(a) The land to be insured is appraised by some appraiser designated, appointed or approved by the commissioner.

(b) There is filed with the commissioner a duplicate original of such appraisement together with the certificate of the appraiser, certifying that in his opinion the amount of land value insurance to be placed thereon is safe and proper.

Article 2. Capital and Reserve Requirements.

12680. An insurer shall not transact land value insurance in this State unless it has a paid-in capital, represented by shares of stock, of at least $500,000.

12681. A land value insurer shall not transact any other class of insurance.

12682. Unless such deposit is waived by the commissioner pursuant to this section, assets equal in value to the initial paid-in capital of every land value insurer shall be deposited with the commissioner. The commissioner may, in the case of a foreign insurer actually transacting a land value insurance business in another State, waive this deposit upon satisfactory evidence that such assets are deposited with the insurance authority of the insurer’s home State for the benefit of all of its policyholders.

Any such deposit may be made in lawful money of the United States or any of the securities specified in Article 3, Chapter 2, Part 2, Division 1.

12683. The assets deposited shall be held in trust by the commissioner for the security and protection of the holders of, or beneficiaries under, any policy issued by the insurer. The State shall be responsible for the custody and safe return of any assets so deposited. Assets so deposited may be withdrawn or exchanged from time to time for other like assets, receivable for such deposit.

12684. So long as the depositing insurer continues solvent, it shall be permitted to receive the interest and dividends on assets so deposited. The assets shall be subject to sale, transfer and disposal of the proceeds by the commissioner only on the order of a court of competent jurisdiction and for the security and protection of the holders of the insurer’s policies.

12685. Every admitted land value insurer shall create and maintain a reserve fund of at least thirty-three and one-third per cent of all premiums collected by it on insurance then in force. Such reserve fund shall be invested in such securities as are specified in Articles 3, 4 and 6 of Chapter 2, Part 2, Division 1. The commissioner may require the assets constituting the reserve fund to be deposited with him on the same terms and conditions as in the case of assets representing initial paid-in capital.

12686. During the first three years of operation of the insurer, there shall be maintained a supplemental reserve amounting to sixteen and two-thirds per cent of all premiums collected. Such supplemental reserve shall be invested in such securities as are specified in Article 3, Chapter 2, Part 2, Division 1. After the lapse of the three-year period, upon proper showing by the insurer that the thirty-three and one-third per cent reserve fund is sufficient to amply protect all policy-holders of the insurer, the commissioner may in his discretion release any or all of the supplemental reserve.

12687. Ten per cent of the net earnings of the insurer shall be set aside annually as a capital surplus fund until the capital paid in together with such capital surplus fund amounts in the aggregate to $1,000,000.

Article 3. Actuarial Basis of Business.

12700. Before any certificate of authority to do land value insurance is issued, there shall be filed in the office of the commissioner the certificate of an actuary or statistician that he has examined the actuarial tables of the applicant and that in his opinion the premiums to be charged are adequate to create the proper reserve. Such premiums shall not be decreased without the permission of the commissioner.

Article 4. Reports and Statements.

12710. Every land value insurer shall semiannually make a report in writing to the commissioner. Such report shall be verified by the oath of the insurer’s president or vice president and its secretary or treasurer, or any two of its principal officers. Such report shall contain a statement of each new policy issued since the last report, setting forth in detail a description of the property covered by such policy, the appraised value of the property, the amount of insurance and the premium rate charged.

Article 5. Restrictions on Loans and Insurance.

12720. Loans shall not be made by any land value insurer directly or indirectly to any of its officers, directors or employees, or to any member of the family of any of its officers or directors.

12721. An officer or director of such an insurer shall not be interested in any policy issued by the insurer whereby there is insured the value of any land or property in which such officer or director is, or becomes, interested.

Article 6. Penalties.

12740. Any person violating any of the terms or conditions of this chapter is guilty of a felony and punishable by fine not exceeding $5,000 or imprisonment not exceeding five years, or both.

12741. Any officer, director, agent or employee of any such insurer who knowingly consents to any violation of the provisions of this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor.
DIVISION 3. THE INSURANCE COMMISSIONER.

CHAPTER 1. APPOINTMENT, QUALIFICATION, AND OFFICES.

12900. The commissioner shall be appointed by the Governor, with the consent of the Senate and shall hold office for the term of four years.

12901. An officer, agent, or employee of an insurer is not eligible to the office of commissioner.

12902. The annual salary of the commissioner is $6,000. The annual salary of the deputies of the commissioner shall be fixed by him with the approval of the Department of Finance and shall not exceed $4,500 for any such deputy.

12903. The commissioner may procure suitable offices in San Francisco for conducting the business of the division. He may appoint such deputies and assistants and other employees as may be necessary for the transaction of the business of the division. He may incur such traveling and other expenses as are necessary for the proper performance of his duties. All moneys expended by him shall be expended in accordance with law.

12904. The commissioner may employ an actuary to make the valuation of life policies. The actuary’s compensation shall not exceed one cent for each $1,000 of insurance and shall be paid by the insurer for which the valuation is made.

[ORIGINAL SECTION.]

12906. The offices of the commissioner shall constitute the Division of Insurance of the Department of Investment of this State and the commissioner shall be the chief of that division.

12907. The commissioner shall execute an official bond in the sum of $20,000.

CHAPTER 2. POWERS AND DUTIES.

12920. The commissioner shall determine the sufficiency and validity of all securities required to be given by persons engaged, or to be engaged, in insurance business, and shall cause such security to be supplemented or renewed in case of the insufficiency or invalidity thereof.

12921. The commissioner shall perform all duties imposed upon him by provisions of this code and other laws regulating the business of insurance in this State, and shall enforce the execution of such provisions and laws.

12922. The commissioner shall, on or before the first day of August in each year, make a report to the Governor, containing a tabular statement and synopsis of the reports which have been filed in his office and showing, generally, the condition of the insurance business and interests in this State, and other matters concerning insurance. Such report shall also contain a detailed verified statement, of the moneys and fees of office received by him, and for what purpose. The printing of said report and all other printing required by the Division of Insurance shall be exempt from the provisions of Article 12, Chapter 3, Title 1, Part 3 of the Political Code.

12923. Except in the cases of bonds of brokers and statements as to condition and affairs of insurers, before the commissioner issues any certificate or license based upon an original or a copy of a writing required by law, he shall submit such document to the Attorney General. The Attorney General shall examine the document and return it with his certificate or opinion as to whether the document is in accordance with the requirements of law.

12924. The commissioner may issue subpoenas for witnesses to attend and testify before him on any subject touching insurance business, or in aid of his duties. Such process may be served, obeyed, and enforced as provided in the Code of Civil Procedure for civil cases. A defaulting witness may be punished as provided in the Penal Code.

12925. The commissioner shall keep and preserve a permanent form a full record of his proceedings, including a concise statement of the condition of each insurer, surplus line broker or motor club examined as to condition and affairs by him.

12926. The commissioner shall require from every insurer a full compliance with all the provisions of this code.

12927. All statements, estimates, percentages, payments, and calculations, required by this code to be made, either by the commissioner or insurers, shall be made on the basis of lawful money of the United States.

12928. Whenever the commissioner ascertains that any insurer or any of its agents, officers or employees or any other person is guilty of violating any of the penal provisions of this code or of other laws he shall certify the facts of the violation to the district attorney of the county in which such offense was committed.

12929. The commissioner shall, before the commencement of each fiscal year of the State, furnish the assessor of the county in which the principal office of any insurer is situated, all the data concerning premiums collected by the insurer, and all other necessary information in relation to the business of such insurer that will assist the assessor in the performance of his duties.

12930. Offenses under this code, or under other laws relating to insurers, shall be prosecuted and tried in all respects as provided in the Penal Code for public offenses. For the purpose of evidence the commissioner shall furnish to any district attorney, without cost to the county, certified copies of any papers or records of the office of the commissioner.

12940. The acts and orders of the commissioner are subject to such review, or other action by a court of competent jurisdiction, as is permitted or authorized by law.

Article 3. Procuring Information on Policies.

12950. Any person interested as owner, assignee, pledgor or payee, of any policy and desiring any information about such policy, may apply to the commissioner for a certificate of the facts or information desired. Such application shall be accompanied by an affidavit showing his interest in the policy.

12951. If the records of his office show the facts or information desired, the commissioner shall prepare his certificate reciting such facts or information. If his records do not show the facts or information desired he may deliver an order to the insurer, directing it to state such information or facts in an affidavit and deliver such affidavit to him. If such insurer is a foreign insurer, the commissioner may deliver such order to its agent for service of process.

12952. In such affidavit the insurer shall make a full, true and correct statement of all the desired facts and information in its possession, regardless of the location of its record of such information.

12953. If such insurer neglects or refuses to make and deliver such affidavit to the commissioner within ninety days from the date of the delivery of the order by the commissioner to it or its agent for service of process, the commissioner shall revoke the certificate of authority of the insurer.

12955. If a loss is sustained under a policy of insurance and such policy has been lost or destroyed, all rights of every kind and nature, the time for the presentation of notice of loss, and the time for the presentation of proof of loss are stayed from the date such applicant delivers to the commissioner the affidavit showing his interest until and after five days after the date of the delivery by the commissioner to the applicant of the affidavit furnished by the insurer.

Article 4. Fees.

12970. The commissioner shall require in advance, in lawful money of the United States as a fee for furnishing copies of papers filed in his office, twenty cents per folio.

12971. The commissioner shall require in advance, in lawful money of the United States as a fee for certifying copies, one dollar each.
12972. The commissioner shall require in advance, in lawful money of the United States as a fee for attaching his seal of office to any paper or document not specified in this code, one dollar.

12973. The commissioner shall require in advance, in lawful money of the United States as a fee for issuing any certificate when not otherwise specified, two dollars.

12974. All moneys received by the commissioner for fees, fines, penalties, taxes, or from similar sources, and belonging to the State, shall be accounted for and reported monthly by the commissioner to the State Controller. All the same time such moneys shall be remitted to the State Treasurer to the credit of the insurance fund, which fund is continued in existence.

12975. The unencumbered balance in the insurance fund on June thirtieth of each year shall revert to and become a part of the general fund of the State.

12976. All fines, forfeitures, taxes, assessments, and penalties provided for in this code shall be due and payable on the demand of the commissioner. If payment is not made within ten days after such demand, then the commissioner shall institute an action in the name of the people of the State of California for the purpose of recovering such moneys due. All such actions shall be subject to all the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure which may be applicable thereto.

CHAPTER 146.

An act to amend section 104 of the Agricultural Code, relating to quarantine.

[Approved by the Governor May 7, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 104 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

104. Whenever quarantine regulations are established under this chapter, if there are any authorities or officers of the United States having authority to act in such matter, or any part thereof, the director shall notify such authorities or officers and seek their cooperation as far as possible. When any article is found to have been transported into this State from any other State, Territory, or district of the United States, in violation of the provisions of a quarantine established by the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, such article shall be subject to seizure, destruction or other disposition to the same extent and in the same manner as if such article had originated in this State and was in violation of a provision of this chapter.

An act to amend section 13 of an act entitled "An act to insure the better education of dental surgeons and to regulate the practice of dentistry in the State of California, providing penalties for the violation hereof," as amended, relating to revocation or suspension of licenses.

[Approved by the Governor May 7, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 13 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 13. Any dentist may have his license revoked or suspended by the Board of Dental Examiners for any of the following causes:

(1) His conviction of a felony or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, in which case the record of conviction or a certified copy thereof, certified by the clerk of the court, or by the judge in whose court the conviction is had, shall be conclusive evidence;

(2) The rendition of a final judgment against any such dentist in a court of competent jurisdiction upon a cause of action alleging grossly unskilful or negligent dental practice;

(3) For unprofessional conduct or for gross ignorance or inefficiency in his profession. Unprofessional conduct is hereby defined to be: The employment of persons known as cappers or steerers, to obtain business; the obtaining of any fee by fraud or misrepresentation; the wilful betrayal of professional secrets; the employment directly or indirectly of any student or suspended or unlicensed dentist to practice dentistry as defined in this act; the aiding or abetting of any unlicensed person to practice dentistry; the aiding or abetting of a licensed person to practice dentistry unlawfully; habitual intemperance; gross immorality; the use of any false, assumed or fictitious name, either as an individual, firm, corporation or otherwise, or any name other than the name under which he is licensed, practice, advertise or in any other manner indicate that he is practicing or will practice dentistry; practicing or accepting or receiving any commission or rebating in any form or manner on fees for professional services, radiograms, prescriptions or other services or articles supplied to patients; making use of any advertising statements of a character tending to deceive or mislead the public; advertising professional superiority or the performance of professional services in a superior manner; advertising definite or fixed prices for professional service; the use of advertising containing as a part thereof the representation of a tooth, teeth, bridge work or any portion of the human head; employing or making use of solicitors; or advertising any free dental work, or free examination; or advertising to guarantee any dental service, or to perform any dental operation painlessly.

CHAPTER 148.

An act to amend the division heading of Division V of the Agricultural Code, relating to standardization.

[Approved by the Governor May 7, 1935 In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The division heading of Division V of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

DIVISION V.

STANDARDIZATION.
CHAPTER 149.

An act to amend section 1036 of the Agricultural Code, relating to fertilizing materials.

[Approved by the Governor May 7, 1935. In effect September 16, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 1036 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1036. The director shall, upon the receipt of a sample of any substance or mixture of substances to which this article applies accompanied by the required fee, cause such analysis, examination or test to be made thereof, as will establish the conformity or nonconformity of said sample to the guarantee under which it is sold or to be sold, and shall inform the sender thereof the results of all such analyses, examinations or tests. The schedule of all fees required for such analyses, examinations or tests shall be determined by the director. This section shall apply only to a sample received from a person who is actually using or who intends to use such material for fertilizing purposes.

An act to amend section 809 of the Agricultural Code, relating to walnuts.

[Approved by the Governor May 7, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

809. Walnuts shall be free from blanks, insect larvae, insect injury which has penetrated or damaged the kernel, or any evidence of insect excreta or webbing, free from kernels which are rancid or affected by green or yellow mold; and free from serious damage due to white mold, gray mold, shriveling, or other causes. Damage to the kernel of any one walnut, when resulting from white mold, gray mold, or other causes except shriveling, is not serious unless such defects cover more than twenty-five per cent of the surface of either half of the kernel of a particular nut. Damage caused to the kernel of any walnut by shriveling is not serious unless more than twenty-five per cent of the kernel of the nut is shriveled so that the kernel is leathery, tough, unpalatable or decidedly shrunken, or if the entire kernel of the nut is shrunken so as to fill less than one-half of the nut cavity.
Not more than ten per cent by count, of the walnuts in any one container or bulk lot may be below these requirements. However, when determining the percentage of walnuts seriously damaged by shriveling in any one container or bulk lot, two walnuts in which the kernels are each more than twenty-five per cent shriveled shall be counted as one seriously damaged walnut.

All containers of walnuts shall bear upon them in plain sight and in plain letters, not less than one and one-half inches in height on the outside thereof, the name of the State or of the foreign country where the nuts were produced.

An act requiring the treasurer of any municipality, county, or city and county to maintain a record of the names and addresses of holders of ad valorem special assessment district bonds when so directed by the legislative body of said municipality, county, or city and county.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whenever the legislative body of any municipality, county or city and county so directs, the treasurer of said municipality, county, or city and county upon whom is imposed by law the duty of payment of interest on any issue of ad valorem special assessment district improvement bonds, shall maintain a register, in which, upon presentation of any interest coupon of such bond, he shall enter, so far as he can determine, the name and address of the owner or holder of such bond and the number and amount of such bond.

CHAPTER 152.

An act to amend sections 8, 10, 40, 42, 47, 75 and 108 of an act entitled “An act to provide for the creation, establishment and adjustment with other such systems, of a retirement system for employees of the State of California, and make an appropriation therefor,” approved June 9, 1931, relating to the State Employees’ Retirement System.

[Approved by the Governor May 7, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:
Sec. 8. “State service” shall mean service rendered as an employee or officer, appointed or elected, of the State for compensation, and, for the purposes of this act, a member shall be considered as being in the “State service” only while he is receiving compensation from the State for such service, except as provided in section 47 hereof;

Sec. 2. Section 10 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 10. “Continuous service” as applied to “prior service” shall mean all prior service, regardless of interruptions in such service, and as applied to service as a member shall mean uninterrupted employment by the State, except as provided in section 47 hereof, and, except that when for any cause whatever, a member discontinues State service but subsequently reenters such service within three years from the date of the discontinuance, such interruption shall not be deemed to break the continuity of service;

Sec. 3. Section 42 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 42. A board of administration of said retirement system is hereby created, consisting of one member of the State Personnel Board other than the Director of Finance, to be selected by and to serve at the pleasure of the State Personnel Board, the Director of Finance, three members elected, under the supervision of the board of administration, from the active members of the retirement system, which shall not include retired members, an official of a life insurance company and an officer of a bank who shall be appointed by the Governor within thirty days of the taking effect of this act. In the election of the three members from the active members of the system, the ballots cast shall be delivered to and canvassed by the Secretary of State. The term of office of the five members, other than ex officio members, shall be four years expiring on January fifteenth, and the present terms of said five members, regardless of whether said terms be filled, shall be unchanged by this section. Vacancies shall be filled by appointment by the Governor, from the class in which the vacancy occurs and for the unexpired term or until the election, prior to the expiration of the term, of an active member of the retirement system to fill the vacancy, if it shall have occurred in that class.

Sec. 4. Section 40 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 40. Each member and each person retired shall be subject to all the provisions of this act and to the rules and regulations adopted by the Board of Administration. Any person who is retired and any person who is credited with less than twenty years of State service and who renders less than five years of service in any period of ten consecutive years, or withdraws more than one-fourth of his normal contributions, ceases to be a member.
Sec. 5. Section 47 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 47. Time during which a member is absent from State service without compensation shall not be allowed in computing service; except that time during which a member is absent from State service by reason of service in the military or naval forces of the United States in any war involving the United States as a belligerent, or in other National emergency, shall be considered as time spent in State service, for the sole purpose of qualification for retirement, but not calculation of benefits, under the Retirement System. Any member so absent shall have the right to contribute to said system, at times and in a manner fixed by the board of administration, amounts equal to the contributions which would have been made to the system by both him and the State on the basis of his compensation earnable during the time he is so absent. If he does so contribute, he shall receive credit for State service for such time in the same manner as if he had not been absent from State service.

Sec. 6. Section 75 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 75. Should the State service of a member be discontinued otherwise than by death or retirement, he shall, six months after the date of discontinuance, be paid such part of his accumulated contributions as he demands, except that if the member is credited with less than twenty years of State service and, in the opinion of the Board of Administration, is permanently separated from State service by reason of such discontinuance, he shall be paid forthwith all of his accumulated contributions. The board may, in its discretion, withhold for not more than one year after a member last rendered State service all or part of his accumulated normal contributions if after a previous discontinuance of State service he withdrew all or a part of his accumulated normal contributions and failed to redeposit such withdrawn amount in the retirement fund as provided in section 76.

Sec. 7. Section 108 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 108. From and after the date the system created by this act takes effect, out of any moneys in the State treasury not otherwise appropriated, there shall be paid monthly into the "State employees' retirement fund" a sum equal to three and twenty-five one-hundredths per centum of the total compensation paid members of the retirement system whose compensation is paid from the general fund of the State. The Board of Administration shall certify to the State Controller at the end of each month the total amount of compensation paid such members of the retirement system, and the State Controller shall thereupon transfer three and twenty-five one-hundredths per centum of this amount from the general fund of the State to the "State employees' retirement fund." For the purposes of this section and section 109, compensation paid from the vocational education fund to members of the retirement system as employees of the Department of Education, shall be considered as paid from the general fund. Contributions made to the retirement system under this section and the section next following shall be applied by the board of administration to meet the State's obligations under the system in the order and amounts as follows: first, in an amount equal during each fiscal year to the liability accruing because of State service rendered during such year and on account of pensions provided for in section 82 and sections 86 to 89, inclusive, such amount to be determined by the actuarial valuation provided for in section 51, as interpreted by the actuary of said board; second, in an amount equal during each fiscal year to the payments made, from contributions by the State, during such year as provided in section 100; third, in an amount equal to the balance of such contributions, on the liabilities accrued on account of prior service benefits granted under sections 83 and 84, and sections 86 to 89, inclusive.

An act to amend section 794 of the Agricultural Code, relating to cherries.

[Approved by the Governor May 7, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 794 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

794. Cherries shall be mature but not overripe, free from insect injury or bird pecks which have penetrated or damaged the flesh, unsealed skin breaks, mold, brown rot, decay, and serious damage due to sunburn, growth cracks or splits, wrinkling, shriveling, sponginess, abnormal softening, rain, or other causes. Damage to any one cherry is not serious unless it causes a waste of ten per cent by weight of the individual cherry.

Not more than ten per cent, by count, of the cherries in any one container or bulk lot, may be below these requirements, but not to exceed one-half of this tolerance shall be allowed for any one cause.

Packed cherries shall be virtually uniform in size, which means that the average size of the cherries used in the fill shall not be smaller than would pack one row more in each direction than the cherries in the packed face. Bunched faced or drop faced cherries shall not be considered packed.

All red and black varieties of cherries shall not be considered mature unless at the time of picking the entire surface has attained at least a solid light red color.
All containers of cherries shall bear upon them in plain sight and in plain letters on one outside end: the name of the person who first authorized the packing of the cherries or the name under which such packer is engaged in business, together with a sufficiently explicit address to permit ready location of such packer; the name of the variety, if known, and when not known the words "unknown variety." When two or more varieties are placed in the same container they shall be marked "mixed varieties." All containers of row packed cherries, excepting bunched faced or drop faced cherries, shall be marked with the number of rows of cherries packed laterally across the end of the container, directly followed by the word "row" or "rows" or the letter "R."

Cherries shall be in standard containers numbers 4, 10, 11, 12A, 15, 22C, 23 or 27.

Other size containers may be used if conspicuously marked on the outside of the end which bears any marks intended to describe the contents of such container, in letters not less than one-half inch in height, "irregular container."

CHAPTER 156.

An act to amend the Vehicle Code by amending section 134; by adding sections 131, 136, and 651, relating to vehicles.

Note.—See Stats. 1935, Ch. 27.
An act to amend the Palo Verde Irrigation District Act, approved June 21, 1923, as amended, by amending section 280 of said act, as amended, relating to redemptions and leasing of property, and by adding to said act, as amended, new sections to be numbered and providing as follows, to wit: Section 2810, relating to disposal of tax-deeded and tax-delinquent lands; section 65, relating to proceedings in bankruptcy; section 66, relating to contracts with the United States or any agency thereof under an act approved May 5, 1917, as amended, and validating such contracts; section 67, validating bonds of the district; section 68, validating rehabilitation plans; and section 69, incorporating in the district lands which were formerly public lands; and declaring the legislative intent as to unconstitutionality.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 280 of the Palo Verde Irrigation District Act, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 280. A redemption of the property sold may be made by the owner, or any party in interest, within four years from the date of the sale. Redemption must be made in lawful money of the United States; provided, however, that when redemption of such property shall be made more than one year after the sale provided for in section 281 of this act, an owner of such land, who is the holder of any bond or accrued interest coupon or warrant or other evidence of indebtedness issued by or assumed or agreed to be paid by said district, is authorized to apply the credit represented by such bond, accrued interest coupon, warrant or other evidence of indebtedness, together with the accrued interest on any such obligations, as a medium of exchange in the redemption of such property in the manner and to the extent hereinafter specified.

Upon presentation and surrender to the treasurer of Riverside County of any such bond or accrued interest coupon or warrant or other evidence of indebtedness, or any of them, the treasurer shall issue to the holder a memorandum in writing in duplicate indicating the amount of credit represented by such bonds or accrued interest coupons or warrants or other evidences of indebtedness, or any of them, and the accrued interest thereon, which such holder is entitled to apply on such redemption.

The credit memorandum herein provided for shall be designated "Redemption Credit Memorandum." and each such memorandum shall have printed clearly on the face thereof the words "Redemption Credit Memorandum."

The collector shall accept such redemption credit memorandum in lieu of lawful money for the redemption of such property in the manner and to the extent herein provided; provided, however, that such redemption credit memorandum shall be accepted for redemption as herein provided only for such portion of the amount required to redeem as shall be equal to or represented by the amount of taxes and assessments, together with penalties and interest thereon, levied or assessed at least eighteen months prior to the date of such redemption. Any balance due on such redemption may be paid in whole or in part in lawful money, or by the credit memorandum provided for in section 28:1h of this act. The collector shall indorse upon such Redemption Credit Memorandum the amount of credit applied on such redemption and the balance, if any, not so applied, and retain one copy of said memorandum to be used in settling his accounts with the secretary and said treasurer.

The said treasurer shall accept such Redemption Credit Memorandum to the extent that the same has been applied upon such redemption in accordance with the provisions of this section, as the equivalent of money. Said treasurer shall thereupon cancel the bonds and coupons, warrants and other evidences of indebtedness for which such credit was given if the entire amount of the Redemption Credit Memorandum has been applied to such redemption, and in the event that only a portion of the credit has been applied, then said treasurer shall indorse upon the face of such bonds, or coupons or warrants or other evidences of indebtedness, the fact that the same and/or the accrued interest thereon have been paid to the extent of the credit so applied and return the bond, coupon, warrant, or other evidence of indebtedness so indorsed to the holder. If no part of the credit represented by such memorandum is applied to the redemption of property as herein provided, the treasurer shall, upon surrender of such credit memorandum, cancel the same, and deliver the bonds or coupons or warrants or evidences of indebtedness to the owner.

On receiving the certificate of sale, the county recorder must file it and make an entry in a book similar to that required of the collector. On presentation of the receipt of the collector of the total amount of the redemption money, the recorder must mark the word "redeemed," the date and by whom redeemed on the certificate and on the margin of the book where the entry of the certificate is made. If the property is not redeemed within the time herein provided, the collector, or his successor, must make to the district a deed of the property, reciting in the deed substantially the matters contained in the certificate, and that no person redeemed the property during the time allowed by law for its redemption. The title acquired by the district may be conveyed by deed, executed and acknowledged by the president and secretary of the board of trustees, or said property may be sold on contract, with deferred payments, similarly executed and acknowledged; provided, that authority so to convey or contract must be conferred by resolution of the board, entered in its minutes, fixing the price and terms at which such sale or contract may be made, and for the purpose of making such sales or contracts the district may employ an agent or agents; and provided, further, that property sold to the district for delinquent taxes may be redeemed as herein provided at any time before the district has disposed of the same.

When any plan for compromise, payment or satisfaction or funding or refunding of any bonds, warrants or other evidences of indebtedness of said district shall have been approved at an election as provided in section 23 of this act, and such plan shall provide therefor, property deeded to the district for delinquent taxes may be leased for a term not exceeding ten years and the district as a part of such lease, or otherwise, may give options to purchase such property. The rentals under any lease, and the purchase price in any such option agreement or in any contract of sale, may be made payable in bonds and/or coupons of the Palo Verde Drainage District, Palo Verde Irrigation District, Palo Verde Joint Levee District of Riverside and Imperial counties, California, and/or bonds and coupons heretofore issued by Palo Verde Mutual Water Company. If any sentence, clause or phrase of this section is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this section.

Sec. 2. A new section is hereby added to said Palo Verde Irrigation District Act, as amended, to be numbered 2840 and to read as follows:

Sec. 2840. The board of trustees shall have authority to convey or sell on contract with deferred payments, or lease with option to purchase, or otherwise dispose of any land deeded to the district for delinquent taxes, to the owner of said land at the time said land was deeded to the district or to the assigns of such owner by transfer executed before or after the date of such tax deed, or to any other person, all at such price and upon such terms and conditions as may be determined by said board to be reasonable and just, by resolution relating to each such transaction specifically or by resolution adopting a general plan for the making of such transactions. Said board shall also have authority, when district taxes upon any land have become delinquent, to contract to convey said land to such former owner or assigns, or other person, if and when the district shall secure tax deed to said land, at such price and upon such terms and conditions as may be fixed by resolution relating to the specific case or by resolution adopting such general plan. In any transaction authorized by this section the district may convey or agree to convey any title theretofore or thereafter acquired by the district under the provisions of section 3897d of the Political Code as now existing or hereafter amended. In any transaction authorized by this section the board may require to be incorporated in any deed, contract or other instrument, conditions subsequent for reversion of title to the district upon failure to pay, within such time or times as may be fixed by the board, district taxes, county taxes, or such other sums as may be required by the board, and said board may require the payment of penalties on any default in paying contract installments or other sums so required to be paid. Such conditions subsequent may be waived or subordinated by the board under such circumstances as it may find to the best interests of the district.

Sec. 3. A new section is hereby added to said Palo Verde Irrigation District Act, as amended, to be numbered 65, and to read as follows:

Sec. 65. The district is hereby authorized to file and prosecute any proceedings authorized by Chapter IX of the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled: "An act to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy throughout the United States," approved July 1, 1898, as amended, as such Chapter IX now exists or may hereafter be amended, and shall have all rights and privileges and may do all things authorized or permitted by said Chapter IX.

Sec. 4. A new section is hereby added to said Palo Verde Irrigation District Act, as amended, to be numbered 66, and to read as follows:

Sec. 66. The district shall have all powers, rights and privileges possessed by irrigation districts organized under the California Irrigation District Act and may exercise such powers, rights and privileges in the same manner as such irrigation districts, all as provided and authorized in that certain act of the Legislature of the State of California, entitled: "An act to authorize irrigation districts to cooperate and contract with the United States under the provisions of the Federal reclamation laws for a water supply, or the construction, operation or maintenance of works, including drainage works, or for the assumption by the district of indebtedness to the United States on account of district lands; and to provide the manner and method of payments to the United States under such contract, and for the apportionment of assessments, and the levy thereof, upon the lands of the district to secure revenue for such payments, and to provide for the judicial revenue and determination of the validity of the proceedings in connection with such contract, and to provide for construction of works by the district; to provide for the borrowing or procuring of money from the United States or any agency thereof and the entering into contracts, and/or the issuance of bonds, warrants or other evidence of indebtedness for the repayment thereof." approved May 5, 1917, as amended; provided, that if any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of said act of May 5, 1917, is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the adoption by reference herein of the remaining portions of said act of May 5, 1917, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have referred to and incorporated by reference in this act the provisions of said act of May 5, 1917, and each section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase.
thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases of said act of May 5, 1917, may be declared unconstitutional; and provided further, that qualifications for voting at any election in the district upon any proposal to enter into contract with the United States or any agency thereof under said act of May 5, 1917, shall be such as are prescribed by this act. Whenever the board of trustees of the district has heretofore by resolution authorized the execution of any contract with the United States, or any agency thereof, for sale of exchange of bonds, including refunding bonds, of the district for the purpose of refinancing any obligations of the district, or funding or refunding any bonds of the district, or for any other purposes of the district authorized by this act, or by said act of May 5, 1917, such contract or contracts and all acts and proceedings of said board of trustees and all acts of public officers in connection therewith, leading up to and including the execution of such contract or contracts, are hereby legalized, ratified, confirmed and declared valid to all intents and purposes, and the power of such district to authorize and execute such contract or contracts and to carry out and perform the same is hereby ratified, confirmed and declared, and such contract is or such contracts are declared to be legal and binding obligations of, against and in favor of the district.

Sec. 5. A new section is added to said Palo Verde Irrigation District Act, as amended, to be numbered 67, and to read as follows:

Sec. 67. Whenever proceedings have heretofore been taken by the district for the issuance and sale or exchange of bonds, including refunding bonds, of such district for any purpose or purposes and the issuance of such bonds has been authorized by the qualified electors of said district by majority vote at an election, all acts and proceedings of the board of trustees of the district and all acts of public officers in connection therewith leading up to and including any contract or contracts for the issuance, sale or exchange of such bonds, including refunding bonds, heretofore taken, are hereby legalized, ratified, confirmed and declared valid to all intents and purposes and the power of such district to issue such bonds, including refunding bonds, is hereby ratified, confirmed and declared, and such bonds and refunding bonds heretofore authorized or agreed to be issued, sold or exchanged are hereby declared to be the legal and binding obligations of and against the district. Whether said bonds or refunding bonds have heretofore been issued or have been heretofore authorized to be issued and are hereafter issued, and the full faith and credit of the district is hereby pledged for the prompt payment and redemption of the principal and interest of such bonds and refunding bonds.

Sec. 6. A new section is hereby added to said Palo Verde Irrigation District Act, as amended, to be numbered 68, and to read as follows:
Sec. 68. Whenever the board of trustees of the district, by resolution, has approved any rehabilitation plan for the district and such plan has been approved by the board of supervisors of any county in which lie the majority in acreage of the lands of the district, and such rehabilitation plan generally provides for the handling, sale, conveyance and disposal of lands heretofore or hereafter deeded to the district for delinquent taxes, to the end that such lands may be promptly returned to private ownership and to the district and county tax rolls, any such rehabilitation plan and such acts and proceedings of the board of trustees of the district and all acts of boards of supervisors approving such rehabilitation plan and all acts of public officers in connection therewith heretofore taken are hereby legalized, ratified, confirmed and declared valid to all intents and purposes and the power of the district and of such boards of supervisors to approve, carry out and perform such rehabilitation plan is hereby in all respects ratified, confirmed and declared.

Sec. 7. A new section is hereby added to said Palo Verde Irrigation District Act, as amended, to be numbered 69, and to read as follows:

Sec. 69. All lands which are now privately owned and situated within the exterior boundaries of the district but which were public lands of the United States or lands of this State at the time of the organization of said district and have not heretofore been included within said district are hereby incorporated within and made a part of said district for all purposes. The Legislature hereby finds and determines that all such lands are and will be benefited by the accomplishment of the purposes of this act and should now be and become a part of said district.

Sec. 8. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have adopted this act, and each section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases of this act may be declared unconstitutional.

An act to amend section 1 of an act entitled "An act granting certain tidelands and submerged lands of the State of California to the city of Long Beach upon certain trusts and conditions," approved April 28, 1925, relating to the use of such tidelands and submerged lands.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:
SECTION 1. Section 1 of the act cited in the title hereof, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. There is hereby granted to the city of Long Beach, a municipal corporation of the State of California, and to its successors, all of the right, title and interest of the State of California, held by said State by virtue of its sovereignty, in and to all of the tidelands and submerged lands, whether filled or unfilled, bordering upon, under and situated below the mean high tide line of the Pacific Ocean, or of any harbor, estuary, bay or inlet, which are within the corporate limits of said city, to be forever held by said city, and by its successors, in trust for the uses and purposes and upon the express conditions following, to wit:

(a) That none of said lands shall be used or devoted to any purposes other than public park, parkway, highway, playground, the establishment, improvement and conduct of a harbor and the construction, maintenance and operation thereon of wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other utilities, structures and appliances necessary or convenient for the promotion and accommodation of commerce and navigation; and said city, or its successors, shall not, at any time, grant, convey, give or alien said lands, or any part thereof, to any individual, firm or corporation for any purpose whatsoever; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent the granting or use of easements, franchises or leases for limited periods, or rights of way in, under, over or across said tidelands or submerged lands for power, telephone, telegraph or cable lines or landings, sewage disposal conduits, wharves and other public uses and purposes consistent with the trusts upon which said lands are held, or the leasing or use of such tidelands or submerged lands for limited periods for the construction, maintenance, and operation of nonprofit benevolent and charitable institutions organized and conducted for the promotion of the moral and social welfare of seamen, naval officers and enlisted men, and other persons engaged in and about the harbor and commerce, fishery, and navigation.

(b) That said lands devoted to the conduct of a harbor shall be improved by said city without expense to the State and such harbor shall always remain a public harbor for all purposes of commerce and navigation, and the State of California shall have, at all times, the right to use, without charge, all wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other improvements constructed on said lands, or any part thereof, for any vessel or other water craft, or railroad, owned or operated by the State of California.

(c) That in the management, conduct, or operation of said harbor, or any of the utilities, structures or appliances mentioned in paragraph (a), no discrimination in rates, tolls or charges, or in facilities for any use or service in connection therewith shall ever be made, authorized or permitted by said city or by its successors.
(d) The absolute right to fish in the waters of the Pacific Ocean over said tidelands and submerged lands, with the right of convenient access to said waters over said lands for said purpose is hereby expressly reserved to the people of the State of California.

CHAPTER 159.

An act making an appropriation to meet a deficiency in the appropriation for support of the Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation, and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor May 9, 1935 In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. The sum of forty-two thousand dollars ($42,000) is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the State treasury not otherwise appropriated to meet a deficiency in the appropriation for support of the Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation for the eighty-fifth and eighty-sixth fiscal years.

Sec. 2. This act, inasmuch as it provides an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the State, under the provisions of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, shall take effect immediately.

An act to add section 3900a to the Political Code, relating to taxation, including motor vehicle fuel license tax delinquencies penalties and costs, payment thereof in installments and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor May 9, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. A new section to be numbered 3900a is hereby added to the Political Code, to read as follows:

3900a. When any license tax imposed by the Motor Vehicle Fuel License Tax Act, approved May 30, 1923 (being Chapter 267 of the Statutes of the forty-fifth session of the Legislature of this State), as amended, which tax accrued and became payable prior to January 1, 1935, remains unpaid, such delinquent license tax may be made payable in installments, and the collection thereof postponed accordingly, by the filing with the State Controller prior to January 1, 1936, of a written instrument (hereinafter referred to as an "obligation") executed by such distributor (hereinafter referred to as "original distributor"), or by the trustee in bankruptcy of such distributor, or a receiver of such distributor appointed by any court of this State or the United States, or by another distributor or a broker, duly licensed as such distributor or broker under said act, who has succeeded to the ownership of all or any of the property used in the distribution of motor vehicle fuel in respect to which such delinquent license tax accrued, and undertaking to make payment of the amount of all delinquent motor vehicle fuel license taxes becoming payable prior to January 1, 1935, by the original distributor, and of all penalties accrued thereon by reason of the nonpayment thereof as provided in said act, in equal monthly installments not exceeding one hundred eighty in all and payable on or before the first day of the calendar month next after the filing of said obligation and of each month thereafter until full payment of said delinquent taxes and penalties, together with interest on each such monthly installment from January 1, 1935, to, and payable at, the time of payment of such installment, at the rate of four per cent per annum for a period of ten years after filing of the obligation and at the rate of seven per cent per annum thereafter, provided any distributor executing said obligation shall not then be delinquent in the payment of any license tax imposed by said act and becoming due and payable on or subsequent to January 1, 1935; and provided further, that if default shall be made in the payment of any monthly installment, or the interest thereon, provided for in said obligation, and such default shall continue for a period of ninety days, or if default shall be made in the payment of any license tax imposed by said act and becoming due and payable by any distributor executing said obligation, subsequent to the filing thereof, the State Controller shall proceed to collect all installments provided for in said obligation and then unpaid, whether due or not due, with interest thereon at the rate aforesaid from January 1, 1935, to the date of such collection, in any manner provided in said act in respect to other license taxes becoming delinquent thereunder, and the total amount so to be collected by reason of default as aforesaid shall be a lien upon all property of any distributor executing the obligation hereinbefore provided for, with the same force and effect as if said amount had accrued as a license tax upon motor vehicle fuel distributed in the month preceding such default under the terms and provisions of said act, but nothing herein contained shall be construed or shall operate to reseize any property from any lien created by said act for or in respect to any license tax the collection of which is postponed or authorized to be postponed hereunder, and in the event of default as hereinbefore stated the remedies herein provided shall be cumulative and in addition to any other remedies which may be provided by law for the collection of such delinquent license tax. Whenever used in this section, unless the context otherwise indicates, the word "tax" shall include any penalties, interest, or both accruing or accrued in respect thereto, and the word "distributor" shall include any receiver, or trustee in bankruptcy, executing the obligation herein provided for.

The Federal court has held that certain receiver certificates are prior to the lien of the State for certain delinquent gasoline taxes due prior to January 1, 1935. This bill provides for the payment of the delinquent tax in installments with interest, and will permit the reorganization of certain of the delinquent companies, the taking up of such receiver certificates and the restoration of the priority of the lien of the State. In the case of certain delinquent companies reorganization plans must, by court order, be completed prior to May 1, 1935, and unless such plans may be completed by that date the State will be faced with a controversy as to the priority of its lien. In order to avoid this it is necessary that this act take immediate effect.

An act to add Chapter 10a, comprising sections 11400 to 11407, to Part 2 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, relating to life, disability, and life and disability insurance by, and the organization of, firemen's, policemen's or peace officers' benefit and relief associations.

[Approved by the Governor May 3, 1935 In effect September 15, 1935 ]

Note.—See Stats. 1935, Ch. 145.

CHAPTER 162

An act to amend an "Act granting certain tide lands and submerged lands of the State of California to the City and County of San Francisco for development and use as a public airport, regulating the management, use, lease and control thereof, authorizing the reclamation and certain improvements of said lands and the construction and maintenance of a bridge or causeway connecting said lands with Yerba Buena Island," approved June 13, 1933, to add a new section to be numbered section 4 permitting the use of said lands for exposition purposes.

[Approved by the Governor May 9, 1935 In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the act cited in the title hereof, to be numbered section 4 and to read as follows:

Sec. 4. The City and County of San Francisco is hereby granted the right to permit the use of the land conveyed by this act for exposition or fair purposes, upon such terms, and by such persons, firms or corporations as it may determine.

CHAPTER 163.

An act to amend the act entitled "An act to define building and loan associations and to regulate them and their organization, business, operation, merger, consolidation and liquidation, and (without limiting the generality of the foregoing) also to do the following: to define and regulate the agents, salesmen and collectors of such associations, and to regulate their officers, directors and employees; to define, authorize, and regulate the issuance of, shares, stock and investment certificates of such associations, and to prescribe the rights, remedies and liabilities of holders thereof, and to make such investment certificates legal investments for certain purposes; to prescribe the rights, powers, remedies, duties and liabilities of such associations and the rights and remedies of their creditors; to regulate the investments, loans and borrowings of such associations, and their accounts, reports, audits, statements and advertising; to create and continue the office of Building and Loan Commissioner, provide for and define the rights, powers, remedies and duties of the commissioner and his assistants and employees; to provide penalties for offenses by such associations, their directors, officers, agents, salesmen, collectors and employees and by other persons and corporations; and to repeal title sixteen of part four of division one of the Civil Code, Chapter 354 of the Statutes of 1911 and acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto; Chapter 133 of the Statutes of 1927, and all other acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith," approved May 5, 1931, as amended, by amending sections numbered 4.01 relating to guarantee stock, 6.02 relating to withdrawals, 6.07 relating to investment certificates and shares, 8.09 relating to interest and dividends, 9.03 relating to investments and 9.04 relating to purchases, sales, transfers and pledges of loans, 16.16 relating to borrowers' mutual building and loan associations; postponing the effective date of the amendment of section 6.02 of said act as set forth in section 5a of Chapter 431 of the Statutes of 1933; adding to said act new sections to be numbered 6.09 relating to delay in paying, 8.10 relating to rate of return on shares and investment certificates, 9.19 relating to insurance, loans, advances of credit and purchases of obligations pursuant to the National Housing Act, 10.03a relating to reserve or surplus accounts, 10.09 relating to reports, statements and analyses by the Building and Loan Commissioner and 12.11 relating to conversion of a building and loan association into a Federal savings and loan association and authorizing executors, administrators, guardians, receivers, trustees, insurance companies and cemetery associations to vote for or approve such conversion, to exchange shares, stock, investment certificates or other rights or claims for shares issued by such Federal savings and loan association, and to continue to hold as a legal investment any shares so received; adding a new article to be numbered XVI to said act relating to the rehabilitation, readjustment, consolidation, merger or reorganization of one or more building and loan associations of the classes specified in such Article XVI, or of all or of any part of the business, properties and assets of such association or associations, or the readjustment, modification or reorganization of the rights or interests of any or all of the investors and creditors of and other persons interested in such association or associations, providing for the kinds of securities issuable in connection therewith and exempting such securities from certain provisions of the Corporate Securities Act, and authorizing executors, administrators, guardians, receivers, trustees, insurance companies and cemetery associations to consent to a plan as defined in said Article XVI, to exchange shares, stock investment certificates or other rights or claims for securities issued pursuant to such plan and to continue to hold as a legal investment any securities so received; and declaring the urgency of this act and providing that it shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor May 13, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4.01 of the act cited in the title hereof, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 4.01. Description of Guarantee Stock. Guarantee stock shall be of one class, shall have a par value, and the proceeds thereof to the extent of such par value shall be set apart and, except to the extent that stock shall be reduced as hereinafter provided in this section 4.01, shall be maintained as a fixed and permanent capital of the association. No stock shall be issued for a consideration other than cash or for a price less than the par value thereof, and when fully paid shall be kept unimpaired to the extent of its par value; provided, however, that an association with the consent of the commissioner may declare and distribute a stock dividend, and may issue stock for a consideration other than cash in connection with mergers, consolidations or transfers pursuant to section 2.06 of this act; and provided further, that with the prior consent of the commissioner the stock of an association may be reduced by resolution of the board of directors approved by the vote or written consent of the holders of a majority in amount of the outstanding stock of such association to such amount as the commissioner shall approve; provided that in no case shall the stock of an association issuing investment certificates be reduced to an amount which (exclusive of surplus, undivided profits and loan reserve) shall be less than the amount of the investment certificate reserve required for such association pursuant to section 5.03 of this act. Surplus resulting from reduction of stock, however, shall not be available for dividends or other distribution to stockholders or shareholders except upon liquidation. An association may, by action of its board of directors, with the prior approval of the commissioner, apply any part or all of any paid-in or contributed surplus, or any surplus created by reduction of stock to the reduction or writing off of any deficit arising from losses or diminution in value of its assets. The commissioner may require that the consideration for the issuance of stock be sufficient to create a paid-in surplus in an amount satisfactory to the commissioner. No association shall pay any commission or other compensation for or on account of any subscription to or sale of its stock.

SEC. 2. Sec. 6.02 of the act cited in the title hereof, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 6.02. Limitation on Withdrawals. The term "matured withdrawal claims," as used in this article, shall include each and all of the following, to wit: (1) the value of all shares or investment certificates or parts thereof, in respect of which valid notices of intention to withdraw shall be on file, matured and unpaid, including notices of intention to withdraw by defaulting shareholders pursuant to section 3.05 of this act, as well as notices of withdrawal generally pursuant to section 6.01 of this act; (2) the value of all shares which shall have matured pursuant to section 3.03 of this act and which shall be unpaid; (3) the value of all investment certificates in respect of which the holders, pursuant to section 5.07 of this act but subject to section 6.02 of this act, shall be entitled to receive the redemption price, but which shall be unpaid; and (4) the value of all definite term investment certificates which shall have reached the expressed date of their maturity but which shall be unpaid.

Regardless of whether or not an association is on notice or on a pro rata basis, its obligation to pay matured withdrawal claims, and the right of shareholders and certificate holders to receive payment of matured withdrawal claims, shall be secondary and subsequent to the right of such association to pay, and to provide reasonable reserves for the payment of, the following: taxes, assessments, insurance, repairs, alterations and other sums necessary to protect and preserve or to furnish or equip its properties and its interest in properties (including those on the security of which it holds loans); principal and interest on borrowings by such association, otherwise than through the issuance of investment certificates; interest on investment certificates and dividends on shares; rent, compensation of officers, agents, salesmen and other employees, and other usual and ordinary operating expenses of such association; and commitments on its incomplete loans or investments; provided, however, that an association on notice or on a pro rata basis shall not pay any dividends on its stock or distribute any profits to its stockholders or make any loans or investments, except loans or investments pursuant to its obligations incurred before it became an association on notice, and except loans expressly permitted by section 9.01 of this act; provided further, that an association on notice and not on a pro rata basis may with the prior consent of the commissioner, and an association not on notice and not on a pro rata basis may without the necessity of obtaining the consent of the commissioner, in lieu of paying matured withdrawal claims, make or purchase loans or investments not exceeding the principal amount of moneys borrowed by such association from a Federal home loan bank, or other similar Federal agency, and not theretofore repaid; and provided further, that an association which is either on notice or on a pro rata basis may with the prior consent of the commissioner, and an association which is neither on notice nor on a pro rata basis may without the necessity of obtaining the consent of the commissioner, in lieu of paying matured withdrawal claims, invest in stock issued by any Federal home loan bank or other Federal agency of which such association may be eligible to be a member. Moreover, regardless of whether or not an association is on notice or on a pro rata basis, its obligation to pay matured withdrawal claims, and the right of shareholders and certificate holders to receive payment of matured withdrawal claims, shall be limited to payments from its cash on hand or in bank, proceeds from sale of investments and loans and other cash receipts of such association; and shall be further limited to payments pursuant to the subsequent provisions of this section. The cash, proceeds and other receipts aforesaid which shall remain after deducting therefrom all payments, reserves, loans and investments above mentioned in this paragraph, are hereafter in this section 6.02 called the "available funds."

The term "free money" as hereafter used in this section 6.02, is hereby defined as that part of the available funds which may be used at the option of the association to pay any or all withdrawals without requiring notice of intention to withdraw or before the maturity of a notice of intention to withdraw and regardless of the nonpayment of any or all matured withdrawal claims, or to pay any or all definite term investment certificates before the expressed date of maturity subject to such adjustment of interest, if any, as may be provided in such certificates, or for the purpose of making loans or investments, or for any other purpose not prohibited by law.

If the association is neither on a pro rata basis, and if there are no matured withdrawal claims (excepting claims for the payment of which funds have been set aside by the association), then all of the available funds shall be free money.

If there are matured withdrawal claims (for the payment of any of which funds have not been set aside by the association), then not to exceed twenty-five per cent of the available funds shall be free money (but in such case no part of such free money shall be used to pay dividends on stock or be distributed as profits to stockholders, or, without the prior approval of the commissioner, for any purpose other than the payment of withdrawals), and all the remainder shall be applied to the payment of withdrawals. The commissioner is hereby authorized, in the case of any or all associations, to reduce the amount of such free money from twenty-five per cent of the available funds to such smaller per cent of the available funds as he may from time to time prescribe, and in such case all the remainder shall be applied to the payment of withdrawals. Whether or not the commissioner shall have reduced such amount of free money such remainder of the available funds shall be applied (regardless of whether or not the association is on notice or on a pro rata basis) at such times as the commissioner shall prescribe to the payment of matured withdrawal claims as follows:

First: To all matured withdrawal claims in respect of investment certificates until all sums payable thereon are paid, and, as between several holders thereof, pro rata according to the unpaid principal thereof at the time of each such payment.

Second: To all matured withdrawal claims in respect of shares until all sums payable thereon are paid, and, as between the several holders thereof, pro rata according to the unpaid value thereof at the time of each such payment.

Every association (whether or not it is on notice or on a pro rata basis) shall, from available funds exclusive of free money, and subject to such rules and regulations as the commissioner may prescribe, pay in each month, with or without requiring notice of intention to withdraw, and regardless of the nonpayment of any or all matured withdrawal claims, to any one or more of its shareholders or certificate holders, who shall request such payment, not to exceed whichever of the two following amounts shall be the greater (1) twenty-five dollars per person, or (2) one per cent of the value of such person’s shares or investment certificates (in addition to any free money which may be applied to the payment of withdrawals); and withdrawals may be made at any time from pledged shares and investment certificates, whether or not the association is on notice or on a pro rata basis, and without notice; provided, the full amounts of such withdrawals shall be used to pay the indebtedness for which such shares or investment certificates are pledged, or any part thereof; and provided further, that in the case of loans upon the mutual plan, such withdrawals without notice shall be permitted only at the option of the association unless the entire indebtedness shall be simultaneously paid.

Subject to such rules and regulations as the commissioner may prescribe, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this act, every association (whether or not it is on notice or on a pro rata basis) may, from any funds on hand (whether or not such funds are "available funds" as defined in this section), and shall, if ordered so to do by the commissioner out of available funds, pay, in each month, with or without requiring notice of intention to withdraw, and regardless of the nonpayment of any or all matured withdrawal claims, to any one or more of its shareholders or certificate holders who shall request such payment and who shall show, by affidavit and other evidence satisfactory to such association, that they are in financial distress by reason of old age, illness, unemployment or otherwise, not to exceed sixty dollars, including any other money received by such shareholders or certificate holders from such association during such month. All funds paid by any association pursuant to this paragraph shall be deemed to be paid out of available funds exclusive of free money. Any person who, in any affidavit filed with an association for the purpose of obtaining a withdrawal pursuant to this paragraph, states as true any material fact which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. No provisions of this act imposing any liability, either civil or criminal, shall apply to any association or to any of its directors, officers or employees by reason of any payment made or any act done or omitted in good faith pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph.

If in any accounting period an association has not used as free money the full amounts which such association is permitted by this section 6.02 to use for such purposes, then (unless the commissioner shall otherwise order in the case of such association) the amounts not so used shall be available to the association in any subsequent period for such purpose until such amounts shall have been so used, in addition to the amounts which would otherwise be available for such purpose in such subsequent period.

No association shall make any contract waiving in any manner any of the provisions of this section and, if any such contract shall be so made, such contract shall be void.

The provisions of this section shall govern, during the existence of the emergency period as hereinafter defined and only during such period, the withdrawal and other rights of the holders of all shares and investment certificates whether heretofore or hereafter issued, and whether or not withdrawal claims shall have heretofore been filed or shall have heretofore matured.

The term "emergency period" as used in this section 6.02 shall mean the period commencing March 10, 1933, and ending February 1, 1937; provided, however, that said emergency period may be terminated at any time prior to February 1, 1937, by order of the commissioner:

No association shall operate under the provisions of this section after September 1, 1935, unless it shall first have made application for and obtained from the commissioner a permit then in effect authorizing it so to do. No such permit shall be granted except upon a public hearing held by the commissioner pursuant to notice thereof given for such time and in such manner as the commissioner shall prescribe. No such permit shall be granted unless the commissioner shall determine that the same is reasonably required for the protection of the association and its shareholders and certificate holders as a class, or is in the public interest. If at any time the commissioner shall find, having due regard to the earnings of any particular association, the nature and amount of its assets and liabilities, the amount of its undivided profits, reserves, surplus and capital, and the protection of its certificate holders and shareholders as a class, that it would be contrary to the interests of the holders of its outstanding investment certificates or shares for such association to continue to pay withdrawals in accordance with the provisions of this section, he shall have the power to order such association to discontinue paying withdrawals pursuant to the provisions of this section.

Sec. 3. The amendment to section 6.02 of the act cited in the title hereof, set forth in and provided by section 5a of Chapter 431 of the Statutes of 1933, approved May 16, 1933, shall take effect, as to each association, at but not until, the time when such particular association shall cease to operate under section 6.02 of said act as amended by this act, by reason of whichever of the following conditions shall occur first in the case of such particular association: (1) an order of the commissioner to such association to discontinue paying withdrawals pursuant to the provisions of said section 6.02 as amended by this act; (2) the failure of such association to apply for or to obtain a permit authorizing such association to operate after September 1, 1935, under the provisions of said section 6.02 as amended by this act; or (3) the expiration or termination of the emergency period as defined in said section 6.02 of said act as amended by this act. If any association which shall have ceased to operate under section 6.02 of said act as amended by this act, shall thereafter obtain a permit or permits from the commissioner authorizing it to operate under the provisions of said section 6.02 as amended by this act, then, throughout the period or periods during which such permit or permits shall be in effect and only during such period or periods, the provisions of section 6.02 as amended by this act shall be applicable to such association in lieu of the provisions of said section 6.02 as amended by said Chapter 431 of the Statutes of 1933.

Sec. 4. Section 6.07 of said act, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 6.07. Acceptance of Investment Certificates or Shares in Payment for Loans or Property. Any association may at its option, with the prior approval of the commissioner and subject to such rules and regulations as he may from time to time prescribe, but no association shall be obligated to, accept its own outstanding investment certificates, and any association not issuing investment certificates may at its option, with the prior approval of the commissioner and subject to such rules and regulations as he may from time to time prescribe, but no association shall be obligated to, accept its own outstanding shares, in partial or full payment for property sold by such association or in partial or full payment of loans; provided, however, that after September 1, 1935, no association shall accept its own outstanding investment certificates or shares in partial or full payment for property sold by such association or in partial or full payment of loans, unless such association shall first have applied for and obtained from the commissioner a permit then in effect authorizing it so to do.

No such permit shall be granted except upon a public hearing held by the commissioner pursuant to notice thereof given for such time and in such manner as the commissioner shall prescribe. No such permit shall be granted unless the commissioner shall determine that the same is reasonably required for the protection of the association and its certificate holders and shareholders as a class, or is in the public interest.

If at any time the commissioner, having due regard to the earnings of any particular association, the nature and amount of its assets and liabilities, the amount of its undivided profits, reserves, surplus and capital, and the protection of its certificate holders and shareholders as a class, shall find that it would be contrary to the interests of the holders of its outstanding investment certificates or shares for such association to continue to accept its outstanding investment certificates or shares on the terms upon which the same are being accepted in payment for property or loans pursuant to this section, he shall have the power to order such association to discontinue accepting its outstanding investment certificates or shares in payment for property or loans except upon strict compliance with such terms and conditions as he may specify in such order, or to order such association forthwith to entirely cease and desist from accepting investment certificates or shares in payment for property or loans pursuant to this section. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained but subject to such reasonable rules and regulations as the commissioner may from time to time prescribe, any person who, on March 10, 1933, was the record owner of any outstanding investment certificate of any association may, at his option, apply or set off the value of such investment certificate or any part thereof to the payment, in whole or in part, of any loan held by the association issuing such investment certificate, if such loan was originally made to, or prior to March 10, 1933, was indorsed or guaranteed by, such certificate holder or is secured by property, record or registered title to which was, on March 10, 1933, vested in such certificate holder. It shall be unlawful for any officer, director or employee of any association, or for any officer, director or employee of any corporation affiliated with any association, or for any such corporation, to sell or transfer, directly or indirectly, to such association any investment certificates or shares issued or assumed by such association at a price higher or for a consideration greater than the price paid or consideration given for such investment certificates or shares by such officer, director, employee or corporation, excepting only adjustments for accrued interest or accrued dividends, and no such officer, director, employee or corporation directly or indirectly shall request or receive any withdrawal or file any notice of intention to withdraw, in respect of any investment certificate or share issued or assumed by such association which such officer, director, employee or corporation shall have purchased or acquired at a price or for a consideration less than the value thereof. The provisions of this section shall apply to any association, regardless of whether or not it is on notice or on a pro rata basis, and regardless of the nonpayment of any or all matured withdrawal claims, but shall not apply to any association the property, business and assets of which shall be in the possession of the commissioner. This section shall be in effect only during the emergency period, which term is hereby defined to mean the period commencing March 10, 1933, and ending February 1, 1937; provided, however, that said emergency period may be terminated at any time prior to February 1, 1937, by order of the commissioner.

Sec. 5. Section 8.09 of said act, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 8.09. Regulation of Interest and Dividends. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this act or in any investment certificate or certificate evidencing shares or in any agreement or elsewhere, no association shall hereafter at any time pay, credit, declare or allow any interest or dividends in excess of the rate of four per cent per year in respect of interest or dividends which shall accrue or be earned during the emergency period (but only during such period) as hereinafter in this section 8.09 defined, upon investment certificates or shares, whether heretofore or hereafter issued and whether or not withdrawal claims shall have heretofore been filed or shall have heretofore matured; provided, however, that in the event any association shall hereafter pay, credit, declare or allow such interest or dividends as hereinafter provided in any amount less than at such rate of 4 per cent per year, it shall, out of future profits, and prior to payment or declaration of any dividends on stock, pay on all investment certificates and shares then outstanding, on which, in the absence of this section, the rate of return would have been equal to or greater than 4 per cent per year, an amount equal to the difference between 4 per cent per year from and after the effective date of this act and the amount of all interest or dividends so paid, credited, declared or allowed on such investment certificates or shares in respect of the period from and after the effective date of this act. The commissioner is hereby authorized, however, during such emergency period, in the case of any or all associations, to increase such rate to a rate not in excess of 5 per cent per year, or to decrease such rate or to postpone the time for the payment of such interest or dividends, or any part thereof, or to decrease such rate and to postpone such time of payment, if he shall determine that such increase is reasonably justified in the interest of the certificate holders or shareholders, or is in the public interest, or that such decrease or postponement, or decrease and postponement, is reasonably necessary for the protection of the investment in such association of its certificate holders or shareholders, or is in the public interest; provided, however, that in the event the authority granted the commissioner by this section 8.09 to increase or decrease such rate or to postpone such time of payment shall be held invalid, then it is hereby declared to be the intention of the Legislature that the invalidity of such authority shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this section; provided further, that in no case shall the commissioner increase or decrease such rate or postpone such time of payment unless he shall have caused a notice of such intended action to be published, at least five days before such intended action is taken, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county or city and county in which such association’s principal office in this State is located; and, provided further, that such association or any of its certificate holders or shareholders aggrieved by the action of the commissioner may at any time within ten days after the taking of such action apply to the Supreme Court of the State of California for a review of such action, and such action shall not be set aside or modified unless such court shall determine that the commissioner in taking such action committed an abuse of discretion. Any executor, administrator, guardian or receiver, and any trustee of any kind or nature, and any insurance company or cemetery association, without the necessity of obtaining court approval, may surrender any investment certificate or share certificate providing for interest or dividends in excess of the rate permitted by this section 8.09, in exchange for a new investment certificate or share certificate; provided the form of such new investment certificate or share certificate shall have been approved by the commissioner.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this act or in any outstanding note, mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument or elsewhere, no association, nor the commissioner while in possession of the property, business and assets of any association, shall hereafter at any time demand, charge or collect any interest in excess of the rate of seven and two-tenths per cent per year in respect of the interest which shall accrue during said emergency period (but only during such period), upon any loan, secured by real property, held or heretofore or hereafter made by any association, or held by the commissioner while in possession of the property, business and assets of any association; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any association or the commissioner while in possession of the property, business and assets of any association, from collecting interest at such maximum yearly rate monthly in advance, nor from charging or collecting usual and ordinary fees and expenses in connection with the making or renewing of any loan.

Solely for the purpose of this section, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this act contained, the term "investment certificate" as used in this section 8.09 shall be deemed to include any instrument issued to its savers by a borrowers' mutual building and loan association as defined in section 15.01 of this act, and the term "association" as used in this section 8.09 shall be deemed to include a borrowers' mutual building and loan association as defined in section 15.01 of this act. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, the commissioner may in his discretion permit any association which has neither stock nor investment certificates issued or outstanding to pay, credit, declare or allow during said emergency period, a dividend on its shares in excess of said maximum yearly rate of four per cent. Notwithstanding the respective rates of interest and dividends prescribed by this section 8.09, or by the commissioner pursuant to this section 8.09, interest on unpaid interest or dividends on unpaid dividends may be paid, credited, declared, allowed, demanded, charged or collected at a like rate.

The term "emergency period" as used in this section 8.09 shall mean the period commencing March 19, 1933, and ending February 1, 1937; provided, however, that said emergency period may be terminated at any time prior to February 1, 1937, by order of the commissioner. Any agreement contrary to any of the provisions of this section shall be void.

If, during said emergency period, any association shall make any net profits after dividends on shares, computed in accordance with accounting practices prescribed or approved by the commissioner, the total amount of such net profits after dividends on shares shall be set aside as a loss reserve which shall be available at all times to meet any losses whether arising from loans or otherwise, and no part of such loss reserve may be used to pay dividends on stock.

Sec. 6. A new section is hereby added to said act, as amended, to be numbered 8.10 and to read as follows:
Sec. 8.10. Rate of Return on Shares and Investment Certificates. Any association may issue shares or investment certificates or both without provision for a definite return thereon, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this act. The rate or rates of return on such shares or investment certificates or both shall be determined within thirty days before or after the end of each quarterly, semi-annual or annual period by the board of directors of the association and, except in the case of an association (a) issuing neither investment certificates nor stock or (b) having no matured withdrawal claims as such term is defined in section 6.02, shall be subject to the approval of the commissioner. The commissioner shall approve such rate or rates unless he finds the same unfair, unjust or inequitable, having due regard to the earnings of the association, the nature and amount of its assets and liabilities, and the amount of its undivided profits, reserves, surplus and capital; and if, within ten days after the commissioner shall have been advised in writing of the rate or rates determined by the board of directors of the association, the commissioner shall not have notified the association in writing that he disapproves of such rate or rates, the approval of the commissioner shall be conclusively presumed. If within thirty days after the commissioner shall have been advised in writing of the rate or rates determined by the board of directors of the association, the commissioner and such board of directors shall not have agreed upon such rate or rates or upon other rate or rates, then the commissioner (having due regard to the earnings of the association, the nature and amount of its assets and liabilities, and the amount of its undivided profits, reserves, surplus and capital) shall determine such rate or rates; provided, however, that such association or any of its certificate holders or shareholders aggrieved by the action of the commissioner in so determining such rate or rates may at any time within ten days after the taking of such action apply to the Supreme Court of the State of California for a review of such action, and such action shall not be set aside or modified unless such court shall determine that the commissioner in taking such action committed an abuse of discretion.

Sec. 7. Section 9.02 of said act, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 9.02. Investments Generally. An association may invest in, hold, buy and sell the following:

(1) Real property used or to be used primarily as the principal office or branch of such association; provided, that no association issuing either stock or investment certificates or both shall invest in such real property more than one-half of the sum of its aggregate paid-up nonwithdrawable capital and any surplus and reserve which is not subject to distribution to the shareholders or stockholders except upon dissolution or liquidation;
(2) Furniture, fixtures, furnishings and equipment necessary or proper for the business of such association, or for use in connection with properties owned by or securing loans of such association; provided, that no association issuing either stock or investment certificates or both shall invest in furniture, furnishings and equipment for its offices more than ten per cent of the sum of its aggregate paid-up nonwithdrawable capital and any surplus and reserve which is not subject to distribution to the shareholders or stockholders except upon dissolution or liquidation;

(3) United States Government bonds and treasury certificates; or any bonds, debentures, notes or other obligations guaranteed by the United States of America;

(4) Bonds, debentures and notes issued by any Federal home loan bank, or other similar Federal agency, or consolidated Federal home loan bank bonds, debentures or notes;

(5) Bonds of this State or of any county, municipality or school district in this State;

(6) Bonds, other securities and bankers' acceptances which are legal as investments for or purchases by savings banks in this State;

(7) Bonds issued by any railroad corporation or any public utility corporation excluding street railway corporations, substantially all of the properties of which are located in the United States of America; provided the purchase of all bonds pursuant to the sole authority of this subdivision (7) shall be first approved by the commissioner;

(8) Notes or bonds secured by first mortgage or first deed of trust, payment of which is guaranteed by a policy of mortgage insurance, or mortgage participation certificates, issued by a mortgage insurance company in accordance with the provisions of Title II of Part IV of Division 1 of the Civil Code of this State;

(9) California street improvement bonds; provided the purchase of all bonds pursuant to the sole authority of this subdivision (9) shall be first approved by the commissioner and that no association at any one time shall have invested pursuant to the sole authority of this subdivision (9) an aggregate amount in excess of two per cent of the then total assets of such association;

(10) Stock issued by any Federal home loan bank or other similar Federal agency of which such association may be eligible to be a member; or

(11) Bonds, notes, debentures or other obligations of National mortgage associations or other similar credit institutions now or hereafter organized under Title III of the National Housing Act; provided the purchase of all bonds, notes, debentures or other obligations pursuant to the sole authority of this subdivision (11) shall be first approved by the commissioner.

Provided that, except with the prior consent of the commissioner, no association at any one time shall have vested pursuant to subdivisions (6), (7), (8), (9) and (11) of this section an aggregate amount in excess of ten per cent of the then total assets of such association.

Associations may make deposits with any bank and such deposits shall not be construed as loans within the meaning of this act.

Sec. 8. Section 9.04 of said act, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 9.04. Purchases, Sales and Pledges of Loans. An association may purchase any notes or other obligations, together with the mortgages, trust deeds or other security therefor, if such notes or obligations evidence loans which, at the time of such purchase, such association would be authorized to make pursuant to this act in an amount at least equal to the amount so purchased. No association shall sell, exchange, transfer, pledge, hypothecate or otherwise dispose of or encumber any notes or other obligations held by it, evidencing any loan made or purchased by it, or the mortgages, trust deeds or other security therefor, except with the approval of the commissioner; provided, that any association may, without the necessity of obtaining such approval, pledge or otherwise hypothecate any of the notes or other obligations held by it, together with the mortgages, trust deeds and other security therefor, to the extent permitted by section 9.05 or section 9.06 of this act.

Sec. 9. A new section is hereby added to said act, as amended, to be numbered 9.18 and to read as follows:

Sec. 9.18. National Housing Act Loans and Insurance. An association (a) either with or without security, may make loans, advance credit, and purchase obligations representing loans and advances of credit, for the purpose of financing alterations, repairs, and improvements pursuant to Title I of the National Housing Act upon real property securing a loan then held by such association, if the Federal Housing Administrator shall insure such association against losses which it may sustain as a result of such loans, advances of credit and purchases made by such association for such purpose, to the extent of twenty per cent of the total amount of the loans, advances of credit and purchases made by such association for such purpose; (b) may make loans upon the security of improved real property pursuant to the provisions of this section and pursuant to Title II of the National Housing Act, if the Federal Housing Administrator pursuant to said Title II shall have insured, or shall have made a commitment to insure, such association against losses of principal which it may sustain as a result of such loans; and (c) may secure insurance pursuant to said National Housing Act. No law of this State prescribing the nature, amount or form of security or requiring security upon which loans or advances of credit may be made or prescribing or limiting the period for which loans or advances of credit may be made, and no provision of this act prescribing or limiting interest rates upon loans or advances of credit, shall be deemed to apply to loans, advances of credit or purchases made pursuant to this section.

Sec. 10. A new section is hereby added to said act, as amended, to be numbered 10.03a and to read as follows:

Sec. 10.03a. Federal Insurance Reserve Account. Any association by resolution of its board of directors may irrevocably establish all or any part of any reserve or surplus account for the sole purpose of absorbing losses; provided, however, that, except in the case of reserve or surplus accounts which were available prior to the adoption of such resolution for the purpose (either solely or among other things) of absorbing losses, the written consent of the commissioner shall first be obtained. If prior to the adoption of such resolution (a) the reserve or surplus account so established for the sole purpose of absorbing losses was available for the purpose (either solely or among other things) of absorbing losses, and (b) such reserve or surplus account constituted all or a part of, or counted towards, the investment certificate reserve referred to in section 5.03, the loss reserve referred to in section 8.09, the loan reserve or the stock surplus referred to in section 10.03, or any other reserve or surplus account required by or referred to in this act, then such reserve or surplus account (excepting such part, if any, as may be absorbed by losses) shall continue to constitute all or a part of, or to be counted towards, such reserve or surplus account required by or referred to in this act.

Sec. 11. A new section is hereby added to said act as amended, to be numbered 10.09 and to read as follows:

Sec. 10.09. Reports by Commissioner. The commissioner at any time or from time to time may mail to any or all of the investors of any association a report concerning such association or any of its business or affairs or a statement or analysis of its financial condition. The cost of preparing, printing and mailing such report, statement or analysis shall be paid by such association.

Sec. 12. A new section is hereby added to said act, as amended, to be numbered 12.11 and to read as follows:

Sec. 12.11. Conversion into Federal Association. An association may convert itself into a Federal savings and loan association by following the procedure hereafter outlined in this section 12.11. At any regular or special meeting of the investors of any such association entitled to vote, which meeting in either case shall have been called to consider such action, the investors entitled to vote by an affirmative majority of the votes cast in person or by proxy at such meeting, may declare by resolution the determination to convert such association into a Federal savings and loan association. If such association has investment certificates outstanding, such determination shall be approved, either before or after the adoption of such resolution, by certificate holders holding not less than two-thirds in value of such outstanding investment certificates.
Within ten days after said meeting (or if such association has outstanding investment certificates, within ten days after said meeting or within ten days after the requisite approvals of its certificate holders have been given, whichever is later) there shall be filed in the office of the commissioner a certificate verified by the affidavit of the president or vice president and the secretary or assistant secretary of such association, which certificate shall contain a copy of the minutes of said meeting and a statement as to whether or not such association has outstanding investment certificates, and if it has, that certificate holders holding not less than two-thirds in value of such outstanding investment certificates have approved the determination to convert such association into a Federal savings and loan association; and a like certificate shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State. A certified copy of such certificate so filed in the office of the Secretary of State shall be presumptive evidence of the holding and of the action of such meeting and of the approvals of certificate holders.

After said meeting, such association shall take such action as may be necessary to make it a Federal savings and loan association, and within ten days after receipt of the Federal charter there shall be filed, in the office of the commissioner and thereafter and within said ten-day period in the office of the Secretary of State, a copy of said charter issued to such association by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board or a certificate showing the organization of such association as a Federal savings and loan association certified by or on behalf of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board. Upon the filing of such instrument in the office of the Secretary of State such association shall cease to be a State association and shall thereafter be a Federal savings and loan association.

At the time when such conversion becomes effective as hereinafter provided in this section 12.11 such association shall cease to be supervised by this State and all of the property of such association, including all of its right, title and interest in and to all property of every kind and character, whether real, personal or mixed, shall immediately, by operation of law and without any conveyance or transfer whatsoever and without any further act or deed, be vested in said association under its new name and style as a Federal savings and loan association and under its new jurisdiction; and said Federal savings and loan association shall have, hold and enjoy the same in its own right as fully and to the same extent as the same was possessed, held and enjoyed by it as a State association and said Federal savings and loan association shall continue responsible for all of the obligations of said State association to the same extent as though said conversion had not taken place; it being expressly declared that such Federal savings and loan association shall be merely a continuation of such State association under a new name and new jurisdiction and such revision of its corporate structure as may be considerred necessary for its proper operation under said new jurisdiction.

Any executor, administrator, guardian or receiver, and any trustee of any kind or nature and any insurance company or cemetery association may, without the necessity of obtaining court approval (a) vote in person or by proxy in favor of converting an association into a Federal savings and loan association, or may approve the determination to so convert; (b) exchange any shares, stock, investment certificates or other rights or claims, for shares issued by such Federal savings and loan association; and (c) may continue to hold as a legal investment any shares so received.

Sec. 13. A new article is hereby added to said act, as amended, to be numbered XVI and to read as follows:

Article XVI—Rehabilitation, Readjustment, Consolidation, Merger or Reorganization of Associations.

Sec. 16.01. Application of Article. The terms "such association" or "such associations," as used in this article, shall be limited to an association or associations included in one or more of the following classes: (1) An association of which the property, business and assets are in the possession of the commissioner; (2) an association which is no longer able to conduct the normal business of an association; (3) an association which is unable to discharge its debts or other obligations as they become due or which is an "association on notice" as defined in section 6.01; (4) an association which is in such condition that, unless such association is liquidated or a plan is consummated, a preference is likely to be obtained by some certificate holders over other certificate holders or by some shareholders over other shareholders or by some creditors over other creditors of the same class; (5) an association which is in such a condition that it will probably be necessary, unless a plan is consummated, to liquidate such association or to sell or otherwise dispose of a substantial part of its assets at substantially less than the amount which might reasonably be expected to be realized therefrom in the ordinary and proper conduct of a going business. The determination by the commissioner that an association is included in one or more of the foregoing classes shall be prima facie evidence of such fact.

Sec. 16.02. Definition of Plan. The term "plan" as used in this article is hereby defined to mean a plan for the rehabilitation, readjustment or reorganization, consolidation or merger of such association or of two or more such associations, or of all or of any part of the business, properties and assets of such association or of two or more such associations, or for the readjustment, modification or reorganization of the rights or interests of any or all of the investors and creditors of, and other persons, if any, interested in, such association or of two or more such associations, or for any two or more of the foregoing purposes. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a plan may provide in respect of all or any part of the business, properties and assets of such association or associations for any one or more of the following: (1) for the retention thereof by, or (if then in the possession of the commissioner) the return thereof to, such association or any of such associations; (2) the retention thereof by, or (if not then in the possession of the commissioner) the delivery thereof to, the commissioner; (3) the transfer thereof to another corporation or to two or more other corporations (which corporation or corporations or any of them may but need not be an association or associations or a Federal savings and loan association or associations); (4) the transfer thereof to a trustee or trustees. Any new association formed, pursuant to a plan, to continue the building and loan business of an existing association, may adopt and continue to use the name of such existing association or any part of such name.

Sec. 16.03. Procedure. A plan (1) may be proposed by the commissioner or (2) may be proposed, subject to the approval of the commissioner, by such association or by two or more such associations through action of the board of directors of such association or associations or (3) may be proposed, subject to the approval of the commissioner, by the holders of 20 per cent in value of the aggregate outstanding free shares and investment certificates of such association or associations. No plan shall be proposed or approved by the commissioner unless the commissioner is satisfied that the plan is fair and equitable and does not discriminate in favor of any class of investors, creditors or other persons affected thereby, and is feasible. A plan shall be presented by the proposer or proposers to the superior court of the county in which an office of such association, or at least one of such associations, is located with a petition that the court determine the fairness of such plan and the approvals requisite to such plan becoming operative, which petition shall set forth such plan and the fact that it has been proposed or approved by the commissioner and any other facts which such proposer or proposers shall deem material to a consideration of the fairness of such plan. Thereupon the court shall fix the time and place for the hearing of such petition and shall direct such association or each of such associations to deliver to such proposer or proposers (or, in the discretion of the court, to the commissioner) a list of the names and addresses of the investors and creditors of such association or of each of such associations and of all other known persons, if any, affected by such plan, and such other information as the court may deem necessary or proper whereupon such association or each of such associations shall comply with such direction. Thereafter the proposer or proposers of such plan, not less than twenty days before the date fixed for such hearing, shall mail or cause to be mailed to each of the investors and creditors of such association or associations and to all other known persons, if any, affected by such plan, a notice of the time and place fixed by the court for such hearing and either a copy of such plan or a summary thereof, which summary shall be either prepared or approved by the commissioner. Section 8.08 of this act shall not apply to such notices. Said notices shall be mailed, postage prepaid, to the respective addresses as shown on such list or lists, or if no address be there shown, to the last known address. In addition, the proposer or proposers of such plan shall cause notice of the time and place fixed for such hearing to be posted in three public places in said county not less than twenty days before the day fixed for such hearing and to be published at least once and not less than twenty days nor more than thirty days before the day fixed for such hearing in a newspaper of general circulation published in said county. A copy of said plan shall be kept by the commissioner available for public inspection and he shall take such other steps as he shall deem necessary for making the plan and all notices and facts in connection therewith available to all interested parties.

Sec. 16.04. Hearing. At the time and place fixed for such hearing, or at the time and place to which such hearing may be continued by the court, the court shall hear the parties interested therein and, if it deem it necessary, may take testimony relative thereto and/or may accept proof in affidavit form as to any fact or circumstance material thereto. Such hearing shall be, among other things, upon the fairness of the terms and conditions of the issuance of all securities to be issued pursuant to such plan and of the exchange thereof for outstanding securities, claims or property interests, or partly in such exchange and partly for cash, and all persons to whom it is proposed to issue securities in such exchange shall have the right to appear at such hearing. No plan shall be approved by the court unless the court is satisfied that the plan is fair and equitable and does not discriminate in favor of any class of investors, creditors or other persons affected thereby, and is feasible. After the completion of such hearing the court shall approve, modify or disapprove such plan. No such plan shall become operative unless and until it shall have been approved, in its original form or if modified, in its modified form, by such court and the commissioner, nor unless and until such plan shall have been consented to, either in person or by a duly appointed agent, attorney or committee by the following persons: (a) if such association or any of such associations shall have stock outstanding, then by the holders of a majority in amount of the stock of such association or of each of such associations having stock outstanding; (b) if such association or any of such associations shall have shares outstanding, then by the holders of a majority in value of the shares of such association or of each of such associations having shares outstanding; (c) if such association or any of such associations shall have investment certificates outstanding, then by the holders of two-thirds in value of the investment certificates of such association or of each of such associations having investment certificates outstanding; (d) if such association or any of such associations shall have creditors, then by two-thirds of each class of creditors of such association or of each of such associations having creditors; (e) and by two-thirds in amount of each class of other known persons, if any, affected by such plan; provided, however, that such consents shall not be required in the case of any investor, creditor or other person affected, or of any class of investors, creditors or other persons affected if (1) the rights of such person or persons shall not be materially affected by such plan or (2) if such plan shall provide for the payment in cash of the value of the right or interest of such person or persons; and provided further, that such consents shall not be required from stockholders of any association if the value of the assets of such association shall be less than the liabilities thereof, including the value of all outstanding shares and investment certificates, or if the business, properties and assets of such association be then in the possession of the commissioner; and provided further, that the consent of the shareholders of any association shall not be required if the value of the assets of such association shall be less than the liabilities of such association, including the value of its investment certificates but not including the value of its shares, or if the business, properties and assets of such association be then in the possession of the commissioner. For the purpose of this article, real property, contracts for the sale of real property, loans, and all other assets (whether like or unlike the foregoing) shall be valued at what may reasonably be expected to be realized therefrom in the orderly and proper conduct of a going business. The consents required by this section may be given before the plan is presented to the court, or after such presentation and before the court has approved it, or after such approval. If at the time such plan is approved by the court the proportions above required of the investors, creditors and other persons, if any, affected thereby shall not have consented to the plan, the order of court may provide that upon satisfactory proof of the fact that such consents have been given, a further order may be entered ex parte providing that such plan shall become operative, which further order shall be binding upon the commissioner, such association or associations, and all such investors and creditors, and all other persons, if any, affected thereby. The superior court in which such petition is pending is hereby given jurisdiction to determine all questions required to be determined pursuant to this article including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the following: whether the association or associations subject to such plan are included in one or more of the classes specified in section 16.01; whether any plan, either in its original or modified form, is fair and equitable; whether it discriminates in favor of any class of investors, creditors or other persons affected thereby; whether it is feasible; whether the terms and conditions of the proposed issuance and exchange of securities thereunder are fair and to approve or disapprove such terms and conditions; the total liabilities of such association or associations; the approvals requisite under this article to such plan becoming operative, including jurisdiction to determine, for the purposes of the plan and such consents, the division of the creditors and other known persons, if any, affected by such plan, into classes according to the nature of their respective rights and interests. In any such plan the court and the commissioner shall give due consideration to the rights and interests of all persons affected thereby (with due regard to the feasibility of such plan and the condition of such association or associations), in the following order of priorities: first, secured creditors; second, investment certificate holders and unsecured creditors, without preference of one over the other, except and to the extent that the court shall deem such preference fair and equitable in view of all the facts and circumstances; third, shareholders; and fourth, stockholders; provided, however, that provision may be made in any such plan for the payment in full of all taxes, assessments, insurance, alterations, repairs and other operating expenses, and for the payment of expenses in connection with such plan as approved by the commissioner and allowed by the court; provided further, that in the case of any association of which the property, business and assets are in the possession of the commissioner which shows a net profit from and after the effective date of this act, the court and the commissioner shall require as a condition of approval of any such plan that there be added, pro rata, or in such equitable manner as the court and the commissioner may determine, to the claims of the investment certificate holders and shareholders of such association, as interest and dividends on such investment certificates and shares, an amount which may equal such net profits of such association, but shall in no event exceed a sum equal to the total interest and dividends at the rate of four per cent per year on all such claims from the effective date of this act up to the date of approval of the plan by the court, less the amount of any interest or dividends actually paid or credited on such investment certificates and shares in respect of the period from and after the effective date of this act.

Sec. 16.05. Effect of Approval and Consents. When such plan shall have been so approved by the court and the commissioner and shall have been consented to by or on behalf of the respective required proportions of the investors, creditors and other persons, if any, affected thereby, such plan shall be binding upon the commissioner, such association or associations, all the investors and creditors of such association or associations, and all other persons, if any, affected thereby; and such association or associations and all such investors and creditors and all other persons, if any, affected thereby shall be conclusively deemed to have consented to all of the terms and conditions of such plan whether or not all of such persons shall actually have consented thereto and whether or not all of them shall have received notice of such plan or of such hearing as hereinbefore provided. Thereupon such steps shall be taken by the commissioner, such association or associations and all other persons affected by such plan, and all acts shall be done. All instruments executed and all securities issued, as may be required by such plan so approved and as may be necessary or desirable for the consummation of such plan. The commissioner shall supervise and direct subject to the orders of the court the consummation of such plan. The commissioner shall have and may exercise the same jurisdiction, authority and powers with respect to any business, properties or assets retained by or delivered to the commissioner pursuant to any plan as the commissioner shall have with respect to the business, properties and assets of any association of which the commissioner has taken possession; and the commissioner shall have and may exercise the same jurisdiction, authority and powers with respect to any association (excepting a Federal savings and loan association) formed pursuant to any plan or to which any business, properties or assets may be returned or transferred pursuant to any plan as the commissioner would have of such association if it had been formed or had acquired its business, properties and assets by means other than a plan.

Sec. 16.06. Appeals. No appeal from an order of the superior court approving a plan shall be effectual for any purpose, unless within thirty days after the entry of such order the appellant or appellants shall file with the clerk of such court a bond executed on the part of the appellant or appellants by at least two sureties to the effect that the appellant or appellants, in the event such order is affirmed on appeal, will pay all of respondents’ costs, expenses and reasonable attorneys’ fees arising from such appeal, and also all losses and damages to the investors, creditors and other persons, if any, affected by such plan, arising from any delay in consummating such plan during the pendency of such appeal. The form and amount of such bond shall be approved by the superior court but in no case shall such bond be for an amount less than one per cent of the total liabilities of such association or associations. Appeals from orders approving plans shall be given preference in hearing on appeal over all other appeals, except contested election cases and cases in which the people of the State are parties.

Sec. 16.07. Securities Issued Under Plan. The term “securities” as used in this article shall include not only shares, stock and investment certificates issuable by associations under other provisions of this act but also shares of Federal savings and loan associations and stock of one or more classes issuable by corporations generally, and also bonds, notes, debentures, warrants, or evidences of indebtedness or of beneficial interest or of any other claims or rights. An association may issue, pursuant to a plan approved under this article, any one or more of the above mentioned kinds of securities, regardless of any provisions of this act to the contrary. None of the provisions of the corporate securities act shall apply to any securities issued pursuant to a plan approved under this article, whether or not such securities are issued by an association, except that brokers, as defined in said act, shall be subject to the provisions of said act with respect to all transactions involving such securities.

Sec. 16.08. Authority of Fiduciaries. Any executor, administrator, guardian or receiver, and any trustee of any kind or nature, and any insurance company or cemetery association may, without the necessity of obtaining any specific court approval, (a) consent to any plan which has been approved by the court pursuant to section 16.04; (b) exchange any shares, stock, investment certificates or other rights or claims, for securities issued pursuant to such plan; and (c) may continue to hold as a legal investment any securities so received.

Sec. 16.09. Emergency Period. No plan shall be operative pursuant to this article unless approved by the court and consented to as required by this article during the emergency period, which period, for the purposes of this article, shall commence with the effective date of this article and shall expire February 1, 1937, or at such earlier date as the commissioner shall find and declare that such emergency period has terminated; provided, however, that if, prior to the expiration or termination of said emergency period, such plan shall have been approved by the superior court and shall have been consented to as required by this article, such plan shall become operative, unless such approval shall be set aside on appeal, notwithstanding the fact that such approval of the superior court was not final at the expiration or termination of such emergency period.

Sec. 16.10. Legislative Declaration of Emergency. The Legislature hereby declares the existence of a public emergency affecting the welfare, health, safety and comfort of the people requiring the provisions of this article. arising out of the following circumstances. More than four hundred million dollars is invested in associations in this State and such investments are held by several hundred thousand people, a large percentage of whom are persons of only moderate means and many of whom are executors, administrators, guardians, receivers, trustees, insurance companies and cemetery associations. Nearly all of the functions of associations have been invested in long-time loans secured by real property, mostly by homes owned and occupied by persons of only moderate means. By reason of the long-continued and still existing disruption of the general economic and financial processes, with resulting widespread unemployment and drastic decline in rental and sales values, it has been and will be impossible for many borrowers from associations to meet their obligations to the associations. By reason of defaults of such borrowers, many associations have suffered heavy losses, both in income and in net worth. In the absence of this article liquidation of many such associations would be necessary. Such liquidation would impose severe hardships not only upon the borrowers and investors but also upon the public generally since, by forcing the sale in each locality of numerous parcels of real property, the real estate market would be speedily demoralized, which would cause great losses both to borrowers and investors and also to the public generally, as well as large increases in tax delinquencies, and danger to the financial stability of banks and insurance companies. Associations are not subject to the Bankruptcy Act, but are and for many years have been subject to control and regulation by the State and to supervision by the commissioner. In the public interest it is necessary to enact this article in order to provide a means, subject to suitable safeguards, by which the business or affairs of associations in one or more of the classes specified in section 16.01 may be rehabilitated.

See 16.11. Inspection of Association Records. Any investor or investors holding two per cent or more in value of the aggregate outstanding free shares and investment certificates of an association may file a verified petition with the superior court of the county wherein such association has an office, praying for an order directing such association to permit him or his agent to inspect the books of account, the files and the minutes of proceedings of the stockholders and of the directors of such association and to make lists and extracts therefrom, and directing such association to deliver to the commissioner a list showing the names and addresses of the stockholders, shareholders and certificate holders of such association.

Upon the filing of said petition the court may set same for hearing, which hearing shall be held only after five days' written notice to the commissioner and to said association. The court, after said hearing, and upon being satisfied that the purpose of the petitioner or petitioners is to obtain and use such information solely in connection with the formulation, proposal and submission of a plan and that such an order is necessary and proper in the purposes, may grant said order upon such terms and conditions as it may deem proper. The court shall set forth in any such order, limitations and restrictions upon the use of the information acquired pursuant thereto, and may prescribe that any violation of such limitations or restrictions shall be adjudged to have been committed in contempt of court and punished accordingly.

If such order shall direct the association to furnish the commissioner a list showing the names and addresses of the stockholders, shareholders and certificate holders of such association, the commissioner shall forward by mail to the investors of such association shown on such list any communications relative to such plan presented to him for such forwarding by such petitioner or petitioners, together with any comments of the commissioner with respect thereto, provided such petitioner or petitioners pay all mail and clerical expense in connection therewith. The commissioner shall be under no liability, either civil or crim'na, for forwarding any communications presented to him as aforesaid.

Sec. 14. A new section is hereby added to said act, as amended, to be numbered 6.09 and to read as follows:

Sec. 6.09. Delay in Paying. Irrespective of any other provision of law in this act or elsewhere, whenever an association, not excepted from the application of this section, shall have been an association on notice for a period of one year, the commissioner may in his discretion forthwith or at any time thereafter, so long as such association remains an association on notice, take possession of the property, business and assets of such association and retain such possession until its affairs be finally liquidated in the manner provided by law for the liquidation of associations by him, or until such association shall have been reorganized as elsewhere in this act provided, or until such association may otherwise be allowed to resume business upon such conditions as may be approved by the commissioner. The right of the commissioner to take possession under this section is not exclusive, but is additional to his right to take possession under each and every other provision of this act. This section shall be in effect only during the emergency period, which term is hereby defined to mean the period commencing with the effective date of this section 6.09, and ending February 1, 1937, and this section shall not be applicable to an association in any one or more of the following classes: (a) an association which is an "insured institution" as defined in Title IV of the National Housing Act; (b) an association not issuing either stock or investment certificates, the by-laws of which expressly provide that section 6.08 of this act shall be applicable to such association; or (c) an association which has not, since March 10, 1933, by reason of the authority granted the commissioner by section 8.09 of this act, reduced its interest on investment certificates or its dividends on shares below the rate of four per cent per year.

Sec. 15. Section 15.16 of the act cited in the title hereof, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 15.16. State Supervision and Control. Borrowers' mutual building and loan associations as in this article defined, doing business in this State, shall be under the supervision and control of the Building and Loan Commissioner. Each of the following sections of this act, and every section of each of the following articles of this act is hereby incorporated into and made a part of this article: Sections 1.01, 2.02, 2.04, 2.05, 2.06, 2.09, 6.07, 8.08, 8.09, 8.10, 9.17, 9.18, 10.02, 10.03a, 10.04, 10.05, 10.06, 10.08, 12.09, 12.11; and articles eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen and sixteen.

Sec. 16. If any section, subsection, paragraph, clause, phrase or other part of this act, or any article, section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or other part of the Building and Loan Association Act as amended by this act, is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, or to be invalid as applied to any person, association or circumstance, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act or of said act as so amended, or the application to other persons, associations or circumstances of the part held to be invalid as aforesaid. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act and each section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or other part thereof, and would have amended said act by adding thereto each article, section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or other part added thereto by this act, irrespective of the fact that any one or more of the sections, subsections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses, phrases or other parts of this act be declared unconstitutional or be invalid as applied to any person, association or circumstance, and irrespective of the fact that any one or more of the articles, sections, subsections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses, phrases or other parts added to said act by this act be declared unconstitutional or be invalid as applied to any person, association or circumstance.

SEC. 17. The Legislature hereby declares that this act is enacted in the exercise of the police powers of this State in view of the existing emergency affecting building and loan associations arising from the circumstances set forth in section 16.10 of the act cited in the title hereof, as amended by this act.

SEC. 18. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, and as such it shall take effect immediately. The following is a statement of the facts constituting such necessity: By reason of the long-continued and still existing depression, many building and loan associations have suffered heavy losses both in income and in net worth and are unable to carry on their normal business, thereby causing severe hardship to hundreds of thousands of investors and home owners and increasing public unemployment and distress. The provisions of this act will enable building and loan associations to obtain insurance from the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, to make insured loans pursuant to the National Housing Act, to convert into Federal savings and loan associations and otherwise to rehabilitate the business of building and loan associations. The provisions of this act are necessary not only to accomplish the foregoing, but also to enable many building and loan associations to continue in business during the period required for such rehabilitation and to create proper safeguards for the protection of the public during such period. In the absence of this act much forced liquidation would occur immediately which would demoralize the real estate market, cause tremendous losses to borrowers, investors and the public generally, as well as large increases in tax delinquencies and danger to the financial stability of banks and insurance com-companies. It is therefore essential to the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety that each and every part of this act be enacted and be immediately effective.

An act to amend section 3 of an act entitled "An act to provide for the acquisition of rights of way for and the construction, maintenance and improvement of State highways, classifying the highways in the State system and allocating and directing the expenditure of funds for the construction, maintenance and improvement of State highways," approved May 26, 1927, relating to expenditure of State highway funds within cities, declaring the urgency thereof, and to provide that this act take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor May 17, 1933. In effect immediately]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 3. All money in the State highway fund, except such portions thereof as are expended for general administration purposes and for maintenance of State highways, including traversable State highways and highways in State parks, shall be allocated and expended as follows:

(a) One-half thereof shall be allocated to and expended upon primary State highways, and the annual expenditures thereof shall be made within each group of counties enumerated in section 4 of this act in amounts which shall bear the same proportion to the total amount so available during the current year as the number of miles of primary State highways within each group bears to the total number of miles of primary State highways; the remaining one-half of said amount so available shall be expended upon the secondary State highways in the State highway system, and the total annual expenditures thereof shall be made one-half thereof in each of the groups of counties enumerated in section 4 of this act; provided, that not to exceed four per cent of the money hereby allocated to the secondary highways in a particular group may be used and expended as State aid to joint highway districts within such group in accordance with the laws pertaining to the financing of highways within joint highway districts.

(b) In the event the California Highway Commission shall determine at any time that the money hereby allocated to the primary highways in either group of counties designated in this act is larger than necessary for the purpose of adequately meeting traffic requirements, then on the authorization of said commission, the Department of Public Works may expend not more than fifty per cent of the money so allocated to the primary highways in such group of counties upon the secondary highways in such group of counties.

Provided further, that in the event the California Highway Commission shall determine at any time that the cost of constructing, reconstructing, widening or improving the primary highways in either group of counties designated in this act is greater than can be met by the money hereby allocated to such primary highways, then on the authorization of said commission, the Department of Public Works may expend not more than fifty per cent of the money hereby allocated to the secondary highways in such group of counties upon the primary highways in such group of counties.

(e) As a further flexible provision with respect to the expenditure of primary and secondary money it is further provided that the Department of Public Works in constructing, reconstructing, widening, improving or maintaining routes within municipalities, as hereinafter provided, within a particular group of counties designated in this act, may on the authorization of the California Highway Commission expend for said purposes money allocated to either the primary or secondary highways in such group of counties.

(d) Except as otherwise permitted hereunder, any annual or biennial balances remaining unexpended to the credit of any group of counties shall remain credited to the particular group of counties to which it is allocated as above set forth.

(e) In apportioning the expenditures of money as required by this act, there shall be excluded from the computations of moneys expended any sums contributed by any city, city and county, county, or from any other source, to pay a portion of the cost of constructing, reconstructing, widening or improving any State road or highway.

(f) The money hereinafter allocated to primary and secondary State highways, respectively, and the amounts available therefor each year shall be expended by the Department of Public Works in acquiring the necessary rights of way for and in constructing, reconstructing, widening or improving to standards justified by traffic requirements, and on the most direct and practicable routes as determined by the California Highway Commission, the primary and secondary State highways, respectively, in the State highway system and for the construction, maintenance and improvement of highways in State parks subject to the approval of the official or officials charged by law with the management and control of such parks.

(g) All the money hereby allocated to and available for expenditure upon primary State highways in county group No. 1 shall be subject to the appropriation made by Chapter 5, Statutes of 1933, and all the money hereby allocated to and available for expenditure upon either primary or secondary State highways in county group No. 1 shall be subject to the appropriation made by Chapter 9, Statutes of 1933.
(h) The Department of Public Works shall set up and keep such accounts as may be necessary to show all expenditures from the State highway fund for the several purposes authorized and required by this act, and shall make and keep on file in the office of the Director of Public Works an annual statement showing all such expenditures from said fund.

(i) All money withdrawn from said "State highway fund" shall be upon warrants drawn by the State Controller upon demands made by the Department of Public Works, and audited as provided by law; provided, however, that the Department of Public Works may, without at the time furnishing vouchers and itemized statements, withdraw from the State highway fund a sum not to exceed five hundred thousand dollars. The sum or sums so withdrawn may be used as a revolving fund where cost advances are necessary.

(j) The Department of Public Works shall annually expend from the State highway fund an amount equal to one-quarter of one cent per gallon tax on motor vehicle fuel, after the proportionate payments therefrom into the "Fuel tax enforcement fund" and after the proportionate refunds shall have been made, within the incorporated cities and cities organized under freeholder charters, and any city and county in this State, for the purposes specified in this section and in section 5 of this act, and such expenditures shall be made within each such city or city and county within the State in the proportion that the total population in each city or city and county bears to the total population in all such cities in this State. For the purpose of this section the population in each city or city and county is declared to be that determined by the last preceding Federal census except that,

(1) As to a city incorporated subsequent to the last preceding Federal census and prior to the effective date of this amendment, until such population is determined by a Federal census, the population is hereby declared to be three times the number of voters registered in said city at the general election next preceding the effective date of this amendment;

(2) As to a city incorporated subsequent to the effective date of this amendment, until such population is determined by a Federal census, the population is hereby declared to be three times the number of voters registered at the general election next succeeding the date of incorporation.

The expenditure of the money hereby allocated to each incorporated and charter city or city and county shall, in the discretion of the Department of Public Works, be made first for the acquisition of rights of way for, or the construction or maintenance or improvement of State highways or portions thereof within such city.

In the event that the amount of money allocated to any one incorporated or charter city or city and county is greater than is necessary to adequately maintain and improve to adequate standard all State highways within such city, then any surplus amount accruing to such city shall be expended for the acquisition of rights of way, or the construction, or maintenance or improvement of other streets of major importance within such city as may be agreed upon by the Department of Public Works and the legislative body of such city.

With respect to any expenditure within an incorporated or charter city or city and county herein authorized, the Department of Public Works may delegate any such expenditure to the legislative body of such city when and if said department is satisfied that such city is equipped to conduct such acquisition or construction or maintenance or improvement work in an efficient and economic manner.

The legislative body of any incorporated or charter city or city and county may authorize the accumulation of funds accruing to it over a period of years, or authorize the advancement of moneys to accrue to such city over a period of years to permit the accomplishment of a major project in its entirety.
No such accumulation or advancement of funds shall be made without the approval of the Department of Public Works.

The legislative body of any incorporated or charter city or city and county may authorize the allocation and expenditure by the Department of Public Works of any money accru-ing to such city hereunder upon any State or other major street or highway outside the limits of such city. The provisions of this section shall be construed as a guaranty for the expenditure of not less than the amounts herein provided within each city or city and county, but shall not be deemed to prevent the expenditure of any larger amount by the Department of Public Works upon any State highways or portions thereof lying within an incorporated city or city organized under freeholder charters, or city and county in this State, as provided in section 5 of this act.

Sec. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency Urgency.
measure necessary for the immediate preservation of public peace, health, and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, and it shall, therefore, go into immediate effect. The following is a statement of the facts constituting such necessity:

The act which is amended by this act provides for the expenditure of money in the State highway fund derived from the motor vehicle fuel license tax act, and provides for the expenditure of part of such money in incorporated cities on the basis of the last Federal census, which was taken in 1930. No provision is made for cities incorporated since the last census, and consequently the operation of the act as it now stands is not uniform as to all incorporated cities and may give rise to a constitutional question which would prevent all incorporated cities from receiving the benefits of the act. In order to make the act operate uniformly during the ensuing fiscal year, and in order to insure equitable distribution of such expenditures, to all incorporated cities, it is necessary that this act take immediate effect.
CHAPTER 185.

An act to add section 274d to the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to phonographic reporters, and declaring the urgency of this act.

[Approved by the Governor May 17, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Code of Civil Procedure to be numbered 274d and to read as follows:

274d. The provisions of section 274c with reference to the appointment, tenure of office and removal of phonographic reporters shall not apply to phonographic reporters of the criminal division of the municipal court of the City and County of San Francisco who are now acting in that capacity and who were certified by the civil service commission of the City and County of San Francisco, and/or who were appointed to the court superseded by said municipal court, who shall be deemed the duly appointed, qualified and acting phonographic reporters of the criminal division of the municipal court of said City and County of San Francisco, and who shall be entitled to all of the benefits of the civil service and retirement provisions of the charter of the said City and County of San Francisco and of the rules of the civil service commission having jurisdiction respecting suspensions and dismissals of employees.

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall take effect immediately. The facts constituting such necessity are as follows:

Section 274c of the Code of Civil Procedure may be construed to deprive certain phonographic reporters of the San Francisco municipal court of the benefits of the civil service and retirement provisions of the charter of the City and County of San Francisco.

It is therefore necessary that this act go into immediate effect in order to prevent these reporters from losing their status in civil service and in the retirement system.

CHAPTER 166.

Stats 1917, p. 673, amended

An act to amend sections 2, 4 and 26 of an act entitled "An act providing for the regulation and supervision of companies, brokers, agents, and sales of securities as the same are therein defined, and to prevent fraud in the sale of securities; providing for the enforcement of said act and penalties for the violation thereof; and creating a State Corporation Department and the office of Commissioner of Corporations,' approved May 18, 1917, as amended, relating to the Division of Corporations, the regulation and supervision of companies, brokers, agents, investment counsel and sales of securities, and the prevention of fraud in the sale of securities; and declaring the measure an urgency measure within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and providing accordingly for the act to take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor May 17, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 2 of the act cited in the title hereof is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. (a) Words used in this act in the present tense include the future as well as the present; words used in the masculine gender include the feminine and neuter; and the neuter, the masculine and feminine; the singular number includes the plural, and the plural the singular; "writing" includes "printing" and "typewriting"; "oath" includes "affirmation"; the word "county" includes "city and county"; and "territory" includes "district." When used in this act, the following terms shall, unless the context otherwise indicates, have the following respective meanings:

1. The word "division" means the "Division of Corporations" created by this act.

2. The word "commissioner" means the "Commissioner of Corporations."

3. The word "company" includes all domestic and foreign private corporations, associations, syndicates, joint stock companies, and partnerships of every kind, trustees as hereinafter defined, and also individuals as hereinafter defined. The word "company" includes all voluntary trusts, as the same are defined in the Civil Code, expressly created by or declared in an instrument in writing the purpose of which is to carry on any business or to secure the payment or repayment of money, but shall not be deemed to include a trust created or declared under or by virtue of a will or a judicial writ, order, decree, or judgment.

4. The word "trust" includes all voluntary trusts, as the same are defined in the Civil Code, expressly created by or declared in an instrument in writing the purpose of which is to carry on any business or to secure the payment or repayment of money, but shall not be deemed to include a trust created or declared under or by virtue of a will or a judicial writ, order, decree, or judgment.

5. The word "trustee" includes only persons or companies executing trusts as hereinafter defined.

6. The word "individual" in so far as it is included in the Individual definition of a "company," includes only persons selling, offering for sale, negotiating for the sale of or taking subscriptions for any security of their own issue.

7. The word "security" shall include any stock, bond, note, treasury stock, debenture, evidence of indebtedness, certificate of interest or participation, certificate of interest in a profit-sharing agreement, certificate of interest in an oil, gas or mining title or lease, collateral trust certificate, any transferable share, investment contract, or beneficial interest in title to property, profits or earnings, guarantee of a security and any certificate of deposit for a security.

8. "Sale" or "sell" shall include every disposition, or attempt to dispose, of a security or interest in a security for value. Any security given or delivered with, or as a bonus on account of, any purchase of securities or any other thing, shall be conclusively presumed to constitute a part of the subject of such purchase and to have been sold for value. "Sale" or "sell" shall also include a contract of sale, an exchange, an attempt to sell, an option of sale, a solicitation of a sale, subscription or an offer to sell, directly or by an agent, or a circular letter, advertisement or otherwise; provided, that a privilege pertaining to a security giving the holder the privilege to convert such security into another security of the same company shall not be deemed a sale of such other security within the meaning of this definition; and provided further, that the issue or transfer of a right pertaining to a security and entitling the holder of such right to subscribe to another security of the same company shall not be deemed a sale of such security within the meaning of this definition; but the sale of such other security upon the exercise of such right shall be subject to the provisions of this act.

9. The word "agent" means and includes every person or company employed or appointed by a company or broker or any other person who shall, within this State, either as an employee or otherwise, for a compensation, sell, offer for sale, negotiate for the sale of or take subscriptions for any security.

10. The word "broker" includes every person or company, other than an agent, who shall, in this State, engage either wholly or in part in the business of selling, offering for sale, negotiating for the sale of, or otherwise dealing in any security issued by others, (including all securities of the classes listed in paragraphs 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 9 of subdivision (b) of this section) or of underwriting any issue of such securities, or of purchasing such securities with the purpose of reselling them, or of offering them for sale to the public. Provided, however, the word broker shall not include the following, or any agent or agency of any of the following: the United States of America or any Territory or insular possession thereof, or the District of Columbia, or any State, Territory, county, or municipality, or taxing district therein.

11. The word "mortgage" shall be deemed to include a deed of trust to secure a debt, and the word "mortgages" shall be deemed to include a trustee and/or beneficiary under a deed of trust.

12. The words "investment counsel" as used in this act shall include every person or company other than a broker, who in this State, for compensation, engages in the business of advising others either directly or through publications or writings as to the value of securities or as to the advisability of investing in or purchasing of securities, and every person other than a broker or certified public accountant who issues or promulgates analyses or issues reports concerning securities; provided however, that said term shall not be construed to include any licensed, practicing attorney who renders or performs any of said services in connection with the practice of law.

(b) Except as hereinafter otherwise expressly provided, the provisions of this act shall not apply to any of the following classes of securities:

1. Any security issued or guaranteed by the United States of America, or any Territory or insular possession thereof, or by the District of Columbia, or by any State, Territory, county or municipality or taxing district therein.

2. Any security issued or guaranteed by any foreign government with which the United States of America is at the time of the sale or offer of sale thereof maintaining diplomatic relations, or by any State, province, or political subdivision thereof having the power of taxation or assessment, which security is recognized at the time it is offered or sold in this State as a valid obligation by such foreign government or by such State, province or political subdivision thereof issuing the same.

3. Any security issued by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of a national bank, or issued by any Federal land bank or joint land bank, or a national farm loan association, under the provisions of the Federal Farm Loan Act of July 17, 1916, or any amendment thereof or thereto, or by any company created and acting as an instrumentality of the government of the United States of America pursuant to authority granted by the Congress of the United States of America, or by any company organized and existing under and by virtue of any act of Congress.

4. Any security issued by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of a State bank, trust company or savings institution incorporated under the laws of this State.

5. Any security the issuance of which has been authorized by the Railroad Commission of this State or by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

6. Any security (including shares, stock and investment certificates as defined in the "Building and Loan Association Act") issued by a company organized for the purpose of conducting a building and loan association within this State subject to the supervision of the Building and Loan Commissioner.

7. Any security issued by a company organized for the purpose of transacting an insurance business subject to the jurisdiction of the Insurance Commissioner.

8. Any security (except notes, bonds, debentures, or other evidences of indebtedness) issued by a company organized under the laws of this State exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, charitable or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit and no part of the earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual.
9. Any security which has been certified as a legal investment for savings banks and trust companies under the laws of this State.

10. Bills of exchange, trade acceptances, promissory notes and other commercial paper issued, given or acquired in a bona fide way in the ordinary course of legitimate business, trade or commerce.

11. Promissory notes, whether secured or unsecured, where the notes are not offered to the public, or are not sold to an underwriter for the purpose of resale. Provided, however, that brokers shall be subject to the provisions of this act with respect to all transactions involving the foregoing classes of securities enumerated in this subdivision (b), excepting those securities hereinabove specified in paragraphs 8, 10 and 11 of this subdivision (b).

(c) Except as herein expressly provided, the provisions of this act shall not apply to the sale of any security in any of the following transactions:

1. At any judicial, executor’s, administrator’s or guardian’s sale, or at any sale by a receiver or trustee in insolvency or bankruptcy.

2. By or for the account of a pledgee or mortgagee selling or offering for sale or delivery in the ordinary course of business, to liquidate a bona fide debt, a security pledged in good faith as security for such debt.

3. The sale of securities when made by or on behalf of a vendor not the issuer or underwriter thereof who, being a bona fide owner of such securities, disposes of his own property for his own account, and such sale is not made, directly or indirectly, for the benefit of the issuer or an underwriter of such security, or for the direct or indirect promotion of any scheme or enterprise with the intent of violating or evading any provision of this act.

Sec. 2. Section 26 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 26. The commissioner shall charge and collect the following fees:

1. For filing an original or supplemental application for a permit to issue securities (except certificates of deposit or any guarantee of any security, both of which are covered in paragraphs 10 and 11 of this section 26), ten dollars, plus—

One-twentieth of one per cent of the amount of any excess of the aggregate value of the securities sought to be issued over twenty thousand dollars and not exceeding fifty thousand dollars;

One twenty-fifth of one per cent of such amount in excess of fifty thousand dollars and not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars;

One-fiftieth of one per cent of such amount in excess of one hundred thousand dollars and not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars; and
One one-hundredth of one per cent of such amount in excess of five hundred thousand dollars.

For the purpose of determining the above fees:

(a) The value of such securities shall be deemed to be their par or face value unless the consideration for such securities is in excess of such par or face value, in which case the value will be deemed to be the amount of the consideration so received.

(b) Where the securities proposed to be issued have no nominal or par value, the value of such securities shall be deemed to be the price at which the company proposes to sell or issue the same, or the value, as alleged in the application, or the actual value, as determined by the commissioner, of the consideration (if other than money) to be received in exchange therefor; provided, however, until a new value shall have been established, that each share of no par value stock proposed to be issued shall be deemed to have a value equal to the value which has been established by previous sales for money or other property of other shares of the same class.

(c) Interim or voting trust certificates shall be deemed to have a value equal to the aggregate value of the securities to be represented by said interim or voting trust certificates.

(d) Rights, warrants or other certificates evidencing stockholders’ rights to purchase additional securities shall be deemed to have a value equal to the difference between the selling price of the securities represented by such rights, warrants or other certificates and the market value of the securities so represented at the date of filing of application.

(e) Where an application is made to issue securities containing a provision entitling the holder or holders thereof to convert or exchange the same for a different class of securities, the value of the securities to be so issued shall be deemed to be an amount equal to twice the amount of the consideration to be received for the securities containing the conversion or exchange provision.

2. For acting as escrow holder for securities as herein provided, ten dollars for each twelve month period, payable in advance.

3. For filing any application for a broker’s or an investment counsel’s certificate, twenty-five dollars.

Provided, however, that if after a certificate shall have been issued to any broker operating as a partnership there shall be a change of interest affecting less than twenty-five per cent (25%) of the whole interest therein, no new application need be made, but there shall be filed with the commissioner, accompanied by payment of a fee of ten dollars ($10), written notice of such change, stating the names and addresses of the partners and their respective interests, and any other information which may be required by the commissioner, together with evidence satisfactory to the commissioner that the bond therefor filed by such broker is and will be maintained in good standing notwithstanding such change. The commissioner may in his discretion require a new application, in which event the procedure and fee shall be the same as upon an original application for a broker's certificate. If the commissioner shall approve such change without a new application, the certificate theretofore issued and in force and any agents' license theretofore issued to agents of such partnership and then in force, shall continue in full force and effect.

4. For filing any application for an agent's certificate, five dollars.

5. For an examination, audit, or investigation, the actual amount of the salary or other compensation paid to the person or persons making the examination, audit or investigation plus the actual amount of expenses, reasonably incurred in the performance of such work.

6. For copies of papers and records not required to be certified or otherwise authenticated by the commissioner, ten cents for each folio.

7. For certified copies of official documents, orders and other papers filed in his office; for making and mailing copies of process served upon him under the provisions of section 24 of this act, and for transcript on appeal, fifteen cents for each folio and one dollar for each certificate under seal affixed thereto.

8. For certificate of service and mailing of process served upon the commissioner under the provisions of section 24 of this act, two dollars.

9. For filing any application for an amendment to an existing permit to issue securities, or for a permit to negotiate for the sale of securities or requesting the written consent of the commissioner to a proposed instrument amending, supplementing or abrogating any portion of any mortgage, deed of trust, indenture or other instrument under which bonds, debentures or other evidences of indebtedness are issued or secured, ten dollars.

10. For filing any application for a permit to issue certificates of deposit, twenty-five dollars, plus a sum, as estimated by the commissioner, to cover the actual expense of noticing and holding any hearing held in connection therewith.

11. For filing any application for a permit to execute or issue any guarantee of any security, twenty-five dollars.

No fees shall be charged or collected for copies of papers, records, or official documents furnished to public officers for use in their official capacity or for the reports of the commissioner in the ordinary course of distribution; but the commissioner may fix a reasonable charge for the publications issued under his authority.

All fees charged and collected under this section shall be paid at least once each week, accompanied by a detailed statement thereof, into the treasury of the State to the credit of a fund to be known as the “Corporation Commission Fund,” which fund is hereby created.

SEC. 3. Section 4 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:
Sec. 4. Upon the filing of such application, it shall be the duty of the commissioner to examine it and the other papers and documents filed therewith, and he may, if he deems it advisable, make or have made a detailed examination, audit and investigation of the applicant and its affairs. If he finds that the proposed plan of business of the applicant is not unfair, unjust, or inequitable, that it intends to fairly and honestly transact its business, and that the securities that it proposes to issue and the method to be used by it in issuing or disposing of them are not such as, in his opinion, will work a fraud upon the purchaser thereof, the commissioner shall issue to the applicant a permit authorizing it to issue and dispose of securities, as therein provided, in this State, in such amounts and for such considerations and upon such terms and conditions as the commissioner may in said permit provide. Otherwise, he shall deny the application and refuse such permit and notify the applicant in writing of his decision. Every permit shall recite in bold type that the issuance thereof is permissive only and does not constitute a recommendation or endorsement of the securities permitted to be issued. The commissioner may impose conditions requiring the deposit in escrow of securities, the impoundment of the proceeds from the sale thereof, limiting the expense in connection with the sale thereof and such other conditions as he may deem reasonable and necessary or advisable to insure the disposition of the proceeds of such securities in the manner and for the purposes provided in such permit.

Pursuant to this act the commissioner has been and is authorized, in the instance of an application for a permit to issue securities in exchange for one or more bona fide outstanding securities, claims or property interests, or partly in such exchange and partly for cash, to approve the terms and conditions of such issuance and exchange and the fairness of such terms and conditions, after a hearing upon the fairness of such terms and conditions, at which all persons to whom it is proposed to issue securities in such exchange shall have the right to appear.

The commissioner may act as escrow holder for securities required to be deposited in escrow by his order. He may, from time to time, amend, alter or revoke any permit issued by him, or temporarily suspend the rights of the applicant under such permit.

By reason of the long-continued and still existing depression throughout the State of California and throughout the United States, many companies have suffered heavy financial losses and are unable safely and prop tions and liabilities under their outstanding securities, thereby threatening such companies with severe hardship or insolvency or forced liquidation, and causing distress to holders of their securities and the public generally. There exists the necessity for rapid and orderly readjustments and proper rehabilitation under the regulation and supervision of the commissioner in these and like situations, to promote orderly processes and conduct of business, and to prevent the cumulative evils of present economic disruption and financial demoralization. The provisions of this act will assist such companies to readjust their affairs and rehabilitate themselves, and to continue in business in an orderly manner, to the mutual benefit of such companies and the holders of their outstanding securities, and the public generally. It is therefore essential to the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety that each and every part of this act be enacted and be immediately effective.

CHAPTER 167.

An act to amend section 718c of the Civil Code, empowering municipalities to lease property.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 718c of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

718c. Property owned, leased or otherwise controlled by a municipality may be leased or subleased for airport purposes or purposes incidental or pertaining to aircraft, including: manufacture of aircraft, airplane engines, aircraft equipment, parts and accessories, construction and maintenance of hangers, mooring masts, flying fields, signal lights, radio equipment, service shops, conveniences, appliances, works, structures and other air navigation, aircraft and airplane engine manufacturing plants and facilities, for a period not exceeding fifty years, and sewage and sewage effluent may be leased by a municipality for a period of not exceeding fifty years. Municipalities may lease land to the State, or to any political subdivision thereof, for fair and exhibition purposes, or to the State Department of Natural Resources for the purpose of housing men and equipment, for a period not exceeding fifty years.

CHAPTER 168.

An act giving and granting to the council of the city of San Diego the right to use and the right to authorize the use of Balboa Park in said city for exposition purposes, and declaring the urgency thereof.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The council of the city of San Diego, California, is hereby authorized and empowered to use, or authorize any exposition company to use, any part or portion of the lands set aside as a public park by resolution of the board of trustees of the city of San Diego and approved and ratified by Chapter 42, Statutes of 1869-70, approved February 4, 1870, for the purpose of giving an exposition in the years 1935 and 1936.

SEC. 2. The council of the city of San Diego is hereby authorized and empowered to enclose any part or portion of said park which may be set aside for the use herein set forth and charge an entrance or admission fee to said exposition, and may sell, give or grant to any person or persons, association or associations, corporation or corporations, such rights, privileges and concessions as are usually granted by expositions, or such rights, privileges and concessions as may be expedient or necessary to the success of said exposition, and said city may charge and collect compensation therefor. The power and authority conferred by this act on the said council of the city of San Diego may be by said council delegated to any exposition company or corporation now or hereafter organized for the purpose of promoting, financing, managing and conducting said exposition.

SEC. 3. This act shall apply to pueblo lots 1129, 1130, 1131, 1135, 1136, 1137, 1142 and a portion of pueblo lot 1144, according to the official survey of the city of San Diego by Charles H. Poole, made in 1856, which pueblo lots are now a part of Balboa Park in the city of San Diego.

The exposition contemplated by this act will open on the twenty-ninth day of May, 1935, and will give employment to several thousands of citizens of this State, and will allow the investment of large sums of idle money in profitable business enterprises and will attract many visitors and tourists to the State of California. The Legislature hereby declares that the welfare of the State requires that the employment of these citizens and the investment of this idle money be immediately facilitated and protected.

An act to repeal sections 2.879 and 2.880 of the School Code and to add thereto sections 2.879 and 2.880, relating to election of school trustees.

[Approved by the Governor May 29, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 2.879 and 2.880 of the School Code are hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. A new section is hereby added to the School Code to be numbered 2.879 and to read as follows:

2.879. Any person desiring to become a candidate for office of school trustee shall, fifteen days prior to the date of the election, file a written statement with the county superintendent of schools substantially as follows:

"I, ________________, do hereby declare myself as a candidate for the office of school trustee of _______________ district, of the county of _______________, and request my name be placed on the official ballots of said district, for the election to be held March ____, 19____.

__________________________
Address ____________________"

SEC. 3. A new section is hereby added to the School Code to be numbered 2.880 and to read as follows:

2.880. Each county superintendent of schools shall furnish a uniform ballot for the election of school trustees in his county and no other form of ballot shall be used. The cost of printing and the distribution of the ballots to the various elementary school districts under jurisdiction of the county superintendent of schools for election of members of governing boards thereof shall be paid by the county superintendent of schools from the unapportioned county elementary school fund. The cost of printing and distributing of the ballots to the various high school and junior college districts under the jurisdiction of the county superintendent of schools shall be paid by the county superintendent of schools from the county unapportioned high school fund.

The form of ballots shall be as follows:

"Official ballot provided by the superintendent of schools to be used in the election of school trustees in ____________ district in the county of ____________.

The name of the county and school district shall be printed or typewritten in as part of the official ballot.

Immediately following the above there shall be at least 12 spaces for the insertion of names of candidates, each space with a blank square for the expression of the will of the voter.
The name of each candidate for school trustees who has filed his declaration of candidacy for that particular district in accordance with the preceding section shall be printed or typewritten on the ballot.

CHAPTER 170.

An act to add a new section to the Agricultural Code, to be numbered 318, relating to meat inspection, declaring the urgency hereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor May 29, 1935. In effect immediately]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Agricultural Code to be numbered 318, and to read as follows:

318. It is unlawful to sell any meat or products thereof, sausage casings, or other casings that contain dye or artificial coloring.

For the purpose of this article any meat, products thereof, sausage casings, or other casings that contain any dye or artificial coloring shall be deemed adulterated, and the director shall render the same unfit for human consumption with a suitable denaturing agent.

On account of the rising price of meat and meat products during a period of depression, there is a tendency on the part of unscrupulous dealers in meat and meat products to color inferior and unwholesome meat and meat products in order to conceal the impurities thereof. This practice is rapidly spreading and will undoubtedly increase greatly with the coming of the summer season. Consequently, in order to safeguard the public health it is necessary that this act take immediate effect.

CHAPTER 171.

An act to add section 411.5 to the Vehicle Code, relating to suspension and revocation of licenses.

[Approved by the Governor May 29, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

Note.—See Stats. 1935, Ch. 27.
CHAPTER 172.

An act to add a new section to the School Code to be numbered 4.191, relating to the insuring under the workmen's compensation laws of this State, of persons employed by county superintendents of schools to supervise or to give instruction in the public schools.

[Approved by the Governor May 20, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the School Code to be numbered 4.191 and to read as follows:

4.191. For the purpose of insuring such person under the workmen's compensation laws of this State, any person employed by a county superintendent of schools to supervise instruction or to give instruction in the school districts under the jurisdiction of such county superintendent of schools shall be deemed an employee of the county. The cost of so insuring any person employed to supervise instruction shall be paid by the county superintendent of schools from the county elementary school supervision fund. The cost of so insuring any person employed by the county superintendent of schools to give instruction shall be paid by the county superintendent of schools from the unapportioned county elementary school fund.

CHAPTER 173.

An act to amend section 2.251 of the School Code, relating to teachers' attendance reports.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2.251 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

2.251. The teacher or teachers shall keep the enrollment and attendance of each district separate from that of the other districts composing the union. At the close of the term, or year, a report shall be made of the attendance of each district composing the union separately. These separate reports shall be combined in a principal's report. In case of a joint union school district, the teacher or teachers shall send a copy of such report to the county superintendent having jurisdiction over the district.
CHAPTER 174.

An act to add a new section to the Political Code, to be numbered 3881b, relating to entry of changes and corrections on assessment book and delinquent list.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered 3881b and to read as follows:

3881b. Anything to the contrary in sections 3803, 3804a and 3881 of the Political Code notwithstanding, all entries on the assessment book and delinquent list of changes and corrections authorized by said sections, at any time after the delivery of the assessment book to the county auditor by the clerk of the board of supervisors, shall be made by the county auditor.

CHAPTER 175.

An act to amend section 2.123 of the School Code, relating to the providing of instruction and transportation by county superintendents of schools for elementary pupils.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2.123 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

2.123. The county superintendent of schools may without the formation of a new district or the filing of a petition for the formation thereof, whenever in his judgment it is necessary in order to provide for the education of children residing within any school district in his county, and funds are not available from other sources, maintain such emergency schools as may be necessary within any school district or districts in his county, provide an extra teacher or extra teachers for the regular school or schools of any district in the county, or may provide transportation for such children to a public school. The salaries of teachers employed in emergency schools and extra teachers provided for the regular district schools and the cost of such transportation shall be paid out of the county unapportioned elementary school fund.
CHAPTER 176.

An act to amend section 1144 of the Probate Code, relating to the disposition of the property of the estate of any decedent of the value of two hundred dollars or less.

[Approved by the Governor May 20, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1144 of the Probate Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1144. If it appears that the total value of the estate of the decedent does not exceed two hundred dollars, the court or judge shall make an order granting the application and there shall be no administration upon the estate unless additional property is found or discovered. No fee shall be charged by the clerk of the court or the public administrator or his attorney for filing the application, or for any duty or service connected therewith. Such sales may be made with or without notice, as the public administrator may elect, and title to the property sold shall pass without the need of confirmation by the court. The money received from such sales and collections shall be used to defray the expenses of the burial of the decedent and the expenses of his last illness. The public administrator shall file with the clerk of the court a statement showing the property of the decedent that came into his hands and the disposition that he made thereof, together with vouchers for all expenditures.

CHAPTER 177.

An act to amend section 11 of the Inheritance Tax Act, to require that county auditor's warrants be drawn for the payment of refunds.

[Approved by the Governor May 20, 1935 In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11 of the Inheritance Tax Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

11. (1) If any debts shall be proved against the estate of a decedent after the payment of any legacy or distributive share thereof, from which any such tax has been deducted or upon which it has been paid by the person entitled to such legacy or distributive share, and such person is required by order of the superior court having jurisdiction, on notice to the State Controller, to refund the amount of such debts or any part thereof, an equitable proportion of the tax shall be repaid to him by the executor, administrator or trustee, if the tax has not been paid to the county treasurer; or if such tax has been paid to such county treasurer, such officer shall refund out of any inheritance tax moneys in his hands or custody such equitable proportion of the tax and credit himself with the same in the account required to be rendered by him under this act.

(2) Where it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the superior court that deductions for debts were allowed upon the appraisal, since proved to have been erroneously allowed, it shall be lawful for such superior court to enter an order assessing the tax upon the amount wrongfully and erroneously deducted.

(3) If, after the payment of any tax in pursuance of an order fixing such tax, made by the superior court having jurisdiction, such order be modified or reversed by the superior court having jurisdiction within two years from and after the date of entry of the order fixing the tax, or be modified or reversed at any time on appeal taken therefrom within the time allowed by law on due notice to the State Controller, the county treasurer shall refund to the executor, administrator, trustee, person or persons by whom such tax was paid, the amount of any moneys paid or deposited on account of such tax in excess of the amount of tax fixed by the order modified or reversed, out of any inheritance tax moneys in his hands or custody, and credit himself with the same in the account required to be rendered by him to the Controller on his semi-annual settlement; but no application for such refund shall be made after one year from such reversal or modification, unless an appeal shall be taken therefrom, in which case no such application shall be made after one year from the final determination on such appeal or of an appeal taken therefrom, and the representatives of the estate, legatees, devisees or distributees entitled to any refund under this section shall not be entitled to any interest upon such refund, and the State Controller shall deduct from the fees allowed by this act to the county treasurer the amount theretofore allowed him upon such overpayment. This subdivision shall not be construed as giving any right to have such order modified or reversed in addition to those provided in the Code of Civil Procedure for the modification or reversal of judgment.

(4) When any amount of said tax shall have been erroneously paid, the superior court having jurisdiction, on application after notice to the State Controller, and on satisfactory proof to it, shall by order direct the county auditor to draw his warrant upon the county treasurer in favor of the executor, administrator, trustee, person or persons who have paid any such tax in error in the amount of such tax so erroneously paid; provided, that all applications for such repayment of such tax so erroneously paid shall be made within one year of the date of the entry of the order fixing tax or of the decree of final distribution of the estate. Such refund shall be made by said treasurer out of any inheritance tax moneys in his hands or custody and he shall credit himself with the same in the account required to be rendered by him to the Controller on semiannual settlement, and the State Controller shall deduct from the fees allowed by this act to the county treasurer the amount theretofore allowed him upon such erroneous payment.

(5) This section, as amended, shall apply to appeals and proceedings now pending and taxes heretofore paid in relation to which the period of one year from such reversal or modification has not expired when this section, as amended, takes effect. For the payment of the refunds authorized by this section, the court shall direct the county auditor to draw warrants upon the county treasurer.

CHAPTER 178.

An act to add a new section to the Penal Code, to be numbered 1375, prescribing the manner in which counties shall pay the State for expense of insane and inebriates.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code, to be numbered 1375 and to read as follows:

1375. All amounts due from any county to the State by reason of the provisions of sections 1373 and 1374 of this code shall be included by the county auditor in his State settlement report, required by section 3868 of the Political Code.

CHAPTER 179.

An act to amend section 651 of the Agricultural Code, relating to dairy statistics.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 651 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

651. The director may compile and publish statistics relative to the dairy industry, and disseminate the same and other information useful to the general good and development of the dairy industry of the State, and may make a suitable charge or charges for publications issued under the authority of this chapter.
CHAPTER 180.

An act to amend section 631 of the Agricultural Code, relating to examination of milk and dairy products.

[Approved by the Governor May 22, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 631 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

631. Applications for tester's, sampler's and weigher's or technician's licenses shall be made to the department which shall examine each applicant for the license applied for as to his qualifications and knowledge of the law applicable to him.

The original fee for such licenses is:

(a) For a tester's license, five dollars.
(b) For a sampler's and weigher's license, one dollar.
(c) For a technician's license, five dollars.

All such licenses expire on the 31st day of each December and may be renewed within thirty days prior to the expiration thereof upon payment of a fee of one dollar if the licensee has complied with all the requirements of the law and rules and regulations applicable to him.

CHAPTER 181.

An act to amend sections 491 and 493 of the Agricultural Code, relating to milk inspection.

[Approved by the Governor May 22, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 491 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

491. Counties, cities or groups of either or both may maintain in connection with their respective health departments a milk inspection service and laboratory conformable to the provisions of this division and the rules and regulations promulgated by the director. Such counties and cities may contract one with the other for the maintenance by one or some of them of such milk inspection service and laboratory within the limits of the others and pay a prorata of the cost thereof from license fees collected for that purpose or from other moneys available for such purposes. Any county or city may levy and collect a license tax from those who come under the provisions of this division and pay the same or provide that the same be paid directly to any other county or city performing the inspection service under this division. Upon approval in writing of such milk inspection service by the director, any such milk inspection service shall grade market milk as produced or sold under its jurisdiction and require the use of the respective grade designations as prescribed in this division.

Sec. 2. Section 493 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

493. Any milk delivered by the producer thereof, to be sold as any grade of market milk, shall not be degraded or excluded from the market when a score of the dairy on which said milk is produced is below the specified minimum legal requirement:

(a) Unless a copy of said score shall be promptly given to the proprietor or operator of the dairy and when milk is sold in bulk to a distributor or processor, a copy of said notice shall also be given to such distributor or processor.

(b) Unless a rescore, after ten days, shows the score of said dairy to be still or again below the specified minimum legal requirements and a copy of such rescore is promptly given to the proprietor or operator of said dairy and the purchaser of the milk produced by said dairy and until sixty hours elapses after the rescore. If, during the sixty hours following the rescoring, a protest is filed with the head of the milk inspection service under whose jurisdiction the milk of such dairy is sold, the milk produced on said dairy shall not be degraded or excluded from the market until after a third score has been made and concurred in by the representative of said milk inspection service and the director.

An act to amend section 476 of the Agricultural Code, relating to fat or oil in dairy products.

[Approved by the Governor May 22, 1935 In effect September 15, 1935 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 476 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

476. Except as otherwise provided in this division it is unlawful to manufacture or sell any milk, cream, skim milk, buttermilk, condensed or evaporated milk, powdered milk, condensed skim milk, or any of the fluid derivatives of any of them or any ice cream, ice milk, cheese or any other dairy product to which has been added any fat or oil other than milk fat, or the fat naturally contained in chocolate and not separated therefrom either under the name of said products, articles or the derivatives thereof, or under any fictitious or trade name. The addition to the products commonly known as condensed skim milk, condensed buttermilk, or semisolid buttermilk of not more than five per cent of pure cod liver oil is not a violation of this section, if the product is sold for poultry or stock feed.

An act to amend section 453 of the Agricultural Code, relating to milk inspection.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 453 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

453. The violation of any of the provisions of this division, or the rules and regulations for its enforcement, is a misdemeanor and, unless a different penalty is specifically prescribed, is punishable by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than ten days nor more than ninety days, or by both. Offering physical resistance or bodily attack on authorized representatives of the department or of an approved milk inspection service, engaged in the proper conduct of their official duties, is a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than ten days, without the alternative of a fine in any case.

CHAPTER 184.

An act to amend section 4.360 of the School Code, relating to school district budgets, declaring the urgency thereof and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor May 22, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

4.360. The governing board of every school district of any kind or class shall have power and it shall be its duty to submit annually on or before the first day of July to the county superintendent of schools a school budget, showing all the purposes for which the school district will need money and the amount of money that will be needed for each of said purposes for the next ensuing school year; the budget shall also contain an amount to be known as the general reserve in such sum as the governing board of the district shall deem sufficient for the school year subsequent to that for which the budget is intended to apply to meet the cash requirements to which the district's credit may be legally extended for that portion of the subsequent school year prior to the receipt of taxes levied for the district.
The budget shall show the estimated cash balances on hand for the school district according to the records of the county auditor (exclusive of receipts from bond sales and gifts or donations by reason of such bond sales), and appropriations from the State school fund, the State high school fund, the State junior college fund, the State vocational education fund and the State general fund according to the demand upon the State Controller made by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The budget shall also show other known income and estimates of income not definitely known. Said budget shall be submitted on the form prescribed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Urgency.

Sec. 2. This measure is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and as such shall take effect immediately.

The reasons constituting such necessity are as follows:

Under School Code section 4.360 as the same now exists, school districts are unable to provide during one school year funds with which claims against the district may be paid during the first months of the succeeding school year when the income of the district is, by reason of nonpayment during July and August of State apportionments of school funds and by reason of the fact that school district taxes levied for any school year are not payable until December of that year, insufficient to pay such claims. Consequently, registered warrants paying six per cent interest annually must be issued by the district in payment of such claims. The payment of interest on such registered warrants costs the taxpayers of school districts thousands of dollars annually. This measure will relieve school district taxpayers from the necessity of paying interest on such registered warrants, and if it takes effect immediately, this saving will become effective in the school year 1936–1937, otherwise the savings will not become effective until the school year 1937–1938, for the reason that the budgets of school districts for the school year 1935–1936, which, if this measure is enacted, will permit such savings to become effective in the school year 1936–1937 must be prepared on or before July 1, 1935.

CHAPTER 185.

An act to repeal section 3385 of the Political Code, relating to licensing of animals kept for propagation.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 3385 of the Political Code is hereby repealed.
CHAPTER 186.

An act to amend section 2481 of the School Code, relating to the transfer of an elementary school district from one high school district to another.

[Approved by the Governor May 22, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2481 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

2481. If, by the exclusion of the elementary school district, the assessed valuation of the property of the high school district would be less than ten million dollars, except where an elementary school district has become severed from the other districts comprising the high school district, or, if by the exclusion of the elementary school district the outstanding bonded indebtedness of the district would exceed five per cent of the value of the taxable property remaining in the district, the board of supervisors shall refuse to call an election for the purpose of determining whether the elementary school district shall be excluded.

CHAPTER 187.

An act to amend section 3172 of the School Code, relating to beginning classes of elementary schools.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3172 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3172. Children shall be admitted to the beginning classes of an elementary school maintaining but one term in the school year only during the first school month of the school term and then only if such children are six years of age or over, or will be six years of age within six calendar months from the date that school is opened.

Where an elementary school maintains more than one term in the school year, children shall be admitted to the beginning classes of the elementary school only during the first school month of any school term and then only if such children are six years of age or over, or will be six years of age within three calendar months from the day such term opens.
CHAPTER 183.

An act to amend section 790 and to add section 813.5 to the Agricultural Code, relating to celery.

[Approved by the Governor May 22, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 790 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

790. There are hereby established standards for fruits, nuts and vegetables which shall include apricots, avocados, berries, cherries, citrus fruits, dates, grapes, peaches, pears, oriental persimmons, plums and fresh prunes, "wonderful" pomegranates, quinces, walnuts, artichokes, asparagus, cantaloupes, carrots, cauliflower, celery, head lettuce, melons, onions, peas, potatoes, sweet potatoes, tomatoes and apples.

Sec. 2. Section 813.5 is hereby added to said act to read as follows:

813.5. Celery when packed in any container shall be so tightly packed that it is not possible, without damaging or injuring the celery, to place additional stalks in the container and shall be uniform in size which means that the stalks of celery do not vary in size more than would tightly pack a one-half dozen size larger or smaller than the size count as marked.

Not more than a total of ten per cent, by count, of the stalks of celery in any one container may vary from the uniform in size requirement.

Celery which fails to meet the uniform in size requirement shall be considered as complying with this section, if the container in which it is packed is plainly and conspicuously marked, on the outside of the end which bears any other markings required by this section, in letters not less than one-half inch in height, with the words "irregular sizes."

All containers of celery shall bear upon them in plain sight and in plain letters on one outside end, the name of the person who first packed or authorized the packing of the celery, or the name under which such packer is engaged in business, together with a sufficiently explicit address to permit ready location of such packer, and in figures not less than three-fourths of an inch in height, the number of stalks in the container, expressed in dozens and one-half dozens, directly followed by the term "Doz" or "Dozen," in like size letters or type. The number of stalks in a container shall not vary more than four stalks from the count as marked. In ten per cent or less of the crates in any one lot the contents may vary not more than twelve stalks from the count as marked.

"Stalk" when used in this section, shall mean the individual celery plant.
CHAPTER 189.

An act to repeal section 677a of the Political Code and to add section 677.5 thereto, relating to budgets of State departments and other State agencies.

[Approved by the Governor May 22, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 677a of the Political Code is hereby Repeal.

repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 677.5 is hereby added to the Political Code New section.
to read as follows:

677.5. Every State office, department, institution, board, Budgets court, commission, bureau, officer and other agency of the State, for whom appropriations have been made, shall submit to the Department of Finance for approval, a complete and detailed budget at such time and in such form as may be prescribed by the Department of Finance, setting forth all proposed expenditures and estimated revenues for the ensuing fiscal year.

Any officer or employee who incurs any expenditure in excess of the provisions of the fiscal year budget, as approved by the Department of Finance, shall be liable both personally and on his official bond for the amount of such expenditures.

CHAPTER 190.

An act to add a new section to the Civil Code, to be numbered 453.14, relating to mortgage insurance companies; declaring the urgency thereof and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor May 23, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Civil New section Code, to be numbered 453.14 and to read as follows:

453.14. Irrespective of any other provision of this code, a Mortgage insurance company may invest in, hold, buy and sell and make collateral loans secured by shares of stock, bonds, notes, debentures or other obligations of any national mortgage association or other similar credit institution now or hereafter organized under the National Housing Act; also the stock, bonds, debentures, notes and other securities or instruments issued by any Federal agency or corporation organized under Federal authority whose powers include loaning money on real estate or guaranteeing or insuring loans on real estate or otherwise dealing in such loans.
Irrespective of any other provision of this code, a mortgage insurance company (a) either with or without security, may make loans, advance credit, and purchase obligations representing loans and advances of credit, for the purpose of financing alterations, repairs, and improvements pursuant to the National Housing Act upon real property securing a loan then held by or insured by such mortgage insurance company, if the Federal Housing Administrator shall insure such mortgage insurance company against losses which it may sustain as a result of such loans, advances of credit and purchases made by such mortgage insurance company for such purpose, to the extent provided in Title I of the National Housing Act; (b) may make loans upon the security of real property pursuant to the provisions of this section and pursuant to the National Housing Act, if, prior to July 1, 1937, the Federal Housing Administrator pursuant to said act shall have insured, or shall have made a commitment to insure, such mortgage insurance company against losses of principal which it may sustain as a result of such loans; and (c) may secure insurance pursuant to said National Housing Act. No law of this State prescribing the nature, amount or form of security or requiring security upon which loans or advances of credit may be made or prescribing or limiting the period for which loans or advances of credit may be made, and no provision of this act prescribing or limiting interest rates upon loans or advances of credit, shall be deemed to apply to loans, advances of credit or purchases made pursuant to this section.

Urgency.

By reason of the long continued and still existing economic and financial depression many mortgage insurance companies have suffered heavy losses, both in income and in net worth, and are unable to carry on their normal business, thereby causing severe hardships to thousands of investors and home owners and increasing public unemployment and distress. The provisions of this act, by permitting mortgage insurance companies to acquire securities of national mortgage associations, to make insured loans pursuant to the National Housing Act, and to acquire securities of other Federal agencies or corporations, will enable mortgage insurance companies to cooperate with the Federal government in carrying out the objects and purposes of the National Housing Act. The provisions of this act are also necessary to enable numerous home owners in California, whose homes are subject to mortgages, to refinance such mortgages by obtaining insured loans pursuant to the National Housing Act. By the passage of this act many homes in California may be saved from foreclosure and many loans may be made to home owners for the purpose of financing alterations, repairs and improvements upon real property, thereby decreasing unemployment and distress. It is, therefore, essential to the immediate preservation of public peace, health and safety that each and every part of this act be enacted and be immediately effective.

CHAPTER 191.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization and government of drainage districts, for the drainage of agricultural lands other than swamp and overflowed lands, and to provide for the acquisition or construction thereof of works for the drainage of the lands embraced within such districts," approved March 20, 1903, as amended, by amending the title and sections 37 and 40 thereof, and adding a new section to be designated section 97, to authorize the borrowing or procuring of money by drainage districts from the United States or any agency thereof, and declaring the urgency thereof.

[Approved by the Governor May 23, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The title of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows: An act to provide for the organization and government of drainage districts, for the drainage of agricultural lands other than swamp and overflowed lands, to provide for the acquisition or construction thereof of works for the drainage of the lands embraced within such districts, and to provide for the borrowing or procuring of money from the United States or any agency thereof and the entering into contracts, and for the issuance of bonds, warrants or other evidence of indebtedness for the repayment thereof.

SEC. 2. Section 37 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 37. When bonds issued under section 35 of this act shall be duly executed, they shall be deposited with the treasurer of the county wherein the district was organized, who is hereby authorized and charged with the duty of receiving the same, and his receipt shall be taken therefor, and he shall be charged with the same on his official bond, and shall have no power to deliver the same in exchange for any bonds or indeb-kedness proposed to be funded until the bonds or evidence of indebtedness proposed to be funded shall have been surrendered to him, and he shall have been ordered by the board of directors of the district, by an order duly entered on their records to make such delivery. When such bonds have been exchanged for other bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness, the said treasurer shall at once cancel such other bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness by writing across the face thereof “CANCELED” and the date of cancellation, and report the same with his next regular report hereinafter provided for to the board of directors of the district designating the bond, coupon, or other evidence of indebtedness, so that it can be identified, the date of cancellation, and the person from whom it was received, together with the amount paid therefor, or the terms of exchange, in case there is an exchange.

If any bonds authorized under the provisions of this act remain unissued or unsold for a period of one year after the date of the election at which they were authorized, and their cancellation becomes necessary in the refinancing of the obligations of the district, the board of directors of said district may by resolution, in lieu of the proceedings provided for in this act for the reduction of the district’s bonded indebtedness, authorize the said treasurer to cancel the same and said bonds shall be canceled in the same manner as herein provided for the cancellation of exchanged bonds.

Sec. 3. Section 40 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 40. The board of directors must, on or before the first meeting of the board of supervisors in September of each year, furnish the supervisors and the auditor of the county wherein the district is situated, or if such district is not entirely within one county, then as hereinafter provided, to the supervisors and auditors of each county in which any portion of the district is situated, an estimate in writing of the amount of money needed for the purposes of the district for the ensuing fiscal year and may add thereto a sum sufficient to provide funds for necessary expenditures during the next succeeding fiscal year, prior to the time when the first installment of taxes for such succeeding fiscal year shall be collected and apportioned, and also to include in any year a sum to be placed in a sinking fund to pay the principal of bonds outstanding. This amount must be sufficient to raise the annual interest on the outstanding bonds, to create a reserve fund as may be provided by contract or under the terms and conditions of any issue of bonds, to be used to pay bond principal and interest, to pay the estimated cost of repairs, the incidental expenses of the district, and in any year in which any bonds shall fall due, an amount sufficient to pay the principal of the outstanding bonds as they mature.

Sec. 4. A new section is hereby added to said act, to be numbered section 97 and to read as follows:

Sec. 97. In addition to other powers in this act conferred, drainage districts shall have authority to borrow or procure money from the United States or any agency thereof, for the purpose of financing any of the operations of the district or financing or refinancing any or all of the obligations of the district, including outstanding warrants or any other indebtedness, or the funding or refunding or purchase of the bonds of the district, or for any of the other purposes of the district authorized by law. As evidence of such loan or loans and the obligations of such district to repay the same to the United States or any agency thereof, any drainage district upon being authorized so to do at an election held as hereinafter provided, may make and enter into a contract or contracts with the United States or any agency thereof, as a condition or requirement to the making of such loan or loans. Such district may issue bonds of such district as may be required by the contract last above provided for or without such contract, such bonds bearing such rate of interest, containing such terms and conditions, being in such forms and payable in such manner and from such source or sources of income and/or revenue as may be agreed upon between the district and the United States or any agency thereof and may obligate and bind the district for the payment of such bonds according to the terms thereof. Such bonds may be serial or sinking fund bonds and may be callable either by number or by lot and may be made payable to bearer or to the United States or any agency thereof and shall be authorized and issued in the manner substantially as provided for in this act for the issuance of new bonds for the purpose of paying or funding or refunding the indebtedness or some part thereof of the district, except as modified by this section.

Notwithstanding any provision of this act, a majority vote on the proposal to enter into and execute a contract with the United States or any agency thereof and to issue bonds as provided for by this section shall be sufficient to authorize the execution thereof and the issuance of such bonds and the notice of election and ballot need contain only the information required in the case of ordinary bond elections and that a proposal to enter into such contract and to issue bonds, if any, may be voted upon together as a single proposition.

Sec. 5. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and shall take effect immediately. The facts constituting such necessity are as follows:
There exists throughout the State of California economic conditions which make it impossible for many property owners to pay taxes and assessments levied upon their property and many of the drainage districts in this State are in default in the payment of obligations under their outstanding bonds, and the operations of such districts are seriously hindered and great distress exists therein. Many of such districts are negotiating with the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, an agency of the United States, for loans to enable them to reduce and refinance their outstanding indebtedness, and if such loans can be obtained speedily, the distress in such districts will be greatly alleviated. The completion of such loans is being delayed by questions as to the scope and meaning of the act hereby amended, and the amendments herein provided for are necessary to hasten the obtaining of such loans and the relief of large numbers of land owners, who will otherwise lose their property and be compelled to rely on governmental agencies for support and maintenance.

CHAPTER 192.

An act to amend section 1153 of the Probate Code, relating to publication of reports of the finances of the estates of decedents by the public administrator.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1153 of the Probate Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1153. The public administrator, or any person who received letters of administration while acting as public administrator, must return to the superior court, once in every six months, a report, under oath, of all estates of decedents which have come into his hands during the said six months, giving the value of each estate, the amount of money which he has received from each estate, a statement of what he has done with it, and the amount of his fees and expenses incurred in each estate, and the balance, if any, in each estate, remaining in his hands. He must publish such report six times in some newspaper published in the county, or if there is none, then post the same, legibly written or printed, in the office of the county clerk of the county. One copy of the report must be filed with the papers in each estate so reported within sixty days after the first Monday in January and July of each year.

CHAPTER 193.

An act to amend sections 800 and 802 of the Penal Code, relating to limitation of criminal actions.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 800 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

800. An indictment for any other felony than murder, the embezzlement of public money, or the falsification of public records, must be found, an information filed or case certified to the superior court, within three years after its commission.

Sec. 2. Section 502 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

802. If, when the offense is committed, the defendant is out of the State, the indictment may be found, an information filed, or case certified to the superior court within the term herein limited after his coming within the State, and no time during which the defendant is not an inhabitant of, or usually resident within this State, is part of the limitation.

CHAPTER 194.

An act to amend section 573 of the Probate Code of the State of California, relating to actions which may be maintained against executors and administrators.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 573 of the Probate Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

573. Actions for the recovery of any property, real or personal, or for the possession thereof, or to quiet title thereto, or to determine any adverse claim thereon, and all actions founded upon contracts, may be maintained by and against executors and administrators in all cases in which the same might have been maintained by or against their respective testators or intestates, and all actions by the State of California or any political subdivision thereof founded upon any statutory liability of any person for support, maintenance, aid, care or necessaries furnished to him or to his spouse, relatives or kindred, may be maintained against executors and administrators in all cases in which the same might have been maintained against their respective testators or intestates.

CHAPTER 195.

An act to amend section 788 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to the crab season in California.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 788 of the Fish and Game Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:
788. Crabs may be taken in districts 1½, 6, 7, 8, and 9 between December 15 and August 30. Crabs may be taken elsewhere in the State between November 1 and August 15. It shall be unlawful to take crabs for commercial purposes on Sunday in districts 10 and 11.

CHAPTER 196.

An act to amend section 790 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to the preservation of crabs and crab meat.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 790 of the Fish and Game Code of the State of California is hereby amended to read as follows:

790. It is unlawful to pickle, can, or otherwise preserve any crab, provided that fresh crab meat may be preserved in not less than five pound net weight containers by means of refrigeration, under regulations which the commission is hereby authorized to prescribe. Crab meat from outside the State may be imported into the State under regulations which the commission is authorized to prescribe.

CHAPTER 197.

An act to amend sections 1235 and 1238 of the Penal Code, relating to appeals in criminal cases.

[Approved by the Governor May 24, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1235 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1235. Either party in the prosecution by indictment, information, or complaint may appeal on questions of law alone, as prescribed in this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 1238 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1238. An appeal may be taken by the people:
1. From an order setting aside the indictment, information, or complaint;
2. From a judgment for the defendant on a demurrer to the indictment, accusation or information;
3. From an order granting a new trial;
4. From an order arresting judgment;
5. From an order made after judgment affecting the substantial rights of the people.
CHAPTER 198.

An act to amend sections 888 and 959 of the Penal Code, relating to indictments.

[Approved by the Governor May 24, 1935 In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 888 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

888. All public offenses triable in the superior courts must be prosecuted by indictment or information, except as provided in the next section, and except as provided by section 859a of this code.

Section 2. Section 959 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

959. The indictment, information or complaint is sufficient if it can be understood therefrom:
1. That it is entitled in a court having authority to receive it, though the name of the court be not stated.
2. If an indictment, that it was found by a grand jury of the county in which the court was held, or if an information, that it was subscribed and presented to the court by the district attorney of the county in which the court was held.
3. That the defendant is named, or, if his name can not be discovered, that he is described by a fictitious name, with a statement that his true name is to the jury or district attorney, as the case may be, unknown.
4. That the offense was committed at some place within the jurisdiction of the court, except where the act, though done without the local jurisdiction of the county, is triable therein.
5. That the offense was committed at some time prior to the time of the finding the indictment, filing of the information, or certifying the case to the superior court.

CHAPTER 199.

An act to amend sections 2482 and 2484 of the Civil Code, relating to limited partnerships.

[Approved by the Governor May 24, 1935 In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 2482 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

2482. If the certificate contains a false statement, one who suffers loss by reliance on such statement may hold liable any party to the certificate who knew the statement to be false,
(a) At the time he signed the certificate, or
(b) Subsequently, but within a sufficient time before the statement was relied upon to enable him to cancel or amend the certificate, or to file a petition for its cancellation or amendment as provided in subdivision three of section 2501.

Sec. 2. Section 2484 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

2484. After the formation of a limited partnership, additional limited partners may be admitted upon filing an amendment to the original certificate in accordance with the requirements of section 2501.

CHAPTER 200.

An act to amend the title, sections 1 and 2 of “An act to require security for the payment of wages of persons engaged in the mining industry,” approved April 25, 1933 (Stats. 1933, Chap. 161), relative to security for the payment of wages in the mining industry and providing penalties for violation of the provisions thereof.

[Approved by the Governor May 25, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Sec. 1. The title of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

An act to require security for the payment of wages of persons engaged in the mining industry and providing penalties for violation of the provisions thereof.

Sec. 2. Section 1 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Every person, firm, association or corporation, or agent, manager, superintendent or officer thereof, engaged in the business of extracting, or of extracting and refining or reducing metals or minerals other than petroleum, other than parties having a free and unencumbered title to the fee of the property being worked, and also other than mining partnerships in respect to the members of the partnerships, must, before commencing work in any period for which a single payment of wages is made, have on hand either physically or by deposit with a bank or trust company, in the county where such property is located, or, if there is no bank or trust company in the county, then in the bank or trust company nearest the property, cash or readily salable securities of a market value equivalent to such cash, in a sufficient amount to make the payment of wages of every person employed on the mining property, or in connection therewith, for such period.

Sec. 3. Section 2 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:
Sec. 2. Any person, firm, association or corporation, or agent, manager, superintendent or officer thereof, who violates, or omits to comply with, any provision of this act is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not exceeding five hundred dollars or imprisonment for not exceeding six months, or by both.

CHAPTER 201.

An act to amend section 871 of an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation and government of municipal corporations," approved March 13, 1883, relating to the assessment, levy and collection of taxes.

[Approved by the Governor May 25, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 871 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 871. The city council shall have the power, and it shall be its duty, to provide by ordinance a system for the assessment, levy and collection of all city taxes not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. Nothing herein shall prevent the city council from exercising the power granted by general laws of the State relative to the assessment and collection of taxes by county officers. All taxes assessed, together with any percentage imposed for delinquency and the costs of collection, shall constitute liens on the property assessed; and every tax upon personal property shall be a lien upon the real property of the owner thereof. The liens provided for in this section shall attach as of the first Monday in March of each year, and may be enforced by a sale of the real property affected, and the execution and delivery of all necessary certificates and deeds therefor, under such regulations as may be prescribed by ordinance, or by action in any court of competent jurisdiction to foreclose such liens. Any property sold for such taxes shall be subject to redemption within a redemption period of at least five years and upon such terms as the city council may prescribe by ordinance. All deeds made upon any sale of property for taxes or special assessments under the provisions of this chapter shall have the same force and effect in evidence as is or may hereafter be provided by law for deeds for property sold for nonpayment of county taxes.

Every tax has the effect of a judgment against the person, and every lien created by this section has the force and effect of an execution levied against all property of the delinquent. The judgment is not satisfied nor the lien removed until the taxes are paid or the property sold for the payment thereof; provided, that the lien of every tax whether now existing or hereafter attaching shall cease to exist for all purposes after thirty years from the time said tax became a lien; and every tax whether now existing or hereafter levied shall be conclusively presumed to have been paid after thirty years from the time the same became a lien, unless the property subject thereto has been sold in the manner provided by law for the payment of said tax.

CHAPTER 202.

An act to amend section 11870 of the Insurance Code, relating to workmen's compensation insurance of the State and its agencies and certain political subdivisions, public corporations and quasi public corporations.

Note.—See Stats. 1935, Ch. 145.

CHAPTER 203.

An act to add a new section to the Penal Code to be numbered 969 ½, relating to the amendment of a complaint to charge prior convictions.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code to be numbered 969 ½ and to read as follows:

969 ½. Whenever it shall be discovered that a pending complaint to which a plea of guilty has been made under section 859a of this code does not charge all prior felonies of which the defendant has been convicted either in this State or elsewhere, said complaint may be forthwith amended to charge such prior convictions or convictions and such amendments may and shall be made upon order of the court. The defendant shall thereupon be arraigned before the court to which the complaint has been certified and must be asked whether he has suffered such previous conviction. If he answers that he has, his answer must be entered by the clerk in the minutes of the court, and must, unless withdrawn by consent of the court, be conclusive of the fact of his having suffered such previous conviction in all subsequent proceedings. If he answers that he has not, his answer must be entered by the clerk in the minutes of the court, and the question whether or not he has suffered such previous conviction must be tried by a jury impanelled for that purpose, unless a jury is waived, in which case it may be tried by the court. The refusal of the defendant to answer is equivalent to a denial that he has suffered such previous conviction.

CHAPTER 204.

An act to add section 615.1 to the Fish and Game Code, relating to fish in districts 3 and 3A. [Approved by the Governor May 25, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 615.1 is hereby added to the Fish and Game Code to read as follows:

615.1. In districts 3 and 3A, trout may be taken in the San Lorenzo River and its tributaries from May 1 to June 30; steelhead trout may be taken in the San Lorenzo River, but not in its tributaries, from the mouth of the river to the confluence of the river and Boulder Creek, from November 1 to February 1; the bag limit on steelhead is two per day, and not more than one bag limit may be possessed by one person during one day. It is unlawful to use or to possess within 100 yards of the San Lorenzo River or its tributaries any landing gear, gaffs, nets or spears.

CHAPTER 205.

An act to amend section 441 of the Political Code, relating to rates of interest on registered warrants. [Approved by the Governor May 25, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 441 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

441. Whenever the State Controller draws his warrant upon the State Treasurer payable out of the general fund in the State treasury, and said warrant represents an amount in excess of the unapplied money in the general fund, the State Controller shall upon the date that such warrant is drawn present such warrant to the State Treasurer, who shall endorse upon the back thereof the date of presentation by the Controller and that the same is not paid for want of funds and bears interest at the rate fixed by the Governor, Treasurer and Controller from the date of such registration to and including the date upon which the State Treasurer first advertises that said warrant is payable upon presentation. Endorsement by the Treasurer in the manner hereinabove prescribed shall constitute the registration of such warrant.

The Governor, Treasurer and Controller, acting as a committee shall by majority vote fix the rate of interest paid on warrants registered hereunder but such rate shall not exceed five per cent per annum.

After the registration thereof the State Treasurer shall return warrants to the State Controller for distribution.

The State Controller shall furnish the State Treasurer with a separate warrant register for warrants which are registered under this section, and the State Treasurer shall stamp on said warrant register the date on which any warrant is registered and the date on which said warrant is first advertised as payable.

Whenever the State Controller deems that there are sufficient unapplied moneys in the general fund in the State treasury to pay all or some of the registered warrants outstanding against said general fund, he shall notify the State Treasurer of the numbers of the warrants which are to be redeemed. The State Treasurer shall immediately publish notice that said warrants are redeemable by advertising for six consecutive days, Sundays excepted, in newspapers publishing legal notices published in the city of Sacramento, in the city of San Francisco, and in the city of Los Angeles.

Said notice shall read substantially as follows:

"NOTICE TO HOLDERS OF STATE OF CALIFORNIA WARRANTS.

State Controller's warrants number ______ to number ______, inclusive, drawn against the general fund in the State treasury are now payable upon presentation to the State Treasurer.

(Name of State Treasurer)
State Treasurer."

Warrants registered in accordance with the provisions of this section shall cease to bear interest on the date following the day upon which said advertisements first appear.

After payment of support of the public school system, as provided for in section 14 of Article XIII of the Constitution, all moneys remaining in the general fund in the State treasury shall be first applied to the payment of the principal and interest of any outstanding bonds of the State of California as such principal and interest become due. If at any time it is necessary to register warrants for the payment of such principal and interest, warrants so registered shall constitute a prior lien in the order of their issuance on any moneys thereafter received into the general fund in the State treasury, and said warrants shall be paid before any other warrants regardless of the prior issuance of the latter.
For the purposes of this section "unapplied money" means "Unapplied money" defined.

[Approved by the Governor May 25, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 1354 is hereby added to the Fish and Game Code to read as follows:

1354. The commission may issue a permit to take, possess, purchase or dispose of frogs below the minimum sizes specified in section 1351 when such frogs are to be used for scientific or educational purposes.

CHAPTER 212.

An act to validate all proceedings for the formation of improvement districts within irrigation districts and all assessments heretofore made in any such improvement districts, to validate all warrants heretofore issued or to be issued, payable from the assessments levied in such improvement districts; and authorizing and directing the collection of the assessments in such improvement districts sufficient to pay the principal and interest of said warrants; validating and confirming all acts and proceedings of the board of directors of any irrigation district in connection with the acquisition and creation of improvement districts within irrigation districts, and the acquisition, construction, operation, maintenance and repair of improvements therein.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. When in any irrigation district organized and existing under the laws of the State of California, proceedings have been taken for the purpose of organizing any improvement district under the provisions of the "Irrigation District Improvement Act," all acts and proceedings of the board of directors of such irrigation district conducting the proceedings for the formation of such district and all other acts and proceedings leading up to and including the formation of such districts, including the petition for such formation in the form and manner in which such petition was heretofore approved by such board of directors, and all other acts and proceedings relative to the levy of any assessment in such district and all warrants heretofore issued, or to be issued pursuant to such acts and proceedings in any such district heretofore organized are hereby legalized, confirmed and validated. The power of the board of directors of such irrigation district conducting such proceedings in any such improvement district to make, levy, and collect said assessment, and to issue warrants payable therefrom, is hereby ratified, confirmed, and approved; and said warrants are hereby declared to be and shall be in the form and manner in which the same have heretofore been issued, or are to be issued, if not now outstanding, the legal and valid obligations of and against such improvement district, payable from the proceeds of the assessment levied or to be levied therein; and all other acts and proceedings heretofore taken under the provisions of said "Irrigation District Improvement Act," or purporting to be taken under said act, are hereby legalized, confirmed and validated. No error or informality in any such proceedings heretofore taken under said "Irrigation District Improvement Act" shall in any wise invalidate the formation of any such improvement district, the levy of any assessment therein or the issuance of any warrants payable from such assessment or any other act or proceeding relative thereto, from and after the effective date of this act, all such proceedings and acts being hereby ratified, confirmed, approved and validated.

