, or could do, all such lands and real estate, and other property, as the directors may deem necessary for the construction and maintenance of said road, and for the stations, depots and other accommodations and purposes deemed necessary to accomplish the objects of the company; To lay out and maintain road.

Fourth, To lay out its road or roads, not exceeding nine rods wide, and to construct and maintain the same with a single or double track, with such appendages as may be deemed necessary for the convenient use of the same, and for the purpose of cutting embankments and procuring timber, stone and gravel, may take as much more land as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid, in the manner hereinafter provided for the proper construction and security of the road; To cross streams.

Fifth, To construct their road across, along or upon any stream of water, water-course, roadstead, bay, navigable stream, street or highway, or across any railway, canal, ditch or flume, which the route of its road shall intersect, cross or run along, but the corporation shall restore the stream or water course, road or highway, railroad, canal, ditch or flume, that intersected, to its former state, as near as practicable, so as not to impede its usefulness; Restore stream to channel.

providing, that when such railroad company shall be about to change any stream of water from its natural or artificial channel, any person who shall be injured by such change, shall serve a notice in writing, on the President or Secretary of such company, and post up a copy of such notice at the point where the water is to be turned, which shall serve as a notice upon the contractor or contractors of said company; Proviso. Person injured to notify President.

whereupon, such company shall proceed to ascertain the amount of such damage, in the following manner: The company shall choose one referee, and the party another, and if they do not agree, the two shall choose a third; said referees shall have the same powers as commissioners, provided for by section twenty-eight of the "Act April 22d, 1853." Damages. How ascertained.

The award shall be final and conclusive upon the parties; when the award of the referees shall be against the railroad company, such company shall pay, or secure to be paid, such amount within thirty days after such amount is so found, and said company notified of the finding of said referees; Award.

Sixth, It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to dig, excavate, or remove earth, or other material, from, or to lay out any mining or other claim upon lands taken, owned, required, or located upon by any railroad company formed under this Act, who may have complied with the provisions of the laws of this State in relation to the incorporation of railroad companies and the provisions of this Act in relation to filing their location with the Secretary of State, without permission of said company, under penalty of being prosecuted for a misdemeanor, and forfeiting to said corporation treble the amount of damages sustained thereby, besides a fine of five hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the County Jail not exceeding six months, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the Court; Mining claims. The County Treasurer shall be ^{County Treas-} ^{urers' allowance.} allowed for all moneys received and disbursed by him, three per cent. on the first fifty thousand dollars ; two per cent. on all over fifty thousand dollars, and under one hundred thousand dollars ; and one per cent. on all over one hundred thousand dollars ; provided, nothing in this Act shall be ^{Proviso.} construed so as to allow any officer a per centage on both receiving and disbursing.

CHAPTER CI.

AN ACT

To provide for the Extinguishment of the Indebtedness, present and accruing, of the County of Monterey.

[Approved April 17, 1855.]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

Special tax.	SECTION 1. The "Board of Supervisors" in and for the County of Monterey, in addition to other taxes they may levy under authority of law, shall annually levy a special tax on the taxable property in said county, of not exceeding one per cent., to be collected in legal currency of the United States ; one-half of the money collected under the provisions of this Act, shall be held and used as a "fund for current expenses" of the county, and the other half shall be held and used as a "sinking fund" for said county, and these funds shall be held, used and disbursed only as prescribed in this Act.
Disposition of tax Fund for current expenses. Sinking Fund.
Fund for current expenses. How paid.	SEC. 2. The money collected and paid into the "fund for current expenses," shall be paid out exclusively for the necessary county expenses accruing during the year, commencing the first day of July next, and annually thereafter ; and all warrants drawn on the "fund for current expenses" during the year must distinctly specify the liability for which they are drawn, and when it accrued, and shall be paid in the order of presentation to the County Treasurer ; and if there be not sufficient money in the "fund for current expenses" to pay all such warrants, then the balance shall be paid in the same manner as the present outstanding warrants of the county. If there remain at the end of the year any surplus of the money so raised by taxation for current expenses, it shall be first applied to the payment, in the order it has been presented to the County Treasurer, of county indebtedness created prior to the commencement of the fiscal year, and for which no provision is made, if there be such ; and second, it shall be placed to the funds of the ensuing year ; and further, all license and poll-taxes received into the County Treasury for county purposes, shall first be applied to the payment, in the order it has been presented to the County Treasurer, of county indebtedness created prior to the commencement of the fiscal year, and for which no provision is made, if there be such ; second, be placed in the fund for the payment of the current expenses of the fiscal year ; and third, be placed to the funds of the ensuing year.

The "Board of Supervisors" of said county, when there are any moneys in said "Sinking Fund," to the amount of five hundred dollars or more, shall give notice by posting in at least three of the most public places of said county, for not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days, of the amount of money in said fund, and that sealed proposals will be received by the County Treasurer up to a day named, for the surrender, for cash to be paid out of said "Sinking Fund," of County Warrants of said county.
Surrender of county warrants Proposals.

SEC. 4. All proposals must be directed to the County Treasurer, ^{To be forfeited.} marked, "Sinking Fund," and must be accompanied with County Warrants of said county, to the amount of ten per cent. of the warrants proposed to be surrendered, to be forfeited to said county, in case the party does not comply with the terms of his bid.

SEC. 5. The proposals shall be opened in the presence of the ^{Proposals} County Treasurer and Board of Supervisors, and the Board shall ^{opened.} first accept those proposals offering warrants at the lowest rate and ^{First accepted.} most favorable to the county, and which will secure to the county the purchase and cancellation of the greatest amount of warrants, and so on, always accepting the next best bid for the county. The bids being at equal rates, preference shall first be given to the person ^{Preference.} offering the smallest amount of warrants; the bids being equal and of the same amount of warrants, each shall be accepted "pro rata."

SEC. 6. In no case shall warrants be received or purchased by ^{County as} the county, as herein provided, at a higher rate than par value. ^{purchaser.}

SEC. 7. If, upon the final settlement of the Sheriff, for taxes col- ^{Supervisors} lected during the year, an amount less than five hundred dollars shall ^{to give notice.} remain in said "Sinking Fund," the Board of Supervisors may give notice for proposals for said amount, and proceed as hereinbefore provided.

SEC. 8. This Act shall remain in force until all County Warrants ^{Act to remain} issued for the payment of legal indebtedness of said county, accruing ^{in force.} prior to the first day of July next, shall be paid, and no longer.

CHAPTER CXXX.

AN ACT

For securing Liens of Mechanics and others.

[Approved April 27, 1855]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Lien, &c.

SECTION 1. All artisans, builders, mechanics, lumber merchants, and all other persons performing labor or furnishing materials for the construction or repairing of any building, wharf or other superstructure, shall have a lien on such building, wharf or superstructure, for the work and labor done, or materials furnished by each, respectively.

Improvement on lot.

joining the same, and shall go on and complete the said grading or improving of said lot, (or the street adjoining to the same) it shall be considered as an improvement upon said lot or lots, and the same provisions of this Act shall apply thereto as would apply if it were a building erected on the said lot or lots.

SEC. 3. Every person wishing to avail himself of the benefits of this Act, shall file in the Recorder's office of the county in which such building, wharf or superstructure is situated, within sixty days after the labor is completed, or the materials furnished, a just and true account of the demand due him, after deducting all proper credits and assets, and shall verify said account by his own oath or the oath of some other person, and shall also file at the same time a correct description of the property to be charged with said lien. If such lien is claimed by a sub-contractor, journeyman or laborer, the account aforesaid shall be filed within thirty days after the work was done, or the materials furnished by him; and within five days after filing such account as aforesaid, he shall serve a copy thereof on the owner or owners of such building, wharf or superstructure, or the agent of such owner, if the latter reside out of the county in which such building, wharf or superstructure is situate. If such owner do not reside within the county, and have no agent therein, service of the copy aforesaid may be made by posting the same in a conspicuous place on the building, wharf or superstructure to be charged with said lien. But nothing in this Act shall be so construed as to make the owner of any property improved liable for more than he has contracted to pay.

Duty of person wishing to have benefit of this Act.

SEC. 4. On being served with a notice by a sub-contractor, journeyman or laborer, as provided in the last preceding section, the owner of such building, wharf or superstructure may withhold from the contractor, out of the first moneys to become due to him under the contract, a sufficient sum to cover the lien claimed by such sub-contractor, until the validity thereof shall be ascertained by a proper legal proceeding, if the same be contested; and if so established, the amount thereof shall be a valid offset to that extent, in favor of the owner against the contractor.

Privilege of owner.

SEC. 5. The land upon which any building or superstructure shall be erected, together with such convenient space around the same, as may be required for the convenient use and occupation of the premises, not to exceed five hundred square feet, shall also be subject to the liens created by this Act, if at the time the work and labor was done, or the materials furnished, the said land belonged to the person who caused said building or superstructure to be erected; but if such person owned less than a fee-simple estate, in said land, then only his interest therein shall be subject to said lien, and the liens created by this Act shall be preferred to every other lien or incumbrance which shall have attached upon the said property subsequent to the time at which the work was commenced or the materials furnished, but nothing herein contained shall be construed as impairing any valid incumbrance upon the said land, duly made and recorded before such work was commenced or materials furnished.

tion shall be entered, to be recovered in the same manner as other debts are recovered.

SEC. 11. Any mechanic or artisan who shall make, alter or repair any article of personal property, at the request of the owner or legal possessor of such property, shall have a lien on such property so made, altered or repaired, for his just and reasonable charges for his work done and materials furnished, and may hold and retain possession of the same until such just and reasonable charges shall be paid, and if not paid for within the space of six months after the work shall have been done, such mechanic or artisan may proceed to sell the property by him so made, altered or repaired, at public auction, by giving three weeks' public notice of such sale, by advertisement, in some newspaper published in the county in which the work may be done, or if there be no such newspaper, then by posting up notices of such sale in three of the most public places in the town where such work was done, and the proceeds of said sale shall be applied—first, to the discharge of such lien and costs and expenses of keeping and selling such property, and the remainder, if any, shall be paid over to the owner thereof.

SEC. 12. Nothing contained in this Act shall be deemed to apply to or affect any lien heretofore acquired; and an Act entitled an Act to provide for the Lien of Mechanics and others, passed April twelfth, eighteen hundred and fifty, is hereby repealed.

SEC. 13. This Act shall take effect and be in force on and after the first day of July next.

CHAPTER CXXXI.

AN ACT

To amend "An Act to Regulate Elections," passed March 23d, 1850.

[Approved April 27, 1855.]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

Section 5
amended.
Proclamation.

SECTION 1. Section fifth of said Act is amended, so as to read as follows : Section 5. CHAPTER CXXXVIII.

AN ACT

To provide for the Ascertainment of the Indebtedness of Calaveras County, prior to the organization of Amador County; and to provide for the Payment of that portion due from Amador County to the County of Calaveras.

[Approved April 27, 1855.]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Henry M. Sturgis and Alex. H. Putney, on the part of Calaveras County; and James F. Hubbard and Samuel Davis, on the part of Amador County, are hereby appointed Commissioners to ascertain the indebtedness of Calaveras County, at the time of the organization of Amador County, and to determine the amount of said indebtedness to be paid by Amador County to the County of Calaveras. Commissioners appointed.

SEC. 2. All persons holding orders or warrants upon the Treasurer of Calaveras County, issued prior to the time of the organization of Amador County, or bonds of said Calaveras County, issued in pursuance of an Act, entitled "An Act to fund the debt of Calaveras County, and provide for the payment thereof," approved May third, A. D., eighteen hundred and fifty-two, shall present the same to the Auditor of Calaveras County for registry, on or before the first day of July, A. D., eighteen hundred and fifty-five; and in case any such person or persons shall fail to present his or their claim, or evidence of indebtedness for registry, the person or persons so failing, shall forever thereafter be barred and precluded from enforcing the payment of any such order, warrant or bond, of which he or they may be the holder. der or holders as aforesaid ; and all such bonds, warrants and orders shall be deemed cancelled.

SEC. 3. The Auditor of Calaveras County upon the presentation to him for registry, of any order, warrant or bond, contemplated in the second section of this Act, shall make a fair and accurate registry thereof in a book to be prepared and kept by him for that purpose, showing the number, date and amount of said order, warrant or bond ; to whom the same was issued, the name of the person or persons holding the same at the time of such registry ; the amount or amounts, if any there be, endorsed thereon as paid upon the same, with the date of said endorsement ; and in case of an order or warrant, the date of its presentation to the County Treasurer for payment ; provided, said date be endorsed thereon.

SEC. 4. Notice of the provisions of the second section of this Act, shall be given by the Auditor of Calaveras County, by publication of the same in the "Calaveras Chronicle," "Amador Sentinel," daily edition of the "Sacramento Union," "Placer Times and Transcript," and "San Joaquin Republican," continuously from ten days after the passage of this Act, until the time hereinafter appointed for the meeting of said Commissioners.

SEC. 5. The Commissioners above named shall meet at the seat of Justice of Calaveras County, on the first Monday of July, A. D., (1855) eighteen hundred and fifty-five, and enter upon the discharge of their said duties, and shall first proceed to ascertain the indebtedness of Calaveras County, prior to the organization of Amador County ; and when the amount of indebtedness is so ascertained, they shall determine the amount justly chargeable to Amador County, by the assessment of taxable property made by the Assessor of Calaveras County, and his deputies, for the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, (1854) prior to the organization of Amador County. The amount to be paid by the said County of Amador, to bear the same proportion to the whole of said estimated indebtedness of Calaveras County, which had accrued and was unpaid at the time of the organization of Amador County, as the assessment roll of the County of Amador for that year as aforesaid, bears to the whole amount of assessment of both counties for the same year.

SEC. 6. Should any vacancy occur in said Commission by death, resignation or otherwise, the Board of Supervisors of the county in whose representation such vacancy shall occur, shall have power to fill such vacancy by appointment.

