ELECTIONS CODE
STATUTES 1939, CHAPTERS 26, 27, 65, 66 AND 67.

Cross reference Table No. 1 indicates the origin of each section of the code. Cross reference Table No. 2 indicates the disposition of former statutes in the code as originally enacted. Statutes repealed but not included in the code are also listed. A note opposite such statutes indicates the reason for the omission. Statutes other than codes are cited by year, chapter, and page.

The obelisk (†) indicates sections added or affected subsequent to the original enactment of the code. The asterisks refer to footnotes which indicate the year, chapter, and page of the amended form of the statute used in codification when the last amended form was not utilized.

CROSS-REFERENCE TABLE NUMBER ONE

Origin of Revenue and Taxation Code Sections

[If a Revenue and Taxation Code section was amended or repealed at the 1939 regular session after the enactment of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and any amendment to the new code is still only a codification of existing law, including 1939 amendments thereto. there is shown in italics in this table the original section with its original source and, except in the case of a repeal, immediately thereafter, in roman type, the section and its source as they will be after the amendments.

If the source, or one of the sources, of a Revenue and Taxation Code section was amended or added in 1939, but the Revenue and Taxation Code section was not amended. the unchanged sources are shown in roman type, any source before amendment and which is no longer a source is shown in italics, and the 1939 amendment which replaces such former source or which is now being added to the other sources is shown in bold-face type.

A Revenue and Taxation Code section which was added to the code at the 1939 regular session and which is still a codification of existing law, including 1939 amendments thereto. is shown in bold-face type.

All the numbers shown in italics indicate the sections as they stood before any 1939 amendment after the enactment of the Revenue and Taxation Code, so that in many cases the reference is not to the last amended form of the section ; the numbers in roman and bold-face type refer only to the last amended form of the section, except where preceded by an asterisk (*).

If an amendment to the Revenue and Taxation Code is a substantive change in the law. without corresponding change in the existing law, as amended, this fact is shown by an asterisk (*) before the Revenue and Taxation Code section number. In such a case, the source of the Revenue and Taxation Code section is shown as if the section had not been amended or repealed.]