SEC. 2. For the purpose of paying the interest on any warrants issued by any irrigation district under the provision of said "Irrigation District Improvement Act" as the same becomes due, and the principal thereof, the assessors, treasurers, collectors, board of directors and other officers of the respective irrigation districts organized under the laws of this State in which such improvement districts shall have been organized or attempted to have been organized under said "Irrigation District Improvement Act," shall have the same powers and perform the same duties as are provided by said act for the assessment, levy and collection of the special assessments and the payment of the principal and interest of the warrants provided to be made and issued under the provisions of said act; and it shall be and hereby is made the duty of the board of directors of any irrigation district in which such improvement district shall have heretofore been organized or attempted to have been organized to levy and collect the special assessment heretofore made or to be made in such improvement district clearly sufficient to pay the principal and interest of the warrants issued or to be issued on account of such proceedings, and said boards of directors are hereby vested with power and jurisdiction to do all and singular the things herein and in said "Irrigation District Improvement Act" required to be done for the purpose of providing funds sufficient to pay the principal and interest of said warrants.

CHAPTER 213.

An act granting certain tide and submerged lands of the State of California to the city of San Buenaventura, upon certain trusts and conditions.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. There is hereby granted to the city of San Buenaventura, a municipal corporation in the county of Ventura, State of California, all the right, title and interest of the State of California, held by said State by virtue of its sovereignty, in and to all the tidelands and submerged lands (whether filled or unfilled) situated below the line of mean high tide of the Pacific Ocean and lying between the prolongation of the west boundary line of the city of San Buenaventura into the said Pacific Ocean and the prolongation of the east boundary line of the said city of San Buenaventura into the Pacific Ocean, to be forever held by said city, and by its successors, in trust for the uses and purposes and upon the express conditions following, to wit:

(a) That said lands may be used by said city for the establishment, improvement and conduct of its harbor and for the construction, maintenance and operation thereon of wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays, and other utilities, structures and appliances necessary or convenient for the promotion of commerce and navigation and fisheries and for the establishment and maintenance of bath houses and bathing facilities, and for such other recreational facilities necessary or convenient for the inhabitants of said city; but said uses shall not be deemed to deprive the city of San Buenaventura of the rights granted to it by Article XVIII of its charter, to appoint harbor commissioners, to create or be a part of a harbor district, and to take any and all other steps that it may from time to time deem advisable for the improvement and maintenance of its waterfront and harbor and for the development and conduct of port facilities and commerce; and said city may, in pursuance of the provisions of said Article XVIII of the said charter, lease any portion of the waterfront for public recreational purposes for a term of not exceeding ten years, and a lease may be made for such other purposes or for a longer period if such lease be submitted to the electors and approved by a vote of two-thirds of those voting thereon, if the purposes of the lease are consistent with the trust upon which said lands are held by the State of Caliifornia and with the requirements of commerce and navigation of said harbor;

(b) That said harbor shall be improved by said city without expense to the State of California, and it shall always remain a public harbor for all purposes of commerce and navigation, and the State of California shall have at all times the right to use without charge all wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other improvements constructed on said land or any part thereof for any vessel or other water craft, or any railroad, owned and operated by the State of California;

(c) That in the management, conduct or operation of said harbor or any of the utilities, structures or appliances mentioned in paragraph (a) no discrimination in rates, tolls or charges in facilities for any use or service in connection ther-with shall ever be made, authorized or permitted by said city;

(d) That there is reserved for the people of the State of California the absolute right to fish in the waters of said harbor, with the right of convenient access to said waters over said lands for said purpose;

(e) That the said city shall not, upon said land, prospect for, nor remove therefrom, any oil, gas or other hydrocarbon substances, nor shall it suffer or permit the removal of same.

(f) That in the event drilling for oil, gas, or other hydrocarbon substances, shall take place upon land other than that herein granted, and so located that like drilling shall be reasonably requisite for the proper protection of the land hereby granted from drainage by such wells, then the State of Caliifornia, for itself and for all persons authorized by it, expressly reserves the right to enter upon the said land for the purpose drilling thereon such well or wells as shall be reasonably requisite for the proper protection of said land from drainage, and may produce and save oil, gas, or other hydrocarbon substances, from such well or wells, free from any claim of the said city.
CHAPTER 214.

An act to amend sections 1011, 1012 and 1072 of the Agricultural Code, relating to economic poisons.

[Approved by the Governor May 27, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1011 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1011. It is unlawful to pack, ship, store, deliver for shipment, or sell any fresh or dried fruits or vegetables carrying spray residue or other added deleterious ingredients in excess of the quantity prescribed under the laws of the United States, or in excess of 0.010 grain fluorine, 0.010 grain arsenic trioxide, or 0.018 grain lead per pound of fruit or vegetable.

Sec. 2. Section 1012 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1012. The director may:

(a) Enter every place within the State where fresh or dried fruits or vegetables are produced, packed, stored, shipped, transported, delivered for shipment, or sold and inspect all fresh or dried fruits or vegetables found therein or in transit.

(b) Seize and quarantine any or all lots of fresh or dried fruits or vegetables which carry or are likely to carry spray residue or other added deleterious ingredients pending examination and chemical analysis and final disposition.

(c) When any lot of fresh or dried fruits or vegetables has been found to carry spray residue in excess of the quantity prescribed by the laws of the United States, the director may permit the lot to be cleaned or reconditioned and release such lot after such treatment if the same is found to comply with the provisions of this article.

(d) The director shall make rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this article.

Sec. 3. Section 1072 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1072. The director may, after hearing, cancel the registration of, or refuse to register, any economic poison:

(a) Which is of little or no value for the purpose for which it is intended, or which is detrimental to vegetation, except weeds, to domestic animals, or to the public health and safety when properly used, and may require such practical demonstration as may be necessary to determine said facts.

(b) Concerning which false or misleading statements are made or implied by the registrant or his agent, either verbally or in writing or in the form of advertising literature.

The director may cancel the license of, or refuse to license any manufacturer, importer, or dealer in economic poison who repeatedly violates any of the provisions of this article or the rules and regulations of the director.
CHAPTER 215.

An act to amend section 34 of, and to add section 34.5 to, the Agricultural Code, relating to cooperative agreements for the purpose of enforcing provisions relating to standardization and collaborative services.

[Approved by the Governor May 27, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 34 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

34. The director may enter into cooperative agreements with individuals, associations, boards of supervisors, and with departments, divisions, bureaus, boards or commissions of this State or of the United States for the purpose of eradicating, controlling or destroying infectious diseases or pests within this State, or with boards of supervisors for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this code relating to fruit, nut, and vegetable standards.

SEC. 2. Section 34.5 is hereby added to the Agricultural Code to read as follows:

34.5. The director may also arrange for the services of individuals employed by the United States, the State, or a county on a collaborative basis and allow them a reasonable fee and necessary expenses incurred when serving the department in a collaborative capacity.

CHAPTER 216.

An act to amend section 805 of the Agricultural Code, relating to persimmons.

[Approved by the Governor May 27, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 805 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

805. Oriental persimmons shall be mature but not overripe, shall be free from mold, and decay; and free from serious damage, due to cuts, bruises, breaking of the skin, growth cracks, hail, or other causes. Damage to any one persimmon is not serious unless it causes a waste of ten per cent, by weight, of the individual persimmon.

Not more than ten per cent, by count, of the oriental persimmons in any one container or bulk lot, may be below these requirements, but not to exceed one-half of this tolerance, shall be allowed for any one cause.
Packed oriental persimmons shall not vary in any one container more than one-half of one inch in diameter, when measured through the widest portion of the cross-section.

No oriental persimmon of the Hachiya variety shall be considered mature unless at the time of picking ninety per cent of the surface has attained an orange or reddish color. No oriental persimmon of other varieties shall be considered mature unless at the time of picking at least seventy-five per cent of the surface has attained an orange or reddish color and the remaining per cent of the surface has attained a yellowish green color.

CHAPTER 217.

An act to amend sections 682, 806, 811, 827, 849, 877, and 878 of the Penal Code, relating to proceedings before the committing magistrate, and to add a new section to the Penal Code numbered 877a, relating to the commitment by the magistrate on plea of guilty.

[Approved by the Governor May 27, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 682 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

682. Every public offense must be prosecuted by indictment or information, except:

1. Where proceedings are had for the removal of civil officers of the State;
2. Offenses arising in the militia when in actual service, and in the land and naval forces in the time of war, or which the State may keep, with the consent of Congress, in time of peace;
3. Offenses tried in municipal, justices' and police courts;
4. All misdemeanors of which jurisdiction has been conferred upon superior courts sitting as juvenile courts;
5. A felony to which the defendant has pleaded guilty to the complaint before a magistrate, where permitted by law.

SEC. 2. Section 806 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

806. The complaint is the allegation in writing made to a court or magistrate that a person has been guilty of some designated offense. When the complaint is used as a pleading to which the defendant pleads guilty under section 859a of this code, the complaint shall contain the same allegations, including the charge of prior conviction or convictions of crime, as are required for indictments and informations and, wherever applicable, shall be construed and shall have substantially the same effect as provided in this code for indictments and informations.

SEC. 3. Section 811 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

23-A—22099
811. When a complaint is laid before a magistrate of the commission of a public offense, triable within the county, he must examine on oath the complainant or prosecutor, and any witnesses he may produce, and take their depositions in writing, and cause them to be subscribed by the parties making them.

Sec. 4. Section 827 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

827. When a complaint is laid before a magistrate of the commission of a public offense triable in another county of the State, but showing that the defendant is in the county where the complaint is laid, the same proceedings must be had as prescribed in this chapter, except that the warrant must require the defendant to be taken before the nearest or most accessible magistrate of the county in which the offense is triable, and the depositions of the complainant or prosecutor, and of the witnesses who may have been produced, must be delivered by the magistrate to the officer to whom the warrant is delivered.

Sec. 5. Section 849 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

849. When an arrest is made without a warrant by a peace officer or private person, the person arrested must, without unnecessary delay, be taken before the nearest or most accessible magistrate in the county in which the arrest is made, and a complaint stating the charge against the person, must be laid before such magistrate.

Sec. 6. Section 877 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

877. The commitment must be to the following effect except when it is made under the provisions of section 859a of this code.

County of _______ (as the case may be).
The people of the State of California to the sheriff of the county of _______:
An order having been this day made by me, that A. B. be held to answer upon a charge of (stating briefly the nature of the offense, and giving as near as may be the time when and the place where the same was committed), you are commanded to receive him into your custody and detain him until he is legally discharged.

Dated this _______ day of _______ nineteen _______.

Sec. 7. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code to be numbered 877a and to read as follows:

877a. When the commitment is made under the provisions of section 859a of this code, it must be made to the following effect:

County of _______ (as the case may be).
The people of the State of California to the sheriff of the county of _______:
A. B. having pleaded guilty to the offense of (stating briefly the nature of the offense, and giving as near as may be the time when and the place where the same was committed), you are commanded to receive him into your custody and detain him until he is legally discharged.
Dated this ______ day of ______ nineteen ______.
Sec. 8. Section 878 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:
878. On holding the defendant to answer or on a plea of guilty where permitted by law, the magistrate may take from each of the material witnesses examined before him on the part of the people a written undertaking, to the effect that he will appear and testify at the court to which the depositions and statements or case are to be sent, or that he will forfeit the sum of five hundred dollars.

CHAPTER 218.

An act to amend section 792 of the Agricultural Code, relating to avocados.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 792 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:
792. Avocados shall be free from decay, disease, overripeness and rancidity. Avocados shall also be free from all defects, other than those hereinbefore mentioned, which singly or in the aggregate cause a waste of fifteen per cent or more, by weight, of the entire avocado, including the skin and seed.
Not more than five per cent, by count, of the avocados in any one container or bulk lot may be below the foregoing requirements.
• Defect” includes damage due to insect injuries, cuts, growth cracks, bruises, sunburn, freezing injury or other causes.

All avocados, at the time of picking, and at all times thereafter, shall contain not less than eight per cent by weight of oil content.

When packed, avocados in any one container shall not vary in weight by more than thirty-three and one-third per cent of any avocado in the container.
CHAPTER 219.

An act relating to tare allowances on fruit, grain, and wool sold in bags.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Every person who purchases fruit, grain, or wool in burlap bags owned by the seller and deducts a tare on account of such bag, shall pay to the seller thereof at the time of delivery the salvage value of such bag after using.

With grain bags, such salvage value shall be determined by taking as a basis the opening price for the season of San Quentin bags as promulgated by the State Board of Prison Directors, of which basic price fifty per cent shall be paid to said owner for new bags and twenty-five per cent for used or second-hand bags.

Said values shall continue to be paid until such time as a change in price shall be promulgated by said prison board whereon a new base shall thereby be established.

The warehouse receipt shall indicate new or old bags.

The word "grain" as used herein shall include wheat, barley, corn, oats, rye and grain sorghums.

Sec. 2. The violation of the provisions of this act is a misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 220.

Statutes 1933, p. 394. An act to amend section 1310 of the Fish and Game Code, and to add thereto section 1340.6, relating to fur-bearing mammals.

[Approved by the Governor May 27, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 1310 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1310. The following are fur-bearing mammals: pine marten, fisher, wolverene, mink, river otter, grey fox, cross fox, silver fox, red fox, kitfox, and muskrat.

New section Sec. 2. Section 1340.6 is hereby added to the Fish and Game Code to read as follows:

CHAPTER 221.

An act to amend sections 798.6 and 801 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to abalones.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 798.6 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

798.6. In district 2 not more than 5 abalones may be possessed during one day, by any person to whom a sporting fishing license has been issued, except that any person conducting a market, or restaurant, where abalones are sold to the public may possess any number of lawfully taken abalones.

SEC. 2. Section 801 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

801. In districts 7, and 18, the bag limit is 10 abalones per day, and in district 10 the bag limit is 5 abalones per day, when the abalones are taken in water less than twenty feet in depth. Abalones so taken may not be sold.

CHAPTER 222.

An act to validate the organization and existence of municipal improvement districts.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whenever the legislative body of any municipality has heretofore declared any portion of such municipality to be a municipal improvement district under the provisions of an act entitled, "An act to provide for the formation of districts within municipalities for the acquisition or construction of public improvements, works and public utilities; for the issuance, sale and payment of bonds of such districts to meet the cost of such improvements; and for the acquisition or construction of such improvements," approved April 20, 1915, or under the provisions of such act as amended, and such district has existed as such for a period of six months prior to the taking effect of this act, all acts and proceedings of such municipality and all acts of all public officers leading up to and including the formation of such district are hereby legalized, ratified and confirmed and declared valid for all intents and purposes, and any such district is hereby declared to be a legal municipal improvement district.

"Highway Carriers' Act."

An act regulating the use of public highways for commercial purposes by certain motor vehicles operated thereon for the transportation of property for compensation; preventing discriminations between various forms of transportation; conferring powers upon the Railroad Commission with respect to the transportation of property for compensation by said motor vehicles; providing penalties for the violation of this act, and repealing all acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

PREAMBLE.

The use of the public highways for the transportation of property for compensation is a business affected with a public interest and it is hereby declared that the purpose of this act is to preserve for the public the full benefit and use of public highways consistent with the needs of commerce without unnecessary congestion or wear and tear upon such highways; to secure to the people just and reasonable rates for transportation by carriers operating upon such highways; to secure full and unrestricted flow of traffic by motor carriers over such highways which will adequately meet reasonable public demands by providing for the regulation of rates of all transportation agencies so that adequate and dependable service by all necessary transportation agencies shall be maintained and the full use of the highways preserved to the public.

Definitions.

Section 1. (a) The term "corporation" when used in this act includes a corporation, a company, an association and a joint stock association.

(b) The term "person" when used in this act includes an individual, a firm or a copartnership.

(c) The term "public highway" when used in this act includes every public street, road or highway in this State.

(d) The term "Railroad Commission," when used in this act means the Railroad Commission of the State of California.

(e) The term "motor vehicle" when used in this act means every motor truck, tractor, or other self-propelled vehicle used for transportation of property over the public highways, otherwise than upon fixed rails or tracks, and any trailer, semitrailer, dolly or other vehicle drawn thereby.

(f) The term "highway carrier" when used in this act means every corporation or person, their lessees, trustees, receivers or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever engaged in transportation of property for compensation or hire as a business over any public highway in this State by means of a motor vehicle or motor vehicles. However, it does not include carriers operating exclusively within the limits of a single incorporated city or city and county, nor does it include persons rendering casual transportation services as an accommodation, and not in the usual or ordinary course of business of such person, nor does it include persons hauling their own products.

(g) The term "highway common carrier" when used in this act means every highway carrier operating as a common carrier subject to regulations as such by the Railroad Commission under Chapter 213 of the Statutes of 1917, as amended.

(h) The term "radial highway common carrier" when used in this act means every highway carrier operating as a common carrier not heretofore subject to regulation as such by the Railroad Commission under Chapter 213 of the Statutes of 1917, as amended.

(i) The term "highway contract carrier" when used in this act means every highway carrier other than a highway common carrier as defined in subsection (g) and every radial highway common carrier as defined in subsection (h).

Sec. 2. No highway carrier other than a highway common carrier shall engage in the business of the transportation of property for compensation by motor vehicle over any public highway in this State, except in accordance with the provisions of this act, which the Legislature hereby declares to be enacted under the power of the State to regulate the use of public highways.

Sec. 3. Except as hereinafter provided, no highway carrier, other than a highway common carrier, shall engage in the business of transportation of property for compensation by motor vehicle on any public highway in this State without first having obtained from the Railroad Commission a permit authorizing such operation; provided, however, that any highway carrier subject to the provisions of this act, who is in business on the effective date of this act, shall file his application with the commission within thirty days after this act shall take effect. Any highway carrier desiring a permit to operate hereunder as a highway carrier other than a highway common carrier, shall file a petition therefor with the Railroad Commission. Such petition shall set forth the name and address of the applicant; the names and addresses of its officers, if any; full information concerning the financial condition and physical properties of applicant; and such other information necessary to the enforcement of this act, as the Railroad Commission may, by order require. Upon compliance with this act a permit must be issued by the commission, but no such permit shall be granted to a foreign corporation. Pending the issuance of any permit by the commission, the continuance of such operation shall be lawful. Any operating permit not exercised for a period of one year shall lapse and terminate.

Sec. 4. No person or corporation shall be permitted by the Railroad Commission to engage, nor shall any person or corporation engage in the transportation of property on the public highway, both as a common carrier and as a highway contract carrier of the same commodities between the same points.

Any person or corporation who, prior to the effective date of this act, operated as both a common carrier and as a highway contract carrier, must, in order to continue operation after the effective date of this act, elect whether such person or corporation will continue to operate as a highway contract carrier, or as a common carrier of the same commodities between the same points.

Sec. 5. The Railroad Commission shall, in granting permits under the provisions of this act, require the highway carrier to procure, and continue in effect during the life of the permit, adequate protection, as required in section 6 hereof, against liability imposed by law upon such highway carrier for the payment of damages for personal bodily injuries (including death resulting therefrom) in the amount of not less than five thousand dollars on account of bodily injuries to, or death of, one person; and protection against a total liability of such highway carrier on account of bodily injuries to, or death of, more than one person, as a result of any one accident, in the amount of not less than ten thousand dollars; and protection in an amount of not less than five thousand dollars for one accident resulting in damage or destruction of property whether the property of one, or more than one claimant.

Sec. 6. The protection required under section 5 shall be evidenced by the deposit with the Railroad Commission, covering each vehicle used or to be used under the permit applied for, of a policy of public liability and property damage insurance, issued by a company licensed to write such insurance in the State of California; or of a bond of a surety company licensed to write surety bonds in the State of California; or of a personal bond, with such sureties as the Railroad Commission shall find adequate to guarantee the protection prescribed in section 5 hereof; or it shall be evidenced by a trust fund in the amount of fifteen thousand dollars, to be held in trust by some institution or person acceptable to the Railroad Commission; or by a combination of any of or all of said methods in such manner that the aggregate of the protection or funds available therefor shall equal the principal sum of not less than fifteen thousand dollars, and such highway carrier shall have the option of the method to be used in obtaining such protection, and may change from one method to another, from time to time, with the consent of the Railroad Commission.

Sec. 7. The protection against liability as outlined in section 5 hereof must be continued in effect during the life of the permit, and the policy of insurance, surety bond or personal bond shall be not cancellable on less than ten (10) days written notice to the Railroad Commission. The Railroad Commission shall have power to establish such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of sections 5 to 7, inclusive.

Sec. 8. Each highway carrier shall display on each vehicle operated by it, a distinctive license plate in the form to be prescribed by the Railroad Commission, showing the classification, as herein provided, to which such carrier belongs, but no such license plate shall be issued by the said commission until a permit under this act, or a certificate of public convenience and necessity as provided for under the provisions of Chapter 213 of the Statutes of 1917, as amended, has been issued to such carrier.

Sec. 9. A fee of three dollars ($3.00) shall be paid to the Railroad Commission for filing each application for an operating permit. Each permittee shall also pay to the Railroad Commission on or before the first day of January of each year, a fee of one dollar ($1.00) for the reregistration of his permit. All moneys collected by the Railroad Commission under this act shall be deposited at least once a month into the State treasury, to the credit of the general fund, and a detailed statement thereof shall be transmitted to the State Controller.

Sec. 10. The Railroad Commission shall, upon complaint or upon its own initiative without complaint, establish or approve just, reasonable, and nondiscriminatory maximum or minimum or maximum and minimum rates to be charged by any highway carrier other than a highway common carrier, now subject to the jurisdiction of said commission under Chapter 213 of the Laws of 1917, and as amended, for the transportation of property and for accessorial service performed by said highway carrier.

In establishing or approving such rates the commission shall take into account and give due and reasonable consideration to the cost of all of the transportation services performed, including length of haul, any additional transportation service performed, or to be performed, to, from, or beyond the regularly established termini of common carriers or of any accessorial service and the value of the commodity transported and the value of the facility reasonably necessary to perform such transportation service.

In event the commission establishes minimum rates for transportation services by highway carriers, such rates shall not exceed the current rates of common carriers for the transportation of the same kind of property between the same points.

It shall be unlawful for any highway carrier to charge or collect any lesser rate than the minimum rate or greater rate than the maximum rate established by the commission under this section.

The commission shall make such rules and regulations as may be necessary to the application of the rates established or approved under the provisions of this act.

Sec. 11. If any highway carrier other than a common carrier desires to perform any transportation or accessorial service at a lesser rate than the minimum rates so established, the Railroad Commission shall, upon finding that the proposed rate is reasonable authorize such rates less than the minimum rates established in accordance with the provisions of section 10 hereof.

SEC. 12. It shall be unlawful for any highway carrier or his agent, servant or employee, directly or indirectly, to offer, remit or give to any shipper or consignee, his agent, servant or employee directly or indirectly, any commission or other consideration to induce such person to deliver to such highway carrier property to be transported; and it likewise shall be unlawful for any shipper or consignee, his agent, servant or employee, to receive from such highway carrier, directly or indirectly, any such commission or consideration as an induce-ment to secure the transportation of any such property.

SEC. 13. In all respects in which the Railroad Commission has power and authority under the Constitution of this State or this act, applications and complaints may be made and filed with the Railroad Commission, process issued, hearings held, opinions, orders and decisions made and filed, petitions for rehearing filed and acted upon, and petitions for writs of review or mandate filed with the Supreme Court of this State, considered and disposed of by said court, in regard to the matters provided for in this act, in the same manner, under the same conditions and subject to the same limitations and with the same effect specified in the Public Utilities Act, so far as applicable.

SEC. 14. Any person or any director, officer, agent or employee of a corporation who shall violate any of the provisions of this act or of any operating permit issued hereunder to any highway carrier, or any order, rule or regulation of said commission, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than three months, or both. The operating permit, if any, shall, at the discretion of said commission, be subject to cancellation for such violation, and said commission shall thereupon require the removal from such vehicle operated thereunder of any distinctive symbols or license plates herein provided for, which may have been issued therefor.

SEC. 15. Any person or corporation who violates or fails to comply with any provision of this act, or who fails, omits or neglects to obey, observe or comply with any order, decision, rule, direction or requirement or any part or provision thereof, of the commission, is subject to a penalty of not more than five hundred dollars for each offense.

SEC. 16. Every violation of the provisions of this act or of any order, decision, decree, rule, direction, demand or requirement of the commission, or any part or portion thereof by any corporation or person is a separate and distinct offense, and in case of a continuing violation each day's continuance thereof shall be and be deemed to be a separate and distinct offense.

Sec. 17. In construing and enforcing the provisions of this act relating to penalties, the act, omission or failure of any officer, agent or employee of any person or corporation, acting within the scope of his official duties or employment, shall in every case be and be deemed to be the act, omission or failure of the employing person or corporation.

Sec. 18. Actions to recover penalties under this act shall be brought in the name of the people of the State of California, in the superior court of the county, or city and county, in which the cause or some part thereof arose, or in which the corporation complained of, if any, has its principal place of business, or in which the person, if any, complained of, resides. Such action shall be commenced and prosecuted to final judgment by the attorney of the commission. In any such action, all penalties incurred up to the time of commencing the same may be sued for and recovered. In all such actions, the procedure and rules of evidence shall be the same as in ordinary civil actions. All penalties recovered by the State in any such action, together with the costs thereof, shall be paid into the State treasury to the credit of the general fund. Any such action may be compromised or discontinued on application of the commission upon such terms as the court may approve and order.

Sec. 19. All penalties accruing under this act shall be cumulative of each other, and a suit for the recovery of one penalty shall not be a bar to or affect the recovery of any other penalty or forfeiture or be a bar to any criminal prosecution against any person or corporation, or any officer, director, agent or employee thereof, or any other corporation or person or be a bar to the exercise by the commission of its power to punish for contempt.

Sec. 20. The provisions of this act shall not apply to:
(a) Transportation service all of which is rendered in territory within the exterior boundaries of an incorporated city, or city and county; provided that such territory shall include the area of any incorporated city situated wholly within such outside limits;
(b) The transportation of baggage and express when such transportation is incidental to that of passengers by passenger stage corporations as defined in section 234 of the Public Utilities Act.

Sec. 21. If any section, sentence, clause or part of this act, is for any reason held to be unconstitutional such decision shall not affect the remaining portions of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act, and each section, sentence, clause, or part thereof, except as hereinafter specifically provided, irrespective of the fact that one or more sections, sentences, clauses or parts be declared unconstitutional,
SEC. 22. Neither this act nor any provision hereof shall apply to or be construed as a regulation of commerce with foreign nations or among the several states, except in so far as the same may be permitted under the provisions of the Constitution and the acts of Congress of the United States.

SEC. 23. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 24. This act shall be known as the "Highway Carriers' Act."

CHAPTER 224.

An act to amend sections 3727 and 3728 of the Political Code, relating to the entering of values and acreages in the assessment book and the preparation of duplicate statistical statements of assessments.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3727 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3727. The county auditor, as soon as the assessment book is delivered to him by the clerk of the board of supervisors, must proceed to add up the valuations, and enter the total valuation of each kind of property, and the total valuation of all property, on the assessment book.

SEC. 2. Section 3728 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3728. The auditor must, on or before the second Monday in August in each year, prepare from the "assessment book" of such year, as corrected by the board of supervisors, duplicate statements, showing in separate columns—

1. The total value of all property.
2. The value of real estate.
3. The value of improvements.
4. The value of personal property, exclusive of money.
5. The amount of money.
6. Such other information as the State Board of Equalization may require.

CHAPTER 225.

An act providing for the exemption from taxation of personal property brought within the State of California exclusively for purposes of use, display or exhibition at expositions, fairs, carnivals or public exhibits of literary, scientific, educational, religious or artistic works, and for claim of exemption.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. All personal property brought within the State of California exclusively for purposes of use, display or exhibition at any exposition, fair, carnival or public exhibit of literary, scientific, educational, religious or artistic works within the State of California and to be removed from the State following such use, display or exhibition, and subject to taxation in some other State, shall be free and exempt from all taxation so long as used for said purposes;

Sec. 2. Any person, institution, corporation, partnership or association claiming property to be exempt from taxation under this section, or on whose behalf a claim for exemption is made, shall make a return thereof to the assessor annually the same as property listed for taxation and shall accompany the same by an affidavit which shall show that the property was brought within the State of California exclusively for purposes of use, display or exhibition at an exposition, fair, carnival or public exhibit of literary, scientific, educational, religious or artistic works and is being so used, and that taxes have been paid for the current year in some other State or foreign country.

CHAPTER 226.

An act to to remove the debris and snags from the Sacramento River between Chico Landing and the head of navigation near Red Bluff, to provide a survey for the work required, to provide for the furnishing of necessary funds therefor by the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works, and to provide for the conduct of the necessary work by the State Emergency Relief Administration.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Under the supervision of the Department of Public Works of the State of California, there shall be a survey made of the condition of the Sacramento River between Chico Landing and the head of navigation near Red Bluff to determine what work is necessary to remove the debris and snags therefrom in order to make the Sacramento River navigable between Chico Landing and the head of navigation near Red Bluff. Upon the completion of such survey such work shall be done, under the supervision of the State Department of Public Works, as is necessary to remove all the debris and snags from such portion of the Sacramento River to render the same navigable.

Sec. 2. Such survey shall be made and such work shall be done when and if the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works allots the necessary money therefor and when and if the State Emergency Relief Administration furnishes the necessary labor therefor.

CHAPTER 227.

An act to amend sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, and 19 of an act entitled "An act defining credit unions, providing for their incorporation, powers, management and supervision," approved March 31, 1927, relating to the regulation of credit unions.

[Approved by the Governor May 27, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. A credit union is a cooperative corporation, organized for the twofold purpose of promoting thrift among its members and creating a source of credit for them at legal rates of interest for provident purposes.

Corporations may be incorporated under and by virtue of this act in the same manner as corporations under and by virtue of Title I of Part IV, Division First of the Civil Code of the State of California, including any amendment or revision thereof, or any sections hereafter enacted in lieu thereof, except as otherwise herein provided. The articles of incorporation shall set forth the following:

1. The name of the corporation, which shall include the words "credit union."

2. If the corporation be formed without authorized shares of stock, the number of authorized members or memberships.

Sec. 2. Section 2 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. The by-laws shall prescribe the manner in which the business of the credit union shall be conducted with reference to the following matters:

1. The purpose of the corporation.
2. The qualifications for membership.
3. The date of the annual meeting during January; the manner of conducting meetings; the method by which members shall be notified of meetings, and the number of members shall constitute a quorum.
4. The number of directors necessary to constitute a quorum, and the compensation and duties of officers elected by the directors.
5. The powers and duties of the supervisory committee and the number of members, not less than three, of which it shall be composed.

6. The powers and duties of the credit committee and the number of members not less than three, of which it shall be composed.

7. The conditions upon which shares may be issued, paid for, transferred and withdrawn.

8. The fines, if any, which shall be charged for failure to punctually meet obligations of the corporation.

9. The conditions upon which certificates may be issued and withdrawn.

10. The manner in which the funds of the corporation shall be employed.

11. The conditions upon which loans may be made and repaid.

12. The maximum rate of interest that may be charged upon loans.

13. The method of receipting for money paid on account of shares, certificates or loans.

14. The manner in which the guaranty fund shall be accumulated.

15. The manner in which dividends may be determined and paid to members.

Sec. 3. Section 3 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 3. Every credit union shall have power:

1. To issue shares to those persons qualified for membership and to issue shares in joint tenancy with any relative to be designated by any credit union member.

2. To charge an entrance fee to subscribers for such shares.

3. To charge a reasonable fee for the transfer of its shares.

4. To receive money and accumulate funds to be loaned and to loan the same to members and to execute certificates for the money received, which shall specify the date, amount, rate of interest, and when the principal and interest are payable.

5. To lend money to its members upon such terms and conditions as by-laws provide and as the credit committee shall approve, at rates not exceeding one per centum per month, inclusive of all charges incident to the making of such loan.

6. To deposit any moneys received by it and not lent to members, as provided in section 6 of this act.

7. To borrow money to an amount not exceeding forty per centum of the capital of such corporation.

8. To fine members for failure to meet punctually obligations to such credit union.

9. To expel members, as provided in section 12 of this act.

10. To impress a lien upon the shares and dividends of any member to the extent of any loans made to him and for any dues or fines payable by him.
11. To cancel the shares of any member who withdraws or is expelled, and apply the value thereof to the liquidation of such member's indebtedness to the corporation.

12. To invest any moneys received by it not lent to its members in the securities which are authorized as an investment for savings banks as set forth by statute.

13. To fix the maximum amount of shares owned or held by any one member which shall not exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000) in total par value.

14. In addition to the powers herein enumerated, every credit union shall have the general powers conferred upon corporations by Chapter III, Title I, Part IV, Division First of the Civil Code, except as herein otherwise provided.

Sec. 4. Section 4 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

1. No credit union shall:

2. Make any loan in excess of one hundred dollars unless security thereof is taken, nor in any event make a loan to any member in excess of two thousand dollars ($2,000). The term 'security' within the meaning of this subdivision shall include a note which is endorsed by any member or members of the said credit union or by any other person or persons who is a nonmember. Comaker or coinmakers, other than the borrower or borrowers, shall be deemed to be an endorser within the provisions of this section.

In the event a credit union shall make a loan or loans to any of its members and the said member or members shall have invested therein, either in the form of shares or in funds received an amount equal to the said loan or loans, said investment shall be deemed as security within the provisions of this section and said borrower or borrowers shall not be required to give further or additional security.

3. Impose a fine, in case of failure of a member to make payment on shares, exceeding one per centum per month or fraction of a month on accounts due, except that a minimum fine of five cents per month or fraction thereof may be imposed.

4. Permit any director, officer or member of the credit committee or supervisor committee to borrow directly or indirectly, an amount greater than the amount invested by him in the credit union, or become surety for any loan or advance made by the corporation.

5. Issue shares or accept funds in trust, except in the name of the trustee, as such, for a specified beneficiary whose residence shall be disclosed to the credit union by such trustee.

6. Issue any shares except to those qualified for membership under its by-laws; provided, however, that said credit union shall have the right to issue shares to any relative designated by those eligible to membership in the credit union in joint tenancy and further provided that upon any share issued by any credit union to those qualified for membership under its by-laws and to any relative designated by those eligible to membership in the credit union in joint tenancy, there shall be printed upon the certificate or other evidence of such shares the words "transferable only to qualified members" as herein set forth.

7. Lend to any of its members without requiring at the time of such loan a surrender and pledge of any certificates or other evidence of membership, issued by such credit union to the member to whom such loan is to be made.

Sec. 5. The capital of a credit union shall consist of the payments made by members on shares.

Sec. 5. Section 6 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 6. The capital funds, undivided profits, and guaranty fund of any credit union may be deposited in one or more savings banks, State banks or trust companies, incorporated under the laws of the State of California, or in national banks located in the State and in the postal savings system of the United States, or in the securities which are authorized as an investment for savings banks and set forth by statutes, or in shares or certificates for funds received or in any form of evidence of interest issued by any credit union in California, organized either under the provisions of the credit union law of the State of California or the statutes of the United States relating to credit unions.

Sec. 6. Section 19 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 19. The supervisory committee shall have power:

1. To suspend at any time by unanimous vote, at a meeting called for that purpose, the credit committee, or any member thereof, or any member of the board of directors or any officer.

2. By a majority vote to call a meeting of the shareholders to consider any violation of this article or the by-laws, or any practices of the credit union which, in the opinion of the committee, are unsafe or unauthorized.

3. To inspect the securities, cash and accounts of the credit union and supervise the acts of its board of directors, officers and credit committee.

4. Within seven days after the suspension of the credit committee, to cause notice of a special meeting to be given to the shareholders to take such action regarding the suspension as may be deemed necessary.

5. To fill vacancies in the supervisory committee until the next annual meeting of the shareholders.

6. At the close of each fiscal year to make an audit of the books and records and an examination of the business and affairs of the credit union for the year, and to make a full report of its assets and liabilities, receipts and disbursements to the board of directors and to cause such reports to be read at the annual meeting of shareholders and filed with the records of such credit union.
In no case shall a member of the supervisory committee receive any compensation for his services as a member of such committee, or serve as a member of the credit committee.

CHAPTER 228.

An act to amend Chapter 763, Statutes of 1929, approved June 10, 1929, as amended by Chapter 401, Statutes of 1931, approved May 25, 1931, and as amended by Chapter 10, Statutes of 1933, approved January 26, 1933, entitled and known and cited as "California Toll Bridge Authority Act" by amending the title thereof and by amending sections 2, 6 1/2, 9, 11, 14, 16, 20 and 22 1/2 and by adding thereto new sections numbered 4 1/2, 5, 5 1/2, 8 1/2, 8 1/2, 9 1/2, 9 1/2, 12 1/2, 13 1/2, 16 1/2 and 16 3/4 relating to and prescribing additional duties, powers and limitations regarding the construction and financing of toll bridges; and providing for the acquisition, construction, financing and operation of transportation facilities thereof and therefor; and providing that this act become effective immediately.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The title of that certain act of the Legislature known and cited as the "California Toll Bridge Authority Act," approved June 10, 1929, Statutes of 1929, Chapter 763, and as amended by Chapter 401, Statutes of 1931, approved May 25, 1931 and as amended by Chapter 10, Statutes of 1933, approved January 26, 1933, is hereby amended to read as follows:

An act declaring the policy of the State of California relative to toll bridges and creating a board to be known as California Toll Bridge Authority and providing for membership thereof and specifying its duties and powers; also authorizing California Toll Bridge Authority to authorize and direct the Department of Public Works of the State of California to build, purchase, condemn or otherwise acquire for and in the name of the State of California toll bridges and other toll highway crossings and approaches thereto across waters, bays, arms of bays, straits, rivers and streams in California, both navigable and unnavigable or across any stream that is a boundary line between California and any other State, and to acquire franchises, rights, privileges, easements or other property either real or personal, used or to be used in conjunction with any such bridges; also defining "transportation facilities" and authorizing the California Toll Bridge Authority to authorize and direct the Department of Public Works to build, purchase, condemn or otherwise acquire for and in the name of the State of California transportation facilities of any toll bridges or toll highway crossings and approaches thereto constructed or acquired or to be constructed or acquired in accordance with the provisions of this act, as well as additional transportation facilities connecting or coordinated with any such toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing or the transportation facilities thereon, as well as franchises, rights, privileges, easements or other property, real or personal, appurtenant to any such transportation facilities; also authorizing the Department of Public Works to make recommendation to the California Toll Bridge Authority relative to the acquisition or construction of any toll bridge or toll highway crossing and to submit preliminary estimates of the cost of such acquisition or construction and the amount of revenue bonds required to be issued for such purpose; also authorizing the Department of Public Works to make recommendation to the California Toll Bridge Authority relative to the acquisition or construction of the transportation facilities for any such toll bridge or other highway crossing and the additional transportation facilities connecting or coordinated therewith and to submit preliminary estimates of the cost of the acquisition or construction of such transportation facilities and the amount of revenue bonds required to be issued for such purpose; also authorizing California Toll Bridge Authority to issue and sell revenue bonds to provide funds for the acquisition or construction of toll bridges or other toll highway crossings and the transportation facilities thereof and thereto secured as to the redemption thereof and the interest thereon only by the tolls or other revenues received from such bridge or bridges or other highway crossings and other revenues received by the California Toll Bridge Authority and to prescribe the terms and conditions of such bonds; also authorizing the issuance and sale of such revenue bonds for the payment of interest during the period of actual construction of such bridge or other highway crossing and the transportation facilities thereof and thereto and for a period of six months thereafter; also providing for the manner in which such bonds shall be issued and signed and the manner of sale and redemption thereof and the payment of interest thereon; also authorizing said California Toll Bridge Authority to charge and fix the rates of toll on such bridges or other highway crossings and regulating the amount thereof; also authorizing the Department of Public Works of the State of California to acquire, construct, operate and maintain all such toll bridges or other toll highway crossings and the transportation facilities thereof and thereto and to collect tolls thereon and therefor; also authorizing the Department of Public Works to acquire by eminent domain any toll bridge or bridges or other toll highway crossing or approaches thereto and the transportation facilities thereof or thereto, and real estate, personal property, franchises, rights, privileges or easements appurtenant to any such toll bridge or bridges

or other highway crossing or to the transportation facilities thereof or thereto, whether publicly or privately owned and whether or not already appropriated or dedicated to a public use or purpose by any person, firm, private, public or municipal corporation, county, city and county, city, town, district, or any political subdivision of the State, and defining the procedure therefor; also providing that bonds issued and sold by California Toll Bridge Authority shall not constitute or be a debt or general obligation of the State but shall be secured by the tolls or other revenues collected from the operation of such bridges or other highway crossings and shall be paid from such tolls or revenues made available by this act; also authorizing any city, county, city and county, incorporated city or town, or joint highway district to advance or contribute money, rights of way, labor, materials or other property in aid of the acquisition, construction, operation or maintenance of any such bridge or highway crossing and the transportation facilities thereof and thereto and to issue and sell general obligation bonds for such purpose; also authorizing the California Toll Bridge Authority to enter into agreements with any such political subdivisions for the repayment of contributions or advances; and providing the time and manner of making such repayments; also defining the limits within and the conditions upon which other competitive bridges or other highway crossings or ferries may be constructed or operated; also creating and establishing certain funds and regulating the manner in which moneys may be withdrawn therefrom and invested and disbursed; also prescribing the manner in which any city, county, city and county, incorporated bridge and highway district or joint highway district may acquire or construct toll bridges or other toll highway crossings; also empowering and authorizing the California Toll Bridge Authority to prescribe terms upon which persons or property may be transported over any such toll bridge or other highway crossing and the approaches thereto, and prohibiting the transportation of persons or property unless authorized by the California Toll Bridge Authority and in accordance with such authorization; also empowering and authorizing the California Toll Bridge Authority to contract with and to issue permits to any transportation company, public or private and with any municipal corporation or utility district or political subdivision for the use of any such toll bridge or other highway crossing and the transportation facilities thereof and the transportation facilities connecting or coordinated therewith; also providing that the execution of any such contract or the granting of any such permit shall not relieve any such transportation company from the duty of obtaining a certificate of public convenience and necessity from the Railroad Commission and of complying with the rules and regulations of the Railroad Commission; also authorizing and empowering the California Toll Bridge Authority in behalf of the State of California, by itself, its agents or assigns, or through the Department of Public Works, its agents or assigns to operate any such transportation facilities; also providing for the manner in which contracts shall be let for the building of bridges or other highway crossings; also empowering the Department of Public Works to designate certain county roads as State highways; also authorizing the acquisition or construction of tubes or tunnels in connection with such bridges or other highway crossings; also authorizing insurance and indemnity bonds on bridges and other highway crossings constructed under this act; also giving, dedicating and setting apart rights of way through, over, on and across State property and streets, alleys, lanes and roads within any city, city and county, or incorporated city or town, public or municipal corporation, district, or political subdivision; also authorizing the California Toll Bridge Authority to agree as to compensation for injury or damage to the property of any such city, city and county, incorporated city or town, public or municipal corporation, district or political subdivision, for the construction of such toll bridges or other toll highway crossings; also appropriating fifty thousand dollars for the purpose of establishing a revolving fund and providing for the use thereof and the manner of reimbursements thereto.

Sec. 2. Section 2 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. Definitions. The term "Department of Public Works" when used in this act shall be construed to mean the Department of Public Works of the State of California.

The terms "toll bridge," "bridge," "subway," "tunnel," and "highway crossing" when used in this act, either in the singular or plural, shall be construed to embrace all appurtenances and additions, alterations or improvements thereto or replacements thereof and the approaches to each end thereof, and all lands and interest therein used therefor and buildings and improvements thereon.

The term "transportation facilities" when used in this act, and unless otherwise expressly set forth, shall be construed to embrace all facilities for the transportation of passengers and property to and over any toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing and the approaches to each end thereof, acquired or constructed or to be acquired or constructed or in course of construction in accordance with the provisions of this act, including terminals, stations, viaducts, rails, tracks, power stations, substations and equipment and power supply lines, storage yards, and the real property, easements and rights of way upon which any of the foregoing are located or situated or necessary therefor, and equipment, signals and interlockers, cars and rolling stock, and franchises, rights and privileges appurtenant thereto.

The term "bond" when used in this act, either in the singular or plural, shall be construed to mean any bond or other written evidence of indebtedness which the California Toll Bridge Authority may issue under this act in order to secure funds with which to carry out the purposes of this act.

Sec. 3. A new section, to be numbered section 4 1/2, is hereby added to said act to read as follows:

Sec. 4 1/2. Whenever in the opinion of the California Toll Bridge Authority and in the opinion of the Department of Public Works it is necessary or desirable so to do, the California Toll Bridge Authority shall authorize and direct the Department of Public Works to build and acquire for and in the name of the State of California transportation facilities of any toll bridges or toll highway crossings and approaches thereto constructed or acquired or to be constructed or acquired in accordance with the provisions of this act, and to likewise acquire or construct additional transportation facilities connecting or coordinated with any such toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing or the transportation facilities thereon, and to pay for the same out of any fund or funds provided or made available by this act. The Department of Public Works is hereby empowered to acquire by gift, by purchase or by eminent domain proceedings any transportation facilities and any franchises, rights, privileges, easements or other property, whether real or personal, appurtenant thereto, when the acquisition or construction of any such transportation facilities is authorized by the California Toll Bridge Authority.

Sec. 4. A new section, to be numbered 5 1/2, is hereby added to said act, to read as follows:

Sec. 5 1/2. Whenever in connection with any toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing constructed or acquired or to be constructed or acquired or in the course of construction or acquisition in accordance with the provisions of this act, the Department of Public Works determines that it is advisable, necessary or convenient to provide for the transportation of persons or property to and over such toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing, the director of said department shall submit its recommendation to that effect to the California Toll Bridge Authority together with preliminary estimates of the cost of providing for the transportation facilities therefor, and an estimate of any funds of the California Toll Bridge Authority and of the Department of Public Works available for such purpose, and an estimate of the amount required to be raised for such purpose by the issuance of revenue bonds, and a statement of the probable amount of money, property, materials or labor to be contributed from other sources in aid of such acquisition or construction.

If a majority of the members of the California Toll Bridge Authority concur in the recommendation of the Department of Public Works then the California Toll Bridge Authority shall adopt a resolution declaring that public interest and necessity require that the transportation facilities be provided to and over such toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing, and the acquisition, by agreement, eminent domain or otherwise, of such transportation facilities, and authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds for the purpose of obtaining funds in an amount not in excess of that estimated to be required for such purpose, or for such purpose and the acquisition or construction of any toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing to which such transportation facilities relate, if, pursuant to the provisions of this act, the cost of acquisition or construction of such toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing and of such transportation facilities has been or is included within such issue of revenue bonds.

The bonds issued for the purpose of obtaining funds to provide for such transportation facilities may be issued as a separate issue or as part of an issue or issues to provide for the acquisition or construction of any toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing as the California Toll Bridge Authority may direct. The bonds so authorized shall be issued in the name of the California Toll Bridge Authority and shall be revenue bonds and obligations only of the California Toll Bridge Authority and in all respects shall be identical to the bonds of the Authority issued pursuant to Section 6 hereof and shall be subject to the conditions and limitations, restrictions and privileges in this act set forth with respect to bonds to be issued hereunder for the acquisition or construction of any toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing.

Sec. 5. A new section, to be numbered 5\textsuperscript{\textfrac{3}{4}}, is hereby added to said act, to read as follows:

Sec. 5\textsuperscript{\textfrac{3}{4}}. Whenever in connection with the transportation facilities of any toll bridge or bridges or other toll highway crossing constructed or acquired or to be constructed or acquired or in the course of construction or acquisition in accordance with the provisions of this act, the Department of Public Works determines that it is advisable, necessary, or convenient in connection with the transportation of persons or property to and over such toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing, to construct or acquire additional transportation facilities to connect or be coordinated with the transportation facilities of said toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing, so as to provide a system of transportation for persons or property to and from said toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing and the area within fifty miles from either end of such toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing, the director of said department shall submit its recommendations to that effect to the California Toll Bridge Authority, together with preliminary estimates of the cost of providing for such additional transportation facilities, and an estimate of any funds of the California Toll Bridge Authority and of the Department of Public Works available for such purpose, and an estimate of the amount required to be raised for such purpose by the issuance of revenue bonds, and a statement of the probable amount of money, property, materials or labor to be contributed from other sources in aid of such acquisition or construction. If a majority of the members of the California Toll Bridge Authority concur in the recommendations of the Department of Public Works, then the California Toll Bridge Authority shall adopt a resolution declaring that public interest and necessity require that such additional transportation facilities be provided to connect or be coordinated with the transportation facilities of such toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing, and the acquisition, by agreement, eminent domain or otherwise, of such additional transportation facilities, and authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds for the purpose of obtaining funds in an amount not in excess of that estimated to be required for such purpose, or for such purpose and the acquisition or construction of any toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing and the transportation facilities thereof with which such additional transportation facilities are to connect or be coordinated if, pursuant to the provisions of this act such cost of acquisition or construction of such toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing and the transportation facilities thereof and such additional transportation facilities has been or is included within such issue of revenue bonds.

The bonds issued for the purpose of obtaining funds to provide for said additional transportation facilities may be issued as a separate issue or as part of the issue to provide for the acquisition or construction of any toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing and the transportation facilities thereof, and with which said additional transportation facilities will connect or be coordinated, as the California Toll Bridge Authority may direct. The bonds so authorized shall be issued in the name of the California Toll Bridge Authority and shall be revenue bonds and obligations of the California Toll Bridge Authority and in all respects shall be identical to the bonds of the Authority issued pursuant to section 6 hereof, and shall be subject to the conditions and limitations, rights and privileges in this act set forth with respect to bonds to be issued hereunder for the acquisition of any toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing.

Sec. 5 (a). Section 6 1/2 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 6 1/2. In the event a bond issue for the acquisition or construction of a toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing shall be authorized and sold in whole or in part and the California Toll Bridge Authority and Director of the Department of Public Works deem it advisable and advantageous to enlarge or extend such toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing or any of them or to change the structure or design thereof in order to afford new or greater facilities for any type or class of traffic, the said California Toll Bridge Authority may issue additional bonds for the purpose of enlarging or extending such toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing or changing the structure or design thereof in order to afford such new or greater facilities, provided the surrender and cancellation of all outstanding bonds theretofore issued for the acquisition or construction of such toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing as originally designed can be assured or obtained by call or by consent of the holders thereof. Such additional bonds shall not constitute a debt or obligation of the State of California but shall be bonds of the California Toll Bridge Authority of the same character and payable from the same funds as other bonds herein authorized; provided, however, that the pledge of the tolls and other revenues to be received from the operation of such toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing to the payment of outstanding bonds shall not in any way be lessened, diminished or affected thereby. If the bonds issued for the acquisition or construction of such toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing as originally designed which may be then outstanding are at that time by their terms subject to immediate retirement before maturity at the option of the California Toll Bridge Authority, or if the holders consent to the retirement of such bonds, the said authority may include in the issue of bonds to be sold for the purpose of enlarging or extending said toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing or changing the design thereof, an amount of bonds sufficient to produce funds with which to retire such outstanding bonds according to their terms; provided, however, that before any such bonds are delivered the California Toll Bridge Authority shall have first duly called the outstanding bonds for redemption in accordance with their terms and conditions or have obtained the consent of the holders thereof to the retirement of such outstanding bonds. Out of the proceeds derived from the sale of such new bonds there shall be set aside an amount of money sufficient to retire such outstanding bonds as may be thereafter presented for payment. Bonds of the new authorized issue may be delivered in part in exchange for a like principal amount of outstanding bonds of the original issue if the holders of such outstanding bonds to be so exchanged consent thereto.

All provisions of this act shall apply with like force and effect to the issuance of any bonds of such new authorized issue and the holders thereof shall be subrogated to all the rights and powers of the holders of the bonds which are surrendered in exchange therefor, except as such rights and powers may be modified by the express terms of the bonds of such new authorized issue or the proceedings authorizing their issuance.

Sec. 6. A new section, to be numbered 84 1/2, is hereby added to said act to read as follows:

Sec. 84. The Department of Public Works shall have full charge of the acquisition and construction of all the transportation facilities which may be authorized by the California Toll Bridge Authority pursuant to section 5 1/2 hereof, and the operation and maintenance thereof and the collection of tolls thereon. The Director of the Department of Public Works shall proceed with the construction of such transportation facilities immediately upon there being made available funds.
for such work, and shall prosecute such work to completion as rapidly as possible.

Sec. 7. A new section, to be numbered 8§, is hereby added to said act to read as follows:

Sec. 8§. The Department of Public Works shall have full charge of the acquisition and construction of all the transportation facilities which may be authorized by the California Toll Bridge Authority pursuant to section 5§ hereof, and the operation and maintenance thereof and the collection of tolls thereon. No part of such transportation facilities shall be constructed or operated by the Toll Bridge Authority, or by any person, firm, association or corporation, public or private, within any county, city, or city and county, unless and until the route thereof within such county, city, or city and county shall have been approved by the board of supervisors, city council or other legislative body thereof, anything in this act to the contrary notwithstanding. The Director of the Department of Public Works shall proceed with the construction of such transportation facilities immediately upon there being made available funds for such work, and shall prosecute such work to completion as rapidly as possible.

Sec. 8. Section 9 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 9. The Department of Public Works is hereby authorized and empowered to condemn and take, in fee or otherwise, as the California Toll Bridge Authority may determine, in the name of the State of California any bridge or highway crossing or approach thereto acquired or constructed or to be acquired or constructed under the provisions of this act, and any real estate, personal property, franchises, rights, privilege or easements, whether publicly or privately owned and whether or not already devoted to a public use or purpose, deemed necessary for any such bridge or bridges or highway crossing or approach thereto, under the provisions of the Constitution and laws of this State relating to eminent domain proceedings. Said department shall not have power to commence any such proceedings in eminent domain unless and until the California Toll Bridge Authority shall first have passed a resolution declaring that public interest and necessity require the acquisition, construction or completion by the State acting through the said Department of Public Works of any such bridge or highway crossing, or the acquisition of any particular real estate, personal property, franchises, rights, privileges or easements, and that such bridge or highway crossing, real estate, personal property, franchises, rights, privileges or easements are necessary therefor. Such resolution shall be conclusive evidence (a) of the public necessity of such acquisition, construction or completion; (b) that such property and said franchises, rights, privileges or easements are, and that the acquisition of the fee or other interest therein is, necessary therefor and, (c) that such proposed acquisition, construction or completion is planned or located in a manner which will be most compatible with the greatest public good and the least private injury. When it becomes necessary for the Department of Public Works to condemn any toll bridge or toll highway crossing, real estate, personal property, franchises, rights, privileges or easements used or to be used in connection with any such bridge or highway crossing, the Attorney General of the State shall represent the Department of Public Works, and shall also be assisted by the attorneys for the Department of Public Works and any legal counsel the Department of Public Works or the California Toll Bridge Authority may employ. In eminent domain proceedings to acquire property for any of the purposes of this act, any toll bridge or other toll highway crossing, real property, personal property, franchises, rights, easements or other property or privileges appurtenant thereto appropriated or dedicated to a public use or purpose by any person, firm, private, public or municipal corporation, county, city and county, city, town, district or any political subdivision of the State, may be condemned and taken, and the acquisition and use thereof as herein provided for the same public use or purpose to which such property has been so appropriated or dedicated, or for any other public use or purpose, shall be deemed a superior and permanent right and necessity, and a more necessary use and purpose than the public use or purpose to which such property has already been appropriated or dedicated. It shall not be necessary in any eminent domain proceedings hereunder to plead or prove any acts or proceedings preliminary or prior to the adoption of the resolution hereinbefore referred to describing the property sought to be taken and directing such proceedings. When the State or any department or governmental agency thereof acquires any existing toll bridge or the real or personal property used in connection therewith, said property and toll bridge shall continue to be subject to taxation by the county, city and county, political subdivision and municipal corporation wherein the same is located, and the State shall pay to the county or city and county granting the franchise for said bridge such amounts as may become due to such county or city and county for the franchise for the construction of such toll bridge.

Sec. 9. A new section is to be added to said act, said section to be numbered 9 4/5 and to read as follows:

Sec. 9 4/5. The Department of Public Works is hereby authorized and empowered to condemn and take, in fee or otherwise as the California Toll Bridge Authority may determine, in the name of the State of California, any transportation facilities authorized to be constructed or acquired pursuant to section 5 4/5 hereof, of any toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing acquired or constructed or to be acquired or constructed under the provisions of this act, and any real estate, personal property, franchises, rights, privileges or easements, whether publicly or privately owned and whether or not already devoted to a public use or purpose, deemed necessary for the transportation facilities of any such toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing, under the provisions of the Constitution and laws of this State relating to eminent domain proceedings. Said department shall not have power to commence any such proceedings in eminent domain unless and until the California Toll Bridge Authority shall first have passed a resolution declaring that public interest and necessity require the acquisition, construction or completion by the State acting through the said Department of Public Works, of the transportation facilities of any such bridge or bridges or other highway crossing, or the acquisition of any particular real estate, personal property, franchises, rights, privileges or easements and that such transportation facilities, real estate, personal property, franchises, rights, privileges or easements are necessary therefor. Such resolution shall be conclusive evidence (a) of the public necessity of such acquisition, construction or completion; (b) that such transportation facilities and such property and said franchises, rights, privileges or easements are, and the acquisition of the fee or other interest therein is, necessary therefor; and, (c) that such proposed acquisition, construction or completion is planned or located in a manner which will be most compatible with the greatest public good and the least private injury. When it becomes necessary for the Department of Public Works to condemn any such transportation facilities, real estate, personal property, franchises, rights, privileges or easements used or to be used in connection with any such bridge or highway crossing, the Attorney General of the State shall represent the Department of Public Works and shall also be assisted by the attorneys for the Department of Public Works and any legal counsel the Department of Public Works or the California Toll Bridge Authority may employ.

In eminent domain proceedings to acquire property for any of the purposes of this act, any such transportation facilities, real property, personal property, franchises, rights, easements or other property or privileges appurtenant thereto appropriated or dedicated to a public use or purpose by any person, firm, private, public or municipal corporation, county, city and county, city, town, district or any political subdivision of the State may be condemned and taken and the acquisition and use thereof as hereinafter provided for the same public use or purpose to which such property has been so appropriated or dedicated, or for any other public use or purpose shall be deemed a superior and permanent right and necessity, and a more necessary use and purpose than the public use or purpose to which such property has already been appropriated or dedicated, except as to real estate, personal property, franchises, rights, privileges or easements actively used by or necessary for the operation of a common carrier by railroad other than those used primarily by such railroad for the transportation of persons or property by interurban operation to and from an area within fifty miles from either end of such toll bridge or bridges. And except for such prior railroad use, it shall not be necessary in any eminent domain proceedings hereunder to plead or prove any acts or proceedings preliminary or prior to the adoption of the resolution hereinafore referred to describing the property sought to be taken and directing such proceedings.

Sec. 10. A new section, to be numbered 9 3/4 is hereby added to said act, to read as follows:

Sec. 9 3/4. The Department of Public Works is hereby authorized and empowered to condemn, possess and take, in fee or otherwise as the California Toll Bridge Authority may determine, in the name of the State of California, any additional transportation facilities authorized to be constructed or acquired pursuant to section 5 3/4 hereof, connecting or coordinated with the transportation facilities of any toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing acquired or constructed or to be acquired or constructed under the provisions of this act, and any real estate, personal property, franchises, rights, privileges and easements, whether publicly or privately owned, and whether or not already devoted to a public use or purpose, deemed necessary for such additional transportation facilities or for any such bridge or bridges or other highway crossing, or the transportation facilities thereof, under the provisions of the Constitution and laws of the State relating to eminent domain proceedings. Such proceedings shall be had and taken in accordance with section 9 3/4 hereof and the provisions of said section 9 3/4 shall be deemed fully applicable to the proceedings under this section 9 3/4.

Sec. 11. Section 11 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 11. Any city, county, city and county, incorporated city or town, or joint highway or other district, or political subdivision of the State may upon the request of the Department of Public Works or of the California Toll Bridge Authority advance or contribute money, rights of way, labor, materials and other property toward the expense of building, acquiring and maintaining the toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossings, and the transportation facilities thereof and thereto, referred to in this act, and for preliminary surveys and the preparation of plans and estimates of cost therefor and other preliminary expenses. Appropriations for such purposes may be made from any funds available, including highway funds received from the State. Any of the political subdivisions or public corporations mentioned in this section may also issue general obligation bonds for any of such purposes, and all proceedings for the authorization, issue and sale of such bonds shall be had under the law governing the issue and sale of bonds for public improvements by the particular political subdivision or public corporation. Money or property so advanced or contributed may be immediately transferred or delivered to the Department of Public Works or to the California Toll Bridge Authority to be used for the purpose for which such advance or contribution was made. The California Toll Bridge Authority may enter into a binding agreement with any city, county, city and county, incorporated city or town, joint highway or other district, or political subdivision of the State to repay any money or the value of any rights of way, labor, materials or other property advanced or contributed toward the expense of acquiring or constructing any toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing, or the transportation facilities thereof or thereto, acquired or constructed as provided for in this act; provided, no repayment therefor shall be made until all obligations issued by the California Toll Bridge Authority for the acquisition or construction of any such toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing and the transportation facilities thereof or thereto have been fully redeemed and paid, and then only out of the tolls and revenues received from the operation of any such toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing. After all bonds issued hereunder for the acquisition or construction of any toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing and the transportation facilities thereof or thereto have been fully redeemed and paid the California Toll Bridge Authority may continue to collect tolls and other revenues for the use of such toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing for the purpose of reimbursing the State of California for any expenditures which may have been made by it in connection with said toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing and the transportation facilities thereof or thereto and for the purpose of repayment to any city, county, city and county, incorporated city and town, joint highway or other district or political subdivision of the State of any amount the California Toll Bridge Authority shall have agreed to repay for money, rights of way, labor, materials or other property advanced or contributed for the acquisition or construction of any such toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing or transportation facilities thereof or thereto. The collection of tolls shall be continued on any such toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing until all bonds issued hereunder for the acquisition or construction of such particular toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing or the transportation facilities thereof or thereto are fully redeemed and paid.

Sec. 12. A new section, to be numbered 12½, is hereby added to said act to read as follows:

Sec. 12½. As long as any of the bonds issued hereunder for the acquisition, construction, enlargement, extension or change in design or structure of any toll bridge or other highway crossing acquired or constructed hereunder or the transportation facilities thereon or thereto are outstanding and unpaid, none of the ferries or any similar means of crossing the waters within ten miles from either side of such toll bridge permitted to be operated under section 12 hereof shall be operated except as between the particular points of landing between which such ferry or other similar means of crossing shall have been operated and only as to the particular classes of service in which such ferry or other similar means of crossing shall actually have been engaged at the time the construction of such toll bridge or other highway crossing shall have been authorized by the California Toll Bridge Authority, nor shall any such ferry or other similar means of crossing be restored to operation between any points of landing or as to any class of traffic operation which shall have been discontinued subsequent to the authorization by the California Toll Bridge Authority of any such bridge or highway crossing.

The term "ferry" as used herein shall include vessels of any kind or character operating upon the inland waters of this State for the transportation of persons or vehicles other than railway freight cars, including such vessels operated by or in conjunction with any railroad or interurban railroad or other common carrier.

The limitations and provisions of this section shall not apply to any ferry authorized to be operated and maintained across the waters of the bay between the City and County of San Francisco and the county of Marin, or to any bridge or tube between the cities of Oakland and Alameda. The limitations and provisions of this section and of section 12 shall not apply to any ferry authorized or permitted by the California Toll Bridge Authority to be operated and maintained across the waters of the bay between the City and County of San Francisco and the city of Alameda, and it is further provided that the provisions and limitations of this section and of section 12 shall not prevent the operation of any ferry or other similar means of crossing authorized or permitted by the California Toll Bridge Authority during such period of time as any such toll bridge or other highway crossing is obstructed to traffic because of accident thereto or repair thereof, or is for any reason unable to fully accommodate traffic.

Sec. 13. A new section, to be numbered 13\(\frac{1}{2}\) is hereby added to said act to read as follows:

Sec. 13\(\frac{1}{2}\). In so far as any issue or issues of bonds authorized under the provisions of this act for the acquisition or construction of any particular toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing shall include, pursuant to the provisions of this act, the acquisition or construction of any transportation facilities to or of any such toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing, the provisions of section 13 and of section 13\(\frac{1}{2}\) with respect to the receipt and disposition of the proceeds from the sale of said bonds, the acquisition and construction funds therein referred to, the receipt and disposition of tolls, the toll revenue funds and the other provisions of said sections with respect to the receipt and disbursement of moneys or funds shall be deemed and are hereby declared to be equally applicable to the moneys or funds relating to such transportation facilities as with respect to such toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing and in every instance in said sections where reference is made to a toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing such transportation facilities shall be deemed and are hereby declared to be included to the same extent as if expressly therein set forth.

If the bonds authorized under sections 51 or 52 of this act for the acquisition or construction of the transportation facilities do not include the toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing to which said transportation facilities relate, the provisions of sections 13 and 13½ with respect to the receipt and disposition of the proceeds from the sale of said bonds, the acquisition and construction funds therein referred to, the receipt and disposition of tolls, the toll revenue funds and the other provisions of said sections with respect to the receipt and disbursement of moneys and funds shall be deemed and are hereby declared to be applicable to the moneys or funds relating to such transportation facilities and in every instance in said sections where reference is made to a toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing such transportation facilities shall be deemed and are hereby declared to be intended thereby to the same extent and effect as if expressly therein set forth and in lieu and instead of the reference to a toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing.

Sec. 14. Section 14 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 14. Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent the State from making appropriations from time to time in aid of the acquisition or construction of any such toll bridge or bridges or other toll highway crossing, or property, franchises or rights appurtenant thereto, or the transportation facilities thereof or thereon, or for the purpose of making preliminary surveys, plans and estimates of the cost thereof, and meeting other preliminary expenses as the Legislature may deem proper.

Sec. 15. Section 16 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 16. The California Toll Bridge Authority is hereby authorized and empowered to prescribe the terms and conditions upon which any person, or firm, or group of persons, or private, public or municipal corporation, or any district or political subdivision may transport any person or property over any toll bridge or bridges or other toll highway crossing, and the approaches to each end thereof, acquired or constructed or to be acquired or constructed or in course of construction in accordance with the provisions of this act, or may operate any of the transportation facilities thereon, and no person, or firm or group of persons, or private, public or municipal corporation, or any district or political subdivision shall transport any person or property over any such toll bridge or bridges or other toll highway crossing or the approaches thereto or operate the transportation facilities thereon, unless first authorized or permitted so to do by the California Toll Bridge Authority, and in accordance with such authorization or permission.

The California Toll Bridge Authority is hereby further authorized and empowered to grant permits to and to enter into contracts with steam, electric, bus, railroad and other transportation companies, public or private, and with any municipal or public corporation or public utility district or political subdivision for the use of any such toll bridge or bridges or other toll highway crossing, and for the use of the transportation facilities thereof, upon such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon; provided, however, that prior to the granting of any such permit or the execution of any such contract, the California Toll Bridge Authority shall first determine that such permit or contract is advisable or necessary for the financing of such bridge or bridges or other toll highway crossing or for the proper or necessary or safe use of such bridge or bridges and for the best interests of the State.

The grant of any such permit or the execution of any such contract by the California Toll Bridge Authority shall not be deemed to relieve any such transportation company or corporation, subject to the jurisdiction of the Railroad Commission of the State of California, from the duty of obtaining such certificate of public convenience and necessity for the conduct of a transportation service over any toll bridge or other highway crossing as may by law be required, or from the duty of complying with every lawful order, rule or regulation of the Railroad Commission respecting such transportation service.

The California Toll Bridge Authority may permit in any such contract or permit, if it shall deem the same advisable or necessary, of the use by the transportation company or corporation or district or subdivision providing transportation, of the transportation facilities of the California Toll Bridge Authority upon such terms and in such manner as the California Toll Bridge Authority shall deem proper, without restriction thereof to the toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing to which said transportation facilities relate, provided that such use shall be for or in aid of the transportation of persons or property over such bridge or bridges or other highway crossing or the approaches thereto.

Sec. 16. A new section, to be numbered 16½, is hereby added to said act, to read as follows:

Sec. 16½. The California Toll Bridge Authority is hereby authorized and empowered to prescribe the terms and conditions upon which any person, or firm, or group of persons, or public or municipal corporation, or any district or political subdivision may transport any person or property over the additional transportation facilities constructed or acquired in accordance with section 5½ hereof, connecting or coordinated with the transportation facilities of any toll bridge or bridges or other toll highway crossing acquired or constructed or to be acquired or constructed or in course of acquisition or construction in accordance with the provisions of this act, and no person, firm, or group of persons, or private, public or municipal corporation, or any district or political subdivision shall transport any person or property over, or use or operate such additional transportation facilities unless first authorized so to do by the California Toll Bridge Authority and in accordance with such authorization.

The California Toll Bridge Authority is hereby further authorized and empowered to contract with respect to the use or operation of such additional transportation facilities in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as set forth in section 16 herein.

Sec. 17. A new section, to be numbered section 16 1/2, is hereby added to said act to read as follows:

Sec. 16 1/2. Every contract or permit which the California Toll Bridge Authority enters into with or grants to any person or firm, or group of persons, or private, public or municipal corporation, or any district or political subdivision, for the transportation of persons or property by such person or firm, or group of persons, or private, public or municipal corporation, or district or political subdivision over any toll bridge or bridges, or other toll highway crossing, or over the additional or coordinating transportation facilities of any toll bridge or bridges, or other toll highway crossing, shall contain a provision that no privilege or contract rights acquired by such person, firm, group of persons, private, public or municipal corporation, district or political subdivision, with regard to the transportation of persons or property over any such toll bridge or with regard to additional or coordinating transportation facilities, as defined by section 5 1/2 of this act, shall be an element of value in any subsequent condemnation proceeding against any such person, firm, group of persons, private, public or municipal corporation, district or political subdivision. No privilege, permit or contract right acquired by any such person, firm, group of persons, private, public or municipal corporation, district or political subdivision, with regard to the transportation of persons or property over any such toll bridge or bridges or other toll highway crossing or with regard to use of or passage over any additional or coordinating transportation facilities, as defined by section 5 1/2 of this act, shall constitute an element of value in any condemnation proceeding.

The California Toll Bridge Authority is hereby authorized and empowered, in behalf of the State of California, by itself or its agents or assigns, or through the Department of Public Works or its agents or assigns to operate the transportation facilities of any toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing constructed or acquired pursuant to the provisions of this act, and the additional transportation facilities, authorized to be constructed or acquired pursuant to section 5 1/2 hereof, connecting or coordinated with the transportation facilities of any such toll bridge or bridges or other highway crossing. The power herein given to the California Toll Bridge Authority may be exercised by it upon default of any party contracting under sections 16 or 16½ hereof with the California Toll Bridge Authority for the transportation of persons or property for hire over any toll bridge or bridges or other toll highway crossing and the approaches to each end thereof, or upon the termination or cessation of any such contract or agreement entered into pursuant to section 16 or 16½ hereof, or in the absence of such contract or agreement; provided, however, that prior to the operation of any such transportation facilities by the California Toll Bridge Authority or its agents or assigns or by the Department of Public Works or its agents or assigns, California Toll Bridge Authority shall first determine that the operation thereof is advisable or necessary for the financing of such bridge or bridges or other toll highway crossing; or for the proper or necessary use of such bridge or bridges or other toll highway crossing, and is for the best interests of the State.

Sec. 18. Section 20 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 20. The right of way is hereby given, dedicated and set apart upon which to locate, construct and maintain bridges or approaches thereto or other highway crossings, and transportation facilities thereof or thereto, through, over or across any of the lands which are now or may be the property of this State, including highways, and through, over or across the streets, alleys, lanes and roads within any city, city and county, or incorporated city or town, public or municipal corporation, district, or political subdivision of the State. If any property belonging to any city, city and county, or incorporated city or town, public or municipal corporation, district, or political subdivision of the State, is required to be taken for the acquisition or construction of any such bridge or other toll highway crossing or approach thereto or the railroad facilities thereon or thereto, or should any such property be injured or damaged by such acquisition or construction, such compensation therefor as may be proper or necessary and as shall be agreed upon may be paid by the California Toll Bridge Authority to the particular county, city and county or incorporated city or town, public or municipal corporation, district, or political subdivision of the State owning such property, or eminent domain proceedings under section 9, 9½ and 9¾ hereof may be brought for the determination of such compensation.

Sec. 19. Section 22½ of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec 22½. The California Toll Bridge Authority, the officials thereof and all State officials are empowered to do such acts and make such agreements not inconsistent with law as may be necessary or desirable in connection with the duties and powers conferred upon them respectively by law regarding the construction, maintenance, operation and insurance of such toll bridges or other highway crossings and the transportation facilities thereof or thereto or the safeguarding of the funds and revenues required for such construction and the payment of the indebtedness incurred therefor. The California Toll Bridge Authority and the Department of Public Works shall keep full, complete and separate accounts of each toll bridge or other highway crossing, and annually shall prepare balance sheet and income and profit and loss statements showing the financial condition of each such toll bridge or other highway crossing, which statement shall be open to the inspection of holders of bonds issued by said authority at all reasonable times.

Sec. 20. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure within the meaning of section 1, Article IV, of the Constitution of the State of California, and it is deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety that this law shall go into immediate effect. The construction of a toll bridge and approaches thereto over the bay of San Francisco from the City and County of San Francisco to the county of Alameda and the provision for the transportation thereto and thereover of persons and property are essential to complete and make effective the system of State highways. It is necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety that greater facilities for travel and transportation across the bay of San Francisco be immediately afforded by the construction of such toll bridge and the approaches thereto and the transportation facilities thereon and thereto; this act is necessary in order to enable and assure the immediate financing and construction of said toll bridge and transportation facilities. There now exists unemployment in this State to such an extent that the public peace, health, and safety are threatened and endangered. The immediate construction of said toll bridge and the approaches thereto, with the transportation facilities thereon and thereto, will do much to relieve the present unemployment situation, by furnishing employment for thousands of people. It is therefore essential that this act go into immediate effect, and the Legislature so determines that it shall become effective immediately.

An act to amend sections 1 and 2 and the title of an act entitled "An act prohibiting employers of labor from coercing employees in the purchase of things of value, and prescribing a penalty for the violation of the provisions hereof," approved April 26, 1917 (Stats. 1917, Chap. 141), relative to requiring employers and applicants for employment to patronize any person or firm in the purchase of any thing of value, and relative to the penalty therefor.

[Approved by the Governor May 27, 1935. In effect September 13, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:
SECTION 1. The title of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

An act prohibiting the compelling, coercing or requiring of employees and applicants for employment to purchase things of value, directly or indirectly, and prescribing a penalty for the violation thereof.

Sec. 2. Section 1 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. No employer of labor, or agent or officer thereof, or other person, shall compel, coerce or require, directly or indirectly, any employee, or applicant for employment, to patronize his employer, or any other person, firm, association or corporation, in the purchase of any thing of value; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be interpreted as prohibiting any employer of labor from prescribing the weight, color, quality, texture, style, form and make of uniforms required to be worn by his employees.

Sec. 3. Section 2 of the said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. Any person, whether as an individual, or as an agent or employee of a firm, or as an officer, agent or employee of a corporation, who violates any provision of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not exceeding five hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not exceeding six months or by both.

CHAPTER 230.

An act to add section 487.5 to the Fish and Game Code, relating to the use of certain bait to take fish, and declaring the urgency thereof, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor May 27, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 487.5 is hereby added to the Fish and Game Code to read as follows:

487.5. It is unlawful to use fresh trout roe or spawn for the purpose of taking any fish.

Sec. 2. This act is declared to be an urgency measure within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety and as such shall take effect immediately. The following is a statement of facts constituting such necessity: The use of fresh trout roe or spawn as bait is found to be rapidly depleting the fish supply in several localities in this State, and it is therefore necessary that this act shall take effect immediately.
An act granting to the city of Pacific Grove the title to certain portions of the water front of said city together with certain submerged lands in the bay of Monterey contiguous thereto.

[Approved by the Governor May 27, 1935; In effect: September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The State of California does hereby cede, grant and relinquish, forever unto the city of Pacific Grove, a municipal corporation organized and existing under the laws of said State, all the right, title, interest, and estate, of said State of California, of, in or to, all of the real estate, lands and property, contiguous to said city of Pacific Grove and bordering on or in the bay of Monterey, and bounded and described, as follows, to wit:

Beginning at the point of intersection of the southeasterly corporate limit line of the city of Pacific Grove produced, and the line of mean high tide of the bay of Monterey; thence northwesterly along said line of mean high tide to the intersection with the westerly corporate limit line of said city produced; thence N. 19° 22' E. along said westerly corporate limit line produced, to the point in the bay of Monterey where the depth of water in said bay is sixty (60) feet measured from the level of mean low tide; thence southeasterly along the line in said bay which line is at a constant depth of sixty (60) feet measured from the level of mean low tide, to the intersection with the southeasterly corporate limit line of said city produced; thence S. 58° 58' W. along said southeasterly corporate limit line produced, to the point of beginning.

Provided, however, that the rights of any and all persons, if any exist, under any title derived from said State of California, in and to any part of said property and premises hereby ceded and granted, be and the same are, hereby reserved from the operation of this act. Provided, however, that, except as hereinafter set forth, no part of said real property shall be used, employed, leased or disposed of in any manner whatsoever for commercial, industrial or revenue producing uses or purposes.

Provided, however, that all or any part of said real property may be used, employed, leased or disposed of except as hereinafter provided, solely for public amusement and pleasure purposes including the use thereof for boat and yacht harbors, boating and yachting, swimming tanks and other like or kindred purposes.

SEC. 2. The entire water front and lands hereby granted shall be held by the city of Pacific Grove and its lawful successors forever, for the use and benefit of said city, and shall not be subject to execution upon any judgment against said city; provided, however, that the following described portion of the real property hereby granted to said city and herein-above described, may from time to time be let or leased for a term not exceeding twenty-five years, or for such less period as said city or its successors may deem to be most advantageous to said municipality, to wit: That portion of the above described lands lying within the following limits: Beginning at the intersection of the southeasterly corporate limit line of the said city of Pacific Grove with the mean high tide line of the bay of Monterey and running thence northwesterly along said tide line five hundred feet, thence leaving said tide line, north sixty degrees east to an intersection with a line projected north from the point of beginning, thence south to the point of beginning. Any lease made at any time for a term in excess of said maximum term hereinbefore prescribed shall be wholly void; provided, however, that not more than three hundred of said five hundred feet frontage of said water front last above described may be leased to any one lessee; and provided, further, that any and all vessels shall have the right to dock, land and discharge passengers or merchandise in, at and upon any wharf or pier erected or built upon property so leased as last above described upon the payment to any such lessee or lessees of reasonable dockage and wharfage fees and charges. Such fees and charges shall be regulated and prescribed in each such lease as from time to time may be determined by ordinance of said city of Pacific Grove or by statute of the State of California.

Sec. 3. Except as in this act otherwise prescribed, all valid rights of any and all persons, if such exist, in or to any part of said real property hereby ceded and granted to said city of Pacific Grove shall be and the same are hereby excepted and omitted from the provisions hereof.

Sec. 4. The purpose of this act is to correct an omission in the description of the lands described in that certain act of the Legislature of the State of California entitled "An act granting to the city of Pacific Grove the title to the water front of said city, together with certain submerged lands in the bay of Monterey contiguous thereto." Approved by the Governor, June 9, 1931.

Sec. 5. All acts and portions of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 232.

An act to amend section 6.90a of the School Code, relating to junior college buildings.

[Approved by the Governor June 1, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6.90a of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sch C., 1929, p 338.
6.90a. The governing board of any junior college district shall have the power, when in its judgment it is deemed necessary, to construct and maintain dormitories in connection with any junior college within the district for use and occupancy by pupils in attendance at such junior college and shall fix the rates to be charged such pupils for quarters therein.

CHAPTER 233.

An act to add section 3653.5 to the Political Code, relating to county assessors.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3653.5 is hereby added to the Political Code to read as follows:

3653.5. The records of the assessor are at all times, during office hours, open to the inspection of any person charged with the duty of assessing property for any governmental unit levying a tax or assessment on property within the county.

CHAPTER 234.

An act to amend section 683 of the Civil Code, relating to joint tenancy.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 683 of the Civil Code is amended to read as follows:

683. A joint interest is one owned by two or more persons in equal shares, by a title created by a single will or transfer, when expressly declared in the will or transfer to be a joint tenancy, or by transfer from a sole owner to himself and others, or from tenants in common to themselves, or to themselves and others, or from a husband and wife when holding title as community property or otherwise to themselves or to themselves and others when expressly declared in the transfer to be a joint tenancy, or when granted or devised to executors or trustees as joint tenants. A joint tenancy in personal property may be created by a written transfer, instrument or agreement. Provisions of this section shall not restrict the creation of a joint tenancy in a bank deposit as provided for in the Bank Act.
CHAPTER 235.

An act to add section 3.401 to the School Code, relating to tuition fees of students in junior colleges.

[Approved by the Governor June 1, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the School Code to be numbered 3.401 and to read as follows:

3.401. The governing board of any junior college district may require a tuition fee annually of each student enrolled in the junior college of the district, and for the education of whom the district is not entitled by any other law to receive from any other source an amount equal to at least the maximum tuition fee herein provided for. The amount of the tuition fee shall be determined by the governing board of the district, but shall not exceed the total cost to the district of educating such pupil, exclusive of the moneys apportioned to the district from the State junior college fund, on account of such pupils attendance during the year for which such tuition is charged.

The tuition fees collected under the provisions of this section shall be used by the junior college board for the maintenance and operation of the junior college.

CHAPTER 236.

An act to amend sections 2.870, 2.871, 2.872, 2.885, 2.887, 2.890, 2.911, 2.917, 2.940, 2.941, 2.1055, 2.1090, 2.1152 and 2.1199 of the School Code of the State of California, to amend and renumber section 2.990 thereof to be section 2.991, and to add thereto section 2.781, relating to election of school governing boards.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2.870 of the School Code is hereby amended to read, as follows:

2.870. An election for school trustees must be held in each school district on the first Friday of June of each year, at the district schoolhouse, if there is one, and if there is none, at the place to be designated by the board of trustees.

SEC. 2. Section 2.871 of the School Code is hereby amended to read, as follows:

2.871. In a new school district the school trustees shall be elected on the first Friday of June subsequent to the formation of the district, to hold office for one, two and three years, respectively, from the first day of July next succeeding their election.

SEC. 3. Section 2.872 of the School Code is hereby amended to read, as follows:

2.872. Except as otherwise provided in this article, one trustee shall be elected annually, to hold office for three years from the first day of July next succeeding his election, or until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified.

Sec. 4. Section 2.885 of the School Code is hereby amended to read, as follows:

2.885. The superintendent of schools of the county shall furnish with the official ballots required in this article, official poll and tally lists. The heading of the poll list shall read: "Official poll list of ______ school district for the school election held on ______ day of June, 19______." Under this heading shall be arranged three columns. The first column shall have printed as its heading: "Write your name as it appears on the great register of this county." The second column shall have printed as its heading: "Write your residence, street and number, town or city, and school district." The third column shall have printed as its heading the question: "Are you a qualified registered voter in this school district?" The person offering to vote at a school election shall write his name in the first column of the poll list, give his residence in the second, and, in the third shall write the word "yes" or "no."

Sec. 5. Section 2.887 of the School Code is hereby amended to read, as follows:

2.887. The tally list provided for in this article shall have printed as its heading: "An official tally list of ______ school district for the school election held on ______ day of June, 19______." It shall be arranged in lines so as to give room for at least five candidates and shall be vertically ruled, providing for counting the votes under a tally system. The final column shall have as its heading: "Total votes cast for each candidate." At the bottom of the page shall be provided a space for the signatures of the election officers and over these signatures shall be printed the words: "We hereby certify that this is a correct report of the election held in ______ school district on ______ of June, 19______

Sec. 6. Section 2.890 of the School Code is hereby amended to read, as follows:

2.890. The superintendent of schools of the county shall furnish with the ballots and poll and tally list an envelope on which shall be printed the name and address of the superintendent of schools of the county, and in the lower left-hand corner the words: "Returns of election held in ______ school district, ______ county, on June ______, 19______

Sec. 7. Section 2.911 of the School Code is hereby amended to read, as follows:
2.911. When any union or joint union school district is formed, the superintendent or superintendents of schools who may have jurisdiction over the same, shall, within fifteen days thereafter, appoint a board of school trustees of five members for the union or joint union school district. Each member so appointed shall hold office until the first day of July next succeeding his appointment.

Sec. 8. Section 2.917 of the School Code is hereby amended to read, as follows:

2.917. At the first election for members of the board of school trustees of the union or joint union school district one member shall be elected to hold office for one year, two members for two years, and two members for three years from the first day of July next succeeding. Thereafter, the successors shall be elected as hereinbefore provided.

Sec. 9. Section 2.940 of the School Code is hereby amended to read, as follows:

2.940. When joint districts are formed, three trustees shall be elected at the regular school election next succeeding the formation thereof, to hold office for one, two, and three years respectively, from the first day of July next succeeding their election.

Sec. 10. Section 2.941 of the School Code is hereby amended to read, as follows:

2.941. The terms of the trustees in the districts uniting to form the joint district shall expire on the formation of the district, and the superintendent of the county, in which lies the district having the greater average daily attendance, shall appoint two trustees, and the superintendent of the county in which the other district lies shall appoint one trustee, to hold office until the first day of July next succeeding the formation of the joint district.

Sec. 11. Section 2.990 of the School Code as added by Chapter 837, Statutes of 1931, is hereby amended and renumbered to be section 2.991 and to read as follows:

2.991. The governing board of any elementary school district having an average daily attendance therein of one thousand or more pupils and an assessed valuation of twenty million dollars or more may, and upon petition signed by twenty-five per centum of the heads of families resident in the district, must call an election to determine whether or not, the board shall have the rights, powers and duties of a city board of education and the district shall for all purposes be deemed to be a district governed by a city board of education.

Notice and proceedings of such election shall be in accordance with the provisions of this code relating to the election for school trustees, so far as applicable, and there shall be elected at such election, to take office if the change in the rights, powers and duties of the board is approved by majority vote of the qualified electors in the district, two additional members to the board, one to hold office until the first of July next succeeding the election and one to hold office until one year after the first of July next succeeding the election and until the election and qualification of their respective successors who shall hold office for three years. Thereafter, if the change in the rights, powers and duties of the board is approved, the number of school trustees for any such elementary school district shall be five, and they shall be elected in the same manner and for the same term as provided by law for trustees of elementary school districts, except that two trustees may be elected at the same time when the terms of their predecessors terminate in the same year. If the change is approved by a majority vote of the qualified electors of the district, the board shall have the rights, powers and duties of a city board of education, and the district shall for all purposes be deemed to be a district governed by a city board of education.

Sec. 12. Section 2.1055 of the School Code is hereby amended to read, as follows:

2.1055. One member of the high school board shall be elected to hold office from the day of receiving his certificate of election until the first day of July next succeeding; two members shall be elected to hold office from the day of receiving their certificates of election until the first day of the second succeeding July; and two members shall be elected to hold office from the day of receiving their certificates of election until the first day of the third succeeding July. Thereafter their successors shall be elected in the same manner as are boards of trustees of union and joint union high school districts.

Sec. 13. Section 2.1090 of the School Code is hereby amended to read, as follows:

2.1090. District, union, and joint union high school district governing boards shall meet on the first day of July of each year at twelve o'clock noon, and organize by electing a president from their own number, and a clerk.

Sec. 14. Section 2.1152 of the School Code is hereby amended to read, as follows:

2.1152. Junior college boards shall meet on the first day in July of each year at eleven o'clock a.m., and organize by electing a president from their own number, and a secretary.

Sec. 15. Section 2.1199 of the School Code is hereby amended to read, as follows:

2.1199. To appoint trustees in new elementary school districts to hold office until the first day of July next succeeding their appointment.

Sec. 16. A new section is hereby added to the School Code to be numbered 2.781, and to read as follows:

2.781. The term of office of any member of the governing board of a school district whose term of office did not expire on the first day of May, 1935, shall expire on the first day of July next succeeding the day upon which such term would otherwise expire.
CHAPTER 237.

An act to add a new section to the School Code to be numbered 3.232, relating to the establishment of junior high schools.

[Approved by the Governor June 1, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the School Code to be numbered 3.232 and to read as follows:

3.232. The governing board of any high school district comprising a single elementary school district and not governed by a city or city and county board of education may establish a junior high school or junior high schools when at an election called for that purpose in the same manner as the election for the formation of the high school district, a majority of the qualified electors voting thereat shall vote in favor thereof. The ballots used at the election shall contain the words "Junior High School—Yes" and "Junior High School—No." The result of the election shall be determined and certified to the superintendent of schools as provided in the case of the election for the formation of the district.

CHAPTER 238.

An act to amend section 3480d of the Political Code, relating to reclamation districts, declaring the urgency thereof and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 1, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3480d of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3480d. If a call of an installment of any assessment of a reclamation district shall have been made to pay the principal, or the interest, or the principal and interest, on any outstanding bonds of said district, payment of which is secured by, or is payable out of such assessment, and thereafter the bonds of such maturity, or any thereof, have been refunded, or otherwise canceled in the manner provided by law, or not less than ninety per cent of the holders of all of the outstanding bonds of said district shall have entered into and executed a plan for refunding said outstanding bonds, or for the surrender and cancellation thereof, and by reason of any such facts the payment of the principal of such maturity of such outstanding bonds for which such call, in part or wholly, was levied to pay, is not required, then said call so made shall be deemed can-cede and annulled to the extent not required, and upon the filing of a certified copy of resolutions adopted by the board of trustees of the district declaring such cancellation and annulment in the office of the county treasurer of the main county in which such district is located, as main county is defined in section 3460 of the Political Code, said treasurer shall make such entry or entries as shall be necessary in the records of his office to evidence the cancellation of such calls; provided, however, that the cancellation and annulment of any such call or calls shall not be construed as in anywise reducing the assessment against any tract of land within the district; and provided, further, that in the event any landowner shall have paid to the county treasurer the whole, or any part of said call or calls so canceled and annulled, the county treasurer shall, upon demand of such landowner, refund to him the portion of the amount so paid in not so required or if no such demand shall be made, the county treasurer shall hold said portion of said amount as a credit to said landowner on future calls against his land under said assessment.

This section shall be applicable to all bonds which may be exchanged for refunding bonds, or otherwise canceled, either before or after the respective maturity dates of the bonds so exchanged or canceled and to any sale for delinquency as to which the period of redemption has not expired and to all parcels of land heretofore or hereafter bid in and purchased by a county treasurer as trustee of the district in the manner provided by law as to which the period of redemption has expired, and to all calls of installment of assessments heretofore or hereafter paid and in all such respects shall be both prospective and retroactive in its operation.

The following is a statement of facts constituting such necessity: Due to the agricultural depression which has existed for the past several years, many landowners in reclamation districts in the State have been unable to meet their installments upon assessments with the result that their land has been sold to the district. The heavy penalties necessary to be paid as now provided by law, and which continually increase, make it impossible for the landowners to redeem their land and thousands of landowners are now threatened with the loss of their land. If the land is not redeemed and it is deeded to the district, it then becomes nonassessable for district purposes, and the burden becomes all the heavier on the other landowners in the district, causing more delinquency and loss. Many reclamation districts have proceeded and are proceeding to refund their outstanding bonds. In such proceedings such outstanding bonds have been and will be deposited and exchanged for later maturing bonds issued or to be issued by said districts or will be sold to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation or other agency of the government of the United States. Pursuant to law calls of installments of assessments have been made to meet the payment of such outstanding bonds exchanged and to be exchanged or otherwise canceled as provided by law. Said calls have become delinquent and have been and are being and will be enforced and collected in the manner provided by law. Owing to the said refunding proceedings heretofore had and now in process or which will hereafter be had, or through loans granted by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, the collection and the enforcement of the payment of said calls has been, is and will be unnecessary for the reason that the payment of neither the principal nor interest of said maturities of said outstanding bonds for which said calls were levied to pay is not and will not be required. The Legislature hereby declares that the welfare of the State requires that the landowners in these districts be not unnecessarily dispossessed of their land, and that the land be redeemed so as to thenceforth bear its just proportion of taxation.

CHAPTER 239.

An act to add a new section to the Political Code to be known as section 3663d, relating to the assessment of property by the State Board of Equalization and the allocation of the assessed value of such property to the various taxing jurisdictions of the State and to provide that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 1, 1935. In effect immediately]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. A new section to be numbered 3663d is hereby added to the Political Code to read as follows:

3663d. In assessing property pursuant to section 3663a of this code the State Board of Equalization shall determine and assess at its actual value the average amount of rolling stock which is habitually in this State. The amount of rolling stock located in any county, city and county, city or district of this State shall be determined by the average amount of such rolling stock which is habitually in such county, city and county, city or district.

The average amount of rolling stock habitually in this State and in any county, city and county, city or district of this State shall be determined upon the basis of car mileage, track mileage or such other factors or combination thereof as are reasonably calculated to establish the situs of such rolling stock.
The term "rolling stock" means cars, engines or other equipment operated or designed for operation on rails, and includes motor vehicles which are operated between fixed termini or over a regular route.

The words 'between fixed termini or over a regular route' mean termini or route between or over which rolling stock is usually or ordinarily operated even though there may be departures from said termini or route whether such departures be periodic or irregular.

Sec. 2. This act is hereby declared an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1, Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, and shall take effect immediately. The following is a statement of the facts constituting such urgency:

In 1933 amendments to the Constitution were adopted by the people substantially changing the tax system of the State. These amendments provided among other things that properties of certain companies formerly taxed exclusively for State purposes should on and after January 1, 1935, be assessed by the State Board of Equalization and be subject to taxation to the same extent and in the same manner as other property. Unless such properties are assessed and taxed as required by the Constitution the revenue system of the State and its political subdivisions will be disrupted and the orderly functioning of government will be seriously jeopardized.

Among the properties so required to be assessed by said board are large amounts of rolling stock. The present law relating to the assessment of such rolling stock is ambiguous and inconsistent in many respects. Since said board must complete its work of assessment and equalization as of its current assessment date prior to a date which will be ninety days after the adjournment of the present session of the Legislature, it is essential that this act take effect immediately in order to make certain that such properties will be assessed and taxed as required by the Constitution.

An act to add two new sections to the School Code to be numbered 6.223 and 6.224, relating to the sale of property of a school district, declaring the urgency thereof, and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 1, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

New section.

Section 1. A new section is hereby added to the School Code to be known as section 6.223, and to read as follows:
6.223. The governing board of any school district shall have power to, and may in its discretion, dispose of personal property belonging to the district for the purpose of replacement by providing in the notice calling for bids for furnishing new materials, articles or supplies that each bidder shall agree in his bid to purchase said property being replaced and to remove the same from the school grounds and to state in his bid the amount which he will deduct from the price bid for furnishing new materials, articles or supplies as the purchase price for said personal property being purchased from the district and the board shall let the contract to the bidder whose net bid is the lowest, after deducting the amount bid for the purchase of said property, provided said bidder is a responsible person.

Sec. 2. A new section is hereby added to the School Code to be known as section 6.224, and to read as follows:

6.224. The governing board of any school district shall have power to, and may in its discretion, when calling for bids and letting contracts for repairing, altering, adding to or reconstruction of existing school buildings, require each bidder for the erection and completion of said work to agree in his bid to purchase and to remove from the school grounds all old materials required by the specifications to be removed from said school building or buildings and not needed in the execution of the contract proposed to be let and to state in his bid the amount which he will deduct from the price bid for the work as the purchase price of said old materials, and the board shall let said contract to the bidder whose net bid is the lowest after deducting the amount bid for the purchase of said old materials, provided said bidder is a responsible person.

The facts constituting the necessity are as follows: The Legislature of the State of California has enacted Chapter 59 of the Statutes of 1933, relating to the safety of construction of public school buildings which has resulted in the condemning and closing of many structurally unsafe school buildings in the State of California. Until school buildings can be erected, constructed and reconstructed in accordance with the above mentioned act, a large number of school children and teachers are being housed in temporary shacks or are attending school part time only, which endangers the health and safety of such school children and teachers of the State of California. Where buildings must be altered or reconstructed, large amounts of materials must be removed which are not suitable for reuse. Under sections 6.220 and 6.221 of the School Code property which a school district desires to dispose of for the purposes of replacement can only be disposed of by selling the same for cash to the highest bidder. These proposed sections will allow a school district to call for bids for the reconstruction of school buildings and require the contractor to deduct from the price he bids for the work, the amount which he will allow for old material salvaged from the building. This will accomplish three purposes: first, secure the removal of old material with the least possible damage to the material end to the building; second, net the district the largest return for this salvageable material; and third, provide for the speedy removal of material not needed in the reconstruction of the building from school premises.

The proposed sections of this bill will facilitate speedy replacement of condemned and closed school buildings and result in a large saving of money to school districts at a time when the funds of school districts in the State of California are severely taxed by unusual demands.

It is therefore necessary that the provisions of this act become effective at once in order that the health and safety of school children and teachers of the State of California be protected.

CHAPTER 241.

An act to add Chapter 10 to Division IV of the Agricultural Code, relating to the stabilization and marketing of fluid milk and fluid cream, declaring the urgency of this act, to take effect immediately.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. A new chapter is hereby added to Division IV of the Agricultural Code to be numbered 10 and to read as follows:

Chapter 10. Stabilization and Marketing of Fluid Milk and Fluid Cream.

735. The production and distribution of fluid milk and of fluid cream and the dissemination of accurate, scientific information as to the importance of milk and other dairy products in the maintenance of a high level of public health, is hereby declared to be a business affected with a public interest. The provisions of this chapter are enacted in the exercise of police powers of this State for the purpose of protecting the health and welfare of the people of this State.

735.1. The purpose of this chapter is to enable the dairy industry with the aid of the State to correct existing evils, develop and maintain satisfactory marketing conditions, and bring about a reasonable amount of stability and prosperity in the production and marketing of fluid milk and fluid cream and provide means for carrying on essential educational activities. It is the intent of the Legislature that the powers herein conferred shall be liberally construed. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as permitting or authorizing the development of conditions of monopoly in the production or distribution of fluid milk or fluid cream. In the establishment of the terms and conditions under which fluid milk and fluid cream shall be purchased from producers, and under which distributors and retail stores shall sell and distribute the same, such terms and conditions shall be those which will, in the several localities and markets of the State and under the varying conditions of production and distribution insure an adequate and continuous supply of pure fresh wholesome fluid milk and fluid cream to consumers thereof at fair and reasonable prices.

735.2. The director shall enforce the provisions of this chapter and any stabilization and marketing plan or marketing agreement initiated pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, and for that purpose may make such rules and regulations as he deems necessary.

735.3. As used in this chapter:
   (a) "Board" means any local control board created as herein authorized.
   (b) "Fluid milk" includes any milk meeting the health requirements of the place where sold, which has been produced for human consumption as milk, and any such milk until sold as cream, or sold to be used in the manufacture of any dairy product.
   (c) "Fluid cream" includes any cream produced from milk which meets the health requirements of the place where sold, which has been produced for human consumption as cream, and which also meets the health requirements for cream for human consumption of the place where sold and any such cream until sold to be used in the manufacture of any dairy product.
   (d) "Dairy products" includes any product manufactured from milk or any derivative or product of milk.
   (e) "Producer" means any person who operates a dairy herd or herds for the purpose of producing milk to be sold as fluid milk or fluid cream.
   (f) "Distributor" means any person, other than a retail store, irrespective of whether he is also a producer who acquires and sells fluid milk or fluid cream at wholesale or retail.
   (g) "Retail store" means any person or persons owning or operating a retail grocery store, restaurant, confectionary or other similar business where fluid milk or fluid cream in original packages or containers are sold at retail to the general public.
   (h) "Marketing area" is any area within this State declared to be such in the manner described in this chapter.
(i) "Stabilization and marketing plan" means any plan providing for the control of marketing, processing, distribution, or sale of fluid milk or fluid cream within an area, which is formulated as prescribed in this chapter.

(j) "Marketing agreement" means any marketing agreement formulated under the provisions of this chapter.

(k) "Consumer" means any person who buys milk, cream or dairy products for consumption by himself or his household.

735.4. The director shall have and may exercise all the powers conferred by section 353 of the Political Code upon the head of a department of the State in relation to hearings and investigations under this chapter.

735.5. A full and accurate record of business or acts performed or of testimony taken by the director in pursuance of the provisions of this chapter shall be kept and placed on file in the office of the director.

735.6. Any order of the director hereunder substantially affecting the rights of any interested party may be reviewed by any court of competent jurisdiction. Any such action must be commenced within thirty days after the effective date of the order complained of or within thirty days after the injurious effect complained of becomes reasonably apparent.

735.7. The director may bring an action to enjoin the violation or the threatened violation of any provision of this chapter or of any order made pursuant to this chapter in the superior court in the county in which such violation occurs or is about to occur. There may be enjoined in one proceeding any number of defendants alleged to be violating the same provisions or orders, although their properties, interests, residence, or place of business, may be in several counties and the violations separate and distinct. Any proceeding brought hereunder shall be governed in all other respects by the provisions of Chapter III of Title VII of Part II of the Code of Civil Procedure.

735.8. The director upon application and approval of the board may confer, enter into agreements, or otherwise arrange with the constituted authorities of this State, other States, or agencies of the United States with respect to plans relating to the stabilization and distribution of fluid milk and fluid cream within this State or as between this State and other States or the United States, and may exercise his powers hereunder to effectuate and enforce such plans.

735.9. All money received by the director hereunder shall be paid monthly into the State treasury to the credit of the "Department of Agriculture Fund."

Article 2. Control of Fluid Milk.

736. Sixty-five per cent or more of the producers who are producing fluid milk commercially for sale within any marketing area, and who produce not less than sixty-five per cent of the total volume of fluid milk produced commercially for such marketing area, may make application to the director for the appointment of a local control board, for the purpose of formulating and administering a stabilization and marketing plan for marketing fluid milk. The percentage of volume shall be determined on the basis of the quantity of fluid milk produced or by the number of pounds of milk fat produced, at the option of the applicants. A nonprofit cooperative association of producers may make application on behalf of such members. Each member of such cooperative association providing milk for such marketing area shall be counted as an individual in determining the total number of producers producing milk for such marketing area. The application shall state the boundaries of the marketing area sought to be established, and such other information as may be necessary under the provisions of this chapter and as the director may prescribe.

Accompanying each application shall be sufficient funds to reimburse the director for such expenses as he may incur in carrying out necessary preliminary investigations.

736.1. Upon the receipt of such application, the director shall determine whether the area sought to be established as a marketing area is such that conditions of production, distribution and sale are reasonably uniform and susceptible to the application of the stabilization and marketing plan. If the director determines that the boundary of the marketing area described in the application should be changed or other modifications made, said application may be amended to incorporate such changes as are deemed necessary by the director.

736.2. If and when the director determines that the application is properly made, and that the area involved is such that a stabilization and marketing plan is feasible, he shall within thirty days after the date of receiving such application call a meeting of the producers supplying fluid milk to the marketing area at which meeting such producers shall nominate in a manner prescribed by the director, candidates for a local control board. The director from such nominees shall appoint a local control board which shall consist of seven members whose major interests in the dairy industry is the production of fluid milk for said marketing area; provided, that in such cases in which the director is of the opinion that seven members will not give adequate representation to all factors in the marketing area the board may be increased to not more than thirteen members of like qualifications.

The terms of members of the board shall be two years but the term of three members of the first board shall expire at the end of the first year. Board members shall hold office until the election and qualification of their successors. The members at their first meeting shall determine by lot the relative order in which their terms expire. Vacancies shall be filled by appointment by the director for the unexpired term. The members of the board shall receive no compensation for their services but shall be allowed their necessary traveling and other expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties.

736.3. The board shall formulate a stabilization and marketing plan no, inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. No distributor within such marketing area shall purchase milk from producers who do not comply with the provisions of this chapter and such plan. No such plan shall involve a limitation upon the production of fluid milk or fluid cream.

Subject to the approval of the director, the board may establish the minimum prices to be paid producers. In establishing the prices to be paid producers, due consideration shall be given to the economic relationship of butter and other dairy products to the price of fluid milk. In establishing prices the board shall ascertain, as far as feasible, what prices for fluid milk in the marketing area involved will best protect the dairy industry and insure consumers a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk in the public interest.

736.4. Any stabilization and marketing plan shall include standards of fair trade practices. In such standards of fair trade practices the following practices shall be prohibited and are hereby declared unlawful:

(a) The payment or allowance of rebates, refunds, commissions or unearned discounts to any customer, whether in the form of money or otherwise.

(b) The giving away of milk or dairy products for the purpose of securing business, except to bona fide charities.

(c) The extension to certain purchasers of special prices or privileges not extended to all purchasers on like terms and conditions.

(d) Any false or misleading advertising, as defined in section 654a of the Penal Code.

(e) Any discrimination between wholesale customers or between consumers as to prices at which fluid milk or fluid cream are sold.

The plan may provide means for educational and sales stimulation programs, provided that such educational activities or programs are not unfairly detrimental to other products; and may contain such other provisions as may be necessary to effectuate the provisions of this chapter.

736.5. Upon its formulation, the plan shall be submitted to the director for his approval. If he finds that the plan is in conformity with the provisions of this chapter and will reasonably effectuate the purposes thereof, he shall declare the plan in effect without unnecessary delay.

Such plan when established may be amended by the board from time to time, but no such amendment shall take effect until approved by the director.

The board may do all things that are necessary for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of the plan. The director may order the board to desist from any course of conduct which is not in accordance with the provisions and purposes of this chapter.
736.6. The board may assess fees to be paid by producers of fluid milk for the marketing area.

From such assessments there shall be paid to the director such sum, not to exceed one mill per pound of milk fat as may be necessary to defray the expenses incurred by the director in carrying out the provisions of this article. The balance of such fees shall be retained by the board to be used by it to carry out the provisions of the plan.

736.7. Any person aggrieved by any order or regulation made effective by a board may appeal to the director. Upon such appeal, the director shall make an order granting the redress sought, either in whole or in part or denying the appeal. A failure on the part of the director to grant the redress sought within thirty days shall be deemed a denial of the appeal.

Any plan formulated under the provisions of this chapter, and all orders and regulations respecting the same shall be annulled by the director upon application of fifty-one per cent or more of such persons and volume as could have initiated such plan.

Article 3. Control of Fluid Cream.

737. The production and marketing of fluid cream may be subject to a marketing agreement as provided in this article. In the absence of such agreement, fluid cream may be controlled under a stabilization and marketing plan for fluid milk.

737.1. In order to carry out the policy of this chapter, the director is empowered to enter into marketing agreements with producers, associations of producers or distributors of fluid cream for any marketing area.

737.2. Sixty-five per cent or more of the persons engaged in, and who represent sixty-five per cent of the volume of production and distribution of fluid cream for any marketing area, may make application to formulate a marketing agreement.

If the director determines that the application is properly made and that the area involved is such that a control plan is feasible, the director shall authorize such applicants to formulate a marketing agreement upon prepayment to him by applicants of preliminary expenses of the director.

737.3. Such marketing agreement shall contain such provisions as may be necessary to carry out the policy of this chapter, and may include provisions:

1. For the appointment of local control boards with such powers as are specified in this agreement.

2. For the raising of funds, derived equitably from all producers and distributors participating in any marketing agreement, for the purposes specified in the marketing agreement, including means for educational and sales stimulation activities but in no case shall any assessment levied against any person exceed five mills per pound milk fat handled by him.
From such assessments, there shall be paid to the director such sum, not to exceed one mill per pound milk fat as may be necessary to defray the expenses incurred by the director in carrying out the provisions of this article. The balance of such fees shall be retained by the local control board to be used by it to carry out the marketing agreement.

3. For the establishment of minimum wholesale prices for fluid cream in the area.

4. For the establishment of a code of fair practices.

5. Method by which agreement may be annulled.

737.4. Upon the signing of such marketing agreement it shall be forwarded to the director. Upon receipt of such agreement, the director shall determine if the agreement has been properly signed and is in accordance with the provisions and purposes of this chapter. If he determines that it is in such accordance, the director shall make an order establishing a marketing agreement in the area affected, whereupon such an agreement shall become effective. If the director determines that the agreement is not in such accordance, he shall reject it without prejudice to the formulation of a new agreement. Such agreement, when effective, may be amended in such manner as may be provided in such marketing agreement. After taking effect, the provisions of such agreement shall establish the standard of conduct for all persons engaged in any occupation or business regulated by such agreement.

Article 4. Licenses.

737.5. After thirty days after the effective date of such marketing agreement or stabilization and marketing plan, no person shall act as a distributor in the area affected without first having obtained a license from the director. The application shall state the name and address of the applicant and such other information as the director may require and be accompanied by an annual fee of three dollars.

A "producer" who supplies milk only to distributors for processing or distribution, and a retail store as defined in this chapter, shall not be classed as a distributor and is not required to obtain a license.

737.6. The violation of any provisions of this chapter, or of any provision of any stabilization and marketing plan or marketing agreement formulated under the provisions of this chapter, is a misdemeanor.

737.7. All such distributors shall make and file with the director at least once each month such reports as the director may require to enable him to enforce the provisions of this chapter.

737.8. Any record or report made to the director pursuant to the provisions of this article shall be confidential and shall not be divulged except when necessary for the proper determination of any court proceedings or hearing before the director.
737.9. The director, or his authorized agents, shall at all times during regular business hours, have access to all records pertaining to receipts and sales of fluid milk of distributors within any marketing area and in addition shall have access to all milk plants, warehouses or other buildings in which fluid milk is processed or handled.

Such information so obtained shall be kept confidential except in any judicial proceeding or hearing before the director.

737.10. Any person who violates any provision of a stabilization and marketing plan or marketing agreement shall be liable civilly in the sum of five hundred dollars for each and every violation to be recovered by the director in any court of competent jurisdiction. All sums recovered under this section shall be deposited in the State treasury to the credit of the Department of Agriculture fund.

737.11. The director may revoke the license of any distributor who has been convicted of a misdemeanor under this chapter or against whom a judgment has been rendered in any court of competent jurisdiction under this chapter.

737.12. The director shall, within thirty days prior to each regular session of the Legislature, submit to the Governor a full and true report of the transactions under this chapter during the preceding biennium, including a complete statement of receipts and expenditures during such period.

Sec. 2. If any provision of this act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of this act, or the application of such provision to any other person or circumstance, shall not be affected.

The economic conditions of fluid milk producers throughout the State are such as to require immediate relief if their purchasing power and taxpaying ability are to continue and their morale and standard of living are not to be undermined. Such relief can be afforded only by the orderly production and marketing of fluid milk and fluid cream. The provisions herein contained are necessary in order to prevent the further demoralization of the fluid milk and fluid cream industries.
CHAPTER 242.

An act to amend section 73a, of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to superior courts.

[Approved by the Governor June 1, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 73a of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

73a. Whenever, under the provisions of sections 73, 73b and 142 of this code, any session of the superior court is required to be held in any city or town other than the county seat, the judge and clerk, or deputy clerk, and one court reporter of such court shall be allowed their necessary expenses in going to, returning from, and attending upon the business of such court. Such expense shall be a charge against the treasury of the county and paid out of the general fund thereof.

CHAPTER 243.

An act to amend section 4312 of the Political Code, relating to the place of offices of certain county officers.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 4312 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

4312. Sheriffs, clerks, recorders, treasurers and auditors, must have their offices at the county seat, in the courthouse, hall of records, jail or other buildings, provided by the county through the board of supervisors, and keep them open for the transaction of business continuously from nine o'clock a.m. until five o'clock p.m. every day in the year except Sundays and holidays; provided, that in each city containing a population of not less than forty-five thousand as ascertained by the last preceding census taken under the authority of the Congress of the United States or the Legislature of the State of California, wherein the city hall of said city is not less than eight miles distant from the site of the county courthouse, sheriffs and clerks must also have offices in each such city at a place provided by the county through the board of supervisors and keep them open for the transaction of business continuously from nine o'clock a.m. until five o'clock p.m. every day in the year except Sundays and holidays. In any city or town containing a population of not less than twenty thousand as ascertained by the last preceding census taken under the authority of the Congress of the United States, or the Legislature of the State of California, wherein the city hall is not less than thirty miles distant from the county courthouse, sheriffs and clerks must open offices provided by the county through the board of supervisors and keep them open for the transaction of business continuously from nine o'clock a.m. until five o'clock p.m. every day in the year except Sundays and holidays.

In any city or town containing a population of not less than seven thousand, as ascertained by the last preceding census taken under the authority of the Congress of the United States, or the Legislature of the State of California, wherein the city hall is not less than fifty-five miles distant from the site of the county courthouse, sheriffs and clerks must open offices provided by the county through the board of supervisors and keep them open for the transaction of business continuously from nine o'clock a.m. until five o'clock p.m. every day, except Sundays and holidays, during the period for which the superior court is in session in such city or town. And the words "transaction of business" as used herein shall be construed to mean that during the said hours named there shall be present in each of said offices at least one person qualified and prepared to transact the business that may properly come into said office.

The auditor shall not draw his warrant for the salary of any such officer for any month until the latter shall first have presented him with an affidavit setting forth that he has complied with the provisions of this section, and the making of a false affidavit by any of said officers shall subject the party making the same to prosecution for the crime of perjury and to be punished for the same.

The affidavit required herein of the auditor shall be filed with the county clerk, and be and remain a record of the office of said clerk; and the affidavits of the other officers required herein, shall be filed with the county auditor and be and remain a record of his office; provided, that if any of the officers named herein are absent from their office on official business they shall be excused from attendance at their said respective offices during the time they are absent on such business; and provided further, that

In all cases where any officer named herein has no regularly appointed deputy provided by this title and paid by the county at the same time and in the same manner that his principal is paid, he shall be permitted to close his office during the hour from twelve o'clock noon to and until one o'clock p.m.

The judges of the superior court must have chambers at the county seat and must establish such rules and hours for official business as may be necessary for the dispatch thereof.
An act to amend sections 4.750 and 4.751 of the School Code, relating to the computation of average daily attendance of school districts, declaring the urgency thereof and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 1, 1935. In effect immediately]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 4.750 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

4.750. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall estimate the average daily attendance in any school or classes the attendance records of which shall have been lost or destroyed, thus making it impossible for local school officials to render an accurate report on average daily attendance for any school year, commencing with the school year ending June 30, 1935. Such estimated average daily attendance shall be employed as the actual average daily attendance for that school year for all apportionment purposes.

Sec. 2. Section 4.751 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

4.751. The average daily attendance of any school or district in which the average daily attendance shall have been materially decreased during any school year, commencing with the school year ending June 30, 1935, because of conflagration, impassable roads or other public calamity or because of epidemic of unusual duration and prevalence, shall be estimated by the Superintendent of Public Instruction in such manner as to credit to the school or district for apportionment purposes approximately the total average daily attendance which would have been earned therein had the conflagration or other public calamity or epidemic not occurred.

Sec. 3. This measure is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, and as such shall take effect immediately.

Under School Code section 4.750 as it now exists, whenever the records of a school district for any school year have been lost or destroyed, or the average daily attendance thereof has been materially affected by a public calamity, the average daily attendance of the district is determined by adding to or subtracting from the average daily attendance of the district for the preceding school year the average yearly increase or decrease, as the case may be, for the next preceding three school years. In no case has the average daily attendance for any year in a district been decreased by the operation of the existing law. The attendance in practically every school district increases yearly. Under the existing law, if the attendance of a district is materially affected by a public calamity for two or more successive school years there is a pyramiding of the attendance computed under the present law. During the current school year 1934—1935 the school districts comprising one school system alone received about $1,039,000 more from State funds than it would normally have been entitled to receive. This sum was taken from the general fund of the State. To prevent a recurrence of this situation during the next school year 1935—1936, which begins July 1, 1935, and thereafter, it is necessary that this measure take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 245.

An act to add a new section to the Insurance Code to be numbered 10113, relating to life and disability insurance policies.

Note.—See Stats. 1935, Ch. 145.

CHAPTER 246.

An act to amend section 10111 of the Insurance Code, relating to life and disability insurance.

Note.—See Stats. 1935, Ch. 145.

CHAPTER 247.

An act to prohibit marathons, marathon dances, walkathons, skatathons, and other mental and physical endurance contests and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. The word "person" as used herein shall include any firm, copartnership, corporation, association, society, club or individual.

Sec. 2. Words used herein in the singular shall include the plural and words used in the neuter shall include the masculine and feminine.
Sec. 3. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation or association of persons to conduct, carry on, manage or maintain, or to cause or permit to be conducted, carried on, managed or maintained, or for any person to participate in, or to cause or permit to be participated in, or to aid or assist in the conducting or maintenance of, any public so-called "marathon dance," "walkathon," "endurathon," "speedathon," or any public human endurance dancing, walking, running, skipping, jumping, sliding, gliding, rolling, or crawling contest or exhibition, under any other designation or name, or any similar public exhibition or contest of human endurance in dancing, walking, running, skipping, jumping, sliding, gliding, rolling or crawling, within the State of California.

Sec. 4. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to apply to amateur or professional athletic events or contests or to high school, college or intercollegiate athletic contests or sports, or to any events or contests licensed by the State or by any board, commission or officer thereof.

Sec. 5. Any person, firm, corporation, or association of persons violating any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall be punishable by a fine of not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not to exceed six (6) months or by both such fine and imprisonment. Each separate day or any portion thereof during which any violation of this act occurs or continues shall be deemed to constitute a separate offense and upon conviction thereof shall be punishable as herein provided.

Sec. 6. If any section, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act, and each section, sentence, clause and phrase hereof irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared unconstitutional.

CHAPTER 248.

An act to regulate the production and distribution of serums, vaccines, bacterial cultures, and viruses, to provide for the licensing of persons manufacturing and preparing the same, and to provide penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. It is unlawful to sell or distribute any serum, vaccine, bacterial culture or virus not produced by a laboratory approved by the Bureau of Laboratories of the Department of Public Health. Products produced in laboratories under license of the United States Public Health Service and of the Bureau of Animal Industry, United States Department of Agriculture, shall be deemed to meet all of the requirements of the Bureau of Laboratories.

Sec. 2. The State Board of Public Health shall make rules and regulations for the production, labeling, storage and transportation of all serums, vaccines, bacterial cultures, bacterial products, or viruses within this State, excepting those produced by laboratories specifically approved and licensed by the United States Public Health Service and the Bureau of Animal Industry, United States Department of Agriculture.

Sec. 3. The State Board of Public Health shall issue a license to any person, firm, corporation or association engaged in the business of preparing serum, vaccines, bacterial culture or viruses within this State. The application for such a license shall contain such information as the State Board of Public Health requires. The application must be accompanied with the sum of five dollars, which shall be the license fee for the first year. The license shall be annually renewable upon the payment of a renewal fee of two dollars.

Sec. 4. The State Board of Public Health may fix reasonable charges for the work of analyzing and testing the products of a licensee; and may make such rules and regulations, not inconsistent herewith as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this act.

Sec. 5. The license may be revoked or suspended by the State Board of Public Health after notice and hearing for the violation of any provision of this act or any rule or regulation made under the authority of this act.

Sec. 6. All moneys collected under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the State treasury and credited to the general fund.

Sec. 7. The violation of any provision of this act is a misdemeanor and punishable by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than ten days, or by both.

CHAPTER 249.

An act to amend section 601 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to peremptory challenges in civil cases.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 601 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:
601. Either party may challenge the jurors, but where there are several parties on either side, they must join in the challenge before it can be made. The challenges are to individual jurors, and are either peremptory or for cause. Each side is entitled to six peremptory challenges. If no peremptory challenges are taken until the panel is full, they must be taken by the sides alternately, commencing with the plaintiff, and each side shall be entitled to have the panel full before exercising any peremptory challenge.

CHAPTER 250.

An act to amend sections 4.161 and 4.221 of the School Code, all relating to unapportioned county school funds.

[Approved by the Governor June 1, 1335 In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4.161 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

4.161. The county superintendent of schools shall include in his estimate of the amount of the unapportioned county elementary school fund such sums as shall be necessary to meet the expenses charged elsewhere in this code against such fund, together with such amounts as he shall estimate as necessary for emergency apportionments to the elementary school districts of the county. The total amount so estimated shall be subject to the approval of the Superintendent of Public Instruction and shall in no event exceed an amount equal to ten per cent of the moneys apportioned to the county during the preceding school year from the State school fund.

SEC. 2. Section 4.221 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

4.221. The county superintendent of schools shall include in his estimate of the amount of the unapportioned county high school fund such sums as shall be necessary to meet the expenses charged elsewhere in this code against such fund, together with such amounts as he shall estimate as necessary for emergency apportionments to the high school districts of his county. The total amount so estimated shall be subject to the approval of the Superintendent of Public Instruction and shall in no event exceed a sum equal to ten per cent of the amount apportioned to the county during the preceding school year from the State high school fund.
Ch. 251] FIFTY-FIRST SESSION

CHAPTER 251.

An act relating to the registration of vessels and requiring a tax clearance as the prerequisite for registration.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. As used in this act the term “vessel” includes all watercraft capable of self-propulsion or propulsion by wind, except vessels of more than fifty tons burden registered at any port in this State and engaged in the transportation of freight or passengers.

This act shall not apply to boats propelled by portable outboard motors, or to boats less than twenty feet in length equipped with stationary motors.

The term “assessor” means the county assessor of the county in which the vessel is subject to assessment.

Sec. 2. No vessel shall be operated within the limits of the inland or territorial waters of the State of California unless said vessel is registered as provided for in this act.

Sec. 3. Every owner of one or more vessels operated within the inland or territorial waters of the State of California shall annually file between January 1 and January 31 of each year with the assessor a statement of his name, residence, and post-office address, and a description of each vessel owned by him, and shall give such other information pertaining to such vessels as shall be required by the assessor. The assessor shall register each vessel assigning to it a distinguishing number, and shall issue to each owner a certificate of registration which shall contain the name of the owners and the number supplied to the vessel and such other matters as the assessor may prescribe. The certificate shall at all times be carried upon such vessel and shall be subject to examination by any official charged with the duty of assessing property, or by any officer or employee of the assessor.

Sec. 4. Upon the transfer of ownership of a vessel the person in whose name the vessel is registered shall return the certificate of registration to the assessor with a notice stating the date of such transfer and the name, place of residence and post-office address of the new owner, whereupon the certificate shall be transferred to the new owner. The registration of every vessel expires at midnight on the thirty-first day of December of each year.

Sec. 5. No vessel required to be registered by the provisions of this act shall be registered, nor shall any certificate of registration be transferred, unless the application for registration or transfer shows by appropriate annotation or endorsement, that all taxes for the then current fiscal year authorized by law to be levied against such vessel in the county, city and county, or municipality in which said vessel was subject to assessment have been paid in full, or that the amounts thereof have been entered upon the appropriate assessment roll as a lien against real property.

Sec. 6. It is the duty of the county, city and county, and city assessors, upon proper showing to execute such tax clearance certificates as are required by this act. In case the vessel is subject to taxation only by the State the Controller shall execute the proper tax clearance certificates.

Sec. 7. The assessor shall prescribe the form of the tax clearance certificate, and shall cause it to be printed upon the back of the certificate of registration.

Sec. 8. Any person who operates a vessel subject to registration under the provisions of this act, which is not registered as required by this act, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 9. The provisions of this act shall not apply to any vessel owned by, or operated under the authority of, the United States or the State of California.

__An act to amend section 478 of the Agricultural Code, relating to cream.__

[Approved by the Governor June 1, 1935  In effect September 15, 1935 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 478 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

478. (a) Cream is that portion of milk, rich in milk fat, which rises to the surface of milk on standing, or is separated from it by centrifugal force. It shall be fresh and clean, and shall contain not less than twenty per cent of milk fat and not more than seven and eight-tenths per cent of milk solids not fat in cream containing twenty per cent of milk fat and correspondingly less solids for greater percentages of milk fat.

The ratio of fat and solids not fat in cream shall be in the following proportions:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Solid not fat, per cent, not more than</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Fat, per cent</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>20.0 to 30.0------------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>30.1 to 35.0------------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>35.1 to 40.0------------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>40.1 and above-----------------------</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

(b) Cream shall be produced from non-reacting tuberculin tested cows as determined by a test applied by an approved veterinarian under the supervision of the director, or shall be pasteurized and shall otherwise conform to the rules and regulations adopted by the director.
(e) Cream for manufacturing purposes may be classified and graded in accordance with standards established in the rules and regulations adopted by the director. Cream for manufacturing purposes may be repasteurized once.

(d) Cream for manufacturing purposes, when pasteurized, may be sold by a creamery to persons from whom the creamery purchases cream, and such cream, so sold, shall not be considered market cream. Such cream shall not be resold by such purchasers.

CHAPTER 253.

An act to amend sections 1150 and 1151 of the Insurance Code, relating to purchasing, holding and conveying of real estate by insurers.

NOTE.—See Stats. 1935, Ch. 145.

CHAPTER 254.

An act to amend section 1241 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the taking of property under proceedings in eminent domain.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1241 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1241. Before property can be taken, it must appear:

1. That the use to which it is to be applied is a use authorized by law;

2. That the taking is necessary to such use; provided, when the board of directors of an irrigation district, of a public utility district, or of a water district or the legislative body of a county, city and county, or an incorporated city or town, shall, by resolution or ordinance, adopted by vote of two-thirds of all its members, have found and determined that the public interest and necessity require the acquisition, construction or completion, by such county, city and county, or incorporated city or town, or irrigation, public utility, or water district, of any proposed public utility, or any public improvement, and that the property described in such resolution or ordinance is necessary therefor, such resolution or ordinance shall be conclusive evidence; (a) of the public necessity of such proposed public utility or public improvement; (b) that such property is necessary therefore, and (e) that such proposed public utility or public improvement's planned or located in the manner which will be most compatible with the greatest public good, and the least private injury; provided, that said resolution or ordinance shall not be such conclusive evidence in the case of the taking by any county, city and county, or incorporated city or town, or irrigation, public utility, or water district, of property located outside of the territorial limits thereof.

3. If already appropriated to some public use, that the public use to which it is to be applied is a more necessary public use; provided, that where such property has been so appropriated by any individual, firm or private corporation the use thereof for a public street or highway of the State, a county, city and county, or any incorporated city or town, or joint highway district, or the use thereof by the State, a county, city and county, or any incorporated city or town, or joint highway district, or a municipal water district or an irrigation district, a public utility district, or a water district for the same purposes to which it has been appropriated or for any public purpose, shall be deemed a more necessary use than the public use to which such property has been already appropriated; and provided, further, that property of any character, whether already appropriated to public use or not, including all rights of any nature in water, owned by any person, firm or private corporation may be taken by a county, city and county, or any incorporated city or town or by a municipal water district, or an irrigation district, a public utility district, or a water district, for the purpose of supplying water, or electricity for power, lighting or heating purposes to such county, city and county, or incorporated city or town, or municipal water district, or an irrigation district, a public utility district, or a water district, or the inhabitants thereof, or for the purpose of supplying any other public utility, or for any other public use. And such taking may be made, either to furnish a separate and distinct supply of such water, and such electricity for power, lighting or heating purposes, or to provide for any such separate and distinct other public utility or other public use; to furnish such a supply or provide for any such other public utility or other public use in conjunction with any other supply or with any other public utility or other public use that may have been theretofore provided for or that may thereafter be provided for in so supplying or providing for such county, city and county, or incorporated city or town, or municipal water district or an irrigation district, a public utility district, or a water district, or the inhabitants thereof; or in conjunction with any other supply or with any other public utility or other public use that may have been theretofore determined upon or that may thereafter be determined upon in accordance with law by the people of any such county, city and county, incorporated city or town or municipal water district or an irrigation district, a public utility district, or a water district. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as in any way limiting such rights as may be given by any other law of this State to counties, cities and counties, incorporated cities or towns or municipal water districts or irrigation districts, public utility districts, or water districts.

But private property appropriated to the use of any county, city and county, incorporated city or town, or municipal water district, or irrigation district, or public utility district, or water district, may not be taken by any other county, city and county, incorporated city or town, or municipal district, or irrigation district, or public utility district, or water district, while such property is so appropriated and used for the public purposes for which it has been so appropriated.

CHAPTER 255.

An act to amend sections 970, 972 and 974 of the Insurance Code, relating to security for the payment of taxes and other obligations of insurers.

NOTE.—See Stats. 1935, Ch. 145.

CHAPTER 256.

An act to amend an act of the Legislature of the State of California entitled "An act providing for the formation, government and operation of harbor districts for the improvement or development of harbors, the calling and conducting of elections in such districts, the issuance and disposal of the bonds thereof, and the assessment and levy of taxes for the payment of such bonds, principal and interest, and for the ordinary expenses of such districts," approved April 20, 1927, as amended, by adding a new section thereto to be numbered section 21 relating to the expenditure of the proceeds of harbor district bonds by the United States of America or any department, officer or agency thereof, and validating expenditures of such bond funds and work by the United States of America or any department, officer or agency thereof.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. That the act designated in the title hereof be amended by adding thereto a new section to be numbered section 21 and to read as follows:
Sec. 21. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this act, where the objects and purposes for which the harbor district bonds were voted are being or shall be carried out by cooperation or agreement between the United States of America or any department, officer or agency thereof, and the harbor district, the proceeds of the harbor district bonds may be turned over to the United States of America, or any department, officer or agency thereof, to be expended by it in the performance of the improvement or development work for which the bonds were voted. And where any of the improvement or development work for which the bonds of the harbor district were voted is to be done jointly with the United States of America, or any department, officer or agency thereof, the portion of the cost thereof to be borne by such harbor district may be turned over to the United States of America, or any department, officer or agency thereof, to be expended by it in the performance of said improvement or development work, and any and all such cooperative arrangements or agreements heretofore entered are hereby validated, legalized and confirmed, and the payment and turning over to the United States of America or to any department, officer or agency thereof, heretofore or hereafter of the proceeds of any harbor district bonds for expenditure by the United States of America, or any department, officer or agency thereof, in the performance of the improvement or development work for which the bonds were voted is hereby validated, legalized and confirmed for all purposes and the performance of said work by or under the supervision of the United States of America, or any department, officer or agency thereof, is hereby validated, legalized and confirmed.

CHAPTER 257.

[Approved by the Governor June 1, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1989 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1989. A witness is not obliged to attend as a witness before any court, judge, justice, or any other officer, out of the county in which he resides, unless the distance be less than one hundred miles from his place of residence to the place of trial.
CHAPTER 258.

An act to accept the provisions of an act of the Congress of the United States effective June 6, 1933, entitled "An act to provide for the establishment of a National employment system and for cooperation with the States in the promotion of such system, and for other purposes."

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The State of California hereby accepts the provisions of an act of the Congress of the United States effective June sixth, 1933, entitled "An act to provide for the establishment of a national employment system and for cooperation with the States in the promotion of such system, and for other purposes" in conformity with section 4, thereof, and will observe and comply with the requirements of said act.

SEC. 2. The Division of State Employment Agencies of the Department of Industrial Relations is hereby designated as the agency of the State as required by such act of Congress hereinbefore specified in section 1 and as such agency is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to cooperate with the United States employment service under and pursuant to the terms, conditions, provisions and requirements of such act and the chief of said division shall have and exercise all powers necessary therefor. The Chief of the Division of State Employment Agencies is hereby further authorized, empowered and directed to take such steps as may be necessary or appropriate to obtain for and on behalf of the State the full benefits, advantages and privileges derivable under and pursuant to such act of Congress.

SEC. 3. The Division of State Employment Agencies of the Department of Industrial Relations is hereby authorized and empowered to receive from the Federal government any and all funds allocated or apportioned to the State under said act of Congress. Such moneys shall be placed in a special fund in the State treasury entitled the "United States employment service fund," which fund is hereby created, and shall be expended in accordance with law by the Chief of the Division of State Employment Agencies.

SEC. 4. For the purpose of cooperating with the United States Employment Service in bringing about uniformity in the names of State employment agencies, the Division of State Employment Agencies may be called, "California Employment Service."
CHAPTER 259.

An act to amend section 3663b of the Political Code, relating to the assessment of property by the State Board of Equalization and to provide that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 1, 1835 In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3663b of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3663b. The board shall have the power to equalize the assessments made by it pursuant to section 3663a of this code, of property located in any city where property is not assessed for city purposes by the assessor of the county in which such city is located, with the assessed value of other property therein. Such equalized value shall be set forth upon the assessment roll transmitted by the board to the auditor or other chief accounting officer of such city pursuant to section 3663a of this code. Immediately following the close of the period for equalizing assessments of property in each city where property is not assessed for city purposes by the assessor of the county in which such city is located, it shall be the duty of the city auditor or other chief accounting officer of such city to notify the State Board of Equalization of the total assessed value of property assessed by the city assessor, after equalization by the city equalization body. Notice shall be given by the board to such city of the final date for the filing with said board of such total assessed value. In case the board is not so notified of such assessed values in any such city prior to such final date the board need not equalize the assessments made by it of property in such city with such assessed values.

Sec. 2. This act is hereby declared an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1, Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, and shall take effect immediately. The following is a statement of the facts constituting such urgency:

In many cities in the State of California, the ratio between the assessed value as determined for the purposes of municipal taxation and the true value of the taxable property differs materially from the corresponding ratio of the assessed value as determined by the county assessor. Under section 14 of Article XIII of the Constitution of this State the State Board of Equalization is required to assess certain property for all tax purposes and unless said board is authorized to equalize such assessments with the assessed value of other property subject to municipal taxation, serious inequalities will result threatening the revenues of many cities of the State. Since said board must complete its work of assessment and equalization as of the current assessment date prior to a date which will be ninety days after the adjournment of the present session of the Legislature, it is essential that this act take effect immediately in order to avert such consequences which will be subversive of the public peace, health and safety.

CHAPTER 260.

An act to amend section 3663a of the Political Code, relating to the assessment of property by the State Board of Equalization and to provide that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 1, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 3663a of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3663a. The State Board of Equalization shall assess all the property required to be assessed by it under the provisions of section 14 of Article XIII of the Constitution of this State at its actual value on the first Monday in March at twelve o'clock meridian; provided, however, that in the case of property situated within the limits of any city having an assessment date other than the first Monday in March, the board shall also assess such property at its actual value on the assessment date of such city.

In assessing notes and solvent credits and equitable or legal interests therein, not secured by mortgage, deed of trust, contract or other obligation, where land situated within this State is pledged as security therefor, a deduction from the assessed value shall be made of such debts including notes, unsecured by mortgage, deed of trust, contract or other obligation, where land situated within this State is pledged as security therefor, as may be owing by such person, firm, corporation or association to bona fide residents of this State.

The State Board of Equalization must exact from each person, firm, copartnership, association, estate, trust, business trust, receiver, syndicate, company or corporation owning, claiming, possessing, using, controlling or managing any of the property mentioned in this section, a statement under oath, setting forth specifically on forms prescribed by the board whatever information the State board may require to make an assessment of such property. Such statement shall be filed with the board; at any time during the year the board may require and it shall be furnished with such information or records for examination as may be required by it to make an assessment of such property. No assessment shall hereafter be rendered invalid by reason of the failure of the board to demand or secure the statement required by this section. If such statement is not furnished as above provided, the assessment made by the board upon the property of the person, firm, copartnership, association, estate, trust, business trust, receiver, syndicate, company or corporation failing to furnish such statement is conclusive and final.

The board shall have the power, and it is hereby authorized to require the assessor of any county, city and county or incorporated city or town of this State to report to it at such times and on such days as the board may prescribe, any information in his possession concerning the actual value of any of the property required to be assessed by the board.

The board is hereby authorized and empowered to call upon any State department, board, bureau or commission or personnel thereof, for such assistance, cooperation, information and service as it may render to the board.

The board shall complete the assessment of all property required to be assessed by it as of the first Monday in March of any year, on or before the first Monday in August of said year. Between the first Monday in August and the third Monday in August of each year, the assessments made by the board shall be open for inspection by all persons interested. At any time prior to the third Monday in August the owner of any property assessed by the board, or the one to whom it is assessed may be heard by the board upon a petition for reassessment.

Immediately after the third Monday in August the board shall transmit to the auditor of each county and city and county an assessment roll showing the assessments made by the board upon all property located in such county or city and county and in each district, and city in such county or city and county.

The board shall also immediately transmit to the auditor or other chief accounting officer of each city the assessment date of which is the first Monday in March an assessment roll showing the assessments made by the board upon all property located in such city and in each district in such city.

In the case of property situated within the limits of any city having an assessment date other than the first Monday in March, the board, upon the completion of the assessment of such property as of such other assessment date, shall give notice to those to whom it is assessed either by mail, in the manner prescribed by section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or by publication in a newspaper of general circulation published in the municipality where such property is located, that the assessment of such property as of such other assessment date has been completed and the time when, and place where, those to whom such property is assessed may be heard on a petition by them for reassessment of such property. Immediately after the time specified in such notice the board shall transmit to the auditor or other chief accounting officer of such municipality an assessment roll showing the assessment made by the board upon all property located in such city.
All such property shall be subject to taxation to the same extent and in the same manner as other property.

In the event that any property required to be assessed by the board escapes assessment for any year, such property when discovered shall immediately be assessed by the board, and a statement of the value of such property shall be transmitted by the board to the officer of the county, city and county, or city required by the law to assess property escaping assessment. The property so assessed by the board and returned to such officer shall thereupon be entered upon the assessment roll of such county, city and county, or city and shall be subject to the same taxes and assessment levies with the same penalties added thereto as if such property had been assessed by such officer.

To carry out the provisions of this section, the board shall employ such assistants as it may deem necessary to serve for such time and for such compensation as the board may determine.

Sec. 2. This act is hereby declared an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, and shall take effect immediately. The following is a statement of the facts constituting such urgency.

Several cities within California have, under special charter provisions, assessment dates other than the first Monday in March. Unless the law is immediately amended to permit the State Board of Equalization to assess such property as is required to be assessed by such board under the provisions of section 14 of Article XIII of the Constitution of this State as of the same date as other property subject to municipal taxation in such cities, grave inequalities in tax burden will result threatening the stability of the public revenues for such cities. Under existing law said board is required to complete all assessments under said section of the Constitution by the third Monday in June. Said board is also required to equalize its assessments with those made locally, and since equalization of local assessments is not completed normally until August, it would be impossible to provide for an equitable assessment of property by the State Board of Equalization unless the existing law requiring the board to complete its assessments by the third Monday in June should be amended. Consequently, unless this act goes into effect immediately grave inequalities in assessments for tax purposes will result, since an act which would not become effective until ninety days following adjournment of the Legislature could not accomplish the necessary changes in time to correct the injustices which would otherwise occur.
CHAPTER 261.

An act to amend the title of Part I of Division V of the School Code, and to amend sections 5.1, 5.2, 5.10, 5.61 and 5.101 thereof, relating to State colleges.

[Approved by the Governor June 4, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The title of Part I, of Division V of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Part I—State Colleges.

SEC. 2. Section 5.1 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

5.1. The State normal schools or teachers colleges now established or hereafter established by the Legislature shall be known as "State colleges." Where in this code the terms "State normal school" or "teachers college" are used, they shall hereafter be understood to mean "State college."

SEC. 3. Section 5.2 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

5.2. The State normal schools located at San Jose, Chico, San Diego, San Francisco, Santa Barbara, Fresno, and Arcata, and any normal or teacher-training school established by the Legislature of the State of California after the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, shall hereafter be known as "State colleges" and shall be designated respectively San Jose State College, Chico State College, San Diego State College, San Francisco State College, Santa Barbara State College, Fresno State College and Humboldt State College.

SEC. 4. Section 5.10 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

5.10. The primary function of the State colleges is the training of teachers, and there shall be no extension of the curriculum of any State college which will carry it into any other field of higher education; provided, that as a secondary function courses in liberal arts may be given, but such courses shall be only such as are appropriate as courses of instruction for students intending to enter the teaching profession.

SEC. 5. Section 5.61 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

5.61. Students shall be admitted to the State colleges in accordance with the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education as provided in this article; provided, that no applicant or student shall be required as a condition to admission or attendance to make a declaration that it is his intention to become a teacher or any declaration to like effect.

SEC. 6. Section 5.101 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:
5.101. The determination of the time and standards for graduation from the State colleges; provided, that no student who is not a candidate for a teaching credential shall be required as a condition to graduation or otherwise to enroll in more than six units of pedagogy.

CHAPTER 262.

An act to add section 444.5 to the Political Code, relating to the repayment of moneys withdrawn from funds in the State treasury and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 5, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section to be numbered 444.5 is hereby added to the Political Code to read as follows:

444.5. If and when any State revenue mentioned in section 15 of Article XIII of the Constitution, other than revenue payable into the general fund of the State, is or has been set apart to be applied by the State to the support of the public school system and the State university, the amount set apart shall be repaid into the fund or funds into which such revenue would otherwise have been paid or from which such revenue was set apart. There is hereby specifically appropriated out of the State general fund such amounts as may be necessary to make such repayments. Except as otherwise provided in this section, such repayments shall be made from the first moneys accruing to the general fund over and above those then necessary to provide for payments for the support of the public school system and the State university, and over and above those moneys, if any, which under the Constitution of California must first be applied to the payment of obligations of the State existing at the time such revenues were set apart. In the event money has been set apart from more than one such revenue, and moneys available are insufficient for repayment in full, repayments shall be made in the proportions in which such revenues so set apart are then unpaid.

In the event that any claim against any appropriation made from any special fund for the support of any State department, office, board, commission, or other State agency, can not be paid out of such special fund by reason of the depletion of such special fund as a result of any such setting apart of revenues therefrom, or of revenues which would otherwise have been paid thereinto, such claim or claims shall be paid from the appropriation hereby made out of the general fund to the extent only of the sum or sums so set apart. It is the intention of the Legislature to provide to the fullest extent of its power for priority of such repayments and to prevent the interruption of the performance of any State function by providing an alternative method of repayment by use of general fund registered warrants, when and if necessary.

Urgency.

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, and shall take effect immediately. The facts constituting such urgency are as follows: The general fund of the State treasury is depleted and certain revenues of the State, other than those going into the general fund, may be set apart for the support of the public school system and the State university under the provisions of section 15 of Article XIII of the Constitution. It is imperative that if such funds are set apart that they be repaid at the earliest possible moment for the reason that the ordinary functions of the State could not otherwise be carried out. This bill will permit such a return of funds and will enable the State government to continue to function.

CHAPTER 263.

An act to amend section 27 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to the maintenance of highways.

NOTE.—See Stats. 1935, Ch. 29.

CHAPTER 264.

Stats. 1883, p. 23, amended.

An act to amend an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation and government of municipal corporations," approved March 13, 1883, by adding a new section thereto numbered section 2a, providing for securing the written consent of political subdivisions owning sixty per cent or more in area or value of the lands to be incorporated.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. That an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation and government of municipal corporations," approved March 13, 1883, be and the same is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to be numbered 2a, and to read as follows:
Sec. 2a. Whenever a petition for the incorporation of unincorporated areas is filed with the board of supervisors of any county, and the holder of title, or evidence of title, to sixty (60%) per cent or more of the lands situated within the limits of the proposed corporation, or the holder of title, or evidence of title, of lands within the limits of the proposed corporation representing sixty (60%) per cent or more of the value of the lands included within said limits, as the value thereof is shown on the last equalized assessment roll of such county, is any county, city and county, or municipality of this State, the written consent of such county, city and county, or municipality, given by the board of supervisors in the case of such county, or city and county, and the principal legislative body of any municipality, to the inclusion of its lands within the limits of the proposed corporation shall be filed with said board of supervisors prior to the publication of such petition as provided for herein.

CHAPTER 265.

An act to amend section 423 of the Agricultural Code, relating to live stock on highways.

[Approved by the Governor June 6, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 423 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

423. No person owning, or controlling the possession of, any live stock, shall willfully or negligently permit any such live stock to stray upon or remain unaccompanied by a person in charge or control thereof upon a public highway, both sides of which are adjoined by property which is separated from such highway by a fence, wall, hedge, sidewalk, curb, lawn or building. No person shall drive any such live stock upon, over or across any public highway between the hours of sunset and sunrise without keeping a sufficient number of herders on continual duty to open the road so as to permit the passage of vehicles. In any civil action brought by the owner, driver or occupant of a motor vehicle, or by their personal representatives or assigns, or by the owner of live stock, for damages caused by collision between any motor vehicle and any domestic animal or animals on a highway, there is no presumption or inference that such collision was due to negligence on behalf of the owner or the person in possession of such live stock.
CHAPTER 266.

An act to amend section 4041.11 of the Political Code, relating to powers and duties of boards of supervisors.

[Approved by the Governor June 6, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4041.11 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

4041.11. (1) Under such limitations and restrictions as are prescribed by law, and in addition to jurisdiction and powers otherwise conferred, the boards of supervisors, in their respective counties, shall have the jurisdiction and powers to maintain, regulate and govern public pounds. Fix the limits within which animals shall not run at large, and appoint poundkeepers, who shall be paid out of the fines imposed and collected from the owners of impounded animals, and from no other source.

(2) To provide for the prevention of injuries to sheep by dogs, and to tax dogs and direct the application of the tax.

(3) To provide for the destruction of gophers, squirrels, other wild animals, noxious weeds, plant diseases, and insects injurious to fruit or fruit trees, or vines, or vegetable or plant life.

(4) To provide for the enforcement of the provisions of the Agricultural Code relating to fruit, nut, and vegetable standards, and for this purpose may enter into cooperative agreements with the Director of Agriculture whereby county funds may be expended for the enforcement of said provisions within or outside of the county.

CHAPTER 267.

An act to amend sections 4.280b and 4.281b of the School Code, relating to revolving funds of school districts for warehouse stock.

[Approved by the Governor June 6, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4.280b of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

4.280b. The governing board of any elementary school district, high school district or junior college district may, if such school district maintains a stock of merchandise for school use, establish a revolving fund for budget control and stock accounting purposes, by adopting a resolution setting forth the necessity for such revolving fund, the purpose for which the fund shall be used and the amount thereof. Three certified copies of such resolutions shall be submitted to the county superintendent of schools, who, if he approves the establishment of such a fund, shall indorse his consent upon such resolution, return one copy thereof to the governing board of the school district and transmit one copy to the county auditor.

Whenever two or more school districts have governing boards of identical personnel, said boards may, if such school districts maintain a stock of merchandise for school use, establish a common revolving fund for budget control and stock accounting purposes, by adopting a resolution of each district setting forth the necessity for such revolving fund, the purpose for which the fund shall be used and the amount thereof. Three certified copies of such resolutions shall be submitted to the county superintendent of schools, who, if he approves the establishment of such fund, shall indorse his consent upon such resolution, return one copy thereof to the governing board of the school districts and transmit one copy to the county auditor.

Sec. 2. Section 4281b of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

4.281b. The amount of the revolving fund shall be determined as follows: The inventory of stores on hand of each school district at the time of the establishment of the fund, such stores having been paid for from school district funds and reported to the county superintendent as such, shall be the amount to constitute the revolving fund of each district. Where a common revolving fund has been established for two or more school districts governed by governing boards of identical personnel, the amount thereof shall be determined as follows: The inventory of stores on hand of each school district at the time of the establishment of the fund, such stores having been paid for from school district funds and reported to the county superintendent of schools as such shall be the amount to constitute the revolving fund and each district shall retain such equity in the common fund. The fund is established through the sale of stores to the school districts, paid by warrant in the same manner as is provided by law for such payments, such warrants to be made payable to the "revolving fund of _______." (Here insert name or names of the school district or school districts establishing the fund.)
CHAPTER 268.

An act to amend sections 699, 702, 703, 708, 709, 711 and 712 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to fish in district 43.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 699 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

699. The bag limit on black bass is 15 per day except in districts 43 and Clear Lake where it is 10 per day.

SEC. 2. Section 702 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

702. Calico bass may be taken only by anglers with hook and line between May 1 and November 30, except in Clear Lake and also district 43 where calico bass may be so taken at any time.

SEC. 3. Section 703 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

703. The bag limit on calico bass is 25 per day except in Clear Lake, where it is 10 per day and in district 43 where it is 15 per day.

SEC. 4. Section 708 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

708. Crappie may be taken by anglers with hook and line between May 1 and November 30, except in Clear Lake and in district 43 where crappie may be so taken at any time.

SEC. 5. Section 709 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

709. The bag limit on crappie is 25 per day except in Clear Lake where it is 10 per day and in district 43 where it is 15 per day.

SEC. 6. Section 711 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

711. Sunfish may be taken by anglers with hook and line between May 29 and November 30 except in district 43 where sunfish may be so taken at any time.

SEC. 7. Section 712 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

712. The bag limit on sunfish is 25 per day, except in district 43 where it is 15 per day. No sunfish may be sold or purchased and not more than one daily bag limit of sunfish may be possessed by any person during one day.
CHAPTER 269.

An act to amend section 4223 of the Political Code, relating to admission to county hospitals.

[Approved by the Governor June 6, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4223 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

4223. The board of supervisors in each county may establish and maintain a county hospital, prescribe the rules for the government and management thereof, and appoint a county physician and the necessary officers and employees thereof, who shall hold office during the pleasure of the board.

In any county where a county hospital has been established, any expectant mother who is unable to pay for her necessary care, must be admitted to such county hospital and the cost of her maintenance and care shall be paid by and be a proper charge against the county of her residence.

CHAPTER 270.

An act to add a new section to be numbered 18.5 to the "Improvement Act of 1911," approved April 7, 1911, relating to contributions of moneys or materials, declaring the urgency thereof and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 6, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section to be numbered 18.5 is hereby added to the act cited in the title hereof to read as follows:

Sec. 18.5. Should any fiscal agent of the United States government contribute any moneys or materials to be used in the construction of any work provided for in this act, the requirements of the agency contributing such moneys or materials may be incorporated in the contract.

The following is a statement of facts constituting such necessity: the public peace, health and safety require the construction of streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places, sidewalks, rights of way and other public improvements, and such public funds are not available to defray the entire cost and expense of such improvements. Legislation is necessary to authorize the contribution of moneys, materials, supplies or equipment, or any of them, by governmental agencies. Federal funds are now available for such purpose. Therefore, this bill providing for contributions of moneys or materials to pay a portion of such cost and expense is urgently necessary and shall go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 271.

An act to amend sections 73 and 142 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to sessions of the superior court.

[Approved by the Governor June 6, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 73 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

73. The superior courts shall hold their sessions at the county seats of the several counties, or cities and counties, except as otherwise provided by section 142 of this code. They shall hold regular sessions, commencing on the first Mondays of January, April, July and October, and special sessions at such other times as may be prescribed by the judge or judges thereof; provided, that in the City and County of San Francisco the presiding judge shall prescribe the times of holding such special sessions; provided also, that a session of the superior court shall be held at each city containing a population of not less than thirty-five thousand as ascertained by the last preceding census taken under the authority of the Congress of the United States, or the Legislature of the State of California, wherein the city hall of said city is not less than eight miles distant from the site of the county courthouse; provided further, that in such of said cities as have a population of more than one hundred twenty-five thousand, as ascertained by such census, at least three regular sessions of the superior court shall be held concurrently; and a majority of the judges of the superior court of said county, may, by an order filed with the county clerk, and published as they may prescribe, provide for, and direct the holding of, additional sessions in each of said cities, when they deem such additional sessions necessary or convenient.

A session of the superior court may be held for a period not exceeding two weeks in any one month, at each city or town containing a population of not less than seven thousand, as ascertained by the last preceding census taken under the authority of the Congress of the United States, or the Legislature of the State of California, wherein the city hall of said city or town is not less than fifty-five miles distant from the site of the county courthouse.
Sec. 2. Section 142 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

142. The judge or judges, justice or justices, authorized to hold or preside at a court appointed to be held in a particular place in a city and county, county, township, city or town, may, by an order filed with the city and county, or county clerk, and published as he or they may prescribe, direct that the court be held or continued at any other place in the city and county, county, township, city or town than that appointed, when war, insurrection, pestilence, or other public calamity, or the danger thereof, or the destruction or danger of the building appointed for holding the court may render it necessary; and may in the same manner revoke the order, and in his or their discretion, appoint another place in the same city and county, county, township, city, or town, in which such court is established, for holding the court. The judge or judges of the superior court may, in the same manner, in his or their discretion, whenever such judge or judges deem it necessary or advisable, direct that the court be held or continued at any other place in the county, not less than one hundred twenty miles distant from the county seat; and may also, in the same manner in his or their discretion, whenever such judge or judges deem it necessary or advisable, direct that the court be held or continued at any other city or town within the county containing a population of not less than seven thousand as ascertained by the last preceding census taken under the authority of the Congress of the United States, or the Legislature of the State of California wherein the city hall of said city or town is not less than fifty-five miles distant from the site of the county courthouse; provided further, that at least one session of the superior court shall be held in each city containing a population of not less than thirty-five thousand as ascertained by the last preceding census taken under the authority of the Congress of the United States, or the Legislature of the State of California, wherein the city hall of said city is not less than eight miles distant from the site of the county courthouse; and provided further, that in any of said cities, the city hall of which is not less than eight miles distant from the site of the county courthouse, which has a population of more than one hundred twenty-five thousand, as ascertained by such census, at least three regular sessions of the superior court shall be held concurrently.

CHAPTER 272.

An act to amend section 1 of an act entitled "An act providing for the supervision and regulation of the transportation of property for compensation over any public highway by auto trucks; defining transportation companies and providing for the supervision and regulation thereof by the Railroad Commission; providing for the enforcement of the provisions of this act and for punishment of violations thereof; and repealing all acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act," approved May 10, 1917, relating to the determination of the operation of auto trucks by transportation companies.

[Approved by the Governor June 6, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 1 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. (a) The term "corporation" when used in this act means a corporation, a company, an association or a joint stock association.

(b) The term "person" when used in this act, means an individual, a firm or copartnership.

(c) The term "transportation company" when used in this act, means every corporation or person, their lessees, trustees, receivers or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, controlling, operating or managing, any auto truck used in the business of transportation of property, or as a common carrier of property, for compensation, over any public highway in this State between fixed termini or over a regular route, and not operating exclusively within the limits of an incorporated city or town or of a city and county; provided, that nothing in this act shall apply to the transportation of baggage and express when transported incidental to the transportation of passengers by a passenger stage corporation as defined in section 24 of the Public Utilities Act.

(d) The term "public highway," when used in this act, means every public street, road or highway in this State.

(e) The words "between fixed termini or over a regular route," when used in this act, mean the termini or route between or over which any transportation company usually or ordinarily operates any auto truck even though there may be departures from said termini or route, whether such departures be periodic or irregular. Whether or not any auto truck is operated by a transportation company "between fixed termini or over a regular route" within the meaning of this act shall be a question of fact and the findings of the Railroad Commission thereon shall be subject to review.
CHAPTER 273.

An act providing for contracts for fire protection between county fire protection districts and municipalities and relating to liability in connection therewith.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. In addition to all powers otherwise conferred, the governing board or board of directors of any county fire protection district shall have the power to contract with any municipality or municipalities contiguous to such county fire protection district, for the furnishing of fire protection to such district by such municipality or municipalities and the legislative body of any municipality in this State shall have jurisdiction and power to contract for the furnishing of such fire protection to such district or districts in such manner and to such extent as such legislative body may deem advisable.

Sec. 2. All of the privileges and immunities from liability which surround the activities of any municipal fire fighting force or department when performing its functions within the territorial limits of such municipality shall apply to the activities of any such municipal fire fighting force or department while furnishing fire protection outside of such municipality under any contract provided for in section 1 of this act.

CHAPTER 274.

An act to amend sections 251, 304, 307, 323, 348, 364, 374, 463 and 465 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to State highways.

Note.—See Stats. 1935, Ch. 29.

CHAPTER 275.

An act to amend the title and sections 4, 4a, 5, 8, 10, 11, 12, 13, 15, 16, 18, 19, 20, 21, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 29, 30, 31 and 35 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act, relating to bank and corporation taxes, including the extension of the provisions of said act to the companies taxable hereunder and their franchises, other than insurance com-
The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SEC. 1. The title of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

An act to carry into effect the provisions of sections 14 and 16 of Article XIII of the Constitution of the State of California, relating to bank and corporation taxes.

SEC. 2. Section 4 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 4. (1) Every financial corporation doing business within the limits of this State, taxable under the provisions of section 16 of Article XIII of the Constitution of this State, shall annually pay to the State for the privilege of exercising its corporate franchises within this State, a tax according to or measured by its net income, to be computed, in the manner hereinafter provided, upon the basis of its net income for the next preceding fiscal or calendar year at the rate provided for in section 4a hereof.

(2) Each such financial corporation shall be entitled to an offset against said franchise tax, in the manner hereinafter provided, in the amount of taxes paid upon its personal property to any county, city and county, city, town or other political subdivision of the State; provided, however, that the tax on such financial corporation after the allowance of offset shall not be less than two per centum of its net income for the preceding fiscal or calendar year or less than twenty-five dollars.

(3) With the exception of financial corporations, every corporation doing business within the limits of this State and not expressly exempted from taxation by the provisions of the Constitution of this State or by this act, shall annually pay to the State, for the privilege of exercising its corporate franchises within this State, a tax according to or measured by its net income, to be computed, in the manner hereinafter provided, at the rate of two per centum upon the basis of its net income for the next preceding fiscal or calendar year. In any event, each such corporation shall pay annually to the State, for the said privilege, a minimum tax of twenty-five dollars.

(4) Any corporation organized to hold the stock or bonds of any other corporation or corporations and not trading in such stock or bonds or other securities held, and engaging in no other activities than the receipt and disbursement of dividends from such stock or interest from such bonds, shall not be considered a corporation doing business in this State for the purposes of this act.

(5) Every corporation not otherwise taxed in pursuance of this section and not expressly exempted by the provisions of this act or the Constitution of this State shall pay annually to the State a tax of twenty-five dollars.

(6) In any event any corporation organized for religious, charitable, social, cemetery, scientific, educational, recreational, literary, fraternal or civic purposes if its organization or activities are not designed for, and do not result in financial or pecuniary gain or profit to the stockholders or members thereof, shall not be taxed under this act.

(7) Taxes under this section and under sections 1 and 2 of this act shall accrue on the first day of the "taxable year," as defined in section 11 hereof.

(8) The provisions of this subdivision, and of all other amendments to this act enacted during the year 1935, shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1934. Provided, however, that the tax for taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1935, and ending during the calendar year 1935, shall be adjusted in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (d) of section 12 of this act. Any tax, for a taxable year specified in this subdivision, in addition to that disclosed by the return, made necessary solely by amendments to this act, shall accrue on January 1, 1935, and shall be due and payable within ten days from the date of notice and demand from the commissioner, or on or before the fifteenth day of the ninth month following the close of the income year, as defined in section 11 of this act, whichever is later. If not so paid, interest shall be added thereto pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (c) of section 24 of this act. Such tax shall not be considered a deficiency assessment within the meaning of section 25 of this act.

Whenever any tax is paid under this act, and by reason of amendments to this act, such payment exceeds the amount properly payable, such excess shall be refunded or credited to the bank or corporation, as provided in section 27 of this act.

Sec. 3. Section 4a of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 4a. The rate of tax on national banking associations and other banks and financial corporations mentioned in sections 1, 2 and 4 of this act shall be a percentage equal to the percentage of the total amount of net income, allocable to this State, of every corporation taxable under subdivision (3) of section 4 of this act, for the next preceding calendar year or fiscal years ended during such calendar year, required to be paid to this State as franchise taxes according to or measured by such net income, and required to be paid to this State or its political subdivisions as personal property taxes during the preceding calendar year or fiscal years ended in such calendar year; provided, however, that said rate of tax shall not exceed six per centum. The percentage of the net income of every corporation taxable under subdivision (3) of section 4 of this act, required to be paid to this State or its political subdivisions in personal property taxes shall be determined by ascertaining the ratio which the total amount of such personal property taxes, less two per cent thereof, bears to the total amount of net income of such corporations, allocable to California, increased by the amount of such personal property taxes; provided, however, that if any such corporation sustains a net loss allocable to California the personal property taxes required to be paid by such corporation to this State or its political subdivisions during the preceding calendar year or fiscal years ended during such calendar year shall be considered for the purpose of determining such ratio only to the extent which such personal property taxes exceed such net loss allocable to California.

The commissioner, after public hearing and opportunity given to examine the data on which his determination is based, shall determine not later than the thirty-first day of December of each year the average percentage of net income above specified, and shall forthwith mail notice of his determination and the amount of tax payable on the basis of such determination to all banks and financial corporations affected thereby, but such determination shall not be considered a deficiency assessment within the meaning of section 25 hereof.

If it be judicially determined that the rate of tax on any bank or corporation is higher than is authorized by law such bank or corporation shall be relieved of liability for any tax imposed by this act only to the extent of the excess beyond that legally authorized.

Sec. 4. Section 5 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5. The term "corporation," as herein used, shall include every corporation, other than a bank or banking association, and other than those expressly exempted from the tax by the provisions of this act or the Constitution of the State of California.

The term "bank," as hereinafter used, shall include national banking associations.