SEC. 7. Said Commissioners shall have power to review the registry of claims against said county of Calaveras prepared and kept by the Auditor thereof, as hereinbefore provided ; and to determine the correctness of the same ; and shall have the further power to ascertain the existence and value of any moneys, property, real or personal, belonging to Calaveras County, at the time of the meeting of the Commissioners appointed under the law passed May eleventh, eighteen hundred and fifty-four, providing for the organization of Amador County, and shall take the same into consideration, and the value thereof into account in apportioning said property between said counties, and determining the amount justly chargeable to Amador County.

SEC. 8. Power is hereby conferred upon said Commissioners to compel the attendance of such witnesses, and the production of such books and papers before them, as they may require, in the exercise of either and any of the powers conferred upon them in the seventh section of this Act. And it shall be the duty of the Sheriffs of Calaveras and Amador Counties to execute the same in their respective counties when so ordered, and shall be allowed for said service the same fees as are allowed for similar services in civil cases ; and all witnesses attending before said Commissioners, by their order, shall be entitled to the same compensation and mileage as are allowed to witnesses in civil cases ; provided, no witness shall be excused from attendance at the time and place mentioned in said order or subpoena, by failure of the officer making service thereof, to tender his fees in advance.

SEC. 2. It is hereby made the duty of the County Surveyor of said county, when called upon by the Board of Supervisors or corporate authorities, as the case may be, and under his or their direction, to proceed to lay out such town lots in said county, numbering the lots and blocks in such town conforming as far as possible, to the original plan thereof, and reserving for the public use, ornament and health, as many lots or blocks as may be deemed necessary for such purposes; and it shall also be the duty of the County Surveyor, to make or cause to be made, two maps or plats of each of the towns in said county, surveyed by him as aforesaid, one to be deposited with the Board of Supervisors, or corporate authorities of the town, for the use of the town, and one with the County Recorder of said county.

SEC. 3. Immediately after the entry of the lands, at the proper

Land office, as provided by the first section of this Act, the Board of Supervisors, or corporate authorities, as the case may be, shall cause notice to be put in the newspapers published in said county, or if none be published therein, then in a newspaper published most convenient thereto, to be inserted once a week for the term of three months; requiring every claimant or claimants of any town lot or lots, or parcel of land, to file in the office of the County Clerk, of said county, in case the town is unincorporated, or with the corporate authorities thereof, if the town be incorporated, within three months from the date of the first publication of the notice, a statement of his or their claim, describing particular [particularly] the lot or lots, or parcels of land, setting forth the grounds upon which it is founded, and within sixty days after the expiration of the notice as aforesaid, proof of such claim and payment of the price fixed on the lot or lots, or parcel of lands claimed as hereinafter provided must be made, and no claim shall be filed, or any proof shall be permitted to be made, after the terms respectively prescribed in this section.

SEC. 4. The expenses incurred in entering and surveying the lands as provided in this Act, and the amount required to be paid for said land, at the proper Land Office, shall be by the said Board of Supervisors, in case the town be unincorporated, and by the proper corporate authorities of the town, if the same be incorporated, assessed and apportioned with equality, upon all the lots or parcels of land in said town, and no claim shall be allowed, or certificate awarded to any claimant or claimants, unless payment be made if required of the proportion due from such claimant or claimants.

SEC. 5. The evidence required to establish any claim, to any lot or lots, or parcels of land in any town in said county, under the provisions of this Act, shall be, that the claimant thereof, is a citizen of the United States, or has declared his intention to become such, previous to the filing of his claims as herein before provided; is a citizen of such county, and was one of the original occupants and locators of such town, or holds his right to such lot or lots, or parcels of land, from such original occupant and locator, or his assignees; provided, no right to any unimproved lot or lots, or parcels of lands as last above mentioned, acquired after the passage of this Act, shall be respected unless the person from whom the same be acquired, be at the time a resident of said county, or that said claimant or the person under whom, he or she claims has for the last year preceeding the passage of this Act, been in the bona-fide and peaceable possession of the lot or lots, or parcels of land so claimed, and shall have improved the same.

SEC. 6. The said Board of Supervisors or corporate authorities, as the case may be, shall proceed to dispose of the lots or parcels of land, claimed as provided in this Act, and for that purpose shall as soon as practicable, examine each and every claim filed as herein provided, and any papers, in the support of the same, and hear such proof as the claimant or claimants may submit, to establish his or their right thereto; and if the same shall be found to comply with the provisions of this Act, and no conflicting claims, shall have been filed, the said Board of Supervisors or corporate authorities, as the case may be, shall issue a certificate confirming his or their claim, which certificate may be recorded in the Recorder's office of said county, in like manner, and with the same effect as deeds are recorded.

SEC. 7. In all cases where there shall be a dispute or contest in regard to the title to any lot or lots or parcels of land in the said town, the Board of Supervisors or corporate authorities, as the case may be, shall hear the testimony relating thereto, and shall give their certificate to such person or persons, as may seem to be justly entitled to the same; provided however, nothing contained in this Act shall be so construed, as to prevent any person or persons aggrieved by the decision of the said Board of Supervisors, or corporate authorities, from pursuing his, her or their right, to any such lot or lots or parcels of land, at law or equity.

SEC. 8. The certificates herein mentioned, or certified copies of the same, under the hand of the County Recorder shall be deemed and taken in all the Courts of Justice as prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein, and as conveying a title to the holder, or person or persons in whose favor the same may be issued; provided, that when there shall have been a dispute or contest, as provided in section seventh of this Act, and the party aggrieved, shall in good faith and without unnecessary delay prosecute his or their right in the proper tribunal, the provisions of this section as to the effect of a certificate, shall not be applicable, but the rights of the parties before such tribunal, shall be adjudicated on their original claims as though no confirmation had been made.

SEC. 9. All lots or parcels of land remaining unproved, at the expiration of the time specified in section third of this Act shall be deemed as property of the town or village in which they are situated, and shall be held as such in trust, by the corporate authorities; or if there be none, by the Board of Supervisors, and shall be disposed of in a manner as such authorities may direct; provided, such lots shall be sold by auction to the highest bidder, after giving public notice for the space of at least thirty days; the proceeds of such sale to be appropriated to the exclusive benefit of such towns or villages.

SEC. 10. Whenever a patent shall issue to said town or village, under the existing laws of Congress, it shall inure to the several benefit of those whose claims have been confirmed, and to whom certificates have issued to every intent, as though the same had been issued directly to them without any further or additional conveyance; and it is hereby made the duty of the corporate authorities, or the Board of Supervisors, as the case may be, to cause said patent, when so issued, to be recorded in the Recorder's office of said county.

CHAPTER CXL.

AN ACT

Supplementary to and amendatory of an act entitled "An Act concerning Conveyances," passed April 16th, 1850.

[Approved April 27, 1855.]

The People of the State of California represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. Every interest in real estate granted or devised to two or more persons, other than executors and trustees as such, shall be a tenancy in common, unless expressly declared in the grant or devise to be a joint tenancy. Interests in real estate.

SEC. 2. The term heirs, or other words of inheritance, shall not be necessary to create or convey an estate in fee simple; and every conveyance of any real estate hereafter executed, shall pass all the estate of the grantor, unless the intent to pass a less estate shall appear by express terms, or be necessarily implied in the terms of the grant. Term "heirs" Conveyances.

SEC. 3. Where a remainder in land or tenements, goods or chattels shall be limited by deed or otherwise, to take effect on the death of any person without heirs, or heirs of his or her body, or without issue, the word "heirs" or "issue" shall be construed to mean heirs or issue, living at the death of the person named as ancestor. Heirs or issue.

SEC. 4. A future estate depending on the contingency of the death of any person without heirs or issue, or children, shall be defeated by the birth of a posthumous child of such person, capable of taking by descent. Posthumous

SEC. 5. Where an estate shall be by any conveyance limited in remainder to the son or daughter or issue, or to the use of the son or daughter or issue of any person to be begotten, such son or daughter, or issue, born after the decease of his or her father, shall take the estate in the same proportion, and in the same manner as if he or she had been born in the lifetime of the father, although no estate shall have been created or conveyed to support the contingent remainder after his death. Limited estate.

SEC. 6. Grants of rents or of reversions or remainders shall be good and effectual without attornments of the tenants; but no tenant who, before notice of the grant, shall have paid rent to the grantor, shall suffer any damage thereby. Grants of rents, &c. Tenants not to suffer.

SEC. 7. The attornment of a tenant to a stranger shall be void unless it be with the consent of the landlord of such tenant, or in pursuance to, or in consequence of, a judgment or decree of some court of competent jurisdiction. Attornment of tenant.

SEC. 8. Lineal and collateral warranties, with all their incidents, are abolished; but the heirs and devisees of every person who shall have made any covenant or agreement in reference to the title of, in, or to, any real estate, shall be answerable upon such covenant or agreement to the extent of the land descended or devised to them in the cases, and in the manner prescribed by law. SEC. 9. The words "grant, bargain and sell" in all conveyances hereafter to be made, in and by which any estate of inheritance or fee-simple, is to be passed, shall, unless restrained by express terms, contained in such conveyances, be construed to be the following express covenants, and none other, on the part of the grantor, for himself and his heirs to the grantee, his heirs and assigns; First, that previous to the time of the execution of such conveyance, the grantor has not conveyed the same real estate, or any right, title, or interest therein, to any person other than the grantee; Second, that such real estate is at the time of the execution of such conveyance, free from incumbrances done, made or suffered by the grantor, or any person claiming under him; and such covenants may be sued upon in the same manner as if they had been expressly inserted in the conveyance.

SEC. 10. Sections twenty-four and twenty-five of said Act, entitled "An Act concerning Conveyances," passed April sixteenth, eighteen hundred and fifty, are hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 24. Every conveyance of real estate, and every instrument of writing, setting forth an agreement to convey any real estate, or whereby any real estate may be affected, proved, acknowledged and certified in the manner prescribed in this Act, to operate as notice to third persons, shall be recorded in the office of the Recorder of the county in which such real estate is situated, but shall be valid and binding between the parties thereto, without such record. Section 25. Every such conveyance or instrument of writing acknowledged or proved and certified, and recorded in the manner prescribed in this Act, shall from the time of filing the same with the Recorder for record, impart notice to all persons of the contents thereof; and subsequent purchasers and mortgagees shall be deemed to purchase and take with notice.

CHAPTER CXLI.

AN ACT

To amend an Act entitled An Act to provide for the Support of the Government of this State, passed May 15, 1854.

[Approved April 27, 1855.]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1 amended.

Ad valorem tax.

SECTION 1. That section first of an Act entitled An Act to provide Revenue for the Support of the Government of this State, passed May 15th, 1854, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section first. "An annual ad valorem tax of sixty cents upon each one hundred dollars shall be levied upon the assessed value of the real and personal property in this State, subject to taxation, as hereinafter in this section named, to be paid as herein provided; five cents on each one hundred dollars for the payment of the interest on the funded debt of eighteen hundred and fifty-one; thirteen cents on each one hundred dollars, for the payment of the interest on the funded debt of eighteen hundred and fifty-two; six cents on each one hundred dollars for the payment of the interest on the funded debt of eighteen hundred and fifty-five; four cents on each one hundred dollars, for the payment of the interest on the School Fund debt, and one cent on each one hundred dollars, for the payment of the interest on the State Prison Bonds, and to create a fund for their ultimate redemption. All the above interest tax shall be paid in legal coin of the United States. The remaining thirty-one cents on each one hundred dollars, shall be collected as other State taxes are by law required to be collected, and shall be paid into the General Fund; and such county tax, not exceeding fifty cents on each one hundred dollars, as the Supervisors of each county may direct to be levied, for the purpose of paying county indebtedness, and such special tax as may by law be authorized to be collected by any county in the State, shall be levied for county purposes upon the objects of taxation herein-after in this article named.

SEC. 2. That section fourth of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section fourth. There shall be levied and collected a quarter yearly license tax, as follows: First, from each proprietor or keeper of a Billiard Table, not kept for the exclusive use of the owner and his family, for each table, fifteen dollars per quarter; for a Nine or Ten-Pin, or Bowling Alley, ten dollars for each alley, license to be granted for a term not less than three months, to be paid to the County Treasurer, one half for the use of the State, and one half for the use of the county. Second, from a Manager or Lessee of every Theater, ten dollars per day if granted for a less term than one month; if granted for one month, two hundred dollars shall be paid; if granted for three months, four hundred dollars; if granted for one year, twelve hundred dollars; and for each exhibition of Serenaders, or Opera, or Concert Singers, the same pay for license as required for theatrical performances, to be paid to the County Treasurer, one half for the use of the State, and one half for the use of the county. Third, for each Caravan, Menagerie, the exhibition for pay of Bull and Bear, or any collection of animals for public amusement, twenty dollars for each exhibition; and for each show of any figures, and for each Circus, Rope or Wire dancing, or Sleight of Hand exhibition for reward, ten dollars per day, to be paid to the County Treasurer, one half for the use of the State, and one half for the use of the county. Fourth, from each and every Insurance Company, incorporated by laws of this State, and transacting an insurance business therein, twenty-five dollars per quarter year, payable to the County Treasurer for State purposes. Fifth, from each and every Insurer or Insurance Company, foreign or otherwise, not chartered by this State, and transacting an insurance business herein, or agent or agents thereof, one hundred dollars per quarter payable to the County Treasurer for State purposes.

SEC. 3. That section tenth of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section tenth. Every person who shall sell or vend any goods, wares or merchandize, wines or distilled liquors, drugs or medicines, jewelry, or wares of precious metals, and persons who keep horses or carriages for rent or hire, except mules, horses or animals used in transportation of goods, shall obtain from the Treasurer of the county in which such business may be transacted, for any or all the branches of business herein enumerated, a license for the transaction of Liquor dealers.