The term "doing business," as herein used, means actively engaging in any transaction for the purpose of financial or pecuniary gain or profit.

Sec. 5. Section 8 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 8. In computing "net income" the following deductions shall be allowed:

(a) All the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the income year in carrying on business, including a reasonable allowance for salaries or other compensation for personal services actually rendered, and rentals or other payments required to be made as a condition to the continued use or possession for business purposes of property to which the taxpayer has not taken or is not taking title or in which it has no equity.

(b) All interest paid or accrued during the income year on indebtedness of the taxpayer.
(c) Taxes or licenses paid or accrued during the income year, other than taxes paid to the State under this act and other than taxes on or according to or measured by income or profits paid or accrued within the income year imposed by the authority of (1) the government of the United States or any foreign country, (2) any State, Territory, county, city and county, school district, municipality, or other taxing subdivision of any State or Territory, and other than taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed, but this shall not exclude the allowance as a deduction of so much of said taxes assessed against local benefits as is properly allocable to maintenance or interest charges; provided, however, that the deduction of personal property taxes shall be subject to the provisions of section 26 hereof.

(d) Losses sustained during the income year and not compensated for by insurance or otherwise, except that such losses may, with the consent of the Franchise Tax Commissioner, hereinafter designated "commissioner," be accounted for as of a different period. In the case of any loss claimed to have been sustained in any sale or other disposition of shares of stock or securities where it appears that within thirty days before or after the date of such sale or other disposition, the taxpayer has acquired (otherwise than by bequest or inheritance) or has entered into a contract or option to acquire substantially identical property and the property so acquired is held by the taxpayer for any period after such sale or other disposition, no deduction for the loss shall be allowed unless the claim is made by a taxpayer, a dealer in stocks or securities, and with respect to a transaction made in the ordinary course of its business. If such acquisition or the contract or option to acquire is to the extent of part only of substantially identical property, then only a proportionate part of the loss shall be disallowed. Upon the subsequent sale or disposition of shares of stock or securities, in respect of which a loss has been disallowed, the basis for measuring gain or loss in the case of the property so acquired shall be the basis in the case of the stock or securities so sold or disposed of, except that if the repurchase price was in excess of the sale price such basis shall be increased in the amount of the difference, or if the repurchase price was less than the sale price such basis shall be decreased in the amount of the difference.

(e) Debts ascertained to be worthless and charged off within the income year, or, in the discretion of the commissioner, a reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts. When satisfied that a debt is recoverable in part only, the commissioner may allow such debt to be charged off in part.

(f) Exhaustion, wear and tear and obsolescence of property to be allowed upon the basis provided in sections 113 and 114 of that certain act of the Congress of the United States known as the "Revenue Act of 1934," which are for the purposes of this subdivision hereby referred to and incorporated with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

(g) In the case of mines, oil and gas wells, other natural deposits and timber, a reasonable allowance for depletion and for depreciation of improvements according to the peculiar conditions in each instance, such reasonable allowance in all cases to be made under the rules and regulations to be prescribed by the commissioner.

In the case of leases the deduction shall be equitably apportioned between the lessor and the lessee.

The basis upon which depletion is to be allowed in respect of any property and the amount of depletion allowable shall be as provided in sections 113 and 114 of the said Revenue Act of 1934, which are, for the purposes of this subdivision, hereby referred to and incorporated with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

(h) Dividends received during the income year from a bank or corporation doing business in this State declared from income arising out of business done in this State; but if the income out of which the dividends are declared is derived from business done within and without this State, then so much of the dividends shall be allowed as a deduction as the amount of the income from business done within this State bears to the total business done. The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to dividends received from banks or corporations not taxable under Article XIII of the Constitution of this State.

The burden shall be on the taxpayer to show that the amount of dividends claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this State.

(i) In the case of a building and loan association, organized and operating wholly or partly on a mutual plan, the return paid or credited on or apportioned to the withdrawable shares of such associations, but not exceeding the return such shares would receive computed at the average rate paid by all such associations in this State, or by such associations in a particular locality, as the Building and Loan Commissioner of this State may determine, on money borrowed or obtained through the issue during the income year of the association of all classes of notes and investment certificates not evidencing any proprietary interest in the association, such rate to be determined by the Building and Loan Commissioner and certified by him to the Franchise Tax Commissioner on or before the first day of March of each year.

(j) In the case of a mutual savings bank, the entire amount of interest paid to depositors possessing no proprietary interest in the institution or in its surplus, and interest on their deposits to members possessing a proprietary interest in the institution or in its surplus at a rate determined by the State Superintendent of Banks to be the going rate of interest upon savings deposits in the State during the calendar year preceding the taxable year, such rate to be certified by him to the commissioner on or before the first day of March of each year.

(k) In the case of farmers, fruit growers, or like associations organized and operated in whole or in part on a cooperative or a mutual basis, (a) for the purpose of marketing the products of members or other producers, and turning back to them the proceeds of sales, less the necessary marketing expenses, which may include reasonable reserves, on the basis of either the quantity or the value of the products furnished by them, or (b) for the purpose of purchasing, or producing, supplies and equipment for the use of members or other persons, and turning over such supplies and equipment to them at actual cost, plus necessary expenses, all income resulting from or arising out of such business activities for or with their members carried on by them or by their agents; or when done on a nonprofit basis for or with nonmembers.

(l) In the case of other associations organized and operated in whole or in part on a cooperative or a mutual basis, all income resulting from or arising out of business activities for or with their members, or with nonmembers, done on a nonprofit basis.

(m) If any deduction provided for in this section is finally adjudged discriminatory against a national banking association contrary to section 5219 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, or is for any reason finally adjudged invalid, in that event the tax of the favored taxpayer shall be recomputed by the Tax Commissioner for the taxable year in question, as of the time of allowance of the deduction, by disallowing the deduction, and any difference between the amount of the tax as recomputed and the amount of the tax as originally computed shall be subject to the provisions hereof relating to original computations.

Sec. 6. Section 10 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 10. If the entire business of the bank or corporation is done within this State, the tax shall be according to or measured by its entire net income; and if the entire business of such bank or corporation is not done within this State, the tax shall be according to or measured by that portion thereof which is derived from business done within this State. The portion of net income derived from business done within this State, shall be determined by an allocation upon the basis of sales, purchases, expenses of manufacturer, pay roll, value and situs of tangible property, or by reference to these or other factors, or by such other method of allocation as is fairly calculated to assign to the State the portion of net income reasonably attributable to the business done within this State and to avoid subjecting the taxpayer to double taxation.

If the commissioner reallocates net income upon his examination of any return, he shall, upon the written request of the taxpayer, disclose to him the basis upon which his reallocation has been made.
SEC. 7. Section 11 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 11. (a) The term "income year," as herein used, means the calendar year, or the fiscal year ending during such calendar year, upon the basis of which the net income is computed herein. "Income year" includes, in the case of a return made for a fractional part of a year, the period for which such return is made.

(b) The term "taxable year," as herein used, means the calendar year, or the fiscal year ending during such calendar year, for which the tax is payable. A "taxable year" may constitute a period of twelve months or of less duration.

(c) The term "fiscal year," as herein used, means an accounting period of twelve months or less ending on the last day of any month other than December.

(d) The terms "paid or incurred" and "paid or accrued" shall be construed according to the method of accounting upon the basis of which the net income is computed hereunder.

Sec. 8. Section 12 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 12. The net income shall be computed upon the basis of the taxpayer's annual accounting period, fiscal year or calendar year as the case may be, in accordance with the method of accounting regularly employed in keeping the books of such taxpayer; but if no such method of accounting has been so employed, or if the method employed does not clearly reflect the income, the computation shall be made in accordance with such method as in the opinion of said commissioner does clearly reflect the income. If the taxpayer's annual accounting period is other than a fiscal year, or if the taxpayer has no annual accounting period or does not keep books, the net income shall be computed on the basis of the calendar year.

If the taxpayer changes his accounting period from fiscal year to calendar year, from calendar year to fiscal year, or from one fiscal year to another, the net income, shall with the approval of the commissioner, be computed on the basis of such new accounting period subject to the following provisions:

(a) If a taxpayer, with the approval of the commissioner, changes the basis of computing net income from fiscal year to calendar year, a separate return shall be made for the period between the close of the last fiscal year for which return was made and the following December 31. If the change is from calendar year to fiscal year, a separate return shall be made for the period between the close of the last calendar year for which return was made and the date designated as the beginning of the fiscal year. If the change is from one fiscal year to another fiscal year a separate return shall be made for the period between the close of the former fiscal year and the date designated as the beginning of the new fiscal year.
(b) Where a separate return is made under paragraph (a) on account of a change in the accounting period then the income shall be computed on the basis of the period for which separate return is made. The due date of the separate return for such period is the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of that period.

(c) If a separate return is made under paragraph (a) on account of a change in the accounting period, the net income, computed on the basis of the period for which separate return is made, shall be placed on an annual basis by multiplying the amount thereof by twelve and dividing by the number of months included in the period for which separate return is made. The commissioner shall compute the amount of a tax on the income placed on such annual basis, and shall allow the offset provided for in section 26 from such tax. The tax due under this section (which shall not be subject to offset) shall be such part of the tax (less the offset allowed) computed on such annual basis as the number of months in such period is of twelve months.

(d) The tax on any bank or corporation for a period beginning in one calendar year (hereinafter in this section called "first calendar year") and ending in the following calendar year (hereinafter in this section called "second calendar year") where the law applicable to the computation of taxes for calendar year banks or corporations for the second calendar year is different from the law applicable to computation of taxes for calendar year banks or corporations for the first calendar year, shall be the sum of: (1) the same proportion of a tax for the entire period, determined under the law applicable to the first calendar year and at the rates for such year, which the portion of such period falling within the first year is of the entire period; and (2) the same proportion of a tax for the entire period, determined under the law applicable to the second calendar year and at the rates for such year, which the portion of such period falling within the second calendar year is of the entire period.

Sec. 9. Section 13 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 13. (a) Every bank and corporation shall, within two months and fifteen days after the close of its income year, transmit to the commissioner a return in a form prescribed by him, specifying, for the income year, all such facts as he may by rule, or otherwise, require in order to carry out the provisions of this act.

(aa) On or before March 15, 1935, all companies taxable hereunder mentioned in section 14 of Article XIII of the Constitution of this State, other than insurance companies, with a fiscal year ended during the calendar year 1934 shall file a return covering such fiscal year, and its tax for the months of the year 1935, corresponding to the months of the year 1934 which fall within the fiscal year ended during the year 1934, shall be according to or measured by such proportionate part of the net income of that fiscal year as the number of months falling within the calendar year 1934 bears to the total number of months in the fiscal year ended during that calendar year.

One-half the amount of tax disclosed by the return, shall be due and payable as a first installment of the tax on such companies, on or before the due date for filing the return, as provided herein, or the due date as extended by the commissioner. The balance of the tax shall be due and payable as a second installment on or before September 15, 1935. All the provisions of this act relating to delinquent taxes shall be applicable to any tax computed and levied hereunder, pursuant to this subdivision, on such companies.

(b) A bank which locates or commences to do business within the limits of this State, and a corporation which commences to do business in this State, after the effective date of this act, shall thereupon prepay the minimum tax hereunder, which prepayment must be made before the bank or corporation files with the Secretary of State its articles of incorporation or duly certified copy thereof as the case may be. Upon the filing of its return within two months and fifteen days after the close of its first taxable year its tax for that year shall be adjusted upon the basis of the net income received during that taxable year, at the rate applicable to that year, a credit being allowed for the prepayment of the minimum tax. Said return shall also, in accordance with sections 23 to 26 inclusive, be the basis for the tax of said bank or corporation for its second taxable year, if its first taxable year is a period of twelve months. In every case in which the first taxable year of a bank or corporation constitutes a period of less than twelve months, said bank or corporation shall pay as a prepayment of the tax for its second taxable year an amount equal to the tax (after the offset allowance has been computed) for its first taxable year, the same to be due and payable at the same times and in the same manner as if that amount were the entire amount of its tax (after the offset allowance has been computed) for that year; and upon the filing of its tax return within two months and fifteen days after the close of its second taxable year it shall pay a tax for said year, at the rate applicable to that year, based upon its net income received during that year, allowing a credit for the prepayment; but in no event shall the tax for the second taxable year be less than the amount of the prepayment for that year, and said return for its second taxable year shall also, in accordance with sections 23 to 26 inclusive, be the basis for the tax of said bank or corporation for its third taxable year.

(c) The provisions of subdivision (b) of this section relative to the method of computation of taxes for the first and second taxable years shall be applied to each succeeding taxable year constituting a period less than twelve months, prior to the close of a taxable year of twelve months duration.
(d) When any bank or corporation commences to do business in this State for the first time in any taxable year other than the year of incorporation or qualification, its tax for that taxable year and for the succeeding taxable year shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (b) of this section relative to first and second taxable years, a credit being allowed for any tax payable under subdivision (5) of section 4 hereof, for the year in which it commences to do business.

(e) The adjusted tax, as provided in subdivisions (b), (c) and (d) of this section, for any taxable year in excess of the prepayment for that year, shall be due and payable in one amount on or before the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of that taxable year, or on or before the expiration of the period of extension where an extension has been granted by the commissioner under the provisions of section 15 of this act, and, if not so paid, interest shall be added thereto in the manner and at the rate or rates provided in section 24 of this act.

(f) In the case of a bank or corporation taxable in the manner provided in subdivisions (b), (c) and (d) of this section, reporting income from any source on a deferred basis, the commissioner is authorized to distribute or apportion such income, or deductions applicable thereto, if he determines that such distribution or apportionment is necessary in order to prevent avoidance of taxes or clearly to reflect the income of such a bank or corporation.

(g) Subdivisions (b), (c), (d), and (e) of this section shall not apply to a bank or corporation which commences to do business in this State, pursuant to a reorganization or consolidation as provided in subdivisions (h), and (i) of this section.

(h) Where a bank or corporation commences to do business in this State pursuant to a reorganization of a bank or corporation, it shall pay no tax for its first taxable year, but its tax for its second taxable year shall be computed upon the basis of its net income for its first taxable year and the net income of the bank or corporation so reorganized for the months of the taxable year prior to the reorganization. Every such bank or corporation in its return filed for its first taxable year shall specify all such facts with respect to the bank or corporation so reorganized for the months of the taxable year prior to the reorganization as the commissioner may require in order to carry out the provisions of this paragraph. The term "reorganization" as herein used means (1) a transfer by a bank or corporation of all or a part of its assets to another bank or corporation if immediately after the transfer the transferor or its stockholders or both are in control of the bank or corporation to which the assets are transferred; or (2) a recapitalization; or (3) a mere change in identity, form or place of organization however effected. As used in this paragraph the term "control" means the ownership of at least 80 per centum of the voting stock and at least 80 per centum of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of the bank or corporation.

(i) Where a bank or corporation commences to do business in this State pursuant to a consolidation of two or more banks or corporations, it shall pay no tax for its first taxable year but its tax for its second taxable year shall be computed upon the basis of its net income for its first taxable year and the net income of the banks or corporations so consolidated for the months of their taxable years prior to the consolidation.
Every consolidated bank or corporation in its return filed for its first taxable year shall specify all such facts with respect to the banks or corporations so consolidated for the months of their taxable years prior to the consolidation as the commissioner may require in order to carry out the provisions of this paragraph.

(j) Where two or more banks or corporations merge with another bank or corporation, the tax of the surviving bank or corporation for its taxable year succeeding its taxable year in which the merger occurs shall be computed upon the basis of its net income for its preceding taxable year and the net income of the merged banks or corporations for the months of their taxable years prior to the merger. Every such surviving bank or corporation in its return for its taxable year in which the merger occurs, shall specify all such facts with respect to the merged banks or corporations for the months of their taxable years prior to the merger as the commissioner may require in order to carry out the provisions of this paragraph.

(k) Whenever it is provided in this section that the tax on any reorganized, consolidated, or surviving bank or corporation shall be measured in part by any of the net income of a bank or corporation so reorganized, consolidated, or merged, the same rate of tax shall apply to such income as would have applied to such income had the reorganization, consolidation, or merger not occurred, and had the reorganized, consolidated, or merged bank or corporation continued doing business in this State.

(l) The tax for the second taxable year of a bank or corporation doing business in this State pursuant to a reorganization or consolidation, and the tax of a surviving bank or corporation, in the case of a merger, for its first taxable year succeeding the merger, shall, in addition to any other offset allowed by this act, be subject to offset in the amount of personal property taxes paid by such of the corporations reorganized, consolidated, or merged, as are "financial corporations, upon their property to any county, city and county, city, town or other political subdivision of the State during the taxable year in which the reorganization, consolidation or merger occurred; provided, however, that the offset herein provided for shall be allowed subject to the conditions and limitations set forth in sections 4 and 26 of this act.
(m) Any bank or corporation which is dissolved and any foreign corporation which withdraws from the State during any taxable year shall pay a tax hereunder only for the months of such taxable year which precede the effective date of such dissolution or withdrawal, according to or measured by such proportionate part of the net income of the preceding income year as the number of months of the taxable year prior to the effective date of such dissolution or withdrawal bears to the entire preceding income year; provided, however, that in the case of any bank or corporation which is dissolved, or which withdraws from the State during any taxable year, the offset from the tax for the months of such taxable year prior to the effective date of such dissolution or withdrawal shall not exceed that proportion of the offset computed under section 26 which the number of said months prior to the effective date of such dissolution or withdrawal bears to the number of months of the preceding income year; and provided, further, that the taxes levied under this act shall not be subject to abatement or refund because of the cessation of business or corporate existence of any bank or corporation pursuant to a reorganization, consolidation, or merger. In any event, each such corporation shall pay a minimum tax not subject to offset of twenty-five dollars for such period.

(n) When a bank or corporation discontinues, doing business within the State during any taxable year and does not dissolve or withdraw from the State during that year, and does not resume doing business during the succeeding taxable year, its tax for the year in which it resumes doing business shall be computed upon the basis of the net income for the year in which it discontinued doing business, a credit being allowed for any tax payable under subdivision (5) of section 4 of this act. One-half the amount of such tax shall be due and payable at the time the bank or corporation resumes doing business, or on or before the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of its income year, whichever is later, and the balance shall be due and payable within six months of the time the bank or corporation resumes doing business, or on or before the fifteenth day of the ninth month following the close of its income year, whichever is later, but, in no event shall the balance of the tax be due and payable later than the close of the taxable year in which it resumes doing business. All the provisions of this act relating to delinquent taxes shall be applicable to such tax if it is not paid on or before its due date.

(o) The tax of any bank or corporation which has suffered the suspension or forfeiture provided in section 32 of this act, and which revives in any taxable year other than the taxable year in which suspension or forfeiture occurred, but did not transact business, as defined in section 5 of this act, during the period of such suspension or forfeiture, shall be computed in the same manner as provided in subdivisions (b) and (d) of this section relative to the computation of taxes of banks, and corporations commencing to do business for the first time after incorporation or qualification. Such a bank or corporation shall, in addition to the taxes, penalties, and interest specified in section 33 of this act, prepay a tax of twenty-five dollars as a condition precedent to the issuance of a certificate of revivor.

(p) Any tax, imposed pursuant to this section, based on the net income as disclosed by the return, shall not be considered a deficiency assessment within the meaning of section 25 of this act.

(q) The tax liability imposed under this act shall attach whether a bank or corporation has a taxable year of twelve months or of less duration.

Stats 1931, p. 41.

Sec. 10. Section 15 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 15. Every return required by this act to be filed with said commissioner shall be verified by an executive officer of the bank or corporation. Blank forms of return shall be furnished by said commissioner on application but failure to secure such a form shall not release any taxpayer from the obligation of making a return hereunder.

A reasonable extension of time for filing the return may be granted by said commissioner whenever in his judgment good cause exists. Requests for extensions shall be in writing, shall specify the name of each bank or corporation and must be made on or before the due date for filing the return. The commissioner is hereby required to keep a record of each extension and the reason therefor. No such extension or extensions shall aggregate more than six months from the due date for filing the return.

Stats 1929, p 27.

Sec. 11. Section 16 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 16. If any return required by this act is not made, it shall be the duty of the commissioner to make an estimate of the net income, from any available information, and to compute and levy the amount of tax due under this act. All the provisions of this act relative to delinquent taxes shall be applicable to the tax computed and levied hereunder.

Stats 1929, p 27.

Penalties for failing to file, or filing false returns.

Sec. 12. Section 18 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 18. Any bank or corporation failing or refusing to furnish any return hereby required to be made or failing or refusing to furnish a supplemental return or other data required by the commissioner, or rendering a false or fraudulent return, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each such offense.

Any person required to make, render, sign, or verify any report, as aforesaid, who makes any false or fraudulent return, with intent to defeat or evade the assessment required by law to be made, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall for each such offense be fined not less than three hundred dollars ($300) and not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000), or be imprisoned not exceeding one year in the county jail of the county where said return was verified, or be subject to both said fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.
The district attorney of the county in which the violation occurred, must prosecute such offense.

Sec. 13. Section 19 of said act is hereby amended to read
as follows:

Sec. 19. For the purpose of ascertaining the gain derived or loss sustained from the sale or other disposition of property, real, personal or mixed, the basis shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of section 113 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1934 which are hereby referred to and incorpored for the purpose of this section with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section the gain from the sale or other disposition of property shall be the excess of the amount realized therefrom over the basis herein provided and the loss shall be the excess of such basis over the amount realized.

(b) In computing the amount of gain or loss under subdivision (a) of this section proper adjustment shall be made for any expenditure, receipt, loss or other item properly chargeable to capital account.

(c) The amount realized from the sale or other disposition of property shall be the sum of any money received plus the fair market price or value of the property (other than money) received.

(d) In the case of a sale or exchange, the extent to which the gain or loss determined under this section shall be recognized shall be determined under the provisions of section 20.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent (in the case of property sold under contract providing for payments in installments) the inclusion in gross income of that portion of any installment payment representing gain or profit in the year in which such payment is received.

(f) Amounts distributed in complete liquidation of a bank or corporation shall be treated as in full payment in exchange for the stock, and amounts distributed in partial liquidation of a bank or corporation shall be treated as in part or full payment in exchange for the stock.

The gain or loss to the distributee resulting from such exchange shall be determined under this section but shall be recognized only to the extent provided in section 20.

(g) If any distribution (not in partial or complete liquidation) made by a bank or corporation to its shareholders is not out of earnings or profits, then the amount of such distribution shall be applied against and reduce the basis of the stock and if in excess of such basis, such excess shall be included in gross income in the same manner as a gain from the sale or exchange of property. The provisions of this subdivision shall also apply to distributions from depletion reserves based on discovery value of mines.
SEC. 14. Section 20 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 20. Upon the sale or exchange of property the entire amount of the gain or loss, determined under the preceding section shall be recognized, with the exceptions provided for in section 112 of said "Revenue Act of 1934," which are hereby referred to and incorporated with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

In the case of installment sales the taxpayer may elect to proceed in the manner provided in section 44 of the said "Revenue Act of 1934," in which case the taxpayer shall account for profits on installments received subsequent to December 31, 1927, on sales made prior thereto. If the taxpayer elects to proceed otherwise, the transaction will be deemed to have been closed when the sale was made.

Sec. 15. Section 21 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 21. In the case of property acquired in a manner described in section 113 (a) (2) to (a) (14) of the Federal Revenue Act of 1934 the basis shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of section 113 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1934 which are hereby referred to and incorporated for the purpose of this section with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

Sec. 16. Section 23 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 23. On or before the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of the income year, as defined in section 11 hereof, there shall be due and payable, from every national banking association, every other bank, and every financial corporation, of the classes mentioned in sections 1, 2, and 4 of this act, as a first installment of the tax on such banks and financial corporations, a percentage of their net income as disclosed by the return, which is equal to that percentage of the net income of corporations of the classes referred to in subdivision (3) of section 4 of this act, which is required to be paid to the State as a franchise tax according to or measured by net income, except that the first installment of the tax on financial corporations shall not be less than the minimum of twenty-five dollars.

On or before the fifteenth day following the mailing of notice of the commissioner's determination of the average percentage of net income of corporations of the classes referred to in subdivision (3) of section 4 of this act, required to be paid to the State or its political subdivisions in franchise and personal property taxes as provided in section 4a of this act, or on or before the fifteenth day of the ninth month following the close of the income year as defined in section 11 hereof, whichever is later, there shall be due and payable from every such banking association, bank, and financial corporation, as a second installment of the tax on such banks and financial corporations, a percentage of their net income as disclosed by the return which is equal to the percentage of the net income of corporations of the classes referred to in subdivision (3) of section 4 of this act required to be paid to the State or its political subdivisions as personal property taxes as determined by the commissioner; provided, however, that the sum of the first and second installments shall not exceed six per centum of the net income of each such banking association, bank, and financial corporation. The offset herein provided for shall be applied to such second installment.

In the case of corporations of the classes referred to in subdivision (3) of section 4 of this act, one-half the amount of tax disclosed by the return, shall be due and payable as a first installment of the tax on such corporations, on or before the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of the income year, as defined in section 11 hereof. The balance of the tax shall be due and payable as a second installment, on or before the fifteenth day of the ninth month following the close of the income year. A tax imposed by this act or any installment thereof may be paid at the election of the taxpayer, prior to the date prescribed for its payment.

Where an extension of time for filing returns has been granted by the commissioner under the provisions of section 15 of this act, the first installment shall be paid prior to the expiration of such extension.

If the first installment of the tax is not paid on or before its due date, or the due date as extended by the commissioner, it shall be delinquent and a penalty of fifteen per centum added thereto. If the second installment is not paid at the time it is due and payable, it shall be delinquent and a penalty of five per centum added thereto. At the time of the delinquency of the second installment an additional penalty of five per centum shall be added to the first installment unless that installment has theretofore been paid.

All taxes and interest imposed under this act must be paid to the commissioner at Sacramento in the form of remittances payable to the Treasurer of the State of California, and he shall transmit said payments daily to the State Treasurer.

All moneys received by the State Treasurer shall be deposited by him in a special fund in the State treasury, to be designated the bank and corporation franchise tax fund, and moneys in said fund shall, upon the order of the State Controller, be transferred into the general fund of the State, or drawn therefrom for the purpose of refunding to taxpayers hereunder.

Sec. 17. Section 24 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 24. (a) Interest upon the amount determined as a deficiency under the provisions of section 25 of this act shall be assessed at the same time as the deficiency, shall be paid upon notice and demand from the commissioner, and shall be collected as a part of the tax, at the rate of six per centum per annum from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax (or, if the tax is paid in installments, from the date prescribed for the payment of the first installment) to the date the deficiency is assessed.

(b) If the time for the payment of the tax or any installment thereof has been extended, under the provisions of section 23 of this act, there shall be collected as part of such tax, interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum from the date upon which such payment should have been made if no extension had been granted, until the date the tax is paid.

(c) If the tax imposed by this act, or any installment thereof, or any part of such amount or installment is not paid on or before the date prescribed for its payment, there shall be collected as a part of the tax, interest upon such unpaid amount at the rate of one per centum a month from the date prescribed for its payment until it is paid.

(d) When an extension of time for payment of the amount so determined as the tax by the taxpayer, or any installment thereof, has been granted, and the amount, the time for payment of which has been extended, and the interest thereon, determined as provided hereinafore, is not paid in full prior to the expiration of the period of the extension, then, in addition to the interest provided for in subdivision (b) of this section, interest at the rate of one per centum a month shall be collected on such unpaid amount from the date of the expiration of the period of the extension until it is paid.

(e) Where a deficiency, or any interest or penalties assessed under this act have not been paid in full within ten days from the date of notice and demand from the commissioner, there shall be collected as part of the tax, interest upon the unpaid amount at the rate of one per centum a month from the date of such notice and demand until such assessment is paid.

Sec. 18. Section 25 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 25. As soon as practicable after the return is filed, the commissioner shall examine it and shall determine the correct amount of the tax. If the commissioner determines that the tax disclosed by the original return is less than the tax disclosed by his examination he shall mail notice to the taxpayer at its post-office address (which must appear on its return) of the additional tax proposed to be assessed against it. Such notice shall set forth the details of the proposed additional assessment and of computing said tax.

Within sixty days after the mailing of said notice the taxpayer may file with the commissioner a written protest against the levy of the proposed additional tax, as computed by the commissioner, specifying therein the grounds upon which the protest is based. The protest must be under oath.

If no such protest is so filed the amount of the tax shall be final upon the expiration of said sixty-day period. If a protest is so filed it shall be the duty of the commissioner to reconsider the computation and levy of the tax complained of, and if the taxpayer has so requested in its protest, it shall be the duty of the commissioner to grant said taxpayer, or its authorized representatives, an oral hearing. After consideration of the protest and the evidence adduced in the event of such oral hearing, the commissioner’s action upon the protest shall be final upon the expiration of thirty days from the date when he mails to the taxpayer notice of his action, unless within that thirty-day period the taxpayer appeals in writing from the action of the commissioner to the State Board of Equalization. The appeal must be addressed and mailed to the State Board of Equalization at Sacramento, and a copy of the appeal addressed and mailed at the same time to the commissioner at Sacramento. Said board shall hear and determine the same and thereafter shall forthwith notify the taxpayer and the commissioner of its determination, and the reasons therefor. Such determination shall be final, unless, within sixty days from the time of such determination, the commissioner shall apply to the Supreme Court of the State for a writ of certiorari or review for the purpose of having the lawfulness of the decision of the State Board of Equalization inquired into and determined.

When a deficiency has been determined and the tax has become final under the provisions of this section, the commissioner shall mail notice and demand to the taxpayer for the payment thereof, and such tax shall be due and payable at the expiration of ten days from the date of such notice and demand.

A certificate by the commissioner or of said board as the case may be, of the mailing of the notices specified in this section shall be prima facie evidence of the computation and levy of the deficiency in tax and of the giving of said notices.

Except in the case of a fraudulent return, every notice of additional tax proposed to be assessed hereunder shall be mailed to the taxpayer within three years after the return was filed and no deficiency shall be assessed or collected with respect to the year for which such return was filed unless such notice is mailed within such period. For the purposes of this paragraph a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for the filing thereof shall be considered as filed on such last day.

Sec. 19. Section 26 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 26. A financial corporation subject to the tax herein provided for shall receive an offset against said tax, subject to the limitations provided in section 4 hereof, for personal property taxes paid upon its property to any county, city and county, city, town or other political subdivision of the State during the income year. At the time of payment of the first installment of tax under the provisions of section 23 of this act, each taxpayer claiming an offset against the tax shall submit to the commissioner evidence in such form as he shall prescribe in support of such claims.
If a financial corporation in paying the tax provided for in this act desires to claim an offset in the computation of its tax, the rate provided in section 4 of the act, for financial corporations shall be applied to such offset and the amount so computed shall be added to and included in the tax of such corporation.

If any real or personal property taxes are at any time refunded to any bank or corporation taxable under this act and said bank or corporation has been allowed an offset for such taxes against any tax imposed under this act, said bank or corporation shall pay a tax not subject to offset in an amount equivalent to any offset which has been allowed against any tax at any time imposed under this act on account of such refunded real or personal property taxes. Such bank or corporation shall report such real or personal property taxes in its return for the income year in which same are refunded. The tax herein provided for shall be due and payable in one amount on or before the due date, or the due date as extended by the commissioner, for filing the return. The provisions of this act relating to delinquent first installment taxes shall be applicable to such tax if it is not paid on or before its due date.

Sec. 20. Section 27 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 27. If in the opinion of the commissioner, or said board, as the case may be, a tax has been computed in a manner contrary to law or has been erroneously computed by reason of a clerical mistake on the part of the commissioner or said board, such fact shall be set forth in the records of the commissioner, and the amount of the illegal levy shall be credited on any taxes then due from the taxpayer under this act, and the balance shall be refunded to the taxpayer or its successor through reorganization, merger or consolidation, or to stockholders upon dissolution.

If any tax, penalty or interest has been paid more than once, or has been erroneously or illegally collected, or has been erroneously or illegally computed, the commissioner shall certify to the State Board of Control the amount collected in excess of what was legally due, from whom it was collected, or by whom paid, and if approved by that board, the same shall be credited on any taxes then due from the taxpayer under this act and the balance shall be refunded to the taxpayer, but no such credit or refund shall be allowed or made after three years from the time the tax was paid, unless before the expiration of such period a claim therefor is filed by the taxpayer. Every claim for refund must be in writing under oath and must state the specific grounds upon which the claim is founded.

If the commissioner disallows any claim for refund he shall notify the taxpayer accordingly. Within thirty days after the mailing of such notice, or if the commissioner does not act upon any claim for a refund within six months from the time the claim was filed, then within thirty days after the expiration of said six months, the commissioner's action upon the claim shall be final, unless within such thirty-day period the taxpayer appeals in writing from the action of the commis\[00000\]misioner to the State Board of Equalization. The appeal must be addressed and mailed to the State Board of Equalization at Sacramento, and a copy of the appeal addressed and mailed at the same time to the commissioner at Sacramento. Said board shall hear and determine the same and thereafter shall forthwith notify the taxpayer and the commissioner of its determination. Such determination shall be final, unless, within sixty days from the time of such determination, the commissioner shall apply to the Supreme Court of the State for a writ of certiorari or review for the purpose of having the lawfulness of the decision of the State Board of Equalization inquired into and determined.

Interest shall be allowed and paid upon any overpayment of any tax, if the overpayment was not made because of an error or mistake on the part of the taxpayer, at the rate of six per centum per annum as follows:

(1) In the case of a credit, from the date of the over-payment to the date of the allowance of the credit. Any interest allowed on any credit shall first be credited on any taxes due from the taxpayer under this act.

(2) In the case of a refund, from the date of the overpay-tment to a date preceding the date of the refund warrant by not more than thirty days, such date to be determined by the commissioner.

Any refund or any portion thereof which is erroneously made, and any credit or any portion thereof which is erro-eously allowed, may be recovered, together with interest at the rate of six per centum per annum from the date the refund was made or the credit allowed, in an action brought by the Controller of the State in a court of competent jurisdiction in the county of Sacramento in the name of the people of the State of California, and such actions shall be tried in the county of Sacramento unless the court with the consent of the Attorney General, order a change of place of trial. The Attorney General must prosecute such action, and the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to service of summons, pleadings, proofs, trials, and appeals are applicable to the proceedings herein provided for.

In the event that a tax has been illegally levied against a taxpayer the commissioner shall certify such fact to the State Board of Control and said board shall authorize the cancellation of the tax upon the records of the commissioner.

Sec. 21. Section 29 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 29 The taxes levied under this act shall constitute a lien upon all property of the taxpayer, which lien shall attach on the first day of the "taxable year," except that in the case of a bank or corporation incorporated under the laws of this State or a foreign bank or corporation qualified to do business within the limits of this State, after the effective date of this amendment, the lien of taxes for the first taxable year of such a bank or corporation shall attach at the time of such incorporation or qualification. Notwithstanding any other provision in this act to the contrary the amendments to this section shall only apply to taxes accruing on or after the effective date of such amendments; provided, however, in no event shall taxes accruing prior to such effective date attach as a lien later than such date and provided further, that taxes resulting solely from amendments to this act shall attach as a lien on such date. Every tax herein provided for has the effect of a judgment against the taxpayer, and every lien has the effect of an execution duly levied against all property of the delinquent, and the judgment is not satisfied nor the lien removed until the tax, and the penalties, and interest are paid, or the property sold for the payment thereof. No decree of dissolution shall be made and entered by any court, nor shall the county clerk of any county or the Secretary of State file any such decree, or file any other document by which the term of existence of any taxpayer shall be reduced or terminated, nor shall the Secretary of State file any certificate of the surrender by a foreign corporation of its right to do intrastate business in this State until the tax, penalties, and interest shall have been paid.

Sec. 22. Section 30 of said act is hereby amended to read
as follows:

Sec. 30 Any taxpayer claiming that the tax computed and levied against it is void in whole or in part may pay its tax under protest and bring an action against the State Treasurer for the recovery of the whole or any part of the amount paid. The protest must be in writing and must state the grounds upon which the claim is founded. Such action must be filed within ninety days from the date of mailing the notice of final determination of the tax under section 25 hereof or the tax rate under section 4a hereof; provided, that no action shall be filed for the recovery of a deficiency assessment unless the taxpayer has made protest to the commisssioner of the computation and levy complained of under the provisions of section 25 hereof; and provided further, that no such action shall be filed to recover any deficiency assessment, or any part thereof, if the taxpayer has at any time appealed to the State Board of Equalization from the action of the commissioner in overruling the taxpayer's protest to the commissioner's proposal of the said deficiency assessment.

When a refund claim has been filed under the provisions of section 27 hereof, and the same has been denied or no action thereon has been taken by the commissioner within six months from the filing thereof, the taxpayer may bring an action against the State Treasurer on the grounds set forth in such claim for the recovery of the whole or a part of the amount claimed as an overpayment, but such action must be brought within ninety days from the date of the commissioner's final action upon such claim; provided, that no action shall be filed if the taxpayer has appealed to the State Board of Equalization from the action of the commissioner with respect to any refund claim.

Whenever under the provisions of this section an action is commenced against the State Treasurer, a copy of the complaint and the summons must be served upon the Treasurer, or his deputy. At the time the Treasurer demurs or answers, he may demand that the action be tried in the superior court of the county of Sacramento, which demand must be granted. The Attorney General must defend the action. The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to pleadings, proofs, trials, and appeals are applicable to the proceedings herein provided for. A failure to begin such action within the time herein specified shall be a bar against the recovery of such taxes. In any such action the court shall have power to render judgment for plaintiff for any part or portion of the tax, interest, penalties or cost found to be void and so paid by plaintiff upon such assessment. The amount of the judgment shall first be credited on any taxes due from the plaintiff under this act, and the balance of the judgment shall be refunded to the plaintiff or its successor through reorganization, merger, or consolidation, or to its stockholders upon dissolution.

Within sixty days after the determination of the State Board of Equalization of any appeal from the action of the commissioner the appellant may apply to the Supreme Court of the State for a writ of certiorari or review for the purpose of having the lawfulness of the decision or order of the board inquired into and determined. Such writ shall be made returnable not later than thirty days after the date of the issuance thereof, and shall direct the board to certify its record in the case to the court. On the return day, the cause shall be heard by the Supreme Court, unless for a good reason the same be continued. No new or additional evidence may be introduced in the Supreme Court, but the cause shall be heard on the record of the board as certified to by it. The review shall not be extended further than to determine whether the board has regularly pursued its authority, including a determination of whether the decision or order under review violates any provision of the Constitution of the United States or of the State of California. The findings and conclusions of the board on questions of fact shall be final and shall not be subject to review. The board and each party to the proceeding before the board shall have the right to appear in the review proceeding. Upon the hearing, the Supreme Court shall enter judgment either affirming or setting aside the order or decision of the board. The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure of this State relating to the writs of review shall, so far as applicable and not in conflict with the provisions of this act, apply to proceedings instituted in the Supreme Court under the provisions of this section.
In any judgment of any court rendered for any overpayment in respect of any tax imposed by this act, interest shall be allowed at the rate of six per centum per annum upon the amount of the overpayment, from the date of the payment or collection thereof to the date of allowance of credit on account of such judgment or to a date preceding the date of the refund warrant by not more than thirty days, such date to be determined by the commissioner.

Sec. 31. At any time within three years after the delinquency of any tax, penalties, and interest, or any installment thereof, the Controller of the State may bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction in the county of Sacramento in the name of the people of the State of California to collect the amount delinquent, together with penalties, and interest, and such action shall be tried in the county of Sacramento unless the court, with the consent of the Attorney General, orders a change of place of trial. The Attorney General must prosecute such action, and the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to service of summons, pleadings, proofs, trials, and appeals are applicable to the proceedings, herein provided for. In such action a writ of attachment may be issued, and no bond or affidavit previous to the issuing of said attachment is required. In such action a certificate by the commissioner or by the Controller showing the delinquency shall be prima facie evidence of the levy of the tax, penalties, and interest, of the delinquency and of compliance by the commissioner and the State Board of Equalization with all the provisions of this act in relation to the computation and levy of the tax.

At any time within which an action can be brought to collect any delinquent amounts as provided in the preceding paragraph, the Controller may collect the tax, together with penalties and interest, in the following manner: The Controller shall seize any property, real or personal, owned by the bank or corporation against whom the tax is assessed, and thereafter sell at public auction such property so seized, or a sufficient portion thereof, to pay the tax due hereunder, together with any interest, and any penalty or penalties imposed hereby for such delinquency, and any and all costs that may have been incurred on account of such seizure and sale. Notice of such intended sale and the time and place thereof, shall be given to such delinquent bank or corporation and to all persons appearing of record to have an interest in such property, in writing at least ten days before the date set for such sale by enclosing such notice in an envelope addressed to said bank or corporation at its last known place of business in this State if any, and, in the case of any person appearing of record to have an interest in such property, addressed to such person at the last known place of residence, if any, and depositing the same in the United States mail, postage prepaid, and by publication for at least ten days before the date set for such sale in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county or city and county in which the property seized is to be sold; provided, however, that if there be no newspaper of general circulation in such county or city and county, then by the posting of such notice in three public places in such county or city and county for said ten-day period. The said notice shall contain a description of the property to be sold, together with a statement of the amount of the taxes, interest, penalties and costs, the name of the bank or corporation, and the further statement that, unless such taxes, interest, penalties and costs are paid on or before the time fixed in said notice for such sale, said property, or so much thereof as may be necessary, will be sold in accordance with law and said notice.

At any such sale, the property shall be sold by said Controller or his duly authorized agent in accordance with law and said notice, and the Controller shall deliver to the purchaser a bill of sale for the personal property, and a deed for any real property so sold, and such bill of sale or deed shall vest title in the purchaser. The unsold portion of any property so seized may be left at the place of sale at the risk of said bank or corporation. If, upon any such sale, the moneys so received shall exceed the amount of all taxes, interest, penalties and costs due the State from such bank or corporation, any such excess shall be returned to the bank or corporation and a receipt therefor obtained; provided, however, that if any person having an interest in or lien upon the property has filed with the Controller prior to any such sale notice of such interest or lien the Controller shall withhold any such excess pending a determination of the rights of the respective parties thereto by a court of competent jurisdiction.

If, for any reason, the receipt of such bank or corporation shall not be available, the Controller shall deposit such excess moneys with the State Treasurer, as trustee for such owner, subject to the order of such bank or corporation or its successor through reorganization, merger, or consolidation, or its stockholders upon dissolution.

It is expressly provided that the foregoing remedies of the State shall be cumulative and that no action taken by the Controller shall be or be construed to be an election on the part of the State or any of its officers to pursue any remedy hereunder to the exclusion of any other remedy for which provision is made in this act.

SEC. 24. Section 35 of said act is hereby amended to read
as follows:

Sec. 35. It shall be unlawful for the commissioner or any member of the State Board of Equalization or the State Controller or any person having an administrative duty under this act to divulge any information concerning the business affairs of banks or corporations reporting hereunder; provided, however, that the Governor may authorize examination of such returns by other State officers, in which event the information obtained shall not be made public; provided, further, that such returns may be examined, with the consent of the Governor, by tax officers of another State or the Federal government, if a reciprocal arrangement exists; provided, further, that in the case of corporations doing business within and without this State, the commissioner may make available for persons, firms and corporations desiring such information for the purpose of filing their own returns the percentage of the net income of such corporations derived from business done within and without this State.

The term "business affairs," as herein used, means the details relative to the business activities of the corporation as disclosed by the return but shall exclude extraneous matters, such as the exact corporate title, corporate number, the date of commencement of business in this State, taxable year adopted, filing date of return, name, date and title of persons signing affidavit to the return, due date of taxes, taxes unpaid, taxpayer's address, private address of officers and directors.

Any violation of the provisions of this section is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or both.

Sec. 25. If any section, subsection, clause, sentence or phrase of this act which is reasonably separable from the remaining portions of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the remaining portions of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed the remaining portions of this act irrespective of the fact that any such section, subsection, clause, sentence or phrase of this act be declared unconstitutional.

Sec. 26. This act, inasmuch as it provides for tax levies for the usual current expenses of the State, shall, under the provisions of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, take effect immediately.
that a majority protest shall be a bar to any proceeding,'" approved June 8, 1931, relating to limitations on assessments.

[Approved by the Governor June 7, 1935, In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Sec. 10. If the report herein required to be prepared under section 3 hereof shall show that the estimated amount proposed to be assessed upon any lot or parcel of land for the proposed acquisition and/or improvement will exceed one-quarter of the true value of such lot or parcel as set forth in said report, or shall show that the total estimated cost of any proposed improvement and/or acquisition, less any amount to be paid towards such cost from any source other than special assessment upon the lands benefited by said acquisition and/or improvement, when added to the aggregate totals of all unpaid assessments and estimated assessments required to be stated in the report by paragraph (h) of section 3 of this act, as such totals are stated in such report, will exceed in total amount one-quarter of the total true value of all the lands proposed to be assessed, said proposed proceeding shall be abandoned or so modified that the amount to be specially assessed for the cost thereof will be less than the limits hereby established, unless the excess of said cost and indebtedness over one-quarter of said true value shall be paid from some source other than by special assessment on said lands, or unless the limitation herein provided shall be overruled as hereinafter provided. If the actual cost including incidental expenses of any improvement shall exceed the total estimated cost including incidental expenses thereof, as fixed by the total estimated cost stated in the report required under section 3 hereof and the separate estimate for changes (if any) in the things to be done as filed with the clerk by more than one-tenth of such estimated cost, no part of the excess over said one-tenth shall be assessed upon the lands to be assessed in the proceeding; but such excess may be paid from other funds as hereinafter provided; and provided, also, that the limitation next herein mentioned shall not be exceeded except as herein provided. The word "improvement" in the last preceding sentence shall not be construed so as to include or relate to any acquisition of property for public use.

If the actual cost including incidental expenses of any acquisition and/or improvement, less any amount to be paid toward such cost from any source other than special assessment upon the lands benefited thereby, when added to the aggregate totals of all assessments and estimated assessments required to be stated in the report under paragraph (h) of section 3 of this act, as stated in such report, exceeds in total amount one-quarter of the total true value stated in the report of all the lands to be assessed to pay any part of the cost of such acquisition and/or improvement, no part of such excess shall be assessed upon such lands.

In the case where the estimated or actual cost including incidental expenses of any acquisition and/or improvement exceeds the amounts that may be specially assessed upon benefited property, the legislative body having jurisdiction over the proceeding may in its discretion provide for the payment of such excess cost from any proper fund under its control and the balance shall then be specially assessed in accordance with the statute under which such proceeding is conducted; provided, however, that whenever an improvement contract has been awarded, the county or municipal corporation, the legislative body of which is conducting the proceeding, must, if the actual cost of the improvement, including incidental expenses, exceeds the amount that may be specially assessed upon benefited property, pay such excess cost from the general fund or from any other fund available for that purpose and the balance shall be specially assessed in accordance with the statute under which such proceeding is conducted. In case the property to be assessed is within the jurisdiction of more than one legislative body and consents to such proceeding have been given by all the legislative bodies within whose jurisdiction any portion of the land to be specially assessed is situated, any such legislative body whose consent has been given may appropriate all or any part of such excess cost from any proper fund under its control and may cause the amount so appropriated to be paid into the treasury of the county, city and county, or city whose legislative body has jurisdiction over the proceeding to be applied in payment of such excess cost.

Notwithstanding anything in this act contained, if the legislative body conducting the proceedings, after the report or reports provided for herein have been filed and considered and prior to the adoption of the ordinance or resolution of intention in the proceeding, shall find by a four-fifths vote of all members thereof entered upon its minutes that the proposed project is feasible and that the lands to be assessed will be able to carry the burden of such proposed assessment, the limitations on the amounts of assessments herein provided may be exceeded and dispensed with both with respect to the limitation named with reference to the district as a whole and as to the limitation respecting individual specific assessments. In the event of such finding by said legislative body as in this paragraph provided none of the limitations upon the amounts of assessments in this act provided shall thereafter apply to any assessment or assessment proceedings thereafter had or taken; provided, however, that if at the hearing to be held under the provisions of sections 5 and 7 of this act, protests in writing are filed as provided in section 7 of this act by the owners (as defined in the act) under which the acquisition and/or in improvement proceedings are to be taken) of a majority in area of the lands to be assessed, such limitations can not be exceeded. A finding and determination by such legislative body that the limitations on assessments herein provided may be exceeded or dispensed with shall when made be final and conclusive upon all persons in the absence of actual fraud.

CHAPTER 277.

An act to amend sections 10 and 17 of, and to add sections 3a, 5a, 18a and 21a to, the Improvement Act of 1911 relating to an alternative procedure for the doing of work under said act by receiving contributions of labor, materials or equipment from the United States government or other governmental agencies, declaring the urgency thereof and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 7, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 3a is hereby added to the act cited in the title hereof, to read as follows:

Sec. 3a. As an alternative procedure for the doing of work authorized under this act, the city council may pass a resolution of intention to do such work containing a provision that the work shall be done if any local, State or National agency or authority accepts the proposed work as a project for which a contribution of labor, or labor and any portion of materials, supplies or equipment will be made by such agency or authority. Under such alternative procedure the work to be done by the contractor shall consist of furnishing any or all of the materials, supplies or equipment necessary for the construction of the improvement. When such alternative procedure is adopted, the resolution of intention shall so state and shall recite what contribution is to be made and by whom. The resolution of intention shall also state what work shall be done by the contractor. In all other particulars, the resolution of intention shall be the same as any resolution of intention adopted pursuant to the provisions of section 3 of this act.

Sec. 2. Section 5a is hereby added to said act, to read as follows:

Sec. 5a. If any contribution of labor, or labor and any portion of materials, supplies or equipment is to be made by any local, State or National agency or authority all notices required in said section 5 hereof shall so state and shall recite what contribution is to be made.

Sec. 3. Section 10 of said act is hereby amended to read
as follows:
Sec. 10. Before the awarding of any contract by the city council for doing any work or for furnishing materials, supplies and equipment or any portion thereof, authorized by this act, the city council shall pass a resolution ordering the work. Notice shall be posted conspicuously for five days on or near the council chamber door of said council inviting sealed proposals or bids for doing the work ordered, or for furnishing materials, supplies and equipment or any portion thereof. Notice inviting such proposals, and referring to the specifications on file, shall be published twice in a daily, semimonthly, or weekly newspaper published and circulated in said city, designated by the council for that purpose, and in case there is no newspaper published in said city, then it shall only be posted as hereinbefore provided. The time fixed for the opening of the bids shall be not less than ten days from the time of the first publication or posting of said notice.

All proposals or bids offered shall be accompanied by a check payable to the city certified by a responsible bank, for an amount which shall not be less than ten per cent of the aggregate of the proposal, or by a bond for the said amount and so payable, signed by the bidder and two sureties, who shall justify, before any officer competent to administer an oath, in double the said amount, and over and above all statutory exemptions. Said proposals or bids shall be delivered to the clerk of the said city council, and said council shall, in open session publicly open, examine and declare the same; provided, however, that no proposal or bid shall be considered unless accompanied by said check or bond satisfactory to the council.

The city council may reject any and all proposals or bids should it deem this for the public good, and also the bid of any party who has been delinquent or unfaithful in any former contract with the municipality, and shall reject all proposals or bids other than the lowest regular proposal or bid of any responsible bidder, and may award the contract for said work or improvement to the lowest responsible bidder at the prices named in his bid.

If the bids are rejected or no bids are received the city council may within six months thereafter advertise for proposals or bids for the performance of the work as in the first instance, without further proceedings, and thereafter proceed in the manner in this section provided, and shall thereupon return to the proper parties the respective checks and bonds corresponding to the bid so rejected.

But the checks accompanying such accepted proposals or bids shall be held by the city clerk of said city until the contract for doing said work, as hereinafter provided, has been entered into, either by said lowest bidder or by the owners of three-fourths part of the frontage, whereupon said certified check shall be returned to said bidder. But if said bidder fails, neglects or refuses to enter into the contract to perform said work or improvement, as hereinafter provided, then the certified check accompanying his bid and the amount therein mentioned, shall be declared to be forfeited to said city and shall be collected by it and paid into the general fund, and any bond forfeited may be prosecuted, and the amount due thereon collected and paid into said fund.

If any local, State or National agency or authority contributes the labor, or labor and any portion of the materials supplies or equipment necessary for the construction of any improvement authorized under this act, the contract shall be for only those items which are not contributed by any such agency or authority. If proposals or bids are invited only for the furnishing of materials, supplies and equipment or any portion thereof not furnished by such agency or authority, the notice shall contain a statement to the effect that the legislative body may cancel the order for any undelivered materials, supplies or equipment by giving the successful bidder twenty-four hours notice of said cancellation, in which event the successful bidder will be entitled to compensation for only so much of the material, supplies and equipment as has been used prior to the giving of such notice of cancellation at the prescribed unit rates stated in the contract, and that the contractor shall agree to accept the return of any and all materials and supplies not used prior to the giving of such notice.

Sec. 4. Section 17 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 17. Before being entitled to a contract, the bidder to whom the award was made, or the owners who have elected to take the contract, must advance to the superintendent of streets, for payment by him, the cost of publication of the notices, resolutions, orders and matters required under the proceedings prescribed in this act, and of such other notices as may be deemed requisite by the city council, together with all other incidental expenses incurred up to the time of entering into the contract. And in case the work is abandoned by the city before work is actually started or before any materials, supplies or equipment have been furnished or used, the incidental expenses incurred previous to such abandonment shall be paid out of the city treasury, but such expenses for which the city is liable and which shall have been paid thereby may be charged as incidental expenses against the district benefited in any new proceeding had or taken for an improvement which shall include substantially the same thing or things to be done as those included in the abandoned proceedings.

Sec. 5. Section 18a is hereby added to said act, to read as follows:

Sec. 18a. If a contribution of labor or of labor and any portion of materials, supplies or equipment is to be made by any local, State or National agency or authority, the contract shall contain a provision that the legislative body may cancel the order for any undelivered materials, supplies or equipment by giving the contractor twenty-four hours notice of said cancellation, and require the contractor to accept the return of the unused materials and supplies, in which event the contractor will be entitled to compensation for only so much of the materials, supplies and equipment as has been used prior to the giving of such notice. The contract shall also contain a provision that no materials, supplies or equipment shall be delivered until a delivery permit signed by the superintendent of streets has been received by said contractor, and provided that if the city receives a contribution of labor or of labor and any portion of materials, supplies or equipment from any local, State or National agency or authority, the superintendent of streets is authorized in his official capacity to include in the contract for doing the work a provision that the contractor shall comply with each approved code of fair competition to which he is subject pursuant to the requirements of the National Industrial Recovery Act and all rules and regulations and orders made thereunder.

Sec. 6. Section 21a is hereby added to said act, to read as follows:

Sec. 21a. Whenever the resolution of intention declares that a contribution of labor or of labor and any portion of materials, supplies or equipment for the proposed work will be made by any local, State or National agency or authority, an assessment shall be made to cover the sum due for furnishing the materials, supplies or equipment as specified in said contract (including all incidental expenses). In all other particulars the assessment shall be made in conformity with the provisions of sections 20i and 21 of this act; provided, however, that if all of the work described in said resolution of intention is not completed because the agency or authority ceases to furnish the labor provided for in the resolution of intention, for a period of ninety days, the street superintendent shall notify the city council of such cessation in writing. Said city council may by resolution declare the contract terminated and order the superintendent of streets to make the assessment to cover the portions of work completed and incidental expenses incurred, in accordance with the benefits to be received by each of the several lots, portions of lots or subdivisions of land in said district, pursuant to the provisions of said sections 20i and 21.

The following is a statement of the facts constituting such necessity:

The public peace, health and safety require the immediate construction of sanitary sewers, storm drains, streets, highways and other public improvements. And public funds are not available to defray the entire cost and expense of such improvements. Legislation is necessary to authorize the contribution of labor, materials, supplies and equipment or any of them, by governmental agencies and to permit the levy of assessments against the property directly benefited by such improvements to defray the remaining cost and expense thereof. Federal funds are now available for such purpose. Therefore this bill, providing for the levy of assessments to pay a portion of such cost and expense, is urgently necessary and shall go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 278.

An act to add Chapter 11 to Division IV of the Agricultural Code, relating to the production and marketing of manufactured dairy products.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new chapter is hereby added to Division IV of the Agricultural Code to be numbered 11 and to read as follows:

CHAPTER 11. PRODUCTION AND MARKETING OF MANUFACTURED DAIRY PRODUCTS.

Article 1.

740. For the purposes of this chapter, "dairy products" includes dairy products enumerated in this code, and excludes market milk and market cream.

741. The adequate and orderly production and distribution of manufactured dairy products is a matter impressed with a public interest and the provisions of this chapter are designed and intended to effectuate the policy of providing for such orderly production and distribution at prices equitable to producers, processors, manufacturers, retailers and consumers, in order to promote the welfare of the people of the State.

743. In order to carry out the policy of this chapter, the director is empowered to enter into marketing agreements with manufacturers, processors, producers, associations of producers, distributors, and retailers of manufactured dairy products for any dairy product.

Nothing in this chapter contained shall control or otherwise affect any educational or other agency of the State engaged in teaching or research relating to agriculture.

744. Sixty-five per cent of the persons engaged in, and such persons as represent sixty-five per cent of the volume of, production, manufacture or distribution of a dairy product, in any marketing area, may make application to formulate a marketing agreement.
If the director determines that the application is properly made and that the area involved is such that a control plan is feasible, the director shall authorize such applicants to formulate a marketing agreement.

745. Such marketing agreement shall contain such provisions as may be necessary to carry out the policy of this chapter, and may include provisions:

1. For the appointment of local control boards with such powers as are specified in the agreement.

2. For the raising of funds, derived equitably from all producers, distributors, and manufacturers participating in any marketing agreement, for the purposes of and to be used to the extent specified in the marketing agreement. From such assessments, there shall be paid to the director such sum, as may be necessary to defray the expenses incurred by the director in carrying out the provisions of this article.

3. For the establishment of price levels and margins, and the fixing of prices to be paid producers, and the fixing of resale prices, in such manner as the agreement may provide.

4. For the establishment of a code of fair practices.

5. For sales stimulation and educational activities.

746. Upon the signing of such marketing agreement by such persons as is provided for in section 744, the agreement shall be forwarded to the director. Upon receipt of such agreement, the director shall determine if the agreement has been signed by the proper number of persons and is in accordance with the provisions and purposes of this article. If it is determined that it is in such accordance, the director shall make an order establishing the marketing agreement, whereupon such an agreement shall become effective. If the director determines that the agreement is not in such accordance, he shall reject it without prejudice to the formulation of a new agreement. Such agreement, when effective, may be modified in such manner as may be provided in such marketing agreement. After taking effect, the provisions of such agreement shall establish the standard of conduct for all persons engaged in any occupation or business regulated by such agreement.

747. The director shall license all persons subject to the terms of a marketing agreement. No person shall engage in any occupation or business regulated by a marketing agreement unless he holds a license. Any license so issued may be revoked by the director, after notice and opportunity to be heard, for a violation of any provision of such agreement. In addition to any other penalty, every person violating any provision of a marketing agreement is liable for a civil penalty of one hundred dollars for each day's violation.

748. All money received by the director pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be placed in State treasury to the credit of the Department of Agriculture fund.

The director shall, within thirty days prior to the regular session of the Legislature, submit to the Governor a full and true report of transactions under this law during the preceding biennium, including a complete statement of receipts and expenditures during the period.

749. Any marketing agreement entered into pursuant to this chapter shall be revoked upon the application of fifty-one per cent or more of persons and production eligible to participate in the initiation of such agreement pursuant to section 744.

750. In any civil or criminal action or proceeding for violation of any of the following statutes, proof that the act complained of was done in compliance with the provisions of a marketing agreement to which the defendant was a party shall be a complete defense to such action or proceeding. Such statutes are "An act to define trust and to provide for criminal penalties and civil damages, and punishment of corporations, persons, firms, and associations, a person connected with them and to promote free competition in commerce and all classes of business in this State," approved March 23, 1907.

"An act relating to unfair competition and discrimination, making certain unfair and discriminatory practices unlawful, defining the duties of the Attorney General in regard thereto, declaring certain contracts illegal and forbidding recovery thereon, providing for actions to enjoin unfair competition and discrimination and to recover damages therefor, making the violation of the provisions of this act a misdemeanor and providing penalties," approved June 10, 1913.

"An act to protect trade-mark owners, distributors and public against injurious and uneconomic practices in the distribution of articles of standard quality under a distinguished trade-mark, brand or name," approved May 8, 1931.

750.5. The director may confer, enter into agreements, or otherwise arrange with the constituted authorities of California and other States and of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, or other agencies, of the United States with respect to plans relating to the marketing of dairy products, within this State or as between this State and other States or the United States, and may effectuate and enforce such plans.

CHAPTER 279.

An act to amend section 6 of an act entitled "An act to allow unincorporated towns and villages to equip and maintain a fire department and to assess and collect taxes, from time to time, for such purpose, and to create a board of fire commissioners," approved March 4, 1881, as amended, relating to the conduct of elections.

[Approved by the Governor June 7, 1935 In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 6. The board of fire commissioners must appoint one inspector, one judge and one clerk to conduct elections, which elections must be held in all respects as nearly as practicable in conformity with the general election laws. However, no new registers shall be required, nor shall legal ballot paper be required; and the polls may be opened at one o'clock p.m. and closed at six o'clock p.m. on the day appointed for any election.

CHAPTER 280.

An act to provide for the registration of bonds and interest coupons unpaid for want of funds and the preference and payment thereof in the order of such registration, when funds are available.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. When any bond or any interest coupon, payable from funds in the custody of the county treasurer, is presented to the treasurer for payment and is not paid for want of funds, the treasurer must indorse thereon "Not paid for want of funds," with the date of presentation and a serial number indicating the order of presentation and sign or stamp his name thereon. Such bonds and/or coupons, so indorsed and numbered, are entitled to preference as to payment out of the first moneys received in the treasury properly applicable to the payment thereof, in the order in which they were so presented and registered.

Sec. 2. Upon receipt of moneys into the treasury applicable to the payment thereof, the treasurer must set apart the same, or so much thereof as is necessary, for the payment of such registered bonds and/or coupons. He must then give notice by registered mail to the owner or holder of such registered bonds and/or coupons, at the address last filed with the treasurer, stating therein that he is ready to pay such registered bonds and/or coupons.

Sec. 3. Should such registered bonds and/or coupons not be presented for payment within thirty days from the date of mailing notice hereinbefore provided for, the fund set aside for the payment thereof must be applied by the treasurer to unpaid registered bonds and/or coupons next in order until all bonds and/or coupons so registered have been called.
CHAPTER 281.

An act to amend the title and sections 8, 14, 32 and 33 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act, relating to bank and corporation taxes, including the extension of the provisions of said act to the companies taxable hereunder and their franchises, other than insurance companies and their franchises, specified in section 14 of Article XIII of the Constitution of this State.

[Approved by the Governor June 7, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The title of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:
An act to carry into effect the provisions of sections 14 and 16 of Article XIII of the Constitution of the State of California, relating to bank and corporation taxes.

SEC. 2. Section 8 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:
Sec. 8. In computing "net income" the following deductions shall be allowed:
(a) All the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the income year in carrying on business, including a reasonable allowance for salaries or other compensation for personal services actually rendered, and rentals or other payments required to be made as a condition to the continued use or possession for business purposes of property to which the taxpayer has not taken or is not taking title or in which it has no equity.
(b) All interest paid or accrued during the income year on indebtedness of the taxpayer.
(c) Taxes or licenses paid or accrued during the income year, other than taxes paid to the State under this act, and other than taxes on or according to or measured by income or profits paid or accrued within the income year imposed by the authority of (1) the government of the United States or any foreign country, (2) any State, Territory, county, city and county, school district, municipality, or other taxing subdivision of any State or Territory, and other than taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed, but this shall not exclude the allowance as a deduction of so much of said taxes assessed against local benefits as is properly allocable to maintenance or interest charges; provided, however, that the deduction of personal property taxes shall be subject to the provisions of section 26 hereof.
sustained in any sale or other disposition of shares of stock or securities where it appears that within thirty days before or after the date of such sale or other disposition, the taxpayer has acquired (otherwise than by bequest or inheritance) or has entered into a contract or option to acquire substantially identical property and the property so acquired is held by the taxpayer for any period after such sale or other disposition, no deduction for the loss shall be allowed unless the claim is made by a taxpayer, a dealer in stocks or securities, and with respect to a transaction made in the ordinary course of its business. If such acquisition or the contract or option to acquire is to the extent of part only of substantially identical property, then only a proportionate part of the loss shall be disallowed. Upon the subsequent sale or disposition of shares of stock or securities, in respect of which a loss has been disallowed, the basis for measuring gain or loss in the case of the property so acquired shall be the basis in the case of the stock or securities so sold or disposed of, except that if the repurchase price was in excess of the sale price such basis shall be increased in the amount of the difference, or if the repurchase price was less than the sale price such basis shall be decreased in the amount of the difference.

(e) Debts ascertained to be worthless and charged off within the income year, or, in the discretion of the commissioner, a reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts. When satisfied that a debt is recoverable in part only the commissioner may allow such debt to be charged off in part.

(f) Exhaustion, wear and tear and obsolescence of property to be allowed upon the basis provided in sections 113 and 114 of that certain act of the Congress of the United States known as the "Revenue Act of 1934," which are for the purposes of this subdivision hereby referred to and incorporated with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

(g) In the case of mines, oil and gas wells, other natural deposits and timber, a reasonable allowance for depletion and for depreciation of improvements according to the peculiar conditions in each instance, such reasonable allowance in all cases to be made under the rules and regulations to be prescribed by the commissioner.

In the case of leases the deduction shall be equitably apportioned between the lessor and the lessee.

The basis upon which depletion is to be allowed in respect of any property and the amount of depletion allowable shall be as provided in sections 113 and 114 of the said Revenue Act of 1934, which are, for the purposes of this subdivision, hereby referred to and incorporated with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

(h) Dividends received during the income year from a bank or corporation doing business in this State declared from income arising out of business done in this State; but if the income out of which the dividends are declared is derived from business done within and without this State, then so much of the dividends shall be allowed as a deduction as the amount of the income from business done within this State bears to the total business done. The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to dividends received from banks or corporations not taxable under Article XIII of the Constitution of this State.

The burden shall be on the taxpayer to show that the amount of dividends claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this State.

(i) In the case of a building and loan association, organized and operating wholly or partly on a mutual plan, the return paid or credited on or apportioned to the withdrawable shares of such association, but not exceeding the return such shares would receive computed at the average rate paid by all such associations in this State, or by such associations in a particular locality, as the Building and Loan Commissioner of this State may determine, on money borrowed or obtained through the issue during the income year of the association of all classes of notes and investment certificates not evidencing any proprietary interest in the association, such rate to be determined by the Building and Loan Commissioner and certified by him to the Franchise Tax Commissioner on or before the first day of March of each year.

(k) In the case of farmers, fruit growers, or like associations organized and operated in whole or in part on a cooperative or a mutual basis, (a) for the purpose of marketing the products of members or other producers, and turning back to them the proceeds of sales, less the necessary marketing expenses, which may include reasonable reserves, on the basis of either the quantity or the value of the products furnished by them, or (b) for the purpose of purchasing, or producing, supplies and equipment for the use of members or other persons, and turning over such supplies and equipment to them at actual cost, plus necessary expenses, all income resulting from or arising out of such business activities for or with their members carried on by them or their agents; or when done on a nonprofit basis for or with nonmembers.

(1) In the case of other associations organized and operated in whole or in part on a cooperative or a mutual basis, all income resulting from or arising out of business activities for or with their members, or with nonmembers, done on a nonprofit basis.
(m) If any deduction provided for in this section is finally adjudged discriminatory against a national banking association contrary to section 5219 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, or is for any reason finally adjudged invalid, in that event the tax of the favored taxpayer shall be recomputed by the Tax Commissioner for the taxable year in question, as of the time of allowance of the deduction, by disallowing the deduction, and any difference between the amount of the tax as recomputed and the amount of the tax as originally computed shall be subject to the provisions hereof relating to original computations.

Sec. 3. Section 14 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 14. In the case of two or more corporations or banks or of one or more banks and one or more corporations owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the same interests, the commissioner is authorized to distribute, apportion, or allocate gross income or deductions between or among such corporations or banks, if he determines that such distribution, apportionment, or allocation is necessary in order to prevent evasion of taxes or clearly to reflect the income of any of such corporations or banks.

In the case of a corporation doing business within the meaning of this act, whether under agreement or otherwise, in such manner as either directly or indirectly to benefit the members or stockholders of the corporation, or any of them, or any person or persons, directly or indirectly interested in such business, by rendering services of any nature whatsoever, or acquiring or disposing of its products or the goods or commodities in which it deals, at less than a fair price therefor; or where such a corporation, owned and/or controlled either directly or indirectly by another corporation or corporations, renders services of any nature whatsoever, or acquires or disposes of the products of the corporations so owning and/or controlling such corporation, in such a manner as to create a loss or improper net income, the commissioner, in order to prevent evasion of taxes or clearly to reflect the income of such a corporation, may require a report consolidated with the owning and/or controlling corporation or corporations, or such other facts as he deems necessary, and may determine the amount which shall be deemed to be the entire net income allocable to this State of the business of such corporation for the calendar or fiscal year, and compute the tax on such net income. In determining the entire net income the commissioner shall have regard to the fair profits which, but for any agreement, arrangement or understanding, might be or could have been obtained from dealing in such products, goods or commodities.

Sec. 4. Section 32 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:
Sec. 32. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, if any tax, or any portion or installment thereof, together with penalties, and interest thereon, computed and levied hereunder, is not paid on or before six o’clock p.m. on the last day of the eleventh month after the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of the income year next preceding the taxable year for which such tax is payable, (or, in case of an adjusted tax as provided in subdivision (e) of section 13 of this act, on the last day of the eleventh month after the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of the taxable year for which such adjusted tax is payable) the corporate powers, rights and privileges of the delinquent taxpayer, if it be a domestic bank or corporation, shall be suspended and shall be incapable of being exercised for any purpose or in any manner except for the purpose of amending the articles of incorporation to set forth a new name, and the officers, directors and stockholders or members of any such bank or corporation may take such action in their respective capacities as may be required by law in order to amend the articles of incorporation for such purpose; if the delinquent taxpayer be a foreign bank or corporation it shall thereupon forfeit its rights to do intrastate business in this State.

(b) If any tax, or any portion or installment thereof, together with penalties and interest thereon, computed and levied on the companies referred to in subdivision (aa) of section 13 of this act, is not paid on or before six o’clock p.m. on the last day of the eleventh month after March 15, 1935, such companies shall be subject to the suspension or forfeiture as provided in the preceding paragraph.

(c) If any tax due and payable upon notice and demand from the commissioner, together with penalties, and interest thereon, is not paid on or before six o’clock p.m. on the last day of the eleventh month following the due date of such tax, the corporate powers, rights and privileges of the delinquent taxpayer, if it be a domestic bank or corporation, shall be suspended and shall be incapable of being exercised for any purpose or in any manner except for the purpose of amending the articles of incorporation to set forth a new name, and the officers, directors and stockholders or members of any such bank or corporation may take such action in their respective capacities as may be required by law in order to amend the articles of incorporation for such purpose; if the delinquent taxpayer be a foreign bank or corporation it shall thereupon forfeit its rights to do intrastate business in this State; provided, however, if the second installment of tax on any bank or financial corporation, pursuant to section 23 of this act, or any additional tax computed and levied as provided in subdivision (8) of section 4 of this act, becomes due and payable on the fifteenth day of the ninth month following the close of the income year, the date of suspension or forfeiture, in case of nonpayment of such taxes, shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section.
(d) The Controller shall transmit the name of each such bank or corporation to the Secretary of State, who shall immediately record the same in such manner that it may be available to the public. The suspension or forfeiture herein provided for shall become effective immediately such record is made, and the certificate of the Secretary of State shall be prima facie evidence of such suspension or forfeiture.

(e) Any person who attempts or purports to exercise any of the rights, privileges or powers of any such domestic bank or corporation, except as hereinabove permitted, or who transacts or attempts to transact any intrastate business in the State in behalf of any such foreign bank or corporation shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred fifty dollars and not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than fifty days or more than five hundred days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. The jurisdiction of such offense shall be held to be in any county in which any part of such attempted exercise of such powers, or any part of such transaction of business occurred, and the district attorney of the county must prosecute such offense. In addition to the penal provisions in this paragraph, any bank or corporation which transacts business during the period of suspension or forfeiture shall be subject to tax under the provisions of this act. Every contract made in violation of this section is hereby declared to be voidable, at the instance of any party other than the taxpayer.

SEC. 5. Section 33 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 33. Any bank or corporation which has suffered the suspension or forfeiture provided for in the preceding section may be relieved therefrom upon making application therefore in writing to the Controller and upon payment of the tax and the interest and penalties for nonpayment of which the suspension or forfeiture occurred, together with all other taxes, deficiencies, interest and penalties due under the act, and upon the issuance by the Controller of a certificate of revivor. Application for such certificate on behalf of any domestic bank or corporation which has suffered such suspension may be made by any stockholder or creditor or by a majority of the surviving trustees or directors thereof; application for such certificate may be made by any foreign bank or corporation which has suffered such forfeiture or by any stockholder or creditor thereof.

Before such certificate of revivor is issued by the Controller he shall obtain from the Secretary of State an endorsement upon such application of the fact that the name of such bank or corporation is not one which is likely to mislead the public or which is the same as, or resembles so closely as to tend to deceive, the name of a foreign or domestic bank or corporation which is authorized to transact business in this State or a name which is under reservation. If the name of such bank or cororporation is one which is likely to mislead the public or is the same as, or resembles so closely as to tend to deceive, the name of a foreign or domestic bank or corporation which is authorized to transact business in this State, or a name which is under reservation, the Secretary of State shall not endorse such statement upon such application until the bank or corporation therein named, if it be a domestic bank or corporation, files in his office amended articles of incorporation changing its name, or, if it be a foreign bank or corporation, files in his office a copy of such document changing its name as may be required by the law of the State or other jurisdiction under which it was incorporated, which copy shall be certified in the manner prescribed by section 405 of the Civil Code. Upon the issuance of such certificate by the Controller the bank or corporation therein named shall become reinstated but such reinstatement shall be without prejudice to any action, defense or right which has accrued by reason of the original suspension or forfeiture. The certificate of revivor shall be prima facie evidence of such reinstatement and such certificate may be recorded in the office of the county recorder of any county of this State.

Sec. 6. If any section, subsection, clause, sentence or phrase of this act which is reasonably separable from the remaining portions of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the remaining portions of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed the remaining portions of this act irrespective of the fact that any such section, subsection, clause, sentence or phrase of this act be declared unconstitutional.

Sec. 7. This act, inasmuch as it provides for tax levies for the usual current expenses of the State, shall under the provisions of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 282.

An act to repeal Chapter 9 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, and to add a new Chapter 9, comprising sections 10810 to 10940, inclusive, to Part 2 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurers transacting life and disability insurance on the stipulated premium plan with provision for assessment.

[Approved by the Governor June 7, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Note.—See Stats. 1935, Ch. 145.

Sec. 3. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act, and each section, subsection, sentence, clause, and phrase thereof irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, subsections, sentences, clauses, or phrases be declared unconstitutional.

CHAPTER 283.

An act to amend the Insurance Code by repealing Chapter 8 of Part 2 of Division 2 thereof and adding a new Chapter 8 to Part 2 of Division 2, thereof, comprising sections 10640 to 10880, inclusive, and by repealing section 1700 thereof, all relating to life insurance principals, practice and business, and matters incidental thereto by mutual benefit life associations.

[Approved by the Governor June 7, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

NOTE.—See Stats. 1935, Ch. 145.

SEC. 3. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act, and each section, subsection, sentence, clause, and phrase thereof irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, subsections, sentences, clauses, or phrases be declared unconstitutional.

CHAPTER 284.

An act to amend section 1 of an act entitled “An act relating to the safety of design and construction of public school buildings, providing for regulation, inspection, and supervision of the construction, reconstruction or alteration of or addition to public school buildings and for the inspection of existing school buildings, defining the powers and duties of the State Division of Architecture in respect thereto, providing for the collection and disposition of fees, prescribing penalties for violation thereof and declaring the urgency of the act to take effect immediately,” approved
April 10, 1935, relating to the buildings and work subject to the provisions of said act.

[Approved by the Governor June 7, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. The Division of Architecture of the State Department of Public Works is hereby vested with authority under the police power of the State and directed to supervise the construction of any school building or, if the estimated cost exceed four thousand ($4,000) dollars, the reconstruction or alteration of or addition to any school building, for the protection of life and property as hereinafter provided.

The term "school building" as herein used means and includes any building used or designed to be used for elementary or secondary schools or junior college purposes and constructed, reconstructed, altered or added to, by the State or by any county, city, city and county, or other political subdivision or by any school or junior college district of any kind or character whatsoever within the State.

CHAPTER 285.

An act to amend the Los Angeles County Flood Control Act by adding thereto a new section to be numbered 15a, relating to compliance with requirements of the United States or any department or agency thereof, in the performance of public work financed in whole or in part from Federal funds, and declaring the urgency thereof, the act to take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 7, 1935. In effect immediately]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Los Angeles County Flood Control Act is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section numbered 15a reading as follows:

Sec. 15a. The governing body of said district shall have full authority to cause to be inserted in specifications and contracts for any flood control work financed or paid for in whole or in part out of moneys obtained from the United States of America or any department or agency thereof as a loan, grant or appropriation, such provisions or terms as may be prescribed by the United States of America or such department or agency as a condition upon which such Federal funds are loaned, granted or appropriated.

A disastrous forest fire occurred in November, 1933, completely denuding approximately seven square miles of the mountainous watershed above the towns of La Crescenta, Montrose and La Canada, in Los Angeles County, thereby permitting boulders, debris and dirt to wash down upon the populous communities lying below said watershed. The immediate construction of debris dams at the mouths of various canyons below said burned-over watershed and the construction of channels below said debris basins are necessary in order to protect the lives of persons living in said communities and to protect the homes and other property from destruction. The Seventy-third Congress of the United States adopted an act known as "H. R. 7599," appropriating five million dollars to be loaned by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for the repair or reconstruction of flood control systems and other property damaged or destroyed by floods or other catastrophes in the year 1933 and in the months of January and February, 1934, and said corporation has agreed to loan a portion of said funds to the Los Angeles County Flood Control District for the construction of said debris basins and channels in said area, provided the said district will agree to award contracts for the construction of said work to those persons only possessing certificates of compliance with the National Industrial Recovery Administration codes, and in the employment of labor to give preference to veterans with dependents. The district is without authority to agree to said provisions unless this act becomes a law, and in order to have said money available at once with which to perform said work prior to the rainy season of 1935-1936, it is necessary that this act go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 286.

An act authorizing certain cities, cities and counties, and boards or departments thereof, in issuing revenue bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, payable solely from revenues, or from any other special fund, to issue the same as negotiable instruments, to provide for certain signatures thereto by facsimile, for making the same payable at places outside the State of California, and for the registration thereof.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whenever any city, city and county, or county, having a charter adopted pursuant to the provisions of the Constitution of the State of California, or any board or department of any of the same, shall, under said charter, be vested with authority to issue revenue bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness, payable solely from revenues of a municipal utility, or solely from any other special fund, and to issue the same in negotiable form, such city, city and county, or county, or such board or department thereof, is hereby authorized to issue such revenue bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness, in negotiable form, and such revenue bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness, are hereby declared to be negotiable instruments, having all of the attributes of negotiability under the laws relating to negotiable instruments of this State.

Sec. 2. Any such city, city and county, or county, or board or department thereof, in issuing such revenue bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness, (a) may provide that any required signatures to such bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness, and to any coupons thereto attached, may be by facsimile, except that as to any such bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness, but not as to any such coupons, at least one signature shall be by autograph; (b) may provide for the registration of such bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness, as to both principal and interest, or either of them; (c) may provide for making such bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, and such coupons, payable by the city treasurer or such agency as may be established by such city, city and county, or county, or board or department thereof, for the purpose, and at one or more point or points within or outside of the State of California, upon presentation and surrender thereof respectively and without any such presentation and approval of demands as may be required by any provision or law of any charter with respect to other claims against any such city, city and county, or county or board of department thereof; and (d) may deposit with any such agency moneys from the fund or funds from which such bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness, and such coupons are payable, in order to provide for the payment of such bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness, and such coupons, upon such presentation and surrender thereof to such agency.
CHAPTER 287.

An act to amend section 10432 of the Insurance Code, relating to valuation of life policies.

Note.—See Stats. 1935, Ch. 145.

CHAPTER 288.

An act to amend section 2737 of the Political Code, relating to bridges and highways.

[Approved by the Governor June 7, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 2737 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

2737. Every person who knowingly allows the carcass of any dead animal (which animal belonged to him at the time of its death) to be put or to remain within one hundred feet of any street, alley, public highway, or road in common use, and every person who puts the carcass of any dead animal within one hundred feet of any street, alley, highway, or road in common use, or who shall deposit on any highway any refuse or waste tin, sheet-iron, or broken glass, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 289.

An act to recognize certain corporations as agencies and instrumentalities of the United States, declaring the urgency thereof, and providing for the taking effect immediately thereof.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Every corporation organized under the laws of this State or of any other State of the United States or of the District of Columbia, or under an act of the Congress of the United States, by any agency of the United States government, all of the capital stock of which is beneficially owned by the United States or by an agency or instrumentality of the United States, or by any corporation the whole of the capital stock of which is owned by the United States or by an agency or instrumentality of the United States, shall be conclusively presumed to be an agency and instrumentality of the United States and shall be entitled to all privileges and immunities to which the holder or holders of all of its stock are entitled as agencies of the United States government.

Sec. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, and it shall therefore go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are as follows:

Due to the widespread depression many citizens of this State find themselves in distressed circumstances and in need of immediate relief which can be obtained only from corporations, which, although not incorporated by act of Congress, are wholly owned by agencies or instrumentalities of the United States including corporations wholly owned by the United States. Said corporations may not undertake the work of furnishing such relief unless their status as agents and instrumentalities of the United States is unequivocally recognized by this State.

CHAPTER 290.

An act to amend section 11 of and to add a new section to be numbered section 12 to an act entitled "An act to define the boundary, provide for the care, strengthening and repairing of levees, and the payment of the indebtedness of Levee District Number One of Sutter County," approved March 20, 1874, relating to the compensation and powers of officers of said district.

[Approved by the Governor June 7, 1935. In effect September 15, 1936.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Sec. 11. The directors shall each receive an annual salary of five hundred dollars, payable in quarterly installments of one hundred twenty-five dollars each on the first Monday in March, June, September and December of each year, which sum shall be in full compensation for all services of every nature or kind rendered by said directors. During the years that an assessment is made in said district, the ex officio assessor of the district shall receive a salary of five hundred dollars, and the ex officio treasurer and the ex officio tax collector of the district shall receive a combined annual salary of five hundred dollars, such salaries to be paid quarterly on the first Monday of March, June, September and December of each such year. During any calendar year that no assessment is made in said district, the ex officio assessor of said district shall receive an annual salary of one hundred dollars per year, and the ex officio treasurer and ex officio tax collector of the district shall receive a combined annual salary of one hundred dollars per year, payable quarterly on the first Monday of March, June, September and December of each such year. The auditor of Sutter County shall receive an annual salary of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for his services to said district payable in equal installments on the first Monday in June and December of each year. Election officers at any and all elections held in the district shall receive for their services such sum as the board of directors shall deem just and reasonable. Claims for such salaries and services must be sworn to and presented to the board of directors of said district and before any warrants are drawn for the same, such claims shall be audited and approved by said board.

Sec. 2. A new section is hereby added to said act, as amended, to be numbered section 12, to read as follows:

Sec. 12. The directors of said district, in addition to the powers heretofore conferred upon such directors by said act, as amended, are authorized to acquire by purchase, condemnation, gift or other legal action, drains, canals, sluices, bulkheads, water-gates, levees, embankment, pumping plants, and pipe lines, and to purchase, construct, or otherwise acquire, maintain and keep in repair all things reasonable or convenient for the protection of the lands embraced in said district from overflow, and for the purpose of conserving and adding water to the sloughs and drains of said district. During any year that an assessment is made in said district, the board shall find the percentage of taxes necessary to be levied for the purposes in this section provided in addition to the amounts found necessary as provided by section 8 of said act.

CHAPTER 291.

An act to amend the Insurance Code by amending Article 14 of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 1 thereof, relating to proceedings against insolvent insurers.

Note.—See Stats. 1935, Ch. 145

CHAPTER 292.

An act to amend sections 12350, 12352, 12353, 12355, 12356, and 12357 of the Insurance Code, relating to title insurers.

Note.—See Stats. 1935, Ch. 145.
CHAPTER 293.

An act to amend sections 4130 and 4140 of the Political Code, relating to county recorders, their duties and penalty for neglect thereof or for misconduct.

[Approved by the Governor June 7, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4130 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

4130. The recorder must procure such books for records as the business of his office requires, but orders for the same must first be obtained from the board of supervisors. The books used may contain printed forms of deeds, mortgages, or other instruments of general use. He has the custody of, and must keep all books, records, maps and papers deposited in his office.

SEC. 2. Section 4140 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

4140. If any recorder to whom an instrument, proved or acknowledged according to law, or any paper or notice which may by law be recorded, is delivered for record:

1. Neglects or refuses to record such instrument, paper, or notice within a reasonable time after receiving the same;

2. Records any instrument, paper, or notice, wilfully or negligently, untruly, or in any manner than is hereinbefore directed;

3. Neglects or refuses to keep in his office such indices as are required by this article, or to make the proper entries therein; or,

4. Alters, changes, or obliterates any records deposited in his office, or inserts any new matter therein, he is liable to the party aggrieved for three times the amount of the damages which may be occasioned thereby.

CHAPTER 294.

An act to amend section 408 of the Political Code, relating to the duties of the Secretary of State.

[Approved by the Governor June 7, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 408 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

408. In addition to the duties prescribed by the Constitution, it is the duty of the Secretary of State:

1. To attend at every session of the Legislature, for the purpose of receiving bills and resolutions thereof, and to perform such other duties as may be devolved upon him by resolution of the two houses, or either of them;

2. To keep a register of, and attest the official acts of, the Governor;

3. To affix the great seal, with his atestation, to commissions, pardons, and other public instruments, to which the official signature of the Governor is required;

4. To record in proper books all conveyances made to the State, except conveyances made under the revenue law of lands sold for taxes, and all articles of incorporation filed in his office;

5. To receive and record in proper books the official bonds of all the officers whose bonds are fixed in part three of this code, and then to deliver the original to the State Treasurer;

6. To record in a proper book all changes of names certified to him by the county clerks, in the manner in which such record is now made;

7. To take a file in his office receipts for all books distributed by him, and to direct the county clerk of each county to do the same;

8. To certify to the Governor the names of those persons who have received at any election the highest number of votes for any office, the incumbent of which is commissioned by the Governor, and also to certify and declare the result of any election upon any question submitted to the electors of the State by either initiative or referendum petition, filed in his office, and to make official declaration of the vote upon each such question;

9. To furnish, on demand, to any person paying the fees therefor, a certified copy of all or any part of any law, record, or other instrument filed, deposited, or recorded in his office;

10. To deliver to the Superintendent of State Printing, within sixty days after the day on which a general election is held throughout the State, his certificate showing what law or laws or constitutional amendments, proposed by initiative petition and approved by the people, have gone into operation, and the date of going into operation; and the result of any election upon any question submitted to the electors of the State within two years next preceding, by initiative or referendum petition; and to deliver to the State Printer, within one hundred days after the final adjournment of each session of the Legislature, his certificate showing what acts, or sections, or parts of acts of the Legislature are delayed from going into effect by referendum petition properly certified and filed in his office;

11. To keep a fee book in which must be entered all fees, commissions, and compensation of whatever nature or kind by him earned, collected or charged, with the date, name of payer, paid or not paid, and the nature of the service in each case, which book must be verified annually by his affidavit entered therein;
12. To file in his office descriptions of seals in use by the different State officers and furnish such officers with new seals whenever required;
13. To perform all other duties required of him by law;
14. To report to the Governor at the time prescribed in section 332, a detailed account of all of his official actions since his previous reports, and accompanying the report with a detailed statement, under oath, of the manner in which all appropriations for his office have been expended.

CHAPTER 295.

An act to amend section 409 of the Political Code, relating to the fees of the Secretary of State.

[Approved by the Governor June 7, 1935 In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 409 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

409. The Secretary of State, for services performed in his office, must charge and collect the following fees:
1. For preparing a copy, other than a carbon copy, of any law, resolution, record, or other document on file in his office, thirty cents per page, or fraction thereof.
2. For preparing a carbon copy of any law, resolution, record, or other document on file in his office, made at the time of preparing the first copy thereof, twelve cents per page, or fraction thereof.
3. For comparing a copy of any law, resolution, record, or other document or paper with the original, or the certified copy of the original, on file in his office, twelve cents per page, or fraction thereof.
4. For affixing certificate and Seal of State, unless otherwise provided for, two dollars.
5. For filing articles of incorporation or agreements of consolidation, except as otherwise provided, the fee fixed in the following schedule:

Amount represented by the total number of shares provided for in the articles of incorporation or the agreement of consolidation.  Fee

Over $25,000 and not over $75,000----------------- $25
Over $75,000 and not over $200,000--------------- $50
Over $200,000 and not over $500,000-------------- $75
Over $500,000 and not over $1,000,000------------ $100
Over $1,000,000-
(1) for the first $1,000,000------------------ $100
(2) for each additional $500,000 or fraction thereof- $50
For the purposes of the foregoing schedule, the amount represented by the total number of shares provided for in the articles of incorporation or the agreement of consolidation shall be:

1. The aggregate par value of such shares, if only shares with a par value are therein provided for,

2. The product of the number of shares multiplied by ten dollars, if only shares without par value are therein provided for, or

3. The aggregate par value of the shares with a par value plus the product of the number of shares without par value multiplied by ten dollars, if shares with and without par value are therein provided for.

For filing articles of incorporation or agreements of consolidation not providing for shares with and/or without par value, five dollars.

6. For recording articles of incorporation, and agreements of consolidation, and certified copies of articles of foreign corporations filed at the time they qualify for the transaction of intrastate business in this State, thirty cents per page, or fraction thereof.

7. For filing certificates of amendment of articles of incorporation, or agreements of merger, except as otherwise provided for, five dollars; for filing certificates of amendment of articles of incorporation, or agreements of merger, providing for shares the total number of which represents an amount in excess of the amount represented by the total number of authorized shares of the corporation, or the surviving corporation, respectively, five dollars for each fifty thousand dollars, or fraction thereof, of such additional amount. For the purposes of the preceding sentence, the amount represented by the total number of authorized shares of the corporation, or the surviving corporation, respectively, shall be

1. The aggregate par value of such shares, if only shares with a par value have been authorized,

2. The product of the total number of such shares multiplied by ten dollars, if only shares without par value have been authorized, or

3. The aggregate par value of such shares with a par value plus the product of the total number of such shares without par value multiplied by ten dollars, if shares with and without par value have been authorized, and the amount represented by the total number of shares provided for in the certificate of amendment of articles of incorporation or agreement of merger shall be

1. The aggregate par value of such shares, if only shares with a par value are therein provided for,

2. The product of the number of shares multiplied by ten dollars, if only shares without par value are therein provided for, or

3. The aggregate par value of the shares with a par value plus the product of the number of shares without par value multiplied by ten dollars, if shares with and without par value are therein provided for.

8. Upon delivery to him of copies of process against a corporation, five dollars for each corporation upon which service is sought through such delivery.

9. For filing claim to trademark, and issuing certificate of filing, five dollars.

10. For issuing certificate of filing any document, not otherwise provided for, three dollars.

11. For receiving and recording each official bond, five dollars.

12. (a) For filing the certified copy of the articles of a foreign corporation, other than the one specified in paragraph (b) hereof, one hundred dollars.

(b) For filing the certified copy of the articles of incorporation of a foreign nonprofit corporation, and of a foreign corporation organized for educational, religious, scientific or charitable purposes, and not issuing shares, five dollars.

13. For each commission, passport, or other document signed by the Governor and attested by the Secretary of State (pardons, military commissions, commissions issued to nonsalaried State officers, and extradition papers excepted) five dollars.

14. For each patent for land issued by the Governor, if for one hundred sixty acres, or less, one dollar; and for each additional one hundred sixty acres, or fraction thereof, one dollar.

15. For issuing certificate of official character, two dollars.

16. For recording miscellaneous documents or papers, thirty cents per page, or fraction thereof.

17. For filing any instrument by or on behalf of a corporation other than a certificate showing the surrender of the right of a foreign corporation to transact intrastate business, and other than a document or copy thereof terminating the existence of a foreign corporation, unless otherwise provided, five dollars.

18. For each notary public commission signed by the Governor and attested by the Secretary of State, five dollars.

19. For issuing a certificate of reservation of corporate name, two dollars.

20. For filing contracts for conditional sale of railroad or street railway equipment or rolling stock and declarations of payment and performance, five dollars.

21. For recording contracts for conditional sale of railroad or street railway equipment or rolling stock and declarations of payment and performance, thirty cents per page, or fraction thereof.

22. For registering farm, ranch or villa names, including the issuance of certificates of such registration, one dollar.

23. For issuing certificates of the filing of a copy of any lecture, sermon, address, dramatic composition, story or motion picture scenario and of an affidavit of authorship, five dollars.
24. For filing a copy of the trust instrument of any Massachusetts or business trust, fifteen dollars.

No member of the Legislature or State officer shall be charged for any search relative to matters appertaining to the duties of his office, nor shall he be charged any fee for a certified copy of any law or resolution passed by the Legislature relative to his official duties.

All fees collected by the Secretary of State must, at least once each week, be paid into the State treasury.

CHAPTER 296.

An act to amend section 4300c of the Political Code, relating to the fees of county recorders.

[Approved by the Governor June 7, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 4300c of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

4300c. For recording every instrument, paper, or notice required by law to be recorded, per folio, ten cents.

For indexing every instrument, paper, or notice, for each name, ten cents.

For filing every instrument, paper, or notice for record, and making the necessary entries thereon, twenty cents; provided, however, that the minimum fee for filing for record, recording, indexing and making the necessary entries on any written instrument, paper or notice except as hereinbefore or otherwise provided by law, shall be one dollar; and provided further, that the minimum fee for filing for record, recording, indexing and making the necessary entries on any conditional sale contract, bailment or feeder contract, lease or mortgage of personal property or crops shall be fifty cents, and the minimum fee for filing for record, recording and indexing and making the necessary entries on any assignment, release, waiver or subordination which is designated on its face as being an assignment, release, waiver or subordination of a conditional sale contract, bailment or feeder contract, lease or mortgage of personal property or crops, shall be fifty cents.

For each certificate under seal, fifty cents.

For any copy of any record or paper on file or in the office of the county recorder, when such copy is made by him, per folio, ten cents.

For examining and certifying to a copy of any record or paper on file in the recorder's office when such copy is prepared by another, three cents per folio for comparing such copy with the original.

For every entry of discharge, credit, or release on the margin of record, and indexing same, fifty cents.
For searching the records of his office, for each year, fifty recorder’s fees.
For abstract of title, for each conveyance or encumbrance, twenty-five cents.
For recording each map or plat where the same is copied in a book of record, for each course, ten cents.
For recording or filing each map wherein land is subdivided in lots, tracts, or parcels, five dollars.
For filing building contracts, plans and specifications, one dollar.
For figures or letters on maps or plats, per folio, ten cents; provided, that the fees for recording any map shall not exceed fifty dollars.
For taking acknowledgment of any instrument, fifty cents.
For recording marriage license, and certificate, to be paid by the county clerk, one dollar.
For filing notice of estray stock, and all services in estray cases, fifty cents.
For recording each mark or brand, one dollar.
For administering each oath or affirmation, and certifying the same, twenty-five cents.
For filing, indexing, and keeping each paper not required by law to be recorded, twenty-five cents; provided, however, no charge or fee shall be made for recording or indexing any discharge of a soldier, sailor or marine discharged from the army or navy of the United States or for issuing certified copies thereof.
The clerk, sheriff and recorder shall account for all fees in this and the two preceding sections provided for, and the clerk, sheriff, and recorder, unless otherwise provided by law, shall pay the same to the treasurer on the first Monday of the month following their collection, as provided in Article 59 of this chapter.

CHAPTER 297.

An act to amend section 11 of an act entitled “An act prescribing the terms upon which licenses or certificates of registration may be issued to practitioners of barbering, creating the State Board of Barber Examiners and declaring its powers and duties, prescribing penalties for violation hereof, and repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith,” approved May 31, 1927, relating to admissions to practice.

[Approved by the Governor June 7, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 11 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:
Sec. 11. (a) Any person who is at least eighteen years of age and of good moral character and temperate habits and has a diploma showing graduation from an eight grade grammar school, or its equivalent as determined by an examination conducted by the board and either:

1. Has a license or certificate of registration as a practicing barber from another State or country which has substantially the same requirements for licensing or registering barbers as required by this act, or

2. Who can prove by sworn affidavits that he has practiced as a barber in another State or country for at least two years prior to making application in this State, shall upon payment of the required fee, be granted permission to take an examination to determine his fitness to receive a certificate of registration to practice barbering. Should he fail to pass the examination, he may file a new application accompanied by the required fee and take another examination if he desires. In no event will he be permitted to practice barbering until such time as he has passed a satisfactory examination and has received a certificate of registration as a registered barber.

(b) Any apprentice who is at least sixteen and one-half years of age and of good moral character and temperate habits and who has a diploma showing graduation from an eight grade grammar school or its equivalent as determined by an examination conducted by the board, and has a certificate of registration as an apprentice in a State or country which has substantially the same requirements for registering an apprentice as is provided in this act, or who can prove by sworn affidavits that he has practiced in another State or country for at least six months prior to making application in this State, shall upon payment of the required fee, be granted permission to take an examination to determine his fitness to receive a certificate of registration as an apprentice. Should he fail the required examination, a certificate of registration as a registered apprentice shall be issued to him and the time spent in such other State or country as an apprentice shall be credited upon the period of apprenticeship required by this act as a qualification to take the examination to determine his fitness to receive a certificate of registration as a registered barber. Should he fail to pass a satisfactory examination, he must complete a further course of study of not less than five hundred hours to be completed within three months with not more than eight hours in any one working day in a school of barbering approved by the board before he will be eligible to file another application to determine his fitness to receive an apprentice certificate.
CHAPTER 298.

An act to amend section 674 and 675 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to the filing and recording of abstracts and satisfactions of judgments in the office of the county recorder.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 674 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

674. An abstract of the judgment or decree of any court of this State, including a judgment of any court sitting as a small claims court, or any court of record of the United States, the enforcement of which has not been stayed on appeal, certified by the clerk or justice of the court where such judgment or decree was rendered, may be recorded with the recorder of any county and from such recording the judgment or decree becomes a lien upon all the real property of the judgment debtor, not exempt from execution, in such county, owned by him at the time, or which he may afterwards and before the lien expires, acquire. Such lien continues for five years from the date of the entry of the judgment or decree, unless the enforcement of the judgment or decree is stayed on appeal by the execution of a sufficient undertaking as provided in this code, or by the statutes of the United States, in which case the lien of the judgment or decree, and any lien or liability now existing or hereafter created by virtue of an attachment that has been issued and levied in the action, unless otherwise by statutes of the United States provided, ceases, or upon an undertaking on release of attachment, or unless the judgment or decree is previously satisfied, or the lien otherwise discharged. The abstract above mentioned shall contain the following: Title of the court and cause and number of the action; date of entry of the judgment or decree; names of the judgment debtor and of the judgment creditor; amount of the judgment or decree, and where entered in judgment book, minutes or justices' docket.

Sec. 2. Section 675 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

675. Satisfaction of a judgment may be entered upon an execution returned satisfied, or upon an acknowledgment of satisfaction filed with the clerk or with the justice, if there be no clerk, which may recite payment of the judgment in full or the acceptance by the judgment creditor of any lesser sum in full satisfaction thereof, made in the manner of an acknowledgment of a conveyance of real property, by the judgment creditor or assignee of record, or by indorsement by judgment creditor or assignees of record on the face, or on the margin of the record of the judgment, or by the attorney, unless a revocation of his authority is filed. Whenever a judgment is satisfied in fact, otherwise than upon an execution, the party or attorney must give such acknowledgment, or make such indorsement, and, upon motion, the court may compel it, or may order the entry of satisfaction to be made without it.

In the superior court such entry shall be made in the clerk's docket; in municipal courts, in the register of actions; in justices' courts, in the justices' docket.

Whenever an abstract of the judgment has been recorded with the recorder of any county, satisfaction thereof made in the manner of an acknowledgment of a conveyance of real property may be recorded, or an entry thereof may be made in the margin of the recorder's record, signed by the judgment creditor or assignee of record or by the attorney, unless a revocation of his authority is recorded. Said signature to the marginal release must be signed in the presence of the recorder who must certify to same as provided in section 2938 of the Civil Code for satisfaction of a mortgage.

CHAPTER 299.

"Joint County Road Camp Act"

An act providing for the creation, organization, and government of joint districts composed of two or more counties, and of districts composed of a single county, for the purpose of maintaining joint county road camps and providing that persons confined in the county jail of any such county under a final judgment of imprisonment rendered in a criminal action or proceeding may be required to perform labor on the public work or public highways in any of such counties.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known as, and whenever cited or referred to, shall be designated as the Joint County Road Camp Act, and by such designation shall be sufficiently identified in any proceeding hereunder or in any court action or proceeding or legislative enactment in which this act is referred to.

SEC. 2. Any two or more counties of the State of California may form a district for the purpose of requiring all persons confined in the county jails of such counties, under a final judgment of imprisonment rendered in a criminal action or proceeding, to perform labor on the public works or public highways in all or any of such counties, and to maintain for that purpose one or more joint county road camps in which such jail prisoners of any or all of said counties may work together.

Any district organized hereunder shall have and exercise the powers expressly granted in this act, together with such other powers as are reasonably implied therefrom and necessary and proper to carry out the objects and purposes of this act.

Sec. 3. The board of supervisors of any county may initiate proceedings proposing the creation of a joint district for the purpose of maintaining a joint county road camp or camps under the provisions of this act to be composed of two or more counties of the State having a combined population of not less than fifty thousand persons, according to the official census next preceding the formation of such district by the adoption of a resolution reciting the following:

(1) That it will be beneficial to the public interest to create a joint district wherein persons confined in any county jail within such district under a final judgment of imprisonment rendered in a criminal action or proceeding may be required to perform labor on the public works or ways within said district, and that a joint county road camp or camps be established and maintained for that purpose.

(2) The names of the counties proposed to be included in the proposed district which will be benefited by the formation thereof.

(3) That it is proposed to create a joint district for the establishment and maintenance of a joint county road camp under the provisions of this act composed of the counties so named.

When adopted certified copies of said resolution shall be transmitted to the several clerks of the boards of supervisors in each of the counties named in the said resolution other than that in which the proceedings are initiated.

Upon the adoption of such resolution the board of supervisors of the county adopting the same shall name and appoint a member of said board of supervisors to represent said county upon the board of directors of the joint district proposed to be organized.

Sec. 4. Upon receipt of the resolution adopted as provided in section 3 hereof, the boards of supervisors of the counties affected and to whom the same may be directed shall consider the advisability of creating and organizing a joint district as proposed in said resolution and, upon determining the facts involved therein, shall severally adopt resolutions either rejecting or approving the proposal to create such joint district. Each resolution of approval shall, in addition to the matter otherwise required therein, also name and appoint the member of the board of supervisors of the county adopting such resolution qualified to represent such county upon the board of directors of the proposed joint district. A certified copy of said resolution of approval shall be forthwith transmitted to the clerk of the board of supervisors initiating the proceedings.

Sec. 5. The board of supervisors of any county initiating proceedings for the creation of a joint district under this act shall, after the receipt of a copy of the resolution approving the proposal to form such district as provided in section 3 hereof from the board of supervisors of each county proposed to be included within any such joint district, adopt a resolution declaring the creation and organization of said joint district and setting forth the names of the counties composing said district. A certified copy of said resolution shall be transmitted to and filed with the Secretary of State of the State of California, whereupon the said joint district shall be deemed, created, and organized and shall exercise all the powers granted in this act and shall bear the name and designation of "Joint County Road Camp District No. ______ of the State of California." All districts organized under the provisions of this act shall be numbered in the order of their creation, such number to be assigned to said district forthwith upon the organization thereof by the Secretary of State, and the Secretary of State shall keep and maintain in his office a list and register showing the joint county road camp districts organized under the provisions of this act. The Secretary of State shall furnish and transmit to the clerk of the board of supervisors of the county adopting the initial resolution for the organization of any district hereunder a certificate of the organization of the same, and upon receipt of said certificate such clerk shall, within ten days after the receipt of the same, send a certified copy of said certificate to each of the clerks of the several boards of supervisors of the counties constituting said district, and said clerk shall also within said time notify each supervisor appointed as a member of the board of directors of said district of such fact and of the time and place of the first meeting of the board of directors of said district. Such time and place of meeting shall be fixed and determined by said clerk, but said time of meeting shall be within thirty days after the date of mailing notices thereof. The necessary expense incurred by such supervisors in attending and in going to and coming from any meeting of said board shall constitute a county charge of their respective counties.

Sec. 6. The body thus formed shall be called the board of directors of such district. The said delegates from each county are authorized and empowered to enter an agreement with the other counties for and on behalf of the county appointing them, binding said counties to the joint enterprise and apportioning the cost of establishing and maintaining said road camp or camps, except as hereinafter provided, such cost to be apportioned on the basis of the population of the respective counties as determined by the official declaration of the State Legislature determining the population of counties next preceding such apportionment.

Sec. 7. All sums found due from any county according to the provisions of this act shall be a debt against said county, and may be collected in the manner provided by law by the said board of directors, or, in its behalf, by the board of supervisors of any county in said district by action instituted and tried in any county in said district in which the same may be first filed.

SEC. 8. The board of directors shall have power to establish the road camp or camps herein provided for, and to furnish such camp or camps with the necessary personnel and equipment to transport, feed, clothe, shelter and lodge the prisoners who shall work therein and with the necessary hand tools and appliances for their work, and may employ one or more persons to supervise said camp and the work of said prisoners.

SEC. 9. Each county in said group is authorized, empowered and directed to pay from its county general fund its proportionate share to the board of directors of such amount as the said board may designate to constitute a cash revolving fund to carry on the work and expense of maintaining such camp or camps. Each month a statement of the expense of said camp shall be sent to the board of supervisors of each county in said district, together with a claim for its proportionate share of said expenses. Said amount when received shall be paid into said cash revolving fund.

SEC. 10. Within fifteen days after any person shall have been confined in the county jail of any county within such district under a final judgment of imprisonment rendered in a criminal action or proceeding, the county parole commissioners of such county shall meet and determine the question as to whether, in their opinion, said prisoner should be paroled to work in the joint county road camps established under this act. If it appears to said commissioners that such prisoner is a fit subject for such parole, they shall forthwith parole him with the requirement that he perform labor in such joint county road camp wherever the same may then be situated, or may thereafter be moved to during his term of imprisonment, and he shall forthwith be transferred by the sheriff of such county to said road camp at the expense of the county in which he was sentenced to imprisonment.

SEC. 11. The boards of directors of such districts shall have power to contract with the State Department of Public Works of the State of California for the employment of such jail prisoners in the construction, improvement, or maintenance of any portion of any State highway now existing, to be constructed, or under construction within said district and may also contract with any board of supervisors of any county or with any supervisor of any road district, within said district, for the employment of such jail prisoners on any county road or county public work within any county or road district lying within any district so created under this act. When the prisoners of such road camp are engaged in the construction or maintenance of any portion of the State highway the expense of maintaining the prisoners thereof, together with the compensation of such prisoners fixed by said board of directors as herein provided, and the expense of supervision and maintenance of said road camp and the prisoners thereof, shall be paid for by the district and the State Department of Public Works upon such terms and in such proportions as may be agreed upon by the Department of Public Works and the district. Any money expended by the Department of Public Works under the provisions of this act shall be taken from any funds available for the construction or maintenance of said highway. The State Department of Public Works is hereby authorized to contract with the boards of directors of the joint districts created under this act for all the purposes herein stated. When said joint road camp, and the prisoners thereof, shall be employed in the construction or maintenance of any county way, road or public work, the total expense of maintenance, operation and supervision, of said camp, and the compensation of the prisoners thereof shall be paid for from any funds which may be available for the construction or maintenance of such road, highway or other public works on which said prisoners are employed, or from the county general fund upon a four-fifths vote of the board of supervisors of said county. All such payments shall be made by warrants drawn on the proper fund in favor of "Joint County Road Camp District No. ___" (inserting the number assigned by the Secretary of State), and shall become a portion of the revolving fund hereinabove provided for; provided, that whenever said revolving fund after payment of all bills due against such district shall exceed in amount the sum of twenty thousand dollars or shall exceed such lesser sum as the board of directors shall determine to be a sufficient working fund for the purposes herein stated, said board shall apportion such surplus to be repaid to the counties forming the district, in the same proportion in which they are herein required to contribute to said revolving fund in the first instance, such payments to go into the county general funds of such counties.

Sec. 12. Said board of directors shall have power to make such rules as they deem proper for the government of said camp and the conduct of the prisoners and to fix a reasonable compensation, not to exceed seventy-five cents per day, to each prisoner performing labor in said camp as herein provided. Each prisoner shall be charged with the cost of all tools and appliances for the performance of labor which shall be furnished to him, and, upon his release or discharge from said camp, he shall deliver to the superintendent thereof all said tools and appliances for which he is charged and shall thereupon be entitled to full credit for the cost of the tools and appliances so returned. The cost of any appliances and tools not so returned as herein provided shall be deducted from the compensation due said prisoner. All sums so earned by any prisoner may be retained until said prisoner shall have completed his term of sentence, or until he shall be released or discharged, and shall thereupon be paid to him; provided, however, that if any prisoner has dependents, the compensation of such prisoner shall be paid to such dependents monthly as earned.

Sec. 13. The board of supervisors of any county in the State of California, not included within any joint county road camp district, and having a population of one hundred fifty thousand or more persons, is hereby authorized and empowered to establish and maintain a county road camp as provided in this act, and to provide a board of directors thereof, by passing the resolution and receiving the certificate of organization herein provided for, and in such case shall nominate three of its members to serve as directors of the district thus formed, and such directors shall have and exercise all the powers and perform all the duties herein granted to and imposed upon boards of directors of joint county road camp districts, and such county shall constitute, and be recognized and dealt with in all respects as a joint county road camp district within the meaning of this act.

Sec. 14. Whenever a joint county road camp district, as provided in this act, shall have been formed and thereafter one or more counties comprising such district, and containing more than fifty per cent of the entire population of said district, shall desire to withdraw therefrom, such county or counties may dissolve said joint county road camp district in the following manner:

The board of supervisors of such county or the boards of supervisors of such counties shall by a unanimous vote adopt a resolution that the existence of said county road camp is no longer desirable for the public welfare and announcing the intention to withdraw therefrom and to dissolve said district. Such resolution or resolutions so adopted shall be communicated to the clerks of the boards of supervisors of all the counties comprising said district and also to the Secretary of State and if it appears that such resolution was unanimously adopted by the board or boards of supervisors in such counties desiring to withdraw, and that such county or counties contain more than fifty per cent (50%) of the entire population in said district, the Secretary of State shall thereupon certify to the clerks of the boards of supervisors of the counties composing such district that said district is dissolved and thereupon the board of directors of said district shall within ninety days abolish said road camp or camps and return all prisoners therein to their respective county jails and dispose of all equipment belonging to said camp or camps and district and shall render an accounting to the clerks of the boards of supervisors of the counties composing such district of all sums of money received and paid out since their last previous accounting, including the balance of revolving fund on hand at said last previous accounting, and shall apportion and repay to said counties all sums of money then remaining in their hands, and they shall thereupon be relieved of further responsibility in said matter.
CHAPTER 300.

An act to amend section 10 of an act entitled "An act to provide for the formation, management and dissolution of county fire protection districts composed of lands within one or more counties and annexations to such districts; to set forth the powers of such districts and to provide for levying and collecting taxes on property in such districts to defray the expenses thereof;" approved June 12, 1931, relating to taxes of county fire protection districts.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 10 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 10. The board of directors of each county fire protection district shall annually on or before the twentieth day of July estimate the amount of money which will be needed to defray the cost of maintenance thereof, and to meet such other expenditures as are authorized by this act in connection therewith, and shall also ascertain from the assessor or assessors the assessed value of the assessable property within the district. Said board shall then determine the amount of the tax sufficient to raise the sum estimated to be necessary; provided, that the amount of money to be raised for the purpose of establishing and equipping said district with fire-fighting facilities shall not in any one year exceed one per cent of the assessable property within the district, and the amount of money to be raised for the purpose of maintaining said district each year shall not exceed one-half of one per cent of the assessable property within the district. When so determined, the amount of said tax shall be certified to the boards of supervisors of the counties in which any portion of said district is located and such boards of supervisors shall, at the time of making the levy of county taxes for that year, levy the tax certified upon all taxable property, real, personal or mixed, in said district. Said tax when levied shall be entered upon the assessment rolls and collected in the same manner as State and county taxes. When the same is collected it shall be placed in the treasury of the county in which the greater portion of said district is located, to the credit of the current expense fund of said district and shall be used only for the purpose for which it was raised. All accounts, bills and demands against the district shall be audited, allowed and paid by the board of directors by warrants drawn on the county treasurer. The county treasurer shall pay them in the order in which they are presented.
CHAPTER 301.

An act to amend sections 1081, 1082, 1083, 1085, 1087, 1088, Stats 1933, 1089, 1090, and 1091 of, and to add sections 1081.1, 1083.1, 1083.3 and 1083.5 to the Agricultural Code, relating to commercial feeding stuffs.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1081 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1081. "Commercial feeding stuffs" includes all feeding stuffs and concentrates used for feeding live stock and poultry except the following:

(a) Whole seeds or grains.
(b) Fresh green roughage, and unprocessed liquid milk in all its forms.
(c) Whole hays, straws, cottonseed hulls and corn stover, when unprocessed and unmixed with other materials.

Sec. 2. Section 1081.1 is hereby added to the Agricultural Code to read as follows:

1081.1. Commercial feeding stuffs shall bear tag giving analysis, but shall not be required to pay the "tonnage tax" provided by Sec. 1083.5 if the material is sold to a manufacturer to be used in mixed feeds.

Sec. 3. Section 1082 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1082. The standards for commercial feeding stuffs shall be fixed by the director.

Sec. 4. Section 1083 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1083. Every lot or parcel of commercial feeding stuffs sold or distributed within this State shall have affixed thereto a tag or label, in a conspicuous place on the outside thereof, containing a legible and plainly printed statement certifying:

(a) The net weight of the contents of the lot or parcel.
(b) The name, brand or trade-mark.
(c) The name and principal address of the manufacturer or person responsible for placing the commodity on the market.
(d) The minimum per cent of crude protein.
(e) The minimum per cent of crude fat.
(f) The maximum per cent of crude fiber.
(g) The maximum per cent of ash.
(h) The recognized official name of each ingredient used in its manufacture.
(i) The per cent of such ingredients as corn cobs, corn bran, oat hulls, barley hulls, rice hulls, ground light rice, or similar materials, when such constitute a portion of the lot or parcel.
(j) The maximum per cent of mineral matter it contains.
(k) In the case of mixed feeds containing more than 5 per cent of mineral ingredients, the minimum percentage of lime (CaO), of phosphoric acid (P₂O₅), of iodine (I), and the maximum percentage of salt if the same be present.

(1) The maximum percentage of salt in any mixed feeds if more than 2 per cent of salt is present.

Sec. 5. Section 1083.1 is hereby added to the Agricultural Code to read as follows:

1083.1. Any person who sells commercial feeding stuffs shall register annually with the director and shall pay for each plant and fee of two dollars for each fiscal year, or portion thereof, beginning July 1.

Sec. 6. Section 1083.3 is hereby added to the Agricultural Code to read as follows:

1083.3. Any person who manufactures or mixes any commercial feeding stuffs, for another, shall, when such commercial feeding stuffs are to be resold, furnish those for whom said commercial feeding stuffs are manufactured or mixed a numbered invoice which shall have written or printed thereon the date of sale and the name and the number of pounds of each ingredient entering into such commercial feeding stuffs. Each package of such commercial feeding stuffs shall be attached thereto a written or printed tag showing the number and date of said invoice and the name of the mixer or manufacturer. All such invoices shall remain on file for six months, subject to inspection under the provisions of this chapter. No two invoices issued in one calendar year shall bear the same number. The manufacturer shall attach to the containers tags or stamps indicating the payment of the tonnage tax required by section 1083.5.

Sec. 7. Section 1083.5 is hereby added to the Agricultural Code to read as follows:

1083.5. Each and every manufacturer, importer, jobber, firm, association, corporation or person manufacturing, selling or distributing any commercial feeding stuffs as defined in section 1081 of this chapter, shall pay to the director an inspection tax of four cents (4¢) for each ton of commercial feeding stuffs sold, offered or exposed for sale or distributed in this State, and shall affix to or accompany each lot shipped in bulk, and to each parcel of such commercial feeding stuffs a tag, stamp or label indicating that all charges specified in this section have been paid. Whenever any commercial feeding stuffs as defined in section 1081 is offered or exposed for sale in bulk or otherwise stored, the manufacturer, importer, jobber, firm, association, corporation or person keeping the same for sale shall keep on hand cards upon which shall be printed the statement required by the provisions of section 1083, and when such feeding stuffs is sold at retail in bulk or in packages belonging to the purchaser, the manufacturer, importer, jobber, firm, association, corporation or person shall furnish the purchaser with sufficient tax tags or stamps to cover the sale, and, upon request, with a card or cards upon which appears the statement required by the provisions of section 1083.

Sec. 8. Section 1085 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1085. The director and his agents and inspectors shall have free access to all premises or conveyances used in the manufacture, transportation, importation, sale or storage of any commercial feeding stuffs, and may open any parcel containing or supposed to contain any commercial feeding stuffs, and take therefrom samples and analyze the same.

Sec. 9. Section 1087 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1087. Any lot of commercial feeding stuffs offered for sale in violation of the provisions of this chapter must, in accordance with rules and regulations of the director, be removed from sale by the vendor thereof upon his receiving notice from the director of such violation. The vendor must withhold such commercial feeding stuffs from sale until such violation has been corrected.

Sec. 10. Section 1088 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1088. If it appears from an analysis of the department that any provision of this chapter has been violated it shall notify the manufacturer or dealer and shall afford any party so notified an opportunity to be heard in his defense, under such rules and regulations as the department may prescribe. After such hearing the department shall dismiss the charges or shall certify to the proper district attorney with a copy of the result of the analysis sworn to by the officer making the same. Such sworn copy of the determination is prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

Sec. 11. Section 1089 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1089. Any person who:

(a) Sells or distributes in this State, any commercial feeding stuffs without having attached thereto such labels, tax stamps or tags as are required by this chapter.

(b) Obstructs or prevents or attempts to prevent the department or its authorized agent in the performance of its duty in connection with the provisions of this chapter.

(c) Sells or distributes in this State any commercial feeding stuffs without complying with the registration requirements of the provisions of this chapter.

(d) Sells or distributes in this State any commercial feeding stuffs which contain a smaller per cent of crude protein or crude fat or a larger per cent of crude fiber or ash than is certified to be contained therein.

(e) Fails to properly state the recognized official name of each ingredient used in its manufacture.

(f) Fails to properly state the per cent of such ingredients as corn cobs, corn bran, oat hulls, barley hulls, rice hulls, ground light rice, or similar materials, when such constitute a portion of the package, lot or parcel of the per cent of grit or mineral matter.

Is guilty of a misdemeanor and punishable by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars for the first violation and not less than one hundred dollars for each subsequent violation.

Sec. 12. Section 1090 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1090. Any person who mixes or adulterates any feeding stuffs with any substance injurious to the health of live stock or poultry is guilty of a misdemeanor and in addition to the penalty provided in the preceding section, the lot of feeding stuffs shall be subject to seizure, condemnation and sale as the court may direct. The court may in its discretion release the mixed or adulterated feeding stuffs so seized when the requirements of the provisions of this chapter have been complied with, and upon payment of all costs and expenses incurred by the State in any proceedings connected with such seizure.

Sec. 13. Section 1091 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1091. The director shall enforce the provisions of this chapter and prescribe and enforce such rules and regulations relating to the sale of commercial feeding stuffs as he may deem necessary to carry into effect the full intent and meaning of this chapter.

CHAPTER 302.

An act to provide for the burning of the brush and debris on a watershed for experimental purposes.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. The purpose of this act is to provide a means of determining experimentally the effect of burning brush, slash, undergrowth, and debris off of land upon the run-off of water from such land and the effect of such burning upon the underlying water level.

Sec. 2. The Division of Forestry in the Department of Natural Resources shall carry out the provisions of this act, with the cooperation and assistance of the State Water Commission.

Sec. 3. An entire watershed of some river or creek shall be selected by the Division of Forestry. If the land selected is State land, the State of California hereby assents to its use for the purposes of this act. If the land selected belongs to the United States, the assent of the United States shall be obtained from proper officials. If any of the land is in private ownership the consent of all persons having an interest in the land to be burned over shall first be obtained in writing before the experiment is conducted.
SEC. 4. The State Water Commission shall cause to be made a survey of the stream and its tributaries and of all springs within the area. The commission shall determine, as accurately as may be, the underlying water level of the area.

SEC. 5. After the determination provided for in the preceding section has been made, the Division of Forestry shall cause all brush, slash, undergrowth, and debris in the area to be burned. The division shall take all necessary precautions to protect standing timber of potential commercial value and to prevent the spread of the fire to any other area.

SEC. 6. After the burning, the water commission shall make another survey, or a series of surveys, and shall determine the effect, if any, of the burning upon the run-off of water, the underlying water level, and upon the springs in the area affected.

SEC. 7. The area chosen for the experiment shall be such that the result obtained could reasonably be applied to all of the lands of the State where the same or a similar problem arises. Unless the Division of Forestry for good cause determines otherwise, the land selected shall be in a mountainous area of the State north of the line of the 39th degree of north latitude.

CHAPTER 303.

An act to amend sections 117d and 117p of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to small claims courts.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 117d of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

117d. The date for the appearance of the defendant as provided in the order endorsed on the affidavit shall not be more than fifteen days nor less than three days from the date of the said order. When the justice or clerk has affixed the date for the appearance of the defendant he shall inform the plaintiff of said date and at the same time order the plaintiff to appear on said date and to have with him his books, papers, and witnesses necessary to prove his claim.

SEC. 2. Section 117p of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

117p. A fee of one dollar shall be charged and collected for the filing of the affidavit for the commencement of any action, a fee of fifty cents shall be charged and collected for the mailing of the copy of the affidavit, and, except as otherwise provided for in this chapter, no other fee or charge shall be collected by any officer for any service rendered under this chapter. All of such collected hereunder shall be deposited with the treasurer of the city, or city and county, or county under whose jurisdiction any such court shall exist.

CHAPTER 304.

An act to add section 1219.5 to the Agricultural Code, relating to annual reports of nonprofit cooperative marketing associations.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1219.5 is hereby added to the Agricultural Code to read as follows:

1219.5. The board of directors of every association organized hereunder shall cause to be sent to the members thereof not later than one hundred twenty (120) days after the close of the fiscal or calendar year an annual report of the operations of the association, unless such report be expressly dispensed with in the by-laws. Such annual report shall include a balance sheet as of such closing date. Such financial statement shall be prepared from the books and shall be in accordance therewith and shall be prepared in a form sanctioned by sound accounting practice for the association or approved by a duly certified public accountant.

CHAPTER 305.

An act to amend section 330.24 of the Civil Code, relating to mutual water companies.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 330.24 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

330.24. Any corporation organized for or engaged in the business of selling, distributing, supplying or delivering water for irrigation purposes, or for domestic use, may provide in its articles or by-laws that water shall be sold, distributed, supplied or delivered only to owners of its shares and that such shares shall be appurtenant to certain lands when the same are described in the certificate issued therefor; and when such certificate is so issued and a certified copy of such articles or by-laws recorded in the office of the county recorder in the county where such lands are situated the shares of stock shall become appurtenant to the said lands and shall only be transferred therewith, except after sale or forfeiture for delinquent assessments thereon as provided in section 331 of this title. Notwithstanding such provision in its articles or by-laws, any such corporation may sell water to the State, or any department or agency thereof, or to any school district, at the same rates as to holders of shares of such corporations. In the event lands to which any such stock is appurtenant are owned or purchased by the State, or any department or agency thereof, or any school district, such stock shall be canceled by the secretary, but shall be reissued to any person later acquiring title to such land from the State department, agency, or school district.

CHAPTER 306.

An act to amend sections 2 and 3 of "An act providing for the regulation of water companies, defining their powers and duties, defining the powers and duties of the Railroad Commission with reference thereto, and defining the conditions under which such water companies become subject to the provisions of the Public Utilities Act and the Railroad Commission of the State of California," approved April 25, 1913.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. Whenever any private corporation or association is organized for the purpose solely of delivering water to its stockholders or members at cost, and delivers water to no one except its stockholders or members, or to the State or any agency or department thereof, or to any school district, at cost, such private corporation or association is not a public utility, and is not subject to the jurisdiction, control or regulation of the Railroad Commission of the State of California.

No person, firm or private corporation, their lessees, trustees, receivers or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever, selling or delivering water exclusively to a water conservation district organized under the laws of the State of California or leasing or otherwise permitting the use of ditches or other water transmission facilities exclusively by such district shall be held to be a public utility within the meaning of this act. No portion of the works, property or water rights of any such parties shall be deemed dedicated to a public use by reason of selling or delivering water to a water conservation district.

Sec. 2. Section 3 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:
Sec. 3. Whenever any private corporation or association organized for the purpose of delivering water solely to its stockholders or members at cost does deliver water to others than its stockholders or members, or the State or any department or agency thereof or any school district, for compensation, such private corporation or association becomes a public utility and subject to the terms of the Public Utilities Act and the jurisdiction, control and regulation of the Railroad Commission of the State of California.

CHAPTER 307.

An act to establish legislative standards in relation to the rehabilitation of agriculture and the regulation of producers, packers, distributors, shippers, marketers, handlers, processors and others dealing in agricultural, viticultural, horticultural, animal and poultry products and of any competing commodity or product thereof; to recognize, make effective and provide for the enforcement in this State of marketing agreements and licenses issued or prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States under the National Agricultural Adjustment Act, being Public Act No. 10 of the Seventy-third Congress of the United States; to provide for the issuance, administration and enforcement of State marketing agreements and State licenses in connection therewith; to prescribe the powers, duties and jurisdiction of the State Director of Agriculture in relation thereto; to provide that said State and Federal marketing agreements and licenses shall be and establish standards of fair competition in this State; to suspend all antitrust and unfair competition laws of this State in conflict herewith and therewith; to repeal Chapter 1029 of the Statutes of 1933; to prescribe remedies, rights, duties and penalties with respect to violations hereof and thereof; to provide ways, means and moneys for the administration and enforcement of said State and Federal marketing agreements and licenses; to limit the effective period of this act; to declare the existence of a State and National agricultural emergency and the urgency of this act and that this act shall take effect immediately.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is hereby declared that a State and National emergency productive of widespread agricultural collapse and disorganization of trade and industry now exists, vitally affecting the public welfare of this State and Nation, and preventing agricultural producers from earning a fair return on their labor and farms and thereby preventing them from contributing their fair share to the support of ordinary governmental and educational functions and unduly increasing tax burdens of others in the State for those purposes. It is hereby declared to be the policy of this State to cooperate with and assist the National government in promoting the rehabilitation of agriculture and in eliminating the causes of the collapse of agricultural purchasing power, and to that end:

(1) To bring about the issuance, approval and enforcement of marketing agreements and licenses as may be executed or issued by the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States in so far as such marketing agreements or licenses tend to carry out the declared purposes of this act and affect agricultural products grown within this State, or affect producers, packers, distributors, shippers, marketers, handlers, processors, or others dealing with such products within the State, whether the same be in intrastate transactions or in transactions affecting the current of interstate or foreign commerce;

(2) To provide for the formulation and enforcement of marketing agreements between the director of agriculture of this State and the producers, packers, processors, distributors, shippers, handlers, or marketers of agricultural products within the State, and the issuance by the Director of Agriculture of licenses covering the production, processing, handling, packing, shipping, distribution or marketing of agricultural products within the State, and the correlation of such marketing agreements and licenses with those issued by the agencies of the National government;

(3) To prevent the unreasonable and unnecessary waste of agricultural wealth through disorderly, improper or uneconomic marketing or overproduction of agricultural commodities or the marketing of agricultural commodities in excess of reasonable market demands, but preserving to all producers thereof equality of opportunity in the available market;

(4) To declare that the conditions in the basic industry of agriculture have affected transactions in these commodities within the State of California with a public interest, having so burdened and obstructed the normal current of commerce in such commodities as to effect seriously the credit structure of the State.

Sec. 2. It is hereby declared to be the purpose of this act. Purposes of legislation and the Legislature hereby fixes the legislative or primary standards hereof to govern and control all executive or administrative officers in relation thereto:

(1) To establish and maintain such balance between the production and consumption of agricultural commodities and the marketing conditions therefor, as will reestablish prices to farmers and growers at a level that will give agricultural commodities a purchasing power with respect to articles that farmers buy equivalent to the purchasing power of agricultural commodities during the period of August, 1909–July, 1914.
(2) To approach such equality of purchasing power by gradual correction of the present inequalities therein at as rapid a rate as is deemed feasible in view of the current consumptive demand in domestic markets.

(3) To prevent the unreasonable or unnecessary waste of agricultural wealth because of overproduction, improper preparation for market, disorderly marketing, unfair methods of competition, improper economic planning, the breaking down of the ordinary channels of distribution, or other causes beyond the reasonable control of the producers.

(4) To provide for equal opportunities to all growers and producers in the available markets.

(5) To protect the consumers' interests by readjusting farm production at such levels as will not increase the percentage of the consumers' retail expenditures for agricultural commodities or products derived therefrom which is returned to the farmer, above the percentage which was returned to the farmer in the prewar period, August 1909–July 1914.

(6) To enable and assist farmers, growers and producers to obtain a fair and reasonable return on their labors, and farms, and for their products produced.

Definitions

Sec. 3. When used in this act the following terms shall, unless the context otherwise indicates, have the following respective meanings:

(1) The words "National Agricultural Adjustment Act" shall mean the act passed by Congress entitled: "An act to relieve the existing National economic emergency by increasing agricultural purchasing power, to raise revenue for extraordinary expenses incurred by reason of such emergency, to provide emergency relief with respect to agricultural indebtedness, to provide for the orderly liquidation of joint-stock land banks, and for other purposes," being Public Act No. 10, of the Seventy-third Congress as amended.

(2) The words "agriculture," "agricultural commodity" or "agricultural industry" shall also include horticultural or viticultural commodities or industries and the products of animal and poultry industries.

(3) The words "Cartwright Act" shall mean the act passed by the Legislature of this State entitled: "An act to define trust and to provide for criminal penalties and civil damages, and punishment of corporations, persons, firms, and associations, or persons connected with them, and to promote free competition in commerce and all classes of business in this State," approved March 23, 1907, as amended.

(4) The words "Unfair Competition Act" shall mean an act passed by the Legislature of this State entitled: "An act relating to unfair competition and discrimination, making certain unfair and discriminatory practices unlawful, defining the duties of the Attorney General in regard thereto, declaring certain contracts illegal and forbidding recovery thereon, providing for actions to enjoin unfair competition and discrimination and to recover damages therefor, making the violation of the provisions of this act a misdemeanor and providing penalties," approved June 10, 1913, as amended.

(5) The words "Fair Trade Act" shall mean the act passed by the Legislature of this State entitled: "An act to protect trade-mark owners, distributors and the public against injurious and uneconomic practices in the distribution of articles of standard quality under a distinguished trade-mark, brand or name," approved May 8, 1931, as amended.

Sec. 4. The consent of the State is hereby given to the utilization by the State Director of Agriculture of the services of such State and local officers and employees as the State Director of Agriculture may find necessary to effectuate the purposes of this act.

Sec. 5. (1) Each and every provision other than those relating to expense contributions, of every Federal license and any amendments thereof, heretofore, or hereafter made, issued or approved by the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States under the National Agricultural Adjustment Act, and of every order, rule or regulation heretofore or hereafter made or promulgated by any officer, employee, board, commission or committee, as authorized under such Federal license as to matters, happenings, transactions, offenses, assessments levied or expenses accruing thereunder after the effective date hereof are hereby made applicable to all intrastate transactions within the State of California, and violations thereof declared unfair competition in this State, where, when and in so far as within the standards specified in and for this act in section 2 hereof as to every person whether or not subject to a State marketing agreement or State license.

(2) Any person guilty of unfair competition as specified in this section which is hereby declared to be contrary to the public policy of this State, shall be subject to the provisions of sections 7 and 8 hereof.

(3) When any transaction in the current of interstate or foreign commerce is in violation of any Federal marketing agreement or Federal license and such violation takes place in whole or in part within this State then the person guilty of such violation shall be subject to the provisions of sections 7 and 8 hereof, and such provisions may be enforced in the courts of this State.

(4) Provided that no Federal license regulating the sale or distribution of milk within an area located wholly in the State of California shall become operative under the terms of this section until such license has been accepted and approved in writing by the signatures of not less than sixty-five per cent of the persons who are then engaged in producing milk commercially for distribution or sale in such area specified in such Federal license, and by the signatures of persons who are then producing not less than sixty-five per cent of the total volume of milk then being produced commercially for distribution or sale within such area specified in such Federal license.
Separability. This subsection 4 is separable and distinct from all other portions of this act and is not a consideration or inducement for the enactment of the whole or any portion of this act. If any of the provisions of this subsection be for any reason declared invalid, the remainder of this act shall be in full force and effect and as completely operative as if this subsection had not been included herein.

Sec. 6. In order to carry out the purposes of this act it shall be lawful for any persons, corporations or groups, or for members of one or more agricultural associations, to meet, confer and agree upon marketing agreements for any particular branch of the agricultural industry, or for any agricultural product or commodity or product thereof, but no marketing agreement adopted under this section shall be subject to the penalties or provisions of this act other than this section unless and until approved by the State Director of Agriculture under, subject to and in the manner prescribed in section 6a hereof.

Sec. 6a. In order to carry out the purposes of this act it shall be lawful for the State Director of Agriculture, and it shall be his duty, to carry out the policy hereof and under the standards herein set forth to determine what conditions in intrastate transactions and commerce within this State in the producing, marketing, processing, packing, shipping, handling, or distributing of agricultural products or commodities or products thereof, or any competing products or commodities or product thereof, will tend to carry out the purposes of this act and to that end said director shall have power, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing:

(a) To enter into marketing agreements with persons engaged in intrastate transactions or commerce within this State in the producing, marketing, processing, packing, shipping, handling or distributing of agricultural products or commodities or products thereof, or any competing commodity or product thereof. No such agreement shall be so entered into unless it embraces only persons of a like class by permitting participation therein by all persons engaged in a specific and naturally, inherently and intrinsically distinctive agricultural trade or industry and there then exists a corresponding Federal marketing agreement or license regulating such trade or industry under the National Agricultural Adjustment Act. Also, no such agreement shall be so entered into unless assented to in writing by persons engaged in business done within and from this State but otherwise subject to all corresponding requirements and qualifications to those specified in the National Agricultural Adjustment Act for adoption of a corresponding Federal marketing agreement, if any such requirements or qualifications then exist therein.

(b) To license and issue licenses to persons engaged in intrastate transactions or commerce within this State in the producing, marketing, processing, packing, shipping, handling, or distributing, of any agricultural product or commodity or products thereof, or any competing product or commodity or products thereof. No such license shall be so issued unless whenever one such person is licensed the director at the same time shall subject all persons engaged in the same specific and naturally, inherently and intrinsically distinctive agricultural business, trade or industry to the same identical license provisions and there then exists a corresponding Federal agreement or license regulating such business, trade or industry under the National Agricultural Adjustment Act. Such license may be issued in accordance with regulations to be prescribed by the Director of Agriculture as a blanket license or upon application by persons subject thereto. Upon the issuance of any license or any amendment thereof a notice of said license or amendment shall be posted on a public bulletin board to be maintained by the Director of Agriculture in his office and a copy of such notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation published in the capital of the State and in such other paper or papers as the Director of Agriculture may prescribe. No license nor any amendment thereof shall become effective until five days after such posting and publication. It shall also be the duty of the director to mail a copy of the notice of said license to all known licensees whose names and addresses may be on file in the office of the director and to every person who files in the office of the director a written request for such notice.

No marketing agreement shall be approved by the State Director of Agriculture under this section nor shall any license be issued by said director under this section save where such marketing agreement or license conforms with and contains only like terms, provisions, methods and procedure as the corresponding Federal marketing agreement or license then in existence, except: (1) other than section 16, all provisions hereof relating to such State marketing agreements or licenses shall with or without express incorporation therein be applicable thereto and a part thereof; (2) every such State marketing agreement or State license shall contain such provisions as may be necessary or required to make such marketing agreement or license applicable to transactions within this State; and (3) any such State marketing agreement or license may contain provisions authorized by section 16 hereof.

No marketing agreement shall be approved by the State Director of Agriculture under this section nor shall any license be issued by said director under this section save where the same, in making provision for the appointment or election of any officer, employee, board, commission or committee thereunder, provides that no person shall be eligible thereto unless such person holds a corresponding position under a corresponding Federal marketing agreement or Federal license except where every such eligible person, or in case of a board, commission or committee, a majority of the members thereof, refuses to serve. Whenever for any reason a person appointed or elected as aforesaid holds no or ceases to hold a corresponding position under a corresponding Federal marketing agreement or Federal license and thereafter there becomes an eligible person holding a corresponding position under a corresponding Federal marketing agreement or Federal license who is willing to serve, such position shall become immediately vacant and the eligible person shall be appointed or elected in his stead.

In the event of the amendment of any Federal marketing agreement or license, and where there heretofore existed a corresponding State marketing agreement or license, the director shall within five days after receipt by him of written notice from the administrative authority under such marketing agreement or license of the amendment thereof, call a hearing to be held within fifteen days after receipt of said notice to consider the marketing agreement or license as amended. Within five days after conclusion of such hearing if in his discretion he believes the Federal marketing agreement or license as amended will tend to carry out the purposes of this act he shall: (1) if there heretofore existed a corresponding State license, issue a license having like terms, provisions, methods and procedure as said Federal marketing agreement or license as amended subject to like limitations as apply upon the original issuance of a State license; and (2) if there heretofore existed a corresponding State marketing agreement, after like assent in writing as and if then required for original adoption of a State marketing agreement, enter into a State marketing agreement having like terms, provisions, methods and procedure as said Federal marketing agreement or license as amended subject to like limitations as apply upon the original adoption of a State marketing agreement; otherwise he shall cancel such State marketing agreement or license. It is the intention of this act that there shall be no conflict between the terms or procedure of any Federal marketing agreement or license and a marketing agreement or license issued by the director hereunder.

The director shall: (a) rescind any license hereunder or terminate any marketing agreement hereunder upon the written request of producers who, during a representative period determined by the director, produced within this State for market over fifty per cent in volume of the total volume produced within this State for market of the agricultural product or commodity specified in such marketing agreement or license; or (b) rescind any license hereunder upon the written request of persons engaged in marketing, processing, packing, shipping, handling or distributing who, during a representative period determined by the director, controlled over sixty-seven per cent in volume of the total volume of business done within and from this State in the particular agricultural product or commodity or the particular trade or industry regulated by such license, provided there also then exists a corresponding State marketing agreement regulating the particular agricultural product or commodity or the particular trade or industry regulated by such license.

The Director of Agriculture may adopt and enforce all rules, regulations and orders necessary or desirable to carry out the provisions of this act and not inconsistent with law. Every general rule, regulation or order of the director shall be posted for public inspection in the main office of the director and in the office of the Secretary of State at least three days before it shall become effective, and shall be given such further publicity, by advertisement in a newspaper of general circulation in the territory affected by the issuance of such rule, regulation or order, or otherwise as the director shall deem advisable. An order applying only to a person or persons named therein shall be served on the person or persons affected; (a) by personal delivery of a certified copy, or (b) by mailing a certified copy in a sealed envelope with postage prepaid to each natural person or in the case of a corporation in like manner to any officer or or agent thereof. The complying with these provisions shall constitute due and sufficient notice to all persons affected by such rule or order. The director shall upon request mail to any person affected by any general rule or regulation promulgated by him, a copy of the same and may charge a reasonable fee therefor.

A rule of any board, committee, or administrative authority under any State marketing agreement or license shall have the force and effect of law.

SEC. 7. (a) Every person who

(1) Violates any provision of this act other than section 12 hereof; or

(2) Violates any provision of any State license, or order, rule or regulation duly made or promulgated thereunder to which he is subject, or who after due revocation of his State license or while the same stands duly suspended engages in transactions mentioned therein and regulated thereby; or

(3) Violates any provision of any Federal license or order, rule or regulation duly made or promulgated thereunder to which he is subject where the whole or any part of the act constituting the violation takes place within this State; or

(4) Is guilty of unfair competition as herein defined, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars or more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment of not less than ten days or more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(b) Each day any of the violations above referred to shall continue shall constitute a separate offense.

(c) Any person wilfully exceeding any quota or allotment fixed for him by or under any license issued by the Director of Agriculture, and any other person knowingly participating, or aiding, in the exceeding of said quota or allotment, shall become civilly liable to the State in a sum equal to three times the current market value of such excess, which sum shall be recoverable in a civil suit brought in the name of the State.
SEC. 8. (1) The Attorney General or any district attorney of this State may upon his own initiative, and shall upon complaint of any person if after investigation he believes a violation to have occurred, bring an action in the name of the people of this State in the superior court of the State of California for an injunction against any person.

(a) Violating any provision of this act other than section 12 hereof; or

(b) Violating any provisions of any State marketing agreement or State license or order, rule or regulation duly made or promulgated thereunder to which he is subject or who after due revocation of his State license or while the same stands duly suspended engages in transactions mentioned therein and regulated thereby;

(c) Violating any provision of any Federal marketing agreement or Federal license or order, rule or regulation duly made or promulgated thereunder to which he is subject; or

(d) Who is guilty of unfair competition as herein defined.

(2) Any board, committee, or administrative authority under any State marketing agreement or license may in like manner bring a like action against any such person as to any of such offenses as affect the particular trade or industry subject to the terms of the State marketing agreement or license under which such board, committee or administrative authority was created.

(3) Upon compliance with section 527 of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, the court may issue a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction as in other actions for injunctive relief and upon the trial of such action if judgment be in favor of plaintiff the court shall permanently enjoin defendant from further violations.

(4) Such action may be commenced either in the county where any defendant resides or where any act or omission or part thereof complained of occurred.

(5) In any action brought to enforce any of the provisions of this act the judgment, if in favor of the plaintiff, shall provide that the defendant pay all costs of suit.

Sec. 9. The penalties and remedies herein prescribed with regard to any violation mentioned in section 8 hereof, shall be concurrent and alternative and neither singly nor combined shall the same be exclusive and either singly or combined the same shall be cumulative with any and all other civil, criminal or administrative rights, remedies, forfeitures or penalties provided or allowed by law with respect to any such violation.

Sec. 10. In any civil or criminal action or proceeding for violation of the Cartwright Act, or the Unfair Competition Act, or the Fair Trade Act, or of section 1673 of the Civil Code, proof that the act complained of was done in compliance with the provisions of any marketing agreement, license, order, rule or regulation in effect, under the terms of the National Agricultural Adjustment Act, or of this act, to which the defendant was subject at the time of the doing of the act shall be a complete defense to such action or proceeding.

Sec. 11. The Director of Agriculture may, after reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard, revoke or suspend the license of any person issued hereunder for violation of such license or any provision hereof.

Sec. 12. (1) In all marketing agreements executed by or any license issued by the director provision shall be made therein for the levying and collection of an assessment or fee upon the signatories to such marketing agreement or upon the members of the industry for which said license has been issued in order to raise the sum or sums necessary to carry on the performance and execute the duties of said director and all other persons under such marketing agreement or license.

(2) For the purpose of collecting any assessment under any marketing agreement or license whether State or Federal, the administrative authority charged with the collection thereof, may in its own name bring an action in a State court of competent jurisdiction for the collection thereof.

(3) Any such assessment or fee duly fixed and levied pursuant to any such marketing agreement or license, shall constitute a personal debt of every person so assessed, and shall be immediately due and payable to the administrative authority charged with the collection thereof.

(4) Any funds collected by the board, committee, commission or administrative authority from the levying of such fees and assessments shall be used for the purposes set forth in the marketing agreement or license under which collected. A full and complete record thereof shall be kept to which the director may have access at any time.

Sec. 13. (1) Every person engaged in intrastate transactions or commerce within this State in the marketing, shipping, handling, distributing of any agricultural product subject to a marketing agreement or license shall maintain accurate books, records and accounts which shall truly and accurately reveal the true account and condition of his or its business. Every such person shall furnish to the State Director of Agriculture or his duly authorized representatives, as he or they may request, such information as may be required under the provisions of such marketing agreement or license.

(2) All such books, records and accounts shall during usual business hours be subject to inspection by said director or his duly authorized agents or any officer, employee, board, commission or committee mentioned in any State marketing agreement or State license. Such inspection shall be in accordance with the provisions of such marketing agreement or license.

(3) Information obtained by any person hereunder shall be confidential and shall not be by him disclosed to any other person save to a person with like right to obtain the same or any attorney employed by such person, board, commission or committee to give legal advice thereon, or by court order.
(4) For the purpose of carrying out the terms of this act the director may hold hearings, take testimony, administer oaths, subpoena witnesses and issue subpoenas for the production of books, records or documents of any kind.

(5) No person shall be excused from attending and testifying or from producing documentary evidence before the director in obedience to the subpoena of the director on the ground or for the reason that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to criminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture. But no natural person shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he may be so required to testify, or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, before the director in obedience to a subpoena issued by him; provided, that no natural person so testifying shall be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

SEC. 14. (1) The director is hereby empowered in his discretion:

(a) To confer and cooperate with the legally constituted authorities of other States and of the United States, including the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States or other legally constituted Federal authorities in effectuating the purposes of the National Agricultural Adjustment Act, and of this act, in order to secure uniformity in the administration of Federal and State marketing agreements and licenses and in the regulations thereby or thereunder prescribed, and said State Director of Agriculture shall have power to conduct joint hearings and issue joint or concurrent orders for the foregoing purposes, and may exercise his powers under this act to effect such uniformity of administration and regulation.

(b) To receive from any source money or other value for services rendered, or as a gift, for use in work within or to carry out the purposes hereof.

(c) To use, and to permit the boards, committees or administrative authorities established under any marketing agreement or license issued pursuant hereto to use, upon such conditions as he shall prescribe the various employees or officers of the State Department of Agriculture in carrying out the provisions hereof or of any marketing agreement or license issued hereunder.

(2) The Director of Agriculture and his duly authorized agents shall enforce this act and are hereby vested with like powers while enforcing this act as are given by section 6 of the Agricultural Code to any person in whom the enforcement of any provision of said code is vested.

SEC. 15. (1) Every State marketing agreement submitted to the State Director of Agriculture for approval shall be accompanied by a filing fee of ten dollars. Said director shall submit his expenses in connection with every marketing agreement or license issued hereunder to the appropriate board thereunder charged with the collection of other expenses, which board shall collect and pay the same to the said director.

Sec. 16. (a) Any marketing agreement or license adopted or issued by the director hereunder may provide where a surplus arises under the terms or operation thereof for a program of surplus control regulating the marketing and disposition of such surplus.

(b) The director shall provide for such a program of surplus control when assented to in writing by persons who, during a representative period determined by the director, controlled more than sixty-seven per cent in volume of the total volume of business done within and from this State in the particular agricultural product or commodity or by the particular trade or industry subject to such marketing agreement or license.

(c) Every such program of surplus control shall: (1) operate equitably and proportionately upon all persons affected thereby; (2) operate without conflict with any other purposes of said or any other State or Federal marketing agreement or license.

(d) Where a Federal marketing agreement or license does not provide for surplus control, the director may nevertheless in the corresponding State marketing agreement or license provide for surplus control.

Sec. 16a. (a) The provisions of this act shall have no application to the voluntary donation or contribution of agricultural products for charitable purposes nor to the barter or exchange of such products for human labor where no commmercial sale of such donated, contributed, bartered or exchanged product is made.

(b) The provisions of this act shall not apply to shipments handled by a common carrier operating over a regular route or between fixed termini where such shipment is made by such common carrier in good faith and in accordance with its duties as a common carrier and where a record of every such shipment within or from this State is kept by such common carrier showing the date of shipment, character and quantity of shipment, origin and destination of such shipment, and the names of the consignor and consignee. Such record shall be open to inspection at all reasonable hours by or on the written order of the official or administrative authority charged with the enforcement of this act or any State or Federal marketing agreement or license.

Sec. 17. If any section, sentence, clause or part of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the remaining portions of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act and each section, sentence, clause and part thereof despite the fact that one or more sections, sentences, clauses or parts thereof be declared unconstitutional.

Sec. 18. This act may be known and cited as "The Caliifornia Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1935."
Sec. 19. Chapter 1029, or, the Statutes of 1933, is hereby repealed.

Sec. 20. (a) Every State marketing agreement approved hereunder and every State license issued hereunder shall cease to be in effect on such date as the corresponding Federal marketing agreement or license ceases to be in effect.

(b) This act shall cease to be in effect on such date as the National Agricultural Adjustment Act ceases to be in effect.

The economic conditions of agricultural producers throughout the State are such as to require immediate relief if their purchasing power and taxing ability are to continue and their morale and standard of living are not to be undermined. Such relief can be afforded only by the orderly production and marketing of agricultural products and the coordination of State control of production and marketing with Federal control, each of which supplements the other and makes the same effective.

CHAPTER 308.

An act to amend sections 283, 1072, 10200, and 10271 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance principles, practice and matters incidental thereto.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

NOTE.—See Stats. 1935, Ch. 145.

CHAPTER 309.

An act making an appropriation for contingent expenses of the Senate, and declaring that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935] In effect immediately]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. The sum of twenty-five thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the State treasury, not otherwise appropriated, for contingent expenses of the Senate, for fifty-first session and interim committees thereof to be expended for such purposes and in such manner as the Senate shall by resolution direct. This appropriation shall be available without regard to fiscal years.

Sec. 2. Inasmuch as this act provides an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the State, it is hereby declared an urgency measure and shall, under the provisions of Article IV, section 2 of the Constitution, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 310.

An act to amend section 18a of the "Street Opening Act of 1903," relating to assessments and contribution of costs by municipalities.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 18a of the "Street Opening Act of 1903" is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 18a. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this act, the city council may, in its discretion, provide by resolution adopted at any time that any sum toward the expense of said improvement will be paid by said municipality, in which case such sum shall be in addition to, but not less than, the sum or percentage, if any, stated in the ordinance of intention, and at any time prior to the confirmation of the assessment the said city council shall have the authority to reduce, or to direct the street superintendent to reduce, the amount of the proposed assessment in a sum equivalent to the sum to be so paid. At any time after the confirmation of the said assessment, either before or after the issuance of bonds thereon, the said city council shall have the power to determine that the public interest and necessity require further and additional sums to be paid towards the expense of said improvement by the municipality where the said improvement is for a work of more than ordinary public benefit and involves a major thoroughfare of the municipality upon which the traffic is heavy and continuous and of benefit to the entire municipality. Whenever the city council shall so determine and shall make an appropriation therefor it shall order the street superintendent to proceed to make a reassessment in the following manner: The said street superintendent shall prepare and file with the reassessment a diagram showing the lots, pieces or parcels of land deemed by him to have been benefited by the work of improvement; the reassessment shall assess upon and against each of the lots, pieces or parcels of land within the assessment district the amount of the original assessment less a pro rata of the sum so appropriated, prorated in the same proportion that the said original assessment against such lot, piece or parcel of land bears to the total of such original assessment for the improvement. Such reassessment need not be in any prescribed form but shall refer to the original assessment filed, giving the date of filing of said original assessment, and shall state that it is made pursuant to the order of the legislative body of the municipality and shall be accompanied by a diagram showing the lots to be reassessed and their relation to the work. Such diagram may be the original assessment diagram if it otherwise conforms to the provisions of this section. It shall then be presented to the legislative body, which shall fix a time and place of hearing before it. Such time must be at least twenty (20) days after the reassessment is so presented. The city clerk shall then advertise the time and place of such hearing before the legislative body by publishing a notice in the newspaper in which the ordinance of intention for the improvement was published unless the legislative body directs publication in some other paper. The assessment diagram and the proposed reassessment shall be referred to for particulars. Such notice shall be published for five (5) insertions if the paper be a daily, or two (2) insertions if the paper be published less frequently. At the time fixed for the said hearing or at such time or times to which the same may be continued the legislative body shall consider any objections to the said reassessment and may correct inequalities or mistakes therein. When such reassessment shall have been revised or corrected or modified so as to comply with the judgment of said legislative body, then it shall pass a resolution confirming such reassessment. The street superintendent shall thereupon record the reassessment and diagram, in his office, with a certificate at the end thereof executed by the city clerk that it is the reassessment approved by the legislative body of the city. He shall also note opposite the several assessments in the original assessment that have been displaced by the reassessment the fact that the reassessment has been made, giving its date, and shall credit upon such reassessment all payments theretofore made upon the original assessment or upon the bonds issued to represent the same. Such reassessment shall be collectible and payable in the same manner as an original assessment and shall be enforceable by suit in the same manner provided in this act for enforcing an original assessment and shall have the same weight in evidence. In the event that bonds issued under or upon the security of the original assessment, no reassessment made pursuant to this section shall change the security or lien of any such bond in any manner whatsoever or the method of the enforcement thereof. The lien of such reassessment shall hold its relative rank as to other special assessment liens as of the date of filing of the original assessment. Upon confirming the said reassessment the city shall transfer into the bond and assessment redemption fund the amounts so apportioned among the several assessments.

Whenever prior to ordering said reassessment any payments shall have been made on any assessment, or on any bond issued to represent any such assessment, the owner of record of the property against which such assessment was levied, at the time such payment was made, shall be entitled to receive a return in an amount in the proportion that the payment or payments made bears to the difference between the original assessment and said reassessment, with respect to the lot, piece or parcel of land for which such payment or payments were made. The balance of any such appropriation, as determined by the reassessment, shall be credited pro rata to the bonds in payment thereof, applying such payment first to the interest due and then upon the principal. Thereafter the city treasurer shall pay to the holder of each bond the payment so credited from said bond and assessment redemption fund. The city treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to make all payments of refunds as authorized by this section. Whenever it shall appear to the legislative body that payments shall have been made on any such assessments or bonds prior to the said reassessment, it shall be its duty to cause to be published in the newspaper in which the notice of award of contract for the improvement for which the assessment was made a notice stating the fact of such reassessment and calling upon all property owners affected by the said improvement to make claim for refund within one year from date of a first publication of the said notice. A description of the district shall be set forth and the assessment diagram referred to for all particulars. Such notice shall be published once a week for five (5) weeks. In case claim for such refund shall not be made within said period, then all claims therefor shall be barred and the said amount remaining unclaimed shall revert to the fund from which said supplemental appropriation was made by the city council. No suit shall be brought to contest, modify, annul, review or in any way attack the validity of such reassessment and the proceedings had under this section unless the same shall have been commenced within thirty (30) days after the recording of the diagram and reassessment, and thereafter all persons shall be barred from any such action or any defense of invalidity of the reassessment and all bonds issued thereon.

In making any such reassessment the street superintendent shall first deduct from the amount appropriated by the city council the estimated cost of the reassessment proceedings.
In case such estimate should for any reason exceed the actual cost thereof, then the excess of such fund reserved for the payment of the said costs shall revert to the fund from which the appropriation was made. In the event that the said estimate shall prove to be insufficient to meet the costs of the said reassessment, then the said city council shall appropriate such additional sums as may be necessary to meet the excess costs and expenses thereof.
"The River Port District Act."

An act to provide for the creation, organization and government of river port districts in one or more counties; to enumerate the powers thereof; to authorize the incurring of indebtedness, the borrowing of money and the issuance of bonds, and other evidences of indebtedness of such district and to provide for the mortgaging, pledging, or hypothecating of property of such districts and the issuance of revenue notes, certificates or warrants payable solely and exclusively from the revenues to be realized from a particular utility or property acquired or to be acquired with the proceeds of such obligations; to provide for the levy and collection of taxes by such districts and the allocation, mortgage, pledge, or hypothecation of the revenues of such districts or any property of such districts; to authorize river port districts to enter into agreement with the State of California or any political subdivisions therein or with the United States of America; and to authorize river port districts to do and perform all acts and things necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of this act.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be designated and referred to as "The River Port District Act."

SEC. 2. A river port district may be organized as herein provided and shall have and may exercise the powers herein granted. A port district may include any territory in one or more counties, contiguous to a navigable river or to any channel connected with a navigable river, provided that the territory of the district be contiguous, and provided that no municipal corporation shall be divided in the formation of such district, and provided that no territory situate in a county in which there is located a duly organized and existing port district under the provisions of the Port District Act shall be included in such river port district. No territory situated within the boundaries of any port or harbor district organized or designated and existing under the provisions of any city charter shall be included in such river port district. Any territory which may be annexed to a municipal corporation, which is in a port district, shall by virtue of such an annexation become a part of such port district.

SEC. 3. Whenever the formation of a port district is desired, a petition which may consist of any number of instruments, may be presented at a regular meeting of the board of supervisors of each county in which is located any portion of land within the proposed district. Such petition shall be signed by not less than five per cent of the registered voters residing within the proposed port district, who voted at the last preceding general State election at which a Governor was -elected. The original petition need not be filed with the board of supervisors of each county, but a certified copy of the original must be so filed.

SEC. 4. The provisions of Chapters I and II of Division I of the District Organization Act shall govern and control the proceedings for the filing and hearing of the petition and the proceedings for final hearing of the petition and the formation of the district, provided that the "supervising authority" as used in the District Organization Act shall mean the board of supervisors of each county in which is located any portion of land within the proposed district, and provided that all proceedings necessary for the formation of the district, as pro-vised in Chapters I and II of Division I of the District Organizeation Act, shall be had in each county in which is located any portion of land within the proposed district, and provided further that no lands lying within any county within the proposed district shall be included in such district unless a majority of the electors in that portion of the district within said county vote in favor thereof.

SEC. 6. The port district shall be governed by a board known as the port commission, which board shall consist of five (5) members. Two of said commissioners shall be appointed by the board of supervisors of the county in which is located the largest proportion in value of the lands within the district. Two of said commissioners shall be appointed by the city council of the municipal corporation having the largest proportion in value of lands within the district. One commissioner shall be appointed by joint action of the boards of supervisors of any other counties located in the district.

A board of elections consisting of two members selected from the board of supervisors of the county in which is located the largest proportion in value of the land within the district, two members of the city council of the municipality in which is located the largest proportion in value of the land within the district and the fifth member selected by the boards of supervisors of any other counties located within the district, shall select the chairman of the port commission and the auditor of the port district. The chairman so selected shall be one of the five members of the port commission as provided in this section.

The mayor of the municipality in which is located the largest proportion in value of the land within the port district, or any chairman of the boards of supervisors of the counties wherein the port district is located, shall have the power to call meetings of the board of election.

Each commissioner shall, within ten (10) days of his appointment and before entering upon the discharge of the duties of his office, take and subscribe to an oath or affirmation before an officer authorized by law to administer oaths, that he will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California, and will faithfully discharge the duties of his office according to the best of his ability. Such oath or affirmation shall be filed in the office of the port district.

The first meeting of the commission shall be held within ten (10) days of the appointment of the chairman thereof. The commission shall make its own rules of procedure and determine the place and time of its meeting.

The commission shall select one of its members vice chairman who shall preside in the absence of the chairman.

The commission shall provide for and select such officers as it deems necessary to conduct the affairs of the district, except the auditor.

A corporation may be selected as treasurer or the commission may provide that the duties of the treasurer be performed by the county treasurer of the county wherein the district or the greater portion thereof is located.

The commission may prescribe rules and regulations pertaining to the selection of officers and employees of the district, other than the auditor. It shall also provide the method of selecting such officers and employees and fix the salary or wages of all officers and employees of the district except the auditor. The term of each officer appointed by the commission shall be during the pleasure of the commission.

The term of office of each member of the port commission shall be four (4) years from the time of his appointment, except that the chairman first appointed, shall hold office for two (2) years, and the remaining members of the commission shall classify themselves by lot, so that they hold office respectively for one (1), two (2), three (3) and four (4) years.

The chairman shall be the presiding officer of the commission and he shall be required to vote on all propositions passed upon by the commission.

No person shall be appointed a member of the port commission who is not, at the time of his appointment, a taxpayer within the port district and who has not resided within the port district for at least one (1) year.

The members of the port commission shall serve without salary or compensation, but shall be entitled to necessary traveling expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

A vacancy in the port commission shall be filled by the body which appointed the member whose office is vacated, and the newly appointed member shall hold his office for the unexpired term.

The auditor of the port district, selected by the board of election herein provided, shall hold office during the pleasure of said board, and said board shall fix his salary and shall require him to file a bond for the faithful performance of his duties in such a manner as they may determine.

Sec. 7. Powers of the port district. Any port district created under this act is hereby declared to be a public corporation created for municipal purposes, and as such shall have power:

1. To have perpetual succession.
2. To sue and be sued.
3. To adopt a seal and alter it at pleasure.
4. To take by grant, purchase, gift, devise or lease or otherwise acquire and to hold and enjoy, and to lease or dispose of, real and personal property of every kind, within or without the port district, necessary to the full or convenient exercise of its powers.
5. To acquire, purchase, take over, construct, maintain, operate, develop and regulate wharves, docks, warehouses, grain elevators, bunkering facilities, cold storage facilities, belt railroads, floating plants, lighterage, lands, towage facilities, and any and all other facilities, aids or public personnel, incident to or necessary for the operation and development of a port, ports, waterways and the port district.
6. To have and exercise the right of eminent domain in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of private property for public use. To take any property necessary to carry out any of the objects or purposes of a port district, whether such property be already devoted to the same use or otherwise. In the exercise of such right of eminent domain, a port district shall have the same right, power and privileges as a municipal corporation under the laws of the State of California.
7. To incur indebtedness and to issue bonds or other evidence of indebtedness for the purposes provided herein; provided that in the event that any bonds issued for port improvement purposes by any part of a district prior to the creation of said district, shall be refunded, the refunding bonds shall be a lien only upon the lands upon which they were a lien at the time of the creation of the district.
8. To levy and collect or cause to be levied or collected taxes as in this act provided.
9. To have exclusive jurisdiction over, and the power to provide for and supervise pilots and the piloting of sea-going boats from the end of jurisdiction of existing pilot authorities to points lying upon any navigable waterway project of the United States, entering said district.
10. To contribute money to the Federal or the State government or to any county wherein the port district is located or to any city within the port district, for the purpose of defraying the whole or a portion of the cost and expenses of work and improvement to be performed, either within or without the territorial limits of the port district, by said Federal, State, county or city government, in improving rivers, streams, or in doing other work, when such work will improve navigation and commerce, in or to the navigable waters in the port district.
11. To do any and all work or to make any improvement within or without the territorial limits of the port district, when the doing of said work or the making of said improvement will aid in the development or the improvement of navigation or commerce to or within the port district.

12. To enact necessary police regulations providing for control of any waterway project of the United States, entering said district, and to prescribe the rules and regulations concerning the construction of wharves, docks, buildings and improvements of all types, contemplated thereon.

13. To provide for the opening and laying out of streets leading to the waterfront.

14. To regulate and control the construction, maintenance and operation or use of all wharves, warehouses, structures, improvements or appliances used in connection with or for the accommodation and promotion of transportation or navigation on any improvement project of the Federal government applying to the main waterway entering said port district and also on such other navigable streams improved or unimproved which lie within said port district, and to make and enforce necessary police and sanitary regulations in connection therewith.

15. To fix, regulate and collect the rates or charges for the use of wharves, warehouses, watercraft, railroads and other facilities, structures and appliances owned, controlled or operated by the port district, in connection with or for the promotion and accommodation of transportation or navigation and the rates or charges for pilotage and towage.

16. To lay out, plan and establish the general plan and system of harbor and harbor district improvements and, from time to time, to modify such plan and to prescribe the specifications for such improvements.

17. To act as warehousemen, stevedores, lighterers, reconditioners, shippers and reshippers of properties of all kinds.

18. To manage the business of the port district and promote the maritime and commercial interests by proper advertisement of its advantages, and by the solicitation of business, within or without the port district, within other states or in foreign countries, through such employees and agencies as it may deem expedient.

19. To prescribe fines, forfeitures and penalties for the violation of any provision of any ordinance, but no penalty shall exceed five hundred dollars ($500) or six (6) months' imprisonment, or both.

20. Notwithstanding the enumeration and specific statement herein of particular powers, the port district shall have the power to do and perform all acts and things necessary and appropriate to carry out the purposes of this act and the powers of the port district.

Sec. 8. The powers of a port district established under this act shall be exercised by the port commission, by ordinance or resolution passed by a majority vote of said commission; all ordinances shall be published in a newspaper of general cir-ulation, printed or published in the county in which the port district is situated, at least five days before final passage.
All franchises and leases for a period of more than ten (10) years must be authorized by ordinance.

Sec. 9. No grant of a franchise or lease of property of the port district shall be for a longer period than fifty (50) years, and every such grant shall provide for a readjustment of the compensation or rentals every ten (10) years during its term, in accordance with the procedure provided in the ordinance authorizing said grant.

Sec. 10. The fiscal year of any port district shall begin on the first day of July of each year and shall end on the thirtieth day of June of the following year.

Sec. 11. The port commission shall annually file a report of the affairs and financial condition of the port district for the preceding year with the governing body of every county or city, all or part of which is included in the district. This report shall show the sources of all receipts and all disbursements, and the purposes for which they were made, during said year.

Sec. 12. Any property owned by any city which is used or held for the purpose of aiding or developing navigation, commerce or fishing may be transferred to the port district to be used for the same purposes, and any lands of the State of California which may have been transferred to any such city may be transferred to the port district subject to the trusts and other provisions providing for the transfer of said lands from the State to said city; provided that any city which is governed by a freeholders charter may only transfer or turn over such property if authorized so to do by the provisions of its charter or amendment thereof.

In case any land under a navigable stream, shall by virtue of any work or improvement by the United States or the State of California, become freed from the easement of navigation and fishing, it shall then revert to the said port district, to be used for the purposes and objects for which the district was organized. In case said lands are not used or held for said purpose, they shall then revert to the State of California.

In the event of the dissolution of the port district, all lands which were granted to it by any municipal corporation shall ipso facto revert to and be revested in the municipal corporation so granting the same to the port district.

Sec. 13. The letting of all contracts for the doing of any work or the purchase of any supplies where the cost thereof exceeds one thousand five hundred dollars must be by the port commission, upon competitive bidding therefor. In case of an emergency such as a fire, flood, storm, or other disaster, the board may, by passing a resolution by four-fifths vote of all its members, determine and declare that the public interest and necessity demand the immediate expenditure of district money to safeguard life, health, or property; whereupon the board may proceed to expend such sums as may be necessary in such an emergency. Notice of the proposed letting of such a contract shall be given by publication at least once in a paper published in the counties where the district is located, at least five (5) days before the time fixed for opening bids. Bidding shall be by sealed proposals filed with the port district, and upon forms furnished by said district, and under such rules and regulations as the port commission may prescribe. All bids shall be publicly opened and declared and the award of the contracts therefor shall be made in open session of the port commission to the lowest and best responsible bidder.

The port commission shall have the power to delegate to its officers the execution of contracts where the amount involved is less than one thousand five hundred dollars.

No officer of the district, nor any employee thereof, shall be interested directly or indirectly in any contract or transaction with the district, nor become surety for the performance of any contract made with or for the district upon bonds given to the district. No officer or employee of the district shall receive any commission or thing of value, or derive any profit, benefit, or advantage directly or indirectly from or by reason of any dealings with or service for the district by himself or others, except as lawful compensation as such officer or employee. The violation of the provisions of this section by any such officer or employee shall work a forfeiture of said office or employment.

Nothing in this section contained shall prevent the port district, itself, from doing such work and making such improvement as it may think necessary. Said work shall be done under the supervision and direction of its officers or employees.

SEC. 14. Any port district organized under this act may create a bonded debt in the manner and pursuant to the procedure of the municipal bond act of 1901 (Statutes of 1901, page 27) and amendments thereto.

Bonds may be issued to be used for the purpose of raising money for use in carrying out any of the powers and purposes of the port district.

SEC. 15. On or before June first of each year, the port director shall submit to the port commission a detailed statement of the money required for the ensuing fiscal year for the purpose of conducting the business of the district. There shall be submitted with such estimate such data and schedules as the port commission may require.

SEC. 16. Annually on or before the date set for the consideration of the budget by the board of supervisors of each county wherein the port district, or any portion thereof, is located, the commission of each port district shall furnish to the board of supervisors of each county in which the district is situated, an estimate in writing of the amount of money necessary for all purposes by the port district during the ensuing fiscal year. Upon approval by the board of supervisors of each county in which any lands lie within the dis-strict, it shall be the duty of the board of supervisors of each county to levy a special tax, on all taxable property of the county lying within the district, sufficient in amount to raise the county's proportionate amount of said sum. The tax shall in no event exceed the rate of ten (10) cents on each one hundred dollars ($100) of the assessed value of all taxable property within the district, exclusive of the amount necessary to be raised by taxes to meet bond interest and redemption. The tax shall be computed, entered upon the tax rolls and collected in the same manner as county taxes are computed, entered and collected. All money so collected shall be paid into the county treasury to the credit of the particular port district fund and shall be paid to the treasurer of the district upon the order of the port commission.

Sec. 17. From the time of the organization of any port district until the next succeeding July first, the port district may incur indebtedness for the purpose of operating the port and in the first tax levy, the rate shall be in an amount sufficient to operate the port for the first full fiscal year as well as to pay the obligations thus incurred before the first of the July succeeding the creation of the port district.

Sec. 18. Any bonds which may be issued by any port district under the provisions of this act shall be legal investments for all trust funds, and for the funds of all insurance companies, banks, both commercial and savings, and trust companies, and for the State school funds, and whenever any moneys or funds may, by law now or hereafter enacted, be invested in bonds of cities, cities and counties, counties, school districts or municipalities in the State of California, such moneys or funds may be invested in said bonds of port districts organized hereunder.

Sec. 19. Whenever, upon the creation of a port district any municipality therein or any county wherein the district is located shall have theretofore authorized or incurred a bonded indebtedness for any work or improvement for which the port district is authorized to incur a bonded debt under the provisions of this act, and such municipality or such county shall thereafter sell such bonds or any portion thereof, the proceeds of the sale thereof, may (upon the order of the appropriate board of supervisors or city council) be paid by the custodian thereof into the treasury of such port district and the same shall be applied by the port commission of the port district, exclusively to the purposes and objects for which such bonds were authorized by the municipal corporation or the county issuing the same.

Sec. 20. All claims and demands against the port district, except interest coupons and installments of the principal on bonds payable by the district and salaries and wages, shall be filed with the auditor on forms and blanks prescribed by him. No claim or demand shall be paid without the endorsement of the auditor on the same certifying to its correctness.
The auditor shall keep a record, which shall be a public record, of all claims against the district showing by whom made, for what purpose, the amount thereof and when paid. If there be not sufficient money in any fund to pay the demands made against said fund, said demand shall be registered in a book to be kept by the treasurer, showing its number, when presented, date, amount, name of payee, and on what account allowed and out of what fund payable, and when so registered, the demand shall be returned to the party presenting it with the endorsement of the word "Registered" dated and signed by the treasurer. All registered demands shall be payable in the order of their registration. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the payment by the treasurer of bonds of the port district or of any city or county, and interest coupons thereof, in accordance with the Constitution of this State and the provisions of this act authorizing the issuance and payment of such bonds.

Wages and salaries shall be paid at such intervals as the port commission may direct, but at least once each month.

Sec. 21. Nothing in this act shall be construed as repealing, modifying or otherwise affecting the provisions of any other act relating to port or harbor districts, and no other act providing for the creation of port or harbor districts shall repeal, modify or otherwise affect this act or any of the provisions thereof.

Sec. 22. The provisions of Chapter I, Division II of the District Organization Act relating to notices shall govern and control this act.

Sec. 23. Wherever in this act reference is made to "port district" it shall mean "river port district."

Sec. 24. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase of this act is, for any reason, held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act and each section, subsection, sentence, clause and phrase thereof irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared unconstitutional.
An act regulating the use of certain public highways by motor vehicles operated thereon for the transportation of property for compensation; conferring powers upon the Railroad Commission with respect thereto; providing penalties for the violations of this act and repealing all acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

PREAMBLE.

The use of the public highways for the transportation of property for compensation is a business affected with a public interest and it is hereby declared that the purpose of this act is to preserve for the public the full benefit and use of public highways consistent with the needs of commerce without unnecessary congestion or wear and tear upon such highways; to secure to the people just and reasonable rates for transportation by carriers operating upon such highways; to secure full and unrestricted flow of traffic by motor carriers over such highways which will adequately meet reasonable public demands by providing for the regulation of rates of all transportation agencies so that adequate and dependable service by all necessary transportation agencies shall be maintained and the full use of the highways preserved to the public.

SECTION 1. (a) The term “corporation” when used in this act includes a corporation, company, an association and a joint stock association.

(b) The term “person” when used in this act includes an individual, a firm or a copartnership.

(c) The term “public highway” when used in this act shall include every public street, road or highway in this State.

(d) The term “commission” and “Railroad Commission” when used in this act means the Railroad Commission of the State of California.

(e) The term “motor vehicle” when used in this act means every motor truck, tractor or other self-propelled vehicle used for transportation of property over the public highways, otherwise than upon fixed rails or tracks, and any trailer, semitrailer, dolly or other vehicle drawn thereby.

(f) The term “carrier” when used in this act means every corporation or person, their lessees, trustees, receivers or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever engaged in the transportation of property for compensation or hire as a business over any public highway in any city or city and county in this State by means of a motor vehicle or vehicles.

SEC. 2. No carrier shall engage in the business of the transportation of property for compensation by motor vehicle.
over any public highway in any city of this State, except in accordance with the provisions of this act which the Legislature hereby declares to be enacted under the power of the State to regulate the use of the public highways.

Sec. 3. Except as hereinafter provided, no carrier shall engage in the business of transportation of property for compensation by motor vehicle over any public highway in any city in this State without having first obtained from the Railroad Commission a permit authorizing such operation. Any carrier desiring a permit to operate hereunder shall file a petition therefor with the Railroad Commission. Such petition shall set forth the name and address of the applicant; the names and addresses of its officers, if any; full information concerning the financial condition and physical properties of the applicant; and such other information necessary to the enforcement of this act, as the Railroad Commission may, by order require. Upon compliance with this act a permit shall be issued by the commission, but no such permit shall be granted to a foreign corporation. Any operating permit not exercised for a period of one year shall lapse and terminate.

Sec. 4. The Railroad Commission shall, in granting permits under the provisions of this act, require the carrier to procure, and continue in effect during the life of the permit, adequate protection, as required in section 5 hereof, against liability imposed by law upon such carrier for the payment of damages for personal bodily injuries (including death resulting therefrom) in the amount of not less than five thousand dollars on account of bodily injuries to, or death of, one person; and protection against a total liability of such carrier on account of bodily injuries to, or death of, more than one person, as a result of any one accident, in the amount of not less than ten thousand dollars; and protection in an amount of not less than five thousand dollars for one accident resulting in damage or destruction of property whether the property of one, or more than one claimant.

Sec. 5. The protection required under section 4 shall be evidenced by the deposit with the Railroad Commission, covering each vehicle used or to be used under the permit applied for, of a policy of public liability and property damage insurance, issued by a company licensed to write such insurance in the State of California, or a bond of a surety company licensed to write surety bonds in the State of California; or of a personal bond, with such sureties as the Railroad Commission shall find adequate to guarantee the protection prescribed in section 4 hereof; or it shall be evidenced by a trust fund in the amount of fifteen thousand dollars, to be held in trust by some institution or person acceptable to the Railroad Commission; or by a combination of any or of all of said methods in such manner that the aggregate of the protection or funds available therefor shall equal the principal sum of not less than fifteen thousand dollars, and such carrier shall have the option of the method to be used in obtaining such protection, and may change from one method to another, from time to time, with the consent of the Railroad Commission.

Sec. 6. The protection against liability as outlined in section 4 hereof must be continued in effect during the life of the permit, and the policy of insurance, surety bond or personal bond shall not be cancellable on less than ten (10) days written notice to the Railroad Commission. The Railroad Commission shall have the power to establish such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of sections 4 to 5, inclusive.

Sec. 7. Each carrier shall display on each vehicle operated by it a distinctive license plate in the form to be prescribed by the Railroad Commission.

Sec. 8. A fee of three dollars ($3.00) shall be paid to the Railroad Commission for filing each application for an operating permit. Each permittee shall also pay to the Railroad Commission on or before the first day of January of each year, a fee of one dollar ($1.00) for the registration of his permit.
All moneys collected by the Railroad Commission under this act shall be deposited at least once each month into the State treasury, to the credit of the general fund, and a detailed statement thereof shall be transmitted to the State Controller.

Sec. 9. The Railroad Commission shall, upon complaint or upon its own initiative without complaint, establish or approve just, reasonable, and nondiscriminatory maximum or minimum or maximum and minimum rates to be charged by any carrier subject to this act.

In establishing or approving such rates the commission shall take into account and give due and reasonable consideration to the cost of all of the transportation services performed, including length of haul, any additional transportation service performed, or to be performed, or of any accessorio service and the value of the commodity transported and the value of the facility reasonably necessary to perform such transportation service.

It shall be unlawful for any carrier to charge or collect any lesser rate than the minimum rate or greater rate than the maximum rate established by the commission under this section.

The commission shall make such rules and regulations as may be necessary to the application of the rates established or approved under the provisions of this act.

Sec. 10. If any carrier hereunder desires to perform any transportation or accessorio service at a lesser rate than the minimum rates so established, the Railroad Commission shall, upon finding that the proposed rate is reasonable and consistent with the public interest, authorize such rates less than the minimum rates established in accordance with the provisions of section 9 hereof.

Sec. 11. It shall be unlawful for any carrier or his agent, servant or employee, directly or indirectly, to offer, remit or give to any person, directly or indirectly, any such commission or consideration as an inducement to secure the transportation of any such property.

Sec. 12. In all respects in which the Railroad Commission has power and authority under the Constitution of this State or this act, applications and complaints may be made and filed with the Railroad Commission, process issued, hearings held, opinions, orders and decisions made and filed, petitions for rehearing filed and acted upon and petitions for writs of review or mandate filed with the Supreme Court of this State, considered and disposed of by said court, in regard to the matters provided for in this act, in the same manner, under the same conditions and subject to the same limitations and with the same effect specified in the Public Utilities Act, so far as applicable.

Sec. 13. Any person or any director, officer, agent or employee of a corporation who shall violate any of the provisions of this act or of any operating permit issued hereunder to any carrier, or any order, rule or regulation of said commission, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than three months, or both. The operating permit, if any, shall, at the discretion of said commission, be subject to cancellation for such violation, and said commission shall thereupon require the removal from such vehicle operated hereunder of any distinctive symbols or license plates herein provided for, which may have been issued therefor.

Sec. 14. Any person or corporation who violates or fails to comply with any provision of this act, or who fails, omits or neglects to obey, observe or comply with any order, decision, rule, direction or requirement or any part or provision thereof, of the commission, is subject to a penalty of not more than five hundred dollars for each offense.

Sec. 15. Every violation of the provisions of this act or of any order, decision, decree, rule, direction, demand or requirement of the commission, or any part or portion thereof by any corporation or person is a separate and distinct offense, and in case of a continuing violation each day's continuance thereof shall be and be deemed to be a separate and distinct offense.

Sec. 16. In construing and enforcing the provisions of this act relating to penalties, the act, omission or failure of any officer, agent or employee of any person or corporation, acting within the scope of his official duties or employment, shall in every case be and be deemed to be the act, omission or failure of the employing person or corporation.

Sec. 17. Actions to recover penalties under this act shall be brought in the name of the people of the State of California, in the superior court of the county, or city and county, in which the cause or some part thereof arose, or in which the corporation complained of, if any, has its principal place of business, or in which the person, if any, complained of, resides.
Such action shall be commenced and prosecuted to final judgment by the attorney of the commission. In any such action, all penalties incurred up to the time of commencing the same may be sued for and recovered. In all such actions, the procedure and rules of evidence shall be the same as in ordinary civil actions. All penalties recovered by the State in any such action, together with the costs thereof, shall be paid into the State treasury to the credit of the general fund. Any such action may be compromised or discontinued on application of the commission upon such terms as the court may approve and order.

Sec. 18. All penalties accruing under this act shall be cumulative of each other, and a suit for the recovery of one penalty shall not be a bar to or affect the recovery of any other penalty or forfeiture or be a bar to any criminal prosecution against any person or corporation, or any officer, director, agent or employee thereof, or any other corporation or person or be a bar to the exercise by the commission of its power to punish for contempt.

Sec. 19. Nothing in this act contained shall apply to a passenger stage corporation as the same is defined in section 24 of the Public Utilities Act engaged in transporting express when such transportation is incidental to the transportation of passengers.

Sec. 20. If any section, sentence, clause or part of this act, is for any reason held to be unconstitutional such decision shall not affect the remaining portions of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act, and each section, sentence, clause, or part thereof, except as hereinafter specifically provided, irrespective of the fact that one or more sections, sentences, clauses or parts be declared unconstitutional.

Sec. 21. Neither this act nor any provision hereof shall apply to or be construed as a regulation of commerce with foreign Nations or among the several States, except in so far as the same may be permitted under the provisions of the Constitution and the acts of Congress of the United States.

Sec. 22. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 23. This act shall be known as the “City Carriers’ Act.”

CHAPTER 313.

An act to amend sections 3817d, 3817f, 3817g and 3817h of, and to add sections 3817b3, 3817c3, 3817j, 3817k, 3817l, and 3817m to, the Political Code, relating to taxation, and assessment including tax delinquencies, tax penalties and costs, tax redemption from tax sales and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code to be numbered 3817b3 and to read as follows:

3817b3. The word "taxes" wherever used in this section, includes all taxes and assessments and annual installments of assessments charged on the tax roll.

In all cases where real estate has been sold to the State on or before July 6, 1935, for delinquent taxes and the State has not disposed of the same, the person whose estate has been sold, his heirs, executors, administrators or other successors in interest shall, at any time on or before the twentieth day of April, 1936, have the right to redeem such property by paying to the county treasurer of the county wherein the real estate may be situated, the amount of taxes due thereon at the time of such sale, and also all taxes that were a lien upon said real property at the time said taxes became delinquent, and also all unpaid taxes of every description assessed against the property together with all taxes that are a lien against the property for each year since the sale, as shown on the delinquent assessment rolls in the then permanent custody of the county auditor, or, if not so assessed, then upon the value of the property as assessed in the year nearest the time of such redemption, with interest on the whole amount of such taxes at the rate of seven per cent per annum computed from the first day of July, 1934, to the time of such redemption.

The provisos of this section shall be deemed to allow the redemption of such real estate, on or before the twentieth day of April, 1936, free from the payment of any costs, interest (other than the interest hereinbefore in this section provided), penalties for delinquency, or redemption penalties, which may have accrued against said real estate on or before April 20, 1936. The provisions of this section shall have no application to the amount or rate of penalties for delinquency or upon redemption, for taxes for the fiscal years 1935–1936.

Except as otherwise in section 3817c3 and this section provided, such redemption shall be made in the manner prescribed in section 3817 of this code.

SEC. 2. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered 3817c3 and to read as follows:

3817c3. The word "taxes," wherever used in this section, includes all taxes and assessments and annual installments of assessments charged on the tax roll.

In all cases where real estate has been sold to the State on or before July 6, 1935, for delinquent taxes, and the State has not disposed of the same, the person whose estate has been sold, his executors, administrators, or other successors in interest shall on or before April 20, 1936, have the right to elect to pay such delinquent taxes in installments as hereinafter provided and by the payment of each of such installments, together with current State and county taxes, to extend the period of redemption of such real estate and to postpone the date of sale of such property at auction, as provided in section 3771a of this code, and time of making a deed of such property to the State, as provided in section 3785, and in the event such property has been deeded to the State, postpone the resale of such real estate by the State as provided in section 3897 of this code.

Upon payment to the county treasurer on or before April 20, 1936, of ten per cent, or more, of an amount equal to the total of unpaid taxes computed as prescribed in section 3817b3 of this code, plus interest on the whole of said amount at the rate of seven per cent per annum from and after July 1, 1934 to date of such payment and by the further payment on or before April 20, 1936, of all State and county taxes levied and assessed for the fiscal year 1935–1936 together with penalties and costs due thereon, the right of redemption in installments hereunder shall be extended to and including April 20, 1937, during which time no sale at auction of such property shall be made as provided in section 3771a of this code, and no deed to the State shall be made as provided in section 3785 and no resale by the State shall be made in accordance with the provisions of section 3897 of this code. Upon payment to the county treasurer, in each succeeding fiscal year but not later than April 20, until said amount has been paid, of ten per cent or more of said total amount together with interest at the same rate from the date of the preceding payment, on that part of said total amount remaining unpaid after such preceding payment, and upon payment on or before April 20 in each of said succeeding fiscal years of State and county taxes for each of said years, with penalties and costs due thereon, the right of redemption shall be extended, the time of sale at auction to the public and of deed to the State shall be postponed and resale by the State shall be suspended, for successive periods of one year. In the event of failure to make any of the payments herein specified to be made on or before the dates herein set forth, the right to pay such delinquent taxes in installments shall cease and terminate and such property shall thereupon be subject to sale at auction or may be deeded to the State or resold by the State, in the same manner as though no election to pay delinquent taxes in installments had been made.

No such payment, nor all of them, shall be deemed a redemption of real estate nor affect the right, title or interest of the State thereto, but shall be deemed and considered as compensation for the use and occupancy of said real estate:
provided, that if each installment of delinquent taxes and interest be paid on or before the respective dates specified in this section, and if redemption of such property shall be made, on or before the twentieth day of April, 1945, in the manner hereinafter in this section provided, the amounts previously paid under the authority of this section shall be credited on the amount to be paid for such redemption.

The amount to be paid on or before the twentieth day of April, 1945, to effect redemption of such property under this section shall be the sum of the following amounts:

(a) Unpaid taxes as prescribed in section 3817b3 of this code, with interest thereon equal to the amount of interest included in all installment payments previously made, as authorized by this section, and, in addition, interest equal to the amount of interest due at the time of such redemption on the remainder, if any, of the amount payable in installments, as authorized by this section.

(b) Unpaid taxes for the fiscal years following the year ending June 30, 1935, with redemption penalties thereon computed in accordance with section 3817 of this code.

Except as in this section provided, such redemption shall be made in the manner prescribed in section 3817 of this code.

All interest received by the county treasurer pursuant to the provisions of this and the preceding section shall be distributed in the same manner as redemption penalties in accordance with section 3817 of this code.

SEC. 3. Section 3817d of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3817d. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 3764 and 3771a of this code no sale at auction to the public shall be made of unredeemed property in the years of 1935, 1936 or 1937, but at the day and hour fixed in accordance with subdivision (2) of section 3764 of this code all property otherwise subject to sale to the public shall be deeded to the State as provided in section 3785 of this code. No sale of any property, except property sold to the State for delinquent taxes in the year 1925, or at any time prior to 1925, shall be made in accordance with the provisions of section 3897 of this code after the effective date of this act and prior to the first day of January, 1938. Property sold to the State for delinquent taxes in the year 1925 or prior to 1925, and deeded to the State pursuant to section 3785 of this code, shall be subject to sale under the provisions of section 3897 of this code. The provisions of this amendment to this section further postponing the time when sale of property in accordance with the provisions of section 3897 of this code may be made shall not apply to any real property which has been deeded or shall have been deeded pursuant to sale for delinquent taxes or assessments to, and is held by, any public agency as that term is defined in section 3897d of this code and as to which the right of redemption from such sale no longer exists.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit any agreement or sale made under the provisions of section 3897d of this code.
In the years 1935, 1936 and 1937 the notice required by subdivision (1) of section 3764 of this code shall be in substance and may be in form as follows: "To be deeded to the State. See No. ______ in addenda to this list."

In the years 1935, 1936 and 1937, the notice required by subdivision (2) of section 3764 of this code shall be in substance and may be in form as follows:

"ADDEDA TO DELINQUENT TAX LIST.

Notice of Disposal of Properties for Delinquent Taxes.

In pursuance of law, public notice is hereby given that the undersigned tax collector will make deeds to the State of California for the several parcels and lots of property herein-after described unless, on or before the _____ day of _______, 193___, at the hour of _______ o'clock _______ m., redemption from sale for delinquent taxes is made in accordance with the provisions of section 3817 of the Political Code, or a postponement of sale is had in accordance with the provisions of section 3817a of said code, or a conditional payment is made in accordance with the provisions of section 3817c, 3817e2 or 3817e3, of said code; on said date, five years or more will have elapsed from the date of the sale of said property to the State.

Dated this _______ day of _________, 19____.

_____________________________________________________
Tax Collector of______ County,
State of California."

The properties which are to be so deeded and which are the subject of this notice are situated in the county of ______, State of California, and are particularly described as follows, to wit:

No. (description of property) assessed to ______. Sold to State for $_______.

Sec. 4. Section 3817f of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3817f. Any person, his heirs, executors, administrators or other successors in interest, who has made or who shall make a payment or payments on account of delinquent taxes in accordance with the provisions of section 3817a of this code and who, in addition, has elected or shall elect to pay the delinquent taxes on the same property in installments in accordance with the provisions of section 3817e, 3817e2, or 3817e3 as the case may be, of this code, or who has made or shall make a payment on account of delinquent taxes in accordance with the provisions of sections 3817a, 3817c, 3817e2 or 3817i of this code and who, in addition, shall elect to redeem such property from delinquent taxes in accordance with the provisions of section 3817b3 of this code shall receive credit, on the amount of taxes payable, for the total amount, without an allowance for interest thereon, previously paid to the county treasurer, in accordance with the provisions of sections 3817a, 3817c, 3817e2 or 3817i. In the event payment is made in installments such credit shall be in addition to and not a substitute for the payment of the whole or any part of such installment then payable.

Sec. 5. Section 3817g of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3817g. Any person, his heirs, executors, administrators or other successors in interest, who elected, on or before April 20, 1934, to pay delinquent taxes in installments in accordance with the provisions of section 3817c, or who, on or before April 20, 1935, elected so to do in accordance with section 3817c2, and who failed to pay the taxes for the fiscal years 1933–1934 or 1934–1935 as in said sections required, on or before said date, and who elects to pay the delinquent taxes on the same property in installments in accordance with the provisions of section 3817c2 or 3817c3 of this code shall receive credit, on the amount of delinquent taxes payable in installments under said section 3817c2 or 3817c3, for the total amount, without an allowance of interest thereon, previously paid to the county treasurer in accordance with the provisions of sections 3817c or 3817c2. Such credit shall be in addition to and not a substitute for the payment of the whole or any part of such installment then payable.

Sec. 6. Section 3817h of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3817h. If the person electing to pay such delinquent taxes in installments, in accordance with the provisions of section 3817c, 3817c2, or 3817c3, his heirs, executors, administrators, or other successors in interest, has failed or shall fail to make any of the payments, of installments or of current taxes, therein required therefor on or before the dates therein fixed at the time the first payment was made and if the State has not disposed of the property and redemption thereof is made in accordance with the provisions of section 3817, 3817b2 or 3817b3 of this code within five years after April 20 of the fiscal year within which such failure to pay occurred but not later than April 20, 1945, there shall be credited, on the amount to be paid for such redemption in accordance with the provisions of said section 3817, 3817b2 or 3817b3, the amounts previously paid to the county treasurer in accordance with the provisions of said section 3817c, 3817c2 or 3817c3.

All moneys received by the county treasurer in accordance with the provisions of section 3817a of this code shall be distributed in the manner prescribed in section 3816 of this code for taxes, delinquency penalties, costs and redemption penalties.

All moneys received by the county treasurer in accordance with the provisions of sections 3817b, 3817b2, 3817b3, 3817c, 3817c2 and 3817c3 of this code shall be distributed in the manner prescribed in section 3816 of this code for taxes and for redemption penalties, provided, that amounts received on account of taxes shall be so distributed and applied on account of the oldest unpaid taxes.
SEC. 7. Section 3817j is hereby added to the Political Code to read as follows:

3817j. The word "taxes" wherever used in this section, includes all taxes and assessments and annual installments of assessments, charged on the tax rolls.

In all cases where real estate has been sold to the State for delinquent taxes on or before July 6, 1934, and the State has not disposed of the same, the person whose estate has been or may hereafter be sold, his heirs, executors, administrators or other successors in interest, at any time on or prior to September 1, 1935, shall have the right to redeem such real estate, without penalties for delinquency, costs or redemption penalties or interest of whatever name or description, by paying on or before said date to the county treasurer of the county wherein such real estate is situate, the amount of taxes thereon at the time of sale, and also all taxes that were a lien upon said real property at the time said taxes became delinquent and also all unpaid taxes of every description assessed against the property for each year since the sale, as shown on the delinquent rolls in the then permanent custody of the county auditor of such county; or, if not so assessed, then upon the value of the property as assessed in the year nearest the time of such redemption.

SEC. 8. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code to be numbered 3817k to read as follows:

3817k. In the event a person has elected to pay in installments delinquent taxes which are a lien upon any real estate, in accordance with the provisions of section 3817c, 3817c2 or 3817i of this code, and he, his heirs, executors, administrators or other successors in interest, elects to make final redemption of the same real estate under the provisions of section 3817j of this code, there shall be deducted from the amount necessary to effect such final redemption under section 3817j, a credit equal to the total amount theretofore paid by such person, his heirs, executors, administrators and other successors in interest, under section 3817a, 3817c, 3817c2 or 3817i, including therein all installments, interest, taxes and penalties paid thereunder.

SEC. 9. Section 3817l is hereby added to the Political Code to read as follows:

3817l. Whenever the county auditor notifies the county assessor that payment of delinquent taxes under sections 3817c, 3817c2, 3817c3 or 3817i has been started, and the property upon which the taxes are being paid does not appear on the assessment roll, the county assessor shall be required to make an assessment according to the current values and to place the property on the current assessment roll for that year and for each year thereafter so long as payments under such sections are kept up. The property when so returned to the assessment rolls shall be assessed in the name of the holder of the fee title immediately prior to the deed to the State.

SEC. 10. Section 3817m is hereby added to the Political Code to read as follows:
3817m. Whenever property is being redeemed under sections 3817, 3817a, 3817c2, 3817e3, 3817j, or 3817k of the Political Code and does not appear on the assessment roll, the county auditor shall furnish the county assessor with a list of the years for which no assessment has been made and the assessor shall place a valuation on the property which the auditor shall use in computing the tax for the years when the property was not assessed.

Sec. 11. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall therefore go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are as follows: Due to the widespread depression, many taxpayers have been unable to pay their taxes, or to redeem their property from sale to the State for delinquency. By permitting redemption without penalties, many taxpayers will be enabled to redeem their property, restore the same to the tax rolls, and thereby add revenue for the operation and maintenance of government. It is also necessary in order to redeem much of this property which does not at the present time appear on the assessment rolls that it be assessed according to present day values. If this is not done immediately taxpayers whose property does not now appear on the assessment rolls will be unable to take advantage of the rights granted by this act.

CHAPTER 314.

An act establishing and validating the organization and existence of water districts.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935 In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In case the board of supervisors of any county in this State has heretofore declared any territory to be organized as a water district under the “California Water District Act” and has designated a name for such district and has declared certain persons elected as the officers thereof, and the persons declared elected as directors thereof have organized as a board and said board has acted as the board of directors of said district for at least one year before this act takes effect, all acts and proceedings of such board of supervisors and of all public officers in or in connection with the organization of such district are hereby validated, confirmed and declared sufficient, and such district is hereby recognized and established as a water district with the name designated by said board of supervisors, and with the boundaries established by said board of supervisors or with such modification of such boundaries as may have been made by order of the board of directors of such district on petition or petitions for the inclusion of land therein or the exclusion of land therefrom.

CHAPTER 315.

An act to add a new section to be numbered 844, to the Civil Code, relating to actions for the declaration of rights of persons associated in the use of ditches, flumes, pipe lines or conduits for the conveyance of water.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section to be numbered 844 is hereby added to the Civil Code, said section to read as follows:

844. When two or more persons are using any ditch, flume, pipe line or other conduit for the conveyance of water or any part thereof for the irrigation of land or for any other lawful purpose, to the construction of which they or their grantors have contributed, and which is not under the control or management of any public agency or authority, a majority of such users, who have the right to the use of more than fifty per centum of the water in such ditch, flume, pipe line or other conduit, may bring an action in the superior court of the county in which said ditch, flume, pipe line or other conduit for the conveyance of water, or some part thereof, is situated, for a declaration of the respective rights of the users of water in such ditch, flume, pipe line or other conduit; including a determination of the manner in which such ditch, flume, pipe line or other conduit for the conveyance of water shall be administered with respect to repair, up-keep, improvement and otherwise. The decree or judgment in said action shall include a determination of the proportionate amount which all users shall contribute to the maintenance, repair, improvement and otherwise of said ditch, flume, pipe line or other conduit. The court shall determine the manner in which all improvements, repairs, maintenance and otherwise shall be authorized, and thereafter no user of such ditch, flume, pipe line or other conduit may make claim for any funds expended for improvements, repairs, maintenance and otherwise except as determined by the court in said action. No authorization for such claim shall be valid except as made under the authority set forth by the decree or judgment of the court.

The complaint must contain the name of all users, if known, or a statement that they are unknown, who must be styled defendants.

The summons must contain the names of the parties, and an order to the defendants to appear and show cause why the
The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 4 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 4. At an election to be held within such water district under the provisions of this act and the laws governing general elections not inconsistent herewith, the municipal water district thus organized shall proceed within ninety days after its formation to the election of a board of directors consisting of five members. The board of supervisors shall make an order dividing said district into five divisions, according to and based upon the population as determined by the United States census for 1930 but no municipal corporation shall be divided in the formation of a division. Such divisions shall be numbered first, second, third, fourth and fifth, and one director shall be elected for each division by the electors thereof. Each director shall hold office for the term of four years from and after the date of his election and until the election and qualification of his successor except that at the election first held in any district after the effective date of this amendment, five members of the board of directors shall be chosen of whom two shall serve for the term of two years and three for four years as determined between them respectively by lot.

In each district heretofore organized hereunder, the first election for directors held hereafter shall be held in the year 1934. Thereafter the general district elections shall be held every two years and on the same day that the August primary election is held. Each candidate for director who at any election receives votes on a majority of all the ballots cast for candidates for the office for which he seeks nomination shall be elected to such office. If at such election, as to any such office, none of the candidates receive such majority, the two candidates who receive the highest number of votes cast on all of the ballots cast for candidates for such office, shall be the candidates for such office at the ensuing district election, which latter election, if other than the election for the first board of directors as mentioned in section 6, shall be held at the same time as the next succeeding November election. Candidates shall be nominated, election returns shall be canvassed and the election shall be held and conducted in the same manner as the nomination, election and canvassing of returns for county officers are made, held and conducted, so far as consistent with the provisions of this act and except as otherwise herein expressly provided. Directors elected hereunder shall take office at the same time provided for county officers. Said election held in August of each even-numbered year shall be known as the general water district election and each other election which may be held in any such district by authority of this act or the general laws shall be known as a special water district election.

SEC. 2. Section 9 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 9. The board of directors shall act only by ordinance or resolution. The ayes and noes shall be taken up on the passage of all ordinances and resolutions and entered upon the journal of the proceedings of the board of directors. No ordinance or resolution shall be passed or become effective without the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the board. The enacting clause of all ordinances passed by the board shall be: "Be it ordained by the Board of Directors of ______ municipal water district as follows:"

All resolutions and ordinances shall be signed by the president and secretary of the board of directors and attested by the secretary. Each of the members of the board of directors shall receive for each attendance at the meetings of the board ten dollars. No director, however, shall receive pay for more than three meetings in any calendar month. Any vacancy in the board of directors shall be filled by a majority of the remaining directors, the person so chosen shall be a resident of the division in which the vacancy shall occur and shall hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term.

SEC. 3. Section 10 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 10. The board of directors shall be the governing body of such municipal water district and shall at its first meeting or as soon thereafter as practicable, appoint by a majority vote, a secretary, treasurer, attorney, and general manager, define their duties and fix their compensation and each shall serve at the pleasure of the board and may employ such additional assistants and employees as they may deem necessary to efficiently maintain and operate said district. Said board may consolidate the office of secretary and treasurer.

SEC. 4. Section 14 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:
Sec. 14. The president in addition to the duties imposed on him by law shall sign all contracts on behalf of the district and shall perform such other duties as may be imposed on him by the board of directors. The secretary shall countersign all contracts on behalf of the district and perform such other duties as may be imposed by the board of directors. The treasurer shall draw warrants to pay demands against the district when such demands have been first approved by a majority of the board of directors and by the general manager. The general manager shall have full charge and control of the maintenance, operation and construction of the water works or water works system of said water district with full power and authority to employ and discharge all employees and assistants at pleasure, prescribe their duties, fix their compensation, subject to the approval of the board of directors.

The general manager shall perform such other duties as may be imposed on him by the board of directors. The general manager shall report to the board of directors in accordance with such rules and regulations as they may direct.

The attorney shall be the legal adviser of the district and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the board of directors.

The board of directors shall designate a depository or depositories to have the custody of the funds of the district, all of which depositories shall give security sufficient to secure the district against possible loss, and who shall pay the warrants drawn by the treasurer for demands against the district under such rules as the directors may prescribe.

The general manager, secretary and treasurer, and all other employees or assistants of said district who may be required so to do by the board of directors, shall give such bonds to the district conditioned for the faithful performance of their duties as the board of directors from time to time may provide.

CHAPTER 317.

An act to amend sections 2, 3, and 6 of, and add section 5a to, an act entitled "An act authorizing municipal corporations to discontinue the use of land for park purposes when the fee thereof is vested in the municipal corporation and authorizing the sale or other disposition of such lands," approved May 12, 1927, relating to the conveyance, exchange, sale or other disposition of lands and claims in consequence thereof.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 2 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:
Sec. 2. Whenever in the opinion of the legislative body of any municipal corporation the public interest or convenience shall require the discontinuance of the use of any such land as a public park, such legislative body may adopt a resolution declaring that public interest or convenience requires such discontinuance, and that such legislative body intends to call a special election to submit to the qualified electors of such municipal corporation the question of the discontinuance of the use of such land as a public park.

Such resolution shall contain an accurate description of the lands proposed to be discontinued in use as a public park which may be all or any portion of such land, and the name by which the park the use of which is so proposed to be abandoned and discontinued in whole or in part is commonly known, the disposition which it is proposed to make of such park, and shall fix a time and place not less than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days after the adoption of such resolution at which the public or persons particularly interested may be heard.

Sec. 3. The city clerk shall cause said resolution to be published twice in a daily newspaper published and circulated in said city; if there be no daily newspaper, then the publication shall be made in a newspaper published and circulated therein less than six days a week and said publication shall be made twice therein. If no newspaper be published in said city, then the publication shall be made twice in some newspaper published in the county in which said city is located. Such publication shall be completed at least twenty days before the time set for hearing of protests as hereinafter provided.

The park superintendent, or such other person as may be thereunto authorized by the legislative body of such municipal corporation, shall cause to be conspicuously posted along the exterior boundaries of the area proposed to be discontinued and abandoned as a public park, notices of the adoption of such resolution. Notices so posted shall be headed “Notice of proposed discontinuance of public park land” in letters not less than one (1) inch in height, and shall in legible characters state the fact and date of the adoption of the resolution, and shall contain a description of the land proposed to be discontinued and abandoned as a public park, and the name by which such public park is commonly known and the disposition which it is proposed to make of such park. Such notice shall also contain a statement of the date, hour and place when and where any and all persons having any objection to the proposed abandonment and discontinuance may appear before the legislative body and show cause why the use of the land therein described for park purposes should not be discontinued, in accordance with such resolution. Such notices shall be posted along the exterior boundaries of the land proposed to be discontinued as a public park at not more than three hundred feet in distance apart, and there shall not be less than three such notices in all. Such posting shall be completed at least twenty (20) days before the time set in said resolution for hearing thereon; but the failure to post said notices shall in no wise affect the validity of the proceedings or prevent the legislative body from acquiring jurisdiction to proceed hereunder.

Sec. 3. A new section is hereby added to the act cited in the title thereof, to read as follows:

Sec. 5a. Within ten days after adoption of such ordinance declaring that the use for park purposes of such land shall be discontinued and abandoned, or the adoption of the resolution of discontinuance of a minor portion of any such park, as provided in section 1 of this act, any property owner claiming damage to his property by reason of the discontinuance or abandonment of such park or portion thereof, whether as owner of abutting property or otherwise, shall file a claim in writing setting forth the nature and amount of such claim, and a failure to file and assert such claim shall operate as a waiver and constitute a bar to any action to recover for any such damage.

If any such claims are filed within the time specified, the legislative body of such municipal corporation shall appoint three appraisers to assess the damages, and for their services they shall receive such compensation as said legislative body shall fix. Said appraisers shall proceed with diligence to ascertain and determine the extent of damages which will result to the property of each claimant and shall file a written report of their findings with the city clerk. The city clerk shall thereupon give notice of such filing and fix the time and place of the meeting at which said report will be considered by the legislative body of said municipal corporation. Said notice shall be published for at least two weeks prior to said meeting in a newspaper published in said city; and if there is no newspaper published in said city, then by posting said notice in three public places within said city for two weeks prior to said meeting. Said notice shall require all persons interested to show cause, if any, why such report should not be confirmed. At the time fixed for the hearing of said report, or at such other time as the hearing may be adjourned to, the legislative body of said municipal corporation shall pass upon said report, together with any objections that shall be made thereto, and may confirm, correct or modify the same.

Upon the adoption of said report, either as filed by the appraisers or as corrected and modified by said legislative body, warrants shall be drawn in favor of the various property owners to whom damages have been allowed in the amount specified in said report, said warrants to be payable out of any funds available for such purpose, or from any funds provided for such purpose by the owner of the lands for which such park property may be exchanged.
SEC. 4. Section 6 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 6. After such ordinance becomes effective, the land therein described shall be deemed to be held by such municipal corporation in fee and may be sold or otherwise disposed of by such municipal corporation as it may deem proper. In the event that such land shall have been acquired for park purposes by the expenditure of moneys derived from the sale of bonds authorized for park purposes, and in the event the land so acquired for park purposes shall be placed in any other municipal use, there shall be transferred to such bond fund from such other municipal fund, as shall be determined by the legislative body of the city, the reasonable market value of such land at the date of the ordinance discontinuing the use thereof for park purposes and the money so transferred shall be devoted only to the purposes for which such bonds were authorized. Moneys placed in any bond fund hereunder shall be subject to diversion to other use under the terms and limitations of any act of the Legislature providing for the diversion of money derived from the sale of bonds voted for a particular purpose to some other or different purpose.

CHAPTER 318.

An act to amend sections 1026 and 1026a of the Penal Code, relating to procedure in the trial and release of the criminally insane.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1026 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1026. When a defendant pleads not guilty by reason of insanity, and also joins with it another plea or pleas, he shall first be tried as if he had entered such other plea or pleas only, and in such trial he shall be conclusively presumed to have been sane at the time the offense is alleged to have been committed. If the jury shall find the defendant guilty, or if the defendant pleads only not guilty by reason of insanity, then the question whether the defendant was sane or insane at the time the offense was committed shall be promptly tried, either before the same jury or before a new jury in the discretion of the court. In such trial the jury shall return a verdict either that the defendant was sane at the time the offense was committed or that he was insane at the time the offense was committed. If the verdict or finding be that the defendant was sane at the time the offense was committed, the court shall sentence the defendant as provided by law. If the verdict or finding be that the defendant was insane at the time the offense was committed, the court unless it shall appear to the court that the defendant has fully recovered his sanity shall direct that the defendant be confined in the State hospital for the criminal insane, or if there be no such State hospital, then that he be confined in some other State hospital for the insane. If, however, it shall appear to the court that the defendant has fully recovered his sanity such defendant shall be remanded to the custody of the sheriff until his sanity shall have been finally determined in the manner prescribed by law. A defendant committed to a State hospital shall not be released from confinement unless and until the court which committed him, or the superior court of the county in which he is confined, shall, after notice and hearing, find and determine that his sanity has been restored. In the event such hearing is held in the county in which the defendant is confined, notice as ordered by the court shall be given to the district attorney of said county and also to the district attorney of the county from which said defendant was committed. Nothing in this section contained shall prevent the transfer of such person from one State hospital to any other State hospital by proper authority nor the transfer of such patient to a hospital in another State in the manner provided by law, upon order of the superior court in the county from which he was committed, or in which he is detained.

Sec. 2. Section 1026a of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1026a. An application for the release of a person who has been committed to a State hospital, as provided in section 1026, upon the ground that his sanity has been restored, may be made to the superior court of the county in which he is confined or of the county from which he was committed, either by such person or by the superintendent of the hospital in which the said person is confined. No hearing upon such application shall be allowed until the person committed shall have been confined for a period of not less than one year from the date of the order of commitment. If the finding of the court be adverse to releasing such person upon his application for release, on the ground that his sanity has not been restored, he shall not be permitted to file a further application until one year has elapsed from the date of hearing upon his last preceding application. In any hearing authorized by this section the burden of proving that his sanity has been restored shall be upon the applicant.
CHAPTER 319.

An act to amend sections 1, 14, 18 and 41 of the "California Water District Act," approved June 13, 1913, relating to water districts, the purposes and administration thereof, to take effect immediately and declaring the urgency thereof.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935. In effect immediately]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 1 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. The holders of title or evidence of title to a majority in area of lands which form a contiguous body and which are susceptible of irrigation from a common source and by the same system of works may propose the organization of a water district by signing and presenting to the board of supervisors of the county in which the lands or the greater part thereof are situated, at any of its regular meetings, a petition setting forth the following facts—that they propose to form under the provisions of this act a water district to be known as the "_______ Water District"; a description of the boundaries thereof, specifying the county or counties in which the lands are located; the number of acres in the proposed district; the place where the principal business thereof is proposed to be transacted; and the source or sources (which may be in the alternative) from which said lands are proposed to be irrigated. The word "irrigation" as used in this act shall include subirrigation, percolation, underground storage and well replenishment. The words "title or evidence of title" as used in this section include the possessory right of entrymen or purchasers of public lands under any law of the United States or of this State whether evidenced by receipts or otherwise. The records of the United States Land Office for the district in which said lands are located; the records of the State Land Office; and the records in the office of the county recorder of the county in which said lands are situated shall be conclusive evidence of ownership for the purposes of this section.

Sec. 2. Section 14 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 14. Bonds of the district, when issued, shall be payable in gold coin of the United States. Bonds shall be made payable on the first day of January or the first day of July of the years designated by the board of directors, but in no case shall the maturity of any bond be more than forty years from the date thereof; they shall be of the denomination of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars each; and they shall be signed by the president of the board of directors and attested by the secretary of the district. Each bond must be made payable at a given time for its entire amount and not for a percentage; shall bear interest at a rate not in excess of seven per cent per annum, payable semi-annually on the dates therein named at the office of the treasurer upon the presentation and surrender of the proper coupons therefor, and the principal thereof shall be payable when due upon the presentation and surrender thereof to the treasurer by the holder of the same. Each issue shall be numbered consecutively and the bonds of each issue shall be numbered consecutively and bear date at the time of their issue. Coupons for each installment of interest shall be attached to the bonds and shall be numbered the same as the bonds, and attested by the facsimile signature of the secretary of the district.

The bonds shall be substantially in the following form:

"Issue ______ No. ______ For value received, ______ water district situated or principally situated in the county of ______, State of California, promises to pay the holder hereof at the office of the treasurer of said district, on the ______ day of ______, 19____, the sum of ______ dollars in gold coin of the United States with interest in like gold coin at the rate of ______ per centum per annum, payable at the office of said treasurer semi-annually, on the ______ day of ______ and the ______ day of ______ in each year, on presentation and surrender of the interest coupons hereto attached. This bond is issued pursuant to an election held by said district on the ______ day of ______, 19____, authorizing its issuance, and by authority of an act entitled (specifying the title and date of approval of this act).

In witness whereof, the said district, by its board of directors, has caused this bond to be signed by the president of said board and attested by the secretary of said district, with the seal of the district attached, this ______ day of ______, 19____.

Attest:

-----------------------------------
President of said board.

-----------------------------------
Secretary."

The interest coupons shall be substantially in the following form:

"No. ______

The treasurer of ______ water district, State of California, will pay the holder hereof, on the _____ day of ______, 19____, at his office in ______, ______ dollars, gold coin of the United States, out of the funds of ______ water district for interest on bond numbered ______ of said district.

Attest:

Secretary of ______ District."
The treasurer of the district shall, when he receives the same, place the said bonds to the credit of the district and he shall, in a book provided for that purpose, keep a record of said bonds and of the payment thereof and the interest thereon. When filed with said treasurer, as above provided, the bonds of the district and the interest thereon shall be and remain until paid a lien on the lands of the district, and a lien for the bonds of any issue shall be a preferred lien to that of any subsequent issue.

Sec. 3. Section 18 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 18. Bonds of any water district organized under the provisions of this act may be investigated and certified in the same manner, by the same officers and with the same force and effect as prescribed for the investigation and certification of bonds of irrigation districts, by the provisions of the act entitled “An act relating to bonds of irrigation districts, providing under what circumstances such bonds shall be legal investments for funds of banks, insurance companies and trust companies, trust funds, State school funds and any money or funds which may now or hereafter be invested in bonds of cities, cities and counties, counties, school districts or municipalities, and providing under what circumstances the use of bonds of irrigation districts as security for the performance of any act may be authorized,” approved June 13, 1913, as amended.

Sec. 41. If, upon the hearing of any such petition, no evidence or proofs in support thereof be introduced, or if the evidence fail to sustain said petition, or if the board deem it not for the best interest of the district that the lands, or some portion thereof, mentioned in the petition, should be excluded from the district, the board shall order that said petition be denied as to such lands; but if the said board deem it for the best interest of the district that the lands mentioned in the petition, or some portion thereof, be excluded from the district, and if no person interested in the district show cause in writing why the said lands or some portion thereof, should not be excluded from the district, or if, having shown cause, withdraws the same, or upon the hearing fails to establish such objections as he may have made, then it shall be the duty of the board to, and it shall forthwith, make an order that the lands mentioned and described in the petition, or some defined portion thereof, be excluded from said district; provided, that it shall be the duty of said board to so order, upon petition therefor as aforesaid, that all lands so petitioned to be excluded from said district shall be excluded therefrom, which can not be irrigated from, or which are not susceptible to irrigation from a common source or by the same system of works with the other lands of said district, or from the source selected, chosen, or provided, or the system adopted for the irrigation of the lands in said district, or which are already irrigated, or entitled to be irrigated, from another source or by another system of irrigation works; provided, that no land irrigated by means of water, pumped from an underground source or sources shall be entitled to exclusion from any water district on account of being so irrigated, if it shall be shown that such land is or will be substantially benefited by sub-irrigation from the works of said district or by drainage works provided or required by law to be provided by said district.

Continued dry years have made immediate action imperative in the various water districts to conserve the waters of the present season in order to save not only extensive areas of crops, but also for industrial and domestic purposes. Immediate action is further imperative to construct works during the coming summer season for conserving and utilizing the floods and waters of the coming winter. For the proper and ready financing of such construction the immediate voting of bonds is necessary, and to that end the legislation contained in this act relative to such bonds and their maturities, terms and conditions, is required to be immediately effective. An adequate supply of water for agricultural, domestic and industrial purposes is necessary for the public peace, health and safety of the communities affected in the State of California.

CHAPTER 320.

An act to amend sections 19 and 20 of the "State Liquor Control Act," approved June 3, 1933, relating to licenses.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 19. The board may upon its own motion or upon the verified complaint in writing of any person, investigate the action of any licensee hereunder and as hereinafter provided in sections 20, 21, 22, 23, 24 and 25, shall have power to temporarily suspend or permanently revoke a license hereunder for any one of the following acts or omissions:

(a) Misrepresentation of a material fact by the applicant in obtaining a license hereunder; or
(b) If the licensee violates or causes or permits to be violated any of the provisions of this act or any of the applicable rules or regulations of the board; or
(c) If the licensee commits any act which would be sufficient ground for the denial of an application for a license hereunder.

Sec. 2. Section 20 of said act is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 20. The board, either upon its own motion or upon the filing with the board of a verified complaint charging the licensee with the commission within one year prior to the date of filing such complaint of any act which is cause for suspension or revocation of a license, the board must forthwith issue a citation directing the licensee within ten days after service of the citation upon him to appear by filing with the board his verified answer to the complaint showing cause, if any he has, why his license should not be suspended or revoked. Service of the citation upon the licensee shall be fully effected by mailing a true copy thereof together with a true copy of the complaint by United States registered mail in a sealed envelope with postage fully prepaid thereon addressed to the licensee at his latest address of record in the office of the board. Service of the citation shall be completed at the time of such deposit subject to the provisions of section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure of this State. Failure of the licensee to answer shall be deemed an admission by him of the commission of the act or acts charged in the complaint and thereupon the board shall have power forthwith to suspend or revoke the license.

CHAPTER 321.

An act to amend section 80 of the Agricultural Code, relating to agricultural districts and including provision for the exhibition of live stock in southern California.

CHAPTER 322.

An act to add a new section to be numbered 17.5 to an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization of the Railroad Commission, to define its powers and duties and the rights, remedies, powers and duties of public utilities and their officers, and the rights and remedies of patrons of public utilities, and to provide penalties for offenses by public utilities, their officers, agents and employees and by other persons and corporations, creating the 'Railroad Commission fund' and appropriating the moneys therein to carry out the provisions of this act, and repealing Title XV of Part IV of Division I of the Civil Code and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act," approved April 23, 1915, relating to cases in which common carriers may grant free or reduced rates, and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section to be numbered 17.5 is hereby added to the act cited in the title hereof, to read as follows:

Sec. 17.5. Every common carrier subject to the provisions of this act may transport free or at reduced rates contractors and their employees engaged in carrying out contracts with the United States, this State, or any county or municipal government or other governmental agency in this State, and materials or supplies for use in carrying out such contracts, in each case to the extent only that such free or reduced rate transportation is provided for in the specifications upon which the contract is based and in the contract itself.

immediately. The facts constituting such necessity are as follows:

Under the terms of an act of Congress, many millions of dollars will be available within a very short time for the construction and improvement of highways and the elimination of grade crossings, for the purpose of relieving unemployment. This State will receive a considerable sum as its share of the Federal appropriations. The materials will have to be transported for the purpose of doing such work and in many cases the common carriers of this State are willing to transport such materials free or at reduced rates but under the present law are prohibited from doing so. It is imperative that as much of the money allocated to this State by the Federal government be used for the employment of citizens as possible, and this act will permit additional sums thereof to be made available for the relief of unemployment. It is therefore imperative that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 323.

An act to amend sections 1 and 2 of "An act to provide for the taxation of Massachusetts or business trusts, and providing that this act shall take effect immediately," approved May 1, 1933, relating to the taxation of Massachusetts or business trusts, and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935. In effect immediately]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Every Massachusetts or business trust doing business within the limits of this State shall annually pay to the State for the privilege of doing business within this State a tax according to or measured by its net income to be computed in the manner hereinafter provided at the rate of four per centum upon the basis of its net income for the next preceding fiscal or calendar year.

In any event each Massachusetts or business trust shall annually pay to the State for the said privilege a minimum tax of twenty-five dollars.

Taxes under this section shall accrue on the first day of the taxable year as hereinafter defined.

SEC. 2. Section 2 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. Sections 4 to 38 inclusive of chapter 13, Statutes of 1929, entitled "An act to carry into effect the provisions of section 16 of Article XIII of the Constitution of the State of California, relating to bank and corporation taxes," as amended, and any amendments thereto hereafter made shall apply, and shall be construed to apply to all Massachusetts or business trusts to the same extent and with the same force and effect as they are applicable to every corporation taxable under subdivision (3) of section 4 of said act.

Sec. 3. If any section, subsection, clause, sentence or phrase of this act which is reasonably separable from the remaining portions of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the remaining portions of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed the remaining portions of this act irrespective of the fact that any such section, subsection, clause, sentence or phrase of this act be declared unconstitutional.

Sec. 4. This act, inasmuch as it provides for tax levies for the usual current expenses of the State, shall, under the provisions of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 324.

An act to repeal Article II of Chapter II of Part II of Division III of the School Code and to add to Chapter II of Part II of Division III of the School Code a new article to be known as Article I, relating to contracts between State teachers colleges and elementary school districts for the education of pupils of such districts.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Article II of Chapter II of Part II of Division III of the School Code is hereby repealed.

Sec. 2. A new article is hereby added to Chapter II of Part II of Division III of the School Code to be known as Article I and to read as follows:

Article I—Contracts for Education of Elementary School Pupils.

3.150. The governing board of any elementary school district within which a State teachers college is located may contract with the State teachers college for the education by the State teachers college of pupils eligible to attend school in the elementary school district. The pupils educated by the State teachers college under such contract may be housed on the campus of the State teachers college or in a building of the school district.
An act to add a new article to Chapter I of Part III of Division IV of the School Code to be known as Article III, relating to school district elections for the expenditure of school district funds.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new article is hereby added to Chapter I of Part III of Division IV of the School Code to be known as Article III, and to read as follows:

Article III—Elections for Expenditure of School District Funds.

4.300. Except as herein provided, each election held for the purpose of permitting a school district to exceed the expenditure of its school district funds fixed by the Constitution or by the statutes of this State shall be called, held and conducted as nearly as possible as are elections for the issuance of school district bonds.

The notice of such election shall contain only the following:

1. The time and place, or places of holding the election.
2. The names of the officers of the election appointed to conduct the same.
3. The hours during the day in which the polls will be open.
4. The amount by which it is proposed to increase the expenditures of the district during the school year.
5. The total amount of proposed expenditures of the district, including the proposed increase, for the school year.

The ballots used at such election shall contain the following language: "Shall the total authorized expenditures of the district be increased from ______ (naming the sum) to ______ (naming the sum) for the school year ______ (naming the school year)?"

The hours during which the polls at such election shall be open shall be fixed in accordance with the provisions of section 2.877 of this code.
CHAPTER 326.

An act to add a new section to the School Code to be numbered 2.1363, relating to the acceptance of gifts, donations, bequests and devises to schools and colleges administered by the Director of Education or the Department of Education.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the School Code to be numbered 2.1363, and to read as follows:

2.1363. The Director of Education is hereby authorized to accept on behalf of, and in the name of, the State of California such gifts, donations, bequests and devises as may be made to any school or college administered by the Director of Education or the Department of Education which in his judgment would be of benefit to the State of California and to such school or college. Such gifts, donations, bequests and devises may be made subject to such conditions or restrictions as the Director of Education may deem advisable.

CHAPTER 327.

An act to amend section 4.798 of the School Code, relating to apportionments of State funds for public school purposes.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4.798 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

4.798. All moneys received by the treasurer of any county from the apportionments of the State general fund shall be immediately credited by such treasurer to the county elementary supervision fund, to the unapportioned county elementary school fund, and to the special school funds of the several elementary school districts of the county exactly as apportioned by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.
An act providing for the grant of certain lands to the United State of America for the creation of a National park or monument.

[Approved by the Governor June 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In order to preserve and make available to the present and future generations the natural scenic beauties, native vegetation, wild life, historical and archeological information contained therein, all land and improvements thereon now owned by the State of California, or which may hereafter come within the ownership of the State of California, contained within the following boundaries to wit:

That piece or parcel of land, including sections therein now held by the State of California as school lands, bounded as follows:

Commencing at the northwest corner of T. 1 S., R. 5 E., S. B. B. and M.; thence easterly along the north line of said township to the northeast corner of T. 1 S., R. 10 E., S. B. B. and M.; thence southerly along the line between R. 10 E. and R. 11 E. to the southeast corner of T. 6 S., R. 10 E., S. B. B. and M.;

Thence westerly 10 miles along the south line of T. 6 S. to the southwest corner of section 33 T. 6 S., R. 9 E., S. B. B. and M.; thence north 2 miles to the northwest corner of section 28, T. 6 S., R. 9 E., S. B. B. and M.; thence west 2 miles to the southwest corner of section 19, T. 6 S., R. 9 E., S. B. B. and M.;

M.; thence north 12 miles to the point of beginning; excepting therefrom and reserving to the State of California all mineral and oil in or contained in said lands, together with the right to enter, extract and take the same, and excepting and reserving to the State of California title to each and every section within the boundaries hereinbefore described in which mineral or oil is discovered within a period of twenty years from the date of the adoption of this act and reserving and excepting therefrom all lands which the State of California shall have heretofore contracted to sell or dispose of is hereby granted unto the United States of America for the establishment of a National park or monument.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect from and after acceptance by the United States of America of the grant herein made, thereby forever releasing the State of California from further cost of maintaining said lands, the same to be held for all time by the United States of America for public use, resort and recreation, and imposing on the United States of America the cost of maintaining the same as a National park or monument; provided, however, that the grant hereby made shall not affect vested rights and interest of third persons; and provided further that the State of California shall retain a concurrent jurisdiction with the United States of America in and over lands so acquired so far that civil processes in all cases, and such criminal processes as may issue under the authority of the State of California against any person charged with the commission of any crime without or within said jurisdiction, may be executed thereon in like manner as if this grant had not been made; and provided further that the State of California shall retain a concurrent jurisdiction to license or tax persons and corporations and their property and transactions on such lands.

Sec. 3. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act and each section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase thereof irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared unconstitutional.

An act to provide for the levy and collection of a tax upon the incomes of individuals, estates and trusts, and to provide for the disposition of the revenues therefrom, and to provide that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 13, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as “The Personal Income Tax Act of 1935.”

Sec. 2. Definitions. For the purposes of this act and unless otherwise required by the context—

(a) The word “commissioner” as used in this act and the word “commissioner” as used in the “Revenue Act of 1934,” when any part of that act is incorporated herein by reference, mean the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Commissioner.

(b) The word “taxpayer” includes any individual, fiduciary, estate, or trust subject to the tax imposed by this act.

(c) The word “individual” means a natural person.

(d) The word “fiduciary” means a guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, conservator, or any person, whether individual or corporate, acting in any fiduciary capacity for any person, estate or trust.

(e) The word “person” includes individuals, fiduciaries, partnerships and corporations.

(f) The term “partnership” includes a syndicate, group, pool, joint venture, or other unincorporated organization, through or by means of which any business, financial operation, or venture is carried on, and which is not, within the meaning of this act, a trust or estate or a corporation; and the term “partner” includes a member in such a syndicate, group, pool, joint venture, or organization.

(g) The word “corporation” includes joint-stock companies or associations, insurance companies, business trusts or so-called “Massachusetts trusts.”

(h) The words “taxable year” mean the calendar year or the fiscal year, upon the basis of which the net income is computed under this act; if no fiscal year has been established they mean the calendar year.

“Taxable year” includes, in the case of a return made for a fractional part of a year under the provisions of this act or under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, the period for which such return is made.

(i) The words “fiscal year” mean an accounting period of twelve months ending on the last day of any month other than December.

(j) The words “paid or incurred” and “paid or accrued” shall be construed according to the method of accounting upon the basis of which the net income is computed under this act.
(k) The word "resident" includes every natural person domiciled in the State of California and every other natural person who maintains a permanent place of abode within this State or spends in the aggregate more than six months of the taxable year within this State. The word "nonresident" includes every natural person other than a resident.

(l) The words "foreign country" mean any jurisdiction other than one embraced within the United States. The words "United States," when used in a geographical sense, include the States, the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, the District of Columbia and the possessions of the United States.

(m) The words "Revenue Act of 1934" mean the act of Congress of the United States, approved May 10, 1934, and known and cited as the "Revenue Act of 1934."

(n) The words "trade or business" include the performance of the functions of a public office.

(o) The words "personal holding company" means any corporation (other than a corporation exempt from taxation under section 101 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1934, and other than a bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of the United States or of any State or Territory, a substantial part of whose business is the receipt of deposits, and other than a life insurance company or surety company) if (1) at least eighty per centum of its gross income for the taxable year is derived from royalties, dividends, interest, annuities, and (except in the case of regular dealers in stock or securities) gains from the sale of stock or securities, and (2) at any time during the last half of the taxable year more than fifty per centum in value of its outstanding stock is owned, directly or indirectly, by or for not more than five individuals. For the purpose of determining the ownership of stock in a personal holding company—(3) stock owned, directly or indirectly, by a corporation, partnership, estate, or trust shall be considered as being owned proportionately by its shareholders, partners or beneficiaries; (4) an individual shall be considered as owning, to the exclusion of any other individual, the stock owned, directly or indirectly, by his family, and this rule shall be applied in such manner as to produce the smallest possible number of individuals owning, directly or indirectly, more than fifty per centum in value of the outstanding stock; and (5) the family of an individual shall include only his brothers and sisters (whether by the whole or half blood) spouse, ancestors, and lineal descendants.

(p) The words "State board" mean the State Board of Equalization.

 Sec. 3. Who Shall File Returns. (a) Every person taxable under this act shall make a return to the commissioner, stating specifically the item of his gross income and the deductions and credits allowed by this act, if having a net income of—

(1) $1,000 or over, if single, or if married and not living with husband or wife;
(2) $2,500 or over, if married and living with husband or wife; or
(3) If having a gross income of $5,000 or over, regardless of the amount of net income.

(b) If a husband and wife living together have an aggregate net income for the taxable year of $2,500 or over, or an aggregate gross income for such year of $5,000 or over—
(1) Each shall make such a return, or
(2) The income of each shall be included in a single joint return, in which case the tax shall be computed on the aggregate income.

(c) If the taxpayer is unable to make his own return, the return shall be made by a duly authorized agent or by the guardian or other person charged with the care of the person or property of such taxpayer.

(d) Every resident or nonresident, taxable under this act, who is a beneficiary of an estate or trust taxable hereunder, shall include in his gross income, the distributive share of the net income of the estate or trust received by him or distributable to him during the taxable year; provided, however, the income of an estate or trust with respect to which the tax is imposed upon the estate or trust shall not be so included when distributed to the beneficiary.

Sec. 4. Fiduciary Returns. (a) Every fiduciary (except a receiver appointed by authority of law in possession of part only of the property of an individual) shall make a return for any of the following individuals, estates or trusts, taxable hereunder, for which he acts, stating specifically the items of gross income thereof and the deductions and credits allowed under this act—
(1) Every individual having a net income for the taxable year of $1,000 or over, if single, or if married and not living with husband or wife;
(2) Every individual having a net income for the taxable year of $2,500 or over, if married and living with husband or wife;
(3) Every individual having a gross income for the taxable year of $5,000 or over, regardless of the amount of his net income;
(4) Every estate or trust the net income of which for the taxable year is $1,000 or over;
(5) Every estate or trust the gross income of which for the taxable year is $5,000 or over, regardless of the amount of the net income.

(b) Under such rules and regulations as the commissioner may prescribe, a return filed by one of two or more joint fiduciaries shall be sufficient compliance with the above requirement. Such fiduciary shall state under oath (1) that he has sufficient knowledge of the affairs of the individual, estate, or trust, for which the return is made, to enable him to make the return, and (2) that the return is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, true and correct.
(c) Any fiduciary required to make a return under this act shall be subject to all the provisions of this act which apply to individuals.

Sec. 5. Imposition of Tax on Residents and Nonresidents.

(a) There shall be levied, collected and paid for each taxable year upon the entire net income of every resident of this State and upon the net income of every nonresident which is derived from sources within this State, taxes in the following amounts and at the following rates upon the amount of net income in excess of credits against net income provided in section 10:

Upon net incomes not in excess of $5,000, 1 per centum of such net incomes.

$50 upon net incomes of $5,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $5,000 and not in excess of $10,000, 2 per centum in addition of such excess.

$150 upon net incomes of $10,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $10,000 and not in excess of $15,000, 3 per centum in addition of such excess.

$300 upon net incomes of $15,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $15,000 and not in excess of $20,000, 4 per centum in addition of such excess.

$500 upon net incomes of $20,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $20,000 and not in excess of $25,000, 5 per centum in addition of such excess.

$750 upon net incomes of $25,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $25,000 and not in excess of $30,000, 6 per centum in addition of such excess.

$1,050 upon net incomes of $30,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $30,000 and not in excess of $40,000, 7 per centum in addition of such excess.

$1,750 upon net incomes of $40,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $40,000 and not in excess of $50,000, 8 per centum in addition to such excess.

$2,550 upon net incomes of $50,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $50,000 and not in excess of $60,000, 9 per centum in addition of such excess.

$3,450 upon net incomes of $60,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $60,000 and not in excess of $70,000, 10 per centum in addition of such excess.

$4,450 upon net incomes of $70,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $70,000 and not in excess of $80,000, 11 per centum in addition of such excess.

$5,550 upon net incomes of $80,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $80,000 and not in excess of $100,000, 12 per centum in addition of such excess.

$7,950 upon net incomes of $100,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $100,000 and not in excess of $150,000, 13 per centum in addition of such excess.

$14,450 upon net incomes of $150,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $150,000 and not in excess of $250,000, 14 per centum in addition of such excess.
§28,450 upon net incomes of $250,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $250,000, 15 per centum in addition of such excess.

Sec. 6. Net Income. The words "net income" mean the gross income computed under section 7 of this act less the deductions allowed by section 8 of this act.

Sec. 7. Gross Income. (a) Gross income includes gains, profits, and income derived from salaries, wages, or compensation for personal service, of whatever kind and in whatever form paid, or from professions, vocations, trades, businesses, commerce, or sales, or dealings in property, whether real or personal growing out of the ownership or use of or interest in such property; also from interest, rent, dividends, securities, or the transaction of any business carried on for gain or profit, or gains or profits and income derived from any source whatever, and includes any salary, wages or compensation of any officer or employee of this State, or any political subdivision, district or municipality thereof.

(b) The following items shall not be included in gross income and shall be exempt from taxation under this act:

(1) Amounts received under a life insurance contract paid by reason of the death of the insured, whether in a single sum or otherwise (but if such amounts are held by the insurer under an agreement to pay interest thereon, the interest payments shall be included in gross income);

(2) Amounts received (other than amounts paid by reason of the death of the insured and interest payments on such amounts and other than amounts received as annuities) under a life insurance or endowment contract, but if such amounts (when added to amounts received before the taxable year under such contract) exceed the aggregate premiums or consideration paid (whether or not paid during the taxable year) then the excess shall be included in gross income. Amounts received as an annuity under an annuity or endowment contract shall be included in gross income; except that there shall be excluded from gross income the excess of the amount received in the taxable year over an amount equal to 3 per centum of the aggregate premiums or consideration paid for such annuity (whether or not paid during such year), until the aggregate amount excluded from gross income under this act in respect of such annuity increased by the amount which would have been excluded from gross income in respect of such annuity had this act been in effect continuously from and after the date at which payments under such annuity were first received equals the aggregate premiums or consideration paid for such annuity. In the case of the transfer for a valuable consideration, by assignment or otherwise, of a life insurance, endowment, or annuity contract, or any interest therein, only the actual value of such consideration and the amount of the premiums and other sums subsequently paid by the transferee shall be exempt from taxation under paragraph (1) or this paragraph;
(3) The value of property acquired by gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance (but the income from such property shall be included in gross income);

(4) Amounts received, through accident or health insurance or under workmen’s compensation acts, as compensation for personal injuries or sickness, plus the amount of any damages received whether by suit or agreement on account of such injuries or sickness;

(5) The rental value of a dwelling house and appurtenances thereof furnished to a minister of the gospel as part of his compensation;

(6) Income which this State is prohibited from taxing under the Constitution or laws of the United States of America or under the Constitution of this State.

(c) Whenever in the opinion of the commissioner the use of inventories is necessary in order clearly to determine the income of any taxpayer, inventories shall be taken by such taxpayer upon such basis as the commissioner may prescribe as conforming as nearly as may be to the best accounting practice in the trade or business and as most clearly reflecting the income.

(d) In the case of a sale or other disposition of property, the gain or loss shall be computed as provided in sections 111, 112, and 113 of the Revenue Act of 1934 which sections and the sections referred to therein are hereby referred to and incorporated with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein; provided, however, that the words “with the approval of the secretary” in said sections shall be deemed omitted.

(e) In the case of sales or exchanges of capital assets, the gain or loss shall be taken into account in computing net income in the manner provided in section 117 of the Revenue Act of 1934 which section and the sections of the Revenue Act of 1934 referred to therein are hereby referred to and incorporated with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

(f) In the case of taxpayers other than residents the gross income includes only the gross income from sources within this State. Gross income from sources within and without this State shall be allocated and apportioned under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the commissioner.

(g) (1) The term “dividend” when used in this act means any distribution made by a corporation to its shareholders, whether in money or in other property, out of its earnings or profits accumulated after February 28, 1913.

(2) For the purposes of this act every distribution is made out of earnings or profits to the extent thereof, and from the most recently accumulated earnings or profits. Any earnings or profits accumulated, or increase in value of property accrued, before March 1, 1913, may be distributed exempt from tax, after the earnings and profits accumulated after February 28, 1913, have been distributed, but any such tax-Dividends. free distribution shall be applied against and reduce the adjusted basis of the stock provided in subsection (d) of this section.

(3) Amounts distributed in complete liquidation of a corporation shall be treated as in full payment in exchange for the stock and amounts distributed in partial liquidation of a corporation shall be treated as in part or full payment in exchange for the stock. The gain or loss to the distributee resulting from such exchange shall be determined under subsection (d) of this section, but shall be recognized only to the extent provided in subsection (d) of this section. Despite the provisions of subsection (c) of this section, 100 per centum of the gain so recognized shall be taken into account in computing net income. In the case of amounts distributed (whether before January 1, 1934, or on or after such date) in partial liquidation (other than a distribution within the provisions of subdivision (8) of this subsection or stock or securities in connection with a reorganization) the part of such distribution which is properly chargeable to capital account shall not be considered a distribution of earnings or profits within the meaning of subdivision (2) of this subsection for the purpose of determining the taxability of subsequent distributions by the corporation.

(4) If any distribution (not in partial or complete liquidation) made by a corporation to its shareholders is not out of increase in value of property accrued before March 1, 1913, and is not out of earnings or profits, then the amount of such distribution shall be applied against and reduce the adjusted basis of the stock provided in subsection (d) of this section, and if in excess of such basis, such excess shall be taxable in the same manner as a gain from the sale or exchange of property.

(5) Any distribution made by a corporation, which was classified as a personal service corporation under the provisions of the Federal Revenue Act of 1918 or the Federal Revenue Act of 1921, out of its earnings or profits which were taxable in accordance with the provisions of section 218 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1921, shall be exempt from tax to the distributees.

(6) A stock dividend shall not be subject to tax.

(7) If a corporation cancels or redeems its stock (whether or not such stock was issued as a stock dividend) at such time and in such manner as to make the distribution and cancellation or redemption in whole or in part essentially equivalent to the distribution of a taxable dividend, the amount so distributed in redemption or cancellation of the stock, to the extent that it represents a distribution of earnings or profits accumulated after February 28, 1913, shall be treated as a taxable dividend.

(8) The distribution before January 1, 1934, in pursuance of a plan of reorganization, by or on behalf of a corporation a party to the reorganization, of its stock or securities or stock or securities in a corporation a party to the reorganization, if no gain to the distributee from the receipt of such stock or securities was recognized under the Federal Revenue Act applicable to such distribution, shall not be considered a distribution of earnings or profits within the meaning of this subsection for the purpose of determining the taxability of subsequent distributions by the corporation. As used in this subdivision, the terms "reorganization" and "party to the reorganization" shall have the meanings assigned to such terms in section 112 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1932.

(9) As used in this subsection the term "amount distributed in partial liquidation" means a distribution by a corporation in complete cancellation or redemption of a part of its stock, or one of a series of distributions in complete cancellation or redemption of all or a portion of its stock.

Sec. 8. Deductions from Gross Income. In computing
net income there shall be allowed as deductions:

(a) All the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year in carrying on any trade or business, including a reasonable allowance for salaries or other compensation for personal services actually rendered; traveling expenses (including the entire amount expended for meals and lodging) while away from home in the pursuit of a trade or business; and rentals or other payments required to be made as a condition to the continued use or possession, for purposes of the trade or business, of property to which the taxpayer has not taken or is not taking title or in which he has no equity.

In the case of any taxpayer the deductions permitted by this subsection shall not be allowed if, and to the extent that they are connected with the production of income not taxable under this act, and proper apportionment and allocation of such deductions with respect to taxable and nontaxable income shall be determined under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the commissioner.

(b) All interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on indebtedness of the taxpayer; provided, however, in the case of any taxpayer the deduction permitted by this subdivision shall not be allowed if, and to the extent that such deduction is connected with income not taxable under this act; and provided further, no such deduction shall be allowed or taken for interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations, the interest upon which is wholly exempt from taxes imposed by this act. The proper apportionment and allocation of such deductions with respect to taxable and nontaxable income shall be determined under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the commissioner.

(c) Taxes or licenses paid or accrued during the taxable year, other than taxes paid to the State under this act, and other than taxes on or according to or measured by income or profits paid or accrued within the taxable year imposed by the authority of (1) the Government of the United States or any foreign country, (2) any State, Territory, county, city and county, school district, municipality or other taxing subdivision of any State or Territory, and other than estate, inheritance, legacy, succession and gift taxes, and other than taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed, but his shall not exclude the allowance as a deduction of so much of said taxes assessed against local benefits as is properly allocable to maintenance or interest charges.

(d) Losses sustained during the taxable year and not compensated for by insurance or otherwise:

(1) If incurred in trade or business; or
(2) If incurred in any transaction entered into for profit, though not connected with the trade or business; or
(3) Of property not connected with the trade or business, if the loss arises from fires, storms, shipwreck, or other casualty, or from theft.

The basis for determining the amount of deduction for losses sustained, to be allowed under this subsection shall be the adjusted basis provided in section 7 of this act for determining the loss from the sale or other disposition of property.

(e) Losses from wagering transactions shall be allowed only to the extent of the gains from such transactions.

(f) Debts ascertained to be worthless and charged off within the taxable year (or in the discretion of the commissioner a reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts) and when satisfied that a debt is recoverable only in part, the commissioner may allow such debt, in an amount not in excess of the part charged off within the taxable year, as a deduction.

(g) In the case of any loss claimed to have been sustained from any sale or other disposition of shares of stock or securities where it appears that, within a period beginning thirty days before the date of such sale or disposition and ending thirty days after such date, the taxpayer has acquired (by purchase or by an exchange upon which the entire amount of gain or loss was recognized by law) or has entered into a contract or option so to acquire, substantially identical stock or securities, then no deduction for the loss shall be allowed. If the amount of stock or securities acquired (or covered by the contract or option to acquire) is less than the amount of stock or securities sold or otherwise disposed of, then the particular shares of stock or securities the loss from the sale or other disposition of which is not deductible shall be determined under rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

If the amount of stock or securities acquired (or covered by the contract or option to acquire) is not less than the amount of stock or securities sold or otherwise disposed of, then the particular shares of stock or securities the acquisition of which (or the contract or option to acquire which) resulted in the nondeductibility of the loss shall be determined under the rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner.
(h) Losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets shall be allowed only to the extent provided in subsection (d) of section 117 of the Revenue Act of 1934 which subsection is hereby referred to and incorporated with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

(i) A reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear of property used in the trade or business, including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence. In the case of property held by one person for life with remainder to another person, the deduction shall be computed as if the life tenant were the absolute owner of the property and shall be allowed to the life tenant. In the case of property held in trust the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the income beneficiaries and the trustee in accordance with the pertinent provisions of the instrument creating the trust, or, in the absence of such provisions, on the basis of the trust income allocable to each.

(j) In the case of mines, oil and gas wells, other natural deposits, and timber, a reasonable allowance for depletion and for depreciation of improvements, according to the peculiar conditions in each case; such reasonable allowance in all cases to be made under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the commissioner. In any case in which it is ascertained as a result of operations or of development work that the recoverable units are greater or less than the prior estimate thereof, then such prior estimate (but not the basis for depletion) shall be revised and the allowance under this subsection for subsequent taxable years shall be based upon such revised estimate. In the case of leases the deductions shall be equitably apportioned between the lessor and the lessee. In the case of property held by one person for life with remainder to another person, the deduction shall be computed as if the life tenant were the absolute owner of the property and shall be allowed to the life tenant. In the case of property held in trust the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the income beneficiaries and the trustee in accordance with the pertinent provisions of the instrument creating the trust, or, in the absence of such provisions, on the basis of the trust income allocable to each. The percentage of depletion allowable under this subsection shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of subdivisions (3) and (4) of subsection (b) of section 114 of the Revenue Act of 1934 which subdivisions and the sections of said revenue act referred to therein are hereby referred to and incorporated with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

(k) The basis upon which depletion, exhaustion, wear and tear, and obsolescence are to be allowed in respect of any property shall be as provided in section 114 of the Revenue Act of 1934 which section and all sections of said revenue act referred to therein are hereby referred to and incorporated with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein, provided, however, that the words "with the approval of the secretary" shall be deemed omitted.

1. In the case of an individual, contributions or gifts made within the taxable year to or for the use of:

2. The United States, any State, Territory or any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, for exclusively public purposes;

3. A corporation, or trust, or community chest, fund, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation;

4. The special fund for vocational rehabilitation authorized by section 12 of the World War Veterans' Act, 1924;

5. Posts or organizations of war veterans, or auxiliary units or societies of any such posts or organizations, if such posts, organizations, units, or societies are organized in the United States or any of its possessions, and if no part of their net earnings inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual;

6. A fraternal society, order, or association; operating under the lodge system, but only if such contributions or gifts are to be used exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals. The deductions under this subsection shall be allowed to an amount which in all the above cases combined does not exceed fifteen per centum of the taxpayer's net income as computed without the benefit of this subsection. Such contributions or gifts shall be allowed as deductions only if verified under rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

In the case of an individual if in the taxable year and in each of the ten preceding taxable years the amount of the contributions or gifts described in this subsection plus the amount of income, war profits, or excess profits taxes paid during such year in respect of preceding taxable years, exceeds ninety per centum of the taxpayer's net income for each such year, as computed without the benefit of this subsection then the fifteen per centum limit imposed herein shall not be applicable.

In the case of a taxpayer other than a resident the deductions under this subsection shall be allowed only as to contributions or gifts to corporations or associations incorporated by or organized under the laws of this State or to the vocational rehabilitation fund above mentioned or to this State or any political subdivision thereof for exclusively public purposes.

(m) An employer establishing or maintaining a pension trust to provide for the payment of reasonable pensions to his employees (if such trust is exempt from tax under subsection
(f) of section 12, relating to trusts created for the exclusive benefit of employees) shall be allowed as a deduction (in addition to the contributions to such trust during the taxable year to cover the pension liability accruing during the year, allowed as a deduction under subsection (a) of this section) a reasonable amount transferred or paid into such trust during the taxable year in excess of such contributions, but only if such amount (1) has not theretofore been allowable as a deduction, and (2) is apportioned in equal parts over a period of ten consecutive years beginning with the year in which the transfer or payment is made.

(n) In the case of a taxpayer other than a resident the deductions allowed by this section shall unless otherwise provided in this section be allowed only if and to the extent that they are connected with the income arising from sources within this State and taxable under this act to a nonresident taxpayer, and the proper apportionment and allocation of the deductions with respect to sources of income within and without the State shall be determined under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the commissioner.

Sec. 9. Items Not Deductible.

(a) In computing net income no deduction shall in any case be allowed in respect of—

(1) Personal, living, or family expenses;

(2) Any amount paid out for new buildings or for permanent improvements or betterments made to increase the value of any property or estate.

(3) Any amount expended in restoring property or in making good the exhaustion thereof for which an allowance is or has been made;

(4) Premiums paid on any life insurance policy covering the life of any officer or employee, or of any person financially interested in any trade or business carried on by the taxpayer, when the taxpayer is directly or indirectly a beneficiary under such policy;

(5) Any amount otherwise allowable as a deduction which is allocable to one or more classes of income other than interest (whether or not any amount of income of that class or classes is received or accrued) wholly exempt from the taxes imposed by this act; or

(6) Loss from sales or exchanges of property, directly or indirectly, (A) between members of a family, or (B) except in the case of distributions in liquidation, between an individual and a corporation in which such individual owns, directly or indirectly, more than fifty per centum in value of the outstanding stock. For the purpose of this paragraph—(C) an individual shall be considered as owning the stock owned, directly or indirectly, by his family; and (D) the family of an individual shall include only his brothers and sisters (whether by the whole or half blood), spouse, ancestors, and lineal descendants.
(b) Amounts paid under the laws of any State, Territory, District of Columbia, possession of the United States, or foreign country as income to the holder of a life or terminable interest acquired by gift, bequest, or inheritance shall not be reduced or diminished by any deduction for shrinkage (by whatever name called) in the value of such interest due to the lapse of time, nor by any deduction allowed by this act (except the deductions provided for in subsections (i) and (j) of section 8) for the purpose of computing the net income of an estate or trust but not allowed under the laws of such State, Territory, District of Columbia, possession of the United States, or foreign country for the purpose of computing the income to which such holder is entitled.

(c) The obligor of a covenant bond shall not be allowed a deduction for the payment of the tax imposed by this act, or any other tax pursuant to the tax-free covenant clause, nor shall such tax be included in the gross income of the obligee.

Sec. 10. Credits of Individual Against Net Income.

There shall be allowed for the purpose of the tax herein imposed:

(a) Personal Exemptions.—In the case of a single person, a personal exemption of $1,000; or in case of the head of a family or a married person living with husband or wife, a personal exemption of $2,500. A husband and wife living together shall receive but one personal exemption. The amount of such personal exemption shall be $2,500. If such husband and wife make separate returns, the personal exemption may be taken by either or divided between them;

(b) Credit for Dependent.—$400 for each person (other than husband or wife) dependent upon and receiving his chief support from the taxpayer if such dependent person is under eighteen years of age or is incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective;

(c) Change of Status.—If the status of the taxpayer, in so far as it affects the personal exemption or credit for dependents changes during the taxable year, the personal exemption and credit shall be apportioned, under such rules and regulations as are prescribed by the commissioner, in accordance with the number of months before and after such change. For the purpose of such apportionment a fractional part of a month shall be disregarded unless it amounts to more than half a month in which case it shall be considered as a month.

Sec. 11. Installment Basis.

(a) Under regulations prescribed by the commissioner a person who regularly sells or otherwise disposes of personal property on the installment plan may return as income therefrom in any taxable year that proportion of the installment payments actually received in that year which the gross profit realized or to be realized when payment is completed, bears to the total contract price.

(b) In the case (1) of a casual sale or other casual disposition of personal property (other than property of a kind which would properly be included in the inventory of the taxpayer if on hand at the close of the taxable year), for a price exceeding one thousand dollars, or (2) of a sale or other disposition of real property, if in either case the initial payments do not exceed thirty per centum of the selling price, the income may, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner be returned on the basis and in the manner prescribed by this section. As used in this section the term "initial payment" means the payments received in cash or property other than evidence of indebtedness of the purchaser during the taxable period in which the sale or other disposition is made.

(c) If a taxpayer entitled to the benefits of subsection (a) of this section elects for any taxable year to report his net income on the installment basis, then in computing his income for the year of change or any subsequent year, amounts actually received during any such year on account of sales or other dispositions of property made in any prior year shall not be excluded.

(d) If an installment obligation is satisfied at other than its face value or distributed, transmitted, sold or otherwise disposed of, gain or loss shall result to the extent of the difference between the basis of the obligation and (1) in the case of satisfaction at other than face value or a sale or exchange—the amount realized, or (2) in case of a distribution, transmission, or disposition otherwise than by sale or exchange—the fair market value of the obligation at the time of such distribution, transmission or disposition. Any gain or loss so resulting shall be considered as resulting from the sale or exchange of the property in respect of which the installment obligation was received. The basis of the obligation shall be the excess of the face value of the obligation over an amount equal to the income which would be returnable were the obligation satisfied in full. This subsection shall not apply to the transmission at death of installment obligations if there is filed with the commissioner at such time as he may by regulation prescribe, a bond in such amount and with such sureties as he may deem necessary, conditioned upon the return as income, by the person receiving any payment on such obligations, of the same proportion of such payment as would be returnable as income by the decedent if he had lived and had received such payment.

Sec. 12. Imposition of Tax on Estates and Trusts.

(a) The taxes imposed by this act upon individuals shall apply to, and be imposed upon, the income of estates or of any kind of property held in trust (other than so-called Massachusetts trusts), including—

(1) Income accumulated in trust for the benefit of unborn or unascertained person or persons with contingent interests, and income accumulated or held for future distribution under the terms of the will or trust;

(2) Income which is to be distributed currently by the fiduciary to the beneficiaries, and income collected by a Same.

 guardian of an infant which is to be held or distributed as the court may direct;

(3) Income received by estates of deceased persons during the period of administration or settlement of the estate; and

(4) Income which, in the discretion of the fiduciary may be either distributed to the beneficiaries or accumulated.

(b) The tax shall be computed upon the net income of the estate or trust, shall be a charge against such estate or trust, and shall be paid by the fiduciary, except as provided in subsections (g) and (h) of this section.

For the purposes of this section the word “settlor” shall mean and include every creator of a trust and every decedent and where in this section the settlor is spoken of as a resident or a nonresident the same shall be taken to include a decedent who upon his or her death is a resident or a nonresident as the case may be.

The taxable income of the estate or trust shall include the following:

(1) The income from real property and tangible personal property located and from business transacted in this State.

(2) The income from intangible property with a situs in this State.

(3) The income from real property and tangible personal property located outside this State and the income from intangible property with a situs outside this State in the following cases:

(A) Where the beneficiary and the fiduciary and the settlor are all residents of this State.

(B) Where the beneficiary and the fiduciary are residents of this State regardless of the residence of the settlor.

(C) Where the beneficiary and the settlor are residents of this State regardless of the residence of the fiduciary.

(D) Where the beneficiary is a resident of this State regardless of the residence of the fiduciary and the settlor.

(E) Where the fiduciary is a resident of this State regardless of the residence of the beneficiary and the settlor.

(F) Where the settlor is a resident of this State regardless of the residence of the beneficiary and the fiduciary.

(G) Where the fiduciary and the settlor are residents of this State regardless of the residence of the beneficiary.

Where the taxability of income under this section depends on the residence of the fiduciary and there are two or more fiduciaries for the estate or trust, the income taxable under this section shall be apportioned according to the number of fiduciaries resident in this State, such apportionment being determined according to rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

Where the taxability of income under this section depends on the residence of the beneficiary and there are two or more beneficiaries for the estate or trust, the income taxable under this section shall be apportioned according to the number of beneficiaries resident in this State, such apportionment being determined according to rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

e) The net income of the estate or trust shall be computed in the same manner and on the same basis as in the case of an individual, except that—

(1) There shall be allowed as a deduction (in lieu of the deduction for charitable, etc., contributions authorized by subsection (1) of section 8), any part of the gross income, without limitation, which pursuant to the terms of the will or deed creating the trust, is during the taxable year paid or permanently set aside for the purposes and in the manner specified in subsection (1) of section 8 or is to be used exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, or for the establishment, acquisition, maintenance or operation of a public cemetery not operated for profit;

(2) There shall be allowed as an additional deduction in computing the net income of the estate or trust the amount of the income of the estate or trust for its taxable year which is to be distributed currently by the fiduciary to the beneficiaries, and the amount of the income collected by a guardian of an infant which is to be held or distributed as the court may direct, but the amount so allowed as a deduction shall be included in computing the net income of the beneficiaries whether distributed to them or not. Any amount allowed as a deduction under this paragraph shall not be allowed as a deduc-tion under paragraph (3) of this subsection in the same or any succeeding taxable year. In the case of the income of a beneficiary not a resident derived through such an estate or trust, such income shall be taxable only to the extent provided in subsection (f) of section 7 of this act.

(3) In the case of income received by estates of deceased persons during the period of administration or settlement of the estate, and in the case of income which, in the discretion of the fiduciary, may be either distributed to the beneficiary or accumulated, there shall be allowed as an additional deduc-tion in computing the net income of the estate or trust the amount of the income of the estate or trust for its taxable year, which is properly paid or credited during such year to any legatee, heir, or beneficiary, but the amount so allowed as a deduction shall be included in computing the net income of the legatee, heir or beneficiary. In such cases the income of the legatee, heir, or beneficiary not a resident shall be taxable only to the extent provided in subsection (f) of section 7 of this act.

(d) For the purpose of the tax herein imposed, the estate or trust shall be allowed the same personal exemption as is allowed to a single person under section 10 (a).

(e) If the taxable year of a beneficiary is different from that of the estate or trust, the amount which he is required, under subsection (c) (2) of this section, to include in computing his net income, shall be based upon the income of the estate or trust for any taxable year of the estate or trust ending within his taxable year.

(f) A trust created by an employer as a part of a stock bonus, pension, or profit-sharing plan for the exclusive benefit of some or all of his employees, to which contributions are made by such employer, employee, or both, for the purpose of distributing to such employees the earnings and principal of the fund accumulated by the trust in accordance with such plan, shall not be taxable under this section, but the amount actually distributed or made available to any distributee shall be taxable to him in the taxable year in which so distributed or made available to the extent that it exceeds the amounts paid in by him.

(g) Where at any time the power to re vest in the grantor title to any part of the corpus of the trust is vested—

(1) In the grantor, either alone or in conjunction with any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such part of the corpus or the income therefrom, or

(2) In any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such part of the corpus or the income therefrom, then the income of such part of the trust shall be included in computing the net income of the grantor.

(h) Where any part of the income of a trust—

(1) Is, or in the discretion of the grantor or of any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such part of the income may be held or accumulated for future distribution to the grantor; or

(2) May, in the discretion of the grantor or of any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such part of the income, be distributed to the grantor; or

(3) Is, or in the discretion of the grantor or of any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such part of the income may be, applied to the payment of premiums upon policies of insurance on the life of the grantor (except policies of insurance irrevocably payable for the purposes and in the manner specified in subsection (1) of section 8, relating to the so-called “charitable contribution” deduction); then such part of the income of the trust shall be included in computing the net income of the grantor.

(i) As used in this section the term “in the discretion of the grantor,” means “in the discretion of the grantor, either alone or in conjunction with any person not having a substantial adverse interest in the disposition of the part of the income in question.”

Sec. 13. Time and Place for Filing Returns

(a) Returns shall be under oath, in such form as the commissioner may from time to time prescribe, and shall be filed with the commissioner, at his main office or at any branch office which he may establish. The commissioner shall cause to be prepared blank forms for the said returns and shall cause them to be distributed throughout the State and to be furnished upon application, but failure to receive or secure the form shall not relieve any taxpayer from the obligation of making any return herein required.

(b) Returns made on the basis of the calendar year shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of April following the close of the calendar year. Returns made on the basis of a fiscal year shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year.

(c) The commissioner, under such rules and regulations as he shall prescribe, may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing the return and/or for payment of the tax, or any installment thereof, disclosed by the return, due or to become due within the period of the extension, whenever in his judgment good cause exists therefor, and he shall keep a record of every such extension. No such extension or extensions shall aggregate more than six months from the due date provided in subsection (b) of this section.

Sec. 14. Time, Place, and Method of Payment of Tax.

(a) The total amount of tax imposed under this act shall be paid on the fifteenth day of April following the close of the calendar year, or, if the return should be made on the basis of a fiscal year, then on the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year.

(b) The taxpayer may elect to pay the tax in three equal installments, in which case the first installment shall be paid on the date prescribed for the payment of the tax, the second installment shall be paid on the fifteenth day of the fourth month, and the third installment on the fifteenth day of the eighth month after such date. If any installment is not paid on or before the date fixed for its payment, the whole amount of tax unpaid shall be paid upon notice and demand from the commissioner.

(c) The tax imposed under this act, or any installment thereof, may be paid, at the election of the taxpayer, prior to the date prescribed for its payment.

(d) The tax, and any additions thereto, imposed by this act, shall be paid to the commissioner at Sacramento, or to his authorized representatives at any branch office. Remittances may be in the form of uncertified check, payable to the State Treasurer, during such time and under such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe, but if a check so received is not paid by the bank on which it is drawn, the taxpayer by whom such check is tendered shall remain liable for the payment of the tax, and all additions thereto, the same as if such check had not been tendered.

Sec. 15. Interest and Additions to the Tax.

(a) Failure to File Return.

(1) If any taxpayer fails to make and file a return required by this act, within the time prescribed by law or prescribed by the commissioner in pursuance of law, twenty-five per centum of the tax shall be added to the tax, except that when a return is filed after such time and it is shown that the failure to file the return was due to reasonable cause and not due to wilful neglect no such addition shall be made to the tax. The amount so added to any tax shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner and as a part of the tax unless the tax has been paid before the discovery of the neglect, in which case the amount so added shall be collected in the same manner as the tax.

(2) If any taxpayer, upon notice and demand by the commissioner, fails or refuses to make and file a return required by this act, the commissioner is authorized to make an estimate of the net income and to compute and levy the amount of tax due under this act from any available information, and in such case fifty per centum of the tax shall be added to the tax as a part of the tax and collected in the same manner as the tax.

(b) Interest on Deficiencies.—Interest upon the amount determined as a deficiency shall be assessed at the same time as the deficiency, shall be paid upon notice and demand from the commissioner, and shall be collected as a part of the tax, at the rate of six per centum per annum from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax (or, if the tax is paid in installments, from the date prescribed for the payment of the first installment) to the date the deficiency is assessed.

(c) Additions to the Tax in Case of Deficiency:

(1) Negligence.—If any part of any deficiency is due to negligence, or intentional disregard of rules and regulations but without intent to defraud, five per centum of the total amount of the deficiency (in addition to such deficiency) shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner as if it were a deficiency, except that the provisions of section 19, relating to the prorating of a deficiency, and of subsection (b) of this section, relating to interest on deficiencies, shall not be applicable.

(2) Fraud.—If any part of any deficiency is due to fraud with intent to evade tax, then fifty per centum of the total amount of the deficiency (in addition to such deficiency) shall be so assessed, and shall be paid upon notice and demand from the commissioner.

(d) Additions to Tax in Case of Nonpayment:

(1) General Rule.—Where the amount determined by the taxpayer as the tax imposed by this act, or any installment thereof, or any part of such amount or installment, is not paid on or before the date prescribed for its payment, there shall be collected as a part of the tax, interest upon such unpaid amount at the rate of one per centum a month from the date prescribed for its payment until it is paid.

(2) If Extension Granted.—Where an extension of time for payment of the amount so determined as the tax by the taxpayer, or any installment thereof, has been granted, and the amount the time for payment of which has been extended, and the interest thereon determined under paragraph (4) of this subsection, is not paid in full prior to the expiration of the period of the extension, then, in lieu of the interest provided in paragraph (1) of this subsection, interest at the rate of one per centum a month shall be collected on such unpaid amount from the date of the expiration of the period of the extension until it is paid.

(3) Deficiency.—Where a deficiency, or any interest or additional amounts assessed in connection therewith under subsections (b) and (c) of this section, or any addition to the tax in case of delinquency provided for in subsections (a) (1) and (2) of this section is not paid in full within ten days from the date of notice and demand from the commissioner, there shall be collected as part of the tax, interest upon the unpaid amount at the rate of one per centum a month from the date of such notice and demand until it is paid. If any part of a deficiency prorated to any unpaid installment under section 19 is not paid in full on or before the date prescribed for the payment of such installment, there shall be collected as part of the tax, interest upon the unpaid amount at the rate of one per centum a month from such date until it is paid.

(4) Interest on Extension.—If the time for payment of the amount determined as the tax by the taxpayer, or any installment thereof, is extended under the provisions of section 13 (c), there shall be collected as a part of such amount, interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum from the date upon which such payment should have been made if no extension had been granted to the date of expiration of the period of extension, or to the date the tax is paid, whichever is earlier.

(5) Fiduciaries.—For any period an estate is held by a fiduciary appointed by order of any court of competent jurisdiction or by will, there shall be collected interest at the rate of six per centum per annum in lieu of the interest provided in subsections (d) (1), (2) and (3) of this section.

Sec. 16. Accounting Periods:

(a) The net income shall be computed upon the basis of the taxpayer’s annual accounting period (fiscal year or calendar year, as the case may be) in accordance with the method of accounting regularly employed in keeping the books of such taxpayer; but if no such method of accounting has been so employed, or if the method employed does not clearly reflect the income, the computation shall be made in accordance with such method as in the opinion of the commissioner does clearly reflect the income. If the taxpayer’s annual accounting period is other than a fiscal year as defined in section 2 (1) or if the taxpayer has no annual accounting period or does not keep books, the net income shall be computed on the basis of the calendar year.

(b) If a taxpayer, with the approval of the commissioner, changes the basis of computing net income from fiscal year to calendar year a separate return shall be made for the period between the close of the last fiscal year for which return was made and the following December 31. If the change is from calendar year to the fiscal year, a separate return shall be made for the period between the close of the last calendar year for which return was made and the date designated as the close of the fiscal year. If the change is from one fiscal year to another fiscal year a separate return shall be made for the period between the close of the former fiscal year and the date designated as the close of the new fiscal year.

(1) Where a separate return is made under subsection (b) of this section on account of a change in the accounting period, and in all other cases where a separate return is required or permitted, by regulations prescribed by the commissioner, to be made for a fractional part of a year, then the income shall be computed on the basis of the period for which separate return is made.

(2) If a separate return is made under subsection (b) of this section, on account of a change in the accounting period, the net income, computed on the basis of the period for which separate return is made, shall be placed on an annual basis by multiplying the amount thereof by twelve and dividing by the number of months included in the period for which the separate return is made. The tax shall be such part of the tax computed on such annual basis as the number of months in such period is of twelve months.

(c) In the case of a return made for a fractional part of a year, except a return made under subsection (b), on account of a change in the accounting period, the personal exemption and the credit for dependents shall be reduced respectively to amounts which bear the same ratio to the full credits provided as the number of months in the period for which return is made bears to twelve months.

(d) The amount of all items of gross income shall be included in the gross income for the taxable year in which received by the taxpayer, unless, under the methods of accounting permitted under subsection (a) of this section, any such amounts are to be properly accounted for as of a different period. In the case of the death of the taxpayer there shall be included in computing net income for the taxable period in which falls the date of his death, amounts accrued up to the date of his death if not otherwise properly includable in respect of such period or a prior period.

(e) The deductions and credits provided for in this act shall be taken for the taxable year in which "paid or accrued," or paid or incurred, dependent upon the method of accounting upon the basis of which the net income is computed, unless in order clearly to reflect the income the deductions or credits should be taken as of a different period. In the case of the death of a taxpayer there shall be allowed as deductions and credits for the taxable period in which falls the date of his death, amounts accrued up to the date of his death if not otherwise properly allowable in respect of such period or a prior period.

Sec. 17. Supplementary Returns. If the commissioner shall be of the opinion that any taxpayer has failed to file a return, or to include in a return filed, either intentionally or through error, items of taxable income, he may require from such taxpayer a return, or a supplementary return, under oath, in such form as he shall prescribe, of all the items of income which the taxpayer received during the year for which the return is made, whether or not taxable under the provisions of this act. Every taxpayer required by the Federal government to file a supplementary return shall file a supplementary return with the commissioner. If from a supplementary return, or otherwise, the commissioner finds that any items of income, taxable under this act, have been omitted from the original return, he may require the items so omitted to be disclosed to him, under oath of the taxpayer, and to be added to the original return. Such supplementary return and the correction of the original return shall not relieve the taxpayer from any of the penalties to which he may be liable under any provision of this act. The commissioner may proceed under the provisions of section 19 of this act whether or not he requires a return or a supplementary return under this section.

Sec. 18. Jeopardy Assessments.
(a) If the commissioner finds that a taxpayer designs to depart from this State or to remove his property therefrom, or to conceal himself or his property therein, or to do any other act tending to prejudice or to render wholly or partly ineffectual proceedings to collect the tax for the taxable year then last past or the taxable year then current unless such proceedings be brought without delay, the commissioner shall declare the taxable period for such taxpayer immediately terminated and shall cause notice of such finding and declaration to be given to the taxpayer, together with a demand for immediate payment of the tax for the taxable period so declared terminated and of the tax for the preceding taxable year or so much of such tax as is unpaid, whether or not the time otherwise allowed by law for filing the return and paying the tax has expired; and such taxes shall thereupon become immediately due and payable. In any proceeding in court brought to enforce payment of taxes made due and payable by virtue of the provisions of this section the finding of the commissioner, made as herein provided, whether made after notice to the taxpayer or not, shall be for all purposes presumptive evidence of the taxpayer’s design.

(b) If the commissioner believes that the assessment or collection of a deficiency will be jeopardized by delay, he shall immediately assess such deficiency (together with all interest, additional amounts, or additions to the tax provided for by this act) and the amount so assessed shall be due and payable upon notice and demand from the commissioner.

(c) If any taxpayer fails to file a return, or files a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax, for any taxable year, the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment, at any time.
(d) The commissioner is hereby authorized to prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary to properly carry out the provisions of this section.

Sec. 19. Assessment of Deficiency Tax. Protest. Appeal. As soon as practicable after the return is filed, the commissioner shall examine it and shall determine the correct amount of the tax. If the commissioner determines that the tax disclosed by the original return is less than the tax disclosed by his examination he shall mail notice to the taxpayer at his last known address of the deficiency proposed to be assessed. The notice shall set forth the details and computation of such deficiency.

Within sixty days after mailing of said notice the taxpayer may file with the commissioner a written protest against the levy of the proposed deficiency, specifying therein the grounds upon which the protest is based. The protest must be under oath.

If no such protest is so filed the amount of the deficiency shall be final upon the expiration of said sixty-day period. If a protest is so filed it shall be the duty of the commissioner to reconsider the computation and levy of the deficiency complained of, and, if the taxpayer so requested in his protest, it shall be the duty of the commissioner to grant said taxpayer, or his authorized representatives, an oral hearing.

The commissioner’s action upon the protest shall be final upon the expiration of thirty days from the date when he mails notice of his action to the taxpayer, unless within that thirty day period the taxpayer appeals in writing from the action of the commissioner to the State board. The appeal must be addressed and mailed to the State Board of Equalization at Sacramento, California, and a copy of the appeal addressed and mailed at the same time to the commissioner at Sacramento, California. Said board shall hear and determine the same and thereafter shall forthwith notify the taxpayer and the commissioner of its determination, and the reasons therefor. Such determination shall be final, unless, within sixty days from the time of such determination, the commissioner shall apply to the Supreme Court of the State for a writ of certiorari or review for the purpose of having the lawfulness of the decision of said board inquired into and determined.

When a deficiency has been determined and the tax has become final under the provisions of this section, the commissioner shall mail notice and demand to the taxpayer for the payment thereof, and such tax shall be due and payable at the expiration of ten days from the date of such notice and demand, unless the taxpayer has elected to pay the tax in installments, in which case the deficiency shall be prorated to the three installments. Except as provided in section 18 (relating to jeopardy assessments), that part of the deficiency so prorated to any installment the date for payment of which has not arrived, shall be collected at the same time as, and as part of, such installment. That part of the deficiency so prorated to any installment the date for payment of which has arrived shall be due and payable at the expiration of ten days from the date of such notice.

A certificate by the commissioner or of said board, as the case may be, of the mailing of the notices specified in this section shall be prima facie evidence of the computation and levy of the deficiency in tax and of the giving of said notices.

Except in the case of a fraudulent return, every notice of a proposed deficiency tax shall be mailed to the taxpayer within three years after the return was filed and no deficiency shall be assessed or collected with respect to the year for which such return was filed unless such notice is mailed within such period. For the purposes of this paragraph a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for the filing thereof shall be considered as filed on such last day.

Any amount of tax in excess of that disclosed by the return, due to a mathematical error, notice of which has been mailed to the taxpayer, shall not be considered a deficiency assessment within the meaning of this section. The taxpayer shall have no right of protest or appeal as herein provided, based on such notice, nor shall such assessment or collection be prohibited by any of the provisions of this section.

Sec. 20. Refund of Tax, Interest on Refunds, Appeal. If in the opinion of the commissioner, or State board, as the case may be, a tax has been computed in a manner contrary to law or has been erroneously computed by reason of a clerical mistake on the part of the commissioner or said board, or, if any tax, penalty or interest has been paid more than once, or has been erroneously or illegally collected, or has been erroneously or illegally computed, such fact shall be set forth in the records of the commissioner, and the amount collected in excess of what was legally due shall be credited on any taxes then due from the taxpayer under this act, and the balance refunded to the taxpayer; but no such credit or refund shall be allowed or made after three years from the time the return was filed by the taxpayer or within two years from the time the tax was paid, whichever period expires the later, unless before the expiration of such period a claim therefor is filed by the taxpayer. If no return is filed by the taxpayer, then no credit or refund shall be allowed or made after two years from the time the tax was paid unless before the expiration of such period a claim therefor is filed by the taxpayer. Every claim for refund must be in writing under oath and must state the specific grounds upon which the claim is founded.

If the commissioner disallows any claim for refund he shall notify the taxpayer accordingly. Within thirty days after the mailing of such notice, or if the commissioner does not act upon any claim for a refund within six months after the time the claim was filed, then within thirty days after the expiration of said six months, the commissioner's action upon the claim shall be final, unless within such thirty day period the taxpayer appeals in writing from the action of the commissioner to the State board. The appeal must be addressed to the State Board of Equalization at Sacramento, California, and a copy of the appeal addressed and mailed at the same time to the commissioner at Sacramento, California. Said board shall hear and determine the same and thereafter shall forthwith notify the taxpayer and the commissioner of its determination. Such determination shall be final, unless within sixty days from the time of such determination, the commissioner shall apply to the Supreme Court of the State for a writ of certiorari or review for the purpose of having the lawfulness of the decision of said board inquired into and determined.

Interest shall be allowed and paid upon any overpayment of any tax, if the overpayment was not made because of an error or mistake on the part of the taxpayer, at the rate of six per centum per annum as follows:

(1) In the case of a credit, from the date of the overpayment to the date of the allowance of the credit. Any interest allowed on any credit shall first be credited on any taxes due from the taxpayer under this act.

(2) In the case of a refund, from the date of the overpayment to a date preceding the date of the refund warrant by not more than thirty days, such date to be determined by the commissioner.

Any refund or any portion thereof which is erroneously made, and any credit or any portion thereof which is erroneously allowed, may be recovered, together with interest at the rate of six per centum per annum from the date the refund was made or the credit allowed, in an action brought by the commissioner in a court of competent jurisdiction in the county of Sacramento in the name of the people of the State of California, and such action shall be tried in the county of Sacramento unless the court with the consent of the prosecutor, order a change of place of trial. The Franchise Tax Counsel or the Attorney General must prosecute such action, and the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to service of summons, pleadings, proofs, trials, and appeals are applicable to the proceedings herein provided for.

In the event that a tax has been illegally levied against a taxpayer, the commissioner shall set forth on his records the reasons therefor and thereafter shall authorize the cancellation of such tax.

Sec. 21. Action to Recover Tax.

Any taxpayer claiming that the tax computed and levied against him is void in whole or in part may pay the tax under protest and bring an action against the State Treasurer for the recovery of the whole or any part of the amount paid. The protest must be in writing under oath and must state in detail the grounds upon which the claim is founded. Such action must be filed within ninety days after the notice and demand for the payment of the tax under section 19 hereof; provided, however, no action shall be filed for the recovery of a deficiency assessment unless the taxpayer has made protest to the commissioner of the computation and levy complained of under the provisions of such section; and provided further, that no action shall be brought to recover any deficiency assessment, or any part thereof, if the taxpayer has at any time appealed to the State board from the action of the commissioner in overruling the taxpayer's protest to the commissioner's proposal of the said deficiency assessment.

When a refund claim has been filed under the provisions of section 20 hereof, and the same has been denied or no action has been taken thereon by the commissioner within six months from the filing thereof, the taxpayer may bring an action against the State Treasurer on the grounds set forth in such claim for the recovery of the whole or any part of the amount claimed as an overpayment, but such action must be brought within ninety days from the date of the commissioner's denial of such claim or within ninety days from the expiration of the said six months if no action has been taken by the commissioner; provided that no action shall be filed if the taxpayer has appealed to the State board from the action of the commissioner with respect to any refund claim.

In any judgment of any court rendered for any overpayment in respect of any tax imposed by this act, interest shall be allowed at the rate of six per centum per annum upon the amount of the overpayment, from the date of the payment or collection thereof to the date of allowance of credit on account of such judgment or to a date preceding the date of the refund warrant by not more than thirty days, such date to be determined by the commissioner.

Whenever under the provisions of this section an action is commenced against the State Treasurer, a copy of the complaint and the summons must be served upon the Treasurer or his deputy and the commissioner. At the time the Treasurer demurs or answers, he may demand that the action be tried in the superior court of the county of Sacramento, which demand must be granted. The Franchise Tax Counsel or the Attorney General of the State of California must defend the action. A failure to begin such action within the time herein specified shall be a bar against the recovery of such taxes.

Within sixty days after the determination of the State board of any appeal from the action of the commissioner the appellant may apply to the Supreme Court of the State for a writ of certiorari or review for the purpose of having the lawfulness of the decision or order of the State board inquired into and determined. Such writ shall be made returnable not later than thirty days after the date of the issuance thereof, and shall direct the State board to certify its record in the case to the court. On the return day, the cause shall be heard by the Supreme Court, unless for a good reason the same be continued. The State board and each party to the proceeding before such board shall appear in the review proceeding.
The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure of this State relating to the writs of review shall apply to proceedings instituted in the Supreme Court under the provisions of this section.

Sec. 22. Partnership Not Taxable.

(a) An individual carrying on business in partnership shall be liable for income tax only in his individual capacity and shall include in his gross income the distributive share of the net income of the partnership received by him or distributable to him during the taxable year.

(b) The net income of the partnership shall be computed in the same manner and on the same basis as in the case of an individual.

(c) Every partnership shall make a return for each taxable year, stating specifically the items of gross income and the deductions allowed by this act, and shall include in the return the names and addresses of the individuals, whether residents or nonresidents, who would be entitled to share in the net income if distributed and the amount of the distributive share of each individual. The return shall be sworn to by any one of the partners.

(d) If the taxable year of a partner is different from that of the partnership, the distributive share of the net income of the partnership to be included in computing the net income of the partner for his taxable year shall be based upon the net income of the partnership for any taxable year of the partnership ending within the taxable year of the partner.

Sec. 23. Information at Source.

(a) Every individual, partnership, corporation, joint stock company or association, insurance company, business trust, or so-called Massachusetts trust, being a resident or having a place of business in this State, in whatever capacity acting, including lessees or mortgagors of real or personal property, fiduciaries, employers and all officers and employees of this State or any political subdivision of this State, having the control, receipt, custody, disposal or payment of interest (other than interest coupons payable to bearer), rent, salaries, wages, premiums, annuities, compensations, remunerations, emoluments or other fixed or determinable annual or periodical gains, profits and income amounting to $1,000 or over, paid or payable during any year to any taxpayer, shall make complete return thereof under oath, to the commissioner, under such regulations and in such form and manner and to such extent as may be prescribed by him.

(b) Such returns may be required, regardless of amounts, (1) in the case of payments of interest upon bonds, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other similar obligations of corporations, and (2) in the case of collections of items (not payable in the United States) of interest upon the bonds of foreign countries and interest upon the bonds of and dividends from foreign corporations by persons undertaking as a matter of business or for profit the collection of foreign payments of such interest or dividends by means of coupons, checks, or bills of exchange.

(e) When necessary to make effective the provisions of this section the name and address of the recipient of income shall be furnished upon demand of the person paying the income.

(d) The provisions of this section shall not apply to the payment of interest obligations not taxable under this act.

(e) The commissioner, whenever he deems it necessary to insure compliance with the provisions of this act, may under rules and regulations prescribed by him, require any individ-under this act, the amount of income tax payable by him under this act shall be credited with such proportion of the tax so payable by him to the State or country where he resides as his income subject to taxation under this act bears to his entire income upon which the tax so payable to such other State or country was imposed; provided, that such credit shall be allowed only if the laws of said State or country grant a substantially similar credit to residents of this State subject to income tax under such laws, or impose a tax upon the personal incomes of its residents derived from sources in this State and exempt from taxation the personal incomes of residents of this State. No credit shall be allowed against the amount of the tax on any income taxable under this act which is exempt from taxation under the laws of such other State.

(c) The credits provided in this section shall be allowed only on presentation to the commissioner of satisfactory proof that the taxpayer is entitled to same.

(a) No final account of a fiduciary shall be allowed by the probate court unless such account shows and the judge of said court finds, that all taxes imposed by the provisions of this act upon said fiduciary, which have become payable, have been paid, and that all taxes which may become due are secured by bond, deposit or otherwise. The certificate of the commissioner and the receipt for the amount of the tax therein certified shall be conclusive as to the payment of the tax, to the extent of said certificate.

(b) For the purpose of facilitating the settlement and distribution of estates held by fiduciaries, the commissioner may on behalf of the State agree upon the amount of taxes at any time due or to become due from such fiduciaries under the provisions of this act, and payment in accordance with such agreement shall be full satisfaction of the taxes to which the agreement relates.

(c) Upon notice to the commissioner that any person is acting in a fiduciary capacity, such fiduciary shall assume the powers, rights, duties, and privileges of the taxpayers in respect of any tax imposed by this act (except as otherwise specifically provided and except that the tax shall be collected from the estate of the taxpayers), until notice is given that the fiduciary capacity has terminated. Notice under this section shall be given in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

Sec. 27. Contract to Assume Tax Illegal.—It shall be unlawful for any person to agree or contract directly or indirectly to pay or assume or bear the burden of any tax payable by any taxpayer under the provisions of this act. Any such contract or agreement shall be null and void and shall not be enforced or given effect by any court.

Sec. 28. Enforcement of Tax.—In any case in which any tax or any portion or installment thereof, interest or penalty imposed under this act is not paid when due, the commissioner shall file in the office of the county clerk of Sacramento County, or any other county, a certificate specifying the amount of the tax, penalty and interest due, the name and last known address of the taxpayer liable for the same, that the commissioner has complied with all the provisions of this act in relation to the computation and levy of the tax and a request that judgment be entered against the taxpayer in the amount of the tax, penalty and interest set forth in the certificate. The county clerk immediately upon the filing of such certificate shall enter a judgment for the people of State of California against the taxpayer in the amount of the tax, penalty and interest set forth in the certificate. The judgment may be filed by the county clerk in a loose-leaf book entitled "Personal Income Tax Judgments."

An abstract of such judgment or a copy thereof shall be recorded with the county recorder of any county and from the time of such recording, the amount of the taxes, penalty and interest therein set forth shall constitute a lien upon all property of the taxpayer in such county, owned by him or which he may afterwards and before the lien expires acquire, which lien shall have the force, effect and priority of a judgment lien. Execution shall issue upon such a judgment upon request of the commissioner in the same manner as execution may issue upon other judgments, and sales shall be held under such execution as prescribed in the Code of Civil Procedure. In all proceedings under this section the commissioner shall be authorized to act on behalf of the people of the State of California.

The commissioner may, at any time, bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction, in the name of the people of the State of California, to recover the amount of any taxes, penalties, and interest due under this act. The Franchise Tax Counsel or the Attorney General of this State must prosecute such action and such action shall be tried in the county of Sacramento unless the court with the consent of the prosecutor, order a change of place of trial. In such action a writ of attachment may be issued, and no bond or affidavit previous to the issuing of said attachment is required. In such action a certificate by the commissioner showing the delinquency shall be prima facie evidence of the levy of the tax, of the delinquency and of compliance by the commissioner and the State board with all the provisions of this act in relation to the computation and levy of the tax.

It is expressly provided that the foregoing remedies of the State shall be cumulative and that no action taken by the commissioner shall be or be construed to be an election on the part of the State or any of its officers to pursue any remedy hereunder to the exclusion of any other remedy for which provision is made in this act.

Sec. 29. Tax a Debt—Every tax imposed by this act, and all increases, interest and penalties thereon, shall become, from the time it is due and payable, a personal debt, from the person or persons liable to pay the same, to the State of California.

Sec. 30. Penal Provisions—Any person who, with or without fraudulent intent, fails to pay any tax or to make, render, sign or verify any return, or to supply any information, within the time required by or under the provisions of this act, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000, to be recovered by the Franchise Tax Counsel or the Attorney General, in the name of the people, by action in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Any person or any officer or employee of any corporation, or member or employee of any partnership, who, with or without intent to evade any requirement of this act or any lawful requirement of the commissioner thereunder, shall fail to pay any tax or to make, sign or verify any return or to supply any information required by or under the provisions of this act, or who, with like intent, shall make, render, sign or verify any false or fraudulent return or statement, or shall supply any false or fraudulent information, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $2,000, to be recovered by the Franchise Tax Counsel or the Attorney General in the name of the people, by action in any court of competent jurisdiction, and shall also be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction, be fined not to exceed $1,000 or be imprisoned not to exceed one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

The prosecutor shall have the power, with the consent of the commissioner to compromise any penalty for which he is authorized to bring action under this section. The penalties provided by this section shall be additional to all other penalties in this act provided.

The certificate of the commissioner to the effect that a tax has not been paid, that a return has not been filed, or that information has not been supplied as required by the provisions of this act, shall be prima facie evidence that such tax has not been paid, that such return has not been filed or that such information has not been supplied.

Sec. 31. Disposition of Proceeds.

(a) All moneys and remittances received by the commissioner in pursuance of the provisions of this act shall be transmitted promptly to the State Treasurer, and copies of the schedules covering such transmittals shall be furnished at the same time to the State Controller.

(b) All moneys and remittances so received and so transmitted shall be deposited, after clearance of remittances, in the State treasury and credited to the "Personal income tax fund."

(c) For expenditure by the commissioner in carrying out the provisions of this act there is hereby appropriated a sum of money equal to one hundred thousand dollars and three percent, or so much thereof as may be necessary, of all other moneys deposited in the personal income tax fund; said one hundred thousand dollars being payable out of moneys in the general fund not otherwise appropriated, the remainder of the moneys hereby appropriated being payable out of the personal income tax fund; provided, that, out of said three percent of said other moneys deposited in the personal income tax fund on or before June 30, 1937, the sum of one hundred thousand dollars shall be returned into the general fund. For expenditure by the Controller in carrying out the provisions of this act there is hereby appropriated out of the personal income tax fund the sum of five thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary, for expenditure by the State Treasurer in carrying out the provisions of this act there is hereby appropriated out of the personal income tax fund the sum of ten thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary, and for expenditure by the Department of Finance in auditing the revenues and expenditures resulting from the provisions of this act there is hereby appropriated out of the personal income tax fund the sum of ten thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary. The balance of the moneys in the personal income tax fund shall, upon order of the State Controller, be drawn therefrom for the purpose of making refunds hereunder or be transferred to the general fund of the State.

Sec. 32. Commissioner to Administer This Act.

(a) The commissioner shall administer and enforce the tax herein imposed, for which purpose he may divide the State into a reasonable number of districts, in each of which a branch office or offices may be maintained during all or such part of the time as may be necessary. In the establishment of such districts and offices due consideration shall be given by the commissioner to the matter of economy of administration and service to the taxpayers.

(b) The commissioner, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return or for the purpose of making an estimate of the taxable income of any taxpayer, shall have power to examine or cause to be examined by any agent or representative designated by him for that purpose, any books, papers, records or memoranda, bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return, and may require the attendance of the taxpayer or of any other person having knowledge in the premises, and may take testimony and require proof material for his information, with power to administer oath to such person or persons.

(c) The commissioner may appoint and remove, in the manner provided by law, such officers, agents, branch office income tax deputies, and other employees as he may deem necessary, such persons to have such duties and powers as the commissioner may from time to time prescribe. Any temporary appointments of branch office income tax deputies and other branch office employees shall be made from eligible residents of the district in which such branch office or offices are located. The salaries of the personnel required by the commissioner shall be such as he may prescribe, in the manner provided by law, and the commissioner and such personnel shall be allowed reasonable and necessary traveling and other expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. The commissioner may require such of the officers, agents, deputies and other employees as he may designate, to give bond for the faithful performance of their duties in such sum and with such sureties as he may determine, and all premiums on such bonds shall be paid by the commissioner out of moneys appropriated for the administration of this act.

(d) The commissioner and such officers, as he may designate, shall have the power to administer an oath to any person or to take the acknowledgment of any person in respect of any return or report required by this act or the rules and regulations of the commissioner.

Sec. 33. Secrecy Required of Officials, Penalty for Violation.

(a) Except in accordance with proper judicial order or as otherwise provided by law, it shall be unlawful for the commissioner, any deputy, agent, clerk or other officer or employee, to divulge or make known in any manner the amount of income or any particulars set forth or disclosed in any report or return required under this act. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the publication of statistics, so classified as to prevent the identification of particular reports or returns and the items thereof, or the inspection by the Attorney General or other legal representatives of the State, of the report or return of any taxpayer who shall bring action to set aside or review the tax based thereon, or against whom an action or proceeding has been instituted to recover any tax or any penalty imposed by this act. Reports and returns shall be preserved for four years and thereafter until the commissioner orders them to be destroyed.

(b) Any offense against subdivision (a) of this section shall be a misdemeanor.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the commissioner may permit the Commissioner of Internal Revenue of the United States, or the proper officer of any State imposing an income tax upon the incomes of individuals, or the authorized representative of either such officer, to inspect the income tax returns of any individual, or may furnish to such officer or his authorized representative an abstract of the return of income of any taxpayer or supply him with information concerning any item of income contained in any return, or disclosed by the report of any investigation of the income or return of income of any taxpayer; but such permission shall be granted or such information furnished to such officer or his representative, only if the statutes of the United States or of such other State, as the case may be, grant substantially similar privileges to the proper officer of this State charged with the administration of this act.

Sec. 34. Personal Holding Companies. For the purpose of this act a personal holding company whether or not organized under the laws of this State shall not be recognized as a legal entity separate and distinct from the shareholders thereof. Any such company having more than one shareholder shall be deemed a partnership.

Sec. 35. Unconstitutionality or Invalidity. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, or part of this act shall, for any reason, be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder of this act, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered. No caption of any section or set of sections shall in any way affect the interpretation of this act or any part thereof.

Sec. 36. Taking Effect of the Act.

This act, inasmuch as it provides for a tax levy for the usual current expenses of the State, shall, under the provisions of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, take effect immediately, and shall apply to the net income of persons taxable hereunder received or accrued on and after January 1, 1935.

CHAPTER 330.

An act to license, regulate and control the manufacture, transport, sale, purchase, possession and disposition of alcoholic beverages; to levy an excise tax on the sale of alcoholic beverages; to provide for the licensing of the manufacture, distribution and sale of alcoholic beverages; to prescribe penalties for the violation of this act; to make an appropriation for the enforcement of this act; to take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 13, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. This act is known and may be cited as the "Alcoholic Beverage Control Act."

Sec. 2. The following words, terms and phrases when used in this act have the meanings ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

(a) "Alcohol" means ethyl alcohol, hydrated oxide of ethyl, or spirits of wine, from whatever source or by whatever process produced.

(b) "Alcoholic beverage" means and includes alcohol, spirits, liquor, wine, beer and every liquid or solid containing alcohol, spirits, wine or beer, and which contains one-half of one per cent or more of alcohol by volume and which is fit for beverage purposes either alone or when diluted, mixed or combined with other substances.
Definitions.

(c) "Beer" means any alcoholic beverage obtained by the fermentation of any infusion or decoction of barley, malt, hops or any other similar product, or any combination thereof in water, and shall include ale, porter, brown, stout, lager beer, small beer and strong beer but shall not include sake known as Japanese rice wine.

(d) "Distilled spirits" means ethyl alcohol, spirits of wine, whiskey, rum, brandy, gin and other distilled spirits for beverage use, including all dilutions and mixtures thereof.

(e) "Wine" means the product obtained by the fermentation of grapes or other agricultural products containing natural or added sugar or any such alcoholic beverage fortified with grape brandy and containing not more than twenty-four per cent of alcohol by volume and shall include sake known as Japanese rice wine.

(f) "Person" includes any individual, firm, copartnership, joint adventure, association, corporation, estate, trust, business trust, receiver, syndicate or any other group or combination acting as a unit, and the plural as well as the singular number.

(g) "Board" means the State Board of Equalization of the State of California.

(h) "Club" means a corporation or association which is the owner, lessee or occupant of an establishment operated solely for objects of a social or athletic nature, having a bona fide membership list, and the majority of the members of which pay dues at least once in every year, but not for pecuniary gain, and the property as well as the advantages of which belong to the members.

(i) "Manufacturer" means every person, who within the State of California, brews, ferments, distills, cuts, blends, rectifies, or otherwise processes, produces, or manufactures alcoholic beverages containing one-half of one per cent or more of alcohol by volume; provided that any person who manufactures not to exceed two hundred gallons of wine per year for his own consumption, shall not, because of such manufacture, be considered a manufacturer within the meaning of this act.

(j) "Rectifier" means every person who colors, flavors, or otherwise processes distilled spirits by distillation, blending, percolating or other processes.

(k) "Importer" means every person who, in the case of alcoholic beverages brought into this State from outside of this State, is the first in possession thereof within this State after the act of importation is completed.

(l) "Sell" or "sale" and the phrase "to sell" means and includes any of the following: to exchange, barter, traffic in; to solicit or receive an order for; to keep or expose for sale; to serve for a consideration with or without meals; to traffic in or deliver for value or in any way other than gratuitously; to possess with intent to sell. The transfer of title to alcoholic beverages unaccompanied by a transfer of possession of such beverages shall not be deemed a sale of such beverages.

(m) "Public bar" means any bar, counter or other structure over which beverages of an alcoholic content in excess of four per cent by weight are sold or served by the drink to the public for consumption on the premises; provided, however, that counters or other structures used for the sale, service and consumption of meals, and not as a subterfuge for a public bar, shall not be deemed to be a public bar within the meaning of this act. "Public barroom" or "public saloon" means any room to which the public has access in which is maintained a "public bar."

(n) "Package" or "original package" means any container or receptacle used for holding alcoholic beverages which is corked or sealed with a stub, stopper or cap, or in any other manner.

(o) "To bottle" or "to package" means to bottle, barrel, or otherwise place alcoholic beverages in a container.

(p) "Distiller" means a manufacturer who produces distilled spirits from naturally fermented material.

(q) "Proof spirits" means that alcoholic liquor which contains one-half of its volume of pure ethyl alcohol of a specific gravity of 0.7939 at sixty degrees Fahrenheit, referred to water at sixty degrees Fahrenheit as unity.

(r) "Proof gallon" means a gallon of proof spirits, or an equivalent amount of alcohol.

(s) "Wholesaler" means and includes every person other than a manufacturer or rectifier who is engaged in business as a broker, jobber or wholesale merchant, dealing in alcoholic beverages.

(t) "Wholesale sale" or "sale at wholesale" means a sale to any person for purposes of resale.

(u) "Retailer's on-sale license" means and includes on-sale beer licenses, on-sale beer and wine licenses, and on-sale distilled spirits licenses.

(v) Gallon or "Wine gallon" means that liquid measure containing two hundred thirty-one cubic inches.

(w) "Wine manufacturer" means any person engaged in the manufacture of wine as the term "wine" is defined in this act.

(x) "Still" means a still used in the production or capable of being used in the production of alcoholic beverages and does not include stills or apparatus used solely in the production of distilled water or substances other than alcoholic beverages.

Sec. 3. On and after July 1, 1935, no person shall perform any act or acts which would constitute such person a manufacturer, rectifier, importer, wholesaler, or retailer of any alcoholic beverage within the meaning of this act or shall package, label or sell any alcoholic beverage unless such person is authorized to do so by a license duly issued pursuant to the provisions of this act, or pursuant to the provisions of the State Liquor Control Act, Chapter 658, Statutes of 1933.
Any person violating any provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 4. On and after July 1, 1935, every still located within the limits of this State must be registered with the board. Every person owning or possessing a still who fails to register the same as herein required or who fails to obtain a license issued pursuant to the provisions of this act authorizing the ownership and possession of such still shall be guilty of a felony.

The board may seize and summarily destroy any still which is not registered or for which a license has not been obtained as required by this act.

SEC. 5. The following are the types of licenses to be issued under this act and the annual fees to be charged therefor:

1. Beer manufacturer's license: $750.00 per year
2. Wine manufacturer's license, one thousand gallons or less per year: 5.00 per year
   Over one thousand gallons to two thousand five hundred gallons per year: 10.00 per year
   Over two thousand five hundred gallons to five thousand gallons per year: 20.00 per year
   Over five thousand gallons to twenty thousand gallons per year: 40.00 per year

14. Retail package off-sale beer and wine license: 10.00 per year
15. Retail package off-sale distilled spirits license for the first $10,000 retail sales per year: 100.00 per year
For each $1,000 retail sales or fraction thereof over $10,000 per year__$10.00 per year
16. Industrial alcohol dealer's license__$50.00 per year
17. On-sale beer license__$25.00 per year
18. On sale beer and wine license__$75.00 per year
19. On sale beer and wine license for trains (per train)__$15.00 per year
20. On sale beer and wine license for boats (per boat)__50.00 per year
21. On sale distilled spirits license__As set by the board

The fees specified above shall be reduced twenty-five per cent for each full quarter of a year elapsing between the first day of the year for which the license is issued and the date on which the application for the license is filed with the board; provided, that where an application clearly indicates that the applicant does not desire to exercise the privileges granted by the license applied for until on or after the beginning of the quarterly period following the quarterly period in which the application is filed with the board, such fees shall be reduced twenty-five per cent for each full quarter of a year elapsing between the first day of the year for which the license is issued and the date so indicated in the application.

Where the fee for any license is graduated according to the amount of alcoholic beverages manufactured or sold under the license, and the license is applied for after the beginning of the year, the amount of alcoholic beverage authorized to be manufactured or sold under the license shall be reduced proportionately with the reduction in fee provided in the preceding paragraph in accordance with such rules and regulations as the board may prescribe.

Sec. 6. Except as otherwise provided in this act and subject to the provisions of section 22 of Article XX of the Constitution, the licenses provided for in the preceding section shall authorize the person to whom issued to exercise the following rights and privileges and no others at the premises for which issued during the year for which issued.

(a) Any manufacturer's license authorizes the person to whom issued to become a manufacturer of the alcoholic beverage specified in the license, to package, mix, flavor and color and label the same and to export or sell such alcoholic beverages to persons holding licenses issued by the board authorizing the sale of such alcoholic beverage; provided that a wine manufacturer's license authorizes the manufacture of grape brandy to be used exclusively for fortifying purposes by its holder on the premises for which issued.

(b) A still license authorizes the person to whom issued to own or possess the number of stills indicated in the license upon the premises for which issued.

(c) A rectifier's license authorizes the person to whom issued to cut, blend, mix, flavor, color and bottle distilled spirits and to export or sell such products to persons holding licenses issued by the board authorizing the sale of distilled spirits.

(d) Any importer's license authorizes the person to whom issued to become an importer of alcoholic beverages specified in the license and to export such alcoholic beverage.

(e) A bottling or packaging license authorizes the labeling, bottling or packaging of the alcoholic beverages specified in the license.

(f) Any wholesaler's license authorizes the sale of the alcoholic beverage specified in the license only to persons holding licenses issued by the board authorizing the sale of such alcoholic beverage.

(g) An off-sale beer and wine license authorizes the sale, to consumers only and not for resale, of beer in packages and in quantities of thirty-one gallons or less, per sale and the sale of wine in packages and in quantities of fifty-two gallons or less, per sale for consumption off the premises where sold.

(h) An off-sale distilled spirits license authorizes the sale, to consumers only and not for resale, of distilled spirits in quantities of less than five gallons per sale and in packages of one gallon or less for consumption off the premises where sold.

(i) An industrial alcohol dealer's license authorizes the sale of unadulterated ethyl alcohol or other distilled spirits in packages of more than one gallon for use in the trades, professions or industries.

(j) Any on-sale license authorizes the sale of the alcoholic beverage specified in the license for consumption on the premises where sold. An on-sale beer and an on-sale beer and wine license also authorizes the exercise, with respect to the particular beverage or beverages mentioned in such license, of the rights and privileges granted by an off-sale beer and wine license. On trains and boats, under such licenses, alcoholic beverages may be sold only to passengers or employees.

SEC. 7. Each license issued under this act shall be issued to a specific person, and, except in the case of licenses authorizing the sale of alcoholic beverages on trains or boats, shall be issued for a specific location, the principal address of which shall be indicated on the license. Separate licenses shall be issued for each of the premises of any business establishment having more than one location.

Licenses for trains and boats shall be based on the average number in actual operation, during the license year, of each class of operating units, viz, trains and boats upon which the license privileges are exercised, such average number to be determined as the board may prescribe.

Each license issued under this act is separate and distinct, shall be nontransferable from one person to another, and shall be transferable from the premises for which issued only as may be permitted by the board, upon payment of a transfer fee of five dollars for each license.
Whenever a license certificate issued under the act is lost or destroyed, the board shall issue a duplicate license upon the payment of a fee of five dollars.

Sec. 8. All retailer's on-sale licenses shall be issued on a calendar year basis and shall automatically expire at midnight on the last day of December of the year for which issued. All other licenses issued under this act shall be issued on the basis of a fiscal year commencing July first and ending June thirty-first, and shall automatically expire at midnight on the last day of June of the year for which issued.

All licenses issued under the provisions of the State Liquor Control Act, Chapter 658, Statutes of 1933, which authorize the sale of liquor specified in the licenses for consumption on the premises shall automatically expire at midnight on December 31, 1935.

All other licenses issued under said act and all licenses issued under the provisions of Chapter 178, Statutes of 1933, shall automatically expire at midnight on June 30, 1935. One-half the annual fee for any license so expiring at midnight on June 30, 1935, shall be allowed as a credit against the fee for any comparable license issued under this act during 1935.

For failure to reapply for a license prior to the time when any license expires, the board may by regulation prescribe that in addition to the license fees specified in section 5 hereof a penalty of not to exceed twenty-five per cent of such fees must be paid.

Sec. 9. Upon receipt of any license issued hereunder the licensee shall sign said license and shall post the license in a conspicuous place upon the licensed premises. Licenses issued for trains or boats may, in lieu of being posted upon the train or boat for which issued, be posted in such other place in this State as the board shall designate.

Sec. 10. To obtain a license under this act application therefor, accompanied by the license fee therefor, must be made to the board upon a form prescribed by the board. The application must contain the name of the applicant, and in the case of a copartnership, the names of the individual parties, in the case of a corporation the principal officers and directors, the location of the premises for which a license is applied and such other information as the board may require to assist it in determining whether the applicant and the premises qualify for a license. The board may require that the application for any on-sale license be verified under oath and be endorsed by five freeholders or householders of the city or county in which the applicant resides or the premises are located.

Sec. 11. Upon receipt of an application for a license and the license fee the board shall make a thorough investigation to determine whether the applicant and the premises for which a license is applied qualify for a license. The board must deny an application for a license if either the applicant or the premises for which a license is applied do not qualify for a license under this act.
If an application is denied, three-fourths of the license fee paid, or an amount equal to the license fee paid less ten dollars, whichever is greater shall be returned to the applicant and the balance shall be deposited in the alcoholic beverage control fund hereinafter created.

Sec. 12. No on-sale distilled spirits license shall be issued to any applicant who is not a citizen of the United States; and where a corporation, partnership or other business association is the applicant no such license shall be issued to it unless the majority of the members of the board of directors and all of its officers who are charged with the duty of managing, directing or conducting said business, are citizens of the United States.

Sec. 13. The board is specifically authorized to refuse the issuance of on-sale retail licenses for premises located within the immediate vicinity of churches, hospitals, schools and children's public playgrounds.

Sec. 14. No retail license shall be issued to any applicant for any premises for which a license has been forfeited, or revoked, during the three months immediately preceding the filing of such application.

Sec. 15. No retail license shall be issued for any premises which are located in any territory where the exercise of the rights and privileges conferred by the license is contrary to a valid zoning ordinance of any county, city and county or municipality unless such premises had been used in the exercise of such rights and privileges at a time prior to the effective date of any such valid zoning ordinance.

Nothing in this act contained shall be deemed to interfere with the powers of cities, counties, and cities and counties, conferred upon them by Chapter 734, Statutes of 1917, the same being an act of the Legislature entitled, "An act to provide for the establishment within municipalities of districts or zones within which the use of property, height of improvements and requisite open spaces for light and ventilation of such buildings, may be regulated by ordinance."

Sec. 16. No retailer's on-sale license shall be issued to any person to whom or for any premises for which a manufacturer's, importer's, wholesaler's or rectifier's license shall have been issued, and no manufacturer's, importer's, wholesaler's or rectifier's license shall be issued to any person to whom or for any premises for which a retailer's on-sale license is issued.

Sec. 17. No license shall be issued to any applicant for any premises situated more than one mile outside the limits of an incorporated city or town and within four miles of any camp or establishment of men numbering twenty-five or more, engaged upon or in connection with the construction, repair or operation of any work, improvement or utility of a public or quasi public character; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be deemed to apply to the renewal of any licenses for any premises which have been established and licensed under this act or under the State Liquor Control Act, Chapter 658, Statutes of 1933 at least six months prior to the establishment of such camp or establishment of men.

Sec. 18. Retailer's “on-sale beer and wine licenses” or “on-sale distilled spirits licenses” shall be issued only to bona fide hotels, restaurants, cafes, cafeterias, railroad dining or club cars, passenger ships or other public eating places, or bona fide clubs after such clubs have been lawfully operated for not less than one year.

Sec. 19. Fruit brandy manufacturer’s licenses shall be issued only to persons holding a wine manufacturer’s license.

Sec. 20. Industrial alcohol dealers’ licenses shall be issued only to persons to whom, and for premises, for which, either a distilled spirits manufacturer’s importer’s or wholesaler’s license has been issued.

Sec. 21. Before commencing to engage in the sale of any alcoholic beverage at any premises, notice of intention to so commence, must be posted in a conspicuous place at the entrances to such premises. Licenses will not be issued for such premises until such notice has been so posted for fifteen consecutive days immediately prior to the issuance of the licenses. The notice herein specified shall be in such form as the board shall prescribe.

Upon the receipt by the board of an original application for any license, notice thereof shall immediately be given by said board to the sheriffs, chiefs of police and district attorneys of such locality, and to the city clerks and city planning commissions in such locality upon request.

Sec. 22. In the case of any applicant whose license fee varies with the total amount of alcoholic beverages manufactured or sold, the applicant shall at the time of filing application for license, accompany such application with the minimum license fee required, or such larger fee as the applicant shall elect.

The licensee shall report quarterly at such time and in such manner as the board may prescribe, the amount of alcoholic beverages manufactured or sold during the preceding quarter.

If any such report shows that the total amount of alcoholic beverages manufactured or sold during the year exceeds the amount permitted annually by the license fee already paid the board, the licensee shall accompany such report with such additional license fee as shall authorize him to continue to manufacture or sell additional amounts of alcoholic beverages in accordance with the schedule provided in section 5.

Failure to report the amount of alcoholic beverages manufactured or sold as herein required and to pay such additional license fees when due within ten days of the date set by the board, shall be considered a violation of this act, and shall also subject the licensee to an arbitrary assessment of such license due by the board.
Failure to make a final report and payment of any license due at the end of any tax year shall operate to prevent the board from issuance of any license to any delinquent licensee.

Sec. 22. An excise tax is hereby imposed upon all beer and wine sold in this State by a manufacturer or importer on or after July 1, 1935, at the following rates:

(a) On all beer, sixty-two cents for every barrel containing thirty-one gallons, and at a proportionate rate for any other quantity;

(b) On all wine, two cents per wine gallon, and at a proportionate rate for any other quantity;

(c) On champagne, or sparkling wine, whether naturally or artificially carbonated, three cents per pint or fraction thereof.

Beer and wine consumed by employees of manufacturers or importers upon the premises of such manufacturers and importers shall be exempt from tax under such rules and regulations as the board may prescribe.

It shall be presumed, for the purposes of this act, that all beer and wine produced, brewed, fermented, or manufactured in this State by a manufacturer, or delivered to a manufacturer or importer here, has been sold by such manufacturer or importer unless proven to the satisfaction of the board that such beverages are still in the possession of such manufacturer or importer, or, prior to the termination of such possession, have been lost through evaporation, leakage, spillage or destruction by the elements.

Sec. 24. An excise tax is hereby imposed upon all distilled spirits sold in this State on and after July 1, 1935, at the following rates:

On all distilled spirits of proof strength or less, two cents on each bottle containing two ounces or fraction thereof; five cents on each bottle containing eight ounces or fraction thereof greater than two ounces; ten cents on each bottle containing one pint; or fraction thereof greater than a half pint; sixteen cents on each bottle containing one-fifth gallon or fraction thereof greater than one pint; twenty cents on each bottle containing one quart or fraction thereof greater than one-fifth gallon; forty cents on each bottle containing one-half gallon or fraction thereof greater than one quart; eighty cents on each bottle containing one gallon or fraction thereof greater than one-half gallon.

All distilled spirits in excess of proof strength shall be taxed at double the above rate.

Sec. 25. Every person who engages in business as, or becomes a manufacturer or importer of beer or wine, as defined in this act, shall be required by the board to file with said board a bond duly executed by such person as principal and a corporation such as is mentioned in section 1036 of the Code of Civil Procedure in this State, as surety, payable to the people of the State of California, conditioned upon the payment of all excise taxes and penalties assessed against or imposed upon such person, arising out of this act.
The bond shall contain the provisions and be in the form of bond substantially as follows:

"Know all men by these presents:

That we, ______, as principal, and ______ a corporation, duly organized and doing business under and by virtue of the laws of ______, and duly licensed for the purpose of making, guaranteeing or becoming sole surety upon bonds or undertakings required or authorized by the laws of the State of California, as surety, are held and firmly bound unto the people of the State of California in the sum of ______ dollars ($_______), lawful money of the United States of America, for the payment whereof well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, successors and assigns, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

The condition of the foregoing obligation is such that,

Whereas, the above bounden principal has made application to the State Board of Equalization of the State of California for a license authorizing said principal to engage in business as a manufacturer or importer of beer or wine within the meaning of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act and amendments thereto, and

Whereas, under the terms of said act a bond is required of said principal and good and sufficient surety, payable to the people of the State of California, conditioned upon the payment to the State of California of all of the excise taxes and penalties assessed against or imposed upon said principal arising out of said act.

Now therefore, if the above bounden principal shall pay all excise taxes and penalties assessed against or imposed upon said principal arising out of said act, or if the board, within thirty days after any default by said principal in the payment of any such tax or penalty shall fail to notify the surety thereof, personally or by mail, then this obligation shall be null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

That said bond shall remain in force and effect until the surety or sureties are released from liability by said board or until said bond is canceled by said surety or sureties as hereinafter provided.

The surety herein reserves the right to withdraw as such surety, except as to any liability already incurred or accrued hereunder, and may do so upon giving written notice of such withdrawal to the State Board of Equalization; provided, however, that no withdrawal shall be effective for any purpose until thirty days shall have elapsed from and after receipt of such notice by said board; and further provided, that no withdrawal shall in anywise affect the liability of said surety arising out of any sale of beverage made by the principal herein prior to the expiration of such period of thirty days, regardless of whether or not the excise tax based upon such sale shall have been due prior to the expiration of such period.

The total amount of the bond or bonds required of any such manufacturer or importer shall be fixed by the board and may be increased or reduced by said board at any time subject to the limitations herein provided. In fixing the total amount of the bond or bonds required of any such manufacturer or importer, the board must require a bond or bonds equivalent in total amount to one and one-half times his estimated monthly excise tax determined in such manner as said board may deem proper; provided, that the total amount of the bond or bonds required of any such manufacturer or importer shall never be less than five hundred dollars.

Sec. 26. Every manufacturer or importer of alcoholic beverages taxable under this act shall render to the board on or before the tenth day of August, 1935, and on or before the tenth day of each month thereafter, a verified statement of the quantity of such alcoholic beverage sold by such manufacturer or importer during the preceding calendar month. Such statement shall be in such form as the board may prescribe, together with such other information as the board may require.

If any manufacturer or importer shall fail, neglect or refuse to file said report, within the time prescribed for filing such report, the board must note such failure, neglect or refusal upon the tax roll hereinafter described, and must estimate the amount of alcoholic beverage sold by said manufacturer or importer assessing the excise tax thereon, adding to said excise tax a penalty of fifteen per cent thereof for failure, neglect, or refusal to report. Such action of the board shall be final, and subject only to review by a court of competent jurisdiction.

The board shall, on or before the twenty-second day of August, 1935, and on or before the twenty-second day of each calendar month thereafter, assess the excise tax due hereunder, and prepare and complete an assessment roll showing the amount of the excise tax assessed against each manufacturer and importer and immediately deliver said assessment roll to the State Controller.

Excise taxes herein required to be paid by the manufacturer or importer shall be payable in monthly installments to the State Controller for the month ending July 31, 1935, and for each and every calendar month thereafter. The amount of such excise tax for each month shall be paid on or before the tenth day of the second calendar month thereafter, and if not paid prior thereto, shall become delinquent at five o'clock in the afternoon of said day, and ten per cent penalty shall be added thereto for delinquency.
SEC. 27. The board may examine the books and records of any person required to make said statement, and may also examine the books and records of any licensee as herein defined, and such books and records shall at all times be subject to the inspection of said board or its representatives during regular business hours.

If any examinations or investigations made by the board shall disclose that any reports of manufacturers or importers theretofore filed with said board by said manufacturers or importers pursuant to the requirements of this act, have shown incorrectly the amount of alcoholic beverage sold or the excise tax accruing thereon, said board shall have the power and is hereby authorized, to make such changes in subsequent assessments of said manufacturers or importers under this act as it may deem necessary to correct the errors disclosed by its examination of the records of said manufacturers or importers or its investigations in pursuance of its powers hereunder.

SEC. 28. Any person refusing to permit the board or any of its representatives to make the inspection for which provision is made in the preceding section or failing to keep books of account as may be prescribed by the board or failing to preserve such books for the inspection of the board for such time as the board may deem necessary, and any person altering, canceling or obliterating entries in such books of account for the purpose of falsifying the records of sales of alcoholic beverages made under this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than one month nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 29. No excise tax shall be imposed by this act in any transaction whereby any alcoholic beverages are sold and delivered by a manufacturer or importer to another manufacturer or importer holding a valid manufacturer's or importer's license.

In order to obtain the exemption granted under this section, the manufacturer or importer selling alcoholic beverages must present to the board at the time of filing his monthly report required under section 26, a verified statement, in a form to be prescribed by the board, obtained from the purchaser showing the date, kind and quantity of alcoholic beverage sold and delivered to the purchaser, that the purchaser holds at the time of such purchase, a manufacturer's or importer's license, the number of such license, and such other information as the board may require. A copy of this statement must at all times be kept on file at the place of business of the manufacturer or importer desiring to obtain the exemption herein granted.

SEC. 30. None of the provisions of this act shall apply, or be construed to apply, to commerce with foreign Nations or commerce with the several States, except in so far as the same may be permitted under the provisions of the Constitution and laws of the United States nor shall the excise tax imposed by section 23, of this act apply to alcoholic beverages sold and actually exported from this State by a licensed manufacturer or importer, or by a subsidiary of a licensed manufacturer or importer, but every manufacturer and importer shall be required to report such exports to the board in such detail as the board may require, otherwise the exemption herein granted shall be null and void and such alcoholic beverage shall be considered sold in this State subject fully to the provisions of this act.

In support of any exemption from excise taxes claimed under this section on account of the exportation of alcoholic beverage every manufacturer must execute an export certificate in such form as shall be prescribed, prepared and furnished by the board containing a sworn statement made by some person having knowledge of the fact of such exportation that the alcoholic beverage has been exported from this State, and giving such detail with reference to shipment as said board may require. All exportation certificates must be completed and on file in the office of the board within thirty days after the close of the calendar month in which the shipments were made and no certificate not completed and filed within such period shall be recognized for any purpose by the State or any agency thereof. The board may demand of any manufacturer or importer such additional data as is deemed necessary by said board in support of any such certificate and failure to supply such data will constitute waiver of all right to exemption claimed by virtue of said certificate.

Sec. 31. In any case in which any tax, interest or penalty imposed under this act is not paid when due the Controller shall notify the board and may file in the office of the county clerk of Sacramento County or any other county a certificate specifying the amount of the tax, interest and penalty due, the name and last known address of the manufacturer or importer liable for the same, that the board has complied with all the provisions of this act, in relation to the computation and levy of the tax and a request that judgment be entered against the manufacturer or importer in the amount of the tax, interest and penalty set forth in the certificate. The county clerk immediately upon the filing of such certificate shall enter a judgment for the people of the State of California against the manufacturer or importer in the amount of the tax, interest and penalty set forth in the certificate. The judgment may be filed by the county clerk in a loose-leaf book entitled "Special Judgments for State Excise Tax."

An abstract of such judgment or a copy thereof may be recorded with the county recorder of any county and from the time of such recording, the amount of the taxes, interest and penalty therein set forth shall constitute a lien upon all the real property of the manufacturer or importer in such county, owned by him or which he may afterwards and before the lien expires acquire, which lien shall have the force, effect and priority of a judgment lien. Execution shall issue upon such a judgment upon the request of the Controller in the same manner as execution may issue upon other judgment and sales shall be held under such execution as prescribed in the Code of Civil Procedure. In all proceedings under this section the Controller shall be authorized to act on behalf of the people of the State of California.

In the event that any manufacturer or importer is delinquent in the payment of the excise tax herein provided for, the Controller shall notify the board forthwith and may give notice of the amount of such delinquency by registered mail to all persons having in their possession or under their control, any credits or other personal property belonging to such manuufacturer or importer, or owing any debts to such manufacturer or importer, at the time of receipt by them of such notice, and thereafter any person so notified shall neither transfer nor make other disposition of such credits, other personal property or debts until the Controller shall have consented to a transfer or disposition, or until twenty days shall have elapsed from and after the receipt of such notice. All persons so notified must, within five days after receipt of such notice, advise the Controller of any and all such credits, other personal property or debts, in their possession under their control or owing by them, as the case may be.

Whenever any manufacturer or importer shall be delinquent
in the payment of the excise tax herein provided for, the Controller or his duly authorized representative may proceed forthwith to collect the excise tax due from such manufacturer or importer in the following manner: The Controller shall seize any property, real or personal, of the taxpayer, and thereafter sell at public auction such property so seized, or a sufficient portion thereof, to pay the excise tax due hereunder, together with any penalty or penalties imposed hereby for such delinquency, and any and all costs that may have been incurred on account of such seizure and sale. Notice of such intended sale and the time and place thereof, shall be given to such delinquent manufacturer or importer and to all persons appearing of record to have an interest in such property, in writing at least ten days before the date set for such sale by inclosing such notice in an envelope addressed to said manufacturer or importer at his last known residence or place of business in this State if any, and, depositing same in the United States registered mail, postage prepaid, and by publication for at least ten days before the date set for such sale in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county or city and county in which the property seized is to be sold; provided, however, that if there be no newspaper of general circulation in such county or city and county, then by the posting of such notice in three public places in such county or city and county for said ten days period. The said notice shall contain a description of the property to be sold, together with a statement of the amount of the excise taxes, penalties and costs, the name of the manufacturer or importer and the further statement that, unless such excise taxes penalties and costs are paid on or before the time fixed in said notice for such sale, said property, or so much thereof as may be necessary, will be sold in accordance with law and said notice.

At any such sale, the property shall be sold by the Controller or by his duly authorized agent in accordance with law and said notice, and the Controller shall deliver to the purchaser a bill of sale for the personal property, and a deed for any real property so sold, and such bill of sale or deed shall vest title in the purchaser subject to a right of redemption as prescribed in the Code of Civil Procedure upon sales of real estate on execution. The unsold portion of any property so seized may be left at the place of sale at the risk of the manufacturer or importer. If, upon any such sale, the moneys so received shall exceed the amount of all license taxes, penalties and costs due the State from such manufacturer or importer, any such excess shall be returned to the manufacturer or importer, and his receipt therefor obtained; provided, however, that if any person having an interest in or lien upon the property has filed with the Controller prior to any such sale notice of such interest said Controller shall withhold any such excess pending a determination of the rights of the respective parties thereto by a court of competent jurisdiction. If, for any reason, the receipt of such manufacturer or importer shall not be available, the Controller shall deposit such excess moneys with the State Treasurer, as trustee for such owner, subject to the order of such manufacturer or importer, his heirs, successors or assigns.

The Controller must also immediately transmit notice of such delinquency to the Attorney General who shall at once proceed to collect all sums due to the State from any such manufacturer or importer hereunder by bringing suit against the necessary parties to effect forfeiture of the bond or bonds of the manufacturer or importer, reducing any deficiency to judgment against the manufacturer or importer.

It is expressly provided that the foregoing remedies of the State shall be cumulative and that no action taken by the board, Controller or Attorney General shall be or be construed to be an election on the part of the State or any of its officers to pursue any remedy hereunder to the exclusion of any other remedy for which provision is made in this act.

In any suit brought to enforce the rights of the State hereunder the assessment roll prepared by the board pursuant to section 26 of this act, or a copy of so much thereof as is applicable in such suit, duly certified by the Controller showing unpaid excise taxes assessed against any manufacturer or importer, shall be prima facie evidence of the assessment of the excise tax, the delinquency thereof, the amount of the excise tax, penalties and costs due and unpaid to the State, that the manufacturer or importer is indebted to the people of the State of California in the amount of such excise tax and penalties therein appearing unpaid and that all the forms of law in relation to the assessment and levy of such excise tax have been fully complied with by all persons required to perform administrative duties under this act.

Sec. 32. Any action to recover any excise tax levied pursuant to this act and paid under protest must be instituted within sixty days after the payment of such excise tax, and failure to bring suit within said sixty days shall constitute waiver of any and all demands against this State on account of alleged overpayment of excise taxes hereunder. No grounds of illegality of the excise tax shall be considered by the court other than those set forth in the protest filed at the time of the payment of the excise tax.

If in any such action judgment is rendered for the plaintiff, the amount of the judgment shall first be credited on any excise taxes due from the plaintiff under this act, and the balance of the amount of the judgment shall be refunded to the plaintiff. In any such judgment, interest shall be allowed at the rate of six per cent per annum upon the amount of excise tax found to have been illegally collected from the date of payment of such excise tax to the date of allowance of credit on account of such judgment or to a date preceding the date of the refund warrant by not more than thirty days, such date to be determined by the Controller.