SEC. 4. That section eleven of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows : Section eleven. All tavern or inn keepers, and all persons who may sell or dispose of any spirituous, malt or fermented liquors or wines, in less quantities than one quart, shall, before the transaction of any such business, take out a license or licenses from the County Treasurer, as prescribed in this Act, and make therefor the following payment, to wit : Those making sales to the amount of ten thousand dollars or more as a monthly average, shall constitute the first class ; sales to the extent of five thousand, and not exceeding ten thousand dollars as a monthly average, shall constitute the second class, and all sales less than five thousand dollars, shall constitute the third class ; the license to be paid by the venders of the first class, shall be forty dollars per month ; of the second class, shall be twenty dollars per month ; of the third class, shall be five dollars per month. The moneys collected for licenses, provided to be granted by this section, shall be paid into the County Treasury for county purposes.

Section 13;
amended.

SEC. 5. That section thirteenth of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows : Section thirteenth. The licenses provided to be granted by this article shall be granted for three, six and twelve months, at the option of the party applying for such licenses. Terms of licenses. Penalties for violations. Every person who shall transact or carry on any business specified in this article, without first procuring the license required, for each and every offense shall be liable to an action in the name of the County or of the State, as the case may be, in any court of competent jurisdiction, for double the amount of [the] required license, with cost of prosecution; and it is hereby made the duty of the District Attorney to prosecute the suits provided for in the articles two, three and four of this Act, and violations of the provisions of article two; and in case judgment shall be obtained against the party prosecuted, the court shall tax as cost, against the defendant, the sum of fifteen dollars as District Attorney's fees, and include the same in the judgment; and the moneys, less Attorney's fees, when received, shall be paid to the County Treasurer, for State or County purposes, as the case may be. The County Auditor shall, at least once in three months, forward to the Controller of State a full abstract of all licenses granted; to whom granted; and the amount of money paid on account of the same; the Controller shall thereupon charge the County Treasurer with the amount thereof, and the County Treasurer is hereby authorized and empowered to administer any oath which he may deem necessary to require of parties in order to determine the amount of business transacted. Abstract of licenses. The Controller of State shall cause to be printed a sufficient number of licenses, of all classes mentioned in this article, for three, six and twelve months, filled out completely, except a blank for the name of the County and of the County Auditor. Each license shall also contain a blank receipt, to be signed by the County Treasurer on delivery of said license to the purchaser thereof. He shall forward to the Auditor of each County a sufficient number of blanks for the use of said County, which shall be charged to said Auditor on the Controller's books. The Auditor, from time to time, shall deliver to the Treasurer as many of such licenses as may be required, and shall sign the same, and charge them to the County Treasurer, specifying the class of licenses in his charge. Printed licenses At the end of each month, the Treasurer shall return to the Auditor all licenses not issued, and the Auditor shall charge him with the amount of money received for licenses issued, and open a new account with the Treasurer for the next month. Once in three months the Auditor shall report to the Controller of State the number of licenses issued by the Treasurer of [for] the preceding three months, and the amount of money paid for the same, and the Controller shall hold the Auditor responsible, on his official bond, for all licenses and receipts issued to him under this article, not accounted for or returned. Licenses not issued. If either the Auditor or Treasurer shall issue, have in his possession, or put in circulation any other licenses than those forwarded to the Auditor by the Controller, the person so offending shall be liable to indictment for a felony, and, on conviction, be sentenced to imprisonment in the State Prison for a term not less than one year nor more than four years. Penalty for false license.

SEC. 6. That section forty of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section forty. Each male inhabitant of this State, over twenty-one years of age and under fifty years of age, and not by law exempt from poll tax, shall pay a poll tax each year, for the use of the State and County, of three dollars; forty per cent. of the net proceeds of which shall be paid into the County Treasury for County purposes, the remaining sixty per cent. of the net pro- Section 40 amended. AN ACT

To provide for the Survey and Construction of a Wagon Road over the Sierra Nevada Mountains.

[Approved April 28, 1855.]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

Duty of Surveyor General.	SECTION 1. The Surveyor-General of the State shall cause to be surveyed a good Wagon Road over the Sierra Nevada Mountains, at an expense not to exceed five thousand dollars, and no further liability shall be incurred for this purpose. The Governor, the Secretary of State and the Surveyor-General shall constitute a Board of Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized to contract for the making of said road, either as a whole or in sections, under the provisions and restrictions of this Act. The Commissioners shall advertise for at least twenty days in the newspapers of the county or counties through which the road passes, and also in one daily paper in Sacramento, and one in San Francisco, for sealed proposals for the performance of the work to be done in improving said road ; and shall, after opening said proposals, let the work by contract, to the lowest and most responsible bidder or bidders ; provided , that the accepted bidder or bidders shall give bonds in double the amount of their contracts, with two or more sureties, to be approved by the Commissioners, and conditioned for the faithful performance of such contracts. The western termination of said road shall be at the western foot of the steep slope of the Sierra Nevada Mountains ; and nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to authorize the expenditure of any money on account of the State, in improving any road in the Sacramento Valley, or in the western foot-hills of the Sierra Nevada, which is now usually traveled with ordinary ease and safety with loaded wagons. The right of way for said road is hereby granted through any lands the property of this State, and in cases where said road shall necessarily pass through enclosed lands and valuable improvements to the property of private persons, which enclosures and improvements have been made in good faith, previous to the first day of February, eighteen hundred and fifty-five, the actual damage thereby occasioned shall be ascertained and assessed in the manner by law prescribed in cases of county roads and cart-roads through private property ; and when it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Commissioners that such assessments have been lawfully made, they shall issue a certificate for the payment of the same, in the manner provided for in section two of this Act.

tersigned by the Controller, and endorsed by the Treasurer of State, and shall have the same force and validity as the bonds issued under "An Act to fund the Indebtedness of the State," passed April twenty-ninth, eighteen hundred and fifty-one. They shall be made payable in the city of New York; but the interest may be made payable either in the city of New York, or at the office of the State Treasurer.

SEC. 3. The payments on the said contract or contracts shall be made monthly; and for the purpose of ascertaining the amount due at the end of each month, it is herein made the duty of the said Commissioners to ascertain and certify the same to the Controller of the State, who shall thereafter issue his warrants on the Treasurer of the State, in the sum or sums certified, payable out of the bonds herein provided for; provided, that the sum so paid shall not exceed seventy-five per cent. on the amount of work performed, as certified by said Commissioners, until the completion of said contracts.

SEC. 4. The Commissioners, or either of them, acting under or by virtue of this Act, shall not, either directly or indirectly, be in any manner interested in any contract or undertaking, either for supplies, materials or otherwise in the construction of the road herein contemplated. Any violation of this section shall be a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, before any competent tribunal, said Commissioners, or either of them, shall be fined in any sum not less than five thousand dollars.

SEC. 5. The said road shall be a "Free Public Wagon Road," and made in such a manner as to allow the free and convenient passage of wagons and other vehicles; and for the purpose of constructing such road the said Commissioners are hereby empowered to appropriate and set apart as much territory on either side thereof as may be absolutely necessary; provided, no private property shall be taken without just compensation therefor.

SEC. 6. Any two of the Commissioners appointed under this Act, are hereby authorized to make contracts and do all acts and things herein contemplated to be done; and the same shall be as effectual and valid as if made by all such Commissioners.

SEC. 7. Said Commissioners are hereby authorized to expend a sum not to exceed one hundred thousand dollars, and they are hereby required to keep a minute account of all expenditures connected with the construction of said road, and to report the same to the next Legislature, and they also shall be held to show the disposition of all bonds issued under the provisions of this Act. The said Commissioners are required to locate said road at the earliest practicable day, following (in their judgment) the most practical and economical route, and if possible, to have said road so far completed as to make it beneficial to the emigration of the present year; provided, any expenditure made, or contract entered into, by the Commissioners, beyond the one hundred thousand dollars, shall be null and void as against the State, and the Commissioners shall be jointly and severally liable to the same prosecution and penalties for a violation of the provisions of this section, as is provided in section four of this Act.

SEC. 8. All liabilities authorized and incurred under, and by virtue of the provisions of this Act, shall be paid out of the appropriation made by this Act.

CHAPTER CXLVII.

AN ACT

Concerning Public Ferries and Toll-Bridges.

[Approved April 28, 1855.]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. No person shall demand or receive compensation for the use of any bridge or ferry as a public highway, nor set up and keep on any private road, a toll bridge, ferry or constructed ford so as to receive any remuneration or promise of remuneration for use of the same unless authorized so to do by license as hereinafter provided. ^{License necessary.}

SEC. 2. The Board of Supervisors of each county shall be and are hereby empowered to establish public ferries and toll bridges across those bays, rivers, creeks or sloughs, bounding or within their respective counties when ever they shall deem it necessary ; provided, said Board shall not have the power to license bridges across navigable waters. But nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to authorize the granting of any license to keep a public ferry or toll bridge across or over the bays of San Pablo, Suisun, San Francisco or Monterey, or to impair the free and unrestricted navigation of said bays ; provided, nothing in this section shall affect any ferry now established on the Straits of Carquenas, between Mare Island and Navy Point. ^{Supervisors empowered. Proviso.}

SEC. 3. Any person may petition the Board of Supervisors for a license to keep a ferry or toll bridge, and if in the discretion of the Board such ferry or toll bridge be necessary, and the petitioner be a suitable person to keep the same, they shall order the Clerk of said Board to issue a license, on the payment of such license tax, for the term for which the license is granted as the Board may direct, not to exceed the rate of one hundred dollars, nor less than three dollars per month for such term, and filing with the Clerk the receipt and bond as hereinafter provided. ^{Discretion of Board. License tax.}

SEC. 4. Whenever a ferry or toll bridge crosses a stream, slough, bay, or arm of the sea, forming the boundary line between two counties, the owner or owners of the same shall take out a license in the county, lying on the left bank descending such stream, slough, bay, or arm of the sea ; provided, that the amount paid for such license shall be equally divided between such two counties. Should the County Treasurer to whom such license money may have been paid neglect or refuse to pay over to the County Treasurer of the county entitled to the one-half of said money, on demand, suit may be brought against such Treasurer so neglecting or refusing, and the securities on his official bond, in the name of the county to which said money is due in any court of competent jurisdiction, and judgment shall be recovered for double the amount so found to be due. ^{Bridges on boundary line. Proviso. Neglect of Treasurer.}

SEC. 5. Upon the production of the receipt of the County Treasurer to the Clerk of the Board for the amount of license tax assessed by said Board, and filing the bond as hereinafter required, said Clerk shall issue such license to keep a ferry or toll bridge at the place therein mentioned ^{Clerk to issue license.}

Term.	for a term not less than six months, nor more than one year, but no license to keep such ferry or toll bridge shall issue unless the land on which it is sought to establish such ferry or toll bridge be public land, or the land of said petitioner or where the holders or owners of any land where the public convenience may require that such ferry or toll bridge shall be kept, shall neglect or refuse to have a public ferry or toll bridge established within a reasonable time.
Bridges on public land, etc.
Bridge or ferry near another.	SEC. 6. No ferry or toll bridge shall be established within one mile immediately above or below a regularly established ferry or toll bridge, unless it be required by the public convenience, or where the situation of a town or village, the crossing of a public highway, or the intervention of some creek or ravine shall render it necessary. Upon application by any person to establish another ferry or toll bridge within one mile of any regularly established ferry or toll bridge, notice of at least ten days of the time and place of such application, and of the grounds upon which the same is founded, shall be served upon the proprietor of the ferry or toll bridge already established, and such application shall be made to the same tribunal (if the same has jurisdiction) which granted the license for the ferry or toll bridge already established.
When and how established.
Renewal of license.	SEC. 7. Any person having a license to keep a ferry or toll bridge and having kept the same in accordance with law, shall be entitled to have such license renewed from the date of the expiration of the same, for a period of not less than six months or more than one year, having posted notices of his intention to apply for such renewal for twenty days, in the same manner as required on original application, and the Board of Supervisors shall in all cases of application for renewal of license give to the party applying for renewal a preference over any party making original application for license to keep a toll bridge or ferry at the same place; provided , such person applying for renewal shall in all respects have complied with the terms and requirements of this Act.
Notice of intention.
Preference.
Proviso.
Private grounds.	SEC. 8. When any person being owner or holder of any land lying on any river, creek, slough or arm of the sea within or bounding on this State, except such as are by section two of this Act, exempted, where any public road may cross the same, and where the public convenience may require that a ferry or toll bridge should be kept, shall neglect or refuse to have a public ferry or toll bridge established within a reasonable time, it shall be lawful for the Board of Supervisors of the county in which it may be necessary to have such ferry or toll bridge established, upon proper application being made, and after having given three months public notice of their intention by advertisement in some public newspaper in the county, or by written notice set up in three of the most public places in the county, to grant a license to some person to keep a ferry or toll bridge at said place, on such conditions as to them may appear reasonable and just, taking bond with security as hereinafter provided.
Landings of ferries.	SEC. 9. Any person or persons having obtained a license from the Board as aforesaid shall be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to keep such ferry or toll bridge so established, and also to occupy as much ground as may be necessary to discharge passengers not exceeding one hundred feet on each side of the river, creek, slough or arm of the sea, as the ferryman may deem necessary.
Appraisers.	SEC. 10. In case any land belonging to a private person be appropriated for public use as provided in the two preceding sections, it shall be the duty of the Board of Supervisors to appoint three disinterested electors of the county, who shall upon view of such land so appropriated for public use appraise the same and make return to said Board setting forth the metes and bounds of the same, and the valuation they have placed thereon. Whereupon the Board of Supervisors shall make an order that the amount of such appraisement shall be paid to the holder or owner of such land so appropriated by the person or persons obtaining such license.

SEC. 11. When the land bordering on any creek, river, slough or arm of the sea, across which a public ferry or toll bridge is deemed necessary, shall be a public common for any town, the said Board shall be authorized to establish ferries or toll bridges across such river, creek, slough or arm of the sea, on application of any persons owning land next adjoining such public common, under the same rules and restrictions that ferries and toll bridges are established, upon application of persons owning lands bordering on such river, creek, slough or arm of the sea; but the foregoing provisions shall not be construed as in anywise to affect the rights of any town or corporation, or of any person or persons being proprietor or proprietors of any town, their heirs or assigns, by giving the right to establish a ferry or toll bridge to any person, not proprietor of such town, if the corporation of such town or the proprietor of such lands keep up a sufficient number of ferries or toll bridges.