In no case shall any judgment be rendered in favor of the plaintiff in any action brought against the State Treasurer to recover any excise tax paid hereunder, when such action is brought by or in the name of an assignee of the manufacturer or importer paying said excise tax, or by any person, other than the person who has paid such excise tax.

Sec. 33. The tax imposed by section 24 of this act upon the sale of distilled spirits shall be collected by means of attaching to each package containing such distilled spirits a stamp or stamps of a denomination equivalent to the amount of excise tax imposed upon the sale of the contents of such package. Such stamps shall be attached by the holders of on- or off-sale distilled spirits licenses issued under this act and by the holders of on-sale licenses for liquor other than beer and wine issued under the State Liquor Control Act, immediately upon opening the original cases in which the distilled spirits were packed and in which such distilled spirits were purchased from the manufacturer, rectifier, importer or wholesaler. In the case of distilled spirits not in original cases at the time of purchase the stamps shall be attached immediately upon bringing such distilled spirits upon the premises for which such on- or off-sale licenses are issued.

Such stamps shall be sold by the board only to persons holding valid distilled spirits manufacturer’s licenses, rectifier’s licenses, distilled spirits and wine importer’s licenses or distilled spirits wholesaler’s licenses issued under this act or the State Liquor Control Act; provided, that until July 1, 1935, the board shall sell a sufficient number of such stamps, to stamp stocks of distilled spirits on hand, to persons holding valid on-or off-sale licenses for liquor other than beer and wine issued under the State Liquor Control Act: provided further, that the board may thereafter, in its discretion, sell such stamps to such holders of on- or off-sale distilled spirits licenses as it may determine.

On and after July 1, 1935, all distilled spirits delivered by any manufacturer, rectifier, importer or wholesaler of distilled spirits to any person holding an on- or off-sale distilled spirits license issued under this act or an on-sale license for liquor other than beer and wine issued under the State Liquor Control Act, must be accompanied by a sufficient number of stamps purchased from the board, to stamp the packages containing such distilled spirits. Every manufacturer, rectifier, importer or wholesaler of distilled spirits who delivers distilled spirits in violation of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Such stamps shall be of such size, type, and character as the board shall determine; provided, that all such stamps must be of a character, design, and process which will give the State the maximum amount of protection against counterfeiting.
The board shall have full charge and control of the issuance, securing, or purchase and of the sale of all such stamps and shall keep a record of all stamps sold.

At the time such stamps are attached to the packages of distilled spirits, they shall immediately be canceled by indelibly writing or stamping thereon the number of the licensee attaching the stamp and the date of cancellation.

Sec. 34. Or and after July 1, 1935, it shall be unlawful for any person holding an on- or off-sale distilled spirits license issued under this act, or an on-sale license for liquor other than beer or wine issued under the State Liquor Control Act to have upon the premises for which any such license is issued any distilled spirits unless the stamps required by this act to be attached to the packages of such distilled spirits are so attached to said packages and canceled as herein required or unless such distilled spirits are still in the original cases in which such distilled spirits were purchased from the manuufacturer, rectifier, importer or wholesaler, and such cases have not been opened since delivery to the premises for which such on- or off-sale licenses are issued.

On and after July 1, 1935, it shall be unlawful for any person holding an off-sale distilled spirits license issued under the act to sell under such license any distilled spirits unless the stamps required by this act to be attached to the packages of such distilled spirits are so attached to said packages, and canceled as herein required.

On and after July 1, 1935, it shall be unlawful for any person holding an on-sale distilled spirits license issued under this act or an on-sale license for liquor other than beer and wine issued under the State Liquor Control Act to serve or remove any distilled spirits from any packages at the premises for which such licenses are issued unless the stamps required by this act to be attached to the packages are so attached to said packages and canceled as herein required.

On and after July 1, 1935, it shall be unlawful for any person to deliver to any premises, for which an on- or off-sale distilled spirits license is issued under this act or for which an on-sale license for liquor other than beer or wine is issued under the State Liquor Control Act, any distilled spirits unless the containers of such distilled spirits bear a label or labels plainly indicating the quantity and proof strength of the contents of such containers and the name of the manufacturer or distributor thereof.

On and after July 1, 1935, it shall be unlawful for any manufacturer, rectifier, importer or wholesaler of distilled spirits to deliver to any premises for which an on- or off-sale distilled spirits license is issued under this act or an on-sale license for liquor other than beer or wine is issued under the State Liquor Control Act, and it shall be unlawful for any such on- or off-sale licensee to sell at the premises for which any such license is issued distilled spirits in packages containing more than one gallon.

Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

The board may seize and summarily destroy any distilled spirits found upon any premises in violation of this section.

SEC. 35. It shall be unlawful for any person other than the board or its duly authorized agents or the holder of a valid distilled spirits manufacturer’s license, rectifier’s license, distilled spirits and wine importer’s license or distilled spirits wholesaler’s license issued under this act or the State Liquor Control Act to sell or give away any stamps issued by the board pursuant to the provisions of this act unless such stamps are attached to packages of distilled spirits as herein required. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 36. Every person who makes, sells, or uses any false or counterfeit stamp or die for printing or making stamps which is in imitation of or purports to be a lawful stamp, or die of the kind before mentioned in this act, or who procures the same to be done, and every person who shall remove or cause to be removed, from any package of distilled spirits any stamp denoting the tax thereon, with intent to reuse such stamp, or who with intent to defraud the State, knowingly uses, or permits to be used any stamp removed from another package, or receives, buys, sells, gives away, or has in his possession, any stamp so removed, or makes any fraudulent use of any stamp for distilled spirits, shall be guilty of a felony and shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, and imprisoned not less than six months nor more than three years in the State prison.

SEC. 37. All moneys collected as license fees and under the excise tax provisions of this act shall be deposited in the State treasury to the credit of the alcohol beverage control fund, which fund is hereby created. Moneys in said fund are hereby appropriated as follows:

1. Six hundred thousand dollars for expenditure by the board in carrying out the provisions of this act for collecting the excise taxes levied by this act;

2. Twelve thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for expenditure by the Controller in carrying out the provisions of this act requiring the collection of excise taxes;

3. Sixty thousand dollars to be used by the State Department of Public Health for enforcement work directed toward preventing the manufacture, sale or transportation of adulterated, misbranded or mislabeled alcoholic beverages;

4. One million four hundred thousand dollars to pay the salaries and expenses of auditors, inspectors and clerks employed by the board and to defray the necessary expenses arising by reason of the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this act;

5. Ten thousand dollars for expenditure by the State Department of Finance in auditing the revenues and expenditures resulting from the provisions of this act;

6. Fifty per cent of all moneys collected yearly from fees, to be paid to the counties, cities and counties, and cities of this State in the proportion that the amount of the fees collected in the particular county, city and county, or city bears to the total amount so collected throughout the State, and the State Controller shall, on or before March 31 of the year following that in which such moneys were collected, draw his warrants upon said fund in favor of the treasurer of each county, city and county, and city for the amount to which each is entitled hereunder;

7. The expenditures authorized by subdivisions 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 of this section shall be made exclusively from the remaining fifty per cent of moneys collected from fees and no part thereof from the fifty per cent of fees payable to counties, cities and counties, and cities under the provisions of subdivision 5 of this section.

8. Such amount as is necessary for the allowance of the refunds provided for in this act;

9. Any remaining balance to be transferred to the general fund on the order of the Controller approved by the board.

The moneys to be used by the State Department of Public Health for enforcement work shall be expended as provided in "An act preventing the manufacture, sale or transportation of adulterated, mislabeled or misbranded food, liquor and drugs, and making an appropriation," approved March 11, 1907. The Director of Public Health shall communicate to the State Board of Equalization any findings which indicate that such act has been violated by any holder of a license under this act.
Sec. 38. The board shall administer all of the provisions of this act and to that end shall prescribe all necessary rules and regulations to carry out such provisions. The board shall have the power to require any report from any licensee, or transportation companies, and to make any examination of the books and records of any licensee it may deem necessary to perform its duties under this act, and for the performance of its duties shall have all the powers conferred upon it by section 3692 of the Political Code.

The members of the board and the persons employed by the board for the enforcement of the provisions of this act shall have the power to administer and certify oaths, and shall have all the powers of peace officers in administering the provisions of this act.

The board and persons employed by it for the enforcement of this act shall at all times have the right to visit and inspect any portion of any premises for which licenses are issued under this act or under the State Liquor Control Act.

Sec. 39. A written report of a member of the board or of an employee of the board engaged in the enforcement of this act disclosing that an applicant for a license or the premises for which a license is applied are not qualified for a license under this act shall constitute grounds for the denial of an application for a license.

Immediately upon the denial of any application for a license the board shall notify the applicant thereof in writing. Within ten days after mailing the notice the applicant may present his written petition for a license to the board.

Upon receipt by the board of a petition for a license in proper form it shall be referred to a representative of the board for hearing.

Protests may be made to the board at any time prior to the issuance of a license against either the original issuance of a license or the renewal of a license.

Protests must be in writing and filed in the main office of the board at Sacramento, and must state one or more grounds which would authorize the board, to deny or refuse the issuance of the license. The original copy of the protest must be verified unless made by public officers acting in their official capacity.

Upon receipt by the board of a protest in proper form it shall be referred to a representative of the board for hearing.

If a license has been issued to the applicant before receipt of the protest by the board, the protest shall be considered as a complaint against the licensee and a hearing had thereon as if a complaint had been filed.

Sec. 40. Complaints may be made to the board by any person against any licensee. Complaints must be in writing and must state one or more grounds which would authorize the board to suspend or revoke the license or licenses of the licensee against whom the complaint is made.
A written report of a member of the board or of an employee of the board engaged in the enforcement of this act, or of a public officer dealing with grounds for the suspension or revocation of the license or licenses of any licensee shall be deemed a complaint against the licensee within the meaning of this act, even though not in the form of a complaint.

The original copy of complaints must be verified unless made by public officers acting in their official capacity or by employees of the board engaged in the enforcement of this act.

The following are the grounds which constitute a basis for the suspension or the revocation of licenses:

(a) The violation or the causing or the permitting of a violation of this act or of the rules and regulations of the board by any licensee.

(b) The misrepresentation of a material fact by any applicant in obtaining any license hereunder.

Sec. 41. Upon receipt by a representative of the board of a protest, a complaint or a petition for a license, the representative shall forthwith cause written notice of the time and place of the hearing of said protest, complaint or petition for a license to be given to the protesting or complaining party as well as the applicant, licensee or petitioner. The hearing shall be set for a date not more than fifteen days nor less than five days subsequent to the mailing of the notice and shall be held in the county seat of the county in which the premises of the applicant or licensee are located.

Enclosed with a copy of the notice of the time and place of hearing sent to the applicant or licensee shall be a copy of the protest or complaint as filed with the board.

The failure of an applicant for a license or a licensee to appear before the representative of the board at the time set for the hearing, except for the intervention of an act of God, shall be deemed an admission by him of the facts or acts charged in the protest or complaint and thereupon the representative of the board shall have the power to act as if the facts charged in the protest or complaint were found to be true.

The board or any member thereof or any representative appointed by the board to conduct hearings shall have the power to administer oaths, certify to all official acts, and to issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers, books, accounts, documents and testimony in any inquiry, investigation, hearing or proceeding in any part of the State.

Each witness who shall appear, by order of the board or member thereof or a representative appointed by it, shall be entitled to receive, if demanded, for each attendance the same fees and mileage allowed by law to witnesses in civil cases in the superior court, which amount shall be paid by the party at whose request such witness is subpoenaed, unless otherwise ordered by the board or the representative. When any witness who has not been required to attend at the request of any party is subpoenaed by the board, or a member thereof or a representative of the board, his fees and mileage may be paid from the funds appropriated for the use of the board in the administration of this act in the same manner as other expenses of the board are paid in the administration of this act.

The superior court in and for the county, or city and county in which any inquiry, investigation, hearing or proceeding may be held by the board or a representative appointed by it shall have the power to compel the attendance of witnesses, the giving of testimony and the production of papers, including books, accounts and documents as required by any subpoena issued by the board or any member thereof or a representative appointed by the board.

The board or any representative appointed by it, before whom the testimony is to be given or produced, in case of the refusal of any witness to attend or testify or produce any papers required by such subpoena, may report to the superior court, in and for the county, or city and county, in which the proceeding or hearing is pending, by petition, setting forth that due notice has been given of the time and place of attendance of said witness, or the production of said papers, and that the witness had been subpoenaed in the manner prescribed in this act, and that the witness has failed and refused to attend or produce the papers required by the subpoena, or has refused to answer questions propounded to him in the course of such proceeding or hearing, and ask an order of said court, compelling the witness to attend or testify or produce said papers before the board or representative. The court, upon the petition of the board or any member thereof or a representative appointed by the board, shall enter an order directing the witness to appear before the court at a time and place to be fixed by the court in such order, the time to be not more than ten days from the date of the order, and then and there show cause why he did not attend and testify or produce said papers before the board or representative of the board. A copy of said order shall be personally served upon said witness, and service shall not be made by registered mail as otherwise provided in this act.

If it shall appear to the court that said subpoena was regularly issued by the board or member thereof or a representative of the board and the witness was legally bound to comply therewith, the court shall thereupon enter an order that said witness shall appear before the board or representative at a time and place to be fixed in such order, and testify or produce the required papers, and upon failing to obey such order said witness shall be dealt with as for contempt of court.

Sec. 42. All hearings and investigations before the board or any representative appointed thereby shall be governed by this act and other applicable provisions of law not inconsistent herewith and in the conduct of said hearings neither the board nor any representative appointed by it shall be bound by the common law or statutory rules of evidence and procedure, but may make inquiry in such manner through oral testimony.
and printed records as is best calculated to extend the substantial rights of the parties and carry out jointly the spirit and provisions of this act.

Depositions.

The board, or any member of the board or any representative appointed by it, or any party to the action or proceeding may, in any investigation or hearing before the board or a representative thereof cause the deposition of witnesses residing within or without the State to be taken in the manner prescribed by law for like depositions in civil actions in the superior court of this State and to that end may compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, documents, papers and accounts; provided that depositions taken outside of the State may be taken before any officer authorized to administer oaths.

Findings at hearing.

Sec. 43. Within ten days after the hearing the representative of the board shall certify to the board his findings of ultimate fact whether the protest, complaint or petition is true or not, and in the case of hearings on complaints the representative may make recommendations in respect to the suspending or revoking of licenses. The findings and recommendations of the representative shall not be open to public inspection, either to the applicant, licensee, protestant, complainant or any other person.

Decision of board.

Sec. 44. After the findings of the representative of the board are filed, the board shall make its decision upon the petition for a license, protest or complaint, and shall notify the petitioner, protestant, complainant, and licensee thereof. Within ten days after the mailing of the notice, the petitioner, protestant, complainant or licensee may petition the board for a reconsideration of the cause. Such petitions shall be verified unless filed by a public officer acting in his official capacity.

Reconsideration.

Sec. 45. Within thirty days after receipt by the board of a petition for reconsideration the board shall itself rehear the entire matter de novo and shall thereupon and within said thirty days either affirm, modify or set aside its original order.

Review by courts.

Sec. 46. The action of the board upon a petition for a license, a protest, complaint, or a petition for reconsideration shall be subject to review by any court of competent jurisdiction.

Relief by courts.

Sec. 47. The filing of a petition for reconsideration with the board shall not be a bar to any application to the courts for relief and shall not prevent a court from reviewing or setting aside the action of the board upon a petition for a license, protest or complaint.

Service of notices.

Sec. 48. Service of the notices required by this act may be made personally or by mail; if by mail service shall be made in the manner prescribed by section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Transportation of alcoholic beverages into State.

Sec. 49. Common or private carriers shall transport alcoholic beverages into the State only when such alcoholic beverages are to be consigned to a licensed importer. The carrier must obtain the receipt of such importer for the alcoholic beverage so transported and delivered and, if the consignee refuses to give a receipt and show his importer's license to the carrier, the carrier shall be relieved of all responsibility for delivering said alcoholic beverage. Where the consignee is not a licensed importer the carrier shall immediately notify the board at Sacramento, giving full details as to the character of shipment, point of origin, destination, and address of the consignor and consignee and within ten days such alcoholic beverage shall be summarily forfeited to the State of California and shall be turned over to the board for sale at public auction.

Every person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 50. Postal authorities may refuse delivery of any shipment of alcoholic beverage originating outside of this State. Postal authorities may turn such alcoholic beverage over to the board. The beverage when received shall be summarily forfeited to the State, to be sold at public auction by the board. Every person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 51. It shall be unlawful for any licensee to have upon any premises for which licenses have been issued to such licensee any alcoholic beverages other than the alcoholic beverages which such licensee is authorized to sell at such premises under the license or licenses issued therefor.

It shall be presumed that all alcoholic beverages found or located upon premises for which licenses have been issued belong to the person or persons to whom such licenses were issued.

Every person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. The board or its representatives may either seize and summarily destroy or may seize and sell at public auction any alcoholic beverages found upon any premises in violation of this section.

The board shall also have the power to seize and summarily destroy or sell at public auction the following alcoholic beverages:

1. Alcoholic beverages manufactured in this State by any person other than a licensed manufacturer, regardless of where found;
2. Beer and wine upon the sale of which the excise tax imposed by this act has not been paid, regardless of where found;
3. Distilled spirits except (a) distilled spirits located upon premises for which licenses authorizing the sale of such distilled spirits have been issued; (b) distilled spirits consigned to and in the course of transportation to a licensee holding licenses authorizing the sale of such distilled spirits; (c) distilled spirits the containers of which bear the stamps herein required to be attached thereto; (d) distilled spirits in United States government bonded warehouses.

Sec. 52. Every person who sells, serves or otherwise disposes of any alcoholic beverage, except beer which may be so sold, served, or disposed of, over or at any public bar or in any public bar room, for consumption on the premises, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 53. Any person who fails, neglects or refuses to file any report required to be filed by this act within ten days after the report is required to be filed, or who makes any false statement or conceals any material fact in any application for a license or in any record, report, affidavit or claim provided for herein, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor unless such act is by any other law of this State declared to be a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars or more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than one month, nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 54. No manufacturer, rectifier, distiller, bottler, importer or wholesaler or any officer, director or agent of any such person shall
(a) Hold the ownership, directly or indirectly, of any interest in any “on-sale” license;
(b) Furnish, give or lend any money or other thing of value, directly or indirectly, to nor guarantee the repayment of any loan or the fulfillment of any financial obligation of, any person engaged in operating, owning or maintaining any “on-sale” premises where alcoholic beverages are sold for consumption on such premises;
(c) Furnish, give, rent, lend or sell, directly or indirectly, any equipment, fixtures or supplies, other than alcoholic beverage directly or indirectly to any person engaged in operating, owning or maintaining any “on-sale” premises where alcoholic beverages are sold for consumption on such premises, provided that this subdivision shall apply only to manufacturers, bottlers, importers or wholesalers of products of the brewing industry;
(d) Furnish, give, lend or rent directly or indirectly to any person any decorations, paintings or signs other than signs for interior use of not to exceed in area six hundred thirty square inches for use in or about or in connection with any premises where alcoholic beverages are sold for consumption on such premises, or pay money or any thing of value for the privilege of placing or painting a sign or advertisement, or window display on or in any premises selling alcoholic beverages at retail;
(e) Own any interest, directly or indirectly, in the business, furniture, fixtures, signs, except signs for interior use mentioned in subdivision (d) therein, refrigeration equipment or lease in or of any premises operated or maintained under any “on-sale” license for the sale of alcoholic beverages for consumption on the premises where sold; or own any interest directly or indirectly, in realty hereafter acquired upon which such “on-sale” premises are maintained unless the holding of such interest is permitted in accordance with regulations of the board.

Any person violating any provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and any holder of any retail “on-sale” or retail “off-sale” license who shall solicit the violation of the provisions of this section or accept or permit to be accepted on his behalf and with his consent any of the prohibited matters, articles or acts herein designated shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to any equipment, fixtures or supplies furnished, given, lent or sold prior to the passage of this act so long as such equipment, fixtures or supplies remain in the premises in which installed prior to such time, nor shall the provisions of this act apply to carbonic acid gas or tapping accessories if sold at the reasonable open market value and the aggregate cost of tapping accessories furnished to any one person does not exceed $5.00 in any one calendar year.

SEC. 55. No sign or signs, which in whole or in part advertise any alcoholic beverage, and exceed in area seven hundred twenty square inches and no sign using the words “bar,” “barroom,” “saloon,” “cocktail bar” or “lounge,” or words of like or similar import, shall be maintained, erected, used or placed upon or adjacent to the outside of any building and in connection with any premises therein licensed to sell alcoholic beverages at retail for consumption on such premises.

Signs or other advertising matter used in connection with the licensed premises of any retailer of alcoholic beverages shall not be of any obnoxious, gaudy, blatant or offensive nature and shall in no manner contrary to the rules or regulations of said board obstruct the view of the interior of the premises from the street.

Each and every holder of an “on-sale” retail license who shall give, sell or otherwise dispense any draught beer, shall, upon the faucet, spigot or outlet where from such beer is drawn, attach and keep posted a clear and legible notice, placard or marker which shall in the English language indicate and declare the name or brand adopted by the manufacturer of such draught beer so given, sold or dispensed by such licensee, and which notice, placard or marker shall be so situated as to be clearly legible for a distance of at least ten (10) feet from such spigot, faucet or outlet to a person with normal vision, and such notice, sign or placard shall at all times be so situated as to be so clearly legible from the place where such “on-sale” licensee serves any customer or consumer of such beer, and provided further that if such faucet, spigot or other drawing device is in a location not within the room of the place of service and consumption of such beer, then, and in that event there shall also be kept posted a similar notice, placard or marker in the place of service and consumption of such beer which shall truthfully state and indicate only the kinds and brands of draught beer actually on sale in the premises of the "on-sale" licensee.

Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section, or who shall substitute another or different brand of draught beer from that indicated by any of the notices, placards or markers hereinabove provided for; or who shall substitute one brand of beer for another, or misrepresent the brand or kind of beer served to a consumer, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor for such violation or noncompliance. Any person who sells or otherwise disposes of, except for export, any draught beer containing more than three and two-tenths per cent of alcohol by weight and any person who sells or otherwise disposes of, except for export, any bottled beer containing more than four per cent of alcohol by weight, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, provided, that this limitation shall not apply to the sale of ale, porter, brown and stout in bottles bearing labels properly describing the contents under any licenses, other than on sale beer licenses, issued under this act or the State Liquor Control Act.

Sec. 56. Every person who employs or uses the services of minors in or on that portion of any premises which are used for the sale and service of alcoholic beverages for consumption on the premises shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 57. It shall be unlawful for any person to pay or agree to pay any hostess, waitress, entertainer or other person a percentage of the receipts from sales of alcoholic beverages solicited or made by such hostess, waitress, entertainer or other person a salary or remuneration the amount of which is in any way dependent upon the amount or number of sales of alcoholic beverages solicited or made by such hostess, waitress, entertainer or other person. Provided, that this section shall not prohibit the holders of manufacturer's, rectifier's or wholesaler's licenses from employing and paying salesmen engaged in selling or soliciting sales for alcoholic beverages on a commission basis.

Every person who violates the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 58. Every person who keeps or permits to be used or suffers to be used any disorderly house or place in which people abide or to which people resort, to the disturbance of the neighborhood, or in which people abide or to which people resort for purposes which are injurious to the public morals, health, convenience or safety shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 59. Every on- or off-sale licensee who sells, gives away or furnishes any alcoholic beverage in any election district or precinct in any county in the State where an election is in progress, during the hours when by law the polls are required to be kept open for voting shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 60. Except as otherwise provided in this section, no person license to manufacture, import or wholesale any alcoholic beverage shall deliver or cause to be delivered any beer to or for any person holding an on-sale or off-sale license except between the hours of six a.m. and eight p.m. and no such delivery of any alcoholic beverage shall be made or caused to be made by any such licensee on Sunday. Alcoholic beverages may be delivered at the platform of the manufacturing or distributing plant at any time. Every person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 61. Every person who sells, furnishes, gives, or causes to be sold, furnished or given away any alcoholic beverage to any person under the age of twenty-one years shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; provided, that this section shall not apply to the parents or guardians of such persons under twenty-one years of age.

Sec. 62. Every person who sells, furnishes, gives or causes to be sold, furnished or given away, any alcoholic beverage to any habitual or common drunkard shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 63. Every person, not authorized by law, who brings into any State prison, town or county jail, or city and county jail, or reformatory in this State or within the grounds belonging to any such institution any alcoholic beverage of any kind whatsoever shall be guilty of a felony.

Sec. 64. Every person who sells, gives or delivers to any other person any alcoholic beverage at any public schoolhouse or upon any portion of the grounds thereof shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person convicted of a violation of this section shall, in addition to the penalty imposed for the misdemeanor, be barred from having or receiving any privilege of the use of public school property which is accorded by Chapter II of Part III of Division VI of the School Code of this State.

Sec. 65. Every person convicted of a misdemeanor for a violation of any of the provisions of this act for which another punishment is not specifically provided for herein, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

All fines and forfeitures imposed for a violation of this act and collected in any court, except police courts, city justices' courts, city courts, and recorders' courts of cities or towns, must be paid to the county treasurer of the county in which the court is held; provided, that all fines and forfeitures collected in any police court, city justice's court, city court, or recorder's court, of any city or town that is maintained and the salaries of the officers thereof paid by the city shall be paid to the city treasurer of the city in which such court is located, excepting, however, all forfeitures collected by the judge of any of said courts when sitting as a committing magistrate.

Sec. 66. Every person convicted of a felony for a violation of any of the provisions of this act for which another punishment is not specifically provided for herein, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the State penitentiary for not less than one year nor more than five years or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 67. It is hereby declared that this act shall not apply to the manufacture, sale or use of completely denatured ethyl alcohol or special denatured ethyl alcohol, as these substances are defined in the various statutes and regulations of the United States government relating thereto.

Nothing in this act shall be deemed to prevent or restrict the use of tax-free ethyl alcohol under regulation of the Treasury Department of the United States government by any governmental agency, State or Federal, or any scientific university or college of learning or any laboratory for use exclusively in scientific research or to any hospital or sanitarium.

Nothing in this act shall be deemed to prevent or restrict the use of tax-free alcohol or of industrial alcohol or other distilled spirits or wine under regulation of the United States government in the manufacture of medicinal pharmaceuticai, or antiseptic products, including prescriptions compounded by retail druggists; of toilet products, of flavoring extracts, sirups, of food products, of scientific, chemical, or industrial products; provided such products are unfit for beverage use.

Sec. 68. The State Liquor Control Act, Chapter 658, Statutes of 1933, and Chapter 178, Statutes of 1933, shall remain in effect until July 1, 1935, after which date said acts shall no longer be of any force and effect; provided, that any taxes imposed pursuant to Chapter 178, Statutes of 1933, prior to said date shall remain fully collectible.

Sec. 69. The following acts and sections, together with all amendments thereof and all acts supplementary thereto, are repealed.

CHAPTER 331.

An act providing for State planning and a State Planning Board, and prescribing the powers, duties and jurisdiction thereof.

[Approved by the Governor June 14, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. There is created as a division of the Department of Finance a State Planning Board to consist of the Director of Finance, the Director of Public Works, and the Director of Natural Resources, all ex officio, and of five citizens to be appointed by the Governor. The members of the board shall receive no compensation other than for their reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. The responsible executive, or representative appointed by the board, of each State department and institution shall constitute an advisory committee to each State Planning Board.

Sec. 2. The term of each appointive member of the board begins January first of the year of appointment and shall be three (3) years, except that of the first five (5) members appointed the Governor shall designate their respective terms as follows: One (1) member for one (1) year; two (2) members for two (2) years and two (2) members for three (3) years. In case of a vacancy in the office of an appointive member, the Governor shall appoint a successor to serve the unexpired term.

Sec. 3. The board shall adopt rules for the transaction of its business and shall keep a record of its official actions, making reports as may be requested to the Governor and the Director of Finance. It shall annually select a chairman from State Planning Board created.

Terms of members.

Vacancies

Rules, records and reports.

Chairman
its appointive members and a secretary who need not be a member of the board.

SEC. 4. The board shall employ a director of planning who shall be qualified by special training, experience and demonstrated ability in the field of planning and may employ subject to the approval of the Director of Finance such other persons as may be necessary for its work.

SEC. 5. The State Planning Board shall have authority to cooperate with any persons or organizations interested, for devising means to develop the natural and economic resources of the State, and it is authorized to accept grants from the Federal or State governments or their agencies, and may accept gifts for the purposes of State planning. The State Planning Board shall encourage the extension and correlation of State planning by agencies of the State government and participate in interstate and National planning efforts, both with a view to benefit to be derived by the larger region or Nation, and by the State.

The State Planning Board shall not exercise any of the powers or duties of any other State department or agency.

CHAPTER 332.

An act to add section 675.5 to the Vehicle Code, relating to glass.

[Approved by the Governor June 14, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

NOTE.—See Stats. 1935, Ch. 27.

CHAPTER 333.

An act authorizing a suit or suits against the State of California to quiet title against it to certain real property in the county of Contra Costa, State of California.

[Approved by the Governor June 14, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Any person or persons owning or claiming any interest in or to that certain real property situate in the county of Contra Costa, State of California, and described in this act, may bring suit against the State of California, in accordance with law, in any court of competent jurisdiction of the State of California, to quiet title to the said property and to prosecute said action to final judgment. If the judgment be given against the State in such suit, no costs shall be recovered against the State.
SEC. 2. Any suit brought under this authorization shall be commenced within one year after this act takes effect. Service of summons in any such suit shall be upon the Governor and Attorney General and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to represent the State in any such suit.

SEC. 3. The real property referred to in section 1 of this act is described as follows:

Parcel 1.

CHAPTER 334.

Stats. 1933. An act to amend sections 1061, 1064, 1065, 1066, 1071 and 1073 of the Agricultural Code, relating to economic poisons.

[Approved by the Governor June 14, 1935. In effect September 16, 1935 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats. 1933. Section 1. Section 1061 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:
1061. As used in this article:

(a) "Economic poisons" includes any substance, or mixture of substances intended to be used for preventing, destroying, repelling, or mitigating any and all insects, fungi, bacteria, weeds, rodents, predatory animals or any other form of plant or animal life which is, or which the director may declare to be, a pest, which may infest or be detrimental to vegetation, man, animals or households, or be present in any environment whatsoever.

(b) "Insect" means any of the animals known as "insecta" and similar animals such as centipedes, spiders, mites, ticks and lice.

(c) "Weed" means any plant which grows where not wanted.

(d) "Rodent" means all members of the order Rodentia and all rabbits and hares.

(e) "Registrant" means a person who has registered an economic poison and has obtained a certificate of registration or license from the department.

Sec. 2. Section 1064 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1064. Economic poison is misbranded when:

(a) The package or label thereon bears any false or misleading statement, design, or device regarding such article or the ingredients or substances contained therein.

(b) The package or label is falsely branded as to the place of manufacture or production.

(c) It is an imitation or offered for sale under the name of another article.

(d) It is labeled or branded so as to deceive or mislead the purchaser.

(e) The contents of the package as originally put up have been removed in whole or in part and other contents placed in such packages.

(f) In package form, and the contents, if stated in terms of weight or measure, are not plainly and correctly stated on the outside of the package.

(g) It consists partially or completely of any inert ingredients which are not effective as economic poisons, and does not have the names and percentage of each such inert ingredient plainly and correctly stated on the label. In lieu of naming and stating the percentage of each such inert ingredient, the producer may state the correct names and percentage of each active ingredient which is effective as economic poisons, and the total percentage of such inert ingredients present, except that the name and percentage of every ingredient of an economic poison intended for use on or sold for application to any food crop in such a way as to leave a residue declared deleterious to health by the United States Food and Drug Administration or by the director, must be plainly stated on the label.
Sec. 3. Section 1065 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1065. The registrant of economic poisons shall attach to every separate lot, and every separate finished, sealed or closed container or package of economic poisons which he intends to sell, within this State, a plainly printed label, stating the name, brand or trademark, if any, under which sold, and the name and address of the registered manufacturer, importer, or vendor.

Sales of economic poisons in any other than the registrant’s sealed or closed container or package are prohibited. The director, in his discretion, in accordance with regulations prescribed by him, may authorize sales of economic poisons to be made out of registrant’s opened but properly labeled lot, container or package. The director shall serve notice of his proposed action, by depositing a copy thereof in a United States post office, enclosed in a sealed envelope with postage prepaid thereon and addressed to each economic poisons registrant at his last address on file with the Division of Chemistry of the department, and allow fifteen days during which any protest may be filed.

Sec. 4. Section 1066 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1066. It is unlawful to sell any adulterated or misbranded economic poison.

Sec. 5. Section 1071 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1071. Every manufacturer of, importer of, or dealer in any economic poison, except dealers or agents selling economic poison which has been registered by the manufacturer or wholesaler thereof, and persons selling raw material to manufacturers of economic poisons, before the same is offered for sale, shall obtain a license from the department. The annual fee is fifty dollars, payable to the director. The payment of such fee shall permit the registrant to manufacture, import, or deal in twenty-five variously labeled economic poisons of varying name or composition, and for each such variety over twenty-five an additional fee of two dollars shall be paid. Persons manufacturing an economic poison intended to be used in households or their immediate environment which does not exceed a total retail value of five hundred dollars per annum shall pay an annual license fee of ten dollars to the director. The payment of such fee shall permit the registrant to manufacture, import, or deal in five variously labeled economic poisons of varying name or composition, and for each such variety over five, an additional fee of two dollars shall be paid. County, State, and Federal officers or employees selling economic poison at cost shall not be required to pay a license fee. Each applicant for a license shall also file a statement of the brands, trade-marks, and kinds of economic poisons intended to be manufactured or sold, the correct name and percentage of each active ingredient.
and the total percentage of inert ingredients contained therein. In lieu of the statement of the correct names and percentages of the active and inert ingredients, there may be delivered to the director a representative sample of not less than one pound of each economic poison desired to be registered. Additions or corrections to the above statement or new samples may be submitted at any time.

When any manufacturer, importer, or dealer in economic poisons has complied with this article and the rules and regulations provided for therein and applies for registration of economic poisons, and for a license, the director shall register each economic poison sought to be registered and issue a license to the applicant authorizing the manufacture and sale of economic poison in the State, or, if necessary, shall call a hearing. All licenses and registrations expire on June thirtieth of each year. If re-registration is not obtained within one calendar month after the expiration of a registration, there shall be added to the fee a penalty of ten per cent (10%), to which shall be added an additional penalty of five per cent (5%) of the original amount due, for each succeeding calendar month, but the total penalty shall not exceed fifty per cent (50%) of the original amount due. No penalty shall be collected if the person re-registered makes an affidavit that no business was done during the period of nonregistration. The payment of such fee or penalty is not a bar to any prosecution for doing business without proper registry.

It shall be unlawful to manufacture, deliver, or sell, any economic poison without a license or which is not registered and described as required by this article.

Sec. 6. Section 1073 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1073. The director may, upon the receipt of a sample of economic poison, accompanied by the required fee, make an analysis, examination or test thereof, and shall inform the sender thereof the results of such analysis, examination or test. The schedule of fees required for analyses, examinations or tests shall be fixed by the director.

CHAPTER 335.

An act to provide for the sale and conveyance of certain swamp and overflowed, salt marsh and tidelands lying in the county of Contra Costa, State of California.

[Approved by the Governor June 14, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. The State Department of Finance is hereby authorized and empowered to sell and dispose of, upon such conditions as to price and terms of sale as the Director of Finance may deem to be most advantageous to the State, all those certain lots, pieces and parcels of swamp and overflowed salt marsh and tidelands, situate, lying and being within the county of Contra Costa, State of California, and more particularly described as follows:

Parcel 1. Beginning at a point, from which a granite monument marked S. P. 621 on the north line of San Pablo Rancho as established in Decree of Partition dated September 1, 1893, bears as follows S.50°-40' W., 190.56 feet to a point; thence S.50°-30' W. 32.81 feet to a point on the north line of the said San Pablo Rancho; thence N.55°-48' W., 1199.88 feet; from said point of beginning running thence N.50°-40' E., 847.65 feet to a station on low tide line of San Pablo Bay; thence running westerly along said low tide line of San Pablo Bay as follows: N.67°-30' W., 2015.79 feet to station; thence N. 65°-45' W., 1155.00 feet to station; thence N.72°-00' W., 409.20 feet to station, and thence S.80°-45' W., 673.20 feet to station; thence, leaving said low tide line and running south, 514.85 feet to station; thence N. 56°-20' E., 435.98 feet to station; thence S.54°-20' E., 378.55 feet to station; thence N.77°-20' E., 510.61 feet to station; thence S.65°-45' E., 367.74 feet to station; thence S.7°-20' E., 653.23 feet to station; thence S.34°-30' E., 345.28 feet to station; thence S.73°-00' E., 414.18 feet to station; thence S.84°-00' E., 679.55 feet to station, thence S.71°-50' E., 469.66 feet to the point of beginning. Containing an area of 57.515 acres.

Sec. 2. The owners of lands abutting upon said parcels shall be preferred purchasers for a period of sixty days following the date upon which the Director of Finance shall give notice by publication in one or more newspapers of general circulation published in said county that he has determined the price and conditions of sale of said parcels of land, such publication to be made for not less than five consecutive days. In the event said parcels of land shall remain unsold at the end of said sixty-day period, the Director of Finance shall thereupon proceed to offer the same for sale, and to sell the same, after giving notice of such sale, at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, in the manner prescribed by section 1274 of the Code of Civil Procedure; provided, that no bid which is less than the sum determined by the Director of Finance to be the value of the parcels for which it is offered shall be accepted. The Director of Finance is hereby authorized to execute on behalf of the State such deed or other conveyance as may be necessary to pass title to the purchaser or purchasers of such parcels, reserving to the State of California all coal, oil, gas and other mineral deposits contained in said lands, as provided by an act of the Legislature approved May 25, 1921 (Chapter 303, Statutes of California, 1921), and subject to the conditions prescribed in section 25 of Article I and Article XV of the Constitution of the State of California and in subordination to the public rights of commerce, navigation, fishing and hunting, in, over and upon all tidelands.

CHAPTER 336.

An act to amend sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, 8 and 14 of "An act to authorize the counties of the State of California to establish systems for the retirement and pension of certain county and township officers and employees, namely county peace officers as defined in the act, and to provide certain benefits for their dependents, and empowering county boards of supervisors to levy a special tax," approved May 5, 1931, relating to the composition of the retirement board; time of meeting; manner of transacting business; the duties of said board and time for annual report; computation of time for retirement privilege; interest rate on contributions and deposits; time for payments; refund of sums in excess of sum necessary for prior service credit, and revising the arrangement of certain portions of said act.

[Approved by the Governor June 14, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. The chairman of the board of supervisors, the treasurer, the sheriff and the auditor of the county or city and county and one other person who shall be in active service as a peace officer and a member of the retirement system and who shall be elected by the members of the peace officers' retirement system, are hereby constituted ex officio the county peace officers' retirement board, which board shall exercise the powers and perform the duties hereinafter prescribed; provided, however, that the provisions of this act shall become effective in any particular county, only upon condition that the provisions of this act are accepted by ordinance passed by four-fifths (4/5) vote of its board of supervisors, in which event the provisions of this act shall become operative in such county on the first day of January, or on the first day of July next following the expiration of three months after the passage of said ordinance.

Sec. 2. Section 2 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. (a) They shall organize as such county peace officers' retirement board by choosing from their number a chairman and treasurer, and thereafter said officers shall be chosen biennially by said board. The members of the said board shall serve without compensation, but they shall be reimbursed out of the funds of the county for any expense or loss of salary or wage which they may have incurred through services on the board and for costs of operation of this retirement system.

(b) Said board shall meet for the transaction of business at least once every three months in each calendar year and shall meet at such other times as said board or a majority thereof may order. Notice of all meetings shall be given by the secretary at least three days in advance thereof.

(c) A majority of said members may transact business in lieu of all of the members.

SEC. 3. Section 3 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 3. In addition to the other powers herein granted, the said board shall be vested with the following powers and duties:

(a) To compel witnesses to attend and testify before it, upon all matters connected with the operation of this act, in the same manner as is or may be provided by law for the taking of testimony before notaries public; and its president, or any member of said board, may administer oaths to such witnesses.

(b) To appoint a secretary, and to provide for the payment from said fund of all its necessary expenses, including secretary hire and printing; provided, that no compensation or emolument shall be paid to any members of said board for any duty required or performed under this act.

(c) To make all needful rules and regulations not inconsistent with this act and such rules and regulations shall become effective when approved by the board of supervisors.

(d) It shall be the duty of said board to report annually in the month of January to the board of supervisors, or other governing authority of the county, or city and county, the condition of the county peace officers’ retirement fund and the receipts and disbursements on account of the same with a full and complete list of the beneficiaries of said fund and the amounts paid them, for the preceding calendar year.

(e) The said board shall annually prepare a budget of the cost of maintaining the pension fund and for this purpose may employ an actuary to assist the board in preparing its budget and report to the end that said system may be scientifically financed and administered.

(f) Said board shall have charge and control of said fund or funds and shall administer the same and shall have power to order payments therefrom in accordance with the provisions of this act.

SEC. 4. Section 4 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 4. For the purpose of providing and maintaining a fund to meet the payments of demands drawn for the payment of pensions and the expenses of said retirement board, a fund is hereby created to be known as the “County peace officers’ retirement fund.” There shall be paid into said fund the following moneys to wit:
(a) Salary. A portion of each month’s salary of each peace officer who is included within the provisions of this act in an amount equal to two per cent of peace officer’s monthly salary.

(b) Credit for prior service. Upon election by any said person to come within the provisions of this act, said person shall automatically be excluded from any other retirement system as aforementioned, and any sums due or to the credit of such person under such other system shall be transferred to this pension system, to the credit of such person, in accordance with the law made and provided for such cases, it being the intention that the retirement system provided by this act shall be exclusive and that the persons, who having elected to come under the provisions of this act shall not participate in any other system now or hereafter provided by law for county or township officers or employees; provided, however, that where said person elects to come within the provisions of this act and elects to secure credit for prior service as a county peace officer under this act, and where the sum to the credit of said person so transferred from some other system to this system exceeds that necessary to entitle said person to credit for said prior service as a peace officer under this system, there shall be refunded to said person such portion of said sum so transferred to the credit of said person, as exceeds the amount necessary to entitle said person to the credit claimed for such prior service.

(c) County donation. An amount to be determined and appropriated each year by the board of supervisors. Said amount to be sufficient, together with the contribution of peace officers to meet all of the demands, including interest, against said pension fund. The board shall monthly deposit all contributions received in the county treasury to the credit of said fund.

(d) All contributions and deposits shall bear simple interest at a rate to be fixed by the board of retirement with the approval of the board of supervisors but said rate shall in no event be greater than four per cent per annum.

Sec. 5. Section 6 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 6. Investment of fund. The board shall have charge and control of and shall safely keep the funds of the system, and shall invest and reinvest the same, and may from time to time sell any securities held by them and invest and reinvest the proceeds therefrom, and any and all unappropriated income of said funds; provided, however, that all funds received by them not required for current disbursements shall be invested in those securities only which shall be legal for savings bank investments, or deposited at interest in any State or National bank doing business within the county; provided, that the credit of the county shall not be given or lent in aid of, or to, any person, association, or corporation, whether municipal or otherwise, nor shall it be pledged in any manner whatever for the payment of the liabilities of any individual, association, municipal or other corporation whatever. They may, whenever they sell such securities, deliver the securities so sold upon receiving the proceeds thereof, and may execute any and all documents necessary to transfer the title thereto. The duties herein imposed upon the members of the board shall be deemed a part of their official duties and for the faithful performance of which they shall be liable on their official bonds.

Sec. 6. Section 7 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 7. Fund created. A trust fund account to be known as "County peace officers' retirement fund" is hereby created to be opened upon the books of the auditor and treasurer of the counties adopting a retirement system under the provisions of this act. All transfers or payments to the retirement fund and all withdrawals and other cash transactions, shall be accounted upon the books of the auditor and treasurer in and out of this fund account, in the manner they would be accounted if they were county transactions.

Sec. 7. Section 8 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 8. All warrants drawn on the county peace officers' retirement fund shall be signed by the treasurer and at least one other member of the board of retirement, who shall be designated by such board, but no warrant so drawn shall be valid until it has been countersigned and numbered by the county auditor and a record made of it by him. Payments provided for in this act shall be made monthly upon proper vouchers.

Sec. 8. Section 14 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 14. (a) Any person who is eligible to participate in the pension system provided by this act and who does so participate and who is a member of or participant in or is eligible for membership or participation in any other pension system provided by law for county or township officers or employees shall upon his election to participate in the pension system provided by this act be ineligible for membership or participation in any other retirement or pension system provided by law for county or township officers or employees.

(b) Upon election by any said person to come within the provisions of this act said person shall automatically be excluded from any other system as aforesaid and any sums due such person under such other system shall be paid to him as in the case of separation from the service, it being the intention that the retirement system provided by this act shall be exclusive and that the persons entitled thereto shall not participate in any other system now or hereafter provided by law for county or township officers or employees; provided, however, that where said person elects to come within the provisions of this act and elects to secure credit for prior service as a county peace officer under this act, and where such person has to his credit in any other pension system a sum exceeding that necessary to entitle said person to credit for said prior service as a county peace officer, there shall be refunded to said person so electing to come within this system only such sum due said person under said other pension system as exceeds the amount necessary to entitle said person to credit claimed for prior service as a county peace officer.

(c) No peace officer who receives compensation from the county for disability under any workmen’s compensation act or by virtue of any judgment obtained against the county for disability shall receive any of the benefits provided by this act, nor in the event of his death shall any such benefits inure to his dependents as here provided; provided, however, that where such person is retired under the provisions of this act and would be entitled to a pension thereunder such person may receive such portion of the pension authorized as is represented by the difference between workmen’s compensation and the full amount of the pension to which he might otherwise be entitled, it being the intention that the pension allowed for injury incurred in line of duty shall not be cumulative with the benefits under workmen’s compensation which may be awarded for the same injury or disability.

CHAPTER 337.

An act to provide for the formation, government, operation and dissolution of library districts.

[Approved by the Governor June 14, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as Short title the Library District Act of 1935.

SEC. 2. A library district may be organized, as provided Purpose.
in this act; may establish, equip and maintain a public library for the dissemination of a knowledge of the arts, sciences and general literature; and may exercise the powers in this act granted or necessarily implied.

SEC. 3. A library district may include incorporated or Territory
unincorporated territory, or both, in any one or more counties, so long as the territory of the district consists of contiguous parcels and the territory of no city is divided.

SEC. 4. Whenever the formation of a library district is Petition desired, a petition which may consist of any number of instruments, may be presented at a regular meeting of the board of supervisors of the county in which is located the largest proportionate value of the lands within the proposed district as shown by the last equalized county assessment roll. That board of supervisors is hereinafter referred to as the supervising board of supervisors. Such petition shall be signed by registered voters residing within the proposed library district equal in number to at least five per cent of the number of votes cast in the territory comprising the proposed district at the last preceding general State election at which a Governor was elected.

Sec. 5. The provisions of sections 103, 104, 105, 106, and 107 of Chapter I, Division II of the District Organization Act shall govern and control the proceedings for the filing and hearing of the petition.

Sec. 6. The provisions of Chapter II, Division I of the District Organization Act shall govern and control the proceedings for final hearing of the petition and the formation of the district.

Sec. 7. On the filing of written protests by registered voters residing in the proposed district equal in number to at least fifty per cent of the number of votes cast in the territory comprising the proposed district at the last preceding general State election at which a Governor was elected, the proceeding for the formation of the district shall be terminated as provided in sections 159 and 160 of the District Organization Act.

Sec. 8. Within thirty days after the filing with the Secretary of State of the resolution declaring the organization of the district a board of three library trustees shall be appointed for the district. The board shall consist of one trustee to be appointed from each unit, in the case of any unincorporated territory by the board of supervisors and in the case of a city by the governing body thereof.

If a board thus appointed would consist of more than three members then the supervising board of supervisors shall appoint three library trustees from the district at large.

If the board thus appointed consists of less than three members, then the supervising board of supervisors shall appoint from the district at large enough additional members to make a board of three trustees.

As used in this section, "unit" means all unincorporated territory in the district which lies in a single county and also means each city in the district.

Sec. 9. A vacancy in the board of library trustees shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment of the supervising board of supervisors. Each library trustee shall hold office until his successor is elected and qualified.

Sec. 10. The governing board of the district shall be called "the board of library trustees of ______ library district" (inserting the name of the particular district). The trustees shall hold office for the term of three years beginning on the second day of the calendar year next succeeding their appointment or election. The first board of library trustees appointed in a district shall at their first meeting so classify themselves by lot that their terms shall end on the second day of the second calendar year next succeeding his appointment, one at the end of one year thereafter and one at the end of two years thereafter.

Sec. 11. An election must be held annually in each Annual election.
library district for the election of one library trustee who shall hold office for three years beginning on the second day of the calendar year next succeeding his election. This election shall be known as the general district election and shall be held in the district on the same day as the State general election in the even-numbered years and in the odd-numbered years on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November.

Sec. 12. To be qualified to vote at any library district Qualifications of electors.
election a person must be a resident of the library district, a qualified elector of the county, and must be registered in the district in which the election is held at least thirty days before the election.

Sec. 13. At its first meeting called after the original appointment of the board, and annually thereafter at its first Organizational meeting called after the second day of the calendar year, the board shall organize by electing one of its number president, and another one of its number secretary. They shall serve as such for one year or until their successors are elected and qualified. The board shall cause a proper record of its proceedings to be kept, and at the first meeting of the board of trustees of any library district, formed under the provisions of this act, it must immediately cause to be made out and filed with the State Librarian at Sacramento a certificate showing that such library district has been established, with the date thereof, the names of the trustees, and the officers of the board chosen for the current fiscal year.

Sec. 14. The board of library trustees shall meet at least Meetings once a month, at such time and place as it may fix by resolution. Special meetings may be called at any time by two trustees, by written notices served upon each member at least twelve hours before the time specified for the meeting. Two members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Sec. 15. The board of library trustees is authorized and Empowered, and it shall be its duty:

(a) To make and enforce all rules, regulations and by-laws necessary for the administration, government and protection of the libraries under its management, and all property belonging thereto.

(b) To administer any trust declared or created for such libraries, and received by gift, devise, or bequest, and hold in trust or otherwise, property situated in this State or elsewhere, and where not otherwise provided, dispose of the same for the benefit of such libraries.

(c) To prescribe the duties and powers of the librarian, secretaries and other officers and employees of any such library; to determine the number of and appoint all such officers and employees, and fix their compensation, which said officers and employees shall hold their offices and positions at the pleasure of the board.

(d) To purchase necessary books, journals, publications and other personal property.

(e) To purchase such real property, and erect or rent and equip, such building or buildings, room or rooms, as in its judgment may be necessary properly to carry out the provisions of this act.

(f) To require the Secretary of State and other State officials to furnish such libraries with copies of any and all reports, laws, and other publications of the State not otherwise disposed of by law.

(g) To borrow books from, lend books to, and exchange the same with other libraries, and to allow nonresidents of the district to borrow books upon such conditions as the board may prescribe.

(h) To borrow money, give security therefor, purchase on contract and to do and perform any and all other acts and things necessary or proper to carry out the provisions of this act; provided, however, no tax levy shall ever be made for any purpose above the maximum permitted by this act.

(i) To file, through its secretary, on or before the last day of the month of July of each year, a report with the State Librarian at Sacramento giving the condition of its library or libraries and the number of volumes contained therein on the thirtieth day of June preceding.

(j) To designate the hours during which the library or libraries shall be open for the use of the public; but all public libraries established under the provisions of this act shall be open for the use of the public during every day in the year.

Sec. 16. Annually, at least fifteen days before the first day of the month in which county taxes are levied, the board of library trustees of each library district shall furnish to the board of supervisors of the county in which the district or any part thereof is situated, an estimate in writing of the amount of money necessary for all purposes required under the provisions of this act during the next ensuing fiscal year. Thereupon it shall be the duty of each board of supervisors in which any part of the district is situated to levy a special tax upon all taxable property of the county lying within the district sufficient in amount to maintain the district. The tax shall in no case exceed the rate of fifteen cents on each one hundred dollars of the assessed valuation of all taxable property within the district, but it may be in addition to all other taxes allowed by law to be levied upon such property. The tax shall be computed, entered upon the tax rolls and collected in the same manner as county taxes are computed, entered and collected. All moneys so collected shall be paid into the county treasury to the credit of the particular library district fund and shall be paid out on the order of the district board, signed by the president and secretary thereof.
SEC. 17. If the district embraces territory lying in more than one county, the amount estimated shall be ratably apportioned among the several counties in the district in proportion to the exact value of the property in the several counties included within said district as shown upon the last equalized assessment rolls of those counties, and the estimates apportioned to the several counties shall be rendered to their respective boards of supervisors and the tax shall be levied and collected by the officials of those counties upon the property of the district lying therein.

Sec. 18. All money acquired by gift, devise, bequest, or otherwise, for the purposes of the library, shall be paid into the county treasury to the credit of the library fund of the district, subject only to the order of the library trustees of said district. If payment into the treasury is inconsistent with the terms or conditions of any such gift, devise, or bequest, the board of library trustees shall provide for the safety and preservation of the same, and the application thereof to the use of the library, in accordance with the terms and conditions of such gift, devise or bequest.

Sec. 19. Upon the receipt by the county auditor of an order of the library trustees of the district, he shall issue his warrant upon the county treasurer for the amount stated in such order. When any such warrant is presented to the treasurer for payment and the same is not paid for want of funds, the treasurer must endorse thereon “not paid for want of funds” with the date of presentation and sign his name thereto, and from that time the warrant shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum until the warrant is paid or until funds are available for the payment of the same and the county treasurer gives notice to the warrant holder that funds are available for such payment. The giving of such notice shall be deemed complete upon the deposit thereof in the United States mail in a sealed envelope addressed to the warrant holder at the address of the latter given by him at the time of presentation of the warrant to the treasurer, with postage thereon fully prepaid and registered.

Sec. 20. Every library established under the provisions of this act shall be forever free to the inhabitants and non-resident taxpayers of the library district, subject always to such rules, regulations, and by-laws as may be made by the board of library trustees, and for violation of them a person may be fined or excluded from the privileges of the library.

Sec. 21. The board of library trustees and the boards of trustees of neighboring library districts, or the governing bodies of neighboring cities, or boards of supervisors of counties in which public libraries are situated, may contract to lend the books of libraries created under this act to residents of such counties or neighboring cities or library districts, upon a reasonable compensation to be paid by such counties, neighboring cities, or library districts.
SEC. 22. The title to all property acquired for the purposes of such libraries, when not inconsistent with the terms of its acquisition, or not otherwise designated, shall vest in the district in which such libraries are or are to be situated. Every library district must be designated by the name and style of ______ library district (using the name of the district) of ______ county (using the name of the county or counties in which said district is situated). In that name the trustees may sue and be sued, and may hold and convey property for the use and benefit of such district. A number must not be used as a part of the designation of any library district.

SEC. 23. The provisions of Chapters I and II of Division II of the District Organization Act relating to notices and elections shall govern and control this act.

SEC. 24. The board of trustees of any library district may, when in their judgment it is deemed advisable, and must, upon a petition of fifty or more taxpayers and residents of said library district, call an election and submit to the electors of the district, the proposition of whether the bonds of the district will be issued and sold for the purpose of raising money for the purchase of suitable lots, of procuring plans and specifications and of erecting a suitable building, of furnishing and equipping the same and of fencing and ornamenting the grounds, for the accommodation of the public library, or for any or all of the said purposes, or for any or all of the purposes of this act; for liquidating any indebtedness incurred for said purposes, and for refunding any outstanding valid indebtedness, evidenced by bonds or warrants of the district.

SEC. 25. Such bond election shall be called and conducted and the results thereof canvassed, returned and declared in the manner provided in Chapter II of Division II of the District Organization Act.

SEC. 26. In addition to the information required in section 232 of the District Organization Act, in the resolution calling a bond election the board of trustees shall set forth the amount and denomination of the bonds, the rate of interest and the number of years the whole or any part of the bonds are to run.

SEC. 27. Voting must be by ballot (without reference to the general election law in regard to form of ballot, or manner of voting), except that the words to appear on the ballot shall be "Bonds—Yes," and "Bonds—No," and except further, that persons voting at such bond election shall put a cross (+) upon their ballots, with pencil or ink, after the words "Bonds—Yes," or "Bonds—No" (as the case may be), to indicate whether they have voted for or against the issuance of the bonds.

SEC. 28. Upon the canvass of the returns, if it appears that two-thirds of the votes cast at the election were cast in favor of issuing such bonds, then the board of library trustees shall cause an entry of such fact to be made upon its minutes and shall certify to the supervising board of supervisors all the proceedings had in the premises. Thereupon said board of supervisors shall issue the bonds of said district, to the number and amount provided in such proceedings, payable out of the building fund of said district, naming the same. The money for the redemption of said bonds and the payment of interest thereon shall be raised by taxation upon the taxable property in said district.

The total amount of bonds so issued shall not exceed five per cent of the taxable property of the district, as shown by the last equalized assessment roll of the county or counties in which the district is situated.

Sec. 29. The supervising board of supervisors by an order entered upon its minutes shall prescribe the form of said bonds and of the interest coupons attached thereto, and must fix the time when the whole or any part of the principal of said bonds shall be payable, which shall not be more than forty years from the date thereof.

Sec. 30. The bonds must not bear a greater amount of interest than six per cent, to be payable annually or semi-annually. The bonds must be sold in the manner prescribed by the board of supervisors, but for not less than par, and the proceeds of the sale thereof must be deposited in the county treasury to the credit of the building fund of the library district, and be drawn out for the purposes aforesaid as other library moneys are drawn out.

Sec. 31. The board of supervisors of each county in which any part of the district is situated, at the time of making the levy of taxes for county purposes, must levy a tax for that year upon the taxable property in such district, at the equalized assessed value thereof for that year, for the interest and redemption of said bonds. Such tax must not be less than sufficient to pay the interest of said bonds for that year, and such portion of the principal as is to become due during such year. In any event such tax must be high enough to raise, annually, for the first half of the term said bonds are to run, a sufficient sum to pay the interest thereon, and during the balance of the term, high enough to pay such annual interest and to pay, annually, a proportion of the principal of said bonds equal to a sum produced by taking the whole amount of the bonds outstanding and dividing it by the number of years said bonds then have to run.

Sec. 32. All moneys so levied, when collected, shall be paid into the county treasury to the credit of the said library district, and be used for the payment of principal and interest on said bonds, and for no other purpose. The principal and interest on the bonds shall be paid by the county treasurer, upon the warrant of the county auditor, out of the fund provided therefor. It shall be the duty of the county auditor to cancel and file with the county treasurer the bonds and coupons as rapidly as they are paid.

Sec. 33. Whenever any bonds issued under the provisions of this act remain unsold for the period of six months after having been offered for sale in the manner prescribed by the supervising board of supervisors, the board of trustees of the library district for or on account of which the bonds were issued, or of any library district composed wholly or partly of territory which, at the time of holding the election authorizing the issuance of such bonds, was embraced within the district for or on account of which such bonds were issued, may petition the supervising board of supervisors to cause such unsold bonds to be withdrawn from the market and canceled.

Sec. 34. Upon receiving such petition, signed by a majority of the members of the board of trustees, the supervising board of supervisors shall fix a time for hearing the same, which shall be not more than thirty days thereafter, and shall cause a notice, stating the time and place of hearing, and the object of the petition in general terms, to be published as provided in this act.

Sec. 35. At the time and place designated in the notice for hearing said petition, or at any subsequent time to which the hearing may be postponed, the supervising board of supervisors shall hear any reasons that may be submitted for or against the granting of the petition, and if they shall deem it for the best interests of the library district named in the petition that such unsold bonds be canceled, they shall make and enter an order in the minutes of their proceedings that said unsold bonds be canceled, and thereupon said bonds, and the vote by which they were authorized to be issued, shall cease to be of any validity whatever.

Sec. 36. Territory may be annexed to or excluded from a library district organized under this act in the manner provided in Division III of the District Organization Act, upon petition signed by the same number of qualified petitioners required for signature on the petition for organization of the district under this act.

Sec. 37. Two or more districts organized under this act may be consolidated in the manner provided in Chapter I of Division IV of the District Organization Act.

Sec. 38. A library district organized under this act may be dissolved in the manner provided in Chapter II of Division IV of the District Organization Act.

Sec. 39. No library district including territory in more than one county shall be organized under this act without the concurrent consent by resolution of each board of supervisors involved, as well as the consent of the governing body of each city to be included.

Sec. 40. Anything in the County Free Library Act to the contrary notwithstanding, the property in any library district created under this act is subject to taxation for county free library purposes just as though such library district had not been created.
CHAPTER 338.

An act to renumber section 532a of the Penal Code, as added by Chapter 70 of the Statutes of 1913, to be section 532c of said code, relating to giving lots on the drawing of numbers.

[Approved by the Governor June 14, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 532a of the Penal Code, as added by Chapter 70 of the Statutes of 1913, is hereby renumbered to be section 532c of said code, to read as follows:

532c. Any person, firm, corporation or copartnership who knowingly and designedly offers or gives with winning numbers at any drawing of numbers or with tickets of admission to places of public assemblage, any lot or parcel of real property and charges or collects fees in connection with the transfer thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 339.

An act to amend sections 1030, 1038, and 1043 of the Agricultural Code, relating to fertilizing materials.

[Approved by the Governor June 14, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1030 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1030. The producer, manufacturer, importer, agent or dealer in any commercial fertilizer or any agricultural mineral, except as provided in section 1026, shall, before engaging in the sale thereof obtain a certificate of registration from the director, authorizing him to sell commercial fertilizers or agricultural minerals, as the case may be, and shall securely fix to each container of commercial fertilizer or agricultural mineral the word “Registered” with the number of registry. In case one person desires authority to sell both commercial fertilizer and agricultural minerals, he shall register and pay the fee required for each registry. The producer, manufacturer, importer, agent, or dealer, obtaining such registry, shall pay to the director the sum of fifty dollars ($50). The registration shall expire on the thirtieth day of June of the fiscal year for which it was given. If reregistration is not obtained within one calendar month after the expiration of a registration there shall be added to the fee a penalty of ten per cent (10%), to which shall be added an additional penalty of five per cent (5%) of the original amount due, for each succeeding calendar month, but the total penalty shall not exceed fifty percent (50%) of the original amount due. No penalty shall be collected if the person reregistered makes an affidavit that no business was done during the period of non-registration. The payment of such fee or penalty is not a bar to any prosecution for doing business without proper registry. The provisions of this section do not apply to any agent whose principal has obtained a certificate of registration.

Sec. 2. Section 1038 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1038. Upon any sale not exempt from the provisions of this article, of commercial fertilizer, the registered person selling the same shall pay twenty-five cents per ton, and upon such a sale of agricultural minerals, ten cents per ton except where the agricultural mineral is sold to be used and is used in the manufacture of commercial fertilizer. Each registered person shall keep accurate accounts of sales of commercial fertilizers and/or agricultural minerals, and such accounts shall be open at all times to inspection by the director. A statement of sales, sworn to by the registered seller, shall be rendered to the director quarterly within thirty days after March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31, of each year, and shall be accompanied by the amount of tonnage license tax required by this section. Any delinquency in making a statement and return, or any deficiency in any return, shall subject the registrant to the payment of a penalty of ten per cent (10%) of the amount due, for the first calendar month after such payment became due, and an additional penalty of five per cent (5%) for each succeeding calendar month, but the total penalty shall not exceed fifty per cent (50%) of the original amount due.

On receipt of the tonnage license tax and statement, the director shall issue to the registered seller a certificate of compliance with this section.

Whenever a registered person shall have paid the tonnage license tax herein required, any person acting as his selling agent shall not be required to pay the tonnage license tax.

Sec. 3. Section 1043 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1043. Every person who sells or deals in any of the substances defined in subdivisions (a), (b) and (c) of section 1022, before engaging in such occupation, shall be licensed by the director. If the applicant is employed in such business the application shall state the name and address of the employer. All licenses issued under the provisions of this section shall expire on December 31st of each year. Each application shall be accompanied by a fee of two dollars. When a license is issued to a corporation upon an application signed by or bearing the name of the president of the corporation a display license shall be issued to the corporation and a personal license to the president. For each officer and employee engaged in selling, other than the president, an additional fee of two dollars shall be paid, and a personal license issued to each such person. When the license is issued to a partnership a display license shall be issued to the partnership and a personal license issued to one member of the partnership whose name is designated in the application. For each additional member or employee engaged in selling, an additional fee of two dollars is required and a personal license shall be issued to each such person. If a new license is not obtained within one calendar month after the expiration of a license there shall be added to the fee a penalty of two dollars for each license. No penalty shall be collected if the licensee makes an affidavit that no business was done during the period he was not licensed. The payment of such fee or penalty is not a bar to prosecution for doing business without a license. When a license is issued to an individual engaged in such business both a display license and a personal license shall be issued to him. All display licenses shall be posted conspicuously in the place of business of the licensee. Where a licensee maintains more than one place of business duplicate display licenses shall be applied for and issued upon the payment of a fee of one dollar each. The director may investigate the actions of any licensee and may, after notice and hearing, suspend or revoke the license.

CHAPTER 340.

An act ceding to the United States of America certain tide and submerged lands of the State of California upon certain trusts and conditions.

[Approved by the Governor June 14, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The State of California hereby cedes to the United States of America exclusive jurisdiction in and to those certain lands situate in the county of Solano, State of California, and more particularly described as follows, to wit:

Those filled tide and submerged lands in section 6, T. 2 N., R. 2 W., M. D. M., lying between Lot 1 of said section and the present ordinary high water mark and the U. S. Military Reservation (the Benicia Arsenal) and the north line of said section; and Those tide and submerged land contained within a strip 300 feet in width measured perpendicularly from the ordinary high water mark and abutting the lands of the U. S. Military Reservation at Benicia.

SEC. 2. The hereinbefore described lands are ceded to the United States of America, upon the following conditions, to wit:
(a) That there is hereby reserved in the State of California the right and power to serve and execute upon the hereinbefore described lands, or any portion thereof, civil process not incompatible with this session, and such criminal process as may lawfully issue under authority of the State of California against any person or persons charged with crimes or offenses committed without the exterior boundaries of the hereinbefore described lands; there is hereby further reserved in the State of California the right to tax and license persons and corporations, their franchises and property upon the hereinbefore described lands.

(b) That should the United States of America abandon Benicia Arsenal Reservation to which the hereinbefore described lands are adjacent, all of the right, title and interest of the United States of America in and to the lands hereby ceded shall ipso facto terminate, and any and all interest hereby ceded shall immediately vest in State of California.

(c) That the cession of the hereinbefore described lands is made subject to the reservations to the people contained in the Constitution of California.

CHAPTER 341.

An act making appropriations for the support of the Government of the State of California and for several public purposes in accordance with the provisions of section 34 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, approved and adopted by the people at the general election held November 7, 1932, declaring the urgency thereof, and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 14, 1935. In effect immediately]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The following sums of money, or so much thereof as may be necessary are hereby appropriated for the use and support of the State of California for the eighty-seventh and eighty-eighth fiscal years and, unless otherwise herein provided, shall be paid out of the general fund in the State treasury.

Whenever by constitutional or statutory provision the revenues or receipts of any institution, department, board, bureau, commission, officer, employee, or other agency, or any moneys in any special fund created by law therefor, are to be used for salaries, support or any proper purpose, expenditures shall be made therefrom for all such purposes, and not from the general fund, to the extent only of the amount herein appropriated unless otherwise stated herein.

Appropriations for purposes not otherwise provided for herein which have been heretofore made by any existing constitutional or statutory provision shall continue to be governed thereby.

Whenever herein an appropriation is made for support it shall include salaries and all other proper expenses, including repairs and equipment, incurred in connection with the institution, department, board, bureau, commission, officer, employee, or other agency, for which such appropriation is made.

Item 184—For construction and improvements of wharves, piers, sheds, bridges, tracks, and other construction, improvements and equipment as needed, Board of State Harbor Commissioners, San Francisco, two hundred thousand dollars, payable from San Francisco harbor improvement fund $200,000.00

Item 185—For emergency fund, one million dollars, to be expended only on written authorization of the State Department of Finance for emergencies; provided that loans may be made from the emergency fund to State agencies which derive funds from sources other than the general fund upon such terms and conditions for repayment as may be prescribed by the State Department of Finance $1,000,000.00

Emergencies within the meaning of this provision are hereby defined as contingencies for which no appropriation, or insufficient appropriations, has been made by law.

Item 185½—For special emergency fund, five hundred thousand dollars (exempt from section 4 of this act) to be expended only on written authorization of the State Department of Finance for augmentation of the appropriations for support of the State prisons, State hospitals, and other State institutions, when and if commodity prices increase during the eighty-seventh and eighty-eighth fiscal years. $500,000.00

Sec. 2. When any State publication is printed and paid for out of any appropriation in this act, the disposition of the same shall be subject to the provisions of section 2295a of the Political Code of the State of California. The sums that are herein appropriated for expenses of the Senate and Assembly shall be disbursed under the direction of the bodies to which they respectively belong, and shall not be subject to any of the provisions of sections 669 or 677.5 of the Political Code; provided, that the State Controller shall not be required to draw such warrants until the original claims and vouchers, itemized and properly sworn to, are filed with him. The sums herein appropriated for the expenses of the National Guard shall be audited by the Adjutant General, as required by sections 190 and 132 of the Military and Veterans Code.

Sec. 3. The State Controller is hereby expressly prohibited from allowing any demands payable out of any appropriation herein contained, unless the same are presented in accordance with the provisions of section 669 of the Political Code; provided, that in instances where the duties of any State officers or board make necessary the use of moneys for purposes of a confidential nature, the State Controller may audit claims for such expense without requiring itemization or vouchers; but such claims must be accompanied by a statement of the fact surrounding the expenditure, which statement must be filed in the office of the State Controller; provided further, that the total amount so allowed for such confidential purposes from the moneys herein appropriated shall not exceed in any one fiscal year the sum of two thousand dollars. All bills and vouchers, which shall be presented for supplies furnished or services rendered, shall be original bills and vouchers of the parties furnishing supplies and rendering services provided, that no officer shall use or appropriate any money, appropriated by this act, for any purpose whatever, unless authorized thereto by law; and provided, that any officer, board, commission, or department for whom any appropriation is made herein, may, without at the time furnishing vouchers and itemized statements, draw from such appropriations a sum not to exceed one per cent of the total amount appropriated for any such officer, board, commission or department; and provided further, that any officer, board, commission or department for whom any appropriation is made herein, may with the permission and the approval of the Department of Finance, and without at the time furnishing vouchers or itemized statements, draw from such appropriation a sum in excess of one per cent, but not to exceed five per cent of the total amount appropriated for any such officer, board, commission or department.

Any sums drawn under the provisions of this section without at the time furnishing vouchers and itemized statements, shall be considered to have been withdrawn from the amount appropriated for the eighty-eighth fiscal year and need not be returned at the close of the eighty-seventh fiscal year, and shall be used as a revolving fund where payment of compensation earned or cash advances are necessary, and at the close of each biennium, or at any other time, upon the demand of the Department of Finance, must be accounted for and substantiated by vouchers and itemized statements submitted to and audited by the Controller.
Sec. 4. The appropriations under this act shall, unless otherwise provided, be subject to the provisions of section 677.5 of the Political Code, and not more than one-half of the amount appropriated under this act for each office, board, commission, department, or institution for support shall be expended during the eighty-seventh fiscal year, unless the same has been expressly authorized by this act, or by the State Board of Control.

Sec. 5. The officers of the various departments, boards, commissions and institutions, for whose benefit and support appropriations are made in this act, are expressly forbidden to make any expenditure in excess of such appropriations, except the consent of the State Department of Finance be first obtained, and a certificate, in writing, duly signed by the director of said department, of the unavoidable necessity of such expenditure; and any indebtedness attempted to be created against the State in violation of the provisions of this section shall be absolutely null and void; and shall not be allowed by the State Controller nor paid out of any State appropriation; provided, that any member of any such department, board, commission or institution, who shall vote for any expenditure, or create any indebtedness against the State in excess of the respective appropriations made by this act, except by the consent of the State Department of Finance and the certificate in this section provided to be first obtained, shall be liable on his official bond for the amount of such indebtedness, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction by the person or persons, firm or corporation to whom such indebtedness is owing.

Sec. 6. No money appropriated by this act shall be used to renew, or to pay for the renewal of any fire insurance on any public building or property, nor to effect or pay for any new insurance on any public building or property, except the property of San Francisco harbor, the University of California, and the property referred to in section 6 of Chapter 264, Statutes of 1933.

Sec. 7. Whenever the duties, powers, purposes, responsibilities, and jurisdictions of any office, board, commission or other State agency are transferred by law to a department of the State, the appropriations herein made from the general fund for the support of such office, board, commission or other State agency shall, by the State Controller, be transferred to, and the same shall become a part of, the appropriations herein made from the general fund for the support of the department to which the duties, powers, purposes, responsibilities, and jurisdictions of such office, board, commission or other State agency have been transferred.

Sec. 8. Whenever the duties, powers, purposes, responsibilities and jurisdiction of any office, board, commission or other State agency are abolished by law the appropriation herein made for the support of such office, board, commission, or other State agency shall upon the effective date of the act.
abolishing such office, board, commission or other State agency revert to and become a part of the unexpended balance of the fund from which such appropriation was made.

Sec. 9. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act, and each section, subsection, sentence, clause, and phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses, or phrases be declared unconstitutional.

Sec. 10. This act, inasmuch as it provides for an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the State, shall, under the provision of section 1, of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 342.

Stats. 1915, p 1502; amended.

An act to amend section 2 of the "Los Angeles County Flood Control Act," approved June 12, 1915, as amended, relating to powers of the district, declaring the urgency hereof and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 15, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Stats. 1933, Ch. 4

Purposes of act.

Section 1. Section 2 of the "Los Angeles County Flood Control Act" is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. The objects and purposes of this act are to provide for the control and conservation of the flood, storm and other waste waters of said district, and to conserve such waters for beneficial and useful purposes by spreading, storing, retaining or causing to percolate into the soil within said district, or to save or conserve in any manner, all or any of such waters, and to protect from damage from such flood or storm waters, the harbors, waterways, public highways and property in said district.

Said Los Angeles County Flood Control District is hereby declared to be a body corporate and politic, and as such shall have power:

1. To have perpetual succession.
2. To sue and be sued in the name of said district in all actions and proceedings in all courts and tribunals of competent jurisdiction.
3. To adopt a seal and alter it at pleasure.
4. To take by grant, purchase, gift, devise or lease, hold, use, enjoy, and to lease or dispose of real or personal property of every kind within or without the district necessary to the full exercise of its power.
5. To acquire or contract to acquire lands, rights of way, easements, privileges and property of every kind, and construct, maintain and operate any and all works or improvements within or without the district necessary or proper to carry out any of the objects or purposes of this act, and to complete, extend, add to, repair or otherwise improve any works or improvements acquired by it as herein authorized.

6. To have and exercise the right of eminent domain, and in the manner provided by law for the condemnation of private property for public use, to take any property necessary to carry out any of the objects or purposes of this act, whether such property be already devoted to the same use by any district or other public corporation or agency or otherwise, and may condemn any existing works or improvements in said district now used to control flood or storm waters, or to conserve such flood or storm waters or to protect any property in said district from damage from such flood or storm waters.

7. To incur indebtedness, and to issue bonds in the manner herein provided.

7a. In addition to the powers given in the next preceding subsection, to borrow money from the United States of America, any agency or department thereof, or from any nonprofit corporation, organized under the laws of this State, to which the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of an act of Congress, entitled "Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act," or other agency, or department of the United States government, has authorized, or shall hereafter authorize, a loan to enable such nonprofit corporation to lend money to said Los Angeles County Flood Control District, for any flood control work authorized under this act, and to repay the same, in annual installments, over a period of not to exceed twenty (20) years, with interest at a rate of not to exceed four and one-fourth per centum (4½%) per annum, payable semiannually, and, without the necessity of an election when authorized by resolution of the board of supervisors, as evidences of such indebtedness, said district is hereby authorized to execute and deliver a note, or a series of notes, or bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness, signed by the chairman of the board of supervisors of said district, which notes, bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness, shall be negotiable instruments if so declared in said resolution of the board of supervisors providing for their issuance, and said notes, bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness, may have interest coupons attached to evidence interest payments, signed by the facsimile signature of said chairman of said board. All applications for such loans shall specify the particular flood control work or projects for which the funds will be expended, and when received, the money shall be deposited in a special fund, and shall be expended for those purposes only which are described and referend to in the applications. If a surplus remains after the completion of said work, such surplus shall be applied to the payment of the note, notes, bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness, executed as aforesaid, for the loan including interest coupons. The board of supervisors shall annually, levy a tax upon the taxable real property of said district, clearly sufficient to pay the interest and installments of principal, as the same shall become due and payable, under any loan made pursuant to the authority of this section, and to create and maintain a reserve fund to assure the prompt payment thereof, as may be provided by said resolution of the board of supervisors; provided, however, that the amount of taxes levied in any year, pursuant to the provisions of this subsection, shall, pro tanto, reduce the authority of the board of supervisors, during any such year, to levy taxes under section 14 of this act, but this proviso shall not be a limitation upon the power and duty to levy and collect taxes under this subsection.

Notwithstanding anything in this subsection 7a to the contrary, the total amount which said district may borrow under the authority of any or all of the provisions of this subsection is limited to and shall not exceed in the aggregate the sum of four million five hundred thousand dollars.

7b. The power granted in the next preceding subsection is hereby extended to authorize the issuance and sale of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of said district to the county of Los Angeles and the purchase thereof by said county in accordance with "An act authorizing the investment and reinvestment and disposition of any surplus moneys in the treasury of any county, city and county, incorporated city or town or municipal utility district or flood control district." approved April 23, 1913, as amended: all subject to the provisions and limitations of the next preceding subsection relative to the disposition and use of funds, interest rate, period of repayment, tax rate and mode of issuance. The total amount of bonds or other evidence of indebtedness, in the aggregate, which the district may issue and sell under the authority of subsection 7a and of this subsection is limited to and shall not exceed four million five hundred thousand dollars.

8. To cause taxes to be levied and collected for the purpose of paying any obligation of the district in the manner hereinbefore provided.

9. To make contracts, and to employ labor, and to do all acts necessary for the full exercise of all powers vested in said district, or any of the officers thereof, by this act.

10. To grant or otherwise convey to counties, cities and counties, cities or towns easements for streets and highway purposes, over, along, upon, in, through, across or under any real property owned by said Los Angeles County Flood Control District.

11. To remove, carry away and dispose of any rubbish, trash, debris or other inconvenient matter that may be dislodged, transported, conveyed or carried by means of, through, in, or along the works and structures operated or maintained hereunder and deposited upon the property of said district or elsewhere.

12. To pay premiums on bonds of contractors required under any contract wherein the amount payable to the contractor exceeds five million dollars; provided, that the specifications in such cases shall specifically so provide and state that the bidder shall not include in his bids the cost of furnishing the required bonds.

13. To lease, sell or dispose of any property (or any interest therein) acquired in fee otherwise than by condemnation, whenever in the judgment of said board of supervisors said property, or any interest therein or part thereof, is no longer required for the purposes of said district, or may be leased for any purpose without interfering with the use of the same for the purposes of said district, and to pay any compensation received therefor into the general fund of said district and use the same for the purposes of this act; provided, however, that nothing herein shall authorize the board of supervisors or other governing body of the district or any officer thereof to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any water, water right, reservoir space or storage capacity or any interest or space therein, except as hereinafter provided by section 17 of this act.

Sec. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, and shall therefore go into effect immediately.

The facts constituting the necessity are as follows:

A disastrous forest fire occurred in November, 1933, completely denuding approximately seven square miles of the mountainous watershed above the towns of La Crescenta, Montrose and La Canada, in Los Angeles County, thereby permitting boulders, debris and dirt to wash down upon the populous communities lying below said watershed. The immediate construction of debris dams at the mouths of various canyons below said burned-over watershed and the construction of channels below said debris basins are necessary in order to protect the lives of persons living in said communities and to protect the homes and other property from destruction.

There are surplus funds in the treasury of the county of Los Angeles not required for the immediate necessities of such county and which are available for investment in securities acceptable for such purpose, and said funds can be utilized immediately for the purpose of aiding in the prompt construction of said work.
CHAPTER 343.

An act to amend section 1 of "An act to regulate the construction of buildings in the State of California, in respect to resistance to horizontal forces, providing penalties for the violation thereof and providing that this act become effective immediately," approved May 26, 1933, relating to construction of buildings.

Approved by the Governor June 15, 1933. In effect September 15, 1935.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 1 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Every building of any character, and every part thereof which is hereafter constructed in any part of the State of California, including every incorporated city, incorporated city and county, and county except such buildings as are hereinafter expressly excepted from the operation of this act, shall be designed and constructed to resist and withstand horizontal forces from any direction of not less than either two (2) per cent of the total vertical design load or for the following applicable wind pressure on the vertical projection of the exposed surface the horizontal force used to be the one that produces the greatest stresses in the building: twenty (20) pounds per square foot on every portion thereof more than sixty (60) feet in height; fifteen (15) pounds per square foot on every portion thereof not more than sixty (60) feet in height.

CHAPTER 344.

An act amending section 1463 of the Penal Code, relating to the disposition of fines collected in municipal courts.

Approved by the Governor June 15, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 1463 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1463. Except where otherwise specifically provided by law:

(1) All fines and forfeitures collected upon conviction or upon the forfeiture of bail, together with moneys deposited as bail, in any municipal court, shall, as soon as practicable after the receipt thereof, be deposited with the county treasurer of the county in which such court is situated.

(2) All fines and forfeitures collected upon conviction or upon the forfeiture of bail in any municipal court following complaints filed therein by officers or other persons employed by the State or by the county in which such court is situated, shall be paid or transferred, at least once a month, into the proper fund or funds of the county; and all fines or forfeitures collected in such court upon conviction or upon the forfeiture of bail following complaints filed therein by officers or other persons employed by the city for which such court is established shall be paid, at least once a month, to the treasurer of said city, by warrant of the county auditor, which shall be drawn upon the requisition of the clerk of said court.

Any money deposited with such court or with the clerk thereof which, by order of the court or for any other reason, should be returned in whole or in part to any person, or which is by law payable to the State or to any other public agency, shall be paid to such person or to the State or to such other public agency by warrant of the county auditor, which shall be drawn upon the requisition of the clerk of such court.

All money deposited as bail which has not been claimed within one year after the final disposition of the case in which such money was deposited, or within one year after an order made by the court for the return or delivery of such money to any person, shall be apportioned between the city and the county and paid or transferred in the manner hereinabove provided for the apportionment and payment of fines and forfeitures.

CHAPTER 345.

An act to amend section 844 of the Fish and Game Code,Stats. 1933, p. 394.

[Approved by the Governor June 15, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 844 of the Fish and Game Code is Stats. 1933, p. 471.

844. It is unlawful to use or operate or assist in using or operating any net for the purpose of taking fish in the waters of the State within that portion of district 19 lying between the northern boundary of Orange County and San Mateo Point at or near the southern boundary of said county, and extending oceanwards two miles from the line of mean high tide, except a bait seine net not exceeding 750 feet in length and 60 feet in depth.
CHAPTER 346.

An act to amend section 3658a of the Political Code, relating to assessments by reference to maps.

[Approved by the Governor June 15, 1935 In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3658a of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3658a. Whenever any city, town, or subdivision of land is platted or divided into lots or blocks, and whenever any addition to any city, town, or such subdivision shall be or has been laid out into lots or blocks for the purpose of sale or transfer, it shall be lawful for the city engineer, or the county or city and county surveyor, under the direction and with the approval of the city council or board of supervisors of said city, county, or city and county, to make an official map of such city, town, or subdivision, giving to each block on such map a number, and to each lot or subdivision in such block a separate number or letter, and giving names to such streets, avenues, lanes, courts, commons, or parks, as may be delineated on such official map.

Whenever the city council or board of supervisors of such city, county, or city and county, shall adopt such map as the official map of the subdivision, town, city, county, or city and county, it shall be lawful to, and the assessor shall, describe such lots, blocks, or parcels of land by numbers or letters as delineated on such map in assessing such property, and it shall be lawful and sufficient to describe such lots or blocks in any deeds, conveyances, contracts, or obligations affecting any such lots or blocks as designated on such official map, a reference to such map sufficient for the identification thereof being coupled with such description. Such engineer or surveyor, under the direction and with the approval of the city council or board of supervisors of such city, county, or city and county, may compile such map from maps on file, or may resurvey or renumber the blocks, or renumber or reletter the lots in such blocks, or change the names of streets.

All surveys and the field notes thereof made by any such engineer or surveyor, under the provisions of this section, or in surveying officially any lots or parcels of land in any city, town, county, or city and county, for the purposes of any such map, shall be filed in the office of the surveyor or engineer, as the case may be, and shall become a part of the public records of such city, town, county, or city and county.

Each and every map, made and adopted as hereinabove provided, shall be certified under the hands of a majority of the members and the presiding officer and secretary and official seal, if any, of the authority adopting the same. Such certificate shall set forth in full the resolution adopting such map, with the date of adoption; and such map, so certified, shall be forthwith filed in the office of the county recorder of the county, or city and county, wherein the platted lands are situate, and the said recorder shall immediately securely fasten and bind, in one of a series of firmly bound books to be provided, together with the proper indexes thereof and appropriately marked for the reception of the maps herein provided for, each such map so filed with him; and the same shall become an official map for all the purposes of this section when so certified, filed and bound, but not before.

This section is hereby made applicable to all cities, towns, and villages in this State, as well as to the counties, and cities and counties thereof, whether the same be incorporated or not; and the words "city council or board of supervisors" wherever used herein shall be deemed to include the proper corresponding governing board and authority in each such place; and the words "city engineer" and "county or city and county surveyor" shall be deemed to include the like or corresponding officer, subject to the direction of such "corresponding governing board and authority" in each such place; or, if there be no such officer subject to such direction, such "corresponding board and authority" may employ competent engineers and surveyors to the extent necessary for the carrying out of the purposes of this act in the places subject to its jurisdiction, and the persons so appointed shall have the same authority and shall perform the same duties as are given to and enjoined upon "city engineers" and "county or city and county surveyors," respectively, in like cases.

The services of such engineers and surveyors so employed shall be contracted for, examined, passed upon, audited, and paid as are other debts contracted by such governing boards and authorities.

An assessor or the State Board of Equalization may describe property for assessment purposes by reference to a map other than an official map as herein provided for, whenever such a map has been furnished by the owner, or claimant, or user of property to be assessed, and provided that such map contains sufficient information to clearly identify the property to be assessed and is properly identified by and filed with the assessor or the State Board of Equalization using such map for assessment purposes.

CHAPTER 347.

An act to add section 269 to the Political Code, relating to officers of the Assembly and declaring the urgency thereof.

[Approved by the Governor June 15, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 269 is hereby added to the Political Code, to read as follows:
269. For services performed under the provisions of section 261 of this code, each of the officers therein named of the Assembly shall receive a compensation of fifty dollars.

Sec. 2. Inasmuch as this act provides for the payment of usual current expenses of the State and there is urgent need for adequate provision for the prompt completion of the records of this session of the Legislature, this act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and as such shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 348.

"Mortgage and Trust Deed Moratorium of 1935."

An act relating to the relief of debtors and guarantors; permitting postponement of sales conjured by mortgages, deeds of trust, or contracts of purchase of real property, or chattels attached to real property; or postponement of forfeitures and terminations under such contracts of purchase, or extensions of periods for redemption, or reduction of moneys to be paid on redemption; regulating the appointment of receivers in certain cases; repealing Chapter 1, Statutes of the Extra Session of 1934, and Chapter 7 of the Statutes of 1935; declaring the urgency hereof, and providing that it shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 21, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A large proportion of the real property in this State is held subject to mortgage or deed of trust or under contract of purchase, and many owners and purchasers thereof are finding it extremely difficult or impossible, because of present economic conditions, to meet their obligations to retain their property. Prices for farm products are at present so low and unemployment in industry and business is so widespread, that farmers and wage earners, and those who do business with them, have as a class lost a considerable part of their income, and large numbers of such individuals have no income or scarcely enough for food and other necessities.

The value to the State of a large body of owners of land is inestimable, as such owners have a vital interest in the State and its welfare, and participate in governmental affairs to such an extent and in such a way that they constitute an essential factor in the political and economic life of the State.

If steps are not taken immediately to permit delay of sales under mortgages, deeds of trust, and contracts of purchase, and forfeitures and terminations under contracts of purchase, a large number of owners of real property will be forced to abandon their interests in their property.
An emergency therefore exists, and it is necessary to provide for the permitting of delays of sales under mortgages, deeds of trust, and contracts of purchase, or of forfeitures and terminations under contracts of purchase.

In making provisions permitting such delays the greatest care must be taken to prevent an economic result contrary to the purpose of moratoria legislation. Undue restrictions upon, and extended postponements of, the remedies of owners of mortgages, deeds of trust and contracts of purchase must, of necessity, result both in a material lessening of the loan value of the property of the State and of the value to the property owners of their equity over and above encumbrances, and also in the inability of property owners to refinance their obligations on favorable terms. Such results can not but impair the financial stability and prevent the financial rehabilitation of property owners of the State, and must eventually precipitate an unduly large number of foreclosures, sales and forfeitures. The conflicting economic principles involved in moratoria legislation and the inestimable value to the State, not only of a large body of landowners but also of the existence of sound property values, requires at this time a statement of the policy of this Legislature to be that relief by moratoria legislation should not be extended beyond the periods prescribed by this act, and although such policy will not be binding upon the succeeding Legislatures it may, nevertheless, serve as a recommendation.

With these considerations in view, the following provisions are intended to permit such delays and such safeguards to the interests of creditors affected thereby as are required by the present emergency.

Sec. 2. At any time within ninety days from and after the recording of notice of default under section 2924 of the Civil Code, or at any time within thirty days after the effective date of this act, but not later than January 1, 1937, the trustor under any deed of trust upon real property, or upon chattels attached to real property, or the mortgagor under any mortgage upon real property, or upon chattels attached to real property, conferring the power of sale, may file a petition in the superior court of the county in which such real property, or chattels attached to real property, or the major portion thereof, is situated, praying for an order postponing the sale of such property under the power of sale conferred by such deed of trust or such mortgage.

Sec. 3. A copy of such petition shall be served upon the trustee and the beneficiary under such deed of trust, or upon the mortgagor under such mortgage, as the case may be, in the manner provided by law for the service of summons in a civil action.

A notice of pendency of such petition shall immediately be recorded in each county in which any of such property is situated, and on the day of such recordation a copy thereof shall be mailed, postage prepaid, from a post office within this
State, addressed to such trustee and beneficiary, or such mortgagee, as the case may be, at their respective places of residence, if known to petitioner, if not, then at the county seat of the county, or at the city and county, where the proceeding is pending.

Such notice of pendency shall state the name of the petitioner, the nature of the petition, and the book and page of the records of the county recorder in which the mortgage or deed of trust was recorded.

Sec. 4. Upon application of the petitioner, after service of such petition, or upon application of any other interested party after the filing of the petition, a hearing shall be had thereon within twenty days after such application, upon such notice as the court shall reasonably prescribe; provided, however, that the court, if it finds equitable grounds therefor, may postpone such hearing for not to exceed ten days.

After the filing of such petition and the recording and mailing of the notice of the pendency thereof, as provided in sections 2 and 3 of this act, no sale under the power of sale conferred by such deed of trust or such mortgage shall be held until the court makes its order in the matter, but nothing herein contained shall prevent such sale at any time after February 1, 1937.

Sec. 5. Upon such hearing the court may make its order, if it finds equitable grounds for relief, ordering that such sale shall not be held until after such date as the court considers just and equitable, but in no event shall such date be beyond February 1, 1937, or may make its order dismissing such proceedings.

If the court orders the sale postponed it shall determine the reasonable value of the income from such property, or if the property has no income, then the reasonable rental value of such property, or if the property is unimproved, a reasonable sum to be paid by the trustor or mortgagor as determined by the court, and by such order shall require the trustor or mortgagor to pay all or at least a reasonable part of such income, rental value, or sum so determined by the court, in or toward the payment of taxes, insurance, interest, or principal of the indebtedness at such times and in such manner as are determined to be just and equitable under the circumstances.

Sec. 6. The court must include in such order provisions requiring maintenance and repair by the trustor or mortgagor, regulating the disposition of any income from the property and such other provisions as it deems just and equitable for the protection of the security, but in no event shall the court order the payment by the trustor or mortgagor of a lesser sum than necessary to pay (a) current taxes, (b) all delinquent taxes, except that such taxes may be paid in installments as may be provided by law, and (c) any insurance premiums required to be paid by the debtor under the contract between the parties.
SEC. 7. When any mortgage or deed of trust upon real property, or upon chattels attached to real property, has been foreclosed, and the property covered thereby has been sold in whole or in part under decree of foreclosure, and the period of redemption has not yet expired, the mortgagor or trustor thereof, having the right of redemption, may at any time not later than January 1, 1937, file a petition in the superior court of the county in which the property so sold or the major portion thereof is situated, praying for an order extending such period of redemption.

SEC. 8. A copy of such petition shall be served upon the purchaser of such property at the foreclosure sale, or, if there has been a redemption, upon the last redemptioner, in the manner provided by law for the service of summons in a civil action.

A notice of pendency of such petition shall immediately be recorded in each county in which any of such property is situated, and, on the day of such recordation, a copy thereof shall be mailed, postage prepaid, from a post office within this State, addressed to such purchaser or last redemptioner, as the case may be, at his place of residence, if known to petitioner, if not, then at the county seat of the county, or at the city and county, where the proceeding is pending.

Such notice of pendency shall state the name of the petitioner, the nature of the petition, and the book and page of the records of the county recorder in which the mortgage or deed of trust is recorded.

SEC. 9. Upon application of the petitioner after service of such petition, or upon application of any other interested party, after the filing of the petition, a hearing shall be had thereon within twenty days after such application, upon such notice as the court shall reasonably prescribe; provided, however, that the court, if it finds equitable grounds therefor, may postpone such hearing for not to exceed ten days.

Upon the filing of such petition and the recording and mailing of the notice of pendency thereof as provided in sections 7 and 8 of this act, the period of redemption, if such period would sooner terminate, shall be extended until ten days after the court makes its order in the matter, but in no event beyond February 1, 1937.

SEC. 10. Upon such hearing the court may make its order, if it finds equitable grounds for relief, extending such period of redemption for such additional time as the court considers just and equitable, but in no event beyond February 1, 1937, or may make its order dismissing such proceeding.

If the court by its order extends the period of redemption, it shall determine the reasonable value of the income from such property, or if the property has no income, then the reasonable rental value of such property, or if the property is unimproved, a reasonable sum to be paid by the trustor or mortgagor as determined by the court.
The court shall require the trustor or mortgagor to pay all or at least a reasonable part of such income, rental value, or sum so determined by the court, in or toward the payment of taxes upon such property, the cost of insurance and the sums to which the purchaser of such property at such foreclosure sale, or the last redemptioner, as the case may be, is entitled under the provisions of section 707 of the Code of Civil Procedure, at such times and in such manner determined to be just and equitable under the circumstances.

Sec. 11. The court must include in such order provisions requiring maintenance and repair by the trustor or mortgagor, regulating the disposition of any income from the property, and such other provisions as it deems just and equitable for the protection of the interest of the purchaser or last redemptioner, as the case may be.

In no event shall the court order the payment by the trustor or mortgagor of a lesser sum than the greater of (1) the amount of such reasonable value of the income, or such reasonable rental value, or such reasonable sum so determined by the court, or (2) a sum sufficient to pay (e) current taxes, (d) all delinquent taxes, except that such taxes may be paid in installments as provided by law, and (e) a sum reasonably necessary for fire and other insurance upon any improvement upon such property.

Sec. 12. Any sums paid to a purchaser or redemptioner pursuant to sections 10 or 11 of this act shall be a credit upon the redemption money to be paid as provided in section 707 of the Code of Civil Procedure; but in the event no redemption is made, the same shall belong to such purchaser or redemptioner.

Sec. 13. Nothing in this act shall be construed as abridging or limiting the statutory right of redemption provided in sections 701, 702, 703, 704, 705, 706 and 707 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or as shortening the period of redemption as therein provided, or as altering the mode or procedure for redemption as therein provided.

Sec. 14. In any decree hereafter rendered, prior to February 1, 1936, foreclosing a mortgage or deed of trust upon real property, the court may provide that the sale of the property shall not be held until on or after such date as the court considers just and equitable, but in no event later than February 1, 1936. If the court provides in such decree that the sale shall not be held until on or after such date as it shall fix, it shall determine the reasonable value of the income from such property, or if the property has no income, then the reasonable rental value of such property, or if the property is unimproved, a reasonable sum to be paid by the trustor or mortgagor as determined by the court, and shall require the trustor or mortgagor to pay all or at least a reasonable part of such income, rental value, or sum so determined by the court, in or toward the payment of taxes, insurance, interest, or principal of the indebtedness at such times and in such manner deter mined to be just and equitable under the circumstances. The court may include in such order provisions requiring maintenance and repair, regulating the disposition of any income from the property, and such other provisions as it deems just and equitable for the protection of the security.

SEC. 15. The purchaser of any real property, or of chattels attached to real property, under any contract of purchase may, at any time prior to the foreclosure, termination, or forfeiture of his interest under such contract, but not later than February 1, 1937, file a petition in the superior court of the county in which such property, or the major portion thereof, is situated for an order postponing to a date not later than February 1, 1937, the foreclosure, termination, or forfeiture of his interest thereunder.

A copy of such petition shall be served upon the vendor, and notice of pendency of such petition shall be recorded and mailed, and a hearing shall be held thereon within the time, after the notice, and in the manner provided in sections 3, 4, 5 and 6 of this act in respect to petitions relating to sales under the power of sale conferred by deeds of trust and mortgages.

After such hearing the court, if it shall determine that it is equitable and just so to do, may make its order postponing to a date not later than February 1, 1937, the foreclosure, termination or forfeiture of the petitioners' interest under such contract of purchase on substantially the same terms and conditions as those prescribed in sections 5 and 6 of this act, or the court may make its order dismissing such proceeding.

SEC. 16. Upon the petition of any interested party at any time or from time to time prior to the date to which any postponement or extension pursuant to this or any of the foregoing sections, or pursuant to Chapter 7, Statutes of 1935, was made, or prior to the time that a sale may be held under any decree or order rendered pursuant to this act, the court, upon hearing after such notice to the other interested parties as it shall reasonably prescribe, may make an order altering or supplementing or extending any previous order or decree or the postponement of sale therein provided rendered in the matter pursuant to this or any of the foregoing sections, or pursuant to Chapter 7, Statutes of 1935, upon the presentation of evidence showing that the provisions of such order or decree should be altered or supplemented or extended to make them just and equitable; provided, however, that the court by such order shall not require the payment of lesser sums than are under this act required to be paid, nor extend any periods of postponement or extension beyond the limits in this act prescribed.

SEC. 17. If the trustor, mortgagor or purchaser under a contract of purchase commits waste or defaults in any payment or act required by order or decree of court, the court, unless good excuse therefor is shown, must order that the sale, foreclosure, termination or forfeiture postponed by its order or decree proceed as provided by law, or that the period of redemption extended by its order or decree shall expire on the making of its order or within the time provided by law, whichever shall last occur, and that the moneys to be paid on redemption, if heretofore reduced, be increased to the extent of such previous reduction, if it finds after hearing upon such notice to the original petitioner or his attorney as it prescribes, that there has been such waste or such default, unless good excuse therefor is shown, amounting to a material breach of the order or decree of postponement or extension.

Sec. 18. No suit or action shall be commenced against the guarantor of any note secured by a mortgage or deed of trust upon real property, or upon chattels attached to real property, in any case while, pursuant to the provisions of this act, no sale may be made under any power of sale contained in such mortgage or deed of trust or while no sale may be made under the final decree of foreclosure rendered in an action to foreclose such mortgage.

Sec. 19. Whenever the time within which an action may be commenced upon any obligation founded upon a written instrument secured by mortgage, deed of trust or contract of purchase, or founded upon any guarantee of such obligation or any contract of suretyship therefor or any indorsement of such instrument, would expire by virtue of section 337 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or by virtue of the provisions of Chapter I, Statutes of Extra Session of 1934, or by virtue of the provisions of Chapter VII, Statutes of 1935, or any other provision of law, during the period commencing with the effective date of this act and ending on February 1, 1937, such time is hereby extended so as not to expire until the first day of July, 1937.

Sec. 20. Nothing contained in this act shall apply to or be deemed to affect:

(a) Any mortgage, deed of trust or contract of sale upon real property, or upon chattels attached to real property, executed after February 7, 1935;

(b) Any mortgage or deed of trust securing the payment of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness authorized or permitted to be issued by the Commissioner of Corporations or made by public utilities subject to the provisions of the Public Utilities Act;

(c) Any mortgage or deed of trust while held and owned by the original lender securing any loan made by the United States Government or any agency thereof or any loan insured by the United States Government or any agency thereof;

(d) Any mortgage or deed of trust securing an obligation in default at the time the owner or owners acquired title by purchase subsequent to the effective date of this act.

Sec. 21. As used in this act:

(a) The terms "mortgagor," "mortgagee," "trustor," "trustee," "purchaser," "vendor," and "guarantor" shall include their personal representatives, assigns or successors in interest, and the singular shall include the plural.

(b) The term "trustee" shall also include the beneficiary of a deed of trust.

(c) As used in this act, the term "chattels attached to real property," or similar designation, includes anything which is deemed affixed or attached to land, or as forming part of the land.

Sec. 22. Nothing contained in this act shall preclude Waiver, any trustor under a deed of trust or any mortgagor under a mortgage or any purchaser under a contract for the purchase of real property, or chattels attached to real property, from ex-cuting and delivering at any time a deed to his beneficiary, mortgagor or vendor, or the purchaser at any foreclosure sale or a redemptioner, as the case may be, and the execution and delivery of any such deed by any such trustor, mortgagor or purchaser shall constitute a waiver of the benefit of all the provisions of this act. The failure on the part of any trustor, mortgagor or purchaser to file a petition within the times specified in this act, shall be deemed a waiver of the benefit of the provisions of this act.

Sec. 23. Any sale of real property, or of chattels attached ment of the covenants, or any thereof, contained in such mortgage or deed of trust, or in a proceeding ancillary to any such suit or action, or until after recording notice of default.

Sec. 26. If any section, clause or part of this act, or the determined by the courts to be unconstitutional, such section, clause or part shall no longer be effective or such application shall no longer control, but all other sections, clauses or parts or the application thereof to other persons and circumstances shall continue in full force and effect; it being the intent of the Legislature to make this act as effective as possible to relieve debtors in the manner herein provided.

Sec. 23. Chapter 7, Statutes of the Extra Session of 1934, is hereby repealed; provided, however, that the repeal of said act shall not affect any rights which have accrued thereunder, or shorten the time within which any action may be commenced.

Sec. 29. Chapter 7, Statutes of 1935, is hereby repealed, provided, however, that the repeal of such act shall not affect any rights which have accrued thereunder, or shorten the time within which any action may be commenced, or affect any proceedings taken thereunder, and in so far as such proceedings have not been completed they may be continued under this act and subject to its provisions, and the court in any such proceeding shall have the same powers as though the petition therein had been filed under the provisions of this act.

Sec. 30. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Mortgage and Trust Deed Moratorium of 1935."

Sec. 31. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall therefore take effect immediately.

The facts constituting the necessity are the dangers to the State and to the people involved in the unusually large number of foreclosures, sales, forfeitures and terminations which will result in the near future under mortgages, deeds of trust, and contracts of purchase of real property, or upon chattels attached to real property, because of defaults in payments by the owners or purchasers of such property. Such defaults are the result of exceptionally depressed conditions in this State, which have deprived a large proportion of the landowners and land purchasers of sufficient income to meet their obligations. The dangers in the situation are such as to threaten the maintenance of law and order, and to lead to the pauperization of many persons who have hitherto constituted an important part of the self-supporting and economically independent people of this State. This act will provide a means for delaying such sales, foreclosures, terminations and forfeitures so as to permit landowners and land purchasers to find means of meeting their obligations, and at the same time will protect the interests of creditors. The dangers mentioned will thus be avoided.

CHAPTER 349.

An act to call a special election to be held on the thirteenth day of August, 1935, for the purpose of submitting to the qualified electors of this State certain amendments to the Constitution of this State proposed by the Legislature at its fifty-first regular session, and to provide that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 24, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A special election is hereby called to be held throughout the State of California on Tuesday, the thirteenth day of August, 1935. At said special elections there shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State the following:

Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 26.—A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of said State by adding to Article XVI thereof a new section to be numbered 11, relating to a bond issue for certain major construction and improvements;

Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 18—A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of said State by adding to Article XIII thereof a new section to be numbered 17, relating to the power of the Legislature to provide for the borrowing of money to meet appropriations made by law, in anticipation of the collection of taxes and revenues.

Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 90.—A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amend-ment to the Constitution of said State by adding to Article XVI thereof a new section to be numbered 12, relating to the Rector Canyon Dam project.

Each of the foregoing are amendments to the Constitution of the State of California proposed to the electors of the State of California by the Legislature thereof at its fifty-first regular session in accordance with the provisions of section 1 of Article XVIII of said Constitution.

Sec. 2. The special election provided for in this act shall be proclaimed, held, conducted, and the ballots shall be prepared, marked, voted, counted, canvassed, and the results shall be ascertained and the returns thereof made in all respects in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution applicable thereto and the law governing general elections in so far as provisions thereof are applicable to the election provided for by this act; provided, however, that the governing boards or bodies charged with the conduct of elections in the counties or cities and counties may consolidate the precincts of the counties and cities and counties for the purposes of this election and shall also appoint as officers of this election one inspector, one judge, and one clerk, who shall receive as compensation for their services a sum not to exceed three dollars each, which sum shall be paid out of the treasuries of the counties or cities and counties by which such persons are employed.

Sec. 3. The presiding officer of the house in which the proposed constitutional amendments originate shall immediately appoint the author or one of the authors of such proposed amendment to the Constitution of this State and one member of the same house who voted in favor thereof to draft an argument giving the reasons for the adoption thereof, and he shall also appoint a member of the same house who voted against such proposed constitutional amendment to draft an argument against the adoption thereof. If no member of the same house voted against such proposed amendment, he shall appoint a qualified person to draft such argument. Each argument shall consist of not more than five hundred words in length and shall be submitted by the author or authors to the Secretary of State within five days after this act takes effect.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the Attorney General to prepare and deliver to the Secretary of State ballot titles prescribed by section 1197 of the Political Code within five days after this act takes effect. Written objections to the titles prepared by the Attorney General shall be filed with the Secretary of State within five days from such delivery and the Secretary of State shall forthwith file a copy of the constitutional amendment, together with the title thereof so prepared by the Attorney General and the said objections thereto, with the Board of Title Commissioners as provided by section 1197 of the Political Code. Said title commissioners shall determine the validity of such objections within three days after the objections are filed. The determination by said board shall be final and conclusive.

Sec. 5. Inasmuch as this act provides for the calling of an election, it shall, under the provisions of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, take effect immediately.

CHAPteR 350.

An act to provide for certain major construction and improvements by the State, including the construction of a State prison, certain other construction and improvements and the issue of bonds therefore and making an appropriation.

[Approved by the Governor June 24, 1935. Validating amendment refused adoption by electors, August 13, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. There is hereby appropriated to be expended in accordance with law, the sum of thirteen million nine hundred fifty thousand dollars which shall be expended for the following purposes:

(1) To repay into the general fund of the State a sum of money equal to that appropriated by the Legislature in the Budget Bill for the eighty-seventh and eighty-eighth fiscal years for major construction, improvements, and equipment at the State institutions.
(2) For the purchase of a prison site in southern California, and construction, improvement, and equipment of a State prison thereon, to be expended under the provisions of an act entitled "An act to establish the Southern California Prison under the management and control of the State Board of Prison Directors; to provide for purchase or acquirement of farm lands by unconditional gift or use of lands owned by the State therefor; and the construction of buildings and other improvements in connection therewith; to provide for the commitment and transfer of prisoners thereto and therefrom; to provide for the equipment, conduct and management thereof; and to make an appropriation therefor."

Stats. 1925, Ch 414, passed at the fifty-first session of the Legislature, in the amount and in lieu of the appropriation therein contained; provided, that said act not become effective, then to be expended under the provisions of section 3 of this act.

(3) For permanent improvements to State institutions and the State Capitol and for the construction and equipment of a wing or wings to the State building in Los Angeles, or for the improvement of said building.

(4) For the expense that may be incurred in preparing, advertising, issuing and selling the bonds, and in administering and directing the expenditure of the moneys hereby appropriated.

(5) In the event that the moneys hereby appropriated or otherwise made available for expenditure under the provisions of this act shall exceed the amount required under paragraphs numbered (1) to (4) of this section, the commission may, if it deems it in the best interests of the State, expend such excess for the construction or improvement of buildings for institutions supported in whole or in part by the State.

Sec. 2. The administration of this act shall be vested with the State Building Commission. For the purposes of this act the word "commission," whenever used herein, refers to the State Building Commission created by this act. The commission is hereby created and shall consist of the Director of Finance, the Director of Institutions, the Director of Public Works and two members appointed by the Governor of this State.

To carry out the provisions of section 3 of this act, the commission may employ and fix the compensation of such clerical and other assistants and employees, all exempt from the provisions of the State civil service, as it deems necessary to carry out the purposes of this act. The commission may require any such officer or employee to give such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the commission prescribes and may also require any such officer to take and file with it the constitutional oath of office. Members of the commission shall receive no compensation for their services, but all the members of the commission shall receive their actual and necessary traveling expenses arising out of the performance of their duties pursuant to this act.
SEC. 3. Subject to the provisions of section 1, subdivision 2, of this act, the State Building Commission may acquire real property as a site for the construction of a State prison in the southern part of this State. Such site shall be selected and the property acquired at such location and under such circumstances as, in the opinion of the commission, is for the best interests of the State. It may condemn, for such purpose, under the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure and the Constitution relating to the exercise of the powers of eminent domain by the State, any real property or interest therein which it is authorized to acquire. The commission shall not commence any such proceeding in eminent domain unless it first adopts a resolution declaring that the construction or improvement proposed requires the acquisition, construction or completion by the State acting through the commission of such property, and that the real property or interest therein described in such resolution is necessary for such construction of such prison.

The resolution of the commission shall be conclusive evidence: (a) that such real property or interest is necessary for such construction; (b) that such proposed construction or improvement is planned or located in a manner which will be compatible with the greatest public good and the least private injury.

The commission may also exercise, and is hereby granted, any and all powers, other than the power to acquire real property, necessary or convenient to it in the administration of this act or the execution of the provisions thereof. The enumeration of specific powers herein contained shall not be construed to limit or derogate from the general power herein granted, and no provision of the Constitution relating to the powers or duties of officers or employees of the State shall limit or restrict the commission in the carrying out of the provisions of this act. In the exercise of such powers the commission shall have full power and authority to make contracts and carry them into effect, and to sue and be sued in its own name as the State Building Commission.

The commission shall carry out construction or improvement, or any part thereof, through the Department of Public Works in accordance with the provisions of the State Contract Act, and other laws governing erection of State buildings.

Before providing for any expenditure from the proceeds of the sale of bonds authorized in this act in an amount which will reduce the unencumbered balance of such proceeds below the amount appropriated by the Legislature in the Budget Bill for the eighty-seventh and eighty-eighth fiscal years for major construction, improvements and equipment at the State institutions, the State Building Commission shall secure from the Governor a certification that the repayment of such money or any part thereof to the general fund is not required in the best interests of the State and may be expended for major construction, improvements and equipment at State institutions.

Upon order of the Governor the State Building Commission shall repay to the general fund such sum or sums not to exceed in total the sum of money equal to that appropriated by the Legislature in the Budget Bill for the eighty-seventh and eighty-eighth fiscal years for major construction, improvements and equipment at the State institutions.

Sec. 4. For the purposes of this act, the commission, or any member thereof pursuant to authorization by the commission, shall possess and may exercise all the powers conferred upon heads of departments by the provisions of section 353 of the Political Code.

Sec. 5. For the purpose of creating a fund to provide moneys to be expended pursuant to the appropriation contained in section 1 of this act, the State building finance committee created by section 15 of this act shall be and it hereby is authorized to create a debt or debts, liability or liabilities of the State of California, in the manner and to the extent provided in this act, not otherwise, nor in excess thereof.

Sec. 6. For the purposes of this act, and immediately after adoption and filing in his office of any resolution by the State building finance committee as provided in this act, the State Treasurer shall prepare the requisite number of suitable bonds of the denomination of one thousand dollars in accordance with the specifications contained in such resolution.

The aggregate par value of all bonds issued under this act shall not exceed the sum of thirteen million nine hundred fifty thousand dollars and the bonds issued under any such resolution shall bear interest from the dates of issuance of said bonds to the dates of maturity thereof, at a rate to be determined by the State building finance committee and specified in such resolution, but in no case exceeding five per cent per annum. Both principal and interest shall be payable in lawful money of the United States, at the office of the State Treasurer, or at the office of any duly authorized agent of the Treasurer, and shall be so payable at the times specified in the resolution.

Sec. 7. All bonds issued under this act shall bear the facsimile signature of the Governor and the facsimile countersignature of the Controller and shall be endorsed by the State Treasurer either by original signature or by a signature stamp adopted for each particular bond issue under this act. And the said bonds shall be signed, countersigned and endorsed by the officers who are in office on the date of issuance thereof, and each of said bonds shall bear an impress of the great seal of the State of California. When sold, the bonds so signed, countersigned, endorsed and sealed shall be and constitute a valid and binding obligation upon the State of California, even though the sale thereof is made at a date or dates upon which the officers who have signed, countersigned and endorsed the bonds, or any or either of such officers, have ceased to be the incumbents of the offices held by them at the time of signing, countersigning or endorsing such bonds. Every bond issued under this act shall contain a clause or clauses stating that interest ceases to accrue thereon from and after the date of maturity thereof and referring to this act and to the resolution of the State building finance committee under this act by virtue of which the bond is issued.

Sec. 8. The requisite number of suitable interest coupons, appropriately numbered, shall be attached to each bond issued under this act. Such interest coupons shall bear the facsimile signature of the State Treasurer who is in office on date of issuance of the bonds to which the coupons pertain.

Sec. 9. All bonds issued and sold under this act shall be deemed to have been called in at their respective dates of maturity and the State Treasurer shall, on the respective dates of maturity of said bonds, or as soon thereafter as said matured bonds are surrendered to him, pay the same out of the proceeds of the Controller’s warrants drawn in his favor as provided in section 10 hereof and perforate the bonds so paid with a suitable device in a manner to indicate such payment and the date thereof. He shall also, on the said respective dates of maturity, cancel all bonds bearing said dates of maturity and remaining unsold, by perforation with a suitable device in a manner to indicate such cancellation and the date thereof. The provisions of this section shall be applicable also to the interest coupons pertaining to the bonds authorized by this act to be issued, and shall be applicable, as far as practicable, to any duly authorized agent of the State Treasurer.

Sec. 10. There is hereby appropriated from the general fund in the State treasury such sum annually as will be necessary to pay the principal of and the interest on the bonds issued and sold pursuant to the provisions of this act, as said principal and interest becomes due and payable.

There shall be collected annually in the same manner and at the same time as other State revenue is collected such a sum, in addition to the ordinary revenues of the State, as shall be required to pay the principal and interest on said bonds as herein provided, and it is hereby made the duty of all officers charged by law with any duty in regard to the collections of said revenue, to do and perform each and every act which shall be necessary to collect such additional sum.

Both principal and interest of said bonds shall be paid when due upon warrants duly drawn against said appropriation from the general fund by the Controller of the State in favor of the State Treasurer or in favor of any duly authorized agent of the State Treasurer.

Sec. 11. The sum of thirty-five thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the State treasury not otherwise appropriated to pay the expenses that may be incurred by the State Treasurer in having said bonds prepared and in advertising their sale. Said amount shall be refunded to the general fund in the State treasury out of the State building fund on Controller's warrant duly drawn for that purpose.

SEC. 12. When the bonds authorized to be issued under this act are duly executed, they shall be sold by the State Treasurer at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in such parcels and numbers as the Treasurer is directed by the Governor of the State, under seal of the State, after a resolution requesting such sale has been adopted by the State Building Commission, and approved by the Governor, but the Treasurer shall reject any and all bids for the bonds or for any of them, when such bid is below the par value of the bonds so offered plus the interest accrued thereon between the date of sale and the last preceding interest maturity date. With the approval of the Governor, the Treasurer may from time to time, by public announcement at the place and time fixed for the sale, continue the sale as to the whole of the bonds offered, or any part thereof, to such time and place as he selects. Before offering any of the bonds for sale, the Treasurer shall detach therefrom all interest coupons which have matured or will mature before the day fixed for the sale.

SEC. 13. Due notice of the time and place of sale of all bonds shall be given by the Treasurer by publishing in one newspaper published in the City and County of San Francisco and also by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Oakland and by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Los Angeles once a week during four weeks prior to such sale. In addition to the notice last above provided for, the State Treasurer may give such further notice as he deems advisable, but the expense and cost of such additional notice shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars for each sale so advertised. The proceeds of the sale of such bonds, and such amount as has been paid as accrued interest thereof, shall forthwith be paid over by the Treasurer into the State building fund, which fund is hereby created in the State treasury, to be paid out and expended in accordance with law in carrying out the provisions of this act.

SEC. 14. The Director of Finance may, with the approval of the State Board of Control, invest any surplus moneys in the State building fund in bonds or direct obligations of the United States, or in bonds, warrants or other direct obligations of the State of California, or in bonds of any of the several counties or municipalities or other political subdivisions of the State of California. He may sell such bonds, warrants or obligations, or any of them, at the governing market rates, upon approval of the State Board of Control. The Director of Finance, with the approval of the State Board of Control, may invest the moneys of any of the funds subject to the control of the State Building Commission or appropriated for expenditure by the commission in interest bearing certificates of deposit of State banks, except that the total amount of money so deposited with any one bank shall not exceed a sum equal to fifty per cent of the paid up capital of such bank, and in addition thereto such moneys may be deposited in banks in accordance with the provisions of any law of this State authorizing the deposit of moneys belonging or in the custody of this State in banks.

Interest accruing upon the deposits of moneys appropriated to be expended by the commission, or of any funds subject to the control of the commission, shall be paid into the State treasury and credited to the general fund.

Sec. 15. There is hereby created a State building finance committee composed of the Governor, State Controller, State Treasurer, Director of Finance and the Attorney General, all of whom shall serve thereon without compensation and a majority of whom are hereby empowered to act for the committee. The Attorney General of the State shall be the legal advisor of the State Building Commission and the State building finance committee.

Upon request of the State Building Commission, supported by a statement of the plans and projects of the commission with respect thereto, the State building finance committee shall determine whether or not it is necessary that bonds shall issue and be sold as provided in this act to carry such plans and projects into execution.

Sec. 16. Whenever the State building finance committee determines that bonds shall issue under this act to carry such plans and projects into execution, it shall adopt a resolution stating the necessity thereof. The resolution shall authorize and direct the State Treasurer to prepare the requisite number of suitable bonds and shall specify:

1. The aggregate number, aggregate par value, and the date of issuance of the bonds to be issued.
2. The date or dates of maturity of bonds to be issued and number and numerical sequences of the bonds maturing at each date of maturity.
3. The annual rate of interest, not exceeding five per cent, which the bonds thus to be issued are to bear.
4. The number, numerical sequence, amount or amounts, and the dates of maturity of the interest coupons to be attached to the said bonds.
5. The technical form and language of the bonds to be issued and of the interest coupons to be attached thereto.

The bonds so issued shall be serial bonds, and, so far as practicable, the dates of maturity shall be so fixed as to require approximately equal payments in discharge of the total of the indebtedness authorized hereunder for each year during the period commencing in the year 1937 and ending with and during the year 1957.

Sec. 17. The rate of interest to be borne by the bonds shall be uniform for all bonds of the same issue and shall be determined and fixed by the State building finance committee according to the then prevailing market conditions, but shall in no case exceed five per cent per annum. The determination of the committee as to the rate of interest shall be conclusive as to the then prevailing market conditions. The interest coupons to be attached to the bonds shall be payable at semi-annual intervals from the date of issuance of the bonds, except that the interest coupon first payable may, if the State building finance committee so determines and specifies, be payable one year after the date of issuance of the bonds.

SEC. 18. All actual and necessary expenses of the State building finance committee and of the members thereof shall be paid out of the State building fund, upon the approval of the State Department of Finance and on Controller's warrant duly drawn for that purpose.

SEC. 19. The State Controller, the State Treasurer and the State building finance committee shall keep full and accurate account and record of all their proceedings under this act. All books and papers pertaining to the matters provided for in this act shall at all times be open to the inspection of any party interested, or the Governor, or the Attorney General, or a committee of either branch of the Legislature, or a joint committee of both branches of the Legislature, or any citizen of the State.

SEC. 20. Whenever the United States Government or any officer or agency thereof shall provide funds for the construction of public works at State institutions supported in whole or in part by the State, cooperation by the State therewith and therein is hereby authorized in such manner and to such extent as the State Building Commission may deem to be for the best interests of the State, and the funds herein appropriated shall become available for such purpose.

SEC. 21. This act shall take effect upon the adoption by the people of the State of California of an amendment to the Constitution of the State of California, approving, adopting, legalizing, ratifying, validating and making fully and completely effective this act.

SEC. 22. This act may be known and cited as the State Building Bond Act of 1935.

CHAPTER 351.

An act to add a new section to an act entitled "An act imposing a tax for the privilege of selling tangible personal property and for the privilege of furnishing, preparing or serving tangible personal property, providing for permits to retailers, providing for the levying, assessing, collecting, paying and disposing of such tax, making an appropriation for the administration thereof, prescribing penalties for violations of the provisions thereof, and providing this act shall take effect immediately," approved July 31, 1933, to be numbered 26½, relating to the priority of the State of California for taxes.

[Approved by the Governor June 25, 1935 In effect September 15, 1935 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section to be numbered 26½ is hereby added to the act cited in the title hereof to read as follows:

Sec. 26½. Whenever any retailer liable for any tax levied hereunder is insolvent, whenever any retailer makes a voluntary assignment of his assets, whenever the estate of a deceased retailer in the hands of executors, administrators, or heirs is insufficient to pay all the debts due from the deceased, or whenever the estate and effects of an absconding, concealed, or absent retailer are levied upon by process of law, the tax, together with interest and penalties attaching thereto, shall be first satisfied; provided, however, that this section shall not be construed to give the State a preference over any recorded lien which attached prior to the date when the tax became a lien.

CHAPTER 352.

An act to establish a system of unemployment reserves for this State, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by the Governor June 25, 1935 In effect September 15, 1935 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Article 1—Basis of Act.

SECTION 1. Experience has shown that large numbers of the population of California do not enjoy permanent employment by reason of which their purchasing power is unstable. This is detrimental to the interests of the people of California as a whole.

The benefit to all persons resulting from public and private enterprise is realized in the final consumption of goods and services. It is contrary to public policy to permit the supply of consumption goods and services at prices which do not provide against that harm to the population consequent upon periods of unemployment of those who contribute to the production and distribution of such goods and services.

Experience has shown that private charity and local relief can not alone prevent the effects of unemployment. Experience has shown that if the State awaits the coming of excessive unemployment it can neither create immediately the organization necessary to orderly, economical and effective relief nor bear the financial burden of relief without disrupting its whole system of ordinary revenues and without jeopardizing its credit.

To meet in some measure the situation thus shown to be created by excessive unemployment, this act is designed to accumulate a reserve to assist in protecting the public against the social effects of unemployment which may be created in future years.

Sec. 2. This act is enacted as a part of a National plan of unemployment reserves and social security, and for the purpose of assisting in the stabilization of unemployment conditions. The imposition of the tax herein imposed upon California industry alone, without a corresponding tax be imposed upon all industry in the United States, would, by the corresponding penalty upon California industry, defeat the very purposes of this act set forth in section 1. Therefore this act shall take effect only if and when there is enacted legislation by the United States Government providing for a tax upon the payment of wages by employers in this State, against which all or any part of the contributions required by this act may be credited.

Whenever such legislation enacted by the United States Government is repealed, amended, affected or otherwise changed in such manner that the contributions required by this act or some portion thereof can not be thus credited, then upon the date of such change, the provisions of this act requiring contributions and providing for payment of benefits shall cease to be operative and any assets in the unemployment fund or unemployment administration fund shall in the discretion of the State Treasurer be held in the then existing depositaries or otherwise in the State treasury. In the case of the unemployment administration fund, such moneys may thereafter be dealt with by the State Treasurer pursuant to the conditions of the grant thereof to the State by the United States Government or agency thereof.

Article 2—Definitions.

Sec. 5. Except where the context otherwise clearly indicates, the definitions set forth in this article shall govern the construction of the provisions of this act.

Sec. 6. "Commission" means the unemployment reserves commission created by this act.

Sec. 7. An "employment." means any employment by an employer who is subject to this act during any week, in which all or the greater part of the work performed within the United States or on a vessel documented within the United States is customarily performed within this State, under any contract of hire, express or implied, oral or written, except that for the purpose of this act such "employment" does not include:

(a) Agricultural labor;
(b) Domestic service in a private home;
(c) Service performed as an officer or member of the crew of a vessel on the navigable waters of the United States;
(d) Service performed by an individual in the employ of his son, daughter, or spouse, and service performed by a child under the age of twenty-one in the employ of his father or mother;
(e) Service performed in the employ of the United States Government or of an instrumentality of the United States;
(f) Service performed in the employ of a State, a political subdivision thereof, or an instrumentality of one or more States or political subdivisions, or in the employ of any unit or agency of government, whether of a governmental or a proprietary nature, or service as a public officer;
(g) Service performed in the employ of a corporation, community chest, fund, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual.
(h) Employment, under any unemployment compensation system established by a law of the United States.

Sec. 8. "Eligible employee" means every person employed by an employer subject to this act in an employment also subject to this act.

Sec. 9. "Employer" means:

(a) Every individual, trust or estate, partnership, association, joint stock company or corporation, subject to a payroll tax levied by the United States government, if the tax levied by this act, or any portion thereof, may be credited against such payroll tax.
(b) If the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section are held invalid by a final judgment of a court of final instance of this State or the United States:

(1) All the following parties, other than units or agencies of government, who have the record of operation set forth in paragraph (2): Persons, firms, partnerships, associations, trusts or estates, joint stock companies, or corporations.

(2) All the parties specified and not excluded in paragraph 1 of this subdivision having the following record: As to such party, on each of some thirteen days during the calendar year, each day being in a different calendar week, the total number of individuals who were in his employ for some portion of the day, whether or not at the same moment of time, was four or more.

There shall be included in computing the persons thus employed by the employer, all persons thus employed and all of any several places of employment maintained by the employer, except that where some of such persons are employed within the State and others are employed without the State, the tax levied by this act shall apply only as to such employees employed within the State, or the greater part of the work of which is performed within the State.

Sec. 10. "Benefits" means the money allowance payable to an employee as compensation for his wage losses due to unemployment, as provided in this act.

Sec. 11. "Wages" means the amount of money received as compensation for the service rendered, including commissions and bonuses and the reasonable value of board, rent, housing, lodging or similar advantage received from the employer.

Sec. 12. "Total unemployment" means the condition caused by the inability of an employee who is capable of and available for work, to obtain suitable employment, when such condition causes total loss of wages.

Sec. 13. "Suitable employment" means:
(a) Employment in the employee’s usual employment and which conforms to the conditions of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of this section.

(b) Employment for which the employee is reasonably fitted, regardless of whether or not it is subject to this act, if such employment conforms both to the provisions of paragraph 1 and paragraph 2 of this subdivision.

(1) The employment is one for which the employee is reasonably fitted, regardless of whether or not it is subject to this act, and is in the vicinity of the employee’s residence or last employment, and either gives him wages at least equal to his weekly benefit for total unemployment, or provides him work for at least half the number of hours normally worked at full time in the occupation or establishment.

(2) The employment offered is not vacant due directly to a strike, lockout or other labor dispute; the wages, hours or other conditions of the work offered are not substantially less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality; and as a condition of such employment the individual will not be required to join a company union or to resign from or refrain from joining any bona fide labor organization.

(c) In any particular case where the commission finds it impracticable to apply one of the standards prescribed by subdivision (a) or (b), any standard set by the commission which conforms to the provisions of paragraph 2 of subdivision (b) and is reasonably calculated to determine what is suitable employment.

Sec. 14. "Partial unemployment" means any temporary reduction in working hours below the normal working hours per week, and which results in loss of wages. The normal working hours per week are computed as the hours per week most commonly worked in the preceding three years in the portion or division of the particular establishment or business in which the employee is employed, or such hours as were set by collective agreement between the employer and his employees.

Article 3—Funds in the State Treasury.

Sec. 19. There is hereby created the unemployment fund in the State treasury, to be administered by the commission without liability on the part of the State beyond the amounts paid into and earned by the fund. This fund shall consist of all contributions and moneys paid into and received by the fund as provided by this act, of property and securities acquired by and through the use of moneys belonging to the fund, and of interest earned upon the moneys belonging to the fund.

Sec. 20. The unemployment fund shall be administered in trust and used solely to pay benefits, upon vouchers drawn on the fund by the commission pursuant to general commission rules and no other disbursement shall be made therefrom. Such rules shall be governed by and consistent with any applicable constitutional requirement, but the procedure prescribed by such rules shall be deemed to satisfy and shall be in lieu of any and all statutory requirements of specific appropriation or other form of release by State officers of State moneys prior to their expenditure which might otherwise be applicable to withdrawals from the fund.

Sec. 21. The State Treasurer shall be the treasurer of the fund and he shall pay all vouchers duly drawn upon the fund, in such manner as the commission prescribes. He shall have custody of all moneys belonging to the fund and not otherwise held or deposited or invested pursuant to this act. The official bond of the State Treasurer shall cover the faithful performance of his duties as treasurer of the fund. The Treasurer shall deposit and invest, and otherwise deal with the fund under the supervision and control of the commission, subject to the provisions of this act.

Sec. 22. All contributions paid under this act shall upon collection be deposited in or invested in the obligations of the "unemployment trust fund" of the United States Government or its authorized agent, so long as such said trust fund exists, notwithstanding any other statutory provision to the contrary. The commission shall requisition from the unemployment trust fund necessary amounts from time to time.

Sec. 23. There is hereby created the "unemployment administration fund," to consist of all the moneys received by the State or by the commission for the administration of this act. This administration fund shall be in the State treasury and shall be handled by the State Treasurer as other State moneys are handled; but it shall be expended solely for the purposes herein specified, and its balances shall not lapse.
at any time but shall remain continuously available to the commission for expenditures consistent herewith.

All Federal moneys allotted or apportioned to the State by the Federal Social Security Board or other agency for the administration of this act shall be paid into the unemployment administration fund.

A special "employment service account" shall be maintained as part of the unemployment administration fund.

Sec. 24. The State Treasurer shall be the custodian of all moneys and assets in the unemployment fund and unemployment administration fund, except as otherwise provided in this act. He shall be liable on his official bond for the safe keeping of such moneys, except that he shall not be liable for such safe-keeping while such funds are in the custody or control of the United States Government.

Sec. 25. All moneys requisitioned from the unemployment trust fund in the United States treasury for the payment of benefits under the provisions of this act shall be so requisitioned by the Unemployment Reserves Commission by and through the State Treasurer as agent thereof.

Sec. 26. If permitted by the United States Government, whether by rule or regulation of any agency thereof or by express provision of law, the commission may, with the approval of the State Department of Finance, withdraw from the fund, without at the same time presenting vouchers and itemized statements, a sum not to exceed in the aggregate the total contributions from all sources to the fund during the preceding month together with the total estimated expenditures from the fund for the current month, to be used as a cash revolving fund. Such revolving fund shall be deposited in such bank and other such conditions as the commission determines, with the approval of the State Department of Finance. Such withdrawals and deposits shall be made in accordance with law.

Sec. 27. Expenditures made from the revolving fund in payment of claims arising out of benefit liabilities are exempted from the operation of section 669 of the Political Code. Reimbursement of the revolving fund for such expenditures shall be made upon presentation to the State Controller of an abstract or statement of such expenditures. Such abstract shall be in such form as the Controller requires.

Sec. 28. Unless other procedure is prescribed by the United States Government or agency thereof as a condition precedent to the crediting of the tax pursuant to section 2 of this act, each calendar month the commission shall submit to the State Department of Finance an estimate of the amount necessary to meet the current disbursements from the unemployment fund during the succeeding calendar month. When such estimate is approved by the department, the approved amount shall be requisitioned by the State Treasurer, as agent for the commission, from the unemployment trust fund in the United States treasury and held by him in the unemployment fund.
in the State treasury subject to expenditure by the commission in payment of benefits under the provisions of this act, in accordance with law.

Sec. 29. At the end of each calendar month, the commission shall account to the Department of Finance and to the Controller for all moneys so received, furnishing proper vouchers therefor.

Sec. 30. During the months of January and July of each year the State Department of Finance or the commission shall report the market value of all securities and the amount of all moneys held for the fund, to the State Controller.

Sec. 31. The State Controller shall keep a special ledger account showing all of the assets pertaining to the unemployment fund and all of the assets pertaining to the unemployment administration fund. In the Controller's general ledger these funds may each appear as cash accounts, like other accounts of funds in the State treasury, and only the actual assets coming into each such fund shall be entered into the ledger account. Payments into the unemployment trust fund in the United States treasury shall be entered on the books in a manner similar to deposits in banks.

Sec. 32. Except as otherwise required by the contributor thereof, all moneys in the unemployment administration fund, in excess of current requirements, and not otherwise invested, may be deposited by the State Treasurer in banks and otherwise held and invested by him in the same manner as provided by law in the case of other funds in the State treasury, and under the same rules and regulations that govern the deposit of other public funds. The interest accruing thereon shall be credited to and deposited in the unemployment administration fund.

Sec. 33. Each quarter the commission shall make a report to the Governor of the transactions of the unemployment fund and unemployment administration fund during the previous quarter and a statement of the resources and liabilities of each fund at the close of that previous quarter. The Department of Finance shall audit such reports and statements and cause an abstract thereof to be published one or more times in at least two newspapers of general circulation in the State.

Article 4—Contributions.

Sec. 37. On and after January 1, 1936, contributions to the unemployment fund shall accrue and become payable by every employer subject to this act, and in accordance with its provisions. Thereafter, contributions shall accrue and become payable by any employer on and after the date on which he becomes subject to this act.

Sec. 38. Every such employer shall pay into the fund the following amounts:

(a) During the year 1936, with respect to payments of wages made during that year, ninety one-hundredths per cent of all wages paid by him in employments subject to this act.
(b) During the year 1937, with respect to payments of wages made during that year, one and eighty-one-hundredths per cent of all wages paid by him in employments subject to this act.

(c) During the year 1938 and thereafter, with respect to payments of wages made during that year and thereafter, two and seventy-one-hundredths per cent of all wages paid by him in employments subject to this act.

Sec. 39. The commission shall, beginning in 1941, classify employers in accordance with the actual experience with regard to the contributions which they have paid in their own behalf and the benefits which the unemployment fund has paid to their employees, or to employees whose benefits are charged against such employers. If it appears in the accounts established and kept as provided below, that an employer shows an excess of contributions paid in his own behalf over benefits paid to his employees or chargeable to him, a reserve equal to eight per cent or more of the average of his total pay rolls for the three preceding years, or the five preceding years whichever is higher, his rate of contribution shall be reduced to two and one-half per cent; if the reserve is ten per cent but less than twelve per cent, the rate shall be reduced to two per cent; if the reserve is twelve per cent but less than fifteen per cent, the rate shall be one and one-half per cent; and if the reserve is fifteen per cent or more, the rate shall be one per cent. The minimum contribution thus payable to the fund by the employer in his own behalf shall in no case amount to less than one per cent.

Sec. 40. The commission shall keep separate records of the amounts paid into the fund by each employer in his own behalf, or chargeable to him as benefits; but nothing in this chapter shall be construed to grant any employer or his employees prior claims or rights to the amount contributed by him to the fund, either on his own account or on behalf of his employees. The amount of employer contributions together with the employee contributions shall be pooled and available to pay benefits to any employee entitled to benefits under the provisions of this chapter regardless of the source of such contributions.

Sec. 41. For the purpose of determining which employer shall be debited with the amount of benefits paid to an employee who, during the period of the effective operation of this act, prior to the receipt of benefits, has worked for more than one employer, the liability of the two or more accounts shall be in inverse order to the succession of the several employments of the employee.

Sec. 42. No employer shall have the advantage of a merit rating unless the reserve computed remains at a level justifying the lower rate of contributions, except that the commission may, for purposes of convenience, fix quarterly, half yearly, or other reasonable periods during which the lower contributions based on merit ratings shall remain unchanged.
Unemployment hazard

Sec. 43. The commission shall investigate and report upon the degree of unemployment hazard in various industries and occupations and their cost to the unemployment fund. It shall recommend to employers in industries or occupations showing an excessive cost to the fund means for stabilizing employment. It shall also, if necessary, recommend to the Legislature a higher rate of contribution for any classification of industries or occupations in which unemployment is excessive or chronic.

Contributions by employees

Sec. 44. Beginning on January 1, 1936, each employee shall contribute to the fund one-half of one per cent of his wages; and beginning on January 1, 1937, and thereafter he shall contribute one per cent; except that the rate of contributions required of employees shall not in any year exceed fifty per cent of the general rate required of employers. Each employer shall withhold such contribution from the wages of his employees, shall show such deduction on his pay roll records, and shall transmit all such contributions to the fund, pursuant to general rules of the commission.

Default of employer

Sec. 45. If any employer defaults in any payment required of him, for himself or on behalf of employees under this act, he shall become additionally liable for interest on such payments at the rate of twelve per cent per annum from the date such payment becomes due, both principal and interest being payable in the same manner as the contributions. Such payment and interest shall be collectible in the name of the fund in any manner practicable, including civil action by the commission against the defaulting employer.

Bankruptcy or liquidation

Sec. 46. In the event of bankruptcy of any employer, or of liquidation of such employer under any law of this State by reason of insolvency or inability to pay his debts, the amount due for contribution on behalf of the employer or by him on behalf of employees, shall have the same preference against the assets of the employer as unpaid wages for labor, but shall not become a lien on the property of third persons by reason of such preference.

Exemption of employers

Sec. 47. The commission may exempt from the provisions of this act requiring contributions to the fund, and from such other provisions as the commission finds clearly inapplicable to guaranteed employment plans, any employer (and his employees) who guarantees, under a plan approved by the commission, to all employees in his employ at the time of putting such plan into effect (and to each employee who is thereafter employed and continued in employment after a total of eight weeks of employment), in advance for stated one-year periods, at least that number of weeks of work or wages, for at least that corresponding number of hours in each week set forth in the following table, provided the commission is satisfied that the employer can and will make good such promise under all circumstances.

The employer's guaranty to an employee under such a plan shall specify the one-year period applicable to such employee, the total wage rate guaranteed the employee for all work done by him for the employer during such year period and guaranteed him as a deficiency wage for each hour short of the number of guaranteed hours in a guaranteed week, the manner of extending or removing such guaranty, and such other matters as the commission finds necessary to safeguard and carry out guaranteed employment plans submitted under this act. But an employer shall not be required to make good such guarantee in the case of any individual employee who loses his employment under any of the conditions enumerated in section 56 of this act.

Sec. 48. The commission may exempt from paying to an account in the fund, the contributions provided for in sections 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43 and 44, any employer and employee or group of employers or employees submitting a plan for unemployment benefits which the commission finds: (1) makes eligible for benefits at least the employees who would be eligible for benefits under the compulsory features of this act; (2) provides that the proportion of the benefits to be financed by the employer or employers will on the whole be equal to or greater than the benefits which would be provided under the compulsory features of this act; and (3) is on the whole as beneficial in all other respects to such employees as the compulsory plan provided in this act. If under such a plan any contributions are made by employees, the accounts of the plan shall be so kept as to make clear what proportion of the benefits is financed by the employer or employers, and what proportion by the employees. If under such a plan any contributions are made by employees, the commission shall require that such employees be represented, by representatives of their own choosing, in the direct administration of such plan, and the commission may take any steps necessary and appropriate to assure such representation to contributing employees.

Sec. 49. As a condition of granting exemption, the commission may require the employer or group to furnish such security as the commission may deem sufficient to assure payment of all promised benefits or wages, including the setting up of proper reserves. Such reserves and other security and also the manner in which an exempted employer carries out his promises of benefits or employment shall be subject to inspection and investigation by the division at any reasonable time. If the commission shall deem it necessary it may require an exempted employer to furnish additional security to assure fulfillment of his promises to his employees.

Sec. 50. If an exempted employer or groups of employers fails to furnish security satisfactory to the commission, or fails to fulfill the promises made to employees, or willfully fails to furnish any reports that the commission may require under this act, or otherwise to comply with the applicable portions of this act and the rules, regulations and orders of the commission pertaining to the administration thereof, the commission may, upon ten days' notice and the opportunity to be heard, revoke the exemption of such employer or group. In such case or in case any exempted employer or group voluntarily terminates exemption, such employer and each of such group of employers shall at once pay into the fund an amount equal to the balance which would have been standing to his account had he been making the contributions to the fund and paying out the benefits provided in this act; provided that, in any case where such balance can not reasonably and definitely be determined, and specifically in the case of an employer exempted under subsection (a) of this section, the commission may require such employer to meet his liability under the present subsection by paying into the fund a lump sum amount equal to the contributions he would, if not exempted, have paid into the fund under section 38 during the twelve months preceding termination of his exemption. The account of any employer whose exemption has been terminated shall thenceforth be liable to pay to his employees the benefits which may remain or thereafter become due them, as if such employer had not been exempted under this section; and such employer shall thenceforth pay all contributions regularly required under this act from nonexempted employers.

Sec. 51. (a) Each employer exempted under this article shall be liable to make all contributions, to pay directly to employees all benefits, to pay all penalties, and otherwise to comply with all the provisions of this act, except as specifically provided in this section and in suitable rules to be formulated by the commission consistent with the purposes and provisions of this act.

(b) Such plan for exemption shall provide that upon the going out of business in this State by any employer, or the legal abandonment of the plan, the funds which shall have been contributed under such plan shall be retained for a sufficient period to meet all liability for benefits which may thereafter accrue, and that at the end of such period the proportion then remaining of employer contributions shall be released to the employer or his assigns, and the proportion then remaining of employee contributions shall be distributed in such equitable manner as the commission may approve.
(e) The rules and regulations for the government of such plan must be submitted to and approved by the commission. A plan, so approved, shall when put into effect, constitute a contract between each employer and every other employer participating in that plan, and between the employer or employers on the one hand, and, on the other hand all employees who came under it; and shall not thereafter be abandoned or modified without the approval of the commission, but it is a condition of such contract that it may be so abandoned or modified with such approval.

Article 5—Qualification for Benefits.

Sec. 50. An employee shall not be eligible for benefits unless, pursuant to this act, he gives notification of unemployment or such notification is waived by the commission.

Sec. 51. An employee is not eligible for benefits on account of either partial or total unemployment during any calendar week unless he is physically able to work and available for work whenever called on by his employer, or by the public employment office in the district in which the employee was last employed or in which he resides, with due notice, to report for work.

Sec. 52. An employee is not eligible for benefits for total unemployment for any calendar week in which he has suitable employment.

Sec. 53. An employee is deemed partially unemployed and at once eligible for benefit for such partial employment during any calendar week whenever his wages paid for such week are less than the amount of weekly benefits to which he would be entitled if totally unemployed.

Sec. 54. The waiting period under this act shall be four weeks during the period from January 1, 1938, to December 31, 1939, inclusive, and thereafter shall be three weeks. No benefit shall be or become payable for this required waiting period, but not more than the total time of the waiting period per employer shall be required of any employee in any twelve successive calendar months in order to establish his eligibility for total unemployment benefit.

An employee is deemed totally unemployed in any calendar week in which he performs no services whatsoever for his current employer. In such cases such unemployed employee is eligible for benefit for total unemployment for each week of total unemployment occurring subsequent to the waiting period.

Sec. 55. The waiting period prescribed by section 54 shall not apply, but in the cases specified in this section the waiting period shall be eight weeks during the period from January 1, 1938, to December 31, 1939, inclusive, and thereafter shall be six weeks:

(a) If the employee has lost his employment through misconduct.
(b) If the employee has left his employment voluntarily without cause attributable to the employer.

Sec. 56. An employee is not eligible for benefits for total unemployment based on past weeks of employment, and no such benefit shall be payable to him under any of the following conditions:

(a) If he left his employment because of a trade dispute and continues out of employment by reason of the fact that the trade dispute is still in active progress in the establishment in which he was employed.

(b) If he attended a school, college or university or similar institution of learning during the last preceding session thereof, and has been employed by his employer only during the customary vacation period of such institution.

(c) If without good cause, he has refused to accept suitable employment when offered to him, or failed to apply for suitable employment when notified by the district public employment office.

(d) If he has not been a resident of this State for one year immediately preceding the beginning of unemployment, or has not been gainfully employed in the State for twenty-six weeks within such one year period, except as provided in subdivision (e) of this section.

(e) In the case of disqualification arising out of the provisions of subdivision (d) of this section, such disqualifications may be avoided in case reciprocal arrangements with the proper authorities of other unemployment compensation systems are in effect. Such arrangements may be made by the commission with the proper authorities of such other unemployment compensation systems, as to persons who have, after acquiring rights to benefits under this act or under such other system, newly come under this act or under such other system. Such arrangements shall provide that substantially equivalent benefits shall be paid, or both paid and financed in whole or in part through or by the fund of the unemployment compensation system newly applicable to such person. Such reciprocal arrangements shall be published by the commission in the same manner as its rules.

Sec. 57. (a) For the purpose of determining benefits, average weekly wage is computed by multiplying the hourly rate of earnings by the number of full time weekly hours applicable to the employee.

(b) The applicable hourly rate of earnings shall be determined by averaging the employee's actual earnings by at least one hundred hours of employment by his most recent employers.

(c) The applicable full time weekly hours shall be computed by determining average number of hours per week lawfully worked by the employee in the employment in question during the fifty-two weeks last previous to his becoming unemployed.

Sec. 58. The benefits to which eligible employees are entitled are the following:
(a) Generally, for total unemployment, at a rate of fifty per cent of the average weekly wage but not exceeding fifteen dollars a week or less than seven dollars a week.

(b) For partial unemployment, the difference lost to the employee between the eligible employee's actual wages for the week and the weekly benefits to which he would be entitled if totally unemployed.

(c) Benefits shall be paid for the calendar week during which an eligible employee is totally or partially unemployed, but such employee shall not receive more than the following weeks of benefits for total unemployment nor more than the equivalent total amount of benefits either for partial unemployment or for partial and total unemployment combined:

1. For each previous four weeks of employment for which contributions were made—one week of benefit.
2. For fifty-two weeks or more, not exceeding one hundred three weeks, of previous employment for which contributions were made—thirteen weeks of benefit in twelve consecutive months.
3. For more than one hundred three weeks of employment for which contributions were made—twenty weeks of benefit in twelve consecutive months.

(d) In any case where an employee accepts or secures employment not subject to this act, the period during which he remains in such employment shall be excepted from any computation of benefits due under this act and all his right to benefit hereunder shall be suspended during the period of such excepted employment.

Sec. 59. In any case where, by reason of change of employment, an employee is, during the one hundred four weeks prior to becoming unemployed, employed by employers contributing to different reserve accounts, payment of benefits out of each reserve account shall be that proportion of the total number of weeks of employment during which contribution was made to the particular reserve account which such total number bears to the total number of weeks of employment in that period during which contributions were made.

Sec. 60. An employee who for reasons personal to himself is unable or unwilling to work usual full time and who customarily works less than the full time prevailing in his place of employment shall register as a short-time worker in such manner as the commission prescribes. The time which such employee normally works in any calendar week shall be deemed his week of full-time employment and the wages which he earns in such week shall be deemed his full-time weekly wages.

The commission shall fix the proportionate number of days of employment required to qualify for benefit in place of the provisions of section 58 of this act and the proportionate maximum and minimum benefits in lieu of the maximum and minimum amount provided in section 58 of this act.
When benefits payable.

Waiver invalid.

Reduction or cessation of payments.

Sec. 61. Benefits shall become payable under this act for unemployment occurring on and after January 1, 1938.

Sec. 62. Any waiver by any person of any benefit or right under this act shall be invalid. Benefits under this act are not subject to assignment, release or commutation, and are exempt from all claims of creditors and from all process of law except collection thereof by the person entitled thereto in his own right.

Sec. 63. Whenever the commission determines that, in view of existing or probable future conditions, the condition of the fund is such that, within six months it will be unable to pay probable benefit liabilities in full, it may, by rule, reduce or cease payment of such liabilities. Such reduction or cessation shall continue until changed by rule adopted by the commission resuming full payment or otherwise changing such payment.

Article 6—Claims for Benefits.

Notice

Sec. 65. Immediately upon becoming unemployed, an eligible employee shall file a notice of unemployment in such manner and at such place as the commission, by rule, prescribes. The waiting period shall run from the date of filing of such notice.

Claims

Sec. 66. Claims for benefits shall be filed with the manager of the public employment office for the district in which the claimant is last employed, or with a deputy of the commission designated for the purpose. Claims shall be filed within such time and in such manner as the commission prescribes.

Rejection or approval of claims.

Sec. 67. If a claim appears invalid to the officer with whom it is filed, he shall reject the claim. If it appears valid, he shall state the amount of benefits apparently payable to the claimant while eligible. In either case he shall notify the claimant in writing, giving the reason for his decision.

Payment of benefits.

Sec. 68. The commission shall prescribe the mode and manner of payment of benefits under this act. All benefits under this act shall be paid through the public employment offices administered by the commission so far as designated for the purpose by the commission.

Appeals

Sec. 69. Any employee may appeal directly to the commission from any decision as to the validity or invalidity of his claim.

Procedure

Sec. 70. The commission shall prescribe such method and manner of considering appeals as seems to it advisable and practicable and shall notify the claimant of its decision on such appeal. The procedure shall be calculated as far as practicable to procure the earliest decision consonant with proper investigation and consideration of the appeal, and shall provide for notice immediately upon the making of the decision by the commission.

Penalties.

Sec. 71. No costs shall be awarded in hearings on appeal by the commission, but if in the opinion of the commission, the claimant has acted in bad faith and without reasonable basis for appeal, a penalty not exceeding ten per cent of the amount finally awarded on the appeal may be taxed against and deducted from the award by the commission and shall be placed in the reserve account from which the benefit is paid. The commission and every member thereof in this enforcement of this act shall have the powers of a head of a department set forth in section 353 of the Political Code. For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this act, it may delegate its power in relation thereto to any deputy or other person properly authorized in writing by it.

Article 7—Administration.

Sec. 75. This act shall be administered by the Unemployment Reserves Commission of this State, to be appointed by the Governor, by and through the State Department of Employment which is hereby created and of which such commission shall be the governing body.

Sec. 76. The chairman of the commission shall be elected by and serve at the pleasure of the commission and shall be a member of the commission. The chairman and members of the commission shall each receive the sum of ten dollars as compensation for each and every day devoted to the actual performance of their duties under the provisions of this act, not exceeding the sum of one thousand two hundred dollars per annum, and shall each receive their actual and necessary traveling expenses incurred in the course of such duties.

Sec. 77. With the exception of the first terms of office, the term of office of each commissioner shall be four years and until the qualification of his successor. For the purpose of determining the date of expiration of any term, the period during which the predecessor in office holds over shall be computed as a part of the successor’s term. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the current term.

Sec. 78. There shall be five commissioners whose offices shall be designated respectively: Commissioner number 1, Commissioner number 2, Commissioner number 3, Commissioner number 4, and Commissioner number 5.

Sec. 79. Commissioner number 1 shall be appointed as a representative of labor and its interests.

Sec. 80. Commissioner number 2 shall be appointed as a representative of labor and its interests.

Sec. 81. Commissioner number 3 shall be appointed as a representative of the State and its interest and of the public.

Sec. 82. Commissioner number 4 shall be appointed as a representative of the large employers of the State.

Sec. 83. Commissioner number 5 shall be appointed as a representative of independent merchants and small employers of this State.
Sec. 84. The first term of the office of Commissioners number 1 and number 5 shall expire on July 1, 1936.

Sec. 85. The first term of office of Commissioner number 2 shall expire July 1, 1937.

Sec. 86. The first term of office of Commissioner number 3 shall expire July 1, 1938.

Sec. 87. The first term of office of Commissioner number 4 shall expire July 1, 1939.

Sec. 88. The commission may appoint and employ an executive officer, who shall act as the secretary of the commission, and shall be Director of the Department of Employment. The commission may employ such assistance as seems to be necessary for the administration of this act, subject to the provisions of the Civil Service laws.

Sec. 89. The expense of the administration of this act shall be paid out of the unemployment administration fund.

Sec. 90. The commission, in addition to all other duties imposed and powers granted or implied by the provisions of this act:

(a) Shall adopt and enforce rules and regulations which to it seem necessary and suitable to carry out the provisions of this act.

(b) Shall make such rules and standards on or before December 1, 1935, and thereafter as needed. It shall give thirty days' notice by publication in at least two issues published in two separate weeks, in one or more newspapers of general circulation in this State before any rule or standard or change thereof takes effect.

(c) Shall keep such records of employment of eligible employees, contributions, penalties, claims, benefits, and payments as are necessary for the proper administration of this act, or advisable for proper understanding of its operation.

(d) Shall cause to be printed for distribution to the public its classifications, rules, and such information as it considers desirable.

Sec. 91. The commission may also take such action as will tend to:

(a) Promote the prevention of unemployment and the regularization of employment.

(b) Encourage and assist in the adoption of practical methods of vocational training, retraining and guidance.

(c) Promote the establishment and operation by governmental units and agencies of reserves for public work to be prosecuted in times of business depression and unemployment.

(d) Promote the reemployment of unemployed workers throughout the State in any way that may seem feasible.

(e) Reduce and prevent unemployment; and to these ends carry on and publish the results of any investigations and research which it deems relevant.

Sec. 92. In addition to all other powers granted and duties imposed by this act, the commission:
(a) May create unemployment districts
(b) Shall establish, maintain and operate a system of public employment bureaus and exchanges.
(c) Promulgate such rules as it finds desirable for the registration of unemployed persons, and for placing them in available employment, and for the administration of this act. To this end it may accept financial contributions from any governmental unit or agency, or private persons.

Sec. 93. On July 1, 1936, the Division of State Employment Agencies of the Department of Industrial Relations shall become and remain the Division of State Employment Agencies in the Department of Employment. All persons employed in such division and the records and property thereof shall, upon such change, become the employees, records and property of the Department of Employment. All persons employed in any capacity in such division shall continue and remain in such capacity in such division after the change, subject to the power of the commission as the governing body of the department to abolish such division, change old divisions or create new divisions, change duties and powers of such division, or impose upon it new and additional powers and duties.

The State of California hereby accepts the provisions of the Wagner-Peyser Act, approved June 6, 1933, passed by the Congress of the United States, and entitled "An act to provide for the establishment of a National employment system and for cooperation with the States in the promotion of such system, and for other purposes," in conformity with section 4 thereof, and will observe and comply with the requirements of said act of Congress.

The Division of State Employment Agencies in the Department of Employment shall be the agency of this State for the purposes of said act.

Said division by and through its chief shall have full power to cooperate with all the authorities of the United States having powers and duties under said act of Congress and, with the approval of the commission, to do and perform all things necessary to secure to this State the benefits of that act of Congress in the promotion and maintenance of a system of public employment offices.

All moneys made available by or received by this State under that act of Congress shall be paid into a special "employment service account" in the unemployment administration fund, and all such moneys are hereby appropriated without regard to fiscal year, and shall be expended in accordance with law by the Division of State Employment Agencies as provided by this act and by that act of Congress.

Sec. 94. The unexpended balance of every appropriation and fund, available for the purposes or support of the division prior to the transfer shall be available to the commission for such purposes or support after the transfer.
Sec. 95. Every employer shall keep a true and accurate employment record of:
   (a) All his employees.
   (b) The hours worked for him by each employee.
   (c) The wages paid by him to each employee.
   (d) Such other information as the commission deems necessary to proper administration of this act.

Sec. 96. Every employer shall furnish to the commission, upon demand, a sworn statement of the matters in such records. Such records shall be open to inspection by the commission or its authorized representative at any time during the business hours of the employer.

Sec. 97. The information furnished to the commission by employers, pursuant to this act, shall be for the exclusive use and information of the commission in discharge of its duties, and shall not be open to the public, nor admissible in evidence in any action or special proceeding, other than one arising out of the provisions of this act. Such information may be tabulated and published in statistical form for the use and information of State departments and the public, except that the name of the employer or of any employee shall never be divulged in the course of such tabulation or publication.

The commission shall make such reports, in such form and containing such information, as are required by the United States Government or any agency thereof as a condition of the return of moneys to this State out of the unemployment trust fund in the United States treasury, or the grant of moneys by the United States Government for the administration of this act. The commission shall also make available, upon request, to any agency of the United States Government charged with the administration of public works or assistance through public employment, the following information relating to recipients of unemployment compensation:
   (a) The recipient's name.
   (b) The recipient's address.
   (c) The ordinary occupation and employment status of each such recipient of unemployment benefits.
   (d) A statement of such recipient's rights to further compensation under this act.

Article 8—Penalties.

Sec. 100. It is a felony for any commissioner, or any officer or employee of the Department of Employment to divulge any information secured by him in the course of such employment in respect to the transactions, property or business, or mechanical, chemical, or other industrial processes of any employer, to any person other than members of the commission or of such department in the course of his duties.

Sec. 101. It is a misdemeanor to:
   (a) Wilfully make a false statement or representation to obtain any benefit or payment under the provisions of this act, whether for the maker or for any other person, or for the purpose of lowering any contribution required of the maker or any other person.

(b) Make a greater deduction from the wages of an employee than the contribution required of such employee under this act, for the purpose of paying any contribution under this act.

(c) Wilfully and unlawfully to fail to appear or to testify or to produce books, papers, and records, required at any hearing under this act.

(d) On the part of an employer, wilfully and unlawfully to fail or neglect to open his employment record to the inspection of the commission or its authorized representative at any reasonable time during business hours.

(e) On the part of an employer, wilfully and unlawfully to fail or neglect to make such statement of the employment record of eligible employees as the commissioner requires when necessary for the enforcement of this act.

Sec. 102. All fines collected for violations of the provisions of this act shall be paid into the State treasury to the credit of the unemployment administration fund.

Article 9—General Provisions.

Sec. 110. All the rights, privileges, or immunities conferred by this act or by acts deemed pursuant thereto shall exist subject to the power of the Legislature to amend or repeal this act at any time.

Sec. 111. If any provision of this act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, the remainder of the act and the application of such provision, to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

CHAPTER 353.

An act to amend the title and sections 4, 4a, 5, and 23 of the Bank and Corporation Franchise Tax Act, relating to bank and corporation taxes, including the extension of the provisions of said act to the companies taxable hereunder and their franchises, other than insurance companies and their franchises, specified in section 14 of Article XIII of the Constitution of this State, and to provide that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 25, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. The title of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

An act to carry into effect the provisions of sections 14 and 16 of Article XIII of the Constitution of the State of California, relating to bank and corporation taxes.
Sec. 2. Section 4 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 4. (1) Every financial corporation doing business within the limits of this State, taxable under the provisions of section 16 of Article XIII of the Constitution of this State, shall annually pay to the State for the privilege of exercising its corporate franchises within this State, a tax according to or measured by its net income, to be computed, in the manner hereinafter provided, upon the basis of its net income for the next preceding fiscal or calendar year at the rate provided for in section 4a hereof.

(2) Each such financial corporation shall be entitled to an offset against said franchise tax, in the manner hereinafter provided, in the amount of taxes paid upon its personal property to any county, city and county, city, town or other political subdivision of the State; provided, however, that the tax on such financial corporation after the allowance of offset shall not be less than four per centum of its net income for the preceding fiscal or calendar year or less than twenty-five dollars.

(3) With the exception of financial corporations, every corporation doing business within the limits of this State and not expressly exempted from taxation by the provisions of the Constitution of this State or by this act, shall annually pay to the State, for the privilege of exercising its corporate franchises within this State, a tax according to or measured by its net income, to be computed, in the manner hereinafter provided, at the rate of four per centum upon the basis of its net income for the next preceding fiscal or calendar year. In any event, each such corporation shall pay annually to the State, for the said privilege, a minimum tax of twenty-five dollars.

(4) Any corporation organized to hold the stock or bonds of any other corporation or corporations, and not trading in such stock or bonds or other securities held, and engaging in no other activities than the receipt and disbursement of dividends from such stock or interest from such bonds, shall not be considered a corporation doing business in this State for the purposes of this act.

(5) Every corporation not otherwise taxed in pursuance of this section and not expressly exempted by the provisions of this act or the Constitution of this State shall pay annually to the State a tax of twenty-five dollars.

(6) In any event any corporation organized for religious, charitable, social, cemetery, scientific, educational, recreational, literary, fraternal or civic purposes, if its organization or activities are not designed for, and do not result in financial or pecuniary gain or profit to the stockholders or members thereof, shall not be taxed under this act.