SEC. 12. The Board of Supervisors shall not establish any ferry or toll bridge until the applicant shall prove satisfactorily that publication has been made of his intended application in some newspaper published in the county if one be published, and by posting notices in three of the most public places in the township, where the bridge or ferry is sought to be established, for at least thirty days next preceeding such application.

SEC. 13. The Board of Supervisors shall have authority to order and direct from time to time the number and description of boats, and the number of hands which shall be kept on each ferry respectively.

SEC. 14. No application as aforesaid shall be granted for any toll bridge until the Board of Supervisors shall be satisfied that such bridge has been or will be made of substantial and durable materials, and at least ten feet in width, railed in with a good substantial railing at least four feet high; provided, that nothing in this section contained shall prohibit the Board of Supervisors upon application from authorizing the erection of toll bridges across mountain streams where it is impracticable to travel with wagons, of such dimensions as the Board in its discretion may determine.

SEC. 15. Any person injured, delayed or damaged, through any defect, insufficiency, or want of repair in a toll bridge or ferry, shall have a right to sue for and recover of the party having a license therefor, such damages as he may have thereby sustained in any court of competent jurisdiction.

SEC. 16. The person or persons obtaining an order granting to him or them the privilege of keeping a ferry or toll bridge, shall within thirty days from the date of such order execute a bond payable to the State of California, in a penal sum to be fixed by the Board of Supervisors with one or more sureties to be approved by the County Judge, conditioned that he or they will keep such ferry or toll bridge in good repair and condition, according to law, and that he or they will give passage to all public messengers and expresses when required, without fee or reward, and conditioned further that the obligors will pay to any person delayed, injured or damaged, by Refusal to give bond.

License from County Judge.	SEC. 17. When the Board of Supervisors refuse to grant a license or a renewal of a license to keep a ferry or toll bridge to any person to establish a ferry or toll bridge, the person making such application according to law shall have the right to apply to the County Judge of the county in which the ferry or bridge is sought to be established is located, for such license during any regular term of the County Court for such county, and the County Judge may in his discretion grant such license in accordance with the provisions of this act.
Violating section 1.	SEC. 18. Any person who shall violate the first section of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and may upon conviction be punished by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars for the first offense, and for the second offense in addition thereto, shall be imprisoned in the County Jail not exceeding thirty days.
Rates of toll.	SEC. 19. The Board of Supervisors shall establish the rates of toll to be charged and received for crossing all licensed ferries and toll bridges, which rates shall be posted up, either written, printed or painted, at each licensed ferry or toll bridge in the State, by the owner thereof.
Persons to pass free.	SEC. 20. All expresses sent on public service by a Commander in Chief, Colonel or Major, or from the Governor for the time being, or the commanding officer of the Militia, shall be accounted public messengers or expresses, and shall pass all ferries or toll bridges free of charge, within the condition of the bond aforesaid if the dispatch carried by such messenger or expresses be endorsed "Public Service" and be signed by the person sending the same, but no ferryman or toll bridge keeper shall be bound to give passage free to any such expresses in time of peace except in case of insurrection.
Obligations of ferrymen.	SEC. 21. Each licensed ferry keeper shall constantly keep a good and sufficient boat or boats, (if more than one be necessary) with a sufficient number of able and skillful ferrymen, as may be directed by the Board of Supervisors, and give due attendance to the said ferry or ferries, and to the transportation of all persons with their property, who shall apply for the same between daylight in the morning and dark in the evening, so that no unnecessary delay may happen to persons having occasion to pass such ferry ; and all licensed ferry or toll bridge keepers shall be obliged at any hour of the night, if required, except in cases of evident danger to give passage to all expresses above recited, and to all other persons requiring the same on their tendering or paying the rate of toll or ferriage allowed to be taken during the day time.
Banks of streams.	SEC. 22. It shall be the duty of all ferry and toll bridge keepers to cause the banks of the streams to be graded and kept in good passable order for the passage of loaded wagons and other vehicles.
Bridging without license.	SEC. 23. The Board of Supervisors may in their discretion and under restrictions herein before prescribed, establish and license ferries or bridges over streams that are otherwise impassable for short periods at particular seasons, without the payment of license tax, if said Board shall be satisfied that the profits of such ferry or toll bridge will not justify the owner in paying a tax therefor, but every ferry or toll bridge so established under the provisions of this section shall be subject to all the rules, regulations and restrictions of this Act, except the payment of a license tax.

SEC. 24. If any ferry which now is, or may hereafter be established, shall not be furnished with the necessary boat or boats and ferrymen within one month after the establishment thereof and continue to be so furnished, or if the proprietor shall at any time thereafter refuse or neglect to properly attend to the same, it shall be the duty of the Board of Supervisors for the county wherein such ferry is located on complaint to them made and verified by the oath of any citizen of the county, to cause the proprietor or proprietors of such ferry to be summoned to appear before said Board at its next sitting to show cause why the license for such ferry should not be revoked, and the Board of Supervisors shall revoke such license or dismiss such complaint on hearing the testimony adduced, and may award cost against the complainant or proprietor or in their discretion apportion the costs. ^{Power to revoke license.}

SEC. 25. When any member of the Board of Supervisors is interested in the establishment or continuation of any ferry or toll bridge, and in counties where no such Board is organized, the County Judge of the county in which the application is required to be made shall have and exercise under the same obligation and restrictions the powers and duties devolved upon the Board of Supervisors by this Act. ^{Power of County Judge.}

SEC. 26. All moneys assessed and collected for ferry or toll bridge licenses shall be paid into the County Treasury for county purposes. ^{Moneys for license.}

SEC. 27. Each and every person to whom a license to keep a ferry or toll bridge has been granted by the Court of Sessions or District Judge of any of the counties of this state, which license was unexpired on the first Monday in February, A. D., 1855, and the assignee or assignees of such as have transferred the franchise are, and each and every of them is hereby licensed to keep a ferry or toll bridge, according to the grant of their respective franchise until the first Monday of June next, and any person or persons to whom a license to keep a ferry or toll bridge is hereby granted, who shall have kept the same in accordance with law, shall be entitled to have such license renewed from the date of the expiration of the same, for a period of not less than six months nor more than one year, having posted notices of intention to apply for such renewal in the same manner as required on an original application. ^{Existing licenses.}

SEC. 28. An Act entitled an Act concerning public ferries and toll bridges passed May 15, 1854, is hereby repealed. ^{Renewals. Term. Repeal.}

CHAPTER CLV.

AN ACT

Amendatory of an Act entitled "An Act to Regulate Proceedings in Civil Cases in the Courts of Justice of this State," passed April 29th, 1851, and also amendatory of an Act entitled "An Act amendatory of and supplementary to an Act entitled An Act to Regulate Proceedings in Civil Cases in the Courts of Justice in this State, passed April 29th, 1851," passed May 15th, 1854.

[Approved April 28, 1855.]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

Act of April
29 amended.

SECTION 1. An Act entitled "An Act to Regulate Proceedings in Civil Cases in the Courts of Justice of this State," (passed April 29th, 1851,) is hereby amended, as hereinafter prescribed.

Section 28.
Summons—by whom served.

SEC. 2. Section twenty-eight of said Act, as amended by an Act passed in March, A. D. 1855, is hereby amended so as to read as follows : Section 28. The summons shall be served by the Sheriff of the county where the defendant is found, or by his Deputy, or by a person specially appointed by him, or appointed by a Judge of the Court in which the action is brought, or by any white male citizen of the United States over twenty-one years of age, who is competent to be a witness on the trial of the action, except as hereinafter provided ; a copy of the complaint, certified by the Clerk, shall be served with the summons. When the summons is served by the Sheriff or his Deputy, it shall be returned with the certificate or affidavit of the officer of its service and of the service of the copy of the complaint to the office of the Clerk from which the summons issued. When the summons is served by any other person, as before provided, it shall be returned to the office of the Clerk from which it issued, with the affidavit of such person of its service, and of the service of a copy of the complaint. If there be more than one defendant in the action, and such defendants reside within three miles of the Clerk's office, a copy of the complaint need be served on only one of the defendants.

Section 43.
Complaints and answers.

SEC. 3. Section forty-third of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows : Section 43. If the complaint be amended, a copy of the amendments shall be filed, or the Court may in its discretion require the complaint as amended to be filed, and a copy of the amendments shall be served upon every defendant to be affected thereby, or upon his attorney, if he has appeared by attorney ; the defendant shall answer in such time as may be ordered by the Court, and judgment by default may be entered upon failure to answer, as in other cases.

Section 64.
Causes of

SEC. 4. Section sixty-four of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows : Section 64. The plaintiff may unite several causes of action in the same complaint, when they all arise out of—First, Contracts express or implied ; or, Second, Claims to recover specific real property, with or without damages, for the withholding thereof, or for waste committed thereon, and the rents and profits of the same; or, Third, Claims to recover specific personal property, with or without damages for the withholding thereof; Fourth, Claims against a trustee by virtue of a contract or by operation of law; or, Fifth, Injuries to character; or, Sixth, Injuries to person; or Seventh, Injuries to property. But the causes of action so united shall all belong to one only of these classes, and shall affect all the parties to the action, and not require different places of trial, and shall be separately stated; provided, however, that an action for malicious arrest and prosecution, or either of them, may be united with an action for either an injury to character or to the person.

SEC. 5. Section one hundred and twenty-eight of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 128. Any person owing debts to the defendant, or having in his possession or under his control any credits or other personal property belonging to the defendant, may be required to attend before the Court or Judge, or a referee appointed by the Court or Judge, and be examined on oath respecting the same. The defendant may also be required to attend for the purpose of giving information respecting his property, and may be examined on oath. The Court or Judge may, after such examination, order personal property capable of manual delivery, to be delivered to the Sheriff on such terms as may be just, having reference to any liens thereon, or claims against the same, and a memorandum to be given of all other personal property, containing the amount and description thereof.

Section 128.
Creditors of defendant.

SEC. 6. Section four hundred and two of said Act is hereby amended, so as to read as follows: Section 402. A subpoena may require not only the attendance of the person to whom it is directed, at a particular time and place, to testify as a witness, but may also require him to bring any books, documents or other things in his control, to be used as evidence. No person shall be required to attend as a witness before any Court, Judge, Justice or any other officer out of the county in which he resides, unless the distance be less than thirty miles from his place of residence to the place of trial.

Section 402.
Witnesses.

SEC. 7. Section six hundred and four of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 604. Every Justice shall keep a book denominated a docket, in which he shall enter—First, The Title of every action or proceeding; Second, The object of the action or proceeding, and if a sum of money be claimed, the amount of the demand; Third, The date of the summons and the time of its return, and if an order to arrest the defendant be made, or a writ of attachment be issued, a statement of these facts; Fourth, The time when the parties, or either of them, appear, or their non-appearance if default be made; a minute of the pleadings and motions, if in writing, referring to them—if not in writing, a concise statement of the material parts of the pleading and of all motions made during the trial by either party, and his decisions thereon; Fifth, Every adjournment, stating on whose application, whether on oath, evidence or consent, and to what time; Sixth, The demand for a trial by jury, when the same is made, and by whom made, the order for the Jury and the time appointed for the trial and return of the Jury; Seventh, The names of the Jury, who appear and are sworn, the names of all witnesses sworn and at whose request; Eighth, The verdict of the Jury and when received; if the Jury disagree and are discharged, the fact of such disagreement and discharge; Ninth, The judgment of the Court, specifying the costs included, and the time when rendered;

Section 604.
Justice's docket.
What to enter.

Tenth, The issuing of the execution, when issued and to whom, the renewals thereof, if any, and when made, and a statement of any money paid to the Justice, and when and by whom; Eleventh, The receipt of a notice of appeal, if any be given, and of the appeal bond, if any be filed.

Act of May 15
amended.

SEC. 8. An Act entitled an Act amendatory of and supplementary to an Act entitled An Act to Regulate Proceedings in Civil Cases in the Courts of Justice of this State, passed May 15th, 1854, is hereby amended, as hereinafter proscribed.

Section 55.
Appeals to County Court.

SEC. 9. Section fifty-five of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows. Section six hundred and twenty-five of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 625. When a party appeals to the County Court on questions of law alone, he shall, within ten days from the rendition of judgment, prepare a statement of the case and file the same with the Justice. The statement shall contain the grounds upon which the party intends to rely on the appeal, and so much of the evidence as may be necessary to explain the grounds, and no more; within ten days after he receives notice that the statement is filed, the adverse party, if dissatisfied with the same, may file amendments; the proposed statement and amendments shall be settled by the Justice, and if no amendments be filed, the original statement shall be adopted. The statement thus adopted or as settled by the Justice, with a copy of the docket of the Justice, and all motions filed with him by the parties during the trial, and the notice of appeal shall be used on the hearing of the appeal before the County Court.

Section 57.
Notice of appeal.

SEC. 10. Section fifty-seven of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section six hundred and twenty-seven of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 627. Upon receiving the notice of appeal and on payment of the fees of the Justice and filing an undertaking as required in the next section, the Justice shall within five days transmit to the Clerk of the County Court; if the appeal be on question of law alone, a certified copy of his docket, the statement as admitted or as settled, the notice of appeal and the undertaking filed; or, if the appeal be on questions of fact, or both law and fact, a certified copy of his docket, the pleadings, all notices, motions and other papers filed in the cause, the notice of appeal and the undertaking filed, and the Justice may be compelled by the County Court, by an order entered upon motion, to transmit such papers, and may be fined for neglect or refusal to transmit the same; a certified copy of such order may be served on the Justice by the party or his attorney. In the County Court either party shall have the benefit of all legal objections made in the Justice's Court.

Duty of Justices.

Section 58.
Bonds on appeal.

SEC. 11. Section fifty-eight of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section six hundred and twenty-eight of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 628. An appeal from a Justice's Court shall not be effectual for any purpose, unless an undertaking be filed with two or more sureties in the sum of one hundred dollars for the payment of the costs on the appeal; or if a stay of proceedings be claimed, in a sum equal to twice the amount of the judgment, including costs, when the judgment is for the payment of money, or twice the value of the property, including costs, when the judgment is for the recovery of specific personal property, and shall be conditioned, when the action is for the recovery of money, that the appellant will pay the amount of the judgment appealed from and all costs, if the appeal be withdrawn or dismissed, or the amount of any judgments and all costs, that may be recovered against him in said action in the County Court; where the action is for the recovery of specific personal property, the undertaking shall be conditioned that the appellant will pay the judgment and costs appealed from, and obey the order of the court made therein, if the appeal be withdrawn or dismissed, or any judgment and costs that may be recovered against him in said action in the County Court, and will obey any order made by the court therein. The undertaking shall be accompanied by the ^{Affidavit of} ~~sureties.~~ affidavit of the sureties that they are residents of the county, and are each worth the amount specified in the undertaking over and above all their just debts and liabilities, exclusive of property exempt from execution, or the bond shall be executed by a sufficient number of sureties, who can justify in the aggregate to an amount equal to double the amount specified in the bond; or a deposit of the amount of ^{Deposit.} the judgment including all costs appealed from, or of the value of the property, including all costs in actions for the recovery of specific personal property, with the Justice, and such deposit shall be equivalent to the filing of the undertaking in this Act mentioned, and in such cases the Justice shall transmit the money to the Clerk of the County Court, to be by him paid out upon the order of the court.

Sec. 12. Section sixty-three of said Act is hereby amended so as ^{Section 63.} to read as follows: Section 63. In actions respecting miners' claims ^{Miners' claims.} in a Justice's Court, the Justice shall have power upon application of the party out of possession of the claim or claims, after notice of one day to the adverse party, to appoint a Receiver of the proceeds ^{Receiver.} of the claim, pending the action. If the parties agree upon a person, he shall be appointed such Receiver. If the parties do not agree, the Justice shall appoint a Receiver, who shall take an oath, which shall ^{His duties.} be filed with the Justice, that he is not interested in the action between the parties, and that he will honestly keep an account of all gold dust or metals of any kind, the proceeds of the claim or claims in dispute. After the appointment of such Receiver, the Justice shall ^{To put in} have power to issue a written order to any Sheriff or Constable to ^{possession.} put such Receiver into possession of such claim; which ^{order} said Sheriff or Constable shall execute, and the Receiver shall remain in possession of the claim or claims, so long as said action may remain undetermined in any court. The court in which the action may be pending, shall have authority upon application of either party with two days' notice to the other, from time to time, to make such orders for the disposition of the proceeds of such claim or claims for the ^{Proceeds of} safety of the same, as may seem proper. The court in which the ^{claims.} action may be pending shall also have power, upon application of the Receiver, based upon his affidavit, to punish as for contempt, all persons who have been guilty of disturbing the Receiver in the possession of the claim.

Trustees

SECTION 1. The Trustees of the City of San Diego, in the County of San Diego, or a majority of them, may and they are hereby authorized and empowered to grant, convey, release and quit claim, to the President and Board of Directors of the San Diego and Gila Southern Pacific and Atlantic Railroad Company, and to their successors in office, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, but not otherwise, two leagues of the Pueblo or public lands belonging to said city; and the lands so conveyed may either be sold, released or hypothecated, for the purpose of raising funds to construct the said road, and the procuring of the necessary machinery for the same; but the land so conveyed shall neither be sold, leased nor hypothecated by the President and Directors of the said Railroad Company, for any other purpose whatever; and upon the failure of the said Company to build and complete said road within ten years from the date of their present charter, the lands so conveyed shall revert back to the City of San Diego.

SEC. 2. Within six months after the passage of this Act, the Board of Trustees of the City of San Diego shall order an election to be held, of which they shall give at least thirty days' notice, by publication in the San Diego Herald, or post and keeping the same posted on the Court House door, at New San Diego, and at the Plaza, which notice shall state the object for which the election is to be held; and for the purpose of holding said election the Board shall appoint an Inspector and two Judges, who shall be sworn, and who shall have power to appoint Clerks, and hold the election in the same manner as general elections are held.

SEC. 3. At the election provided for in the second section of this Act, all the legally qualified voters of the county of San Diego, who shall have resided as their permanent place of residence for six months next preceding such election within the bounds of the Pueblo lands of the City of San Diego, according to Fitch's survey and map of said lands, or whose families reside permanently on the same for six months during the year, shall be entitled to vote at said election; upon each ticket shall be plainly written or printed the word or words, "Grant" or "No Grant"; if a majority of all the votes cast shall be in favor of granting, then it shall be, and is hereby made the duty of the present Board of Trustees, or their successors in office, to convey all the right, title and interest of the City of San Diego in and to two leagues of the Pueblo lands of said city, to the President and Directors of the San Diego and Gila Southern Pacific and Atlantic Railroad Company, in trust and for the use of said Company; which title deed or deeds shall refer to this Act by its title and date of approval; said deed or deeds shall also contain a condition, that unless the said company shall construct and complete the said road within ten years from the date of its present charter, the land so conveyed shall revert back to the city of San Diego; provided, that if a majority of all the votes cast in said election shall be opposed to granting said lands, then this Act shall be null and void.

Condition of deed.

Proviso.

SEC. 4. For the purpose of carrying the provisions of this Act into effect, the Board of Trustees shall employ a competent surveyor to survey and plat so much of the Pueblo lands as may be necessary, lying immediately upon or adjacent to the Bays of San Diego, into lots, blocks or tracks of such size as in their judgment will most increase the value of each alternate lot, block or track; but no lot shall be of a less size than fifty yards front; for defraying the expenses of the survey and plat provided for in this Act, the President and Directors of the said Railroad Company shall pay, or secure to be paid to the Board of Trustees of the City of San Diego one half of the cost of such survey and plat.

Further duty of Trustees.

Size of Lots.

Cost of survey.

SEC. 5. So soon as the survey and plat shall have been completed, the President of the Board of Trustees, under the direction of the Board, shall, commencing at some fixed point on the survey, near the water of the main bay, and in case there shall be two or more surveys, lying immediately upon the main bay, separated from each other by intervening lands, then at some fixed point near the water upon each survey, and select the first lot to be reserved to the city, and the President of the Railroad Company, under the direction of the Board of Directors thereof, shall be present and select the adjoining lot; and the two Presidents shall proceed in like manner to select each alternate lot, until all the lots lying within one-quarter of a mile of high-water mark of the main bay of San Diego shall have been selected; in the selection of lots, blocks or tracts of land, lying one-quarter of a mile and over from the high-water mark of the main Bay of San Diego, the two Presidents may either select alternately or otherwise, as in their judgment may be just and proper; when a quantity of land equal to two leagues shall have been selected by the President of the Railroad Company, said land so selected shall be conveyed by the Board of Trustees to the said Railroad Company, in the manner provided for in this Act.

To reserve alternate lots.

Privilege of Presidents.

SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of the Inspector and Judges of the election held under the authority of this Act, to make out a complete return of said election, in duplicate; which return shall contain the day on which the election was held, the place where held, the names of the Inspectors, Judges and Clerks, the name of each voter, and the number of votes polled for and against the grant; and the Inspector and Judges shall certify to said returns under oath or affirmation, before the County Recorder, and deliver the original to the President of the Board of Trustees, and the duplicate to the President of the Railroad Company; and it shall be the duty of the President of the Board of Trustees to have the same recorded in the office of the County Recorder; and the expenses of the election, and for the recording the returns thereof, shall be paid one-half by the Board of Trustees, and the other half by the Board of Directors of the Railroad Company.

ordinances authorizing the same, which shall become due prior to the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, shall be entitled to the privileges of funding the same, by virtue of this Act ; on and after which date, the funding powers of said Commissioners shall wholly cease and determine. Certificates of stock shall be issued at one hundred cents on the dollar for an equal amount of indebtedness surrendered, the vouchers of which indebtedness shall be effectually canceled after settlement.

Sec. 3. Said certificates of stock shall be in form prescribed by said Commissioners and shall be signed by each of them holding office, and each certificate shall purport in substance as follows : The city of Marysville is indebted to the holder thereof, a sum to be expressed therein, which sum and certificate shall be for the sum either of one hundred dollars, or five hundred dollars, or one thousand dollars, at the option of the creditors. The stock shall bear an interest of ten per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, on the first day of January and July of each year ; the interest shall be made payable in the city of New York, or in Marysville, at the option of the creditors to whom the certificate is issued. The principal shall be made payable in the city of Marysville or New York, at the option of the person or persons to whom the certificate is issued. Said stock shall be dated on the first day of July, 1855, the principal thereof be payable, in fifteen years after date ; the interest on said stock shall be made payable on coupons annexed to each certificate, the first coupon being payable on the first day of January, A. D. eighteen hundred and fifty-six, and thereafter semi-annually. Said coupons shall be signed by the Mayor and Treasurer of said city, and shall be equally binding with the certificates. The certificates shall be signed under the corporate seal of the city.

Sec. 4. The said Commissioners previous to the making out of the general assessment list for the said city in each and every year, shall certify and deliver to the City Assessor the amount which shall be necessary to be raised for the payment of the interest of the debt herein funded for the current year ; and the said Assessor in completing said assessment list shall add to the amount which may be authorized by law to be raised for other purposes the amount so certified for the payment of such interest, and of the sinking fund when due, as hereafter specified ; and the first moneys collected on the whole of such general assessment list which shall remain in the hands of the City Treasurer, shall be paid by said Treasurer into the hands of the Commissioners created by this Act, as fast as the same be collected ; and in payment of other than that, shall be, directly or indirectly, made out of the moneys assessed or collected in said assessment list for any other purpose, until the amounts authorized by this section to be assessed and collected shall have been actually paid over to said Commissioners. The Common Council of said city shall not have power to enact any provisions which shall prevent or hinder the immediate collection, in current coin, of the amounts authorized to be raised by this section, or otherwise contravene the provisions of this section ; and if any such provisions are attempted to be enacted, it shall be the duty of the City Collector to disregard the same, and to collect and pay over the current coin as authorized in this section. Said Commissioners shall have the right at all times to inspect the books of the Assessor and Collector of the city.

Sec. 5. The said Commissioners shall receive into their custody all the moneys which shall be levied and collected for the purposes of this Act. Out of the same they shall pay the interest of the said stock, and the residue thereof they shall securely invest ; and re-invest the proceeds thereof, under good security, until they shall be able to apply the same to the extinguishment of the debt herein created, as hereinafter provided. They shall keep regular books of accounts, minutes of their proceedings, which shall be open at all times to the inspection of the Common Council of the city ; and shall, within one month before the expiration of the fiscal year of said city, transmit to the Common Council thereof a statement, verified by oath of one or more of said Commissioners, showing the amount of moneys received and paid out by them ; the expenditures by them made ; the amount of stock outstanding and the amount redeemed within the current year ; with the condition of the moneys and funds in their hands, and how the same are invested and secured ; which statement the Common Council shall cause to be published forthwith in the newspaper published in said city.

CHAPTER CLXXVIII.

AN ACT

Amendatory of, and Supplementary to an Act entitled "An Act concerning Escheated Estates," passed May 4th, 1852.

[Approved April 30, 1855.]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

Section 1st of an Act entitled "An Act concerning Escheated Estates," passed May 4th, 1852, is hereby amended so as to read as follows :

SECTION 1. If any person shall die, or any person who may have died within the limits of what is now the State of California, seized of any real or personal estate, and leaving no heirs, representatives or devisees capable of inheriting or holding the same, and in all cases when there is no owner of such real estate capable of holding the same, such estate shall escheat to and be vested in this State. ^{When estate escheats.}

Section 2d of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows :

SEC. 2. That whenever the Attorney General shall be informed or have reason to believe that any real estate hath escheated to this State by reason that any person hath died seized thereof, and hath left no heirs capable of inheriting the same, or by reason of the incapacity of the devisees to hold the same, or when he shall be informed or have reason to believe that any such estate hath otherwise escheated to the State, it shall be his duty to file an information in behalf of the State in the District Court of the Judicial District in which such estate or any part thereof is situated, setting forth a description of the estate, the name of the person last lawfully seized, the name of the terre tenant and persons claiming such estate, if known, and the facts and circumstances in consequence of which said estate is claimed to have escheated, and alleging that by reason thereof the State of California hath right by law to such estate; whereupon such Court shall award and issue a summons against such person or persons, ^{Attorney Gen'l to file an information.} ^{Contents.} ^{Summons.}

- bodies politic or corporate alleged in such information to hold, possess, or claim such estate, requiring them to appear and show cause why such estate should not be vested in the State, within the time allowed by law in other civil cases, and the Court shall make an order setting forth briefly the contents of said information, and requiring all persons interested in the estate to appear and show cause if any they have, within thirty days from the date of said order, why the same should not vest in this State; which order shall be published at least one month from the date thereof in a newspaper published in said district, if one be published therein, and in case no newspaper should be published in said district, (by direction of the Judge,) in some other newspaper in this State.
- Order of Court. SEC. 3. Section 4th of said Act is hereby amended to as to read as follows: Section 4th. Any party who shall have appeared to any proceedings as aforesaid, and the Attorney General in behalf of the State, shall, respectively have the same right to prosecute an appeal or writ of error upon any judgment as aforesaid, as parties in other cases.
- Publication.
- Appeal, &c.
- Receiver. SEC. 4. The said District Court upon the filing of said information and application of the Attorney General, either before or after answer, upon notice to the party or parties claiming such estate, if known, may, sufficient cause therefor being shown, appoint a receiver to take charge and receive the rents and profits of the same until the title to such real estate shall be finally settled.
- Five per cent. for information. SEC. 5. Any person furnishing original information to the Attorney General of the escheating of any property to the State of California, together with the necessary evidence to sustain the action of the State in such behalf, shall be entitled to receive, upon the final recovery of such property, five per centum of the property so recovered; provided, that the amount so received by the person or persons furnishing such information, shall not in the aggregate exceed the sum of twenty thousand dollars in any one case; and provided that only one person shall be entitled to compensation for such services.
- Proviso.
- Moneys accrued. How paid. SEC. 6. All moneys which have accrued, or may hereafter accrue to this State from escheated estates, shall be paid into the general fund, and, if need be, [used] in the defrayment of the current expenses of the Government and the redemption of Controller's warrants.
- Moneys converted into bonds. Kept and marked. Interest. SEC. 7. The amount of such moneys so received shall be converted by the State Controller into bonds of the State, bearing seven per cent. interest per annum; which bonds shall be kept as a special deposit in the Treasury, marked "School Fund," to be credited to said School Fund. All interest falling due on said bonds so set apart shall be semi-annually placed to the credit of said School Fund.
- SEC. 8. All laws or parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act, are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER CLXXIX.