(7) Taxes under this section and under sections 1 and 2 of this act shall accrue on the first day of the "taxable year," as defined in section 11 hereof.
Taxes under this section shall be in lieu of all ad valorem taxes and assessments of every kind and nature upon the general corporate franchises of the corporations taxable hereunder but shall not be in lieu of any taxes or assessments upon special franchises owned, held or used by said corporations. All such special franchises shall be assessed annually by the State Board of Equalization (at their actual value) in the same manner as is provided for the assessment of other property to be assessed by said board under section 14 of Article XIII of the Constitution of this State, and shall be subject to taxation to the same extent and in the same manner as other property so assessed by said board. Said board is hereby authorized and directed to assess said special franchises as of the first Monday in March of 1935 and annually thereafter.

(8) The provisions of this subdivision, and of all other amendments to this act enacted during the year 1935, shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1934. Provided, however, that the tax for taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1935, and ending during the calendar year 1935, shall be adjusted in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (d) of section 12 of this act. Any tax, for a taxable year specified in this subdivision, in addition to that disclosed by the return, made necessary solely by amendments to this act, shall accrue on January 1, 1935, and shall be due and payable within ten days from the date of notice and demand from the commissioner, or on or before the fifteenth day of the ninth month following the close of the income year, as defined in section 11 of this act, whichever is later. If not so paid, interest shall be added thereto pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (c) of section 24 of this act. Such tax shall not be considered a deficiency assessment within the meaning of section 25 of this act.

Whenever any tax is paid under this act, and by reason of amendments to this act, such payment exceeds the amount properly payable, such excess shall be refunded or credited to the bank or corporation as provided in section 27 of this act.

Sec. 3. Section 4a of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 4a. The rate of tax on national banking associations and other banks and financial corporations mentioned in sections 1, 2 and 4 of this act shall be a percentage equal to the percentage of the total amount of net income, allocable to this State, of every corporation taxable under subdivision (3) of section 4 of this act, for the next preceding calendar year or fiscal years ended during such calendar year, required to be paid to this State as franchise taxes according to or measured by such net income, and required to be paid to this State or its political subdivisions as personal property taxes during the preceding calendar year or fiscal years ended in such calendar year; provided, however, that said rate of tax shall not exceed eight per centum. The percentage of the net income of every corporation taxable under subdivision (3) of section 4 of this act, required to be paid to this State or its political subdivisions in personal property taxes shall be determined by ascertaining the ratio which the total amount of such personal property taxes, less four per cent thereof, bears to the total amount of net income of such corporations, allocable to California, increased by the amount of such personal property taxes; provided, however, that if any such corporation sustains a net loss allocable to California the personal property taxes required to be paid by such corporation to this State or its political subdivisions during the preceding calendar year or fiscal years ended during such calendar year shall be considered for the purpose of determining such ratio only to the extent which such personal property taxes exceed such net loss allocable to California.

The commissioner, after public hearing and opportunity given to examine the data on which his determination is based, shall determine not later than the thirty-first day of December of each year the average percentage of net income above specified, and shall forthwith mail notice of his determination and the amount of tax payable on the basis of such determination to all banks and financial corporations affected thereby, but such determination shall not be considered a deficiency assessment within the meaning of section 25 hereof.

If it be judicially determined that the rate of tax on any bank or corporation is higher than is authorized by law such bank or corporation shall be relieved of liability for any tax imposed by this act only to the extent of the excess beyond that legally authorized.

SEC. 4. Section 5 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5. The term "corporation," as herein used, shall include every corporation, other than a bank or banking association, and other than those expressly exempted from the tax by the provisions of this act or the Constitution of the State of California.

The term "bank," as hereinafter used, shall include national banking associations.

The term "doing business," as herein used, means actively engaging in any transaction for the purpose of financial or pecuniary gain or profit.

SEC. 5. Section 23 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 23. On or before the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of the income year, as defined in section 11 hereof, there shall be due and payable, from every national banking association, every other bank, and every financial corporation, of the classes mentioned in sections 1, 2, and 4 of this act, as a first installment of the tax on such banks and financial corporations, a percentage of their net income as disclosed by the return, which is equal to that percentage of the net income of corporations of the classes referred to in subdivision (3) of section 4 of this act, which is required to be paid to the State as a franchise tax according to or measured by net income; except, that the first installment of the tax on financial corporations shall not be less than the minimum of twenty-five dollars.

On or before the fifteenth day following the mailing of notice of the commissioner's determination of the average percentage of net income of corporations of the classes referred to in subdivision (3) of section 4 of this act, required to be paid to the State or its political subdivisions in franchise and personal property taxes as provided in section 4a of this act, or on or before the fifteenth day of the ninth month following the close of the income year as defined in section 11 hereof, whichever is later, there shall be due and payable from every such banking association, bank, and financial corporation, as a second installment of the tax on such banks and financial corporations, a percentage of their net income as disclosed by the return which is equal to the percentage of the net income of corporations of the classes referred to in subdivision (3) of section 4 of this act required to be paid to the State or its political subdivisions as personal property taxes as determined by the commissioner; provided, however, that the sum of the first and second installments shall not exceed eight per centum of the net income of each such banking association, bank, and financial corporation. The offset herein provided for shall be applied to such second installment.

In the case of corporations of the classes referred to in subdivision (3) of section 4 of this act, one-half the amount of tax disclosed by the return, shall be due and payable as a first installment of the tax on such corporations, on or before the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of the income year, as defined in section 11 hereof. The balance of the tax shall be due and payable as a second installment, on or before the fifteenth day of the ninth month following the close of the income year. A tax imposed by this act or any installment thereof may be paid at the election of the taxpayer, prior to the date prescribed for its payment.

Where an extension of time for filing returns has been granted by the commissioner under the provisions of section 15 of this act, the first installment shall be paid prior to the expiration of such extension.

If the first installment of the tax is not paid on or before its due date, or the due date as extended by the commissioner, it shall be delinquent and a penalty of fifteen per centum added thereto. If the second installment is not paid at the time it is due and payable, it shall be delinquent and a penalty of five per centum added thereto. At the time of the delinquency of the second installment an additional penalty of five per centum shall be added to the first installment unless that installment has theretofore been paid.

All taxes and interest imposed under this act must be paid to the commissioner at Sacramento in the form of remittances.
payable to the Treasurer of the State of California, and he shall transmit said payments daily to the State Treasurer.

All moneys received by the State Treasurer shall be deposited by him in a special fund in the State treasury, to be designated the bank and corporation franchise tax fund, and moneys in said fund shall, upon the order of the State Controller, be transferred into the general fund of the State, or drawn therefrom for the purpose of refunding to taxpayers hereunder.

Sec. 6. If any provision of this act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the act, and the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby.

Sec. 7. This act, inasmuch as it provides for tax levies for the usual current expenses of the State, shall, under the provisions of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 354.

An act for the relief of special assessment districts and for the adjustment, refunding or cancellation of the bonded indebtedness of such districts, and for the purpose of empowering legislative bodies of such districts to adjust, refund or cancel said indebtedness and to make available to such districts the provisions of the Federal bankruptcy laws and any and all laws of the State of California for the relief of special assessment districts, and to declare the urgency of this act to take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 25, 1935 In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. The legislative body of any city or county, or city and county, of the State of California, acting individually or in conjunction with any other such legislative body or bodies, wholly or partly within the boundary of which any special assessment district has been created, and the outstanding bonds or indebtedness of which district are payable by taxes or assessments levied wholly or partly in accordance with the assessed value of lands or property, shall be and it is hereby fully and completely authorized and empowered, on the consent of the owners or holders of such bonds or indebtedness, to purchase, adjust, liquidate or cancel such bonds or indebtedness, or any part of them or it, and to carry out any plan or plans for the purchase, adjustment, liquidation, or cancellation of such bonds or indebtedness, or any part of them or it, and if necessary or advisable to carry out such plan or plans under the bankruptcy laws of the United States of America, and any amendments thereto now or hereafter adopted, or under any law or laws of the State of California, enacted for the purpose of the purchase, adjustment, refunding, liquidation or cancellation of bonds or indebtedness of special assessment districts.

In carrying out any such plan or plans the legislative bodies herein mentioned are fully authorized and empowered to adjust, waive or cancel in whole or in part, any tax or taxes, assessment or assessments, penalty or penalties and interest heretofore levied or taxed against any of the property or properties in such special assessment district which have been taxed or levied for the purpose of meeting the bonds or indebtedness of such special assessment districts.

Sec. 2. Such legislative body or bodies shall be and hereby are also fully and completely authorized and empowered to enter into any plan, contract, agreement, escrow or trusteeship having for its purpose the purchase, adjustment, liquidation or cancellation of the outstanding bonds or indebtedness of such districts.

Sec. 3. Such legislative body or bodies are hereby also fully and completely authorized and empowered in connection with the furtherance, consummation or conclusion of any such plan or plans, contracts, agreements, escrows or trusteeships to appropriate and use any and all necessary funds, moneys, taxes, assessments and contributions, from whatsoever source derived, for the furtherance, consummation and conclusion of the purchase, adjustment, liquidation or cancellation of any bond or bonds, indebtedness or indebtednesses, in whole or in part of such districts, and to pay from such funds, moneys, taxes, assessments and contributions all expenses necessary to carry on the furtherance, consummation and conclusion of such plan or plans.

Sec. 4. This act and all of its provisions shall be liberally construed to the end that the purposes hereof may be made effective. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases thereof be declared unconstitutional.

Sec. 5. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall therefore go into immediate effect.

The facts constituting the necessity are as follows:

During the fifteen years last past hundreds of districts have been organized throughout the State of California under the provisions of the Road District Improvement Act of 1907 and the Acquisition and Improvement Act of 1925. Many of these districts were created during times of great economic prosperity and high land values. In many of such districts, due to the optimism of the times, or other causes, bonds for public improvements were issued in amounts in excess of the ability of the lands of such districts to bear the assessments necessary to pay the principal and interest on such bonds. Millions of dollars in assessed land valuation are located within districts created under these acts. Due to the present economic depression land values throughout the State have shrunk to the point where, in many cases, the total assessed valuation of all lands within a given district is less than the face value of the bonds outstanding in such district. Annual assessments upon individual parcels of land within these districts amount in many instances to more than the assessed value of such land.

Under present economic conditions property owners are unable to meet these high assessments and hundreds of such districts throughout the State have reached a point of hopeless delinquency.

Inasmuch as the property owners of these districts can not, under the law, pay their county or municipal taxes without at the same time paying the district assessments many cities and counties are unable to collect large sums of money badly needed for the purposes of government.

Many hundreds of properties in these districts are being deeded to the State for delinquent taxes and assessments and unless the financial aid of the counties is immediately made available to assist these overburdened districts thousands of parcels of lands will be stricken from the tax rolls this year; thousands of property owners will lose their homes, millions of dollars in governmental revenue will be uncollectible and at the same time thousands of bondholders will be unable to realize any return upon their investments.

CHAPTER 355.

An act to amend sections 3 and 5 of, and to repeal section 7 of, an act entitled "An act imposing a tax for the privilege of selling tangible personal property and for the privilege of furnishing, preparing or serving tangible personal property, providing for permits to retailers, providing for the levying, assessing, collecting, paying and disposing of such tax, making an appropriation for the administration hereof, prescribing penalties for violations of the provisions hereof, and providing this act shall take effect immediately," approved July 31, 1933, relating to taxation, and to provide that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 25, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:
Sec. 3. For the privilege of selling tangible personal property at retail a tax is hereby imposed upon retailers at the rate of two and one-half per cent of the gross receipts of any such retailer from the sale of all tangible personal property sold at retail in this State on and after August 1, 1933, and to and including June 30, 1935; and at the rate of three per cent of the gross receipts of any such retailer from the sale of all tangible personal property sold at retail in this State on and after July 1, 1935. Such tax shall be paid at the time and in the manner hereinafter provided and shall be in addition to any and all other taxes.

Sec. 2. Section 5 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5. There are hereby specifically exempted from the provisions of this act and from the computation of the amount of tax levied, assessed or payable under this act the following:

(a) The gross receipts from sales of tangible personal property which this State is prohibited from taxing under the Constitution or laws of the United States of America or under the Constitution of this State.

(b) The gross receipts from the sales, furnishing, or service of gas, electricity, and water, when delivered to consumers through mains, lines, or pipes.

(c) The gross receipts from the sale of gold bullion or gold concentrates or gold precipitates by the producer or refiner thereof.

(d) The gross receipts from sales of tangible personal property used for the performance of a contract on public works executed prior to the effective date of this act.

(e) The gross receipts from the sale of food products for human consumption. “Food products” as used herein includes cereals and cereal products, milk and milk products, oleomargarine, meat and meat products, fish and fish products, eggs and egg products, vegetables and vegetable products, fruit and fruit products, spices and salt, sugar and sugar products other than candy and confectionery, coffee and coffee substitutes, tea, cocoa and cocoa products other than candy and confectionery. “Food products” does not include spirituous, malt or vinous liquors, soft drinks, sodas or beverages such as are ordinarily dispensed at bars and soda fountains or in connection therewith, nor does the term “food products” include the furnishing, preparing or serving for a consideration of any tangible personal property consumed on the premises of the person furnishing, preparing or serving such tangible personal property.

Sec. 3. Section 7 of said act is hereby repealed.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this act effecting amendments to the Retail Sales Tax Act of 1933 become operative July 1, 1935.

Sec. 5. This act, inasmuch as it provides for a tax levy for the usual current expenses of the State, shall, under the provisions of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution take effect immediately.
SEC. 6. If any of the provisions of section 2 of this act be declared unconstitutional such decision shall invalidate all of the provisions of this act.

CHAPTER 356.

An act relating to and imposing limitations on expenditures by counties, cities and counties, districts and other political subdivisions, under authority of section 20 of Article XI of the Constitution of the State.

[Approved by the Governor June 25, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The expenditures, other than expenditures to pay interest and redemption charges on bonds heretofore or hereafter issued, of any county, city and county, municipality, district or other political subdivision of this State, whether or not operating under freeholders' charters, shall not in any year exceed by more than five per centum the expenditures, other than expenditures to pay interest and redemption charges on bonds heretofore or hereafter issued, of such county, city and county, municipality, district or other political subdivision for the preceding year, unless previously authorized by a majority vote of the electors of any such county, city and county, municipality, district or other political subdivision voting at an election held for that purpose or unless previously authorized by the State Board of Equalization; provided, however, that if any county, city and county municipality, district or other political subdivision of this State does not in any fiscal year increase, or has not in each of the fiscal years ended since December 31, 1933, increased, its expenditures by five per centum over the expenditures of the preceding year, it may in the first fiscal year thereafter expend an amount equal to the expenditures of said preceding fiscal year plus ten per centum and in the second fiscal year thereafter expend an amount equal to the expenditures of said preceding fiscal year plus fifteen per centum; provided, further, that any county, city and county, municipality, district, or other political subdivision of this State that has decreased or that decreases the amount of its expenditures in any year or years since the year 1933 or fiscal years ended during such year may increase, in any subsequent year or years, the amount of its expenditures by the amount, or any fraction thereof, so reduced, or by an amount not more than five per centum of the amount expended in the year immediately preceding. The limitation upon expenditures imposed or authorized by this act shall be effective until June 30, 1937.

No amount expended in excess of the amount which may be expended without obtaining special authorization in the manner above described shall become a part of the base for determining the maximum permissible expenditure for any subsequent year unless the State Board of Equalization, in its order authorizing the expenditure of an amount in excess of the limitation herein imposed, shall otherwise specifically provide.

The term expenditures as used in this act shall be construed and defined to mean the expenditure of moneys raised by taxation on real and personal property; provided that this act shall not prevent any county, city and county, municipality, district or other political subdivision from expending as much as it would be permitted to expend if the term expenditures included expenditures out of State apportionments for the support of the public school system.

Sec. 2. The limitation upon expenditures imposed or authorized by this act do not apply to expenditures by or on behalf of publicly owned public utilities, including publicly owned facilities operated for the promotion and accommodation of commerce and navigation, irrigation districts, county water districts, water districts, water conservation districts, reclamation districts, municipal utility districts or metropolitan water districts organized or existing under the laws of this State or to expenditures arising out of any gift, bequest or donation or to any additional expenditures by a county, city and county, municipality, district or other political subdivision made necessary by legislative action or by vote of the people.

Sec. 3. The tax levying authority or the governing body of any county, city and county, municipality, district or other political subdivision of this State may apply to the State Board of Equalization for permission to exceed in any year the limitations on expenditures imposed by this act. The application shall be in writing and, except in the case of emergencies subsequently arising, must be filed with the board at least thirty days before the date fixed for the determination of the tax rate of such county, city and county, municipality, district or other political subdivision for the year for which permission to exceed the limitations on expenditures is requested. The board shall meet to consider such application and shall grant a hearing thereon if requested by such tax levying authority or governing body. In acting upon any such application the board shall give due weight to changes in population, economic conditions, and such other factors or circumstances as may influence or affect the need for increased governmental expenditures. Within twenty days after filing any such application, or within twenty days after this act becomes effective in the case of applications filed prior to the effective date of this act, the board shall approve or disapprove such application either in whole or in part and shall immediately send notice thereof to the tax levying or governing body making such application.

Sec. 4. Section 3714 (b) of the Political Code which became effective August 7, 1933, is hereby repealed.
An act to amend the title and sections 2, 9, 15, 17, 18, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 26, 27, 29, 30 and 33 of an act entitled "An act imposing a tax for the privilege of selling tangible personal property and for the privilege of furnishing, preparing or serving tangible personal property, providing for permits to retailers, providing for the levying, assessing, collecting, paying and disposing of such tax, making an appropriation for the administration hereof, prescribing penalties for violations of the provisions hereof, and providing this act shall take effect immediately," approved July 31, 1933; to repeal section 19 of said act; to add sections 9 1/2 and 19 to said act; all relating to the taxation of the privilege of selling renting or leasing tangible personal property; and to provide that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 25, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The title of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

An act imposing a tax for the privilege of selling, renting or leasing tangible personal property and for the privilege of furnishing, preparing or serving tangible personal property, providing for permits to retailers, providing for the levying, assessing, collecting, paying and disposing of such tax, making an appropriation for the administration hereof, prescribing penalties for violations of the provisions hereof, and providing this act shall take effect immediately.

Sec. 2. Section 2 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. The following words, terms and phrases when used in this act have the meanings ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

(a) "Person" includes any individual, firm, copartnership, joint adventure, association, corporation, estate, trust, business trust, receiver, syndicate, this State, any county, city and county, municipality, district or other political subdivision thereof, or any other group or combination acting as a unit, and the plural as well as the singular number.

(b) "Sale" means any transfer of title or possession, or both, exchange, barter, lease or rental, conditional or otherwise, in any manner or by any means whatsoever, of tangible personal property, for a consideration, and includes the fabrication of tangible personal property for consumers who furnish either directly or indirectly the materials used in the fabrication work and the furnishing, preparing or serving for a consideration of any tangible personal property consumed on the premises of the person furnishing, preparing or serving such tangible personal property. A transaction whereby the possession of property is transferred but the seller retains the title as security for the payment of the price shall be deemed a sale.

(c) A “retail sale” or “sale at retail” means a sale to a consumer or to any person for any purpose other than for resale in the form of tangible personal property, except that the expressions “transfer of possession,” “lease,” and “rental” as used in subdivision (b) of this section shall mean and include only such transactions as the board, upon investigation, finds to be in lieu of sales as defined in subdivision (b) of this section without the words “lease or rental.”

(d) “Business” includes any activity engaged in by any person or caused to be engaged in by him with the object of gain, benefit or advantage, either direct or indirect.

(e) “Retailer” includes every person engaged in the business of making sales at retail; provided, however, that when in the opinion of the board it is necessary for the efficient administration of this act to regard any salesmen, representatives, peddlers or canvassers as the agents of the dealers, distributors, supervisors or employers under whom they operate or from whom they obtain the tangible personal property sold by them, irrespective of whether they are making sales on their own behalf or on behalf of such dealers, distributors, supervisors or employers, the board may so regard them and may regard the dealers, distributors, supervisors or employers as retailers for purposes of this act.

(f) “Gross receipts” means the total amount of the sale or lease or rental price, as the case may be, of the retail sales of retailers, including any services that are a part of such sales, valued in money, whether received in money or otherwise, including all receipts, cash, credits and property of any kind or nature, and also any amount for which credit is allowed by the seller to the purchaser, without any deduction therefrom on account of the cost of the property sold, the cost of the materials used, labor or service cost, interest paid, losses or any other expense whatsoever; provided, however, that cash discounts allowed and taken on sales shall not be included, and “gross receipts” shall not include the sale price of property returned by customers when the full sale price thereof is refunded either in cash or by credit, nor shall “gross receipts” include the price received for labor or services used in installing, applying, remodeling or repairing the property sold.

For the purpose of this act the total amount of the sale price above mentioned shall be deemed to be the amount received exclusive of the tax hereby imposed; provided, that the retailers shall establish to the satisfaction of the board that the tax imposed hereunder had been added to the sale price and not absorbed by the retailer.

(g) “Board” means the State Board of Equalization.
(h) "Tangible personal property" means personal property which may be seen, weighed, measured, felt, touched, or is in any other manner perceptible to the senses.

(i) "In this State" or "in the State" means within the exterior limits of the State of California and includes all territory within such limits owned by or ceded to the United States of America.

Sec. 3. Section 9 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 9. The tax levied hereunder shall be a direct obligation of the retailer and shall be due and payable quarterly on or before the fifteenth day of the month next succeeding each quarterly period, the first of such quarterly periods being the period commencing with August 1, 1933, and ending on the thirtieth day of September, 1933. The retailer shall on or before the fifteenth day of the month following the close of the first quarterly period as above defined, and on or before the fifteenth day of the month following each subsequent quarterly period of three months, make out a return for the preceding quarterly period in such form as may be prescribed by the board showing the gross receipts of the retailer, the amount of the tax for the period covered by such return and such information as the board may deem necessary for the proper administration of this act. The retailer shall deliver the return together with a remittance of the amount of the tax due to the office of the board. The board, if it deems it necessary in order to insure the payment of the tax imposed by this act, may require returns and payment of the tax to be made for other than quarterly periods. Returns shall be signed by the retailer or his duly authorized agent but need not be verified by oath.

Gross receipts from rentals or leases of tangible personal property shall be reported and the tax paid with respect thereto in accordance with such rules and regulations as the board may prescribe.

The board, if it deems it necessary to insure the collection of the tax imposed by this act, may provide by rule and regulation for the collection of said tax by the affixing and canceling of revenue stamps and may prescribe the form and method of such affixing and canceling.

The board may by regulation provide that the amount collected by the retailer from the consumer, in reimbursement of taxes imposed by this act, shall be displayed separately from the list, advertised in the premises, marked or other price on the sales check or other proof of sale.

Sec. 4. A new section numbered 9 1/2 is hereby added to said act to read as follows:

Sec. 9 1/2. Any person failing to pay any tax, except taxes determined by the board under the provisions of sections 17 and 18 hereof, within the time required by this act shall pay in addition to the tax a penalty of ten per cent of the amount thereof, plus interest at the rate of one-half of one per cent a month, or fraction thereof, from the date at which the tax became due and payable until the date of payment.

Sec. 5. Section 15 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 15. Permits issued under the provisions of this act prior to April 1, 1935, shall expire on July 31, 1935, and must be renewed through filing an application for renewal on forms prescribed by the board. For each such renewal a fee of one dollar must be paid at the time of filing the application therefor. If any retailer shall fail to apply for renewal of his permit or permits as herein required prior to August 1, 1935, a fee of one dollar and fifty cents must be paid for the renewal of each permit.

The board shall charge a fee of one dollar for the renewal or issuance of a permit to a retailer whose permit has been previously suspended or revoked.

Sec. 6. Section 17 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 17. The burden of proving that a sale of tangible personal property was not a sale at retail shall be upon the person who made it, unless such person shall have taken from the purchaser a certificate signed by and bearing the name and address of the purchaser to the effect that the property was purchased for resale. For the purpose of the proper administration of this act and to prevent evasion of the tax hereby imposed it shall be presumed that all gross receipts are subject to the tax hereby imposed until the contrary is established. If the board is not satisfied with the return and payment of tax made by any retailer, it is hereby authorized and empowered to make an additional assessment of tax due from such retailer based upon the facts contained in the return or upon any information within its possession or that shall come into its possession. All additional assessments shall bear interest at the rate of one-half of one per cent per month, or fraction thereof, from the fifteenth day after the close of the period or periods, as the case may be, for which the additional assessment is imposed until the date of payment. If any part of the deficiency for which the additional assessment is imposed is due to negligence or intentional disregard of the act or authorized rules and regulations, a penalty of ten per cent of the amount of the additional assessment shall be added, plus interest as above provided. If any part of the deficiency for which the additional assessment is imposed is due to fraud or an intent to evade the tax, a penalty of twenty-five per cent of the amount of the additional assessment shall be added, plus interest as above provided. The board shall give to the retailer written notice of such additional assessment. Such notice may be served upon the retailer personally or by mail; if by mail, service shall be made in the manner prescribed by section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure and addressed to the retailer at his address as the same appears in the records of the board.
SEC. 7. Section 18 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 18. If a retailer neglects or refuses to make a return as required by this act, the board shall make an estimate based upon any information in its possession or that may come into its possession, of the amount of the gross receipts of the delinquent for the period or periods in respect to which he failed to make a return, and upon the basis of said estimated amount compute and assess the tax payable by the delinquent, adding to the sum thus arrived at a penalty equal to ten per cent thereof. All such assessments shall bear interest at the rate of one-half of one per cent per month, or fraction thereof, from the fifteenth day after the close of the period or periods, as the case may be, for which such assessments are imposed until the date of payment. If the neglect or refusal of a retailer to file a return as required by this act was due to fraud or an intent to evade the tax, there shall be added to the tax a penalty equal to twenty-five per cent thereof in addition to the ten per cent penalty as above provided. Promptly thereafter the board shall give to the delinquent written notice of such estimate, tax and penalty, the notice to be served personally or by mail in the same manner as prescribed for service of notice by the provisions of section 17 hereof. But the delinquent shall have the right to petition for reassessment of any such tax found, determined and declared by the board pursuant to and in accordance with the provisions of this section.

Sec. 8. Section 19 of said act, as it existed on January 1, 1935, is hereby repealed and a new section numbered 19 is hereby added thereto to read as follows:

Sec. 19. If the board believes that the collection of any tax or assessment imposed by this act will be jeopardized by delay, it shall immediately levy a jeopardy assessment for the tax, interest and penalty provided herein. The amount so assessed shall be immediately due and payable. Promptly after the levy of the assessment, the board shall give to the retailer written notice of such assessment, the notice to be served personally or by mail in the same manner as prescribed for service of notice by the provisions of section 17 hereof. If the amount of the tax, interest and penalty specified in the jeopardy assessment is not paid within ten days after the service upon the retailer of notice of the assessment the delinquency penalty and interest provided in section 9½ hereof shall attach to the amount of the tax specified therein.

Sec. 9. Section 20 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 20. Any retailer against whom an assessment is made by the board under the provisions of section 17 or 18 hereof may petition for a reassessment thereof within fifteen days after service upon the retailer of notice thereof. If a petition for reassessment is not filed within said fifteen day period the amount of the assessment becomes final at the expiration thereof.
If a petition for reassessment is filed within said fifteen day period the board shall reconsider the assessment, and if the retailer has so requested in his petition, shall grant said retailer an oral hearing and shall give the retailer ten days' notice of the time and place thereof. The board shall have power to continue the hearing from time to time as may be necessary. The order or decision of the board upon a petition for reassessment shall become final sixty days after service upon the retailer of notice thereof unless the retailer brings a proceeding for the review thereof under the provisions of section 33 hereof.

All assessments made by the board under the provisions of section 17 or 18 hereof shall become due and payable at the time of service of notice thereof. If the amount of the tax, interest and penalty, if any, specified in any assessment is not paid prior to the time the assessment becomes final, there shall be added thereto a penalty of ten per cent of the amount of the tax.

Any notice required by this section shall be served personally or by mail in the same manner as prescribed for service of notice by the provisions of section 17 hereof.

Sec. 10. Section 21 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 21. Except in the case of a fraudulent return, or neglect or refusal to make a return, every notice of additional tax proposed to be assessed hereunder shall be mailed to the retailer within three years after the return was filed.

Sec. 11. Section 22 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 22. All taxes not paid to the board by the retailer on the date when the same become due and payable shall bear interest in the rate of one-half of one per cent per month, or fraction thereof, from and after such date until paid.

Sec. 12. Section 23 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 23. If the board determines that any tax, penalty or interest has been paid more than once, or has been erroneously or illegally collected or computed, the board shall set forth that fact in the records of the board and shall certify to the State Board of Control the amount collected in excess of what was legally due, from whom it was collected, or by whom paid, and if approved by that board the same shall be credited on any taxes then due from the retailer under this act and the balance shall be refunded to the retailer, or his successors, administrators, executors or assigns, but no such credit or refund shall be allowed after three years from the date of overpayment.

Any refund or any portion thereof which is erroneously made and any credit or any portion thereof which is erroneously allowed, may be recovered in an action brought by the Controller of the State in a court of competent jurisdiction in the county of Sacramento, in the name of the people of the State of California and such action shall be tried in the county of Sacramento unless the court with the consent of the Attorney General, orders a change of place of trial. The Attorney General must prosecute such action, and the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to service of summons, pleadings, proofs, trials and appeals are applicable to the proceedings herein provided for.

In the event that a tax has been illegally levied against a retailer the board shall certify such fact to the State Board of Control and said board shall authorize the cancellation of the tax upon the records of the board.

Sec. 13. Section 24 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 24. If fraud or evasion on the part of a retailer is discovered by the board, it shall determine the amount by which the State has been defrauded, shall add to the amount so determined a penalty equal to twenty-five per cent thereof, and shall assess the same against the retailer. All such assessments shall bear interest at the rate of one-half of one per cent per month or fraction thereof, from the fifteenth day after the close of the period or periods, as the case may be, for which the amount should have been paid. The amount so assessed shall be immediately due and payable and if not paid within ten days after the service upon the retailer of notice of the assessment the delinquency penalty and interest provided in section 9 1/2 thereof shall attach to the amount of the tax specified therein.

Sec. 14. Section 26 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 26. In any case in which any tax, interest or penalty imposed under this act is not paid when due the board may file in the office of the county clerk of Sacramento County, or any other county, a certificate specifying the amount of the tax, interest and penalty due, the name and last known address of the retailer liable for the same, that the board has complied with all the provisions of this act in relation to the computation and levy of the tax and a request that judgment be entered against the retailer in the amount of the tax, interest and penalty set forth in the certificate. The county clerk immediately upon the filing of such certificate shall enter a judgment for the people of the State of California against the retailer in the amount of the tax, interest and penalty set forth in the certificate. The judgment may be filed by the county clerk in a loose-leaf book entitled "Special Judgments for State Retail Sales or Use Tax."

An abstract of such judgment or a copy thereof may be recorded with the county recorder of any county and from the time of such recording, the amount of the taxes, interest and penalty therein set forth shall constitute a lien upon all the real property of the retailer in such county, owned by him or which he may afterwards and before the lien expires acquire, which lien shall have the force, effect and priority of a judgment lien. Execution shall issue upon such a judgment upon request of the board in the same manner as execution may issue upon other judgments and sales shall be held under such execution as prescribed in the Code of Civil Procedure. In all proceedings under this section the board shall be authorized to act on behalf of the people of the State of California.

If any retailer liable for any tax, interest or penalty levied hereunder shall sell out his business or stock of goods or shall quit the business, he shall make a final return and payment within fifteen days after the date of selling or quitting business. His successor, successors or assigns, if any, shall withhold sufficient of the purchase money to cover the amount of such taxes, interest or penalties due and unpaid until such time as the former owner shall produce a receipt from the board showing that they have been paid, or a certificate stating that no taxes, interest or penalties are due. If the purchaser of a business or stock of goods shall fail to withhold purchase money as above provided, he shall be personally liable for the payment of the taxes, interest and penalties accrued and unpaid on account of the operation of the business by any former owner, owners or assigns.

In the event that any retailer is delinquent in the payment of the tax herein provided for the board may give notice of the amount of such delinquency by registered mail to all persons having in their possession, or under their control, any credits or other personal property belonging to such retailer, or owing any debts to such retailer at the time of receipt by them of such notice and thereafter any person so notified shall neither transfer nor make any other disposition of such credits, other personal property, or debts until the board shall have consented to a transfer or disposition, or until twenty days shall have elapsed from and after the receipt of such notice. All persons so notified must, within five days after receipt of such notice, advise the board of any and all such credits, other personal property or debts, in their possession, under their control or owing by them, as the case may be.

At any time within three years after any retailer is delinquent in the payment of the tax herein provided for, the board may proceed forthwith to collect the tax due from the retailer in the following manner: The board shall seize any property, real or personal, of the retailer not exempt from execution under the provisions of section 690 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and thereafter sell at public auction such property so seized, or a sufficient portion thereof, to pay the tax due hereunder, together with any interest or penalties imposed hereby for such delinquency, and any and all costs that may have been incurred on account of such seizure and sale. Notice of such intended sale and the time and place thereof, shall be given to such delinquent retailer in writing at least ten days before the date set for such sale by enclosing such notice in an envelope addressed to such retailer at his last known residence or place of business in this State, if any, and depositing the same in the United States mail, postage prepaid, and by publication for at least ten days before the date set for such sale in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county or city and county in which the property seized is to be sold; provided, that if there be no newspaper of general circulation in such county or city and county, then by the posting of such notice in three public places in such county or city and county ten days prior to the date set for such sale. The said notice shall contain a description of the property to be sold, together with a statement of the amount of the taxes, interest, penalties and costs, the name of the retailer, and the further statement that unless such taxes, interest and penalties and costs are paid on or before the time fixed in said notice for such sale, said property, or so much thereof as may be necessary, will be sold in accordance with law and said notice.

At any such sale, the property shall be sold by the board in accordance with law and said notice, and the board shall deliver to the purchaser a bill of sale for the personal property, and a deed for any real property so sold, and such bill of sale or deed shall vest the interest or title of the retailer in the purchaser. The unsold portion of any property so seized may be left at the place of sale at the risk of the retailer. If upon any such sale, the moneys so received shall exceed the amount of all taxes, interest, penalties and costs due the State from such retailer, any such excess shall be returned to the retailer, and his receipt therefor obtained; provided, however, that if any person having an interest or lien upon the property has filed with the board prior to any such sale notice of such interest or lien the board shall withhold any such excess pending a determination of the rights of the respective parties thereto by a court of competent jurisdiction. If, for any reason, the receipt of such retailer shall not be available, the board shall deposit such excess moneys with the State Treasurer, as trustee for such owner, subject to the order of such retailer, his heirs, successors or assigns.

It is expressly provided that the foregoing remedies of the State shall be cumulative and that no action taken by the board or Attorney General shall be construed to be an election on the part of the State or any of its officers to pursue any remedy hereunder to the exclusion of any other remedy for which provision is made in this act.

Sec. 15. Section 27 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 27. The board or any person authorized in writing by it is hereby authorized to examine the books, papers, records and equipment and to investigate the character of the business of any person selling tangible personal property in order to verify the accuracy of any return made, or if no return was made by such person, to ascertain and assess the tax imposed by this act. The board is hereby charged with the enforcement of the provisions of this act and is hereby authorized and empowered to prescribe, adopt and enforce rules and regulations relating to the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this act in the collection of taxes, penalties and interest imposed by this act, and to that end may appoint, exempt from the provisions of the Civil Service Act, such accountants, auditors, investigators and assistants as it may deem necessary to enforce its powers and perform its duties under this act.

Sec. 16. Section 29 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 29. All fees, taxes, interest and penalties imposed under this act must be paid to the board in the form of remittances payable to the State Board of Equalization of the State of California, and said board shall transmit such payments to the State Treasurer to be deposited in the State treasury to the credit of the "retail sales tax fund." For expenditure by the board in carrying out the provisions of this act in addition to any other appropriations, there is hereby appropriated the amount of permit fees paid hereunder from the effective date of said act to and including June 30, 1936. All moneys in the retail sales tax fund, unless otherwise appropriated shall, upon order of the State Controller, be drawn therefrom for the purpose of refunding to the retailers hereunder or transferred to the general fund of the State.

Sec. 17. Section 30 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 30. At any time within three years after the delinquency of any tax, the board may bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction in the name of the people of the State of California to collect the amount delinquent, together with penalties. The Attorney General must prosecute such action, and the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to service of summons, pleadings, proofs, trials and appeals are applicable to the proceedings herein provided for. In such action a writ of attachment may issue, and no bond or affidavit previous to the issuing of said attachment is required. In such action a certificate by the board showing the delinquency shall be prima facie evidence of the levy of the tax, of the delinquency and of compliance by the board with all provisions of this act in relation to the computation and levy of the tax.

Sec. 18. Section 33 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 33. Every order, decision or other official act of the board shall be subject to review in accordance with the provisions of Chapter I, Title I of Part III of the Code of Civil Procedure if the proceeding is brought within sixty days after service of notice of such order, decision or other official act. Upon such review the court shall be limited to a consideration and determination of the question whether there has been an abuse of discretion on the part of the board in making such order, decision or other official act. The person petitioning for a review of any order, decision or other official act of the board shall pay the cost of the preparation of any transcript or transcripts of the records or proceedings of the board that the board may be required to furnish in the proceeding instituted by the retailer under the provisions of this section.

Sec. 19. The amendments to the Retail Sales Tax Act of 1933 effected by this act becomes operative on July 1, 1935, except that the amendment hereby effected to section 15 of said act becomes operative immediately.

Sec. 20. This act, inasmuch as it provides for a tax levy for the usual current expenses of the State, shall, under the provisions of section 1, of Article IV of the Constitution, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 358.

An act to be known as the "Inheritance Tax Act of 1935," to establish a tax on gifts, legacies, inheritances, bequests, devises, successes, transfers, joint tenancies and insurance; to provide for its collection and to direct the disposition of its proceeds; to provide for the enforcement of liens created by this act and by any act hereby repealed and for suits to quiet title against claims of liens arising hereunder, or under any act hereby repealed; to provide penalties for failure to comply with the provisions of this act; and to repeal Chapter 821 of the laws of the session of the Legislature of California of 1921, approved June 3, 1921, known as the "Inheritance Tax Act," and all amendments thereto, and to repeal all acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act, and providing this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 25, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. (1) This act shall be known as the "Inheritance Tax Act of 1935."

(2) The words "estate" and "property" as used in this act shall be taken to mean the real and personal property or interest therein of the testator, intestate, grantor, bargainor, vendor, donor, joint tenant or insured, passing or transferred to individual legatees, devisees, heirs, next of kin, grantees, donees, vendees, successors, survivors or beneficiaries, and shall include all intangible personal property of resident decedents within or without the State or subject to the jurisdiction thereof, and all stock of California corporations, and Federal corporations or National banks with their principal places of business in California, and all other intangible personal property in California belonging to the estate of a deceased nonresident of the United States; provided, that for the purpose of this act upon the death of the husband at least one-half of the community property is taxable under the provisions of this act and all of the community property passing to anyone other than the wife; provided, further, that when the husband by testamentary disposition of the community property forces the surviving wife to elect whether to take under his will or by operation of law, the property not exceeding in value one-half of the community property, which the wife takes under the said will in lieu of the one-half of the community property belonging to her, shall not be taxable under the provisions of this act; the provisions of this proviso shall also extend to those estates now in probate and in which the orders fixing tax have not become final judgments as provided by this act; provided, further, the one-half of the community property which belongs to the surviving spouse, and, in case of the death of the wife, the community interest which goes to her husband under the provisions of section 201 of the Probate Code in the absence of her testamentary disposition thereof to another or others, or which passes to him under her will, shall not be subject to the provisions of this act; provided, further, that for the purposes of this act, intangible personal property, wherever situated, heretofore or hereafter acquired while domiciled elsewhere, which would not have been the separate property of either husband or wife if acquired while domiciled in this State shall be deemed to be community property; provided, further, that in case of a transfer of community property from one spouse to the other within the meaning of any subdivision of section 2 of this act, one-half of the community property so transferred to the wife and all thereof transferred to the husband, shall not be subject to the provisions of this act; and provided, further, that the presumption that property acquired by either husband or wife after marriage is community property, shall not obtain for the purpose of this act as against any claim by the State for the tax hereby imposed; but the burden of proving such property to be community property shall rest upon the person claiming the same to be community property.

(3) The word "transfer" as used in this act shall be taken to include the passing of property or any interest therein, in possession or enjoyment, present or future, by inheritance, descent, devise, succession, bequest, homestead, family allowance or exempt property orders in probate, survivorship, grant, deed, bargain, sale, gift, advancement or insurance in the manner herein described.

(4) The word "decedent" as used in this act shall include the testator, intestate, grantor, bargainor, vendor, donor, joint tenant or insured.

(5) The words "county treasurer" and "inheritance tax appraiser," as used in this act, shall be taken to mean the treasurer or the inheritance tax appraiser of the county of the superior court having jurisdiction as provided in section 15 of this act.

SEC. 2. A tax shall be and is hereby imposed upon the transfer of any property, real or personal, or of any interest therein or income therefrom, in trust or otherwise, to persons, institutions or corporations, not hereinafter exempted, to be paid to the treasurer of the proper county, as hereinafter directed, for the use of the State, said taxes to be upon the market value of such property at the date of death of the decedent and at the rates hereinafter prescribed and only upon the excess over the exemptions hereinafter granted in the following cases:

(1) When the transfer is by will or by the intestate or homestead laws of this State, from any person dying seized or possessed of the property while a resident of the State, or by any order of court setting apart property and/or making and granting extra or family allowances pursuant to the provisions of the Probate Code.

(2) When the transfer is by will or intestate or homestead laws of property within this State and the decedent was a non-resident of the State at the time of his death, or by any order of court setting apart property and/or making and granting extra or family allowances pursuant to the provisions of the Probate Code.

(3) When the transfer is of property made by a resident or by a nonresident, when such nonresident’s property is within this State, by deed, grant, bargain, sale, assignment or gift, made without valuable and adequate consideration (i.e., a consideration equal in money or in money’s worth to the full value of the property transferred):

(a) In contemplation of the death of the grantor, vendor, assignor or donor, or,

(b) Intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after such death, or in which a life income or interest is reserved by the grantor, either expressly or impliedly, or by the grantee promising to make payments to or care for the grantor.

(c) As an advancement.

(d) By a revocable trust created before or after the taking effect of this act.

When such person, institution or corporation becomes beneficially entitled in possession or expectancy to any property or the income therefrom by any such transfer, whether made before or after the passage of this act.

In all transfers inter vivos the value of the property transferred shall be taken as of the date of death of the transferor and with the rates and exemptions then in effect.

(4) The words "contemplation of death," as used in this act, shall be taken to include that expectancy of death which actuates the mind of a person on the execution of his will, and in nowise shall said words be limited and restricted to that expectancy of death which actuates the mind of a person making a gift causa mortis; and it is hereby declared to be the intent and purpose of this act to tax any and all transfers which are made in lieu of or to avoid the passing of property transferred by testate or intestate laws.

(5) Whenever property, real or personal, is held in the joint names of two or more persons, or is deposited in banks or other institutions or depositaries in the joint names of two or more persons and payable to either or the survivor, upon the death of one of such persons, the right of the surviving joint tenant or joint tenants, person or persons to the immediate ownership or possession and enjoyment of such property shall be deemed a transfer taxable under the provisions of this act in the same manner as though the whole property to which such transfer relates belonged absolutely to the deceased joint tenant or joint depositor and had been devised or bequeathed to the surviving joint tenant or joint tenants, person or persons, by such deceased joint tenant or joint depositor by will, excepting therefrom such part thereof as may be proved by the surviving joint tenant or joint tenants to have originally belonged to him or them and never to have belonged to the decedent.

(6) Whenever any person or corporation shall be given a power of appointment by virtue of any disposition of property made before or after the passage of this act, such gift of power of appointment shall, under the provisions of this act, be deemed a taxable transfer made from the donor of said power to the donee thereof at the date of the donor's death; provided that where the donor of a power of appointment dies prior to the taking effect of this amendment and the power is exercised thereafter the exercise of said power of appointment shall be deemed a transfer taxable as provided in subdivision 5 of section 2 of the Inheritance Tax Act of 1921 as amended in 1929.

(7) Whenever a decedent appoints or names one or more executors or trustees, and makes a bequest or devise of property to them in lieu of commissions or allowances, which otherwise would be liable to said tax, or appoints them his residuary legatees or devisees, and said bequest, devise or residuary legacies or devises exceeds the executor's commission provided in section 901 of the Probate Code, or a reasonable compensation to be fixed by the court for the trustee, such excess over and above the exemptions herein provided for shall be liable to said tax.

(8) Where any property shall, after the passage of this act, be transferred subject to any charge, estate or interest, determinable by the death of any person, or at any period ascertainable only by reference to death, the increase accruing to any person or corporation upon the extinction or determination of such charge, estate or interest shall be deemed a transfer of property taxable under the provisions of this act in the same manner as though the person or corporation beneficially entitled thereto had then acquired such increase from the person from whom the title to their respective estates or interests is derived.

(9) The proceeds of all life or accident insurance policies payable on account of the death of the insured shall be subject to the tax herein imposed, as follows:

(a) The proceeds of all of such policies now in force or hereafter issued payable to the estate, executor or administrator or personal representative of the insured.

(b) The proceeds of all such policies hereafter issued payable to named beneficiaries.

(c) The proceeds of all such policies now in force payable to named beneficiaries in which the insured has the right to change the beneficiary or under which he has cash surrender right.

(d) The aggregate proceeds of all policies designated in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subdivision (9) of section 2, up to and including a total of fifty thousand dollars, shall not be subject to the provisions of this act. Said fifty thousand dollar exemption shall be prorated among all beneficiaries under such policies in proportion to the amount of such insurance payable to each of them, and shall be in addition to all other exemptions provided for in this act.

(10) When more than one transfer within the meaning of any of the preceding subdivisions of this section has been made, either before or after the passage of this act, by a decedent to one person, the tax shall be imposed upon the aggregate market value of all of the property so transferred to such person in the same manner and to the same extent as if all of the property so transferred were actually transferred by one transfer made at the date of the transferor's death and with the value, rates and exemptions as of that date.

(11) In determining the market value of the property transferred, the following deductions, if obligations of the decedent or his estate and paid by the estate or transferee, and no others, shall be made from the appraised value thereof:

(a) Debts of decedent owing at the date of death;

(b) Expenses of funeral and last illness;

(c) All State, county, and municipal taxes and assessments which are a lien against said property at the date of death;

(d) The ordinary expenses of administration, including the ordinary fees allowed executors and administrators and the ordinary fees of their attorneys under the provisions of sections 901 and 910 of the Probate Code of California, computed on the value of the estate at the date of decedent's death;

(e) The amount due or paid the government of the United States as a Federal inheritance or estate tax; provided, however, that the amount of such tax allowable herein as a deduction shall be limited to a computation thereof (commencing at the primary rates) made by the acting State inheritance tax appraiser upon his own valuations of that portion of such property only, the transfer of which is taxable.
under the provisions of this act, by applying to such valuations the exemptions and rates of the Federal inheritance or estate tax in force at the date of decedent's death.

(f) This subdivision (11) is intended as a limitation on deductions, and it is not its purpose to allow as a deduction anything that does not actually reduce the amount of the inheritance or transfer.

(12) Where the tax imposed by this act is of a lesser amount than the maximum credit of the Federal estate tax allowed by the Federal estate tax law because of said tax herein imposed, then the tax provided for by this act shall be increased so that the amount of tax due this State shall be the maximum amount of the credit allowed under said Federal estate tax law. Said additional tax shall be paid out of the same funds as any other ordinary charge against the estate.

Where no tax is imposed by this act because of the exemptions herein, or for any other reason, and a tax is due the United States under the Federal estate tax law, then a tax shall be due this State equal to the maximum amount of the credit allowed under said Federal estate tax law.

Should the amount of tax in this act increased by this section be afterwards found to be more than the maximum credit allowed under the Federal estate tax law, then any excess over and above the said maximum credit shall be refunded as is provided in subdivision 4 of section 11 of this act. Said application for refund must be made within six months after said maximum credit has been determined by the Federal Government.

Sec. 3. Such taxes shall be and remain a lien upon the property passed or transferred until paid; provided, however, that where property is sold under and in accordance with the provisions of the Probate Code the lien herein provided for shall be released from the property so sold and shall attach to the proceeds of such sale, and the person to whom the property passes or is transferred, except as herein in this section provided, and all administrators, executors and trustees of every estate so transferred or passed, shall be liable for any and all such taxes until the same shall have been paid as hereinafter directed. The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relative to the limitation of time of enforcing a civil remedy shall not apply to any proceeding or action taken to levy, appraise, assess, determine or enforce the collection of any tax or penalty prescribed by this act; provided, that unless sued for within five years after they are due and legally demandable, such taxes or any taxes accruing under any act hereby repealed, shall cease to be a lien against any bona fide purchaser of said property.

Sec. 4. When the property or any beneficial interest therein so passed or transferred exceeds in value the exemption hereinafter specified and shall not exceed in value twenty-five thousand dollars, the tax hereby imposed shall be:
(1) Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be the husband, wife, lineal ancestor, lineal issue of the decedent or any child adopted as such in conformity with the laws of this State, or any child to whom such decedent for not less than ten years prior to such transfer stood in the mutually acknowledged relation of a parent (provided, however, such relationship began at or before the child's fifteenth birthday, and was continuous for said ten years thereafter), or any lineal issue of such adopted or mutually acknowledged child, at the rate of two per centum of the clear value of such interest in such property.

(2) Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be the brother or sister or a descendant of a brother or sister of a decedent, a wife or widow of a son, or the husband of a daughter of the decedent, at the rate of five per centum of the clear value of such interest in such property.

(3) Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be the brother or sister of the father or mother or a descendant of a brother or sister of the father or mother of the decedent, at the rate of six per centum of the clear value of such interest in such property.

(4) Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be in any other degree of collateral consanguinity than is hereinbefore stated or shall be a stranger in blood to the decedent, or shall be a body politic or corporate, at the rate of seven per centum of the clear value of such interest in such property.

(5) If a legatee under a will renounces the legacy, or any part thereof, or agrees that the estate, or any part thereof, shall be distributed otherwise than as provided in the will, in consideration of the withdrawal of a contest to the will, or for any other reason, the inheritance tax shall nevertheless be computed in accordance with the terms of the will admitted to probate.

Sec. 5. (1) When the market value of such property or interest passed or transferred to any of the persons mentioned in subdivision (1) of section 4 exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars, the rates of tax upon such excess shall be as follows:

(a) Upon all in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars and up to fifty thousand dollars, three per centum of such excess.

(b) Upon all in excess of fifty thousand dollars and up to one hundred thousand dollars, four per centum of such excess.

(c) Upon all in excess of one hundred thousand dollars and up to two hundred thousand dollars, seven per centum of such excess.

(d) Upon all in excess of two hundred thousand dollars and up to five hundred thousand dollars, nine per centum of such excess.

(e) Upon all in excess of five hundred thousand dollars, ten per centum of such excess.
(2) When the market value of such property or interest passed or transferred to any of the persons mentioned in subdivision (2) of section 4 exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars, the rates of tax upon such excess shall be as follows:

(a) Upon all in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars and up to fifty thousand dollars, seven per centum of such excess.

(b) Upon all in excess of fifty thousand dollars and up to one hundred thousand dollars, ten per centum of such excess.

(c) Upon all in excess of one hundred thousand dollars, and up to three hundred thousand dollars twelve per centum of such excess.

(d) Upon all in excess of three hundred thousand dollars and up to five hundred thousand dollars, fourteen per centum of such excess.

(e) Upon all in excess of five hundred thousand dollars, fifteen per centum of such excess.

(3) When the market value of such property or interest passed or transferred to any of the persons mentioned in subdivision (3) of section 4 exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars, the rates of tax upon such excess shall be as follows:

(a) Upon all in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars and up to fifty thousand dollars, nine per centum of such excess.

(b) Upon all in excess of fifty thousand dollars and up to one hundred thousand dollars, twelve per centum of such excess.

(c) Upon all in excess of one hundred thousand dollars, and up to three hundred thousand dollars twelve per centum of such excess.

(d) Upon all in excess of three hundred thousand dollars, fifteen per centum of such excess.

(4) When the market value of such property or interest passed or transferred to any of the persons mentioned in subdivision (4) of section 4 exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars, the rates of tax upon such excess shall be as follows:

(a) Upon all in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars and up to fifty thousand dollars, ten per centum of such excess.

(b) Upon all in excess of fifty thousand dollars, and up to three hundred thousand dollars twelve per centum of such excess.

(c) Upon all in excess of three hundred thousand dollars up to five hundred thousand dollars, fifteen per centum of such excess.

(d) Upon all in excess of five hundred thousand dollars, sixteen per centum of such excess.

Sec. 6. The following exemptions from the tax are hereby allowed:

(1) (a) All proceeds of any Federal war risk insurance policy of any veteran of the World War which is payable or which may become payable to the estate of such veteran shall be exempt.
Exemptions. (b) All property transferred to societies, corporations and institutions now or hereafter exempted by law from taxation, or to any public corporation, or to any society, corporation, institution, or association of persons engaged in or devoted to any charitable, benevolent, educational, public, or other like work (pecuniary profit not being its object or purpose); or to any person, society, corporation, institution, or association of persons in trust for or to be devoted to any charitable, benevolent, educational, or public purpose, by reason whereof any such person or corporation shall become beneficially entitled in possession or expectancy, to any such property or to the income thereof, shall be exempt; provided, however, that such society, corporation, institution or association be organized or existing under the laws of this State or that the property transferred be limited for use within this State; provided further, that if such society, corporation, institution or association be organized or existing under the laws of a Territory or State of the United States (other than California) or of a foreign state or country, all property transferred to such society, corporation, institution or association shall be exempt if at the date of decedent's death the said State or Territory or foreign state or country under the laws of which such society, corporation, institution or association was organized or existing did not impose a legacy or succession tax or a death tax of any character in respect of property transferred to such a society, corporation, institution or association organized or existing under the laws of this State, or if at the date of decedent's death the laws of the State or Territory or foreign state or country under which such society, corporation, institution or association was organized or existing contained a reciprocal provision under which transfers to such a society, corporation, institution or association organized or existing under the laws of another State or Territory or foreign state or country were exempted from legacy or succession taxes or death taxes of every character providing said other State or Territory or foreign state or country allowed a similar exemption to such a society, corporation, institution or association organized or existing under the laws of another State or Territory or foreign state or country.

(2) (a) Property of the clear value of twenty-four thousand dollars, transferred to the wife, and of twelve thousand dollars transferred to a minor child of the decedent, and of five thousand dollars transferred to each of the other persons described in the first subdivision of section 4 shall be exempt.

(b) All property transferred by a decedent to any person described in the first subdivision of section 4, providing the same was transferred to such decedent not more than five years prior to his death by another decedent of the class described in the first subdivision of section 4 and a tax paid thereon to the State of California, shall be exempt; provided that the value of said property shall be taken as of the date of death of the first decedent; and provided further, that this subdivision shall not apply to a tax paid under the provisions of subdivision 12 of section 2 hereof.

(3) Property of the clear value of two thousand dollars transferred to each of the persons described in the second subdivision of section 4 shall be exempt.

(4) Property of the clear value of five hundred dollars transferred to each of the persons described in the third subdivision of section 4 shall be exempt.

(5) Property of the clear value of fifty dollars transferred to each of the persons and corporations described in the fourth subdivision of section 4 shall be exempt.

(6) In computing the tax upon transfers subject to tax under the provisions of this act, the exemptions in this section allowed shall be deducted from the aggregate amount of property transferred, and the transfer of the remainder of the property after making such deduction shall be taxed at the rates at which it would have been taxed had no exemption whatever been allowed.

(7) The tax imposed by this act in respect of intangible personal property shall not be payable if the decedent is a resident of a foreign state or country which at the time of his death imposed a legacy, succession or death tax in respect of intangible personal property within said foreign state or country of residents of said foreign state or country, but did not impose a legacy or succession tax or a death tax of any character in respect of intangible personal property within said foreign state or country of residents of this State, or if the laws of the foreign state or country of residence of the decedent at the time of his death contained a reciprocal provision under which nonresidents were exempted from legacy or succession taxes or death taxes of every character in respect of intangible personal property providing the foreign state or country of residence of such nonresidents allowed a similar exemption to residents of the foreign state or country of residence of such decedent.

Sec. 7. (1) All taxes imposed by this act, unless otherwise herein provided for, shall be due and payable at the date of death of the decedent, and if the same are paid within two years, no interest shall be charged and collected thereon, but if not so paid, interest at the rate of ten per centum per annum shall be charged and collected from the time said tax accrued; provided that if said tax is paid within six months from the accruing thereof and there is no tax under subdivision 12 of section 2 hereof, a discount of five per centum shall be allowed and deducted from said tax; provided, further, that all payments made after the expiration of said two years shall be applied first to the payment of interest on said tax to the date of payment and the balance, if any, on the tax. And in all cases where the executors, administrators or trustees do not pay such tax within two years from the death of the decedent, they shall be required to give a bond for the payment of such tax, together with interest.

(2) The penalty of ten per cent per annum imposed by subdivision (1) of this section for the nonpayment of said tax shall not be charged in cases where, in the judgment of the court, by reason of claims made upon the estate, necessary litigation, or other unavoidable cause of delay, the estate of any decedent, or a part thereof, can not be settled at the end of two years from the death of the decedent; but in such cases seven per cent per annum shall be charged upon the said tax from the expiration of said two years until the cause of such delay is removed, after which ten per cent interest per annum shall again be charged until the tax is paid; but litigation to defeat the payment of the tax shall not be considered necessary litigation.

Sec. 8. (1) When any grant, gift, legacy, devise or succession upon which a tax is imposed by section 2 of this act shall be an estate, income, or interest for a term of years, or for life, or determinable upon any future or contingent event, or shall be a remainder, reversion, or other expectancy, real or personal, the entire property or fund by which such estate, income, or interest is supported, or of which it is a part, shall be appraised immediately after the death of the decedent, and the market value thereof determined, in the manner provided in section 16 or 17 of this act, and the tax prescribed by this act shall be immediately due and payable to the treasurer of the proper county, and together with the interest thereon, shall be and remain a lien on said property until the same is paid.

(2) In estimating the value of any estate or interest in property, to the beneficial enjoyment or possession whereof there are persons or corporations presently entitled thereto, no allowance shall be made on account of any contingent incumbrance thereon, nor on account of any contingency upon the happening of which the estate or property or some part thereof or interest therein might be abridged, defeated or diminished; provided, however, that in the event of such incumbrance taking effect as an actual burden upon the interest of the beneficiary, or in the event of the abridgment, defeat or diminution of said estate or property or interest therein as aforesaid, a return shall be made to the person properly entitled thereto of a proportionate amount of such tax on account of the incumbrance when taking effect, or so much as will reduce the same to the amount which would have been assessed on account of the actual duration or extent of the estate or interest enjoyed. Such return of tax shall be made in the manner provided by subdivision 4 of section 11 hereof upon order of the court having jurisdiction. Said application for return of tax must be made within six months of the happening of said contingency.

(3) When property is transferred in trust or otherwise, whereby any person becomes entitled to an estate or interest for life or years therein and any other person to the remainder over, the executor or trustee shall pay the entire tax on all interests therein out of the corpus of the property transferred, and no part thereof shall be charged against the interest of or collected from the beneficiaries thereof.

(4) When property is transferred in trust or otherwise, and the rights, interest or estates of the transferees are dependent upon contingencies or conditions whereby they may be wholly or in part created, defeated, extended, or abridged, a tax shall be imposed upon said transfer at the highest rate which, on the happening of any of the said contingencies or conditions, would be possible under the provisions of this act, and such tax so imposed shall be due and payable forthwith by the executors or trustees out of the corpus of the property transferred and shall not be charged against the interest of or collected from the beneficiaries thereof; provided, however, that on the happening of any contingency whereby the said property, or any part thereof, is transferred to a person or corporation exempt from taxation under the provisions of this act, or to any person taxable at a rate less than the rate imposed and paid, the executors or trustees shall be entitled to a return of that part of the tax imposed and paid represented by the difference between the amount paid and the amount actually payable under the provisions of this act, and the amount returned shall go into and form a part of the corpus of the property transferred; such return of overpayment shall be made in the manner provided by subdivision 4 of section 11 of this act, upon motion made in the court having jurisdiction within six months after the happening of said contingency; provided, that the person or persons or body politic or corporate beneficially interested in the property chargeable with said tax or the trustees thereof may elect not to pay the same until such person or persons, or body politic or corporate beneficially interested in such property shall come into the actual possession or enjoyment thereof, and in that case such person or persons or body politic or corporate or trustees shall execute a bond to the people of the State of California in a penalty of the amount of said tax plus interest thereon for five years at the rate of seven per cent per annum with such sureties as the said superior court may approve, conditioned for the payment of said tax or any lesser tax which may become payable on the happening of said contingency, and interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent per annum commencing at the expiration of two years from the death of the decedent at such time or period as they or their representatives may come into the actual possession or enjoyment of such property, and conditioned further, that if said bond be not renewed and the returns made as herein provided, the amount of said tax and interest thereon shall immediately become due and payable. Said bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the proper county and a certified copy thereof shall be immediately transmitted to the State Controller; provided further, that such person or persons or body politic of corporate, or trustees, shall enter into such security within a period of ninety days after the entry of the order or the decree fixing the inheritance tax charged against such transfer, or within such period thereafter as the court may in its discretion permit, and shall make a full and verified return of such property to said court and file the same in the office of the county clerk within one year from the date of such order or decree fixing tax, and at such times thereafter as the court on the application of the State Controller may require, and renew such security every five years after the date of the approval thereof by filing a new bond with such sureties as said superior court may approve, and transmitting a certified copy of said renewal bond to the State Controller. The penalty of each renewal bond shall be increased by five years interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum on the unpaid tax. Upon the approval of said bond as herein provided, said tax shall cease to be a lien upon the property so transferred. If such security shall not be renewed before the expiration of each five year period, said bond shall immediately become due and payable and if the same be not paid forthwith, the Attorney General shall file an action in the name of the people of the State on the relation of the Controller, to recover the same and the penalties thereunder and no demand for payment shall be necessary before the institution of such suit. Whenever it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that any surety on such bond or undertaking has for any reason become insufficient, the court may on motion of the State Controller, after such notice to such person or persons, body politic or corporate, or trustees as the court may require, order the giving of a new undertaking with sufficient sureties in lieu of such insufficient undertaking. In case such new undertaking so required shall not be given within the time required by such order, or in case the sureties thereon fail to justify thereon when required, all rights obtained by the filing of such original undertaking, or subsequent undertaking, shall cease and the amount of said tax and interest thereon shall immediately become due and payable.

(5) Notwithstanding any provisions hereof whereby final determination of taxability of the transfer of property or interests therein or income therefrom, is or may be deferred until the happening of certain contingencies or conditions, the State Controller may compromise, adjust and settle with the administrator, executor or trustee having charge of the estate or property in question, the taxability of the transfer of such property and of each and every interest therein, including the income therefrom, whether such interests be absolute or qualified, perpetual or limited, present or future, vested or contingent, or otherwise.

The inheritance tax appraiser, determining the inheritance tax payable, shall prepare a report in accordance with such settlement and if and when said report is confirmed by an order of the superior court having jurisdiction said order shall be a final determination of the matters covered thereby and the payment of said tax as fixed by said order shall be a complete discharge to such administrator, executor, or trustee with respect to such taxes.

(6) Estates in expectancy which are contingent or defeasible and in which proceedings for the determination of the tax have not been taken or where the taxation thereof has been held in abeyance, shall be appraised at their full, undiminished value when the persons entitled thereto shall come into the beneficial enjoyment or possession thereof, without diminution for or on account of any valuation theretofore made of the particular estates for purposes of taxation, upon which said estates in expectancy may have been limited.

(7) Where an estate or interest can be divested by the act or omission of the legatee or devisee it shall be taxed as if there were no possibility of such divesting.

(8) The value of every future, or contingent or limited estate, income or interest, shall, for the purposes of this act be determined by the rule, methods and standards of mortality and of value that are set forth in the actuaries’ combined experience tables of mortality for ascertaining the value of policies of life insurance and annuities and for the determination of the liabilities of life insurance companies, save that the rate of interest to be assessed in computing the present value of all future interests and contingencies shall be five (5) per cent per annum. For the purposes of this act, in determining the present value of such estate, income or interest, other than an annuity in a fixed amount, the yearly income or the annual value of the use or income of such estate or interest shall be five per cent of the appraised value of the property upon which said estate or interest is based. When an annuity or a life estate is terminated by the death of the annuitant or life tenant, and the tax upon such interest has not been fixed and determined, the value of said interest for the purpose of taxation under this act shall be the amount of the annuity or income actually paid or payable to the annuitant or life tenant during the period for which such annuitant or life tenant was entitled to the annuity or was in possession of the life estate.

Sec. 9. (1) Any administrator, executor or trustee having in charge or trust any legacy or property for distribution, subject to the said tax, shall deduct the tax therefrom, or if the legacy or property be not money he shall collect the tax thereon, upon the market value thereof, from the legatee or person entitled to such property, and he shall not deliver, or be compelled to deliver, any specific legacy or property subject to tax to any person until he shall have collected the tax thereon; and whenever any such legacy shall be charged upon or payable out of real estate the executor, administrator, or trustee shall collect said tax from the distributee thereof, and the same shall remain a charge on such real estate until paid; if, however, such legacy be given in money to any person for a limited period, the executor, administrator, or trustee shall retain the tax upon the whole amount; but if it be not in money he shall make application to the superior court to make an apportionment, if the case require it, of the sum to be paid into his hands by such legatees, and for such further order relative thereto as the case may require.

(2) All executors, administrators, and trustees shall have full power to sell so much of the property of the decedent as will enable them to pay said tax, in the same manner as they may be enabled by law to do for the payment of debts of the estate, and may be compelled by order of court to make such sale, and the amount of said tax shall be paid as hereinafter directed.

(3) Every sum of money retained by an executor, administrator or trustee, or paid into his hands for any tax on property, shall be paid by him within thirty days thereafter, to the treasurer of the county in which the probate proceedings are pending.

SEC. 10. Upon the payment to any county treasurer of any tax due under this act, such treasurer shall issue a receipt therefor, in triplicate, one copy of which he shall deliver to the person paying said tax, and the original and one copy thereof he shall immediately send to the State Controller, whose duty it shall be to charge the treasurer so receiving the tax with the amount thereof, and said Controller shall retain one of said receipts and the other he shall countersign and seal with the seal of his office, and immediately transmit to the clerk of the court fixing such tax. And an executor, administrator, or trustee shall not be entitled to credits in his accounts, nor be discharged from liability for such tax, nor shall said estate be distributed, unless a receipt so sealed and countersigned by the Controller, or a copy thereof, certified by him, shall have been filed with the court. Any person shall, upon payment to the county treasurer of the sum of fifty cents, be entitled to a duplicate, or copy, of any receipt that may have been given by said treasurer for the payment of any tax under this act.

SEC. 11. (1) If any debts shall be proved against the estate of a decedent after the payment of any legacy or distributive share thereof, from which any such tax has been deducted or upon which it has been paid by the person entitled to such legacy or distributive share, and such person is required by order of the superior court having jurisdiction on notice to the State Controller, to refund the amount of such debts or any part thereof, an equitable proportion of the tax shall be repaid to him by the executor, administrator or trustee, if the tax has not been paid to the county treasurer; or if such tax has been paid to such county treasurer, such officer shall refund out of any inheritance tax moneys in his hands or custody such equitable proportion of the tax and credit himself with the same in the account required to be rendered by him under this act.
(2) Where it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the superior court that deductions for debts were allowed upon the appraisal, since proved to have been erroneously allowed, it shall be lawful for such superior court to enter an order assessing the tax upon the amount wrongfully and erroneously deducted and if debts are established against the estate after the order fixing inheritance tax is made the order may on petition after notice to the State Controller be modified equitably.

(3) If, after the payment of any tax in pursuance of an order fixing such tax, made by the superior court having jurisdiction, such order be modified or reversed by the superior court having jurisdiction by any of the methods provided in the Code of Civil Procedure and commenced within the time allowed by law, or be modified or reversed on an appeal taken therefrom within the time allowed by law, on due notice to the State Controller, the county treasurer shall refund to the executor, administrator, trustee, person or persons by whom such tax was paid, the amount of any moneys paid or deposited on account of such tax in excess of the amount of tax fixed by the order modified or reversed, out of any inheritance tax moneys in his hands or custody, and credit himself with the same in the account required to be rendered by him to the Controller on his semiannual settlement; but no application for such refund shall be made after one year from such reversal or modification, unless an appeal shall be taken therefrom, in which case no such application shall be made after one year from the final determination on such appeal, and the representatives of the estate, legatees, devisees, or distributees entitled to any refund under this section shall not be entitled to any interest upon such refund, and no judgment for such refund shall bear interest until said judgment shall have become final in the highest court to which the matter is carried and until refund is refused upon demand after such final judgment and then only from the date of such refusal. The State Controller shall deduct from the fees allowed by this act to the county treasurer the amount theretofore allowed him upon such overpayment.

(4) When any amount of said tax shall have been erroneously paid, the superior court having jurisdiction, on application after notice to the State Controller, and on satisfactory proof to it, shall by order, direct the county auditor to draw his warrant upon the county treasurer in favor of the executor, administrator, trustee, person or persons who have paid any such tax in error in the amount of such tax so erroneously paid; provided, that all applications for such repayment of such tax so erroneously paid shall be made within one year of the date of the entry of the order fixing tax or of the decree of final distribution of the estate. Such refund shall be made by said treasurer out of any inheritance tax moneys in his hands or custody and he shall credit himself with the same in the account required to be rendered by him to the Controller.
on semiannual settlement; and the State Controller shall deduct from the fees allowed by this act to the county treasurer the amount theretofore allowed him upon such erroneous payment.

SEC. 12. (1) Whenever the State Controller shall have reasonable cause to believe that a tax is due under the provisions of this act, upon any transfer of any property, and that any person, firm, institution, company, association or corporation has possession, custody, or control of any books, accounts, papers or documents relating to or evidencing such transfer, the State Controller or inheritance tax attorney or any assistant inheritance tax attorney of the inheritance tax department, is hereby authorized and empowered to inspect the books, records, accounts, papers and documents of any such person, firm, institution, company, association or corporation, including the stock transfer book of any corporation and to administer oaths to and examine any such person or any officer or agent of such firm, institution, company, association or corporation, for the purpose of acquiring any information deemed necessary or desirable by said State Controller or such inheritance tax attorney or assistant inheritance tax attorneys, for the proper enforcement of this act, and for the collection of the full amount of tax which may be due the State hereunder. Any and all information and records acquired by said State Controller or said inheritance tax attorney or assistant inheritance tax attorneys shall be deemed and held by said State Controller and said inheritance tax attorney and assistant inheritance tax attorneys and each of them, as confidential, and shall not be divulged, disclosed or made known by them or any of them except in so far as may be necessary for the enforcement of the provisions of this act. Any Controller or ex-controller, or inheritance tax attorney or ex-inheritance tax attorney, or assistant inheritance tax attorney or ex-assistant inheritance tax attorney, who shall divulge, disclose or make known any information acquired by such inspection and examination aforesaid, except in so far as the same may be necessary for the enforcement of the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be imprisoned in the State prison for not more than five years.

(2) An officer or agent of any firm, institution, company, association or corporation having or keeping an office within this State, who has in his custody or under his control any book, record, account, paper or document of such firm, institution, company, association or corporation, and any person having in his custody or under his control such book, record, account, paper or document who refuses to give to the State Controller, or said inheritance tax attorney, or any of said assistant inheritance tax attorneys lawfully demanding, as provided in this section, during office hours to inspect or take a copy of the same or any part thereof, for the purposes hereinafore provided, a reasonable opportunity so to do, shall be liable to a penalty of not less than one thousand dollars nor more than twenty thousand dollars, and in addition thereto shall be liable for the amount of the taxes, interest and penalties due under this act on such transfer, and the said penalties and liabilities for the violation of this section may be enforced in an action brought by the State Controller in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 13. (1) No corporation organized or existing under the laws of this State, shall transfer on its books or issue a new certificate for any share or shares of its capital stock belonging to or standing in the name of a decedent or in trust for a decedent or belonging to or standing in the joint names of a decedent and one or more persons, without the written consent of the State Controller or person by him in writing authorized to issue such consent.

(2) No safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank, or other institution, person or persons, engaged in the business of renting safe deposit boxes or other receptacles of similar character shall rent any such box or receptacle without first requiring all persons given access thereto to agree in writing to notify such safe depositary, bailee, or lessor, from whom such box or receptacle is rented of the death of any person having the right of access thereto, before seeking access to such box or receptacle after the death of such person; and all persons having the right of access to any such safe deposit box or receptacle upon the death of any other person having access thereto, before seeking access to such box or receptacle must notify such safe depositary, bailee, or lessor, from whom such box or receptacle is rented, of the death of such person; and it shall be unlawful for any safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank or other institution, person or persons having in possession or under control, custody or partial custody any safe deposit box or similar receptacle, to permit access thereto by any one after the death of any person who at the time of his death had the right or privilege of access thereto either as principal, deputy, agent or cotenant without the consent of the State Controller or such person by him in writing authorized to issue such consent.

(3) No safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank or other institution, person or persons having in possession or under control or custody or under partial control or partial custody securities, deposits, assets or property belonging to or standing in the name of a decedent who was a resident or nonresident, or belonging to, or standing in the joint names of such a decedent and one or more persons, including the shares of the capital stock of, or other interest in, the safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank, or other institution making the delivery or transfer herein provided, shall deliver or transfer the same to the executors, administrators or legal representatives, agents, deputies, attorneys, trustees, legatees, heirs, successors in interest of said decedent or to any other person or persons, or to the survivor or survivors when held in the joint names of a decedent and one or more persons, or upon their order or request, without retaining a sufficient portion or amount thereof to pay any tax and interest which may thereafter be assessed thereon under this act and unless notice of the time and place of such delivery or transfer be served upon the State Controller and county treasurer at least ten days prior to said delivery or transfer; provided, that the State Controller, or person by him in writing authorized so to do, may consent in writing to said delivery or transfer, and such consent shall relieve said safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank or other institution, person or persons from the obligation hereunder to give such notice or to retain any portion of said securities, deposits or other assets in their possession or control. And it shall be lawful for the State Controller or county treasurer, personally or by representatives, to examine said securities, deposits or assets at the time of said delivery or otherwise.

(4) Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall render such safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank or other institution, person or persons, liable to a penalty of not more than twenty thousand dollars, and in addition thereto said safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank or other institution, person or persons shall be liable for the amount of the taxes, interest and penalties due under this act on said securities, deposits or other assets above mentioned, and said penalties and liabilities of said safe deposit company, corporation, bank or other institution, person or persons for the violation of this section may be enforced in an action brought by the State Controller in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 14. The State Controller shall appoint, and may at his pleasure remove, one or more persons in each county of the State to act as inheritance tax appraisers therein. Every such inheritance tax appraiser (in addition to any fees paid him as appraiser under section 609 of the Probate Code) shall be paid for his services out of the inheritance tax moneys in the hands of the treasurer of the county, in which he may be acting, a reasonable compensation, to be fixed by the superior court of said county, or a judge thereof, and, together with said compensation, said appraiser shall be allowed his actual and necessary traveling and other incidental expenses, and the fees paid such witnesses as he shall subpnea before him, said expenses and fees to be allowed by said superior court or a judge thereof; provided, that any claim for any such service or expenditure, must before payment, first receive the approval of the State Controller. Any such appraiser who shall take any fee or reward, other than such as may be allowed him by law, from any executor, administrator, trustee, legatee, next of kin, or heir of any decedent, or from any other person liable to pay said tax or any portion thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than two hundred fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail ninety days or both, and in addition thereto the court shall dismiss him from such service.

Sec. 15. The superior court in the county in which is situate the real property of a decedent, who was not a resident of the State, or if there be no real property, then in the county in which any of the personal property of such non-resident is situate, or in the county of which the decedent was a resident at the time of his death, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all questions in relation to the tax arising under the provisions of this act; the court first acquiring jurisdiction hereunder shall retain the same to the exclusion of every other; provided, that the superior court having acquired jurisdiction in probate of the estate of a decedent shall hear and determine in said probate proceedings all questions in relation to any tax arising under the provisions of this act: (a) Upon property passing in said probate proceedings. (b) Upon any other property transferred, within the meaning of subdivision 3 of section 2 or any other provisions of this act, to any person, institution or corporation taking any property under and by virtue of said probate proceedings.

Sec. 16. (1) When any superior court having jurisdiction in probate of the estate of any decedent or a judge of such court, shall, in accordance with section 605 of the Probate Code appoint the appraiser or appraisers in said section provided for, said superior court or judge thereof shall also at the same time designate and appoint an inheritance tax appraiser (unless such designation and appointment be previously made) to ascertain and report to said superior court the amount of inheritance tax due upon any property passing in said probate proceeding, or a lien thereon, or upon any other property transferred within the meaning of section 2 of this act, or under any other provision of this act, to any person, institution, or corporation taking property under and by virtue of said probate proceedings, together with such other or additional information as shall assist said court in the determination of said tax. Thereupon said inheritance tax appraiser shall have all the powers of a referee of said superior court, and shall have jurisdiction to require the attendance before him of the executor or administrator of said estate or any person interested therein, or any other person whom he may have reason to believe possesses knowledge of the estate of said decedent, or knowledge of any property transferred by said decedent within the meaning of this act, or knowledge of any facts that will aid said appraiser or the court in the determination of said tax. For the purpose of compelling the attendance of such person or persons before him, and for the purpose of appraising any property or interest subject to, or liable for any inheritance tax hereunder, and for the purpose of determining the amount of tax due thereon, the said inheritance tax appraiser is hereby authorized to issue subpoenas compelling the attendance of witnesses before him. Any person or persons who shall be served with a subpoena, issued by said inheritance tax appraiser, to appear and testify or to produce books and papers, and who shall refuse and neglect to appear and testify or to produce books and papers relevant to such appraisement, as commanded in such subpoena, shall be guilty of a contempt of court. And he may examine and take the evidence of such witnesses, or of such executor or administrator, or other person under oath concerning such property and the value thereof and concerning the property or the estate of such decedent subject to probate, and concerning any transfer made by such decedent within the meaning of this act. Upon the completion of his inheritance tax appraisement in any probate proceeding, the inheritance tax appraiser shall make a report in writing to the superior court of the clear market value of the several interests in the estate of the decedent, and shall report the amount of inheritance, or transfer tax chargeable against, or a lien upon such interests, acquired by virtue of said probate proceedings or by any transfer within the meaning of this act, to any person, institution or corporation acquiring any property by virtue of said probate proceedings together with such other facts as may advise the court in regard thereto, or which the court may require, and may return to said superior court such depositions as he may have had reduced to writing, exhibits, or other testimony or information taken before him, or submitted to him.

(2) Upon the filing of said report said appraiser shall mail a copy thereof to the State Controller and the clerk of said superior court shall on said day or the next succeeding judicial day give notice of such filing to all persons interested in such proceedings by causing notice to be posted at the court house in the county where the court is held, and in addition thereto shall mail to the State Controller and to all persons chargeable with any tax in said report who have appeared in such proceeding, a copy of said notice. At any time after the expiration of ten days thereafter, if no objection to said report be filed, the said superior court or a judge thereof, or a court commissioner of a county, or city and county, having a population of nine hundred thousand inhabitants or more, may, without further notice, give and make its order confirming said report and fixing the tax in accordance therewith. At any time prior to the making of said order, any person interested in said proceeding (including the State Controller) may file objections in writing to said report. Thereupon the clerk of the said superior court shall fix a time, not less than ten days thereafter, for the hearing thereof, and shall give notice of said hearing by posting a notice thereof at the court house in the county where the court is held and by forthwith mailing a copy of such objections and of such notice to the State Controller, county treasurer and inheritance tax appraiser. Upon the hearing of said objections, said court, may make such order as to it may seem meet and proper in the premises; provided, that for the purpose of said hearing the report of the inheritance tax appraiser shall be presumed to be correct and it shall be the duty of the objector or objectors to proceed in support of said objection or objections.

(3) If, upon examination of the executor or administrator of said estate or other persons familiar with the affairs of such decedent, or from other information before him, it shall appear to the inheritance tax appraiser that there is no inheritance tax due out of said estate or a lien upon any property or interest therein, said appraiser may so certify to the superior court, and at any time thereafter, if no objection to said certificate shall have been filed, said superior court or a judge thereof may, without further notice, make an order or decree that there are no inheritance taxes due out of said estate, or upon any interest therein or may make such different order as may to it seem meet in the premises. Such order, and orders fixing tax, shall be conclusive only as to such property as may have been returned in the inventory or inventory and appraisement in said probate proceedings, or included in transfers disclosed to the inheritance tax appraiser before making his report or issuing said certificate.

(4) In estates where the decedent leaves no one to take the estate, under the laws of this State, no report or certificate shall be filed by the inheritance tax appraiser appointed by the court in said estate and no order fixing inheritance tax, or decreeing that there are no inheritance taxes due out of said estate, shall be made by said court. If said estate is distributed to the State of California and thereafter a petition is filed in the superior court of the county of Sacramento showing petitioner's claim or right to the property distributed to the State, or the proceeds thereof, said superior court shall appoint an inheritance tax appraiser in said county of Sacramento to report to said superior court the amount of inheritance tax due in said matter. All proceedings thereafter shall be in compliance with the provisions of this section. No deductions shall be allowed in said proceeding.

Sec. 17. (1) If it shall appear to the superior court upon petition of the State Controller that any transfer has been made within the meaning of this act, and the taxability thereof, and the liability for such tax and the amount thereof have not been determined, and that no proceedings are pending in any court in this State wherein the taxability of such transfer and the liability therefor, and the amount thereof may be determined, said court shall issue a citation ordering and directing the persons who may appear liable therefor or be known to own the property transferred or any part thereof or any interest therein, to appear before said court or before an inheritance tax appraiser to be designated by said order at a time and place in said order named, not less than ten days nor more than one year from the date of such order, to be examined, under oath by said court, or by said appraiser as the case may be, concerning said transfer and all facts connected therewith, and concerning the property transferred and the character and value thereof. If said person or persons shall be directed to appear before said appraiser said appraiser shall, at the time and place in said order named, or at such time and place to which said appraiser may adjourn said hearing, proceed to examine said person or persons and such witnesses as said appraiser may subpoena before him, and for the purpose of said hearing, and for the purpose of ascertaining any facts concerning the taxability of said transfer or any taxes due on account of such transfer, said appraiser shall have the powers of a referee of said court, and is hereby authorized to issue subpoenas compelling the attendance of witnesses before him, and to administer oath, and to take the evidence of such witnesses under oath concerning such property and the value thereof and concerning such transfer. Said appraiser shall report to said court his findings and conclusions in relation to said transfer and said tax, and may return to said court any depositions, exhibits or other testimony or information taken before him or exhibited to him. The procedure subsequent to the filing of said report shall conform to subdivision (2) of section 16 of this act.

Except as herein otherwise provided, the service of such citation and the time, manner and proof thereof, and the hearing and determination thereon, and the hearing and determination upon the facts returned in such report, and the enforcement of the determination or decree shall conform to the provisions of Chapter XXII, Division III of the Probate Code, and the clerk of the court shall, upon the request of the State Controller, furnish, without fee, one or more transcripts of such decree, and the same shall be docketed and filed by the county clerk of any county in the State, without fee, in the same manner and with the same effect as provided by section 674 of the Code of Civil Procedure for filing a transcript of an original docket.

The superior court may hear the said cause upon the relation of the parties and the testimony of witnesses, and evidence produced in open court, and, if the court shall find that said property is not subject to any tax, as herein provided, the court shall by order, so determine; but if it shall appear that said property, or any part thereof, is subject to any such tax the same shall be appraised and taxed as in other cases.

(2) Verified petitions may be filed by any interested party with the superior court alleging and admitting that a transfer within the meaning of this act has been made and the taxability thereof and the liability for such tax and the amount thereof have not been determined, and that no proceedings are pending in any court in this State wherein the taxability of such transfer and the liability therefor and the amount thereof, may be determined, and that the petitioner desires such determination and desires to pay said tax, if any be due.
Upon the filing of such petition the superior court or a judge thereof shall by order designate and appoint an inheritance tax appraiser to ascertain and report to said court the amount of the inheritance tax, if any, due by said petitioner on account of such transfer, and shall fix a time and place, not less than ten days thereafter, for the hearing of said matter before said inheritance tax appraiser, a copy of which petition and order shall be forthwith mailed to the State Controller, and shall refer said petition and said matter to said inheritance tax appraiser who shall have all the powers of a referee of said court, including the powers prescribed in subdivision (1) of section 16 of this act. The procedure subsequent to said reference to said appraiser shall conform to the provisions of subdivisions (1) and (2) of section 16 of this act.

In the event that final judgment is rendered in said proceeding, ascertaining and determining that no inheritance tax is due on account of said transfer or that the amount of the tax to which said transfer is liable, is less than twenty dollars the court shall, in addition to the amount of the tax, if any, include in such judgment and assess against the petitioner reasonable compensation for said inheritance tax appraiser not exceeding the sum of ten dollars, and the necessary traveling and incidental expenses of said appraiser.

(3) Actions may be brought against the State by an interested person for the purpose of quieting the title to any property against the lien or claim of lien of any tax or taxes under this act, or for the purpose of having it determined that any property is not subject to any lien for taxes nor chargeable with any tax under this act. No such action shall be maintained where any proceedings are pending in any court in this State wherein the taxability of such transfer and the liability therefor and the amount thereof may be determined. All parties interested in said transfer and in the taxability thereof shall be made parties thereto and any interested person who refuses to join as plaintiff therein may be made a defendant. Summons for the State in said action shall be served upon the State Controller.

At any time after issue is joined in such action the court, on its own motion, or upon the motion of any interested party, may by order appoint and designate an inheritance tax appraiser to hear said matter and report to the court thereon and shall in such order fix a time and place for the hearing of said matter before said inheritance tax appraiser, and direct notice of such time and place to be given in such manner as the court shall deem proper and shall refer said matter to said inheritance tax appraiser who shall have all of the power of a referee of said court, including the powers prescribed in subdivision (1) of section 16 of this act. The procedure subsequent to said reference to said appraiser shall conform to the provisions of subdivision (1) and (2) of section 16 of this act.
Should the court determine that the property described in the complaint is subject to the lien of said tax and that said property has been transferred within the meaning of this act, the court shall award affirmative relief to the State in said action, and judgment shall be rendered therein in favor of the State, ascertaining and determining the amount of said tax, and the person or persons liable therefor, and the property chargeable therewith or subject to lien therefor, and shall assess against such person or persons reasonable compensation for said inheritance tax appraiser and his necessary traveling and incidental expenses.

(4) Actions under this section shall be commenced in the superior court of the county in which is situated any part of any real property against which any lien is sought to be enforced, or to which title is sought to be quieted against any lien, or claim of lien; but if in said action no lien against real property is sought to be enforced, the action shall be brought in the superior court of the county which has or which had jurisdiction of the administration of the estate of the decedent mentioned herein.

(5) No fee shall be charged said State Controller by any public officer in this State for the filing or recording of any petition, lis pendens, decree or order, or for the taking of oaths or acknowledgments in any proceeding taken under this act; nor shall any undertaking be required from or costs charged against the State Controller or the State of California in any such proceeding.

Sec. 18. The orders, decrees and judgments fixing tax or determining that no tax is due, mentioned in this act, shall have the force and effect of judgments in civil actions. Except as otherwise herein provided, the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relative to judgments, new trials, appeals, attachments and execution of judgments, so far as applicable, shall govern all proceedings taken under this act. Nothing in this section shall preclude the State from relief herein provided for, which may be inconsistent with the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Sec. 19. The treasurer of each county shall collect all taxes and moneys that may be due and payable under this act and pay the same to the State Treasurer (excepting such moneys as he may pay out from time to time pursuant to the provisions of this act) and the State Treasurer shall give him a receipt therefor; of which collection and payment he shall make a report under oath, to the Controller, between the first and fifteenth days of June and January of each year, stating for what estate paid, and in such form and containing such particulars as the Controller may prescribe; and for all such taxes collected by him and not paid to the State Treasurer by the first day of July and February of each year he shall pay interest at the rate of ten per centum per annum.
SEC. 20. The treasurer of each county shall be allowed to retain, on all taxes paid and accounted for by him each year under this act, in addition to his salary or fees now allowed by law, three per centum of the first fifty thousand dollars so paid and accounted for by him, one and one-half per centum on the next fifty thousand dollars so paid and accounted for by him, and one per centum on all additional sums so paid and accounted for by him; provided that no county treasurer of a county of the first class, or a county of the second class or a county of the third class shall be entitled to retain to his own use more than the sum of five hundred dollars out of the inheritance taxes paid on account of any transfer or transfers made by or resulting from the death of any one decedent; provided, that the county treasurer of a county of all other classes shall not be entitled to retain to his own use more than the sum of two hundred dollars out of the inheritance taxes paid on account of any transfer or transfers made by or resulting from the death of any one decedent; provided, that no portion of the money paid on account of inheritance taxes in any one case in excess of the sum entitling the treasurer of a county of the first class, of a county of the second class and a county of the third class to retain five hundred dollars and entitling the treasurer of a county of all other classes to retain two hundred dollars for his own use shall be considered in computing his commissions in succeeding cases; and provided, further, that in counties of the first class the treasurer shall be entitled to retain as commissions not exceeding twelve thousand dollars out of the total inheritance taxes accounted for by him in any one year; that in counties of the second class the treasurer shall be entitled to retain as commissions not exceeding twelve thousand dollars out of the total inheritance taxes accounted for by him in any one year; that in counties of the third class the treasurer shall be entitled to retain as commissions not exceeding eight thousand dollars out of the total inheritance taxes accounted for by him in any one year; and that in counties of all other classes the treasurer shall be entitled to retain as commissions not exceeding five thousand dollars out of the total inheritance taxes accounted for by him in any one year.

SEC. 21. The State Controller, whenever he shall be cited as a party in any proceeding or action to determine any tax under this act provided, or whenever he shall deem it necessary for the better enforcement of this act to make any special employment to secure evidence of evasion of said tax or to commence or appear in any proceeding or action to determine any tax hereunder may by and with the consent and approval of the Attorney General, make such special employment or designate and employ counsel or attorneys in or out of this State to represent him on behalf of the State, and, by and with such consent of the Attorney General, he is hereby authorized to incur the necessary expense for such employment and any reasonable and necessary expense incident thereto.
And the county treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to pay out of any funds which may be in his hands on account of this tax, on presentation of a sworn itemized account and on certificate of the State Controller and Attorney General, all expenses incurred as in this section above provided, but no expense for such special employment or legal services, up to and including the entry of the order of the court fixing the tax and the same becoming final, shall exceed ten per centum of the tax and penalties collected; provided, that all reasonable and necessary expenses incurred, in any legal action or proceeding in any court of this State or on any appeal therefrom, other than attorney’s fees, including expenses of serving processes and printing and preparing of necessary legal papers, may be allowed and paid in the manner above provided, even though no tax be recovered in such action or proceeding, and the limitations herein made shall not apply thereto.

SEC. 22. All taxes levied and collected under this act shall be paid into the State treasury to the credit of the general fund.

SEC. 23. Every officer who fails or refuses, to perform within a reasonable time, any and every duty required by the provisions of this act, or who fails or refuses to make and deliver within a reasonable time any statement or record required by this act, shall forfeit to the State of California the sum of one thousand dollars, to be recovered in an action brought by the Attorney General in the name of the people of the State on the relation of the Controller.

SEC. 24. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act, and each section, subsection, sentence, clause and phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, subsections, sentences, clauses, or phrases be declared unconstitutional.

SEC. 25. An act entitled "An act to be known as the 'Inheritance Tax Act,' to establish a tax on gifts, legacies, inheritances, bequests, devises, successions and transfers, to provide for its collection and to direct the disposition of its proceeds; to provide for the enforcement of liens created by this act and by any act hereby repealed and for suits to quiet title against claims of liens arising hereunder, or under an act hereby repealed; and to repeal Chapter 589 of the laws of the session of the Legislature of California of 1917, approved May 28, 1917, known as the 'Inheritance Tax Act,' and to repeal all acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act," approved June 3, 1921, and all amendments thereto, and all acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby expressly repealed; provided, however, that such repeal shall in nowise affect any suit, prosecution or proceeding pending at the time this act shall take effect, or any right which the State of California may have at the time of the taking effect of this act, to claim a tax upon any property under the provisions of the act or acts hereby repealed, for which no proceeding has been commenced; and where no proceeding has been commenced, to collect any tax arising under any act hereby repealed the procedure to collect such tax shall conform to the provisions hereof; nor shall such repeal affect any appeal, right of appeal in any suit pending, or orders fixing tax, existing in this State at the time of the taking effect of this act.

Sec. 26. This act inasmuch as it provides for tax levies for the usual current expenses of the State, shall, under the provisions of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 359.

An act making an appropriation for the support of the Legislative Counsel Bureau and declaring the urgency thereof, the act to take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 25, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Out of any money in the State treasury not otherwise appropriated and in addition to any other appropriation or appropriations for the support of the Legislative Counsel Bureau the sum of three thousand dollars is hereby appropriated to be expended in accordance with law for the support of the Legislative Counsel Bureau.

Sec. 2. This act inasmuch as it makes an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the State is hereby declared an urgency measure and shall under the provisions of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 360.

An act to provide for the administration of highway work for or in cooperation with the United States by the State of California, amending the Streets and Highways Code in accordance therewith, and declaring the urgency thereof.

[Approved by the Governor June 25, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. (§20). The State of California assents to the provisions of the Federal Highway Act, as amended and supplemented. All work done under the provisions of said act... or other acts of Congress relative to Federal aid, or other cooperative highway work, or to emergency construction of public highways with funds apportioned by the government of the United States, shall be performed as required under acts of Congress, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. Laws of this State inconsistent with such laws, or rules and regulations of the United States, shall not apply to such work, to the extent of such inconsistency.

Sec. 2. (821). The department, on behalf of the State, shall submit to the Secretary of Agriculture, or other properly authorized officer of the United States, such project statements as may be required and may agree with the proper officials of the United States as to the kind, quality, and extent of all such work. The department shall file in its office all approved plans, specifications, and estimates.

Sec 3 (822). The department is authorized to do any and all acts and things with reference to any public street or highway in, or to be constructed in, this State necessary to the performance of any such agreement, including but not limited to the construction or improvement of streets, highways or roads which are not a part of the State highway system.

Sec. 4. (823). In addition to the purposes for which the moneys in, and to be received in, the State highway fund and the State highway general fund have been appropriated, all of said moneys, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated to, and may be expended by the department for, the performance of such street or highway construction or improvement projects as are agreed upon with the properly authorized officers of the United States, including projects on public highways in the State of California which are not a part of the State highway system. As to such projects on streets or highways which are not a part of the State highway system, such expenditures shall be limited to those items for which the government of the United States has agreed, and is obligated, to reimburse the State in full, except that the general administrative and engineering expense for which the Federal government will not repay the State is properly chargeable to the general administration of the Division of Highways.

Sec 5. (824). Expenditures made from the State highway fund or the State highway general fund to the extent to which the United States is obligated by a project agreement to reimburse the State, shall be considered as advancements made by this State for performance on behalf of the United States, and shall not be considered as expenditures of State funds. Such advancements are not subject to any provisions of law relative to allocation of State highway fund, or State highway general fund moneys. Such advancements must be excluded in making the computations required by section 695 of the Political Code, as added by Chapter 923 of the Statutes of 1933 and the amount of such advancements made and to be so excluded during any given period of time shall be deemed to be equal to the amount received from the government of the United States as reimbursement for street or highway projects and deposited in the State treasury during said period of time.

Sec. 6. (825). In the absence of Federal law, ruling, or regulation to the contrary, the department is directed to present for approval by the proper officers of the United States, projects which will result in the expenditure of all Federal funds apportioned to the State of California for highway construction or improvement as near as may be in compliance with the provisions of law governing the allocation of State highway fund money, or State highway general fund money, as between the two county groups.

Sec. 7. (826). All moneys received from the government of the United States as reimbursement for street or highway construction projects shall be deposited in the State treasury to the credit of the fund from which the advancements were made. The department shall certify to the State Treasurer the fund in which each payment is required to be deposited, or if any one payment represents advancements from both the State highway fund, and the State highway general fund, the amount which should be deposited in each.

Sec. 8. (180). The State highway general fund in the State treasury is continued in existence. Any moneys contributed by any county, city, public corporation, district or person may be placed by the commission in the State highway general fund, and shall be expended for the purpose for which contributed. In case the entire sum contributed is not necessary for such purpose, the balance unused shall be returned to the contributor and may be withdrawn in the manner provided by law upon demands made by the Division of Highways.

Sec. 9. (181). Any money placed in the State highway general fund may be withdrawn for such highway purposes as the Division of Highways directs, except that moneys received from the Federal government as reimbursement for advancements made, when not again expended as advancements, shall be expended with respect to primary and secondary State highways and within the county groups as provided for expenditure of money from the State highway fund; and provided, further, that as to the expenditure of Federal emergency funds allocated primarily for the purpose of relieving unemployment, employees used on any projects so financed shall be obtained from the various counties according to and in proportion to unemployment needs so far as may be practical and only to such extent as will not conflict with any requirement of the government of the United States.

Sec. 10. (827). The department may insert in the specifications for any contract for any project as to which a project agreement has been executed by and between the State and the United States a stipulation that the contractor shall forfeit... to the State the sum of ten dollars for each calendar day, or portion thereof, for each person who is employed upon the project in violation of the specifications relating to selection of labor, wages, hours, and conditions of employment, and the contractor shall be bound thereby.

The department may insert in the specifications for any such contract all special provisions required by the rules and regulations of the properly authorized officers of the United States, regardless of whether or not any such provision tends to increase the cost of the work.

SEC. 11. Terms used in this act which are defined in the general provisions of the proposed Streets and Highways Code, Chapter 29 of the Statutes of 1935, have the same meaning as specified in said proposed code.

SEC. 12. On the effective date of the Streets and Highways Code, a new article, to be numbered 4, to be entitled “State and Federal highway work,” and to consist of sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 10 of this act, to be numbered respectively 820, 821, 822, 823, 824, 825, 826, and 827 of said code, shall be added to Chapter 4 of Division 1 of said code.

SEC. 13. On the effective date of the Streets and Highways Code, sections 180 and 181 are amended to read as do sections 8 and 9 of this act, to be numbered as sections 180 and 181, respectively, of said code, and sections 74 and 134 of said code are repealed.

SEC. 14. “An act to create a fund to be known as the State highway general fund and providing for expenditures therefrom,” approved June 5, 1931, is repealed.

SEC. 15. If any provision of this act, or the application thereof to any particular set of circumstances, is for any reason held unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the remaining provisions of this act, or the application of said provision to any other set of circumstances. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act, and each section, subsection, sentence, clause, and phrase thereof irrespective of the fact that any one or more of the sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases, or its application in any given set of circumstances, be declared unconstitutional.

SEC. 16. This act is declared to be an urgency measure deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, and as such it shall take effect immediately.

The following is a statement of the facts constituting such urgency:

The Congress of the United States has enacted the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935 in which provision is made for the apportionment of the sum of eight hundred million dollars among the several States and Territories of the United States to be expended by the State highway departments thereof for emergency construction of public streets and highways, including grade crossing separations, for the purpose of furnishing employment to those on relief. Under the provisions of this Federal legislation a large sum of money will be apportioned to the State of California, to be expended for such purposes by the Department of Public Works. Many persons are on relief in the State of California by reason of the existing economic depression which has produced widespread unemployment, disorganization of industry, and lowering of the standards of living of many of the people of California. It is of paramount importance that useful employment be furnished to those many persons on public relief who are ready and willing to work, thus restoring their self-confidence and self-respect and alleviating the discontent and unrest occasioned by want. It is necessary that this act become effective at once in order that the State of California may meet the terms of said Federal legislation, and the rules and regulations of the President and other officers of the government of the United States thereunder, so that the program proposed by the Congress can be put into effect immediately in the State of California.

CHAPTER 361.

An act imposing an excise tax on the storage, use or other consumption in this State of tangible personal property, providing for the registration of retailers, providing for the levying, assessing, collecting, paying and disposing of such tax, making an appropriation for the administration hereof, prescribing penalties for violations of the provisions hereof and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 25, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act is known and may be cited as the "Use Tax Act of 1935."

Definitions.

Sec. 2. The following words, terms and phrases when used in this act have the meanings ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning.

(a) "Storage" means and includes any keeping or retention in this State for any purpose except sale in the regular course of business of tangible personal property purchased from a retailer.

(b) "Use" means and includes the exercise of any right or power over tangible personal property incident to the ownership of that property, except that it shall not include the sale of that property in the regular course of business.
Definitions.

(c) "Purchase" means any transfer, exchange or barter, conditional or otherwise, in any manner or by any means whatsoever, of tangible personal property for a consideration. A transaction whereby the possession of property is transferred but the seller retains the title as security for the payment of the price shall be deemed a purchase.

(d) "Sales price" means the total amount for which tangible personal property is sold, including any services that are a part of the sale, valued in money, whether paid in money or otherwise, and includes any amount for which credit is given to the purchaser by the seller, without any deduction therefrom on account of the cost of the property sold, the cost of materials used, labor or service cost, interest charged, losses or any other expenses whatsoever, provided that cash discounts allowed and taken on sales shall not be included, nor shall the sales price include the amount charged for labor or services rendered in installing, applying, remodeling or repairing property sold.

(e) "Person" means and includes any individual, firm, copartnership, joint adventure, association, corporation, estate, trust, business trust, receiver, syndicate, this State, any county, city and county, municipality, district or other political subdivision thereof, or any other group or combination acting as a unit, and the plural as well as the singular number.

(f) "Retailer" means and includes every person engaged in the business of making sales for storage, use or other consumption; provided, however, that when in the opinion of the board it is necessary for the efficient administration of this act to regard any salesmen, representatives, peddlers or canvassers as the agents of the dealers, distributors, supervisors or employers under whom they operate or from whom they obtain the tangible personal property sold by them, irrespective of whether they are making sales on their own behalf or on behalf of such dealers, distributors, supervisors or employers, the board may so regard them and may regard the dealers, distributors, supervisors or employers as retailers for purposes of this act.

(g) "Board" means the State Board of Equalization.

(h) "Tangible personal property" means personal property which may be seen, weighed, measured, felt, touched, or is in any other manner perceptible to the senses.

(i) "Business" includes any activity engaged in by any person or caused to be engaged in by him with the object of gain, benefit or advantage, either direct or indirect.

(j) "In this State" or "in the State" means within the exterior limits of the State of California, and includes all territory within such limits owned by or ceded to the United States of America.

Sec. 3. An excise tax is hereby imposed on the storage, use or other consumption in this State of tangible personal property purchased from a retailer on or after July 1, 1935, for storage, use or other consumption in this State at the rate of three per cent of the sales price of such property.

Every person storing, using or otherwise consuming in this State tangible personal property purchased from a retailer shall be liable for the tax imposed by this act, and the liability shall not be extinguished until the tax has been paid to this State; provided, however, that a receipt from a retailer maintaining a place of business in this State, given to the purchaser in accordance with the provisions of section 6 hereof, shall be sufficient to relieve the purchaser from further liability for the tax to which such receipt may refer; provided further, that the board may by rule and regulation provide that a receipt from a retailer who does not maintain a place of business in this State shall also be sufficient to relieve the purchaser from further liability for the tax to which such receipt may refer.

SEC. 4. The storage, use or other consumption in this State of the following tangible personal property is hereby specifically exempted from the tax imposed by this act:

(a) Property, the gross receipts from the sale of which are required to be included in the measure of the tax imposed by Chapter 1020, Statutes of 1933 and any amendments made or which may be made thereto.

(b) Property, the storage, use or other consumption of which this State is prohibited from taxing under the Constitution or laws of the United States of America or under the Constitution of this State.

(c) Gas, electricity and water, when furnished or delivered to consumers through mains, lines or pipes.

(d) Gold bullion, gold concentrates or gold precipitates, when sold by the producer or refiner thereof for storage, use or other consumption in this State.

(e) Property used for the performance of a contract on public works executed prior to August 1, 1933.

(f) Motor vehicle fuel, the gross receipts received from sales or distributions of which in this State are subject to the tax imposed thereon under the provisions of the "Motor Vehicle Fuel License Tax Act," and not subject to refund.

(g) Food Products Purchased for Human Consumption. "Food products" as used herein includes cereals and cereal products, milk and milk products, oleomargarine, meat and meat products, fish and fish products, eggs and egg products, vegetables and vegetable products, fruit and fruit products, spices and salt, sugar and sugar products other than candy and confectionery, coffee and coffee substitutes, tea, cocoa and cocoa products other than candy and confectionery. "Food products" does not include spirituous, malt or vinous liquors, soft drinks, sodas or beverages such as are ordinarily dispensed at bars and soda fountains or in connection therewith.

The exemption of food products set forth herein is made subject to the condition that the gross receipts from retail sales of food products be exempted from the computation of the tax imposed by the Retail Sales Tax Act of 1933, and any amendments thereto; provided, however, that should the gross receipts from retail sales of food products not be exempted from the computation of the tax imposed by said act and any amendments thereto, or should the exemption of the gross receipts from sales of food products from the computation of the tax imposed by said act and any amendments thereto be declared unconstitutional or should the exemption of food products set forth herein be declared unconstitutional then the rate of tax set forth in section 3 hereof shall be two per cent on and after July 1, 1935.

Sec. 5. Every retailer selling tangible personal property for storage, use or other consumption in this State shall within thirty days after the effective date of this act register with the board and give the name and address of all agents operating in this State, the location of any and all distribution or sales houses or offices or other places of business in this State and such other information as the board may require.

Sec. 6. Every retailer maintaining a place of business in this State and making sales of tangible personal property for storage, use or other consumption in this State, not exempted under the provisions of section 4 hereof, shall at the time of making such sales collect the tax imposed by this act from the purchaser, and give to the purchaser a receipt therefor in the manner and form prescribed by the board. The tax required to be collected by the retailer from the purchaser shall be displayed separately from the list, advertised in the premises, marked or other price on the sales check or other proof of sale.

It shall be unlawful for any retailer to advertise or hold out or state to the public or to any customer, directly or indirectly, that the tax or any part thereof imposed by this act will be assumed or absorbed by the retailer or that it will not be added to the selling price of the property sold, or if added that it or any part thereof will be refunded. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

The tax herein required to be collected by the retailer shall constitute a debt owed by the retailer to this State.

Sec. 7. The tax imposed by this act shall be due and payable to the board quarterly on or before the fifteenth day of the month next succeeding each quarterly period, the first of such quarterly periods being the period commencing with the first day of July, 1935, and ending on the thirtieth day of September, 1935. Every retailer maintaining a place of business in this State shall on or before the fifteenth day of the month following the close of the first quarterly period as above defined, and on or before the fifteenth day of the month following each subsequent quarterly period of three months, file with the board a return for the preceding quarterly period in such form as may be prescribed by the board showing the total sales price of the tangible personal property sold by the retailer during such preceding quarterly period, the storage, use or consumption of which is subject to the tax imposed by this act, and such other information as the board may deem necessary for the proper administration of this act. The return shall be accompanied by a remittance of the amount of tax herein required to be collected by the retailer during the period covered by the return. The board, if it deems it necessary in order to insure payment to the State of the amount of tax herein required to be collected by retailers, may require returns and payment of such amount of tax for other than quarterly periods. Returns shall be signed by the retailer or his duly authorized agent but need not be verified by oath.

Every person storing, using or consuming tangible personal property purchased from a retailer who does not maintain a place of business in this State shall on or before the fifteenth day of the month following the close of the first quarterly period as above defined, and on or before the fifteenth day of the month following each subsequent quarterly period of three months, file with the board a return for the preceding quarterly period in such form as may be prescribed by the board showing the total sales price of the tangible personal property purchased by such person during such preceding quarterly period, the storage, use or consumption of which is subject to the tax imposed by this act, and such other information as the board may deem necessary for the proper administration of this act. The return shall be accompanied by a remittance of the amount of tax herein imposed during the period covered by the return. The board, if it deems it necessary in order to insure payment to the State of the amount of such tax may require returns and payment for other than quarterly periods. Returns shall be signed by the person liable for the tax or his duly authorized agent but need not be verified by oath.

The board, if it deems it necessary to insure the collection of the tax imposed by this act, may provide by rule and regulation for the collection of said tax by the affixing and canceling of revenue stamps and may prescribe the form and method of such affixing and canceling.

For the purpose of the proper administration of this act and to prevent evasion of the tax and the duty to collect the same herein imposed, it shall be presumed that tangible personal property sold by any person for delivery in this State is sold for storage, use or other consumption in this State unless the person selling such property shall have taken from the purchaser a certificate signed by and bearing the name and address of the purchaser to the effect that the property was purchased for resale.

Sec. 8. Any person failing to pay any tax to the State or any amount of tax herein required to be collected and paid to the State, except amounts determined to be due by the board under the provisions of sections 9 and 10 hereof, within the time required by this act shall pay in addition to the tax or the amount of tax herein required to be collected a penalty of ten per cent thereof, plus interest at the rate of one-half of one per cent per month, or fraction thereof, from the date at which the tax or the amount of tax herein required to be collected became due and payable to the State.

Sec. 9. If the board is not satisfied with the return and payment of the amount of tax herein required to be paid to the State by any person, it is hereby authorized and empowered to compute and determine the amount required to be paid based upon the facts contained in the return or upon any information within its possession or that shall come into its possession. All amounts determined to be due under the provisions of this section shall bear interest at the rate of one-half of one per cent per month, or fraction thereof, from the fifteenth day after the close of the period or periods, as the case may be, for which such amounts were required to be reported to the board until paid. If any part of the deficiency for which a determination of an additional amount due is made is due to negligence or intentional disregard of the act or authorized rules and regulations, a penalty of ten per cent of such amount shall be added, plus interest as above provided. If any part of the deficiency for which a determination of an additional amount due is made is due to fraud or an intent to evade the act or authorized rules and regulations, a penalty of twenty-five per cent of such amount shall be added, plus interest as above provided. The board shall give to the retailer or person storing, using or consuming tangible personal property written notice of its determination. Such notice may be served personally or by mail; if by mail, service shall be made in the manner prescribed by section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure and addressed to the retailer or person storing, using or consuming tangible personal property at his address as the same appears in the records of the board.

Sec. 10. If any person neglects or refuses to make a return required to be made by this act, the board shall make an estimate for the period or periods in respect to which such person failed to make a return, based upon any information in its possession or that may come into its possession, of the amount of the total sales price of tangible personal property sold or purchased by such person, the storage, use or other consumption of which in this State is subject to the tax imposed by this act, and upon the basis of said estimate compute and determine the amount required to be paid to the State, adding to the sum thus arrived at a penalty equal to ten per cent thereof. All amounts determined to be due under the provisions of this section shall bear interest at the rate of one-half of one per cent per month, or fraction thereof, from the fifteenth day after the close of the period or periods, as the case may be, for which such amounts were required to be reported to the board until paid. If the neglect or refusal of any person to file a return as required by this act was due to fraud or an intent to evade this act or rules and regulations hereunder, a penalty of twenty-five per cent of the amount required to be paid by such person shall be added, plus interest as above provided. Promptly thereafter the board shall give to such person written notice of such estimate, determination and penalty, the notice to be served personally or by mail in the same manner as prescribed for service of notice by the provisions of section 9 hereof.

Sec. 11. If the board believes that the collection of any tax or any amount of tax herein required to be collected and paid to the State will be jeopardized by delay, it shall immediately make a jeopardy determination of the tax or the amount of tax herein required to be collected, together with interest and penalty as provided herein. The amount so determined shall be immediately due and payable. Promptly after the making of the determination, the board shall give to the person against whom the determination is made written notice thereof, the notice to be served personally or by mail in the same manner as prescribed for service of notice by the provisions of section 9 hereof. If the amount specified in the determination is not paid within ten days after the service upon the person against whom the determination is made of notice thereof, the delinquency penalty and the interest provided in section 8 hereof shall attach to the amount of the tax or the amount of the tax required to be collected specified therein.

Sec. 12. Any person from whom an amount is determined to be due under the provisions of section 9 or 10 hereof may petition for a redetermination thereof within fifteen days after service upon such person of notice thereof. If a petition for redetermination is not filed within said fifteen day period, the amount determined to be due becomes final at the expiration thereof. If a petition for redetermination is filed within said fifteen day period, the board shall reconsider the amount determined to be due, and if such person has so requested in his petition, shall grant such person an oral hearing and shall give such person ten days’ notice of the time and place thereof. The board shall have power to continue the hearing from time to time as may be necessary.

The order or decision of the board upon a petition for redetermination shall become final sixty days after service upon such person of notice thereof unless such person brings a proceeding for the review thereof under the provisions of section 32 hereof.

All amounts determined to be due by the board under the provisions of section 9 or 10 hereof shall become due and payable at the time of service of notice thereof. If the amount determined to be due, interest and penalty, if any, specified in any determination is not paid prior to the time the determination becomes final, there shall be added thereto a penalty of ten per cent of the amount determined to be due.
Any notice required by this section shall be served personally or by mail in the same manner as prescribed for service of notice by the provisions of section 9 hereof.

Sec. 13. The board for good cause may extend for not to exceed thirty days the time for making any return required under the provisions of this act.

Sec. 14. The board, whenever it deems it necessary to insure compliance with the provisions of this act, may require any person subject thereto to deposit with it such security as the board may determine. The same may be sold by the board at public auction if it becomes necessary so to do in order to recover any tax, or any amount herein required to be collected, interest or penalty due. Notice of such sale may be served upon the person who deposited such security personally or by mail; if by mail, service shall be made in the manner prescribed by section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure and addressed to the person at his address as the same appears in the records of the board. Upon any such sale, the surplus, if any, above the amounts due under this act shall be returned to the person who deposited the security.

Sec. 15. Except in the case of a fraudulent return, or neglect or refusal to make a return, every notice of a determination of an additional amount due shall be mailed within three years after the return was filed.

Sec. 16. All taxes or amounts herein required to be collected not paid to the board on the date when the same became due and payable shall bear interest at the rate of one-half of one per cent per month, or fraction thereof, from and after the date when the same became due and payable until paid.

Sec. 17. If the board determines that any amount, penalty or interest has been paid more than once, or has been erroneously or illegally collected or computed, the board shall set forth that fact in the records of the board and shall certify to the State Board of Control the amount collected in excess of what was legally due, from whom it was collected, or by whom paid to the board, and if approved by the State Board of Control the same shall be credited on any amounts then due from such person under this act and the balance shall be refunded to such person, or his successors, administrators, executors or assigns, but no such credit or refund shall be allowed after three years from the date of overpayment.

Any refund or any portion thereof which is erroneously made and any credit or any portion thereof which is erroneously allowed, may be recovered in an action brought by the Controller of the State in a court of competent jurisdiction in the county of Sacramento in the name of the people of the State of California and such action shall be tried in the county of Sacramento unless the court with the consent of the Attorney General, orders a change of place of trial. The Attorney General must prosecute such action, and the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to service of summons, pleadings, proofs, trials and appeals are applicable to the proceedings herein provided for.

In the event that any amount has been illegally determined to be due from any person the board shall certify such fact to the State Board of Control and said board shall authorize the cancellation of the amounts upon the records of the board.

Sec. 18. If fraud or evasion on the part of any person is discovered by the board, it shall determine the amount by which the State has been defrauded, shall add to the amount so determined a penalty equal to twenty-five per cent thereof, and shall determine the same to be due from such person. All amounts determined to be due from any person under the provisions of this section shall bear interest at the rate of one-half of one per cent per month, or fraction thereof, from the fifteenth day after the close of the period or periods, as the case may be, for which such amounts should have been paid. The amount so determined shall be immediately due and payable and if not paid within ten days after the service upon such person of notice of the amount determined to be due, the delinquency penalty and interest provided in section 8 hereof shall attach thereto.

Sec. 19. The board shall report to the Controller every amount determined to be due under this act, and he shall keep a record thereof.

Sec. 20. In any case in which any amount required to be paid to the State in accordance with the provisions of this act, is not paid when due the board may file in the office of the county clerk of Sacramento County, or any other county, a certificate specifying the amount required to be paid, interest and penalty due, the name and last known address of the retailer or other person liable for the same, that the board has complied with all the provisions of this act in relation to the determination of the amount herein required to be paid and a request that judgment be entered against the retailer or other person in the amount herein required to be paid, together with interest and penalty as set forth in the certificate. The county clerk immediately upon the filing of such certificate shall enter a judgment for the people of the State of California against the retailer or other person in the amount herein required to be paid, together with interest and penalty as set forth in this certificate. The judgment may be filed by the county clerk in a loose-leaf book entitled, “Special Judgments for State Retail Sales or Use Tax.”

An abstract of such judgment or a copy thereof may be recorded with the county recorder of any county and from the time of such recording, the amount herein required to be paid, together with interest and penalty therein set forth shall constitute a lien upon all the real property of the retailer or other person liable for the tax, interest or penalty in such county, owned by him or which he may afterwards acquire, which lien shall have the force, effect and priority of a judgment lien. Execution shall issue upon such a judgment upon request of the board in the same manner as execution may issue upon other judgments and sales shall be held under such execution as prescribed in the Code of Civil Procedure. In all proceedings under this section the board shall be authorized to act on behalf of the people of the State of California.

If any retailer liable for an amount of tax herein required to be collected shall sell out his business or stock of goods or shall quit the business, he shall make a final return and payment within fifteen days after the date of selling or quitting business. His successor, successors or assigns, if any, shall be required to withhold sufficient of the purchase money to cover the amount of such taxes herein required to be collected and interest or penalties due and unpaid until such time as the former owner shall produce a receipt from the board showing that they have been paid, or a certificate stating that no amount is due. If the purchaser of a business or stock of goods shall fail to withhold purchase money as above provided, he shall be personally liable for the payment of the amount of taxes herein required to be collected by the former owner, interest and penalties accrued and unpaid by any former owner, owners or assignors.

In the event that any person is delinquent in the payment of the amount herein required to be paid by him, the board may give notice of the amount of such delinquency by registered mail to all persons having in their possession, or under their control, any credits or other personal property belonging to such person, or owing any debts to such person at the time of the receipt by them of such notice and thereafter any person so notified shall neither transfer nor make any other disposition of such credits, other personal property, or debts until the board shall have consented to a transfer or disposition, or until twenty days shall have elapsed from and after the receipt of such notice. All persons so notified must, within five days after receipt of such notice advise the board of any and all such credits, other personal property or debts, in their possession, under their control or owing by them, as the case may be.

At any time within three years after any person is delinquent in the payment of any amount herein required to be paid, the board may proceed forthwith to collect such amount in the following manner: The board shall seize any property, real or personal, of such person and thereafter sell at public auction such property so seized, or a sufficient portion thereof, to pay the amount due hereunder, together with any interest or penalties imposed hereby for such delinquency, and any and all costs that may have been incurred on account of such seizure and sale. Notice of such intended sale and the time and place thereof, shall be given to such delinquent person in writing at least ten days before the date set for such sale by enclosing such notice in an envelope addressed to such person at his last known address or place of business, if any, and depositing the same in the United States mail, postage prepaid, and by publication for at least ten days before the date set for such sale in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county or city and county in which the property seized is to be sold; provided that if there be no newspaper of general circulation in such county or city and county, then by the posting of such notice in three public places in such county or city and county ten days prior to the date set for such sale. The said notice shall contain a description of the property to be sold, together with a statement of the amount due, including interest, penalties and costs, if any, the name of the person from whom due, and the further statement that unless the amount due, interest and penalties and costs are paid on or before the time fixed in said notice for such sale, said property, or so much thereof as may be necessary, will be sold in accordance with law and said notice.

At any such sale, the property shall be sold by the board in accordance with law and said notice, and the board shall deliver to the purchaser a bill of sale for the personal property, and a deed for any real property so sold, and such bill of sale or deed shall vest the interest or title of the retailer or other person liable for the tax in the purchaser. The unsold portion of any property so seized may be left at the place of sale at the risk of the retailer or other person liable for the tax. If upon any such sale, the moneys so received shall exceed the total of all amounts including interest, penalties and costs due the State, any such excess shall be returned to the retailer, or other person liable for the tax, and his receipt therefor obtained; provided, however, that if any person having an interest or lien upon the property, has filed with the board prior to any such sale notice of such interest or lien the board shall withhold any such excess pending a determination of the rights of the respective parties thereto by a court of competent jurisdiction. If, for any reason, the receipt of such retailer or other person liable for the tax shall not be available, the board shall deposit such excess moneys with the State Treasurer, as trustee for such owner, subject to the order of such retailer or other person liable for the tax, his heirs, successors or assigns.

It is expressly provided that the foregoing remedies of the State shall be cumulative and that no action taken by the board or Attorney General shall be construed to be an election on the part of the State or any of its officers to pursue any remedy hereunder to the exclusion of any other remedy for which provision is made in this act.

Sec. 21. If any person storing, using, or otherwise consuming in this State tangible personal property purchased from a retailer maintaining a place of business in this State neglects or refuses to pay the tax imposed by this act, the board shall make an estimate based upon any information in its possession or that may come into its possession of the sales price of the property and on the basis of said estimated sales price compure and assess the tax payable by such person, adding to the sum thus arrived at a penalty equal to ten per cent thereof. All such assessments shall bear interest at the rate of one-half of one per cent per month, or fraction thereof, from the fifteenth day after the close of the period or periods, as the case may be, for which the amount of tax should have been paid to the State until the date of payment. Promptly thereafter the board shall give written notice to such person of such estimate, tax and penalty, the notice to be served personally or by mail in the manner prescribed by the provisions of section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

The payment to the State of the tax, interest and penalty assessed by the board under the provisions of this section shall relieve the retailer who sold the property with regard to the storage, use or other consumption of which the tax was paid to the State under the provisions of this section, from the payment to the State of the amount of tax which he is herein required to collect from the purchaser and pay to the State.

Sec. 22. Any person against whom an assessment is made by the board under the provisions of section 21 hereof may petition for a reassessment thereof within fifteen days after service upon such person of notice thereof. If a petition for reassessment is not filed within said fifteen day period, the amount of the assessment becomes final at the expiration thereof. If a petition for reassessment is filed within said fifteen day period, the board shall reconsider the assessment, and if the person has so requested in his petition, shall grant such person an oral hearing and give him ten days' notice of the time and place thereof. The board shall have power to continue the hearing from time to time as may be necessary.

The order or decision of the board upon a petition for reassessment shall become final sixty days after service upon the person of notice thereof unless such person brings a proceeding for the review thereof under the provisions of section 32 hereof.

All assessments made by the board under the provisions of section 21 hereof shall become due and payable at the time of service of notice thereof. If the amount of the tax, interest and penalty, if any, specified in any assessment is not paid prior to the time the assessment becomes final, there shall be added thereto a penalty of ten per cent of the amount of the tax.

Any notice required by this section shall be served personally or by mail in the same manner as prescribed for service of notice by the provisions of section 9 hereof.

Sec. 23. If the board determines that any tax has been erroneously or illegally collected by a retailer from a purchaser and paid to the State, or erroneously paid by a purchaser to the State, the board shall set forth that fact in the records of the board and shall certify to the State Board of Control the amount of tax erroneously or illegally collected, the name of the person from whom it was collected, or who paid the same, and the name of the retailer, if any, by whom it was collected, and if approved by the State Board of Control, the same shall be refunded to the person from whom it was collected, or who paid the same, or his successors, administrators, executors or assigns, but no refund shall be allowed after three years from the date of overpayment.

SEC. 24. Any refund or any portion thereof which is erroneously made may be recovered in an action brought by the Controller of the State in a court of competent jurisdiction in the county of Sacramento in the name of the people of the State of California and such action shall be tried in the county of Sacramento unless the court with the consent of the Attorney General, orders a change of place of trial. The Attorney General must prosecute such action, and the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to service of summons, pleadings, proofs, trials and appeals are applicable to the proceedings herein provided for.

SEC. 25. Every retailer and every person storing, using or otherwise consuming in this State tangible personal property purchased from a retailer shall keep such records, receipts, invoices and other pertinent papers in such form as the board may require.

The board or any person authorized in writing by it is hereby authorized to examine the books, papers, records and equipment of any person selling tangible personal property and any person liable for the tax imposed by this act and to investigate the character of the business of any such person in order to verify the accuracy of any return made, or if no return was made by such person, to ascertain and determine the amount required to be collected by this act.

The board is hereby charged with the enforcement of the provisions of this act and is hereby authorized and empowered to prescribe, adopt and enforce rules and regulations relating to the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this act and to employ such accountants, auditors, investigators, assistants and clerks as may be determined to be necessary for the efficient administration of this act.

SEC. 26. It shall be unlawful for the board, or any person having an administrative duty under this act to divulge or to make known in any manner whatever, the business affairs, operations, or information obtained by an investigation of records and equipment of any retailer or any other person visited or examined in the discharge of official duty, or the amount or source of income, profits, losses, expenditures or any particular thereof, set forth or disclosed in any return, or to permit any return or copy thereof or any book containing any abstract or particulars thereof to be seen or examined by any person except as provided by law; provided, however, that the Governor may authorize examination of such returns by other State officers, by tax officers of another State, or the Federal Government, if a reciprocal arrangement exists, and any other persons the Governor may so authorize.
Any violations of the provisions of this section shall be a misdemeanor and be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

Sec. 27. All fees, taxes, interest and penalties imposed and all amounts of tax herein required to be paid to the State under this Act must be paid to the board in the form of remittances payable to the State Board of Equalization of the State of California, and said board shall transmit such payments to the State Treasurer to be deposited in the State treasury to the credit of the retail sales tax fund.

There is hereby appropriated, in addition to any other moneys appropriated, the sum of one hundred forty-one thousand five hundred dollars out of the "retail sales tax fund," of such amount one hundred thousand dollars may be expended by the Board of Equalization, twenty-five thousand dollars may be expended by the Controller, ten thousand dollars may be expended by the State Department of Finance, and six thousand five hundred dollars may be expended by the State Treasurer. The balance of the moneys paid under this Act and deposited in the retail sales tax fund shall, upon order of the State Controller, be drawn therefrom for the purpose of making refunds hereunder or be transferred to the general fund of the State.

Sec. 28. At any time within three years after any amount herein required to be collected has become due and payable and any time within three years after the delinquency of any tax, the Board may bring an action in the courts of this State, any other State or in any court of the United States in the name of the people of the State of California to collect the amount delinquent, together with penalties and interest. The Attorney General must prosecute such action. In such action a writ of attachment may issue, and no bond or affidavit previous to the issuing of said attachment is required. In such action a certificate by the board showing the delinquency shall be prima facie evidence of the determination of the amount required to be collected, or the assessment of the tax, of the delinquency and of the compliance by the board with all the provisions of this Act in relation to the computation and determination of the amount herein required to be collected and of the computation and assessment of the tax.

In any action brought under the provisions of this Act process may be served according to the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure and the Civil Code of this State or may be served upon any agent or clerk in this State employed by any retailer in a place of business maintained by such retailer in this State, in which case a copy of the process shall forthwith be sent by registered mail to the retailer at his principal or home office.

Sec. 29. No injunction or writ of mandate or other legal or equitable process shall issue in any suit, action or proceeding in any court against this State or against any officer thereof.
to prevent or enjoin under this act the collection of any tax or any amount of tax herein required to be collected; but after payment of any such tax or any such amount of tax herein required to be collected under protest, duly verified and setting forth the grounds of objection to the legality thereof, the retailer or person making the payment may bring an action against the State Treasurer in a court of competent jurisdiction in the county of Sacramento for the recovery of the amount paid under protest. No such action may be instituted more than sixty days after the tax or the amount herein required to be collected and paid to the State becomes due and payable, and failure to bring suit within said sixty days shall constitute waiver of any and all demands against the State on account of alleged overpayments hereunder. No grounds of illegality shall be considered by the court other than those set forth in the protest filed at the time of the payment of the tax or the amount herein required to be collected and paid to the State.

If in any such action judgment is rendered for the plaintiff, the amount of the judgment shall first be credited on any taxes or amounts due from the plaintiff under this act, and the balance of the judgment shall be refunded to the plaintiff. In any such judgment, interest shall be allowed at the rate of six per cent per annum upon the amount found to have been illegally collected from the date of payment of such amount to the date of allowance of credit on account of such judgment or to a date preceding the date of the refund warrant by not more than thirty days, such date to be determined by the Controller.

In no case shall any judgment be rendered in favor of the plaintiff in any action brought against the State Treasurer to recover any amount paid hereunder, when such action is brought by or in the name of an assignee of the retailer or other person paying said amount, or by any person other than the person who has paid such amount.

SEC. 30. Any retailer or other person failing or refusing to furnish any return hereby required to be made, or failure or refusing to furnish a supplemental return or other data required by the board, or rendering a false or fraudulent return, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) for each such offense.

Any person required to make, render, sign or verify any report as aforesaid, who makes any false or fraudulent return, with intent to defeat or evade the assessment or determination of amount due required by law to be made, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall for each such offense be fined not less than three hundred dollars ($300) and not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) or be imprisoned not exceeding one year in the county jail or be subject to both said fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.
SEC. 31. Any violation of the provisions of this act, except as otherwise herein provided, shall be a misdemeanor and punishable as such.

SEC. 32. Every order, decision or other official act of the board shall be subject to review in accordance with the provisions of Chapter I, Title I of Part II of the Code of Civil Procedure if the proceeding is brought within sixty days after service of notice of such order, decision or other official act. Upon such review the court shall be limited to a consideration and determination of the question whether there has been an abuse of discretion on the part of the board in making such order, decision or other official act. The person petitioning for a review of any order, decision or other official act of the board shall pay the cost of the preparation of any transcript or transcripts of the records of proceedings of the board that the board may be required to furnish in the proceeding instituted by such person under the provisions of this section.

SEC. 33. If any section, subsection, clause, sentence or phrase of this act which is reasonably separable from the remaining portions of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the remaining portions of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed the remaining portions of this act irrespective of the fact that any such section, subsection, clause, sentence or phrase of this act be declared unconstitutional.

SEC. 34. This act, inasmuch as it provides for a tax levy for the usual current expenses of the State, shall, under the provisions of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 362.

An act relating to licensing and taxing of vehicles, providing for license fees for the privilege of operating certain vehicles, providing for the exemption of such vehicles from all taxes according to value for State, county or municipal purposes, providing for the administration and enforcement of this act, creating a fund to be known as the motor vehicle license fee fund, and making an appropriation of the moneys therein.

[Approved by the Governor June 25, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. "Vehicle" as used herein means every vehicle subject to registration under the Vehicle Code.

"Department" means the Department of Motor Vehicles.

SEC. 2. A license fee is hereby imposed for the privilege of operating in this State any vehicle. The annual amount of such license fee shall be a sum equal to one and three-quarters per cent of the actual market value of such vehicle, as determined by the department. The department annually shall compile and publish a list showing the market values as determined by it of each class of vehicle subject to the license fee hereby imposed, such vehicles being classified by make, type and year of manufacture. The license fee imposed by this act shall not apply to any vehicle not subject to registration under the Vehicle Code, nor to any vehicle owned by the State, any political subdivision of the State, or any city, city and county, county, district or public corporation.

Sec. 3. Except as hereinafter provided, the license fee hereby imposed shall be due and payable to the department on the first day of January of each year. Such fee shall be paid to the department at the time of registration of such vehicle.

Sec. 4. Upon vehicles registered for the first time in this State after the end of January of any year, the fee imposed by this act for such year shall be reduced one-twelfth for each month which shall have elapsed since the beginning of such year. No additional license fee shall be imposed under this act upon any vehicle upon the transfer of ownership of such vehicle if such license fee on such vehicle has already been paid for the year in which transfer of ownership occurs.

Sec. 5. The license fee imposed under this act is in addition to any and all licenses and taxes otherwise imposed, except that no tax according to value shall hereafter be levied or imposed upon any vehicle upon which is paid the license fee required by this act. Such vehicles are hereby exempted from all taxes, State, county or municipal, according to value levied for State or local purposes.

Sec. 6. Whenever any vehicle is operated upon any highway of this State without the license fee having first been paid as required by this act, such fee is delinquent. If such fee is not paid within thirty days after the same becomes delinquent, a penalty equal to such fee shall be added thereto and be collected therewith.

Every license fee and any penalty added thereto, from the date the same becomes due, constitute a lien upon the vehicle for which due.

The department shall collect such fee and any penalty by seizure of such vehicle from the person or persons in possession thereof, if any, and by the sale of such vehicle. The seizure and sale herein authorized shall be conducted and carried out by the department in the same manner as is provided by law for the seizure and sale of personal property by county assessors for the collection of taxes due on personal property. In the event, however, that the records of the department indicate that the registered owner of a vehicle so seized is not the legal owner thereof, as those terms are defined by the Vehicle Code, the department shall, before selling such vehicle, give notice to the legal owner of such vehicle by registered mail addressed to the last known address of such legal owner.
as shown by the records of the department, at least ten days prior to such proposed sale.

SEC. 7. The duty of collecting the license fee imposed by this act and enforcing the provisions hereof is hereby imposed upon the department. The department shall give to each person paying such license fee a receipt therefor which shall sufficiently designate and identify the vehicle upon which such fee is paid.

SEC. 8. The director of the department shall appoint and fix the salaries of such employees as may be necessary to administer and enforce the provisions of this act.

SEC. 9. All moneys collected by the Department of Motor Vehicles under the terms of this act shall be reported daily to the State Controller and at the same time deposited in the State treasury to the credit of the motor vehicle license fee fund, which fund is hereby created. The moneys in said fund are hereby appropriated as follows:

(a) One per cent, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the use of the Department of Motor Vehicles in the enforcement of the provisions of this act.

(b) Of the remainder of the moneys paid into said fund during the eighty-seventh and eighty-eighth fiscal years, twenty-five per cent thereof shall be paid quarterly to the cities and counties of this State in the proportion that the total population of each city or city and county bears to the total population of all cities and counties in this State, as certified by the department. For the purpose of this subsection, the population of each city or city and county is that determined by the last Federal census. In the case of a city incorporated subsequent to the last census, or in the case of an unincorporated territory being annexed to a city subsequent to the last census, the department shall certify the population of the city or the annexed territory by multiplying the number of registered electors therein by three. The moneys so paid shall be expended by the cities and counties for law enforcement and the regulation and control and fire protection of highway traffic.

(c) Twelve and one-half per cent of said remainder of such moneys shall be paid quarterly during the eighty-seventh and eighty-eighth fiscal years to the counties and cities and counties of the State in the proportion that the population of each such county or city and county bears to the total population of all the counties and cities and counties of the State, as certified by the department. For the purpose of this subsection, the population of each county or city and county is that determined by the last Federal census.

(d) The balance of the moneys in said fund shall on order of the Controller be transferred to the general fund of the State. Out of such moneys so transferred there shall be set apart sufficient moneys in the amount of the principal and interest paid or necessarily to be paid during the eighty-seventh and eighty-eighth fiscal years on the bonds of the State issued under:

(a) The "State Highways Act," approved by the Governor March 22, 1909, and by a majority of the electors at the general election held November 8, 1910;

(b) The "State Highways Act of 1915," approved by the Governor May 20, 1915, and by a majority of the electors at the general election held November 7, 1916;

(c) Section 2 of Article XVI of the Constitution as approved by a majority of the electors at a special election held July 1, 1919; and

(d) Section 3 of Article XVI of the Constitution, as approved by a majority of the electors at the general election held November 2, 1920.

SEC. 9. The license fee provided for by this act shall not be imposed on and after December 31, 1937; provided, however, that the terms of this act shall continue in full force and effect with respect to all license fees due thereunder and penalties on account of operations of vehicles subject thereto, to the end that the State may take any and all steps necessary to collect the amount of such license fees and penalties.

SEC. 9. If any section, subsection, clause, sentence or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the remaining portions of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed the remaining portions of this act irrespective of the fact that any such section, subsection, clause, sentence or phrase of this act be declared unconstitutional.

CHAPTER 363.

An act relating to the borrowing of money by the State in anticipation of taxes and revenues, and making an appropriation.

[Approved by the Governor June 25, 1935. Validating amendment refused adoption by electors, August 13, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall become effective when the Constitution of the State of California authorizes the borrowing of money in anticipation of taxes and revenue.

SEC. 2. There is hereby created a board, consisting of the State Controller, State Treasurer, and the Director of Finance, hereinafter called the board, which board shall carry out the provisions of this act.

SEC. 3. Whenever in the judgment of the board there is insufficient money in the State treasury to meet appropriations made by law from the general fund, the board, with the approval of the Governor, is hereby authorized to borrow money to meet such appropriations from the general fund in the State treasury in anticipation of the collection of taxes and revenues, which by law are payable in the general fund to an amount not to exceed fifty percent of the amount of all taxes and revenues paid into the general fund during the preceding fiscal year. The board shall fix and determine the form of such notes or other evidences of indebtedness of the State, provide for the execution thereof, fix the numbers and denominations, interest or discount rates, not to exceed five percent, and the dates of issuance and maturity thereof. The board shall call for bids for the purchase of notes or other evidences of indebtedness to be issued to represent such indebtedness, in such manner as the board deems most likely to give notice to prospective bidders. Bids may be received for the whole, or any part, of the notes or other evidences of indebtedness so issued. The board may reject any and all bids, and may provide for the sale of such notes or other evidences of indebtedness in any manner which it considers most likely to result in the greatest net return to the State.

SEC. 4. When the amount of money to be borrowed, and the rate of interest or discount has been determined, the Treasurer shall issue in the name of such board, and in the name of the people of the State of California, notes or other evidences of indebtedness in such denomination, and in such form, as the board shall determine. All such notes or other evidences of indebtedness together with interest thereon shall be payable from the general fund not more than one year after the date of issuance thereof, but if not so paid the same shall, nevertheless, continue to be payable from the general fund. All such notes or other evidence of indebtedness shall constitute negotiable instruments.

SEC. 5. The State of California shall never contest the validity or payment of any notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued hereunder after payment of the purchase price thereof has been actually made to the State Treasurer. All recitals in such notes or evidences of indebtedness for which payment has in fact been made to the State Treasurer shall be binding and conclusive upon the State of California and each and every taxpayer thereof.

SEC. 6. Notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued under the provisions of this act may contain a provision that they shall be payable on a certain date, and that no interest will be paid for any period subsequent to that date, unless payment in full is refused by the State upon presentation thereof, in which event interest at the rate specified in such notes or other evidences of indebtedness, if any, shall be paid up to and including the date when such notes or other evidences of indebtedness are called for payment; provided, that if such notes or other evidences of indebtedness are issued in discount form and are not paid at maturity, the State shall pay interest thereon from the date of maturity until such notes or other evidences of indebtedness are called for payment, at the rate of five per cent per annum.

Sec. 7. Upon the date when such notes or other evidences of indebtedness are payable or at any time thereafter, they may be presented for payment to the State Treasurer, and if said notes or other evidences of indebtedness are payable the Controller shall order the State Treasurer to pay the amount due with interest thereon, and the State Treasurer is authorized to pay said amount out of any moneys available therefor in the general fund of the State treasury as herein above and in said notes or other evidences of indebtedness provided. Warrants for such payments shall be drawn by the State Controller upon the request of the State Treasurer.

Sec. 8. Out of any moneys in the State treasury not otherwise appropriated, there is hereby appropriated such sum or sums as may be required to pay the amounts borrowed under the provisions of this act, together with interest thereon.

CHAPTER 364.

An act to provide for the further development of vocational education in California by accepting the provisions and benefits of an act passed by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled and approved May 21, 1934; entitled "An act to provide for the further development of vocational education in the several States and territories"; and making an appropriation therefor; and declaring the urgency thereof and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 27, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. The people of the State of California do hereby accept the provisions of, and each and all of the funds provided by, an act passed by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, entitled "An act to provide for the further development of vocational education in the several States and Territories" and approved May 21, 1934. In accepting the benefits of said act the people of the State of California agree to comply with all of its provisions and to observe all of its requirements.

Sec. 2 Subject to the provisions of Article X of Chapter I of Part IV of Division III of the School Code and of Chapter V of Part I of Division IV of the said code there is, in addition to any moneys appropriated under said act, hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated the sum of one hundred three thousand two hundred thirty-five dollars and ninety-nine cents for each of the eighty-sixth, eighty-seventh and eighty-eighth fiscal years. Of the sum so appropriated for each such fiscal year there may be expended for use during such fiscal year twenty thousand two hundred fifty-nine dollars and thirty-four cents for agriculture, the sum of fifty-four thousand nine hundred twelve dollars and thirty-one cents for trades and industries, and the sum of twenty-eight thousand sixty-four dollars and thirty-four cents for home economics.

Sec. 3. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall therefore go into immediate effect.

The facts constituting the necessity are as follows: There exists in the State of California at the present time an emergency due to the existing economic conditions prevailing throughout the United States, which economic conditions have resulted in a great increase in the unemployment of this State. This act constitutes a means whereby training and vocational education may be extended to the unemployed to fit them for positions in which they may be employed in lieu of the positions which they lost through no fault of their own.

CHAPTER 365.

An act to make an appropriation for emergency reclamation and flood control work on the San Joaquin River, declaring the urgency thereof and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 27, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. The sum of ten thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any money in the State treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be expended by the Division of Water Resources, Department of Public Works, for emergency reclamation and flood control work on the San Joaquin River.

Sec. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, and will therefore go into effect immediately. The facts constituting such necessity are as follows:

Due to recent high water in the San Joaquin River, levees have broken down with the result that the surrounding country has been flooded, causing great damage to buildings and property. It is necessary that money be made available immediately in order that steps may be taken to control these flood waters and to rebuild the levees in order to prevent further damage to surrounding buildings and property, and also to permit the use of the land flooded. If this reclamation work is done immediately the land may be used for planting during the present year. Therefore, in order to provide for the use of this land and to eliminate the possibility of further damages, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 366.

An act to add section 3a to an act entitled "An act to provide for the establishment and maintenance of a Bureau of Tuberculosis under the direction of the State Board of Health; defining its powers and duties; providing for the granting of State aid to cities, counties, cities and counties and groups of counties for the support and care of persons affected with tuberculosis; making an appropriation therefor; and repealing certain acts of the Legislature of the State of California," approved June 12, 1915, relating to hospital central committees.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3a is hereby added to the act cited in the title hereof, to read as follows:

Sec. 3a. Each group of counties maintaining a tubercular hospital under the provisions of this act may by unanimous agreement provide for a different number of delegates to the hospital central committee than the number provided for in section 3 of this act and said group of counties may provide for a method of deciding a tie vote of said hospital central committee.

The hospital central committee shall designate the county which must be one of the group maintaining the hospital, where the business of the hospital is to be transacted and where funds of the hospital are to be kept and deposited. All county officers of the county so selected for the business of said hospital shall render all necessary assistance required by the committee in keeping with the duties of their respective offices.
CHAPTER 367.

Stats 1933, p 394. An act to amend section 1250 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to fully protected mammals.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 1250 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1250. It is unlawful to take or possess the following mammals, or any part thereof: female deer, spotted fawn, spike buck, antelope, mountain sheep, Sierra hare (Lepus campesstri sierra), tree squirrel, and sea otter.

CHAPTER 368.

Stats 1933, p 394. An act to amend sections 421, 806 and 811 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to Pismo clams and cockle clams.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 421 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

421. Sporting fishing licenses are required for the taking of the following fish and mollusks only:

Tuna, yellowtail, marlin, broadbill swordfish, jewfish or black sea bass, albacore, barracuda, bonita, rock bass, California whiting (also known as corbina and surf fish), yellowfin, croaker, spotfin croaker, salmon, sturgeon and other trout, charr, whitefish, striped bass, black bass, perch, crappie, calico bass, pismo clams, cockle clams, abalones, and all varieties of sun fishes.

Sec. 2. Section 806 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

806. Pismo clams (Tivela stultorum) less than 5 inches in greatest diameter may not be taken or possessed. The bag limit on Pismo clams is 15 per day. Not more than one daily bag limit of Pismo clams may be possessed by any person during one day.

No such cockles measuring less than one and one-half inches in greatest diameter may be taken, possessed, transported or sold. The bag limit on such cockles is six dozen per day. Not more than one daily bag limit of such cockles may be possessed by any person during one day. Cockles of legal size as herein provided when taken outside of the State, and brought within the State, may be possessed, transported, and sold without restriction.

CHAPTER 369.

An act to add section 662.5 to, the Fish and Game Code, relating to salmon.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935 In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 662.5 is hereby added to the Fish and Game Code to read as follows:

662.5. Chinook salmon and silver salmon under legal size as prescribed in section 661 shall not be imported into this State from without the State.

CHAPTER 370.

An act to amend section 1 of "An act regulating the hours of labor of the operators of certain motor vehicles," approved June 10, 1933, relating to operators of vehicles.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935 In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. (a) No person shall drive upon any highway any motor vehicle used for the purpose of transporting persons for hire, compensation or profit for more than ten consecutive hours nor for more than ten hours spread over a total of fifteen consecutive hours. Thereafter, such person shall not drive any such vehicle until eight consecutive hours have elapsed, during which time such person shall not have ridden in or upon such vehicle.

(b) No person shall drive upon any highway any motor vehicle used for the purpose of transporting merchandise, freight, materials, or other property for more than twelve consecutive hours nor for more than twelve hours spread over a total of fifteen consecutive hours. Thereafter, such person shall not drive any such vehicle until eight consecutive hours have elapsed, during which time such person shall not have ridden in or upon such vehicle.
(c) The provisions of this section shall have no application to any person driving any motor vehicle used in the transportation of persons or property as a common carrier for compensation.

(d) In computing the number of hours hereunder, any time spent by a person in driving or riding on such a vehicle outside this State shall, upon such vehicle entering this State, be included.

The provisions of this act shall not apply to any case of casualty or unavoidable accident or act of God.

CHAPTER 371.

An act to amend sections 782 and 786 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to lobsters.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 782 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

782. Spiny lobsters may be taken between October 1 and March 15.

SEC. 2. Section 786 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

786. No spiny lobsters taken in the waters lying south of the international boundary line between the United States and Mexico, extending westerly in the Pacific Ocean, may be brought into this State during the closed season prescribed in this code. Lobsters taken in such waters and brought into this State during the open season may be possessed and sold at any time, subject to the rules and regulations of the commission.

The cost of inspection and marking, under the regulations of the commission, shall be paid by the importer of the lobsters.

No spiny lobsters taken in this State may be sold or possessed during the closed season.
An act relating to the redemption and sale of property sold to a county treasurer, as trustee of a reclamation district or of the bond fund, or to a reclamation district for delinquent assessments and installments thereof.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. In all cases where land has, prior to the effective date of this act, been sold to a county treasurer, as trustee of a reclamation district or as trustee of the bond fund of a reclamation district, or to a reclamation district, for any delinquent reclamation assessment or installment thereof, and where such county treasurer as such trustee of a reclamation district or of the bond fund of a reclamation district, or a reclamation district, still holds the certificate of sale, or where such county treasurer or such reclamation district has taken a deed for the land at any time within five years prior to the effective date of this act, and still holds title to said land, such county treasurer or reclamation district shall not sell said land at public or private sale, or otherwise, to any person or corporation other than to any person who could have redeemed said land within the period of redemption, for a period of two years next succeeding the effective date of this act, provided that such person who could have redeemed said land files with the county treasurer of the county in which the lands or the majority of the lands of the district lie, and with the secretary of the district within sixty days after the effective date of this act, a written notice of his intention to exercise the privilege herein granted as to the lands therein described. Said written notice shall describe such lands by reference to tract numbers of the assessment list of said delinquent assessment. All lands, which are not described in or covered by such written notices filed within said sixty-day period, may be sold by such county treasurer or reclamation district in the manner provided by law, free and clear from all restraint or any other provision provided for in this act.

Sec. 2. During said period of two years from the effective date of this act, all rentals or moneys received from all such lands, which are leased or operated by the board of trustees of a reclamation district, shall be forthwith paid to the county treasurer, as trustee of a reclamation district, less the actual and reasonable costs incident and necessary to the operating and leasing of said lands, and shall be applied by such county treasurer on account of the payment of all delinquent and unpaid installments of assessments levied and assessed against the particular tract of land from which the income is received, and accrued interest and penalties thereon; and during said period of two years from the effective date of this act, any person who was entitled to redeem said lands, and who has filed said notice of intention in the foregoing paragraph provided, may purchase said lands at private sale from the county treasurer or the reclamation district for the amount for which said land was sold to the county treasurer, subject, however, to the following deduction, to wit:

The amount of all subsequent assessment calls against the land sought to be redeemed, together with the interest and penalties, if any, accrued thereon; and subject, also, to the following deductions, to wit:

(a) All penalties upon that portion of all delinquent calls, made against the assessment against said land, to pay interest accrued on said assessment prior to May 15, 1933;

(b) All penalties upon that portion of said delinquent calls made to pay the principal of said assessments;

(c) All amounts credited upon said delinquent call derived from the rental and/or operation of said land by the district, as hereinabove provided; which said purchase price may be paid in cash or in matured bonds or coupons thereof of said district issued upon said assessment, and upon the payment of such purchase price, the said county treasurer shall execute to such purchaser upon such sale a deed conveying said property free of encumbrances except the unpaid and uncalled balance of said assessment, and any other assessment of said district, and any State, county and municipal taxes and any taxes or assessments of irrigation, conservation or water storage districts and subject to any leases of said property made pursuant to the provisions of section 3466a of the Political Code; provided, however, that the provisions for redemption in this act provided shall not, in any event, apply to assessments levied or calls made based upon assessment valuations as provided for under the provisions of section 3456 of the Political Code of the State of California.

Sec. 3. Within sixty days after the receipt by the county treasurer of a written request of a party who has filed a notice provided for in section 1 hereof, said treasurer shall render to such party and to the secretary of the district, an account or report of the amount of the rentals applied on account of the payment of the delinquent installments of assessment against the lands covered by his said notice, and the amount of the expenses and costs disbursed by the board of trustees from said rentals, and also the balance then unpaid upon such delinquencies, with interest thereon as herein provided, and said county treasurer shall mail forthwith such account or report to the secretary of the district, and also to such landowner at such address as such landowner may have theretofore filed with the county treasurer.

Sec. 4. This act shall also be applicable to all irrigation, drainage and levee districts whose boundaries to any extent overlap or encroach upon or within the boundaries of a reclamation district, but only as to the lands lying within the boundaries of such reclamation district, and this act shall remain in effect only until the expiration of two years from the effective date of this act, and it is not intended to repeal or modify any provisions of the Political Code of the State of California, or any act creating a reclamation district, except as to the matters hereinabove set forth, and for the period of two years hereinabove provided.

Sec. 5. That all privileges hereby granted shall inure to the benefit of the heirs or personal representatives of any deceased person who could have redeemed such lands during the said five-year period prior to the effective date of this act.

Sec. 6. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall therefore go into effect immediately.

The facts constituting such necessity are as follows:
Due to the agricultural depression which has existed for the past several years, many landowners in reclamation districts in the State have been unable to meet their installments upon assessments, with the result that their land has been sold to the districts. The heavy penalties necessary to be paid as now provided by law, and which continually increase, made and continue to make it impossible for the landowners to redeem their land, and hence thousands of landowners have lost their land. If the land is not redeemed from district ownership it then becomes nonassessable for district or other tax or assessment purposes, and the burden becomes all the heavier on the other landowners in the district, causing more delinquencies and loss. The Legislature hereby declares that the welfare of the State requires that the landowners in these districts be not dispossessed of their land, and that the land be resold so as to thenceforth bear its just proportion of taxation.

CHAPTER 373.

An act to amend the titles of Articles IV and IVa of Chapter IV of Part I of Division VI of the School Code, to amend sections 6.210 and 6.211 of the School Code and to add a new section to the School Code to be numbered 6.213, relating to the disposition of buildings, structures or fixtures of school districts, when the boundaries of such districts are altered, declaring the urgency thereof and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. The title of Article IV of Chapter IV of Part
I of Division VI of the School Code is hereby amended to read

as follows:
Article IV—Sale or Lease of Personal Property by One District to Another.

Sec. 2. Section 6.210 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

6.210. The governing board of any school district of any type or class is authorized to sell any unused personal property belonging to the district to another district and the governing board of such other district is authorized to purchase the same, for an amount equal to the cost thereof plus the estimated cost of purchasing, storing and handling such property, without advertisement for or receipt of bids or compliance with any other provisions of this code.

Sec. 3. Section 6.211 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

6.211. The governing board of any school district of any type, or class is authorized to sell or lease used personal property belonging to the district to another district, and the governing board of such other district is authorized to purchase or lease the same, the selling price and the terms of sale, or the lease price and the terms of lease to be fixed by the governing board or boards of the school districts effecting such sale or lease, and approved by the county superintendent of schools, and such sale or lease may be made without advertisement for or receipt of bids, or compliance with any other provisions of this code.

Sec. 4. The title to Article IVa of Chapter IV of Part I of Division VI of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Article IVa—Sale or Disposition of Buildings, Structures, and Other Fixtures by One District to Another.

Sec. 5. A new section is hereby added to the School Code to be numbered 6.213 and to read as follows:

6.213. When any territory withdrawn from a school district pursuant to any provision of this code contains a school building, site or real property, the building, site, together with the fixtures thereof, shall, upon the withdrawal of such territory becoming effective, become the property of the district of which such territory becomes a part or the whole.

If a dispute arises between the governing boards of the two districts concerned as to what constitutes fixtures, a board of arbitrators must be appointed whose function and duty it shall be to determine what articles in a school building located within territory withdrawn from any school district are fixtures thereof. Said board shall consist of one person selected by the district from which said territory is withdrawn and one person selected by the district of which it has become a part, and a third person appointed by the county superintendent of schools of the county in which said districts are located; provided, however, that the two districts involved may mutually agree that the person appointed as arbitrator by the county superintendent of schools may act as sole arbitrator of the matters herein authorized to be submitted to arbitration.
The necessary expenses and compensation of any arbitrators appointed pursuant to this section shall be divided equally between the two districts involved, and the payment of such portion of said expenses shall be and constitute a legal charge against the funds of said school districts. The arbitrator or arbitrators appointed pursuant to the provisions of this section shall proceed to view and examine such property, articles, equipment and fixtures as they are requested to pass upon by the respective school districts and make a written finding as to what property, articles, or equipment constitute fixtures, and the written finding and determination of a majority of said board of arbitrators shall be final and binding upon the school districts submitting such question to said board of arbitration.

Sec. 6. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency mea-ure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, and shall go into effect immediately from and after its passage and approval.

The following is a statement of the facts constituting such necessity:

There has been a change of boundaries between many school districts in the State of California which will become effective July 1, 1935. That date is also the beginning of the fiscal year for school districts and it is necessary that the property rights between districts whose boundaries have been so changed be ascertained and determined by said July 1, 1935, in order that provision may be made in the budgets of said school districts for the ensuing school year and to facilitate the administration and government of said school districts.

CHAPTER 374.

An act to amend sections 611.6, 613, 7385, 957, and 1343 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to fish.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

The bag limit is five per day, irrespective of size, between November 1 and December 31.

Sec. 2. Section 613 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

613. In district 5 and in the Klamath River and Trinity River excluding their tributaries, steelhead trout may be taken from May 1 to February 28. The bag limit is five per day, irrespective of size, between November 1 and February 28. Nct more than one daily bag limit may be possessed by one person during one day.

Sec. 3. Section 738.5 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

738.5. No jack smelt (Atherionops californiensis) less than seven and one-half inches in length, or bay smelt (Atherionops affinis) less than four and one-half inches in length, may be sold.

Sec. 4. Section 957 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

957. In district 18, trawl nets may not be used in any bay, or in State waters surrounding any island, but may be used elsewhere in the district.

Sec. 5. Section 1343 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1343. California sea lions (Zalophus californianus) may be taken at any time in all districts except 19, 19A, 20, 20A, and on the islands and in the waters adjacent thereto located in district 18.

CHAPTER 375.

An act to add section 32a to "An act creating a State Land Settlement Board, and defining its powers and duties, and making an appropriation in aid of its operations," approved June 1, 1917, as amended, and to ratify and confirm certain acts of the Director of Finance with respect to the disposition of properties at the Delhi State Land Settlement and Durham State Land Settlement.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. A new section is hereby added to the act cited in the title hereof, to be numbered 32a, and to read as follows:

Sec. 32a. Those certain acts of the Director of Finance in liquidation of assets at Delhi State Land Settlement and Durham State Land Settlement as set forth in that certain communication dated January 26, 1935, addressed to His Excellency, Frank F. Merriam, Governor of California, and to the members of the Legislature and as set forth in an amendment to the report contained in a supplemental communication dated April 30, 1935, addressed to His Excellency, Frank
F. Merriam, Governor of California, and to the members of the Legislature, true and correct copies of both of which are on file with the Chief Clerk of the Senate, the Chief Clerk of the Assembly, and the Secretary of State, are hereby approved, confirmed and ratified.

CHAPTER 376.

An act to add section 599.5 to the Vehicle Code, relating to unlawful displays on vehicles.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935  In effect September 15, 1935 ]

Note.—See Stats. 1935, Ch. 27.

CHAPTER 377.

An act making an appropriation to meet a deficiency in the appropriation for subsidies of the Bureau of Tuberculosis of the Department of Public Health, declaring the urgency thereof and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Out of any moneys in the State treasury not otherwise appropriated the sum of one hundred sixty-four thousand dollars is hereby appropriated to meet the deficiency in the appropriation for subsidies of the Bureau of Tuberculosis, Department of Public Health, for the eighty-fifth and eighty-sixth fiscal years.

SEC. 2. Inasmuch as this act provides an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the State it shall take effect immediately under the provisions of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution.

CHAPTER 378.

An act to add section 432.5 to the Fish and Game Code, relating to permits and reports.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935  In effect September 15, 1935 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 432.5 is hereby added to the Fish and Game Code to read as follows:

New section
432.5. The owner of any vessel who, for profit, transports persons to any area for the purpose of taking fish, shall procure a permit from the commission. The permit herein provided for shall be valid during the calendar year in which issued and shall be issued upon the payment of $1.30. Such permit shall be accounted for by the commission in the same manner as sporting fishing licenses. The holder of the permit provided for in this section must keep a true record in the English language of all fish taken by fishermen transported by him and must comply with such regulations as the commission is hereby authorized to prescribe.

Any owner or person in control of such a vessel who operates the same without procuring the permit prescribed herein or who fails to keep the records or to comply with the regulations prescribed is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $25.00 or by imprisonment for not less than ten days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to vessels operating upon inland waterways including rivers and lakes.

CHAPTER 379.

An act granting to the city of Richmond and its successors certain salt marsh, tide and submerged land of the State of California, including the right to wharf out therefrom and grant franchises and leases thereon and regulating the management, use and control thereof, also including the right of said city to collect the rents, issues and profits in any manner hereafter arising from the lands or wharf-out privileges hereby granted.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby granted to the city of Richmond, a municipal corporation of the State of California, and to its successors, all the right, title and interest of the State of California held by said State by virtue of its sovereignty in and to all the salt marsh, tide and submerged lands, whether filled or unfilled, and situated below the line of mean high tide of the Pacific Ocean or of any harbor, estuary, bay or inlet within the areas described as follows:

Parcel 1. All of the said salt marsh, tide and submerged lands lying west of the prolongation northerly of the westerly line of section three, township one north, range five west, Mount Diablo base and meridian, to the city limits of said city of Richmond, and northerly of a line drawn from a point on the line of mean high tide westerly to the city limits of said city of Richmond, six hundred sixty feet southerly from, and parallel to, the prolongation westerly of the center line of section five of said township and range, to the city limits of said city of Richmond.

Parcel 2. All of the salt marsh, tide and submerged lands lying between the prolongations westerly to the city limits of said city of Richmond of the northerly and southerly lines of section nine, township one north, range five west, Mount Diablo base and meridian;

To be forever held by said city and its successors, in trust for the uses and purposes and upon the conditions and subject to the reservations following, towit:

(a) That said lands shall be used by said city, and its successors, only for the establishment, improvement and conduct of a harbor, and for the construction, maintenance and operation thereon of wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays, and other utilities or plants, structures and appliances necessary or convenient for the promotion and accommodation of commerce and navigation; and said city, or its successors, shall not, at any time, grant, convey, give or alien said lands, or any part thereof, to any individual, firm or corporation for any purposes whatever; provided, nevertheless, that said city, or its successors, may grant franchises thereon for limited periods (in no event exceeding fifty years) for wharves or other public uses and purposes, and may lease said lands, or any part thereof, for limited periods (in no event exceeding fifty years) for purposes consistent with the trust upon which said lands are held by the State of California and with the requirements of commerce and navigation at said harbor, and may renew any such lease or leases for a further term not exceeding twenty-five years or may terminate the same upon such conditions and provisions as may be stipulated in such lease or leases. This grant shall carry the right to such city of the rents, issues and profits in any manner hereafter arising from the lands, wharves, or privileges hereby granted.

(b) That the improvement of said harbor by said city shall be without expense to the State; that said harbor shall always remain a public harbor for all purposes of commerce and navigation, and said city shall never charge or permit to be charged on any of said lands any unreasonable rate or toll, nor make nor suffer to be made any unreasonable charges, burden or discrimination.

(c) The State of California hereby reserves unto itself, at all times, the reasonable use of and access to all wharves, docks, piers, slips and quays hereafter constructed under the provisions of this act, for any vessel or water craft owned, leased or operated by the State.

(d) There is hereby reserved in the people of the State of California the absolute right to fish in the waters of said harbor, with the right of convenient access to said waters over said lands for said purpose.