AN ACT

To amend the Second Section of an Act entitled "An Act concerning County Judges" passed April 4th, 1854.

[Approved April 30, 1855]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Second Section of an Act entitled "An Act concerning County Judges," passed April 4th, 1854, is hereby amended ^{Section 2 amended.} so as to read as follows.

SEC. 2. No County Warrant shall be issued in payment or part ^{Residence of} payment of his salary, nor shall any portion of his salary be paid to ^{County Judge.} any County Judge, who does not reside at the County Seat of the County of which he is the acting County Judge; provided, that the ^{Proviso.} provisions of this Act shall not extend to the Counties of Yolo, Alameda, Contra Costa, Plumas, Tulare, Yuba and San Diego.

CHAPTER CLXXX.

AN ACT

To Regulate the Fire Department of the City of San Francisco.

[Approved April 30, 1855.]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The President and Secretary of the Fire Department ^{Administer oath.} shall in all business relating thereto have power to administer oath and affirmation.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Fire Department shall be ex-officio ^{Secretary.} Fire Warden, and shall have a yearly salary of eighteen hundred ^{Salary.} dollars, payable monthly out of the Fire Department Fund.

SEC. 3. The officers of a Company shall consist of a Foreman, ^{Company officers.} and at least one Assistant Foreman, a Secretary and a Treasurer. It shall require at least twenty-five persons, twenty-one years of age ^{Members.} to compose a company, all of whom must have signed the constitution ^{Admission of Company.} of the same previous to their petition for admission, and they shall forward a copy of their Constitution, together with the names of their officers and men and their residences, the situation in which they wish to locate, and a petition for admission into the Fire Department, to the Board of Delegates, whose duty it shall be to determine whether such addition is required by the Department. Whenever the Board by a majority vote of all its members shall decide to recommend the admission of a company, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Board, to forward to the Common Council, a certificate of such recommendation together with the petition of the company, the Constitution of the same, the names of the Officers and men, and their residences and location desired. If such recommendation shall receive the approval of the Common Council, the company shall be declared admitted into the Fire Department and shall be furnished with an engine or fire apparatus and a house for receiving the same, by the city. And no petition for the admission of any company shall be entertained by the Common Council until it shall have received the recommendation of the Board of Delegates.

Engine, &c.
Recommendation. Notice of Secretary.
Report of Chief. Declaration of Board.	SEC. 4. Whenever an Engine or Hook and Ladder Company by reason of deaths, resignations or expulsions, shall have reduced its roll to less than twenty-five certificate members, and a Hose Company to less than fifteen certificate members; it shall be the duty of the Secretary to notify the Chief Engineer, and the Foreman of the company, of the fact. At the first regular meeting of the Board after such notice has been given, it shall be the duty of the Chief Engineer to report to that body the condition of such company, and the Board shall then declare whether such company shall be disbanded or continue in the Fire Department, to be decided by a majority vote of the members composing the same.
Election for Chief.	SEC. 5. There shall be an election annually on the first Monday of December for Chief Engineer, and First, Second, and Third Assistant Engineers. Said election to be called by the Mayor, by giving ten days notice in two or more of the daily newspapers, and held at such place as the Board of Delegates may designate; the polls to be kept open from nine o'clock, A. M., until five o'clock P. M., under the inspection of three Judges each from a different company, to be appointed by the Board of Delegates. The person having the highest number of votes for Chief Engineer shall be declared elected.
Plurality elects.	For Assistant Engineer the three persons having the highest number of votes shall be declared elected, and shall rank as follows: the person having the highest number of votes shall be the First Assistant Engineer. The person receiving the next highest number of votes shall be the Second Assistant Engineer. The person having the next highest number of votes shall be the Third Assistant Engineer. When a vacancy occurs in the office of the Chief Engineer, the Mayor shall call an election as herein before provided to fill such vacancy, but when a vacancy occurs in the office of First or Second Assistant Engineer, the office [officer] next below in rank shall take the vacant office, and an election shall be ordered as above to fill the vacancy in the lower office. All contested elections for Engineers shall be decided by a vote of the Board, and should a tie vote occur in the office of Assistant Engineer, the rank of the same shall be decided by a vote of the Board. The election term for each Engineer shall be for one year or until his successor is elected and qualified. The Judges of the aforementioned election shall have power to administer, and examine voters, under oath. The salary of the Chief Engineer shall be five thousand dollars per annum, and that of the Assistant Engineers, (who shall, be ex-officio Fire Wardens) shall be one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum.

SEC. 6. Each and every Company shall, at its stated meeting in ^{Delegates.} October in every year elect two of its members as Delegates to the Board of Delegates of the Fire Department; which Board shall consist of two representatives from each Fire Company. They shall ^{Power of Board.} make laws for the government of the Fire Department, and all laws made by them shall be binding on every company and member of the Department; and any Engineer, Company, Officer, or Member of the ^{Penalty.} Department who shall violate any of said laws, or who shall refuse to obey the lawful orders of the Chief or other Engineer, shall upon complaint, be tried by the Board, and if found guilty, be censured, suspended, removed from office, or expelled from the Fire Department, as the judgment of the Board may direct. They shall examine ^{Further power.} the returns and declare the result of all Engineer's elections, and give them their certificates of office.

SEC. 7. The Common Council shall have sole power to order work ^{Work and} and supplies for the Fire Department. All proposals for the same ^{supplies.} shall be opened by the Chief Engineer in presence of a majority of the Committee on Fire and Water, of the Common Council, and by them without unreasonable delay, [be] awarded to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders. All work done for, and supplies furnished said ^{Supervision} Department, shall be under the supervision of the Chief Engineer, ^{of Chief.} and he shall certify all bills for such work and supplies.

SEC. 8. The Chief Engineer shall report to the Common Council ^{Report of Chief.} quarterly, in the months of January, April, July and October, the number, location, and condition of cisterns, fire engines, and other fire apparatus, and the state of fire company houses, and all property of the city in the keeping of said Department. Also, all accidents by fire that may have taken place in the city, with the causes thereof, as well as they can be ascertained, and a description of the property destroyed or injured, with the names of the owners of the same. Also, such other information and such recommendations as he may deem proper.

SEC. 9. The Chief Engineer is hereby empowered to appoint a Clerk. Clerk at a yearly salary of eighteen hundred dollars, payable monthly ^{Salary.} out of the Fire Department Fund.

SEC. 10. The Board of Delegates shall, at their stated meeting in ^{Bell ringers.} December of each year, elect three persons to serve as Bell Ringers of the City Hall bell, who shall be governed by such rules as the Board may prescribe; and for a violation of the same, shall be amenable to the Board. Said Bell Ringers shall have a yearly salary [of] eighteen ^{Salaries.} hundred dollars each, payable monthly out of the Fire Department Fund.

SEC. 11. All fines collected under all fire ordinances shall be appro- ^{Fines.} priated to the Fire Department Charitable Fund. They shall be paid ^{How} to the City Treasurer, who is hereby authorized and instructed to ^{Appropriated.} pay over the same to the Treasurer of the Fire Department Charitable Fund Association, taking his receipt therefor, which receipt shall be deposited into the office of the City Controller.

CHAPTER CLXXXI.

AN ACT

Supplementary to, and amendatory of, an Act entitled "An Act to provide for the Sale of the Interest of the State of California, in the Property within the Water Line Front of the City of San Francisco, as defined in and by the Act entitled An Act to provide for the Disposition of Certain Property of the State of California, passed March 26th, 1851," passed May 18th, 1853.

This bill having been returned by the Governor with his objections thereto, and, after a reconsideration, having passed both houses by the constitutional majority, it has become a law, this 1st day of May, A. D. 1855.

W. W. STOW, Speaker of the Assembly.
SAMUEL PURDY, President of the Senate.

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Creation of Board.

SECTION 1. The Governor, Secretary of State, and Controller of State, are hereby appointed a Board, whose duty it shall be (when in their opinion the same may be deemed expedient) to advertise and dispose of the interest of the State, in all property authorized to be sold under the Act entitled an Act to provide for the Sale of the Interest of the State of California, in the property within the water line front of the city of San Francisco, as defined in and by the Act entitled An Act to provide for the Disposition of Certain Property of the State of California, passed March twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and fifty-one, passed May eighteenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-three, and yet remaining unsold.

To supersede
Commissioners.

SEC. 2. The said Board shall supersede the Commissioners appointed under said Act, from and after the time when the official term of said Commissioners shall expire by law; and they shall discharge all the duties imposed on said Commissioners by attending to and closing all business connected with the sale and disposition of said property.

Duties.

Agent.

Duty of agent.

SEC. 3. It shall be lawful for said Board to appoint an Agent and Clerk from time to time, for such length of time as they may think proper, or to authorize one of their own members to attend all sales; and it shall be the duty of said Agent so authorized to make all collections, receive payments in cash, or the civil warrants of the Controller of State, and pay the same over to the Treasurer on the warrant of the Controller; and discharge such other duties as may be assigned him by said Board.

Treasurer of State.

SEC. 4. The Treasurer of State shall not be required to attend said sales, nor shall he receive any of the proceeds arising from sales heretofore or hereafter made, except as they may be paid over to him by the person, and in the manner provided in the third section, of this Act.

Notice of sale.

SEC. 5. The said Board shall not be required to give more than fifteen days' notice of any sale.

Bond of agent.

SEC. 6. The said Board shall also require their Agent to give bond and security to the State, for the faithful performance of his duties ; which bond shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State.

SEC. 7. All the necessary contingent expenses of the Board, including the pay of the Clerk and Agent, which said pay for either, shall not exceed ten dollars per day, for each day of actual service ; and the charges for advertising and printing, shall be paid out of the proceeds of the sales by the Board, and the same shall be accounted for in their annual report ; but the members of the Board shall receive no compensation for their services, other than for necessary expenses. ^{pay.} ^{Advertising.} ^{No compensation for Board.}

SEC. 8. The existing Board of Land Commissioners, at the expiration of their term, as limited by law, shall deliver over to the Board constituted by this Act, all books and papers relating to their office. ^{Commissioners to deliver. &c.}

CHAPTER CLXXXII.

AN ACT

To authorize the Supervisors of the County of Alameda to re-assess the Taxable Property upon which the Taxes remained unpaid in said County for the year eighteen hundred and fifty-four.

[Approved May 2, 1855.]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. The Board of Supervisors of the county of Alameda are hereby authorized and directed, at any legal meeting of said Board, to re-assess the taxes remaining unpaid upon the taxable property of said county for the year eighteen hundred and fifty-four, upon the same property, and cause the same to be placed upon the assessment roll of the present year, in separate lines immediately under the assessment of the taxes of the present year, on each item of property respectively, and to be marked re-assessed for unpaid taxes for eighteen hundred and fifty-four. ^{Duty of Board.} ^{How marked.}

SEC. 2. The taxes provided to be re-assessed by the first section of this Act shall be collected in the same manner, for the same compensation, and be in all respects subject to the existing laws, as near as may be in relation to the taxes of the present year. ^{Taxes.} ^{Compensation.}

SEC. 3. All moneys to be collected under the provisions of this Act, belonging to the county of Alameda, may be applied by the Board of Supervisors of said county to the purpose of improving the navigation of the San Antonio Creek, and removing the bar from the mouth of the same. ^{Moneys collected.}

CHAPTER CLXXXIII.

AN ACT

Providing for the Payment of Officers holding Elections and for Transmitting the Returns thereof.

[Approved May 2, 1855.]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

Pay of officers.

SECTION 1. In all general or special State or County elections hereafter legally held in this State, there shall be audited and paid to the officers of the same, out of the County Treasury, in the same manner as other county charges are audited and paid, the following per diem allowance : To the Inspector, Judges and Clerks of an election, five dollars per day.

Carrier of returns.

SEC. 2. After the returns of any precinct are canvassed and made out, the officers of elections, without delay, shall designate some proper person to carry the election returns to the County Seat, and deliver the same to the County Clerk. The person so designated and carrying the returns shall be entitled to and receive the same mileage as Sheriffs, and shall be allowed and paid this amount in the same manner as officers of election, in section one of this Act.

Pay of same.

Not to apply to certain counties.

SEC. 3. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to the counties of El Dorado, Placer, Calaveras, Sutter, Yuba, Tuolumne, Sierra, Siskiyou, Klamath, Mariposa, Shasta, Trinity, Nevada, Colusi, Plumas, Amador, Butte, Los Angeles and San Bernardino.

CHAPTER CLXXXIV.

AN ACT

To provide for Settling the Boundary Line between the Counties of Santa Cruz, Santa Clara and San Francisco.

[Approved May 2, 1855]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

Surveyor General's duty.

SECTION 1. For the purpose of establishing and settling the boundary lines between the counties of Santa Cruz, Santa Clara, and San Francisco, the Surveyor General is hereby authorized and required to survey, or cause to be surveyed, the boundary line between said counties in accordance with the statute, or statutes providing for their organization and boundaries.

SEC. 2. Said lines shall be marked with suitable marks, devices ^{Lines.} and monuments, so that they may be easily known and traced, and a copy of such survey, or plat, or map, shall be made out in quadridu-^{Survey.} plicate; one copy of which shall be deposited with the County Clerk ^{Where} of Santa Cruz County, one copy with the County Clerk of Santa ^{deposited.} Clara County, one copy with the County Clerk of San Francisco County, and the other copy in the office of the Surveyor General.

CHAPTER CLXXXV.

AN ACT

To establish, support and regulate Common Schools, and to repeal former Acts concerning the same.

[Approved May 3, 1855.]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

STATE BOARD.

SECTION 1. The Governor, the Superintendent of Public Instruction ^{Board of Education.} and the Surveyor General of the State, shall constitute a State Board of Education. The Governor shall be the President, and the Superintendent shall be the Secretary of the Board.

SEC. 2. The State Board of Education shall have a seal, an im-^{Seal.} pression and description of which shall be deposited by the Secretary of the Board in the State Treasurer's office, and on or before the ^{Reports.} fifteenth day of January of each year, the Board shall make a full report of all their official acts to the Legislature.

Same.

education. Third, To exercise a general supervision over such Normal Schools and Teachers' Institutes as may by law be established. Fourth, Immediately after the State Controller has made his semi-annual report, as herein required, to apportion to the several counties the amount of school moneys in the State Treasury, to which each shall be entitled under the provisions of this Act, in proportion to the number of children residing therein between the ages of four and eighteen, as shown by the last previous reports of the County Superintendents and School Marshals, or other officers charged therewith, and make a record thereof in the Book of Records, to be kept by the State Board of Education, and furnish to the Controller of State, to each County Treasurer, and to each County Superintendent, an abstract of such apportionment; and with each apportionment, to furnish to each County Treasurer his order on the Controller of State, under the seal of the State Board of Education for the amount of school moneys in the State Treasury to which such county shall be entitled, and to take such County Treasurer's receipt for the same. Fifth, To present to the Legislature, annually, on or before the tenth day of each session, a full report of the condition of public instruction in the State; the number and grade of schools in each county; the number of white children in each county between the ages of four and eighteen years; the number of such attending Common Schools established under the provisions of this Act; the amount of Common School moneys apportioned to each county; the amount of moneys raised and expended by any county, town, city or school district for the support of Common Schools therein; together with such suggestions as he may deem it expedient to make in relation to the construction of school houses, the improvement and better management of Common Schools, the qualification of teachers, the ways and means for raising funds for the support of Common Schools, and providing suitable school houses, and for the promotion of the general interests of education throughout the State.

Moneys—how expended.

SEC. 4. All necessary expenditures of moneys incurred by the Superintendent of Public Instruction in the discharge of his official duties, shall be paid out of any fund in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the amount being duly certified by the State Board of Education, and the Controller of State is hereby authorized to issue his warrants on the Treasurer for the same.

Teachers' Convention.

SEC. 5. He may annually call a State Convention of teachers and officers of Common Schools, and such convention may discuss and recommend improvements in teaching, and the management of schools, and a series of school books throughout the State, and may consider other subjects pertaining to public instruction; provided, the State shall incur no expense from such convention.

STATE TREASURER AND STATE CONTROLLER.

State Treasurer.

SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to receive and hold as a special deposit, all Common School moneys paid into the Treasury, and pay them over only on the warrant of the Controller of State, issued upon the order of the State Board of Education under the seal of said Board, and signed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction in favor of the County Treasurers; which orders, duly endorsed by the County Treasurers shall be the only valid vouchers in the hands of the State Controller for the disbursement of said Common School moneys.

SEC. 7. All school moneys due each county in the State, shall be paid over by the State Treasurer to the County Treasurers on the first day of January and the first day of July of each year, or as soon thereafter as the County Treasurers may apply for the same, upon the warrant of the Controller of State, drawn in conformity with the apportionment of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, as provided for in section three of this Act; provided, however, that no mileage nor allowance other than the commissions provided for by law, shall be made to any County Treasurer for receiving and transporting said money to his county.

State Controller.
School moneys—
when paid.

SEC. 8. The State Controller shall keep a separate and distinct account of the Common School Fund, and of the interest and income thereof, together with such moneys as shall be raised by State tax or special appropriation, or otherwise, for the support of Common Schools.

How accounts are to be kept.

SEC. 9. The State Controller shall, on or before the tenth day of June, and the tenth day of December, of each year, report to the Board of Education, who shall include the same in their annual report to the Legislature, a statement of the securities belonging to the Common School Fund, together with a particular statement of the moneys in the Treasury accruing on or before the first day of July and the first day of January next following, from the interest or income of the Common School Fund, or from State taxes, or appropriations, or from any other source for the support of Common Schools.

Reports.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS.

SEC. 10. A Superintendent of Common Schools shall be elected in each county, at the general elections, and enter on the duties of his office on the first Monday of the month subsequent to his election. He shall hold office for two years, or until his successor is qualified, and shall take the oath of and give official bond to the county, in a sum to be fixed by the Board of Supervisors; which bond shall be in a sum not less than double the estimated amount of school moneys to come into the County Treasury; and the Assessors shall be and remain County Superintendents until their successors are elected as herein provided.

Duties of Ward Assessors.

SEC. 20. There shall be elected, annually, by the qualified electors in the several wards of the city, at the time of the election for municipal officers, one Assessor, in and for each of the said wards, who shall be a resident therein, and whose duty it shall be, within such time and in such manner as the Common Council may by ordinance direct, to make out a correct list of all the taxable persons, and real and personal property within his ward not exempt by law from taxation, and by actual personal inspection, assess all such property, under its appropriate head, at its actual cash market value ; giving an accurate description of each parcel of real estate, by the number of the lot and the dimensions and boundaries of each part thereof, when less than a whole lot ; or when such lot is subdivided, or is owned or claimed by more than one person or company ; and within twenty days after such assessment is completed, certify and return the same, under oath, to the Mayor. Each Assessor shall, immediately after having completed his assessment list, notify the inhabitants of his ward, by posting up a notice in at least three public places therein, and by publication in some daily city newspaper, that he has completed his assessment list, and that his books will remain open for inspection by all persons interested therein, for fifteen days from the date of such notice ; and that within five days thereafter, such assessment list will be returned to the Mayor. It shall be the duty of all such Assessors to meet together at such time and place within the city as the Mayor may direct, and examine the valuations made by them respectively ; and if any owner or owners of any property so assessed, be dissatisfied with such assessment, he or they may appeal to such Board, to have such assessment corrected ; and if a majority of said Board shall deem any valuation or assessment incorrect, they shall have the power to alter the same ; and any person dissatisfied with such decision made by said Board, may, within ten days thereafter, appeal to the Board of Aldermen, whose decision therein shall be final. Each of said Assessors shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations for the purpose of ascertaining the full and true amount of each person's personal property : but no person shall be permitted to assess or value his own real property. Such valuation shall be made by the Assessor or Assessors only. The compensation of the Assessors shall be five hundred dollars per annum each. They shall give bonds for the faithful and prompt performance of their respective duties, in the sum of three thousand dollars each.

SEC. 21. The legislative power of the city of San Francisco shall be vested in a Board of Aldermen and a Board of Assistant Aldermen, which, together, shall constitute the Common Council. The Board of Aldermen shall consist of one member from each ward, who shall be elected by the qualified voters of their respective wards, for the term of one year. Legislative power how vested.

SEC. 22. The Board of Assistant Aldermen shall consist of one member from each ward, who shall be elected by the qualified electors of their respective wards. Their term of office shall be one year. No person shall be a member of either Board, except while he is a resident of the ward for which he was elected. Assistant Aldermen. Term of office.

SEC. 23. Each Board shall elect one of its own members as President, and may appoint a Clerk and a Sergeant-at-Arms. The Clerk of the Board of Aldermen shall be ex officio Clerk of the Common Council, and his salary, in both capacities, shall be fixed by ordinance, and shall not exceed three thousand dollars a year; the salary of the Clerk of the Board of Assistant Aldermen shall also be fixed by ordinance, and shall not exceed two thousand dollars a year. The salary of the Sergeant-at-Arms of each Board shall be fixed in like manner, and shall not exceed one thousand two hundred dollars a year, each. President. Clerk. Salary of Clerk. SEC. 24. Each Board shall keep a journal of its proceedings, be judge of the election returns and qualifications of its own members, and shall determine contested elections, and have power to call elections to fill vacancies in its own body. Journal.

SEC. 25. The majority of all the members elected to each Board, shall constitute a quorum for doing business; but a less number may adjourn from time to time, and may compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner and under such penalties as each Board may prescribe. The Boards shall sit in separate chambers, of which the doors shall be kept open, except when the public welfare requires secrecy. Quorum. sittings.

SEC. 26. Each Board may determine the rules of its proceedings; punish its members for disorderly conduct; and, by resolution passed with the concurrence of two-thirds of all the members elected, expel a member, after opportunity given him of being heard in his own defense; but such resolution shall be of no effect, unless it contain a provision for a special election, to be held within two weeks, to fill the vacancy, whenever two months of the term of the member thus expelled is still unexpired; no member of either Board shall, during the period for which he was elected, be appointed to any office of emolument or profit under this Act, or to any office that may hereafter be created by the Common Council. Rules, &c. No member appointed, &c.

SEC. 27. The two Boards shall, in all cases, except in cases of election, act as separate bodies, and shall appoint no joint committees, except as hereinafter provided. Bodies separate bodies.

SEC. 28. Either Board may originate, amend, concur in, or report any ordinance or resolution; but no ordinance shall be passed unless it have in each Board a majority of all the members elected to such Board; but a resolution may be adopted, a majority of the members present voting for the same; and on the final passage of every ordinance, the yeas and nays shall be taken, and entered upon the journal, Ordinances. Passage of ordinances.

SEC. 29. Every ordinance passed by the two Boards, shall be presented to the City Attorney for his examination ; and it shall be the duty of the City Attorney, within five days after such ordinance is so presented to him, to transmit the same, with his opinion in writing, of its legality or illegality, to the Mayor for his approval. If the Mayor approve it, he shall sign it; if not, he shall return it, with his written objections, to the Board in which it originated, within ten days thereafter ; or if such Board be not then in session, at its next stated meeting ; the Board shall enter the objections upon its journals, and publish them in some city daily newspaper. At any stated meeting within two weeks thereafter, such Board shall proceed to consider said ordinance and message. If after such reconsideration, two-thirds of all the members elected to such Board shall agree to pass said ordinance, notwithstanding the objections of the Mayor, it shall be sent to the other Board, by which the same shall, in like manner, be reconsidered ; and, if approved by two-thirds of all the members elected to such Boards, it shall take effect as an ordinance of the city. In all such cases, the votes of both Boards shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of those voting for and against the passage of such ordinance reconsidered, shall be entered upon the journal of each Board, respectively ; every ordinance duly passed by both Boards, presented to the City Attorney, and by him certified to be legal, and not returned by the Mayor, as hereinbefore provided, shall take effect as though he had signed it, unless the close of the session of the Common Council and the expiration of its term shall prevent its return, in which case it shall not take effect as an ordinance of the city, until ten days after the first session of the new Common Council, and until it has been reconsidered and approved by two-thirds in each Board, as in the case of an ordinance returned with the Mayor's objections.

Appropriations.

SEC. 31. Annual and other appropriations of money shall be made by the Common Council by ordinance, for every branch and object of city expenditure ; no more than one such appropriation shall be made in any one ordinance ; and every ordinance making new appropriation, or continuing or reviving an old one, shall distinctly specify, without reference to any other act or ordinance, the sum appropriated, and the object to which it is to be applied. No money shall be drawn from the Treasury, unless the same shall have been previously appropriated to the purpose for which it was drawn, nor unless the appropriation shall have been based upon specific and detailed estimates and statements, furnished, in writing, for their respective departments, duly verified on oath or affirmation, by the several executive officers; and it shall be the duty of any executive officer, when required by the Common Council, to furnish such statement and estimate. Every warrant drawn upon the Treasury, shall specify the appropriation under which it is drawn, and the date of the ordinance making such appropriation, as well as the date of the ordinance directing the issue of such warrant; nor shall any warrant or draft upon the Treasurer be issued by the Controller, or signed by the Mayor, unless the issue of the same has first been authorized by an ordinance which shall specify the amount of such warrant or draft, the person to whom such amount is payable, and for what object it is paid.

SEC. 60. The city shall not be assessed with nor pay any part of the expense of such work, except for so much thereof as is done at the intersection or crossing of streets, or in constructing public sewers, or for so much as is properly assessed upon real estate, under section fifty-four, which is owned by the city.

Work paid for by city.

SEC. 61. Whenever the owners of two thirds of the land fronting on any street, or proposed street, or way, shall present their petition to the Common Council, praying for any work mentioned in section fifty-three, the Common Council shall order the same to be done.

Order of Council.

SEC. 62. Whenever the Common Council, either upon its own motion or upon the petition of any person or persons interested, shall deem it advisable that any such work should be done, they shall give notice, by advertisement in a daily city newspaper, for twenty successive days, of their intention to have such work done, and unless, at the expiration of said twenty days, the owners of more than one third of the land fronting on the proposed improvements, shall, in writing, object thereto, the Common Council shall have power to order the said work to be done, the expenses being assessed as provided in section fifty-four. When the Common Council shall determine, according to the provisions of this section, to order such work to be done, they shall give notice by advertisement in a daily newspaper published in the City of San Francisco for ten days, that they will, at their next regular meeting after the expiration of said ten days, receive proposals for the erection of said work. Said proposals shall, at such meeting, be opened by a joint committee composed of three members of each Board, who shall award the contract for such work, to the lowest responsible bidder, if they shall deem the bid a reasonable one, who shall, by virtue of such award, be authorized to proceed to complete such work in a reasonable time, and shall be entitled to recover compensation therefor in the manner hereinafter provided. The Common Council shall not have power to enter into any written contract with such contractor, nor to issue any warrants or other evidence of city indebtedness in favor of such contractor, except as hereinafter provided; but the sole recourse will take effect.

SECTION 1. The Act entitled "An Act to Re-Incorporate the City of San Francisco," passed April twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and fifty-five, shall not be construed to take effect, nor to operate as a repeal of an Act entitled "An Act to Re-Incorporate the City of San Francisco," passed April fifteenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-one, prior to the election and qualification of the officers provided to be elected under the Act first above mentioned. Section 54 of said Act shall be construed so as to require that one of the eight persons to be elected as members of the Board of Education, under the provisions of said section, shall be elected from each ward of the City of San Francisco as now divided, and that the Superintendent of Common Schools shall be elected from the city at large. Sec. 54, how construed.

CHAPTER CCXIX.

AN ACT

To provide for Funding the Legal and Equitable Debt of the City of San Francisco, and for the final Redemption of the same.

[Approved May 7, 1855]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Common Council of the City of San Francisco, to be elected at the first election under an Act entitled "An Act to Re-Incorporate the City of San Francisco," passed April twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and fifty-five, shall provide, by ordinance, for funding, at a rate of interest not to exceed six per cent. per annum, all the outstanding indebtedness of the City of San Francisco, which may be existing as a legal and equitable claim against said city at the time of their election and qualification. They shall provide, in the same ordinance, for the annual or semi-annual payment of the interest to accrue on said funded debt. The bonds for said debt shall be made payable within twenty years, in the City of New York or the City of San Francisco, at the option of the bond-holders. No indebtedness against said city, except the funded debt, shall draw interest. Funding out-standing debt.

Sec. 2. For this purpose the Common Council shall appoint, by ordinance, three persons, not members of the City Government, citizens of said city, as a Board of Examiners. It shall be the duty of said Board to examine all accounts and claims against the city, and to report to the Common Council such as they may consider legal or equitable indebtedness against said city. The Board of Examiners shall, before entering upon their duties, execute good and sufficient bonds, to be approved of by the Common Council, in the penal sum of fifty thousand dollars, each, for the faithful performance of their duties; and shall, on making their report, affirm under oath, that all indebtedness, as reported by them, is correct and in accordance with the provisions of the next preceding section of this Act. The official bonds of the Board of Examiners shall be cancelled on the expiration of the term for which they were appointed; provided, they are found by the Council to have complied Board of Examiners. SEC. 5. The Common Council shall provide by ordinance, by a tax upon the taxable property within the limits of said city, for the semi-annual payment of the interest to accrue on said funded debt, payable in the City of San Francisco or the City of New York; the first interest due upon the bonds to be issued under this Act, shall be payable on the first day of January, A. D. eighteen hundred and fifty-six; and thereafter, the interest shall be payable, semi-annually, on the first day of July and January of each year. The Common Council shall at the expiration of ten years from and after the passage of this Act, by ordinance provide for raising by tax on the property within the city limits, such an amount, annually, as shall be deemed sufficient to pay, at maturity, the bonds issued under this Act. It shall also be the duty of the Commissioners, after having created the sinking fund herein provided, annually to invite proposals for the surrender of bonds, and advertise at least ninety days in two daily papers in the City of San Francisco, for the same. The Commissioners shall publish all the bids received by them, and shall accept the best for the city; but, in no case shall any bid be accepted above par value. All bonds purchased, the dates, numbers and amounts of the same, shall be entered by the Controllor in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, and shall be by him endorsed so "Cancelled;" after which, the Commissioners shall file such bond as cancelled, and keep the same in some safe depository as their vouchers. But if bonds cannot be purchased, as herein provided, then the Fund Commissioners shall from time to time invest all money in their hands in State or United States securities, and shall so continue to invest until sufficient amount is in their possession to pay off all the bonds issued under this Funding Act.

Board of Fund Commissioners.

SEC. 6. The Mayor, Controllor and Treasurer of the City of San Francisco, and their successors in office, are created, under this Act, a Board of Fund Commissioners, and shall receive twelve hundred dollars, each, per annum, for their services as such Funding Commissioners. The bonds to be issued shall bear interest, as provided for Interest of bonds by the first section of this Act, from the date of the passage of this Act; and shall be signed by each member of the Commission in his official capacity, and countersigned by the Chairman of the Board of Examiners. Each coupon shall be signed by the Chairman of the Board of Commissioners. The Board of Commissioners shall cause all moneys paid into the City Treasury, collected by tax, as provided Collections. in section five of this Act, to be applied to the payment of the semi-annual interest of the debt funded by this Act. The Fund Commissioners shall carry out all the provisions of this Act; shall be held Commissioners held liable. individually liable, and also liable on their official bonds for the faithful performance of their duties under this Act.

JOINT AND CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS.

CHAPTER I.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

In relation to the Establishment of Light Houses at Trinidad and Crescent City.

Resolved, the Assembly concurring, That our Senators be in-^{Light houses.}structed, and our Representatives requested, to use their exertions to procure the passage of an Act of Congress, providing for the erection of Light Houses at Trinidad and Crescent City, in this State.

Passed January 31, 1855.

CHAPTER II.

JOINT RESOLUTIONS

In relation to the Board of Land Commissioners.

Whereas, in pursuance of an Act of Congress, entitled "An Act to^{Land claims.} ascertain and settle the Private Land Claims of California," approved March 3d, 1851, the citizens of this State were required to file in the office of the Board of Land Commissioners, organized under the said Act, all their grants and original muniments of title, by virtue of which they claim to be the owner or owners of lands in this State; and whereas, they have complied with said re-^{Documents.}quisition, whereby the said Land Commissioners hold in custody all of said documents, and in consequence thereof, the citizens of the Records.

Decisions.

State are deprived of the means of maintaining or defending their titles to real estate in the Courts of this State, by reason that all their original papers, grants and muniments of title, are out of their possession and beyond their control ; and whereas, said documents are all recorded in the office of said Commissioners, in bound books, their furnishing the Government of the United States with official copies of the same ; and whereas, the said Commissioners have exhausted their power in a large proportion of said claims, by the delivery of their final decision thereon, and by making out two complete transcripts of their decisions, and filing one in the proper United States District Court for California, and forwarding the other to the Attorney General of the United States, at Washington ; and whereas, notwithstanding this, the Board of Land Commissioners cannot, for want of authority, deliver to their owners all or any of said original muniments of title : Therefore, be it

To return papers.

Resolved, by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, That our Senators and Representatives in Congress, be requested to urge the adoption of such measures, by legislation or otherwise, as will authorize and direct the said Board of Land Commissioners, that when they shall have exhausted their power in any case by the delivery of their final decision upon such claim, to return to the claimant, or to his duly authorized agent, free of cost, all original papers or muniments of title, filed by such claimant in support of his claim.

Resolved, secondly, That the Governor be requested to forward a copy of this Preamble and these Resolutions, to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress.

Passed February 7, 1855.

CHAPTER III.

JOINT RESOLUTIONS

Praying for the Construction of a Breakwater in the Harbor at Crescent City.

Breakwater at Crescent City.

Resolved, by the Senate and Assembly, That our Senators be instructed, and our Representatives be requested, to use their exertions to procure an appropriation by Congress, of seventy-five thousand dollars, for the construction of a breakwater in the harbor at Crescent City, in this State.

Resolved, That his Excellency the Governor, be requested to transmit a copy of the above Resolution to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress.

Passed February 8, 1855.

CHAPTER IV.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

Relative to the Payment of Pensions in the State of California.

Whereas, many persons, entitled to pensions from the United States, ^{Pensions.} reside in this State, and are subjected to the payment of a large part of their pensions as compensation to agents and others for collecting and receiving the same at different points in the Atlantic States : Now, therefore,

Resolved, the Senate concurring, That the proper authorities of the General Government are urgently requested to provide, without delay, for the payment, in California, of all pensions due to residents of this State. ^{Payment of same.}

Resolved, further, That the Governor be requested to forward copies of this Resolution to the President, the Commissioner of Pensions, and to our Senators and Representatives in Congress.

Passed April 4, 1855.

CHAPTER V.

JOINT RESOLUTIONS

Praying the Establishment of Mail Routes in Certain Localities.

Resolved, That our Senators in Congress be instructed, and our ^{Mail routes.} Representatives be requested, to urge upon Congress the passage of a law establishing "Mail Routes" in the State of California, from Trinidad, Klamath County, to Orleans Bar (55 miles,) in same county ; and from Orleans Bar to Bestville, via the Forks of Salmon River (44 miles ;) also, from Bestville to Petersville (20 miles) in said county ; also, from Orleans Bar to Happy Camp (45 miles,) in Klamath County, to Yreka (45 miles,) in Siskiyou County.

Resolved, That his Excellency the Governor, be requested to forward a copy of the above resolution to our Senators and Representatives in Congress.

Passed April 4, 1855.

CHAPTER VI.

JOINT RESOLUTIONS

Relative to the Construction and Establishment of Military and Post Roads across the Plains, &c., &c.

Whereas, The construction and improvement of Military and Post Roads across the Plains, and the establishment of convenient watering places, where they cross the Deserts that intervene between the Atlantic States and our eastern boundary, is of vital importance to the people of this State, and is absolutely necessary for the preservation of the lives and property of emigrants who wish to settle within our borders : Therefore,

- Post roads. Resolved, by the Senate and Assembly of the State of California, That our Senators be instructed, and our Representatives requested, to urge upon Congress the necessity of establishing three or more Military Roads across the Deserts, near our eastern boundary, leading into and through the northern, middle and southern portions of this State. They urge the establishment of one road from the Big Bend of the Humboldt River, through Noble's Pass, to the northern portion of the State ; and one road from Salt Lake City, south of Salt Lake, to Carson Valley, and through Johnson's Cut-off to the middle portion of the State ; and one to extend from the point where the Salt Lake Road enters San Bernardino County through the Tejon or Walker's Pass, to the southern portion of Tulare Valley ; and one from the crossing of the Colorado River, at or near the mouth of the Gila, to San Diego.
- Location.
- Right of way. Resolved, The right of way be, and is hereby granted to the General Government, for the location and construction of said "Road or Roads" through any portion of the territory of this State, where the location of such Military Road or Roads may be deemed necessary for the protection and convenience of the citizens of our common country.
- Resolved*, That the Governor of this State be, and he is hereby requested to transmit copies of these Resolutions to our Senators and Representatives in Congress.
- Passed April 19, 1855.

CHAPTER VII.

JOINT RESOLUTIONS

Relative to the Establishment of an Additional Land District in this State.

Resolved, by the Senate and Assembly, That our Senators be instructed, and Representatives in Congress requested, to exercise their influence to procure the establishment of an additional Land District in this State, to embrace all that district of country situated between the third and eighth standard lines south, and being east of the Coast Range of mountains; and that said "Land Office" be established at the Town of Visalia, in Tulare County.

Resolved, That the Governor be requested to forward a copy of this Resolution to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress.

Passed April 23, 1855.

CHAPTER VIII.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Praying an Appropriation to Open and Construct a Military Road from the Sacramento Valley to Crescent City.

Resolved, the Senate concurring, That our Representatives be requested, and our Senators instructed to use their best endeavors to procure an appropriation of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, to open and construct a Military Road from the Sacramento Valley to Crescent City, via Shasta Valley.

Passed April 27th, 1855.

CHAPTER IX.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Praying for a Bell Buoy to be placed at the Entrance of the Harbor of San Francisco.

Bell Buoy.

Resolved, the Senate concurring, That the Honorable the Secretary of the Treasury, at Washington, be requested to cause a "Bell Buoy," of the most approved kind, to be placed at the entrance of the harbor of San Francisco, in this State; and that he be also requested to take steps for the immediate erection of the Light at "Punta de los Reyes," in Marin County; both of which are deemed highly-essential as collateral aids to navigation.

Light.

Passed April 27, 1855.

AMENDMENT 4. Section 6 of Article 4 is amended so as to read as follows :
Section 6. The number of Senators shall not be less than one third nor more than one half of members of the Assembly, and, at the first session of the Legislature after this amendment takes effect, Senators shall be divided, by lot, as equally as may be, into two classes. The seats of the Senators of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of two years, so that one half, as nearly as may be, shall be chosen biennially.

AMENDMENT 5. Section 2 of Article 10 is amended so as to read as follows :
Section 2. And if, at any time, two thirds of the Senate and Assembly shall think it necessary to revise and change this entire Constitution, they shall recommend to the electors at the next election for members of the Legislature to vote for or against a Convention, and, if it shall appear that a majority of the electors voting at such election have voted in favor of calling a Convention, the Legislature shall, at its next session, provide by law for calling a Convention, to be holden within six months after the passage of such law, and such Convention shall consist of a number of members not less than that of both branches of the Legislature. The Constitution that may have been agreed upon and adopted by such Convention shall be submitted to the people at a special election, to be provided for by law, for their ratification or rejection. Each voter shall express his opinion by depositing, in the ballot box, a ticket, whereon shall be written or printed the words "For the new Constitution," or "Against the new Constitution." The returns of such election shall, in such manner as the Convention shall direct, be certified to the Executive of the State, who shall call to his assistance the Controller, Treasurer and Secretary of State, and compare the votes so certified to him. If, by such examination, it be ascertained that a majority of the whole number of votes cast at such election be in favor of such new Constitution, the Executive of this State shall, by his proclamation, declare such new Constitution to be the Constitution of the State of California.

The above amendments passed the Senate, by the constitutional majority, March 20, 1855, and the Assembly April 12, 1855.

The Legislature of the State of California, at its sixth annual session, convened on the first day of January, A. D. 1855, propose, as an amendment to the present Constitution of this State, the following :

AMENDMENT 1. Section 3 of Article 11 of the Constitution of the State of California is hereby amended so as to read as follows : Section 3. Members of the Legislature and all officers elected or appointed shall, before they enter on the duties of their respective offices, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: I, ———, do solemnly swear that I will faithfully discharge and perform all the duties incumbent on me as ———, agreeably to the Constitution of the United States and of this State, and that, since the adoption of this amendment to the Constitution, I have not fought a duel with deadly weapons, within this State or out of it, nor have I sent or accepted a challenge to fight a duel with deadly weapons, or aided, or advised, or assisted any person thus offending, so help me God. And no other oath, declaration or test shall be required as qualification for any office of public trust.

The above amendment passed the Senate, by the constitutional majority, April 24, 1855, and the Assembly April 28, 1855.