(e) There is excepted and reserved to the State of California all deposits of mineral, including oil and gas, in said lands.
(f) This grant is made subject to the rights of any and all persons under any title derived from the State of California in or to any part of said lands.

CHAPTER 380.

An act to authorize the Governor of the State of California to execute and deliver deeds or other conveyances of lands, rights of way or other easements granted to the United States of America in aid of public work, relief or other projects aiding recovery.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935 In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Governor of the State of California is authorized to execute and deliver to the United States of America all necessary deeds or other conveyances, on behalf of the State of California, in any case where the Legislature shall convey to the United States of America title to land, rights of way, or other easements to land held by the State of California, to permit the United States government to carry out public work projects, relief projects, or other projects which are intended to aid in the economic rehabilitation of the people of the State of California.

CHAPTER 381.

An act to amend section 3051 of the Civil Code, relating to liens.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3051 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3051. Every person who, while lawfully in possession of an article of personal property renders any service to the owner thereof, by labor or skill, employed for the protection, improvement, safekeeping, or carriage thereof, has a special lien thereon, dependent on possession, for the compensation, if any, which is due to him from the owner for such service; a person who makes, alters, or repairs any article of personal property, at the request of the owner, or legal possessor of the property, has a lien on the same for his reasonable charges for the balance due for such work done and materials furnished, and may retain possession of the same until the charges are paid;
and livery or boarding or feed stable or feed yard proprietors, and persons pasturing horses or stock, have a lien, dependent on possession, for their compensation in caring for, boarding, feeding, or pasturing such horses or stock; and foundry proprietors and persons conducting a foundry business, have a lien, dependent on possession, upon all patterns in their hands belonging to a customer, for the balance due them from such customers for foundry work; and laundry proprietors and persons conducting a laundry business, have a general lien, dependent on possession, upon all personal property in their hands belonging to a customer, for the balance due them from such customer for laundry work; and veterinary proprietors and veterinary surgeons shall have a lien dependent on possession, for their compensation in caring for, boarding, feeding, and medical treatment of animals; and keepers of garages for automobiles shall have a lien, dependent on possession for their compensation in caring for and safekeeping, and for making repairs and performing any labor upon or furnishing supplies or materials for such automobiles; provided, however, that where the possession of, or lien upon, any automobile held under a claim of lien hereunder is lost by reason of fraud, trick or device, the repossession of said automobile by said garage keeper shall revive the lien so lost; provided, further, that any lien thus revived shall be subordinate to any sale, lien, encumbrance, right, title or interest in such automobile acquired or exercised in good faith and for value by any person between the time of loss of possession and the time of repossession.

CHAPTER 382.

An act to provide certain standards of fair competition for the meat industry, prohibiting the making of misrepresentations in the sale of meat and prescribing penalties for violation of the act.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935  In effect September 15, 1935 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act is the Meat Sellers Fair Competition Act.

SEC. 2. No person shall misrepresent the type, kind or quality of a dressed carcass of any animal or part of such carcass, nor the sex, age or quality of any animal the meat of which is sold.

SEC. 3. Any person who violates any provision of this act is guilty of a misdemeanor.
CHAPTER 383.

An act to add a new section, to be numbered 14a, to an act entitled "An act to insure the better education of dental surgeons and to regulate the practice of dentistry in the State of California providing penalties for the violation thereof," approved May 21, 1915, as amended, relating to the enforcement of said act.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the act cited in the title hereof, to be numbered 14a, and to read as follows:

Sec. 14a. In addition to the other proceedings provided for in this act, the superior court of any county, on application of the Board of Dental Examiners of California, shall issue an injunction to restrain any unlicensed person from carrying on or conducting the practice of dentistry as defined herein.

CHAPTER 384.

An act to add a new section, to be numbered 715.5, to the Vehicle Code, relating to weights of vehicles on certain highways.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

Note.—See Stats. 1935, Ch. 27.

CHAPTER 385.

An act making an appropriation for the support of Napa State Farm, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935. In effect immediately]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of one hundred thirty-one thousand three hundred eighty-seven dollars and fifty cents is hereby appropriated, without regard to fiscal years, to be expended in accordance with law by the Director of Finance for the support and maintenance of the Napa State Farm.

The moneys thus appropriated are appropriated out of and payable out of the following moneys and funds in the following amounts:
(a) Six thousand three hundred eighty-seven dollars and fifty cents out of the fish and game fund in reimbursement for water furnished the State Game Farm at Yountville.

(b) The balance out of the moneys heretofore appropriated to the Napa State Farm revolving fund created by an act entitled "An act creating the Napa State Farm revolving fund and making an appropriation therefor; providing for the expenditure and replenishment thereof, and providing for the disposition of any accrued surplus over and above such appropriation, declaring the urgency thereof and providing that this act shall take effect immediately," approved May 31, 1929.

SEC. 2. This act, being an appropriation for the usual current expenses of the State, shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 386.

An act for the regulation and control of corporations organized for the purpose of operating nonprofit hospital service plans.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall govern any nonprofit corporation heretofore or hereafter organized under the laws of the State of California which by its original or by any amended articles is authorized to establish, maintain and operate a nonprofit hospital service plan whereby hospital care may be provided by said corporation to such of the public who become subscribers to said plan under a contract which entitles each subscriber to certain hospital care as provided in said contract, or whereby said hospital care may be provided by any hospital or hospitals with which said nonprofit corporation has or shall have a contract to furnish such hospital care to said subscribers; provided that no such corporation operating under the provisions of this act shall enter into any such contract with any hospital wholly or partly supported by taxation, except where such a hospital is the only hospital in the county where it is located, or is a hospital maintained and operated by or in connection with a State college or university of the State of California in conjunction with and as a part of its educational and administrative program; and provided further that no corporation authorized by the provisions of this act to establish, maintain and operate a nonprofit hospital service plan may itself furnish hospital care to its subscribers or do any of the acts herein authorized, unless and until it shall have first procured a certificate from the State Department of Public Health certifying that it is complying with the standards required by said State Department of Public Health, nor shall any such corporation enter into any contract with any hospital for the furnishing of hospital care to its subscribers unless the hospital with which it contracts has procured such a certificate from the State Department of Public Health.

Sec. 1a. "Hospital care" as used in this act may include any or all of the following services: maintenance and care in hospital, nursing care, drugs, medicines, physiotherapy, transportation, material appliances and their upkeep.

Sec. 2. This act shall not apply to nor govern any corporation operating a hospital service plan on a profit basis, or which, though operating such a plan on a nonprofit basis, shall be organized for or shall conduct any business whatsoever on a profit basis, nor shall it apply to or govern any corporation formed and existing under: the Constitution of 1849 pursuant to the act entitled "An act concerning corporations," passed April 22, 1850.

Sec. 3. Any nonprofit corporation organized to operate a nonprofit hospital service plan in the manner and in accordance with the provisions of this act shall be exempt from all other provisions of the insurance laws of this State, unless otherwise specifically designated herein, not only in governmental relations with the State but for every other purpose and no law hereafter enacted shall apply to such a corporation unless it be expressly designated therein.

Sec. 4. At least two-thirds of the directors of any such corporation which shall furnish hospital care through contracts with hospitals as provided in section 1 hereof shall be composed equally of duly appointed representatives of such hospitals and duly qualified and licensed practising physicians holding a valid and unrevoked certificate to practice medicine and surgery or a physician and surgeon certificate, issued under the provisions of the State Medical Practice Act in the State of California. Such a corporation which shall itself furnish such hospital care shall choose its board of directors from such persons as it shall see fit.

Sec. 5. No corporation shall establish, maintain or operate a nonprofit hospital service plan as authorized by the provisions of this act unless it shall have first procured the written consent of the Commissioner of Insurance of this State to such establishment, maintenance and operation.

Sec. 6. The rates charged by such corporation to the subscribers for hospital care shall at all times be subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Insurance of the State of California, and all rates of payments to hospitals made by such corporation pursuant to the contracts provided for in section 1 of this act shall be approved prior to payment by said Commissioner of Insurance.

Sec. 7. Every such corporation shall annually on or before the first day of March file in the office of the Commissioner of Insurance of this State a statement verified by at least two of the principal officers of said corporation showing its condition on the thirty-first day of December then next preceding, which shall be in such form and shall contain such matters as the Commissioner of Insurance shall prescribe.

Sec. 8. The Commissioner of Insurance, or any deputy or Examination examiner or any other person whom he shall appoint, shall have the power of visitation and examination into the affairs of any such corporation and free access to all the books, papers and documents that relate to the business of the corporation, and may summon and qualify witnesses under oath and may examine the officers, agents or employees of such corporation or any other persons in relation to the affairs, transactions and condition of said corporation.

Sec. 9. All acquisition costs in connection with the solicitation of subscribers to such hospital service plan shall at all times be subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Insurance.

Sec. 10. The funds of any corporation subject to the provisions of this act shall be invested only in securities permitted by the law of this State for the investment of assets of life insurance companies and such securities shall be valued according to the methods used in valuing similar securities held by life insurance companies.

Sec. 11. Any dissolution or liquidation of a corporation subject to the provisions of this act shall be conducted under the supervision of the Commissioner of Insurance who shall have all powers with respect thereto granted to him under the provisions of law with respect to the dissolution and liquidation of insurance companies.

CHAPTER 387.

An act to amend section 499b of the Penal Code, relating to the unauthorized taking for temporary use or operation of aircraft, automobiles, bicycles, motorcycles or other vehicles.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935 In effect September 15, 1935 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 499b of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

499b. Any person who shall, without the permission of the owner thereof, take any aircraft, automobile, bicycle, motorcycle, or other vehicle, for the purpose of temporarily using or operating the same, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.
CHAPTER 388.

An act making an appropriation for the control of Bang's disease in cattle under the provisions of Article 2, Chapter 3, Division II of the Agricultural Code, and declaring the urgency hereof.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the State treasury not otherwise appropriated the sum of six thousand eight hundred seventy dollars for the purpose of controlling Bang's disease of cattle under the provisions of Article 2, Chapter 3, Division II of the Agricultural Code; provided, that the money hereby appropriated shall become available only when the Federal Government has agreed to contribute a sum not less than one hundred thousand dollars for purposes similar to that set forth herein.

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall, therefore, go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

In order that the State can take advantage of an allocation by the Federal Government of one hundred thousand dollars for Bang's disease control in California, it is necessary that certain assistance be given the Government in conducting necessary tests for detection of such disease. Bang's disease is of great economic importance to the dairy and live stock industry, and it is highly desirable that the State take advantage of the Federal Government's offer of financial assistance for controlling the disease. Since the Federal funds are immediately available provided the State will cooperate, it is necessary that this act take immediate effect in order that the work be undertaken without delay.

CHAPTER 389.*

An act to establish a Military and Veterans Code, thereby revising and consolidating the law relating to the armed forces and militia of the State and relating to military and veterans' affairs, aid and welfare, institutions, and buildings and to repeal certain acts and parts of acts therein specified.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

NOTE.—This chapter contains all of the amendments made thereto during the fifty-first session of the Legislature, namely, by Chapter 322, approved July 20, 1935, in effect September 15, 1935.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

1. This act shall be known as the Military and Veterans Title.

2. The provisions of this code in so far as they are substantially the same as existing statutes relating to the same subject matter shall be construed as restatements and continuations thereof, and not as new enactments.

3. All persons who, at the time this code goes into effect, hold office under any of the acts repealed by this code, which offices are continued by this code, shall continue to hold the same according to the former tenure thereof.

4. No action or proceeding commenced before this code takes effect, and no right accrued, is affected by the provisions of this code, but all procedure thereafter taken therein shall conform to the provisions of this code so far as possible.

5. Unless the context otherwise requires, the general provisions hereinafter set forth shall govern the construction of this code.

6. Division, part, chapter, and article headings contained herein shall not be deemed to govern, limit, modify, or in any manner affect the scope, meaning, or intent of the provisions of any portion of this code.

7. Whenever, by the provisions of this code, a power is granted to a public officer or a duty imposed upon such an officer, the power may be exercised or duty performed by a deputy of the officer or by a person authorized pursuant to law by the officer, unless it is expressly otherwise provided.

8. Writing includes any form of recorded message capable of comprehension by ordinary visual means. Whenever any notice, report, statement or record is required by this code, it shall be made in writing in the English language unless it is otherwise expressly provided.

9. Whenever any reference is made to any section of this code or to any law of this State or the United States or to the Articles of War or the rules and regulations of the United States Army or Navy departments, such reference shall apply to all amendments and additions thereto now or hereafter made.

10. “Section” means a section of this code unless some other statute is specifically mentioned.

11. The present tense includes the past and future tenses; and the future, the present.
12. The singular number includes the plural, and the plural the singular.
13. "County" includes city and county.
14. "Shall" is mandatory and "may" is permissive.
15. "Oath" includes affirmation.

16. An oath authorized or required by division II of this code or the regulations issued thereunder or the statutes or regulations governing the United States Army or Navy or active militia may be taken before the following persons who are authorized to administer the same within and without the State, namely: officers of the National Guard when such oath is authorized or required in a matter pertaining to the National Guard, and officers of the Naval Militia when such oath is authorized or required in a matter pertaining to the Naval Militia, except officers of both land and naval forces on the reserve and retired list while unassigned to duty, or by any other officer authorized to administer oaths under the laws of this State. No charge shall be made for the same.

In other cases where an oath is required by this code, the same may be administered by persons authorized to do so by law.

17. "Signature" or "subscription" includes mark when the signer or subscriber cannot write, such signer's or subscriber's name being written near the mark by a witness who writes his own name near the signer's or subscriber's name; but a signature or subscription by mark may be acknowledged or may serve as a signature or subscription to a sworn statement only when two witnesses so sign the same.

DIVISION I. DEPARTMENT OF MILITARY AND VETERANS' AFFAIRS.

50. There is in the State government a Department of Military and Veterans' Affairs.

51. The department shall be conducted by an executive officer known as the Director of Military and Veterans' Affairs. The director shall be appointed from the chiefs of the divisions of the department by and hold office at the pleasure of the Governor. The director shall receive a salary of six thousand dollars per annum. He shall have only such powers and duties, and such jurisdiction and control over the divisions of the department, as may be authorized by law.

52. Before entering upon the duties of his office, the director shall execute an official bond to the State of California in the penal sum of twenty-five thousand dollars.

53. For the purpose of administration, the department shall be organized by the director in such manner as he deems necessary and proper to conduct the work of the department and shall be divided into four divisions as follows:

(a) The Division of Military Affairs, which shall include the National Guard and Naval Militia, and shall be administered by the Adjutant General, who shall be the chief of the division.
(b) The Division of Veterans' Welfare, which shall be administered by the Veterans' Welfare Board, the chairman of such board being the chief of the division.

c) The Division of Veterans' Homes, which shall be administered by the board of directors of the Veterans' Home of California and the board of directors of the Woman's Relief Corps Home of California, the chief of the division to be appointed by and hold office at the pleasure of the board of directors of the Veterans' Home of California.

d) The Division of Athletics, which shall be administered by the State Athletic Commission, the chief of the division to be appointed by, receive such salary as shall be fixed by, and hold office at the pleasure of such commission.

54. Before entering upon the duties of his office, each chief of division shall execute an official bond to the State of California in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars unless by other provisions of law an official bond to the State is required of such person in the capacity of a State officer performing functions similar to those performed by him as such chief. The premiums upon all such bonds shall be paid by the State out of moneys made available by law for the use of the department.

55. Each division shall furnish to other divisions of the department, upon request therefor approved by the director, such assistance as it may render without detriment to the administration of such division, including the deputizing of agents, representatives, and inspectors and the temporary reassignment of employees, when the same may tend to eliminate overlapping, duplication, or expense.

56. Upon the call of the director and at least once a month, there shall be a meeting of the department attended by the director and the chief of each division. At each meeting there shall be presented for consideration all problems involving possible duplication of service, overlapping of functions, or conflicting jurisdiction upon the part of any of the divisions, and all suggestions as to correlation of the activities of the several divisions.

57. The department shall promulgate rules and regulations which tend to eliminate overlapping and duplication of the activities of the several divisions.

58. In so far as the same is consistent with the provisions of this division, the provisions of Article II, Chapter III, Title I, Part III of the Political Code shall govern and apply to the conduct of the department the same as if such article were herein set forth at length. Wherever in such article the term "head of the department" or similar designation occurs, it shall for the purpose of this code mean the Director of Military and Veterans' Affairs.

59. Nothing contained in this division shall be construed as infringing upon or interfering with the powers, duties, responsibilities, or jurisdiction of the Veterans' Welfare Board, The Adjutant General, the board of directors of the Veterans' Home of California, the board of directors of the DIVISION II. THE MILITARY FORCES OF THE STATE.

PART I. THE STATE MILITIA.

CHAPTER I. LAWS AND REGULATIONS OF THE UNITED STATES.

100. The intent of this code is to conform to all acts and regulations of the United States affecting the same subjects, and all provisions of this code shall be construed to effect this purpose.

101. All acts of the Congress of the United States relating to the control, administration, and government of the Army of the United States and relating to the control, administration, and government of the United States Navy, together with the rules and regulations for the government of the National Guard and Naval Reserve or Naval Militia, so far as the same are not inconsistent with rights reserved to this State and guaranteed under the Constitution of this State, constitute the rules and regulations for the government of the militia.

102. The Articles of War governing the Army of the United States are hereby adopted as a part of this code so far as they are applicable and not modified by this division.

103. Whenever reference is made in the Articles of War to the military service or to the Army of the United States, such reference shall be deemed to include the military service of this State.

104. The articles for the government of the Navy of the United States are hereby adopted as part of this code so far as they are applicable and not modified by this division.

CHAPTER II. GENERAL ORGANIZATION.

120. The militia of the State is divided into three parts: the National Guard and the Naval Militia—which constitute the active militia—and the unorganized militia.

121. The unorganized militia consists of all persons liable to service in the militia, but not members of the National Guard or the Naval Militia.

122. The militia of the State consists of all able-bodied male citizens and all other able-bodied males who have declared their intention to become citizens of the United States, who are between the ages of eighteen and forty-five, and who are residents of the State, and of such other persons as may upon their own application be enlisted or commissioned therein pursuant to the provisions of this division, subject, however, to such exemptions as now exist or may be hereafter created by the laws of the United States or of this State.
123. Whenever the Governor deems it necessary, he may order an enrollment to be made by officers designated by him, of all persons liable to service in the militia. Such enrollment shall include such information as the Governor may require. Three copies thereof shall be made: one copy shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the enrollment is made, and two copies in the office of The Adjutant General.

124. Enrollment shall be made upon such notice and in such manner as the Governor may direct. Every person required by such notice to enroll who fails or refuses so to do is guilty of a misdemeanor.

125. The following persons shall be exempt from military service:

(a) Persons exempt from military service by the laws of the United States.
(b) Regular or duly ordained ministers of religion.
(c) Students preparing for the ministry in recognized theological or divinity schools.
(d) County and municipal officials.
(e) Pilots and mariners actually employed in sea service by a citizen of the United States.

The above persons shall not be exempt from enrollment but shall file verified claims for exemption from military service in such form and manner as the Governor may direct.

126. The Governor shall appoint boards in number and personnel as will best accomplish the enrollment and such boards shall be vested with the authority and power of passing upon and determining the claims of exemption filed under section 125. An appeal to the Governor may be taken from the decision of the boards by the State or any person interested in the matter and within the time prescribed in regulations promulgated by the Governor.

127. When the National Guard and Naval Militia are on duty as a combined force at any time, the commanding officer of the whole force shall be designated by the Governor.

128. Whenever it is necessary to call out any portion of the unorganized militia for active duty in case of insurrection, invasion, tumult, riot, breach of the peace, public calamity or catastrophe, or other emergency, or imminent danger thereof, or when called forth for service under the Constitution and laws of the United States, the Governor may call for and accept as many volunteers as are required for such service, under regulations provided by this division.

129. Every member of the militia who is ordered out, or who volunteers or is drafted under the provisions of this division and who does not appear at the time and place designated by the Governor, or under his authority, within twenty-four hours from such time, and who does not produce a sworn certificate of physical disability from a physician in good standing, is a deserter and shall be dealt with as prescribed in the Articles of War of the United States, or by this division.
Article 2. Commandeer in Chief.

140. The Governor of the State, by virtue of his office, is the Commander in Chief of the Militia of the State.

141. The staff of the Governor consists of The Adjutant General and such aides as the Governor designates from the personnel of the National Guard and Naval Militia to serve during his incumbency. Such staff may also include the following personal aides-de-camp: five aides-de-camp who may be appointed by the Governor and who shall have the rank of lieutenant colonel, and one naval aide with the rank of commander. Such appointments by the Governor shall operate as a commission of such aides-de-camp.

142. The Governor may order the active militia or any portion thereof to perform military duty of every description and to participate in small arms gunnery competitions in this State or in any other State or Territory or the District of Columbia, or in any fort, camp, or reservation of the United States. He may also authorize the performance of military duty or participation in small arms or gunnery competitions by any part of the active militia anywhere without the State or without the United States. Cruise duty ordered for the Naval Militia may be required to be performed on United States vessels.

143. Whenever the Governor is satisfied that the execution of civil or criminal process has been forcibly resisted by bodies of men, or that any conspiracy or combination exists to resist by force the execution of such process, or that the officers of any county or city are unable or have failed for any reason to enforce the laws, he may, by proclamation, declare the county or city or any portion thereof to be in a state of insurrection, and he may thereupon order into the service of the State such number and description of the active militia, or unorganized militia, as he deems necessary, to serve for such term and under the command of such officer as he directs.

144. The Governor may at any time revoke a proclamation of insurrection or declare that it shall terminate at a time or in the manner directed by him.

145. A person who, after publication of the proclamation authorized by section 143, resists or aids in resisting the execution of process in any county or city declared to be in a state of insurrection, or who aids or attempts the rescue or escape of another from lawful custody or confinement, or who resists or aids in resisting any force ordered out by the Governor to quell or suppress an insurrection, is punishable by imprisonment in the State prison not less than two years.

146. The Governor may call into service such portion of the active militia as may be necessary, and if the number available be insufficient, he may call into active service such portion of the unorganized militia as may be necessary, in any of the following events:
(a) In case of war, insurrection, rebellion, invasion, tumult, riot, public calamity or catastrophe, or other emergency, or imminent danger thereof, or resistance to the laws of this State or the United States.

(b) Upon call or requisition of the President of the United States.

(c) Upon call of any officer of the United States Army commanding a corps area, division, department or district in California, or any United States Marshal in California.

(d) Upon call of the chief executive officer of any city or city and county, or of any Justice of the Supreme Court, or of any judge of the superior court, or of any sheriff, setting forth that there is an unlawful or riotous assembly with intent to commit a felony, or to offer violence to person or property, or to resist the laws of the State or the United States or that there has occurred a public calamity or catastrophe for which aid to the civil authorities is required.

(e) Upon call of the sheriff setting forth that the civil power of the county is not sufficient to enable him to execute process delivered to him.

147. In case of insurrection, invasion, tumult, riot, breach of the peace, public calamity or catastrophe, or imminent danger thereof, or in the event any emergency in which all or any part of the active militia is actively engaged in service upon order of the Governor, the Governor may suspend any and all provisions of this division or other laws of the State which require advertisement for bids for purchases of supplies or employment of services.

148. The Governor may make rules and regulations in conformity with this code which shall conform as nearly as practicable to those governing the United States Army and Navy. Such rules and regulations shall have the same force and effect as the provisions of this code.

Article 3. The Adjutant General.

160. The Adjutant General is chief of staff of the Governor and subordinate only to him.

161. The Adjutant General’s office consists of one officer of the rank of Brigadier General who is The Adjutant General and who shall be either commissioned in The Adjutant General’s department or detailed from officers of other arms of the service, and such other officers as are prescribed by the laws or regulations of the United States.

162. The Adjutant General shall be appointed by and hold office at the pleasure of the Governor, or until his successor is appointed and has qualified. No person is eligible for appointment as Adjutant General unless he has attained the grade of field officer and has had four years previous experience as a commissioned officer in command, or in service with troops of the line of this State, or of another State or territory, the District of Columbia, or the United States Army or Marine Corps, or in any or all of such services combined.
163. The Adjutant General shall perform such duties as are prescribed in this code and such additional duties consistent with the regulations and customs of the United States Army and the United States Navy as may be prescribed by the Governor. He shall issue all orders in the name of the Governor.

Salary.

164. The salary of the Adjutant General is five thousand dollars per annum and shall be paid in the same manner and at the same time as salaries of other State officers. Subject to the approval of the Department of Finance, he shall appoint and fix the salaries of all clerical, expert, and technical assistants necessary for the proper conduct of his office.

Bond

165. The bond of the Adjutant General is in the sum of ten thousand dollars, shall be approved by the Attorney General, and shall be in such form and terms as required by law for civil officers of the State.

Disability of Adjutant General.

166. In the event of the absence of the Adjutant General or of his inability to perform his duties, the officer designated by the Adjutant General or the senior officer in the Adjutant General’s office shall perform the duties of the Adjutant General. In the event of the absence or inability of such officers the Governor may detail a National Guard officer to perform such duties.

167. All officers in the Adjutant General’s office shall be appointed by the Governor, with consideration of the recommendation of the Adjutant General, and, with the exception of the Adjutant General, shall hold their positions until they reach the age of sixty-four years, unless retired prior to that time by reason of resignation, disability, or other legal cause.

Duties

168. The duties of the officers of the Adjutant General’s office shall be such as are prescribed by law and regulations and shall conform as closely as practicable to the duties prescribed by orders and regulations of the War Department for like officers in the United States Army.

Commissions

169. The Adjutant General shall attest commissions issued to military officers.

Seal

170. The seal now used in the office of the Adjutant General is the seal of his office, and shall be delivered by him to his successor. All orders issued from his office shall be authenticated with his seal.

Register.

171. The Adjutant General shall keep a register of all the officers of the militia of the State and shall keep in his office all records and papers required to be kept and filed therein.

Report to Governor.

172. The Adjutant General shall make a biennial report to the Governor including a detailed statement of the moneys received and disbursed by him for military purposes during that period and the number and condition of the active militia.

173. The Adjutant General shall, at the expense of the State, when necessary, cause the military law, general regulations of the State, and Articles of War of the United States, and such other military publications necessary for the military service to be printed, indexed, and bound in compact form.
and distributed to the commissioned officers and the several organizations of the active militia.

174. The Adjutant General shall cause to be prepared and issued all necessary blank books, blanked, and notices required to carry into full effect the provisions of this division. All such books and blanks are the property of the State.

175. In order that the active militia of the State may receive the funds provided by Congress, The Adjutant General shall prepare and submit a plan of proposed field or camp service of instruction for the ensuing year, with an estimate of the funds required for pay, subsistence, and transportation of the portion of the active militia participating therein and such other information as may be required by the War and Navy departments of the United States. The estimate shall furnish the details and shall be made out in the form required by instructions from the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy.

176. The Adjutant General may exhibit, at such times and places as he may see fit, the equipment, animals, and property of the National Guard or Naval Militia and may give demonstrations thereof with the aid of personnel selected therefor. All expense in relation thereto shall be paid from State funds.

177. The Adjutant General shall attend to the care, preservation, transportation, safekeeping, and repair of all military property belonging to the State or issued to the State by the United States for the purpose of arming and equipping the militia.

178. All military property of the State which after a proper inspection is found unsuitable for the use of the State shall, under the direction of the Governor, be disposed of by The Adjutant General at public auction after suitable advertisement for sale daily for ten days in at least one newspaper published in the city or county where the sale is to take place; or the same may be sold at private sale or may be condemned and destroyed when so ordered by the Governor. The Adjutant General shall bid in the property or suspend the sale whenever in his opinion better prices may or should be obtained.

179. The Adjutant General shall, from time to time, render to the Governor a true account of the sales made by him, and shall expend the proceeds thereof in the purchase of other military property, as the Governor may direct. All such military property belonging to the State may be disposed of by The Adjutant General without reference to the Department of Finance.

180. The Adjutant General is responsible for all military property which may be issued to the State by the United States. He shall prepare returns of such property of the United States at the time and in the manner required by the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy.

181. The Adjutant General shall superintend the preparation of all returns and reports required by the United States from the State on military matters.
182. The Adjutant General shall keep a correct account of all expenses necessarily incurred, including pay of officers and enlisted men, subsistence of militia, transportation of the militia, and all military property of the State. Such expenses shall be audited and paid in the same manner as other military accounts are audited and paid.

183. The Adjutant General shall issue such military property as the Governor directs, and under his direction shall make purchases for that purpose. No military property shall be issued to persons or organizations other than those belonging to the active militia except such portions of the unorganized militia as may be called out by the Governor.

184. Purchases of property not exceeding five hundred dollars in value shall be made in the manner the Adjutant General directs. If such purchases require an expenditure of a sum exceeding five hundred dollars, he shall publicly advertise for not less than ten days for sealed proposals for furnishing such property. Such proposals shall be publicly opened by him at the place, day, and hour designated in the advertisement. He shall, if the Governor approves, contract with the lowest responsible bidder to furnish such property. All proposals and contracts made under the authority hereby conferred shall be filed in the office of the Adjutant General.

185. The Adjutant General shall, whenever in his opinion it is to the interest of the State, require the party who agrees or contracts to furnish such property to give bond to the people of the State in such sum and with such surety as he directs, such bond to be conditioned upon the faithful performance of such agreement or contract. In case of default such bond shall be prosecuted by the Attorney General and all moneys received therefrom shall be expended by the Adjutant General for the benefit of the active militia.

186. All property purchased under authority herein granted shall be inspected by an inspector or officer detailed for the purpose by the Governor, and no payment shall be made therefor until it appears by the certificate of such officer that such property is of the kind and quality specified in such agreement or contract.

187. The Adjutant General may at any time purchase from the United States under the regulations of the War and Navy Departments governing such purchases military property, equipment, and supplies required by the military forces of this State.

188. The Adjutant General may, in the event of an emergency, secure medical, surgical, and hospital services and supplies and necessary transportation for the care and treatment of officers and men, and the same shall be paid for out of military funds under his control.

189. The sum of three thousand dollars appropriated by Chapter 467, Statutes of 1913, for a cash revolving fund to facilitate the work of the Adjutant General’s office, shall be hereafter held, continued, and used by the Adjutant General.
for such purpose. All or any part of such money may be drawn from the State treasury without the submission of receipts, vouchers, or itemized statements and may be used by The Adjutant General in advancing cash payments for ordnance, equipment, material, labor, supplies, and incidental expenses requiring cash payments in advance, where such payments are necessary for the proper operation of the militia.
Such amounts shall be repaid out of the appropriation against which they are a proper charge, upon itemized claims accompanied by proper vouchers and receipts, and the money returned to the cash revolving fund.
The Adjutant General shall be liable on his bond for the money so advanced to him and may, to protect himself, require sufficient bond of the several employees under him in case it should be necessary to delegate any of them to disburse money from the revolving fund. The Adjutant General shall account for the money herein appropriated at any time upon demand of the Department of Finance or the Controller.
190. The Adjutant General shall audit and allow all proper claims incurred by officers and troops in the service of this State against appropriations for military purposes.
191. The Controller shall draw his warrant for any amount approved and allowed as provided in this division, and the Treasurer shall pay the same out of the appropriation for military purposes, if not otherwise provided.
192. Claims audited and allowed as provided in this article are exempt from the provisions of law relating to the audit and allowance of claims by the Controller or the Department of Finance.

CHAPTER III. THE NATIONAL GUARD.

Article 1. Membership.

210. The National Guard consists of:
(a) General officers of the line.
(b) The several staff corps and departments prescribed in tables of organization of the United States Army or tables of organization for the National Guard.
(c) The officers and enlisted men on the retired and the reserve lists and in the Inactive National Guard.
(d) The organizations forming the National Guard and persons enlisted or commissioned therein.
211. The Governor may alter, divide, annex, consolidate, disband, or reorganize any organization, department, or corps and create new organizations, departments, or corps when required by the provisions of this division or whenever in his judgment the efficiency of the State forces will be thereby increased.
The Governor may also change the organization of any organization, department, or corps so as to conform to any system of drill, or instruction prescribed by the laws of the United States for the National Guard and for that purpose the number of the officers and noncommissioned officers of any grade may be increased or diminished and the grades of such officers and noncommissioned officers may be altered to the extent necessary to secure such conformity.

212. The Inactive National Guard shall consist of such organizations, officers, and enlisted men as are authorized and prescribed by the laws of the United States and regulations issued thereunder.

213. Each company, troop, squadron, or equivalent unit of the National Guard may have not to exceed twenty honorary members, each of whom shall pay fifty dollars per annum into the organization fund of the unit to which he belongs. Honorary members shall not be required to drill or perform any military duty by reason of such membership.

214. During the absence of organizations of the National Guard in the service of the United States, their State or Federal designations shall not be given to new organizations.

215. For all purposes under this code, officers and enlisted men of the National Guard who entered the active service of the United States in time of war or under a call or draft by the President or who hereafter enter such service under like conditions shall be entitled to credit for time so served as if such service had been rendered in the State forces.

216. Former members of the National Guard who have been honorably discharged for "expiration of term of service" or on account of "removal" and have returned to the limits of their commands, and officers who have resigned or have been honorably discharged, or whose terms have expired, who reenlist or reenter the National Guard within ninety days from the date of their discharge or the expiration of their term of office, shall be given credit for continuous service, and the enlistment considered consecutive.

Article 2. Officers.

220. All officers shall be commissioned by the Governor. All appointments of officers shall be made and all vacancies shall be filled in the manner provided by the laws and regulations of the United States Army.

221. All officers duly commissioned shall take the oath of office prescribed by the laws of the United States relating to the appointment and recognition of federally recognized officers of the National Guard and in addition thereto any other oath prescribed by law, and file or be covered by the bond provided for in this division.

222. Persons to be commissioned in the National Guard shall be selected from the classes of persons enumerated in the National Defense Act of 1916. The qualifications of a person for commission in the National Guard shall be in all respects equal and similar to the qualifications required by laws and regulations of the United States for Federal recognition of commissioned officers of the National Guard.

223. All officers of the militia shall give such bonds and security as may be required and within the time prescribed by The Adjutant General to secure the State against loss on account of misuse or misapplication of State or company property or funds or the property or funds of the United States in use by the State.

Such bonds shall be conditioned upon the faithful performance of all duties and the accounting for all property and moneys, including organization funds, for which the obligee is responsible or accountable.

The Adjutant General may in lieu of the foregoing enter into an agreement conditioned in like terms and for the same purpose with a qualified surety company to bond all officers of the militia without specifically naming them. The agreement shall also provide that the report and final action of military or naval authorities having jurisdiction for fixing responsibility for loss or damage shall be conclusive proof of the responsibility or liability of any officer or officers in a suit brought to enforce the obligation of such bond.

The premiums on bonds shall be charged to such funds appropriated for the support of the militia as the Governor directs.

224. All officers of the National Guard shall take rank according to the date assigned them by their commissions, which date shall be that of their appointment. When two officers of the same grade are commissioned as of the same date, their rank shall be determined, first, by the length of previous service as an officer in the National Guard; second, by the length of previous military service in the National Guard; third, by lot.

225. Warrant officers of the National Guard shall be appointed by the Governor. The classes of persons from which warrant officers may be appointed shall be the same as enumerated in the National Defense Act of 1916, and the regulations of the United States promulgated thereunder. Warrant officers shall have the same privileges respecting retirement as commissioned officers, and shall have all other powers, privileges, and duties authorized by laws and regulations of the United States and customs of the service.

226. Every commissioned officer shall provide himself with the arms, uniforms, and equipment prescribed and approved by the Governor.

227. When an officer of the National Guard is sixty-four years of age, he shall be retired from active service and placed on the retired list.

228. Any officer who has served as a commissioned officer for fifteen years in the military or naval service of the State, or for fifteen years partly in one and partly in the other, may upon his own application, in the discretion of the Governor, be retired and placed upon the retired list with an increase in rank of one grade above that held by him on the date of his application. Service as a commissioned officer in the military or naval or military and naval service of the United States in time of war, not exceeding five years in all, shall be considered as State service in computing length of State service for the purposes of this section.

Disability.

229. When a board of officers finds that an officer is incapacitated for active service, and that his incapacity is the result of an incident of the service, and its decision is approved by the Governor, such officer shall be retired from active service and placed on the retired list of officers. When a board of officers finds the incapacity of an officer is not the result of any incident of the service, and its decision is approved by the Governor, such officer shall be retired from active service, or discharged, as the Governor may determine. Any disability after fifteen years' commissioned service shall be deemed to have occurred as the result of an incident of the service.

230. The Governor may detail, with their own consent, officers of the retired list to active duty and return them to the retired list in his discretion. Officers retired for age shall not be detailed to command troops but only to perform duties of staff corps or departments, or to sit on boards, except in time of war or other emergency, or imminent danger thereof, when retired officers may be detailed by the Governor, without their consent, to perform any military duty designated by him.

231. The provisions of sections 222 to 237, inclusive, shall apply with equal force to commissioned officers of the National Guard and the unorganized militia when called into active service.

232. The commission of an officer shall be vacated by death, by acceptance by proper authority of resignation, by discharge on account of inefficiency, for physical disqualifications, when dropped from the rolls for an absence without leave for three months, or by dismissal pursuant to sentence of a general court-martial.

233. An officer who desires to resign shall submit his resignation to the Governor, whose action thereon shall be final. The Governor may refuse to accept a resignation when the officer is under investigation, under charges, awaiting result of trial, absent without leave, absent in the hands of civil authorities, in default with respect to State or Federal funds or property, in time of war or when war is imminent, in time of civil stress or emergency, or on account of the exigencies of the service.

234. At any time the moral character, capacity, and general fitness for service of an officer may be determined by an efficiency board. The board shall be appointed by order of the Governor, and shall consist of three commissioned officers, senior in rank to the officer under investigation. The findings and recommendations of the board shall be transmitted to the Governor, who shall approve or disapprove the findings. If the approved findings are unfavorable to the officer, he shall be ordered discharged.
235. At any time the physical fitness for service of an officer may be determined by a board of three medical officers, which shall be appointed by the Governor for that purpose. The findings and recommendations of the board shall be transmitted to the Governor. If the officer is found to be physically unfit for service and the finding is approved by the Governor, he shall be ordered discharged or retired from active service.

236. An officer absent without leave for a period of three months shall, with the approval of the Governor, be discharged.

237. An officer may be dismissed from the service only by sentence of a general court-martial, which sentence is approved by the Governor.

238. No officer who has been dismissed from the military or naval service of the State shall be permitted again to enter the military or naval service of the State; nor shall he be eligible for appointment or election to, or to hold any public office of trust or emolument in this State, unless pardoned by the Governor. No officer who has resigned for the good of the service, or who has been discharged on account of inefficiency, or on account of absence without leave, shall be permitted again to enter the military or naval service of the State.

Article 3. Enlisted Men.

250. The qualifications for enlistment and reenlistment in the National Guard and the term and the form of oath shall at all times conform to the requirements of the laws of the United States and of this State and the regulations from time to time promulgated by the War Department of the United States for the government and guidance of the National Guard.

251. Every person who enlists or reenlists shall sign the enlistment papers and take the oath required by the laws and regulations of this State and of the United States. Such oath shall be taken before any military or naval officer authorized to administer oaths by the regulations or laws of the United States or of this State. Any wilfully false statement so sworn to is perjury.

252. Appointments of noncommissioned and petty officers shall conform to the tables of organization. All such noncommissioned and petty officers shall be appointed by the commanding officer of the division, brigade, regiment, separate battalion, squadron, marine division, or similar organization, upon the recommendation of the commanding officer of the unit in which they are to serve. Noncommissioned and petty officers of separate companies, troops, batteries, detachments, and similar units, not forming part of an existing higher tactical organization, shall be appointed by The Adjutant General. When an examination is required by Federal laws or regulations or by State regulations, no enlisted man shall be appointed until he has successfully passed such examination.
253. A company, troop, battery, or detachment commander shall appoint privates first class and specialists in his organization, within authorized quotas.

254. Enlisted men may be transferred to or from organizations, departments, or corps. In transferring an enlisted man the procedure laid down in Army Regulations for the National Guard and in National Guard Regulations shall be followed.

255. Every enlisted man who enters the National Guard may be provided by the State with a service or dress uniform, or both, corresponding in make and general appearance to the service or dress uniform of the United States Army.

256. Any enlisted man who has served fifteen years in the military or naval service of the State, or for fifteen years partly in one and partly in the other, may upon his own application, in the discretion of the Governor, be retired and placed on the retired list in the grade and rank held by him on the date of application. Service in the military or naval or military and naval service of the United States in time of war, not exceeding five years, shall be considered as State service in computing length of State service for the purposes of this section.

257. When an enlisted man of the National Guard is sixty-four years of age, he shall be retired from active service or discharged.

258. In time of war or other emergency or imminent danger thereof, the Governor may detail retired enlisted men on active duty and on conclusion of the emergency return them to the retired list.

259. The separation from the service of an enlisted man of the National Guard or the unorganized militia called into active service is effected by death or by discharge by proper authority.

260. The following shall be causes for discharge of enlisted men:
   (a) Expiration of term of service.
   (b) Attainment of the age of sixty-four years.
   (c) Acceptance of appointment as a commissioned officer in the State or Federal service.
   (d) To enlist in the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard.
   (e) To accept appointment in the United States Military Academy, Naval Academy, or Coast Guard Academy.
   (f) To accept appointment as a flying cadet.
   (g) To reenlist.
   (h) Discontinuance of the organization in which he is serving.
   (i) Change of residence.
   (j) Certificate of disability.
   (k) Inaptness or misconduct.
   (l) Fraudulent enlistment.
   (m) Action of civil or military court.
   (n) Draft into the service of the United States.
   (o) Business or educational interference.
(p) Any other reason which the Governor deems adequate and satisfactory and for the best interests of the service.

261. The discharge of enlisted men under the provisions of section 260 shall be effected by order of the Governor, under such regulations as may be prescribed, or as may be authorized or prescribed by the laws and regulations of the United States.

262. An enlisted man discharged from the National Guard or the unorganized militia shall receive a discharge in writing in such form and with such qualifications as may be prescribed under the laws and regulations of the United States.

263. When an enlisted man of the National Guard or the unorganized militia called into active service absents himself without leave and there is reason to believe that he does not intend to return; or quits his organization or place of duty with the intent to avoid hazardous duty or to shirk important service, he is a deserter.

264. With the express authority of the Governor, a deserter may be dropped from the rolls of his organization. Any soldier discovered to be a deserter from the military or naval service of the United States shall, if not under charges, be dropped from the rolls.

265. Lists of deserters shall be published by The Adjutant General in orders, from time to time as the Governor directs.

266. An enlisted man who has been dropped as a deserter shall not be restored to duty without prior disposition of the charge of desertion standing against him. Such charge shall be disposed of by trial by court-martial; by restoration to duty, desertion admitted, upon a written application of the soldier admitting the desertion; or by the setting aside of the charge of desertion in case it had been erroneously made.

267. A deserter shall not be restored to duty without trial except by the Governor or by an officer authorized to appoint a general court-martial. Restoration to duty without trial shall not remove the charge of desertion or relieve the enlisted man from any of the forfeitures attached to that offense. Setting aside a charge of desertion as having been erroneously made shall remove the charge of desertion and all stoppages and forfeitures arising therefrom.

268. All time lost while absent without leave or in desertion, in excess of twenty-four hours, shall be made good unless the enlisted man is sooner discharged by proper authority.

269. No enlisted man who has been separated from the military or naval service of this State under conditions other than honorable shall be permitted to enter again the military or naval service of the State. No enlisted man who has been dishonorably discharged from the military or naval service of the State shall be eligible for appointment or election to, or to hold any office of trust or emolument in this State, unless the offense be pardoned by the Governor.
CHAPTER IV. THE NAVAL MILITIA.

280. Except where the provisions of this chapter are inconsistent therewith, the provisions of Chapter III of Part I of Division II of this code are hereby incorporated by reference in this chapter and such provisions shall apply to the Naval Militia and the officers and enlisted men thereof with the same force and effect as if such provisions were set out in detail in this chapter.

In applying the provisions of Chapter III to this chapter, the term "Naval Militia" shall be substituted for the term "National Guard" and the term "Navy Department" for the term "War Department."

281. As used in this division in connection with the Naval Militia:

(a) "Division" and "company" shall have the same meaning and effect as "company" when used in connection with the infantry of the National Guard;

(b) "Battalion" shall have the same meaning and effect as "battalion" when used in connection with the infantry of the National Guard.

282. The Naval Militia shall be located throughout the State at the discretion of the Governor.

283. The organization of the Naval Militia shall conform generally to the provisions of the laws of the United States.

284. The Naval Militia shall be organized into one or more naval brigades which shall consist of such administrative battalions prescribed by the Navy Department for a like number of divisions in the United States Navy.

285. The Naval Militia shall consist of such number of deck and engineer divisions, companies of marines, aeronautic and other organizations as the Governor prescribes in conformity with the requirements of the Navy Department.

286. The several divisions, companies of marines, and other organizations of the Naval Militia may be organized into battalions at the discretion of the Governor.

287. The numerical strength, rank, titles, and insignia of rank of the divisions and companies of marines of the Naval Militia shall conform to the laws, rules, and regulations of the United States Navy, and the rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy for the Naval Militia.

288. In order to select a commanding officer for the Naval Militia, The Adjutant General shall nominate not to exceed three officers, not below the grade of lieutenant commander, and shall cause such candidates to be examined. The candidate receiving the highest rating in such examination shall be recommended by The Adjutant General to the Governor for commission.

289. The officers, chief warrant officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men of the Naval Militia shall be of such number for similar organizations of the United States Navy or as authorized or prescribed by the laws and regulations of the Navy Department for the Naval Militia.

290. Chief warrant officers may be appointed by the Governor upon the recommendation of the commanding officer of the Naval Militia and shall receive from the Governor a commission in the same form as commissioned officers of the Naval Militia.

291. Warrant officers may be appointed by The Adjutant General upon the recommendation of the commanding officer of the Naval Militia. Warrants for warrant officers shall be issued by The Adjutant General upon the recommendation of the commanding officer of the Naval Militia.

292. Chief petty officers and petty officers may be appointed by the commanding officer of the Naval Militia, who shall issue to such chief petty officers and petty officers a warrant in proper form.

293. When vacancies occur in the commissioned personnel, the commanding officer of the Naval Militia shall recommend not to exceed three candidates to The Adjutant General who shall cause such candidates to be examined. The candidate receiving the highest rating in such examination shall be recommended by The Adjutant General to the Governor for commission.

294. The system of discipline and exercise shall conform to that of the Navy of the United States, to the system of discipline and exercise prescribed by the provisions of this code relating to the National Guard, and to that prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy for the guidance of the Naval Militia.

295. The Governor may alter, divide, annex, consolidate, and disband the Naval Militia or any portion thereof whenever in his judgment the efficiency of the State forces will thereby be increased. He may also make rules and regulations for the use, government, and instruction of the Naval Militia. Such rules and regulations shall conform to those governing the United States Navy and those prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy for the conduct of the Naval Militia.

296. Every enlisted man who enters the Naval Militia may be provided by the State with a service or dress uniform, or both, corresponding in make and appearance to the service or dress uniform of the United States Navy.

297. In a locality where there are insufficient men available to form an engineer division and there already exists an organized deck division, men of the artificer branch may be additionally enrolled in such deck division with such ratings as they may be qualified to fill, until such time as there is a sufficient number of them to form a separate engineer division. Any men in such artificer branch may be rated in the various petty officers' ratings in the artificer branch of the naval service which they are qualified to fill. In a locality where there are insufficient men available to form a marine company and there is already existing in that locality a deck division of the Naval Militia, a mar no section may be organized with one officer and not less than twenty enlisted marines.

208. The Governor may apply to the President of the United States for the detail of commissioned officers and petty officers of the Navy to act as inspectors and instructors in the art of naval warfare.

209. Vessels lent by the United States to this State for the use of the Naval Militia shall be commanded by the ranking officer for line duty resident at the port to which the vessel is assigned, and in the absence of such ranking officer for line duty, by the next ranking officer for line duty.

300. Summary courts-martial and deck courts for the Naval Militia may be ordered by the commanding officer of the Naval Militia and general courts-martial for the Naval Militia may be ordered by the Governor and shall be organized and conducted within the laws, regulations, and usages of the United States Navy and the provisions of this division relating to military courts. The proceedings shall be reviewed and sentence executed as provided in this division.

CHAPTER V. COMPENSATION, ALLOWANCE, AND INSURANCE.

Article 1. Pay and Allowances.

320. Officers on active duty in the service of the State shall receive the same pay and allowance as officers of similar grade in the United States Army and United States Navy.

321. Enlisted men while on active duty in the service of the State shall receive two dollars per day.

322. No pay shall be allowed officers or enlisted men for duty at camps of instruction, drills, or parades.

323. To assist in uniforming and equipping themselves, commissioned and warrant officers on the active list who have been in service as such during a fiscal year of twelve months, beginning with the first day of July, shall receive annually twenty-five dollars. Officers on the active list who have been in service as such during a period less than a fiscal year shall receive such proportion of the allowance for the year as the period of service bears to a year.

324. Whenever an officer of the National Guard or Naval Militia is detailed for special duty in any matter relating to the National Guard or Naval Militia, by order of the Governor, he shall be allowed the base pay provided for his grade by the pay tables of the United States Army or Navy and actual traveling expenses. An enlisted man similarly detailed shall be allowed two dollars per day and actual traveling expenses.

325. Whenever an officer or enlisted man of the United States Army or Navy, detailed by the War or Navy Department for service with the National Guard or Naval Militia, is detailed by the Governor for special duty or requested to perform such duty involving travel not specially directed by the War or Navy Department, such officer or enlisted man shall be allowed his actual traveling expenses, but no per diem.

Article 2. Organization Allowances.

330. There shall be audited and allowed by The Adjutant General and paid out of the appropriation for military purposes upon the warrant of the Controller to the commanding officer of:

(a) Each rifle, machine gun, regimental headquarters, regimental service, and howitzer companies of infantry, the sum of one hundred fifty dollars per month.

(b) Each firing battery, combat train, regimental headquarters battery, and regimental service battery of coast artillery, the sum of one hundred fifty dollars per month.

(c) Each firing battery, combat train, service battery, and regimental headquarters battery of field artillery, the sum of one hundred fifty dollars per month.

(d) Each signal, military police, ordnance, service, motor transport, and wagon company, the sum of one hundred fifty dollars per month.

(e) Each tank company and divisional aviation unit, the sum of two hundred dollars per month.

(f) Each brigade headquarters, brigade headquarters company, divisional headquarters company, and battalion headquarters company of infantry, the sum of one hundred twenty-five dollars per month.

(g) Each regimental headquarters of infantry, coast artillery and field artillery and each division headquarters, the sum of two hundred dollars per month, except if a regimental headquarters is organized before the regiment has been fully completed then such portion of the two hundred dollars as The Adjutant General deems necessary.

(h) Each medical detachment attached to an infantry, coast artillery or field artillery regiment, the sum of one hundred twenty-five dollars per month.

331. The sums paid under section 330 to the various commanding officers shall be used for armory rental, janitor service, clerical service, recruiting, care of arms and equipment, and proper incidental expenses of company, troop, battery, headquarters, or detachment.

332. In the case of a unit of the National Guard or Naval Militia organized under and by virtue of authority granted the Governor in this division and an allowance is not otherwise provided therefor in section 330, The Adjutant General may determine and fix a monthly allowance for such unit to be used for armory rent, clerical service, recruiting, care of arms and equipment, janitor service, and proper incidental expenses.

333. No claim shall be allowed under this article except upon demand made quarterly in duplicate, signed and sworn to by the officer claiming the same, before any officer of the National Guard or Naval Militia, or notary public, and forwarded through the headquarters of the regiment, coast artillery corps, separate battalion, or next higher unit, or separate squadron, with the approval of each commanding officer through whose headquarters they are required to pass, direct to The Adjutant General.

Article 3. Casualty Insurance.

340. In all cases in which any officer or enlisted man of the National Guard or Naval Militia not in active service of the United States is wounded, injured, disabled, or killed in active service and in line of duty, such officer or enlisted man or the dependents of such officer or enlisted man shall be entitled to receive compensation from the State, in accordance with the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Insurance and Safety Act of 1917. In all such cases, such officer or enlisted man shall be held and deemed to be an employee of the State.

The compensation to be awarded to any such officer or enlisted man shall be ascertained, determined, and fixed upon the basis of his average income from all sources during the year immediately preceding the date of such injury or death or the commencement of such disability; but such compensation shall in no case exceed the maximum prescribed in the Workmen's Compensation Insurance and Safety Act of 1917.

341. In the determination of the benefits to be awarded any member of the militia or his dependents under the provisions of section 340, it shall be conclusively presumed that the average yearly earning of such injured or deceased member is not less than one thousand two hundred dollars. Any injury, death, or disability shall be deemed to have been suffered in line of duty unless the same resulted from misconduct or disobedience of lawful orders by the injured or deceased member.

Chapter VI. Discipline and Exercise.

360. The system of discipline and exercise of the National Guard and the Naval Militia shall conform generally to that of the Army and Navy of the United States, and to the provisions of the laws of the United States, except as otherwise provided in this code.

361. All matters relating to the organization, discipline, and government of the National Guard and Naval Militia not otherwise provided for in this code or in the general regulations, shall be decided by the custom and usage of the United States Army and Navy.

362. All commanding officers shall be responsible to their immediate commanders for the equipment, drill, instruction, movements, and efficiency of their respective commands.

363. Every officer and enlisted man shall be responsible to the officer under whose immediate command he serves for prompt and unhesitating obedience to lawful orders, faithful performance of duty, and the preservation and proper use of the property of the United States, State, or organization in his possession. Each officer and enlisted man shall at all times, without equivocation, obey the lawful orders of his superior officers.

364. Any officer or enlisted man of the National Guard or Naval Militia who willfully fails to attend any parade or encampment, or who neglects or refuses to obey the lawful command of his superior officer on any day of parade or encampment, or who fails to perform such military duty as may be lawfully required of him, or who uses disrespectful language toward his superior officer or commits any act of insubordination, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

365. When an armed force is called out for the purpose of suppressing an unlawful or riotous assembly, or arresting the offenders, and is placed under the temporary direction of any civil officer, it shall obey the orders of such civil officer which extend only to the direction of the general or specific object to be accomplished. The tactical direction of the troops, the kind and extent of force to be used, and the particular means to be employed to accomplish the object specified by the civil officer are left solely to the commanding officer of the active militia on duty.

366. Whenever any portion of the National Guard or Naval Militia is called into active service to suppress an insurrection or rebellion, to disperse a mob, or to enforce the execution of the laws of the State or of the United States, the commanding officer shall use his own discretion with respect to the propriety of attacking or firing upon any mob or unlawful assembly. His honest and reasonable judgment in the exercise of his duty shall be full protection, civilly and criminally, for any act or acts done while on duty.

367. No officer who is called out to sustain the civil authorities shall, under any pretense, or in compliance with any order, fire blank cartridges upon any mob or unlawful assemblage, under penalty of being dismissed.

368. Each company, troop, squadron, battery, detachment, and unit shall assemble for drill and instruction, including indoor target practice, not less than forty-eight times each year unless excused by the Governor or other competent authority, and shall in addition thereto participate in encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises, including outdoor target practice, for at least fifteen consecutive days in each year unless excused by competent authority.

In addition to such drills and periods of duty above specified the commanding officer of any unit may require the officers and enlisted men of his command to meet for parade, drill, and instruction at such times and places as he may appoint.

369. No parade or drill of the active militia shall be ordered in time of peace for any day during which any general election is held, except in cases of riot, invasion, insurrection, or imminent danger thereof, or in cases of public calamity or catastrophe.
370. Orders for duty may be oral, written, or by publication.

371. Warning for duty may be given by any officer or non-commissioned officer or any other person authorized so to do.

372. Officers and enlisted men may be warned for duty by stating the substance of the order, by reading the order to the person warned, by delivering a copy of such order to such person, by leaving a copy of such order at the last known place of abode or business of such person with some person of the age of discretion, or by sending a copy of such order or its substance to such person by registered mail directed to him at his last known place of abode or business or to the post office nearest thereto.

In addition to or in lieu of the foregoing, notice may be given by posting a copy of such order at the entrance to the nearest post office to the military or naval headquarters issuing the same, at the entrances of the city hall or county courthouse of the city or county wherein said headquarters are located, and by causing a copy of said warning order to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in such county.

373. The person giving the warning for duty shall make a return thereof containing the names of the persons warned and the time, place, and the manner of the warning. The return shall be verified by his oath. Such verified return shall be as good evidence of the facts therein stated on the trial of any person returned as a delinquent as if the person making such return were present and testified.

374. Every commanding officer shall report to The Adjutant General the name of every delinquent together with a full report of any extenuating circumstances.

375. Officers and enlisted men of the active militia not in the service of the United States shall be subject to and governed by the provisions of this code while outside this State under the order or authorization of the Governor under the provisions of section 142 in like manner and to the same extent as when on duty within this State under orders of the Governor. Military courts may be convened and held outside the State with the same jurisdiction and power of punishment as if held within the State. Offenses and delinquencies committed outside the State may be tried and punished either within or without the State after the termination of the duty.

Chapter VII. Privileges and Penalties.

390. No person belonging to or on duty with the active militia of the State, or engaged in the performance of military duty on call of the Governor shall be arrested on any civil process while going to, remaining at, or returning from any place at which he may be required to attend for military duty.

391. Every member of the active militia shall be exempt from road tax and head tax of every description, from jury duty (including service on coroners' juries), and from service on any posse comitatus, if he furnishes the certificate of his immediate commanding officer that he has performed the duties required of him for the year immediately preceding a summons to act as a jurymen or during the period of his service if less than one year.

392. Members of the militia in the active service of the State shall not be liable civilly or criminally for any act or acts done by them in the performance of their duty.

393. When an action or proceeding of any nature is commenced in any court against an active member of the militia for an act done by such member in his official capacity in the discharge of duty, or an alleged omission by him to do an act which it was his duty to perform, or against any person acting under the authority or order of an officer, or by virtue of a warrant issued by him pursuant to law, the defendant may require the person instituting or prosecuting the action or proceeding to file security in an amount of not less than one hundred dollars, to be fixed by the court, for the payment of costs that may be awarded to the defendant therein. The defendant in all cases may make a general denial and give special matter in evidence. A defendant in whose favor a final judgment is rendered in any such action or proceeding shall recover treble costs. The Attorney General shall defend such active member or person where the action or proceeding is civil. The Attorney General, the senior judge advocate on the State staff, or one of the judges advocates shall defend such active member or person where the action or proceeding is criminal, and the Adjutant General shall designate the senior judge advocate on the State staff, or one of the judges advocates, to defend such active member or person.

394. No person shall discriminate against any officer or enlisted man of the military or naval forces of the State or of the United States because of his membership therein.

No person shall prohibit or refuse entrance to any officer or enlisted man of the Army or Navy of the United States or of the military or naval forces of this State into any public entertainment or place of amusement because such officer or enlisted man is wearing the uniform of the organization to which he belongs.

No employer or officer or agent of any corporation, company, or firm, or other person shall discharge any person from employment because of being an officer or enlisted man of the military or naval forces of this State, or hinder or prevent him from performing any military service he may be called upon to perform by proper authority, or dissuade any person from enlistment in the National Guard or Naval Militia by threat of injury to him in respect to his employment, trade, or business in case of his enlistment.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

395. Every officer and employee of the State, of any county, municipal corporation, school district, irrigation district, water district, or other district, who is a member of the National Guard or Naval Militia, or a member of the reserve corps or force in the Federal military, naval, or marine service, shall be entitled to absent himself from his duties or service while engaged in the performance of ordered military or naval duty and while going to and returning from such duty.

No such officer or employee shall be subjected by any person directly or indirectly by reason of such absence to any loss or diminution of vacation or holiday privilege or be prejudiced by reason of such absence with reference to promotion or continuance in office, employment, reappointment to office, or reemployment.

During the absence of any such officer or employee, while engaged in the performance of ordered military or naval duty as a member of the National Guard, Naval Militia, or reserve corps or force in the Federal military, naval, or marine service, he shall receive his salary or compensation as such officer or employee, if the period of such absence in any calendar year does not exceed thirty days.

395.5. Any officer or employee of the State having civil service status who is ordered on active duty in time of war shall retain all civil service rights to his position and shall be reinstated to such position upon application at any time within ninety days after the termination of such duty.

(Added by Ch. 822, Stats. 1935.)

396. The commanding officer of any portion of the militia parading or performing any military duty in any street or highway may require persons in such street or highway to yield the right of way to such militia, except that the carriage of the United States mail, the legitimate functions of the police, and the progress and operations of hospital ambulances, fire engines, and fire departments and apparatus shall not be interfered with thereby.

Any person who hinders, delays, or obstructs any portion of the militia parading or performing any military duty, or who attempts so to do, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

397. When an emergency has been declared to exist by the Governor and during the continuance thereof, any person belonging to the military or naval forces of the State or of the United States shall, together with his conveyance, personal baggage, and the military property of the State or of the United States in his charge, be allowed to pass free through all tollgates and over all toll bridges and all ferries, if he presents an order for duty in the military or naval service of the State or of the United States.

398. The commanding officer may place under arrest any person who trespasses upon any camp ground, parade ground, armory, or other place devoted to military duty, or who in any way or manner interrupts or molests the orderly discharge of military duty, or who disturbs or prevents the passage of troops going to or returning from any duty.
CHAPTER VIII. EQUIPMENT AND ACCOMMODATIONS.

Article 1. Funds, Arms, and Equipment.

410. The National Guard, Naval Militia, and unorganized militia when called into active service shall be provided by the State with the supplies and equipment, not supplied by the United States, necessary for the proper performance of functions authorized or prescribed by the laws and regulations of the State and the United States.

411. The board of supervisors of any county may appropriate money from the general fund of the county for the use, benefit, or assistance of the National Guard or Naval Militia or for National Guard or Naval Militia purposes within the county.

412. Any officer who is accountable for any Federal, State, or company funds or property who fails or neglects to deliver over such funds or property to the person designated by proper authority to relieve such officer, shall be charged with all shortages thereof not covered by the receipt obtained by such officer from the person to whom he has delivered the same.

Quartermasters and supply officers are accountable and responsible for all property issued to the headquarters to which they are attached or with which they are on duty.

413. All moneys including company funds, of which the commanding officer or other officer or employee is the custodian, shall be deposited in a national bank or a bank incorporated under the laws of this State.

414. Every officer and enlisted man to whom public property has been issued shall be personally responsible to the State for such property. No one shall be relieved from such responsibility, except it be shown to the satisfaction of the Governor that the loss or destruction of such property was unavoidable and in no way the fault of the person responsible for the same. In all other cases the value of the property lost or destroyed in the amount determined by a surveying officer or a board as herein provided shall be charged against the person at fault or, with the concurrence of its commanding officer, to the command to or for which it had been issued, and if not relieved from such charge by the Governor, it shall be an indebtedness from such person or command to the State.

415. If the commanding officer of the organization charged does not concur in the finding of the surveying officer, then the value of lost or destroyed property and the person or command to be charged therewith shall be determined by a board to consist either of an inspector on the staff of the Governor or of a disinterested officer who shall be appointed by the Governor and the commanding officer of the organization in which such property is lost. In case of disagreement, a third officer, not below the grade of major, shall be appointed by the Governor. A decision of a majority of the board so constituted shall be final.
416. Where the amount determined by such board as the value of lost or destroyed property is charged to a person, it shall be deducted from any pay or allowance due or to become due to him from the State. Where the amount is charged to a command, it shall be deducted one-half in successive calendar years from any allowance or money due or to become due to it from the State, except that on the disbandment of a command any such indebtedness then existing and such as may be charged to it upon a final settlement of property accounts shall, as soon as determined, be paid out of its military funds or unexpended appropriations.

An action may be maintained in the name of the people of the State in any court of competent jurisdiction by the Attorney General or Judge Advocate of the National Guard, upon request of the Adjutant General, to recover from a person or his sureties any such indebtedness to the State remaining unpaid upon final determination of such indebtedness.

417. The transportation of arms, equipment, and military stores issued to troops or received by the State and all other military transportation shall be contracted for by the Adjutant General under the direction of the Governor. Vouchers for such transportation, when approved by the Adjutant General, shall be paid from the appropriation for military purposes on the warrant of the Controller.

418. All property purchased out of the moneys allowed by the State for the use and convenience of the militia is the property of the State and shall be enumerated on the property returns next following its purchase.

419. No member of the militia shall wear or use, except when on military duty, or by special permission of his commanding officer, any uniform or other article of military property belonging to the State or to the organization of which he is a member.

420. No officer in charge of public property for military use shall transfer any portion thereof, either as a loan or permanently, without the authority of the Governor.

421. Any person who secretes, sells, disposes of, offers for sale, purchases, retains after demand made by a commissioned officer of the National Guard or Naval Militia, or in any manner pawn or pledges any arms, uniforms, equipments, or military or naval property of the State or the United States, or of any organization of the active militia is guilty of a misdemeanor.

422. Any person, other than an officer or enlisted man of the National Guard or Naval Militia of this State or of another State or of the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard Service, or Forest Service, an inmate of any veterans' or soldiers' home, or other person authorized by the laws of the United States, who at any time wears the uniform of the United States Army or Navy or National Guard or Naval Militia, or any part of such uniform, or a uniform or part of a uniform similar thereto, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and is punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than two hundred fifty dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding sixty days, or by both.

423. Whenever the National Guard or Naval Militia, or any part thereof, is in active service or is called into active service, no civic organization or member thereof shall parade or appear in uniform in the locality where the National Guard or Naval Militia is in service.

Article 2. Armories.

430. As used in this article, "armory" means and includes any building or portion thereof, rifle range, camp site, airport, arsenal, vessel, quarters or accommodations devoted to the use of the militia.

431. The Adjutant General shall have control of all armories that are built or acquired by the State, that come into possession or control of the State, or that are erected, purchased, leased, or provided or contributed to in whole or in part by any city or county, for armory purposes.

432. For the control and management of the armories, The Adjutant General may cause to be established from the personnel of the organized militia armory boards, the personnel of which shall serve without pay. Such boards, subject to the direction of The Adjutant General, shall control, manage, and supervise all activities in armories and may rent such armories to persons and organizations not connected with the National Guard and Naval Militia. Such boards shall apply the revenues therefrom to the necessary maintenance and repairs thereof, and pay over to The Adjutant General any surplus for the general fund of the State. Such armory boards shall keep accounts and The Adjutant General shall audit such accounts.

433. The Adjutant General may lease on behalf of the State armories necessary for the use of the militia.

434. The Adjutant General, under the direction of the Governor, shall make and enforce regulations for the government and control of such armories, and where appropriations have been made therefor, advertise for and receive bids for the construction of armories, enter into contracts for the construction and completion thereof, contract for and purchase the furnishings and equipment thereof, and purchase or lease real estate for armory purposes. The Department of Public Works, upon request of The Adjutant General, shall furnish the plans, estimates, and specifications for all armories and supervise the erection and construction thereof.

435. In all armories leased by The Adjutant General, he may, in his discretion, pay the rental of any armory leased by him or such portion of the rental thereof as he may see fit from funds under his control, charging the organizations using such armory or armories such rental as may, in his judgment, be equitable, and may deduct from the quarterly allowance to such organizations the rent so charged.
436. The Adjutant General may receive by donation or dedication any property which may be used for armory purposes.

437. Under the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to eminent domain, the Adjutant General, in the name of the people of the State of California, with the approval of the Department of Finance, may condemn any property necessary for armory purposes. Armories are hereby declared to be public uses.

438. Prior to the commencement of condemnation proceedings, the Adjutant General shall declare in writing that the public interest and necessity require the purchase or acquiretion of the property by the State. Upon filing with the Department of Finance, such declaration shall be prima facie evidence (a) of the public necessity for the acquisition of such property; (b) that such property is necessary therefor; and
(c) that such property is planned or located in the manner which will be most compatible with the greatest good and the least private injury.

439. Any county may acquire, provide, and maintain buildings, halls, meeting places, and supply stations for the use of the United States War Department or the Navy Department, and for such purpose the board of supervisors of any county may:

(a) Purchase, receive by donation, condemn, lease, or acquire real or personal property, with or without improvements, and erect such buildings, halls, meeting places, and supply stations thereon.

(b) Purchase, construct, lease, furnish, or repair such buildings, and property and provide for the proper maintenance and management thereof.

(c) Enter into agreements on behalf of the county with the Secretary of the War Department and the Secretary of the Navy Department of the United States for the use and occupancy of such buildings.

(d) Establish a fund for the purposes hereof, levy a special tax for such purposes, and incur in the manner provided by law a bonded indebtedness on behalf of the county for any of the purposes of this section.

CHAPTER IX. MILITARY COURTS.

450. The military courts of this State are: (a) general courts-martial; (b) special courts-martial; (c) summary courts-martial; and (d) courts of inquiry.

451. The constitution and jurisdiction of general courts-martial, special courts-martial, summary courts-martial, and courts of inquiry, the form and manner in which the proceedings are conducted and recorded, the forms of oaths and affirmations taken in the administration of military law by such courts, the limits of punishment and the proceedings in the revision thereof, shall be governed by the terms of the Articles of War, the National Defense Act, the laws and regulations governing the Army of the United States, and the law and procedure of similar courts of the United States Army, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

452. General courts-martial may be convened by the President of the United States or the Governor.

453. Special courts-martial may be appointed by the commanding officer of a garrison, fort, post, camp, or other place, brigade, regiment, detached battalion, or other detached command. Such courts-martial may also be appointed by superior authority when by the latter deemed desirable.

454. Summary courts-martial may be appointed by the commanding officer of a garrison, fort, post, or other place, regiment, or corps, detached battalion, company, or other detachment.

455. Courts of inquiry shall consist of at least three officers and may be ordered by the Governor to examine into the nature of any transaction of or accusation or imputation against any officer or enlisted man. Such courts may be ordered upon the request of any officer concerned or of The Adjutant General.

The officers of the court, as far as possible, shall be of rank at least equal to that of the officer, or senior officer, if there be more than one, with regard to whom the inquiry is to be made.

The court shall, without delay, report to the officer ordering it, the evidence adduced, a statement of the facts, and, when required, an opinion thereon.

456. General courts-martial have power:

(a) To try:

(1) Commissioned officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men of the active National Guard.

(2) Commissioned officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men of the inactive National Guard whenever they are called out for service or are actually engaged in training with the active National Guard.

(b) To adjudge:

(1) Dismissal, in the case of a commissioned or warrant officer.

(2) Dishonorable discharge, in the case of an enlisted man.

(3) Reduction to the ranks, in the case of a noncommissioned officer.

(4) Forfeiture of pay and allowances.

(5) Fine not exceeding two hundred dollars.

(6) Confinement not exceeding two hundred days.

(7) Fine and confinement, the total of the number of dollars of fine and number of days of confinement not to exceed two hundred.

(8) Reprimand.
457. Special courts-martial have power:
(a) To try:
   (1) Warrant officers and enlisted men of the active National Guard.
   (2) Warrant officers and enlisted men of the inactive National Guard whenever they are called out for service or are actually engaged in training with the active National Guard.
(b) To adjudge:
   (1) Dismissal, in case of a warrant officer.
   (2) Dishonorable discharge, in the case of an enlisted man.
   (3) Reduction to the ranks, in the case of a noncommissioned officer.
   (4) Forfeiture of pay and allowances.
   (5) Fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.
   (6) Confinement not exceeding one hundred days.
   (7) Fine and confinement, the total of the number of dollars of fine and number of days of confinement not to exceed one hundred.
   (8) Reprimand.

458. Summary courts-martial have power:
(a) To try:
   (1) Enlisted men of the active National Guard.
   (2) Enlisted men of the inactive National Guard whenever they are called out for service or are actually engaged in training with the active National Guard.
(b) To adjudge:
   (1) Reduction to the ranks in the case of a noncommissioned officer.
   (2) Forfeiture of pay and allowances.
   (3) Fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars.
   (4) Confinement not exceeding twenty-five days.
   (5) Fine and confinement, the total of the number of dollars of fine and number of days of confinement not to exceed twenty-five.

459. The trial Judge Advocate of a general or special court-martial in the National Guard shall prosecute in the name of the State.

460. Each military court shall have the power of a superior court of this State to compel by subpoena, subpoena duces tecum, and attachment, the attendance of witnesses, both civilian and military, and the production of books, papers, and documents, and to punish for contempt a witness duly subpoenaed for non-attendance or for refusal to be sworn or testify or to produce books, papers, and documents. Military courts may also take by commission the testimony of witnesses who can not reasonably be produced at the trial in the same manner as a superior court.
461. Commissions and subpenas may be issued by the president or the Judge Advocate of the court, both before and after being sworn, for witnesses whose attendance or testimony before such court may be necessary in behalf of the prosecution, and upon application in behalf of any person to be tried by such court, either the president or the Judge Advocate may direct the commanding officer of any organization to cause such subpena to be served on any member of his command.

462. A witness not appearing in obedience to a subpena when served personally with a copy thereof, and not having sufficient excuse, or a witness refusing to obey any lawful order of the court, shall forfeit to the State the sum of twenty-five dollars. The president of each court, or summary court officer, shall, from time to time, report to the senior Judge Advocate on the State staff the names of all such delinquent witnesses, together with the names and places of residence of the persons serving such subpenas. A Judge Advocate may sue for and recover such penalties in the name of the people of the State.

463. Military courts may issue all process and mandates, including writs and warrants, necessary and proper to carry into full effect the powers vested in such courts. Such process or mandates may be directed to the sheriff of any county, and the constables and marshals of any town or city, or to any officer or enlisted man appointed by the court to serve or execute the same. All officers to whom process or mandates are directed shall execute such process or mandates and make return of their acts thereunder according to the requirements thereof.

464. The keepers or warden of any jail shall receive the bodies of persons committed by the process or mandate of a military court and confine them in the manner prescribed by law. Except as otherwise specially provided in this division, no fees or charges of any nature shall be demanded or required to be paid by the State, or any military court or member thereof, or by the person executing its mandate or process, or by any public officer for receiving, executing, or returning any such process or mandate, or for any service in connection therewith, or for receiving or confining the person in jail or custody thereunder.

465. When an officer or enlisted man is placed under arrest for the purposes of trial, a copy of the charges and specifications upon which he is to be tried shall be delivered to him or left at his last known place of abode or business, within the time prescribed by the laws and regulations governing procedure in the United States Army in similar circumstances. A court shall be ordered for his trial within the time similarly prescribed by the rules and regulations of the United States Army. If a copy of the charges and specifications is not served, or a court is not ordered within the time herein limited, the arrest shall cease, but such charges and specifications may be served, a court ordered, and the officer or enlisted man be brought to trial after such release from arrest within the time prescribed by the rules and regulations of the United States Army in similar circumstances. The appearance of the accused, without objection and pleading to the charges, shall be a waiver of any defect or irregularity of such service of any of the papers mentioned in this section.

466. No sentence of a court-martial shall be carried into execution until the proceedings have been reviewed and the sentence approved by the officer appointing the court or by the officer commanding for the time being.

467. For the purpose of collecting fines or penalties imposed by a court-martial, the president of any general or special court-martial and the summary court officer of any summary court shall make a list of all fines and penalties and of the persons against whom they have been imposed, and may thereafter issue a warrant under his hand directed to any sheriff or constable of the county, commanding him to levy and collect such fines and penalties, together with the costs, upon and out of the property of the person against whom the fine or penalty is imposed. Such warrant shall be executed and renewed in the same manner as executions from the justices' courts. All fines collected shall be paid by the officer collecting them to the commanding officer of the organization of which the person fined is or was a member and accounted for by the commanding officer in the same manner as other State funds.

468. Any person who is guilty of disorderly, contemptuous, or insolent behavior in a military court, or who uses insulting, contemptuous, or indecorous language or expression to or before a military court, or any member of such court in open court, tending to interrupt its proceedings or to impair the respect due to its authority, or who commits any breach of the peace or makes any noise or other disturbance directly tending to interrupt its proceedings, may be committed by warrant under the hand of the president of the court, or summary court officer, to the jail of the city or county in which such court sits, there to be confined for a period not to exceed three days.

469. A person who has been separated from the military service shall be subject to the jurisdiction of a lawfully appointed court-martial for trial and punishment for offenses committed during his military service.

If such person is found guilty, he shall be punished according to the Articles of War and the rules and regulations of the United States Army within the limits prescribed by this division and the Federal law for courts-martial of the National Guard.

470. When the military offense charged is also an offense by the civil law of this State, the officer whose duty it is to order trial may order the person charged to be turned over to the civil authorities for trial.
471. Whenever any person in the military service of the State is charged with the commission while on duty of an offense which is a felony under the laws of this State, he shall be delivered by his superior officer or officers to the proper civil authorities of the county or city in which the offense occurred for trial. Trial and punishment by civil authorities shall not preclude trial and additional punishment by court-martial for any military offense resulting from commission of the felony.

472. No officer by whom a military court is ordered or member of any such military court, or officer or person acting under its authority or reviewing the proceedings thereof or enforcing the process or sentence thereof shall be liable civilly or criminally for any act done in such capacity.

473. Courts for the Naval Militia are provided for by section 300.

PART II. CADET AND VOLUNTARY ORGANIZATIONS.

CHAPTER I. HIGH SCHOOL CADETS.

500. The male students of any high school in this State, having forty or more such students, fourteen years of age or over, may be organized into a high school cadet company or companies of not less than forty members each under such rules and regulations as the governing body of the high school prescribes.

501. Cadet companies shall at all times be under the guidance and control of the principal of the high school, whose duty it shall be to make regulations regarding the moral, educational, and physical welfare of the cadets.

502. Upon recommendation of The Adjutant General and with the approval of the school board having jurisdiction over the high school, the Governor may commission, in the same manner that National Guard officers are commissioned, a commandant of cadets for duty in each high school having one or more cadet companies. This officer shall be commissioned major and commandant of cadets, State of California, and shall hold office at the pleasure of the Governor, or until his successor has been appointed and qualified or his connection with the cadets is severed. The major and commandant of cadets shall be entitled to the same privileges and exemptions accorded National Guard Officers, except that pay and expenses on special detail shall be taken from the high school cadet appropriation instead of from National Guard funds. The major and commandant of cadets shall wear the same uniform and shoulder straps as a major of infantry in the National Guard, with cap and collar ornaments designating the California high school cadets.

503. Cadet companies shall each have one captain, one first lieutenant, and one second lieutenant appointed and commissioned by The Adjutant General upon the recommendation of the commandant of cadets with the approval of the principal, and such noncommissioned officers and privates as correspond to the noncommissioned officers and privates of the infantry companies of the National Guard, the noncommissioned officers to be appointed and warranted by the commandant of cadets with the approval of the principal.

504. In case any high school has more than one company it shall have one cadet major, one cadet adjutant, and one battalion quartermaster and commissary, the last two mentioned officers to have the rank of first lieutenant, who shall be appointed and commissioned by the Adjutant General upon the recommendation of the commandant of cadets with the approval of the principal, and one sergeant major and one color sergeant, who shall be appointed and warranted by the commandant of cadets with the approval of the principal.

505. The Adjutant General may organize companies of high school cadets into one or more regiments and may commission the necessary officers and warrant the necessary noncommissioned officers of the same grades and number provided for similar organizations of the National Guard.

506. All cadet officers shall be appointed from the senior and junior classes of high schools.

507. Any commissioned officer or noncommissioned officer may have his commission or warrant canceled and be reduced to the ranks, upon the recommendation of the principal of the high school, for deficiency in his studies or for misbehavior either in school or in the cadet company or for other good cause in the judgment of the principal.

508. High school cadets shall drill in accordance with the infantry drill regulations prescribed by the United States Army.

509. The Adjutant General shall provide suitable drill regulations, books of instruction, and the necessary blank forms for reports of each of the high school cadet companies.

510. High school cadets shall wear such uniforms as the Adjutant General prescribes. The Adjutant General may issue to the high school cadets necessary cap and collar ornaments and chevrons. A regulation uniform for cadets shall be kept in the Adjutant General's office to be used as sample from which the uniforms for the high school cadets shall be made.

511. A sufficient number of obsolete rifles for drill purposes may be purchased by the board of high school trustees, board of education, county superintendent of schools, the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, or the Adjutant General out of any funds available and not otherwise appropriated.

512. Target practice shall constitute a part of the instruction to be given to cadets. The Adjutant General shall purchase and supply to each of the high schools a sufficient number of Springfield or other efficient rifles for field target work and gallery practice and the ammunition and equipment therefor, as in his judgment is necessary for efficient rifle practice. All target practice shall be under the supervision of the commandants of cadets or competent members of the National Guard or Naval Militia detailed by The Adjutant General. The expenditures therefor may be paid out of the moneys appropriated for the maintenance of the high school cadets.

513. The Adjutant General may detail from the organizations of the National Guard or Naval Militia some competent member thereof who shall act as drill and rifle practice instructor for high school cadets. The Adjutant General may provide for compensating the persons detailed by him to instruct the cadets in drill and target practice.

514. Whenever practicable high school cadets shall, under the supervision of the commandant of cadets, be permitted to shoot at target practice upon National Guard rifle ranges, when not needed by the National Guard.

515. High school cadet companies shall be inspected once each year by officers of the National Guard or Naval Militia detailed by The Adjutant General for that purpose. Such inspectors shall report to The Adjutant General the result of inspections relating to the drill, target practice, attendance, discipline, and condition of property of high school cadet organizations. Such reports shall contain an inventory of the State property on hand in the cadet companies at the time of inspections. Such reports shall be made and forwarded, in duplicate, one copy to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction and one copy to The Adjutant General's office, and shall bear the indorsement of the principal of the high school, containing remarks the principal deems pertinent.

516. The principal of the high school shall be responsible for all public property supplied to cadet companies and shall supervise the proper care thereof.

517. Each board of high school trustees, board of education, county superintendent of schools, and the State Superintendent of Public Instruction shall facilitate the purposes of this code by cooperating with The Adjutant General.

CHAPTER II. MILITARY ACADEMIES.

530. In any military academy, having not less than eighty boys, uniformed, drilled, and instructed in strict accordance with the tactics of the regular United States Army, and in which the instruction is conducted in strict accordance with military principles, the military instructor of such academy regularly elected by the board of trustees or other lawful authority of the academy, may be commissioned in the National Guard with the rank of major or lower rank. Such officer shall exercise no authority or command except as military instructor of such academy. Such commission may be revoked by The Adjutant General, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe.
CHAPTER III. VOLUNTARY ORGANIZATIONS.

550. As used in this chapter, "Licensed Military Company" means any organization, company, or body of men associated or organized to drill and to bear arms and licensed so to do by the Governor.

551. Each licensed military company shall file with the Adjutant General, at such time as the Governor designates, a muster roll of such military company certified by the oath of the commanding officer thereof. The muster roll shall contain the names, ages, occupations, and places of residence of all members thereof, and the number and character of all arms in the possession of such organization.

552. Each licensed military company shall appear for inspection by the Adjutant General or by a military inspector designated by the Governor, at least once a year, at their respective armories, at such time as the Governor designates.

553. Each member of a licensed military company shall take and subscribe to an oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of this State and will obey and maintain all laws and all officers employed in administering the same.

554. Whenever the Governor deems it necessary for the public safety, he may call any licensed military company into active service of the State for the causes and purposes for which he may call the National Guard into active service. Such military company shall rendezvous and report for active service at such time and place and to such officer as the Governor designates, and shall enter the active service of the State and obey all lawful orders and commands issued by the Governor or any officer placed in command by his orders in the same manner as if such military company were a part of the National Guard.

555. The members of a licensed military company when called into active service by order of the Governor shall be subject to all military penalties and punishments for violation of the orders of the Governor, or of any officer placed in command of such organization by order of the Governor, as are the members of the National Guard. They shall be subject to the Articles of War and the rules and regulations governing the National Guard, and shall receive the same pay and allowances while in active service as the members of the National Guard.

556. The Governor, when not in conflict with the provisions of the laws of the United States, may, at any time, order, authorize, or recognize, such organizations of the unorganized militia, or of designated classes thereof, or of volunteers therefrom, as he may deem to be for the public interest, and may prescribe therefor parts of the regulations governing the National Guard or the Naval Militia applicable thereto, or establish special regulations therefor, or both. The Governor may likewise, at any time, provide for the separate organization, or authorize the service and enrollment in organizations
557. No body of men, other than the National Guard and Naval Militia, the troops and naval forces of the United States, and peace officers shall associate themselves together as a military company or organization, or drill or parade with arms, except such organizations authorized so to do by this code.

Any person who violates any of the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

558. Members of benevolent or social organizations may wear swords or carry guns which have been rendered incapable of use as firearms.

559. Students in educational institutions in which military science is a part of the course of instruction may, with the consent of the Governor, drill and parade with arms in public under the supervision of their instructor and shall be exempt from the provisions of this chapter.

DIVISION III. EMBLEMS AND DECORATIONS.

CHAPTER I. EMBLEMS.

610. The Bear flag is the State flag of California. Its length is one and one-half times its width; the upper five-sixths of the width thereof is a white field and the lower sixth a red stripe; there appears in the white field in the upper left-hand corner a single red star, and at the bottom of the white field the words "California Republic," and in the center of the white field a California grizzly bear upon a grass plat, in the position of walking towards the left of the white field, the bear is dark brown in color and its length one-third of the length of the flag.

611. "Flag," as used in this division, includes every flag, standard, color, or ensign authorized by the laws of the United States or of this State, and every picture or representation thereof, of any size, made of any substance, or represented on any substance evidently purporting to be any such flag, standard, color, or ensign of the United States or of this State, and every picture or representation which shows the design thereof.

612. The colors carried by organizations of the National Guard or Naval Militia shall be such as are borne by similar organizations of the United States Army or Navy, except that the regimental or battalion colors may have thereon the State coat of arms, instead of the coat of arms of the United States.

613. No military organization provided for by the Constitution and laws of this State and receiving State support shall, while under arms, either for ceremony or duty, carry any device, banner or flag of any State or Nation except that of the United States or of this State.

614. A person is guilty of a misdemeanor who:

(a) In any manner for exhibition or display, places or causes to appear any word, figure, mark, picture, design, drawing, or any advertisement of any nature upon any flag of the United States or of this State.

(b) Exposes to public view any such flag upon which is printed, painted, or placed or to which is attached, appended, affixed, or annexed any word, figure, mark, picture, design, drawing, or any advertisement of any nature.

(c) Exposes to public view, manufactures, sells, exposes for sale, gives away, or has in possession for sale or to give away or for use for any purpose any article or substance being an article of merchandise or a receptacle of merchandise or article or thing for carrying or transporting merchandise upon which is printed, painted, attached, or placed a representation of any such flag, standard, color, or ensign to advertise, call attention to, decorate, mark or distinguish the article or substance on which so placed.

(d) Publicly mutilates, defaces, defiles, or tramples any such flag.

615. No provision of this code or of any law of this State which makes unlawful the use of the flag of the United States or of this State or of any picture or representation thereof shall apply to any act permitted by the statutes of the United States or of this State or by any regulations of the United States Army or Navy, nor shall it be construed to apply to any newspaper, periodical, book, pamphlet, circular, certificate, diploma, warrant, or commission of appointment to office, ornamental picture, article of jewelry, or stationery for use in correspondence, or which is printed, painted, or placed a flag with no design or writing thereon and not connected with any advertisement.

616. Any person who displays a red flag, banner, or badge or any flag, badge, banner, or device of any color or form whatever in any public place or in any meeting place or public assembly, or from or on any house, building, or window as a sign, symbol, or emblem of forceful or violent opposition to organized government or as an invitation or stimulus to anarchistic action or as aid to propaganda that advocates by force or violence the overthrow of government is guilty of a felony.

CHAPTER II. MILITARY REWARDS AND DECORATIONS.

640. The following decorations are authorized for members of the National Guard and Naval Militia:

(a) Medal of Valor.

(b) Military Cross.

(c) Medal of Merit.

(d) Service Medal.

The Adjutant General may provide and procure appropriate emblematic devices for each such decoration, together with suitable ribbons and insignia to be worn therewith or in lieu thereof.

641. A Medal of Valor may be presented to each person who, while an officer or enlisted man of the National Guard or Naval Militia, distinguishes himself by courageous conduct at the risk of his life, above and beyond the call of duty while in the service of the State or of the United States.

No award of the Medal of Valor shall be made except upon clear and incontestable proof by affidavit of at least one eyewitness or person having personal knowledge of the act or deed.

642. A Military Cross may be presented to each person who, while an officer or enlisted man of the National Guard or Naval Militia, distinguishes himself by extraordinary heroism while in the service of the State or of the United States.

643. A Medal of Merit may be presented to each person who, while an officer or enlisted man of the National Guard or Naval Militia, distinguishes himself by exceptionally meritorious service to the State or the United States in a duty of great responsibility or who, by unselfish and untiring activities in connection with the National Guard or Naval Militia, has rendered a distinct service in furthering the interests of and in promoting the security and welfare of the State.

644. A Service Medal or bar shall be issued for ten years' service on the active list of the National Guard and of the Naval Militia, and for each period of five years' of service thereafter. Such medal or bar shall be issued to those entitled to the same upon application.

645. The Medal of Valor shall be presented by the Governor. The Military Cross, the Medal of Merit, the Service Medal, and other authorized medals and awards shall be presented by the Governor or The Adjutant General in the name of the Governor.

646. No more than one Medal of Valor, or one Military Cross, or one Medal of Merit shall be issued to any one person; but for each succeeding deed or act sufficient to justify the award of a Medal of Valor, or a Military Cross, or a Medal of Merit, a suitable bar or other device denoting such additional award may be issued and worn as directed by appropriate regulations.

647. The Adjutant General may procure and issue annually appropriate badges or insignia for excellence in marksmanship and for drill attendance.

648. Decorations authorized by this chapter and decorations, medals, badges, ribbons, and insignia authorized by the laws or regulations of the United States pertaining to the National Guard and Naval Militia may be worn by officers and enlisted men in accordance with such laws or regulations. No other decorations, medals, badges, ribbons, or insignia may be worn.

649. The Adjutant General may make from time to time rules, regulations, and orders not inconsistent herewith which he deems necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter.
DIVISION V. VETERANS' AID AND WELFARE.

CHAPTER I. VETERANS' WELFARE BOARD.

690. As used in this division, "board" means the Veterans' Welfare Board.

691. There is in the Department of Military and Veterans' Affairs a Veterans' Welfare Board. The board consists of five members appointed by the Governor to hold office for a term of four years. Four members shall be veterans as defined by section 720. The terms of the members of the board in office on the date this division takes effect shall expire on the dates and in the rotation heretofore established. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term. The Governor shall designate one of the veteran members chairman of the board. The secretary need not be a member of the board.

692. Each member of the board other than the chairman and the secretary, if he is a member of the board, shall receive for each day's attendance at each meeting of the board a per diem fixed by the Department of Finance with the approval of the Governor, and shall also receive the same per diem for each day spent under the direction of the board in the performance of its official duties. The chairman shall receive a salary fixed by the Department of Finance with the approval of the Governor. The members shall also receive their actual necessary traveling expenses in the discharge of their duties. Each member of the board is a civil executive officer.

693. Three members of the board constitute a quorum and such quorum may exercise all the power and authority conferred on the board.

694. The board constitutes a public corporation and may, on behalf of the State, hold property, request and receive donations, contract, sue and be sued, and has all other rights and powers provided by the Constitution and laws of this State as belonging to public corporations.

695. The board may cooperate and contract with the duly authorized representatives of the United States government in carrying out the provisions of this division.

696. The board may select and employ necessary expert, technical, legal, clerical, and other employees. Whenever possible preference shall be given to veterans for employment hereunder. The board shall fix the salaries of all employees with the approval of the Department of Finance.

697. The board shall, so far as possible, utilize the services of veterans in administrative and other work for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this division. Nothing contained in the State Civil Service Act or in any other act shall limit the power of the board to utilize the services of veterans in carrying out the provisions of this division or in the selection of expert or technical assistance.

698. In furtherance of the provisions of Chapter II of this division, the board may investigate soldiers' land settlement conditions in this State and elsewhere and submit recom-
recommendations for legislation deemed necessary or desirable. The board shall render an annual report to the Governor and a copy thereof to the Secretary of the Interior. The report shall be filed and printed as required by law with respect to other official reports to the Governor, with the exception that the report shall be filed annually instead of biennially.

699. All State and county officials shall furnish all required information to the board, upon request, and shall further assist the board in any manner in accordance with law and without charge therefor.

700. The board may make rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this division.

CHAPTER II. LAND SETTLEMENT.

Article 1. Scope and Object.

720. As used in this chapter, "veteran" means any citizen of the United States who has served on active duty in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States in time of war and has received an honorable discharge therefrom or who has been released from active duty under honorable conditions and who was, at the time of his enlistment, induction, commission, or drafting, a bona fide resident of this State, but does not include:

(a) A person who was separated from such forces under other than honorable conditions at any time after April 5, 1917.

(b) A person who was separated from the military or naval forces on account of alienage at any time after April 5, 1917.

(c) A person who performed no military duty whatever or refused to wear the uniform.

(d) A person who has received from another State a bonus, compensation, or benefit, the prerequisite of which is service in the army, navy, or marine corps of the United States, which service is the basis for the claim for benefits under this chapter.

(e) A person who did not enter the military or naval forces of the United States prior to November 12, 1918.

721. The object of this chapter is to provide veterans useful employment and the opportunity to acquire farm homes for profitable livelihood on the land and to provide for cooperation of the State with the agencies of the United States engaged in work of a similar character.

722. No veteran who has taken advantage of the benefits provided by Chapter III of this division may take advantage of the provisions of this chapter.

Article 2. State Acquisition of Land.

730. For the purposes of this chapter, the board may acquire on behalf of the State by purchase, gift, or condemnation all lands, water rights, and other property needed.
for the purposes hereof, and may take title in trust and shall without delay improve, subdivide, and sell such land, water rights, and other property with appurtenances and rights to approved bona fide settlers who are veterans. The board may set aside for town site purposes a suitable area acquired under the provisions of this chapter and subdivide such area and sell or lease the same to veterans or others for cash, or on such terms and in lots of such size, and with such restrictions as to sale as the board deems proper. The board may set aside and dedicate to public use areas for roads, schoolhouses, churches, and other public purposes.

731. Whenever the board decides that private land should be purchased for settlement under this chapter, it shall give notice by publication in one or more newspapers of general circulation in this State setting forth approximately the location, area, and character of the land desired and the conditions that shall govern the proposed purchase and inviting owners of land to submit such land for inspection.

732. Within thirty days after publication of notice, the board shall direct an officer or employee or one or more persons who may, at its request, be designated by the dean of the College of Agriculture of the University of California, to inspect and report on all tracts of land submitted as suitable for closer settlement.

733. Each such report shall as far as practicable specify:
(a) Location, acreage, and brief description of the tracts.
(b) Names and addresses of the owners thereof.
(c) Character of the land and the water rights.
(d) Nature of improvements.
(e) Crops being grown on land.
(f) Appraisalment of land, water rights, and improvements.

734. On receiving the reports of all the tracts examined, the board shall decide which tracts are best suited for the purposes of this chapter. Before so deciding the board may examine the land or it may employ one or more competent appraisers to fix the productive value of the land and report thereon in writing. The owner of the land or his agent may give evidence as to its value.

735. If the board is satisfied that one or more of the tracts submitted is suited to intensive closer settlement and may be acquired at a reasonable price, it shall submit to the Governor its report giving the reasons for recommending the purchase. On the approval of the Governor, the board may purchase the same. Such purchase may be made only if the Attorney General approves the title of such lands and any water rights appurtenant thereto and the division of water resources certifies in writing as to the sufficiency of any water rights to be conveyed.

Art. 3. Improvement and Sale of Land.

740. All sales to settlers of land under this chapter shall be made upon such terms and conditions which give to the board full control of any subdivision thereof until all moneys advanced by the State for the purchase, improvement, or equipment of such subdivisions together with interest thereon are fully repaid.

741. Lands disposed of under this chapter, other than land set aside for town sites or public purposes, shall be sold either as farm allotments, each of which shall have a value without improvements, not to exceed fifteen thousand dollars, or as farm laborer’s allotments, each of which shall have a value without improvements, not to exceed one thousand dollars.

742. Immediately upon taking possession of any land acquired, and after deducting any areas to be set aside for town sites or public purposes in accordance with this chapter, the board shall subdivide it into areas suitable for farm and farm laborer’s allotments, and lay out, and, when necessary, construct roads, ditches, and drains for giving access to and insuring proper cultivation for the several farm and farm laborer’s allotments. The board, prior to disposing of land to settlers, or at any time within five years from the commencement of the term of the settler’s contract of purchase, may:

(a) Prepare such land for irrigation and cultivation.

(b) Seed, plant, or fence the land, erect a dwelling and outbuildings on any farm allotment, and make any improvements necessary to render the allotment habitable and productive in advance of or after settlement, the total cost to the board of such dwelling, outbuildings, and improvements not to exceed five thousand dollars on any one farm allotment.

(c) Erect a cottage on any farm laborer’s allotment and provide a domestic water supply, the combined cost to the board of the cottage and water supply not to exceed one thousand five hundred dollars on any one farm laborer’s allotment.

(d) Make loans not to exceed three thousand dollars to any one settler for the purchase of necessary livestock and equipment, such loans to be made without security or secured in any manner that the board directs.

743. After the purchase of land and before its disposal, the board may lease such land or a part thereof on bonded or secured leases on such terms as it deems fit.

744. The board may, operate and maintain any irrigation works constructed to serve any lands acquired and sold under the provisions of this chapter. All moneys received in tolls or charges for the operation and maintenance of any works or for any water supplied therefrom shall be deposited in the veterans’ welfare fund for land settlement and shall become available for the payment of any charges or expenses authorized by this chapter to be paid from such fund.

745. Before any part of an area is thrown open for settlement there may be notice thereof given once a week for four weeks in one or more daily newspapers of general circulation in the State, setting forth the number and size of farm allotments or farm laborer’s allotments, or both, the prices at which they are offered for sale, the terms of payment, and such other particulars as the board deems proper.

746. The notice shall specify a definite period within which applications may be filed with the board in forms provided by the board. The board may reject any and all applications and may readvertise until it receives and accepts the number of applications which it deems necessary.

747. If no application satisfactory to the board is received for any farm allotment or farm laborer's allotment, the board, at any time prior to re advertising, may sell to an approved applicant any such farm allotment or farm laborer's allotment at the price at which it was theretofore offered for sale. In dealing with any farm allotments or farm laborer's allotments for which no application satisfactory to the board was made, the board may subdivide or consolidate any one or more of such allotments and fix the prices thereof within the limits of fifteen thousand dollars for a farm allotment and one thousand dollars for a farm laborer's allotment.

748. The board may sell at public auction, under the conditions of sale and notice thereof the board prescribes, any areas which the board determines are not suitable for farm allotments or farm laborer's allotments. If any such area has been included in a farm allotment or farm laborer's allotment, then such sale at public auction may be made only after a failure to receive any application satisfactory to the board.

749. The selling prices of the several allotments, other than those set aside for town site and public purposes, shall be fixed by the board so as to render such allotments as nearly as possible equally attractive, and calculated to return to the State the original cost of the land, together with a sufficient sum added thereto to cover all expenses and costs of surveying, improving subdividing, and selling such lands, including the payment of interest, and all costs of engineering, superintendence, administration, the cost of operating any works built, directly chargeable to such land, the price of the land used for roads and other public purposes, and the sum deemed necessary to meet unforeseen contingencies.

750. Any veteran who, by purchase under this chapter, would not become the holder of real estate or possessory rights thereto exceeding the value of fifteen thousand dollars, and who is prepared to enter within six months upon actual occupation of the land acquired, may apply for and become the purchaser of either a farm allotment or a farm laborer's allotment. No more than one farm allotment or one farm laborer's allotment shall be sold to any one person. No appliance shall be approved who does not satisfy the board as to his or her fitness successfully to cultivate and develop the allotment applied for. Preference may be given to veterans trained in agriculture under the provisions of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act of Congress approved June 27, 1918, or to veterans who were wounded or disabled as a result of their military or naval service, and who are otherwise qualified by experience.
751. Every approved applicant shall enter into a contract of purchase with the board, the terms of which shall be determined by the board. Such applicant shall, if required by the board, apply for a loan from a bank organized under the provisions of the Federal Farm Loan Act, for an amount fixed by the board, and shall pay the board the amount of any loan so made as a partial payment on such land and improvements. The board may make conveyances and receive and accept mortgages or deeds of trust necessary to effectuate such loan and adequately secure the interest of the board and of the State in the premises.

The amount due on the land may be amortized over a period fixed by the board, not exceeding forty years, together with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum compounded at periods fixed by the board. The amount due on improvements may be amortized over a period fixed by the board, not exceeding twenty years, together with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum compounded at periods fixed by the board. The repayments of loans may extend over a period fixed by the board, not exceeding five years. In each case, the purchaser on any installment date may pay any or all installments still remaining unpaid. In any individual case the board may postpone from time to time, upon such terms as the board deems proper, the payment of the whole or any part of any installment of principal or interest, on account of land, or improvements, or loans.

752. Every contract entered into between the board and a purchaser shall provide that the purchaser will cultivate the land in a manner approved by the board and will keep in good order and repair all buildings, fences, and other permanent improvements situated on his allotment, reasonable wear and tear, and damage by fire excepted. The purchaser shall, if required, insure and keep insured against fire or other hazards, all buildings, fences, other permanent improvements, or crops on his allotment, loss if any, under the policies therefor to be made payable to the board as its interest may appear and in the amount and with the insurance companies specified by the board. The board may in its own name insure against fire and other hazards all buildings, fences, improvements, and crops on any of the lands under its control. The board, in any contract under which the board purchases lands hereunder, may provide for: the return by the board to the owner so selling of any insurance premium or taxes which have been paid on the property by the owner or for which the owner has become obligated to pay.

753. If the purchaser fails or neglects to pay, satisfy, and discharge at maturity all taxes and assessments, and all other charges and encumbrances which are a lien upon the property being purchased from the board, or any part thereof, and also all taxes and assessments levied or assessed upon the interest created by the contract of purchase of such property; or to keep the buildings, fences, other permanent improvements, and crops upon such property insured and in good order and repair; or to keep the crops on such property insured; the, in any such event, the board may pay, satisfy, discharge, settle, or compromise the taxes, assessments, charges, or encumbrances, or insure the buildings, fences, permanent improvements, crops, or do the work and supply the materials necessary to keep the buildings, fences, and other improvements in good order and repair.

754. All moneys so expended by the board shall be added to the selling price of the property and bear interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum compounded semiannually from the date of expending the same, and shall be repaid by the purchaser to the board on demand. The board may amortize the repayment of such expenditures or permit repayment in installments upon the terms and conditions which it deems proper.

755. The board shall be the sole judge of the legality or validity of such taxes, assessments, charges, or encumbrances and the amount necessary to be paid in satisfaction or discharge thereof, of the amount of insurance to be placed upon the buildings, fences, other permanent improvements, and crops situate upon such property and the amount necessary to be paid for the premiums for such insurance, and of the necessity and nature of the work necessary to keep the buildings, fences, and other improvements in good order and repair and of the amount necessary to be paid therefor.

756. No allotment sold hereunder shall, voluntarily or involuntarily, by operation of law or otherwise, be transferred, assigned, encumbered, leased, let or sublet, in whole or in part, without the written consent of the board, until the purchaser has paid therefor in full and has complied with all the terms and conditions of his contract of purchase. When a purchaser dies, indebted to the board under contract of purchase, his rights acquired under this chapter and such contract shall devolve upon his heirs, devisees, or personal representatives, but subject to all rights, claims, and charges of the board. Default on the part of an heir, devisee, or personal representative, with respect to any right, claim, or charge of the board shall have the same effect as would default on the part of the purchaser but for his death.

757. In the event of a failure of a purchaser to comply with any of the terms of his contract of purchase and agreement with the board, the State and the board may cancel such contract and agreement, and thereupon be released from all obligations, at law or in equity, to convey the property, and the purchaser shall forfeit all right thereto. All payments theretofore made shall be deemed to be rental paid for occupancy. Upon forfeiture, the board shall take possession of the property covered by such contract and shall remove all persons and the personal property therefrom without any liability whatsoever on the part of the board or of any official or employee thereof for any damage or injury caused by or incident to the entry or removal.

758. The board may require of the purchaser a mortgage or deed of trust or other instrument if necessary under the terms and conditions of the contract of purchase in order to adequately protect and secure the board. There may be included in such contract, mortgage, deed of trust, or other instrument any conditions with reference to sale of the property or reconveyance back to the board or notice of such sale or reconveyance which the board deems necessary adequately to protect the board in the premises.

759. The failure of the board or of the State to exercise any option to cancel or to exercise any other privilege under the contract of purchase for any default shall not constitute a waiver of the right to exercise such option or privilege for any other default on the part of the purchaser. No forfeiture occasioned by default on the part of the purchaser shall in any way, or to any extent, impair the lien and security of the mortgage or trust instrument securing any loan that the board has made.

760. In the event of a forfeiture of a contract of purchase under the provisions of this chapter, the board may sell, dispose of, lease, or let the property covered by the forfeited contract of purchase to such persons and upon such terms and conditions as it deems proper.

761. The board may, in the contract of purchase with a veteran, provide that, in the event of default by the veteran and forfeiture of his rights under the contract and subsequent sale of the property by the board, it may pay to him any net gain realized by the board upon the subsequent sale. The board shall be the sole judge of the net gain.

762. If illness or accident prevents a purchaser from cultivating his land or harvesting any crop thereon, the board may enter upon and cultivate the land or harvest the crop. In such event the board has a first lien upon the crop for all moneys expended under this section and may sell the harvested crop. Out of the proceeds of the sale the board may reimburse itself for any expense which it has incurred in the cultivation of the land, the harvesting of crops and the sale thereof, and retain any moneys due to the board from the purchaser. Any balance shall be paid by the board to the purchaser.

763. Except as in this chapter otherwise provided, no land acquired under the provisions of this chapter shall in any event become liable for any debt contracted prior to the issuance of a deed therefor by the board.

764. Actual residence on any allotment sold under the provisions of this chapter shall commence within six months from the date of the approval of the application and shall continue for at least eight months in each calendar year for at least five years from the date of the approval of the application, unless prevented by illness or some other cause satisfactory to the board. In case any allotment disposed of under this chapter is returned to and resold by the State, the time of residence of the preceding purchaser may in the discretion of the board be credited to the subsequent purchaser.

765. The power of eminent domain shall be exercised by the State at the request of the board for the condemnation of water rights and rights of way for roads, canals, ditches, dams and reservoirs, necessary or desirable for carrying out the provisions of this chapter. On request of the board the Attorney General shall bring the necessary and appropriate proceedings authorized by law for such condemnation of water rights or rights of way. The cost of all water rights or rights of way so condemned shall be paid out of the veterans' welfare fund for land settlement.

The board shall have full authority to appropriate water under the laws of the State when such appropriation is necessary or desirable for carrying out the purposes of this chapter.

Article 4. Funds.

770. There is in the State treasury a revolving fund known as the veterans' welfare fund for land settlement. All moneys in such fund at the time this chapter becomes effective shall remain in such fund and be subject to the provisions of this chapter.

The Controller is authorized and directed to draw warrants upon such fund from time to time upon requisition of the board approved by the State Board of Control, and the Treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to pay such warrants.

771. The money paid by purchasers on lands, improvements, or in the repayment of advances, shall be deposited in the veterans' welfare fund for land settlement and be available for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter.

772. The Department of Finance may provide for advances of money to the board, needed to meet contingent expenses, to an amount not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars, as the Department of Finance deems necessary. Such advances shall be administered as a revolving fund or funds.

Chapter III. Farm and Home Purchase.

Article 1. Scope and Object.

800. As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Veteran" means any citizen of the United States who has served on active duty in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States in time of war for not less than sixty days and has received an honorable discharge therefrom or who has been released from active duty under honorable conditions and who was, at the time of his enlistment, induction, commission, or drafting, a bona fide resident of this
State or who, if a minor at such time, had lived in this State for six months immediately preceding his enlistment, induction, commission or drafting; but does not include:

(1) A person who was separated from such forces under other than honorable conditions at any time after April 5, 1917.

(2) A person who was separated from the military or naval forces on account of alienage at any time after April 5, 1917.

(3) A person who performed no military duty whatever or refused to wear the uniform.

(4) A person who has received from another State a bonus, compensation, or benefit, the prerequisite of which is service in the army, navy, or marine corps of the United States, which service is the basis for the claim for benefits under this chapter.

(5) A person who did not enter the military or naval forces of the United States prior to November 12, 1918.

(b) "Farm" means a tract of land which, in the opinion of the board, is capable of producing sufficient to provide a living for the purchaser and his dependents.

(c) "Home" means a parcel of real estate upon which there is a dwelling-house and such other buildings as will, in the opinion of the board, suit the needs of the purchaser and his dependents as a place of abode.

(d) "Purchaser" means a veteran or any person who has entered into a contract of purchase of a farm or home from the board.

(e) "Purchase price" means the price which the board pays for any farm or home.

(f) "Selling price" means the price for which the board sells any farm or home.

(g) "Initial payment" means the first payment to be made by a purchaser to the board for a farm or home.

801. The object of this chapter is to provide veterans with the opportunity to acquire farms and homes.

802. The administration of the provisions of this chapter is vested in the Veterans' Welfare Board.

803. No veteran who has taken advantage of the benefits provided by the provisions of Chapter II or Chapter IV of this division may take advantage of the opportunities offered under this chapter.

804. No veteran shall receive the benefits hereof who, in the case of the purchase of a farm would thereby become the holder of real estate exceeding in value twelve thousand five hundred dollars or who in case of the purchase of a home would thereby become the holder of real estate exceeding in value seven thousand five hundred dollars.

(Amended by Ch. 822, Stats. 1935.)

[ORIGINAL SECTION.]

804 No veteran shall receive the benefits hereof who, in the case of the purchase of a farm or a home would thereby become the holder of real estate exceeding in value seven thousand five hundred dollars.
Article 2. Acquisition and Sale of Farms and Homes.

810. The board shall prescribe and determine the qualifications of all veterans. Any person deeming himself a veteran and desiring to benefit hereunder, shall submit to the board information, in such form as the board prescribes, which will enable the board to determine his eligibility and qualifications. The board may make further inquiries and investigations in order to determine such eligibility and qualifications. Veterans who are otherwise qualified and who were wounded or disabled as a result of their service shall be given preference in the benefits conferred by this chapter. The board shall determine, in each case, whether or not the veteran was wounded or disabled as a result of service.

811. If a veteran dies after filing his application for a farm or a home, and his application setting forth his eligibility and qualifications is subsequently approved, his widow may, in the discretion of the board, succeed to his rights under the application, and may be entitled to the rights, privileges, and benefits under this chapter that would have been his, but for his death. The contract of purchase which the board otherwise would have made with such veteran may be made with his widow.

812. When a veteran has been authorized by the board to select a farm or home, he shall submit his selection in such form as the board prescribes.

813. The board may purchase such farm or home from the owner thereof upon the terms agreed if:

(a) The board is satisfied of the desirability of the property submitted.

(b) The veteran has agreed with the board actually to reside on the property within sixty days from the date of purchase by the board.

(c) The purchase price of the property does not exceed the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars in the case of a farm, or five thousand dollars in the case of a home.

814. The board may acquire in any manner for sale to a veteran a home in this State, the value of which does not exceed the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars, or a farm in this State the value of which does not exceed the sum of twelve thousand five hundred dollars

(Amended by Ch. 822, Sta's. 1935.)

[ORIGINAL SECTION:]

814. The board may acquire in any manner for sale to a veteran a farm or a home in this State, the value of which does not exceed the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars.

815. The cost of a home to the board shall not exceed the sum of five thousand dollars, and a veteran purchasing the home may advance not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars on the purchase price of the home so that the total purchase price thereof does not exceed seven thousand five hundred dollars. The cost of a farm to the board shall not exceed seven thousand five hundred dollars, and a veteran purchasing the farm may advance not to exceed five thousand dollars on the purchase price of the farm so that the total price thereof does not exceed twelve thousand five hundred dollars.

(Amended by Ch. 822, Stats. 1935.)

[ORIGINAL SECTION.]

815. The cost of a home to the board shall not exceed the sum of five thousand dollars, and a veteran purchasing the home may advance not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars on the purchase price of the home so that the total purchase price thereof does not exceed seven thousand five hundred dollars.

816. The board may acquire a farm or home in which the veteran to whom such farm or home is to be sold has theretofore acquired an interest.

817. Before the purchase of any property by the board there shall be filed with the board an appraisal of the market value of the property by a member or an authorized agent of the board, and by an officer or an authorized appraiser of a banking corporation formed under the laws of this State, or by the manager of a branch bank of such banking corporation, or by an officer or cashier of a National banking association, having a place of business in the county in which the property or some portion thereof is situated. If there is no such banking corporation or National banking association having a place of business in the county in which the property or some portion thereof is situated, then such appraisal shall be filed by an officer or an authorized appraiser, or the manager of a branch bank of such a banking corporation, or by an officer or cashier of a National banking association, having a place of business in a county adjacent thereto. Each appraisal shall be verified by the maker thereof. The verification shall state that it is made in good faith, and that the valuation is honestly determined and represents the bona fide opinion of the maker.

818. The board, before consummating a purchase under the provisions of this chapter, shall cause the title of the property sought to be purchased to be examined and may require for that purpose an abstract, an unlimited certificate of title, or a policy of title insurance, and may refer the same to the Attorney General for his opinion.

819. The board shall then enter into a contract with the veteran for the sale of the property to the veteran. The board shall fix the selling price of the property by adding to the purchase price thereof, or to the value of such property as determined by the board when such property is acquired by the board in a manner other than by purchase, all expenses incurred and estimated to be incurred by the board in relation thereto, inclusive of interest, administration, appraisals, examination of title, incidental expenses, and the sum deemed necessary to meet unforeseen contingencies.
820. The purchaser shall make an initial payment of at least ten per cent of the selling price of the property, in case of a farm and five per cent in the case of a home. The balance of the selling price may be amortized over a period fixed by the board, not exceeding forty years, together with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent per annum compounded at periods fixed by the board. The purchaser on any installment date may pay ray or all installments still remaining unpaid. In any individual case the board may for good cause postpone from time to time, upon terms as the board deems proper, the payment of the whole or any part of any installment of the selling price or interest thereon.

821. The board in each individual case may specify the terms of the contract entered into with the purchaser, but no property sold under the provisions of this chapter shall, voluntarily or involuntarily, by operation of law or otherwise, be transferred, assigned, encumbered, leased, let or sublet, in whole or in part, without the written consent of the board, until the purchaser has paid therefor in full and has complied with all the terms and conditions of his contract of purchase.

822. The contract made between the board and purchaser shall provide that the purchaser maintain the farm or home as his place of residence and keep in good order and repair all buildings, fences, and other permanent improvements situated thereon and that the purchaser, if required, insure and keep insured against fire or other hazards, all buildings, fences, other permanent improvements, crops or the property, loss, if any, under the policies therefor to be made payable to the board as its interest appears. Insurance shall be in the amount, with the insurance companies, and under the conditions specified by the board.

823. If the purchaser fails or neglects to pay, satisfy, and discharge at maturity all taxes and assessments, and all other charges and encumbrances which are a lien upon the property being purchased from the board, or any part thereof, and also all taxes and assessments levied or assessed upon the interest created by the contract of purchase of such property; or to keep the buildings, fences, other permanent improvements upon such property insured and in good order and repair, or to keep the crops upon such property insured; or to keep in good order and repair all buildings, fences, and other permanent improvements situated upon such property; then, in such event, the board may pay, satisfy, discharge, settle, or compromise the taxes, assessments, charges, or encumbrances, or insure the buildings, fences, permanent improvements, or crops, or do the work and supply the materials necessary to keep the buildings, fences, and other improvements in good order and repair. All moneys so expended by the board shall be added to the selling price of the property and bear interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum compounded semi-annually from the date of expending the same, and shall be repaid by the purchaser to the board on demand. The board may amortize the repayment of such expenditures or permit repayment in installments upon the terms and conditions which it deems proper.

824. The board shall be the sole judge of:
(a) The legality or validity of taxes, assessments, charges, or encumbrances, and the amount necessary to be paid in satisfaction or discharge thereof.
(b) The amount of insurance to be placed upon the buildings, fences, other permanent improvements, and crops and the amount necessary to be paid for the premiums for such insurance.
(c) The necessity and nature of the work necessary to keep the buildings, fences, and other improvements in good order and repair, and the amount necessary to be paid therefor.

825. In the event of a failure of a purchaser to comply with any of the terms of his contract of purchase, the board may cancel such contract, and thereupon be released from all obligations, at law or in equity, to convey the property, and the purchaser shall forfeit all right thereto. All payments theretofore made shall be deemed to be rental paid for occupancy. Upon such forfeiture, the board shall take possession of the property covered by such contract, and shall remove all persons and personal property therefrom without any liability whatsoever on the part of the board or of any official or employee thereof for any damage or injury caused by or incident to the entry or removal. The failure of the board to exercise any option to cancel or to exercise any other privilege under such contract for any default shall not constitute a waiver of the right to exercise such option or privilege for any other default on the part of the purchaser.

826. In the event of a forfeiture of a contract of purchase under the provisions of this chapter, the board may sell or otherwise dispose of the property covered by the forfeited contract to such person and upon such terms and conditions as it deems proper.

827. The board may, in the contract of purchase with a veteran, provide that, in the event of default by the veteran and forfeiture of his rights under the contract and subsequent sale of the property by the board, it may pay to him any net gain realized by the board upon the sale. The board is the sole judge of the net gain.

828. The board may insure and keep insured against fire or other hazards all buildings, fences, other permanent improvements, or crops situated upon any property which has reverted to and is under the control of the board, or may do the work and supply the materials necessary to keep the buildings, fences, and other improvements situated upon the property in good order and repair. The board may lease or let the property, in whole or in part, upon such terms as it deems proper. In the case of a farm, the board may cultivate the farm or harvest the crop.
829. If illness or accident prevents a purchaser of a farm from cultivating his farm or harvesting any crop, the board may enter and cultivate the farm or harvest the crop. In such event the board has a first lien upon the crop for all moneys expended and may sell the harvested crop. Out of the proceeds of the sale the board may reimburse itself for any expense which it has incurred in the cultivation of the farm, the harvesting of crops and the sale thereof, and retain any moneys due to the board from the purchaser. Any balance shall be paid by the board to the purchaser.

830. When a purchaser dies, indebted to the board under contract of purchase, his rights acquired under this chapter and such contract shall devolve upon his heirs, devisees, or personal representatives, but subject to all rights, claims, and charges of the board. Default on the part of an heir, devisee, or personal representative, with respect to any right, claim, or charge of the board shall have the same effect as would default on the part of the purchaser but for his death.

Article 3. Funds.

840. There is in the State treasury a revolving fund known as the veterans' farm and home building fund. All moneys in such fund at the time this chapter becomes effective shall remain in such fund and be subject to the provisions of this chapter. Moneys may be withdrawn from such fund in accordance with law upon requisition of the board.

841. The money paid by purchasers shall be deposited in the veterans' farm and home building fund and be available for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter.

CHAPTER IV. EDUCATIONAL ASSISTANCE.

Article 1. Veterans.

870. As used in this article, "Veteran" means any citizen of the United States who has served on active duty in the army, navy, or marine corps of the United States in time of war and has received an honorable discharge therefrom or who has been released from active duty under honorable conditions and who was, at the time of his enlistment, induction, commission, or drafting, a bona fide resident of this State, but does not include:

(a) A person who was separated from such forces under other than honorable conditions at any time after April 5, 1917.

(b) A person who was separated from the military or naval forces on account of alienage at any time after April 5, 1917.

(c) A person who performed no military duty whatever or refused to wear the uniform.

(d) A person who has received from another State a bonus, compensation, or benefit, the prerequisite of which is service in the army, navy, or marine corps of the United States, which service is the basis for the claim of benefits under this article.

c) A person who did not enter the military or naval forces of the United States prior to November 12, 1918.

871. There is in the State government an educational institution known as the California Veterans’ Educational Institute, which is under the management and control of the Veterans’ Welfare Board. The purpose of the institute is to provide opportunities for veterans to continue their education.

872. Any veteran who desires to continue his education may apply for admission to the institute and if, in the opinion of the board, the educational needs and desires of the veteran can be satisfactorily met in educational institutions in this State, the board shall assume State wardship over the education of such veteran. The board may provide educational counsel for students and assist them in securing admission to suitable institutions of learning. Private tuition schools may be chosen only when suitable opportunity is not available in public or semipublic institutions.

873. The board, in so far as the funds permit, may provide:

(a) For the payment of transportation charges once each year from the home of the student to and from the institution of learning.

(b) For the payment of tuition and other fees.

(c) For the purchase of necessary books and supplies.

(d) For the monthly payment of an allowance for the living expenses of the student in an amount not exceeding forty dollars per month for the time the student is in actual attendance at a day school, absence during the month on account of illness to be included as a part of such attendance.

874. The amount expended on account of any one veteran under the provisions of this article shall not exceed one thousand dollars.

875. The board shall consider the application of veterans for admission to the institute in the order in which they are received. If the funds available are insufficient to meet the obligations which would arise from the guardianship of all worthy applicants, the board shall assume wardship over such veterans as are most urgently in need of further education.

876. The board may cooperate and confer with authorized agencies of the United States in carrying out the provisions of this article.

877. No veteran who has taken advantage of the benefits provided by Chapters II or III of this division may take advantage of the provisions of this article.

878. Nothing in this article shall be construed as repealing the provisions of Chapter 579, Statutes of 1921, appropriating money for educational assistance to veterans. Any unexpended balance of such appropriation may be expended under the provisions of this article.
Article 2. Veterans' Dependents.

890. As used in this article:

(a) "Veteran" means any person who served in the army, navy, or marine corps of the United States and was killed in action or died as a result of war service in the World War from April 6, 1917, to July 2, 1921.

(b) "Dependent of a veteran" means the child of a veteran.

891. A dependent of a veteran applying for aid under the provisions of this article shall be over sixteen and not more than twenty-one years of age and shall have lived in this State for five years immediately preceding the date upon which the application is filed.

892. A dependent of a veteran who desires to continue his education may apply to the board. If in the opinion of the board the educational needs of the applicant can be satisfactorily met in educational institutions in this State, the board shall assume State wardship over the education of the applicant. The board may provide educational counsel for applicants and assist them in securing admission to suitable institutions of learning. Private tuition schools may be chosen only when suitable opportunity is not available in public or semipublic institutions.

893. The board, in so far as the fund permits, may provide:

(a) For the payment of tuition and other fees.

(b) For the purchase of necessary books and supplies.

(c) For the monthly payment of an allowance for living expenses of the student.

894. For students of collegiate, business, and trade school rank the amount expended by the board shall not exceed twenty-five dollars per month. For students of secondary schools the amount shall not exceed fifteen dollars per month, during the time the student is in actual attendance at a day school. Absence during the month on account of illness shall be included as part of such attendance.

895. The amount expended on account of any one applicant of collegiate, business, and trade school rank under the provisions of this article shall not exceed two hundred fifty dollars for any one year, and for students of secondary school rank the sum shall not exceed one hundred thirty-five dollars for any one year.

896. The board shall consider applications in the order in which they are received. If the funds available are insufficient to meet the obligations which would arise from the guardianship of all worthy applicants, the board shall assume wardship over the applicants who are most urgently in need of further education.

897. There is in the State treasury a veterans' dependents' education fund. All moneys in such fund shall be expended in accordance with law by the board in providing instruction, educational counsel, textbooks, quarters, and assistance for dependents of veterans.

898. The sum of twenty-five thousand dollars is hereby annually appropriated from the receipts collected under the provisions of Chapter 303, Statutes of 1921, other than those receipts received from rents, bonuses, and royalties accruing from the use of State school land, to carry out the purposes of this article. Such amount shall annually be paid into the veterans’ dependents’ education fund.

CHAPTER V. LOCAL AID.

Article 1. Indigent Veterans.

820. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise indicates, “veteran” means a person who has been honorably discharged from any branch of the United States Army or Navy, or the American Red Cross, and who has served in any war in which the United States has been engaged.

821. The board of supervisors of any county may grant financial assistance, relief, and support to indigent veterans. Such assistance, relief, and support shall be administered through and by any military, naval, or marine organization created for the purpose of aiding, relieving, and supporting such veterans under the terms and conditions set forth in this article.

822. Any organization desiring to assist indigent veterans shall first file with the board of supervisors of the county in which it is operating or intending to operate, a verified statement setting forth the following:

(a) Name, objects, and purposes of the organization. One of the purposes shall be that mentioned in section 921.
(b) Date of organization.
(c) Names and addresses of officers and relief committee.
(d) Name and address of the treasurer or financial officer in charge of the receipt and disbursement of funds.
(e) Number of members.
(f) Financial condition, showing total assets and liabilities.
(g) That financial assistance for indigent veterans to be administered in accordance with the provisions of this article will be requested.

823. Upon the filing of the statement the board of supervisors shall set a day for its consideration not more than ten days after the date of filing. At least five days’ notice of the hearing shall be given by mail to the clerk or secretary of the organization.

824. On the day set, the board of supervisors shall, after hearing any evidence presented, determine by resolution entered upon its minutes whether the organization is qualified to carry out this article. The resolution shall be effective for a period of one year only and may be revoked at any time.

825. No money shall be transferred to any person under this article except to the treasurer or financial officer whose name is given in the statement required by section 922. The treasurer or financial officer shall, before receiving any money hereunder, file with the board of supervisors a bond or undertaking signed by at least two sureties, in an amount fixed by the board of supervisors. The bond shall inure to the benefit of the county and shall be conditioned upon the faithful and honest administration of the funds intrusted to such officer.

926. Upon receipt of a request from any organization qualified under this article, giving the names of all indigent veterans for whom relief is desired, together with the branch of service, division, regiment, and company, or other unit or designation by which each of such veterans may be identified, and a further statement that the circumstances of each of such veterans has been personally investigated by the relief committee of the organization, and that each is in all respects worthy and entitled to relief hereunder, the board of supervisors may direct the county auditor to draw his warrant upon the county treasurer for the amount specified in the request, or a lesser amount. Such warrant shall be delivered to the treasurer or financial officer of the organization.

927. All money paid out by any county under this article shall be used by the organization receiving it exclusively for the relief of indigent veterans and no part of it shall ever be used for administration or overhead expenses.

928. The indigent and dependent widow, minor child, father, or mother of any indigent veteran may be granted relief by the organization out of the money available under this article.

929. The necessary expenses, not to exceed seventy-five dollars, for burial or cremation of any indigent veteran may be paid out of the money available under this article.

930. The money necessary to carry out this article may be taken from the general fund of the county, or the board of supervisors may levy a special tax therefor not to exceed one-half cent on each one hundred dollars of assessed valuation of all property within the county.

931. Any municipal corporation may extend assistance to any organization under this article. In each case all proceedings required to be had before the board of supervisors of the county shall be had before the legislative body of the city. The words "board of supervisors," "county," "county auditor" and "county treasurer" wherever used in this article shall mean "legislative body," "city," "city auditor" and "city treasurer."

Article 2. Burial of Veterans and Veterans’ Widows.

940. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise indicates, "veteran" means an honorably discharged soldier, sailor, marine, or nurse who has served in or with the army or navy of the United States.

941. This article shall not apply to soldiers, sailors, or marines who die in the national or State soldiers’ homes in this State.
942. The board of supervisors of each county shall designate an honorably discharged soldier, sailor or marine in the county who has served in or with the army or navy of the United States and who shall cause to be decently interred the body of any veteran or widow of a veteran who dies in the county without having sufficient means to defray the expenses of burial, other than moneys paid or due and payable by the United States, pursuant to the World War adjusted compensation act.

943. Such burial shall not be made in any cemetery or burial ground, or any portion thereof, used exclusively for the burial of the pauper dead.

944. In the event a deceased veteran or a widow of a veteran has been interred other than by the person designated by the board of supervisors, the person so designated may pay the sum of one hundred twenty-five dollars toward the burial expenses of the person who would have been entitled to interment by the person designated by the supervisors.

945. The expenses to the county of each burial or contribution shall not exceed the sum of one hundred twenty-five dollars. Claims therefor and the proof required under the terms of this article may be made at any time within sixty days after the date of the death of the veteran or widow of a veteran.

946. Such claims shall be paid by the county in which the veteran or widow dies. If the decedent was a resident of any other county than the one paying the claim, the county of the decedent’s residence shall refund the money advanced by the county where such person died. Such claims shall be audited and paid by the county as other accounts.

947. The person appointed under section 942, before he assumes the charge and expenses of any burial, shall first satisfy himself by a careful inquiry into and examination of all the circumstances in the case that the family of the decedent, if any, residing in the county, is unable for want of means to defray the expenses of the burial. If he finds such inability he shall cause the decedent to be buried as provided in this article. He shall immediately report his action to the clerk of the board of supervisors of the county, stating all the facts and that he found the family of the decedent in indigent circumstances and unable to pay the expenses of the burial. He shall also report the name, rank, and command of the veteran, the date of death, place of burial, occupation, and an itemized statement of the expenses of such burial.

948. The clerk of the board of supervisors, upon receiving the report and statement of expenses, shall transcribe in a book kept for that purpose all the facts contained in the report respecting such decedent. The clerk, upon the burial of any honorably discharged soldier, sailor, or marine, shall make application to the proper authorities of the United States, for a suitable headstone, as provided by act of Congress, and cause the same to be placed at the head of the grave of such soldier, sailor, or marine. The expenses shall not exceed five dollars for cartage and properly setting each stone.

949. The board of supervisors shall perpetually maintain the grave of any such honorably discharged soldier, sailor, or marine. The expenses thus incurred shall be audited and paid as provided in section 943 for burial expenses.

950. The person appointed under section 942 shall receive no compensation for any duties he may perform in compliance with this article.

Article 3. Care of Veterans' Graves.

960. Whenever in any cemetery or place of burial of human remains, which is established or organized under the authority of the board of supervisors of any county or the governing body of any city, there is any known grave of a former soldier, sailor, or marine of the United States who was not dishonorably discharged from the service, the officers who manage such cemetery or place of burial shall keep such grave properly marked and identified, and free from weeds and rubbish, and keep in decent order and repair and free from defacement, injury, and unlawful markings any tomb, monument, gravestone, wall, or other appurtenance to such grave.

961. Any fraternal or benevolent organization which maintains a plot in a place of burial mentioned in section 960, which is devoted exclusively to the burial of soldiers, sailors, or marines of the United States, may apply under this article to the board of supervisors of the county in which the plot is maintained. Upon a showing of need, the board may keep the plot free from weeds and rubbish, and keep in decent order and repair and free from defacement and injury any tomb, monument, gravestone, wall, or other appurtenance to the graves in the plot.

962. The officers who are charged by law with raising money by taxation for maintaining any such cemetery or place of burial shall fix the tax levy at an amount sufficient to comply with the requirements of this article.

DIVISION V. VETERANS’ INSTITUTIONS.

CHAPTER I. VETERANS’ HOME OF CALIFORNIA.

1010. As used in this chapter:
(a) "Home" means the Veterans' Home of California.
(b) "Board" means the board of directors of the home.
(c) "Veterans" means a member of the home.
(Amended by Ch. 822, Stats. 1935.)

[ORIGINAL SECTION.]

1010. As used in this chapter:
(a) "Home" means the Veterans' Home of California.
(b) "Board" means the board of directors of the home.
(c) "Veteran" means an inmate of the home.
1011. There is in the Department of Military and Veterans' Affairs a Veterans' Home of California, which is situated at Yountville, Napa County.

1012. The home is for aged and indigent ex-soldiers, sailors, and marines of the United States. The property of the home shall be used for this purpose.

1013. All property conveyed to and accepted by the State under the provisions of Chapter 101, Statutes of 1897, and any other property conveyed to and accepted for the home shall be the property of the home the same as though the description of such property and acceptance thereof were herein set forth.

1014. The home shall be under the management and control of the board.

1015. The board consists of seven members appointed by the Governor for a term of four years. The terms of the members in office at the time this chapter takes effect shall expire on the dates and in the rotation heretofore established. Vacancies shall be filled by the Governor for the unexpired term.

1016. Each member of the board shall within thirty days after his appointment take and file with the Secretary of State the oath required of State officers.

1017. The president and vice president of the board in office at the time this chapter takes effect shall remain in office until the expiration of their respective terms. Thereafter the board shall elect from its members a president and vice president for terms of two years each. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner by the board for the unexpired terms.

1018. The commandant, surgeon, quartermaster, adjutant, finance officer, chaplain, and assistant surgeons in office at the time this chapter takes effect shall remain in office until the expiration of their respective terms. Thereafter the board shall appoint, subject to civil service, qualified persons to fill such offices for terms of two years, none of whom shall be members of the board. Vacancies shall be filled by the board for the unexpired terms.

1018. The commandant, secretary, treasurer, surgeon, assistant surgeon, quartermaster, and commissary in office at the time this chapter takes effect shall remain in office until the expiration of their respective terms. Thereafter the board shall appoint qualified persons to fill such offices for terms of two years, none of whom shall be members of the board. Vacancies shall be filled by the board for the unexpired terms.

1019. Officers of the home shall take the oath of office required of State officers, shall file a bond in form and amount approved by the board, and shall reside at the home. Officers may be removed by the board for cause after a hearing.

1020. The board, subject to civil service, may appoint employees of the home, and shall prescribe the duties and compensation of all officers and employees.

(Amended by Ch. 822, Stats. 1935.)
1020. The board may appoint employees of the home who shall serve at the pleasure of the board, and shall prescribe the duties and compensations of all officers and employees.

1021. Each director and officer shall receive his actual and necessary traveling expenses in attending meetings of the board and in traveling or business authorized by the board. Such expenses shall be paid out of any moneys appropriated for the support of the home.

1022. The board may maintain an office in San Francisco. The total expenses of such office, including clerical service, rent, light, fuel, telephone, and janitor, shall not exceed one thousand five hundred dollars per annum.

1023. The board may sue and be sued in any of the courts of this State. All property held by the board shall be held in trust for the State and for the use and benefit of the home. The board shall manage the home, and administer its affairs, make by-laws for the government of the board, and adopt rules and regulations for the government of the home, in conformity as nearly as possible, to the rules and regulations of the United States Soldiers’ Home and branches thereof.

1024. The board shall keep a complete record of its proceedings which shall be open at all times to the inspection of any citizen.

1025. The home shall be open at any time to the inspection of the board of managers of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers.

1026. The records, reports, and accounts kept by the board shall conform to the requirements of the board of managers of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers.

1027. The board shall keep a general register, in which shall be recorded concerning each applicant for admission:

(a) Name, age, place of birth, and occupation.
(b) Date of admission, or date of rejection, if not admitted.
(c) Residence at time of admission, length of residence in this State immediately prior to admission, and residence at time of entering the service.
(d) Date of enlistment, company, regiment, branch or arm of service, and date of discharge.
(e) Disease, wounds, or disability.
(f) Married or single.
(g) Pensioner or not, rate of pension, estate, and income.
(h) All fraternal societies to which he belongs.
(i) Date of discharge from the home and reason therefor, place of and date of death and place of burial.
(j) Remarks.

1028. The board shall hold stated meetings at least once a month at its office in San Francisco and at least once every three months at the home.

1029. A majority of the members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

1030. The board shall report to the Governor before the first day of January of each year stating all receipts and expenditures, the condition of the home, the number of veterans received and discharged during the preceding fiscal year, and such other matters touching upon the management, conduct, and interests of the home as the board deems proper, or as are required by the Governor.

The board shall also make any other reports which the Governor requires. All reports shall be verified by the president of the board, or in his absence by the vice president, and shall be certified by the secretary of the board.

1031. There is in the State treasury a Veterans’ Home of Fund California Federal fund. All moneys received by the State from the United States for the use of the home shall be placed to the credit of this fund.

1032. The board shall fix a schedule of wages for veterans who are employed at the home.

1033. All bills and charges against the board for supplies, salaries, or other expenses shall be prepared and audited in the manner provided by law and warrants therefor shall be paid out of the Veterans’ Home of California Federal fund or any money available for such purposes according to the directions of the board approved by the Department of Finance.

1034. Except moneys received from the State for disbursement, all moneys received by the board or by any officer of the home, including pension and other moneys belonging to veterans and other trust moneys, shall be immediately paid to the treasurer of the home. On or before the tenth day of each month the treasurer of the home shall forward to the State Treasurer all moneys in his possession, except pension and other moneys belonging to veterans, trust moneys, the post fund, and the emergency fund, hereinafter mentioned, together with a statement of the sources from which the same have been received. The moneys shall be deposited by the State Treasurer to the credit of the general fund of the State.

1035. Any balance of pension moneys of any pensioner held by the board, or by its authority, shall, upon the death of the pensioner, where undisposed by will, be held as a trust fund, to be paid by the board upon proper proof, directly and without probate, to the heirs of the pensioner.

If no heirs are discovered within five years after the death of the pensioner, or if the heirs discovered within such time are not entitled to the whole thereof, the moneys not paid to the heirs, and undisposed of by will, shall be paid to the post fund of the home which fund shall be used for the common benefit of the veterans under the direction of the board.

1036. The veterans may voluntarily deposit money with the board, which the board shall receive and keep without charge as a trust fund.

1037. The money belonging to a veteran and voluntarily deposited with the board may be withdrawn, in whole or in part, at the will of the veteran. Any balance remaining upon his death, undisposed by will, and not paid to his heirs at law within the time and in the manner hereinbefore provided, shall be paid to the post fund.

1038. All money deposited with the board for a veteran shall be paid to him on demand, upon his discharge from or voluntary leaving the home. If such money is not so demanded at the time of discharge or leaving or within a period of five years thereafter, or demanded by the heirs, devisees, or legatees in case of his decease after his discharge or voluntary leaving, the same shall be paid to the post fund.

1039. All moneys received by the board under specific trust agreements shall be paid into the post fund five years after the trust agreement terminates if not claimed by the heirs, devisees, or legatees of the veteran as hereinabove provided.

1040. The personal effects of deceased veterans shall be held for the heirs, devisees, or legatees for the period of one year from the date of his death. The personal effects of a veteran who is discharged or voluntarily leaves shall be held for the veteran himself or his heirs, devisees, or legatees for the period of one year from the date of discharge or leaving.

1041. The officer in charge may make a monthly charge for the safe-keeping of the unclaimed personal effects of veterans. If the charge is not paid a lien upon the effects to secure its payment shall accrue to the State. If the amount due is not paid within three years then the lien may be foreclosed and the officer in charge may proceed by public or private sale to sell the property or so much thereof as is necessary to satisfy the lien and costs of sale. The sale shall take place at a public place in the home, and notice of sale shall be posted in such place at least ten days previous to the date of sale. The proceeds of sale shall be credited to the post fund.

1042. All accrued interest on moneys turned over to the treasurer and retained by him under this chapter shall be accounted for by him and deposited to the credit of the post fund and used for the common benefit of the veterans.

1043. With the exception of officers and employees and their families, no person shall be admitted to reside in the home, who is not an honorably discharged United States soldier, sailor, or marine, and who has not been a bona fide resident of this State for six years immediately preceding his application.

1044. The board may make rules and regulations governing the admission of applicants and may prescribe the conditions upon which they may enter and the conditions upon which they may remain.

1045. Nothing in this chapter shall prevent the State from transferring the property and management of the home to the United States for a home of similar character.
CHAPTER II. WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS HOME OF CALIFORNIA.

1080. As used in this chapter:
(a) "Home" means the Woman's Relief Corps Home of California.
(b) "Board" means the board of directors of the home.

1081. There is in the Department of Military and Veterans' Affairs a Woman's Relief Corps Home of California which is situated at Evergreen, Santa Clara County.

1082. The home is maintained for the support of ex-army nurses and the wives, widows, mothers, and dependent, destitute, unmarried daughters and sisters of the Union veterans who served honorably in the Civil War.

1083. No person is entitled to aid under this chapter unless she is a person mentioned in section 1082 and has been continuously a resident of this State for one year next preceding her admission to the home.

1084. The home is managed and controlled by a board of seven directors, appointed by the Governor, to hold office for two years from and after their appointment, unless sooner removed by him for cause. Each director, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, shall file with the Secretary of State his oath of office, in the form prescribed by law.

1085. The board may sue and be sued in any of the courts of the State. The board shall manage the home, administer its affairs, make laws for its government, and adopt rules and regulations for its management. A majority of its members constitute a quorum to transact business.

1086. The board shall elect from its members a president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer, each of whom shall hold office for one year from his election.

1087. No member of the board other than the secretary and treasurer shall receive any compensation for services. The secretary and treasurer shall each receive for his services the compensation fixed by the board with the approval of the Director of Finance. Such compensation shall be paid from the State treasury at the same time and in the same manner as the salaries of other State officers.

1088. The board shall:
(a) Hold at least one meeting each month for the transaction of business pertaining to the home.
(b) Keep a general register, in which shall be entered the date of admission, name, age, and place of birth of each inmate, and the military or naval history of her husband, father, or brother, and her estate and income.
(c) Keep a full record of its meetings.

1089. Every claim for aid under this chapter shall be presented, audited, and paid in the manner provided by law.

1090. All pension money received by any inmate of the home shall be retained by her subject to her own disposition.
CHAPTER 111. COUNTY INSTITUTIONS.

1120. Any county may provide and maintain a home for veterans, soldiers, sailors, and marines who have served the United States honorably in any of its wars.

1121. For the purposes of this chapter the board of supervisors of any county may:

(a) Purchase, receive by donation, condemn, lease, or otherwise acquire real and personal property necessary for such home, and improve, preserve, manage, and control the same.

(b) Purchase, construct, lease, furnish, and repair buildings for such home and provide the necessary custodians, employees, attendants, and supplies for its proper maintenance.

(c) Levy in any year a special tax not to exceed one and one-half mills on the one dollar of assessed valuation on all the taxable property in the county, in addition to all other taxes, the fund so created to be expended for the purposes of this chapter.

(d) Establish a fund for the purposes of this chapter, and transfer from the general fund to such fund such moneys as the board deems necessary.

(e) Issue, in the manner provided by law, a bonded indebtedness on behalf of the county for any of the purposes of this chapter.

(f) Join with any incorporated city in the county in the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter and to that end hold jointly with such city all property acquired, and expend money in conjunction with such city.

DIVISION VI. VETERANS' BUILDINGS AND MEMORIALS.

CHAPTER I. MEMORIAL DISTRICTS.

Article 1. Formation.

Definitions

1170. As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise indicates:

(a) "District" means a memorial district organized under the provisions of this chapter.

(b) "Board" means the board of directors of a memorial district.

(c) "County clerk" includes registrar of voters.

Formation

1171. Subject to the provisions of the District Investigation Act of 1933 a memorial district may be established, maintained, governed, supported, and operated in the manner and for the purposes herein provided, and may exercise the powers and jurisdiction herein expressly granted or necessarily implied.

Boundaries of district

1172. No district shall include territory not wholly in the same county. A district may include any incorporated territory of the county together with any contiguous unincorporated territory thereof, or may be formed entirely of contiguous incorporated territory or entirely of contiguous unincorporated territory.

1173. By petition filed with the county clerk, registered petition electors residing within the boundaries of a proposed district, equal in number to at least eight per cent of the number of votes cast in the proposed district for the office of Governor at the last general election at which a Governor was elected, may propose the formation of a district. If both incorporated and unincorporated territory are included within the proposed district, the petition shall be signed by registered electors equal in number in each territory to at least eight per cent of the votes so cast therein for Governor.

1174. The petition shall be addressed to the board of supervisors of the county within which the proposed district is situated, shall be signed by the number of qualified registered electors specified in section 1173, and shall propose and set forth:

(a) The formation of a district under this chapter.

(b) The calling by the board of supervisors of a special election to vote upon the question whether the proposed district shall be formed and to elect the first board of directors of the district.

(c) The name of the proposed district, as "____________ memorial district."

(d) An accurate description of the boundaries of the proposed district specifying what portion of the territory is incorporated territory and what portion unincorporated territory.

1175. The petition may be filed in sections, each of which shall fully comply with all of the requirements for a petition, except that each section need not contain the total number of signatures required for a petition.

1176. Within ten days after the filing of such petition the county clerk shall find and certify whether the petition is signed by the requisite number of qualified registered electors of the proposed district and of the incorporated and unincorporated portions thereof and shall present the petition with the certificate of his findings attached thereto to the board of supervisors at its first regular meeting held ten days from the date of filing of the petition.

1177. If the petition and certificate is presented to the board of supervisors at a regular meeting the board at that meeting shall ascertain whether the petition in all respects complies with the requirements therefor, except that the certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the sufficiency of the signatures to the petition.

1178. If the petition complies with the requirements the board of supervisors at such meeting shall call a special election to vote upon the question of formation of the proposed district and to elect the members of the first board of directors thereof.

1179. The special election shall be held upon a date not later than the sixtieth day after the meeting of the board.
at which the petition was presented. A: the special election, the proposition submitted shall be "Shall the proposed____ memorial district be formed?" There shall be elected at the same election a board of directors consisting of five members.

1180. The special election shall be called, noticed, held, and conducted, election officers appointed, voting precincts designated, candidates nominated, ballots printed, polls opened and closed, ballots counted and returned, returns canvassed, results declared, certificates of election issued, oaths of office administered, and all other proceedings incidental thereto and connected with the election shall be regulated and done, in accordance with the provisions of law regulating municipal elections in cities of the fifth and sixth class.

1181. For the purposes of this chapter the board of supervisors and the county clerk, respectively, shall have all the powers and duties which boards of trustees and city clerks have under section 1179 and the terms "city," "municipal election," "board of trustees," and "city clerk," shall mean "proposed memorial district," "proposed memorial district election," "board of supervisors," and "county clerk."

1182. If a majority of the votes cast at the special election are in favor of formation of the district, the county clerk shall, within ten days after the board of supervisors has declared the result thereof, record in the office of the county recorder a complete certified copy of the statement of results entered on the minutes of the board of supervisors in accordance with section 1180, together with a complete certified copy of the petition for formation of the district, except that the signatures on the petition need not be certified and recorded.

1183. Such certified copies when recorded shall, after sixty days from the date of the special election, be conclusive evidence against all persons, firms, associations and corporations, except the State, of the regular and sufficient formation of the district and establishment of the boundaries thereof as set forth in the petition and of the validity of all proceedings preliminary to the formation and establishment of the district.

Article 2. Management.

1190. Every district shall be a public corporation, have perpetual succession, and may:

(a) Sue and be sued in all actions and proceedings in all courts and tribunals of competent jurisdiction.
(b) Adopt a seal and alter it at pleasure.
(c) Call upon the district attorney for legal advice and assistance in all matters concerning the district.
(d) Make contracts, employ labor, and do all acts necessary or convenient for the full exercise of any of the powers of the district.

1191. Every district may:

(a) Provide and maintain memorial halls, assembly halls, buildings, or meeting places for the use of veteran soldiers, sailors and marines who have honorably served the United States in any wars or campaigns recognized by law for the purposes of section 14 of Article XIII of the Constitution, or for the use of patriotic, fraternal, or benevolent associations of such persons.

(b) Purchase, receive by donation, condemn, lease, or acquire real or personal property necessary or convenient for the construction or maintenance of such halls, buildings and meeting places and improve, preserve, manage and control the same.

(c) Purchase, construct, lease, build, furnish, or repair such halls, buildings and meeting places upon sites owned or leased by the district or made available to the district; and provide custodians, employees, attendants, and supplies for the proper maintenance, care and management thereof.

(d) Furnish sites for such halls, buildings, or meeting places, to be built either by the district or by or for patriotic, fraternal or benevolent associations of veterans, the funds for such sites to be supplied by the district or from other sources.

(e) Enter into agreements with county, municipal, school, park, or other public authorities or agencies, conveying, leasing, or making available to the district either gratuitously or for compensation, sites upon public lands, for the construction, maintenance, and management thereon by the district of such assembly or memorial halls, buildings or meeting places; and construct and maintain thereon such halls, buildings or meeting places.

(f) Adopt, from time to time, reasonable rules and regulations for the use of such halls, buildings and meeting places by veterans or by organizations thereof, and when incidental to such uses, allow such halls, buildings and meeting places to be used for lawful purposes consistent with the objects hereof by persons or organizations other than veterans either free of charge or for stated compensation to aid in defraying the cost of maintenance thereof.

1192. Every district may:

(a) Cause to be levied and collected in any year a special tax not to exceed three mills on the one dollar of assessed valuation of all the taxable property in the district, exclusive of any tax which may be required to pay the principal of and interest upon any bonded indebtedness of the district, in addition to all other taxes provided for by law upon the taxable property of the district and to be paid into a special fund in the county treasury to be known as the memorial district fund.

(b) Incur, through the board of supervisors, bonded indebtedness on behalf of the district for the purpose of exercising any of the powers of the district or accomplishing any of the purposes of this chapter.

(c) Cause to be levied and collected in any one year a special tax sufficient to pay the principal of and interest upon all bonded indebtedness of the district incurred as herein provided, in addition to all other taxes provided for by law or by the provisions of this chapter and to be paid into a special fund in the county treasury to be known as the memorial district bond retirement fund.

(d) Refund or retire any indebtedness that may exist against the district.

1193. Every district may combine with the county in which it is located or with any incorporated city wholly within the county, in the accomplishment of any of the purposes of this chapter, and to that end hold jointly with such county or city any property required or made available for such purposes, and expend money in conjunction with such county or city in accomplishing any of the purposes hereof.

1194. The powers of the district, except as otherwise expressly provided, shall be exercised by the board of directors.

1195. The general district election shall be held in every district formed under the provisions of this chapter on the fourth Tuesday in March of the third March following the special election held to vote upon the formation of the district and on the fourth Tuesday of March in every fourth year thereafter. Every election shall be held and conducted in all respects the same as the special election provided for in sections 1180 and 1181 except that the board and the secretary thereof shall have the powers and duties of the board of supervisors and the county clerk, under such sections, and the terms "city," "municipal election," "board of trustees," and "city clerk," shall mean "memorial district," "general memorial district election," "board of directors," and "secretary of the board."

1196. A new board shall be elected at each general district election. Officers may be elected and propositions submitted at such election which are authorized by law.

1197. The board shall consist of five members who shall be registered electors residing within the district or proposed district at the time of their election and shall be elected by the qualified electors of the district. The directors first elected shall serve from the time of their election and qualification until the election and qualification of their successors at the first general district election. Members of succeeding boards shall serve from the time of their qualification until four years from the time of their election and until their successors are elected and qualified. Any vacancy in the office of director shall be filled by appointment by the remaining directors, the appointee to hold for the unexpired term and until the election and qualification of his successor. Members shall serve without compensation but shall be entitled to actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of duties.

1198. The board first elected in any district shall hold its first meeting in the meeting room of the board of supervisors commencing at ten o'clock a.m. on the first Monday following the date of declaration by the board of supervisors of the result of the special election at which the board was elected. The board shall elect one of its members president, and shall elect a secretary, and shall provide for the time and place of holding meetings and the manner in which special meetings may be called. The board may establish rules for proceedings of the board.

1199. The president shall sign all contracts on behalf of the district and shall certify to the county auditor all lawful demands against the district payable from the memorial district fund and from the memorial district bond fund after such demands have first been approved by at least three members of the board. The president shall also perform any other duties imposed by the board. The secretary shall countersign all contracts on behalf of the district and perform any other duties prescribed by the board. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but all official acts of the board must receive the affirmative vote, signature, or approval, as the case may require, of at least three members of the board.

1200. The moneys in the several funds of the district shall be paid out by the county treasurer only upon warrants drawn by the county auditor against the appropriate district fund. The county auditor shall draw his warrants against the memorial district bond retirement fund, if that fund contains sufficient moneys, and if not, then, against any other funds of the district in payment of all valid and outstanding bonds of the district at maturity and of interest coupons thereon when due, upon presentation to him of such bonds or coupons by the owners thereof.

1201. The county auditor shall also draw his warrants against the memorial district fund and against the memorial district bond fund, in payment of lawful claims against the district certified to him by the president of the board.

1202. The board shall, annually, at least fifteen days before the first day of the month in which the board of supervisors is required by law to levy the taxes required for county purposes, furnish to the board of supervisors and to the auditor estimates in writing of the minimum amount of money required for the payment of the principal of and interest upon all bonded indebtedness of the district; and also of the minimum amount of money required by the district for any other purposes.

1203. The board of supervisors shall annually at the time of levying county taxes and until all bonded indebtedness of the district is fully paid, levy and cause to be collected by the county tax collector a tax on all taxable property in the district sufficient for the payment of the principal of and interest upon all bonded indebtedness of the district. This tax shall be known as the memorial district bond retirement tax.

1204. The board of supervisors shall in like manner and until all other expenses and claims are fully paid, levy and cause to be collected by the county tax collector a tax sufficient for the payment of all other expenses and claims of the district. This tax shall be known as the memorial district tax.
1205. The memorial district tax levied in any one year shall not exceed the rate of three mills on each dollar of the assessed valuation of all taxable property in the district, exclusive of any tax which may be required to pay the principal and interest upon any bonded indebtedness of the district.

1206. Taxes shall be paid into the county treasury to the credit of the memorial district bond retirement fund or to the credit of the memorial district fund, as the purpose of the tax determines.

1207. Taxes become delinquent at the time the county taxes become delinquent and shall bear like penalties for delinquency. All taxes shall be a lien upon all the taxable property in the district, and shall be of the same force and effect as the liens for county taxes. Their collection shall be enforced by the same means provided for the enforcement of liens for county taxes.

1208. Boards of supervisors, governing bodies of incorporated cities and school districts, and all authorities having control of public lands within this State may, on behalf of the county, city, school district, park area, or public agency convey, lease, or make available to districts, either gratuitously or for compensation, sites upon lands under their control or jurisdiction, for the erection and maintenance thereon by districts of assembly or memorial halls, buildings, and meeting places, whenever in the reasonable discretion of such board, body, or authority, such sites can be so conveyed, leased, or made available without inconvenience to the interests of the particular county, city, school district, park, or public agency.

1210. Bonds of a district may be issued, sold, and the proceeds thereof expended in the exercise of any of the powers of the district or in the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter whenever two-thirds of the registered electors of the district who vote upon a proposal to issue bonds vote in favor thereof.

1211. The board may, and upon petition of eight per cent of the registered electors of the district shall, submit to the electors of the district the question whether bonds of the district shall be issued and sold for the purposes set forth by the board in the notice calling the election at which the question is submitted.

1212. The question may be submitted at a special bond election called for that purpose or at a general district election. If called upon petition of the electors of the district, the question shall be submitted not later than the ninetieth day after the filing of the petition therefor with the secretary of the board. The notice calling the election shall be entered in the minutes of the board and in addition to other requirements of this chapter governing the general district election shall contain a statement of the purpose of the proposed bond issue, the amount of bonds proposed to be issued, and the rate of interest, not exceeding six per cent, to be paid thereon.

1213. If the question whether bonds of the district are to be issued is submitted at a special election, such election shall be noticed, called, conducted, governed, and regulated, in the same manner prescribed for the general district election.

1214. If at such election two-thirds of the votes cast are in favor of issuing the bonds of the district, the board shall cause that fact to be entered upon its minutes and shall at once certify to the board of supervisors all of the proceedings of the board in connection with the proposed bond issue, including the purpose thereof, the amount thereof, rate of interest to be paid thereon, and the result of the election.

1215. Thereupon, the board of supervisors, by an order entered in its minutes, shall provide for the issuance and sale of bonds of the district in the amount approved by the electors of the district at the election and shall provide for the payment of the proceeds of the sale of the bonds into the county treasury to the credit of a special fund known as the memorial district bond fund which shall be used for the purposes specified in the order of the board of directors calling the special election and shall be expended upon warrants of the county auditor.

1216. The board of supervisors shall issue and sell the bonds of the district in the manner and form prescribed by law for county bonds and subject to the conditions therein specified regarding the denominations, maturities, and interest rates of county bonds.

1217. If any officer whose signature, countersignature, or attestation appears on any district bonds or coupons thereof, ceases to be such officer before the delivery of the bonds to the purchaser thereof, such signature, countersignature, or attestation shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if such officer had remained in office until the delivery of the bonds. The signature upon the coupons of the person who is county auditor at the date of such bonds shall be valid although the bonds themselves may be attested by a different person who is county auditor at the time of delivery of the bonds.

1218. The board of supervisors at the time of making the levy of taxes for county purposes shall levy a tax for that year upon the taxable property in the district for the interest and redemption of district bonds. Such tax shall not be less than sufficient to pay the interest of the bonds for that year and the portion of the principal due or to become due during the year, and in any event shall be sufficient to raise annually for the first half of the term of the bonds the sum necessary to pay the interest thereon; and during the balance of the term, sufficient to pay the annual interest and to pay annually a proportion of the principal of the bonds equal to a sum produced by taking the whole amount of the bonds outstanding and dividing it by the number of years the bonds then have to run. All money so collected shall be paid into the county treasury to the credit of the district bond retirement fund and be used for the payment of the principal and interest on the bonds and for no other purpose until all bonded indebtedness of the district has been paid in full. The principal and interest on bonds shall be paid by the county treasurer upon the warrant of the county auditor out of the district bond retirement fund if that fund has sufficient moneys and otherwise out of any other funds of the district. The county auditor shall cancel and retain such bonds and coupons when he draws his warrants on the treasurer in favor of the owners thereof.

1219. Whenever the bonds of a district have been investigated and certified by any officer of this State authorized to make such investigation and certification, and by the authority of such certification have been declared to be legal for investment by savings banks of this State, then such bonds may be lawfully purchased or received in pledge for loans by savings banks, building and loan associations, trust companies, insurance companies, guardians, executors, administrators, special administrators, or by any public officer within this State holding funds which by law may be invested or loaned.

Article 4. Dissolution.

1230. The question of dissolution of a district may be submitted to the electors thereof by the board on its own motion and shall be submitted by the board upon petition signed by eight per cent of the registered electors of the district, at either the general district election or at a special election called for that purpose. If submitted upon petition of the electors of the district the question shall be submitted not later than the ninetieth day after the filing of the petition with the secretary of the board. If submitted at a special election the election shall be called, conducted, governed, and regulated in the same manner as the general district election.

1231. If two-thirds of the qualified electors of the district voting upon the question of dissolution of the district vote in favor thereof the district shall be dissolved.

1232. Upon dissolution, the property of the district lying within the corporate limits of any city shall vest absolutely in the incorporated city, and the property of the district lying without the corporate limits of an incorporated city shall vest in the county.

1233. If, at the time of the election for dissolution there is any outstanding bonded indebtedness of the district, then the vote to dissolve the district shall dissolve the same for all purposes excepting only the levy and collection of taxes for the payment of such indebtedness and for the payment of the expenses of assessing, levying, and collecting the same, and the expenses of maintaining the property of the district in good order and repair.
1234. From the time a district is dissolved until the bonded indebtedness thereof with the interest thereon is fully paid, satisfied, and discharged the governing body of the incorporated city, when the property of the district lies wholly within an incorporated city and, in every other case, the board of supervisors, is hereby constituted ex officio the board of directors of the dissolved district.

1235. The board of supervisors or governing body shall levy taxes and perform other acts necessary to raise money for the payment of the indebtedness of the district and the interest thereon and for the maintenance of the property of the district in good order and repair; and as ex officio board of directors, shall fulfill and compel fulfillment of contracts made by the district and shall maintain and protect all rights acquired by the district.

CHAPTER II. COUNTY AND CITY BUILDINGS.

1260. As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise indicates:

(a) "Political subdivision" means any county, city, or town of this State.

(b) "Governing body" means the board of supervisors in case of a county, or the city council or board of trustees in the case of a city or town.

(c) "Veterans' association" means any association or organization of veteran soldiers, sailors, or marines who have served the United States honorably in any of its wars and who are organized for patriotic, fraternal, and benevolent objects.

1261. Any political subdivision may lease any lot or building or part thereof belonging to it and not required for public use, for not exceeding twenty years, or may acquire and lease or sublease any lot or building or part thereof for not exceeding twenty years, to a veterans' association organized in such political subdivision, to be used for the purposes of such veterans' association. The rental shall be fixed by the governing body of the political subdivisions.

1261. Any political subdivision may lease any lot or building or part thereof belonging to it and not required for public use, for not exceeding twenty years, to a veterans' association organized in such political subdivision, to be used for the purposes of such veterans' association. The rental shall be fixed by the governing body of the political subdivision.

1262. Any county may provide and maintain buildings, memorial halls, meeting places, memorial parks, or recreation centers for the use or benefit of veterans' associations. For these purposes the board of supervisors of any county may:

(a) Purchase, receive by donation, condemn, lease, or acquire real or personal property necessary for such buildings, memorial parks, or recreation centers, and improve, preserve, manage, and control the same.
(b) Purchase, construct, lease, furnish, or repair such buildings, and provide custodians, employees, attendants, and supplies for the proper maintenance thereof.

(c) Clear, grade, plant, irrigate, fence, and improve such memorial parks, or recreation centers, and provide custodians, employees, attendants, and supplies for the proper maintenance thereof.

(d) Furnish sites for such buildings to be built by or for such organizations, and furnish sites for the erection thereon of such buildings, the funds for which are supplied by county authorities or from other sources. Any part or portion of any public lot, block, or park may be used for such purpose.

(e) Levy in any year a special tax not to exceed one and one-half mills on each dollar of assessed valuation on all the taxable property in the county, in addition to all other taxes, and the fund so created to be expended for the purposes hereof.

(f) Establish a fund for the purposes hereof, and transfer from the general fund to such fund such moneys as the board deems necessary.

(g) Incur, in the manner provided by law, a bonded indebtedness on behalf of the county for any of the purposes hereof.

(h) Join with any incorporated city in the county in the accomplishment of the above purposes and to that end hold jointly with such city all property acquired, and expend money in conjunction with such city in accomplishing the above purposes.

CHAPTER III. CAPITOL ACCOMMODATIONS.

1290. There shall be set apart a suitable furnished room at the State Capitol which shall be known as the headquarters' room of the Grand Army of the Republic.

1291. The room shall be under the charge of the commander of the Grand Army of the Republic for the Department of California and shall be used as headquarters and for the care and storage of books and papers relating to the Grand Army of the Republic.

DIVISION X. REPEALS.

2000. The following acts, parts of acts, and sections, together with all amendments thereof and all acts supplementary thereto, are hereby repealed:

Article II of Chapter IV of Part V of Division III, embracing sections 3.810 to 3.831, inclusive.
CHAPTER 390.

An act to amend section 705 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles and the weight and loading thereof.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

NOTE.—See Stats. 1935, Ch. 27.

CHAPTER 391.

An act relating to money appropriated for the encouragement of county and district agricultural fairs, declaring the urgency hereof and providing that this act shall go into immediate effect.

[Approved by the Governor July 5, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SEC. 1. Whenever any fair entitled to receive money under the provisions of section 92 of the Agricultural Code has held a fair between August 1, 1934 and July 31, 1935, the Director of Finance may, at any time during the year 1935, allot to such fair an amount not in excess of seventy-five per cent of the premiums paid out for the preceding year, as an advance upon the allotment to which such fair will become entitled under the provisions of section 92 of the Agricultural Code. Such advance shall be deducted from the allotment for such fair under said section 92.

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall therefore go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such urgency are as follows:

By the amendment of section 92 of the Agricultural Code by Chapter 24, Statutes of 1935, to enable agricultural fairs which have not been held in previous years to participate in the allocation of funds available for such fairs, and changing the basis of such allocation from the premiums paid in the preceding year to the premiums paid in the current year, those fairs which have been conducted for successive years will be unable to obtain the customary allocation of funds until after the fair is over. This act provides for an advance of a portion of the funds to which such fairs are entitled in order to enable them to continue in operation. Unless provision is made for such advance the conduct of such fairs will be hampered and the welfare of an important factor in the economic life of the State will be impaired. Such advances must be made prior to the ordinary effective date of this act, and consequently it is necessary that this act should go into immediate effect.
CHAPTER 392.

An act to add section 3.43 to the School Code, relating to required instruction in the schools.

[Approved by the Governor July 6, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 3.43 of the School Code is hereby added to read as follows:

3.43. All persons responsible for the preparation or enforcement of courses of study must provide for instruction on the subjects of alcohol and narcotics as required by law.

CHAPTER 393.

"Assessment Readjustment Act of 1935"

An act to provide for the acquisition and cancellation of bonds heretofore issued under the provisions of that certain act of the Legislature of the State of California designated and known as the ""Acquisition and Improvement Act of 1925""; providing for the cancellation of unpaid assessments levied for the purpose of paying the principal and interest of such bonds and of the interest and penalties thereon; providing for the issuance and payment of assessment readjustment bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost of acquisition of such outstanding bonds, including all costs and incidental expenses of proceedings under this act for the issuance of such assessment readjustment bonds; providing a method for the payment of such assessment readjustment bonds; providing a means whereby landowners and bondowners may consent and agree to such proceedings and to the modification of any contract between them involved in such proceedings; providing a method for the redemption of lost or otherwise unobtainable bonds of the issue or issues to be acquired and canceled and for the protection of the owners of such bonds; authorizing proceedings under the bankruptcy laws of the United States of America in connection with any proceedings hereunder; repealing the "Assessment Readjustment Act of 1933"; and to declare the urgency of this act, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor July 6, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Whenever in the opinion of the legislative body which conducted any proceeding or proceedings under that certain act of the Legislature of the State of California designated and known as the ""Acquisition and Improvement Act of 1925," and pursuant to which proceeding or proceedings any bonds provided for in said act have been issued, the public interest, convenience or necessity require the acquisition and cancellation of any such bonds so issued, such legislative body is hereby authorized and empowered to order, under the provisions of this act, the acquisition and cancellation of any such bonds so issued; provided, however, that no proceeding may be taken under this act unless the total amount of the principal of the assessment readjustment bonds to be issued, as provided for in this act, is less than the total amount of the bonds proposed to be acquired and unless and until a written petition, consent and agreement, signed by the owners of more than one-half of the area of property: (a) within each district the bonds of which are to be acquired and canceled hereunder; and (b) within the district to be assessed hereunder for the purposes of such acquisition and cancellation; shall have been filed with the clerk of such legislative body requesting that such proceedings be taken hereunder, in which said petition, consent and agreement, such owners subscribing thereto consent and agree that, subject to such exceptions and limitations as may be set forth in such petition, consent and agreement, any contract or contractual relation existing between the property owners of such district or districts and the owners or holders of such outstanding bonds may be amended, modified, changed, terminated, abrogated, or otherwise altered, to any extent and in any particular or particulars necessary in order to accomplish the purposes of such proceedings hereunder. Unless otherwise limited by the context of this act the term "bonds" as used herein shall include bonds and their respective coupons.

Sec. 2. Before ordering the acquisition and cancellation of any such bonds, as hereinabove contemplated in section 1 of this act, such legislative body shall adopt a resolution declaring the intention of such legislative body so to do, which said resolution of intention shall contain a description of the boundaries of an assessment district to be created hereunder and which is to be assessed to pay the cost of acquisition of such bonds including all costs and incidental expenses of the proceedings under this act for the issuance of assessment readjustment bonds as herein contemplated. In the event any such resolution of intention declares or contemplates that the outstanding bonds of only one acquisition and improvement district are sought to be acquired and canceled hereunder, then the exterior boundaries of such district to be created hereunder shall be coterminus with the exterior boundaries of the assessment district against which such bonds were issued as fixed in the proceedings under said "Acquisition and Improvement Act of 1925" pursuant to which the same were issued and the properties to be assessed therein under the proceedings taken pursuant to the provisions of this act shall be the same properties as were assessed in the proceedings pursuant to which such bonds so to be acquired and canceled were issued. Outstanding bonds of more than one acquisition and improvement district may be acquired and canceled in a single proceeding under the provisions of this act, provided such acquisition and improvement districts are contiguous to or in any manner overlap each other. In the event any such resolution of intention declares or contemplates that outstanding bonds of more than one such acquisition and improvement district are sought to be acquired and canceled hereunder, then the exterior boundary line of the district to be created hereunder in such proceeding shall be an exterior boundary line which shall encompass and include all of the properties included within the composite area formed by the contiguous or overlapping or contiguous and overlapping districts the bonds of which are to be acquired and canceled hereunder and the properties to be assessed in such district created hereunder shall be the same properties as were assessed in the various proceedings pursuant to which such bonds so to be acquired and canceled hereunder were issued.

Such resolution of intention shall also contain a reference to the proceeding or proceedings under which such bonds were issued with sufficient clarity to identify the same and shall indicate the amount of bonds and of each series of bonds, if more than one series, which were originally issued against each of the respective districts created under such proceeding or proceedings, and also the amount or respective amounts of such bonds, as the case may be, outstanding against such district or districts on the date of the adoption of such resolution of intention. Said resolution shall further state that it is proposed to issue bonds of the district to be created hereunder as contemplated in this act and shall specify the maximum amount for which such bonds are to be issued hereunder and the term for which such bonds are to be issued and the rate of interest to be paid thereon which shall not exceed seven per cent per annum. There shall also be stated in said resolution of intention the amount of any sum allocated, up to date of said resolution, from any source toward the payment and redemption of such outstanding bonds and a further statement to the effect that in the event any subsequent allocation is, or subsequent allocations are, made, that same will be used and applied toward the payment or redemption of such outstanding bonds and the reduction of the indebtedness of such district or districts. Said legislative body may also in said resolution of intention recite, in its discretion, the facts or circumstances upon which such body forms its finding or determination that the public interest, convenience or necessity require the acquisition and cancellation of such bonds and the creation of the district to be formed under this act for the purposes indicated. Said resolution shall contain also a notice of the day, hour and place when and where any and all persons having any objection or objections to the proposed acquisition and cancellation of such outstanding bonds or to the creation of such district, or to the issuance of bonds against the same, hereunder, may appear before such legislative body and show cause why said proposed district should not be created, or such assessment readjustment bonds issued for the purposes of the acquisition and cancellation of such existing bonds and the payment of the costs and incidental expenses of the proceedings under such resolution of intention; said time shall not be less than fifteen nor more than sixty days from the date of the adoption of said resolution.

Sec. 3. Any assessment district proposed to be created under the provisions of this act may be described in the resolution of intention by stating the exterior boundaries thereof, or by giving a description thereof according to any official or recorded map or maps, or by referring to a plat or map, approved by such legislative body, which shall be on file in the office of the city, county, or city and county, officer whose office has been designated by the legislative body of the city, county, or city and county, conducting the proceedings hereunder, as the office in which same is to be so filed, at the time of passing the resolution of intention, which shall indicate by a boundary line the extent of the territory included in the proposed district, which said plat or map shall govern for all details as to the extent of said assessment district. The said district need not be described in any of the notices or resolutions provided for herein other than the resolution of intention.

Sec. 4. Resolutions of intention adopted under the provisions of this act shall be published and notice of the passage and adoption thereof shall be given and posted in the same time, form and manner as is provided in that certain act of the Legislature of the State of California designated and referred to as the "Improvement Act of 1911," as amended, for resolutions of intention adopted under the provisions of said last mentioned act; provided, however, that the notices required to be posted under the provisions of said last mentioned act shall be headed "Notice of proposed acquisition and cancellation of certain outstanding bonds and of the creation of an assessment district in connection therewith to pay the costs and expenses thereof and of the proceedings incidental thereto." Said notices shall, in legible characters, state the fact of the passage of the resolution of intention, its date and briefly the purpose of the proceeding as indicated in such resolution of intention and may refer to the resolution of intention on file in the office of the clerk of such legislative body for further particulars. Said notices shall contain also a statement of the day, hour and place when and where any and all persons having any objections to the proposed acquisition and cancellation of such issued bonds, or to the creation of such district, or to the issuance of bonds against the same, hereunder, may appear before such legislative body and show cause why said proposed district should not be created, or such assessment readjustment bonds issued for the purpose of acquisition and cancellation of such existing bonds and the payment of the costs and incidental expenses of the proceedings under such resolution of intention.

Sec. 5. Written protests against the proposed acquisition and cancellation of such issued bonds, or against the creation of such proposed district, or against the issuance of bonds of such district, hereunder, for the purpose proposed, may be made and filed in the same manner and subject to the same terms and conditions as is provided for in the case of protests under said "Improvement Act of 1911" above referred to; provided, however, that any such protest or protests made by the owners of more than one-half of the area of the property to be assessed for the purposes recited in the resolution of intention, may not be overruled by any action of such legislative body, but such a protest or protests shall operate to bar any further proceedings under the resolution of intention referred to in such proceedings and no other proceedings under this act relating to such district or districts, shall be com-enced within a period of three months after the date of the determination by the legislative body of the fact that such a majority protest has been made. The legislative body may adjourn such hearings from time to time. If no protests or objections, in writing, as contemplated in this act, have been delivered to the clerk of such legislative body up to the hour set for hearing, provided in section 2 hereof, or when a protest, other than a protest which is a bar hereunder, shall have been heard and denied, immediately thereupon the legislative body shall be deemed to have acquired, subject to the further provisions of this act, jurisdiction to order the issuance of bonds of such district up to but not exceeding the principal amount specified in the resolution of intention for the purpose of the acquisition and cancellation of such issued bonds and the payment of the costs and expenses incidental to the proceedings hereunder.

Sec. 6. After such legislative body shall have acquired jurisdiction to proceed further under the provisions of this act, as hereinafore provided, said legislative body shall cause a notice to be published in the same newspaper in which the resolution of intention was published, if same still exists, otherwise in such newspaper as such legislative body may designate and which is located in the county, or city and county, in which such legislative body has jurisdiction, which said notice shall be headed (with blanks appropriately filled in) substitually as follows: "Notice to holders of bonds of acquisition and improvement district. No. _____ and _____ of the ______ (political subdivision) California." Said notice shall briefly set forth the fact of the adoption of the resolution of intention hereunder, its date, and the purpose of the proceeding indicated in such resolution of intention and shall refer to said resolution for further particulars. Said notice shall further briefly state the maximum amount and the character of bonds which it is proposed to issue hereunder against the district described in such resolution and the rate of interest to be paid thereon. In said notice, such legislative body shall invite the holders of the issued bonds proposed to be acquired and canceled in such proceedings, to submit, in writing, to such legislative body, in the event such bondholders desire so to do, a proposal or proposals setting forth the terms and conditions upon which such bondholders will deliver to such legislative body or to such official as may be designated by such legislative body their respective bonds proposed to be acquired and canceled hereunder for cancellation in consideration of the delivery to such bondholders of assessment readjustment bonds to be issued against the district described in said resolution of intention, or in consideration of the payment to such bondholders of a sum or sums, in cash, to be specified in such proposal or proposals, or in consideration of the delivery and payment to such bondholders of any combination of such assessment readjustment bonds and cash as may be stated in such proposal or proposals. If, pursuant to such notice, there shall be filed with such legislative body, in writing, a proposal or proposals which provide for the surrender and cancellation, or redemption as herein provided, of not less than seventy-five per cent of the principal amount of all of the outstanding bonds referred to in the resolution of intention, such legislative body shall have authority to order such person as said legislative body may designate to make a diagram of the property within said assessment district created hereunder, affected or benefited by the proposed acquisition and cancellation of such outstanding bonds and to be assessed to pay the cost thereof and the expenses incidental thereto. Such diagram shall show each separate lot, piece or parcel of land, and the dimensions of each such lot, piece or parcel of land, within the limits of such assessment district. Such person, so designated by such legislative body to make such diagram, or such other person as said legislative body may designate, shall, upon the completion thereof, proceed to estimate upon the lands, lots or portions of lots within said assessment district as shown by said diagram, the benefits arising from the acquisition and cancellation of such issued bonds, and to be received by each such lot, portion of such lot, piece or subdivision of land, and shall thereupon assess upon and against said lands in said assessment district the total net amount of the cost of the acquisition and cancellation of such issued bonds and the costs and expenses incidental to the proceedings hereunder to be assessed against the lands within said district hereunder, and in so doing shall assess said total sum upon the several pieces, parcels, lots or portions of lots, and subdivisions of lands in said assessment district, benefited thereby, to wit: upon each, respectively, in proportion to the estimated benefits to be received by each of said several lots, portions of lots, or subdivisions of land. The terms, "lot," "lots," "lands," "piece" or "parcel" of land, wherever mentioned in this act, shall be deemed to have the same meaning as such terms have assigned to them respectively in said "Improvement Act of 1911" above referred to. At the time of the making of the assessment hereunder and in estimating the benefits to be received by each such lot, portion of such lot, piece or subdivision of land, among other things, there shall be taken into consideration the following:

(a) The principal amount of all such bonds originally issued;

(b) The amount of special assessment levies theretofore made on account of such bonds;

(c) The amount of outstanding bonds proposed to be acquired and canceled;

(d) The number of issues of such bonds if more than one;

(e) The amount or amounts which have been collected or paid into the interest and sinking fund of any such district or districts, the bonds of which are to be acquired and canceled hereunder, for, or on account of, any lot, piece or parcel of land upon assessments theretofore levied to pay the principal and interest of such bonds;

(f) The delinquency in the payment of any such assessments so levied which may exist against any such lot, piece or subdivision of land;

(g) The allocation, if any, referred to in the resolution of intention and any subsequent allocations or additional amounts which may have been subsequently added to such allocated amount;

(h) Any costs and expenses incidental to the proceedings hereunder; and

(i) The amount of any discount or discounts or other concession or concessions referred to in the proposal or proposals of the bondholders hereinabove referred to.

When such diagram and such assessment shall have been made, the same shall then be filed with the clerk of such legislative body. Such clerk shall then give notice of the filing of the same and of a time to be therein fixed by said clerk when all persons interested in the acquisition and cancellation of such issued bonds, or in the diagram or assessment, will be heard by such legislative body. Such notice shall also recite the fact of the filing of such proposal or proposals by such bondholders and shall briefly indicate the terms, conditions and basis thereof and shall refer to such resolution of intention and to such proposal or proposals of such bondholders and to such diagram and assessment so on file for further particulars with reference thereto. Such notice shall be posted for not less than five days on or near the door of the chamber in which such legislative body conducts its regular public meetings and in addition, shall be published twice, before the date designated for such hearing, in the newspaper in which the resolution of intention was published, if same still exists, otherwise in such newspaper as such legislative body may designate and which is published and circulated in the territory in which such legislative body has jurisdiction.
Such notice shall also be given by such clerk by mailing a copy of the same at least fifteen days prior to the time fixed for such hearing, to the owner of each lot, parcel or subdivision of land listed according to the name and address appearing on the last equalized assessment roll for city, county, or city and county taxes prior thereto, or as known to such clerk. Such notice so to be mailed shall also designate the property within the assessment district belonging to said owner by a description sufficient to enable the property owner to identify the property and a statement of the amount proposed to be assessed against such property. Such clerk shall upon the completion of such mailing, file with such legislative body an affidavit setting forth the time and manner of the compliance with the above requirement for such mailing. The failure of such clerk to give such notice by mailing or of the person addressed to receive same shall not affect the jurisdiction of the legislative body to proceed with the hearing noticed. The owners and all other persons interested in the proposed acquisition and cancellation of such issued bonds, or in the diagram or assessment, feeling aggrieved by any act or determination of the person or persons who prepared such diagram and assessment in relation thereto, or having or making any objection to the correctness of the assessment or diagram, or other act, determination or proceedings of the person or persons who prepared the same, shall, prior to the day fixed for the hearing upon such assessment, appeal to such legislative body by briefly stating in writing the grounds of such appeal. Upon such appeal, such legislative body may remedy and correct any error or informality in the proceedings, and revise and correct any of the acts or determinations of the person or persons who made such diagram and assessment relative to said diagram or assessment; may confirm, amend, alter, modify or correct the assessment or diagram in such manner as to such legislative body shall seem just; and may instruct and direct the person who made such assessment and diagram to correct such assessment or diagram in any particular. All the decisions and determinations of such legislative body, upon notice and hearing as aforesaid, shall be final and conclusive upon all persons entitled to appeal under the provisions of this section, as to all errors, informalities and irregularities which such legislative body might have avoided, or have remedied during the process of the proceedings or which it can at that time remedy. No assessment or diagram, and no proceedings prior to the assessment, shall be held invalid by any court for any error, informality or other defect in the same, where the resolution of intention of the legislative body adopted thereunder has been actually published as herein provided. When no appeal is taken or when the orders and determinations of the legislative body upon appeal have been complied with, and such legislative body is satisfied with the correctness of the assessment, thereupon such legislative body shall forthwith confirm the proceedings and the assessment and the clerk of such legislative body shall attach thereto a certified copy of the order of such legislative body confirming the same and shall state in such certificate the date upon which such order was so adopted. Provided, however, and notwithstanding anything contained in this act to the contrary, in the event any such appeal is or such appeals are made by the owners of more than one-half the area of the property to be assessed for the purposes recited in the resolution of intention and such appeal or appeals further contain an express protest against the issuance of such assessment readjustment bonds and the taking of any further proceedings under the resolution of intention in said matter, then, but only in such event, shall such legislative body be deprived of jurisdiction to proceed further hereunder in such proceedings and no new resolution of intention with reference to the same matter, under the provisions of this act, may be adopted by such legislative body for a period of three months from the date of the determination of such legislative body that such a majority appeal or protest, or appeals or protests have been filed.

Sec. 7. In the event no such majority protest or appeal constituting a bar to further proceedings under the provisions of this act has been filed and such legislative body shall have confirmed the assessment as originally filed, or as modified or corrected as herein provided, such legislative body shall be deemed to have acquired jurisdiction to proceed further in such proceedings under the provisions of this act and to issue assessment readjustment bonds in the manner, to the extent and form hereinafter provided, to represent assessments for the cost of the acquisition and cancellation of such outstanding bonds and of the costs and expenses incidental to the proceedings. Such assessment readjustment bonds so to be issued, shall be serial bonds; shall be substantially in the form as the street improvement bonds provided for in said “Improvement Act of 1911” hereinabove referred to, with such appropriate changes in the wording of such bonds as may be necessary in order to make the same conform to the provisions and purposes of this act and of the proceedings taken hereunder and shall be payable to the person to whom they issue, or order; shall be for the term and bear interest at the rate specified in the resolution of intention and shall have annual coupons attached thereto payable in annual order on the second day of January of every year after the fifteenth day of the next October following the date of such bonds, until all are paid and each coupon shall be for an even annual proportion of the principal of the bonds to which same is attached. They shall also have semiannual interest coupons thereto attached as contemplated in the case of bonds issued under the provisions of said “Improvement Act of 1911” and payable in the same manner as contemplated in said last mentioned act. Said bonds shall be enforced; paid; may be redeemed or canceled; shall be subject to the same penalties; and shall in all other particulars and respects, so far as possible, be issued and conform to the requirements as is provided in the case of bonds issued under the provisions of said "Improvement Act of 1911," as amended; provided, however, that said bonds may be issued for a period of not to exceed twenty-nine years from and after the second day of January next succeeding the next fifteenth day of October following their date. The determination of said legislative body as to the form and content of said bonds shall be final and conclusive.

Sec. 8. Such legislative body, having acquired jurisdiction as hereinabove set forth, shall thereupon notify the holders of the outstanding bonds to be acquired and canceled under such proceedings, whose proposal or proposals are on file, of the fact of the final confirmation of such assessment and that such legislative body is prepared to proceed further with the acquisition and cancellation of such outstanding bonds and with the issuance and exchange or sale, as the case may be, of such assessment readjustment bonds and the payment of any cash consideration or amounts to be paid under the terms, provisions and conditions of such proposal or proposals. Such legislative body shall thereupon proceed to consummate, and it is hereby empowered and authorized to consummate, the transaction of exchange, payment, or exchange and payment, as the case may be, as contemplated in such proposal or proposals of such bondholders; provided, that in addition to the bonds to be acquired and canceled under any such proposal or proposals, such legislative body is able to acquire for cancellation, or provide for the full redemption of, according to their terms and tenor, or as may be provided for in any decree or order of any court of competent jurisdiction under the bankruptcy laws of the United States of America, all of the remainder of such outstanding bonds proposed to be acquired and canceled under the resolution of intention. In the event it is impossible to acquire for cancellation all of such outstanding bonds, by reason of the loss of any of the same, or for any other reason whatsoever, such legislative body may, upon receipt of information to that effect, notify the holder or holders of outstanding bonds whose proposal or proposals were filed, of such fact whereupon it shall be permissible for such bondholders, at their option, or for such legislative body out of any funds available to it, or for any other person or persons desiring so to do, to deposit with such legislative body, or with such person or official as may be designated in any such decree or order, cash, lawful money of the United States of America, sufficient in amount to provide for the payment and redemption, of such lost or otherwise unobtainable bonds, both principal and interest, as same mature, according to their respective terms and tenor or under such arrangement as may be provided for in any decree or order of any court of competent jurisdiction under said bankruptcy laws. In the event such deposit be so made and the transaction of exchange, payment, or exchange and payment be consummated as contemplated in such proceeding, such legislative body shall, and it is hereby authorized and empowered so to do, cause such deposit to be transmitted to and deposited with the treasurer of the political subdivision represented by such legislative body or with the person or official designated in any such decree or order. In the event such deposit be made with the treasurer of the political subdivision over which such legislative body has jurisdiction, such treasurer shall, and is hereby empowered, authorized and required so to do, make all payments of principal and interest thereafter maturing on any such outstanding, lost or otherwise unobtainable bonds for the payment and redemption of which such deposit was made, such payments to be made as such bonds mature and installments of interest thereon become payable according to the terms and tenor thereof; provided, however, in the event any holder or owner of any bond or bonds payable out of such fund on deposit with such treasurer at any time desires so to do, he may surrender any of such bond or bonds for cancellation, in which case he shall receive, out of such fund, the full amount of the principal sum of such bond or bonds, plus accrued interest to and including the date of such surrender and cancellation.

Sec. 9. Such legislative body, upon the acquisition of such outstanding bonds for cancellation, and the making of the deposit or arrangement hereinabove provided for in the case of lost or otherwise unobtainable bonds, shall, and it is hereby authorized and empowered so to do, make an order for the cancellation of, and shall cause to be canceled, all such outstanding bonds so acquired and at the same time shall make a further order for the cancellation of all unpaid special assessment taxes levied to pay principal and interest of the bonds referred to in the resolution of intention and all penalties and interest thereon. Upon the making of such order, all such outstanding bonds, referred to in the resolution of intention, (excepting only such thereof for the payment of which a deposit or arrangement for the redemption or payment of which shall have been made as herein provided) and all unpaid special assessment taxes levied to pay principal and interest on such issued bonds and all penalties and interest thereon shall be deemed to be, and shall be, canceled and annulled and the clerk of such legislative body shall notify the proper officials of the city, or of the county, or of the city and county, or any or all of such proper officials, as the case may be, that such outstanding bonds and all unpaid special assessment taxes levied to pay principal and interest of the same and all penalties and interest thereon have been canceled and annulled and such proper officials shall thereupon proceed to make the necessary entries showing the cancellation thereof and thereafter no further taxes or assessments shall be levied for the purposes of paying or redeeming such bonds and the districts against which same were issued shall thereupon be deemed dissolved and any payments made thereon, or on account thereof, subsequent to such dissolution shall be refunded to the person or persons who paid the same. Upon such dissolution of such district or districts any lien or liens then existing against the lands within the same by virtue of proceedings taken or assessments levied and pursuant to which such bonds were issued shall be canceled, satisfied and discharged and the then uncanceled bonds above excepted, if any, shall be payable only out of the deposit with such treasurer hereinabove referred to according to their terms and tenor or as may be provided in any such decree or order under the said bankruptcy laws. Said diagram and assessment shall thereupon be recorded in the office of such official of the political subdivision over which such legislative body has jurisdiction as such legislative body may, by resolution, so designate, which said official so designated shall endorse thereon the date of such recording. When so recorded the several amounts assessed shall be a lien upon the lands, lots, or portions of lots assessed, respectively, and such lien shall so continue until it be discharged of record. From and after the date of said recording of any assessment and diagram, all persons shall be deemed to have notice of the contents thereof. It shall be the duty of the officer in whose office such assessment and diagram is recorded, to perform the same duties and acts with reference to such assessment and diagram and the respective assessments set forth therein, as are required of the superintendent of streets with reference to assessments and diagrams and the respective assessments set forth therein in similar cases under the provisions of said “Improvement Act of 1911,” and the tax collector and the treasurer of the city, county, or city and county, as the case may be, of the political subdivision over which such legislative body has jurisdiction, shall perform respectively the same respective acts and functions with reference to diagrams and assessments made under the provisions of this act and with reference to assessment readjustment bonds issued hereunder as are required of tax collectors and treasurers, respectively, under the provisions of said “Improvement Act of 1911” with reference to assessments and diagrams made and bonds issued under the provisions of said last mentioned act.

Sec. 10. The officer in whose office the assessment and diagram hereunder has been recorded, is authorized at any time to receive the amount due upon any assessment recorded in his office and to give a good and sufficient discharge therefor; provided, an assessment readjustment bond has not issued to represent said assessment; and provided further that in order to allow a period within which any such assessment may be paid by any person or persons desiring so to do, no assessment readjustment bond shall be issued until thirty days have elapsed after the date upon which the assessment and diagram hereunder was recorded in the office of such officer. Said bonds shall bear date as contemplated in the case of bonds issued under said “Improvement Act of 1911.”
Sec. 11. At any time prior to the final confirmation of the assessment hereunder by such legislative body, such legislative body may receive and accept from any source whatsoever and from any person or persons, contributions of any sum or sums or amount or amounts of money in cash, to be applied on the total amount of the cost of the acquisition and cancellation of such outstanding bonds and the costs and expenses incidental to the proceedings hereunder, thereby reducing to that extent the total sum to be assessed upon the several pieces, parcels, lots, or portions of lots and subdivisions of land in the assessment district; provided, however, that in the event, for any reason assessment readjustment bonds are not thereafter issued under the proceedings in connection with which any such contribution is, or such contributions are, made, such legislative body shall have the right, and it is hereby authorized and empowered, to refund any such contribution or contributions to the person or persons who made the same. Such legislative body shall further have the right, and it is hereby authorized and empowered, to likewise receive contributions of any sum or sums or amount or amounts of money in cash, to be applied on and used and expended in connection with the costs and expenses of any proceedings and of the preparation of any assessment and diagram thereunder. Such last mentioned contributions shall be used for the payment of such costs and expenses exclusively and the balance, if any, of any such contribution or contributions, remaining, after the payment of such costs and expenses, may be refunded pro rata by such legislative body to the person or persons who contributed the same. Nothing herein contained however, shall be construed as preventing such legislative body from paying the costs and expenses of any proceedings hereunder, in whole or in part, from any fund, funds or money over which such legislative body has jurisdiction and control and which are legally applicable to the payment of costs and expenses of proceedings under the laws of the State of California.

Said legislative body may appropriate funds from the general fund, or from any funds available to such legislative body for any or all of the purposes contemplated in this act.

Sec. 12. Whenever, under the provisions of this act, any resolution, notice or other document is required to be published (and no specific designation is made herein to the contrary) same shall be published in a newspaper published and circulated within the boundaries of the assessment district proposed to be created hereunder; provided, however, that if there be no such newspaper, or in the event any newspaper designated herein for the purpose of such publication has suspended publication, then and in any such event, such publication may be made in any newspaper published and circulated within the county in which the political subdivision over which the legislative body conducting such proceedings has jurisdiction is located and which, in the opinion of such legislative body, will best give notice of the contents of such resolution, notice or other document, so to be published.

Sec. 13. Whenever the words "acquisition and improvement district" are used in this act, the same shall be construed to relate and refer to an assessment district created under the provisions of said above mentioned "Acquisition and Improvement Act of 1925." In the event the legislative body conducting the proceedings under this act is the legislative body of a city or town, then and in that event the various words, expressions, clauses and phrases defined in said "Improvement Act of 1911," above referred to, shall be construed to have the same meaning wherever the same appear in this act, as is ascribed to, or as is indicated for, the same in said "Improvement Act of 1911" so far as same may be properly applicable; and, in the event the legislative body conducting the proceedings under this act is the legislative body of a county, or city and county, then and in that event the various words, expressions, clauses and phrases defined in that certain act of the Legislature of the State of California designated and referred to as the "County Improvement Act of 1921" shall be construed to have the same meaning wherever the same appear in this act, as is ascribed to, or as is indicated for, the same in said "County Improvement Act of 1921" so far as same may be properly applicable.

Sec. 14. The provisions of that certain act of the Legislature designated and known, and which is cited and referred to as the "Special Assessment Investigation, Limitation and Majority Protest Act of 1931," shall not be applicable to proceedings under this act.

Sec. 15. In the event the legislative body conducting the proceedings hereunder was required under the provisions of said "Acquisition and Improvement Act of 1925" to procure the consent of any other legislative body or bodies in order to conduct the proceedings under which such bonds to be acquired and canceled hereunder were issued, then and in that event the consent of such other legislative body or bodies shall be secured to the taking of proceedings hereunder by the legislative body conducting the proceedings under this act. In the event any changes in jurisdiction of any legislative body or bodies over any territory included in any district to be created hereunder has taken place since the issuance of such issued bonds, then any legislative body having jurisdiction over any part of the territory included within the boundaries of any district proposed to be created hereunder shall have jurisdiction, notwithstanding any other provision or provisions of this act, to initiate and conduct proceedings under this act upon obtaining the consent of the other legislative body or bodies having jurisdiction over any other portion or portions of such territory, so to do.

Sec. 16. Any legislative body having jurisdiction to conduct a proceeding under this act is authorized to file a petition and take all proceedings required under any bankruptcy law.
or laws of the United States of America now or hereafter enacted, for a district or districts formed under that certain act of the Legislature of the State of California and known as the "Acquisition and Improvement Act of 1925."

Sec. 17. This act shall be liberally construed to the end that its purposes may be effective. No error, irregularity, informality, and no neglect or omission of any officer of a city, county, or city and county, in any procedure taken hereunder, which does not directly affect the jurisdiction of the legislative body to order the issuance of "assessment readjustment bonds" hereunder, shall void or invalidate such proceeding or any assessment for the cost of acquisition and cancellation of such issued bonds and of the costs and expenses incidental to proceedings under this act. The exclusive remedy of any person affected or aggrieved thereby shall be by appeal to the legislative body as herein provided.

Sec. 18. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases thereof be declared to be unconstitutional.

Sec. 19. No action to test the validity of, or to set aside, or to attack or annul any petition or proceeding hereunder up to and including the resolution of intention herein provided for shall be commenced in any court unless the same be so commenced within ninety days after the date of the adoption of such resolution, excluding the date of such adoption; nor shall any action to test the validity of or to set aside, or to attack or annul any proceeding hereunder subsequent to said date of the adoption of said resolution of intention, be commenced or be prosecuted unless same be commenced within ninety days after the date of recordation of the assessment or diagram as hereinabove provided; and any action commenced subsequent to the periods of limitation hereinabove provided for shall be forever barred and the court upon being advised of such fact shall immediately dismiss any such barred action. Reassessments may be ordered and made under this act for the same reasons and for the same purposes and when made shall have the same force and effect as reassessments made, or authorized to be made, under the provisions of said "Improvement Act of 1911."

Sec. 20. In the event that any balance remains in any fund or funds created under any proceeding or proceedings taken pursuant to the provisions of this act, after the purposes of such proceeding or proceedings have been accomplished and the legislative body which conducted such proceeding or proceedings shall by resolution so find, the same shall belong to, and, on order of such legislative body, be paid into, the general fund of the political subdivision over which such legislative body has jurisdiction.
SEC. 21. This act may be designated and referred to as the "Assessment Readjustment Act of 1935."

SEC. 22. That certain act of the Legislature of the State of California approved June 5, 1933, which is commonly known, designated and referred to as the "Assessment Readjustment Act of 1933" is hereby repealed.

SEC. 23. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1, Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, and shall take effect immediately.

The facts constituting such urgency are as follows: Numerous acquisition and improvement districts have been created in the State of California under the provisions of said Acquisition and Improvement Act of 1925 and landowners owning properties located therein are in dire distress financially. The lands therein have become greatly in arrears in the payment of taxes and assessments and consequently the bonds of such districts are and have been delinquent for a considerable period of time. The great bulk of the property within such districts is subject to tax and assessment liens of various kinds for delinquent taxes and assessments. Previous refunding acts adopted by the Legislature have been declared invalid by the Supreme Court of the State of California and unless extraordinary means are provided for the returning of such lands and properties to the tax rolls, on a tax paying basis, it will be impossible for the landowners to pay their taxes and assessments and save their respective properties in such districts. The collection of taxes for general city and county governmental purposes within such districts has been, and is being, seriously and adversely affected and governmental agencies have been, are being, and will continue to be, deprived of necessary revenues which are urgently and immediately required in order to perform governmental services and functions. The great bulk of the property owned by said owners within such districts will shortly be deeded to the State and lost to the owners thereof, and danger to life, health and property now exists and will continue to increase.

This act is also necessary to accomplish the clearing of the titles to lands and properties located within such districts, to secure the payment of taxes, tolls and charges, to permit the landowners to retain possession of their lands and to continue to occupy, use and develop the same, and thereby to prevent the destruction of life, health and property.
CHAPTER 394.

An act to add a new section to the Insurance Code of the State of California to be numbered 12629, relating to mortgage insurers, including but not being limited to the rehabilitation, readjustment or reorganization of mortgage insurers or of all or of any part of the business, properties and assets of such insurers, and to the revision, modification or termination of mortgage participation trusts, mortgage participation certificates and policies of mortgage insurance and to the readjustment, modification or reorganization of the rights or interests of any or all of the investors and creditors of, and persons interested in, such insurers or trusts; to provision for the kinds of securities issuable in connection therewith and exempting such securities from the provisions of the Corporate Securities Act, and authorizing executors, administrators, guardians, receivers, trustees, insurers, banks, banking institutions and trust companies and officers of the State of California to consent to a plan, as defined in said section, to exchange mortgage participation certificates, shares of stock, bonds, notes, debentures or other rights or claims for securities issued pursuant to such plan and to continue to hold as legal investment any securities so received.

Sec. 2. Legislative Declaration of Emergency. * * *
Sec. 3. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or other part of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, or to be invalid as applied to any person, company or circumstance, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act or the application to other persons, companies or circumstances of the part held invalid as aforesaid. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act and each section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or other part thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more of the sections, subsections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared unconstitutional or be invalid as applied to any person, company or circumstance.

Sec. 4. The Legislature hereby declares that this act is enacted in the exercise of the police powers of this State in view of the existing emergency affecting mortgage insurance companies arising from the circumstances set forth in section 2 of this act.

Sec. 5. For the purpose of construing other acts or existing contracts this act shall be deemed to be an amendment to Chapter VIII of Title II of Part IV of Division First of the Civil Code of the State of California.
CHAPTER 395.

An act confirming the formation, organization and existence of municipal utility districts.

[Approved by the Governor July 6, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In all cases where the board of supervisors of any county in this State has purported to form or organize a municipal utility district under the provisions of an act of the Legislature of the State of California entitled "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation, and government of municipal utility districts, authorizing such districts to incur bonded indebtedness for the acquisition and construction of works and property, and to levy and collect taxes to pay the principal and interest thereon," approved May 23, 1921, and such purported formation or organization has been completed for a period of six months previous to the taking effect of this act, and such municipal utility district has acted or functioned as a municipal utility district for a period of six months previous to the taking effect of this act, all acts and proceedings taken for the purpose of forming or organizing such district are hereby legalized, validated and declared to be sufficient, and such municipal utility district is hereby declared to be duly formed and organized under its appropriate name as of the time of its purported formation, and shall have all the rights and privileges, and be subject to all the duties and obligations of a duly formed or organized municipal utility district.

CHAPTER 396.

An act amending sections 3897 and 3898 and repealing section 5774 of the Political Code, relating to the procedure for the sale of property deeded to the State in payment of delinquent taxes, if not otherwise disposed of under section 3897a or section 3897b of the Political Code, declaring the urgency thereof, and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor July 6, 1935. In effect immediately]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3897 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3897. (1) Except when otherwise disposed of as provided in sections 3897a and 3897b of this code, whenever the State shall have become the owner of any property sold for taxes and the deed to the State has been filed with the Controller as provided in section 3785, the tax collector of the county, or city and county, in which said land is located, shall whenever directed by the board of supervisors of his county, and upon the written authorization of the State Controller sell at private sale or public auction to the highest bidder for cash in lawful money of the United States, or by contract of sale upon the following terms, to wit: one-tenth (1/10) of the purchase price in cash at time of sale, and the balance in nine (9) annual installments thereafter, with interest upon unpaid balance of the purchase price at five per cent (5%) per annum, payable annually, and subject to the condition that all current taxes and assessments thereafter levied and assessed during the term of such contract should be paid within the time allowed by law therefor, the property or any part thereof in the manner hereinafter provided; provided that the tax colclector shall no: proceed with the sale of any land within any political subdivision or taxing agency, including reclamation, irrigation, drainage or levee district, county, or city which has taken title to said land, if the governing body of said subdivision or agency shall file with the tax collector and the board of supervisors certified copies of a resolution adopted by such governing body objecting to such sale.

(2) In case it is sought to sell such property at private sale under the provisions hereof, after the State Controller has authorized such sale, the tax collector shall, as a condition to the authority to sell at private sale, either for cash or by contract, first obtain the consent of the board of supervisors of the county, or city and county, in which the lands, or any part thereof, are located, to the proposed sale, and to that end the tax collector shall transmit to such board a notice in writing, of his intention to make such sale, which notice shall contain a description of the property to be sold, and the price in lawful money of the United States, at which it is proposed to sell the same, and also whether such price is to be paid in full at time of purchase or in annual installments as herein provided.

Upon the receipt of said notice by said board, it shall be its duty, by resolution either to consent to the proposed sale of the property as set forth in said notice, or withhold its consent thereto. In either event the said board shall, within five days after its action in the premises, transmit to said tax collector, a certified copy of its said resolution. Failure of the board to adopt such resolution or to transmit the same within the time prescribed, however, shall not make either void or voidable, a sale made pursuant to such consent.

If said board of supervisors shall approve said proposed sale as aforesaid, and upon receipt of the copy of said resolution by the tax collector, it shall be the duty of the tax colclector to give written notice to the party to whom the land was last assessed nearest before the sale, of such intended sale, by mailing said notice to him, postage thereon prepaid and registered, at his last known post-office address, at least twenty-one days before the date of said intended sale. The board of supervisors may, in their discretion, direct the tax collector to publish the notice of the intended sale once in a newspaper published in the county, or if there be no such newspaper then in a newspaper of general circulation in the county. Said notice shall contain the time and place of said intended sale, a description of the property to be sold, sufficient for identification, together with a statement that if redemption of said property is not effected according to law, prior to said date of sale, that all right of redemption shall cease.

At the time and place fixed for said intended sale, if no redemption of said property to be sold has been effected according to law, prior to said date so fixed for said intended sale, the tax collector shall sell and convey said property at private sale on the day and hour fixed therefor, or at any time not more than three months thereafter, for the price and the terms fixed in said notice to the board of supervisors, in lawful money of the United States.

(3) In case it is sought to sell such property at public auction under the provisions hereof, the tax collector must give notice of such sale by publication once in some newspaper published in the county or city and county, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then by posting a notice in three conspicuous places in the county or city and county, one of which shall be in the United States post office nearest the land. Such publication must be completed not less than three weeks prior to the sale. Such notices must state specifically the place and the day and hour of sale and shall contain a description of the property to be sold and shall also contain the name of the person to whom the property was assessed, on the county assessment roll for each year on which there may be delinquent taxes against said property or any part thereof. It shall be the duty of the tax collector to mail within five days, after the publication of said notice of sale a copy of said notice, postage thereon prepaid to the party to whom the land was last assessed nearest before the sale, at his last known post-office address, and shall also mail a copy of said notice, postage prepaid, to the State Controller and clerk or secretary of the governing board of each political subdivision or taxing agency. or reclamation, irrigation, drainage or levee district having the right to levy taxes or assessments on the land involved and any such subdivision or agency, including reclamation, irrigation, drainage or levee district, or county or city having taxes or assessments levied on any parcel may bid on such parcel.

(4) All moneys received on account of any such sales shall be immediately transmitted by the tax collector to the county treasurer together with a report showing the amount of costs which the county has expended on account of the making of such sale, showing the total sums received for individual parcels, which parcels shall be identified in said report by year, page and number of delinquency roll, and a duplicate thereof shall be filed with the county auditor. The amount of expenses so reported shall be deposited in the county general fund and the balance shall be deposited in the delinquent tax sale trust fund.

(5) Upon the receipt of said duplicate report, the auditor shall mail a copy thereof to the State Controller and to the secretary or clerk of the governing board of each political subdivision or taxing agency, or reclamation, irrigation, drainage or levee district capable under the law of levying taxes or assessments upon the land covered by such sale, and shall enclose therewith a notice describing such land, and that claims on the amount received from the sale thereof must be made within a period of six months from the date of the mailing of such notices.

(6) Upon the receipt of such notices it shall be the duty of the State Controller and the governing board of any political subdivision or taxing agency, including reclamation, irrigation, drainage or levee district or county, or city, having taxes or assessments levied upon the land described in said notices to forward a claim thereon to the county auditor setting forth the amount of the tax or assessment delinquent levied on such land, by, and still unpaid to, the political subdivision or district for which said claim is being made. On the first meeting day of the board of supervisors following the expiration of six months from the date of mailing such notices, as aforesaid, by said county auditor, the county auditor shall present all such claims received by him to the said board of supervisors and the board of supervisors, if said claims be correct, shall order the money received from the sale of each parcel of land, and also the paid or subsequent installments of the purchase price of any contract of sale, to be divided pro rata among the taxing or assessing agencies having filed claims in accordance with the proportion which such delinquent tax or assessment bears to the total of all such taxes or assessments first delinquent in each district or political subdivision involved, and the auditor shall draw and mail warrants on said delinquent tax sale trust fund in accordance with said order. If the board of supervisors dispute the correctness of any such claim, the money received from the sale of the individual parcel or parcels involved in such disputed claim shall remain in said trust fund until the settlement of said claim by agreement of the governing boards or officers of the various taxing or assessing agencies or by judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(7) A deed given by the tax collector upon a sale made as in this section provided shall convey title to the purchaser free and clear of all liens, taxes, assessments or encumbrances of any kind or character whatsoever levied or assessed or liened on the property which are due at the time of such sale so conveyed prior to the date of such sale, and, except as against actual fraud, such deed duly acknowledged shall be prima facie evidence of the regularity of all proceedings from the assessment of the assessor to and including the execution of such deed.

Nothing in this section contained shall be deemed to nullify or amend the provisions of section 12 of "Improvement Bond Act of 1915" or of any provisions amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto with reference to the title acquired by a purchaser at a tax collector's sale or at a resale by the city.

(8) No action, suit or proceeding to set aside, cancel, or question the validity of any proceedings instituted under the provisions of this section shall be instituted or maintained unless the same shall have been commenced within six months after the date of the execution of the deed of the tax collector and thereafter all persons shall be barred from commencing or prosecuting any such action or maintaining any defense in any action based upon the alleged invalidity or alleged irregularity in such proceeding. The burden of proof in any such action or proceeding shall be upon the plaintiff to show invalidity of taxes, assessments, or sales of which he complains.

(9) Any deed given under this section shall be subject to any lease theretofore given under the provisions of section 3466a.

Sec. 2. Section 3898 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3898. 1. The monies received from sales made under the provisions of section 3897 of this code shall be distributed as follows: The tax collector, in case of a sale at public auction, shall deduct the penalties, costs and other amounts received as expenses of such sale in such cases as the property so sold shall have been sold for a sum not less than the amount of all taxes levied thereon and all interest, costs, penalties and expenses up to the date of such sale, but where the property so sold shall have been sold for a sum less than said amount, the tax collector shall deduct only the amounts received as expenses attending such sale, and the balance shall be distributed among the State, county, city, and other taxing agencies including reclamation, irrigation, drainage or levee districts to which taxes or assessments may be due, in the proportion that the amount of taxes and penalties due the State bears to the amount of taxes and penalties due to each of the other taxing agencies. The tax collector shall pay all amounts into the county treasury, and the treasurer shall account to the State for its portion in the settlement required by section 3865, and section 3866. In cases of private sales by the tax collector the amounts paid to the county treasurer shall be disposed of as in this section provided. The State's portion from such sales shall be paid into the State treasury to the credit of the general fund. The tax land fund is hereby abolished and the funds therein are hereby transferred to the general fund.

2. On receiving the purchase price at sales under the provisions of section 3897 of the Political Code, the tax collector must execute a deed to the purchaser at such sale, which deed shall be in substance, and may be in form as follows:

"This indenture made the ______ day of ______, 19______, between ______ tax collector of the county of ______, State of California, first party, and ______, of the county of ______,
State of California, second party,
WITNESSETH:
That whereas the real property hereinafter described was duly sold and conveyed to the State of California for the non-payment of taxes which had been legally levied and which were a lien upon said property under and in accordance with law, and

Whereas in conformity with law, the State of California, acting by and through ______, tax collector as aforesaid, did sell said property, hereinafter described, at a private sale to the said second party, for ______ dollars, (or in case of a sale at public auction) did offer said property hereinafter described, for sale at public auction to the highest bidder at which sale second party became the purchaser of the whole thereof for the sum of ______ dollars.

Now, therefore, the said first party in consideration of the premises and in pursuance of the statute in such cases made and provided, does hereby grant to the second party, his heirs and assigns, that certain real property hereinbefore referred to and situate in the county of ______, State of California, more particularly described as follows, to wit:

In witness whereof, said first party has hereunto set his hand the day and year first above written.

________________________________________
Tax Collector of the County of
_______, State of California."

No other matters need be recited in the said deed than those provided for in the above form. No charge shall be made by the tax collector for the making of any such deed, and the acknowledgment of all such deeds when executed by the tax collector shall be taken by the county clerk free of charge.

3. Within ten days after each sale, as provided in section 3897 of the Political Code, the tax collector shall report to the assessor and recorder of the county in which the lands sold are situated, giving the name or names of all persons to whom deeds have been issued under the provisions of this section, and said section 3897, together with the dates of such deeds, the amount for which the property was sold, the description of the property conveyed, together with the numbers and dates of the certificates of sale and of the tax deeds by which title to such property so granted was conveyed to the State.

4. The recorder shall note on the margin of each certificate of sale and of each tax deed involved in the sale, and transfer of such property, the name of the purchaser, the date of the deed to the purchaser, and the consideration named therein.
The assessor shall use such report in his determination of the ownership of such property for assessment purposes.

5. Upon the completion of the sale, the tax collector shall report to the State Controller the date of sale, the description of the property, the name of the purchaser, and the amount of money received for the property sold.

6. (a) Whenever in any action at law it has been, or shall be determined by a court that the sale and conveyance provided for in this section and section 3897 of the Political Code, or in section 3771 of the Political Code, heretofore or hereafter made, are void for any reason, and that the purchaser from the State may not be finally awarded the property so purchased, no decree of the court shall be given declaring a forfeiture of the property until the former owner or other party in interest shall have repaid to the purchaser the full amount of taxes, penalties, and costs, paid out and expended by him, to be determined by the court, in pursuit of the State's title to the property so sold. The said purchaser may, within one year after such decree becomes final, also present a claim against the county in the manner provided by law for a refund of the amount paid into the county treasury as the purchase price of such property in excess of the amount for which he may have been reimbursed for taxes, penalties and costs, as herein provided, and such excess shall be refunded in accordance with section 3804 of this code.

(b) Whenever it shall be determined to the satisfaction of the board of supervisors of the county in which the land is situated that any land belonging to the United States government or to this State, a municipality or other political subdivision of this State has been erroneously sold and conveyed under the provisions of this section or section 3897, or section 3771 of this code, and the said land should not have been so sold, the purchaser at said sale may present a claim against the county in the manner provided by law for a refund of the amount so paid into the county treasury by reason of such sale and such claim shall be paid by the county treasurer as provided in section 3804 of the Political Code of the State of California.

Sec. 3. Section 3774 of the Political Code is hereby repealed.

Sec. 4. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of public peace, health and safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall therefore go into effect immediately.

The facts constituting such necessity are as follows:

Due to the depression which has existed in the past several years many landowners have been unable to meet the taxes and assessments levied by the State, political subdivisions, agencies, reclamation, irrigation, drainage and levee districts, with the result that their lands have been sold to the State and such taxing and assessing agencies. The heavy penalties assessed by law have made it impossible for the landowners to redeem their lands, hence thousands of acres of land have been sold for the nonpayment of such taxes and assessments, and deeds have been executed thereon to the State and such taxing and assessing agencies. That as long as such lands remain State lands the same are nonassessable for tax or assessment purposes, and the tax and assessment burden becomes heavy upon the paying lands, causing more delinquencies and losses and threatening the insolvency of many political subdivisions and agencies, and reclamation, irrigation, drainage and levee districts. The Legislature hereby declares that the welfare of the State requires that such land be placed in private ownership as promptly as possible so that such land henceforth bear its just proportion of current taxation and assessments.

CHAPTER 397.

An act to add section 2391 to the School Code, relating to severance of joint schools.

[Approved by the Governor July 6, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 2.391 is hereby added to the School Code to read as follows:

2.391. Wherever, by reason of any action taken in accordance with law, territory is, or has been heretofore, removed from a high school district, and the high school district is or has been thereby separated into two or more noncontiguous parts, the validity of such high school district shall not be deemed to be, or have been, affected by the withdrawal of such territory, and the rights, powers, duties, responsibilities and jurisdiction of the high school district shall be deemed not to be, or have been affected by reason of the separation of the high school district into two or more noncontiguous parts.

CHAPTER 398.

An act to amend section 3820 of the Political Code, relating to assessor to collect taxes not secured by real property.

[Approved by the Governor July 6, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 3820 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:
Ch. 399] FIFTY-FIRST SESSION 1445

3820. The assessor shall have power to collect the taxes on all property when, in his opinion, said taxes are not a lien upon real property sufficient to secure payment of the taxes. The taxes on all assessments of possession of, claim to, or right to the possession of land, and the taxes on taxable improvements located upon land exempt from taxation, shall be immediately due and payable upon assessment and when collected by the assessor shall be collected by the assessor as provided in Part III, Title IX, Chapter VIII of this code, unless, in the same county, the owner or claimant of such possession of, claim to or right to the possession of land, or of such improvements shall also own taxable real property in fee. in which event the taxes due upon such possession of, claim to or right to the possession of land, or upon such improvements, are respectively a lien upon such taxable real property so owned in fee, which lien attaches as of the first Monday of March in each year, and such taxes need not be collected by the assessor if in his opinion such taxable real property so owned in fee is sufficient to secure the payment thereof; provided, however, that the taxes on all property assessed pursuant to the provisions of section 14 of Article XIII of the Constitution of this State may be paid by the person or corporation to whom such property is assessed in the same manner and at the same time as if such property were secured by real property.

CHAPTER 399.

An act to amend section 865 of the Fish and Game Code, relating to fish, declaring the urgency thereof to take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor July 6, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 865 of the Fish and Game Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

865. It is unlawful to use any net except a gill net or a trammel net to take shad. Such nets may be used to take shad only as follows:

(1) They may be used in district 12B, excluding all sloughs except Broad Slough, between February 15 and May 15.

(2) They may be used in district 12C, excluding all sloughs, between February 15 and May 15.

(3) They may not be used between sunrise Saturday and sunset of the following Sunday.

Sec 2. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency Urgency. measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore take effect immediately.

The facts constituting such necessity are as follows: there are many destitute fishermen who will be enabled to relieve their condition through the use of the nets herein permitted. Since the season or shad will soon close, it is necessary that this take immediate effect in order that it may benefit such destitute fishermen.

CHAPTER 400.

An act to postpone proceedings to enforce any guaranty of any special assessment or special assessment tax, or arising out of the issuance of any special assessment bond, or ad valorem district bonds or direct assessment district bonds, levied or issued to pay the cost of the improvement or acquisition of property for public purposes, in cases in which proceedings to enforce such assessments, bonds, or taxes are postponed by law, declaring the urgency thereof, and providing that it shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor July 3, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. No suit, action or other proceeding shall be begun or prosecuted upon or to enforce any guaranty of the payment of all or any portion of any special assessment, special assessment tax, special assessment bond, or other assessment or tax, levied to pay the cost of the construction of any public improvement or the acquisition of any property for public use, during the time that any proceeding, act, or other remedy provided for the enforcement of any such assessment, tax or bond is postponed, delayed or prohibited by any statute or other provision of law; and, no suit, action or other proceeding shall be begun or prosecuted upon or to enforce any guaranty of the payment of any instrument or bond issued to represent any such assessment, tax or bond during the time that any proceeding, act or other remedy provided for the enforcement of any such assessment, tax or bond is postponed, delayed or prohibited by any statute or other provision of law.

Sec. 2. The periods of time prescribed by sections 581, 581a, 581b and 583 of the Code of Civil Procedure or prescribed by any other provision of law for the commencement of any action or proceeding to foreclose or enforce any special assessment, special assessment tax, special assessment bond or other assessment or tax levied or issued to pay the cost of the construction of any public improvement or the acquisition of any property for public use and the periods of time prescribed by any of said sections of the Code of Civil Procedure or other provisions of law for the commencement of any action to enforce any guaranty of the payment of any such special assessment, special assessment tax, special assessment bond or other assessment or tax of any bond or other instrument issued to represent any such assessment or tax, is hereby extended for such period of time as any proceeding, action, or other remedy provided for the enforcement of any such assessment tax or bond is postponed, delayed or prohibited by any statute or other provision of law.

Sec. 3. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency Urgency.
measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public
peace, health and safety, within the meaning of section 1. of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall therefore take effect immediately. The following is a statement of the facts constituting such urgency:

The peace, safety and welfare of citizens of this State are dependent upon immediate relief from the payment of principal or installments thereof due upon such assessments, taxes, and bonds, by reason of the fact that the present economic crisis has made the owners of property upon which such lien falls unable to pay the principal due thereon. The property, as a result of the depression, has neither a reasonable existing sale value, nor does it at present furnish satisfactory or realizable security for raising funds for the payment of these bonds. If these persons lose their homes as a result of proceedings arising out of the nonpayment of these sums, the burden of their support and maintenance will have to be assumed by the State or by local taxation, to the great injury of the State or local government of this State. When a moratorium is declared upon such payments, it would be grossly inequitable and would cause financial ruin to guarantors not to extend to them similar relief. It is therefore necessary that the temporary relief given by this act be immediately extended and this act should therefore take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 401.

An act to add Chapter 8 to Division VI of the Agricultural Code, relating to the marketing of milk and other dairy products.

[Approved by the Governor July 6, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. A new chapter is hereby added to Division VI New chapter of the Agricultural Code to be numbered 8 and to read as follows:

CHAPTER 8. MARKETING OF MILK AND OTHER DAIRY PRODUCTS.

Article I. General Provisions.

1299. As used in this chapter the terms "milk," "market milk," "market cream," "manufacturing milk," "manufacturing cream," shall be the meaning of those terms as defined in Division IV of this code. "Dairy products" means buttermilk, ice cream, ice-milk, bottled milk drinks sold under a trade name, modified milk, acidophilus milk and skim milk for human consumption.

"Distributor" means any person, other than a retail store, irrespective of whether he is also a producer who sells market milk or dairy products at wholesale or retail.

"Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the business of manufacturing dairy products as said products are herein defined.

"Producer" means any person who operates a dairy herd or herds producing milk or cream commercially.

"Retail store" means any place where milk and/or dairy products are sold for consumption off the premises.

"Wholesale customer" means any person who buys milk, cream or dairy products from a distributor or manufacturer for resale to consumers.

"Consumer" means any person who buys milk, cream or dairy products for consumption by himself or his household.

Nothing in this chapter contained shall control or otherwise affect any self-help cooperative association marketing market milk, cream or dairy products to its members or any educational or other agency of the State engaged in teaching or research relating to agriculture, provided when engaged in the commercial selling or distribution of milk, cream or dairy products said educational or other agency of the State shall conform to the provisions of this chapter.

1299.1. In the marketing of market milk, cream and dairy products the following methods of doing business or trade practices are hereby declared unlawful.

(a) The payment or allowance of rebates, refunds, commissions or unearned discounts to any customer whether in the form of money or otherwise.

(b) The giving of any milk, cream or dairy products for the purpose of securing business provided the giving of milk, cream or dairy products to bona fide charities is not prohibited.

(c) The extension to any purchasers of milk, cream or dairy products of special prices, services or privileges not extended to all purchasers upon like terms and conditions.

(d) Any false or misleading advertising of milk, cream or dairy products as defined in section 654a of the Penal Code.

(e) Any discriminations between wholesale customers or between consumers who purchase milk, cream or dairy products under like conditions of service as to prices at which milk, cream or dairy products are sold thereto or any discrimination between different sections, communities or cities, in the same sales or marketing area, or portions thereof or between different localities in such sections, communities or cities or portions thereof by selling milk, cream or dairy products at a lower price in one section, community or city or any portion thereof or in one location in such section, community or city or any portion thereof than in another after making allowance for difference, if any, in the cost of such milk, cream or dairy products and the actual cost of transportation of such milk, cream or dairy products from the point of processing or manufacture.

(f) The solicitation of the business of any wholesale customer or consumer at lower prices for milk, cream or dairy products of like quality or grade sold under like conditions of service than such wholesale customer or consumer is then paying a competitor.

(g) The sale or offer to sell or giving of any article at less than the prevailing market price thereof to secure the milk, cream or dairy products business of any wholesale customer or any person who buys as a consumer.

(h) The payment by distributors or manufacturers of different prices for milk purchased from producers of the same grade and quality used for similar purposes in the same marketing or sales area provided that differences in actual cost of transportation from point of production to distributors' or manufacturers' plant shall not be construed as a violation of this section. The payment by distributors or manufacturers in any marketing or sales area of a lower price to any producer than is being paid by distributors or manufacturers for fifty-one per cent of all milk used in such marketing or sales area for similar purposes.

(i) Any payment by any distributor or manufacturer to any producer for milk purchased, in the same sales or marketing area, at a lower price than that at which all milk used by such distributor or manufacturer for similar purposes is paid for.

(j) The payment by a distributor or manufacturer to any producer at a price less than the average prevailing cost of production of milk of like quality to the producer in the area as determined by the director.

(k) The sale by any distributor who produces his own milk or who produces his own milk and acquires other milk for distribution at a price less than the average prevailing cost of production and distribution in the area as determined by the director.

(l) Sale of milk, cream or dairy products at less than cost as defined in this subsection, provided that nothing in this subsection shall prohibit the meeting of any legal price made by any competitor. For the purposes of this subsection the term "cost" is hereby defined as the price paid for such milk, cream or dairy products at seller's place of business plus cost, if any, of processing, handling and delivery.

(m) The buying by any distributor of any market milk, excluding cream, from producers unless a written contract is executed by buyer and seller specifying the price and terms upon which said milk is purchased by the distributor and sold by the producer, and unless said contracts or any amendments thereof are recorded with the director within five days of their execution.

(n) The engaging in business as a distributor, manufacturer or producer, as said terms are defined in this chapter, by any person who does not hold a license or who is not registered as herein provided.

Article 2.

1299.2. The director shall enforce the provisions of this chapter and for that purpose may make such rules and regulations as he deems necessary. The provisions of this chapter shall be liberally construed.

1299.3. After thirty days after the effective date of this act no person shall deal in milk, cream or dairy products as a distributor or manufacturer as herein defined, without first having obtained a license from the director, and no producer, as herein defined, shall sell any market milk, market cream, manufacturing milk or manufacturing cream to any distributor or manufacturer, as herein defined, without first having registered with the director. Provided, however, the licensing and registration provisions of this act shall have no application to a producer who produces and sells manufacturing milk solely for manufacturing purposes or who is a party to a marketing agreement entered into between producers or between producers and processors under existing Federal or State law which permit such agreements. The special licenses and registration provided in this section are in addition to any and all licenses required by any other section of Division IV, Agricultural Code, or any other law or ordinance of any county or municipality of this State. Applications for the licenses and registrations herein provided shall be made on forms furnished by the director and shall state the name and address of the applicant and such details as to the nature of applicant's business as the director may require.

1299.4. The fee for all licenses and registrations provided for in section 1299.3 shall be three dollars annually and said fee shall accompany the application and shall be payable to the director; provided that no registration fee shall be paid by producers milking less than ten cows daily. The director, at least once each month, shall report to the State Controller the total amount of moneys collected for fees under this chapter and shall at the same time pay into the State treasury the entire amount of such receipts which shall be credited to the Department of Agriculture fund and expended in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. The director shall, within thirty days prior to the regular session of the Legislature, submit to the Governor a full and true report of the transactions under this law during the preceding biennium, including a complete statement of receipts and expenditures during the period. All of the licenses and registrations required by this chapter expire on the thirty-first day of each December and may be renewed within thirty days of the expiration thereof upon payment of the annual fee of three dollars if the licensee or producer has complied with all the requirements of this chapter and the rules and regulations applicable thereto.

1299.5. The director may refuse to grant any license herein provided and may, after due hearing, revoke or suspend any such license as the case may require, when he is satisfied that any applicant or licensee has violated any provision of this chapter or when he is satisfied that any distributor or manufacturer has failed to make payment to any producer for milk purchased at the price, upon the terms, and on the date agreed to between such distributor or manufacturer and such producer; provided that in the event of an appeal from a decision or order of the director revoking a license such order shall not be effective until final judgment on the appeal.

1299.6. Every distributor or manufacturer of milk, cream or dairy products who buys milk or cream from producers shall keep the following records:

(a) A record of all milk, cream or dairy products received, detailed as to location, names and addresses of suppliers, prices paid, and deductions or charges made, and the use to which such milk or cream was put.

(b) A record of the quantity of each kind of milk or dairy product manufactured and the quantity and price of milk or dairy products sold.

(c) A record of the wastage or loss of milk or dairy products.

(d) A record of the items of handling expense.

(e) Such other records as the director may deem necessary for the proper enforcement of this chapter.

1299.7. All distributors shall keep a full and complete record of all milk, cream or dairy products sold, classified as to kind and grade, showing where sold, and the amount received therefor.

1299.8. All distributors or manufacturers shall make and file with the director at least once each month such reports as the director may require to enable him to enforce the provisions of this chapter.

1299.9. Any record or report made to the director pursuant to the provisions of this article shall be confidential and shall not be divulged except when necessary for the proper determination of any court proceedings or hearing before the director.
1299.10. The director, upon his motion or upon the receipt of any verified complaint shall investigate any transaction or transactions involving the violation of any provision of this chapter by any person, the director shall cause a copy of such complaint together with a notice of time and place of hearing of such complaint to be served personally or by mail upon such person. Such service shall be made at least ten days before the hearing, which shall be held in the city or town in which is situated the business location of the person complained of, or in which the transaction complained of is said to have occurred. The person complained of shall, at least three days prior to the date fixed for said hearing, serve upon the complaining party and file with the director a verified answer to all the allegations contained in said complaint. At the time and place appointed for such hearing the director, or his agents, shall hear the parties to such complaint, and shall enter in the office of the director at Sacramento a decision dismissing such complaint or specifying the facts established on such hearing. A copy of such decision shall be furnished to each, every and all the respective parties thereto. The director shall have full authority to administer oaths and take testimony thereunder, to issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses before him, together with all books, memoranda, papers, and other documents, articles or instruments; to compel the disclosure by such witnesses of all facts known to them relative to the matters under investigation, and all parties disobeying the orders or subpoenas of said director shall be guilty of contempt and shall be certified to the superior court of the State, in and for the county wherein such contempt occurs, for punishment for such contempt in accordance with section 353 Political Code.

1299.11. Any act of the director pursuant to the provisions of this chapter may be reviewed by any court of competent jurisdiction.

1299.12. The violation of any provision of this chapter is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding six months or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 2. If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of this chapter, or the application of such provision to any other person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby.

Sec. 3. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. The statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

The economic conditions of fluid milk producers throughout the State are such as to require immediate relief if their purchasing power and taxing ability are to continue and their morale and standard of living are not to be undermined. Such relief can be afforded only by the orderly production and marketing of fluid milk and fluid cream. The provisions herein contained are necessary in order to prevent the further demoralization of the fluid milk and fluid cream industries.

CHAPTER 402.

An act to regulate the caravaning of motor vehicles upon the public highways of this State, defining the term "caravaning" and providing for the licensing of motor vehicles in caravan and imposing penalties for violation thereof.

[Approved by the Governor July 6, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. The term "caravaning" as used in this act shall mean the transportation from without the State of any motor vehicle operated on its own wheels, or in tow of another motor vehicle, for the purpose of selling or offering the same for sale to or by any agent, dealer, manufacturers' representative, purchaser or prospective purchaser, whether such agent, dealer, manufacturers' representative, purchaser or prospective purchaser may be located within or without this State. The caravaning of motor vehicles as herein defined shall be considered as the transportation of property for hire by motor vehicle and shall be subject to all the laws of this State relative to the transportation of property for hire by motor vehicle upon the public highways of this State.

Sec. 2. No person, firm or corporation shall use any highway in this State for caravaning motor vehicles unless and until there shall first have been secured from the Motor Vehicle Department of the State of California a special permit as to each vehicle so caravaned, for use of the highways of this State in caravaning such vehicle, which permit shall be displayed by posting the same upon the windshield of such vehicle or in other prominent place thereon where it may be readily legible. It shall be unlawful to operate three or more vehicles or groups of vehicles in caravan unless a space of at least one hundred fifty feet shall at all times be maintained between each vehicle or group of vehicles being so caravaned.

Sec. 3. As a condition precedent to the issuance of any special permit provided for in the previous section of this act the Motor Vehicle Department of the State of California shall charge and collect a fee of fifteen dollars for each motor vehicle for which a caravan permit may be issued, whether such vehicle be operated under its own power or in tow of another motor vehicle; provided, however, that no such permit shall be issued by said Motor Vehicle Department unless and until the applicant therefor shall have produced evidence to the satisfaction of said Motor Vehicle Department that all of the laws of this State relating to the transportation of property upon the public highways therefor for hire shall have been complied with.

Sec. 4. No permit issued under this act for caravanning motor vehicles or vehicles shall be transferable either as between persons or as to the vehicle for which it is issued, and shall only be valid for the trip or trips to be specified in said permit, and in no event shall such permit be valid for a period of more than ninety days after it shall have been issued. Such permit shall contain such information and be in such form and shall be issued under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by said Motor Vehicle Department. Such permit shall be conditioned upon the permittee complying with all laws of the State of California and the United States.

Sec. 5. The fee paid for any caravanning permit issued under this act shall be in lieu of all other registration fees and license fees for the use of public highways in this State by motor vehicle during the period that such motor vehicle may be operated under and in accordance with such permit upon the public highways in this State; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall exempt the owner or operator of such vehicle from compliance, except with respect to fees or license charges, with all laws of this State now or hereafter adopted, relating to the transportation of property for hire.

Sec. 6. All fees from the issuance of permits collected by the Motor Vehicle Department under this act shall be paid into the general fund in the State treasury.

Said department shall file with the Controller on or before February first and August first of each year a detailed account of the receipts of said Department from this source for the six months next preceding. The moneys so derived by the State are intended to reimburse the State treasury for the added expense which the State may incur in the administration and enforcement of this act and the added expense of policing the highways over which such caravanning may be conducted, so as to provide for the safety of traffic on such highways where caravanning is being conducted.

Sec. 7. Violation of the provisions of section 2 or of section 4 of this act is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

CHAPTER 403.

An act authorizing any county, city and county, city, town, district, or any political subdivision of the State, or any public or municipal corporation of the State, in the letting of contracts for public work, or the doing of such work, to comply with requirements of Federal laws and of regulations and orders issued under authority thereof with respect to the awarding of contracts, hours of labor, employment preferences, and other matters covered thereby, and imposed as a condition or prerequisite to the loan or grant of Federal funds or the funds of any Federal corporation or agency in aid of such public work, and declaring this act to be an urgency measure, and providing that it take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor July 6, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Any county, city and county, city, town, district, or any political subdivision of the State, or any public or municipal corporation of the State, is hereby authorized in the letting of contracts for public work or in the doing of such public work to comply with and conform to all applicable requirements of Federal laws, and of regulations and orders issued under the authority thereof with respect to the awarding of contracts for such public work, the hours of labor, employment preferences and other matters covered thereby, and which said Federal laws or regulations are imposed as a condition or prerequisite to the loan or grant of Federal funds or the funds of any Federal corporation or agency in aid of such public work.

Sec. 2. This act is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1, Article IV, of the Constitution of the State of California, and shall take effect immediately. The following is a statement of the facts constituting such necessity:

Many of the public corporations and districts of the State have been the recipients of or are now applicants for loans or grants of money from the United States of America, or from the duly constituted corporations or agencies thereof, to be used for the purpose of financing in whole or in part public works on behalf of such public corporations or districts. The immediate emergency produced by unemployment within the State cannot be met excepting by encouraging and carrying on a program of public works within the State by which considerable numbers of the unemployed may find gainful employment.

The lending of funds or the grants of moneys and credit to the public corporations of this State by the Federal government, or by the duly constituted agencies or public corporations of the Federal government, is now conditioned and may hereafter be conditioned upon certain Federal laws and regulations imposed as a condition or prerequisite to the making of such loan or granting of such aid to the public corporations of the State.
It is necessary that every encouragement be accorded by the State to the public corporations and districts of the State whereby such Federal loans may be effected, or grants of aid made to them so that they may engage in public works which otherwise could not be financed. The general condition of unemployment throughout the State which now exists and for a long period of time prior hereto has existed, is resulting in distress to the people and is making necessary the granting of relief to them by the public agencies of the State. To decrease the said condition of unemployment of the people of the State will result in lessening the burden upon government of providing relief for them.

Unless the public corporations and districts of the State are immediately permitted by the State to comply with the regulations imposed by the Federal government, the moneys which otherwise would be available for the doing of public work upon which the people may be employed, will not be available.

CHAPTER 404.

An act to amend section 3818 of the Political Code, relating to segregation of property on the assessment rolls.

[Approved by the Governor July 3, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 3818 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

3818. In all cases where a lot, piece, or parcel of land contained in any assessment has been sold or may hereafter be sold for delinquent taxes to the State, and the State has not disposed of the same, a partial redemption may be made, separately from the whole assessment, of any such lot, piece or parcel of land as follows:

If such lot, piece or parcel of land has a separate valuation on the assessment roll, such partial redemption shall be made in the manner following: In the estimate provided for in the preceding section, the auditor shall estimate the amount of State and county taxes due on such lot, piece or parcel of land, together with a proper proportion of the taxes due on personal property under such assessment, and of the taxes due each school, road, lesser or other taxation district; and such redemption shall be made in the manner provided for in the preceding section.

If such lot, piece or parcel of land does not have a separate valuation on the assessment roll, the auditor shall submit the description of the fractional part of the lot, piece or parcel of real property upon which redemption is requested, to the county assessor, who must place a valuation thereon. The auditor shall then estimate the amount of such taxes due on such lot, piece or parcel of land according to such relative or proportionate value and the taxes due on any improvements on the portion sought to be so redeemed, together with a relative proportion of the taxes due on personal property under such assessment, and of the taxes due each school, road, lesser or other taxation district; whereupon such redemption shall be made in the manner provided for in the preceding section; provided, that no lot, piece or parcel of land shall be segregated unless such piece or parcel of land has been transferred to a new owner by deed and such deed has been actually executed and delivered. A trust deed shall be considered a deed for the purposes outlined in this section. A partial redemption may be made, in like manner, separately from the whole assessment, of an undivided interest in any real property, if such property has a separate valuation on the assessment roll; the auditor estimating the amount of taxes due on such undivided interest according to the proportion which such interest in said property bears to the whole assessment. The recorder shall note, on the margin of the record of the certificate of sale, a description of the property or undivided interest redeemed under this section, and shall specifically set forth the several amounts of taxes paid upon such redemption.

All requests for segregation, as provided in this section, shall be made to the county auditor, who shall transmit such requests to the county assessor and a copy of such requests to the county tax collector. A charge of one dollar shall be made for each such request and the money so received placed in the general fund of the county.

Upon receipt of the request from the county auditor, the county assessor shall immediately furnish a valuation to the county auditor and shall, as a part of the same transaction, make the segregation on the current assessment roll and also on the records in his office; provided, however, that the personal property attached to the account on the current assessment roll shall first be paid and also provided that no assessment on the current assessment roll shall be segregated after April 20 and prior to June 30.
CHAPTER 405.

An act to add a new article to Chapter II of Part I of Division II of the School Code, to be known as Article X, relating to the inclusion of Indian reservations of the United States government in elementary school districts.

[Approved by the Governor July 6, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

New article.

SECTION 1. A new article is hereby added to Chapter II of Part I of Division II of the School Code to be known as Article X and to read as follows:

Article X—Inclusion of Territory in Indian Reservations in Elementary School Districts.

2.195. The territory in any Indian reservation of the United States government may be formed into an elementary school district in the manner provided by law for the formation of new elementary school districts, or may be included in whole or in part as a part of any new elementary school district hereafter formed in the same manner as other territory may be included in a new elementary school district.

2.196. The board of supervisors of any county in which is located any territory of an Indian reservation of the United States government, which on July 1, 1936, is not a part of any elementary school district, or is not an elementary school district, shall at its first meeting following July 1, 1936, annex such territory to such contiguous elementary school district or districts in the county as the county superintendent of schools of such county shall recommend.

CHAPTER 406.

An act to amend section 1111 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to contest of elections.

[Approved by the Governor July 6, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1111 of the Code of Civil Procedure is hereby amended to read as follows:

1111. Any elector of a county, city and county, city, or of any political subdivision of either, may contest the right of any person declared elected to an office to be exercised therein, for any of the following causes: 1. For malconduct on the part of the board of judges, or any member thereof. 2. When the person whose right to the office is contested was not, at the time of the election, eligible to such office. 3. When the person whose right is contested has given to any elector or inspector, judge, or clerk of the election, any bribe or reward, or has offered any such bribe or reward for the purpose of proccuring his election, or has committed any other offense against the elective franchise defined in Title IV, Part I, of the Penal Code. 4. On account of illegal votes. 5. On account of errors of the election board in conducting the election or in canvassing the returns, sufficient to change the result of the election as to such person.

CHAPTER 407.

An act to add section 133 to the Civil Code, relating to entry of final judgment in divorce cases.

[Approved by the Governor July 6, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 133 is hereby added to the Civil Code to read as follows:

133. Whenever either of the parties in a divorce action is, under the law, entitled to a final judgment, but by mistake, negligence or inadver-tence the same has not been signed, filed or entered, if no appeal has been taken from the interlocutory judgment or motion for a new trial made, the court, on the motion of either party thereto or upon its own motion, may cause a final judgment to be signed, dated, filed and entered therein granting the divorce as of the date when the same could have been given or made by the court if applied for. Upon the filing of such final judgment, the parties to such action shall be deemed to have been restored to the status of single persons as of the date affixed to such judgment, and any marriage of either of such parties subsequent to one year after the granting of the interlocutory judgment as shown by the minutes of the court, and after the final judgment could have been entered under the law if applied for, shall be valid for all purposes as of the date affixed to such final judgment, upon the filing thereof.

CHAPTER 408.

An act to amend section 859 of the Civil Code, relating to trusts.

[Approved by the Governor July 6, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 859 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:
CHAPTER 409.

An act making an appropriation to pay the claim of Arthur A. Ohnimus against the State of California, and declaring the urgency thereof.

[Approved by the Governor July 9, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750.00) is hereby appropriated out of any money in the State treasury not otherwise appropriated to pay the claim of Arthur A. Ohnimus against the State of California, and declaring the urgency thereof.

This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 410.

An act to amend section 6.750 of the School Code, relating to the use of school buildings for activities of a seditious nature.

[Approved by the Governor July 9, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6.750 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

6.750. There is hereby established a civic center at each and every public schoolhouse within the State of California, where the citizens, parent-teachers' association, camp fire girls, boy scout troops, clubs and associations formed for recreational, educational, political, economic, artistic and/or moral activities, or the respective public school districts within the State of California may engage in supervised recreational activities and where they may meet and discuss, from time to time, as they may desire, any and all subjects and questions which in their judgment may appertain to the educational, political, economic, artistic and moral interests of the citizens of the respective communities in which they may reside.

Such use, however, by any individual, society, group or organization which has as its object or as one of its objects, or is affiliated with any group, society, or organization which has as its object or one of its objects the overthrow or the advocacy of the overthrow of the present form of government of the United States or of the State of California by force or violence or other unlawful means shall not be granted, permitted or suffered.

CHAPTER 411.

An act to amend section 4307 of the Political Code, relating to county charges.

[Approved by the Governor July 9, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4307 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

4307. The following are county charges:

1. Charges incurred against the county by virtue of any of the provisions of this act.
2. The traveling and other personal expenses of the district attorney and the sheriff incurred in criminal cases arising in the county, and in civil actions and proceedings in which the county is interested, and all other expenses necessarily incurred by either of them in the detection of crime, and in the prosecution of criminal cases, and in civil actions and proceedings and all other matters in which the county is interested, other than those crimes declared to be misdemeanors by the Vehicle Code.
3. The expenses necessarily incurred in the support of persons charged with or convicted of crime and committed therefor to the county jail, and for other services in relation to criminal proceedings for which no specific compensation is prescribed by law.
4. The sums required by law to be paid to the grand and trial jurors and witnesses in criminal cases where such cases are tried in a superior court, in a municipal court or in a township court; provided, however, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, that, in any criminal case in an inferior court in which any fine or forfeiture which would accrue would be payable to the treasurer of the county in which such court is located, then the sums required by law to be paid to the trial jurors, if any, and witnesses in said case, shall be county charges.
5. The accounts of the coroner of the county for such services as are not provided to be paid otherwise.

6. All charges and accounts for services rendered by any justice of the peace in the examination or trial of persons charged with crime, not otherwise provided for and allowed by law.

7. The necessary expenses incurred in the support of the county hospitals, almshouses, and the indigent sick and otherwise dependent poor, whose support is chargeable to the county. The board of supervisors may, in its discretion, authorize the payment of expenses incurred, by county authorities, for temporary, emergency, or extended care or treatment of indigent patients of such county, by local hospitals, or by any hospital maintained and operated by any county or by the State, or by any State college, university, or other institution supported in whole or in part by taxation, or exempted in whole or in part from taxation.

8. The contingent expenses necessary incurred for the use and benefit of the county.

9. The premiums on official bonds of county officers as required by the provisions of section 4622 of the Political Code.

10. The fees of constables in criminal cases allowed by law.

11. The actual and necessary expenses of county auditors, clerks, registrar of voters, district attorneys, assessors, sheriffs, coroners, recorders, tax collectors, probation officers, surveyyors and treasurers, incurred while traveling to and from and while attending the annual convention of their respective associations; provided, that in no event shall such expenses exceed the sum of fifty dollars for each of said officers in any one year.

12. The necessary expenses other than attorney’s fees incurred by county auditors and treasurers in the defense and prosecution of any action brought by, or against said officers, for the purpose of testing the validity or constitutionality of any act of the Legislature providing for the payment of county funds or funds held in trust by the county.

13. Every other sum directed by law to be raised for any county purpose under the direction of the board of supervisors, or declared to be a county charge.

14. The expenses necessarily incurred in searching for and rescuing persons who are lost or in danger of their lives because of storms, floods, fires, accidents or other catastrophes.
CHAPTER 412.

An act to add section 791.6 to the Fish and Game Code, relating to crabs.

[Approved by the Governor July 9, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 791.6 is hereby added to the Fish and Game Code, to read as follows:

791.6. It is unlawful to sell any crab taken in Bodega Lagoon, in district 2.

CHAPTER 413.

An act to establish a board to be known as the Rector Dam Authority; to prescribe its duties, powers, functions and jurisdiction; to authorize the authority to construct a dam in Rector Canyon to impound the waters of Rector Creek and to sell and distribute said waters; to authorize the authority to issue and sell revenue bonds to provide funds for the acquisition and construction of said dam and to provide for the redemption thereof from the revenues received from the sale and distribution of such waters; authorizing the department of public works of the State of California to operate and maintain such dam and all property appurtenant thereto; authorizing the board to acquire and hold real property necessary for its purposes, and to enter into agreements with State, Federal, and local officers and agencies, and political subdivisions, municipalities, and public districts.

[Approved by the Governor July 9, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. There is hereby created the Rector Dam Authority, to consist of the Director of Public Works, the Director of Finance, the State Controller, and two other persons to be appointed by and hold office at the pleasure of the Governor. Members of said authority shall serve without compensation.

Sec. 2. The authority shall investigate and determine the best method of impounding the waters of Rector Creek in Rector Canyon and the feasibility of erecting a dam and constructing a system for the distribution of the waters of Rector Creek to the public or to municipalities, or to public districts, or to State institutions or agencies.

Sec. 3. The authority is hereby empowered to make any necessary surveys, borings, analyses, or other investigations and to acquire from any source any information relative to the program of building such dam and other necessary works and selling or distributing such waters.

Sec. 4. The construction of such dam and the sale and distribution of such waters is hereby declared to be a matter of public interest, welfare, and necessity.

Sec. 5. Upon the determination of the method of construction and distribution, the authority is hereby empowered to construct such a dam and other works, including pipe lines, flumes, conduits, necessary for the purpose of impounding and distributing such waters.

Sec. 6. The authority is hereby empowered to acquire any real property by gift, purchase or condemnation and may acquire any personal property, franchises, rights, privileges, or easements necessary for the construction of such dam and other works. The authority shall have full jurisdiction and control over that portion of the Napa State Farm which lies east or easterly from that certain public road or highway known as Silverado Trail, together with any and all rights of way, pipe lines, flumes and ditches belonging to the State and used or useful to conduct water to or from Napa State Hospital, Napa State Farm or Veterans' Home of California. Napa State Farm, formerly known as the "Fry Ranch," is a tract of land situated near the town of Rutherford, in the county of Napa, State of California, acquired by the State under the provisions of the act entitled "An act to establish the California State Reformatory; to provide for the purchase of land therefor, and the construction of buildings and other improvements in connection therewith; to provide for the commitment and transfer of prisoners thereto and therefrom; to provide for the equipment, conduct and management thereof; and to make an appropriation therefor," approved April 24, 1911.

Sec. 7. The authority is hereby empowered to issue revenue bonds to the Federal Government in such amount as it determines to be necessary properly to construct the dam and the distribution system and to maintain it in operation until such time as it may be maintained from the revenue derived from the sale and distribution of the waters or to accept gifts, grants or donations to assist in the construction of said dam.

Sec. 8. The authority is hereby empowered to fix the prices, rates and charges for water sold and distributed so that at all times sufficient revenue will be afforded to pay all costs of operation and maintenance and to meet all payments for the redemption of any or all bonds and interest thereon which may be issued under the provisions of this act.

Sec. 9. The authority may provide for the collection of moneys due for the furnishing or delivery of water and may cease to furnish or deliver water upon the nonpayment of any sum due, and such action shall not prejudice the right of the authority to exercise any other remedy for the collection of such sums provided by law.
SEC. 10. If the authority shall enter into a contract for the delivery or furnishing of water to any State institution or other agency supported in whole or in part by public funds, it is hereby declared that all of the moneys of the State now or hereafter to be appropriated for the support of such institution or agency shall be first applied to the payment of the obligation incurred by such contract, and no claim against any moneys so appropriated shall be paid until all sums due under such contract have been allowed and paid to the authority.

SEC. 11. The revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be a lien upon all of the property, real or personal, acquired by the authority pursuant to the terms hereof or placed under the jurisdiction and control of the authority by the provisions hereof, and in the event default shall be made in the payment of said bonds or the interest thereon, the holder of such bonds may bring an action for recovery thereon in the same manner as if the authority were an individual; and in the event a recovery is had in such action, execution may be levied in the manner prescribed by law upon any property acquired by the authority pursuant to the terms of this act.

CHAPTER 414.

An act to establish the Southern California Prison under the management and control of the State Board of Prison Directors; to provide for purchase or acquirement of farm lands by unconditional gift or use of lands owned by the State therefor; and the construction of buildings and other improvements in connection therewith; to provide for the commitment and transfer of prisoners thereto and therefrom; to provide for the equipment, conduct and management thereof; and to make an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by the Governor July 9, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby established a prison for the confinement, discipline and instruction of prisoners committed thereto as hereinafter provided, to be known as the Southern California Prison.

Sec. 2. Any male person, convicted of felony may be sentenced to confinement in said prison, when in the judgment of the court said person is capable of reformation and said sentence is compatible with the general welfare.

Sec. 3. The State Board of Prison Directors shall manage and maintain said prison when ready for occupancy as hereinafter provided; and all laws applying to the existing State prison and the prisoners therein confined, are hereby made applicable to the prison provided for in this act. Said board shall employ a superintendent, who shall be the executive head of said prison, and shall establish such other positions as the needs of the service may from time to time require. Such positions shall be filled by the superintendent in the manner provided by law. The board may consolidate or abolish such positions and may fix and change the salaries to be paid.

Sec. 4. The Board of Prison Directors shall establish the rules under which the prison shall be conducted for the purpose of reformation or confinement of those committed to it; and shall adopt such methods as the board may deem expedient to restore them to freedom as self-supporting and self-respecting members of the State. Such rules shall include provision for keeping records of the facts known of each prisoner on entrance and of his conduct and progress at such intervals as the board may fix. Each prisoner on entrance shall be thoroughly examined by a competent physician for physical or mental defects or abnormalities and shall be provided such physical and surgical treatment as may be necessary to overcome such defects, so far as practicable.

Sec. 5. The Board of Prison Directors shall cause to be included in the original plans and specifications of the prison adequate provision for the employment and useful occupation of the maximum number of men capable of being confined in the institution, as planned. Such employment shall be designed to reduce the cost of maintaining the institution to the lowest figure consistent with good management and with the beneficial training, education and discipline of the prisoners therein confined.

Sec. 6. The Board of Prison Directors may establish rules by which any prisoner appearing to be incorrigible may be removed to any of the other State prisons. Such prisoner shall serve the maximum term established by law for the offense of which he was convicted, including the time served in the prison, with such deductions for good conduct during his incarceration in such prison as the law and the rules of the prison may allow.

Sec. 7. The Board of Prison Directors may transfer from the other State prisons to the Southern California Prison any prisoner serving a term for felony who in their judgment can be reformed and restored to a life of honest industry.

Sec. 8. Products of said prison shall so far as possible be supplied for State, county, municipal, school or other public use, and the prison shall collect or be credited with the fair market price therefor. No manufactured product shall be supplied, sold, exchanged or given away for private use or profit.

Sec. 9. The Board of Prison Directors may allow to prisoners such proportion of their earnings above the cost of their maintenance as the board may deem proper.

Sec. 10. A commission consisting of the Governor, or representative designated by him, Lieutenant Governor, the Speaker of the Assembly, president of the State Board of Prison Directors and one other person appointed by the Governor is hereby created for the purpose of selecting and acquiring a suitable farm site for a prison. The commission shall have full power to select a site in southern California where said prison shall be situated and negotiate for purchase of the same or to obtain such farm site by unconditional gift or by the use of land owned by the State.

Sec. 11. The Governor may negotiate with the proper agencies of the Federal government to obtain funds from the Federal unemployment relief budget to build such prison.

Sec. 12. The title to the land shall be taken in the name of the State of California. The commission shall select such farm site and acquire the same by unconditional gift or purchase or if the same can not be so acquired, may institute condemnation proceedings for the acquisition of the site.

Sec. 13. Upon the site thus selected and acquired by said commission, the Board of Prison Directors shall construct and equip, in accordance with law, suitable buildings, structures, and facilities for a prison.

Sec. 14. As soon as the prison hereby provided for is ready for occupancy and use the said Board of Prison Directors shall certify that fact to the Governor who shall make proclamation thereof.

Sec. 15. Out of any moneys in the State treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of four hundred thousand dollars, or such part thereof as may be needed, is hereby appropriated to be expended in accordance with law in carrying out the provisions of this act.

Sec. 16. It is the purpose of this act to provide for segregation from hardened criminals of offenders of a mild type, without regard to their age, who, in the opinion of the Board of Prison Directors, seem capable of moral rehabilitation and restoration to good citizenship. Should the prison provided for in this act be established in connection with or in close proximity to any other prison of the State, the prison provided for in this act shall be sufficiently isolated so that its prisoners shall not contact or mingle with criminals of hardened type.

CHAPTER 415.

An act to amend section 1382 of the Penal Code relating to the dismissal of prosecutions.

[Approved by the Governor July 9, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1: Section 1382 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

---
1382. The court, unless good cause to the contrary is shown, must order the prosecution to be dismissed in the following cases:

1. When a person has been held to answer for a public offense and an information is not filed against him, within fifteen days thereafter.

2. If a defendant, whose trial has not been postponed upon his application, is not brought to trial within sixty days after the finding of the indictment, or filing of the information.

3. If a defendant in a misdemeanor case in a justice's court, whose trial has not been postponed upon his application, is not brought to trial within thirty days after the defendant is arrested and brought within the jurisdiction of the court.

CHAPTER 416.

An act to add sections 3a, 15a and 20a to "The California Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1935," relating to ways, means, and moneys, and providing and appropriating moneys, for the administration and enforcement thereof and of regulation of producers, packers, distributors, shippers, marketers, handlers, processors, and others dealing in agricultural, viticultural, horticultural, animal, and poultry products and of any competing commodity or product thereof thereunder, and under the legislative standards in relating to the rehabilitation of agriculture therein specified, and declaring the existence of a State and National agricultural emergency and the urgency of this act and that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor July 9, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3a is hereby added to the California Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1935, to read as follows:

Sec. 3a. When used in this act the term or words "Federal license" shall mean a license, order or other method of regulation issued to or imposed upon processors, associations of producers or others engaged in the handling or marketing of any agricultural commodity or product thereof by the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States under the provisions of the National Agricultural Adjustment Act specifying the terms and conditions under which such handling or marketing may be engaged in.

SECTION 2. Section 15a is hereby added to the California Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1935, to read as follows:

Sec. 15a. (1) All moneys received by the State Director of Agriculture hereunder shall be by him at the end of each month reported to the State Controller and at the same time deposited in the State treasury to the credit of the Department of Agriculture fund.

All moneys paid into said fund hereunder are hereby appropriated for the use of said director to be expended in accordance with law and in like manner as other moneys in said fund solely in carrying out the provisions hereof.

(2) The provisions of this section shall apply only to moneys paid, transmitted, and turned over to the State Director of Agriculture under sections 6a or the last two preceding sections hereof, and shall have no application whatsoever to moneys or assessments levied, collected, paid, received, or used under any marketing agreement or license for the maintenance, support, and expenses of any board, commission, committee, officer, or employee thereunder and which are not paid, transmitted, and turned over to said director for his expenses in administering this act.

Sec. 3. Section 20a is hereby added to the act cited in the title hereof, to read as follows:

Sec. 20a. (a) Notwithstanding any provision of this act heretofore enacted, all provisions of this act, save as hereinafter provided, shall continue, be and remain in full force, effect and operation when and while there exists any Federal regulation of any agricultural business, trade or industry as to matters and transactions in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, subject to the following limitations:

1. Such Federal regulation must be within, under or to accomplish the same or similar, even though more specific, standards and purposes as heretofore existed under the National Agricultural Adjustment Act herein mentioned; and

2. In all cases and at all times corresponding State regulation of such agricultural business, trade or industry as to matters or transactions in the current of intrastate commerce within this State must be within, under and pursuant to the State legislative standards and purposes in sections 1 and 2 of this act mentioned and declared.

(b) Subject to said limitations, the term "Federal regulation" as used in subdivision (a) of this section is hereby defined to embrace all such Federal regulation now or hereafter to be enacted of whatever kind, type or form, including:

1. Specific Federal legislative provisions and regulations;

2. All orders, rules, licenses as that term was heretofore used in this act, licenses as defined in section 3a hereof, marketing agreements or regulations duly made, issued or approved by the Secretary of Agriculture under the National Agricultural Adjustment Act or any amendment thereof or any other Federal Act; and

3. All orders, rules or regulations duly made or promulgated by any officer, board, commission or committee under the terms or authority of any order, rule, license, marketing agreement or regulation in paragraph 2 of this subdivision mentioned.
No enumeration in this subdivision contained shall be construed to exclude any other ways, means or methods of imposing, effecting or administering such Federal regulation.

(c) Whenever in any other sections of this act mention or reference is made of or to Federal laws or regulations, or of or to Federal licenses as defined in section 3a hereof, or of or to Federal licenses as that term was heretofore used in this act or amendments thereof or orders, rules and regulations thereunder, the same shall be construed to refer to, include, mean and relate to any Federal regulation as that term is defined in this section.

(d) It is the true intent and purpose of this section that, subject to said limitations:

1. All Federal regulation as defined in this section now or when hereafter enacted, shall be or by the State Director of Agriculture shall be made correspondingly hereunder applicable to, regulatory of, and violations thereof unfair competition in all dealings in, such agricultural business, trade or industry as to matters and transactions in the current of intrastate commerce within this State.

2. This act within the standards and purposes herein mentioned shall be given its utmost possible scope and operation with respect to any such Federal regulation in this section defined.

(e) To further accomplish the intent and purpose of this section, no change in administrative provisions, features or details of the Federal law shall render this act or any provision thereof inoperative but the provisions hereof shall continue as aforesaid with like corresponding change so far as possible in administrative provisions, features or details hereof.

(f) Section 20 hereof shall be subject to the provisions of this section but corresponding State regulation of any given agricultural business, trade or industry shall cease when and while all Federal regulation in this section defined of said given agricultural business, trade or industry ceases to be in effect.

(g) However, this section 20a is separate and distinct from all other portions of this act or of this amendatory act and is not a consideration or inducement for the enactment or retention of the whole or any other portion of this act or of this amendatory act. If any of the provisions of this section be for any reason declared invalid, the remainder of this act and of this amendatory act shall be in full force and effect and as completely operative as if this section had not been included herein.

Sec. 4. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of public peace, health and safety within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution and shall therefore go into immediate effect. A statement of the facts constituting such necessity is as follows:

(a) The economic conditions of agricultural producers throughout the State are such as to require immediate relief if their purchasing power and taxpaying ability are to continue and their morale and standard of living are not to be undermined. Such relief can be afforded only by the orderly production and marketing of agricultural products and the coordination of State control of production and marketing with Federal control, each of which supplements the other and makes the same effective.

(b) The California Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1935 adopted, passed, approved, and enacted at this fifty-first session of the Legislature of this State is an urgency measure and contains a statement of facts constituting such necessity, as specified in subdivision (a) of this section, and by reason thereof and of said necessity goes into immediate effect.

(c) Recent court decisions may after the adjournment of this Legislature result in changes in the administrative features or other details of the now existing National Agricultural Adjustment Act while continuing Federal regulation within the general purposes and standards and to accomplish like objects as are now specified in said act. To meet the now existing emergency upon an emergency resulting from such court decisions the provisions of section 20a of this act are indispensable to provide for a corresponding State regulation of intrastate business as to agricultural products and commodities as may exist with respect to interstate transactions thereof.

(d) The enforcement, administration, and operation of said California Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1935, so in immediate effect by reason of said necessity, will be retarded or delayed until this act, providing, making available, and appropriating ways, means, and moneys for the administration and enforcement thereof, goes into effect, and hence, like necessity, as specified in subdivision (a) of this section, exists for the immediate effect of this act as of said California Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1935.

CHAPTER 417.

An act to amend section 12 of an act entitled "An act regulating the practice of civil engineering," approved June 14, 1929, relating to civil engineers.

[Approved by the Governor July 9, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12 of the act cited in the title hereof is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 12. (a) It shall be the duty of the board to inquire into the identity of any persons not registered as provided in this act and practicing as, or claiming to be a civil engineer. The board shall have the power to receive and investigate complaints against registered civil engineers, and to make findings, and shall have the power by a two-thirds (2/3) vote to reprove, privately or publicly, or to suspend for a period not to exceed two (2) years, or to revoke the certificate of any civil engineer registered hereunder who has been convicted of a felony, or who has not a good character, or who has been found guilty by the board of any deceit, misrepresentation, violation of contract, fraud, or gross incompetency in his practice, or guilty of any fraud or deceit in obtaining his certificate or violation of any provision of this act.

(b) Proceedings for the revocation, suspension or revalidation of certificate of registration shall be begun by filing with the secretary of the board written charges against the accused, such charges shall be in detail, and sworn to under oath by the complainant; or such proceedings may be initiated by the board on its own motion. The board shall designate a time and place for a hearing and shall notify the accused of this action and furnish him a copy of all charges, either by personal service or by registered United States mail, at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of hearing. The accused shall have the right to appear personally or by counsel, to cross-examine witnesses or to produce witnesses in his defense. The board shall have the power to compel the attendance of witnesses, and the production of necessary papers and documents.

The board may reissue a certificate of registration to any person whose certificate has been revoked; provided, two (2) or more members of the board vote in favor of such reissue for reasons the board may deem sufficient.

CHAPTER 418.

An act to amend section 11 of an act entitled "An act to insure the better education of dental surgeons and to regulate the practice of dentistry in the State of California, providing penalties for the violation hereof," approved May 21, 1915, as amended, relating to the definition of dentistry.

[Approved by the Governor July 9, 1935  In effect September 15, 1935 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 11 of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 11. A person practices dentistry within the meaning of this act who (1) by card, circular, pamphlet, newspaper or in any other way advertises himself or represents himself to be a dentist, or (2) performs, or offers to perform, an operation or diagnosis of any kind, or treats diseases or lesions of the human teeth, alveolar process, gums or jaws, or corrects malimposed positions thereof, or (3) in any way indicates that he will perform by himself or his agents or servants any operation upon the human teeth, alveolar process, gums or jaws, or in any way indicates that he will construct, alter, repair, or sell any bridge, crown, denture or other prosthetic appliance or orthodontic appliance, or (4) makes, or offers to make, an examination of, with the intent to perform or cause to be performed any operation on, the human teeth, alveolar process, gums or jaws, or (5) manages or conducts as manager, proprietor, conductor, lessor, or otherwise a place where dental operations are performed. The following practices, acts and operations, however, are exempt from the operation of this act: (a) The practice of oral surgery by a licensed physician; (b) the operations by bona fide students of dentistry or dental hygiene in the clinical departments or the laboratory of a reputable dental college; (c) the construction, making, alteration or repairing of bridges, crowns, dentures, or other prosthetic appliances or orthodontic appliances when the casts or impressions for such work have been made or taken by a licensed dentist, but a written authorization signed by a licensed dentist must accompany the order for such work or such work must be performed in the office of a licensed dentist under his supervision, and the burden of proving such written authorization or direct supervision shall be upon the person charged with the violation of this act; (d) the manufacture or sale of wholesale dental supplies.

CHAPTER 419.

An act to add section 17 to an act entitled "An act to insure the better education of dental surgeons and to regulate the practice of dentistry in the State of California, providing penalties for the violation hereof," approved May 21, 1915.

[Approved by the Governor July 9, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 17 is hereby added to the act cited in the title hereof, to read as follows:

Sec. 17. This act may be known and cited as the "Dental Practice Act."
CHAPTER 420.

An act to validate the formation, organization and existence of county water districts, and to validate the acts of the board of directors of such districts in the inclusion of land therein or exclusion of land therefrom, and to validate the proceedings of such directors taken for the creation of a bonded indebtedness.

[Approved by the Governor July 9, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whenever the board of supervisors of any county has heretofore declared any portion of such county therein situated to be a county water district under the provisions of that certain act or acts of the Legislature of the State of California entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation and organization and management of county water districts and to provide for the acquisition of water rights or construction thereof of water works and for the acquisition of all property necessary therein, and also to provide for the distribution and sale of water by said districts," approved June 10, 1913, and amendments thereto, or under the provisions of such act as amended, and such district has existed as such for a period of six months prior to the taking of effect of this act, all acts and proceedings of such board of supervisors and all acts of all public officers leading up to and including the formation of such district, are hereby legalized, ratified and declared valid for all intents and purposes, and every such district so organized is hereby declared to be a legal, valid and existing county water district as of the time of their purported formation and organization.

SEC. 2. In case the board of supervisors of any county in this State has heretofore declared any territory to be organized as a county water district and has designated a name for such district, and has declared certain persons elected as directors thereof, and the persons declared elected as directors of said district have organized as a board and said board has acted as a board of directors of such district for at least six months before this act takes effect, all acts and proceedings of said board of directors of such district in including or excluding land therefrom are hereby validated, confirmed and declared sufficient and the order of said board of directors for the inclusion or exclusion of any such lands is hereby declared valid for all purposes.

SEC. 3. In case the board of supervisors of any county in this State has heretofore declared any territory to be organized as a county water district and has designated a name for such district, and has declared certain persons elected as directors thereof, and the persons declared elected as directors of said district have organized as a board and said board has acted as a board of directors of such district for at least six months before this act takes effect, all acts and proceedings of said board of directors of such district looking toward the creation of a bonded indebtedness, are hereby legalized, confirmed and validated to all intents and purposes.

CHAPTER 421.

An act to amend the title and sections 2 and 3e and to amend and to renumber section 20k of, and to add sections 19a, and 20l to the California Real Estate Act, relating to the regulation and licensing of real estate brokers and salesmen, and to the inspection and regulation of subdivisions, to provide for the enforcement of said act and penalties for the violation thereof.

[Approved by the Governor July 9, 1935 In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The title of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows: An act to define real estate brokers and salesmen; to provide for the regulation, supervision and licensing thereof; to create a State Real Estate Division, the office of Real Estate Commissioner, and the Real Estate Board and prescribing the powers and duties thereof, and to provide for the inspection and regulation of subdivisions thereby; to provide for the enforcement of said act and penalties for the violation thereof.

SEC. 2. Section 2 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. A real estate broker within the meaning of this act is a person, copartnership or corporation who, for a compensation, sells or offers for sale, buys, or offers to buy, lists, or solicits for prospective purchasers, or negotiates the purchase or sale or exchange of real estate, or who, for compensation, negotiates loans on real estate, leases, or offers to lease, or negotiates the sale, purchase, or exchange of leases, rents, or places for rent, or collects rent from real estate, or improvements thereon, for another or others. A real estate salesman within the meaning of this act is one who for a compensation is employed by a licensed broker to sell, or offer for sale, or to list, or to buy, or to offer to buy, or to negotiate the purchase or sale or exchange of real estate, or to solicit for prospective purchasers of real estate, or to negotiate a loan on real estate, or to lease, or to negotiate the sale, purchase or exchange of leases, or offer to lease, rent or place for rent, any real estate, or improvements thereon. The provisions of this act, except as to sections 19a and 20a to 20l inclusive, shall not apply to anyone who shall directly perform any of the acts aforesaid with reference to his own property or, in case of corporations, through their regular officers receiving no special compensation therefor perform any of the acts aforesaid with reference to their, to wit, said corporations, own property; nor shall the provisions of this act apply to persons holding a duly executed power of attorney from the owner, nor shall this act be construed to include in any way the services rendered by an attorney at law in performing his duties as such attorney at law; nor shall it be held to include any receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, or any person acting under order of any court, nor to a trustee selling under a deed of trust. One act, for a compensation of buying or selling real estate of or for another, or offering for another to buy or sell or exchange real estate, or negotiating the purchase or sale or exchange of, or listing or soliciting prospective purchasers of real estate, or negotiating a loan on or leasing or renting or placing for rent real estate, or collecting rent therefrom shall constitute the person, copartnership or corporation making such offer, sale or purchase, exchange or lease, or negotiating said loan, or so renting or placing for rent or collecting said rent or listing or soliciting, a real estate broker or salesman within the meaning of this act.

When a lease or leasing is referred to in this section, it shall be held to include any lease, whether such lease be the sole transaction involved, or the principal or an incidental part of the transaction involved.

Sec. 3. Section 3e of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 3e. After qualifying as such, neither the Real Estate Commissioner nor any of the deputies, clerks or employees of the division shall be interested in any real estate company or any real estate brokerage firm, as director, stockholder, officer, member, agent or employee, or act as a broker or salesman within the meaning of this statute, or act as a copartner or agent for any other such broker or brokers, salesman or salesmen.

Sec. 4. A new section is hereby added to said act, to be numbered 19a, and to read as follows:

Sec. 19a. Whenever the commissioner shall believe from evidence satisfactory to him that any person, partnership, corporation or company has violated or is about to violate any of the provisions of this act, or any order, license, permit, decision, demand or requirement, or any part or provision thereof, he may bring an action in the name of the people of the State of California in the superior court of the State of California against such person, partnership, corporation or company to enjoin such person, partnership, corporation or company from continuing such violation or engaging therein or doing any act or acts in furtherance thereof. In said action an order or judgment may be entered awarding such preliminary or final injunction as may be proper, but no preliminary injunction or temporary restraining order shall be granted without at least five days' notice to the opposite party.

Sec. 5. A new section is hereby added to said act, to be known as 20k, and to read as follows:
See. 20k. The Real Estate Commissioner may from time to time promulgate rules and regulations for the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this act pertaining to subdivided lands and is hereby authorized to issue any order, permit, decision, demand, or requirement to effect this purpose.

Sec. 6. Section 20k of said act is hereby renumbered to be section 20l, and amended to read as follows:

Sec. 20l. Every officer, agent or employee of any company, and every other person who knowingly authorizes, directs or aids in the publication, advertisement, distribution or cir-cularization of any false statement or representation concerning any land, or subdivision thereof offered for sale or lease, and every person who, with knowledge that any advertisement, pamphlet, prospectus or letter concerning any said land or subdivision contains any written statement that is false or fraudulent, issues, circulates, publishes or distributes the same, or shall cause the same to be issued, circulated, published or distributed, or who, in any other respect, wilfully violates or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section or sections 20a, 20b, 20c, 20d, 20e, 20g, 20h or 20k of this act, or who in any other respect wilfully violates or fails, omits or neglects to obey, observe or comply with any order, permit, decision, demand or requirement of the commissioner under this section or sections 20a, 20b, 20c, 20d, 20e, 20g, 20h or 20k of this act.
is guilty of a public offense, and shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed two years, or by a fine of not to exceed two thousand dollars, and, if a licensee of this division, he shall be held to trial by the State Real Estate Commissioner for a suspension or revocation of his license, as in sections 12a and 13 of this act provided.
It shall be the duty of the district attorney of each county in this State to prosecute all violations of the provisions of this section and of sections 20a, 20b, 20c, 20d, 20e, 20g, 20h and 20k of this act in respective counties in which said violations occur.

CHAPTER 422.

An act validating the purchase of bonds by municipalities under the Improvement Act of 1911 and the Improvement Act of 1915 from the proceeds of the delinquent street assessment fund provided for in said act.

[Approved by the Governor July 9, 1935 In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. All purchases heretofore made by municipalities or towns of bonds issued under the Improvement Act of 1911 or the Improvement Act of 1915 out of the levy provided by those acts from the delinquent street assessment fund are hereby legalized, ratified, confirmed and validated.

CHAPTER 432.

An act to add a new section to the Penal Code to be numbered 597h, relating to cruelty to animals.

[Approved by the Governor July 9, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 597h is hereby added to the Penal Code, to read as follows:

597h. It shall be unlawful for any person to tie or attach or fasten any live animal to any machine or device propelled by any power for the purpose of causing such animal to be pursued by a dog or dogs.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.
An act to add a new section to the School Code to be numbered 1.91, relating to the construction, design, operation, equipment and color of school buses.

[Approved by the Governor July 9, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the School Code to be numbered 1.91 and to read as follows:

1.91. The State Board of Education shall have the power to adopt reasonable regulations relating to the construction, design, operation, equipment and color of school buses. No regulation relating to the construction, design or color of school buses shall apply to buses purchased prior to the effective date of this section, except that any school bus repainted after the effective date of this section shall, regardless of the date when purchased be painted to conform to all the regulations relating to the color of school buses. Such regulations, if approved by the Chief of the California Highway Patrol, shall be enforced by the California Highway Patrol. The State Board of Education shall have the authority to issue an order prohibiting the operation on public streets and highways of any school bus which does not comply with such regulations, and any such order shall be enforced by the California Highway Patrol.

For the purposes of this section a school bus is defined as a motor vehicle regularly used for the transportation of pupils of the public schools to and from school or to and from school activities and owned and/or operated by any school district or owned and/or operated by any person, firm, association, partnership or corporation, excepting motor vehicles of the type commonly called pleasure cars and carrying seven pupils or less; and excepting motor vehicles subject to and meeting all requirements of the State Railroad Commission operated by carriers operating under the jurisdiction of the State Railroad Commission but not used exclusively for the transportation of public school pupils except that when such vehicles are being used for the transportation of public school pupils the operators thereof must possess the qualifications required by such regulations of school bus operators.

Any officer, agent or employee of a school district, or any other person knowingly operating, or permitting or directing the operation of, a school bus, the operation of which is in violation of any order of the State Board of Education, and any person knowingly operating a school bus without possessing the qualifications required by the regulations of the State Board of Education of school bus operators, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.
CHAPTER 434.

An act to add a new section to the Penal Code to be numbered 496bb, relating to buying, receiving, concealing or withholding stolen property, and prescribing penalties for violation of the provisions thereof.

[Approved by the Governor July 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Penal Code, to be numbered 496bb, and to read as follows:

496bb. 1. Every person who buys or receives any property which has been stolen or which has been obtained in any manner constituting theft or extortion, knowing the same to be so stolen or obtained, or who conceals, withholds or aids in concealing or withholding any such property from the owner, is guilty of a felony.

2. Every person whose principal business is dealing in or collecting used or second hand merchandise or personal property, and every agent, employee or representative of such person, who buys or receives any property which has been stolen or obtained in any manner constituting theft or extortion, under such circumstances as should cause such person, agent, employee or representative to make reasonable inquiry to ascertain that the person from whom such property was bought or received had the legal right to so sell or deliver it, without making such reasonable inquiry, shall be presumed to have bought or received such property knowing it to have been so stolen or obtained. This presumption may, however, be rebutted by proof.

3. When in a prosecution under this section it shall appear from the evidence that the defendant's principal business was as set forth in the preceding paragraph, that the defendant bought, received, or otherwise obtained, or concealed, withheld or aided in concealing or withholding from the owner, any property which had been stolen or obtained in any manner constituting theft or extortion, and that the defendant bought, received, obtained, concealed or withheld such property under such circumstances as should have caused him to make reasonable inquiry to ascertain that the person from whom he bought, received, or obtained such property had the legal right to sell or deliver it to him, then the burden shall be upon the defendant to show that before so buying, receiving, or otherwise obtaining such property, he made such reasonable inquiry to ascertain that the person so selling or delivering the same to him had the legal right to so sell or deliver it.
CHAPTER 435.

An act to add section 488a to the Penal Code, relating to the punishment for theft in certain cases.

[Approved by the Governor July 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section to be numbered 488a is hereby added to the Penal Code to read as follows:

488a. Every person who is guilty of the theft of one hundred pounds or more of avocados or citrus or deciduous fruit is punishable by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding two years, or both.

CHAPTER 436.

An act to amend section 32 of the Penal Code, relating to the definition of an accessory.

[Approved by the Governor July 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 32 of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

32. Every person who, after a felony has been committed, harbors, conceals or aids a principal in such felony, with the intent that said principal may avoid or escape from arrest, trial, conviction or punishment, having knowledge that said principal has committed such felony or has been charged with such felony or convicted thereof, is an accessory to such felony.

CHAPTER 437.

An act granting to the City and County of San Francisco certain lands of the State of California located in the City and County of San Francisco upon certain trusts and conditions.

[Approved by the Governor July 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby granted to the City and County of San Francisco, a municipal corporation of the State of California, all the right, title and interest of the State of California, held by said State by reason of its sovereign power, in and to the following described parcel of land situate in the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, and described as follows, to wit:

Beginning at a point on the westerly line of Lyon Street, if produced in a northerly direction, said line being the easterly boundary of the Presidio U. S. Military Reservation, distant thereon 609.62 feet northerly from the northerly line of Marina Boulevard and running thence easterly in a straight line, and parallel with the northerly line of Marina Boulevard, 3648 feet 9 inches, more or less, to the westerly line of Webster Street if produced northerly; thence northerly along said line of Webster Street produced 1000 feet; thence at a right angle westerly 3648 feet 9 inches, more or less, to the westerly line of Lyon Street produced, and thence southerly along said line of Lyon Street produced 1000 feet, more or less, to the point of beginning.

Reserving, however, unto the State of California all rents due or to become due under the terms and conditions of any existing lease or leases of all, or any part of the hereinabove described real property heretofore entered into by the State of California, or by any board or commission of the State of California, and which said rent is payable to the State of California or to any board or commission of the State of California.

All of the above described real property hereby granted shall be forever held by said City and County of San Francisco and by its successors in trust for the uses and purposes and upon the express conditions following, to wit: said real property shall be used solely for aquatic, recreational, boulevard, park and playground purposes.

Provided, however, that said City and County of San Francisco shall have power to set apart and assign, or lease, any of said property hereinbefore described for a period not to exceed ten years, to any corporation, club or association organized for the purpose of developing and promoting aquatic sport; provided, that no part of said property shall be set apart and assigned, or leased to any corporation, club or association the object of which is pecuniary profit.

CHAPTER 438.

An act to amend School Code section 4.928, relating to the apportionment of funds to high school districts.

[Approved by the Governor July 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4.928 of the School Code is hereby amended to read as follows:
4.928. A high school course maintained by a high school district in an elementary school located in an elementary school district within the high school district shall be considered as a high school and apportionments shall be made on account of such high school course on the same basis as are apportionments for other high schools.

CHAPTER 439.

An act to add a new section to the School Code to be numbered 6.492, relating to the payment by school districts of subscriptions to periodicals.

[Approved by the Governor July 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Sec. 1. A new section is hereby added to the School Code to be numbered 6.492, and to read as follows:

6.492. The governing board of a school district may pay in advance for subscriptions to newspapers, magazines and other periodicals for the district and the schools thereof when such action will result in a decrease in the cost to the district of such periodicals.

CHAPTER 440.

Stats. 1933, p. 60. An act to add sections 285, 285.1, 285.2, 285.3, and 285.4 to the Agricultural Code, relating to brands to be used on apiary equipment.

[Approved by the Governor July 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 285 is hereby added to the Agricultural Code to read as follows:

285. Any owner of apiary equipment may apply to the Director of Agriculture for a serial number brand to be used on apiary equipment owned by him. The application shall contain the name and address of the applicant and a statement of the county in which the greatest number of colonies registered by him is registered, and shall be accompanied by a fee of fifty cents.

Sec. 2. Section 285.1 is hereby added to the Agricultural Code to read as follows:

285.1. Upon receipt of such application and fee the director shall register a serial number brand to such applicant. The serial number shall comprise a county number and an individual number. The county number shall be and remain the same as the number of the class of the county in the classication adopted by the Legislature in 1931. As to counties with classification numbers 1 to 9 inclusive the county number shall be preceded by a dash (—). The county number shall be followed by a dash (—) and the individual number.

Sec. 3. Section 285.2 is hereby added to the Agricultural Code to read as follows:

285.2. When used on wooden equipment the serial number brand shall be burned into the wood in numbers one-half inch in height. Hive bodies shall be branded on the upper left-hand corner. Frames shall be branded on top bars. Other wooden equipment may be branded in any place desired, and equipment other than wooden may be branded in any manner desired.

Sec. 4. Section 285.3 is hereby added to the Agricultural Code to read as follows:

285.3. Serial number brands are nontransferable except in case the buyer does not have a registered brand number.
In the case of transfer of ownership of branded equipment, a bill of sale specifying the equipment shall be forwarded by registered mail to the Director of Agriculture. In case of such transfer the original brand shall not be defaced or obliterated.
The brand, if any, of the new owner shall be placed below the original brand and as near thereto as possible.

Sec. 5. Section 285.4 is hereby added to the Agricultural Code to read as follows:

285.4 It is unlawful to use any serial number brand unless the same is registered as required by this act or to alter, deface, remove or obliterate the brand on any apiary equipment with the intent to steal the same or prevent the identification thereof. It is unlawful for any person to have in his possession any apiary equipment branded with any serial number brand other than his own unless a bill of sale for such equipment has been forwarded to the Director of Agriculture, or to have in his possession any apiary equipment upon which the brand has been altered, defaced, obliterated or removed.

CHAPTER 441.

An act to add a new section to the Political Code, to be numbered 4052d, authorizing boards of supervisors to grant temporary use, possession, management and control of public parks for exposition and fair purposes.

[Approved by the Governor July 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be numbered 4052d, to read as follows:
Use of public parks for fair purposes.

4052d. The board of supervisors shall have power to grant the use, possession, management and control of any public park to any person, firm or corporation operating, managing and controlling any exposition or fair in and of which the granting of public moneys or other things of value has been authorized by the Constitution or laws of this State upon such terms and conditions and for such periods of time as the board of supervisors may determine, such use, possession, management and control to terminate not later than one year after the closing of such exposition or fair.

CHAPTER 442.

An act to amend section 15b of the California Irrigation District Act, relating to the duties and powers of boards of directors and providing for the use of water for any beneficial purposes.

[Approved by the Governor July 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15b of the California Irrigation District Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 15b. The board of directors of any irrigation district may also construct the necessary dams, reservoirs, and works for the collection of water for said district, and do any and every lawful act necessary to be done, that sufficient water may be furnished in said district for irrigation and domestic purposes, including the delivery of water for fire protection or any other beneficial use, and said board of directors may do and perform any and all acts and make any and all contracts in order to put to any beneficial use any water or waters under the control of the said district, and by contract may acquire, maintain, and operate any needed or desirable equipment to put such water to such beneficial use or uses and to fix and collect reasonable charges therefor; provided, that where, within irrigation districts mutual water companies have been organized to furnish water to certain specified lands within said districts, the board of directors of such districts are hereby authorized and empowered to contract for the delivery of water for such lands as lie within the boundary of said water companies, through said mutual water companies only; provided further, that districts required by law or provisions of agreements under which the water supply of the district, or any part thereof, was acquired, to furnish water outside the boundaries of the district to consumers whose rights to service were, at the time any such supply of water was acquired by the district, enforceable by reason of their status as persons of the class for whose benefit such water was appropriated or dedicated, may, acting by and through its board of directors, regulate the use of water so furnished and fix and collect reasonable rates and charges for such water and the service thereof. The said board is hereby authorized and empowered to take conveyances, leases, contracts or other assurances for all property acquired by it under the provisions of this act, in the name of such irrigation district, to and for the uses and purposes herein expressed, and to institute and maintain any and all actions and proceedings, suits at law or in equity necessary or proper in order to fully carry out the provisions of this act, or to enforce, maintain, protect or preserve any and all rights, privileges and immunities created by this act, or acquired in pursuance thereof. And in all courts, actions, suits or proceedings, the said board may sue, appear and defend in person or by attorneys, and in the name of such irrigation district.

CHAPTER 443.

An act requiring the compilation and publication of reports relative to the financial condition of the municipal corporations within the State.

[Approved by the Governor July 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Within ninety days after the close of each fiscal year the officers of each city or city and county shall prepare a full and true report setting forth the aggregate amount of taxes levied and assessed against the taxable real and personal property in such city or city and county, which became due and payable during the fiscal year next preceding the date of such report, together with the aggregate amount of taxes levied and assessed against such real and personal property collected by, or on behalf of, such city or city and county during the fiscal year. Such statement shall likewise set forth the following:

1. The aggregate income of such city or city and county during such preceding fiscal year with a general statement as to the sources of such income and the amount received from each such source;
2. The aggregate amount of all expenditures made by such city or city and county during such preceding fiscal year, together with a general statement as to the purposes for which such expenditures were made by administrative departments and the amount expended by each such department;
3. The assessed valuation of all of the taxable real and personal property in such municipal corporation as set forth on the assessment roll of such city or city and county equalized for such fiscal year, or if the officers of the county in which the city is situated has collected on behalf of such city the general taxes levied by the city for the fiscal year, then the assessed valuation of all taxable real and personal property in such city as set forth on the assessment rolls of such county equalized for the fiscal year;

4. The aggregate amount of the bonded indebtedness of such city or city and county payable from a general tax levy outstanding and unpaid at the end of such fiscal year;

5. The aggregate amount of principal of all bonded indebtedness of the city or city and county payable from a general tax levy which shall have matured in or prior to such fiscal year and which remains outstanding and unpaid at the end of such fiscal year;

6. The approximate population of such city or city and county as of the close of such fiscal year;

7. Such other matter as the State Controller may require the officers of such city or city and county to furnish to him under and pursuant to the provisions of an act of the Legislature of the State of California entitled, "An act requiring the compilation and publication of reports of the financial transactions of the several counties and municipalities of the State, and making an appropriation therefor," approved April 21, 1911.

Sec. 2. Forthwith upon the completion of such report the legislative body of the city or city and county shall cause copies of such report to be prepared and the clerk of such legislative body shall furnish a copy thereof to any person requesting the same. The legislative body of the city or city and county may impose a charge not to exceed twenty-five cents for each copy of the report so furnished.

Sec. 3. Any officer of a city or city and county who wilfully and knowingly renders a false report shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Any officer of any city or city and county having charge of the financial records thereof, who shall wilfully refuse to make such report as hereinabove provided is guilty of a misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 444.

An act to amend section 1238 of the Civil Code, relating to homesteads.

[Approved by the Governor July 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 1238 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

1238. If the claimant be married, the homestead may be selected from the community property, or the separate property of the husband, or, with the consent of the wife, from her separate property. When the claimant is not married, but is the head of a family, within the meaning of section 1261, the homestead may be selected from any of his or her property. If the claimant be an unmarried person, other than the head of a family, the homestead may be selected from any of his or her property. Property, within the meaning of this title, includes any freehold title, interest, or estate which vests in the claimant the immediate right of possession, even though such right of possession is not exclusive.

CHAPTER 445.

An act to amend section 10½ of an act entitled “An act to regulate the practice of optometry; to provide for the appointment of a Board of Optometry, define its duties and powers and prescribing a penalty for the violation of this act,” approved June 16, 1913, relating to the regulation of the practice of optometry.

[Approved by the Governor July 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 10½ of the act cited in the title hereof is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 10½. It shall be unlawful for any person:
1. To sell or barter, or offer to sell or barter any certificate of registration issued by the State Board of Optometry.
2. To purchase or procure by barter any such certificate of registration with intent to use the same as evidence of the holder’s qualification to practice optometry.
3. To alter with fraudulent intent in any material regard such certificate of registration.
4. To use or attempt to use any such certificate of registration which has been purchased, fraudulently issued, counterfeited or materially altered, as a valid certificate of registration.
5. To practice optometry under a false or assumed name.
6. To willfully make any false statement in a material regard in an application for an examination before the State Board of Optometry or for a certificate of registration.
7. To practice optometry in the State of California without having at the time of so doing a valid unrevoked certificate of registration as an optometrist.
8. To advertise by displaying a sign or otherwise or hold himself out to be an optometrist or optician without having at the time of so doing a valid unrevoked certificate of registration from the said State Board of Optometry. For the purposes of this act the term advertising shall be deemed to include the use of a newspaper, magazine, or other publication, book, notice, circular, pamphlet, letter, handbill, poster, bill, sign, placard, card, label, tag, window display, store sign, radio announcement, or any other means or methods now or hereafter employed to bring to the attention of the public the practice of optometry or the prescribing, fitting or sale, in connection therewith, of lenses, frames, or other accessories or appurtenances.

9. To dispense, replace or duplicate an ophthalmic lens or ophthalmic lenses without a prescription or order from a duly licensed physician and surgeon, oculist or optometrist; provided, that this act shall not be construed so as to prevent a duly licensed physician and surgeon, oculist or optometrist from filling a prescription, prescriptions, order or orders under the provisions of this act; provided, further, that this act shall not be construed so as to prevent the replacing, duplicating or repairing of an ophthalmic lens or ophthalmic lenses, or the replacing, duplicating or repairing of the frames or fittings thereof by the person or persons qualified to write or fill prescriptions or orders under the provisions of this act; and, provided, further, that the provisions hereof shall not be construed so as to prevent an optical mechanic from doing the merely mechanical work upon such lenses, or upon the frames or fittings thereof. An ophthalmic lens, within the meaning of this act shall be any lens which has a spherical or cylindrical or prismatic power or value.

CHAPTER 446.

An act to amend section 818 of the Agricultural Code, relating to potatoes.

[Approved by the Governor July 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 818 of the Agricultural Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

818. Potatoes shall be free from mold, decay, soft and wet rots, black heart, and hollow heart; and free from serious damage due to insect injury, freezing, sun scald, dry rots, scab, growth cracks, sunburn, second growth, cuts, bruises, grass roots, nematodes, or other causes. Damage to any one potato is not serious unless it causes a waste of twenty per cent, by weight, of the individual potato.

Not more than five per cent, by weight, of the potatoes in any one container or bulk lot may be below these requirements.

Containers of potatoes shall not bear any marking, brand or designation of quality such as “extra selected,” “selected,” “select,” “extra fancy,” “fancy,” “choice,” “No. 1,” or other similar superlative designations which imply a reasonably high quality, unless the contents of the container conform at least to the requirements of the U. S. No. 1 grade established for potatoes by the United States Department of Agriculture.
CHAPTER 447.

An act authorizing and empowering any county, city and county, or city in the State of California to donate, convey, and grant to the State of California, or to district agricultural associations thereof, any real property owned, held and used by it for fair ground and exposition purposes, or which it may hereafter acquire, hold and use for such purposes.

[Approved by the Governor July 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Any county, city and county, or city in the State of California is hereby authorized and empowered, by a four-fifths vote of the board of supervisors or other legislative body thereof, to donate, convey, and grant to the State of California, or to the district agricultural association of the agricultural district in which such county, city and county, or city is situate, any land and buildings owned, held and used by such county, city and county, or city for fair ground or exposition purposes, or which it may hereafter acquire, hold and use for such purposes, upon such terms and conditions as such county, city and county, or city, and such district agricultural association or the State, as the case may be, may agree.

CHAPTER 448.

An act authorizing suit against the State of California to quiet title against it to certain real property in the city of Newport Beach, California.

[Approved by the Governor July 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Any person or corporation, municipal or private, owning or claiming any interest in or to the real property hereinafter described is hereby authorized to bring suit against the State of California, in any court of competent jurisdiction of the State of California, to quiet title to the hereinafter described real property, and to prosecute said action to final judgment. All rules of practice in civil cases relative to suits to quiet title shall apply to any suit brought under this authorization. If judgment be given against the State in any such suit, no costs shall be recovered from the State.

Said real property is situated in the city of Newport Beach, Orange County, California, described as follows:
Beginning at the intersection of the easterly line of Tenth Street and a line 110 feet northerly of and parallel with the northerly line of Central Avenue (North Drive) as said Tenth Street and Central Avenue (North Drive) are shown on the map of section "B," Newport Beach, recorded in Book 4, page 27 of Miscellaneous Maps, Records of Orange County, California; thence easterly along a line which is 110 feet northerly of and parallel with the northerly line of said Central Avenue (North Drive), said line being the center line of the alley in block 109 of said section "B," Newport Beach, 324.89 feet, more or less, to an intersection with the northerly prolongation of the westerly line of lot five (5) in block 109 of said section "B", Newport Beach; thence northerly along said northerly prolongation of the westerly line of said lot five (5) 259.12 feet, more or less, to an intersection with the United States bulkhead line extending from U. S. Bulkhead Station No. 116 to U. S. Bulkhead Station No. 117, as said bulkhead line and bulkhead stations are shown on the map of Newport Bay showing harbor lines, approved by the War Department of the United States January 18, 1917; thence westerly along said bulkhead line to its intersection with the northerly prolongation of the westerly line of said Tenth Street; thence southerly along the northerly prolongation of the westerly line of said Tenth Street to its intersection with a line 120 feet northerly of and parallel with the northerly line of said Central Avenue (North Drive); and thence easterly and parallel with the northerly line of said Central Avenue (North Drive) 40 feet to the easterly line of said Tenth Street; and thence southerly in a direct line 10 feet to the point of beginning.

Limitation.

Sec. 2. Any suit brought under this authorization shall be commenced within one year after this act takes effect. Service of summons in any such suit shall be upon the Governor and Attorney General and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to represent the State in any such suit.

CHAPTER 449.

An act to add sections 9a to 9a, inclusive, to the Workmen's Compensation, Insurance and Safety Act of 1917, relating to disability of members of the California Highway Patrol.

[Approved by the Governor July 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 9a is hereby added to the Workmen's Compensation, Insurance and Safety Act of 1917 to read as follows:

Sec. 9a. Whenever any member of the California Highway Patrol is disabled by injury or illness arising out of and in the procedure of his duties, such member shall become entitled, regardless of his period of service with the patrol to leave of absence while so disabled without loss of salary, in lieu of disability payments under section 9 of this act, for a period of not exceeding one year. This section shall apply only to members of the California Highway Patrol whose principal duties consist of active law enforcement and shall not apply to persons employed in the Department of Motor Vehicles whose principal duties are telephone operator, clerk, stenographer, mechanist, mechanic or otherwise clearly not falling within the scope of active law enforcement service, even though such person is subject to occasional call or is occasionally called upon to perform duties within the scope of active law enforcement service.

Sec. 2. A new section is hereby added to said act to be numbered 9b and to read as follows:

Sec. 9b. It shall be the duty of the Industrial Accident Commission to determine in any case, upon request of the Department of Motor Vehicles whether or not the disability referred to in section 9a of this act arose out of and in the course of the duties of a member of the California Highway Patrol. The commission shall, also, in any disputed case, determine when such disability ceases.

Sec. 3. A new section is hereby added to said act to be numbered 9c and to read as follows:

Sec. 9c. Any such member of the California Highway Patrol so disabled is entitled to the medical, surgical and hospital benefits set forth as part of the compensation prescribed for persons injured in the course and arising out of their employment by the provisions of this act, at the expense of the Department of Motor Vehicles, and such expense shall be charged upon the fund out of which the compensation of the member is paid.

Sec. 4. A new section is hereby added to said act to be numbered 9d and to read as follows:

Sec. 9d. Whenever such disability of such member of the California Highway Patrol continues for a period beyond one year from and after the date when the illness or injury causing the disability occurs, such member shall thereafter be subject, as to the amount of compensation and treatment to the provisions of this act other than section 9a, until restored to service or retired, except that such compensation shall be paid out of funds available for the support of the Department of Motor Vehicles, and the leave of absence shall continue.
CHAPTER 450.

An act to prohibit under certain conditions, sales under certain chattel mortgages, to extend the statute of limitations upon such obligations, to make voidable at the instance of the owner any sale made in violation of the act, to prescribe the time within which an action to avoid such a sale may be brought, and to declare the urgency thereof, and to provide that this act take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor July 11, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. No sale shall be made under any decree of foreclosure of, or under any power of sale contained in, any chattel mortgage heretofore executed (a) upon any personal property located in and used in connection with the operation of any building located upon real property, or (b) upon any personal property (excluding personal property under lease contract and excluding livestock) which is used in connection with the customary operation of agricultural real property, sale of which real property under any mortgage or deed of trust is postponed by the filing of a petition and the recording of notice thereof under the "Mortgage and Trust Deed Moratorium of 1935," until on or after such date as a sale of such real property is lawfully held under such mortgage or deed of trust, when such chattel mortgage was given as additional security for an obligation also secured by a deed of trust or mortgage on such real property.

SEC. 2. In all cases in which the time within which an action upon an obligation founded upon a written instrument secured by a chattel mortgage may be commenced would expire by virtue of section 337 of the Code of Civil Procedure during the period when any sale under a decree of foreclosure or under any power of sale contained in such chattel mortgage is postponed by virtue of the provisions of this act, such time is hereby extended to and including July 1, 1937.

SEC. 3. Any sale of property under a chattel mortgage made in violation of this act shall be voidable, at the instance of the owner of such property at the time of sale provided that any action to avoid such sale must be brought within one year of the date of such sale.

SEC. 4. This act shall remain in effect only until February 1, 1937.

SEC. 5. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, word or part of this act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is finally determined by the courts to be unconstitutional, such section, subsection, sentence, clause, word or part shall no longer be effective or such application shall no longer control, but all other sections, subsections, sentences, clauses, words or parts of the application thereof to other persons and circumstances shall continue in full force and effect.
It is the intent of the Legislature to make this act as effective as possible to relieve debtors in the manner herein provided.

Sec. 6. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Chattel Mortgage Moratorium of 1935."

Sec. 7. This act is hereby declared to be an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, within the meaning of section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall therefore go into immediate effect.

The facts constituting the necessity are as follows: A severe economic depression exists throughout the State, rendering many of its citizens unable to pay the principal sum of their debts or to otherwise finance their loans. As a result thereof, through foreclosure actions, they are being deprived of their property. The provisions of the real property mortgage moratorium statute are being evaded by persons who in addition to the security afforded by real estate mortgages and deeds of trust on real estate, also take chattel mortgages to secure the same obligation. Consequently the evil sought to be corrected by statutes relating to moratoria on mortgages and deeds of trusts on real estate can not be completely effective unless the situation covered by this act is remedied.

An act to amend the act entitled "An act to define building and loan associations and to regulate them and their organization, business, operation, merger, consolidation and liquidation, and (without limiting the generality of the foregoing) also to do the following: to define and regulate the agents, salesmen and collectors of such associations, and to regulate their officers, directors and employees; to define, authorize, and regulate the issuance of, shares, stock and investment certificates of such associations, and to prescribe the rights, remedies and liabilities of holders thereof, and to make such investment certificates legal investments for certain purposes; to prescribe the rights, powers, remedies, duties and liabilities of such associations and the rights and remedies of their creditors; to regulate the investments, loans and borrowings of such associations, and their accounts, reports, audits, statements and advertising; to create and continue the office of Building and Loan Commissioner, provide for and define the rights, powers, remedies and duties of the commissioner and his assistants and employees; to provide penalties for offenses by such associations, their directors, officers, agents, salesmen, collectors and employees and by other persons and corporations; and to repeal Title XVI of Part IV of Division I of the Civil Code, Chapter 334 of the Statutes of 1911 and acts amendatory thereof and supplemental..."
the reto; Chapter 133 of the Statutes of 1927, and all other acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith," approved May 5, 1927, as amended, by amending sections numbered 1.01 relating to definitions, 12.07 relating to bonds of officers and employees, 13.16 relating to liquidation by the Building and Loan Commissioner, 13.17 relating to assessments for salaries and expenses, 6.06 relating to payments entitled to preference, 12.04 relating to foreign associations, 13.13 relating to the commissioner’s powers upon taking possession and 13.15 relating to schedules of property; and adding to said act new sections to be numbered 8.09a relating to dividends, 12.94a relating to foreign building and loan associations and 14.09 relating to liability for acts done or omitted in conformity with any rule, regulation, approval, consent, order, direction or other act of the Building and Loan Commissioner.

[Approved by the Governor July 11, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 1.01 of the act cited in the title hereof, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 1.01. In General. The following terms, wherever used in this act, shall have the following meanings, except in cases where the context otherwise requires:

"Association" means a building and loan association, as defined in section 1.02 of this act, and except where otherwise indicated includes both domestic and foreign associations.

"Domestic association" means an association incorporated under the laws of this State, and "Foreign association" means any other association. "Association on notice" and "Association on a pro rata basis" are defined in section 6.01 of this act.

"Commissioner" means the Building and Loan Commissioner. "Shares" means withdrawable shares of an association, which shares shall constitute and may be designated membership shares. "Pledged shares" means shares pledged as security for the payment of a loan from the association issuing such shares. "Free shares" means all other shares. "Full paid shares," "Installment shares" (including "serial" and "nonserial" installment shares), "Accumulative shares" and "Prepaid shares" are defined in section 3.02 of this act.

"Stock" means guarantee stock of an association.

"Investment certificates" means instruments issued by an association, pursuant to section 5.01 of this act, which expressly state that the right of the holder thereof to withdraw funds evidenced thereby is subject to the provisions of Article VI of this act, and which otherwise conform to the provisions of this act applicable thereto. "Full paid investment certificate," "Installment investment certificate," "Accumulative investment certificate," "Definite term investment certificate," "Prepaid investment certificate" and "Minimum term investment certificate" are defined in section 5.01 of this act. The term "investment certificates," wherever used in this act, shall be deemed to include all unsecured notes heretofore issued by an association to savers or members of the public generally. "Shareholder" and "member" are synonymous and mean the holder of one or more shares or of a fraction thereof. "Stockholder" means the holder of stock. "Certificate holder" means the holder of one or more investment certificates. "Investor" includes shareholder, stockholder and certificate holder.

The "value" of shares or investment certificates means the amount paid in upon such shares or investment certificates, plus the accumulated earnings or interest accrued thereon, less any withdrawals therefrom and charges there against. The "matured value" of a share shall be equal to the par value thereof.

"Redemption price" is defined in section 5.06 of this act, and "withdrawal value" in section 6.01 thereof.

The term "issuing" wherever used in this act with reference to an association issuing or not issuing shares, stock and investment certificates or any thereof, shall not be limited to issuance thereof at the particular time, but shall include prior issuance if such stock, shares and investment certificates or any thereof (as the case may be) are still outstanding.

"Advertisement" includes advertisement, circular, pamphlet, prospectus, circular letter, newspaper, and also oral statements broadcast by radio.

Words used in this act in the present tense include the future as well as the present; words used in the masculine gender include the feminine and neuter, and in the neuter gender include the masculine and feminine; the singular number includes the plural, and the plural includes the singular; "writing" includes also printing and typewriting; "oath" includes also affirmation; and "county" includes also city and county.

Sec. 2. A new section is hereby added to said act, as amended, to be numbered 12.04a and to read as follows:

Sec. 12.04a. Foreign Associations, Continued. Every foreign association transacting business in this State, which issues investments certificates, shares or stock, shall conduct all of its business in accordance with the statutes governing domestic associations. The capital of any such foreign association assigned to its business in this State, and all funds and investments of money received by any such foreign association in this State or for or in connection with its business in this State, and all accounts and transactions of said business transacted by any such foreign association in this State, shall be kept separate and apart from the general business, assets and accounts of such foreign association in the same manner as if the business of such foreign association conducted within this State were that of a separate and independent domestic association, and all of the provisions of this act affecting investments, loans of money, issuance of certificates and conducting business in any respect shall be deemed to apply to such assigned capital, investments, loans, deposits, assets, funds and business in the same manner as if such assigned capital, investments, loans, deposits, assets, funds and business were that of such separate and independent association.

All books, records and papers pertaining to the assets and liabilities situate in this State and the business transacted in this State shall be kept in an office or offices of the association in this State.

Sec. 3. Section 12.07 of said act, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 12.07. Bonds of Officers and Employees. All officers and employees of each association, having access to moneys or negotiable securities of such association in the regular discharge of their duties, or issuing stock, shares or investment certificates of such association in the regular discharge of their duties, before entering upon their duties and throughout the entire term of their office and employment and any subsequent term thereof, shall furnish to the employing association a good and sufficient bond indemnifying such association against loss of money or securities by reason of any dishonesty on the part of such officers or employees and by reason of any loss arising from any dishonest issue of stock, shares or investment certificates on the part of such officers or employees. The commissioner shall prescribe the amount and form of said bond and the term during which it shall run, and the sufficiency of the surety or sureties thereon shall at all times be subject to the approval of the commissioner. Each of such officers and employees shall renew his bond upon the expiration of its term. The commissioner may at any time require an additional bond or surety when in his opinion any such bond then in force is insufficient. All such bonds shall be filed in the commissioner's office.

Sec. 4. Section 13.16 of said act, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 13.16. Powers Upon Liquidation. In liquidating the affairs of an association, the commissioner shall have power to collect all moneys due to, and claims of, such association and to give full receipt therefor; to release or reconvey all real or personal property pledged, hypothecated or transferred in trust as security for loans; to approve and pay all just and equitable claims; provided, that shares shall participate ratably with investment certificates in the case of any association in which shareholders shall have heretofore been granted the right and option by the association to exchange their shares for investment certificates of equal value; to commence and prosecute all actions and proceedings necessary to enforce liquidation; and on the order of the superior court of the county in which the principal office in this State of such association is located, given and made after a hearing on such notice as the court shall prescribe, to compound bad or doubtful debts or claims, or to borrow money, or to sell, convey or transfer real or personal property. If a purchaser for any property or any bad or doubtful debt or claim can not be obtained and it appears improbable in the case of any such bad or doubtful debt or claim that recovery thereon can be had, and that the cost of action to enforce collection of the same would probably be lost, the court may direct that suit thereon need not be brought, and if in the case of any such property it appears improbable that anything can be realized therefrom and that the cost of maintaining, preserving or protecting said property would probably be lost, the court may direct the commissioner to abandon the same. For the purpose of executing and performing any of the powers and duties hereby conferred upon him, the commissioner may in the name of such association or in his own name prosecute and defend any and all suits and other legal proceedings and may in the name of such association or in his own name as commissioner execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all deeds, assignments, releases, requests for reconveyance, and other instruments necessary and proper to effectuate any sale of real or personal property or other transaction in connection with the liquidation of such association; and any deed, assignment, release, request for reconveyance or other instrument executed pursuant to the authority hereby given shall be valid and effectual for all purposes as though the same had been executed by the officers of such association by authority of its board of directors. In case any of the real property so sold is located in a county other than the county in which the application to the court for leave to sell the same is made, the commissioner shall cause a certified copy of the order authorizing or ratifying such sale to be recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which such real property is located.

Upon determining to liquidate an association, the commissioner shall cause an inventory of all the assets of such association to be made in duplicate, the original to be filed with the court and the duplicate in the office of the commissioner. He shall cause notice to be given by publication once a week for four successive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published at or near the principal place of business in this State of such association, to all persons having claims against it as creditors or investors or otherwise, to present and file same and make legal proof thereof at a place and within a time to be designated in such publication, which time shall be not less than six months after such first publication; and within ten days after such first publication he shall cause a copy of such notice to be mailed to all persons whose names appear of record upon its books as creditors or investors; and upon the expiration of the time fixed for the presentation of claims, the commissioner shall prepare or cause to be prepared in duplicate a full and complete schedule of all claims presented, specifying by classes those that have been approved and those that have been disapproved and shall file the original with the court and the duplicate in the office of the commissioner. Not later than five days after the time of filing such schedule with the court, written notice shall be mailed to all claimants whose claims have been rejected. Action to enforce the payment of or to establish any rejected claim must be brought and service had within four months from and after the date of filing of the schedule of claims with the proper court; otherwise all such actions shall be forever barred. All claims, demands or causes of action of whatever nature, and regardless of whether or not a suit shall be pending to enforce the same at the time of the taking possession of the assets of the association by the commissioner, of creditors, and persons other than investors against the association or against any property owned or held by it in trust or otherwise, must be presented to the commissioner in writing, verified by the claimant, or some one in his behalf, within the period limited in the above mentioned notice for the presentation of claims; and the commissioner shall have no power to approve any claim not so presented, and any such claim, demand or cause of action not so presented shall be forever barred. Any investor, without presenting a claim, shall be entitled, as to any dividends hereafter declared, to share in such dividends to the extent, and in the proper relative order of priority, of any claim shown by the books of the association to exist in his favor against the association.

The commissioner may under his hand and official seal appoint one or more special deputies to assist in the duties of liquidation and distribution under his direction and may also employ such special legal counsel, accountants and assistants as may be needful and requisite and fix the salaries and compensation to be allowed and paid to each. All such salaries and compensation with such other reasonable and necessary expenses as may be incurred in the liquidation shall be paid by the commissioner from the funds of such association in his hands. Such expenses shall include, among other things, that part of the salary of the commissioner and of his deputies, examiners, accountants, appraisers and other assistants, and that part of the general expenses of the commissioner’s office, as shall fairly represent, in the opinion of the commissioner, the proportion thereof properly attributable to such liquidation. From the net realization of assets in excess of such salaries, compensation and expenses, the commissioner shall first pay all claims heretofore or hereafter approved by him in the sum of less than ten dollars, other than the claims of shareholders or stockholders, and other than the claims of certificate holders or other creditors who shall object in writing to such payment. Such claims of less than ten dollars shall be paid at their surrender value as estimated by the commissioner and fixed and determined by the court on the same basis as claims are received in payment of real property as provided for by section 13.16a, and all such claims shall thereupon be canceled. The commissioner shall then pay all claims approved in the sum of ten dollars or more, other than the claims of shareholders and stockholders, without distinction or preference as between the claims of certificate holders and other creditors; and thereafter he shall distribute and pay dividends in liquidation first to the shareholders until their claims are fully paid or such assets or funds are exhausted, and second, if any such assets or funds remain, to the stockholders until such assets or funds are exhausted; provided, however, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, in the case of any association in which shareholders shall have heretofore been granted the right and option by the association to exchange their shares for investment certificates of equal value he shall distribute and pay dividends in liquidation to such shareholders without distinction or preference as between the claims of such shareholders and the claims of certificate holders and other creditors. Such distributions shall be made as funds are available therefore to the extent of ten per cent or more of the approved claims of the class of claimants then entitled to distribution, and shall continue until all the assets have been realized upon and a final dividend in liquidation shall be declared and paid. Where the commissioner shall have taken possession of an association and commenced paying dividends in liquidation prior to the effective date of this section, as amended, he shall nevertheless pay the claims of certificate holders or other creditors approved in the original sum of less than ten dollars, as hereinabove provided for, before paying other dividends in liquidation to those claimants whose claims were originally approved in the sum of ten dollars or more. Upon the payment of a final dividend in liquidation, the commissioner shall prepare and file with the court a full and final statement of the liquidation, including a summary of the receipts and disbursements, and a duplicate thereof shall be filed in the office of the commissioner and after due hearing and approval by the court, the liquidation shall be deemed to be closed.

The determination by the commissioner to liquidate any association, evidenced by filing written notice of such determination with the court, shall operate to stay or dissolve any or all actions or attachments instituted or levied within thirty days next preceding the taking of possession of such association by the commissioner, and pending the process of liquidation as herein provided no attachment or execution shall be levied or lien created upon any of the property of such association.

Whenever in the case of any association which shall have issued stock, the commissioner shall have fully liquidated all claims other than claims of stockholders, and shall have made due provision for any and all known but unclaimed liabilities, excepting claims of stockholders, and shall have paid all expenses of liquidation, then upon the written request of the holders of a majority of the stock of such association any surplus that may then remain in his hands, together with all the records and effects, shall be delivered to the association or its trustees, and thereafter such association or its trustees shall have title thereto free from any claim of the commissioner.

Sec. 5. Section 13.17 of said act, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 13.17. Assessments for Salaries and Expenses. To meet the salaries and expenses provided for by this act, for the payment of which no provision is otherwise made, the commissioner shall require every association licensed by him or coming under his supervision to pay in advance to him, prior to the issuance of any license, its pro rata amount of all such salaries and expenses as estimated by the commissioner for the ensuing year and it is hereby made the duty of every such association to pay the same. Such pro rata shall be the proportion which its assets bear to the aggregate assets of all such associations receiving licenses as shown by the latest annual reports of such associations to the commissioner. On or before the thirtieth day of December in each year, the commissioner shall notify each of such associations by mail of the amount assessed and levied against it and that the same must be paid within twenty days thereafter; and should payment not be made to him within said twenty days, he shall then assess and collect a penalty in addition thereto of five per cent for each month or part of a month that such payment may be delayed or withheld; provided, however, that in the levy and collection of such assessment, no association shall be assessed for nor be permitted to pay less than ten dollars per annum and any such domestic association hereafter formed shall be required to pay not less than one dollar per month for the unexpired term ending December thirty-first succeeding its initial application; and in like manner any such foreign association shall be required to pay not less than three dollars per month for such unexpired term after its first license.

Sec. 6. A new section is hereby added to said act, as amended, to be numbered 14.09 and to read as follows:

Sec. 14.09. Conformity With Commissioner’s Orders. No provision of this act imposing any liability, either civil or criminal, shall apply to any act done or omitted in good faith in conformity with any rule, regulation, approval, consent, order, direction or other act of the commissioner, notwithstanding that such rule, regulation, approval, consent, order, direction or other act of the commissioner may, after such act or omission, be amended or rescinded or be determined by judicial or other authority to be invalid for any reason.

Sec. 7. Section 6.06 of said act, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 6.06. Payments Entitled to Preference. In the event of the liquidation or dissolution of any association, then notwithstanding anything to the contrary in section 13.16 of this act or elsewhere in this act, all sums herefore or hereafter paid in to such association on investment certificates or shares while such association shall have been on a pro rata basis and all sums which shall hereafter be paid in to such association on investment certificates or shares prior to the expiration of the emergency period as hereinafter in this section 6.06 defined, shall be repaid in full to all investors filing claims therefor regardless of whether such claims shall have been filed within the period provided for by section 13.16 of this act before any payments shall be made to other certificate holders or other creditors or other shareholders, or to stockholders, unless after the receipt of such money and prior to the liquidation or dissolution of such association, there shall have been a period of six consecutive months within which such association shall have had no matured withdrawal claims (except claims for the payment of which funds shall have been set aside by the association). An association which has issued and outstanding both shares and investment certificates shall not accept any money on account of free shares if such money might be entitled to a preference under the provisions of this section 6.06. No association shall accept any money on account of investment certificates or shares, except investment certificates and shares pledged to such association in connection with loans secured by real property, if such money might be entitled to preference pursuant to this section 6.06, if the commissioner in writing shall have directed the association not to accept such money. The term "emergency period" as used in this section 6.06 shall mean the period commencing March 10, 1933, and ending September 1, 1935; provided, however, that said emergency period may be terminated at any time prior to September 1, 1935, by order of the commissioner.

Sec. 8. Section 12.04 of said act, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 12.04. Foreign Associations. No foreign association formed for the purpose of conducting and carrying on a business similar to that authorized by this act, or whose by-laws, rules, prospectus, contracts or methods of business provide for the conducting or carrying on the business of accumulating the periodical payments or savings of its shareholders, stockholders, members or investors in the manner of associations, or as authorized and provided in this act, shall enter the State of California for the transaction of business or for selling its shares, stock, and investment certificates or shall sell any of its shares, stock, or investment certificates, or otherwise transact any of its business of a character similar to that authorized by this act unless it shall have first (a) complied with all the requirements of the laws of this State relative to associations as defined in this act and acts amendatory hereto and supplemental hereto, and (b) applied for and received from the commissioner a license to transact business in this State as required of a domestic association, and (c) deposited with the State Treasurer the money or securities hereinafter in this section required for the transaction of such business within this State.
Every such association transacting business in this State of a character similar to that authorized by this act or in such manner as might lead the public to believe that its business is that of a building and loan association shall become subject to the supervision of the commissioner and shall conduct all its business in accordance with the statutes governing domestic associations.

Every foreign association mentioned or referred to in the preceding paragraph of this section desiring to enter the State of California for the transaction of business or for selling its shares, stock or investment certificates must first deposit with the State Treasurer not less than one hundred thousand dollars in lawful money of the United States, or in bonds or other securities referred to in subdivisions (3), (4) and (5) of section 9.02 of this act, or in lieu thereof promissory notes in such amount secured by first mortgages or first deeds of trust upon improved real property located in this State satisfactory to the commissioner, all duly assigned or endorsed in blank, to be held by him as a guarantee fund for the protection and indemnity of residents of this State who shall invest in any of its shares, stock or investment certificates, or with whom it shall do business. In the event mortgages or deeds of trust shall be deposited, the association shall be required to make all collections thereon, and to do such acts as may be necessary or proper to protect and preserve the security therefor, and shall make monthly reports to the commissioner of the status thereof. Whenever any foreign association shall have outstanding shares and investment certificates issued to residents of this State of an aggregate value in excess of two million dollars, the deposit above mentioned, in money or security of the character above mentioned, shall be increased and at all times maintained in a sum at least equal to five percent of such aggregate value. With the consent of the commissioner, any of the securities deposited as herein provided may be withdrawn at any time upon the substitution and deposit of others of the form and character herein specified and of like or greater net value, so long as the aggregate net value of all equals or exceeds the amount named herein. The fund thus created is not to be foreclosed or realized upon when the association is not in the hands of the commissioner, except for the liquidation of a final judgment in favor of residents of California who were investors in such association or with whom it shall have done business, and then only after certified proof thereof has been filed with the State Treasurer. Where the association is in the hands of the commissioner for liquidation as provided for by this act, the fund may be withdrawn by the commissioner at any time for distribution by him in favor of residents of California who were investors of such association or with whom it shall have done business. Except as above provided, securities deposited as herein specified shall not be withdrawn until satisfactory proof of the liquidation of all liabilities to residents of this State, approved by the commissioner, shall be filed with the State Treasurer, when all may then be withdrawn. Only those persons who have resided in the State of California continuously from the time of investing in or doing business with such association to the time of securing a final judgment or to the determination by the commissioner to liquidate such association, shall be entitled to participate in the fund provided for by this section.

Any person who, as principal, agent, salesman, solicitor or in any other capacity, shall solicit or conduct in this State the business of selling, disposing of or taking or soliciting subscriptions for the sale of any of the shares, stock, or investment certificates of any foreign association which has not complied with all the requirements of this section and which is not at that time the lawful holder of a license to transact business in this State issued by the commissioner and then in force shall be guilty of a public offense and shall be punished by imprisonment in the State prison not exceeding five years, or in a county jail not exceeding two years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

No foreign association issuing any securities other than shares, stock and investment certificates shall be entitled to a license to transact business in this State and no foreign association transacting business in this State shall issue any securities except shares, stock and investment certificates. The term "securities," as used in this paragraph, shall not include borrowings permitted by sections 9.05 or 9.06 of this act or instruments executed in connection therewith.

Sec. 9. Section 13.13 of said act, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 13.13. Powers Upon Taking Possession. Upon taking possession of the business, property and assets of any association, the commissioner may under his hand and official seal appoint a custodian, require from him a good and sufficient bond and place him in charge as his representative. Upon taking such possession, the commissioner shall have authority to collect all moneys due to such association and to give full receipt therefor, and to do such other acts as are necessary or expedient to collect, conserve or protect its business, property and assets. Unless the commissioner shall be enjoined from further proceedings and directed to surrender such business, property and assets or unless such association shall with the consent of the commissioner resume business, then the commissioner shall proceed to liquidate the affairs of such association as hereinafter provided. Whenever the commissioner shall be in possession of the business, property and assets of any association, and regardless of whether or not he shall be liquidating the affairs of such association, the commissioner may in his discretion (1) apply to the superior court of the county in which the principal office in this State of such association is located for an order confirming any action there-tofore taken by the commissioner, or authorizing the commissioner to do any act or to execute any instrument not expressly authorized by this act, which order shall be given and made after a hearing on such notice as the court shall prescribe; (2) pay and discharge any secured claims against such association, whether or not such claims shall theretofore have been presented for payment or have become barred from presentation by the expiration of the time limit hereinafter specified; provided that: no such claim shall be paid in an amount larger than the then value of the security therefor; (3) pay such administrative or current expenses incurred prior to the taking of possession by the commissioner as may be necessary or convenient to the order or economic liquidation or preservation of the assets, and pay all wages or salaries, not exceeding two hundred fifty dollars per month to any one person, earned within six months prior to the taking of possession by the commissioner, whether or not claims for such expenses, wages or salaries shall theretofore have been presented for payment, or shall have become barred from presentation by the expiration of the time limit hereinafter specified; or (4) within six months after obtaining knowledge of the existence thereof, disaffirm any executory contracts (including leases) to which such association is a party, and disaffirm any partially executed contracts (including leases) to the extent that they remain executory.

SEC. 10. Section 13.15 of said act, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 13.15. Officers Must Furnish Schedule of Property. Upon taking possession of the property, business and assets of any association, the commissioner shall require the president and secretary of such association to, and such officers shall, make a schedule of all its property and assets and of all collateral held by it as security for loans and make oath that such schedule sets forth all such property, assets and collateral and shall deliver such schedule, and the possession of any and all such property, assets and collateral as may not have been so previously delivered, to the commissioner, who may at any time examine under oath such president and secretary, or other officers of such association, or the directors, agents or employees thereof, to determine whether or not all such property, assets or collateral have been transferred and delivered into his possession. The power of the commissioner to issue subpoenas and to require attendance of parties for examination under this section shall be as provided for in section 13.08 of this act.

Sec. 11. A new section is hereby added to said act as amended, to be numbered 8.09a and to read as follows:

Sec. 8.09a. Dividends Payable Subject to Approval of Commissioner. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in section 8.09 of this act, an association may, with the prior approval of the commissioner in each case, pay dividends on stock from that part of its net profits after divideclends on shares, computed in accordance with accounting practices prescribed or approved by the commissioner, as shall not have resulted either (a) from the reduction, pursuant to the provisions of said section 8.03, of interest on its investment certificates or dividends on its shares, below the contractual rate or rates thereof or (b) from the acceptance, pursuant to the provisions of section 6.07 of this act, of its investment certificates or shares in payment for property sold by such association. In no case shall the commissioner approve the payment of dividends from such net profits unless he shall have caused a notice of such intended action to be published, at least five days before such intended action is taken, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county or city and county in which such association's principal office in this State is located.

SEC. 12. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or other part of this act, or if any article, section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or other part of the Building and Loan Association Act as amended by this act, is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, or to be invalid as applied to any person, association or circumstance, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act or of said act as so amended, or the application to other persons, associations or circumstances of the part held to be invalid as aforesaid. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act and each section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or other part thereof, and would have amended said act by adding thereto each article, section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or other part added thereto by this act, irrespective of the fact that any one or more of the sections, subsections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses, phrases or other parts of this act be declared unconstitutional or be invalid as applied to any person, association or circumstance, and irrespective of the fact that any one or more of the articles, sections, subsections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses, phrases or other parts added to said act by this act be declared unconstitutional or be invalid as applied to any person, association or circumstance.

CHAPTER 452.

An act to amend section 652 of the Civil Code and to add four new sections thereto to be numbered sections 652.1, 652.2, 652.3 and 652.4, all relating to the consolidation and government of colleges and institutions of higher education.

[Approved by the Governor July 11, 1935. In effect September 16, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 652 of the Civil Code is hereby amended to read as follows:
Sec. 652. Sectarian or Fraternal Schools—Whenever any benevolent, religious or fraternal organization or society, having a grand lodge, assembly, conference or other legislative or representative head in the State of California, having two or more colleges or institutions of higher education under its patronage, shall, for the purpose of greater efficiency and simplicity in the administration of its educational interests, desire to consolidate such institutions under one management, such organization or society shall be and is hereby authorized to consolidate such institution under one management, by complying with the following provisions:

Such grand lodge, assembly, conference or other legislative or representative head having authorized a consolidation of its institutions, a new corporation shall be formed.

The board of trustees of the new corporation shall at first consist of the persons constituting the boards of trustees of the several institutions, respectively thus consolidating, and others; provided, the number of trustees shall not exceed forty-five. The board of trustees shall be so classified that the term of office of one-third of its members shall expire each year, and unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or by-laws, the successors of such trustees, as their terms expire shall be elected by such grand lodge, assembly, conference or other legislative or representative head, at its annual meeting.

Sec. 2. A new section is hereby added to the Civil Code to be numbered section 652.1, and to read as follows:

652.1. Provision may be made in such articles of incorporation in addition to any other matters required by law for not only the number of its trustees but also for the method of nominating and electing trustees and the special qualifications, if any, required of persons so to be elected or of any particular number of such persons. If not so made therein such methods and qualifications may be set forth in the by-laws.

Sec. 3. A new section is hereby added to the Civil Code to be numbered section 652.2, and to read as follows:
