SEC. 14. Section 17503 of the Education Code is amended to read:

17503. For purposes of this section:

(a) "Salaries of classroom teachers" and "teacher" shall have the same meanings as prescribed by Section 17200 of this code provided, however, that the cost of all health and welfare benefits provided to the teachers by the school district shall be included within the meaning of salaries of classroom teachers.

(b) "Current expense of education" means the gross total expended (not reduced by estimated income or estimated federal and state apportionments) for the purposes classified in the final budget of a school district (except one which, during the preceding fiscal year, had less than 101 units of average daily attendance) submitted to and approved by the county superintendent of schools pursuant to Section 20607 of this code for certificated salaries other than certificated salaries for pupil transportation, food services, and community services; classified salaries other than classified salaries for pupil transportation, food services, and community services; employee benefits other than employee benefits for pupil transportation personnel, food services personnel, and community services personnel; books, supplies, and equipment replacement other than for pupil transportation and food services; and community services, contracted services, and other operating expenses other than for pupil transportation, food services, and community services. "Current expense of education," for purposes of this section shall not include those expenditures classified as sites, buildings, books, and media and new equipment (object of expenditure 6000 of the California School Accounting Manual) or expenditures for facility acquisition and construction; and shall not include the amount expended pursuant to any lease agreement for plant and equipment or the amount expended from funds received from the federal government pursuant to the "Economic Opportunity Act of 1964" or any extension of such act of Congress or the amount expended by a community college from state or federal funds received by the community college for grants to community college students or for the employment of community college students.

There shall be expended during each fiscal year for payment of salaries of classroom teachers:

(a) By an elementary school district, sixty percent (60%) of the district's current expense of education.

(b) By a high school district, fifty percent (50%) of the district's current expense of education.

(c) By a community college district, fifty percent (50%) of the district's current expense of education.

(d) By a unified school district, fifty-five percent (55%) of the district's current expense of education.

If the Superintendent of Public Instruction determines that a school district has not expended the applicable percentage of current expense of education for the payment of salaries of classroom teachers during the preceding fiscal year, he shall, in apportionments made to the school district from the State School Fund after April 15 of the current fiscal year, designate an amount of such apportionment or apportionments equal to the apparent deficiency in district expenditures. Any amount so designated by the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be deposited in the county treasury to the credit of the school district but shall be unavailable for expenditure by the district pending the determination to be made by the Superintendent of Public Instruction on any application for exemption which may be submitted to the Superintendent of Public Instruction. In the event it appears to the governing board of a school district that the application of the preceding paragraphs of this section during a fiscal year results in serious hardship to the district or in the payment of salaries of classroom teachers in excess of the salaries of classroom teachers paid by other districts of comparable type and functioning under comparable conditions, the board may, with the written approval of the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction over the district apply to the Superintendent of Public Instruction in writing not later than September 15th of the succeeding fiscal year for exemption from the requirements of the preceding paragraphs of this section for the fiscal year on account of which the application is made. Upon receipt of such application, duly approved, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall grant the district exemption for any amount that is less than one thousand dollars ($1,000), and if the amount is one thousand dollars ($1,000), or greater may grant the district exemption, to the extent deemed necessary by him, from such requirements for the fiscal year on account of which the application is made. If such exemption is granted the designated moneys shall be immediately available for expenditure by the school district governing board. If no application for exemption is made or exemption is denied, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall order the designated amount or amount not exempted to be added to the amounts to be expended for salaries of classroom teachers during the next fiscal year.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall enforce the requirements prescribed by this section, and may adopt necessary rules and regulations to that end. He may require the submission to him, during the school year, by school district governing boards and county superintendents of schools, of such reports and information as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

SEC. 15. Section 17503 of the Education Code is amended to read:

17503. For purposes of this section:

(a) "Salaries of classroom teachers" and "teacher" shall have the same meanings as prescribed by Section 17200 of this code provided, however, that the cost of all health and welfare benefits provided to the teachers by the school district shall be included within the meaning of salaries of classroom teachers.

(b) "Current expense of education" means the gross total expended (not reduced by estimated income or estimated federal and state apportionments) for the purposes classified in the final budget of a school district (except one which, during the preceding fiscal year, had less than 101 units of average daily attendance) submitted to and approved by the county superintendent of schools pursuant to Section 20607 of this code for certificated salaries other than certificated salaries for pupil transportation, food services, and community services; classified salaries other than classified salaries for pupil transportation, food services, and community services; employee benefits other than employee benefits for pupil transportation personnel, food services personnel, and community services personnel; books, supplies, and equipment replacement other than for pupil transportation and food services; and community services, contracted services, and other operating expenses other than for pupil transportation, food services, and community services. "Current expense of education," for purposes of this section shall not include those expenditures classified as sites, buildings, books, and media and new equipment (object of expenditure 6000 of the California School Accounting Manual), the amount expended from categorical aid received from the federal or state government which funds were granted for expenditures in a program not incurring any teacher salary expenditures or requiring disbursement of the funds without regard to the requirements of this section, or expenditures for facility acquisition and construction; and shall not include the amount expended pursuant to any lease agreement for plant and equipment or the amount expended from funds received from the federal government pursuant to the "Economic Opportunity Act of 1964" or any extension of such act of Congress or the amount expended by a community college from state or federal funds received by the community college for grants to community college students or for the employment of community college students.

There shall be expended during each fiscal year for payment of salaries of classroom teachers:

(a) By an elementary school district, sixty percent (60%) of the district's current expense of education.

(b) By a high school district, fifty percent (50%) of the district's current expense of education.

(c) By a community college district, fifty percent (50%) of the district's current expense of education.

(d) By a unified school district, fifty-five percent (55%) of the district's current expense of education.

If the Superintendent of Public Instruction determines that a school district has not expended the applicable percentage of current expense of education for the payment of salaries of classroom teachers during the preceding fiscal year, he shall, in apportionments made to the school district from the State School Fund after April 15 of the current fiscal year, designate an amount of such apportionment or apportionments equal to the apparent deficiency in district expenditures. Any amount so designated by the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be deposited in the county treasury to the credit of the school district but shall be unavailable for expenditure by the district pending the determination to be made by the Superintendent of Public Instruction on any application for exemption which may be submitted to the Superintendent of Public Instruction. In the event it appears to the governing board of a school district that the application of the preceding paragraphs of this section during a fiscal year results in serious hardship to the district, or in the payment of salaries of classroom teachers in excess of the salaries of classroom teachers paid by other districts of comparable type and functioning under comparable conditions, the board may, with the written approval of the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction over the district apply to the Superintendent of Public Instruction in writing not later than September 15th of the succeeding fiscal year for exemption from the requirements of the preceding paragraphs of this section for the fiscal year on account of which the application is made. Upon receipt of such application, duly approved, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall grant the district exemption for any amount that is less than one thousand dollars ($1,000), and if the amount is one thousand dollars ($1,000), or greater may grant the district exemption, to the extent deemed necessary by him, from such requirements for the fiscal year on account of which the application is made. If such exemption is granted the designated moneys shall be immediately available for expenditure by the school district governing board. If no application for exemption is made or exemption is denied, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall order the designated amount or amount not exempted to be added to the amounts to be expended for salaries of classroom teachers during the next fiscal year.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall enforce the requirements prescribed by this section, and may adopt necessary rules and regulations to that end. He may require the submission to him, during the school year, by school district governing boards and county superintendents of schools, of such reports and information as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

SEC. 16. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2836 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1977, both bills amend Section 17503 of the Education Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2836 that the amendments to Section 17503 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 17503 in the form set forth in Section 15 of this act. Therefore, Section 15 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 2836 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1977, both amend Section 17503, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 2836 in which case Section 14 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 17. Sections 14 and 15 of this act shall become operative July 1, 1977.

CHAPTER 1013

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 23428.25 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

23428.25. For the purposes of this article, "club" also means any Hidalgo Society the purpose of which is to operate for the advancement of education for the improvement of social and economic conditions, to help lessen neighborhood tension, lessen the burden on welfare systems, to help eliminate prejudice and discrimination and for other charitable causes that might be present in the community. Such a group shall be located in a county of the 32nd class, have a least two hundred (200) members who pay dues, have been in existence more than three years and shall own, lease, or maintain a clubroom or rooms for its membership.

It shall be unlawful for any club licensed pursuant to this section to make any discrimination, distinction, or restriction against any person on account of such person's color, race, religion, ancestry, national origin, sex, or age.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to this section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local governmental entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

CHAPTER 1014

An act to amend Section 5902 of, and to add Section 5985.1 to, the Education Code, relating to regional occupational centers and programs.

[Approved by Governor September 18, 1976 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1976]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5902 of the Education Code is amended to read:

5902. The governing board of any high school district, subject to the provisions of this code relating to courses of study for high schools, the governing board of any joint powers regional occupational center or program, or the county superintendent of schools which conducts any county-operated regional occupational center or program, may establish and maintain, in connection with any high school or regional occupational center or program under its or his jurisdiction, cooperative vocational education programs in accordance with standards prescribed by the State Board of Education.

SEC. 2. Section 5985.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

5985.1. Notwithstanding Section 5985, attendance in work experience classes or programs maintained by a regional occupational center or regional occupational program shall not receive apportionments from state funds based on average daily attendance unless such classes or programs are in conformance with standards adopted pursuant to Section 5902.

A student enrolled in cooperative vocational education conducted by a regional occupational center or program shall not be credited with more than one day of attendance in any calendar day for purposes of such programs.

CHAPTER 1015

An act to amend Section 11190 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to controlled substances.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1976 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1976]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11190 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11190. Every practitioner, other than a pharmacist, who issues a prescription, or dispenses or administers a controlled substance classified in Schedule II shall make a record that, as to the transaction, shows all of the following:

(a) The name and address of the patient.

(b) The date.

(c) The character and quantity of controlled substances involved.

The prescriber's record shall show the pathology and purpose for which the prescription is issued, or the controlled substance administered, prescribed, or dispensed.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to this section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local government entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

CHAPTER 1016

An act to amend Sections 6152 and 6153 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to unlawful solicitation and procurement of business for attorneys.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1976]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6152 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6152. (a) It is unlawful for:

(1) Any person, in his individual capacity or in his capacity as a public or private employee, or for any firm, corporation, partnership or association to act as a runner or capper for any such attorneys or to solicit any business for any such attorneys in and about the state prisons, county jails, city jails, city prisons, or other places of detention of persons, city receiving hospitals, city and county receiving hospitals, county hospitals, justice courts, municipal courts, superior courts, or in any public institution or in any public place or upon any public street or highway or in and about private hospitals, sanitariums or in and about any private institution or upon private property of any character whatsoever.

(2) Any person to solicit another person to commit or join in the commission of a violation of subdivision (a).

(b) A general release from a liability claim from any individual who is initially admitted to a medical facility for treatment of the injury alleged to have given rise to such claim is presumed fraudulent if executed within 15 days of such admission or prior to release from the facility, whichever occurs first.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the recommendation of professional employment where such recommendation is not prohibited by the Rules of Professional Conduct of the State Bar of California.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to mean that a public defender or assigned counsel may not make known his or her services as a criminal defense attorney to persons unable to afford legal counsel whether such persons are in custody or otherwise.

SEC. 2. Section 6153 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

6153. Any person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation violating any of the provisions of this article is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or by fine of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Any person employed either as an officer, director, trustee, clerk, servant or agent of this state or of any county or other municipal corporation or subdivision thereof, who is found guilty of violating any of the provisions of this article, shall forfeit the right to his office and employment in addition to any other penalty provided in this article.

SEC. 3. Nothing in this act shall be construed to affect any prosecution commenced prior to January 1, 1977.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to this section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local government entities which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

CHAPTER 1017

SECTION 1. Section 124 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

124. There is within the Division of Industrial Accidents a Disability Evaluation Bureau. The administrative director shall appoint a qualified specialist in the evaluation of permanent disability to serve as the chief of such bureau, and may appoint such assistant disability evaluation specialists as the work of the bureau may require. Those persons holding positions on the staff of the division's permanent disability rating bureau at the time of the effective date of this section shall be appointed and continue respectively as chief and assistant disability evaluation specialists under this section. The chief and the assistant disability evaluation specialists under his or her control and supervision shall:

(a) With the aid and advice of the medical director prepare such forms for approval by the administrative director as may be necessary or convenient for use of the division and of employees and employers, and those acting on their behalf, to facilitate and expedite the determination of the proper percentage of permanent disability, if any, for injuries under Division 4 (commencing with Section 3201) and Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 6100) of this code.

(b) Furnish to the administrative director, the appeals board, referees, and to employers and employees and those acting on their behalf, under such conditions as the administrative director may in rules and regulations prescribe, estimates of the percentages of permanent disability, if any, due under Article 3 (commencing with Section 4650), Chapter 2, Part 2, Division 4 of this code, either before or after the filing of an application under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 5500), Part 4, Division 4 of this code.

(c) Include the formula used in computing the rating in every rating report, estimate, or recommendation prepared in writing.

(d) Perform such other functions as may be delegated to the Disability Evaluation Bureau by the administrative director.

SEC. 2. Section 139.6 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

139.6. The administrative director shall establish and effect within the Division of Industrial Accidents a continuing program to provide information and assistance concerning the rights, benefits, and obligations of the Workers' Compensation Law to employees and employers subject thereto.

SEC. 3. Section 4453 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4453. Except as provided in Section 4453.1, in computing average annual earnings for the purposes of temporary disability indemnity and permanent total disability indemnity only, the average weekly earnings shall be taken at not less than fifty-two dollars and fifty cents ($52.50) nor more than two hundred thirty-one dollars ($231). In computing average annual earnings for purposes of permanent partial disability indemnity, except as provided in Section 4659, the average weekly earnings shall be taken at not less than forty-five dollars ($45) nor more than one hundred five dollars ($105). Between these limits the average weekly earnings, except as provided in Sections 4456 to 4459, shall be arrived at as follows:

(a) Where the employment is for 30 or more hours a week and for five or more working days a week, the average weekly earnings shall be 100 percent of the number of working days a week times the daily earnings at the time of the injury.

(b) Where the employee is working for two or more employers at or about the time of the injury, the average weekly earnings shall be taken as 100 percent of the aggregate of such earnings from all employments computed in terms of one week; but the earnings from employments other than the employment in which the injury occurred shall not be taken at a higher rate than the hourly rate paid at the time of the injury.

(c) If the earnings are at an irregular rate, such as piecework, or on a commission basis, or are specified to be by week, month or other period, then the average weekly earnings mentioned in subdivision (a) above shall be taken as 100 percent of the actual weekly earnings averaged for such period of time, not exceeding one year, as may conveniently be taken to determine an average weekly rate of pay.

(d) Where the employment is for less than 30 hours per week, or where for any reason the foregoing methods of arriving at the average weekly earnings cannot reasonably and fairly be applied, the average weekly earnings shall be taken at 100 percent of the sum which reasonably represents the average weekly earning capacity of the injured employee at the time of his injury, due consideration being given to his actual earnings from all sources and employments.

SEC. 4. Section 4453.1 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4453.1. In computing average annual earnings for the purposes of temporary disability indemnity, the average weekly earnings for a claimant whose last employment was either (i) as an employee as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 3351, (ii) or as an employee engaged in vending, selling, offering for sale, or delivering directly to the public, any newspaper published at least weekly, shall be taken at not less than the lesser of fifty-two dollars and fifty cents ($52.50), or 1.2 times the employee's actual weekly earnings from all employers, nor more than two hundred thirty-one dollars ($231). Between these limits, the average weekly earnings, except as provided in Sections 4456 to 4459, shall be arrived at as provided in subdivisions (a) through (d), inclusive, of Section 4453.

SEC. 5. Section 4460 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4460. For the purpose of computing the temporary disability indemnity or permanent total disability indemnity payable to any employee who sustains an original injury causing temporary disability or permanent total disability, the maximum average weekly earnings shall be taken at two hundred thirty-one dollars ($231). For the purpose of computing the permanent partial disability indemnity payable to any employee who sustains an original injury causing permanent partial disability, the maximum average weekly earnings shall be taken at one hundred five dollars ($105).

Every computation made pursuant to this section as last amended shall be made only with reference to temporary disability or such permanent disability resulting from an original injury sustained after the act last amending this section becomes effective; provided, however, that all rights presently existing under this section shall be continued in force.

SEC. 6. Section 4702 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4702. Except as provided in the next paragraph, the death benefit in cases of total dependency, when added to all accrued disability indemnity, shall be the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) except in the case of a surviving widow and one or more dependent minor children, in which case the death benefit shall be fifty-five thousand dollars ($55,000) and except as otherwise provided in Sections 4553 and 4554. In cases of partial dependency the death benefit shall be a sum equal to four times the amount annually devoted to the support of the dependents by the employee, not to exceed the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). The death benefit in all cases shall be paid in installments in the same manner and amounts as temporary disability indemnity, payments to be made at least twice each calendar month, unless the appeals board otherwise orders.

Disability indemnity shall not be deducted from the death benefit and shall be paid in addition to the death benefit when the original injury resulting in death occurs after the effective date of the amendment to this section adopted at the 1949 Regular Session of the Legislature.

Every computation made pursuant to this section shall be made only with reference to death resulting from an original injury sustained after this section as amended during the 1971 Regular Session of the Legislature becomes effective; provided, however, that all rights presently existing under this section shall be continued in force.

SEC. 7. Section 5307.1 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

5307.1. The administrative director, after public hearings, shall adopt and revise, no less frequently than biannually, an official medical fee schedule which shall be prima facie evidence of the reasonableness of fees charged for medical services provided pursuant to this division.

Nothing in this section shall prohibit a medical provider from charging an employer or carrier fees in excess of those set forth on the official medical fee schedule, when reasonable, and accompanied by itemization and explanation; provided, however, that in no event shall a physician charge in excess of his or her usual fee.

In the event of a dispute between the physician and the employer or carrier concerning the medical fees charged, the physician may be allowed a reasonable fee for testimony, if a physician testifies pursuant to the employer's or carrier's subpoena, and the referee determines that the medical fee charged was reasonable.

The official medical fee schedule shall not apply to the costs and expenses authorized under Section 4600 to prove a claim.

SEC. 8. Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 5450) is added to Part 4 of Division 4 of the Labor Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2.5. ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANCE

5450. The Division of Industrial Accidents shall make available to employees, employers and other interested parties information, assistance, and advice to assure the proper and timely furnishing of benefits and to assist in the resolution of disputes on an informal basis.

5451. Any party may consult with, or seek the advice of, an information and assistance officer within the Division of Industrial Accidents as designated by the administrative director. If no application is filed, the information and assistance officer shall consider the contentions of the parties and may refer the matter to the appropriate bureau or unit within the Division of Industrial Accidents for review and recommendations. The information and assistance officer shall advise the employer and the employee of their rights, benefits, and obligations under this division. Upon making such a referral, the information and assistance officer shall arrange for a copy of any pertinent material submitted to be served upon the parties or their representatives, if any. The procedures to be followed by the information and assistance officer shall be governed by the rules and regulations of the administrative director adopted after public hearings.

5452. If the matter is referred to the Medical Bureau for review, the bureau may require an employee to undergo a medical examination. The bureau shall prepare a report containing its findings and recommendations, copies of which shall be furnished to the parties or their representatives, if any. No fee shall be charged by the Division of Industrial Accidents for any services authorized by this chapter except that if the Medical Bureau refers the employee to an independent medical examiner for examination and report, any party may agree to pay the cost of such examinations. 5453. After consideration of the information submitted, including the reports of any bureau or unit within the Division of Industrial Accidents which have been received, the information and assistance officer shall make a recommendation which shall be served on the parties or their representatives, if any.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1976]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2463 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

The State Department of Health shall adopt such rules and regulations as are necessary to implement this section.

5702. Any person who moves any native mollusks taken under regulations of the commission from Districts 12 and 13 for purposes of purification for human consumption shall pay a royalty, as the commission may prescribe, of not less than two cents ($0.02) per pound of mollusks so taken.

CHAPTER 1020

An act relating to animals, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares as follows:

(a) Depredation by feral dogs is damaging to both the wildlife resource and the livestock industry in this state.

(b) The population of, and the problems associated with, feral dogs, is increasing at a rapid rate.

(c) No comprehensive statewide analysis on feral dogs has been completed to date.

(d) An immediate, comprehensive assessment of the status of the feral dog problem in this state is necessary to assist the Legislature in determining what measures should be undertaken to protect native wildlife and domestic livestock from feral dogs.

SEC. 2. The Department of Fish and Game shall study the feral dog problem in this state. The study shall include, but is not limited to:

(a) The assessment, description, and documentation of feral dog depredation on native wildlife and domestic livestock;

(b) The examination of the adequacy of existing laws and control programs;

(c) The suggestion of the solutions presently available; and

(d) Recommendations of legislation, if appropriate, and control programs.

The department shall consult with the Department of Food and Agriculture, the United States Fish and Wildlife Service, and other appropriate agencies, and report its findings and recommendations to the Legislature, not later than January 3, 1977.

SEC. 3. There is hereby appropriated from the General Fund in the State Treasury the sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) to the Department of Fish and Game for purposes of carrying out the provisions of this act.

CHAPTER 1021

An act to amend Section 23824 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 23824 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

23824. Limitations provided by Section 23816 on the number of licensed premises shall not apply to premises owned by the State of California, any incorporated city, county, city and county, airport district, or other district or public corporation of the State of California or to premises leased to any county, so long as any such premises are operated as a bona fide public eating place, provided, however, that civic auditoriums owned by any incorporated city, county, city and county, or other district or any premises leased to any county or city for use as a civic auditorium and directly operated by a public entity shall be subject to the limitations provided by Section 23816 but shall not be required to be operated as a bona fide public eating place. Such civic auditorium shall further not be subject to the provisions of Section 23793.

Licenses issued on premises owned by the state, incorporated city, county, city and county, airport district, or other district or public corporation of the State of California, or issued on premises leased to any county or city, shall be renewable as set forth in Section 24048.1 or 24048.3. Such licenses shall be excluded from the number of premises used in determining application of the limitations provided by this article. Such licenses shall be subject to the provisions of Section 23954.5 and shall be only transferable from person to person at the same premises. Prior to the issuance of such licenses, the governmental agency owning or the county leasing such premises shall file with the department a written request that the license be issued and a written statement setting forth the reasons why issuance of the license would be in the public interest.

A written request filed with the department by the governmental agency owning or the county leasing premises used as a civic auditorium and directly operated as a public entity that the license be issued need not contain a written statement setting forth the reasons why issuance of the license would be in the public interest.

Funds derived from fees collected pursuant to the amendments made to this section at the 1975–76 Regular Session of the Legislature shall be deposited in the General Fund.

CHAPTER 1022

An act to amend Section 20810.5 of the Government Code, relating to the Public Employees' Retirement System, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20810.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20810.5. An employee of a student body organization, which is not a contracting agency, who becomes a member of the classified service of a school district pursuant to Section 25531.8 of the Education Code, shall receive service credit under the contract of the county superintendent of schools within whose jurisdiction the school district lies, or under such individual district contract as may be applicable, for the time during which he was employed by the student body organization as if he had been employed by the school district during such time unless such service is credited in another publicly supported retirement system.

Service so credited shall be credited as current service or prior service, or both, as it would be credited if the member had been an employee of the school district throughout the time of the service so credited.

The county superintendent of schools or superintendent of schools of an independently contracting district shall draw a requisition against the funds of the school district for an amount equal to the total employer and employee contributions which would have been requisitioned under Section 20585 had such service been rendered in the employ of the school district and the employer and member rates and compensation on the date of transfer had been in effect throughout the period of service credited, and transmit such amount in accordance with Section 20585.

The governing board may at its discretion establish a method of recovering a portion of, or the total liability for, the amount so requisitioned.

The amount recovered from the member for such service so credited shall be deducted from the amount transmitted and credited to the member's account.

SEC. 2. There are no state-mandated local costs in this act that require reimbursement under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because there are no new duties, obligations, or responsibilities imposed on local government by this act.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that this act will be in effect prior to the next school year, this act must take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1023

An act to amend Sections 12250, 12251, and 12252 of, and to repeal Sections 12253 and 12256 of, the Water Code, relating to recreation on the Feather River, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1976 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12250 of the Water Code is amended to read:

12250. The department is authorized to construct a recreation project in the vicinity of the City of Oroville along the Feather River. Recreation projects which may be considered, in accordance with the project environmental impact report, include, but are not limited to: a swimming area or facility near Bedrock Park, including sanitary and convenience facilities and channel modification, renovation of salmon-spawning riffles in conjunction with a swimming facility, and development of a parkway project and wildlife area.

SEC. 2. Section 12251 of the Water Code is amended to read:

12251. In order to construct the recreation project authorized pursuant to Section 12250, the department may exercise any of the powers conferred upon it by the provisions of Part 3 (commencing with Section 11100) of this division.

SEC. 3. Section 12252 of the Water Code is amended to read:

12252. Construction of the recreation project authorized pursuant to Section 12250 shall be contingent upon a favorable environmental impact determination, and upon the execution of an agreement with a local public agency under which such public agency agrees to fund any construction costs exceeding one million two hundred thousand dollars ($1,200,000), and agrees to pay all costs of maintaining the project.

SEC. 4. Section 12253 of the Water Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 12256 of the Water Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. An amount equal to the amount which reverted to the Bagley Conservation Fund on July 1, 1976, from the appropriations made in Items 350(rr) and 350.5 of the Budget Act of 1973 (Chapter 129 of the Statutes of 1973) is hereby appropriated, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 316, Chapter 1, Statutes of 1971, First Extraordinary Session, from the Bagley Conservation Fund, to the Department of Water Resources to construct a recreation project as authorized pursuant to Section 12250 of the Water Code, as amended by Section 1 of this act, and shall be available for expenditure until June 30, 1979.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The funding required for this project is the minimum necessary to construct a recreation project pursuant to Section 12250 of the Water Code as amended by this act. Further impending escalations in construction costs due to pressing inflation would place the cost of the project beyond the amount of funds which are made available for the project by this act. Therefore, it is critical that construction begin without delay.

CHAPTER 1024

An act to add Section 1388 to the Penal Code, relating to criminal actions.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1388 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1388. (a) In any case where an order for the dismissal of a felony action is made, as provided in this chapter, and where the defendant had been released on his own recognizance for that action, if the prosecutor files another accusatory pleading against the same defendant for the same offense, unless the defendant is present in court at the time of refiling, the district attorney shall send a letter to the defendant at his last known place of residence, and shall send a copy to the attorney of record, stating that the case has been refiled, and setting forth the date, time and place for rearraignment.

(b) If the defendant fails to appear for arraignment as stated, or at such time, date, and place as has been subsequently agreed to by defendant's counsel and the district attorney, then the court shall issue and have delivered for execution a warrant for his arrest within 20 days after his failure to appear.

(c) If the defendant was released on his own recognizance on the original charge, he shall, if he appears as provided in subdivisions (a) and (b), be released on his own recognizance on the refiled charge unless it is shown that changed conditions require a different disposition, in which case bail shall be set at the discretion of the judge.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because the duties, obligations, and responsibilities imposed on local governmental entities or school districts by this act are such that related costs are incurred as a part of their normal operating procedures.

CHAPTER 1025

An act to amend Section 17503 of the Education Code, relating to public schools.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17503 of the Education Code is amended to read:

17503. For purposes of this section:

(a) "Salaries of classroom teachers" and "teacher" shall have the same meanings as prescribed by Section 17200 of this code provided, however, that the cost of all health and welfare benefits provided to the teachers by the school district shall be included within the meaning of salaries of classroom teachers.

(b) "Current expense of education" means expenditures for certificated salaries other than certificated salaries for pupil transportation, food services, and community services; classified salaries other than classified salaries for pupil transportation, food services, and community services; employee benefits other than employee benefits for pupil transportation personnel, food services personnel, and community services personnel; books, supplies, and equipment replacement other than for pupil transportation and food services; and community services, contracted services, and other operating expenses other than for pupil transportation, food services, and community services. "Current expense of education," for purposes of this section shall not include expenditures classified as sites, buildings, books, and media and new equipment (object of expenditure 6000 of the California School Accounting Manual), the amount expended from categorical aid received from the federal or state government which funds were granted for expenditures in a program not incurring any teacher salary expenditures or requiring disbursement of the funds without regard to the requirements of this section, or expenditures for facility acquisition and construction.

There shall be expended during each fiscal year for payment of salaries of classroom teachers:

(a) By an elementary school district, sixty percent (60%) of the district's current expense of education.

(b) By a high school district, fifty percent (50%) of the district's current expense of education.

(c) By a community college district, fifty percent (50%) of the district's current expense of education.

(d) By a unified school district, fifty-five percent (55%) of the district's current expense of education.

If the Superintendent of Public Instruction determines that a school district has not expended the applicable percentage of current expense of education for the payment of salaries of classroom teachers during the preceding fiscal year, he shall, in apportionments made to the school district from the State School Fund after April 15 of the current fiscal year, designate an amount of such apportionment or apportionments equal to the apparent deficiency in district expenditures. Any amount so designated by the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be deposited in the county treasury to the credit of the school district, but shall be unavailable for expenditure by the district pending the determination to be made by the Superintendent of Public Instruction on any application for exemption which may be submitted to the Superintendent of Public Instruction. In the event it appears to the governing board of a school district that the application of the preceding paragraphs of this section during a fiscal year results in serious hardship to the district, or in the payment of salaries of classroom teachers in excess of the salaries of classroom teachers paid by other districts of comparable type and functioning under comparable conditions, the board may, with the written approval of the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction over the district apply to the Superintendent of Public Instruction in writing not later than September 15th of the succeeding fiscal year for exemption from the requirements of the preceding paragraphs of this section for the fiscal year on account of which the application is made. Upon receipt of such application, duly approved, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall grant the district exemption for any amount that is less than one thousand dollars ($1,000), and if the amount is one thousand dollars ($1,000), or greater may grant the district exemption, to the extent deemed necessary by him, from such requirements for the fiscal year on account of which the application is made. If such exemption is granted the designated moneys shall be immediately available for expenditure by the school district governing board. If no application for exemption is made or exemption is denied, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall order the designated amount or amount not exempted to be added to the amounts to be expended for salaries of classroom teachers during the next fiscal year.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall enforce the requirements prescribed by this section, and may adopt necessary rules and regulations to that end. He may require the submission to him, during the school year, by school district governing boards and county superintendents of schools, of such reports and information as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

SEC. 2. Section 17503 of the Education Code is amended to read:

17503. For purposes of this section:

(a) "Salaries of classroom teachers" and "teacher" shall have the same meanings as prescribed by Section 17200 of this code provided, however, that the cost of all health and welfare benefits provided to the teachers by the school district shall be included within the meaning of salaries of classroom teachers.

(b) "Current expense of education" means the gross total expended (not reduced by estimated income or estimated federal and state apportionments) for the purposes classified in the final budget of a school district (except one which, during the preceding fiscal year, had less than 101 units of average daily attendance) submitted to and approved by the county superintendent of schools pursuant to Section 20607 of this code for certificated salaries other than certificated salaries for pupil transportation, food services, and community services; classified salaries other than classified salaries for pupil transportation, food services, and community services;

employee benefits other than employee benefits for pupil transportation personnel, food services personnel, and community services personnel; books, supplies, and equipment replacement other than for pupil transportation and food services; and community services, contracted services, and other operating expenses other than for pupil transportation, food services, and community services. "Current expense of education," for purposes of this section shall not include those expenditures classified as sites, buildings, books, and media and new equipment (object of expenditure 6000 of the California School Accounting Manual), the amount expended from categorical aid received from the federal or state government which funds were granted for expenditures in a program not incurring any teacher salary expenditures or requiring disbursement of the funds without regard to the requirements of this section, or expenditures for facility acquisition and construction; and shall not include the amount expended pursuant to any lease agreement for plant and equipment or the amount expended from funds received from the federal government pursuant to the "Economic Opportunity Act of 1964" or any extension of such act of Congress or the amount expended by a community college from state or federal funds received by the community college for grants to community college students or for the employment of community college students.

There shall be expended during each fiscal year for payment of salaries of classroom teachers:

(a) By an elementary school district, sixty percent (60%) of the district's current expense of education.

(b) By a high school district, fifty percent (50%) of the district's current expense of education.

(c) By a community college district, fifty percent (50%) of the district's current expense of education.

(d) By a unified school district, fifty-five percent (55%) of the district's current expense of education.

If the Superintendent of Public Instruction determines that a school district has not expended the applicable percentage of current expense of education for the payment of salaries of classroom teachers during the preceding fiscal year, he shall, in apportionments made to the school district from the State School Fund after April 15 of the current fiscal year, designate an amount of such apportionment or apportionments equal to the apparent deficiency in district expenditures. Any amount so designated by the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be deposited in the county treasury to the credit of the school district but shall be unavailable for expenditure by the district pending the determination to be made by the Superintendent of Public Instruction on any application for exemption which may be submitted to the Superintendent of Public Instruction. In the event it appears to the governing board of a school district that the application of the preceding paragraphs of this section during a fiscal year results in serious hardship to the district or in the payment of salaries of classroom teachers in excess of the salaries of classroom teachers paid by other districts of comparable type and functioning under comparable conditions, the board may, with the written approval of the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction over the district apply to the Superintendent of Public Instruction in writing not later than September 15th of the succeeding fiscal year for exemption from the requirements of the preceding paragraphs of this section for the fiscal year on account of which the application is made. Upon receipt of such application, duly approved, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall grant the district exemption for any amount that is less than one thousand dollars ($1,000), and if the amount is one thousand dollars ($1,000), or greater may grant the district exemption, to the extent deemed necessary by him, from such requirements for the fiscal year on account of which the application is made. If such exemption is granted the designated moneys shall be immediately available for expenditure by the school district governing board. If no application for exemption is made or exemption is denied, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall order the designated amount or amount not exempted to be added to the amounts to be expended for salaries of classroom teachers during the next fiscal year.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall enforce the requirements prescribed by this section, and may adopt necessary rules and regulations to that end. He may require the submission to him, during the school year, by school district governing boards and county superintendents of schools, of such reports and information as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 3030 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1977, both bills amend Section 17503 of the Education Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 3030, that the amendments to Section 17503 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 17503 in the form set forth in Section 2 of this act. Therefore, Section 2 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 3030 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1977, both amend Section 17503, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 3030, in which case Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 4. Sections 1 and 2 of this act shall become operative on July 1, 1977.

CHAPTER 1026

An act to amend Sections 8300, 8306, and 8307 of, to add Sections 8307.5 and 8307.6 to, and to add and repeal Section 8305.8 of, the Fish and Game Code, and to amend Sections 8300.5, 8306.1, 8306.2, 8306.3, 8306.4, 8306.8, and 8306.9 of the Fish and Game Code, as added by

SEC. 2. Section 8300.5 of the Fish and Game Code, as added by Assembly Bill No. 2224, as enacted at the 1975–76 Regular Session, is amended to read:

8300.5. Notwithstanding Section 8300, no species of abalone (genus Haliotis) shall be taken during the months of February and August.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1981, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1981, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 3. Section 645 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

645. If, upon the hearing of any petition provided for by this article, the court finds that the net value of the estate over and above all liens and encumbrances at the date of death of the decedent and over and above the value of any homestead interest set apart out of decedent's estate under Section 660 or Section 661 of this code, does not exceed the sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), as of the date of such death, and that the expenses of the last illness, funeral charges and expenses of administration have been paid, it shall, by decree for that purpose, assign to the surviving spouse of the decedent, if there be a surviving spouse, provided said surviving spouse shall not have theretofore remarried, or, if there be no surviving spouse, then to such child or children of the decedent as may then be minors, if any, the whole of the estate, subject to whatever mortgages, liens or encumbrances there may be upon said estate at the time of the death of the decedent. A lease entered into in violation of this section shall be voidable at the option of the lessee.

SEC. 2. Section 39068.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

41954. (a) The state board shall, by March 1, 1976, adopt procedures for determining the compliance of any system designed for the control of gasoline vapor emissions during gasoline marketing operations, including storage, transport, and transfer operations, with performance standards which the state board determines are reasonable and necessary to achieve or maintain any applicable ambient air quality standard.

(b) The state board shall certify any gasoline vapor control system upon its determination that the system, if properly installed and maintained, will meet the requirements enumerated in subdivision (a). The state board shall specify the specifications used for issuing such certification. After the state board has certified such a system, if circumstances beyond the control of the state board cause the system to no longer meet the specified certification specifications, the state board may, as appropriate, revoke or modify its prior certification.

(c) The state board may test, or contract for the testing of, gasoline vapor control systems in order to certify such systems.

(d) The state board may charge a reasonable fee for certification, not to exceed the state board's estimated costs therefor. Payment of such fee may be made a condition of certification.

(e) On or after July 1, 1976, no person shall install a gasoline vapor control system unless it has been certified by the state board.

(f) To the extent authorized by other provisions of law, any district may adopt stricter procedures and performance standards than those adopted by the state board pursuant to subdivision (a).

SEC. 3. Section 41955 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

41955. Prior to state board certification of a gasoline vapor control system pursuant to Section 41954, the manufacturer of the system shall submit the system to, or, if appropriate, the components of the system as requested by, the Division of Measurement Standards of the Department of Food and Agriculture and the State Fire Marshal for their certification.

SEC. 4. Section 41956 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

41956. As soon as possible after the effective date of this section, the State Fire Marshal and the Division of Measurement Standards, after consulting with the state board, shall adopt rules and regulations for the certification of gasoline vapor control systems and components thereof.

The State Fire Marshal shall be the only agency responsible for determining whether any component or system creates a fire hazard. The division shall be the only agency responsible for the measurement accuracy aspects of any component or system.

SEC. 5. Section 41957 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

41957. The Division of Industrial Safety of the Department of Industrial Relations shall be the only agency responsible for determining whether any gasoline vapor control system, or component thereof, creates a safety hazard other than a fire hazard.

If the division determines that a system, or component thereof, creates a safety hazard other than a fire hazard, that system or component may not be used until the division has certified that the system or component, as the case may be, does not create such a hazard.

The division, in consultation with the state board, shall adopt the necessary rules and regulations for such certification if such certification is required.

SEC. 6. Section 41958 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

41958. To the maximum extent practicable, the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to Sections 41956 and 41957 shall allow flexibility in the design of gasoline vapor control systems and their components. The rules and regulations shall set forth the performance standards as to safety and measurement accuracy and the minimum procedures to be followed in testing the system or component for compliance with the performance standards.

The State Fire Marshal, the Division of Industrial Safety, and the Division of Measurement Standards shall certify any system or component which complies with their adopted rules and regulations. Any one of the state agencies may certify a system or component on the basis of results of tests performed by any entity retained by the manufacturer of the system or component or by the state agency. The requirements for the certification of a system or component shall not require that it be tested, approved, or listed by any private entity.

SEC. 7. Section 41959 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

41959. Certification testing of gasoline vapor control systems and their components by the state board, the State Fire Marshal, the Division of Measurement Standards, and the Division of Industrial Safety may be conducted simultaneously.

SEC. 8. Section 41960 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

41960. Certification of a gasoline vapor recovery system for safety and measurement accuracy by the State Fire Marshal and the Division of Measurement Standards and, if necessary, by the Division of Industrial Safety shall permit its installation wherever required in the state, if the system is also certified by the state board.

Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (f) of Section 41954, no local or regional authority shall prohibit the installation of a certified system without obtaining concurrence from the state agency responsible for the aspects of the system which the local or regional authority disapproves.

SEC. 9. Section 41961 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

41961. The State Fire Marshal, the Division of Measurement Standards, and the Division of Industrial Safety may charge a reasonable fee for certification of a gasoline vapor control system or a component thereof, not to exceed their respective estimated costs therefor. Payment of the fee may be made a condition of certification.

SEC. 10. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local governmental entities which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant, identifiable cost changes.

SEC. 11. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to avoid unnecessary litigation involving whether the lessor or the lessee of a gasoline service station is responsible for the installation of required gasoline vapor control systems, and in order to ensure that air pollution control districts do not require the installation of systems that are faulty or constitute fire or other safety hazards, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

The notice shall further inform the actual users that they have the right to become utility customers without being required to pay the amount due on the account.

(b) The public utility shall not be obligated to make service available unless and until each and every actual user of the utility system then residing on the premises shall agree to the terms and conditions of service, and shall meet the requirements of the public utility's rules and tariffs, provided, however, that if (1) one or more actual users are willing and able to assume responsibility for the entire account to the satisfaction of the public utility, or if (2) there is a physical means, legally available to the public utility, of selectively terminating service to those actual users who have not met the requirements of the public utility's rules and tariffs, the public utility shall make service available to the actual users who have met those requirements.

(c) Where prior service for a period of time is a condition for establishing credit by the serving utility, residency and proof of prompt payment of rent for such period of time shall be a satisfactory equivalent.

(d) Any actual user of utility services who becomes a utility customer pursuant to this section whose periodic payments, such as rental payments, include the costs of utility services, where such costs are not separately stated, may deduct from his payment each payment period all such reasonable charges paid to the utility for utility services during the preceding payment period.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to this section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because duties, obligations, or responsibilities imposed on local governmental entities by this act are such that related costs are incurred as a part of their normal operating procedures.

CHAPTER 1034

An act to add Section 6103.9 to the Government Code, and to amend Section 11476 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to child support.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6103.9 is added to the Government Code, to read:

6103.9. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the district attorney shall be exempt from the payment of any fees or costs, including fees for service of process and filing fees, in any action or proceeding brought for the establishment or enforcement of a child support obligation.

SEC. 2. Section 11476 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11476. It shall be the duty of the county department to refer all cases where a parent is absent from the home, or where the parents are unmarried and parentage has not been determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, to the district attorney immediately at the time the application for assistance, or certificate of eligibility, is signed by the applicant or recipient. If an applicant is found to be ineligible, such applicant shall be notified in writing that the referral of case to the district attorney may be terminated at such applicant's request. The county department shall cooperate with the district attorney and shall make available to him all pertinent information as provided in Section 11478.

Upon referral from the county department, the district attorney shall investigate the question of nonsupport or paternity and shall take all steps necessary to obtain support for the needy child and determine paternity in the case of a child born out of wedlock. Upon the advice of the county department that a child is being considered for adoption, the district attorney shall delay the investigation and other actions with respect to the case until advised that the adoption is no longer under consideration. The granting of aid to an applicant shall not be delayed or contingent upon investigation by the district attorney.

Where a court order has been obtained, any contractual agreement for support between the district attorney or the county department and the noncustodial parent shall be deemed null and void to the extent that it is not consistent with the court order.

Whenever a family which has been receiving aid to families with dependent children ceases to receive assistance, the district attorney shall:

(1) Continue to enforce support payments from the noncustodial parent for a period not to exceed three months from the month following the month in which such family ceased to receive assistance and pay all amounts so collected to the family; and

(2) At the end of such three-month period, if after written notice to the individual, the district attorney is requested to do so by the individual on whose behalf the enforcement efforts will be made, continue to enforce such support payments from the noncustodial parent.

The district attorney shall, where appropriate, utilize reciprocal arrangements adopted with other states in securing support from an absent parent for any child. In individual cases where utilization of reciprocal arrangements has proven ineffective, the district attorney may forward to the Attorney General a request to utilize federal courts in order to obtain or enforce orders for child support. If reasonable efforts to collect amounts assigned pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code Section 11477 have failed, the district attorney may forward a certified copy of such court order to the Attorney General with a request that the case be forwarded to the Treasury Department for collection. The Attorney General, where appropriate shall forward such requests to the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, or his designated representative.

(11) Phenobarbital.
(12) Diazepam.
(13) Chlordiazepoxide.

SEC. 6. Section 11058 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11058. (a) Except for purposes of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 11150) of this division, the controlled substances listed in this section are included in Schedule V.

(b) Any compound, mixture, or preparation containing limited quantities of any of the following narcotic drugs, which also contains one or more nonnarcotic active medicinal ingredients in sufficient proportion to confer upon the compound, mixture, or preparation, valuable medicinal qualities other than those possessed by the narcotic drug alone:

(1) Not more than 200 milligrams of codeine, or any of its salts, per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams.

(2) Not more than 100 milligrams of dihydrocodeine, or any of its salts, per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams.

(3) Not more than 100 milligrams of ethylmorphine, or any of its salts, per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams.

(4) Not more than 2.5 milligrams of diphenoxylate and not less than 25 micrograms of atrophine sulfate per dosage unit.

(5) Not more than 100 milligrams of opium per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams.

SEC. 7. Section 11150.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

11150.5. The provisions of this chapter shall be applicable to controlled substances subject to the Federal Controlled Substances Act (Title II, P.L. 91-513), as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 11007. References in this chapter to controlled substances classified in a particular schedule shall be deemed to be a reference to the federal schedule of such number, rather than a reference to the schedules set forth in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11053) of this division.

SEC. 8. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 2092 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1977, both bills amend Sections 11054, 11056, and 11057 of the Health and Safety Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 2092, that the amendments to Sections 11054, 11056, and 11057 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Sections 11054, 11056, and 11057 in the form set forth in Sections 2.5, 4.5, and 5.5 of this act. Therefore, Sections 2.5, 4.5, and 5.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill No. 2092 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1977, both amend Sections 11054, 11056, and 11057, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 2092, in which case Sections 2, 4, and 5 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 9. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to this section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local government entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

An act to amend Sections 3710.1, 3710.2, 3711, 3712, 3713, 3717, 3718, 3720, 3721, 3722, 3725, 3726, and 3727 of, to add Sections 3716.1, 3716.2, and 3728 to, to repeal and add Section 3723 of, and to repeal Section 3724 of, the Labor Code, relating to workers' compensation, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3710.1 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3710.1. Where an employer has failed to secure the payment of compensation as required by this article, the director or his designated agents shall issue a stop order prohibiting the use of the employee labor by such employer until the employer's compliance with the provisions of this article. Any employee so affected by such work stoppage shall be paid by the employer for such time lost, not exceeding 10 days, pending compliance by the employer. Further, the employer, when penalties for noninsurance at the time of a compensable injury are not applicable, shall pay to the director, for deposit in the State Treasury to the credit of the Uninsured Employers Fund, the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) per employee as an additional penalty for being uninsured at the time such stop order is made by the director or his designated agent. An illegally uninsured employer against whom a claim for a compensable injury has been filed, if a finding is made that the injury is not compensable, shall nevertheless be charged, as a penalty for being illegally uninsured at the time of the claimed injury, the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) per employee employed at the time of the claimed injury, payable to the State Treasury to the credit of the Uninsured Employers Fund. The penalty limit under this section is ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

SEC. 2. Section 3710.2 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3710.2. Failure of an employer to observe a stop order issued pursuant to Section 3710.1 is a misdemeanor and makes mandatory on the tribunal before whom the charge of violation of such stop order is tried the imposition of a sentence of imprisonment in the county jail for not less than 10 days and a fine of not less than three hundred dollars ($300). Fines shall be paid into the State Treasury to the credit of the Uninsured Employers Fund. The director or his designated agents may also obtain injunctive and other relief from the courts to carry out the purposes of Section 3710.1.

SEC. 3. Section 3711 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3711. The Director of Industrial Relations or his designated agents may, at any time, require any employer to furnish a written statement showing the name of his insurer or the manner in which the employer has complied with the provisions of this article. Failure of the employer for a period of 10 days to furnish such written statement is prima facie evidence that he has failed or neglected in respect to the matters so required. The 10-day period shall not be construed to allow an uninsured employer, so found by the director or his designated agents, any extension of time from the application of the provisions of Section 3710.1. An insured employer who fails to respond to an inquiry respecting his status as to his workers' compensation security shall pay a penalty of fifty dollars ($50) to the director for deposit in the State Treasury to the credit of the Uninsured Employers Fund. In any prosecution under this article, the burden of proof is upon the defendant to show that he has secured the payment of compensation in one of the two ways set forth in this article.

SEC. 4. Section 3712 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3712. The securing of the payment of compensation in a way provided in this division is essential to the functioning of the expressly declared social public policy of this state in the matter of worker's compensation; and the conduct or operation of any business or undertaking without full compensation security, in continuing violation of such social policy, shall be subject to imposition of business strictures and monetary penalties by the Director of Industrial Relations, or his designated agents, including, but not limited to, resort to the superior court of any county in which all or some part of such business is being thus unlawfully conducted or operated, for carrying out the intent of this article. In a proceeding before the superior court in matters concerned with this article, no filing fee shall be charged to the plaintiff; nor may any charge or cost be imposed for any act or service required of or done by any state or county officer or employee in connection with such proceeding. No bond shall be required as a prerequisite to the granting of a restraining order. If the court or the judge before whom the order to show cause in such proceeding shall be made returnable, shall find that the defendant is conducting or operating a business or undertaking without the full compensation security required, he shall forthwith, and without continuance, issue an order restraining the future or further conduct and operation of such business or undertaking so long as such violation of social public policy shall continue. Such action may be prosecuted by the Attorney General of California, the district attorney of the county in which suit is brought, the city attorney of any city in which such a business or undertaking is being operated or conducted without full compensation security, or any attorney possessing civil service status who is an employee of the Department of Industrial Relations who may be designated by the director for such purpose. No finding made in the course of any such action shall be binding on the appeals board in any subsequent proceeding before it for benefits under this division.

SEC. 5. Section 3713 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3713. (a) Every employer subject to the compensation provisions of this code, except employers of employees defined in subdivision (d) of Section 3351, shall post and keep posted in a conspicuous location at his headquarters or at one of his places of employment, as defined in Division 5 (commencing with Section 6300), a notice which shall state the name of the current compensation insurance carrier of such employer, or when such is the fact, that the employer is self-insured.

(b) If the employer is insured by a compensation insurance carrier, the employer shall, in addition to the notice required by subdivision (a), post in the same place a notice showing the expiration date of the current coverage. The employer shall also post with the notice the telephone number of the nearest office of the Labor Commissioner, together with an invitation for any employee to call such number to report the expiration of the employer's coverage.

(c) Failure to keep any notice required by this section conspicuously posted shall constitute a misdemeanor, and shall be prima facie evidence of noninsurance.

SEC. 6. Section 3716.1 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

3716.1. In any hearing, investigation or proceeding, the Attorney General, or, with the Attorney General's permission, attorneys of the department, shall represent the director and the state. Expenses incident to representation of the director and the state, before the appeals board and in civil court, by the Attorney General or Department of Industrial Relations attorneys, shall be reimbursed from funds appropriated to the Uninsured Employers Fund; however, the injured claimant shall have first priority to be paid from such funds.

The director, or his representative, shall assign investigative and claims' adjustment services respecting matters concerning uninsured employers injury cases. The director or his representative may make such service assignments within the department, or he may contract therefor with the State Compensation Insurance Fund, except insofar as such matters might conflict with the interests of the State Compensation Insurance Fund. The costs thereof shall be reimbursed from funds appropriated to the Uninsured Employers Fund.

SEC. 7. Section 3716.2 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

3716.2. Notwithstanding the precise elements of an award of compensation benefits, and notwithstanding the claim and demand for payment being made therefor to the Director of Industrial Relations, the director, as administrator of the Uninsured Employers Fund, shall pay the claimant only such benefits allowed, recognizing proper liens thereon, that would have accrued against an employer properly insured for workers' compensation liability. However, in civil suits by the director to enforce payment of an award, including procedures pursuant to Section 3717, the total amount of the award, including interest, other penalties and attorney fees granted by the award, shall be sought. Recovery, by the director, in a civil suit, or other means, of awarded benefits in excess of amounts paid the claimant by the Uninsured Employers Fund, shall be paid over to the injured employee, or his representative as the case may be.

SEC. 8. Section 3717 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3717. A findings and award which is the subject of a demand on the Uninsured Employers Fund, shall constitute a liquidated claim for damages against an employer in the amount so ascertained and fixed by the appeals board, and the appeals board shall certify the same to the director who shall forthwith refer the matter to the Attorney General, to institute a civil action against such employer in the name of the director, as administrator of the Uninsured Employers Fund, for the collection of such award. In such action it shall be sufficient for plaintiff to set forth a copy of the record of proceedings of the appeals board relative to such claims as certified by the appeals board to the director and to state that there is due to plaintiff on account of such finding and award of the appeals board a specified sum which plaintiff claims with interest. Plaintiff shall be further entitled to costs and reasonable attorney fees. A certified copy of such record of proceedings in such claim shall be attached to the complaint and constitutes prima facie evidence of the truth of the facts therein contained. The answer or demurrer to such complaint shall be filed within 10 days, the reply or demurrer to the answer within 20 days, and the demurrer to the reply within 30 days after the return day of the summons or service by publication. All motions and demurrer shall be submitted to the court within 10 days after the same are filed. As soon as the issues are made up in any such case, it shall be placed at the head of the trial docket and shall be first in order for trial.

SEC. 9. Section 3718 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3718. The cause of action provided in Section 3717 and any cause of action arising out of Section 3722 may be joined in one action against an employer. The amount recovered in such action from such employer shall be paid into the State Treasury to the credit of the Uninsured Employers Fund.

SEC. 10. Section 3720 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3720. When the appeals board determines under Section 3715 or 3716 that an employer has not secured the payment of compensation as required by this division, the director, or his representative, shall file for record in the office of the county recorder in the counties where such employer's property is located, a certificate prepared and furnished him by the appeals board showing the date that the employer was determined to be illegally uninsured. Such certificate shall show the name and address of the employer against whom it was filed, and the fact that the employer has not secured the payment of compensation as required by this division. Upon such recordation, such certificate constitutes a valid lien in favor of the Director of Industrial Relations, and shall have the same force, effect and priority as a judgment lien and shall continue for 10 years from the time of the recording of such certificate unless sooner released or otherwise discharged. A copy of such a certificate shall be served upon the employer by mail, by the director or his representative. A facsimile signature of the director accompanied by the seal imprint of the Department of Industrial Relations shall be sufficient for recording purposes of liens and releases or cancellations thereof considered herein. Certificates of liens may be filed in any or all counties of the state, depending upon the information the director obtains concerning the employer's assets.

SEC. 11. Section 3721 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3721. The director shall provide the employer with a certificate of cancellation of lien after the employer has paid to the claimant or to the Uninsured Employers Fund the amount of the compensation or benefits which has been ordered paid to the claimant, or when the application has finally been denied after the claimant has exhausted the remedies provided by law in such cases, or when the employer has filed a bond in such amount and with such surety as the appeals board approves conditioned on the payment of all sums ordered paid to the claimant. The recorder shall make no charge for filing such certificates of lien, or for cancellation when liens are filed in error.

Cancellation of lien certificates provided to the employer may be filed for recordation by the employer at his expense.

SEC. 12. Section 3722 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3722. If upon the filing of a claim for compensation under this division the appeals board finds that any employer has not secured the payment of compensation as required by this division, the appeals board shall so notify the Director of Industrial Relations and the employer, by mail. Within 10 days thereafter the employer shall pay, as a penalty, the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) for each employee in the employment of such employer on the date of injury subject to the claim filed against such illegally uninsured employer. The maximum amount of such penalty shall be ten thousand dollars ($10,000). The number of employees on the date considered herein shall be established by verified statement of the employer or by such other information as the director may obtain. Payment shall be transmitted to the director for deposit in the State Treasury to the credit of the Uninsured Employers Fund. The appeals board may provide for a summary hearing on the sole issue of compensation coverage to effect the provisions of this section.

SEC. 13. Section 3723 of the Labor Code is repealed.

SEC. 14. Section 3723 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

3723. If the employer has failed to submit a verified statement indicating the number of employees on the date of injury, or, having done so has failed to pay the penalty set forth in Section 3722, the director shall give written notice to the employer of the penalty assessment, using such information as he has regarding the number of employees. Such notice shall be mailed to the employer at his residence or usual place of business by registered or certified mail. The employer to whom the assessment is directed may file within 20 days after receipt thereof a petition in writing, verified under oath by the employer, or his authorized agent having knowledge of the facts, objecting to the assessment and setting forth the grounds for his objection. If no petition is filed with the director within the period set forth herein such assessment shall become conclusive and the amount thereof shall be due and payable from the employer so assessed to the director for deposit in the State Treasury to the credit of the Uninsured Employers Fund.

SEC. 15. Section 3724 of the Labor Code is repealed.

SEC. 16. Section 3725 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3725. When a petition objecting to a penalty assessment is filed, the director shall assign a time and place for the hearing of the same and shall notify the petitioner thereof by registered or certified mail. When an employer files such a petition, the assessment made by the director shall become due and payable 10 days after notice of the finding made at the hearing has been sent by registered or certified mail to the party assessed. A writ of review may be taken from any such finding to the appropriate superior court upon the execution by the party assessed of a bond to the state in double the amount so found due and ordered paid by the director conditioned that the party will pay any judgment and costs rendered against it for the assessment.

SEC. 17. Section 3726 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3726. When no petition objecting to a penalty assessment is filed or when a finding is made affirming or modifying such an assessment after hearing, a certified copy of the assessment as affirmed or modified may be filed by the director in the office of the clerk of the superior court in any county in which the employer has property or in which the employer has a place of business. The clerk, immediately upon the filing of such assessment, shall enter a judgment for the state against the employer in the amount shown on the assessment. The judgment may be filed by the clerk in a looseleaf book entitled "Special Judgments for State Uninsured Employers Fund." Such judgment shall bear the same rate of interest and shall have the same effect as other judgments and be given the same preference allowed by law on other judgments rendered for claims for taxes. The clerk shall make no charge for the service provided by this section to be performed by him.

SEC. 18. Section 3727 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3727. If the director determines pursuant to Section 3722 that an employer has failed to secure the payment of compensation as required by this division, the director shall file with the county recorder of any counties in which such employer's property may be located his certificate of the amount of penalty due from such employer and such amount shall be a lien in favor of the director from the date of such filing against the real property and personal property of the employer within the county in which such certificate is filed. The recorder shall accept and file such certificate and record the same as a mortgage on real estate and shall file the same as a security interest and he shall index the same as mortgage on real estate and as a security interest. The recorder shall make no charge for the services provided by this section to be performed by him. Upon payment of the penalty assessment, the director shall issue a certificate of cancellation of penalty assessment, which may be recorded by the employer at his expense.

SEC. 19. Section 3728 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

3728. The director may draw from the State Treasury out of the appropriation made to the Uninsured Employers Fund for the purposes of Sections 3716 and 3716.1, without at the time presenting vouchers and itemized statements, a sum not to exceed in the aggregate seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000), to be used as a cash revolving fund. The revolving fund shall be deposited in such banks and under such conditions as the Department of General Services determines. The Controller shall draw his warrants in favor of the Director of Industrial Relations for the amounts so withdrawn and the Treasurer shall pay such warrants.

Expenditures made from the revolving fund in payment of claims for compensation and for administrative and adjusting services rendered herein are exempted from the operation of Section 925.6 of the Government Code. Reimbursement of the revolving fund for such expenditures shall be made upon presentation to the Controller of an abstract or statement of such expenditures. Such abstract or statement shall be in such form as the Controller requires.

SEC. 20. At such time as the revenue to the General Fund for the purposes of subsequent injuries payments, as specified in Article 5 (commencing with Section 4750) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 4 of the Labor Code, exceeds the expenditures for such purposes, such surplus moneys will be transferred by the Controller to the Uninsured Employers Fund.

SEC. 21. The sum of two million dollars ($2,000,000) is hereby appropriated to the Uninsured Employers Fund from the General Fund for the payment of claims and the administration of the uninsured employers program. Such moneys shall be used first to pay off any indebtedness of, or claims against, the Uninsured Employers Fund which are in existence on the effective date of this act. No part of such moneys may be expended under this act until such existing indebtedness and claims are paid in full.

SEC. 22. The Director of Industrial Relations shall report to the Governor and the Legislature, not later than January 1 of each year, the amount necessary to maintain the solvency of the Uninsured Employers Fund.

SEC. 23. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution, and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The Uninsured Employers Fund is insolvent, with outstanding claims exceeding the revenue which can reasonably be expected under existing statutes.

In order to provide compensation for injured employees of illegally uninsured employers as provided for in the statutes, and to provide for sufficient revenue to permit the Uninsured Employers Fund to become self-supporting as envisioned by the enabling legislation, and to provide a deterrent to those employers who would knowingly avoid their obligations, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

(e) Provide for the examination and testing of any and all appliances used for the measurement of any product, commodity, or service of any such public utility.

SEC. 2. Section 770 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

(e) Provide for the examination and testing of any and all appliances used for the measurement of any product, commodity, or service of any such public utility.

Therefore, Section 2 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill No. 2078 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1977, both amend Section 770, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 2078, in which case Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

described therein shall thereupon be free of the public trust for commerce, navigation, and fishery.

SEC. 3. (a) With the approval of the commission and upon the receipt of such consideration as is authorized in this act, Arcata as to Arcata tidelands, or the district as to district tidelands, may from time to time convey any portions of, or convey or relinquish any interests in, such lands described in any certificate recorded pursuant to Section 2.

(b) With the approval of the commission, Arcata as to the Arcata tidelands, or the district as to district tidelands, may establish the boundary or compromise boundary lines of such lands or otherwise settle any dispute concerning the nature and extent of its right, title, and interest in or to any portion of such lands.

SEC. 4. Any consideration to be paid to Arcata or the district for any conveyance or settlement under this act shall be determined by Arcata as to Arcata tidelands, or the district as to district tidelands, with the approval of the commission. In determining the adequacy of any such consideration, effect shall be given to all factors bearing upon the value, if any, of the public's interest being conveyed or settled, and the rights, claims, and equities of the person in whose favor the conveyance or settlement is being made and that of his predecessors in interest. Where lands have been filled, reclaimed, or improved without the expenditure of either state funds or any public moneys held subject to conditions imposed by, or related to, the public trust for commerce, navigation, and fishery, or any statute implementing such public trust, the value of fill, improvements, or both, may be taken into consideration in determining the value of such consideration. Consideration under this act may consist of anything of value, including, but not limited to, interests in lands and moneys.

SEC. 5. Any lands, or interests therein, conveyed by Arcata or the district in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 3 of this act, shall be freed of the trusts and conditions imposed by the statutes granting such lands to such conveying entity.

Notwithstanding anything in this act to the contrary, no lands subject to tidal action or permanently covered by water shall be conveyed under the provisions of this act or be freed of the trusts and conditions imposed by the public trust for commerce, navigation, and fishery and the statutes granting such lands to Arcata or the district.

Any certificate of the commission recorded under the provisions of Section 2 shall be conclusive as to the facts declared therein.

Any conveyance of fee lands by Arcata or the district executed pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 3 of this act shall reserve to the State of California all oil, gas, and other minerals, as provided in Section 6401 of the Public Resources Code; provided, however, that no such reservation shall be required if such conveying entity receives in consideration for such conveyance other lands and the mineral rights in such other lands and conveys to the state such mineral rights as are of at least equal value to the mineral rights to which the reservation does not apply, and if the commission approves such exchange of mineral rights. The reservation of such mineral rights shall not preclude the conveyance, quitclaim, or release of the right of entry upon the surface of the conveyed lands for the purposes of drilling, mining, or extraction of the reserved interests.

SEC. 6. All lands and other consideration received by Arcata or the district pursuant to this act shall, for all purposes of administration, control, and disposition, be subject to the public trust for commerce, navigation, and fishery.

SEC. 7. Any grants, conveyances, franchises, leases, permits, rights, or privileges made in accordance with this act shall be exempt from the restrictions, prohibitions, and conditions of Section 23 of the Humboldt Bay Harbor, Recreation, and Conservation District Act and Section 6008 of the Public Resources Code. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6008 of the Public Resources Code, the district may:

(a) Grant leases, rights, and permits to the State of California or the United States government with respect to any of the district tidelands for any purpose set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 7 of the Humboldt Bay Harbor, Recreation, and Conservation District Act.

(b) Grant leases, rights, and permits for any lawful purpose in the following described area of district tidelands: Sections 7, 8, 17, 18, 19, and 20, Range 1, West, Township 4 North, Humboldt Meridian, Humboldt County, California.

SEC. 8. The provisions of Section 6359 of the Public Resources Code shall not apply to this act and no survey of lands shall be required by virtue of this act that was not required before its enactment.

SEC. 9. Prior to the taking of formal action by Arcata or the district, preliminary to conveying or relinquishing interests or establishing boundary lines in accordance with Section 2 or 3 of this act, Arcata as to Arcata tidelands, or the district as to district tidelands, shall consult with and solicit comments from the commission on such proposed actions.

SEC. 10. Section 23 of the Humboldt Bay Harbor, Recreation, and Conservation District Act (Chapter 1283 of the Statutes of 1970) is amended to read:

Sec. 23. All grants, franchises, leases, permits, rights or privileges shall be made in accordance with such rules and regulations as the board shall prescribe by resolution. Irrevocable grants of fee title shall not be granted or issued.

SEC. 11. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

CHAPTER 1041

An act to amend Sections 205, 227.3 and 1696.5 of, and to add Section 205.5 to, the Labor Code, relating to labor.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 205 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

205. In agricultural, viticultural, and horticultural pursuits, in stock or poultry raising, and in household domestic service, when the employees in such employments are boarded and lodged by the employer, the wages due any employee remaining in such employment shall become due and payable once in each calendar month on a day designated in advance by the employer as the regular payday. No two successive paydays shall be more than 31 days apart, and the payment shall include all wages up to the regular payday. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, wages of workers employed by a farm labor contractor shall be paid on payroll periods at least once every week on a business day designated in advance by the farm labor contractor. Payment on such payday shall include all wages earned up to and including the fourth day before such payday.

SEC. 1.5. Section 205.5 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

205.5. All wages, other than those mentioned in Section 201, earned by any agricultural employee, as defined in Section 1140.4, are due and payable twice during each calendar month, on days designated in advance by the agricultural employer as the regular paydays. Labor performed between the 1st and the 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid between the 16th and the 22nd day of the month during which the labor was performed. Labor performed between the 16th and the last day, inclusive, of any calendar month shall be paid between the first and the seventh day of the following month. Agricultural employees, as used in this section, shall not include employees who are covered by Section 205.

SEC. 2. Section 227.3 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

227.3. Unless otherwise provided by a collective-bargaining agreement, whenever a contract of employment or employer policy provides for paid vacations, and an employee is terminated without having taken off his vested vacation time, all vested vacation shall be paid to him as wages at his final rate in accordance with such contract of employment or employer policy respecting eligibility or time served; provided, however, that an employment contract or employer policy shall not provide for forfeiture of vested vacation time upon termination. The Labor Commissioner or a designated representative, in the resolution of any dispute with regard to vested vacation time, shall apply the principles of equity and fairness.

SEC. 3. Section 1696.5 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

1696.5. Every licensee shall, at the time of each payment of wages, which shall be not less often than once every week as required by Section 205 of this code, furnish each of the workers employed by him either as a detachable part of the check, draft, or voucher paying the employee's wages, or separately, an itemized statement in writing showing in detail each and every deduction made from such wages.

SEC. 4. The amendment to Section 227.3 of the Labor Code made by this act does not constitute a change in, but is declaratory of, the existing law and the intent of the Legislature in enacting Section 227.3 of the Labor Code by Chapter 1321 of the Statutes of 1972.

An act to amend Sections 1102, 1992, 1993, 1996, 1999, 2369, 2370, 3100, 3106, 3202, and 3255 of, to add Sections 1992.1, 1992.2, 1993.1, 1993.2, 1993.3, 1993.4, 1993.5, and 1994.1 to, and to repeal Section 1998 of, the Education Code, relating to school districts.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1976 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1102 of the Education Code is amended to read:

1102. In newly formed unified school districts there shall be no interim governing board, but the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction over the particular district shall call an election for the purpose of choosing the first governing board of the district.

The election shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in March, June, or November next succeeding the call. The first members of the governing board of the district shall take office on the day the canvass of the election is certified by the county superintendent of schools. The first meeting of the governing board shall be called by the county superintendent of schools not later than the third Monday following the election. The term of office of subsequent members of the board shall begin on April 1st following their election.

SEC. 1.5. Section 1992 of the Education Code is amended to read:

1992. An action to form a new elementary district is initiated upon the filing with the county superintendent of schools of a petition for the new district. The petition shall be signed by at least 25 percent of the registered electors residing in the territory proposed to be included in the new district.

An action to form a new high school district or community college district is initiated upon the filing with the county superintendent of schools of a petition for the new district signed by either of the following:

(a) At least 25 percent of the registered voters residing in the territory proposed to be included in the new district.

(b) A majority of the members of the governing board of each district which would be components of the proposed new district.

A petition to form an elementary and high school district that would result in the formation of a unified school district under the provisions of Section 1976 shall indicate whether the governing board of the new district will have five or seven members, and it may also include a provision for trustee areas.

SEC. 2. Section 1992.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

1992.1. Within 20 days after the filing of a petition under Section 1992, the county superintendent of schools shall examine it and, if he finds it to be sufficient and signed as required by law, transmit the petition simultaneously to the county committee on school district organization and to the State Board of Education.

SEC. 3. Section 1992.2 is added to the Education Code, to read:

1992.2. A petition transmitted to the county committee pursuant to this article shall be considered within 30 days by the committee at a regular meeting or special meeting called to review the petition.

The county committee shall prepare a report and recommendation on the petition. It shall report as to whether or not, in the opinion of the committee, the proposed formation of a new elementary school district, high school district, or unified school district formed pursuant to Section 1976, as described in the petition would:

(a) Adversely affect the school district organization of the county;

(b) Be compatible with any master plans submitted by the county committee and approved by the State Board of Education;

(c) Comply with the provisions of Section 1993.1.

In the event that the petition provides for establishing trustee areas, the county committee shall recommend trustee areas that provide for representation in accordance with population and geographic factors of the entire area of the proposed unified school district. The county committee may recommend as many trustee areas as needed, but not to exceed seven. The committee shall also include a provision for the election of members of the governing board by the registered voters of the entire school district or for the election of the member or members residing in each trustee area by the registered voters of that particular trustee area as part of its recommendation.

The report shall also contain a statement of the committee's findings on the adequacy of the proponent's stated reason or reasons for the proposed formation of the new school district, as set forth in the petition.

The report may include a statement by the governing board or boards of the affected district or districts relating to the proposed formation of the new district.

The report may include other pertinent matters which the county committee desires to bring to the attention of the State Board of Education.

SEC. 4. Section 1993 of the Education Code is amended to read:

1993. The county superintendent of schools shall, within 30 days following the regular or special meeting called by the county committee to review the petition, transmit the report and recommendation of the county committee to the office of the secretary of the State Board of Education.

SEC. 5. Section 1993.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

1993.1. The State Board of Education may approve petitions for the formation of an elementary, high, or unified school district under this article upon the finding that the proposed district or districts will substantially comply with the following conditions:

(a) That the new district or districts will be adequate in terms of numbers of pupils enrolled;

(b) That the new district or districts will be adequate in terms of financial ability. For purposes of determining financial ability consideration shall be given to revenue limits per pupil, assessed valuations per pupil, and tax rates;

(c) That the new district or districts are organized on the basis of substantial community identity;

(d) That the proposal will result in an adequate division of property and facilities of the original district; and

(e) That the proposal and formation of the new district will not promote racial or ethnic discrimination or segregation. The State Board of Education may secure the advice and assistance of any other public agencies concerned with intergroup relationships for purposes of making determinations under this subdivision.

The State Board of Education may waive the criteria specified in subdivisions (a) through (e) of this section and may approve a proposal for the formation of one or more school districts if the board determines that the circumstances, with respect to the proposals, provide an exceptional situation sufficient to justify approval of the proposals.

The State Board of Education shall adopt rules and regulations to carry out the intent of this section.

SEC. 6. Section 1993.2 is added to the Education Code, to read:

1993.2. The State Board of Education, if it approves a petition for the formation of a new elementary and new high school district or for the formation of a new unified school district under the provisions of this article, shall include a provision for authorization of a revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for the proposed new school district, and such provision shall be an inherent part of the proposal, and shall not be construed as a separate proposition. If the reorganization is approved by the registered voters of the area, such revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance shall be the maximum revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for the type of new district formed until changed by Section 20905 or by the registered voters of the district in the manner prescribed in Section 20803.2. Such revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance shall not be less than the revenue limit which would be produced if (a) for the fiscal year prior to the fiscal year in which the reorganization becomes effective for all purposes, the sum of the revenue limit of each of the proposed school districts to be wholly included and the proportional share of the revenue limit of each district to be partially included in the proposed reorganized district is divided by the total number of units of average daily attendance that would have been in the proposed reorganized district had it been reorganized in the fiscal year prior to the fiscal year in which the reorganization becomes effective for all purposes plus, (b) the revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance required to equal the amount of the difference between the average certificated and the average classified salary of each of the component school districts, or any portion of a district, during the fiscal year prior to that in which the district becomes effective for all purposes and the highest average certificated and the highest average classified salary of any component district included in the proposal, multiplied by the number of employees in each category, less the number of employees in each category of the district having the highest average salaries.

In computing the increase in the revenue limit in subdivision (b) of this section, any school district or a portion of a district to be included in any proposed reorganized district may be considered in determining the highest average salary, provided that such school district or a portion of a district contains at least 10 percent of the total number of certificated and classified employees in the proposed district, plus, (c) the estimated adjustment to the revenue limit per average daily attendance pursuant to Section 20905 that the proposed reorganized district would be allowed had it been reorganized in the fiscal year prior to the fiscal year in which the reorganization becomes effective for all purposes.

SEC. 7. Section 1993.3 is added to the Education Code, to read:

1993.3. The State Board of Education, if it approves a petition under this chapter, shall include provisions for the use of any school property of the school districts proposed to be wholly or partially included in a new school district.

Such provisions for the use of school property shall be deemed to be an integral part of the proposal and shall not be construed as a separate proposition.

SEC. 8. Section 1993.4 is added to the Education Code, to read:

1993.4. The State Board of Education, if it approves a petition under this chapter, shall include a provision for the division of property when the entire territory or a portion of the territory of a school district is withdrawn and included in another school district, or is formed into a new school district, or is included in two or more new school districts. All property, funds, and obligations of the former district, or portion of the former district, including the bonded indebtedness, shall be allocated as herein provided:

(a) The real property and personal property and fixtures normally situated thereat shall be the property of the school district in which the real property is located; and

(b) Except as provided otherwise by law, all other property and funds, after all obligations, except for bonded indebtedness, have been discharged, shall be divided pro rata among the school districts in which the territory of the former school district is included.

The board shall also provide for the division of funds, including cash on hand and moneys due but uncollected on the date reorganization becomes effective for all purposes, and state apportionments based on average daily attendance earned in the year immediately preceding the date reorganization becomes effective for all purposes.

In providing for the division of property, funds, and obligations, including bonded indebtedness, the board may consider (1) the ratio that the assessed valuation of the part of the district to be included within a new school district bears to the entire school district from which it was taken, or, (2) the ratio that the number of school age pupils of the part of the district to be included within a new district bears to the entire district from which it was taken, or, (3) the average of (1) and (2) above, or (4) the value and location of the property, or, (5) such other matters as the board may deem important and pertinent. Any funds derived from the sale of bonds issued by the former school district shall be used for the acquisition, construction or improvement of school property only in the territory which comprised the former district or to discharge bonded indebtedness of the former district, except that, if the bond debt is assumed by the new district, the funds may be used in any area of the new school district for the purpose for which the bonds were originally voted.

SEC. 9. Section 1993.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

1993.5. The State Board of Education, if it approves a petition under this chapter, shall provide that, if the boundaries of a school district are relocated under this chapter, so that a portion of the students will not be residents of the school district thereafter maintaining a school previously attended by the students, and if there is in the school an organized student body, the property, funds, and obligations of the student body shall be divided as determined by the board, except that the share shall not exceed an amount equal to the ratio which the number of students leaving the school bears to the total number of students enrolled. The ownership of the property, funds, and obligations, which is the proportionate share of each segment of the student body, shall be transferred to the student body of the school or schools in which the students are first enrolled during the school year next succeeding the reorganization. Funds from devises, bequests, or gifts made to the organized student body of a school shall remain the property of the organized student body of that school and shall not be divided.

SEC. 10. Section 1994.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

1994.1. When it is necessary for the State Board of Education to consider petitions submitted under this chapter and prepare a proposal relating to such a petition, each county superintendent of schools and every other county officer in the counties affected, and the district superintendent of the school districts affected shall provide the statistical information required by the Department of Education to complete the study.

SEC. 11. Section 1996 of the Education Code is amended to read:

1996. If the State Board of Education approves the formation of the proposed new district the secretary of the board shall immediately notify the county superintendent of schools. Within 20 days after receiving the notification, he shall call an election, in the manner prescribed in Division 4 of this code, to be conducted at the next regular election, in the territory or districts as determined by the State Board of Education. Each provision in a proposal to form a new school district or districts, as provided by the State Board of Education, shall be considered an inherent part of the total proposal and not be construed as a separate proposition. The ballot used in the election shall contain the words "For the formation of the new _____ District with a revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance of _____, such limit to be in effect for the school year commencing _____" followed by the words "Yes" and "No" so placed that the voter may clearly indicate his choice.

SEC. 12. Section 1998 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 1999 of the Education Code is amended to read:

1999. The statement of official information and statistics prepared and distributed pursuant to Section 1997 in connection with the proposed new school district shall contain a statement by the county superintendent of schools, of the amount by which the revenue limit, as computed pursuant to Section 1993.2, of the new district, would be required to be increased in order to produce an amount of revenue equal to the sum of the revenues of each of the districts proposed to be partially or wholly included therein produced by all of the taxes levied, pursuant to statutes authorizing taxes to be levied for particular purposes without compliance with Sections 20751 and 20803, or Section 20803.2, whichever is applicable, in such districts during the school year prior to the fiscal year in which the election for reorganization was held.

SEC. 14. Section 2369 of the Education Code is amended to read:

2369. When the petition, report and recommendation are transmitted to the county board of supervisors or county board of education, as the case may be, the county superintendent of schools shall set the matter for hearing by the board of supervisors or county board of education at a regular meeting of the board.

At least 10 days prior to the date of the hearing the county superintendent shall send by certified mail a notice of hearing and a copy of the report and recommendation of the county committee to the chief petitioners, if any have been designated, and to the governing board of each school district whose boundaries would be affected by the proposed change, and shall post copies of the notice as provided in Section 1343 or publish a copy of the notice as provided in Section 1344.

SEC. 15. Section 2370 of the Education Code is amended to read:

2370. After hearing all interested persons, the board of supervisors or county board of education, as the case may be, shall grant or deny the petition or require an election to be held. If the board grants the petition it shall determine whether all or only a part of the territory shall be transferred. If the board requires an election to be held it shall determine whether the election shall be held in the whole elementary, unified, or community college district from which the territory would be transferred or whether the election shall be held only in the territory proposed to be transferred. The county superintendent of schools shall call, hold, and conduct any election required by this section.

SEC. 16. Section 3100 of the Education Code is amended to read:

3100. It is the intent and purpose of the Legislature that the procedures prescribed by the provisions of this chapter and Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 3001) of this division be utilized primarily for the formation of unified school districts, and that this form of organization be ultimately adopted throughout the state. It is the further intent of the Legislature that in exercising the authority to approve master plans and plans and recommendations developed at the local level, the State Board of Education consider the boundaries of existing high school districts as the minimum geographical base for the organization of individual unified school districts, to be deviated from only in exceptional situations. The State Board of Education may approve proposals for the formation of districts based upon the division of the territory of existing high school districts, provided that the board has determined, with respect to the proposal and the resulting new districts that the following conditions are substantially met:

(a) That the new districts will be adequate in terms of number of pupils enrolled.

(b) That the new districts will be adequate in terms of financial ability. For purposes of determining financial ability, consideration shall be given to revenue limits per pupil, assessed valuation per pupil, and tax rates. The board may give such consideration as it deems appropriate to federal funds received by a school district under the act of Congress entitled "An act to provide financial assistance for local educational agencies in areas affected by federal activities, and for other purposes," approved September 30, 1950 (Public Law 874—81st Congress) or under any similar act of Congress.

(c) That the new districts are each organized on the basis of a substantial community identity.

(d) That the proposal will result in an equitable division of property and facilities of the original district.

(e) That the proposal and the formation of the new districts will not promote racial or ethnic discrimination or segregation. The State Board of Education may secure the advice and assistance of any other public agencies concerned with intergroup relationships for purposes of making determinations under this subdivision.

The State Board of Education may waive the criteria specified in subdivisions (a) through (e) of this section and may approve a proposal for the formation of two or more unified school districts from the territory of a high school district if the board determines the circumstances with respect to the proposals provide an exceptional situation sufficient to justify approval of the proposals.

The State Board of Education shall adopt rules and regulations to carry out the intent of this section.

SEC. 17. Section 3106 of the Education Code is amended to read:

3106. (a) An elementary school which has been included in a unified district because of a reorganization of districts under provisions of this chapter or, under the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 1991) of Chapter 2 of this division relating to formation of new school districts by petition, shall be maintained as an elementary school by the unified district unless discontinued as provided in this section. The governing board of the unified district may adopt a resolution or order to discontinue the elementary school at any regular or special meeting of the board and the order or resolution shall be in effect after 30 days unless within this period of time a petition is filed with the governing board requesting the continuance of the school signed by the parents or guardians of at least 10 or one-third, whichever number is the greater, of children of elementary school age, who are eligible to attend such school at the time of the petition. The signature of one parent is sufficient to represent all of the children of such parent. The parents or guardians eligible to sign such petitions shall be residents within the boundaries of the component elementary school district which maintained the school prior to the establishment of the unified school district, and shall be qualified electors within such district at the time the petition is filed, and shall have children of elementary school age who attend or are eligible to attend such school. An elementary school which is continued in operation by the filing of a petition pursuant to this section, shall remain in continuance for a period of three school years, unless the petition provides for a shorter period of continuance. If the governing board intends to discontinue the elementary school at the expiration of such period, it shall, commencing at least 90 days prior to the expiration of such period, publish in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, once each week for at least three weeks, a notice of intended discontinuance, and may thereafter adopt a resolution or order as heretofore provided. If a school is discontinued as herein provided, the governing board of the unified school district may maintain the building for community and civic center and other lawful purposes.

(b) Subdivision (a) of this section does not apply to any unified school district which has an average daily attendance of 15,000 or more or to a school which is five miles or less from another elementary school.

SEC. 18. Section 3202 of the Education Code is amended to read:

3202. On receipt of a petition signed by at least 10 percent or 250, whichever is the lesser, of the qualified electors residing in any district for a consideration of unification or other reorganization of any area, the county committee shall hold a public hearing. Following such hearing, the committee shall study further the matter petitioned in the manner herein described in this chapter and shall adopt a tentative recommendation following which action it shall hold one or more public hearings in the area proposed for reorganization as specified in Section 3209. If the petition involves territory already under study by the county committee, no further hearings shall be required.

The public hearing required by this section shall be called by:

(a) Sending a notice to the governing board of each school district involved at least 10 days prior to the hearing, and

(b) Posting a notice of the hearing as provided in Section 1343 or publishing a notice of the hearing as provided in Section 1344.

The notices shall contain information as to the time, place, and purpose of the hearing.

SEC. 19. Section 3255 of the Education Code is amended to read:

3255. In any proposal for reorganization of school districts, except a community college district, recommended by a county committee, the committee shall include a provision for the authorization of a revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for the proposed new district, and such provision shall be an inherent part of the proposal, and shall not be construed as a separate proposition. If the reorganization is approved by the registered voters of the area, such revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance shall be the maximum revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for the type of new district formed until changed by Section 20905 or by the registered voters of the district in the manner prescribed in Section 20803.2. Such revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance shall not be less than the revenue limit which would be produced if (1) for the year prior to the fiscal year in which the reorganization becomes effective for all purposes, the sum of the revenue limit of each of the districts proposed to be wholly included and the proportional share of revenue limit of each district to be partially included in the proposed reorganized district is divided by the total number of units of average daily attendance that would have been in the proposed reorganized district had it been reorganized the year prior to the fiscal year in which the reorganization becomes effective for all purposes plus, (2) the revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance required to equal the amount of the difference between the average certificated and the average classified salary of each of the component districts or any portion of a district during the school year prior to that in which the district becomes effective for all purposes and the highest average certificated and highest average classified salary of any component district included in the proposal multiplied by the number of employees in each category less the number of employees in each category of the district having the highest average salaries.

In computing the increase in the revenue limit in subdivision (2) of this section, any school district or a portion of a district to be included in any proposed reorganized district may be considered in determining the highest average salary, provided that such school district or a portion of a district contains at least 10 percent of the total number of certificated and classified employees in the proposed reorganized district, plus (3) the estimated adjustment to the revenue limit per average daily attendance pursuant to Section 20905 that the proposed reorganized district would be allowed had it been reorganized the year prior to the fiscal year in which the reorganization becomes effective for all purposes.

This section shall be subject to Section 20907.

SEC. 20. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to this section nor shall there by any appropriation made by this act because the duties, obligations or responsibilities imposed on local government by this act are minor in nature and will not place any financial burden on local government.

CHAPTER 1043

An act to add Section 10753.4 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to the taxation of mobilehomes.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10753.4 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

10753.4. (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, every dealer who sells a trailer coach required to be moved under permit shall state on a certificate attached to the sales contract the cost price upon which the vehicle license fee is computed separately from the cost of accessories or other charges for such trailer coach.

(b) The department shall determine what items shall be included and what items shall not be included in the cost price upon which the vehicle license fee is computed for a trailer coach required to be moved under a permit and the manner of computation of such cost price. The department shall notify every dealer authorized to sell a trailer coach required to be moved under a permit of (1) the requirement that the sales contract state the cost price upon which the vehicle license fee is computed separately from the cost of accessories or other charges for such trailer coaches and (2) the manner in which such cost price is to be determined.

CHAPTER 1044

An act to amend Sections 35470 and 35471 of the Water Code, relating to California water districts.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1976 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 35470 of the Water Code is amended to read:

35470. Any district formed on or after July 30, 1917, may, in lieu in whole or in part of raising money for district purposes by assessment, make water available to the holders of title to land or the occupants thereon, and may fix and collect charges therefor. The charges may include standby charges to holders of title to land to which water may be made available, whether the water is actually used or not. The charges may vary in different months and in different localities of the district to correspond to the cost and value of the service, and the district may use so much of the proceeds of the charges as may be necessary to defray the ordinary operation or maintenance expenses of the district and for any other lawful district purpose.

SEC. 2. Section 35471 of the Water Code is amended to read:

35471. Any funds derived pursuant to Section 35470 in excess of the amount necessary for operating or maintenance expenses and other lawful district purposes shall be applied by the treasurer upon the payment of interest on general obligation bonds or to create a sinking fund.

CHAPTER 1045

An act to amend Sections 1205 and 2900.5 and to repeal Section 2900.6 of the Penal Code, and to amend Section 42003 of the Vehicle Code, relating to criminal sentences.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1976]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1205 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1205. A judgment that the defendant pay a fine, with or without other punishment, may also direct that he be imprisoned until the fine is satisfied and may further direct that such imprisonment begin at and continue after the expiration of any imprisonment imposed as a part of the punishment or of any other imprisonment to which he may theretofore have been sentenced. Every such judgment shall specify the extent of the imprisonment for nonpayment of the fine, which shall not be more than one day for each thirty dollars ($30) of the fine, nor exceed in any case the term for which the defendant might be sentenced to imprisonment for the offense of which he has been convicted. A defendant held in custody for nonpayment of a fine shall be entitled to credit on the fine for each day he is so held in custody, at the rate specified in the judgment. When the defendant has been convicted of a misdemeanor, a judgment that the defendant pay a fine may also direct that he pay the fine within a limited time or in installments on specified dates and that in default of payment as therein stipulated he be imprisoned in the discretion of the court either until the defaulted installment is satisfied or until the fine is satisfied in full; but unless such direction is given in the judgment, the fine shall be payable forthwith.

Except as otherwise provided in case of fines imposed as conditions of probation, the defendant must pay the fine to the clerk of the court, or to the judge thereof if there is no clerk, unless the defendant is taken into custody for nonpayment of the fine, in which event payments made while he is in custody shall be made to the officer who holds him in custody and all amounts so paid shall be forthwith paid over by such officer to the court which rendered the judgment. The clerk shall report to the court every default in payment of a fine or any part thereof, or if there is no clerk, the court shall take notice of such default. If time has been given for payment of a fine or it has been made payable in installments, the court shall, upon any default in payment immediately order the arrest of the defendant and order him to show cause why he should not be imprisoned until the fine or installment thereof, as the case may be, is satisfied in full. If the fine, or installment, is payable forthwith and it is not so paid, the court shall without further proceedings, immediately commit the defendant to the custody of the proper officer to be held in custody until the fine or installment thereof, as the case may be, is satisfied in full. The provisions of this section shall apply to any violation of any of the codes or statutes of the State of California punishable by a fine or by a fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 2. Section 2900.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

2900.5. (a) In all felony and misdemeanor convictions, either by plea or by verdict, when the defendant has been in custody, including but not limited to any time spent in a jail, camp, work furlough facility, halfway house, rehabilitation facility, hospital, prison, or similar institution, all days of custody of the defendant, including days served as a condition of probation in compliance with a court order, shall be credited upon his sentence, or credited to any fine which may be imposed, at the rate of not less than thirty dollars ($30) per day, or more, in the discretion of the court imposing the sentence. If the total number of days in custody exceeds the number of days of the sentence to be imposed, the entire sentence shall be deemed to have been served. In any case where the court has imposed both a prison or jail sentence and a fine, any days to be credited to the defendant shall first be applied to the sentence imposed, and thereafter such remaining days, if any, shall be applied to the fine.

(b) For the purposes of this section, credit shall be given only where the custody to be credited is attributable to proceedings related to the same conduct for which the defendant has been convicted.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "sentence" includes any fine or period of imprisonment imposed as a condition of probation or otherwise ordered by a court in imposing or suspending the imposition of any sentence, and also includes any term of imprisonment, including any period of imprisonment prior to release on parole and any period of imprisonment and parole, prior to discharge, whether established or fixed by statute, by any court, or by any duly authorized administrative agency. The credits provided by this section shall not be considered in establishing or fixing any condition of probation, parole date, or term of imprisonment; but such credits shall be applied to any such condition of probation, parole date, or term of imprisonment no later than one week after it has been established or fixed.

(d) It shall be the duty of the court imposing the sentence to determine the total number of days to be credited pursuant to the provisions of this section. The total number of days to be credited shall be contained in the abstract of judgment provided for in Section 1213.

SEC. 3. Section 2900.6 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 42003 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

42003. (a) A judgment that a person convicted of an infraction be punished by a fine may also provide for the payment to be made within a specified time or in specified installments. A judgment granting a defendant time to pay the fine shall order that if the defendant fails to pay the fine or any installment thereof on the date that it is due he shall appear in court on that date for further proceedings. Willful violation of the order is punishable as contempt.

(b) A judgment that a person convicted of any other violation of this code be punished by a fine may also order, adjudge and decree that the person be imprisoned until the fine is satisfied. In every such case, the judgment shall specify the extent of the imprisonment which shall not exceed one day for every thirty dollars ($30) of the fine, nor extend in any such case beyond the term for which the defendant might be sentenced to imprisonment for the offense of which he was convicted.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to this section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because the duties, obligations, or responsibilities imposed on local government by this act are minor in nature and will not cause any financial burden on local government, and because there are savings as well as costs in this act that, in the aggregate, do not result in expensive cost changes.

An act to add and repeal Section 405.6 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to property taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1976 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 405.6 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

405.6. On or before March 1, 1978, each assessor shall file with the board a plan for the orderly, sequential, cyclical appraisal or reappraisal of all property within such assessor's county. The plan may be by geographical area or areas or according to property classification or by a combination of geographical areas and property classification. The plan shall specify the area or areas or property classification or classifications or combinations of areas and classifications to be assessed in each year of the proposed cycle, provided that no cycle shall be more than five years. The plan shall require that at the completion of the cycle all property in the county shall be appraised or reappraised at least once and that if the plan is by geographical areas, all the properties within the designated area or areas be appraised or reappraised without regard to classification in the designated assessment year. If the plan is by property classification, all properties of the designated classification shall be assessed in the designated assessment year. If the plan is a combination of areas and classifications, all the property of the designated classification or classifications within the designated area or areas shall be appraised or reappraised in the assessment year so designated.

It is the intent of the Legislature that all properties within a county be appraised or reappraised once within the designated cycle according to the plan and that no property or classification or area be appraised or reappraised out of order or more than once while other properties, areas or classifications escape appraisal or reappraisal; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be interpreted to preclude an assessor from appraising or reappraising selected properties out of order or outside the designated area, classification or area and classification if such appraisal or reappraisal is necessary to maintain the equalization of all properties in the county as required by Article XIII of the Constitution; provided further, however, that in any such event, the assessor, prior to March 1st of the assessment year of such appraisal or reappraisal, shall file with the board a list of such properties or a map delineating the area or areas or a list of classifications designated to be appraised or reappraised out of order and a statement of the reasons necessitating such appraisal or reappraisal out of order.

Under no circumstances shall the assessor permit any property within his county to escape assessment or reassessment during any one cycle or to escape assessment or reassessment in the assessment year designated in the plan.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1982, and as of such date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1982, deletes or extends such date.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the duties, obligations or responsibilities imposed on local governmental entities or school districts by this act are such that related costs are incurred as part of their normal operating procedures.

An act to add Section 2652.5 to the Penal Code, relating to prisoners.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2652.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

2652.5. No person employed by the Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, or any city or county jail facility shall place any chain or other mechanical restraint around the neck of any prisoner for any purpose. Any violation of this section shall be a misdemeanor.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to this section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local government entities and school districts which in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

An act to amend Sections 30303, 30313, 30320, 30321.5, 30328, and 30329 of the Education Code, relating to private colleges and universities.

30313. (a) The authority is authorized from time to time to issue its negotiable bonds for any corporate purpose. In anticipation of the sale of such bonds the authority may issue negotiable bond anticipation notes and may renew the same from time to time. Such notes shall be paid from any revenues of the authority or other moneys available therefor and not otherwise pledged, or from the proceeds of sale of the bonds of the authority in anticipation of which they were issued. The notes shall be issued in the same manner as the bonds. Such notes and the resolution or resolutions authorizing the same may contain any provisions, conditions or limitations which a bond resolution of the authority may contain.

The bonds or notes may be sold by the State Treasurer at public sale, or the authority, after giving due consideration to the recommendations of the participating institution, may direct the State Treasurer to sell such bonds or notes at private sale.

In the case of public sale, (1) the bonds specified in the resolution shall be sold by the State Treasurer, at such time as may be fixed by him, and upon such notice as he may deem advisable, or at the time to which the sale shall have been continued, at public sale, upon sealed bids, to the bidder whose bid will result in the lowest net interest cost on account of such bonds and (2) if no bids are received, or if the State Treasurer determines that the bids are not satisfactory, the State Treasurer may reject all bids received, if any, and either readvertise or sell the bonds at private sale.

Pending preparation of the definitive bonds, the authority may issue interim receipts or certificates which shall be exchanged for such definitive bonds.

(d) Any resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds or any issue of bonds may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds to be authorized, as to: (1) pledging the full faith and credit of the authority or pledging all or any part of the revenues of a project or any revenue-producing contract or contracts made by the authority with any individual, partnership, corporation or association or other body, public or private, to secure the payment of the bonds or of any particular issue of bonds, subject to such agreements with bondholders as may then exist; (2) the rentals, fees and other charges to be charged, and the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of the revenues; (3) the setting aside of reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation and disposition thereof; (4) limitations on the right of the authority or its agent to restrict and regulate the use of the project; (5) limitations on the purpose to which the proceeds of sale of any issue of bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging such proceeds to secure the payment of the bonds or any issue of the bonds; (6) limitations on the issuance of additional bonds, the terms upon which additional bonds may be issued and secured and the refunding of outstanding bonds; (7) the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given; (8) limitations on the amount of moneys derived from the project to be expended for operating, administrative or other expenses of the authority; (9) defining the acts or omissions to act which shall constitute a default in the duties of the authority to holders of its obligations and providing the rights and remedies of such holders in the event of a default; and (10) the mortgaging of a project and the site thereof for the purpose of securing the bondholders.

(e) Neither the members of the authority nor any person executing the bonds or notes shall be liable personally on the bonds or notes or be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

(f) The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase its bonds or notes. The authority may hold, pledge, cancel or resell such bonds, subject to and in accordance with agreements with bondholders.

SEC. 3. Section 30320 of the Education Code is amended to read:

30320. (a) The authority is hereby authorized to loan funds to a participating institution and to provide for the issuance of bonds for the purpose of refinancing projects not originally funded pursuant to this chapter, such refinancing to include the repayment of costs, as defined in Section 30303, incurred for projects by the participating institution and which have a completion date subsequent to December 29, 1969.

(b) For purposes of this section, "completion date" shall mean, in the case of construction or renovation of a project, the date on which the notice of completion is filed, and, in the case of the acquisition of a project, the date of such acquisition.

(c) All such bonds shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter in the same manner and to the same extent as other bonds issued pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 4. Section 30321.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

30321.5. The total amount of bonds authorized to be outstanding at any one time under this chapter shall be one hundred fifty million dollars ($150,000,000).

30328. In addition to foregoing powers, the authority shall have power:

(a) Upon application of the participating college to construct, acquire, refinance, or otherwise provide projects for the use and benefit of the participating college and the students, faculty and staff of such participating college. The participating college for which such a project is undertaken by the authority shall approve the plans and specifications and location of such project;

(b) To lease any project provided pursuant to this section to the participating college for which such project is provided. At such time as the liabilities of the authority incurred for any such project have been met and the bonds of the authority issued therefor have been paid, or such liabilities and bonds have otherwise been discharged, the authority shall transfer title to all the real and personal property of such project vested in the authority, to the participating college in connection with which such project is then leased; provided, however, that if at any time prior thereto such participating college ceases to offer educational facilities, then such title shall vest in the State of California.

Any lease of a project authorized by this section shall be a general obligation of the lessee and may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the bonds of the authority issued for such project, as to:

(i) Pledging all or any part of the moneys, earnings, income and revenues derived by the lessee from such project or any part or parts thereof, or other personal property of the lessee, to secure payments required under the terms of such lease;

(ii) The rates, rentals, fees and other charges to be fixed and collected by the lessee, the amounts to be raised in each year thereby, and the use and disposition of such moneys, earnings, income and revenues;

(iii) The setting aside of reserves and the creation of special funds and the regulation and disposition thereof;

(iv) The procedure, if any, by which the terms of such lease may be amended, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given;

(v) Vesting in a trustee or trustees such specified properties, rights, powers and duties as shall be deemed necessary or desirable for the security of the holders of the bonds of the authority issued for such projects;

(vi) The obligations of the lessee with respect to the replacement, reconstruction, maintenance, operation, repairs and insurance of such project;

(vii) Defining the acts or omissions to act which shall constitute a default in the obligations and duties of the lessee, and providing for the rights and remedies of the authority and of its bondholders in the event of such default;

(viii) Any other matters, of like or different character, which may be deemed necessary or desirable for the security or protection of the authority or the holders of its bonds.

SEC. 6. Section 30329 of the Education Code is amended to read:

30329. The authority also shall have power:

(a) To make loans to any private college for the acquisition or construction of projects in accordance with a loan agreement and in accordance with plans and specifications which shall be subject to approval by the authority. No such loan shall exceed the total cost of such project and the equipment therefor as determined by the authority. Each such loan shall be premised upon an agreement between the authority and the private college as to payment, security, maturity, redemption, interest and other appropriate matters.

(d) A list of those noxious weeds which are not classified as primary noxious weeds, and which, therefore, are classed by this chapter as secondary noxious weeds.

The director shall consult with the Director of the University of California Agricultural Experiment Station before approving the qualifications of any agency to certify as to variety, type, strain, or other genetic character of agricultural or vegetable seed.

Total expenditures from funds derived from registration fees and dollar volume assessments under this chapter shall not exceed the department's cost of carrying out the provisions of this chapter, including only that portion of state seed laboratory activity involved in official samples, which shall not exceed one-third of the net operating cost of the state seed laboratory. No official samples shall be analyzed by the department whenever the cost of such analysis exceeds one-third of the net operating costs of the laboratory. The cost incurred in carrying out the provisions of subdivision (g) of Section 52332 is excluded from these expenditures and shall be paid by the participants.

SEC. 14. Section 52357 of the Food and Agricultural Code is repealed.

SEC. 15. Section 52488 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 1052

An act to add Section 31014 to the Water Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31014 is added to the Water Code, to read:

31014. The term "irrigation district" as used in Chapter 1046 of the Statutes of 1969 includes a county water district and the Orange County Water District.

SEC. 2. No appropriation is made by this act, nor is any obligation created thereby under Section 2229 or 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, for the reimbursement of any local agency for any loss of revenue caused by any classification or exemption of property for purposes of ad valorem property taxation or for the reimbursement of any local agency for any costs that may be incurred by it in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by it by this act.

An act to amend Sections 2732, 2750, 2786.5, 2795, 2811, and 2811.5 of, and to add Section 2734 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to nursing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1976 Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1976]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2732 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2732. No person shall engage in the practice of nursing, as defined in Section 2725, without holding a license which is in an active status issued under this chapter except as otherwise provided in this act.

Every licensee may be known as a registered nurse and may place the letters "R.N." after his name.

SEC. 2. Section 2734 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

2734. Upon application in writing to the board and payment of the biennial renewal fee, a licensee may have his license placed in an inactive status for an indefinite period of time. A licensee whose license is in an inactive status may not practice nursing. However, such a licensee does not have to comply with the continuing education standards of Section 2811.5.

SEC. 3. Section 2750 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2750. Every licensee, including licensees holding temporary licenses, or licensees holding licenses placed in an inactive status, may be disciplined as provided in this article. The proceedings under this article shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the board shall have all the powers granted therein.

SEC. 4. Section 2786.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2786.5. The board shall on and after January 1, 1978, deny accreditation to any school of nursing which does not offer all of the courses required by the board for licensure as a registered nurse within the first 36 months of postsecondary training, or first six academic semesters, or the first nine academic quarters, whichever is lesser, unless that school of nursing is located at a postsecondary institution which admits no students to academic degree programs except as transferred or graduated students from other postsecondary institutions. "Postsecondary training", as used in this section, shall include all instruction received after matriculation in a postsecondary institution.

SEC. 5. Section 2795 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2795. Except as provided in this chapter, it is unlawful for any person to practice or to offer to practice nursing in this state unless such person holds a license in an active status, or to use any title, sign, card or device to indicate that he is qualified to practice or is practicing nursing, unless such person has been duly licensed under this chapter.

SEC. 6. Section 2811 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2811. (a) Each person holding a regular renewable license under this chapter, whether in an active or inactive status, shall apply for a renewal of his license and pay the biennial renewal fee required by this chapter each two years on or before the last day of the month following the month in which his birthday occurs, beginning with the second birthday following the date on which the license was issued, whereupon the board shall renew the license.

(b) Each such license not renewed in accordance with this section shall expire but may within a period of eight years thereafter be reinstated upon payment of the biennial renewal fee and penalty fee required by this chapter and upon submission of such proof of the applicant's qualifications as may be required by the board, except that during such eight-year period no examination shall be required as a condition for the reinstatement of any such expired license which has lapsed solely by reason of nonpayment of the renewal fee. After the expiration of such eight-year period the board may require as a condition of reinstatement that the applicant pass such examination as it deems necessary to determine his present fitness to resume the practice of professional nursing.

(c) A license in an inactive status may be restored to an active status if the licensee meets the continuing education standards of Section 2811.5.

SEC. 7. Section 2811.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

(b) For purposes of this section, the board shall, by regulation, establish standards for continuing education. The standards shall be established in a manner to assure that a variety of alternative forms of continuing education are available to licensees including, but not limited to, academic studies, in-service education, institutes, seminars, lectures, conferences, workshops, extension studies, and home study programs. The standards shall take cognizance of specialized areas of practice. The continuing education standards established by the board shall not exceed 30 hours of direct participation in a course or courses approved by the board, or its equivalent in the units of measure adopted by the board.

(c) This section shall not apply to licensees during the first two years immediately following their graduation from nursing school.

(d) The board may, in accordance with the intent of this section, make exceptions from continuing education requirements for licensees residing in another state or country, or for reasons of health, military service, or other good cause.

This section shall become operative on July 1, 1978.

SEC. 8. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In 1974 the Legislature revised the requirements necessary for a school of nursing to be accredited by the Board of Registered Nursing and required the board to deny accreditation to any school not offering specified courses within specified time limits. The schools were to meet such requirements or be denied accreditation after January 1, 1976. Such requirements are creating a hardship on many schools who were previously accredited and need more time in which to comply with the new requirements.

In order to give schools of nursing additional time in which to comply with accreditation requirements, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

The provisions of Section 1265.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code as in effect prior to the amendments made by this act shall remain applicable to payments of vacation pay, sick pay, and holiday pay made prior to January 1, 1977.

SEC. 4. The provisions of Section 1265.7 of the Unemployment Insurance Code as added by this act shall be operative with respect to payments of sick pay made on or after January 1, 1977.

SEC. 5. No appropriation is made by this act, nor is any obligation created thereby under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, for the reimbursement of any local agency or school district for any costs that may be incurred by it in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by it by this act.

condition for the issuance, of any permit. Any such revocation or suspension shall be in accordance with the procedures set forth in Sections 42304 to 42309, inclusive.

(b) Nothing contained in this part shall be construed to include or restrict the use of construction equipment such as portable sandblasting equipment or portable spraying or spray-painting equipment, or any similar equipment, used on a temporary basis in connection with new construction, or on maintenance or repairs of existing structures, machinery, or equipment, provided such equipment is operated in accordance with the requirements of this division and applicable district and state board rules and regulations.

No such successor clause shall be binding upon or enforceable against any successor employer for more than three years from the effective date of the collective bargaining agreement between the contracting employer and the labor organization.

(b) As used in this section, "successor employer" means any purchaser, assignee, or transferee of a business the employees of which are subject to a collective bargaining agreement, if such purchaser, assignee, or transferee conducts or will conduct substantially the same business operation, or offer the same service, and use the same physical facilities, as the contracting employer.

(c) This section shall not apply to a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy of any contracting employer who has gone into receivership or bankruptcy, or to any employer who acquires a business from a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy, or to any employer which is a public entity, or to any employer who is subject to the National Labor Relations Act, Agricultural Labor Relations Act of 1975, or the Railway Labor Act.

CHAPTER 1059

An act to add Sections 3061.5 and 3061.6 to the Civil Code, relating to liens.

[Approved by Governor September 19, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3061.5 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

3061.5. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (d), any person who as an employee shall, by his or her own labor, do or perform any work harvesting or transporting harvested crops or farm products as defined in Section 55403 of the Agricultural Code which are owned and grown or produced by a limited partnership as defined in Section 15501 of the Corporations Code, shall have a lien upon any and all of such severed crops or severed farm products or proceeds from their sale for the value of such labor done up to a maximum of earnings for two weeks. Such liens shall lie whether such work was done at the instance of the owner who is the grower or producer of severed crops or severed farm products or of any other person acting by or under the owner's authority, directly or indirectly, as contractor or otherwise; and every contractor, subcontractor, or other person having charge of the harvesting or transporting of such severed crops or severed farm products shall be held to be such agent of the owner for such purposes of this section.

(b) The liens provided for in this section shall attach from the date of the commencement of such work or labor, and shall be preferred liens, prior in dignity to all other liens, claims, or encumbrances. Except as provided in subdivisions (a) and (c) they shall not be limited as to amount by any contract price agreed upon between the owner who is the grower or producer of such severed crops or severed farm products and any contractor, but the several liens shall not in any case exceed in amount the reasonable value of the labor done, nor the price agreed upon for the same between the claimant and his or her employer. In no event, where the claimant was employed by a contractor, or subcontractor, shall the lien extend to any labor not contemplated by, covered by, or reasonably necessary to the execution of, the original contract between the contractor and the owner who is the grower or producer of severed crops or severed farm products and of which such contract, or modification thereof, the claimant shall have had actual notice before the performance of such labor.

(c) The maximum liability of severed crops, severed farm products or the proceeds from their sale subject to liens under this section shall be limited to the lesser of actual proved claims or 25 percent of the fair market value of the severed crops, severed farm products, or 25 percent of the proceeds after their sale.

(d) No person shall have a lien if the owner who is the grower or producer of the severed crops, severed farm products, or their proceeds, who otherwise would be subject to a lien pursuant to subdivision (a), either satisfies directly, or requires a person or entity hired or used to furnish labor in connection with harvesting or transporting such severed crops, to satisfy any one or more of the following conditions prior to the harvest and for 45 days after its completion:

(1) Deposits with the Labor Commissioner a bond of a surety company authorized to do business within the state with the Labor Commissioner in an amount and form acceptable to him or her, which is conditioned upon the payment of all wages found to be due and unpaid in connection with such operations under any provision of this code, or

(2) Deposits with the Labor Commissioner a time certificate of deposit indicating that the grower or producer has deposited with a bank or trust company cash payable to the order of the Labor Commissioner sufficent to pay the wages of every person employed in connection with such operations for such period.

(e) A buyer in the ordinary course of business, as defined in subdivision (9) of Section 1201 of the Commercial Code, shall take free of any security interest created by this section, notwithstanding the fact that the lien is perfected and the buyer knows of its existence.

SEC. 2. Section 3061.6 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

3061.6. (a) The lien created by Section 3061.5 shall continue in force for a period of 45 days from the time the person claiming such lien shall have ceased to do or perform the work for which such lien is claimed, and such lien shall cease at the expiration of the 45 days unless the claimant, his or her assignee or successor in interest, files a claim with the Labor Commissioner or brings suit to foreclose the lien in which case the lien continues in force until the claim filed with the Labor Commissioner or the lien foreclosure suit is finally determined and closed. If a claim is filed with the Labor Commissioner, the Labor Commissioner shall act upon and finally determine such claim within 180 days after filing. In case such proceedings are not prosecuted to trial within two years after the commencement thereof, the court may in its discretion dismiss the same for want of prosecution.

(b) Upon filing a claim with the Labor Commissioner, the Labor Commissioner, if the owner who is the grower or producer has failed to satisfy the conditions of subdivision (d) of Section 3061.5, shall determine whether or not such owner of the severed crops, severed farm products, or their proceeds is capable financially of satisfying such claim. For purposes of this determination, it shall be proper for the Labor Commissioner after investigation to take into account the potential liability faced by such owner of such severed crops, severed farm products, or their proceeds. If the Labor Commissioner determines that a lien is necessary to protect the interest of claimants, the Labor Commissioner shall file such lien on the crop, the severed farm product, or their proceeds and notify, in writing, the owner and notify, in writing, all persons who have filed financing statements on the crop, the farm product, or their proceeds pursuant to the provisions of the Commercial Code.

(c) The plaintiff in any such lien foreclosure suit, at the time of issuing the summons or at any time afterwards, may have the severed crops or severed farm products or proceeds from their sale upon which such lien subsists attached, as provided in this code and Title 6.5 (commencing with Section 488.010) of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, upon delivering to the clerk an affidavit, by or on behalf of the plaintiff, showing that: (1) the plaintiff, or his assignor or predecessor in interest, performed labor in harvesting or transporting the severed crops or severed farm products or both; (2) that such labor has not been paid for; (3) that the sum for which the attachment is asked does not exceed the lesser of the reasonable value of the services rendered or if earnings, does not exceed the lesser of two weeks unpaid earnings or reasonable value of actual services rendered, or 25 percent of the fair market value of the severed crop or severed farm product; and (4) that the attachment is not sought and the action is not brought to hinder, delay or defraud any creditor or creditors of any defendant.

(d) Any number of persons claiming liens under this section and Section 3061.5 may join in the same action and when separate actions are commenced, the court may consolidate them. If after sale of the property subject to the liens provided for in this section and Section 3061.5, under the judgment or decree of foreclosure of such lien or liens, there is a deficiency of proceeds, the proceeds shall be divided pro rata among the lien claimants whose liens are established, regardless of the order in which the liens were created or the order in which the suits to foreclose same were commenced. Judgment for the deficiency may be docketed against the party personally liable therefor and his sureties.

(e) Nothing contained in this section or Section 3061.5 shall be construed to impair or affect the right of any person to whom any debt may be due for work done, to maintain a personal action to recover such debt against the person liable therefor, or his sureties, either in connection with the lien suit or in a separate action. The person bringing such personal action may take out a separate attachment therefor, notwithstanding his or her lien, and in his or her affidavit to procure an attachment need not state that his or her demand is not secured by a lien, and the judgment, if any, obtained by the plaintiff in such personal action shall not be construed to impair or merge any lien held by the plaintiff under this section or Section 3061.5; provided that any money collected on the judgment shall be credited on the amount of such lien in any action brought to enforce the same, in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(f) If the lien has attached to perishable goods, the lienholder may, during the period for which the lien is in effect and prior to the filing of a foreclosure suit, obtain a court order for the sale of such perishable goods pursuant to the provisions of Section 488.530 of the Code of Civil Procedure; provided, however, that in the event that such perishable crop is subject in whole or in part to a valid marketing agreement which is in force between the owner who is the grower or producer and an agricultural marketing cooperative organized under the Food and Agricultural Code or similar laws of other states, the agricultural marketing cooperative may purchase or otherwise take possession or custody of such crop or portion thereof according to the terms of the marketing agreement. Any moneys due and payable to such owner who is the grower or producer in return for such crop shall be paid by the agricultural marketing cooperative to the court.

SEC. 3. This act shall become operative on July 1, 1977, and shall not affect the priority of any security interest perfected prior to that date.

An act to amend Sections 218, 226, 2615.6, 17069, 19501.5, 19502, 19504, 19521, 19522, 19523, and 19531 of, and to add Sections 19508 and 19523.5 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 20, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 218 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

218. The homeowners' property tax exemption is in the amount of the assessed value of the dwelling specified in this section, as authorized by subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the Constitution.

For the 1972–1973 fiscal year, such exemption shall be in the amount of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) of the assessed value of the dwelling.

For the 1973–1974 fiscal year and fiscal years thereafter, such exemption shall be in the amount of one thousand seven hundred fifty dollars ($1,750) of the assessed value of the dwelling.

The exemption does not extend to property which is rented, vacant, under construction on the lien date, or which is a vacation or secondary home of the owner or owners, nor does it apply to property on which an owner receives the veteran's exemption. "Owner" includes a person purchasing the dwelling under a contract of sale or who holds shares or membership in a cooperative housing corporation, which holding is a requisite to the exclusive right of occupancy of a dwelling. As used in this section, "dwelling" shall include:

(a) A single-family dwelling occupied by an owner thereof as his principal place of residence on the lien date.

(b) A multiple-dwelling unit occupied by an owner thereof on the lien date as his principal place of residence.

(c) A condominium occupied by an owner thereof as his principal place of residence on the lien date.

(d) Premises occupied by the owner of shares or a membership interest in a cooperative housing corporation, as defined in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 17265, as his principal place of residence on the lien date. Each exemption allowed pursuant to this subdivision shall be deducted from the total assessed valuation of the cooperative housing corporation. The exemption shall be taken into account in apportioning property taxes among owners of share or membership interests in the cooperative housing corporations so as to benefit those owners who qualify for the exemption.

"Dwelling" means a building, structure or other shelter constituting a place of abode, whether real property or personal property, and any land on which it may be situated. For purposes of this section a two-dwelling unit shall be considered as two separate single-family dwellings.

The exemption provided for in subdivision (k) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the Constitution shall first be applied to the building, structure or other shelter and the excess, if any, shall be applied to any land on which it may be located.

In view of the pending litigation concerning the eligibility for the homeowners' property tax exemption of persons receiving public assistance, it is not intended by the amendment of this section at the 1975–76 session of the Legislature that any inference be drawn from it in such litigation.

SEC. 2. Section 226 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Chapter 335 of the Statutes of 1976, is amended to read:

226. The validity of any ad valorem property tax assessment on imported goods, heretofore or hereafter imposed, levied or collected with respect to tax years prior to the 1976–77 tax year, shall be determined pursuant to statutory and case law in effect prior to the decision in Michelin v. Wages, (1976), 46 L. Ed. 2d 495, except that for any assessment made prior to January 14, 1976, the court may, if the circumstances warrant and the taxing authority demonstrates that it would be equitable to do so, follow the decision in Michelin v. Wages.

SEC. 3. Section 2615.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

2615.6. (a) When the county sends to any person a tax bill, it shall be accompanied by a notice regarding the additional property tax relief available under the Gonsalves-Deukmejian-Petris Senior Citizens Property Tax Relief Act. The text of this latter notice shall be prepared by the Franchise Tax Board and shall include the eligibility requirements under the act as to age and income limitations, the filing period for claims, and where additional information concerning the relief can be obtained. The notice shall also state that the relief is granted under the Gonsalves-Deukmejian-Petris Senior Citizens Property Tax Relief Act.

SEC. 4. Section 17069 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Chapter 956 of the Statutes of 1975, is amended to read:

If the taxpayer has more than one taxable year beginning after December 31, 1972, and before January 1, 1974, such taxpayer shall be allowed the credit provided by this section only with respect to the taxable year which covers the most number of months.

(d) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1974, and ending on or before November 30, 1976, there shall be allowed against the amount of "net tax" (as defined in Section 17069.5) a special tax credit of 100 percent (1) for a single person or a married person filing a separate return with an adjusted gross income of four thousand dollars ($4,000) or less, or (2) for a head of household, a surviving spouse (as defined in Section 17046), or a married couple filing a joint return with an adjusted gross income of eight thousand dollars ($8,000) or less.

nonrefundable special tax credit in the amount provided in paragraph (1) or (2) shall be allowed as follows:

(1) In the case of a single person, or a married person filing a separate return, the special tax credit shall be forty dollars ($40) if the adjusted gross income of the taxpayer is five thousand dollars ($5,000) or less. (3) The special tax credit set forth in this subdivision shall not be available to a single person or a married person filing a separate return whose total income (as defined in subdivision (j)) exceeds ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or a head of household, a surviving spouse, or a married couple filing a joint return whose total income exceeds twenty thousand dollars ($20,000).

(4) The special tax credit set forth in this subdivision shall not be available to any taxpayer required to pay the tax on preference income imposed in Chapter 2.1 (commencing with Section 17062), during the taxable year.

(f) If, after the tax credit provided by this section is claimed, the Franchise Tax Board determines that the taxpayer's tax liability is more or less than the amount shown on the return, a corresponding adjustment shall be made by the Franchise Tax Board for the special tax credit.

(g) The tax credit provided by this section shall not apply to trusts or estates subject to tax under this part or to nonresidents as of the close of the taxable year for which the credit is claimed.

(h) For the purposes of this section, the adjusted gross income of a nonresident means gross income from sources both within and without this state less the deductions allowed by Section 17072.

(i) For the purposes of this section, total income means adjusted gross income, as defined in Section 17072, increased by the adjustments to income provided in Section 17138 (relating to sick pay), Section 17266 (relating to moving expenses), Sections 17202 to 17202.3, inclusive (relating to employee business expenses), Sections 17146 to 17147, inclusive (relating to military exclusion), Section 17524 (relating to self-employed retirement plan deductions), and subdivision (h) of Section 17072 (relating to forfeited interest penalty).

19501.5. "Income" means the sum of adjusted gross income as used for purposes of the California Personal Income Tax Law, including items of income which would otherwise be excluded by Article 3 (commencing with Section 17131) of Chapter 3 of Part 10 of this division (other than transfers by gift or inheritance between members of the household), net income from sources outside the state, alimony, support money, cash public assistance and relief, the gross amount of any pensions or annuities including railroad retirement benefits, all benefits received under the Federal Social Security Act (except Medicare benefits received under Title XVIII), all benefits received under state unemployment insurance laws and veterans disability payments, all interest received from the federal government or any of its instrumentalities, all interest received from the State of California or any of its political subdivisions, realized capital gains, workers' compensation and the gross amount of loss of time insurance benefits, life insurance benefits, life insurance proceeds, and gifts of cash or property (other than transfers by gift between members of the household) in excess of a value of three hundred dollars ($300). Income shall be reduced by realized capital losses, without limitation. It does not include surplus food or other relief in kind supplied by a governmental agency or assistance received under this part. Total income shall be determined for the calendar year (or approved fiscal year ending within such calendar year) which ends within the fiscal year for which the property taxes have been assessed on the claimant's homestead or presumed to be levied on his rented residence.

SEC. 6. Section 19502 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19502. In the case of an owner-claimant, "household" includes the claimant and all other persons, except bona fide renters, minors, or students (as defined in paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 17054), whose principal place of residence is the homestead of the claimant. In the case of a renter-claimant, "household" includes the claimant, his or her spouse and all other persons who reside on the premises, except renters, minors, or students (as defined in paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 17054), and owners of the same principal place of residence.

SEC. 7. Section 19504 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19504. (a) "Homestead" means a dwelling and so much of the land surrounding it as is reasonably necessary for use of the dwelling as a home, owned by the claimant, the claimant and his spouse, or by the claimant and some other individual. It shall also include premises occupied by reason of ownership in a cooperative housing corporation (as defined in Section 17265), mobilehomes which are assessed as realty for local property tax purposes and the land on which situated, houseboats, and other similar living accommodations, as well as a part of a multidwelling or multipurpose building and a part of the land upon which it is built. It shall also

It shall also include premises occupied by a claimant wherein he is required by law to pay a property tax by reason of his ownership (including a possessory interest) in the dwelling, the land, or both. (Owned includes a vendee in possession under a land sale contract and of one or more joint tenants or tenants in common.) It includes personal property such as furniture, furnishings or appliances. For the purposes of this subdivision, the term "premises" means a house or a dwelling unit used to provide living accommodations in a building or structure and the land incidental thereto, but does not include land only, except in the case where the dwelling unit is a mobilehome.

For the purposes of this subdivision the term "rent" means rent paid at arms length solely for the right of occupancy of a homestead. At least fifty dollars ($50) per month must be paid by each renter-claimant for a rented premise in order for the renter to be a qualified renter-claimant.

SEC. 8. Section 19508 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

(b) When a claimant owns his homestead for only part of a year and rents the same or a different homestead for part of the same year, he may elect to receive the amount of assistance provided under Section 19523 or under Section 19523.5, but shall not receive assistance under both sections.

In case of an owner-claimant, the assistance shall be equal to the applicable percentage of property taxes paid on the assessed value of the homestead up to and including eight thousand five hundred dollars ($8,500). No assistance shall be allowed for property taxes paid on that portion of assessed value of a homestead exceeding eight thousand five hundred dollars ($8,500). No assistance shall be provided if the amount of the assistance claim is five dollars ($5) or less.

(b) For purposes of allowing assistance provided for by this section:

(1) (A) Only one owner-claimant from one household each year shall be entitled to assistance under this part. When two or more individuals of a household are able to meet the qualifications for an owner-claimant, they may determine who the owner-claimant shall be. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the Franchise Tax Board and its decision shall be final.

(B) When two or more individuals pay rent for the same premises and each individual meets the qualifications for a renter-claimant, each qualified individual shall be entitled to assistance under this part.

For the purposes of this subparagraph, a husband and wife residing in the same premises shall be presumed to be one renter.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (3), the right to file a claim shall be personal to the claimant and shall not survive his death; however, when a claimant dies after having filed a timely claim, the amount thereof may be disbursed to the surviving spouse and if no surviving spouse, to any other member of the household who is a qualified claimant. If there is no surviving spouse or otherwise qualified claimant, the claim shall be disbursed to any other member of the household. In the event two or more individuals qualify for payment as either an otherwise qualified claimant or a member of the household, they may determine which of them will be paid. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the Franchise Tax Board and its decision shall be final.

(3) If, after January 1 of the property tax fiscal year for which a claim may be filed, a claimant dies without filing a timely claim, a claim on behalf of such claimant may be filed by the surviving spouse within the filing period prescribed in subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 19532.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 65302 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65302. The general plan shall consist of a statement of development policies and shall include a diagram or diagrams and text setting forth objectives, principles, standards, and plan proposals. The plan shall include the following elements:

(a) A land use element which designates the proposed general distribution and general location and extent of the uses of the land for housing, business, industry, open space, including agriculture, natural resources, recreation, and enjoyment of scenic beauty, education, public buildings and grounds, solid and liquid waste disposal facilities, and other categories of public and private uses of land. The land use element shall include a statement of the standards of population density and building intensity recommended for the various districts and other territory covered by the plan. The land use element shall also identify areas covered by the plan which are subject to flooding and shall be reviewed annually with respect to such areas.

(b) A circulation element consisting of the general location and extent of existing and proposed major thoroughfares, transportation routes, terminals, and other local public utilities and facilities, all correlated with the land use element of the plan.

(c) A housing element, to be developed pursuant to regulations established under Section 41134 of the Health and Safety Code, consisting of standards and plans for the improvement of housing and for provision of adequate sites for housing. This element of the plan shall make adequate provision for the housing needs of all economic segments of the community.

(d) A conservation element for the conservation, development, and utilization of natural resources including water and its hydraulic force, forests, soils, rivers and other waters, harbors, fisheries, wildlife, minerals, and other natural resources. That portion of the conservation element including waters shall be developed in coordination with any countywide water agency and with all district and city agencies which have developed, served, controlled or conserved water for any purpose for the county or city for which the plan is prepared. The conservation element may also cover:

(1) The reclamation of land and waters.

(2) Flood control.

(3) Prevention and control of the pollution of streams and other waters.

(4) Regulation of the use of land in stream channels and other areas required for the accomplishment of the conservation plan.

(5) Prevention, control, and correction of the erosion of soils, beaches, and shores.

(6) Protection of watersheds.

(7) The location, quantity and quality of the rock, sand and gravel resources.

The conservation element shall be prepared and adopted no later than December 31, 1973.

(e) An open-space element as provided in Article 10.5 (commencing with Section 65560) of this chapter.

(f) A seismic safety element consisting of an identification and appraisal of seismic hazards such as susceptibility to surface ruptures from faulting, to ground shaking, to ground failures, or to effects of seismically induced waves such as tsunamis and seiches.

The seismic safety element shall also include an appraisal of mudslides, landslides, and slope stability as necessary geologic hazards that must be considered simultaneously with other hazards such as possible surface ruptures from faulting, ground shaking, ground failure and seismically induced waves.

(g) A noise element, which shall recognize guidelines adopted by the Office of Noise Control pursuant to Section 46050.1 of the Health and Safety Code, and which quantifies the community noise environment in terms of noise exposure contours for both near and long-term levels of growth and traffic activity. Such noise exposure information shall become a guideline for use in development of the land use element to achieve noise compatible land use and also to provide baseline levels and noise source identification for local noise ordinance enforcement.

The sources of environmental noise considered in this analysis shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) Highways and freeways.

(2) Primary arterials and major local streets.

(3) Passenger and freight on-line railroad operations and ground rapid transit systems.

(4) Commercial, general aviation, heliport, helistop, and military airport operations, aircraft overflights, jet engine test stands, and all other ground facilities and maintenance functions related to airport operation.

(5) Local industrial plants, including, but not limited to, railroad classification yards.

(6) Other ground stationary noise sources identified by local agencies as contributing to the community noise environment.

The noise exposure information shall be presented in terms of noise contours expressed in community noise equivalent level (CNEL) or day-night average level (L_{dn}). CNEL means the average equivalent A-weighted sound level during a 24-hour day, obtained after addition of five decibels to sound levels in the evening from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. and after addition of 10 decibels to sound levels in the night before 7 a.m. and after 10 p.m. L_{dn} means the average equivalent A-weighted sound level during a 24-hour day, obtained after addition of 10 decibels to sound levels in the night before 7 a.m. and after 10 p.m.

The contours shall be shown in minimum increments of 5db and shall continue down to 60db. For areas deemed noise sensitive, including, but not limited to, areas containing schools, hospitals, rest homes, long-term medical or mental care facilities, or any other land-use areas deemed noise sensitive by the local jurisdiction, the noise exposure shall be determined by monitoring.

A part of the noise element shall also include the preparation of a community noise exposure inventory, current and projected, which identifies the number of persons exposed to various levels of noise throughout the community.

The noise element shall also recommend mitigating measures and possible solutions to existing and foreseeable noise problems.

The state, local, or private agency responsible for the construction, maintenance, or operation of those transportation, industrial, or other commercial facilities specified in paragraph 2 of this subdivision shall provide to the local agency producing the general plan, specific data relating to current and projected levels of activity and a detailed methodology for the development of noise contours given this supplied data, or they shall provide noise contours as specified in the foregoing statements.

It shall be the responsibility of the local agency preparing the general plan to specify the manner in which the noise element will be integrated into the city or county's zoning plan and tied to the land use and circulation elements and to the local noise ordinance. The noise element, once adopted, shall also become the guideline for determining compliance with the state's noise insulation standards, as contained in Section 1092 of Title 25 of the California Administrative Code.

(h) A scenic highway element for the development, establishment, and protection of scenic highways pursuant to the provisions of Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 260) of Chapter 2 of Division 1 of the Streets and Highways Code.

(i) A safety element for the protection of the community from fires and geologic hazards including features necessary for such protection as evacuation routes, peak load water supply requirements, minimum road widths, clearances around structures, and geologic hazard mapping in areas of known geologic hazards.

The requirements of this section shall apply to charter cities.

39011. (a) "Agricultural burning" means open outdoor fires used in agricultural operations in the growing of crops or raising of fowl or animals, or open outdoor fires used in forest management, range improvement, or the improvement of land for wildlife and game habitat, or disease or pest prevention.

(b) "Agricultural burning" also means open outdoor fires used in the operation or maintenance of a system for the delivery of water for the purposes specified in subdivision (a). Section 41807 shall not apply to such burning under this subdivision.

(b) The state board shall certify any gasoline vapor control system upon its determination that the system, if properly installed and maintained, will meet the requirements enumerated in subdivision (a). The state board shall specify the specifications used for issuing such certification. After the state board has certified such a system, if circumstances beyond the control of the state board cause the system to no longer meet the specified certification specifications, the state board may, as appropriate, revoke or modify its prior certification.

(c) The state board may test, or contract for the testing of, gasoline vapor control systems in order to certify such systems.

(d) The state board may charge a reasonable fee for certification, not to exceed the state board's estimated costs therefor. Payment of such fee may be made a condition of certification.

(e) On or after July 1, 1976, no person shall install a gasoline vapor control system unless it has been certified by the state board.

(b) No new 1977 or later model year gasoline-powered motor vehicle may be sold, offered for sale, or registered in this state unless such vehicle is in compliance with the specifications adopted by the state board pursuant to subdivision (a).

The state board may exempt from such specifications those classifications of motor vehicles for which the state board determines the specifications are technologically infeasible.

The state board also may waive the provisions of this subdivision for any 1977 model year gasoline-powered motor vehicle, provided that the state board makes a finding, based upon evidence presented by the manufacturer of such vehicle, that inadequate lead time exists for any required vehicle redesign. The state board may make such waiver applicable only to specified body styles of such a vehicle.

No such project, or portion thereof, shall be eligible for financing under this division for which, at the time an application is submitted to the authority, financing has been otherwise obtained.

No project shall be eligible for funding pursuant to this section unless the Secretary of the Resources Agency shall certify that there is reasonable assurance of the following:

(a) The project will significantly reduce the types of environmental pollution resulting from currently used methods of disposing of solid waste; and

(b) The project is consistent with any applicable regional, basin, or state plan for environmental protection.

The authority shall reimburse the Resources Agency for the reasonable and necessary costs incurred in making the certification required by this section.

SEC. 20. Section 39616.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

44532.5. To the extent that funding has been separately authorized for financing solid waste disposal projects pursuant to Section 44541.5, the authority shall, throughout each calendar quarter, accept separate applications for such projects. Eligible applicants shall be limited to participating parties who propose projects which have been certified as provided in Section 44531.5.

After the close of each calendar quarter the authority shall determine, by resolution, those projects which it proposes to finance pursuant to this section. The financing of such projects shall be determined on the basis of the following priorities:

In adding this section and amending Section 65302 of the Government Code, it is the intent of the Legislature to assure, insofar as possible, that new and periodically revised noise elements in local governments' general plans shall be more standardized, comprehensive, and utilitarian than has heretofore been the case.

However, the Legislature also recognizes that some cities and counties have already adopted noise elements pursuant to the existing Section 65302 of the Government Code and that others have received extensions on the due date of their noise element until September 20, 1975. Such cities and counties shall not be required to resubmit new noise elements consistent with the provisions of Section 65302 of the Government Code, or recognizing guidelines adopted pursuant to this section, but shall, upon initial and periodic

This right of entry shall be limited to the hours during which the dealer is open to the public, except when the entry is made pursuant to warrant or whenever the executive officer or his authorized representative has reasonable cause to believe that a violation of any federal, state, or local law, order, regulation, or rule has been committed in his presence. No vehicle shall be inspected pursuant to this section more than one time without an inspection warrant or without reasonable cause unless (a) the vehicle undergoes a change of ownership or (b) the inspection reveals that the vehicle has failed to comply with required emissions standards or equipment, in which case one additional inspection may be made to verify the violation or to verify that the violation has been corrected.

With respect to vehicles not owned by the dealer, the state board may not prosecute, without the owner's knowledge or consent, any violation by the owner of any law pertaining to vehicular emissions unless prior notice of the inspection has been given to the owner.

Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 17150 of the Vehicle Code, the state shall be liable for any injury or damage caused by the negligent or wrongful act or omission of the operator of any vehicle which is operated pursuant to this section.

(2) Free from defects in materials and workmanship which cause such motor vehicle or motor vehicle engine to fail to conform with applicable regulations for its useful life as determined pursuant to subdivision (b).

(b) As used in subdivision (a), "useful life" of a motor vehicle or motor vehicle engine means:

(1) In the case of light-duty motor vehicles, and motor vehicle engines used in such motor vehicles, a period of use of five years or 50,000 miles, whichever first occurs.

SEC. 57. Section 43206 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

43206. Commencing April 1, 1973, and semiannually thereafter, every person who manufactures new motor vehicles for sale in California shall file with the state board a report as to such person's efforts and progress in meeting federal standards promulgated pursuant to Section 1857f-1(b)(1) of Title 42 of the United States Code.

The reports shall be available to the public. However, the manufacturer may designate that a portion of the report is a trade secret and such portion shall not be released except to such state board employees as are specifically designated by the executive officer, unless the state board, after an investigation, determines such portion is not in fact a trade secret. State board employees having access to the trade secret shall maintain its confidentiality.

The state board shall conduct such investigations with respect to the reports as it deems necessary and shall file a summary of the semiannual reports with the Legislature and the Governor as soon after each quarter as possible.

No report is required from a manufacturer once all models of motor vehicles of the manufacturer which are sold in California and which are subject to the standards promulgated pursuant to Section 1857f-1(b)(1) of Title 42 of the United States Code meet all such standards.

SEC. 58. Section 43208 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

43208. Factory assembly line test procedures shall not apply to light-duty motor vehicles, if (a) the manufacturer thereof advises the state board in writing that the manufacturer does not intend to sell more than 1,000 motor vehicles in California in a given model year, and (b) the manufacturer does not sell more than 1,000 motor vehicles of its make in such a year. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the state board from requiring testing by the applicable certifying test procedure of up to 2 percent of the motor vehicles of such a manufacturer sold in California. This section shall not apply to 1976 and later model year motor vehicles.

SEC. 59. Section 43651 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

The charge shall be posted as a fixed fee.

44501. (a) The Legislature hereby finds that it is necessary and essential that the state, in cooperation with the federal government, use all practical means and measures to control and eliminate pollution hazards to the environment. The Legislature further finds and determines that industry within this state utilizes processes and facilities which have significant environmental impact. These processes and facilities shall be modified and supplemented to meet the quality standards established and to be established for the control of environmental pollution. Industry needs and requires new methods to finance the capital outlays required for the devices, equipment and facilities utilized in pollution control if they are to rapidly comply with the quality standards established by the state and federal governments.

(b) The Legislature also finds and declares that the disposal of waste products by such current methods as incineration and landfill pollute the environment by degrading air and water quality. The Legislature further finds that in order to reduce the environmental pollution which currently occurs in connection with the disposal of waste products, there is a need to develop new and alternative processes and facilities which provide for the disposal of such waste products in ways which prevent or reduce environmental degradation. The Legislature also finds that such new and alternative processes and facilities include those which recover resources and energy from waste products.

(c) The alternate method of financing provided in this division is in the public interest and will promote the health, welfare, and safety of the citizens of the State of California.

SEC. 62. Section 11519 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11519. No vehicle which has been reported dismantled may be subsequently registered until there is submitted to the department with the prescribed bill of sale an appropriate application, official lamp and brake adjustment certificates issued by an official lamp and brake adjusting station licensed by the Department of Consumer Affairs, other documents and fees required, and, with respect to any motor vehicle subject to Part 5 (commencing with Section 43000) of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, a valid certificate of compliance from a licensed motor vehicle pollution control device installation and inspection station indicating that such vehicle is properly equipped with a motor vehicle pollution control device or devices which are in proper operating condition and which are in compliance with the provisions of Part 5 (commencing with Section 43000) of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 63. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Assembly Bill No. 1758, enacted as Chapter 957 of the Statutes of 1975, repealed and reenacted, with various substantive changes, provisions regarding air pollution contained in the Health and Safety Code, and made conforming changes in the Health and Safety Code and in cross-reference in provisions in various codes.

In order to incorporate into the revisions made by Assembly Bill No. 1758 the changes in the law resulting from other enactments in 1975 as soon as possible so as to avoid any confusion in the law, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

The order shall, of its own force, take effect and become operative 20 days after the service thereof except as otherwise provided by the commission,, and shall continue in force either for a period designated in it or until changed or abrogated by the commission. If the commission believes that an order cannot be complied with within 20 days, it may prescribe such additional time as in its judgment is reasonably necessary to comply with the order, and may on application and for good cause shown, extend the time for compliance fixed in its order.

SEC. 2. Section 1731 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

1731. After any order or decision has been made by the commission, any party to the action or proceeding, or any stockholder or bondholder or other party pecuniarily interested in the public utility affected, may apply for a rehearing in respect to any matters determined in the action or proceeding and specified in the application for rehearing. The commission may grant and hold a rehearing on those matters, if in its judgment sufficient reason is made to appear. No cause of action arising out of any order or decision of the commission shall accrue in any court to any corporation or person unless the corporation or person has filed application to the commission for a rehearing before the effective date of the order or decision, or, if the commission fixes a date earlier than the 20th day after issuance as the effective date of the order or decision, unless the corporation or person has filed such application for rehearing before the 30th day after the date of issuance, or before the 10th day after the date of issuance in the case of an order authorizing the issuance of securities.

25100. The following securities are exempted from the provisions of Section 25110, 25120 and 25130:

or other instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(b) Any security issued or guaranteed by the Dominion of Canada, any Canadian province, any political subdivision or municipality of any such province, or by any other foreign government with which the United States currently maintains diplomatic relations, if the security is recognized as a valid obligation by the issuer or guarantor; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(c) Any security issued or guaranteed by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of a national bank or a bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state, and any security issued by a bank to one or more other banks and representing an interest in an asset of the issuing bank.

(d) Any security issued or guaranteed by a federal savings and loan association or federal land bank or joint land bank or national farm loan association or by any savings and loan association which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Savings and Loan Commissioner of this state.

(f) Any security consisting of any interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided lands or a subdivision or in a real estate development; provided that the exemption in this subdivision shall not be applicable to any investment contract sold or offered for sale with, or as part of, any such interest, or to any corporation engaged in the business of selling, distributing or supplying water for irrigation purposes or domestic use which is not a public utility.

(g) Any shares, investment certificates or borrower's membership certificates (as defined in the Savings and Loan Association Law) issued by a savings and loan association holding a license then in force from the Savings and Loan Commissioner of this state.

(h) Any security issued or guaranteed by any federal credit union, or by any credit union organized and supervised under the laws of this state.

The fact that amounts received from memberships or dues or both will or may be used to construct or otherwise acquire facilities for use by members of the nonprofit organization does not disqualify the organization for this exemption. This exemption does not apply to the securities of any nonprofit organization if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the organization or operation of such nonprofit organization or from remuneration received from such nonprofit organization.

(k) Any agreement, commonly known as a "life income contract," of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit and (2) which the commissioner designates by rule or order, with a donor in consideration of a donation of property to such issuer and providing for the payment to the donor or persons designated by him of income or specified periodic payments from the donated property or other property for the life of the donor or such other persons.

(l) Any note, draft, bill of exchange, or banker's acceptance which is freely transferable and of prime quality, arises out of a current transaction or the proceeds of which have been or are to be used for current transactions, and which evidences an obligation to pay cash within nine months of the date of issuance, exclusive of days of grace, or any renewal of such paper which is likewise limited, or any guarantee of such paper or of any such renewal, provided that such paper is not offered to the public in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser. In addition, the commissioner may, by rule or order, exempt any issuer of any notes, drafts, bills of exchange or banker's acceptances from qualification of such securities when he finds that such qualification is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

(m) Any security issued by any corporation organized and existing under the provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Agricultural Code.

(n) Any beneficial interest in a retirement system as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 28002.

(o) Any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on a national securities exchange certified by rule or order of the commissioner and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to any such security.

Such certification of an exchange shall be made by the commissioner upon the written request of the exchange if he finds that the exchange, in acting on applications for listing of common stock substantially applies each of the minimum standards set forth in subparagraph (1) below, and in considering suspension or removal from listing, substantially applies each of the criteria set forth in subparagraph (2) below.

(1) Listing standards:

(i) Net tangible assets of at least two million dollars ($2,000,000).

(ii) Net income of at least two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) after all charges including federal income taxes in the fiscal year immediately preceding the filing of a listing application and net income before such taxes of at least five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).

(iii) Minimum public distribution of 250,000 shares excluding the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders and other concentrated or family holdings among not less than 900 holders including not less than 600 holders of lots of 100 shares or more, with a corresponding requirement that such securities not be largely held in blocks by institutional investors.

(iv) Minimum price of four dollars ($4) per share for reasonable period of time prior to the filing of a listing application.

(v) An aggregate market value for publicly held shares of at least one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000).

(2) Criteria for consideration of suspension or removal from listing:

(i) If a company which (A) has net tangible assets of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) has sustained net losses in each of its two most recent fiscal years, or (B) has net tangible assets of less than three million dollars ($3,000,000) and has sustained net losses in three of its four most recent fiscal years.

(ii) If the number of shares publicly held (excluding the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders and other concentrated or family holdings) is less than 150,000.

(iii) If the total number of shareholders of record is less than 450 or if the number of shareholders of lots of 100 shares or more is less than 300.

(iv) If the aggregate market value of shares publicly held is less than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000).

(v) If shares of common stock sell at a price of less than four dollars ($4) per share for a substantial period of time and the issuer shall fail to effectuate a reverse stock split of such shares within a reasonable period of time after being requested by the exchange to take such action.

The commissioner after appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part I of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, may by rule or order, decertify any exchange previously certified which ceases substantially to apply the standards or criteria as set forth above. A rule or order of certification shall conclusively establish that any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on any exchange named in a rule or order of certification and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to any such security is exempt under this subdivision until the adoption of any rule or order decertifying such exchange.

(p) A promissory note secured by a lien on real property, which is not one of a series of notes secured by interests in the same real property.

SEC. 2. Section 25100 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25100. The following securities are exempted from the provisions of Sections 25110, 25120, and 25130:

(a) Any security (including a revenue obligation) issued or guaranteed by the United States, any state, any city, county, city and county, public district, public authority, public corporation, public entity, or political subdivision of a state or any agency or corporate or other instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(b) Any security issued or guaranteed by the Dominion of Canada, any Canadian province, any political subdivision or municipality of any such province, or by any other foreign government with which the United States currently maintains diplomatic relations, if the security is recognized as a valid obligation by the issuer or guarantor; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(c) Any security issued or guaranteed by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of a national bank or a bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state, and any security issued by a bank to one or more other banks and representing an interest in an asset of the issuing bank.

(d) Any security issued or guaranteed by a federal savings and loan association or federal land bank or joint land bank or national farm loan association or by any savings and loan association which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Savings and Loan Commissioner of this state.

(e) Any security (other than an interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided land or a subdivision or in a real estate development), the issuance of which is subject to authorization by the Insurance Commissioner, the Public Utilities Commission, or the Real Estate Commissioner of this state.

(f) Any security consisting of any interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided lands or a subdivision or in a real estate development; provided that the exemption in this subdivision shall not be applicable to any investment contract sold or offered for sale with, or as part of, any such interest, or to any corporation engaged in the business of selling, distributing or supplying water for irrigation purposes or domestic use which is not a public utility.

(g) Any shares, investment certificates or borrower's membership certificates (as defined in the Savings and Loan Association Law) issued by a savings and loan association holding a license then in force from the Savings and Loan Commissioner of this state.

(h) Any security issued or guaranteed by any federal credit union, or by any credit union organized and supervised under the laws of this state.

(i) Any security issued or guaranteed by any railroad, other common carrier, public utility, or public utility holding company which is (1) subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission or (2) a holding company registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 or a subsidiary of such a company within the meaning of that act or (3) regulated in respect of the issuance or guarantee of the security by a governmental authority of the United States, of any state, of Canada or of any Canadian province; and the security is subject to registration with or authorization of issuance by such authority.

(j) Any security (except evidences of indebtedness, whether interest bearing or not) of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit, if no part of the net earnings of the issuer inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, or (2) organized as a chamber of commerce or trade or professional association. The fact that amounts received from memberships or dues or both will or may be used to construct or otherwise acquire facilities for use by members of the nonprofit organization does not disqualify the organization for this exemption. This exemption does not apply to the securities of any nonprofit organization if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the organization or operation of such nonprofit organization or from remuneration received from such nonprofit organization.

(k) Any agreement, commonly known as a "life income contract," of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit and (2) which the commissioner designates by rule or order, with a donor in consideration of a donation of property to such issuer and providing for the payment to the donor or persons designated by him of income or specified periodic payments from the donated property or other property for the life of the donor or such other persons.

(l) Any note, draft, bill of exchange, or banker's acceptance which is freely transferable and of prime quality, arises out of a current transaction or the proceeds of which have been or are to be used for current transactions, and which evidences an obligation to pay cash within nine months of the date of issuance, exclusive of days of grace, or any renewal of such paper which is likewise limited, or any guarantee of such paper or of any such renewal, provided that such paper is not offered to the public in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser. In addition, the commissioner may by rule or order, exempt any issuer of any notes, drafts, bills of exchange or banker's acceptances from qualification of such securities when he finds that such qualification is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

(m) Any security issued by any corporation organized and existing under the provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Agricultural Code.

(n) Any unincorporated interindemnity or reciprocal or interinsurance contract, which qualifies under the provisions of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, between members of a cooperative corporation, organized and operating under Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1, and whose members consist only of licensed physicians and surgeons, which contracts indemnify solely in respect to medical malpractice claims against such members, and which do not collect in advance of loss any moneys other than contributions by each member to a collective trust fund or for necessary expenses of administration.

(o) Any beneficial interest in a retirement system as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 28002.

(p) Any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on a national securities exchange certified by rule or order of the commissioner and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to any such security.

Such certification of an exchange shall be made by the commissioner upon the written request of the exchange if he finds that the exchange, in acting on applications for listing of common stock substantially applies each of the minimum standards set forth in subparagraph (1) below, and in considering suspension or removal from listing, substantially applies each of the criteria set forth in subparagraph (2) below.

(1) Listing standards:

(i) Net tangible assets of at least two million dollars ($2,000,000).

(ii) Net income of at least two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) after all charges including federal income taxes in the fiscal year immediately preceding the filing of a listing application and net income before such taxes of at least five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).

(iii) Minimum public distribution of 250,000 shares excluding the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders and other concentrated or family holdings among not less than 900 holders including not less than 600 holders of lots of 100 shares or more, with a corresponding requirement that such securities not be largely held in blocks by institutional investors.

(iv) Minimum price of four dollars ($4) per share for reasonable period of time prior to the filing of a listing application.

(v) An aggregate market value for publicly held shares of at least one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000).

(2) Criteria for consideration of suspension or removal from listing:

(i) If a company which (A) has net tangible assets of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) has sustained net losses in each of its two most recent fiscal years, or (B) has net tangible assets of less than three million dollars ($3,000,000) and has sustained net losses in three of its four most recent fiscal years.

(ii) If the number of shares publicly held (excluding the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders and other concentrated or family holdings) is less than 150,000.

(iii) If the total number of shareholders of record is less than 450 or if the number of shareholders of lots of 100 shares or more is less than 300.

(iv) If the aggregate market value of shares publicly held is less than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000).

(v) If shares of common stock sell at a price of less than four dollars ($4) per share for a substantial period of time and the issuer shall fail to effectuate a reverse stock split of such shares within a reasonable period of time after being requested by the exchange to take such action.

The commissioner after appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part I of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, may by rule or order, decertify any exchange previously certified which ceases substantially to apply the standards or criteria as set forth above. A rule or order of certification shall conclusively establish that any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on any exchange named in a rule or order of certification and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to any such security is exempt under this subdivision until the adoption of any rule or order decertifying such exchange.

(q) A promissory note secured by a lien on real property, which is not one of a series of notes secured by interests in the same real property.

SEC. 3. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 3980 are both chaptered and amend Section 25100 of the Corporations Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 3980, that the amendments to Section 25100 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 25100 in the form set forth in Section 2 of this act. Therefore, Section 2 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 3980 are both chaptered, both amend Section 25100, and Assembly Bill No. 3980 is chaptered before this bill, in which case Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1066

An act relating to Lake Elsinore State Recreation Area, making an appropriation therefor and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 5098.2 of the Public Resources Code, there is hereby appropriated from the Park and Recreation Revolving Account in the General Fund to the Department of Parks and Recreation the sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) for the preparation of an environmental impact report and for the preparation of all plans, designs, specifications, engineering services, and construction cost estimates for dike construction, dredging, bank protections, recreational facilities, and water quality control facilities at Lake Elsinore State Recreation Area pursuant to the Lake Elsinore Stabilization and Land Use Plan, dated September 25, 1974, endorsed by the State Park and Recreation Commission in October, 1974. However, moneys appropriated by this section shall not be expended unless and until the Director of Parks and Recreation makes a finding that an adequate and continuing supply of water for Lake Elsinore has been secured. The purchase of pumping water pursuant to Section 3 may not be deemed, for the purposes of this section, as the securing of an adequate and continuing supply of water.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 5098.2 of the Public Resources Code, there is hereby appropriated, in accordance with the following schedule, the sum of two hundred sixty thousand dollars ($260,000) to the Department of Parks and Recreation for expenditure, during the period September 1, 1976, to December 31, 1978, inclusive, for a study to determine whether there is available a continuous source of water from wells that is sufficient to supply Lake Elsinore and whether such manner of supplying the lake would be feasible:

Schedule:

(a) Payable from the Harbors and Watercraft Revolving Fund $40,000

(b) Payable from the Park and Recreation Revolving Account in the General Fund $220,000

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 5098.2 of the Public Resources Code, if at any time prior to December 31, 1978, the water level of Lake Elsinore recedes to an elevation of 1,227.5 feet above mean sea level, as determined by the Director of Parks and Recreation, there is appropriated from the Park and Recreation Revolving Account in the General Fund to the Department of Parks and Recreation the sum of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) for the sole purpose of immediately purchasing or pumping water from any available source to raise the elevation of the lake.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

The evaporation rate of water within Lake Elsinore in its current state is such that the benefits of additional water supplies which may be secured are jeopardized. Because it is necessary for construction of improvements to begin at the earliest possible time in order to prevent such evaporation, and because it is necessary to drill a new test well at the earliest possible time in order to carry out a study of a possible water supply for the lake, and because the water level of the lake relates directly to the water quality and recreational benefits of the lake and the neighboring community and must therefore be maintained during the study period, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1067

An act to add Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 24200) to Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 24200) is added to Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2. USE OF CARCINOGENS

Article 1. General Provisions and Definitions

24200. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Occupational Carcinogens Control Act of 1976.

24201. The purpose of this chapter is to clarify and strengthen the provisions of state law applicable to the use of carcinogens in California. It is the intent of the Legislature to provide for effective implementation of the provisions of this chapter. It is further the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this chapter, to eliminate any duplication or overlap of duties performed by the State Department of Health and the Division of Industrial Safety in the Department of Industrial Relations with respect to the safety of employees involved in the use of carcinogens.

24203. "Affected employee" means an employee who, as part of his employment, is involved in the use of a carcinogen, or an employee with respect to whom there is a substantial probability that he will become so involved as the result of his employer's use of a carcinogen.

24204. "Carcinogen" means and includes the following recognized cancer-causing substances for which standards have been adopted pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 24220):

(a) Any of the following substances and any compound, mixture, or product containing such substances:

(1) 2-acetylaminofluorene.
(2) 4-aminodiphenyl.
(3) Benzidine and its salts.
(4) Bis(chloromethyl) ether.
(5) 3,3'-dichlorobenzidine and its salts.
(6) 4-dimethylaminoazobenzene.
(7) Beta-naphthylamine.
(8) 4-nitrodiphenyl.
(9) N-nitrosodimethylamine.
(10) Beta-propriolactone.
(11) Methyl chloromethyl ether.
(12) Alpha-naphthylamine.
(13) 4,4'-methylene-(bis)2-chloroaniline.
(14) Ethyleneimine.

(b) Asbestos, including chrysotile, amosite, crocidolite, tremolite, anthophyllite, and actinolite.

(c) Vinyl chloride.

(d) Any other substance for which standards are adopted and in effect due to cancer-causing properties and any compound, mixture, or product containing such a substance, except as specifically exempted from such standards.

24205. "Division" means the Division of Industrial Safety in the Department of Industrial Relations.

24206. "Employer" means any of the following:

(a) The state and every state agency.

(b) Each county, city, district, and all public and quasi-public corporations and public agencies therein.

(c) Every person including any public service corporation, which has any natural person in service.

(d) The legal representative of any deceased employer.

24207. "Standards" means standards and orders adopted by the standards board pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 140) of Division 1 of the Labor Code.

24208. "Standards board" means the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board in the Department of Industrial Relations.

24209. "State department" means the State Department of Health.

24209.5. "Use" means any use of a carcinogen by an employer, including but not limited to, the following:

(a) Manufacture of a carcinogen, industrial uses thereof, or formation of a carcinogen as a result of a chemical reaction.

(b) Sale or other transfer of a carcinogen.

(c) Storage or disposal of a carcinogen.

(d) Utilization of a carcinogen for research.

(e) Transport of a carcinogen. The state department and division shall have concurrent jurisdiction with any federal agency to protect affected employees of interstate carriers, including rail carriers, while in this state, as provided in this chapter or as authorized by other provisions of state law.

Article 2. Exemptions

24210. Except where in conflict with Section 142.3 of the Labor Code or other applicable provisions of law, the standards board may exempt from the provisions of this chapter and its standards uses of carcinogens which it determines have been shown by a preponderance of the evidence to present no substantial threat to employee health and which may include, but need not be limited to:

(a) Use of carcinogens specified in subdivision (a) of Section 24204 in operations involving the destructive distillation of carbonaceous materials, such as occurs in coke ovens.

(b) Use of asbestos, except where there is a material risk of substantial and repeated exposure of employees to such carcinogen.

The standards board shall report to the Legislature on or before January 5, 1978, respecting recommendations for standards governing the uses specified in this section.

The standards board shall adopt regulations for the implementation of the provisions of this section.

Article 3. Standards and Administration

24220. (a) Pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 140) of Division 1 of the Labor Code, the standards board shall adopt standards for carcinogens at least as restrictive as the federal requirements for use of carcinogens promulgated under Section 6 of the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (P.L. 91-596), as such federal requirements may be revised from time to time. Within six months after the effective date of any change in such federal requirements, the standards board shall amend its standards as necessary to comply with this subdivision.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that the state shall exercise strong leadership in preventing employees, employers, and other persons from being exposed to carcinogens. In this connection, it is the further intent of the Legislature that the standards board adopt standards for substances as to which there exists a preponderance of evidence of carcinogenicity, but for which the federal government has not yet promulgated requirements specified in subdivision (a). The state department shall determine the necessity for such standards and shall develop and present such proposed standards to the standards board pursuant to Section 147.1 of the Labor Code. The standards board shall on or before January 5, 1978, report to the Legislature on whether it has adopted standards for carcinogens which are (1) not subject to federal requirements specified in subdivision (a) or (2) not specified in subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 24204.

24221. All standards relating to the use of carcinogens which are in effect on January 1, 1977, including standards set forth in Sections 5208, 5209, and 5210 of Title 8 of the California Administrative Code, shall remain in effect until amended or repealed by the standards board.

24222. The division shall have primary responsibility for enforcement of standards relating to carcinogens. However, the State Department of Health shall assist the division in the enforcement of such standards, in the manner prescribed by this chapter and as shall be further defined by a written agreement between the state department and the Department of Industrial Relations, pursuant to Section 144 of the Labor Code.

Article 4. Reporting

24230. The standards board shall adopt one or more standards requiring each employer which uses any carcinogen, including asbestos and vinyl chloride, to submit a written report regarding such use or any incident which results in the release of a potentially hazardous amount of a carcinogen into any area where employees may be exposed. The reporting requirements set forth in Sections 5209 and 5210 of Title 8 of the California Administrative Code on January 1, 1977, shall remain in effect until amended or repealed by the standards board, and any subsequent reporting requirements shall provide for reports which are at least as detailed as those required on such date. For asbestos and vinyl chloride, the standards board shall adopt a standard which requires each employer who uses vinyl chloride or asbestos to report in a manner similar to the reporting required pursuant to Section 5209 of Title 8 of the California Administrative Code.

24231. The division shall transmit a copy of each report specified in Section 24230 to any bargaining representatives, and other representatives known to the division, of affected employees of the reporting employer. A copy of each such report shall be posted by the employer in the location or locations where the carcinogen is used, which shall be conspicuous to affected employees, as shall be provided in the standards.

24232. The state department shall make every effort to ascertain the identities of existing users of carcinogens and to notify, inform, and educate them about the requirements of this chapter on or before July 1, 1977. The division shall cooperate fully with the state department in this effort. The state department and division shall utilize all appropriate means of communication and education, including direct mailings to employers, the use of courses, workshops, and seminars, advertising in mass media, trade and employee publications, and professional and scientific journals, contact with trade associations, employee representatives, and professional and scientific societies, and cooperation with other governmental agencies to inform affected employees, employers, and the public of the requirements of this chapter.

Article 5. Medical Examinations

24240. Every employer using carcinogens shall provide for medical examinations of affected employees where required by standards adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 142.3 of the Labor Code. The standards board shall continue to require medical examinations in at least as effective a manner as provided in Sections 5208, 5209, and 5210 of Title 8 of the California Administrative Code on January 1, 1977.

Article 6. Inspections

24250. The state department shall establish priorities for the performance of inspections of premises for which uses have been reported pursuant to Section 24230 and shall perform as many of such inspections as possible within the limits of the resources available to it for such purpose.

24251. The agreement between the state department and the Department of Industrial Relations specified in Section 24222 shall provide for a right of access to places of employment for any authorized representative of the state department in order to perform such inspections.

24252. If an authorized representative of the state department determines on the basis of an inspection conducted pursuant to this article that an employer is using a carcinogen in violation of the standards pertaining to such use, he shall immediately notify the employer, affected employees, and the division.

24253. Whenever an employer, other than a public agency, is inspected pursuant to this chapter, the employer shall within seven days thereafter remit to the division the inspection fee prescribed pursuant to this section. Such fees shall be set forth in a schedule to be adopted by the chief of the division, and shall be not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500).

The chief of the division, in establishing such fee schedule, shall take into account the number of affected employees and the amount of time necessary to perform the inspection, and may, in addition, consider any other reasonable criteria. If an employer is subject to inspection more than once during any calendar year, he shall not be charged any fee for the second or subsequent inspections of the same use which was the subject of the initial inspection, regardless of the basis for the inspection. The fees collected by the division shall be deposited in the General Fund.

24254. The director of the state department shall transmit to the division copies of each report of an inspection relating to the use of a carcinogen which is performed pursuant to this chapter.

24255. In addition to the provisions of Section 144.5 of the Labor Code, upon request from the division or any employer or any employee, or upon its own initiative, the state department shall provide consultation services regarding the use of a carcinogen and may offer educational programs to inform employers and employees of the provisions of this chapter; provided, that the department shall devote a substantial amount of staff time to department-initiated inspections provided for in this article.

Article 7. Penalties

24260. The civil penalties prescribed by Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 6423) of Part 1 of Division 5 of the Labor Code shall be applicable to violations of standards and special orders regulating the use of carcinogens, except as modified by the following:

(a) A civil penalty assessed against an employer because of failure to report, as required by standards specified in Section 24230, shall be not less than five hundred dollars ($500).

(b) A civil penalty assessed against an employer for a serious violation involving use of a carcinogen in violation of standards or special orders, except as provided by subdivision (c) and by Section 6429 of the Labor Code, shall be in the amount of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(c) A civil penalty assessed pursuant to Section 6429 of the Labor Code for repeated violations of standards or special orders specified in subdivision (a) or (b) shall be not less than five thousand dollars ($5,000).

The maximum limitations on civil penalties specified in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 6423) of Part 1 of Division 5 of the Labor Code shall be applicable to civil penalties for which the minimum amount is prescribed by subdivision (a) or (c). Nothing in this section shall supersede any provision of law prescribing criminal offenses or penalties.

This section shall become operative July 1, 1977.

24261. (a) For purposes of this article and for purposes of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 6423) of Part 1 of Division 5 of the Labor Code, "serious violation" shall have the meaning specified in Section 6432 of the Labor Code and, except as provided in subdivision (b), shall additionally include any violation of a standard or special order respecting the use of a carcinogen.

(b) A violation of a standard or special order respecting the use of a carcinogen shall not be a "serious violation" if the employer did not, and could not with the exercise of reasonable diligence, know of the presence of the violation or if the violation is minor and resulted in no substantial health hazard, as determined by the division.

SEC. 2. The sum of one million dollars ($1,000,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Industrial Relations for use during the period commencing January 1, 1977, and continuing through June 30, 1977, in accordance with the following schedule:

(a) For additional funding of its contract with the State Department of Health pursuant to Section 24222 of the Health and Safety Code for the purposes set forth in Article 6 (commencing with Section 24250) of Chapter 2 of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by this act $675,000

(b) For additional funding of such contract with State Department of Health for the purposes set forth in Section 24232 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by this act; provided, that any of such funds not expended by the state department for the purposes of Section 24232 may be expended for the purposes specified in subdivision (a) of this section $250,000

(c) For costs to the Department of Industrial Relations incurred in administering the provisions of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 24200) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by this act.... $75,000

However, the Director of Finance may reduce the amount expended hereunder commensurate with any federal moneys which may be made available to the division for the purposes of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 24200) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by this act, and which may be used as provided in this section.

It is the intent of the Legislature that the State Department of Health shall continue to respond to serious complaints from employees regarding the potential unlawful use of carcinogens under this act, and shall give such investigations priority over department-initiated inspections provided for by this act; provided, that the department shall devote a substantial amount of staff time to such department-initiated inspections on a priority basis.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to this section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local governmental entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 272 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

272. Every person who commits any act or omits the performance of any duty, which act or omission causes or tends to cause or encourage any person under the age of 18 years to come within the provisions of Sections 300, 601, or 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or which act or omission contributes thereto, or any person who, by any act or omission, or by threats, commands, or persuasion, induces or endeavors to induce any person under the age of 18 years or any ward or dependent child of the juvenile court to fail or refuse to conform to a lawful order of the juvenile court, or to do or to perform any act or to follow any course of conduct or to so live as would cause or manifestly tend to cause any such person to become or to remain a person within the provisions of Section 300, 601, or 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment in a county jail, or may be released on probation for a period not exceeding five years. The district attorney shall prosecute all violations charged under this section.

SEC. 1.5. Article 1 (commencing with Section 200) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 1. General Provisions

200. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Arnold-Kennick Juvenile Court Law."

201. The provisions of this chapter, insofar as they are substantially the same as existing statutory provisions relating to the same subject matter, shall be construed as restatements and continuations thereof, and not as new enactments.

202. (a) The purpose of this chapter is to secure for each minor under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court such care and guidance, preferably in his own home, as will serve the spiritual, emotional, mental, and physical welfare of the minor and the best interests of the state; to preserve and strengthen the minor's family ties whenever possible, removing him from the custody of his parents only when his welfare or safety and protection of the public cannot be adequately safeguarded without removal; and, when the minor is removed from his own family, to secure for him custody, care, and discipline as nearly as possible equivalent to that which should have been given by his parents. This chapter shall be liberally construed to carry out these purposes.

(b) The purpose of this chapter also includes the protection of the public from the consequences of criminal activity, and to such purpose probation officers, peace officers, and juvenile courts shall take into account such protection of the public in their determinations under this chapter.

203. An order adjudging a minor to be a ward of the juvenile court shall not be deemed a conviction of a crime for any purpose, nor shall a proceeding in the juvenile court be deemed a criminal proceeding.

204. The Department of Justice shall not knowingly transmit to any person or agency any information relating to an arrest or taking into custody of a minor at the time of such arrest or taking into custody unless such information also includes the disposition resulting therefrom.

"Disposition," as used herein, includes a release of such minor from custody without the filing of an accusatory pleading or the filing of a petition under the provisions of this chapter, a determination of the issue of wardship by the juvenile court, or a determination by the juvenile court that such minor is not a fit subject to be dealt with under the provisions of this chapter.

This section shall not be construed to prohibit the Department of Justice from transmitting fingerprints or photographs of a minor to a law enforcement agency for the purpose of obtaining identification of the minor or from requesting from such agency the history of the minor.

This section shall not be construed to prohibit the Department of Justice from transmitting any information relating to an arrest or taking into custody of a minor received by said bureau prior to the effective date of this section.

205. All commitments to institutions or for placement in family homes under this chapter shall be, so far as practicable, either to institutions or for placement in family homes of the same religious belief as that of the person so committed or of his parents or to institutions affording opportunity for instruction in such religious belief.

206. No person taken into custody solely upon the ground that he is a person described in Section 300 or adjudged to be such and made a dependent child of the juvenile court pursuant to this chapter solely upon that ground shall, in any detention under this chapter, be brought into direct contact or personal association with any person taken into custody on the ground that he is a person described by Section 601 or Section 602, or who has been made a ward of the juvenile court on either such ground.

Separate, segregated facilities for such persons alleged to be within the description of Section 300, or persons adjudged to be such and made dependent children of the court pursuant to this chapter solely upon that ground shall be provided by the board of supervisors. Such separate, segregated facilities may be provided in the juvenile hall or elsewhere.

No record of the detention of such a person shall be made or kept by any law enforcement agency or the Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation as a record of arrest.

207. No court, judge, referee, or peace officer shall knowingly detain in any jail or lockup any person under the age of 18 years, unless a judge of the juvenile court shall determine that there are no other proper and adequate facilities for the care and detention of such person, or unless such person has been transferred by the juvenile court to another court for proceedings not under the juvenile court law and has been charged with or convicted of a felony. If any person under the age of 18 years is transferred by the juvenile court to another court and is charged with or convicted of a felony as herein provided and is not released pending hearing, such person may be committed to the care and custody of a sheriff, constable, or other peace officer who shall keep such person in the juvenile hall or in such other suitable place as such latter court may direct, provided that no such person shall be detained in or committed to any hospital except for medical or other remedial care and treatment or observation.

208. When any person under 18 years of age is detained in or sentenced to any institution in which adults are confined, it shall be unlawful to permit such person to come or remain in contact with such adults.

No person who is a ward or dependent child of the juvenile court who is detained in or committed to any state hospital or other state facility shall be permitted to come or remain in contact with any adult person who has been committed to any state hospital or other state facility as a mentally disordered sex offender under the provisions of Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6, or with any adult person who has been charged in an accusatory pleading with the commission of any sex offense for which registration of the convicted offender is required under Section 290 of the Penal Code and who has been committed to any state hospital or other state facility pursuant to Section 1026 or 1370 of the Penal Code.

As used in this section, "contact" does not include participation in supervised group therapy or other supervised treatment activities.

209. The judge of the juvenile court of a county, or, if there is more than one such judge, any of the judges of the juvenile court shall, at least annually, inspect any jail, juvenile hall, or lockup which, in the preceding calendar year was used for confinement for more than 24 hours of any minor. Such judge shall note in the minutes of the court whether the jail, juvenile hall, or lockup is a suitable place for confinement of minors.

The Department of the Youth Authority shall likewise conduct an annual inspection of each jail, juvenile hall, or lockup situated in this state which, during the preceding calendar year, was used for confinement for more than 24 hours of any minor.

If either such judge of the juvenile court or the department, after inspection of a jail, juvenile hall, or lockup, finds that it is not being operated and maintained as a suitable place for confinement of minors, the juvenile court or the department shall give notice of its finding to all persons having authority to confine such minors pursuant to this chapter and commencing 60 days thereafter such jail, juvenile hall, or lockup shall not be used for confinement of such minors until such time as the judge or department, as the case may be, finds, after reinspection of the jail, juvenile hall, or lockup, that the conditions which rendered the facility unsuitable have been remedied, and such facility is a suitable place for confinement of such minors.

The custodian of each jail, juvenile hall, and lockup shall make such reports as may be required by the department or the juvenile court to effectuate the purposes of this section.

210. The Youth Authority shall adopt minimum standards for the operation and maintenance of juvenile halls for the confinement of minors.

Any violation of such standards shall render a juvenile hall unsuitable for the confinement of minors for purposes of Section 209.

211. No person under the age of 16 years shall be committed to a state prison or be transferred thereto from any other institution.

212. There shall be no fee for filing a petition under this chapter nor shall any fees be charged by any public officer for his services in filing or serving papers or for the performance of any duty enjoined upon him by this chapter, except where the sheriff transports a person to a state institution. If the judge of the juvenile court orders that a ward or dependent child go to a state institution without being accompanied by an officer or that a ward or dependent child be taken to an institution by the probation officer of the county or parole officer of the institution or by some other suitable person, all expenses necessarily incurred therefor shall be allowed and paid in the same manner and from the same funds as such expenses would be allowed and paid were such transportation effected by the sheriff.

213. Any willful disobedience or interference with any lawful order of the juvenile court or of a judge or referee thereof constitutes a contempt of court.

214. In each instance in which a provision of this chapter authorizes the execution by any person of a written promise to appear or to have any other person appear before the probation officer or before the juvenile court, any willful failure of such promissor to perform as promised constitutes a misdemeanor and is punishable as such if at the time of the execution of such written promise the promissor is given a copy of such written promise upon which it is clearly written that failure to appear or to have any other person appear as promised is punishable as a misdemeanor.

215. As used in this chapter, unless otherwise specifically provided, the term "probation officer" shall mean the juvenile probation officer or the person who is both the juvenile probation officer and the adult probation officer, and shall include any social worker in a county welfare department when supervising dependent children of the juvenile court pursuant to Section 272 by order of the court under Section 300, and the term "department of probation" shall mean the department of juvenile probation or the department wherein the services of juvenile and adult probation are both performed.

216. This chapter shall not apply:

(a) To any person who violates any law of this state defining a crime, and is at the time of such violation under the age of 18 years, if such person thereafter flees from this state. Any such person may be proceeded against in the manner otherwise provided by law for proceeding against persons accused of crime. Upon the return of such person to this state by extradition or otherwise, proceedings shall be commenced in the manner provided for in this chapter.

(b) To any person who violates any law of another state defining a crime, and is at the time of such violation under the age of 18 years, if such person thereafter flees from that state into this state. Any such person may be proceeded against as an adult in the manner provided in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 1547) of Title 12 of Part 2 of the Penal Code. The magistrate shall, for purposes of detention, detain such person in juvenile hall if space is available. If no space is available in juvenile hall, the magistrate may detain such person in the county jail.

217. The board of supervisors may by ordinance provide that any bicycles or toys, or both, in the possession of the sheriff of any such county which have been unclaimed for a period of at least three months may, instead of being sold at public auction to the highest bidder pursuant to the provisions of Section 2080.5 of the Civil Code, be turned over to the probation officer or to the welfare department of such county for use in any program of activities designed to prevent juvenile delinquency.

218. In any case in which, pursuant to this chapter, the court appoints counsel to represent any person who desires but is unable to employ counsel, counsel shall receive a reasonable sum for compensation and for necessary expenses, the amount of which shall be determined by the court, to be paid out of the general fund of the county.

219. The board of supervisors of a county may provide a ward of the juvenile court engaged in rehabilitative work without pay, under an assignment by order of the juvenile court to a work project in a county department, with workers' compensation benefits for injuries sustained while performing such rehabilitative work, in accordance with Section 3364.55 of the Labor Code.

220. No condition or restriction upon the obtaining of an abortion by a female detained in any local juvenile facility, pursuant to the Therapeutic Abortion Act (Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 25950), Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code), other than those contained in that act, shall be imposed. Females found to be pregnant and desiring abortions, shall be permitted to determine their eligibility for an abortion pursuant to law, and if determined to be eligible, shall be permitted to obtain an abortion.

For the purposes of this section, "local juvenile facility" means any city, county, or regional facility used for the confinement of female juveniles for more than 24 hours.

The rights provided for females by this section shall be posted in at least one conspicuous place to which all females have access.

221. (a) Any female confined in a state or local juvenile facility shall upon her request be allowed to continue to use materials necessary for (1) personal hygiene with regard to her menstrual cycle and reproductive system and (2) birth control measures as prescribed by her physician.

(b) Any female confined in a state or local juvenile facility shall upon her request be furnished by the confining state or local agency with information and education regarding prescription birth control measures.

(c) Family planning services shall be offered to each and every woman inmate at least 60 days prior to a scheduled release date. Upon request any woman inmate shall be furnished by the confining state or local agency with the services of a licensed physician, or she shall be furnished by the confining state or local agency or by any other agency which contracts with the confining state or local agency, with services necessary to meet her family planning needs at the time of her release.

(d) For the purposes of this section, "local juvenile facility" means any city, county, or regional facility used for the confinement of juveniles for more than 24 hours.

222. Any female in the custody of a local juvenile facility shall have the right to summon and receive the services of any physician and surgeon of her choice in order to determine whether she is pregnant. If she is found to be pregnant, she is entitled to a determination of the extent of the medical services needed by her and to the receipt of such services from the physician and surgeon of her choice. Any expenses occasioned by the services of a physician and surgeon whose services are not provided by the facility shall be borne by such female.

For the purpose of this section, "local juvenile facility" means any city, county, or regional facility used for the confinement of juveniles for more than 24 hours.

The rights provided for females by this section shall be posted in at least one conspicuous place to which all female wards have access.

SEC. 2. Article 2 (commencing with Section 225) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 2. Commissions and Committees

225. In each county there shall be a juvenile justice commission consisting of not less than 7 and no more than 15 citizens. Each person serving as a member of a probation committee immediately prior to September 15, 1961, shall be a member of the juvenile justice commission and shall continue to serve as such until such time as his term of appointment as a member of the probation committee would have expired under any prior provision of law. Upon a vacancy occurring in the membership of the commission and upon the expiration of the term of office of any member, a successor shall be appointed by the presiding judge of the superior court with the concurrence of the judge of the juvenile court or, in a county having more than one judge of the juvenile court, with the concurrence of the presiding judge of the juvenile court for a term of four years.

When a vacancy occurs for any reason other than the expiration of a term of office, the appointee to fill such vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

Appointments may be made by the presiding judge of the superior court, in the same manner designated in this section for the filling of vacancies, to increase the membership of a commission to the maximum of 15 in any county which has a commission with a membership of less than 15 members.

In any county in which the membership of the commission, on the effective date of amendments to this section enacted at the 1971 Regular Session of the Legislature, exceeds the maximum number permitted by this section, no additional appointments shall be made until the number of commissioners is less than the maximum number permitted by this section. In any case, such county's commission membership shall, on or after January 1, 1974, be no greater than the maximum permitted by this section.

226. In lieu of county juvenile justice commissions, the boards of supervisors of two or more adjacent counties may agree to establish a regional juvenile justice commission consisting of not less than eight citizens, and having a sufficient number of members so that their appointment may be equally apportioned between the participating counties. The presiding judge of the superior court with the concurrence of the judge of the juvenile court or, in a county having more than one judge of the juvenile court, with the concurrence of the presiding judge of the juvenile court of each of the participating counties shall appoint an equal number of members to the regional justice commission and they shall hold office for a term of four years. Of those first appointed, however, if the number appointed be an even number, half shall serve for a term of two years and half shall serve for a term of four years and if the number of members first appointed be an odd number, the greater number nearest half shall serve for a term of two years and the remainder shall serve for a term of four years. The respective terms of the members first appointed shall be determined by lot as soon as possible after their appointment. Upon a vacancy occurring in the membership of the commission and upon the expiration of the term of office of any member, a successor shall be appointed by the presiding judge of the superior court with the concurrence of the judge of the juvenile court or, in a county having more than one judge of the juvenile court, with the concurrence of the presiding judge of the juvenile court of the county which originally appointed such vacating or retiring member. When a vacancy occurs for any reason other than the expiration of a term of office, the appointee shall hold office for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

227. The clerk of the court of the appointing judge shall immediately notify each person appointed a member of a county or regional juvenile justice commission and thereupon such person shall appear before the appointing judge and qualify by taking an oath faithfully to perform the duties of a member of the juvenile justice commission. The qualification of each member shall be entered in the juvenile court record.

228. A juvenile justice commission shall elect a chairman and vice chairman annually.

229. It shall be the duty of a juvenile justice commission to inquire into the administration of the juvenile court law in the county or region in which the commission serves. For this purpose the commission shall have access to all publicly administered institutions authorized or whose use is authorized by this chapter situated in the county or region, shall inspect such institutions no less frequently than once a year, and may hold hearings. A judge of the juvenile court shall have the power to issue subpoenas requiring attendance and testimony of witnesses and production of papers at hearings of the commission.

A juvenile justice commission shall annually inspect any jail or lockup within the county which in the preceding calendar year was used for confinement for more than 24 hours of any minor. It shall report the results of such inspection together with its recommendations based thereon, in writing, to the juvenile court and to the Youth Authority.

230. A juvenile justice commission may recommend to any person charged with the administration of any of the provisions of this chapter such changes as it has concluded, after investigation, will be beneficial. A commission may publicize its recommendations.

231. Members of a juvenile justice commission shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. Such reimbursement shall be made by the county of appointment or, in lieu of such actual and necessary expenses the board of supervisors may provide that the members of the commission shall be paid not to exceed the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25) per meeting not exceeding two meetings per month. In the case of a regional justice commission, the duty of reimbursement shall be divided among the participating counties in the manner prescribed by agreement of the boards of supervisors.

232. The board of supervisors may by ordinance provide for the establishment, support, and maintenance of one or more agencies or departments to cooperate with and assist in coordinating on a countywide basis the work of those community agencies engaged in activities designed to prevent juvenile and adult delinquency; and such agencies or departments may cooperate with any such public or community committees, agencies, or councils at their invitation.

233. The board of supervisors may by ordinance provide for the establishment, support, and maintenance of a delinquency prevention commission, composed of not fewer than seven citizens, to coordinate on a countywide basis the work of those governmental and nongovernmental organizations engaged in activities designed to prevent juvenile delinquency. If the board so elects, it may designate the juvenile justice commission, or any other committee or council appointed pursuant to Section 232 or 235, to serve in such capacity.

The commission may receive funds from governmental and nongovernmental sources to hire an executive secretary and necessary staff and to defray needed administrative expenses. The board of supervisors may direct any county department to provide necessary staff service to the commission. The commission may expend its funds on specific projects designed to accomplish its objectives.

Members of the delinquency prevention commission shall be appointed by the board of supervisors to serve a term of four years, and they shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. Upon a vacancy occurring in the membership in the commission and upon the expiration in the term of office of any member, a successor shall be appointed by the board of supervisors. When a vacancy occurs for any reason other than the expiration of a term of office, the appointee to fill such vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

The board of supervisors may appoint initial members to any delinquency prevention commission created after the effective date of the amendment made to this section at the 1973–74 Regular Session of the Legislature to hold office for the following terms: one-half of the membership of an even-numbered commission for a term of two years and one-half plus one of the membership of an odd-numbered commission for a term of two years. The remaining initial members and the term of office of each successor appointed to fill a vacancy occurring on the expiration of a term thereafter shall be four years.

For a delinquency prevention commission existing on the effective date of the amendment made to this section at the 1973–74 Regular Session of the Legislature the board of supervisors may at any time upon the expiration of all the members' terms of office appoint members to hold office for the following terms: one-half of the membership of an even-numbered commission for a term of two years and one-half plus one of the membership of an odd-numbered commission for a term of two years. The remaining members and the term of office of each successor appointed to fill a vacancy occurring on the expiration of a term thereafter shall be four years.

Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this section, the board of supervisors may appoint one or more persons under 18 years of age to membership on a delinquency prevention commission. If only one such person is appointed, the term of office of that person shall be two years; if more than one is appointed, no more than one-half shall be appointed to serve for a term of two years, and the other or others shall serve for a term of one year.

234. The board of supervisors may by ordinance provide for the establishment, support, and maintenance of a delinquency prevention agency or department, or may assign delinquency prevention duties to any existing county agency, or department. Any such agency or department may engage in activities designed to prevent juvenile and adult delinquency, including rendering direct and indirect services to persons in the community, and may cooperate with any other agency of government in carrying out its purposes.

235. The juvenile court and the probation department of any county may establish, or assist in the establishment of, any public council or committee having as its object the prevention of juvenile delinquency and may cooperate with, or participate in, the work of any such councils or committees for the purpose of preventing or decreasing juvenile delinquency, including the improving of recreational, health, and other conditions in the community affecting juvenile welfare.

236. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, probation departments may engage in activities designed to prevent juvenile delinquency. These activities include rendering direct and indirect services to persons in the community. Probation departments shall not be limited to providing services only to those persons on probation being supervised under Section 330 or 654, but may provide services to any juveniles in the community.

SEC. 3. Article 3 (commencing with Section 240) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 3. Probation Committee

240. In counties having a population in excess of 2,000,000 in lieu of a county juvenile justice commission, there shall be a probation committee consisting of not less than seven members who shall be appointed by the same authority as that authorized to appoint the probation officer in such county.

241. The members of a probation committee appointed and holding office under prior provisions of law on the effective date of this article, shall continue in office and shall be members of the probation committee created hereby for the same term as that for which they were appointed.

242. The members of the probation committee shall hold office for four years and until their successors are appointed and qualify. Of those first appointed, however, one shall hold office for one year, two for two years, two for three years, and two for four years; and the respective terms of the members first appointed shall be determined by lot as soon as possible after their appointment. When a vacancy occurs in a probation committee by expiration of the term of office of any member thereof, his successor shall be appointed to hold office for the term of four years. When a vacancy occurs for any other reason the appointee shall hold office for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

243. The probation committee shall function in an advisory capacity to the probation officer.

SEC. 4. Article 4 (commencing with Section 245) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 4. The Juvenile Court

245. Each superior court shall exercise the jurisdiction conferred by this chapter, and while sitting in the exercise of such jurisdiction, shall be known and referred to as the juvenile court.

246. In counties having more than one judge of the superior court, the presiding judge of such court or the senior judge if there is no presiding judge shall annually, in the month of January, designate one or more judges of the superior court to hear all cases under this chapter during the ensuing year, and he shall, from time to time, designate such additional judges as may be necessary for the prompt disposition of the judicial business before the juvenile court.

In all counties where more than one judge is designated as a judge of the juvenile court, the presiding judge of the superior court shall also designate one such judge as presiding judge of the juvenile court.

247. The judge of the juvenile court, or in counties having more than one judge of the juvenile court, the presiding judge of the juvenile court or the senior judge if there is no presiding judge, may appoint one or more referees to serve on a full-time or part-time basis. A referee shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing judge, and unless the appointing judge makes his order terminating the appointment of a referee, such referee shall continue to serve as such until the appointment of his successor. Except as otherwise provided by law, the amount and rate of compensation to be paid referees shall be fixed by the board of supervisors. Every referee first appointed on or after September 15, 1961, and prior to the effective date of the amendment of this section enacted at the 1971 Regular Session of the Legislature shall have been admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of this state for at least five years or have had at least five years' experience in probation work at the supervising level or have had a combination of such experience in law, probation work, or any of them aggregating five years. Every referee first appointed on or after the effective date of the amendment of this section enacted at the 1971 Regular Session of the Legislature shall have been admitted to practice law in this state and, in addition, shall have been admitted to practice law in this state for a period of not less than five years or in any other state and this state for a combined period of not less than 10 years. Nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to the qualifications of any referee first appointed prior to September 15, 1961.

248. A referee shall hear such cases as are assigned to him by the presiding judge of the juvenile court, with the same powers as a judge of the juvenile court. A referee shall promptly furnish to the presiding judge of the juvenile court and the minor, if the minor is 14 or more years of age or if younger has so requested, and shall serve upon the minor's attorney of record and the minor's parent or guardian or adult relative and the attorney of record for the minor's parent or guardian or adult relative a written copy of his findings and order and shall also furnish to the minor, if the minor is 14 or more years of age or if younger has so requested, and to the parent or guardian or adult relative, with the findings and order, a written explanation of the right of such persons to seek review of the order by the juvenile court. Service, as provided in this section, shall be by mail to the last known address of such persons or to the address designated by such persons appearing at the hearing before the referee.

249. No order of a referee removing a minor from his home shall become effective until expressly approved by a judge of the juvenile court.

250. Except as provided in Section 251, all orders of a referee other than those specified in Section 249 shall become immediately effective, subject also to the right of review as hereinafter provided, and shall continue in full force and effect until vacated or modified upon rehearing by order of the judge of the juvenile court. In a case in which an order of a referee becomes effective without approval of a judge of the juvenile court, it becomes final on the expiration of the time allowed by Section 252 for application for rehearing, if application therefor is not made within such time and if the judge of the juvenile court has not within such time ordered a rehearing pursuant to Section 253.

251. The judge of the juvenile court, or in counties having more than one judge of the juvenile court, the presiding judge of the juvenile court may establish requirements that any or all orders of referees shall be expressly approved by a judge of the juvenile court before becoming effective.

252. At any time prior to the expiration of 10 days after service of a written copy of the order and findings of a referee, a minor or his parent or guardian may apply to the juvenile court for a rehearing. Such application may be directed to all or to any specified part of the order or findings, and shall contain a statement of the reasons such rehearing is requested. If all of the proceedings before the referee have been taken down by an official reporter, the judge of the juvenile court may, after reading the transcript of such proceedings, grant or deny such application. If proceedings before the referee have not been taken down by an official reporter, such application shall be granted as of right. If an application for rehearing is not granted within 20 days following the date of its receipt, it shall be deemed denied. However, the court, for good cause, may extend such period beyond 20 days, but not in any event beyond 45 days, following the date of receipt of the application, at which time the application for rehearing shall be deemed denied unless it is granted within such period.

253. A judge of the juvenile court may, on his own motion made within 20 judicial days of the hearing before a referee, order a rehearing of any matter heard before a referee.

254. All rehearings of matters heard before a referee shall be before a judge of the juvenile court and shall be conducted de novo.

255. The judge of the juvenile court, or in counties having more than one judge of the juvenile court the presiding judge of the juvenile court or the senior judge if there is no presiding judge, may appoint one or more persons of suitable experience, who may be judges of the municipal court or justices of the justice court or a probation officer or assistant or deputy probation officers, to serve as traffic hearing officers on a full-time or part-time basis. A hearing officer shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing judge, and unless the appointing judge makes his order terminating the appointment of a hearing officer, such hearing officer shall continue to serve as such until the appointment of his successor. The board of supervisors shall determine whether any compensation shall be paid to hearing officers, not otherwise employed by a public agency or holding another public office, and shall establish the amounts and rates thereof. An appointment of a probation officer, assistant probation officer, or deputy probation officer as a traffic hearing officer may be made only with the consent of the probation officer.

256. Subject to the orders of the juvenile court, a traffic hearing officer may hear and dispose of any and all cases wherein a minor under the age of 18 years as of the date of the alleged offense is charged with any violation of the Vehicle Code not declared to be a felony, or a violation of subdivision (m) of Section 602 of the Penal Code, or a violation of the Fish and Game Code not declared to be a felony, or a violation of any of the equipment and registration provisions of the Harbors and Navigation Code, or a violation of any provision of an ordinance of a city or county relating to traffic offenses or a violation of Section 126 or 27176 of the Streets and Highways Code.

257. With the consent of the minor, a hearing before a traffic hearing officer or a hearing before a referee or a judge of the juvenile court wherein such minor is charged with such traffic offense may be conducted upon an exact legible copy of a written notice given pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 40500) of Chapter 2 of Division 17 or Section 41103 of the Vehicle Code, or an exact legible copy of a written notice given pursuant to Chapter 5C (commencing with Section 853.6) of Title 3 of Part 2 of the Penal Code when the offense charged is either a violation of the Fish and Game Code not declared to be a felony or a violation of subdivision (m) of Section 602 of the Penal Code, in lieu of a petition as provided in Article 16 (commencing with Section 650) of this chapter.

258. (a) Upon a hearing conducted in accordance with Section 257, upon an admission by the minor of the commission of a traffic violation charged, or upon a finding that the minor did in fact commit such traffic violation, the judge, referee, or traffic hearing officer may do any of the following:

(1) Reprimand the minor and take no further action;

(2) Direct the probation officer to file a petition as provided for in Article 8 (commencing with Section 325) of this chapter; or

(3) Make any or all of the following orders:

(i) That the driving privileges of the minor be suspended or restricted as provided in the Vehicle Code or, notwithstanding Section 13203 of the Vehicle Code or any other provision of law, when the Vehicle Code does not provide for the suspension or restriction of driving privileges, that, in addition to any other order, the driving privileges of the minor be suspended or restricted for a period of not to exceed 30 days.

(ii) That the minor attend traffic school over a period not to exceed 60 days.

(iii) That the minor pay to the general fund of the county a sum, not to exceed fifty dollars ($50), and to the Driver Training Penalty Assessment Fund a penalty assessment in the amount provided in Section 42050 of the Vehicle Code for offenses not relating to parking or registration or offenses by pedestrians. Any judge, referee, or traffic hearing officer may waive a penalty assessment if the amount the minor is ordered to pay to the general fund of the county is less than ten dollars ($10).

(iv) That the probation officer undertake a program of supervision of the minor for a period not to exceed six months.

(v) That the minor produce satisfactory evidence that the vehicle or its equipment has been made to conform with the requirements of the Vehicle Code pursuant to Section 40150 of the Vehicle Code.

(vi) That the minor work in a city park or recreational facility or county or regional park for not to exceed 25 hours over a period not to exceed 30 days, during times other than his hours of school attendance or employment. When the order to work is made by a referee or a traffic hearing officer, it shall be approved by a judge of the juvenile court.

(b) The judge, referee, or traffic hearing officer shall retain jurisdiction of the case until all orders made under this section have been fully complied with.

259. Upon a hearing conducted in accordance with Section 257, upon admission by the minor of the commission of a violation of the Fish and Game Code charged, or upon a finding that the minor did in fact commit such violation of the Fish and Game Code, the judge, referee, or traffic hearing officer may

(a) Reprimand the minor and take no further action, or

(b) Direct the probation officer to file a petition as provided for in Article 16 (commencing with Section 650) of this chapter, or

(c) Make any or all of the following orders:

(1) That the fish and game license involved be suspended or restricted,

(2) That the minor pay to the general fund of the county a sum, not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25),

(3) That the minor work in a park or conservation area for a total of not to exceed eight hours over a period not to exceed 30 days, during times other than his hours of school attendance or employment.

The judge, referee, or traffic hearing officer shall retain jurisdiction of the case until all orders made under this section have been fully complied with.

260. A traffic hearing officer shall promptly furnish a written report of his findings and orders to the clerk of the juvenile court. The clerk of the juvenile court shall promptly transmit an abstract of such findings and orders to the Department of Motor Vehicles.

261. Subject to the provisions of Section 262, all orders of a traffic hearing officer shall be immediately effective.

262. Upon motion of the minor or his parent or guardian for good cause, or upon his own motion, a judge of the juvenile court may set aside or modify any order of a traffic hearing officer, or may order or himself conduct a rehearing. If the minor or parent or guardian has made a motion that the judge set aside or modify the order or has applied for a rehearing, and the judge has not set aside or modified the order or ordered or conducted a rehearing within 10 days after the date of the order, the motion or application shall be deemed denied as of the expiration of such period.

263. At any time prior to the final disposition of a hearing pursuant to Section 257, the judge, referee, or traffic hearing officer may, on motion of the minor, his parent, or guardian, or on its own motion, transfer the case to the county of the minor's residence for further proceedings pursuant to Sections 258, 260, 261, and 262.

264. At the direction and under the supervision of the Judicial Council, judges of the juvenile courts and juvenile court referees shall meet from time to time in statewide or regional conferences, to discuss problems arising in the course of administration of this chapter, for the purpose of improving the administration of justice in the juvenile courts. Actual and necessary expenses incurred by a judge or referee in attending any such conference shall be a charge upon the county.

265. The Judicial Council shall establish rules governing practice and procedure in the juvenile court not inconsistent with law.

SEC. 5. Article 5 (commencing with Section 270) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 5. Probation Officers

270. There shall be in each county the offices of probation officer, assistant probation officer, and deputy probation officer. A probation officer shall be appointed in every county.

Probation officers in any county shall be nominated by the juvenile justice commission or regional juvenile justice commission of such county in such manner as the judge of the juvenile court in that county shall direct, and shall then be appointed by such judge.

The probation officer may appoint as many deputies or assistant probation officers as he desires; but such deputies or assistant probation officers shall not have authority to act until their appointments have been approved by a majority vote of the members of the juvenile justice commission, and by the judge of the juvenile court. The term of office of each such deputy or assistant probation officer shall expire with the term of the probation officer who appointed him, but the probation officer, with the written approval of the majority of the members of the juvenile justice commission and of the judge of the juvenile court, may, in his discretion, revoke and terminate any such appointment at any time.

Probation officers may at any time be removed by the judge of the juvenile court for good cause shown; and the judge of the juvenile court may in his discretion at any time remove any such probation officer with the written approval of a majority of the members of the juvenile justice commission.

271. In counties having charters which provide a method of appointment and tenure of office for probation officers, assistant probation officers, deputy probation officers, and the superintendent, matron, and other employees of the juvenile hall, such charter provisions shall control as to such matters, and in counties which have established or hereafter establish merit or civil service systems governing the methods of, appointment and the tenure of office of, probation officers, assistant probation officers, deputy probation officers, and of the superintendents, matrons and other employees of the juvenile hall, the provisions of such merit or civil service systems shall control as to such matters; but in all other counties, such matters shall be controlled exclusively by the provisions of this code.

272. The board of supervisors may delegate to the county welfare department all or part of the duties of the probation officer, including those specified by Section 306, concerning dependent children described in Section 300.

273. The probation officer may, within budgetary limitations established by the board of supervisors, employ such psychiatrists, psychologists, and other clinical experts as are required to assist in determining appropriate treatment of minors within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court and in the implementation of such treatment.

274. Each probation officer and each assistant and deputy probation officer receiving an official salary shall furnish a bond in the sum of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000) and approved by the judge of the juvenile court, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office. If such bonds, or any of them, are furnished by a surety company licensed to transact business in the state, the premium thereon shall be paid out of the county treasury. In the event the probation officer, assistants and deputies are included as covered employees in a master bond pursuant to Sections 1481 and 1481.1 of the Government Code, the individual bonds prescribed above shall not be required.

275. For the purpose of handling the reimbursement and other payments provided for in this chapter, the probation officer or other county officer designated by the board of supervisors of the county shall keep suitable books and accounts and shall give and keep suitable receipts and vouchers. The auditor of the county shall audit such books and accounts annually, or at least biennially if so ordered by the board of supervisors upon the recommendation of the county auditor, on a fiscal year basis ending June 30 and shall make a report thereon to the judge of the court and to the supervisors of the county prior to the 31st day of the next succeeding month of January.

276. In addition to the powers and duties of the probation officer elsewhere prescribed in this chapter, he is authorized to receive money, give his receipt therefor, deposit or invest such money as soon as practicable in the county treasury, in a commercial bank account designated and approved for such a purpose by the board of supervisors, or in investment certificates or share accounts issued by a savings and loan association doing business in this state, insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation and designated and approved for such purpose by the board of supervisors, and direct the disbursement thereof, in any of the following instances:

(a) Money payable to spouse or child in an action for divorce, separate maintenance, or similar action, together with court costs and attorney's fees, upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction. Instead of designating the probation officer to act as court trustee for the receipt and disbursement of money payable to a spouse or child under this subdivision, the court may designate in its order a bonded employee of the court to act as court trustee for that purpose.

(b) Money payable to or on behalf of a ward or dependent child of the juvenile court or a person concerning whom a petition has been filed in the juvenile court. The probation officer may petition the court for approval of any past or prospective disbursement.

(c) Money payable to, by, or on behalf of probationers under the supervision of the probation officer. The probation officer may petition the court for approval of any past or prospective disbursement.

(d) Money payable to a child, wife, or indigent parent when it has been alleged or claimed that there has been a violation of either Section 270, 270a, or 270c of the Penal Code and the matter has been referred to the probation officer by the district attorney.

(e) Gifts of money made to the county to assist in the prevention or correction of delinquency or crime when the donor requests the probation officer to disburse such funds for such purposes and the board of supervisors accepts the gift upon such conditions.

(f) Other similar cases.

In addition to the foregoing, the probation officer is authorized to receive money payable to the county when ordered to do so by a court of competent jurisdiction. Such money shall be deposited or invested in the same manner as the other items set forth in this section.

If a bank account or savings and loan association investment certificate or share account is authorized pursuant to this section, the probation officer must pay into the county treasury all money collected by him or under his control during the preceding month that is payable into the treasury in conformity with Section 24353 of the Government Code.

277. The probation officer may authorize the sale of articles of handiwork made by wards under the jurisdiction of the probation officer to the public at probation institutions, in public buildings, at fairs, or on property operated by nonprofit associations. The cost of any county materials or other property consumed in the manufacture of articles shall be paid for out of funds received from the sale of the articles. The remainder of any funds received from the sale of the articles shall be placed in the ward's trust account pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 276.

278. The board of supervisors may delegate to the auditor or other county officer any of the functions of the probation officer authorized by Section 276 and required by Sections 1685 to 1687, inclusive, of the Code of Civil Procedure.

279. The board of supervisors may impose a service charge at a uniform rate sufficient to defray the cost of services of the probation officer or other officer designated to act as trustee, not exceeding 2 percent of the amount collected, in addition to the payments made under subdivision (a), (c), (d), or (f) of Section 276.

The service charge imposed in relation to payments under subdivision (c) of Section 276 shall be imposed only for payments made by probationers, and the service charge imposed in relation to payments made under subdivision (f) of Section 276 shall be imposed only for cases similar to those listed in subdivision (a), (c), or (d) of that section.

When the payments are ordered by the court, the payment of the service charge shall be included in the order. All proceeds shall be deposited in the general fund of the county.

280. Except where waived by the probation officer, judge or referee and the minor, the probation officer shall be present in court to represent the interests of each person who is the subject of a petition to declare such person to be a ward or dependent child upon all hearings or rehearings of his case, and shall furnish to the court such information and assistance as the court may require. If so ordered, he shall take charge of such person before and after any hearing or rehearing.

It shall be the duty of the probation officer to prepare for every hearing on the disposition of a case as provided by Section 356 or 702 a social study of the minor, containing such matters as may be relevant to a proper disposition of the case. Such social study shall include a recommendation for the disposition of the case.

281. The probation officer shall upon order of any court in any matter involving the custody, status, or welfare of a minor or minors, make an investigation of appropriate facts and circumstances and prepare and file with the court written reports and written recommendations in reference to such matters. The court is authorized to receive and consider the reports and recommendations of the probation officer in determining any such matter.

282. At any time the judge of the juvenile court may, and upon the request of the county board of supervisors shall, require the probation officer to examine into and report to the court upon the qualifications and management of any society, association, or corporation, other than a state institution, which applies for or receives custody of any ward or dependent child of the juvenile court. No probation officer, however, shall, under authority of this section, enter any institution without its consent. If such consent is refused, commitments to that institution shall not be made.

283. Every probation officer, assistant probation officer, and deputy probation officer shall have the powers and authority conferred by law upon peace officers listed in Section 830.5 of the Penal Code.

284. All probation officers shall make such special and periodic reports to the Youth Authority as the authority may require and upon forms furnished by the authority.

285. All probation officers shall make such periodic reports to the Bureau of Criminal Statistics as the bureau may require and upon forms furnished by the bureau.

286. Any person lawfully appointed to serve as a probation officer or assistant or deputy probation officer prior to the effective date of this section shall continue in his office or employment as if appointed in the manner prescribed by this article.

SEC. 6. Article 6 (commencing with Section 300) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 6. Dependent Children—Jurisdiction

300. Any person under the age of 18 years who comes within any of the following descriptions is within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court which may adjudge such person to be a dependent child of the court:

(a) Who is in need of proper and effective parental care or control and has no parent or guardian, or has no parent or guardian willing to exercise or capable of exercising such care or control, or has no parent or guardian actually exercising such care or control.

(b) Who is destitute, or who is not provided with the necessities of life, or who is not provided with a home or suitable place of abode.

(c) Who is physically dangerous to the public because of a mental or physical deficiency, disorder or abnormality.

(d) Whose home is an unfit place for him by reason of neglect, cruelty, depravity, or physical abuse of either of his parents, or of his guardian or other person in whose custody or care he is.

301. The court may retain jurisdiction over any person who is found to be a dependent child of the juvenile court until such ward or dependent child attains the age of 21 years.

SEC. 7. Article 7 (commencing with Section 305) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 7. Dependent Children—Temporary Custody and Detention

305. A peace officer may, without a warrant, take into temporary custody a minor:

(a) Who is under the age of 18 years when such officer has reasonable cause for believing that such minor is a person described in Section 300.

(b) Who is a dependent child of the juvenile court or concerning whom an order has been made under Section 320 or 356 when such officer has reasonable cause for believing that person has violated an order of the juvenile court or has escaped from any commitment ordered by the juvenile court, or

(c) Who is under the age of 18 years and who is found in any street or public place suffering from any sickness or injury which requires care, medical treatment, hospitalization, or other remedial care.

306. Any social worker in a county welfare department, while acting within the scope of his regular duties under the direction of the probation department or juvenile court and pursuant to Section 272, may do the following:

(a) Receive and maintain, pending court hearing, temporary custody of a minor under 18 who is described in Section 300, and who has been delivered by the probation officer.

(b) Take into temporary custody and maintain temporary custody of, without a warrant, a minor under 18 who has been declared a dependent child of the juvenile court under Section 300, and is in need of such care.

307. An officer who takes a minor into temporary custody under the provisions of Section 305 shall thereafter proceed as follows:

(a) He may release such minor; or

(b) He may prepare in duplicate a written notice to appear before the probation officer of the county in which such minor was taken into custody at a time and place specified in the notice. The notice shall also contain a concise statement of the reasons such minor was taken into custody. He shall deliver one copy of the notice to such minor or to a parent, guardian, or responsible relative of such minor and may require such minor or his parent, guardian, or relative, or both, to sign a written promise that either or both will appear at the time and place designated in the notice. Upon the execution of the promise to appear, he shall immediately release such minor. He shall, as soon as practicable, file one copy of the notice with the probation officer; or

(c) He may take such minor without unnecessary delay before the probation officer of the county in which such person was taken into custody, or in which such person resides, or in which the acts take place or the circumstances exist which are alleged to bring the minor within the provisions of Section 300, and deliver the custody of such minor to the probation officer.

In determining which disposition of the minor he will make, the officer shall prefer the alternative which least restricts the minor's freedom of movement, provided such alternative is compatible with the best interests of the minor and the community.

308. (a) When an officer takes a minor before a probation officer at a juvenile hall or to any other place of confinement pursuant to this article, he shall take immediate steps to notify the minor's parent, guardian, or a responsible relative that such minor is in custody and the place where he is being held.

(b) Immediately after being taken to a place of confinement pursuant to this article and, except where physically impossible, no later than three hours after he has been taken into custody, the minor has the right to make at least two telephone calls from the place where he is being held, one call completed to his parent or guardian, a responsible relative, or his employer, and another call completed to an attorney. The calls shall be at his own expense and in the presence of a public officer or employee. Any public officer or employee who willfully deprives a minor taken into custody of his right to make such telephone calls is guilty of a misdemeanor.

309. (a) Upon delivery to the probation officer of a minor who has been taken into temporary custody under the provisions of this article, the probation officer shall immediately investigate the circumstances of the minor and the facts surrounding his being taken into custody and shall immediately release such minor to the custody of his parent, guardian, or responsible relative unless one or more of the following conditions exist:

(1) The minor is in need of proper and effective parental care or control and has no parent, guardian, or responsible relative; or has no parent, guardian, or responsible relative willing to exercise or capable of exercising such care or control; or has no parent, guardian, or responsible relative actually exercising such care or control.

(2) The minor is destitute or is not provided with the necessities of life or is not provided with a home or suitable place of abode.

(3) The minor is provided with a home which is an unfit place for him by reason of neglect, cruelty, depravity or physical abuse of either of his parents, or of his guardian or other person in whose custody or care he is.

(4) Continued detention of the minor is a matter of immediate and urgent necessity for the protection of the minor or the person or property of another.

(5) The minor is likely to flee the jurisdiction of the court.

(6) The minor has violated an order of the juvenile court.

(7) The minor is physically dangerous to the public because of a mental or physical deficiency, disorder or abnormality.

(b) In any case in which there is reasonable cause for believing that a minor who is under the care of a physician or surgeon or a hospital, clinic, or other medical facility and cannot be immediately moved is a person described in subdivision (d) of Section 300, the minor shall be deemed to have been taken into temporary custody and delivered to the probation officer for the purposes of this chapter while he is at the office of the physician or surgeon or such medical facility.

310. As a condition for the release of such minor, the probation officer may require such minor or his parent, guardian, or relative, or both, to sign a written promise that either or both of them will appear before the probation officer at the juvenile hall or other suitable place designated by the probation officer at a specified time.

311. (a) If the probation officer determines that the minor shall be retained in custody, he shall immediately file a petition pursuant to Section 332 with the clerk of the juvenile court who shall set the matter for hearing on the detention hearing calendar. The probation officer shall thereupon notify each parent or each guardian of the minor of the time and place of such hearing if the whereabouts of each parent or guardian can be ascertained by due diligence, and the probation officer shall serve those persons entitled to notice of the hearing under the provisions of Section 335 with a copy of the petition and notify such persons of the time and place of the detention hearing. Such notice may be given orally.

(b) In such hearing the minor has a privilege against self-incrimination and has a right to confrontation by, and cross-examination of, any person examined by the court as provided in Section 319.

312. Upon reasonable notification by counsel representing the minor, his parents or guardian, the clerk of the court shall notify such counsel of the hearings in the manner provided for notice to the parent or guardian of the minor under this chapter.

313. (a) Whenever a minor is taken into custody by a peace officer or probation officer, except when such minor willfully misrepresents himself as 18 or more years of age, such minor shall be released within 48 hours after having been taken into custody, excluding nonjudicial days, unless within said period of time a petition to declare him a dependent child has been filed pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

(b) Whenever a minor who has been held in custody for more than six hours by the probation officer is subsequently released and no petition is filed, the probation officer shall prepare a written explanation of why the minor was held in custody for more than six hours. The written explanation shall be prepared within 72 hours after the minor is released from custody and filed in the record of the case. A copy of the written explanation shall be sent to the parents, guardian, or other person having care or custody of the minor.

314. When a minor willfully misrepresents himself to be 18 or more years of age when taken into custody by a peace officer or probation officer, and this misrepresentation effects a material delay in investigation which prevents the filing of a petition pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, such petition or complaint shall be filed within 48 hours from the time his true age is determined, excluding nonjudicial days. If, in such cases, the petition is not filed within the time prescribed by this section, the minor shall be immediately released from custody.

315. Unless sooner released, a minor taken into custody under the provisions of this article shall be brought before a judge or referee of the juvenile court for a hearing (which shall be referred to as a "detention hearing") to determine whether the minor shall be further detained, as soon as possible but in any event before the expiration of the next judicial day after a petition to declare such minor a ward or dependent child has been filed. If the minor is not brought before a judge or referee of the juvenile court within the period prescribed by this section, he shall be released from custody.

316. Upon his appearance before the court at the detention hearing, such minor and his parent or guardian, if present, shall first be informed of the reasons why the minor was taken into custody, the nature of the juvenile court proceedings, and the right of such minor and his parent or guardian to be represented at every stage of the proceedings by counsel.

317. When it appears to the court that the minor or his parent or guardian desires counsel but is unable to afford and cannot for that reason employ counsel, the court may appoint counsel. In any case in which it appears to the court that there is such a conflict of interest between a parent or guardian and child that one attorney could not properly represent both, the court shall appoint counsel, in addition to counsel already employed by a parent or guardian or appointed by the court to represent the minor or parent or guardian. In a county where there is no public defender the court may fix the compensation to be paid by the county for service of such appointed counsel.

318. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 317, when a minor who is alleged to be a person described in subdivision (d) of Section 300 appears before the juvenile court at a detention hearing, the court shall appoint counsel. The court may appoint the district attorney to represent the minor pursuant to Section 351.

(b) The counsel appointed by the court shall represent the minor at the detention hearing and at all subsequent proceedings before the juvenile court.

(c) Any counsel upon entering an appearance on behalf of a minor shall continue to represent that minor unless relieved by the court upon the substitution of other counsel or for cause.

319. The court will examine such minor, his parent, guardian, or other person having relevant knowledge, hear such relevant evidence as the minor, his parent or guardian or their counsel desires to present, and, unless it appears that such minor has violated an order of the juvenile court or has escaped from the commitment of the juvenile court or that it is a matter of immediate and urgent necessity for the protection of such minor or the person or property of another that he be detained or that such minor is likely to flee the jurisdiction of the court, the court shall make its order releasing such minor from custody.

320. If it appears upon the hearing that such minor has violated an order of the juvenile court or has escaped from a commitment of the juvenile court or that it is a matter of immediate and urgent necessity for the protection of such minor or the person or property of another that he be detained or that such minor is likely to flee the jurisdiction of the court, the court may make its order that such minor be detained in the juvenile hall or other suitable place designated by the juvenile court for a period not to exceed 15 judicial days and shall enter said order together with its findings of fact in support thereof in the records of the court.

321. When a hearing is held under the provisions of this article and no parent or guardian of such minor is present and no parent or guardian has had actual notice of the hearing, a parent or guardian of such minor may file his affidavit setting forth such facts with the clerk of the juvenile court and the clerk shall immediately set the matter for rehearing at a time within 24 hours, excluding Sundays and nonjudicial days from the filing of the affidavit. Upon the rehearing, the court shall proceed in the same manner as upon the original hearing.

If the minor or, if the minor is represented by an attorney, the minor's attorney, requests evidence of the prima facie case, a rehearing shall be held within three judicial days to consider evidence of the prima facie case. If the prima facie case is not established, the minor shall be released from detention.

When the court ascertains that the rehearing cannot be held within three judicial days because of the unavailability of a witness, a reasonable continuance may be granted for a period not to exceed five judicial days.

322. Upon motion of the minor or a parent or guardian of such minor, the court shall continue any hearing or rehearing held under the provisions of this article for one day, excluding Sundays and nonjudicial days.

323. Upon any hearing or rehearing under the provisions of this article, the court may order such minor or any parent or guardian of such minor who is present in court to again appear before the court or the probation officer at a time and place specified in said order.

324. Whenever any minor is taken into temporary custody under the provisions of this article in any county other than the county in which the minor is alleged to be within or to come within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court, which county is referred to herein as the requesting county, the officer who has taken the minor into temporary custody may notify the law enforcement agency in the requesting county of the fact that the minor is in custody. When a law enforcement officer, of such requesting county files a petition pursuant to Section 332 with the clerk of the juvenile court of his respective county and secures a warrant therefrom, he shall forward said warrant, or a telegraphic copy thereof to the officer who has the minor in temporary custody as soon as possible within 48 hours, excluding Sundays and nonjudicial days, from the time said juvenile was taken into temporary custody. Thereafter an officer from said requesting county shall take custody of the minor within five days, in the county in which the minor is in temporary custody, and shall take the minor before the juvenile court judge who issued the warrant, or before some other juvenile court of the same county without unnecessary delay. If the minor is not brought before a judge of the juvenile court within the period prescribed by this section, he must be released from custody.

SEC. 8. Article 8 (commencing with Section 325) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 8. Dependent Children—Commencement of Proceedings

325. A proceeding in the juvenile court to declare a minor a dependent child of the court is commenced by the filing with the court, by the probation officer, of a petition, in conformity with the requirements of this article.

326. For the purposes of Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act grants to states (Public Law 93-247), in all cases in which there is filed a petition based upon alleged neglect or abuse of the minor, or in which a prosecution is initiated under the Penal Code arising from neglect or abuse of the minor, the probation officer or a social worker who files a petition under this chapter shall be the guardian ad litem to represent the interests of the minor in proceedings under this chapter, unless the court shall appoint another adult as guardian ad litem. No bond shall be required from any guardian ad litem acting under this section.

327. Either the juvenile court in the county in which a minor resides or in the county where the minor is found or in the county in which the acts take place or the circumstances exist which are alleged to bring such minor within the provisions of Section 300, is the proper court to commence proceedings under this chapter.

328. Whenever the probation officer has cause to believe that there was or is within the county, or residing therein, a person within the provisions of Section 300, the probation officer shall immediately make such investigation as he deems necessary to determine whether proceedings in the juvenile court should be commenced.

329. Whenever any person applies to the probation officer to commence proceedings in the juvenile court, such application shall be in the form of an affidavit alleging that there was or is within the county, or residing therein, a minor within the provisions of Section 300, and setting forth facts in support thereof. The probation officer shall immediately make such investigation as he deems necessary to determine whether proceedings in the juvenile court should be commenced. If the probation officer does not take action under Section 330 and does not file a petition in the juvenile court within three weeks after such application, he shall endorse upon the affidavit of applicant his decision not to proceed further and his reasons therefor and shall immediately notify the applicant of the action taken or the decision rendered by him under this section. The probation officer shall retain the affidavit and his endorsement thereon for a period of 30 days after such notice to applicant.

330. In any case in which a probation officer, after investigation of an application for petition or other investigation he is authorized to make, concludes that a minor is within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court or will probably soon be within such jurisdiction, he may, in lieu of filing a petition or subsequent to dismissal of a petition already filed, and with consent of the minor's parent or guardian, undertake a program of supervision of the minor, for not to exceed six months, and attempt thereby to adjust the situation which brings the minor within the jurisdiction of the court or creates the probability that he will soon be within such jurisdiction. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the probation officer from filing a petition at any time within said six-month period.

The program of supervision of the minor undertaken pursuant to this section may call for the minor to obtain care and treatment for the misuse of restricted dangerous drugs or addiction to narcotics from a county mental health service or other appropriate community agency.

331. When any person has applied to the probation officer, pursuant to Section 329, to commence juvenile court proceedings and the probation officer fails to file a petition within three weeks after such application, such person may, within one month after making such application, apply to the juvenile court to review the decision of the probation officer, and the court may either affirm the decision of the probation officer or order him to commence juvenile court proceedings.

332. A petition to commence proceedings in the juvenile court to declare a minor a ward or a dependent child of the court shall be verified and must contain:

(a) The name of the court to which the same is addressed.

(b) The title of the proceeding.

(c) The code section or sections and subdivision or subdivisions under which the proceedings are instituted.

(d) The name, age, and address, if any, of the minor upon whose behalf the petition is brought.

(e) The name or names and residence address, if known to petitioner, of all parents and guardians of such minor. If there is no parent or guardian residing within the state, or if his place of residence is not known to petitioner, the petition must also contain the name and residence address, if known, of any adult relative residing within the county, or, if there be none, the adult relative residing nearest to the location of the court.

(f) A concise statement of facts, separately stated, to support the conclusion that the minor upon whose behalf the petition is being brought is a person within the definition of each of the sections and subdivisions under which the proceedings are being instituted.

(g) The fact that the minor upon whose behalf the petition is brought is detained in custody or is not detained in custody, and if he is detained in custody, the date and the precise time the minor was taken into custody.

333. Any petition filed in juvenile court to commence proceedings pursuant to this chapter that is not verified may be dismissed without prejudice by such court.

334. Upon the filing of the petition, the clerk of the juvenile court shall set the same for hearing within 30 days, except that in the case of a minor detained in custody at the time of the filing of the petition, the petition must be set for hearing within 15 judicial days from the date of the order of the court directing such detention.

335. Upon the filing of the petition, the clerk of the juvenile court shall issue a notice, to which shall be attached a copy of the petition, and he shall cause the same to be served upon the minor, if the minor is 14 or more years of age, and upon each of the persons described in subdivision (e) of Section 332 whose residence addresses are set forth in said petition and thereafter before the hearing upon all such persons whose residence addresses become known to the clerk. The clerk shall issue a copy of the petition to the attorney for the minor's parent or guardian and to the district attorney, if the district attorney has notified the clerk of the court that he wishes to receive such petition, containing the time, date, and place of the hearing.

336. The notice shall contain:

(a) The name and address of the person to whom the notice is directed.

(b) The date, time, and place of the hearing on the petition.

(c) The name of the minor upon whose behalf the petition has been brought.

(d) Each section and subdivision under which the proceeding has been instituted.

(e) A statement that the minor and his parent or guardian or adult relative, as the case may be, to whom notice is required to be given, are entitled to have an attorney present at the hearing on the petition, and that, if the parent or guardian or such adult relative is indigent and cannot afford an attorney, and the minor or his parent or guardian or such adult relative desires to be represented by an attorney, such parent or guardian or adult relative shall promptly notify the clerk of the juvenile court.

337. (a) If the minor is detained the clerk of the juvenile court shall cause the notice and copy of the petition to be served on all persons required to receive such notice and copy of the petition, either personally or by certified mail with request for return receipt, as soon as possible after filing of the petition and at least five days prior to the time set for hearing, unless such hearing is set less than five days from the filing of the petition, in which case, such notice and copy of the petition must be served at least 24 hours prior to the time set for hearing.

(b) If the minor is not detained the clerk of the juvenile court shall cause the notice and copy of the petition to be served on all persons required to receive such notice and copy of the petition, either personally, by certified mail with request for return receipt, or by first-class mail, at least 10 days prior to the time set for hearing. If such person is known to reside outside of the county, the clerk of the juvenile court shall mail the notice and copy of the petition, by certified mail with request for return receipt or by first-class mail, to such person, as soon as possible after filing of the petition and at least 10 days before the time set for hearing. Failure to respond to the notice by certified mail with request for return receipt or by first-class mail shall in no way result in arrest or detention. In the instance of failure to appear after notice by certified or first-class mail, the court shall direct that the notice and copy of the petition is to be personally served on all persons required to receive such notice and copy of the petition. Personal service of the notice and copy of the petition outside of the county at least 10 days before the time set for hearing is equivalent to such service by certified or first-class mail. Service may be waived by any person by a voluntary appearance entered in the minutes of the court or by a written waiver of service filed with the clerk of the court at or prior to the hearing.

338. In addition to the notice provided in Sections 335 and 336 the juvenile court may issue its citation directing any parent or guardian of the person concerning whom a petition has been filed to appear at the time and place set for any hearing under the provisions of this chapter, including a hearing under the provisions of Section 257, and directing any person having custody or control of the minor concerning whom the petition has been filed to bring such minor with him. The notice shall in addition state that a parent or guardian may be required to participate in a counseling program with the minor concerning whom the petition has been filed. Personal service of such citation shall be made at least 24 hours before the time stated therein for such appearance.

339. In case such citation cannot be served, or the person served fails to obey it, or in any case in which it appears to the court that the citation will probably be ineffective, a warrant of arrest may issue on the order of the court either against the parent, or guardian, or the person having the custody of the minor, or with whom the minor is living.

340. Whenever a petition has been filed in the juvenile court alleging that a minor comes within the provisions of Section 300 and praying for a hearing thereon, or whenever any subsequent petition has been filed praying for a hearing in the matter of said minor and it appears to the court that the conduct and behavior of the said minor may endanger the health, person, welfare, or property of himself or others, or that the circumstances of his home environment may endanger the health, person, welfare or property of said minor, a warrant of arrest may be issued immediately for the minor.

341. Upon request of the probation officer, district attorney, the minor or the minor's parent, guardian, or custodian, the court or the clerk of the court shall issue, and, on the court's own motion, it may issue subpoenas requiring attendance and testimony of witnesses and production of papers at any hearing under the provisions of this chapter. When a person attends a juvenile court hearing as a witness upon a subpoena at its discretion, the court may by an order on its minutes, direct the county auditor to draw his warrant upon the county treasurer in favor of such witness for witness fees in the amount and manner prescribed by Section 68093 of the Government Code. The fees are county charges.

SEC. 9. Article 9 (commencing with Section 345) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 9. Dependent Children—Hearings

345. All cases under the provisions of this chapter shall be heard at a special or separate session of the court, and no other matter shall be heard at such session. No person on trial, awaiting trial, or under accusation of crime, other than a parent, guardian, or relative of the minor, shall be permitted to be present at any such session, except as a witness.

Cases in which the minor is detained and the sole allegation is that the minor is a person described in Section 300 shall be granted precedence on the calendar of the court for the day on which the case is set for hearing.

346. Unless requested by the minor concerning whom the petition has been filed and any parent or guardian present, the public shall not be admitted to a juvenile court hearing. The judge or referee may nevertheless admit such persons as he deems to have a direct and legitimate interest in the particular case or the work of the court.

347. At any juvenile court hearing conducted by a juvenile court judge, an official court reporter shall, and at any such hearing conducted by a juvenile court referee, the official reporter, as directed by the court, may take down in shorthand all the testimony and all of the statements and remarks of the judge and all persons appearing at the hearing; and, if directed by the judge, or requested by the person on whose behalf the petition was brought, or by his parent or legal guardian, or the attorneys of such persons, he must, within such reasonable time after the hearing of the petition as the court may designate, write out the same or such specific portions thereof as may be requested in plain and legible longhand or by typewriter or other printing machine and certify to the same as being correctly reported and transcribed, and when directed by the court, file the same with the clerk of the court. Unless otherwise directed by the judge, the costs of writing out and transcribing all or any portion of the reporter's shorthand notes shall be paid in advance at the rates fixed for transcriptions in a civil action by the person requesting the same.

348. The provisions of Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 469) of Title 6 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to variance and amendment of pleadings in civil actions shall apply to petitions and proceedings under this chapter, to the same extent and with the same effect as if proceedings under this chapter were civil actions.

349. A minor who is the subject of a juvenile court hearing and any person entitled to notice of the hearing under the provisions of Section 335, is entitled to be present at such hearing. Any such minor and any such person has the right to be represented at such hearing by counsel of his own choice.

350. The judge of the juvenile court shall control all proceedings during the hearings with a view to the expeditious and effective ascertainment of the jurisdictional facts and the ascertainment of all information relative to the present condition and future welfare of the person upon whose behalf the petition is brought. Except where there is a contested issue of fact or law, the proceedings shall be conducted in an informal nonadversary atmosphere with a view to obtaining the maximum cooperation of the minor upon whose behalf the petition is brought and all persons interested in his welfare with such provisions as the court may make for the disposition and care of such minor.

351. In a juvenile court hearing, where the minor who is the subject of the hearing is represented by counsel, the district attorney shall, with the consent or at the request of the juvenile court judge, appear and participate in the hearing to assist in the ascertaining and presenting of the evidence. Where the petition in a juvenile court proceeding alleges that a minor is a person described in subdivision (a), (b), or (d) of Section 300, and either of the parents, or the guardian, or other person having care or custody of the minor, or who resides in the home of the minor, is charged in a pending criminal prosecution based upon unlawful acts committed against the minor, the district attorney shall, with the consent or at the request of the juvenile court judge, represent the minor in the interest of the state at the juvenile court proceeding. The terms and conditions of such representation shall be with the consent or approval of the judge of the juvenile court.

352. (a) Upon request of counsel for the minor, the court may continue any hearing under this chapter beyond the time limit within which the hearing is otherwise required to be held.

(b) In any case in which the minor is represented by counsel and no objection is made to an order continuing any such hearing beyond the time limit within which the hearing is otherwise required to be held, the absence of such an objection shall be deemed a consent to the continuance.

353. At the beginning of the hearing on a petition filed pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 325) of this chapter, the judge or clerk shall first read the petition to those present and upon request of the minor upon whose behalf the petition has been brought or upon the request of any parent, relative or guardian, the judge shall explain any term of allegation contained therein and the nature of the hearing, its procedures, and possible consequences. The judge shall ascertain whether the minor and his parent or guardian or adult relative, as the case may be, has been informed of the right of the minor to be represented by counsel, and if not, the judge shall advise the minor and such person, if present, of the right to have counsel present and where applicable, of the right to appointed counsel. If such person is unable to afford counsel and desires to have the minor represented by counsel, the court may in a case in which the minor is alleged to be within the provisions of Section 300, appoint counsel to represent the minor. The court shall continue the hearing for not to exceed seven days, as necessary to make an appointment of counsel, or to enable counsel to acquaint himself with the case, or to determine whether the parent or guardian or adult relative is unable to afford counsel at his own expense, and shall continue the hearing as necessary to provide reasonable opportunity for the minor and the parent or guardian or adult relative to prepare for the hearing.

354. Except where a minor is in custody, any hearing on a petition filed pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 325) of this chapter may be continued by the court for not more than 10 days in addition to any other continuance authorized in this chapter whenever the court is satisfied that an unavailable and necessary witness will be available within such time.

355. At the hearing, the court shall first consider only the question whether the minor is a person described by Section 300, and for this purpose, any matter or information relevant and material to the circumstances or acts which are alleged to bring him within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court is admissible and may be received in evidence; however, proof by a preponderance of evidence, legally admissible in the trial of civil cases must be adduced to support a finding that the minor is a person described by Section 300. If the minor is not represented by counsel at the hearing, it shall be deemed that objections that could have been made to the evidence were made.

356. After hearing such evidence, the court shall make a finding, noted in the minutes of the court, whether or not the minor is a person described by Section 300. If it finds that the minor is not such a person, it shall order that the petition be dismissed and the minor be discharged from any detention or restriction theretofore ordered. If the court finds that the minor is such a person, it shall make and enter its findings and order accordingly and shall then proceed to hear evidence on the question of the proper disposition to be made of the minor. Prior to doing so, it may continue the hearing, if necessary, to receive the social study of the probation officer or to receive other evidence on its own motion or the motion of a parent or guardian for not to exceed 10 judicial days if the minor is detained during such continuance, and if the minor is not detained, it may continue the hearing to a date not later than 30 days after the date of filing of the petition. The court may, for good cause shown continue the hearing for an additional 15 days, if the minor is not detained. The court may make such order for detention of the minor or his release from detention, during the period of the continuance, as is appropriate.

357. Whenever the court, before or during the hearing on the petition, is of the opinion that the minor is mentally ill or if the court is in doubt concerning the mental health of any such person, the court may order that such person be held temporarily in the psychopathic ward of the county hospital or hospital whose services have been approved and/or contracted for by the department of health of the county, for observation and recommendation concerning the future care, supervision, and treatment of such person.

358. After finding that a minor is a person described in Section 300, the court shall hear evidence on the question of the proper disposition to be made of the minor. The court shall receive in evidence the social study of the minor made by the probation officer and such other relevant and material evidence as may be offered, and in any judgment and order of disposition, shall state the social study made by the probation officer has been read and considered by the court.

359. Whenever a minor who appears to be a danger to himself or others as a result of the use of narcotics (as defined in Section 11001 of the Health and Safety Code), or a resticted dangerous drug (as defined in Section 11901 of the Health and Safety Code), is brought before any judge of the juvenile court, the judge may continue the hearing and proceed pursuant to this section. The court may order the minor taken to a facility designated by the county and approved by the Department of Mental Hygiene as a facility for 72-hour treatment and evaluation. Thereupon the provisions of Section 11922 of the Health and Safety Code shall apply, except that the professional person in charge of the facility shall make a written report to the court concerning the results of the evaluation of the minor.

If the professional person in charge of the facility for 72-hour evaluation and treatment reports to the juvenile court that the minor is not a danger to himself or others as a result of the use of narcotics or restricted dangerous drugs or that the minor does not require 14-day intensive treatment, or if the minor has been certified for not more than 14 days of intensive treatment and the certification is terminated, the minor shall be released if the juvenile court proceedings have been dismissed; referred for further care and treatment on a voluntary basis, subject to the disposition of the juvenile court proceedings; or returned to the juvenile court, in which event the court shall proceed with the case pursuant to this chapter.

Any expenditure for the evaluation or intensive treatment of a minor under this section shall be considered an expenditure made under Part 2 (commencing with Section 5600) of Division 5, and shall be reimbursed by the state as are other local expenditures pursuant to that part.

SEC. 10. Article 10 (commencing with Section 360) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 10. Dependent Children—Judgments and Orders

360. After receiving and considering the evidence on the proper disposition of the case, the court, if the court has found that the minor is a person described by Section 300, may order and adjudge the minor to be a dependent child of the court.

361. In all cases wherein a minor is adjudged a dependent child of the court, the court may limit the control to be exercised over such dependent child by any parent or guardian and shall by its order clearly and specifically set forth all such limitations, but no dependent child shall be taken from the physical custody of a parent or guardian unless upon the hearing the court finds one of the following facts:

(a) That the parent or guardian is incapable of providing or has failed or neglected to provide proper maintenance, training, and education for the minor.

(b) That the welfare of the minor requires that his custody be taken from his parent or guardian.

362. When a minor is adjudged a dependent child of the court on the ground that he is a person described by Section 300, the court may make any and all reasonable orders for the care, supervision, custody, conduct, maintenance, and support of such minor, including medical treatment, subject to further order of the court.

The court may order the care, custody, control and conduct of such minor to be under the supervision of the probation officer or may commit such minor to the care, custody and control of:

(a) Some reputable person of good moral character who consents to such commitment.

(b) Some association, society, or corporation embracing within its objects the purpose of caring for such minors, with the consent of such association, society, or corporation.

(c) The probation officer, to be boarded out or placed in some suitable family home or suitable private institution, subject to the requirements of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 16000) of Part 4 of Division 9; provided, however, that pending action by the State Department of Health, the placement of a minor in a home certified as meeting minimum standards for boarding homes by the probation officer shall be legal for all purposes.

(d) Any other public agency organized to provide care for needy or neglected children.

When a minor is adjudged a dependent child of the court, on the ground that he is a person described by Section 300 and the court orders that a parent or guardian shall retain custody of such minor subject to the supervision of the probation officer, the parent or guardian may be required, and may be ordered, to participate in a counseling program to be provided by an appropriate agency designated by the court. When a minor is adjudged a dependent child of the court on the ground that he is a person described by subdivision (d) of Section 300 and the court orders that a parent or guardian shall retain custody of such minor subject to the supervision of the probation officer, the parent or guardian shall be required to participate in a counseling program to be provided by an appropriate agency, designated by the court.

363. If the parent or person legally responsible for the care of any minor who is found to be a person described in subdivision (d) of Section 300 receives public assistance or care, any portion of which is attributable to the minor, a copy of the order of the court providing for the removal of the minor from his home shall be furnished to the appropriate social services official, who shall reduce the public assistance and care furnished the parent or other person by the amount attributable to the minor.

364. In any case in which the court has ordered that a parent or guardian shall retain physical custody of a minor who is found to be a person described in subdivision (d) of Section 300, subject to supervision of the probation officer, whenever the probation officer subsequently receives a report of acts or circumstances which indicate that there is reasonable cause to believe that the minor is a person described in subdivision (d) of Section 300, he shall commence proceedings under this chapter. If, as a result of the proceedings required, the court finds that the minor is a person described in subdivision (d) of Section 300, the court shall remove such minor from the care, custody, and control of his parent or guardian and shall commit such minor to the care, custody, and control of those persons or organizations enumerated in Section 362.

365. The court may require the probation officer or any other agency to render such periodic reports concerning minors committed to its care, custody, and control under the provisions of subdivision (c) or (d) of Section 362 as the court may deem necessary or desirable, and the court may require that the probation officer, or may, with the consent of such other public agency, provide that any other public agency organized to provide care for needy or neglected children, shall perform such visitation and make such periodic reports to the courts concerning minors committed under such provisions as the court may deem necessary or desirable.

366. Every hearing in which an order is made adjudging a minor a dependent child of the juvenile court pursuant to Section 300 and every subsequent hearing in which such an order is made, except a hearing at which the court orders the termination of its jurisdiction over such minor, shall be continued to a specific future date not more than one year after the date of such order. The continued hearing shall be placed on the appearance calendar and the probation officer shall make an investigation, file a supplemental report and make his recommendation for disposition. The court shall advise all persons present of the date of the future hearing and of their right to be present, to be represented by counsel and to show cause, if they have cause, why the jurisdiction of the court over the minor should be terminated. Notice of hearing shall be mailed by the probation officer to the same persons as in an original proceeding and to counsel of record by certified mail addressed to the last known address of the person to be notified, or shall be personally served on such persons, not earlier than 30 days preceding the date to which the hearing was continued.

367. (a) Whenever a person has been adjudged a dependent child of the juvenile court and has been committed or otherwise disposed of as provided in this chapter for the care of dependent children of the juvenile court, the court may order that said dependent child be detained in the detention home, or otherwise as to the court seems fit until the execution of the order of commitment or of other disposition.

(b) In any case in which a minor is detained for more than 15 days pending the execution of the order of commitment or of any other disposition, the court shall periodically review the case to determine whether the delay is reasonable. Such periodic reviews shall be held at least every 15 days, commencing from the time the minor was initially detained pending the execution of the order of commitment or of any other disposition, and during the course of each review the court shall inquire regarding the action taken by the probation department to carry out its order, the reasons for the delay, and the effect of the delay upon the minor.

368. In a case where the residence of a dependent child of the juvenile court is out of the state and in another state or foreign country, or in a case where such minor is a resident of this state but his parents, relatives, guardian, or person charged with his custody is in another state, the court may order such minor sent to his parents, relatives, or guardian, or to the person charged with his custody, or, if the minor is a resident of a foreign country, to an official of a juvenile court of such foreign country or an agency of such country authorized to accept the minor, and in such case may order transportation and accommodation furnished, with or without an attendant, as the court deems necessary. If the court deems an attendant necessary, the court may order the probation officer or other suitable person to serve as such attendant. The probation officer shall authorize the necessary expenses of such minor and of the attendant and claims therefor shall be audited, allowed and paid in the same manner as other county claims.

369. (a) Whenever any person is taken into temporary custody under the provisions of Article 7 (commencing with Section 305) of this chapter and is in need of medical, surgical, dental, or other remedial care, the probation officer may, upon the recommendation of the attending physician or, if the person needs dental care and there is an attending dentist, the attending dentist, authorize the performance of such medical, surgical, dental, or other remedial care. The probation officer shall notify the parent, guardian, or person standing in loco parentis of the person, if any, of the care found to be needed before such care is provided, and if the parent, guardian, or person standing in loco parentis objects, such care shall be given only upon order of the court in the exercise of its discretion.

(b) Whenever it appears to the juvenile court that any person concerning whom a petition has been filed with the court is in need of medical, surgical, dental, or other remedial care, and that there is no parent, guardian, or person standing in loco parentis capable of authorizing or willing to authorize such remedial care or treatment for such person, the court, upon the written recommendation of a licensed physician or, if the person needs dental care, a licensed dentist, and after due notice to the parent, guardian, or person standing in loco parentis, if any, may make an order authorizing the performance of the necessary medical, surgical, dental, or other remedial care for such person.

(c) Whenever a dependent child of the juvenile court is placed by order of the court within the care and custody or under the supervision of the probation officer of the county in which the dependent child resides and it appears to the court that there is no parent, guardian, or person standing in loco parentis capable of authorizing or willing to authorize medical, surgical, dental, or other remedial care or treatment for the dependent child, the court may, after due notice to the parent, guardian, or person standing in loco parentis, if any, order that the probation officer may authorize such medical, surgical, dental, or other remedial care for the dependent child, by licensed practitioners, as may from time to time appear necessary.

(d) Whenever it appears that a minor otherwise within the provisions of subdivision (a), (b), or (c) requires immediate emergency medical, surgical, dental, or other remedial care, or whenever the probation officer cannot, with reasonable diligence, locate and notify the parent, guardian, or person standing in loco parentis of the need of the minor for such care, the court, upon the written recommendation of a licensed physician or, if the minor needs dental care, a licensed dentist may make an order authorizing, or the probation officer, upon the written recommendation of a licensed physician or, if the minor needs dental care, a licensed dentist may authorize, the performance of such care as is reasonably necessary under the circumstances, without notice to the parent, guardian, or person standing in loco parentis.

(e) In any case in which the court orders the performance of any medical, surgical, dental, or other remedial care pursuant to this section, the court may also make an order authorizing the release of information concerning such care to probation officers, parole officers, or any other qualified individuals or agencies caring for or acting in the interest and welfare of the minor under order, commitment, or approval of the court.

(f) Nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting the right of a parent, guardian, or person standing in loco parentis, who has not been deprived of the custody or control of the minor by order of the court, in providing any medical, surgical, dental, or other remedial treatment recognized or permitted under the laws of this state.

(g) The parent of any person described in this section may authorize the performance of medical, surgical, dental, or other remedial care provided for in this section notwithstanding his or her age or marital status. In nonemergency situations the parent authorizing the care shall notify the other parent prior to the administration of such care.

370. The juvenile court may, in any case before it in which a petition has been filed as provided in Article 7 (commencing with Section 305), order that the probation officer obtain the services of such psychiatrists, psychologists, or other clinical experts as may be required to assist in determining the appropriate treatment of the minor and as may be required in the conduct or implementation of such treatment. Payment for such services shall be a charge against the county.

SEC. 11. Article 11 (commencing with Section 375) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 11. Dependent Children—Transfer of Cases Between Counties

375. Whenever a petition is filed in the juvenile court of a county other than the residence of the person named in the petition, or whenever, subsequent to the filing of a petition in the juvenile court of the county where such minor resides, the residence of the person who would be legally entitled to the custody of such minor were it not for the existence of a court order issued pursuant to this chapter is changed to another county, the entire case may be transferred to the juvenile court of the county wherein such person then resides at any time after the court has made a finding of the facts upon which it has exercised its jurisdiction over such minor, and the juvenile court of the county wherein such person then resides shall take jurisdiction of the case upon the receipt and filing with it of such finding of the facts and an order transferring the case.

376. The expense of the transfer and all expenses in connection with the transfer and for the support and maintenance of such person shall be paid from the county treasury of the court ordering the transfer until the receipt and filing of the finding and order of transfer in the juvenile court of the transferee county.

The judge shall inquire into the financial condition of such person and of the parent, parents, guardian, or other person charged with his support and maintenance, and if he finds such person, parent, parents, guardian, or other person able, in whole or in part, to pay the expense of such transfer, he shall make a further order requiring such person, parent, parents, guardian, or other person to repay to the county such part, or all, of such expense of transfer as, in the opinion of the court, is proper. Such repayment shall be made to the probation officer who shall keep suitable accounts of such expenses and repayments and shall deposit all such collections in the county treasury.

377. Whenever a case is transferred as provided in Section 375, the order of transfer shall recite each and all of the findings, orders, or modification of orders that have been made in the case, and shall include the name and address of the legal residence of the parent or guardian of the minor. All papers contained in the file shall be transferred to the county where such person resides. A copy of the order of transfer and of the findings of fact as required in Section 375 shall be kept in the file of the transferring county.

378. Whenever an order of transfer from another county is filed with the clerk of any juvenile court, the clerk shall place the transfer order on the calendar of the court, and it shall have precedence over all actions and civil proceedings not specifically given precedence by other provisions of law and shall be heard by the court at the earliest possible moment following the filing of the order.

379. In any action under the provisions of this article in which the residence of a minor person is determined, both the county in which the court is situated and any other county which, as a result of the determination of residence, might be determined to be the county of residence of the minor person, shall be considered to be parties in the action and shall have the right to appeal any order by which residence of the minor person is determined.

380. Any person adjudged to be a dependent child of the juvenile court may be permitted by order of the court to reside in a county other than the county of his legal residence, and the court shall retain jurisdiction over such person.

Whenever a dependent child of the juvenile court is permitted to reside in a county other than the county of his legal residence, he may be placed under the supervision of the probation officer of the county of actual residence, with the consent of such probation officer. The dependent child shall comply with the instructions of such probation officer and upon failure to do so shall be returned to the county of his legal residence for further hearing and order of the court.

SEC. 12. Article 12 (commencing with Section 385) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 12. Dependent Children—Modification of Juvenile Court Judgments and Orders

385. Any order made by the court in the case of any person subject to its jurisdiction may at any time be changed, modified, or set aside, as the judge deems meet and proper, subject to such procedural requirements as are imposed by this article.

386. No order changing, modifying, or setting aside a previous order of the juvenile court shall be made either in chambers, or otherwise, unless prior notice of the application therefor has been given by the judge or the clerk of the court to the probation officer and to the minor's counsel of record, or, if there is no counsel of record, to the minor and his parent or guardian.

387. An order changing or modifying a previous order by removing a minor from the physical custody of a parent, guardian, relative or friend and directing placement in a foster home, or commitment to a private institution or commitment to a county institution, shall be made only after noticed hearing upon a supplemental petition.

(a) The supplemental petition shall be filed by the probation officer in the original matter and shall contain a concise statement of facts sufficient to support the conclusion that the previous disposition has not been effective in the rehabilitation of the minor.

(b) Upon the filing of such supplemental petition, the clerk of the juvenile court shall immediately set the same for hearing within 30 days, and the probation officer shall cause notice thereof to be served upon the persons and in the manner prescribed by Sections 335 and 337.

(c) An order for the detention of the minor pending adjudication of the petition may be made only after a hearing is conducted pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 305) of this chapter.

388. Any parent or other person having an interest in a child who is a dependent child of the juvenile court or the child himself through a properly appointed guardian may, upon grounds of change of circumstance or new evidence, petition the court in the same action in which the child was found to be a dependent child of the juvenile court for a hearing to change, modify, or set aside any order of court previously made or to terminate the jurisdiction of the court. The petition shall be verified and, if made by a person other than the child, shall state the petitioner's relationship to or interest in the child and shall set forth in concise language any change of circumstance or new evidence which are alleged to require such change of order or termination of jurisdiction.

If it appears that the best interests of the child may be promoted by the proposed change of order or termination of jurisdiction, the court shall order that a hearing be held and shall give prior notice, or cause prior notice to be given, to such persons and by such means as prescribed by Section 386, and, in such instances as the means of giving notice is not prescribed by such sections, then by such means as the court prescribes.

389. (a) In any case in which a petition has been filed with a juvenile court to commence proceedings to adjudge a person a dependent child of the court, in any case in which a person is cited to appear before a probation officer or is taken before a probation officer pursuant to Section 307, or in any case in which a minor is taken before any officer of a law enforcement agency, the person or the county probation officer may, five years or more after the jurisdiction of the juvenile court has terminated as to the person, or, in a case in which no petition is filed, five years or more after the person was cited to appear before a probation officer or was taken before a probation officer pursuant to Section 307 or was taken before any officer of a law enforcement agency, or, in any case, at any time after the person has reached the age of 18 years, petition the court for sealing of the records, including records of arrest, relating to the person's case, in the custody of the juvenile court and probation officer and any other agencies, including law enforcement agencies, and public officials as petitioner alleges, in his petition, to have custody of such records. The court shall notify the district attorney of the county and the county probation officer, if he is not the petitioner of the petition, and such district attorney or probation officer or any of their deputies or any other person having relevant evidence may testify at the hearing on the petition. If, after hearing, the court finds that since such termination of jurisdiction or action pursuant to Section 307, as the case may be, he has not been convicted of a felony or of any misdemeanor involving moral turpitude and that rehabilitation has been attained to the satisfaction of the court, it shall order sealed all records, papers, and exhibits in the person's case in the custody of the juvenile court, including the juvenile court record, minute book entries, and entries on dockets, and other records relating to the case in the custody of such other agencies and officials as are named in the order. Thereafter, the proceedings in such case shall be deemed never to have occurred, and the person may properly reply accordingly to any inquiry about the events, records of which are ordered sealed. The court shall send a copy of the order to each agency and official named therein, and each such agency and official shall seal records in its custody as directed by the order, shall advise the court of its compliance, and thereupon shall seal the copy of the court's order for sealing of records that it or he received. The person who is the subject of records sealed pursuant to this section may petition the superior court to permit inspection of the records by persons named in the petition, and the superior court may so order. Otherwise, except as provided in subdivision (b), such records shall not be open to inspection.

(b) In any action or proceeding based upon defamation, a court, upon a showing of good cause, may order any records sealed under this section to be opened and admitted into evidence. The records shall be confidential and shall be available for inspection only by the court, jury, parties, counsel for the parties, and any other person who is authorized by the court to inspect them. Upon the judgment in the action or proceeding becoming final, the court shall order the records sealed.

390. A judge of the juvenile court in which a petition was filed, at any time before the minor reaches the age of 21 years, may dismiss the petition or may set aside the findings and dismiss the petition if the court finds that the interests of justice and the welfare of the minor require such dismissal, or if it finds that the minor is not in need of treatment or rehabilitation. The court shall have jurisdiction to order such dismissal or setting aside of the findings and dismissal regardless of whether the minor is, at the time of such order, a dependent child of the court.

Such appeal shall have precedence over all other cases in the court to which the appeal is taken.

When it appears that the minor has made an extrajudicial admission or confession and denies the same at the hearing, the court may continue the hearing for not to exceed seven days to enable the probation officer to subpoena witnesses to attend the hearing to prove the allegations of the petition. If it finds that the minor is not such a person, it shall order that the petition be dismissed and the minor be discharged from any detention or restriction theretofore ordered. If the court finds that the minor is such a person, it shall make and enter its findings and order accordingly and shall then proceed to hear evidence on the question of the proper disposition to be made of the minor. Prior to doing so, it may continue the hearing, if necessary, to receive the social study of the probation officer or to receive other evidence on its own motion or the motion of a parent or guardian for not to exceed 10 judicial days if the minor is detained during such continuance, and if the minor is not detained, it may continue the hearing to a date not later than 30 days after the date of filing of the petition. The court may, for good cause shown continue the hearing for an additional 15 days, if the minor is not detained. The court may make such order for detention of the minor or his release from detention, during the period of the continuance, as is appropriate.

(9) The foster care-related qualifications, education, and in-service training of social workers and probation officers who handle such cases;

(10) Any other matters relating to foster children which the department deems appropriate to be included in such report. The report shall be submitted to the Governor and Legislature no later than January of each year.

(b) All personal information and records obtained by the department pursuant to this section shall be confidential and may be disclosed only in those instances designated in Section 5328.

(c) Any person may bring an action against an individual who has willingly and knowingly released confidential information or records concerning him in violation of the provisions of this section, for the greater of the following amounts:

(1) Five hundred dollars ($500).

(2) Three times the amount of actual damages, if any, sustained by the plaintiff.

Any person may, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, bring an action to enjoin the release of confidential information or records in violation of the provisions of this chapter, and may in the same action seek damages as provided in this section.

It is not a prerequisite to an action under this section that the plaintiff suffer or be threatened with actual damages.

SEC. 88. Section 318.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

318.5. The minor and his parents or guardian shall have a right to representation by legal counsel at all stages of any proceedings under this chapter in a demonstration county in any case in which the minor is alleged to be a person described in Section 300 or 302, to be provided as follows:

(a) The court shall appoint counsel for the minor if he appears at any hearing without counsel, whether he is able to afford counsel or not. If the parent or guardian does not furnish counsel for the minor and the court determines that the parent or guardian has the ability to pay for counsel, the court shall appoint counsel for the minor at the expense of the parent or guardian.

(b) The court shall appoint counsel, who may be the public defender, for the parents or guardian when it appears to the court that the parents or guardian desire counsel but are unable to afford and cannot for that reason employ counsel.

(c) In a county where there is no public defender, or where there is a conflict of interest between two or more persons entitled to the appointment of the public defender as counsel in a proceeding, the court shall fix the compensation to be paid by the county for service of counsel other than the public defender.

(d) At the beginning of the first hearing in any proceeding under this chapter, in any case in which the minor is alleged to be a person described in Section 300 or 302, if either the minor or his parents or guardian appear without counsel, the judge shall advise the unrepresented party of his rights under this section and shall implement such rights before proceeding further, provided, that no waiver by a minor of any rights under this section shall be valid. Any counsel entering an appearance on behalf of any party shall continue to represent that person at all subsequent proceedings before the juvenile court unless relieved by the court either (1) upon the substitution of other counsel, or (2) upon a showing of good cause to relieve counsel without the substitution of other counsel.

SEC. 89. Section 319.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

319.5. In a demonstration county, in the case of a minor alleged to be a person described in Section 300, the court shall examine such minor, his parent, guardian, or other persons having relevant knowledge, and hear such relevant evidence as the minor, his parent or guardian or their counsel desires to present. The probation officer or social worker in a county welfare department designated pursuant to Section 272 shall report on the availability of services which would facilitate the return of the minor to the custody of his parents or guardians. The court shall make its order releasing such minor from custody unless it finds that: (a) there is a substantial danger to the physical health of the minor or the minor is suffering severe emotional damage, and (b) there are no reasonable means by which the minor's physical or emotional health may be protected without removing the minor from his parents' or guardians' physical custody, in which case the court may order that such minor be placed in a children's shelter or other suitable place designated by the juvenile court for a period not to exceed 15 judicial days. The court shall specify the factual grounds established to support these findings and enter such in the permanent records of the court.

SEC. 90. Section 328.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

328.5. Whenever the probation officer or social worker in a county welfare department of a demonstration county designated pursuant to Section 272 has cause to believe that there is within the county or residing therein, a person within the provisions of Section 300, the probation officer or social worker shall immediately make such investigation as he deems necessary to determine what services should be offered to the family and whether proceedings in the juvenile court should be commenced. If such services are deemed appropriate, the probation officer or social worker shall make a referral to state protective services for children pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 16500) of Part 4 of Division 9.

SEC. 91. Section 331.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

331.5. In any case in which a probation officer or social worker in a county welfare department of a demonstration county designated pursuant to Section 272, after investigation of an application for petition or other investigation he is authorized to make, concludes that a minor is within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court pursuant to Section 300 or probably will soon be within such jurisdiction, he may, in lieu of filing a petition or subsequent to the dismissal of a petition already filed, and with the consent of the minor's parent or guardian, undertake a program of supervision of the minor and his family. If such a program is undertaken, the probation officer or social worker shall attempt to ameliorate the situation which brings the minor within the jurisdiction of Section 300 by providing all appropriate services. Any time after the family has unreasonably refused to cooperate with the services being provided, the probation officer or social worker may file a petition to the court. In any event, if after six months the minor is believed to be within the jurisdiction of Section 300, the probation officer or social worker shall file a petition. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the probation officer or social worker from filing a petition at any time within such six-month period.

SEC. 92. Section 361.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

361.5. (a) In a demonstration county, in all cases wherein a minor is adjudged a dependent child of the court, on the ground that he is a person described by Section 300 or 302, the court may limit the control to be exercised over such dependent by any parent or guardian and shall by its order clearly and specifically set forth all such limitations, but such limitations shall not exceed those necessary to protect the child.

(b) No dependent child shall be taken from the physical custody of his parents or guardians unless upon the hearing the juvenile court of a demonstration county finds substantial evidence that:

(1) There is a substantial danger to the physical health of the minor and there are no reasonable means acceptable to the minor's parents or guardians by which the minor's physical health may be protected without removing the minor from his parents' or guardians' physical custody; or

(2) The parents or guardians of the minor are unwilling to have physical custody of the minor, there are no reasonable means acceptable to the parents or guardians which would enable the minor to be returned to their physical custody, and the parents or guardians have been notified that if the minor remains out of their physical custody for the period specified in Section 361.5, the minor may be declared permanently free from their custody and control under Section 2.5 of the act which enacted Section 726.5; or

(3) The minor is suffering severe emotional damage indicated by extreme anxiety, depression, or untoward aggressive behavior against others and there are no reasonable means acceptable to the minor's parents or guardians by which the minor's emotional health may be protected without removing the minor from his parents' or guardians' physical custody.

The court shall specify the factual grounds established to support these findings and enter such in the permanent records of the court.

(c) If the minor is taken from the physical custody of his parents or guardians and unless the minor is placed with relatives, the minor shall be placed in foster care in the county of residence of his parents or guardians in order to facilitate reunification of the family. If the probation officer or social worker in a county welfare department of a demonstration county designated pursuant to Section 272 cannot find a suitable placement within the county and seeks to place the minor outside the county, the probation officer or social worker shall serve written notice on the parents or guardians in the same manner as provided in Section 366 at least seven days prior to such placement. Such notice shall state the reasons which require such placement outside the county. The parents or guardians may object to such placement not later than seven days after receipt of such notice and, upon such objection, the court shall hold a hearing not later than five days after such objection and prior to such placement. The court shall order out-of-county placement if it finds that the minor's particular needs require placement outside the county.

(d) The juvenile court of a demonstration county shall order that the probation officer or social worker in a county welfare department designated pursuant to Section 272 provide to the minor's parents or guardians services which can reasonably be expected to facilitate the return of the minor to his family.

SEC. 93. Section 366.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

366.5. (a) In order to provide minors described in this section with a stable and permanent environment, the juvenile court of a demonstration county shall follow the procedure set forth in subdivision (d).

(b) The juvenile court of a demonstration county shall commence proceedings under subdivision (d) in the case of a minor who has been taken from the physical custody of his parents or guardians under paragraph (1) or (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 361.5 and has remained out of their physical custody for 12 consecutive months and:

(1) The minor was less than two years of age at the time of removal pursuant to paragraph (1) or (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 361.5; or

(2) The minor is 14 years of age or older at the time of this proceeding and expresses a mature desire not to be returned to the physical custody of his parents or guardians.

Physical custody of the minor by his parents or guardians for insubstantial periods during the 12-month period will not serve to interrupt the running of such period.

(c) The juvenile court of a demonstration county shall commence proceedings under subdivision (d) in the case of any other minor who has been taken from the physical custody of his parents or guardians under paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 361.5 and has remained out of their physical custody for 18 consecutive months, including for these purposes the time, if any, that the minor has remained out of their physical custody pursuant to a voluntary placement under Chapter 5.5 (commencing with Section 16550) of Part 4 of Division 9.

Physical custody of the minor by the parents or guardians for insubstantial periods of time during the 18-month period will not serve to interrupt the running of such period.

(d) For any minor that the juvenile court of a demonstration county finds to be a person described in either subdivision (b) or (c), the court shall order the appropriate department to investigate how the minor might be provided with a stable and permanent environment as required by subdivision (e). The department shall report its findings and make a recommendation to the court at a hearing that shall take place no more than 45 days from the date of the court's findings under subdivision (b) or (c), unless when the court makes its findings under subdivision (b) or (c), it finds that there is a substantial probability the minor will be returned to the physical custody of his parents or guardians within six months, in which case the hearing shall take place not more than six months from the date of the court's findings. The department and court shall give due consideration to the foster parents, if any, of the minor in considering adoption, guardianship or stable long-term foster care placement. The court shall notify the minor's parents or guardians and foster parents of its order under this subdivision, and the date of the hearing under subdivision (e). Such notice shall be sent by registered mail no less than 15 days before the date of such hearing and shall include a copy of the findings of the investigating department.

(e) At the hearing ordered under subdivision (d):

(1) If the court finds that the minor is adoptable, the court shall order the county counsel, or if there is no county counsel, the district attorney, to initiate an action to declare the minor permanently free from the custody and control of his parents or guardians pursuant to Section 2.5 of the act which enacted this Section 729.5 unless the court finds that:

(A) The parents or guardians have maintained a close family relationship with the minor through regular visitation and contact and the minor would benefit from a continued relationship with them; or

(B) A minor 14 years of age or older objects to termination of parental rights; or

(C) The minor's foster parents are unable to adopt the minor because of exceptional circumstances, but are willing and capable of providing the minor with a stable and permanent environment and the removal of the minor from the physical custody of the foster parents would be seriously detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor because the minor has substantial psychological ties to them.

(2) If the court finds that the minor is not adoptable or the exceptions described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) apply, and the court finds that one or more adults are available and eligible to become legal guardians for the minor, the court shall order the department to facilitate the guardianship proceedings. The county counsel or, if there is no county counsel, the district attorney, may render assistance in such proceedings to the department. The court shall not make such an order if it finds that the minor's foster parents are unable to become guardians for the minor because of exceptional circumstances, but are willing and capable of providing the minor with a stable and permanent environment and the removal of the minor from the physical custody of his foster parents would be seriously detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor because the minor has substantial psychological ties to them.

The proceeding for the appointment for a guardian for a minor under this section shall be in the juvenile court, notwithstanding Section 1405 of the Probate Code. For such minors, the juvenile court shall have the power to appoint a guardian pursuant to the standards and procedures otherwise specified by the Probate Code.

(3) If the court finds that the minor is not adoptable under paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) and that guardianship proceedings should not be initiated under paragraph (2) of subdivision (e), it shall order the department to facilitate the placement of the minor in an environment that can reasonably be expected to be stable and permanent. When the minor is in a foster home, and the foster parents are willing to provide and capable of providing a stable and permanent environment, the minor shall not be removed from this home if removal of the minor from the physical custody of his foster parents would be seriously detrimental to the emotional well-being of the minor because the minor has substantial psychological ties to them.

(f) When an adoption or guardianship of the minor has been perfected, the court shall terminate its jurisdiction over such minor. If some other long-term placement for the minor has been made, the court shall continue the hearing to a specific future date not more than one year after the date of the order of continued jurisdiction over the minor as a dependent child pursuant to Section 300 or 302, notwithstanding the six-month review hearing required pursuant to Section 18 of the act which enacted this section.

No minor who was under the age of 18 years when he committed any criminal offense and who has been found not a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law shall be sentenced to the state prison unless he has first been remanded to the custody of the California Youth Authority for evaluation and report pursuant to this section and the court finds after having read and considered the report submitted by the Youth Authority that the minor is not a suitable subject for commitment to the Youth Authority.

17. (a) A felony is a crime which is punishable with death or by imprisonment in the state prison. Every other crime or public offense is a misdemeanor except those offenses that are classified as infractions.

(b) When a crime is punishable, in the discretion of the court, by imprisonment in the state prison or by fine or imprisonment in the county jail, it is a misdemeanor for all purposes under the following circumstances:

(1) After a judgment imposing a punishment other than imprisonment in the state prison.

(2) When the court, upon committing the defendant to the Youth Authority, designates the offense to be a misdemeanor.

(3) When the court grants probation to a defendant without imposition of sentence and at the time of granting probation, or on application of the defendant or probation officer thereafter, the court declares the offense to be a misdemeanor.

(4) When the prosecuting attorney files in a court having jurisdiction over misdemeanor offenses a complaint specifying that the offense is a misdemeanor, unless the defendant at the time of his arraignment or plea objects to the offense being made a misdemeanor, in which event the complaint shall be amended to charge the felony and the case shall proceed on the felony complaint.

(c) When a defendant is committed to the Youth Authority for a crime punishable, in the discretion of the court, by imprisonment in the state prison or by fine or imprisonment in the county jail, the offense shall, upon the discharge of the defendant from the Youth Authority, thereafter be deemed a misdemeanor for all purposes.

SEC. 1.5. Section 635 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

635. The court will examine such minor, his parent, guardian, or other person having relevant knowledge, hear such relevant evidence as the minor, his parent or guardian or their counsel desires to present, and, unless it appears that such minor has violated an order of the juvenile court or has escaped from the commitment of the juvenile court or that it is a matter of immediate and urgent necessity for the protection of such minor or the person or property of another that he be detained or that such minor is likely to flee to avoid the jurisdiction of the court, the court shall make its order releasing such minor from custody. The circumstances and gravity of the alleged offense may be considered, in conjunction with other factors, to determine whether it is a matter of immediate and urgent necessity for the protection of the minor or the person or property of another that the minor be detained.

SEC. 2. Section 636 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

636. The circumstances and gravity of the alleged offense may be considered, in conjunction with other factors, to determine whether it is a matter of immediate and urgent necessity for the protection of the minor or reasonable necessity for the protection of the person or property of another that the minor be detained.

If the court finds that the criteria of Section 628.1 are applicable, the court may, and after the operative date of that section the court shall, place the minor on home supervision for a period not to exceed 15 judicial days, and shall enter such order together with its findings of fact in support thereof in the records of the court. If the court releases the minor on home supervision, the court may continue, modify, or augment any conditions of release previously imposed by the probation officer, or may impose new conditions on a minor released for the first time. relating to juvenile court law.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 170.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

170.6. (1) No judge, court commissioner, or referee of any superior, municipal or justice court of the State of California shall try any civil or criminal action or special proceeding of any kind or character nor hear any matter therein which involves a contested issue of law or fact when it shall be established as hereinafter provided that such judge or court commissioner is prejudiced against any party or attorney or the interest of any party or attorney appearing in such action or proceeding.

(2) Any party to or any attorney appearing in any such action or proceeding may establish such prejudice by an oral or written motion without notice supported by affidavit or declaration under penalty of perjury or an oral statement under oath that the judge, court commissioner, or referee before whom such action or proceeding is pending or to whom it is assigned is prejudiced against any such party or attorney or the interest of such party or attorney so that such party or attorney cannot or believes that he cannot have a fair and impartial trial or hearing before such judge, court commissioner, or referee. Where the judge, court commissioner, or referee assigned to or who is scheduled to try the cause or hear the matter is known at least 10 days before the date set for trial or hearing, the motion shall be made at least five days before that date. If directed to the trial of a cause where there is a master calendar, the motion shall be made to the judge supervising the master calendar not later than the time the cause is assigned for trial. In no event shall any judge, court commissioner, or referee entertain such motion if it be made after the drawing of the name of the first juror, or if there be no jury, after the making of an opening statement by counsel for plaintiff, or if there be no such statement, then after swearing in the first witness or the giving of any evidence or after trial of the cause has otherwise commenced. If the motion is directed to a hearing (other than the trial of a cause), the motion must be made not later than the commencement of the hearing. In the case of trials or hearings not herein specifically provided for, the procedure herein specified shall be followed as nearly as may be. The fact that a judge, court commissioner, or referee has presided at or acted in connection with a pretrial conference or other hearing, proceeding or motion prior to trial and not involving a determination of contested fact issues relating to the merits shall not preclude the later making of the motion provided for herein at the time and in the manner hereinbefore provided.

(3) If such motion is duly presented and such affidavit or declaration under penalty of perjury is duly filed or such oral statement under oath is duly made, thereupon and without any further act or proof, the judge supervising the master calendar, if any, shall assign some other judge, court commissioner, or referee to try the cause or hear the matter. In other cases, the trial of the cause or the hearing of the matter shall be assigned or transferred to another judge, court commissioner, or referee of the court in which the trial or matter is pending or, if there is no other judge, court commissioner, or referee of the court in which the trial or matter is pending, the Chairman of the Judicial Council shall assign some other judge, court commissioner, or referee to try such cause or hear such matter as promptly as possible. Under no circumstances shall a party or attorney be permitted to make more than one such motion in any one action or special proceeding pursuant to this section; and in actions or special proceedings where there may be more than one plaintiff or similar party or more than one defendant or similar party appearing in the action or special proceeding, only one motion for each side may be made in any one action or special proceeding.

(4) Unless required for the convenience of the court or unless good cause is shown, a continuance of the trial or hearing shall not be granted by reason of the making of a motion under this section. If a continuance is granted, the cause or matter shall be continued from day to day or for other limited periods upon the trial or other calendar and shall be reassigned or transferred for trial or hearing as promptly as possible.

(5) Any affidavit filed pursuant to this section shall be in substantially the following form:

(7) Nothing in this section shall affect or limit the provisions of Section 170 and Title 4, Part 2, of this code and this section shall be construed as cumulative thereto.

(8) If any provision of this section or the application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the section which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this section are declared to be severable.

SEC. 4. Section 502 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

502. (a) The purpose of this chapter is to secure for each minor under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court such care and guidance, preferably in his own home, as will serve the spiritual, emotional, mental, and physical welfare of the minor and the best interests of the state; to protect the public from criminal conduct by minors; to impose on the minor a sense of responsibility for his own acts; to preserve and strengthen the minor's family ties whenever possible, removing him from the custody of his parents only when necessary for his welfare or for the safety and protection of the public; and, when the minor is removed from his own family, to secure for him custody, care, and discipline as nearly as possible equivalent to that which should have been given by his parents. This chapter shall be liberally construed to carry out these purposes.

(b) The purpose of this chapter also includes the protection of the public from the consequences of criminal activity, and to such purpose probation officers, peace officers, prosecuting attorneys, and juvenile courts shall take into account such protection of the public in their determinations under this chapter.

SEC. 7. Section 507 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

507. (a) No court, judge, referee, or peace officer shall knowingly detain in any jail or lockup any person under the age of 18 years, unless a judge of the juvenile court shall determine that there are no other proper and adequate facilities for the care and detention of such person, or unless such person has been transferred by the juvenile court to another court for proceedings not under the juvenile court law and has been charged with or convicted of a felony. If any person under the age of 18 years is transferred by the juvenile court to another court and is charged with or convicted of a felony as herein provided and is not released pending hearing, such person may be committed to the care and custody of a sheriff, constable, or other peace officer who shall keep such person in the juvenile hall or in such other suitable place as such latter court may direct, provided that no such person shall be detained in or committed to any hospital except for medical or other remedial care and treatment or observation.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), no minor shall be detained in any jail, lockup, juvenile hall, or other secure facility who is taken into custody solely upon the ground that he is a person described by Section 601 or adjudged to be such or made a ward of the juvenile court solely upon that ground. If any such minor is detained, he shall be detained in a sheltered-care facility or crisis resolution home as provided for in Section 654, or in a nonsecure facility provided for in subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (d) of Section 727.

SEC. 9. Section 553 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

553. The judge of the juvenile court, or in counties having more than one judge of the juvenile court, the presiding judge of the juvenile court or the senior judge if there is no presiding judge, may appoint one or more referees to serve on a full-time or part-time basis. A referee shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing judge, and unless the appointing judge makes his order terminating the appointment of a referee, such referee shall continue to serve as such until the appointment of his successor. Except as otherwise provided by law, the amount and rate of compensation to be paid referees shall be fixed by the board of supervisors. Every referee first appointed on or after January 1, 1977 shall have been admitted to practice law in this state and, in addition, shall have been admitted to practice law in this state for a period of not less than five years or in any other state and this state for a combined period of not less than 10 years. Nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to the qualifications of any referee first appointed prior to January 1, 1977.

SEC. 10. Section 553.2 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

553.2. The provisions of Sections 170 and 170.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall apply to a referee, provided, that the presiding judge of the juvenile court shall if the motion is granted reassign the matter to another referee or to a judge of the juvenile court.

SEC. 11. Section 601 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

601. (a) Any person under the age of 18 years who persistently or habitually refuses to obey the reasonable and proper orders or directions of his parents, guardian, or custodian, or who is beyond the control of such person, or who is under the age of 18 years when he violated any ordinance of any city or county of this state establishing a curfew based solely on age is within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court which may adjudge such person to be a ward of the court.

(b) If a school attendance review board determines that the available public and private services are insufficient or inappropriate to correct the habitual truancy of the minor, or to correct the minor's persistent or habitual refusal to obey the reasonable and proper orders or directions of school authorities, or if the minor fails to respond to directives of a school attendance review board or to services provided, the minor is then within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court which may adjudge such person to be a ward of the court; provided, that it is the intent of the Legislature that no minor who is adjudged a ward of the court pursuant solely to this subdivision shall be removed from the custody of the parent or guardian except during school hours.

SEC. 12. Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

602. Any person who is under the age of 18 years when he violates any law of this state or of the United States or any ordinance of any city or county of this state defining crime other than an ordinance establishing a curfew based solely on age, is within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court, which may adjudge such person to be a ward of the court.

SEC. 13. Section 607 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

607. (a) The court may retain jurisdiction over any person who is found to be a ward or dependent child of the juvenile court until such ward or dependent child attains the age of 21 years, except as provided in subdivision (b).

(b) The court may retain jurisdiction over any person who is found to be a person described in Section 602 of this code by reason of the violation, when he was 16 years of age or older, of any of the offenses listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707 until such person attains the age of 23 years if the person was committed to the Youth Authority.

SEC. 15. Section 628 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

628. (a) Upon delivery to the probation officer of a minor who has been taken into temporary custody under the provisions of this article, the probation officer shall immediately investigate the circumstances of the minor and the facts surrounding his being taken into custody and shall immediately release such minor to the custody of his parent, guardian, or responsible relative unless one or more of the following conditions exist:

(1) The minor is in need of proper and effective parental care or control and has no parent, guardian, or responsible relative; or has no parent, guardian, or responsible relative willing to exercise or capable of exercising such care or control; or has no parent, guardian, or responsible relative actually exercising such care or control.

(2) The minor is destitute or is not provided with the necessities of life or is not provided with a home or suitable place of abode.

(3) The minor is provided with a home which is an unfit place for him by reason of neglect, cruelty, depravity or physical abuse of either of his parents, or of his guardian or other person in whose custody or care he is.

(4) Continued detention of the minor is a matter of immediate and urgent necessity for the protection of the minor or reasonable necessity for the protection of the person or property of another.

(5) The minor is likely to flee the jurisdiction of the court.

(6) The minor has violated an order of the juvenile court.

(7) The minor is physically dangerous to the public because of a mental or physical deficiency, disorder or abnormality.

(b) In any case in which there is reasonable cause for believing that a minor who is under the care of a physician or surgeon or a hospital, clinic, or other medical facility and cannot be immediately moved is a person described in subdivision (d) of Section 600, the minor shall be deemed to have been taken into temporary custody and delivered to the probation officer for the purposes of this chapter while he is at the office of the physician or surgeon or such medical facility.

SEC. 16. Section 628.1 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

628.1. If the minor meets one or more of the criteria for detention under Section 628, but the probation officer believes that 24-hour secure detention is not necessary in order to protect the minor or the person or property of another, or to ensure that the minor does not flee the jurisdiction of the court, the probation officer shall proceed according to this section.

Unless one of the conditions described in paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 628 exists, the probation officer shall release such minor to his parent, guardian, or responsible relative on home supervision. As a condition for such release, the probation officer shall require the minor to sign a written promise that he understands and will observe the specific conditions of home supervision release. Such conditions may include curfew and school attendance requirements related to the protection of the minor or the person or property of another, or to the minor's appearances at court hearings. A minor who violates a specific condition of home supervision release which he has promised in writing to obey may be taken into custody and placed in secure detention, subject to court review at a detention hearing.

A minor on home supervision shall be entitled to the same legal protections as a minor in secure detention, including a detention hearing.

SEC. 16.5. Section 635 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

635. The court will examine such minor, his parent, guardian, or other person having relevant knowledge, hear such relevant evidence as the minor, his parent or guardian or their counsel desires to present, and, unless it appears that such minor has violated an order of the juvenile court or has escaped from the commitment of the juvenile court or that it is a matter of immediate and urgent necessity for the protection of such minor or reasonably necessary for the protection of the person or property of another that he be detained or that such minor is likely to flee the jurisdiction of the court, the court shall make its order releasing such minor from custody.

SEC. 17. Section 636 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is

amended to read:

636. If it appears upon the hearing that such minor has violated an order of the juvenile court or has escaped from a commitment of the juvenile court or that it is a matter of immediate and urgent necessity for the protection of such minor or reasonable necessity for the protection of the person or property of another that he be detained or that such minor is likely to flee the jurisdiction of the court, the court may make its order that such minor be detained in the juvenile hall or other suitable place designated by the juvenile court for a period not to exceed 15 judicial days and shall enter said order together with its findings of fact in support thereof in the records of the court.

If the court finds that the criteria of Section 628.1 are applicable, the court shall place the minor on home supervision for a period not to exceed 15 judicial days, and shall enter such order together with its findings of fact in support thereof in the records of the court. If the court releases the minor on home supervision, the court may continue, modify, or augment any conditions of release previously imposed by the probation officer, or may impose new conditions on a minor released for the first time. If there are new or modified conditions, the minor shall be required to sign a written promise to obey such conditions pursuant to Section 628.1.

SEC. 19. Section 636.2 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

636.2. The probation officer may operate and maintain nonsecure detention facilities, or may contract with private agencies offering such services, for those minors who are not considered escape risks and are not considered a danger to themselves or to the person or property of another. Criteria to be considered for detention in such facilities shall include, but not be limited to: (a) the nature of the offense, (b) the minor's previous record including escapes from secure detention facilities, (c) lack of criminal sophistication, and (d) the age of the minor. A minor detained in such facilities who leaves the same without permission may be housed in a secure facility following his apprehension, pending a detention hearing pursuant to Section 632.

SEC. 20. Section 650 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

650. (a) A proceeding in the juvenile court to declare a minor a dependent child of the court or a ward of the court under Section 601 is commenced by the filing with the court, by the probation officer, of a petition, in conformity with the requirements of this article.

(b) A proceeding in the juvenile court to declare a minor a ward under Section 602 of the court is commenced by the filing with the court, by the prosecuting attorney as petitioner, of a petition, in conformity with the requirements of this article.

SEC. 21. Section 653 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

653. Whenever any person applies to the probation officer to commence proceedings in the juvenile court, such application shall be in the form of an affidavit alleging that there was or is within the county, or residing therein, a minor within the provisions of Section 600, 601, or 602, or that a minor committed an offense described in Section 602 within the county, and setting forth facts in support thereof. The probation officer shall immediately make such investigation as he deems necessary to determine whether proceedings in the juvenile court should be commenced. If the probation officer determines that proceedings pursuant to Section 650 should be commenced to declare a person described in Section 602 to be a ward of the juvenile court, the probation officer shall cause the affidavit to be taken to the prosecuting attorney. The prosecuting attorney shall within his discretionary power institute proceedings in accordance with his role as public prosecutor pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 650 of this code and Section 26500 of the Government Code.

If the probation officer does not take action under Section 654 and does not file a petition in juvenile court within 21 court days after such application, or in the case of an affidavit alleging that a minor committed an offense described in Section 602 or alleging that a minor is within Section 602, does not cause the affidavit to be taken to the prosecuting attorney within 21 court days after such application, he shall endorse upon the affidavit of applicant his decision not to proceed further and his reasons therefor and shall immediately notify the applicant of the action taken or the decision rendered by him under this section. The probation officer shall retain the affidavit and his indorsement thereon for a period of 30 days after such notice to applicant.

SEC. 22. Section 654 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

654. In any case in which a probation officer, after investigation of an application for petition or other investigation he is authorized to make, concludes that a minor is within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court or will probably soon be within such jurisdiction, he may, in lieu of filing a petition to declare a minor a dependent child of the court or a minor or a ward of the court under Section 601 or requesting that a petition be filed by the prosecuting attorney to declare a minor a ward of the court under Section 602 or subsequent to dismissal of a petition already filed, and with consent of the minor and the minor's parent or guardian, delineate specific programs of supervision for the minor, for not to exceed six months, and attempt thereby to adjust the situation which brings the minor within the jurisdiction of the court or creates the probability that he will soon be within such jurisdiction. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the probation officer from filing a petition or requesting the prosecuting attorney to file a petition at any time within said six-month period. If the probation officer determines that the minor has not involved himself in the specific programs within 60 days, the probation officer shall immediately file a petition or request that a petition be filed by the prosecuting attorney. However, when in the judgment of the probation officer the interest of the minor and the community can be protected, the probation officer shall make a diligent effort to proceed under this section.

The program of supervision of the minor undertaken pursuant to this section may call for the minor to obtain care and treatment for the misuse of restricted dangerous drugs or addiction to narcotics from a county mental health service or other appropriate community agency.

Further, this section shall authorize the probation officer with consent of the minor and the minor's parent or guardian to provide the following services in lieu of filing a petition:

(a) Contract with private or public agencies to provide sheltered-care facilities. Such placement shall be limited to a maximum of 90 days. Counseling services shall be extended to the sheltered minor and his family during this period of diversion services. The minor and his parents may be required to make full or partial reimbursement for the services rendered the minor and his family during the diversion process. Referrals for sheltered-care diversion may be made by the minor, his family, schools, law enforcement or any other private or public social service agency.

(b) The probation officer shall be authorized to maintain and operate crisis resolution homes, or contract with private or public agencies offering such services. Residence at such facilities shall be limited to 20 days during which period individual and family counseling shall be extended the minor and his family. Failure to resolve the crisis within the 20-day period may result in the minor's referral to a shelter-care facility for a period not to exceed 90 days. Referrals shall be accepted from the minor, his family, schools, law enforcement or any other private or public social service agency. The minor, his parents, or both, may be required to reimburse the county for the cost of services rendered at a rate to be determined by the county board of supervisors.

(c) The probation officer shall be authorized to staff, maintain, and operate counseling and educational centers. The probation officer shall be authorized to contract with private and public agencies, societies or corporations whose purpose is to provide vocational training or skills. Such centers may be operated separately or in conjunction with crisis resolution homes to be operated by the probation officer. The probation officer shall be authorized to make referrals to the appropriate existing private or public agencies offering similar services when available.

At the conclusion of the program of supervision undertaken pursuant to this section, the probation officer shall prepare and maintain a followup report of the actual program measures taken.

SEC. 23. Section 655 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

655. (a) When any person has applied to the probation officer, pursuant to Section 653, to request commencement of juvenile court proceedings to declare a minor a ward of the court under Section 602 and the probation officer does not cause the affidavit to be taken to the prosecuting attorney pursuant to Section 653 within 21 court days after such application, such person may, within 30 court days after making such application, apply to the prosecuting attorney to review the decision of the probation officer, and the prosecuting attorney may either affirm the decision of the probation officer or commence juvenile court proceedings.

(b) When any person has applied to the probation officer, pursuant to Section 653, to commence juvenile court proceedings to declare a minor a dependent child of the court or a ward of the court under Section 601 and the probation officer fails to file a petition within 21 court days after such application, such person may, within 30 days after making such application, apply to the juvenile court to review the decision of the probation officer, and the court may either affirm the decision of the probation officer or order him to commence juvenile court proceedings.

SEC. 24.5. Section 656.1 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

656.1. Any petition alleging that the minor is a person described by Section 602 shall specify as to each count whether the crime charged is a felony or a misdemeanor.

SEC. 25. Section 681 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 26. Section 681 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

681. (a) In a juvenile court hearing which is based upon a petition that alleges that the minor upon whose behalf the petition is being brought is a person within the description of Section 602, the prosecuting attorney shall appear on behalf of the people of the State of California.

(b) In a juvenile court hearing which is based upon a petition that alleges that the minor upon whose behalf the petition is being brought is a person within the description of Section 601 and the minor who is the subject of the hearing is represented by counsel, the prosecuting attorney may, with the consent or at the request of the juvenile court judge, or at the request of the probation officer with the consent of the juvenile court judge, appear and participate in the hearing to assist in the ascertaining and presenting of the evidence. Where the petition in a juvenile court proceeding alleges that a minor is a person described in subdivision (a), (b), or (d) of Section 600, and either of the parents, or the guardian, or other person having care or custody of the minor, or who resides in the home of the minor, is charged in a pending criminal prosecution based upon unlawful acts committed against the minor, the prosecuting attorney shall, with the consent or at the request of the juvenile court judge, represent the minor in the interest of the state at the juvenile court proceeding. The terms and conditions of such representation shall be with the consent or approval of the judge of the juvenile court.

SEC. 27. Section 701 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

701. At the hearing, the court shall first consider only the question whether the minor is a person described by Section 600, 601, or 602. The admission and exclusion of evidence shall be pursuant to the rules of evidence established by the Evidence Code and by judicial decision. Proof beyond a reasonable doubt supported by evidence, legally admissible in the trial of criminal cases, must be adduced to support a finding that the minor is a person described by Section 602, and a preponderance of evidence, legally admissible in the trial of civil cases must be adduced to support a finding that the minor is a person described by Section 600 or 601. When it appears that the minor has made an extrajudicial admission or confession and denies the same at the hearing, the court may continue the hearing for not to exceed seven days to enable the prosecuting attorney to subpoena witnesses to attend the hearing to prove the allegations of the petition. If the minor is not represented by counsel at the hearing, it shall be deemed that objections that could have been made to the evidence were made.

SEC. 28. Section 702 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

702. After hearing such evidence, the court shall make a finding, noted in the minutes of the court, whether or not the minor is a person described by Section 600, 601, or 602. If it finds that the minor is not such a person, it shall order that the petition be dismissed and the minor be discharged from any detention or restriction theretofore ordered. If the court finds that the minor is such a person, it shall make and enter its findings and order accordingly, and shall then proceed to hear evidence on the question of the proper disposition to be made of the minor. Prior to doing so, it may continue the hearing, if necessary, to receive the social study of the probation officer or to receive other evidence on its own motion or the motion of a parent or guardian for not to exceed 10 judicial days if the minor is detained during such continuance, and if the minor is not detained, it may continue the hearing to a date not later than 30 days after the date of filing of the petition. The court may, for good cause shown continue the hearing for an additional 15 days, if the minor is not detained. The court may make such order for detention of the minor or his release from detention, during the period of the continuance, as is appropriate.

If the minor is found to have committed an offense which would in the case of an adult be punishable alternatively as a felony or a misdemeanor, the court shall declare the offense to be a misdemeanor or felony.

SEC. 28.5. Section 707 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

707. (a) In any case in which a minor is alleged to be a person described in Section 602 by reason of the violation, when he was 16 years of age or older, of any criminal statute or ordinance except those listed in subdivision (b), upon motion of the petitioner made prior to the attachment of jeopardy the court shall cause the probation officer to investigate and submit a report on the behavioral patterns and social history of the minor being considered for unfitness. Following submission and consideration of the report, and of any other relevant evidence which the petitioner or the minor may wish to submit the juvenile court may find that the minor is not a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law if it concludes that the minor would not be amenable to the care, treatment and training program available through the facilities of the juvenile court, based upon an evaluation of the following criteria:

(1) The degree of criminal sophistication exhibited by the minor.

(2) Whether the minor can be rehabilitated prior to the expiration of the juvenile court's jurisdiction.

(3) The minor's previous delinquent history.

(4) Success of previous attempts by the juvenile court to rehabilitate the minor.

(5) The circumstances and gravity of the offense alleged to have been committed by the minor.

A determination that the minor is not a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law may be based on any one or a combination of the factors set forth above, which shall be recited in the order of unfitness. In any case in which a hearing has been noticed pursuant to this section, the court shall postpone the taking of a plea to the petition until the conclusion of the fitness hearing, and no plea which may already have been entered shall constitute evidence at such hearing.

(b) In any case in which a minor is alleged to be a person described in Section 602 by reason of the violation, when he was 16 years of age or older, of one of the following offenses:

(1) Murder;

(2) Arson of an inhabited building;

(3) Robbery while armed with a dangerous or deadly weapon;

(4) Rape with force or violence or threat of great bodily harm;

(5) Kidnapping for ransom;

(6) Kidnapping for purpose of robbery;

(7) Kidnapping with bodily harm;

(8) Assault with intent to murder or attempted murder;

(9) Assault with a firearm or destructive device;

(10) Assault by any means of force likely to produce great bodily injury;

(11) Discharge of a firearm into an inhabited or occupied building, upon motion of the petitioner made prior to the attachment of jeopardy the court shall cause the probation officer to investigate and submit a report on the behavioral patterns and social history of the minor being considered for unfitness. Following submission and consideration of the report, and of any other relevant evidence which the petitioner or the minor may wish to submit the juvenile court shall find that the minor is not a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law unless it concludes that the minor would be amenable to the care, treatment and training program available through the facilities of the juvenile court based upon an evaluation of the following criteria:

(i) The degree of criminal sophistication exhibited by the minor, and

(ii) Whether the minor can be rehabilitated prior to the expiration of the juvenile court's jurisdiction, and

(iii) The minor's previous delinquent history, and

(iv) Success of previous attempts by the juvenile court to rehabilitate the minor, and

(v) The circumstances and gravity of the offenses alleged to have been committed by the minor.

A determination that the minor is a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law shall be based on a finding of amenability after consideration of the criteria set forth above, and reasons therefor shall be recited in the order. In any case in which a hearing has been noticed pursuant to this section, the court shall postpone the taking of a plea to the petition until the conclusion of the fitness hearing and no plea which may already have been entered shall constitute evidence at such hearing.

SEC. 29. Section 726 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

726. In all cases wherein a minor is adjudged a ward or dependent child of the court, the court may limit the control to be exercised over such ward or dependent child by any parent or guardian and shall by its order clearly and specifically set forth all such limitations, but no ward or dependent child shall be taken from the physical custody of a parent or guardian unless upon the hearing the court finds one of the following facts:

(a) That the parent or guardian is incapable of providing or has failed or neglected to provide proper maintenance, training, and education for the minor.

(b) That the minor has been tried on probation in such custody and has failed to reform.

(c) That the welfare of the minor requires that his custody be taken from his parent or guardian.

In any case in which the minor is removed from the physical custody of his parent or guardian as the result of an order or wardship made pursuant to Section 602, the order shall specify that the minor may not be held in physical confinement for a period in excess of the maximum term of imprisonment which could be imposed upon an adult convicted of the offense which brought the minor under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court. "Physical confinement", for purposes of this section, means placement in a juvenile home, ranch, camp, or forestry camp pursuant to Section 730, in any institution operated by the Youth Authority. Nothing in this section limits the power of the court to retain the minor on probationary status for the period permitted by Section 607, and the court may permit a minor to remain in any home or placement facility beyond such maximum term upon the minor's voluntary request.

SEC. 29.3. Section 727 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

727. When a minor is adjudged a dependent child of the court, on the ground that he is a person described by Section 600, or is adjudged a ward of the court on the ground that he is a person described by Section 601, the court may make any and all reasonable orders for the care, supervision, custody, conduct, maintenance, and support of such minor, including medical treatment, subject to further order of the court.

The court may order the care, custody, control and conduct of such minor to be under the supervision of the probation officer or may commit such minor to the care, custody and control of:

(a) Some reputable person of good moral character who consents to such commitment.

(b) Some association, society, or corporation embracing within its objects the purpose of caring for such minors, with the consent of such association, society, or corporation.

(c) The probation officer, to be boarded out or placed in some suitable family home or suitable private institution, subject to the requirements of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 16000) of Part 4 of Division 9; provided, however, that pending action by the State Department of Health, the placement of a minor in a home certified as meeting minimum standards for boardinghomes by the probation officer shall be legal for all purposes.

(d) Any other public agency organized to provide care for needy or neglected children.

When a minor is adjudged a dependent child of the court, on the ground that he is a person described by Section 600 and the court orders that a parent or guardian shall retain custody of such minor subject to the supervision of the probation officer, the parent or guardian may be required, and may be ordered, to participate in a counseling program to be provided by an appropriate agency designated by the court. When a minor is adjudged a dependent child of the court on the ground that he is a person described by subdivision (d) of Section 600 and the court orders that a parent or guardian shall retain custody of such minor subject to the supervision of the probation officer, the parent or guardian shall be required to participate in a counseling program to be provided by an appropriate agency, designated by the court.

When a minor has been adjudged a ward of the court on the ground that he is a person described in Section 601 or 602 and the court finds that notice has been given in accordance with Section 661, and when the court orders that a parent or guardian shall retain custody of such minor subject to the supervision of the probation officer, the parent or guardian may be required to participate with such minor in a counseling program to be provided by an appropriate agency designated by the court.

SEC. 29.5. Section 730 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

730. When a minor is adjudged a ward of the court on the ground that he is a person described by Section 602, the court may order any of the types of treatment referred to in Section 727, and as an additional alternative, may commit the minor to a juvenile home, ranch, camp or forestry camp. If there is no county juvenile home, ranch, camp or forestry camp within the county, the court may commit the minor to the county juvenile hall.

When such ward is placed under the supervision of the probation officer or committed to his care, custody and control, the court may make any and all reasonable orders for the conduct of such ward including the requirement that he go to work and earn money for the support of his dependents or to effect reparation and in either case that he keep an account of his earnings and report the same to the probation officer and apply such earnings as directed by the court. The court may impose and require any and all reasonable conditions that it may determine fitting and proper to the end that justice may be done and the reformation and rehabilitation of the ward enhanced.

SEC. 30. Section 731 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

731. When a minor is adjudged a ward of the court on the ground that he is a person described by Section 602, the court may order any of the types of treatment referred to in Sections 727 and 730, and, in addition may order the ward to make restitution or to participate in uncompensated work programs or may commit the ward to a shelter-care facility or may order that the ward and his family or guardian participate in a program of professional counseling as arranged and directed by the probation officer as a condition of continued custody of such minor or may commit the minor to the Youth Authority.

A minor committed to the Youth Authority may not be held in physical confinement for a period of time in excess of the maximum period of imprisonment which could be imposed upon an adult convicted of the offense which brought the minor under jurisdiction of the juvenile court. Nothing in this section limits the power of the Youth Authority to retain the minor on parole status for the period permitted by Section 1769.

SEC. 32. Article 13.1 (commencing with Section 840) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 13.1. Home Supervision

840. There shall be in each county probation department a program of home supervision to which minors described by subdivision (a) of Section 628.1 shall be referred. Home supervision is a program in which persons who would otherwise be detained in the juvenile hall are permitted to remain in their homes pending court disposition of their cases, under the supervision of a probation officer or probation aide.

841. The duties of a probation officer or probation aide assigned to home supervision are to assure the minor's appearance at probation officer interviews and court hearings and to assure that the minor obeys the conditions of his release and commits no public offenses pending final disposition of his case. A probation officer or aide assigned to home supervision shall have a caseload of no more than 10 minors. Whenever possible, a minor shall be assigned to a probation officer or aide who resides in the same community as the minor.

SEC. 32.5. Section 881 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

881. The board of supervisors of any county may, by ordinance, establish juvenile homes, ranches, camps, or forestry camps, within or without the county, to which persons made wards of the court on the ground of fitting the description in Section 602 may be committed. As far as possible, the provisions of this chapter relating to commitments to the probation officer shall apply to commitments to such juvenile homes, except that where any ward proves to be unfit to remain in any such home, in the opinion of the superintendent or director thereof, said superintendent or director shall make recommendation to the probation department for consideration for other commitment. Complete operation and authority for the administration shall be vested in the county.

SEC. 33. Section 1737.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

1737.1. Whenever any person who has been charged with or convicted of a public offense in adult court and committed to the authority appears to the authority, either at the time of his presentation or after having become an inmate of any institution or facility subject to the jurisdiction of the authority, to be an improper person to be retained in any such institution or facility, or to be so incorrigible or so incapable of reformation under the discipline of the authority as to render his detention detrimental to the interests of the authority and the other persons committed thereto, the authority may return him to the committing court. In the case of a person convicted of a public offense, said court may then commit him to a state prison or sentence him to a county jail as provided by law for punishment of the offense of which he was convicted. The maximum term of imprisonment for a person committed to a state prison under this section shall be a period equal to the maximum term prescribed by law for the offense of which he was convicted less the period during which he was under the control of the Youth Authority. The Adult Authority may, after seeking the advice of the Youth Authority, allow any such person time credit reductions from his term of confinement according to the table set forth in Section 2920 of the Penal Code for the time during which such person was under the control of the Youth Authority. This section shall not apply to commitments from juvenile court.

SEC. 34. Section 1769 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

1769. (a) Every person committed to the authority by a juvenile court shall, except as provided in subdivision (b), be discharged upon the expiration of a two-year period of control or when the person reaches his 21st birthday, whichever occurs later, unless an order for further detention has been made by the committing court pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 1800).

(b) Every person committed to the authority by a juvenile court who has been found to be a person described in Section 602 by reason of the violation, when such person was 16 years of age or older, of any of the offenses listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707, shall be discharged upon the expiration of a two-year period of control or when the person reaches his or her 23rd birthday, whichever occurs later, unless an order for further detention has been made by the committing court pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 1800).

SEC. 35. It is the intent of the Legislature that, commencing on January 1, 1979, at least one-half of the judicial officers hearing and disposing of matters in the juvenile court be judges of the juvenile court.

SEC. 36. Section 635 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

635. The court will examine such minor, his parent, guardian, or other person having relevant knowledge, hear such relevant evidence as the minor, his parent or guardian or their counsel desires to present, and, unless it appears that such minor has violated an order of the juvenile court or has escaped from the commitment of the juvenile court or that it is a matter of immediate and urgent necessity for the protection of such minor or reasonably necessary for the protection of the person or property of another that he be detained or that such minor is likely to flee to avoid the jurisdiction of the court, the court shall make its order releasing such minor from custody.

The circumstances and gravity of the alleged offense may be considered, in conjunction with other factors, to determine whether it is a matter of immediate and urgent necessity for the protection of the minor or the person or property of another that the minor be detained.

SEC. 37. Section 636 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

636. If it appears upon the hearing that such minor has violated an order of the juvenile court or has escaped from a commitment of the juvenile court or that it is a matter of immediate and urgent necessity for the protection of such minor or reasonably necessary for the protection of the person or property of another that he be detained or that such minor is likely to flee to avoid the jurisdiction of the court, the court may make its order that such minor be detained in the juvenile hall or other suitable place designated by the juvenile court for a period not to exceed 15 judicial days and shall enter said order together with its findings of fact in support thereof in the records of the court. The circumstances and gravity of the alleged offense may be considered, in conjunction with other factors, to determine whether it is a matter of immediate and urgent necessity for the protection of the minor or the person or property of another that the minor be detained.

If the court finds that the criteria of Section 628.1 are applicable, the court may, and after the operative date of that section the court shall, place the minor on home supervision for a period not to exceed 15 judicial days, and shall enter such order together with its findings of fact in support thereof in the records of the court. If the court releases the minor on home supervision, the court may continue, modify, or augment any conditions of release previously imposed by the probation officer, or may impose new conditions on a minor released for the first time. If there are new or modified conditions, the minor shall be required to sign a written promise to obey such conditions pursuant to Section 628.1.

SEC. 38. Section 727 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

727. (1) When a minor is adjudged a dependent child of the court, on the ground that he is a person described by Section 600, or is adjudged a ward of the court on the ground that he is a person described by Section 601 the court may make any and all reasonable orders for the care, supervision, custody, conduct, maintenance, and support of such minor, including medical treatment, subject to further order of the court.

The court may order the care, custody, control and conduct of such minor to be under the supervision of the probation officer or may commit such minor to the care, custody and control of:

(a) Some reputable person of good moral character who consents to such commitment.

(b) Some association, society, or corporation embracing within its objects the purpose of caring for such minors, with the consent of such association, society, or corporation.

(c) The probation officer, to be boarded out or placed in some suitable family home or suitable private institution, subject to the requirements of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 16000) of Part 4 of Division 9; provided, however, that pending action by the State Department of Health, the placement of a minor in a home certified as meeting minimum standards for boardinghomes by the probation officer shall be legal for all purposes.

(d) Any other public agency organized to provide care for needy or neglected children.

orders that a parent or guardian shall retain custody of such minor subject to the supervision of the probation officer, the parent or guardian may be required, and may be ordered, to participate in a counseling program to be provided by an appropriate agency designated by the court. When a minor is adjudged a dependent child of the court on the ground that he is a person described by subdivision (d) of Section 600 and the court orders that a parent or guardian shall retain custody of such minor subject to the supervision of the probation officer, the parent or guardian shall be required to participate in a counseling program to be provided by an appropriate agency, designated by the court.

When a minor has been adjudged a ward of the court on the ground that he is a person described in Section 601 or 602 and the court finds that notice has been given in accordance with Section 661, and when the court orders that a parent or guardian shall retain custody of such minor subject to the supervision of the probation officer, the parent or guardian may be required to participate with such minor in a counseling program to be provided by an appropriate agency designated by the court.

(2) The juvenile court may direct any and all reasonable orders to the parents and guardians of the minor who is the subject of any proceedings under this chapter as the court deems necessary and proper to carry out the provisions of subdivision (1).

SEC. 39. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1694 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1977, both bills amend Sections 635, 636, and 727 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1694, that the amendments to Sections 635, 636, and 727 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Sections 635, 636, and 727 in the forms set forth, respectively, in Sections 36, 37, and 38 of this act. Therefore, Sections 36, 37, and 38 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1694 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1977, both amend Sections 636, 637, and 727, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1694, in which case Sections 16.5, 17, and 29.3 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 40. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because there are savings as well as costs in this act which, in the aggregate, do not result in additional net costs.

CHAPTER 1072

An act to add Title 1.6B (commencing with Section 1787.1) to Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, relating to credit.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

4973 28 12 205 957

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Title 1.6B (commencing with Section 1787.1) is added to Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, to read:

TITLE 1.6B. CONSUMER CREDIT DENIAL

Article 1. General Provisions

1787.1. This title may be cited as "The Holden Credit Denial Disclosure Act of 1976."

1787.2. (a) Within 30 days, or at a later reasonable time as specified in federal law or regulations, after receipt of a completed written application for credit, a creditor shall notify the applicant of its action on the application.

(b) Each applicant denied credit shall be entitled to a statement of reasons for such action from the creditor. A creditor satisfies this obligation by:

(1) Providing statements of reasons in writing as a matter of course to applicants denied credit; or

(2) Giving written notification of credit denial which discloses:

(i) The applicant's right to a statement of reasons within 30 days after receipt by the creditor of a request made within 60 days after such notification; and

(ii) The identity and address of the person or office from which the statement of reasons may be obtained.

(3) The statement of reasons may be given orally if the written notification advises the applicant of the right to have the statement of reasons confirmed in writing on written request.

(c) A statement of reasons meets the requirements of this section only if it contains the specific reasons for the credit denial.

(d) Where a creditor has been requested by a third party to make a specific extension of credit directly or indirectly to an applicant, the notification and statement of reasons required by this section may be made directly by such creditor, or indirectly through the third party, provided in either case that the identity of the creditor is disclosed.

(e) For purposes of this section:

(1) The term "applicant" means a natural person who applies for credit primarily for personal, family or household purposes.

(2) The term "credit denial" means a denial or revocation of credit, a change in the terms of an existing credit arrangement, or a refusal to grant credit in substantially the amount or on substantially the terms requested. Such term does not include a refusal to extend additional credit under an existing credit arrangement where the applicant is delinquent or otherwise in default, or where such additional credit would exceed a previously established credit limit without a specific written application or written request for an increase in the credit limit.

(3) The term "creditor" refers only to creditors who regularly extend, or arrange for the extension of, credit whether in connection with loans, sales of property or services, or otherwise.

(f) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit any authority, derived from other provisions of law, of any state department or agency.

Article 2. Remedies

1787.3. (a) Any creditor who fails to comply with any requirement of Section 1787.2 shall be liable for any actual damages sustained by an applicant as a result of such failure.

(b) Any creditor, other than a government or governmental subdivision or agency, who fails to comply with any requirement imposed under this title shall be liable to the aggrieved applicant for punitive damages in an amount not greater than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), in addition to any actual damages provided in subdivision (a), except that in the case of a class action the total recovery under this subdivision shall not exceed the lesser of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) or 1 percent of the net worth of the creditor. In determining the amount of such damages in any action, the court shall consider, among other relevant factors, the amount of any actual damages awarded, the frequency and persistence of failures of compliance by the creditor, the resources of the creditor, the number of persons adversely affected, and the extent to which the creditor's failure of compliance was intentional.

(c) In the case of any action brought by an aggrieved applicant under subdivision (a) or (b), the costs of the action, together with a reasonable attorney's fee as determined by the court, shall be added to any damages awarded by the court.

(d) No provision of this title imposing liability shall apply to any act done or omitted in good faith in conformity with any official rule, regulation, or interpretation thereby by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System or in conformity with any interpretation or approval by an official or employee of the Federal Reserve System duly authorized by the board to issue such interpretations or approvals under such procedures as the board may prescribe therefor, notwithstanding that after such act or omission has occurred, such rule, regulation, interpretation, or approval is amended, rescinded, or determined by judicial or other authority to be invalid for any reason.

(e) Actions alleging a failure to comply with any requirement of Section 1787.2 shall be brought within two years from the date of the occurrence of the violation.

SEC. 2. This act shall become operative on March 31, 1977.

4973 28 12 245 965

CHAPTER 1073

An act to amend Sections 3214, 3216, 3234, 3734, 3736, and 3752 of the Public Resources Code, relating to resources, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3214 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3214. The log shall be kept in the local office of the owner or operator, and, together with the tour reports of the owner or operator, shall be subject, during business hours, to the inspection of the supervisor, the district deputy, or the director.

SEC. 2. Section 3216 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3216. The owner or operator of any well, or his local agent, shall file with the supervisor a copy of the log, history, and core record, or any portion thereof, at any time after the commencement of the work of drilling any well upon written request of the supervisor, or the district deputy. The request shall be signed by the supervisor, or the district deputy, and served either personally, or by mailing a copy of the request, by registered mail, to the last known post office address of the owner or operator, or his agent.

SEC. 3. Section 3234 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3234. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, all the well records, including production reports, of any owner or operator which are filed pursuant to this chapter shall be public records for purposes of the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code).

Such records shall be public records when filed with the division unless the owner or operator requests, in writing, the division to retain the well records confidential. For onshore wells, the confidential period shall not exceed two years from the cessation of drilling operations as defined in subdivision (e). For offshore wells, the confidential period shall not exceed five years from the cessation of drilling operations as defined in subdivision (e).

Well records retained confidential by the division shall be open to inspection to those persons authorized in writing by the owner or operator. Confidential status shall not apply to state officers charged with regulating well operations, the director, or as provided in subdivision (c).

Upon receipt by the supervisor of a written request documenting extenuating circumstances pertaining to a particular well, the supervisor may extend for six months the period of confidentiality to prospect well records and offshore well records. For prospect wells, the total period of confidentiality, including all extensions, shall not exceed four years from the cessation of drilling operations as defined in subdivision (e), and for offshore wells the total period of confidentiality, including all extensions, shall not exceed seven years from the cessation of drilling operations as defined in subdivision (e), unless a longer period of time is approved by the director after a public hearing.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), the well records for offshore wells shall become public records on the expiration of the lease if such lease expires prior to the period of the confidentiality resulting from the provisions of subdivision (a).

(c) Production reports filed pursuant to Section 3227 shall be open to inspection to the State Board of Equalization or its duly appointed representatives when making a survey pursuant to Section 1815 of the Revenue and Taxation Code or when valuing state-assessed property pursuant to Section 751 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and to the assessor of the county in which a well referred to in Section 3227 is located.

(d) For the purposes of this section, "well records" shall not include either experimental logs and tests or interpretive data not generally available to all operators, as defined by the supervisor by regulation.

(e) Cessation of drilling operations occurs on the date of removal of drilling machinery from the well site.

SEC. 4. Section 3734 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3734. The log shall be kept in the local office of the owner or operator and, together with the tour reports of the owner or operator, shall be subject, during business hours, to the inspection of the board, the supervisor, or the district deputy.

SEC. 5. Section 3736 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3736. The owner or operator of any well, or his local agent, shall file with the supervisor a copy of the log, history, and core record, or any portion thereof, at any time after the commencement of the work of drilling any well upon written request of the supervisor, or the district deputy. The request shall be signed by the supervisor, or the district deputy, and served either personally, or by mailing a copy of the request, by registered mail, to the last known post office address of the owner or operator, or his agent.

SEC. 6. Section 3752 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3752. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, all the well records, including production records, of any owner or operator which are filed pursuant to this chapter shall be public records for purposes of the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code).

Such records shall be public records when filed with the division, unless the owner or operator requests, in writing, the division to retain the well records confidential. The confidential period shall not exceed five years from the date of production or injection for other than testing purposes or abandonment, whichever occurs first. Well records retained confidential by the division shall be open to inspection to those persons authorized in writing by the owner or operator. For the purpose of this section, "date of production for other than testing purposes" means the date on which, in the judgment of the supervisor, sustainable production commenced into a power generating plant, greenhouse, space heating unit, chemical or mineral extraction plant, or other facility dependent wholly or in part upon geothermal resources for its operation. Confidential status shall not apply to state officers charged with regulating well operations, the director, or as provided in subdivision (b).

Upon receipt by the supervisor of a written request documenting extenuating circumstances pertaining to a particular well, the supervisor may extend for six months the period of confidentiality. The total period of confidentiality, including all extensions, shall not exceed seven years from the date of production or injection for other than testing purposes or abandonment, unless a longer period of time is approved by the director after a public hearing.

(b) Production reports filed pursuant to Section 3745 shall be open to inspection to the State Board of Equalization or its duly appointed representative when making a survey pursuant to Section 1815 of the Revenue and Taxation Code or when valuing state-assessed property pursuant to Section 751 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and to the assessor of the county in which a well referred to in Section 3745 is located.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "well records" shall not include either experimental logs and tests or interpretive data not generally available to all operators, as defined by the supervisor by regulation.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order to clarify certain provisions governing the confidentiality of oil, gas, and geothermal well records which will be given effect on July 1, 1976, and to thereby provide for the efficient regulation of such wells by the state, it is necessary that the provisions of this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1074

An act to amend Sections 4186 and 4425 of, and to add Sections 4423.1, 4423.2, 4423.3, 4423.4, and 4423.5 to, the Public Resources Code, relating to forest protection, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4186 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

4186. All money which is received by this state pursuant to the Clarke-McNary Act and which is regularly allotted by the federal government according to an annual formula shall be paid into the General Fund. Any supplemental money received from the federal government pursuant to the Clarke-McNary Act for use by the division for specially designated projects shall be authorized by the Director of Finance for augmentation of the subitem captioned "Reimbursements" of the principal item of appropriation from the General Fund for the support of the department contained in the Budget Act for the fiscal year during which such supplemental money is received; provided, however, that the Director of Finance may not authorize such augmentation sooner than 30 days after notification in writing of the necessity therefor to the chairman of the committee in each house which considers appropriations and to the Chairman of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee or sooner than such lesser time as the chairman of such committee, or his designee, may in each instance determine.

SEC. 2. Section 4423.1 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

4423.1. Burning under permit or other uses of open fire by any person on public or private lands, except within incorporated cities, may be suspended or otherwise prohibited by proclamation. The following public officers may issue such a proclamation, which shall be applicable within their respective jurisdictions:

(a) The State Forester.

(b) Any county fire warden with the approval of the State Forester.

(c) The federal officers directing activities within California of the United States Bureau of Land Management, the National Park Service, and the United States Forest Service.

Such proclamation may be issued when in the judgment of the issuing public official the menace of destruction by fire to life, improved property, or natural resources is, or is forecast to become, extreme due to critical fire weather, fire suppression forces being heavily committed to control fires already burning, acute dryness of the vegetation, or other factors that may cause the rapid spread of fire. A proclamation shall be effective on issuance or at a time specified therein and remain in effect until an order of termination is issued. The proclamation shall declare the conditions that necessitate its issuance, designate the geographic area to which it applies, require that all or specified uses of open fire or burning under permit be suspended until the conditions necessitating the proclamation abate, and identify the public official issuing the proclamation. The proclamation shall be immediately released to the news media serving the area affected. Upon termination of a proclamation, the public shall be given immediate notice thereof through the news media serving the area affected thereby.

The proclamation may be issued without complying with provisions of Chapters 4.5 (commencing with Section 11371) and 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1, Division 3, Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 3. Section 4423.2 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

4423.2. Whenever the use of open fire or burning under permit has been suspended by proclamation pursuant to Section 4423.1, the officer having jurisdiction may issue a restricted temporary burning permit in instances in which the continuation of burning or use of open fire may be essential for reasons of public health, safety, or welfare. Such permit may stipulate any special precautions that must be followed to reduce the risk of uncontrolled fire originating from such operation. Violation of the terms of a restricted temporary burning permit is a misdemeanor and any person upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250). No part of such fine shall be suspended. The court may permit the fine prescribed by this section to be paid in installments if the court determines that the defendant is unable to pay the fine in one lump sum.

SEC. 4. Section 4423.3 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

4423.3. Issuance of a proclamation pursuant to Section 4423.1 shall not preclude the use of a campfire when kindled in facilities constructed for that purpose within the confines of a campground established, maintained, and open for public use, whether publicly or privately owned, unless such activity is specifically prohibited in the text of the proclamation.

SEC. 5. Section 4423.4 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

4423.4. Issuance of a proclamation pursuant to Section 4423.1 shall not preclude smoking on the following private or public lands unless smoking is specifically prohibited by proclamation or county ordinance:

(a) Within motor vehicles while operating or parked on established roads, rest stops, or parking areas cleared of flammable vegetation.

41670 28 12335 983

(b) Within established campgrounds open to the public.

(c) Within an area that is at least three feet or approximately one meter in diameter which has been cleared to mineral soil by removal of all flammable vegetation and duff.

SEC. 6. Section 4423.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

4423.5. Use of open fire or burning under permit within an area closed by proclamation pursuant to the provisions of Section 4423.1, except as provided in Sections 4423.2, 4423.3, and 4423.4, is a misdemeanor and any person upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100). No part of such fine shall be suspended. The court may permit the fine prescribed by this section to be paid in installments if the court determines that the defendant is unable to pay the fine in one lump sum.

SEC. 7. Section 4425 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

4425. Any violation of the terms of a burning permit issued pursuant to Section 4423, a restricted temporary burning permit issued pursuant to Section 4423.2, or a campfire permit issued pursuant to Section 4433 renders the permit null and void.

SEC. 8. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local governmental entities which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant, identifiable cost changes.

SEC. 9. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Because an exceptionally high risk of forest and grass fires exists and will persist until the winter rains commence in 1976, it is essential that this act take effect immediately.

The definition of "expenditure" in Section 82025 is not applicable to this section.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

In order that this revised method of funding the operation of the Political Reform Act may be in effect for the 1976–77 fiscal year this bill must be given immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1076

CHAPTER 1077

An act to add Section 12022.5 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to sale of meat.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12022.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

12022.5. Fresh meat or roasts of any kind or cut shall be exposed, advertised, offered for sale or sold on the basis of net weight of the fresh meat or roast only, and any added fat of any kind whatsoever either wrapped within or injected with a larding needle or otherwise inserted in such fresh meat or roast shall be considered as tare weight only.

Notwithstanding the above provision, added fat shall not be considered tare weight if the meat package containing such added fat is clearly and prominently labeled in eight-point type or larger with the term "fat added."

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local governmental entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

SEC. 50. Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 1130) is added to Part 3 of Division 2 of the Labor Code, to read:

CHAPTER 8. PROFESSIONAL STRIKEBREAKERS

Article 1. Findings and Declarations

1130. The Legislature hereby makes the following findings and declarations:

Relations between organized labor and management in this state have for many years been marked by a mature adherence to the principles of good faith, collective bargaining and mutual respect for the rights, interest and well-being of working people, business and industry. The importation or use in this state of professional strikebreakers as replacements during a strike or lockout endangers such sound and beneficial relations between labor and management.

Experience in this state and in other parts of this country demonstrates that the utilization of professional strikebreakers in labor disputes is inimical to the public welfare and good order, in that such practices tend to produce and prolong industrial strife, frustrate collective bargaining and encourage violence, crimes and other disorders.

The aforementioned evils are beyond the regulation of applicable federal law, and the mitigation and correction thereof requires the exercise of the police power of this state.

7375. (a) A patient committed to a state hospital or other facility under the provisions of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1367), Title 10, Part 2, of the Penal Code, shall, upon the certificate of the medical director of the hospital or facility that the person has recovered, approved by the superior judge of the county from which the patient was committed, be redelivered to the sheriff of such county, and dealt with in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 6 of the Penal Code. The sheriff shall immediately return the person to the court for further proceedings. Within two judicial days of the person's return, the court shall hold a hearing to determine whether the person is entitled to be admitted to bail or released on his own recognizance pending conclusion of the proceedings.

(b) A person committed to a state hospital or other facility under the provisions of Section 1026 of the Penal Code shall be released therefrom only upon determination that his sanity has been restored, as provided in Sections 1026 and 1026a of the Penal Code, except as otherwise expressly provided in subdivision (c) or (d) of this section.

(c) Whenever any such person has been confined in a state hospital or other facility for 90 days or more, after having been committed to a state hospital or other facility under the provisions of Section 1026 of the Penal Code in a criminal proceeding in which the offense alleged to have been committed by such person was punishable by a penalty other than death, and the medical director of the hospital or facility is of the opinion that the person has improved to such an extent that he is no longer a danger to the health and safety of others and that the person will receive benefit from parole, the medical director may certify said opinion to the committing court and to the county mental health director or his designee. Within 30 days after the receipt of the certification, after notice to the person, the prosecuting attorney, the attorney of record for the person, and the county mental health director or his designee, the court shall, after a hearing in open court, approve or disapprove such recommendation. The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the county mental health director or his designee. If the approval of the court is given, the medical director of the hospital or other facility may parole the person under such terms and conditions as the medical director specifies. The parole may include releasing the person to the custody of the local mental health director in the county from which the person was committed, for one or more periods not to exceed 30 days in each case, to facilitate the adjustment of the person to the community pending a determination with regard to his restoration of sanity. The parole shall be on the same general terms and conditions as parole of the mentally disordered committed under the provisions of this code. If the court disapproves of such recommendation, no further recommendation for parole shall be made by the medical director until six months have elapsed from the date of the last preceding recommendations.

(d) Whenever any such person has been confined in a state hospital or other facility for three years or more, after having been committed to a state hospital or other facility under the provisions of Section 1026 of the Penal Code in a criminal proceeding in which the offense alleged to have been committed by such person was punishable by death, and the medical director of the hospital or facility is of the opinion that the person has improved to such an extent that he is no longer a danger to the health and safety of others and that the person will receive benefit from parole, the medical director may certify said opinion to the committing court and to the county mental health director or his designee. Within 30 days after the receipt of the certification, after notice to the prosecuting attorney and the county mental health director or his designee, the court shall, after a hearing in open court, approve or disapprove such recommendation. The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the county mental health director or his designee. If the approval of the court is given, the medical director of the hospital or other facility may parole the person under such terms and conditions as the medical director specifies. The parole may include releasing the person to the custody of the local mental health director in the county from which the person was committed, for one or more periods not to exceed 30 days in each case, to facilitate the adjustment of the person to the community pending a determination with regard to his restoration of sanity. The parole shall be on the same general terms and conditions as parole of the mentally disordered committed under the provisions of this code. If the court disapproves of such recommendation, no further recommendation for parole shall be made by the medical director until six months have elapsed from the date of the last preceding recommendation.

(1) If the medical director of the state hospital or other facility is of the opinion that a person who has been committed to the state hospital or other facility pursuant to Section 1026 of the Penal Code has improved to such an extent that he is no longer a danger to the health and safety of others while on outpatient treatment and will benefit from outpatient treatment, the medical director may allow the person to be treated as an outpatient.

An announcement of intent to place the person on outpatient status shall be filed with the court of commitment, the prosecuting attorney, and attorney of record for the person at least 15 days in advance of the change in status. The court may hold a hearing and (1) approve or disapprove of the plan or (2) take no action, in which case the plan shall be deemed approved. The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the county mental health director or his designee. At the request of the prosecuting attorney, a hearing shall be held. Prior to filing such announcement of intent the medical director shall obtain the agreement of the county mental health director, the person in charge of a mental health facility and the person who has been recommended for outpatient treatment, that the person will receive and submit to outpatient treatment and that the person in charge of the facility will designate a person to be the outpatient supervisor of the person. At 90-day intervals following the beginning of outpatient treatment, the outpatient supervisor shall make a report in writing to the court, the state hospital or other facility to which the person was committed and to the person in charge of the mental health facility setting forth the status and progress of the person. The maximum period of such treatment shall not exceed one year. The court may at the end of such maximum period renew its approval for additional outpatient treatment upon the recommendation of the medical director of the state hospital or facility. The court shall communicate such renewal to the county mental health director or his designee.

(2) When the outpatient supervisor is of the opinion that the person has regained his sanity, the supervisor shall communicate such opinion to the person in charge of the facility, and if the person in charge of the facility concurs, he shall certify the opinion to the person, the committing court, the prosecuting attorney, the attorney of record for the person, and the county mental health director or his designee. The court shall calendar the case for further proceedings for release pursuant to Penal Code Section 1026a.

(3) If at any time during an outpatient treatment period the outpatient supervisor is of the opinion that the person refuses to accept outpatient treatment, or requires inpatient treatment, he shall communicate such opinion or refusal to the person in charge of the facility. If the person in charge of the facility concurs, the person shall be returned to the state hospital or other facility to which he was committed or transferred pursuant to Section 1026. The person in charge of the facility shall notify the county mental health director or his designee of the person's return. Such return shall be reviewable by a writ of habeas corpus only. If a verified petition for a writ alleges on its face facts sufficient to justify relief, an order to show cause shall issue.

(4) If at any time during an outpatient treatment period the prosecuting attorney is of the opinion that the person is a danger to the health and safety of others while on outpatient treatment, he may petition the court for a hearing to determine whether the person shall be continued on outpatient treatment. The court shall use the same standards as used in conducting probation revocation hearings pursuant to Section 1203.2 of the Penal Code. Upon receipt of the petition, the court shall calendar the case for further proceedings and the clerk shall notify the person, outpatient supervisor, the county mental health director or his designee, and attorney of record for the person of the calendared date. Upon failure of the person to appear as noticed, if a proper affidavit of service and advisement has been filed with the court, the count may issue a body attachment for the person. If, after a hearing in open court, the judge of the committing court determines that the person is a danger to the health and safety of others, he shall order the person returned to the state hospital or other facility to which he was committed pursuant to Section 1026. The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the county mental health director or his designee. Such order shall be reviewable by a writ of habeas corpus only.

(5) An outpatient who requires inpatient treatment pending determination of his outpatient status pursuant to subdivisions (3) and (4) shall receive such treatment subject to the provisions of Sections 5150, 5200, 5250, and 5300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. The person in charge of the facility in which an outpatient receives inpatient treatment shall notify the county mental health director or his designee of inpatient treatment provided to an outpatient under this section.

(e) A convict received into a state hospital under the provisions of Section 2684 of the Penal Code, shall, on recovery, be returned to prison in accordance with the provisions of Section 2685 of the Penal Code.

(b) Observe and report to the secretary and the Governor on the condition of services throughout the state.

(c) Formulate, adopt, amend or repeal, in accordance with the provisions of Section 10554.1, regulations and general policies affecting the purposes, responsibilities, and jurisdiction of the State Department of Health and which are consistent with law and necessary for the administration of services.

All regulations heretofore adopted by the Director of Social Welfare relating to services shall remain in effect and shall be fully enforceable unless and until readopted, amended or repealed by the Director of Health.

(d) Perform such other duties as may be prescribed by law and such other administrative and executive duties as have by other provisions of law been previously imposed upon the Director of Health.

SEC. 99. Section 10554.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

10554.1. The Director of Health is the only person authorized to adopt regulations, orders, or standards of general application to implement, interpret, or make specific the law enforced by the State Department of Health, and such regulations, orders, and standards shall be adopted, amended, or repealed by the director only in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 11371), Part 1, Division 3, Title 2 of the Government Code, provided that regulations relating to services need not be printed in the California Administrative Code or California Administrative Register if they are included in the publications of the department and are not promulgated pursuant to Section 16309 or to Section 1530 of the Health and Safety Code. If such regulations are promulgated pursuant to Section 16309 or to Section 1530 of the Health and Safety Code, they shall be printed in the California Administrative Code or California Administrative Register.

In adopting regulations the Director of Health shall strive for clarity of language which may be readily understood by those administering services or subject to such regulations.

The rules of the State Department of Health need not specify or include the detail of forms, reports or records, but shall include the essential authority by which any person, agency, organization, association or institution subject to the supervision or investigation of the State Department of Health is required to use, submit or maintain such forms, reports or records.

SEC. 100. Section 10605 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

10605. If the director considers a county director to be failing, in a substantial manner, to comply with any provision of this code or any regulation, pertaining to the administration of aid, the director shall put the county director on written notice to that effect, and shall give a copy of the notice to the board of supervisors.

If within 60 days the county director fails to give reasonable assurance that he is complying and will continue to comply with the laws and regulations, the director shall order the county to appear at a hearing, before the director, with the State Benefits and Services Advisory Board, to show cause why the director should not take action to secure compliance. The county shall be given at least 30 days' notice of such hearing. The director shall consider the case on the record established at the hearing, and the advice of the State Benefits and Services Advisory Board, and, within 30 days, shall render proposed findings and a proposed decision on the issues. The proposed findings and decision shall be submitted to the county, and the county shall have an opportunity to appear within 10 days at such time and place as may be fixed by the director, for the purpose of presenting oral arguments respecting the proposed findings and decision. Thereupon the director shall make his final findings and decision.

If the director determines that there is a failure on the part of the county to comply with the provisions of this code or the established regulations, or if the State Personnel Board certifies to the director that a county is not in conformity with established merit system standards under Part 2.5 (commencing with Section 19800) of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and that administrative sanctions are necessary to secure compliance, the director may invoke any of the following sanctions:

(a) Withhold part or all of state and federal funds from such county until the county shall make a showing to the director of compliance; or

(b) Assume, temporarily, direct responsibility for the administration of any or all state-assisted aid programs in such county until the county shall provide reasonable assurance to the director of its intention and ability to comply with such laws and regulations. During such period of state administrative responsibility for county programs, the director or his authorized representative shall have all of the powers and responsibilities of the county director, with the exception that he shall not be subject to the authority of the board of supervisors; or

(c) Bring an action in mandamus or such other action in court as may be appropriate to compel compliance. Any such action shall be entitled to a preference in setting a date for a hearing.

Nothing in this section shall be construed as relieving the board of supervisors of the responsibility to provide funds necessary for the continued aid required by law.

Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as preventing a county from seeking judicial review of action taken by the director pursuant to this section under Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure or, except in cases arising under Sections 10962 and 10963, from seeking injunctive relief when deemed appropriate.

If within 60 days the county director fails to give reasonable assurance that he is complying and will continue to comply with the laws and regulations, the Director of Health shall order the county to appear at a hearing, before him to show cause why he should not take action to secure compliance. The county shall be given at least 30 days notice of such hearing. The Director of Health shall consider the case on the record established at the hearing and, within 30 days, shall render proposed findings and a proposed decision on the issues. The proposed findings and decisions shall be submitted to the county, and the county shall have an opportunity to appear within 10 days at such time and place as may be fixed by the Director of Health for the purpose of presenting oral arguments respecting the proposed findings and decision. Thereupon the Director of Health shall make his final findings and decision.

If the Director of Health determines that there is a failure on the part of the county to comply with the provisions of this code or the established regulations, or if the State Personnel Board certifies to the Director of Health that a county is not in conformity with established merit system standards under Part 2.5 (commencing with Section 19800) of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and that administrative sanctions are necessary to secure compliance, the Director of Health may invoke any of the following sanctions:

(a) Withhold part or all of state and federal funds from such county until the county shall make a showing to the Director of Health of compliance; or

(b) Assume, temporarily, direct responsibility for the administration of any or all state-aided service programs in such county until the county shall provide reasonable assurance to the Director of Health of its intention and ability to comply with such laws and regulations. During such period of state administrative responsibility for county programs, the Director of Health or his authorized representative shall have all of the powers and responsibilities of the county director, with the exception that he shall not be subject to the authority of the board of supervisors; or

(c) Bring an action in mandamus or such other action in court as may be appropriate to compel compliance. Any such action shall be entitled to a preference in setting a date for a hearing.

Nothing in this section shall be construed as relieving the board of supervisors of the responsibility to provide funds necessary for the continued services required by law.

Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as preventing a county from seeking judicial review of action taken by the Director of Health pursuant to this section under Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure or, except in cases arising under Sections 10962 and 10963, from seeking injunctive relief when deemed appropriate.

10609.1. The State Department of Health may act as the agent or representative of or cooperate with the federal government in any matters within the scope of the functions of the State Department of Health under this division, for the administration of federal funds granted to this state or for any other purpose in furtherance of those functions.

The State Department of Health may cooperate with the federal government, its agencies or instrumentalities, in establishing, extending, and strengthening services for the protection and care of homeless, dependent, and neglected children, and children in danger of becoming delinquent, and may receive and expend all funds made available for such purposes by the federal government to the Director of Health, the state, a county, a district, a municipal corporation, or a political subdivision.

Any contract or agreement entered into by the State Department of Health with the federal government or any agency thereof for the expenditure of any funds in the exercise of any power granted to the State Department of Health by this section shall be subject to approval by the State Department of Finance.

SEC. 103. Section 11006.9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

All certified financial statements shall be filed with the department as soon as practical after the end of the prepaid health plan's fiscal year and in any event, within a period not to exceed 90 days thereafter. These financial statements shall be filed with the department and shall be public records. The department shall have complete authority and responsibility for establishing uniform accounting and financial reporting procedures for prepaid health plans. The department shall perform routine auditing of prepaid health plan contractors and their affiliated subcontractors. The prepaid health plan shall make all of its books and records available for inspection, examination or copying by the department during normal working hours at the prepaid health plan's principal place of business or at such other place in California as the department shall designate. For good cause, the department may grant an exception to the time when annual financial statements are to be submitted to the department. The annual report required in Section 14313 shall include an itemization of expenditures made by each prepaid health plan for the following categories of expenditures: physician services, inpatient and outpatient hospital services, pharmaceutical services and prescription drugs, dental services, medical transportation services, vision care services, mental health services, laboratory services, X-ray services, enrollee education programs, marketing and enrollment costs, data processing costs, other administrative costs and health service expenditures and any payments made to subcontractors, and the purposes of the payments, including but not limited to, contributions to election campaigns.

SEC. 2. Section 25210.81 is added to the Government Code, to read:

25210.81. Territory already a part of a county service area may be annexed to an improvement area of that county service area established pursuant to Article 10 (commencing with Section 25211.1) of this chapter under the procedure set forth in this section and Sections 25210.82 to 25210.86, inclusive. Whenever territory is so annexed to an improvement area of a county service area, the annexed territory shall be subject to all the liabilities and entitled to all the benefits of the improvement area.

SEC. 3. Section 25210.82 is added to the Government Code, to read:

25210.82. The board shall adopt a resolution initiating proceedings for annexation pursuant to Section 25210.81, which resolution shall do all the following:

(a) Set forth the exterior boundaries of the territory proposed for annexation.

(b) State that the territory will be benefited by annexation to the improvement area.

(c) Fix a time, date, and place of hearing on the proposed annexation, which shall be not less than 15 days nor more than 60 days after the date of adoption of the resolution initiating proceedings.

(d) State that any interested person desiring to make written protest against such annexation shall do so by written communication, containing the signature of the protestant and street address or some other identification of the property owned by the protestant, filed with the clerk not later than the hour set for hearing.

SEC. 4. Section 25210.83 is added to the Government Code, to read:

25210.83. The clerk shall give notice of the hearing by mailing a copy of such notice to all landowners owning land within the territory proposed to be annexed, and by publishing notice thereof in at least one issue, not more than 30 nor less than 10 days prior to the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation.

SEC. 5. Section 25210.84 is added to the Government Code, to read:

25210.84. A majority protest shall be deemed to exist, and the proposed annexation shall be abandoned, if the board finds that written protests filed and not withdrawn prior to the conclusion of the hearing represent more than 50 percent of the assessed value of the land therein.

SEC. 6. Section 25210.85 is added to the Government Code, to read:

25210.85. At the hearing, all interested persons shall be given the opportunity to present evidence and testimony for or against the proposed annexation. Any person who has filed a written protest may withdraw the written protest at any time prior to the conclusion of the hearing.

If a majority protest has not been filed, the board, not later than 30 days after the conclusion of the hearing, shall adopt a resolution making one of the following determinations:

(a) Disapproving the proposed annexation.

(b) Approving the proposed annexation.

(c) Approving the annexation, but excluding any lands which the board finds will not be benefited by becoming a part of such improvement area.

SEC. 7. Section 25210.86 is added to the Government Code, to read:

25210.86. If the board approves the proposed annexation, or approves the annexation but excludes any lands, a certified copy of the resolution of the board, together with a map or plat of the new boundaries of the improvement area, shall be filed with the agencies designated in and as required by Sections 54900, 54901, and 54902. Upon such filing, the annexation of the territory to the improvement area shall be effective.

SEC. 8. Section 53072 is added to the Government Code, to read:

53072. Whenever a special district as defined in Section 54775 is formed, the district shall reimburse the county in which all or a portion of the district is located for the expenses incurred by the county for calling and conducting the election establishing such district.

SEC. 9. Section 66436 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66436. A certificate, signed and acknowledged by all parties having any record title interest in the real property subdivided, consenting to the preparation and recordation of the final map is required, except as follows:

(a) Neither a lien for state, county, municipal or local taxes, nor for special assessments, nor a trust interest under bond indentures, nor mechanics' liens constitute a record title interest in land for the purpose of this chapter or local ordinance.

(b) The signature of either the holder of beneficial interests under trust deeds or the trustee under such trust deeds, but not both, may be omitted. The signature of either shall constitute a full and complete subordination of the lien of the deed of trust to the map and any interest created by the map.

(c) Signatures of parties owning the following types of interests may be omitted if their names and the nature of their respective interests are stated on the final map:

(1) Rights-of-way, easements or other interests which cannot ripen into a fee, except those owned by a public entity or public utility. If, however, the legislative body determines that division and development of the property in the manner set forth on the final map will not unreasonably interfere with the free and complete exercise of the public entity or public utility right-of-way or easement, the signature of such public entity or public utility may be omitted. Where such determination is made, the subdivider shall send, by certified mail, a sketch of the proposed final map, together with a copy of this section, to any public entity or public utility which has previously acquired a right-of-way or easement.

If the public entity or utility objects to either (i) recording the final map without its signature; or (ii) the determination of the legislative body that the division and development of the property will not unreasonably interfere with the full and complete exercise of right-of-way or easement, it shall so notify the subdivider and the legislative body within 30 days after receipt of the materials from the subdivider.

If the public entity or utility objects to recording the final map without its signature, the public entity or utility so objecting may affix its signature to the final map within 30 days of filing its objection with the legislative body.

If the public entity or utility either (i) does not file an objection with the legislative body; or (ii) fails to affix its signature within 30 days of filing its objection, to recording the map without its signature, the local agency may record the final map without such signature.

If the public entity or utility files an objection to the determination of the legislative body that the division and development of the property will not unreasonably interfere with the exercise of its right-of-way or easement, the legislative body shall set the matter for public hearing to be held not less than 10 nor more than 30 days of receipt of the objection. At such hearing, the public entity or public utility shall present evidence in support of its position that the division and development of the property will unreasonably interfere with the free and complete exercise of the objector's right-of-way or easement.

If the legislative body finds, following such hearing, that the development and division will in fact unreasonably interfere with the free and complete exercise of the objector's right-of-way or easement, it shall set forth those conditions whereby such unreasonable interference will be eliminated and upon compliance with such conditions by the subdivider, the final map may be recorded with or without the signature of the objector. If the legislative body finds that the development and division will in fact not unreasonably interfere with the free and complete exercise of the objector's right-of-way or easement, the final map may be recorded without the signature of the objector, notwithstanding its objections thereto.

Failure of the public entity or public utility to file an objection pursuant to this section shall in no way affect its rights under a right-of-way or easement.

(2) Rights-of-way, easements or reversions, which by reason of changed conditions, long disuse or laches appear to be no longer of practical use or value and signatures are impossible or impractical to obtain. A statement of the circumstances preventing the procurement of the signatures shall also be stated on the map.

(3) Interests in or rights to minerals, including but not limited to oil, gas or other hydrocarbon substances.

(d) Real property originally patented by the United States or by the State of California, which original patent reserved interest to either or both of such entities, may be included in the final map without the consent of the United States or the State of California thereto or to dedications made thereon.

SEC. 10. There are no state-mandated local costs in this act that require reimbursement under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because there are no new duties, obligations or responsibilities imposed on local government by this act.

CHAPTER 1082

An act to amend Section 40303 of the Vehicle Code, relating to arrests.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 40303 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

40303. Whenever any person is arrested for any of the following offenses and the arresting officer is not required to take the person without unnecessary delay before a magistrate, the arrested person shall, in the judgment of the arresting officer, either be given a 10 days' notice to appear as herein provided or be taken without unnecessary delay before a magistrate within the county in which the offense charged is alleged to have been committed and who has jurisdiction of the offense and is nearest or most accessible with reference to the place where the arrest is made.

(a) Section 10852 or 10853, relating to injuring or tampering with a vehicle.

(b) Section 23103 or 23104, relating to reckless driving.

(d) Section 2800, insofar as it relates to a failure or refusal of the driver of a vehicle to stop and submit to a brake test which is punishable as a misdemeanor.

(e) Section 2800, relating to the refusal to submit vehicle and load to an inspection, measurement, or weighing as prescribed in Section 2802 or a refusal to adjust the load or obtain a permit as prescribed in Section 2803.

(f) Section 20002, relating to failure to stop in the event of an accident involving damage to property.

(g) Section 23109, relating to participating in speed contests or exhibition of speed.

(h) Sections 14601 and 14601.1, relating to driving while license is suspended or revoked.

(i) When the person arrested has attempted to evade arrest.

(j) Section 23332, relating to persons upon vehicular crossings.

(k) Section 2813, relating to the refusal to stop and submit a vehicle to an inspection of its size, weight, and equipment.

(l) Section 21461.5, as it relates to a pedestrian who, after being cited for a violation of Section 21461.5, is, within 24 hours, again found upon the freeway in violation of Section 21461.5 and thereafter refuses to leave the freeway after being lawfully ordered to do so, by a peace officer, and having been informed that his failure to leave could result in his arrest.

(m) Section 2800, as it relates to a pedestrian who, after having been cited for a violation of Section 2800 for failure to obey a lawful order of a peace officer issued pursuant to Section 21962, is within 24 hours again found upon the bridge or overpass and thereafter refuses to leave after being lawfully ordered to do so by a peace officer and after having been informed that his failure to leave could result in his arrest.

SEC. 2. There are no state-mandated local costs in this act that require reimbursement under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code because there are no new duties, obligations or responsibilities imposed on local government by this act.

CHAPTER 1083

An act to add Section 382.4 to the Penal Code, relating to drugs.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 382.4 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

382.4. No person, other than a licensed veterinarian, shall administer succinylcholine, also known as sucostrin, to any dog or cat.

Violation of this section shall constitute a misdemeanor.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to this section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local governmental entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

CHAPTER 1084

An act to add Section 1720.3 to the Labor Code, relating to public works.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1720.3 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

1720.3. For the limited purposes of Article 2 (commencing with Section 1770), "public works" also means the hauling of refuse from a public works site to an outside disposal location, with respect to contracts involving any state agency, including the California State University and Colleges and the University of California.

SEC. 2. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

CHAPTER 1085

An act to add Section 31704 to the Water Code, relating to community redevelopment.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 31704 is added to the Water Code, to read:

31704. Taxes levied by the Coachella Valley County Water District for payment of the principal of, or interest on bonded indebtedness, where the proceeds of such bonds were used for the construction and installation of sewer facilities to provide sewer service to an area, including either wholly or in part a community redevelopment project area, shall not be apportioned as authorized by subdivision (b) of Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code, but shall be allocated solely to the Coachella Valley County Water District.

SEC. 2. This section, applicable only to the Coachella Valley County Water District, is necessary because of the special and unique problems of debt service taxation for sewer facilities within such district in relation to tax apportionment within community redevelopment project areas within such district.

CHAPTER 1086

An act to amend Section 23428.20 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 23428.20 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

23428.20. (b) For the purposes of this article, "club" also means any bona fide nonprofit corporation which was formed as a condominium homeowners' association, has at least 250 members, has served daily meals to its members and guests for a period of not less than 12 years, owns or leases, operates, and maintains a clubroom or rooms for its membership, has an annual fee of not less than nine hundred dollars ($900) per year per member, and has as a condition of membership that one member of each household be at least 54 years old.

(c) The provisions of Section 23399 and the numerical limitation of Section 23430 shall not apply to a club defined in this section.

(d) No license shall be issued pursuant to this section to any club which withholds membership or denies facilities or services to any person on account of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, or sex.

CHAPTER 1087

An act to repeal and add Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 4010) of Part 1 of Division 5 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Section 770 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to water.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 4010) of Part 1 of Division 5 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 4010) is added to Part 1 of Division 5 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 7. WATER AND WATER SYSTEMS

Article 1. Permits

4010. The Legislature finds and declares that the water delivered by public water systems of this state be at all times pure, wholesome, and potable and that the provisions of this chapter provide the means to accomplish this objective.

4010.1. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Contaminant" means any physical, chemical, biological, or radiological substance or matter in water.

(b) "Drinking water standards" means:

(1) Primary drinking water standards that specify maximum levels of contaminants which, in the judgment of the director, may have an adverse effect on the health of persons.

(2) Secondary drinking water standards that specify maximum contaminant levels which, in the judgment of the director, are necessary to protect the public welfare. Secondary drinking water standards may apply to any contaminant in drinking water which may adversely affect the odor or appearance of such water and may cause a substantial number of persons served by the public water system to discontinue its use, or which may otherwise adversely affect the public welfare. Regulations establishing secondary drinking water standards may vary according to geographic and other circumstances and may apply to any contaminant in drinking water which adversely affects the taste, odor, or appearance of such water when the standards are necessary to assure a supply of pure, wholesome, and potable water.

(c) "Maximum contaminant level" means the maximum permissible level of a contaminant in water.

(d) "Person" means an individual, corporation, company, association, partnership, municipality, public utility, or other public body or institution.

(e) "Public water system" means a system for the provision of piped water to the public for human consumption which has five or more service connections or regularly serves an average of at least 25 individuals daily at least 60 days out of the year. A public water system includes the following:

(1) Any collection, treatment, storage, and distribution facilities under control of the operator of such system which are used primarily in connection with such system.

(2) Any collection or pretreatment storage facilities not under the control of the operator which are used primarily in connection with such system.

(f) "Significant rise in the bacterial count of water" means such rise in the bacterial count of water as the department determines, by regulation, represents an immediate danger to the health of water users.

(g) "User" means any person using water for domestic purposes. User does not include any person processing, selling, or serving water or operating a public water system.

(h) "Waterworks standards" means regulations adopted by the department which take cognizance of the latest available "Standards of Minimum Requirements for Safe Practice in the Production and Delivery of Water for Domestic Use" adopted by the California section of the American Water Works Association.

4010.2. This chapter shall not apply to a public water system which meets all of the following conditions:

(a) Consists only of distribution and storage facilities and does not have any collection and treatment facilities.

(b) Obtains all of its water from, but is not owned or operated by, a public water system to which this chapter applies.

(c) Does not sell water to any person or user.

4010.3. This chapter shall not apply to an irrigation canal system if the owner or operator of such system certifies to the department, and notifies each user, in writing, that such water is untreated and is being furnished or supplied solely for agricultural purposes to either of the following:

(a) A user where the user receives the water, by pipe or otherwise, directly from such irrigation canal system.

(b) A person who owns or operates an integrated pipe system where such person receives the water, by pipe or otherwise, directly from such irrigation canal system.

"Irrigation canal system," as used in this section, means a system of water conveyance facilities, including pipes, tunnels, canals, conduits, pumping plants and related facilities operated to furnish or supply water for agricultural purposes where a substantial portion of such facilities is open to the atmosphere.

4010.4. In areas where the water service rendered by a person is primarily agricultural, and domestic service is only incidental thereto, the provisions of this chapter shall not apply except in specific areas in which the department has found its application to be necessary for the protection of the public health and has given written notice thereof to the person furnishing or supplying water in such area.

The department may prescribe reasonable and feasible action to be taken by such persons or the users to insure that their domestic water will not be injurious to health.

4011. No person shall operate a public water system unless he first files a petition for permission to do so with the department and receives a permit as provided in this chapter. Any person who holds a permit or amended permit to furnish or supply water to a user for domestic purpose under the provisions of Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 4010) as they existed prior to enactment of this chapter, shall be deemed to have been issued a permit in compliance with this chapter. Any actions with respect to such permits or amended permits taken after enactment of this chapter shall be governed by the provisions of this chapter.

The department may for good cause grant a temporary permit to any person who has filed a petition for a permit as provided in this chapter, upon such terms as it shall determine are in the public interest. The temporary permit shall terminate upon the date specified therein.

4012. With a petition for a permit shall be filed a complete set of plans and specifications, together with a statement containing a general description and history of the existing or proposed plant, works, or system or proposed changes therein, and showing the geographical location thereof with relation to the source of the water supply and all the sanitary and health conditions surrounding and affecting such supply and the plant, works or system.

The plans, specifications, and statement shall be in such form and cover such matters as the department prescribes.

4013. Upon receipt of a petition filed pursuant to this chapter, the department shall make a thorough investigation of the proposed or existing plant, works, system, or water supply, and all other circumstances and conditions which it deems material.

4014. As a part of the investigation, and after 10 days' notice by mail to the petitioner, a hearing may be had before the department or an examiner appointed by it. At the hearing all testimony shall be given under oath, and evidence, oral and documentary, may be received, a record of which shall be made and filed with the department. Notice of any such hearing shall be given to the public by the petitioner in form prescribed by the department.

4015. If, upon the completion of the investigation, the department determines that the water furnished or supplied, or proposed to be supplied, is such that under all the circumstances and conditions it is not pure, wholesome, and potable or may constitute a menace or danger to the health or lives of human beings, or that the existing or proposed plant, works, system or water supply, or proposed modifications, are unhealthful or insanitary, or not suited to the production and delivery of pure, wholesome, and potable water at all times for health and normal household use, it shall deny the petition and order the petitioner to make such changes as it deems necessary to secure a continuous and adequate supply of pure, wholesome, healthful, and potable water.

4016. If the department determines that the system will not be subject to backsyphonage under normal operating conditions and that the water to be furnished or supplied is such that under all the circumstances and conditions it is pure, wholesome, and potable and will not endanger the lives or health of human beings, it shall grant a permit authorizing the petitioner to furnish or continue to furnish or supply water. The department or any local health officer may issue a permit for any public water system supplying fewer than 200 service connections.

4017. The department may order such repairs, alterations, or additions to the existing plant, works, or system or installation of purification and treatment works, or may order such changes in the source of the water supply, or any other measure necessary to insure that the system will not be subject to backsyphonage under normal operating conditions and that the water furnished or supplied shall at all times be pure, wholesome, and potable and without danger to the lives or health of human beings.

4018. Any order requiring repairs, alterations, additions or changes shall designate the period within which the order is to be performed.

A temporary permit may be issued by the department for the period fixed to permit the petitioner to comply with the order.

4019. No person operating a public water system shall modify, add to or change his source of supply or method of treatment of, or change his distribution system for, water for domestic purposes as authorized by a valid existing permit issued to him by the department unless the person first files a petition to do so with the department and receives an amended permit as provided in this chapter authorizing such modification, addition or change in his source of supply or method of treatment or in his distribution system as may be specified in such amended permit. Changes in distribution systems may be made without permit review if such changes comply in all particulars with the waterworks standards. Petitions for amended permits shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this chapter for the making of a petition for a permit and shall be investigated, considered, determined and issued or denied upon the same terms and conditions as provided for the issuance or denial of a permit as provided in this chapter.

4020. Any permit issued, including a temporary permit, may be revoked or suspended by the department at any time after hearing noticed and conducted as provided in Section 4014 for permit investigation, if the department determines that the water being supplied or furnished by the permittee is or may become impure, unwholesome, or unpotable or endangers or may endanger the lives or health of human beings, or if the department determines that requirements or conditions of the permit are not being met.

4021. (a) The department may grant one or more variances from drinking water standards, treatment techniques, or requirements to a public water system which, because of characteristics of the raw water sources which are reasonably available to the system, cannot meet the requirements respecting the maximum contaminant levels of such drinking water, despite application of the best technology, treatment techniques, or other means which the department finds are generally available, taking costs into consideration. Before the department may grant a variance under this section, the department shall find that the variance will not result in an unreasonable risk to the health of users.

(b) If the department grants a variance under this section, the supplier shall present a schedule acceptable to the department for the accomplishment, within one year of the date the variance is granted, of:

(1) Compliance with each contaminant level requirement with respect to which the variance was granted.

(2) Implementation of such interim control measures as the department may require for each contaminant subject to the variance during the period ending with the date full compliance is required.

(c) The department may grant an exemption from any requirement respecting a maximum contaminant level or any treatment technique upon a finding that the public water system meets all of the following conditions:

(1) The system was in operation on the effective date of this chapter.

(2) The public water system is unable to comply with such contaminant level or treatment technique requirements due to compelling factors, which may include economic factors.

(3) The grant of the exemption will not result in an unreasonable risk to health.

If the department grants an exemption under this section, the department shall prescribe a schedule as set forth in subdivision (b) which shall be subject to the same terms and conditions.

(d) Any schedule prescribed under this section shall require compliance with the drinking water standards with respect to each contaminant as expeditiously as the department may determine reasonable. Issuance of the variance or exemption shall be conditioned upon compliance with the schedule.

(e) Before any schedule prescribed under this section may take effect, the department shall provide an opportunity for a public hearing on the schedule. Notice of such public hearing shall be given by the department in writing to the operator of the public water system seeking the variance or exemption and to the public as provided in Section 6061 of the Government Code in a form prescribed by the department.

(f) No exemption and no schedule prescribed in connection with this chapter may continue for more than seven years.

4022. Where a public water system operating under a variance or exemption fails to comply with the schedule prescribed by the department, the department may revoke the variance or exemption in the same manner as provided in Section 4020 for permit revocation.

Article 2. Regulations

4023. The department may, by order, require the holder of a permit to furnish to the department a complete report on the condition and operation of the plant, works, system, or water supply owned, operated, or controlled by him. Upon a finding by the department that a public water system does not meet the secondary drinking water standards and may cause a substantial number of persons served by the public water system to discontinue its use, the department may order the supplier to conduct a study of the causes, methods of correction, and the estimated cost of one or more alternative solutions. The results of such study shall be made available to the users, the department, and, where appropriate, to the Public Utilities Commission. These reports shall be made by some competent person, under oath, at the sole cost and expense of the holder of the permit.

4025. No laboratory in this state, other than a laboratory operated by the department, shall perform the tests required pursuant to this chapter for any public water system without first obtaining a certificate issued by the department that such laboratory is competent and equipped to conduct such tests. Certificates shall be renewed every three years after the date of issuance. The department may revoke any certificate issued hereunder upon its determination that the laboratory is no longer competent or equipped to conduct water tests.

4026. The department shall formulate and adopt such rules and regulations covering parameters to be tested and their limits, type of testing, frequency of testing, and such other matters as may be necessary to determine the quality of domestic water supplies, and to establish schedules for compliance with water quality standards.

The regulations and standards adopted by the department shall in no case be less stringent than those set by the United States Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to the Safe Drinking Water Act (PL 93-523); provided that exemptions and variances may be granted in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and as permitted by the Safe Drinking Water Act (PL 93-523).

4027. The department shall establish a water quality advisory council which shall assist in the formulation of regulations, policies, and programs with respect to any matter covered by this chapter, including standards for determining the quality of domestic water supplies and criteria for determining the quality of domestic water supplies and critera for determining the various classifications of cease-and-desist orders and the penalties for violation of such orders.

The advisory council shall be composed of not less than 10 members and shall be comprised of an equal number of persons representing the water utility industry and consumers. The department shall consider recommendations from the California section of the American Water Works Association and the Association of California Water Agencies prior to making appointments of the water utility industry representatives. The department shall also consider recommendations from the Department of Consumer Affairs prior to making appointments of the consumer representatives.

4028. (a) When any primary drinking water standard specified in the department's regulations is not complied with, when a monitoring requirement specified in the department's regulations is not performed, or when a water purveyor fails to comply with the conditions of any variance or exemption, the person operating the public water system shall notify the department and shall give notice to the users of such fact in the manner prescribed by the department. When a variance or exemption is granted, the person operating the public water system shall give notice to the users of such fact.

(b) When a person operating a public water system determines that a significant rise in the bacterial count of water has occurred in water he supplies, the person shall provide, at his expense, a report on the rise in bacterial count of the water, together with the results of an analysis of such water within 24 hours to the department and, where appropriate, the county health officer. where appropriate, the county health officer.

(c) When the department receives the information described in subdivision (b) and determines that it constitutes an immediate danger to health, the department shall immediately notify the person operating the public water system to implement the emergency notification plan required by this chapter.

(d) In the case of a failure to comply with any primary drinking water standard which represents an imminent danger to the health of water users the operator shall notify each of his customers as provided in his approved emergency notification plan.

(e) The content of notices required by this section shall be approved by the department. Notice shall be repeated at intervals as required by the department until the department concludes that there is compliance with its standards or requirements. Notices may be given by the department.

4029. No person shall operate a public water system without an emergency notification plan which has been submitted to and approved by the department. Such emergency notification plan shall provide for immediate notice to the customers of the public water system of any significant rise in the bacterial count of water or other failure to comply with any primary drinking water standard which represents an imminent danger to the health of the water users.

No permit, variance or exemption may be issued or amended under this chapter until an emergency notification plan has been approved by the department.

The department shall adopt rules and regulations to implement the provisions of this section. Such rules and regulations may provide for the exclusion of public water systems from the requirements of this section when, in the judgment of the department, such exclusion will best serve the public interest.

4029.5. Any public water system under the jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission may be required to install and operate additional facilities if upon the conclusion of a public hearing the director of the department determines that such facilities are necessary to provide the users of the water system a continuous and adequate supply of water or to bring a water system into conformity with secondary drinking water standards.

4030. The department may at any and all reasonable times enter any and all places, property, enclosures, and structures for the purpose of making examinations and investigations to determine whether any provision of this chapter is being violated.

Article 3. Violations

4031. If upon inspection the department determines that a public water system fails to comply with any drinking water standard or violates any regulation relating to the operation or maintenance of a public water system, it may issue a cease-and-desist order to the permittee. The cease-and-desist order shall be served upon the permittee personally or by registered mail in accordance with subdivision (c) of Section 11505 of the Government Code. Each cease-and-desist order shall be in writing and shall describe with particularity the nature of the failure to comply or the violation, including a reference to the statutory provision, standard, rule, or regulation alleged to have not been complied with or to have been violated. The cease-and-desist order shall fix the earliest feasible time for the elimination of the condition constituting the failure to comply or the violation, where appropriate.

Cease-and-desist orders issued pursuant to this chapter shall be classified according to the nature of the failure to comply or the violation and shall indicate the classification on the face thereof, as follows:

(a) Failure to comply with any primary drinking water standard which the director determines may have an adverse effect upon health, or a substantial probability of an adverse effect upon health.

(b) Failure to comply with any secondary drinking water standard which the director determines may have a direct or immediate relationship to the welfare of the water users and which results from the improper operation of water treatment facilities.

(c) Failure to comply with any drinking water standard or violation of any department rule or regulation which the director determines has only a minimal relationship to the health of water users.

Article 4. Remedies

4032. (a) Any person who operates a public water system without having an unrevoked permit to do so, may be enjoined from so doing by any court of competent jurisdiction at the suit of the department.

(b) Where a public water system has failed to meet a drinking water standard for a period of 90 days and the operator has not presented a plan for bringing the water system into compliance therewith deemed reasonable by the department, the department may bring an action in the superior court to enforce a reasonable plan of compliance, including the appointment of a competent person, to be approved by the department and paid by the operator of the public water system, who shall take charge of and operate the system so as to secure compliance; or to enjoin further service connections to the public water system, or to obtain such other relief as may be required to insure compliance with this chapter.

4033. Any person who intentionally or negligently violates any cease-and-desist order issued, reissued, or amended pursuant to the provisions of Section 4031 may be liable civilly as follows:

(a) For failure to comply with any primary drinking water standards, an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each violation.

(b) For failure to comply with any secondary drinking water standards, an amount not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each violation.

(c) For failure to comply with any drinking water standard or department rule or regulation which has only a minimal relationship to the health of water users, an amount of not more than fifty dollars ($50).

4034. (a) The Attorney General, upon request of the department, shall petition a court of competent jurisdiction to impose, assess, and recover such sums. In determining such amount, the court shall take into consideration all relevant circumstances, including but not limited to, the extent of harm caused by the violation, the nature and persistence of the violation, the length of time over which the violation occurs, and any corrective actions taken.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 4035, remedies under this section are in addition to, and do not supersede or limit, any and all other remedies, civil or criminal.

4035. It is unlawful for any person to furnish or supply to a user water used or intended to be used for human consumption or for domestic purposes which is impure, unwholesome, unpotable, polluted, or dangerous to health.

(a) Every person who knowingly violates any provision of this section, or of any order of the department issued pursuant to this section, or knowingly files a false statement or report required by the department under this chapter, or who procures, aids, or abets in any such violation or failure, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by both.

(b) Each day's violation of any provision of this section, or of any order of the department issued pursuant to this chapter, beyond the time stated for compliance, shall be a separate and distinct offense.

(c) Penalties shall not be imposed under subdivision (b) if a proceeding is pending under Section 4034.

4036. Anything done, maintained, or suffered as a result of failure to comply with any primary drinking water standard is a public nuisance dangerous to health, and may be enjoined or summarily abated in the manner provided by law. Every public officer or body lawfully empowered to do so shall abate the nuisance immediately.

Article 5. Judicial Review

4037. (a) Within 30 days after service of a copy of a cease-and-desist order issued by the department pursuant to Section 4031, any aggrieved party may file with the superior court a petition for a writ of mandate for review thereof. Failure to file such an action shall not preclude a party from challenging the reasonableness and validity of a decision or order of the department in any judicial proceedings brought to enforce such decision or order or for any civil or criminal remedy authorized by this chapter.

(b) The evidence before the court shall consist of all relevant evidence which, in the judgment of the court, should be considered to effectuate and implement the provisions of this chapter. In every case, the court shall exercise its independent judgment on the evidence.

(c) Except as otherwise provided herein, the provisions of subdivisions (e) and (f) of Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall govern proceedings pursuant to this section.

SEC. 2.5. Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 4010) is added to Part 1 of Division 5 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 7. WATER AND WATER SYSTEMS

Article 1. Permits

4010. The Legislature finds and declares that the water delivered by public water systems of this state be at all times pure, wholesome, and potable and that the provisions of this chapter provide the means to accomplish this objective.

4010.1. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Contaminant" means any physical, chemical, biological, or radiological substance or matter in water.

(b) "Drinking water standards" means:

(1) Primary drinking water standards that specify maximum levels of contaminants which, in the judgment of the director, may have an adverse effect on the health of persons.

(2) Secondary drinking water standards that specify maximum contaminant levels which, in the judgment of the director, are necessary to protect the public welfare. Secondary drinking water standards may apply to any contaminant in drinking water which may adversely affect the odor or appearance of such water and may cause a substantial number of persons served by the public water system to discontinue its use, or which may otherwise adversely affect the public welfare. Regulations establishing secondary drinking water standards may vary according to geographic and other circumstances and may apply to any contaminant in drinking water which adversely affects the taste, odor, or appearance of such water when the standards are necessary to assure a supply of pure, wholesome, and potable water.

(c) "Maximum contaminant level" means the maximum permissible level of a contaminant in water.

(d) "Person" means an individual, corporation, company, association, partnership, municipality, public utility, or other public body or institution.

(e) "Public water system" means a system for the provision of piped water to the public for human consumption which has five or more service connections or regularly serves an average of at least 25 individuals daily at least 60 days out of the year. A public water system includes the following:

(1) Any collection, treatment, storage, and distribution facilities under control of the operator of such system which are used primarily in connection with such system.

(2) Any collection or pretreatment storage facilities not under the control of the operator which are used primarily in connection with such system.

(f) "Significant rise in the bacterial count of water" means such rise in the bacterial count of water as the department determines, by regulation, represents an immediate danger to the health of water users.

(g) "User" means any person using water for domestic purposes. User does not include any person processing, selling, or serving water or operating a public water system.

(h) "Waterworks standards" means regulations adopted by the department which take cognizance of the latest available "Standards of Minimum Requirements for Safe Practice in the Production and Delivery of Water for Domestic Use" adopted by the California section of the American Water Works Association.

(i) "Local system" means a water system that furnishes or supplies less than 200 service connections or any system supplying only an industrial camp, hotel, motel, condominium, or temporary or permanent resort.

4010.2. This chapter shall not apply to a public water system which meets all of the following conditions:

(a) Consists only of distribution and storage facilities and does not have any collection and treatment facilities.

(b) Obtains all of its water from, but is not owned or operated by, a public water system to which this chapter applies.

(c) Does not sell water to any person or user.

4010.3. This chapter shall not apply to an irrigation canal system if the owner or operator of such system certifies to the department or the local health officer for a local system, and notifies each user, in writing, that such water is untreated and is being furnished or supplied solely for agricultural purposes to either of the following:

(a) A user where the user receives the water, by pipe or otherwise, directly from such irrigation canal system.

(b) A person who owns or operates an integrated pipe system where such person receives the water, by pipe or otherwise, directly from such irrigation canal system.

"Irrigation canal system," as used in this section, means a system of water conveyance facilities, including pipes, tunnels, canals, conduits, pumping plants and related facilities operated to furnish or supply water for agricultural purposes where a substantial portion of such facilities is open to the atmosphere.

4010.4. In areas where the water service rendered by a person is primarily agricultural, and domestic service is only incidental thereto, the provisions of this chapter shall not apply except in specific areas in which the department, or the local health officer for a local system, has found its application to be necessary for the protection of the public health and has given written notice thereof to the person furnishing or supplying water in such area.

The department, or the local health officer for a local system, may prescribe reasonable and feasible action to be taken by such persons or the users to insure that their domestic water will not be injurious to health.

4011. No person shall operate a public water system unless he first files a petition for permission to do so with the department and receives a permit as provided in this chapter. Any person who holds a permit or amended permit to furnish or supply water to a user for domestic purpose under the provisions of Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 4010) as they existed prior to enactment of this chapter, shall be deemed to have been issued a permit in compliance with this chapter. Any actions with respect to such permits or amended permits taken after enactment of this chapter shall be governed by the provisions of this chapter.

The department, or the local health officer for a local system, may for good cause grant a temporary permit to any person who has filed a petition for a permit as provided in this chapter, upon such terms as it shall determine are in the public interest. The temporary permit shall terminate upon the date specified therein.

4012. With a petition for a permit shall be filed a complete set of plans and specifications, together with a statement containing a general description and history of the existing or proposed plant, works, or system or proposed changes therein, and showing the geographical location thereof with relation to the source of the water supply and all the sanitary and health conditions surrounding and affecting such supply and the plant, works or system.

The plans, specifications, and statement shall be in such form and cover such matters as the department prescribes.

4013. Upon receipt of a petition filed pursuant to this chapter, the department, or the local health officer for a local system, shall make a thorough investigation of the proposed or existing plant, works, system, or water supply, and all other circumstances and conditions which the department or such local health officer deems material.

4014. As a part of the investigation, and after 10 days' notice by mail to the petitioner, a hearing may be had before the department or an examiner appointed by it or the local health officer for a local system. At the hearing all testimony shall be given under oath, and evidence, oral and documentary, may be received, a record of which shall be made and filed with the department or the local health officer for a local system. Notice of any such hearing shall be given to the public by the petitioner in form prescribed by the department.

4015. If, upon the completion of the investigation, the department, or the local health officer for a local system, determines that the water furnished or supplied, or proposed to be supplied, is such that under all the circumstances and conditions it is not pure, wholesome, and potable or may constitute a menace or danger to the health or lives of human beings, or that the existing or proposed plant, works, system or water supply, or proposed modifications, are unhealthful or insanitary, or not suited to the production and delivery of pure, wholesome, and potable water at all times for health and normal household use, the department or such local health officer shall deny the petition and order the petitioner to make such changes as it deems necessary to secure a continuous and adequate supply of pure, wholesome, healthful, and potable water.

4016. If the department, or the local health officer for a local system determines that the system will not be subject to backsyphonage under normal operating conditions and that the water to be furnished or supplied is such that under all the circumstances and conditions it is pure, wholesome, and potable and will not endanger the lives or health of human beings, the department or such local health officer shall grant a permit authorizing the petitioner to furnish or continue to furnish or supply water. The department or any local health officer may issue a permit for any public water system supplying fewer than 200 service connections.

4017. The department, or the local health officer for a local system may order such repairs, alterations, or additions to the existing plant, works, or system or installation of purification and treatment works, or may order such changes in the source of the water supply, or any other measure necessary to insure that the system will not be subject to backsyphonage under normal operating conditions and that the water furnished or supplied shall at all times be pure, wholesome, and potable and without danger to the lives or health of human beings.

4018. Any order requiring repairs, alterations, additions or changes shall designate the period within which the order is to be performed.

A temporary permit may be issued by the department, or the local health officer for a local system, for the period fixed to permit the petitioner to comply with the order.

4020. Any permit issued, including a temporary permit, may be revoked or suspended by the department, or the local health officer for a local system, at any time after hearing noticed and conducted as provided in Section 4014 for permit investigation, if the department, or the local health officer for a local system, determines that the water being supplied or furnished by the permittee is or may become impure, unwholesome, or unpotable or endangers or may endanger the lives or health of human beings, or if the department, or the local health officer for a local system, determines that requirements or conditions of the permit are not being met.

4021. (a) The department, or the local health officer for a local system, may grant one or more variances from drinking water standards, treatment techniques, or requirements to a public water system which, because of characteristics of the raw water sources which are reasonably available to the system, cannot meet the requirements respecting the maximum contaminant levels of such drinking water, despite application of the best technology, treatment techniques, or other means which the department finds are generally available, taking costs into consideration. Before the department, or the local health officer for a local system, may grant a variance under this section, the department, or the local health officer for a local system, shall find that the variance will not result in an unreasonable risk to the health of users.

(b) If the department, or the local health officer for a local system, grants a variance under this section, the supplier shall present a schedule acceptable to the department, or the local health officer for a local system, for the accomplishment, within one year of the date the variance is granted, of:

(1) Compliance with each contaminant level requirement with respect to which the variance was granted.

(2) Implementation of such interim control measures as the department, or the local health officer for a local system, may require for each contaminant subject to the variance during the period ending with the date full compliance is required.

(c) The department, or the local health officer for a local system, may grant an exemption from any requirement respecting a maximum contaminant level or any treatment technique upon a finding that the public water system meets all of the following conditions:

(1) The system was in operation on the effective date of this chapter.

(2) The public water system is unable to comply with such contaminant level or treatment technique requirements due to compelling factors, which may include economic factors.

(3) The grant of the exemption will not result in an unreasonable risk to health.

If the department, or the local health officer for a local system, grants an exemption under this section, the department, or the local health officer for a local system, shall prescribe a schedule as set forth in subdivision (b) which shall be subject to the same terms and conditions.

(d) Any schedule prescribed under this section shall require compliance with the drinking water standards with respect to each contaminant as expeditiously as the department, or the local health officer for a local system, may determine reasonable. Issuance of the variance or exemption shall be conditioned upon compliance with the schedule.

(e) Before any schedule prescribed under this section may take effect, the department, or the local health officer for a local system, shall provide an opportunity for a public hearing on the schedule. Notice of such public hearing shall be given by the department, or the local health officer for a local system, in writing to the operator of the public water system seeking the variance or exemption and to the public as provided in Section 6061 of the Government Code in a form prescribed by the department.

(f) No exemption and no schedule prescribed in connection with this chapter may continue for more than seven years.

4022. Where a public water system operating under a variance or exemption fails to comply with the schedule prescribed by the department or the local health officer for a local system, the department or the local health officer for a local system may revoke the variance or exemption in the same manner as provided in Section 4020 for permit revocation.

Article 2. Regulations

4023. The department or the local health officer for a local system may, by order, require the holder of a permit to furnish to the department or the local health officer a complete report on the condition and operation of the plant, works, system, or water supply owned, operated, or controlled by him. Upon a finding by the department, or the local health officer for a local system, that a public water system does not meet the secondary drinking water standards and may cause a substantial number of persons served by the public water system to discontinue its use, the department, or the local health officer for a local system, may order the supplier to conduct a study of the causes, methods of correction, and the estimated cost of one or more alternative solutions. The results of such study shall be made available to the users, the department, the local health officer for local systems, and, where appropriate, to the Public Utilities Commission. These reports shall be made by some competent person, under oath, at the sole cost and expense of the holder of the permit.

4025. No laboratory in this state, other than a laboratory operated by the department, shall perform the tests required pursuant to this chapter for any public water system without first obtaining a certificate issued by the department that such laboratory is competent and equipped to conduct such tests. Certificates shall be renewed every three years after the date of issuance. The department may revoke any certificate issued hereunder upon its determination that the laboratory is no longer competent or equipped to conduct water tests.

4026. The department shall formulate and adopt such rules and regulations covering parameters to be tested and their limits, type of testing, frequency of testing, and such other matters as may be necessary to determine the quality of domestic water supplies, and to establish schedules for compliance with water quality standards.

The regulations and standards adopted by the department shall in no case be less stringent than those set by the United States Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to the Safe Drinking Water Act (PL 93-523); provided that exemptions and variances may be granted in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and as permitted by the Safe Drinking Water Act (PL 93-523).

4027. The department shall establish a water quality advisory council which shall assist in the formulation of regulations, policies, and programs with respect to any matter covered by this chapter, including standards for determining the quality of domestic water supplies and criteria for determining the quality of domestic water supplies and criteria for determining the various classifications of cease-and-desist orders and the penalties for violation of such orders.

The advisory council shall be composed of not less than 10 members and shall be comprised of an equal number of persons representing the water utility industry and consumers. The department shall consider recommendations from the California section of the American Water Works Association and the Association of California Water Agencies prior to making appointments of the water utility industry representatives. The department shall also consider recommendations from the Department of Consumer Affairs prior to making appointments of the consumer representatives.

4028. (a) When any primary drinking water standard specified in the department's regulations is not complied with, when a monitoring requirement specified in the department's regulations is not performed, or when a water purveyor fails to comply with the conditions of any variance or exemption, the person operating the public water system shall notify the department, or the local health officer for a local system, and shall give notice to the users of such fact in the manner prescribed by the department. When a variance or exemption is granted, the person operating the public water system shall give notice to the users of such fact.

(b) When a person operating a public water system determines that a significant rise in the bacterial count of water has occurred in water he supplies, the person shall provide, at his expense, a report on the rise in bacterial count of the water, together with the results of an analysis of such water within 24 hours to the department and, where appropriate, the local health officer.

(c) When the department, or the local health officer for a local system, receives the information described in subdivision (b) and determines that it constitutes an immediate danger to health, the department, or the local health officer for a local system, shall immediately notify the person operating the public water system to implement the emergency notification plan required by this chapter.

(d) In the case of a failure to comply with any primary drinking water standard which represents an imminent danger to the health of water users the operator shall notify each of his customers as provided in his approved emergency notification plan.

(e) The content of notices required by this section shall be approved by the department or the local health officer for a local system. Notice shall be repeated at intervals as required by the department, or the local health officer for a local system, until the department, or the local health officer for a local system, concludes that there is compliance with its standards or requirements. Notices may be given by the department or the local health officer for a local system.

4029. No person shall operate a public water system without an emergency notification plan which has been submitted to and approved by the department or the local health officer for a local system. Such emergency notification plan shall provide for immediate notice to the customers of the public water system of any significant rise in the bacterial count of water or other failure to comply with any primary drinking water standard which represents an imminent danger to the health of the water users.

No permit, variance or exemption may be issued or amended under this chapter until an emergency notification plan has been approved by the department or the local health officer for a local system.

The department shall adopt rules and regulations to implement the provisions of this section. Such rules and regulations may provide for the exclusion of public water systems from the requirements of this section when, in the judgment of the department, such exclusion will best serve the public interest.

4029.5. Any public water system under the jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission may be required to install and operate additional facilities if upon the conclusion of a public hearing the director of the department determines that such facilities are necessary to provide the users of the water system a continuous and adequate supply of water or to bring a water system into conformity with secondary drinking water standards.

4030. The department, or the local health officer for a local system, may at any and all reasonable times enter any and all places, property, enclosures, and structures for the purpose of making examinations and investigations to determine whether any provision of this chapter is being violated.

4030.5. Upon a determination by the department that a local health officer has not complied with the provisions of this chapter, the department may act for the local health officer in compliance with this chapter.

4030.7. By resolution of the governing board of the local health officer, the governing board may transfer the responsibilities specified in this chapter of the local health officer to the department.

Article 3. Violations

4031. If upon inspection the department, or the local health officer for a local system, determines that a public water system fails to comply with any drinking water standard or violates any regulation relating to the operation or maintenance of a public water system, the department or such local health officer may issue a cease-and-desist order to the permittee. The cease-and-desist order shall be served upon the permittee personally or by registered mail in accordance with subdivision (c) of Section 11505 of the Government Code. Each cease-and-desist order shall be in writing and shall describe with particularity the nature of the failure to comply or the violation, including a reference to the statutory provision, standard, rule, or regulation alleged to have not been complied with or to have been violated. The cease-and-desist order shall fix the earliest feasible time for the elimination of the condition constituting the failure to comply or the violation, where appropriate.

Cease-and-desist orders issued pursuant to this chapter shall be classified according to the nature of the failure to comply or the violation and shall indicate the classification on the face thereof, as follows:

(a) Failure to comply with any primary drinking water standard which the director determines may have an adverse effect upon health, or a substantial probability of an adverse effect upon health.

(b) Failure to comply with any secondary drinking water standard which the director determines may have a direct or immediate relationship to the welfare of the water users and which results from the improper operation of water treatment facilities.

(c) Failure to comply with any drinking water standard or violation of any department rule or regulation which the director determines has only a minimal relationship to the health of water users.

Article 4. Remedies

4032. (a) Any person who operates a public water system without having an unrevoked permit to do so, may be enjoined from so doing by any court of competent jurisdiction at the suit of the department or the local health officer for a local system.

(b) Where a public water system has failed to meet a drinking water standard for a period of 90 days and the operator has not presented a plan for bringing the water system into compliance therewith deemed reasonable by the department or the local health officer for a local system, the department, or the local health officer for a local system, may bring an action in the superior court to enforce a reasonable plan of compliance, including the appointment of a competent person, to be approved by the department, or the local health officer for a local system, and paid by the operator of the public water system, who shall take charge of and operate the system so as to secure compliance; or to enjoin further service connections to the public water system, or to obtain such other relief as may be required to insure compliance with this chapter.

4033. Any person who intentionally or negligently violates any cease-and-desist order issued, reissued, or amended pursuant to the provisions of Section 4031 may be liable civilly as follows:

(a) For failure to comply with any primary drinking water standards, an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each violation.

(b) For failure to comply with any secondary drinking water standards, an amount not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each violation.

(c) For failure to comply with any drinking water standard or department rule or regulation which has only a minimal relationship to the health of water users, an amount of not more than fifty dollars ($50).

4034. (a) The Attorney General, upon request of the department, shall petition a court of competent jurisdiction to impose, assess, and recover such sums. In determining such amount, the court shall take into consideration all relevant circumstances, including but not limited to, the extent of harm caused by the violation, the nature and persistence of the violation, the length of time over which the violation occurs, and any corrective actions taken.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 4035, remedies under this section are in addition to, and do not supersede or limit, any and all other remedies, civil or criminal.

4035. It is unlawful for any person to furnish or supply to a user water used or intended to be used for human consumption or for domestic purposes which is impure, unwholesome, unpotable, polluted, or dangerous to health.

(a) Every person who knowingly violates any provision of this section, or of any order of the department, or the local officer for a local system issued pursuant to this section, or knowingly files a false statement or report required by the department under this chapter, or who procures, aids, or abets in any such violation or failure, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by both.

(b) Each day's violation of any provision of this section, or of any order of the department or the local health officer issued pursuant to this chapter, beyond the time stated for compliance, shall be a separate and distinct offense.

(c) Penalties shall not be imposed under subdivision (b) if a proceeding is pending under Section 4034.

4036. Anything done, maintained, or suffered as a result of failure to comply with any primary drinking water standard is a public nuisance dangerous to health, and may be enjoined or summarily abated in the manner provided by law. Every public officer or body lawfully empowered to do so shall abate the nuisance immediately.

Article 5. Judicial Review

4037. (a) Within 30 days after service of a copy of a cease-and-desist order issued by the department, or the local health officer for a local system, pursuant to Section 4031, any aggrieved party may file with the superior court a petition for a writ of mandate for review thereof. Failure to file such an action shall not preclude a party from challenging the reasonableness and validity of a decision or order of the department or order of the local health officer in any judicial proceedings brought to enforce such decision or order or for any civil or criminal remedy authorized by this chapter.

(b) The evidence before the court shall consist of all relevant evidence which, in the judgment of the court, should be considered to effectuate and implement the provisions of this chapter. In every case, the court shall exercise its independent judgment on the evidence.

(c) Except as otherwise provided herein, the provisions of subdivisions (e) and (f) of Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall govern proceedings pursuant to this section.

SEC. 3. Section 770 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

770. The commission may after hearing:

(a) Ascertain and fix just and reasonable standards, classifications, regulations, practices, measurements, or service to be furnished, imposed, observed, and followed by all electrical, gas, water, and heat corporations.

(b) Ascertain and fix adequate and serviceable standards for the measurement of quantity, quality, pressure, or other condition pertaining to the supply of the product, commodity, or service furnished or rendered by any such public utility. The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1016 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1016. There are six kinds of pleas to an indictment or an information, or to a complaint charging an offense triable in any inferior court:

1. Guilty.

2. Not guilty.

3. Nolo contendere, subject to the approval of the court. The court shall ascertain whether the defendant completely understands that a plea of nolo contendere shall be considered the same as a plea of guilty and that, upon a plea of nolo contendere, the court shall find the defendant guilty. The legal effect of such a plea shall be the same as that of a plea of guilty, but the plea and any admissions required by the court during any inquiry it makes as to the voluntariness of and factual basis for the plea may not be used against the defendant as an admission in any civil suit based upon or growing out of the act upon which the criminal prosecution is based.

4. A former judgment of conviction or acquittal of the offense charged.

5. Once in jeopardy.

6. Not guilty by reason of insanity.

A defendant who does not plead guilty may enter one or more of the other pleas. A defendant who does not plead not guilty by reason of insanity shall be conclusively presumed to have been sane at the time of the commission of the offense charged; provided, that the court may for good cause shown allow a change of plea at any time before the commencement of the trial. A defendant who pleads not guilty by reason of insanity, without also pleading not guilty, thereby admits the commission of the offense charged.

(a) A minimum wage to be paid to employees engaged in any occupation, trade, or industry in this state, which shall not be less than a wage adequate to supply the necessary costs of proper living to, and maintain the health and welfare of such employees. Such minimum wage shall not, in any case, be less than the then current federal minimum wage applicable to employees covered by the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (Secs. 201 et seq., Title 29, U.S.C.) prior to February 1, 1967. If, at any time, the federal minimum wage applicable to employees covered by the Fair Labor Standards Act prior to February 1, 1967, exceeds the minimum wage

The commission shall then proceed to hold a public hearing in each of three cities in this state and fix a new minimum wage at the higher federal minimum wage, as provided in Sections 1182 to 1189, inclusive. CHAPTER 1090

An act to add Article 4.2 (commencing with Section 3250) to Chapter 1 of Division 3 of the Public Resources Code, relating to oil and gas, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 4.2 (commencing with Section 3250) is added to Chapter 1 of Division 3 of the Public Resources Code, to read:

Article 4.2. Hazardous Wells

3250. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that certain hazardous oil and gas wells, as defined in this article, are public nuisances and that it is essential, in order to protect life, health, and natural resources that such oil and gas wells be abandoned, reabandoned, produced, or otherwise remedied to mitigate, minimize, or eliminate their danger to life, health, and natural resources.

The Legislature further finds and declares that, although the abatement of such public nuisances could be accomplished by means of an exercise of the regulatory power of the state, such regulatory abatement would result in unfairness and financial hardship for certain landowners, while also resulting in benefits to the public. The Legislature, therefore, finds and declares that the expenditure of funds to abate such nuisances as provided in this article is for a public purpose and finds and declares it to be the policy of this state that the cost of carrying out such abatement be charged to this state's producers of oil and gas as provided in Article 7 (commencing with Section 3400) of this chapter.

3251. For the purposes of this article, an oil or gas well is a "hazardous well" if the well has been determined by the supervisor to presently pose a danger to life, health, or natural resources; and the supervisor also determines either one of the following:

(a) That regulatory abatement of such a public nuisance is not possible because the last person that had an economic interest in, or received any benefit from, the well is deceased, defunct, or no longer in business in this state.

(b) That any other person that has or had an economic interest in, or received benefit from, the well derives or derived only insubstantial benefit or little or no financial gain from the well; and that the cost of such abatement imposed on such a person would constitute severe economic hardship. In making determinations respecting benefit, financial gain, and severe economic hardship, the supervisor may seek such information and require such proof of these matters as may be desirable or necessary.

As used in this section, "person" has the same meaning as the definition of "person" in Section 3005.

3252. As used in this article, "natural resources" includes land, water, air, minerals, vegetation, wildlife, historical or aesthetic sites, or any other natural resource which, irrespective of ownership, contributes to the health, safety, welfare, or enjoyment of a substantial number of persons, or to the substantial balance of an ecological community.

3253. If any provisions of this article or the application thereof in any circumstances or to any person or public agency is held invalid, the remainder of this article or the application thereof in other circumstances or to other persons or public agencies shall not be affected thereby.

3254. This article shall be liberally construed and applied to promote its purposes.

3255. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, the supervisor may order that any of the following operations be carried out on any property in the vicinity of which, or on which, is located any well that the supervisor determines to be a hazardous well if any of the following operations are necessary to the abatement of a hazardous well:

0 4049 29 3 130 326

(1) Any inspection or tests necessary to determine what action, if any, would be appropriate to effectuate the purpose of this article.

(2) The abandonment of such a well.

(3) The reabandonment of such a well.

(4) The redrilling and production of an existing well for purposes of remedying, mitigating, minimizing, or eliminating danger to life, health, and natural resources.

(5) The drilling and production of a well for purposes of remedying, mitigating, minimizing, or eliminating danger to life, health, and natural resources.

(6) Any other remedy or oilfield operation calculated to effectuate the purpose of this article.

(b) If, pursuant to this article, the supervisor orders that any operation be carried out with respect to a hazardous well and such operation will, by virtue of the physical occupation or destruction of all or any part of the property or the extraction of oil or gas from such property, substantially interfere with the enjoyment of the property, the supervisor shall acquire, as provided in Section 3256, such minimal interest in the property as is necessary to carry out such operation. No such acquisition may be made pursuant to this subdivision unless the supervisor finds and determines that the public benefits to be derived therefrom in remedying, mitigating, minimizing, or eliminating danger to life, health, and natural resources will exceed the cost of such acquisition, irrespective of the manner in which such acquisition is to be funded.

(c) An order of the supervisor to carry out any of the operations listed in subdivision (a) may be appealed by the owner of the property pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 3350) of this chapter, except that in the case of an emergency no stay of the supervisor's order shall accompany the appeal.

3256. (a) The division is hereby authorized to accept, and hold for and in the name of the state, by gift, exchange, purchase, negotiation, or eminent domain proceedings, any and all property or appurtenances of every kind and description thereto, including land, leases, easements, rights-of-way, oil, gas, or other mineral rights as the supervisor determines to be required and necessary to carry out operations to effect the purpose of this article.

(b) When the division cannot acquire any such necessary property or interest therein by agreement with the owner, any such property or interest therein authorized to be acquired under this article shall be acquired pursuant to provisions of the Property Acquisition Law (Part 11 (commencing with Section 15850) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code); except that, notwithstanding any provision thereof, the division, in the name of and for the state, may take immediate possession and use of any property required to carry out operations to effect the purpose of this article after eminent domain proceedings are first commenced according to law in a court of competent jurisdiction, and thereupon giving such security as the court in which the proceedings are pending directs to secure to the owner of the property sought to be taken immediate compensation for the taking and any damage incident thereto, including damages sustained by reason of an adjudication that there is no necessity for taking the property.

3257. To effect the purpose of this article, the division is authorized to enter into agreements with any person, public agency, corporation, or other entity for the management or operation of property acquired or for the conduct of any operation ordered pursuant to this article.

3258. The division may not make expenditures pursuant to this article that exceed the sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) in any one fiscal year.

3259. On or before January 31, 1979, the supervisor shall submit to the Legislature a report covering all operations and expenditures under this article through June 30, 1978.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

There are presently in the State of California a number of hazardous oil and gas wells that pose a danger to the peace, health, and safety of the people of the state and should be immediately remedied. This act authorizes the State Oil and Gas Supervisor to carry out necessary remedial work, and it is necessary therefore that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1091

An act to add Section 8622 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to structural pest control operators.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8622 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

8622. When a complaint is accepted for investigation of a person acting as an operator, the board, through an authorized representative may inspect any or all properties on which a report has been issued pursuant to Section 8516 or a notice of completion has been issued pursuant to Section 8518 by such operator to determine compliance with the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations issued thereunder. If the board determines such property or properties are not in compliance, a notice shall be sent to the operator so stating. The operator shall have 30 days from the receipt of the notice to bring such property into compliance, and he shall submit a corrected report or completion notice or both and an inspection fee of not more than one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) for each property inspected. If a subsequent reinspection is necessary, pursuant to the board's review of the corrected report or notice or both, a commensurate reinspection fee shall also be charged. If the investigator makes no determination or determines the property is in compliance, no inspection fee shall be charged.

Therefore, Section 4.5 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 4140 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1977, both amend Section 21107.8, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 4140, in which case Section 4 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 30. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to this section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local government entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

CHAPTER 1094

An act to amend Sections 12007, 12081, 12101, and 12103 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to explosives.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12007 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

12007. (a) For the purposes of this part, the term "issuing authority" shall mean either the sheriff of a county, or the chief or other head of a municipal police department of any city or city and county, or the chief of a fire department or fire protection agency, and their authorized representatives, provided that, in the event the designated issuing authority is the chief of a fire department or fire protection agency, such fire department or fire protection agency is organized with regularly paid full-time personnel. The governing body of any county, city, or city and county shall designate one of the above as the issuing authority within its jurisdiction and shall notify the State Fire Marshal of the person so designated.

(b) If the governing body of any county, city, or city and county does not designate an issuing authority pursuant to subdivision (a), the State Fire Marshal shall designate the sheriff of the county as the issuing authority.

SEC. 2. Section 12081 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

12081. Except as limited by Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 140), Division 1 of the Labor Code, the State Fire Marshal shall prepare and adopt, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 4.5 (commencing at Section 11371), Part 1, Division 3, Title 2 of the Government Code, reasonable regulations which are not in conflict with this part, relating to the sale, use, handling, possession, and storage of explosives.

The regulations adopted by the State Fire Marshal shall:

(a) Make reasonable allowances for storage facilities in existence when the regulations become effective. No allowance, however, shall be made for storage facilities which constitute a distinct hazard to life and property, nor shall any allowance be made for storage facilities wherein proper safeguards for the control and security of explosives cannot be maintained.

(b) Be based on performance standards wherever possible.

(c) Make reasonable allowances for the storage of gunpowder for commercial and private use. No allowance, however, shall be made for storage facilities which constitute a distinct hazard to life and property, nor shall any allowance be made for storage facilities wherein proper safeguards for the control and security of explosives cannot be maintained.

(d) Set uniform requirements for the use and handling of explosives that would apply statewide.

The regulations adopted by the State Fire Marshal pursuant to this section shall apply uniformly throughout the State of California, and no city, county, city and county, or other political subdivision of this state, including, but not limited to, a chartered city, county, or city and county, shall adopt or enforce any ordinance or regulation which is inconsistent with the provisions of this section.

In making the regulations the State Fire Marshal shall consider as evidence of generally accepted safety standards the publications of the National Fire Protection Association, the United States Bureau of Mines, the United States Department of Defense, and the Institute of Makers of Explosives.

SEC. 3. Section 12101 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

12101. (a) No person shall do any one of the following without first having made application for and received a permit in accordance with the provisions of this section:

(1) Manufacture explosives.

(2) Sell, furnish, or give away explosives.

(3) Receive, store, or possess explosives.

(4) Transport explosives.

(5) Use explosives.

(6) Operate a terminal for handling explosives.

(7) Park or leave standing any vehicle carrying explosives, except when parked or left standing in or at a safe stopping place designated as such by the Department of the California Highway Patrol under the provisions of Division 14 (commencing with Section 31600) of the Vehicle Code.

(b) Application for a permit shall be made to the appropriate issuing authority.

(c) A permit shall be obtained from the issuing authority having the responsibility in the area where the activity, as specified in subdivision (a) of this section, is to be conducted.

If the person holding a valid permit for the use or storage of explosives desires to purchase or receive explosives in a jurisdiction other than that of intended use or storage, such person shall first present such permit to the issuing authority in the jurisdiction of purchase or receipt for endorsement. Such issuing authority may include any reasonable restrictions or conditions which he finds necessary for the prevention of fire and explosion, the preservation of life, safety, or the control and security of explosives within his jurisdiction. If, for any reason, such issuing authority refuses to endorse the permit previously issued in the area of intended use or storage, such authority shall immediately notify both the issuing authority who issued the permit and the State Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation in Sacramento of the fact of such refusal and the reasons for such refusal.

Every person who sells, gives away, delivers, or otherwise disposes of explosives to another person shall first satisfy himself that the person receiving the explosives has a permit valid for that purpose. When the permit to receive explosives indicates that the intended storage or use of the explosives is other than in that area in which the permittee receives the explosives, the person who sells, gives away, delivers, or otherwise disposes of the explosives shall insure that the permit has been properly endorsed by a local issuing authority and, further, shall immediately send a copy of the record of sale to the issuing authority who originally issued the permit in the area of intended storage or use. The issuing authority in the area in which the explosives are received or sold shall not have the authority to issue a permit for the possession, use, or storage of explosives in an area not within his jurisdiction.

(d) In the event any person desires to receive explosives for use in an area outside of this state, a permit to receive such explosives shall be obtained from the State Fire Marshal.

(e) A permit may include any restrictions or conditions which the issuing authority finds necessary for the prevention of fire and explosion, the preservation of life, safety, or the control and security of explosives.

(f) A permit shall remain valid only until such time as the act or acts authorized by the permit are performed, but in no event shall the permit remain valid for a period longer than one year from the date of issuance of the permit.

(g) Any valid permit which authorizes the performance of any act shall not constitute authorization for the performance of any act not stipulated in the permit.

SEC. 4. Section 12103 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

12103. Application for a permit, as required under Section 12101, shall be made by filing a statement on forms prescribed by the State Fire Marshal. Such statement shall contain, but shall not necessarily be limited to, the following:

(a) The name and address of the applicant.

(b) The name and address of the employee or authorized representatives designated by the applicant as being responsible for the use, handling, storage, possession, or transportation of explosives for the applicant and whether the employee or authorized representative has been issued a blaster's license by the Division of Industrial Safety to use or handle explosives.

(c) The place where, and the purpose for which, the explosives are intended to be used, handled, stored, or possessed.

(d) The type and amount of explosives for which application is made.

(e) The signature of the applicant.

(f) The number of times purchases may be made and the frequency of such purchases.

(g) The routes, highways, and stopping places intended to be utilized in transporting the explosives.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to this section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local government entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

CHAPTER 1095

An act to amend the heading of Article 5 (commencing with Section 41950) of Chapter 3 of Part 4 of Division 26 of, and to amend and renumber Section 39068.6 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The heading of Article 5 (commencing with Section 41950) of Chapter 3 of Part 4 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

Article 5. Gasoline Vapor Control

SEC. 2. Section 39068.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

41954. (a) The state board shall, by March 1, 1976, adopt procedures for determining the compliance of any system designed for the control of gasoline vapor emissions during gasoline marketing operations, including storage, transport, and transfer operations, with performance standards which the state board determines are reasonable and necessary to achieve or maintain any applicable ambient air quality standard.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 34002 of the Vehicle Code, the state board shall adopt test procedures to determine the compliance of cargo tanks on tank vehicles used to transport gasoline with vapor emission standards the state board determines are reasonable and necessary to achieve or maintain any applicable ambient air quality standard. The performance standards and test procedures adopted by the state board shall be consistent with the regulations adopted by the State Fire Marshal pursuant to Division 14.7 (commencing with Section 34001) of the Vehicle Code.

(c) The state board shall certify any gasoline vapor control system, or cargo tank on any tank vehicle used to transport gasoline, upon its determination that the system or cargo tank, if properly installed and maintained, will meet the requirements enumerated in subdivision (a) or (b), as the case may be. The state board shall specify the specifications used for issuing such certification. After the state board has certified such a system or cargo tank, if circumstances beyond the control of the state board cause the system or cargo tank to no longer meet the specified certification specifications, the state board may, as appropriate, revoke or modify its prior certification.

(d) The state board may test, or contract for the testing of, gasoline vapor control systems and cargo tanks on tank vehicles in order to certify them.

(e) The state board shall charge a reasonable fee for certification, not to exceed the state board's estimated costs therefor. Payment of such fee shall be made a condition of certification.

(f) On or after July 1, 1976, no person shall install a gasoline vapor control system unless it has been certified by the state board.

(g) On or after July 1, 1977, no person shall operate, or allow the operation of, a tank vehicle transporting gasoline unless the cargo tank thereon has been certified by the state board and is installed and maintained in compliance with the state board's requirements for certification. Tank vehicles used exclusively to service gasoline storage tanks which are not required to have gasoline vapor controls may, upon application by the owner or operator of the vehicle, be exempted by the state board from the certification requirement.

(h) To the extent authorized by other provisions of law, any district may adopt stricter procedures and performance standards than those adopted by the state board pursuant to subdivision (a). On and after July 1, 1977, performance standards of any district for cargo tanks on tank vehicles used to transport gasoline shall be identical with those adopted by the state board therefor, and no district shall adopt test procedures for, or require certification of, the cargo tanks.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section, nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act, because the Legislature recognizes that, during any legislative session, a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local government entities which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

CHAPTER 1096

An act to amend Sections 9105, 21107.8, 22511.5, 22511.7, and 22511.8 of, and to add Section 22507.8 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to disabled persons, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9105 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

9105. (a) The fees specified in this code except fees for duplicate plates, certificates, or cards need not be paid for any of the following vehicles, which are of a type subject to registration under this code, and which are not used for transportation for hire, compensation, or profit, when owned by any veteran who has lost, or has lost use of, two or more limbs, or one eye and any limb, or who has suffered permanent blindness as defined in Section 19153 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as a result of injury or disease suffered while on active service with the armed forces of the United States:

(1) Any passenger motor vehicle.

(2) Any motorcycle.

(3) Any commercial motor vehicle of less than 6,001 pounds unladen weight.

The exemption granted by this subdivision shall not extend to more than one vehicle owned by any such veteran.

(b) Any disabled veteran who qualifies for issuance of, and has been issued, a distinguishing license plate, may apply to the Department of Motor Vehicles for issuance of a distinguishing placard. Such placard may be used in lieu of the distinguishing license plate for parking purposes when displayed on the driver's side dashboard of a vehicle. The placard shall be at least 6 inches by 12 inches in size, and blue in color.

(c) The Department of Motor Vehicles may charge a fee sufficient to pay the actual cost to that department for issuance of placards as provided in subdivision (b). The Department of Motor Vehicles may establish procedures for the issuance of such placard.

SEC. 1.5. Section 21107.8 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

21107.8. (a) Any city or county may, by ordinance or resolution, find and declare that there are privately owned and maintained offstreet parking facilities as described in such ordinance or resolution within the city or county that are generally held open for use of the public for purposes of vehicular parking. Upon enactment by a city or county of such an ordinance or resolution, Sections 22350, 22507.8, 23103, and 23109 shall apply to any such privately owned and maintained offstreet parking facilities, except as provided in subdivision (b).

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), no ordinance or resolution enacted thereunder shall apply to any offstreet parking facility described therein unless the owner or operator has caused to be posted in a conspicuous place at each entrance to such offstreet parking facility a notice not less than 17 by 22 inches in size with lettering not less than one inch in height, to the effect that such offstreet parking facility is subject to public traffic regulations and control.

(c) No ordinance or resolution shall be enacted under subdivision (a) without a public hearing thereon and 10 days prior written notice to the owner and operator of the privately owned and maintained offstreet parking facility involved.

(d) The department shall not be required to provide patrol or enforce any provisions of this code on any privately owned and maintained offstreet parking facility subjected to the provisions of this code under this section except those provisions applicable to private property other than by action under this section.

SEC. 1.6. Section 21107.8 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

21107.8. (a) Any city or county may, by ordinance or resolution, find and declare that there are privately owned and maintained off-street parking facilities as described in such ordinance or resolution within the city or county that are generally held open for use of the public for purposes of vehicular parking. Upon enactment by a city or county of such an ordinance or resolution, Sections 22350, 22507.8, 23103, and 23109 shall apply to any such privately owned and maintained off-street parking facilities, except as provided in subdivision (b). In addition, if specifically stated in such ordinance or resolution, the provisions of Division 16.5 (commencing with Section 38000) shall apply to any such facilities, except as provided in subdivision (b).

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), no ordinance or resolution enacted thereunder shall apply to any off-street parking facility described therein unless the owner or operator has caused to be posted in a conspicuous place at each entrance to such off-street parking facility a notice not less than 17 by 22 inches in size with lettering not less than one inch in height, to the effect that such off-street parking facility is subject to public traffic regulations and control.

(c) No ordinance or resolution shall be enacted under subdivision (a) without a public hearing thereon and 10 days prior written notice to the owner and operator of the privately owned and maintained off-street parking facility involved.

(d) The department shall not be required to provide patrol or enforce any provisions of this code on any privately owned and maintained off-street parking facility subjected to the provisions of this code under this section except those provisions applicable to private property other than by action under this section.

SEC. 2. Section 22507.8 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

22507.8. (a) It is unlawful for any person to park or leave standing any vehicle in a stall or space designated for physically handicapped persons, if, immediately adjacent to and visible from such stall or space, there is posted a sign consisting of a profile view of a wheelchair with occupant in white on a blue background, unless the vehicle displays either one of the distinguishing license plates or a placard issued pursuant to Section 22511.5 or to disabled veterans, as specified in Section 9105.

(b) The provisions of subdivision (a) shall apply to all offstreet parking facilities owned or operated by the state, and to all offstreet parking facilities owned or operated by a local authority if so designated by the local authority by ordinance or resolution. The provisions of subdivision (a) shall also apply to any privately owned and maintained offstreet parking facility as provided in Section 21107.8.

SEC. 3. Section 22511.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22511.5. (a) Any person who has lost, or has lost the use of, one or more limbs or both hands, or is so severely disabled as to be unable to move without the aid of a mechanical device, shall be allowed to park for unlimited periods in parking zones restricted as to the length of time parking is permitted and shall be allowed to park in any metered parking space without being required to pay any parking meter fees. This section shall have no application to those zones in which the stopping, parking, or standing of all vehicles is prohibited or which are reserved for special types of vehicles. As a condition to this privilege the vehicle shall display a distinguishing license plate which shall be issued for a vehicle registered to the disabled person, or a vehicle which is not registered to such a disabled person, but which is used primarily to transport such disabled person and which would otherwise qualify for such distinguishing license plate if the vehicle were registered to the disabled person. The distinguishing license plate shall be issued without additional fees by the Department of Motor Vehicles pursuant to procedures adopted by that department.

(b) Any person who qualifies for issuance of a distinguishing license plate may apply to the Department of Motor Vehicles for issuance of a distinguishing placard. Such placard may be used in lieu of the distinguishing license plate for parking purposes when displayed on the driver's side dashboard of a vehicle. The placard shall be at least 6 inches by 12 inches in size, and blue in color.

(c) The Department of Motor Vehicles may charge a fee sufficient to pay the actual cost to that department for issuance of such placards. The Department of Motor Vehicles may establish procedures for the issuance of such placards.

SEC. 4. Section 22511.7 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22511.7. Local authorities may by ordinance or resolution designate parking spaces for the exclusive use of vehicles which display a distinguishing license plate or a placard issued pursuant to Section 22511.5 or to disabled veterans, as specified in Section 9105. Whenever a local authority so designates a parking space, it shall be indicated by blue paint on the curb or edge of the paved portion of the street adjacent to the space. In addition to blue paint, the space may also be indicated by signs or other suitable means.

The provisions of this section shall not be construed to restrict the privilege granted to disabled veterans by Section 22511 and to disabled persons by Section 22511.5.

SEC. 5. Section 22511.8 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22511.8. Any local authority, by ordinance or resolution, and any person in lawful possession of an offstreet parking facility may designate stalls or spaces in an offstreet parking facility owned or operated by the local authority or person for the exclusive use of vehicles which display a distinguishing license plate or a placard issued pursuant to Section 22511.5 or to disabled veterans, as specified in Section 9105. Such designation shall be made by posting immediately adjacent to, and visible from, each stall or space, a sign consisting of a profile view of a wheelchair with occupant in white on a blue background.

The owner or person in lawful possession of an offstreet parking facility, after notifying the police or sheriff's department, as the case may be, and any local authority owning or operating an offstreet parking facility, may cause the removal, from a stall or space designated for physically handicapped persons in such facility to the nearest public garage, of any vehicle not displaying one of the distinguishing placards or license plates specified in this section if there is posted immediately adjacent to, and visible from, such stall or space, or, if there is posted, in a conspicuous place at each entrance to the offstreet parking facility, not less than 17 by 22 inches in size with lettering not less than one inch in height, a sign which clearly and conspicuously states the following: "Unauthorized vehicles not displaying distinguishing placards or license plates issued for physically handicapped persons will be towed away at owner's expense. Towed vehicles may be reclaimed at _____ or by telephoning _____ (Address) (Telephone number of local law enforcement agency)."

The provisions of this section shall not be construed to restrict the privilege granted to disabled veterans by Section 22511 and to disabled persons by Section 22511.5.

SEC. 6. Section 22511.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22511.5. (a) Any person who has lost, or has lost the use of, one or more limbs or both hands, who is so severely disabled as to be unable to move without the aid of a mechanical device, or who suffers from lung disease to such an extent that his forced (respiratory) expiratory volume one second when measured by spirometry is less than one liter or his arterial oxygen tension (Po2) is less than 60 mm/hg on room air at rest, shall be allowed to park for unlimited periods in parking zones restricted as to the length of time parking is permitted and shall be allowed to park in any metered parking space without being required to pay any parking meter fees. This section shall have no application to those zones in which the stopping, parking, or standing of all vehicles is prohibited or which are reserved for special types of vehicles. As a condition to this privilege the vehicle shall display a distinguishing license plate which shall be issued for a vehicle registered to the disabled person, or a vehicle which is not registered to such a disabled person, but which is used primarily to transport such disabled person and which would otherwise qualify for such distinguishing license plate if the vehicle were registered to the disabled person. The distinguishing license plate shall be issued without additional fees by the Department of Motor Vehicles pursuant to procedures adopted by that department. The department, prior to issuing a distinguishing license plate for a person who indicates that he suffers from lung disease to the extent specified in this section, may require a certificate, signed by a physician licensed to practice medicine, stating that such person does suffer from lung disease to such an extent.

(b) Any person who qualifies for issuance of a distinguishing license plate may apply to the Department of Motor Vehicles for issuance of a distinguishing placard. Such placard may be used in lieu of the distinguishing license plate for parking purposes when displayed on the driver's side dashboard of a vehicle. The placard shall be at least 6 inches by 12 inches in size, and blue in color.

(c) The Department of Motor Vehicles may charge a fee sufficient to pay the actual cost to that department for issuance of such placards. The Department of Motor Vehicles may establish procedures for the issuance of such placards.

SEC. 6.5. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 4075 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1977, both bills amend Section 21107.8 of the Vehicle Code and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 4075, that the amendments to Section 21107.8 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 21107.8 in the form set forth in Section 1.6 of this act. Therefore, Section 1.6 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 4075 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1977, both amend Section 21107.8, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 4075, in which case Section 1.5 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 7. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1585 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1977, both bills amend Section 22511.5 of the Vehicle Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1585, that the amendments to Section 22511.5 proposed by both bills be given effect and incorporated in Section 22511.5 in the form set forth in Section 6 of this act. Therefore, Section 6 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1585 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1977, both amend Section 22511.5, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1585, in which case Section 3 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 8. No appropriation is made by this act, nor is any obligation created thereby under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, for the reimbursement of any local agency for any costs that may be incurred by it in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by it by this act.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22511.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

Therefore, Section 2 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 4140 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1977, both amend Section 22511.5, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 4140, in which case Section 1 of this act shall not become operative.

The Speaker of the Assembly shall be an ex officio member; having equal rights and duties with nonlegislative members.

An act to amend Sections 1 and 5 of, to add Sections 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10 to, and to repeal Sections 2, 3, and 4 of, Chapter 245 of the Statutes of 1933, relating to state lands.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of Chapter 245 of the Statutes of 1933 is amended to read:

Section 1. The State of California hereby grants to the City of San Mateo, and to its successors, all the right, title, and interest of the state held by virtue of its sovereignty, in and to all the salt marsh, tide, and submerged lands, whether filled or unfilled, within the present boundaries of the city, excepting therefrom any and all portions of such lands which were granted in trust by Chapter 1857 of the Statutes of 1965 to the County of San Mateo, to be held forever by the city, and by its successors, in trust for the benefit of all the people of the state for purposes of commerce, navigation, fisheries, and for other public purposes, including, but not limited to, preservation of such lands in their natural state for scientific study, open space, wildlife habitat, recreational uses, as more particularly provided below, and for the following uses and purposes, and upon the following express conditions:

(a) That the lands shall be used by the city and its successors for only the following uses and purposes in which there is a general public interest:

(1) The establishment, improvement, and conduct of a public harbor, and for the construction, maintenance, and operation of dikes, lagoons, wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays, ways, and streets, and other utilities, structures, and appliances necessary or convenient for the promotion and accommodation of trust uses and purposes.

(2) The development, establishment, and implementation of a shoreline park plan consisting of public open-space parks and facilities, including dikes, ditches, lagoons, pumps, water control structures, a boardwalk, bicycle paths, trails, aquatic playgrounds, adventure playgrounds, picnic areas, specialty shops, restaurants, and other water-oriented and recreational facilities, open to the general public; and for the construction, reconstruction, improvement, repair, maintenance, and operation of all works, buildings, facilities, utilities, structures, and appliances incidental, necessary, or convenient for the promotion and accommodation of any such uses.

(3) The preservation, maintenance, and enhancement of the lands in their natural state, and the reestablishment of the natural state of the lands so that they may serve as ecological units for scientific study, as open space, and as environments which provide food and habitat for birds and marine life and which favorably affect the scenery and climate of the area.

(b) That, except as otherwise provided in this act, the city or its successors shall not, at any time, grant, convey, give, or alienate the lands, or any part thereof, to any individual, firm, or corporation for any purposes whatever; provided, however, that the city or its successors may grant franchises thereon for a period not exceeding 66 years for wharves, docks, quays, and other public uses and purposes, and may lease the lands or any part thereof for a period not exceeding 66 years for purposes consistent with the trust upon which the lands are held by the state and with the uses specified in this section.

(c) That the lands shall be improved without expense to the state; provided, however, that nothing contained in this act shall preclude expenditures for the development of the lands for any public purpose not inconsistent with the trust upon which the lands are held by the state, or any board, agency, or commission thereof.

(d) That, in the management, conduct, operation, and control of the lands or any improvements, betterments, or structures thereon, the city or its successors shall make no discrimination in rates, tolls, or charges for any use or service in connection therewith.

(e) That the state shall have the right to use without charge any transportation, landing, or storage improvements, betterments, or structures constructed upon the lands for any vessel or other watercraft or railroad owned or operated by the state.

(f) There is hereby reserved to the people of the State of California the right to fish in the waters over the lands and the right of convenient access over the lands to the waters for this purpose, which rights, however, shall be subject to rules of the city that are necessary for facilitating the uses specified in subdivision (a) of this section.

SEC. 2. Section 2 of Chapter 245 of the Statutes of 1933 is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 2 is added to Chapter 245 of the Statutes of 1933, to read:

Sec. 2. The provisions of Section 6359 of the Public Resources Code shall not apply to this act.

SEC. 4. Section 3 of Chapter 245 of the Statutes of 1933 is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 3 is added to Chapter 245 of the Statutes of 1933, to read:

Sec. 3. The city may establish the ordinary high-water mark or the ordinary low-water mark of any of the lands hereby granted, by agreement, arbitration, or action to quiet title, whenever the city deems it expedient. Any establishment of an ordinary high-water mark or ordinary low-water mark by arbitration or agreement shall not be effective until approved by the State Lands Commission.

SEC. 6. Section 4 of Chapter 245 of the Statutes of 1933 is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 4 is added to Chapter 245 of the Statutes of 1933, to read:

Sec. 4. (a) Whenever it shall appear to the city to be expedient for the settlement of boundary and title disputes, and to be in the best interests of the state for the purposes specified in Section 1, and that no substantial interference with the trust uses and purposes would ensue, the city may exchange lands of equal or greater value, whether filled or unfilled, with any state agency, political subdivision, person, or the United States or any agency thereof. In any such exchange, all right, title, and interest in and to all deposits of minerals, including oil and gas and geothermal resources, in the lands to be received by the city, and the right to prospect for, mine, and remove such deposits from such lands or to authorize persons to prospect for, mine, and remove such deposits, shall be transferred to the state. Any land so acquired shall have the same status as to administration, control, and disposition as the lands for which it was exchanged. No such exchange shall be effective unless and until the State Lands Commission (1) makes a finding that the lands to be acquired by the city and the mineral rights to be transferred to the state are of equal or greater value than the lands and mineral rights for which they are to be exchanged and (2) approves the exchange.

(b) The lands exchanged may be improved, filled, and reclaimed by the grantee, subject to all necessary approvals by local, regional, state, or federal entities. Upon the adoption of a resolution by the State Lands Commission finding and declaring that such lands have been improved, filled, and reclaimed, and have thereby been excluded from the public channels and are no longer available, useful, or susceptible of being used for navigation and fishing and for other trust uses and purposes, and are no longer in fact tidelands or submerged lands, such lands shall thereupon be free from the public trust upon which they are held.

SEC. 8. Section 5 of Chapter 245 of the Statutes of 1933 is amended to read:

Sec. 5. There is hereby excepted and reserved to the state all deposits of minerals, including, but not limited to, all substances specified in Section 6407 of the Public Resources Code, and the right to prospect for, mine, and remove such deposits from the lands granted by this act.

SEC. 9. Section 6 is added to Chapter 245 of the Statutes of 1933, to read:

Sec. 6. On or before January 1, 1980, the city shall submit to the State Lands Commission for its review a general use proposal, which shall constitute a description of what the city intends to do with the granted lands. The general use proposal required by this section should contain information in sufficient detail to enable the State Lands Commission to assure compliance with the terms and conditions of this act by, among other means, advising the city in a timely manner of any proposed uses or actions that may be inconsistent with the trust obligation. The use proposal shall include a description of uses planned or proposed for a period of at least five years and shall include the following information:

(a) A general description of the type of uses planned or proposed for the granted lands and of their location.

(b) A description of the anticipated public benefits to be derived from the planned or proposed uses of the granted lands, including, but not limited to, any benefits in furtherance of the trust uses and purposes upon which the lands are held.

(c) A description of the proposed method of financing the planned or proposed uses, including estimated capital and annual operating costs and anticipated annual revenues.

(d) An estimated timetable for implementation of the general use proposal or any phase thereof.

(e) A description of how the city proposes to protect and preserve natural and manmade resources in connection with the use of the granted lands.

SEC. 10. Section 7 is added to Chapter 245 of the Statutes of 1933, to read:

Sec. 7. (a) All revenues derived from the use of granted lands shall be expended only for the trust uses and purposes upon which the lands are held.

(b) The city shall, with approval from the State Lands Commission, establish accounting procedures whereby an accurate record of all revenues derived from the use of granted lands and of all expenditures of any such revenues will be maintained. The purpose of this requirement is to provide for the segregation of funds derived from the use of the granted lands in order to assure that they are only expended for the trust uses and purposes upon which the lands are held.

(c) The State Lands Commission may, from time to time, review such records to assure that all revenues derived from the use of the granted lands are used only to complement, support, or otherwise further trust uses and purposes upon which such granted lands are held.

SEC. 11. Section 8 is added to Chapter 245 of the Statutes of 1933, to read:

Sec. 8. On or before September 30, 1980, and every fifth year thereafter, the city shall submit to the State Lands Commission a report regarding the manner in which the lands granted by this act have been utilized during the preceding five-year period ending June 30 of the calendar year in which the report is required to be submitted.

The report required by this section shall include the following information:

(a) A general description of the uses authorized and actually undertaken on the granted lands during the period covered by the report.

(b) A list of all the owners and holders of leases, permits, and franchises granted or issued by the city, which list shall specify, as to each such owner or holder the following information:

(1) A description of the specific use made of the granted lands.

(2) The consideration provided in each lease, permit, franchise, or other use agreement or authorization, and a statement of the consideration actually received by the city.

(c) A description of any restrictions or conditions imposed by the city during the period covered by the report on the use of the granted lands, and a description of the location of the lands to which such restrictions or conditions apply.

SEC. 12. Section 9 is added to Chapter 245 of the Statutes of 1933, to read:

Sec. 9. The city shall demonstrate good faith in carrying out, and shall make reasonable efforts to implement, the provisions of the general use proposal required by this act and any amendments thereto. If the State Lands Commission determines that the city has substantially failed to improve, restore, preserve, or maintain its granted lands in a manner consistent with the provisions of the general use proposal, or if the city demonstrates unreasonable delay in preparing and adopting a general use proposal for such granted lands, the State Lands Commission shall recommend to the Legislature that all right, title, and interest of the city in and to all lands held by virtue of this act be terminated and that all such right, title, and interest revert to the state and be returned to state administration.

SEC. 13. Section 10 is added to Chapter 245 of the Statutes of 1933, to read:

Sec. 10. The State Lands Commission shall, from time to time, institute a formal inquiry to determine that the terms and conditions of this act, and amendments thereto, have been complied with, and that all other applicable provisions of law concerning these granted lands are being complied with in good faith by the city.

SEC. 14. No appropriation is made by this act, nor is any obligation created thereby under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, for the reimbursement of any local agency for any costs that may be incurred by it in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by it by this act.

The department shall provide its findings to its field offices in locations affected by the trade dispute, and shall, upon request, make its findings available to any employer, employers' association or labor organization involved in the trade dispute. The department's investigation findings shall be based upon the information then available to it and shall not be a determination as to the eligibility of any claimant for benefits under Section 1262.

CHAPTER 1101

An act to amend Sections 6301, 6302, 6305, 6307, 6308, 6309, 6310, 6313, 6314, 6316, 6317, 6318, 6321, 6325, 6327 and 6330 of, to add Section 6325.1 to, and to repeal Section 6326 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to judicial commitments.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6301 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6301. This article shall not apply to any person sentenced to death. This article shall not apply to any person convicted of an offense the punishment for which may be death until after a sentence other than death has been imposed, at which time this article shall apply to such person and he may be certified to the superior court as provided in Section 6302.

SEC. 2. Section 6302 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6302. (a) When a person is convicted of any sex offense, the trial judge, on his own motion, or on motion of the prosecuting attorney, or on application by affidavit by or on behalf of the defendant, if it appears to the satisfaction of the court that there is probable cause for believing such a person is a mentally disordered sex offender within the meaning of this chapter, may adjourn the proceeding or suspend the sentence, as the case may be, and may certify the person for hearing and examination by the superior court of the county to determine whether the person is a mentally disordered sex offender within the meaning of this article.

As used in this section the term "sex offense" means any offense for which registration is required by Section 290 of the Penal Code; or any felony or misdemeanor which is shown by clear proof or the stipulation of the defendant to have been committed primarily for purposes of sexual arousal or gratification.

When an affidavit is filed under (a) it shall be substantially in the form specified for the affidavit in Section 6251 of this code. The title and body of the affidavit shall refer to such person as "an alleged mentally disordered sex offender" and shall state fully the facts upon which the allegation that the person is a mentally disordered sex offender is based. If the person is then before the court or is in custody, the court may order that the person be detained in a place of safety until the issue and service of an order for examination and detention as provided by this article.

(b) When a person is convicted of a sex offense involving a child under 14 years of age and it is a misdemeanor, and the person has been previously convicted of a sex offense in this or any other state, the court shall adjourn the proceeding or suspend the sentence, as the case may be, and shall certify the person for hearing and examination by the superior court of the county to determine whether the person is a mentally disordered sex offender within the meaning of this article.

(c) When a person is convicted of a sex offense involving a child under 14 years of age and it is a felony, the court shall adjourn the proceeding or suspend the sentence, as the case may be, and shall certify the person for hearing and examination by the superior court of the county to determine whether the person is a mentally disordered sex offender within the meaning of this article.

(d) When the court certifies the person for hearing and examination by the superior court of the county to determine whether the person is a mentally disordered sex offender, the court shall transmit to the superior court its certification to that effect, accompanied by a statement of the court's reasons for finding that there is probable cause for believing such person is a mentally disordered sex offender within the meaning of this article in cases certified under (a), or a statement of the facts making such certification mandatory under (b) or (c).

The judge or justice presiding in such court, whenever it is deemed necessary or advisable, may issue and deliver to some peace officer for service, an order directing that the person be apprehended and taken before a judge of the superior court for a hearing and examination to determine whether the person is a mentally disordered sex offender. The officer shall thereupon apprehend and detain the person until a hearing and examination can be had. At the time of the apprehension a copy of the affidavit if one was filed, the certification, accompanied by the court's statement, and the warrant shall be personally delivered to the person and copies thereof shall also be delivered to the superior court to which the person was certified and to the district attorney of the county.

The order for examination and detention shall be substantially in the form provided by Section 6252 of this code.

SEC. 2.5. Section 6305 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6305. The person certified or alleged to be a mentally disordered sex offender shall be taken before a judge of the superior court of the county. The judge shall then inform him that he is certified or alleged to be a mentally disordered sex offender, and inform him of his rights to make a reply and to produce witnesses in relation thereto. The judge shall by order fix such time and place for the hearing and examination in open court as will give reasonable opportunity for the filing of the probation officer's report as provided in Section 6306, and for the production and examination of witnesses. If, however, the person is too ill to appear in court, or if appearance in court would be detrimental to the mental or physical health of the person, the judge may hold the hearing at the bedside of the person. The order shall be entered at length in the minute book of the court or shall be signed by the judge and filed, and a certified copy thereof served on the person. The judge shall order that notice of the apprehension of the person and of the hearing of mentally disordered sex offender be served on the district attorney of the county and on such relatives of the person known to be residing in the county as the judge deems necessary or proper.

If the alleged mentally disordered sex offender has no attorney, an attorney shall be appointed to represent the person in the manner prescribed by Section 6314. In a county where there is no public defender, the court shall fix the compensation to be paid by the county for such services if the court determines that the person is not financially able to employ counsel.

SEC. 3. Section 6307 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6307. The judge shall appoint not less than two nor more than three certified clinical psychologists or psychiatrists, each of whom shall be a holder of a valid and unrevoked physician's and surgeon's certificate who has directed his professional practice primarily to the diagnosis and treatment of mental and nervous disorders for a period of not less than five years to make a personal examination of the alleged mentally disordered sex offender, directed toward ascertaining whether the person is a mentally disordered sex offender.

If the proposed commitment is contested by either the defendant or the people, one of the clinical psychologists or psychiatrists so appointed may be designated by the defendant, and one by the people.

SEC. 4. Section 6308 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6308. Each psychiatrist or psychologist so appointed shall file with the court a separate written report of the result of his examination, together with his conclusions and recommendations and his opinion as to whether or not the person would benefit by care and treatment in a state hospital. At the hearing each psychiatrist or psychologist shall hear the testimony of all witnesses, and shall testify as to the result of his examination, and to any other pertinent facts within his knowledge, unless the person upon the advice of counsel waives the presence of the psychiatrists or psychologist and it is stipulated that their respective reports may be received in evidence.

SEC. 5. Section 6309 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is

amended to read:

6309. Any psychiatrist or psychologist so appointed by the court may be called by either party to the proceeding or by the court itself and when so called shall be subject to all legal objections as to competency and bias and as to qualification as an expert. When called by the court, or by either party to the proceeding, the court may examine the psychiatrist or psychologist, as deemed necessary, but either party shall have the same right to object to the questions asked by the court and the evidence adduced as though the psychiatrist or psychologist were a witness for the adverse party. When the psychiatrist is called and examined by the court the parties may cross-examine him in the order directed by the court. When called by either party to the proceeding the adverse party may examine him the same as in the case of any other witness called by such party.

SEC. 6. Section 6310 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6310. The psychiatrists or psychologists so appointed by the court shall be allowed such fees not exceeding one hundred fifty dollars ($150) per day, prorated by the court when services are rendered for less than a full day. The fees allowed shall be paid by the county in which the hearing is held.

SEC. 7. Section 6313 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6313. The judge may, for any hearing, order the clerk of the court to issue subpoenas and compel the attendance of witnesses from any place within the boundaries of this state, as provided by law for the trial of a criminal case.

All witnesses, other than psychiatrists or psychologists appointed by the court, attending a hearing upon a subpoena issued under this section shall be entitled to the same fees and expenses as in criminal cases, to be paid upon the same conditions and in like manner.

SEC. 8. Section 6314 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6314. The alleged mentally disordered sex offender shall be present at the hearing; and if he has no attorney, the judge shall appoint the public defender or other counsel to represent him unless the defendant affirmatively, knowingly and intelligently demands to act as his own attorney.

SEC. 9. Section 6316 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6316. If, after examination and hearing, the court finds that the person is a mentally disordered sex offender and that the person could benefit by treatment in a state hospital, or other mental health facility the court in its discretion has the alternative to return the person to the criminal court for further disposition, or may make an order committing the person to the department for placement in a state hospital, or may commit the person to the county mental health director for placement in an appropriate public or private mental health facility, approved by such director, and a copy of such commitment shall be personally served upon said person within five days after the making of such order. The term of commitment shall be indeterminate, provided that it may not exceed the aggregate maximum term of imprisonment to which the defendant could have been sentenced for the offense or offenses of which he has been convicted. The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the county mental health director or his designee. Prior to making such order, the court shall order the county mental health director or his designee to evaluate the defendant and to submit to the court within 15 judicial days of such order his written recommendation as to whether the defendant should be committed to a state hospital or to another mental health facility.

If after examination and hearing, the court finds that the person is a mentally disordered sex offender but will not benefit by care or treatment in a state hospital or other facility the court shall then cause the person to be returned to the court in which the criminal charge was tried to await further action with reference to such criminal charge. Such court shall resume the proceedings and shall impose sentence or make such other suitable disposition of the case as the court deems necessary.

SEC. 10. Section 6317 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6317. If the court orders the commitment of the person to the department for placement in a state hospital or to the county mental health director for placement in an appropriate facility, the court shall, in the order of commitment, require the superintendent of the state hospital or other facility to make periodic reports to the court concerning the person's progress towards recovery.

The first such report shall be submitted within 90 days after the person is received at the state hospital or other facility. Subsequent reports shall be submitted at six-month intervals unless a shorter interval is ordered by the court, and copies of all progress reports shall be provided to the defendant, his attorney of record, and the attorney for the people.

SEC. 11. Section 6318 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6318. If a person ordered under Section 6316 to be committed as a mentally disordered sex offender to the department for placement in a state hospital for care and treatment or to the county mental health director for placement in an appropriate facility, or any friend in his behalf, is dissatisfied with the order of the judge so committing him, he may, within 15 days after the making of such order, demand that the question of his being a mentally disordered sex offender be tried by a judge or by a jury in the superior court of the county in which he was committed. Thereupon the court shall set the case for hearing at a date, or shall cause a jury to be summoned and to be in attendance at a date stated, not less than five nor more than 10 days from the date of the demand for a court or jury trial. The court shall adjudge whether the person is a mentally disordered sex offender, or if it is a trial by jury the judge shall submit to the jury the question: Are you convinced to a moral certainty and beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant is a mentally disordered sex offender?

SEC. 12. Section 6321 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6321. The trial shall be had as provided by law for the trial of criminal causes, and if tried before a jury the person shall be discharged unless a verdict that he is a mentally disordered sex offender is found unanimously by the jury. If the judge adjudges or the verdict of the jury is that he is a mentally disordered sex offender the judge shall adjudge that fact and make an order similar to the original order for commitment to the department for placement in a state hospital or to a county mental health director for placement in an appropriate facility. The order committing the person to the department for placement in a state hospital or other facility shall be presented to the superintendent of the state hospital or other facility or other representative of the department to whom the person is committed.

SEC. 13. Section 6325 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6325. Whenever a person who is committed for an indeterminate period to the department for placement in a state hospital or to a county mental health director for placement in an appropriate facility (a) has been treated to such an extent that in the opinion of the superintendent or county mental health director the person will not benefit by further care and treatment in the hospital or facility and is not a danger to the health and safety of others, or (b) has not recovered, and in the opinion of the superintendent or county mental health director the person is still a danger to the health and safety of others, the superintendent of the hospital or county mental health director shall file with the committing court a certification of his opinion under (a) or (b), as the case may be, including therein a report, diagnosis and recommendation concerning the person's future care, supervision or treatment. Upon the expiration of the time for making a motion pursuant to Section 6325.1, upon the denial of such motion, or upon the entry of a finding that the person is no longer a mentally disordered sex offender after a hearing pursuant to Section 6325.1, the committing court shall thereupon order the return of the person to said committing court and shall thereafter cause the person to be returned to the court in which the criminal charge was tried to await further action with reference to such criminal charge.

Such court shall resume the proceedings, upon the return of the person to the court, and after considering all the evidence before it may place the person on probation upon such terms as may be required to protect the public if the criminal charge permits such probation and the person is otherwise eligible for probation. In any case, where the person is sentenced on a criminal charge, the time the person spent under indeterminate commitment as a mentally disordered sex offender shall be credited in fixing his term of sentence and, if the sentence be to state prison, shall be credited by the Adult Authority in fixing the person's term and eligibility for parole.

SEC. 13.1. Section 6325 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6325. Whenever a person who is committed for an indeterminate period to the department for placement in a state hospital or to a county mental health director for placement in an appropriate facility (a) has been treated to such an extent that in the opinion of the superintendent or county mental health director the person will not benefit by further care and treatment in the hospital or facility and is not a danger to the health and safety of others, or (b) has not recovered, and in the opinion of the superintendent or county mental health director the person is still a danger to the health and safety of others, the superintendent of the hospital or county mental health director shall file with the committing court a certification of his opinion under (a) or (b), as the case may be, including therein a report, diagnosis and recommendation concerning the person's future care, supervision or treatment. Upon the expiration of the time for making a motion pursuant to Section 6325.1, upon the denial of such motion, or upon the entry of a finding that the person is no longer a mentally disordered sex offender after a hearing pursuant to Section 6325.1, the committing court shall thereupon order the return of the person to said committing court and shall thereafter cause the person to be returned to the court in which the criminal charge was tried to await further action with reference to such criminal charge.

Such court shall resume the proceedings, upon the return of the person to the court, and after considering all the evidence before it may place the person on probation upon such terms as may be required to protect the public if the criminal charge permits such probation and the person is otherwise eligible for probation. In any case, where the person is sentenced on a criminal charge, the time the person spent under indeterminate commitment as a mentally disordered sex offender shall be credited by the court or community release board against such sentence.

SEC. 13.5. Section 6325.1 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

6325.1. When a person is returned to the committing court pursuant to Section 6325, either party may move for a new examination and hearing pursuant to Sections 6306 through 6318, inclusive, within five days of the person's arrival. The motion may be granted if the moving party shows by affidavit the existence of facts which establish that the opinion certified under subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 6325 was an abuse of discretion. Such hearing shall be set to commence within 30 days of the person's return to court. If the opinion certified was under subdivision (a) of Section 6325, and a

After receipt of the report, the committing court may order the return of the person to the court for a hearing as to whether the person is still a mentally disordered sex offender within the meaning of this article.

The hearing shall be conducted substantially in accordance with Sections 6306 to 6314, inclusive. If, after the hearing, the judge finds that the person has not recovered from his mental disorder and is still a danger to the health and safety of others, he shall order the person returned to the State Department of Health or county mental health director under the prior order of commitment. The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the county mental health director or his designee. 82018. "Cumulative amount" in a campaign statement means the amount contributed or expended since the closing date of the most recent postelection statement which was required to be filed by the filer. For purposes of this section, the most recent postelection statement does not refer to any abbreviated statement required to be filed pursuant to Section 84204.1. If the filer has not previously filed a campaign statement pursuant to this title, the cumulative amount is the amount contributed or expended since the first reportable transaction.

82046. "Period covered" by a statement or report required to be filed by this title means, unless a different period is specified, the period beginning with the day after the closing date of the most recent statement or report which was required to be filed, and ending with the closing date of the statement or report in question. For purposes of this section, the most recent statement or report does not refer to any abbreviated campaign statement required to be filed pursuant to Section 84204.1. If the person filing the statement or report has not previously filed a statement or report of the same type, the period covered begins on the day on which the first reportable transaction occurred. Nothing in this chapter shall be interpreted to exempt any person from disclosing transactions which occurred prior to the effective date of this title according to the laws then in effect.

Section 84204.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

84204.1. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b) of this section, a committee which supports or opposes one or more candidates or measures is not required to file campaign statements in connection with an election or circulation of a measure unless any of the following is applicable:

"As treasurer of the committee filing this (abbreviated) campaign statement, I declare that the committee has not received contributions or made expenditures and has no present intention of receiving contributions or making expenditures related to this election after the closing date of this statement. If any such contributions are received or expenditures made, additional (abbreviated) campaign statements will be filed as required by law. I understand that failure to file statements if any such additional contributions are received or expenditures are made will subject me to civil and criminal penalties."

For purposes of determining the period covered and the cumulative period for future statements filed by the same committee, a final statement (other than an abbreviated statement) filed under this section shall be treated as a postelection statement, provided that no audit of a final statement pursuant to Chapter 10 shall begin until after the last date for filing the postelection statement following the general or special election for the office for which the candidate ran, or following the election at which the measure was adopted or defeated.

Except as provided in Article 8 (commencing with Section 54220) of Chapter 5 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code and Section 118.6 of this code, with respect to residential real property acquired for the construction of a state highway, but no longer required for such purpose because such construction will not be undertaken, the department shall first offer the real property for sale at its current fair market value to the occupant thereof if the occupant has rented or leased the real property from the department, has used and occupied the real property for over 10 years, and has made permanent improvements on the real property during that time at his own expense.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Recognizing the danger of a violation of a mental patient's constitutional right to privacy, the Legislature intends by this enactment to assure that the integrity and free choice of every such patient is fully recognized and protected. Because those who are emotionally disturbed are vulnerable to being unduly influenced, the Legislature believes the protection of their rights requires a careful process of informing and consenting in order to assure the protection and vindication of their rights.

SEC. 1.5. Section 5325 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

SEC. 2. Section 5326 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5326. The professional person in charge of the facility or his designee may, for good cause, deny a person any of the rights under Section 5325, except under subdivision (g) and the rights under subdivision (f) may be denied only under the conditions specified in Section 5326.7. To ensure that these rights are denied only for good cause, the Director of Health shall adopt regulations specifying the conditions under which they may be denied. Denial of a person's rights shall in all cases be entered into the person's treatment record.

SEC. 2.5. Section 5326.1 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

5326.1. Quarterly, each local mental health director shall report to the Director of Health, by facility, the number of persons whose rights were denied and the right or rights which were denied. The content of these reports shall enable the Director of Health to identify individual treatment records, if necessary, for further analysis and investigation. These quarterly reports, except for the identity of the person whose rights are denied, shall be available, upon request, to Members of the State Legislature, or a member of a county board of supervisors.

Information pertaining to a denial of rights contained in the person's treatment record shall be made available, on request, to the person, his attorney, his conservator or guardian, or the State Department of Health. Such information, except for the identity of the person whose rights are denied, shall be made available to the Members of the State Legislature or a member of a county board of supervisors.

SEC. 3. Section 5326.15 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

5326.15. (a) Quarterly, any doctor or facility which administers convulsive treatments or psychosurgery, shall report to the local mental health director, who shall transmit a copy to the Director of Health, the number of persons who received such treatments wherever administered, in each of the following categories:

(1) Involuntary patients who gave informed consent.

(2) Involuntary patients who were deemed incapable of giving informed consent and received convulsive treatment against their will.

(3) Voluntary patients who gave informed consent.

(4) Voluntary patients deemed incapable of giving consent.

(b) Quarterly, the Director of Health shall forward to the Board of Medical Quality Assurance any records or information received from such reports indicating violation of the law, and the regulations which have been adopted thereto.

(c) The Director of Health shall annually submit to the Legislature the accumulation of such reports which shall indicate:

(1) The age distribution, the sex, and race of the patients.

(2) The source of the treatment payment.

(3) The average number of treatments.

(4) The number of cardiac arrests without death, fracture cases, "reported" memory loss, incidents of apnea, and all autopsy findings in case of death following administration of convulsive treatment.

SEC. 3.5. Section 5326.2 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

5326.2. To constitute voluntary informed consent, the following information shall be given to the patient in a clear and explicit manner:

(a) The reason for treatment, that is, the nature and seriousness of the patient's illness, disorder or defect.

(b) The nature of the procedures to be used in the proposed treatment, including its probable frequency and duration.

(c) The probable degree and duration (temporary or permanent) of improvement or remission, expected with or without such treatment.

(d) The nature, degree, duration, and the probability of the side effects and significant risks, commonly known by the medical profession, of such treatment, including its adjuvants, especially noting the degree and duration of memory loss (including its irreversibility) and how and to what extent they may be controlled, if at all.

(e) That there exists a division of opinion as to the efficacy of the proposed treatment, why and how it works and its commonly known risks and side effects.

(f) The reasonable alternative treatments, and why the physician is recommending this particular treatment.

(g) That the patient has the right to accept or refuse the proposed treatment, and that if he or she consents, has the right to revoke his or her consent for any reason, at any time prior to or between treatments.

SEC. 4. Section 5326.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5326.3. The State Department of Health shall promulgate a standard written consent form, setting forth clearly and in detail the matters listed in Section 5326.2, and such further information with respect to each item as deemed generally appropriate to all patients.

The treating physician shall utilize the standard written consent form and in writing supplement it with those details which pertain to the particular patient being treated.

SEC. 5. Section 5326.4 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5326.4. The treating physician shall then present to the patient the supplemented form specified under Section 5326.3 and orally, clearly, and in detail explain all of the above information to the patient. The treating physician shall then administer the execution by the patient of the total supplemented written consent form, which shall be dated and witnessed.

The fact of the execution of such written consent form and of the oral explanation shall be entered into the patient's treatment record, as shall be a copy of the consent form itself. Should entry of such latter information into the patient's treatment record be deemed by any court an unlawful invasion of privacy, then such consent form shall be maintained in a confidential manner and place.

The consent form shall be available to the person, and to his or her attorney, guardian, and conservator and, if the patient consents, to a responsible relative of the patient's choosing.

SEC. 6. Section 5326.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

5326.5. (a) For purposes of this chapter, "written informed consent" means that a person knowingly and intelligently, without duress or coercion, clearly and explicitly manifests consent to the proposed therapy to the treating physician and in writing on the standard consent form prescribed in Section 5326.4.

(b) The physician may urge the proposed treatment as the best one, but may not use, in an effort to gain consent, any reward or threat, express or implied, nor any other form of inducement or coercion, including, but not limited to, placing the patient in a more restricted setting, transfer of the patient to another facility, or loss of the patient's hospital privileges. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed as in conflict with Section 5326.2. No one shall be denied any benefits for refusing treatment.

(c) A person confined shall be deemed incapable of written informed consent if such person cannot understand, or knowingly and intelligently act upon, the information specified in Section 5326.2.

(d) A person confined shall not be deemed incapable of refusal solely by virtue of being diagnosed as a mentally ill, disordered, abnormal, or mentally defective person.

(e) Written informed consent shall be given only after 24 hours have elapsed from the time the information in Section 5326.2 has been given.

SEC. 6.5. Section 5326.55 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

5326.55. Persons who serve on review committees shall not otherwise be personally involved in the treatment of the patient whose case they are reviewing.

SEC. 7. Section 5326.6 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

5326.6. Psychosurgery, wherever administered, may be performed only if:

(a) The patient gives written informed consent to the psychosurgery.

(b) A responsible relative of the person's choosing and with the person's consent, and the guardian or conservator if there is one, has read the standard consent form as defined in Section 5326.4 and has been given by the treating physician the information required in Section 5326.2. Should the person desire not to inform a relative or should such chosen relative be unavailable this requirement is dispensed with.

(c) The attending physician gives adequate documentation entered in the patient's treatment record of the reasons for the procedure, that all other appropriate treatment modalities have been exhausted and that this mode of treatment is definitely indicated and is the least drastic alternative available for the treatment of the patient at the time. Such statement in the treatment record shall be signed by the attending and treatment physician or physicians.

(d) Three physicians, one appointed by the facility and two appointed by the local mental health director, two of whom shall be either board-certified or eligible psychiatrists or board-certified or eligible neurosurgeons, have personally examined the patient and unanimously agree with the attending physicians' determinations pursuant to subdivision (c) and agree that the patient has the capacity to give informed consent. Such agreement shall be documented in the patient's treatment record and signed by each such physician.

Psychosurgery shall in no case be performed for at least 72 hours following the patient's written consent. Under no circumstances shall psychosurgery be performed on a minor.

As used in this section and Sections 5326.4 and 5326.7 "responsible relative" includes the spouse, parent, adult child, or adult brother or sister of the person.

The giving of consent to any of the treatments covered by this chapter may not be construed as a waiver of the right to refuse treatment at a future time. Consent may be withdrawn at any time. Such withdrawal of consent may be either oral or written and shall be given effect immediately.

Refusal of consent to undergo a psychosurgery shall be entered in the patient's treatment record.

SEC. 8. Section 5326.7 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

5326.7. Subject to the provisions of subdivision (f) of Section 5325, convulsive treatment may be administered to an involuntary patient, including anyone under guardianship or conservatorship, only if:

(a) The attending or treatment physician enters adequate documentation in the patient's treatment record of the reasons for the procedure, that all reasonable treatment modalities have been carefully considered, and that the treatment is definitely indicated and is the least drastic alternative available for this patient at this time. Such statement in the treatment record shall be signed by the attending and treatment physician or physicians.

(b) A review of the patient's treatment record is conducted by a committee of two physicians, at least one of whom shall have personally examined the patient. One physician shall be appointed by the facility and one shall be appointed by the local mental health director. Both shall be either board-certified or board-eligible psychiatrists or board-certified or board-eligible neurologists. This review committee must unanimously agree with the treatment physician's determinations pursuant to subdivision (a). Such agreement shall be documented in the patient's treatment record and signed by both physicians.

(c) A responsible relative of the person's choosing and the person's guardian or conservator, if there is one, have been given the oral explanation by the attending physician as required by Section 5326.2. Should the person desire not to inform a relative or should such chosen relative be unavailable, this requirement is dispensed with.

(d) The patient gives written informed consent as defined in Section 5326.5 to the convulsive treatment. Such consent shall be for a specified maximum number of treatments over a specified maximum period of time not to exceed 30 days, and shall be revocable at any time before or between treatments. Such withdrawal of consent may be either oral or written and shall be given effect immediately. Additional treatments in number or time, not to exceed 30 days, shall require a renewed written informed consent.

(e) The patient's attorney, or if none, a public defender appointed by the court, agrees as to the patient's capacity or incapacity to give written informed consent and that the patient who has capacity has given written informed consent.

(f) If either the attending physician or the attorney believes that the patient does not have the capacity to give a written informed consent, then a petition shall be filed in superior court to determine the patient's capacity to give written informed consent. The court shall hold an evidentiary hearing after giving appropriate notice to the patient, and within three judicial days after the petition is filed. At such hearing the patient shall be present and represented by legal counsel. If the court deems the above-mentioned attorney to have a conflict of interest, such attorney shall not represent the patient in this proceeding.

(g) If the court determines that the patient does not have the capacity to give written informed consent, then treatment may be performed upon gaining the written informed consent as defined in Sections 5326.2 and 5326.5 from the responsible relative or the guardian or the conservator of the patient.

(h) At any time during the course of treatment of a person who has been deemed incompetent, that person shall have the right to claim regained competency. Should he do so, the person's competency must be reevaluated according to subdivisions (e), (f), and (g).

SEC. 8.5. Section 5326.75 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

5326.75. Convulsive treatment for all other patients including but not limited to those voluntarily admitted to a facility, or receiving the treatment in a physician's office, clinic or private home, may be administered only if:

(a) The requirements of subdivisions (a), (c), and (d) of Section 5326.7 are met.

(b) A board-certified or board-eligible psychiatrist or a board-certified or board-eligible neurologist other than the patient's attending or treating physician has examined the patient and verifies that the patient has the capacity to give and has given written informed consent. Such verification shall be documented in the patient's treatment record and signed by the treating physician.

(c) If there is not the verification required by subdivision (b) of this section or if the patient has not the capacity to give informed consent, then subdivisions (b), (e), (f), (g), and (h) of Section 5326.7 shall also be met.

SEC. 9. Section 5326.8 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

5326.8. Under no circumstances shall convulsive treatment be performed on a minor under 12 years of age. Persons 16 and 17 years of age shall personally have and exercise the rights under this article.

Persons 12 years of age and over, and under 16, may be administered convulsive treatment only if all the other provisions of this law are complied with and in addition:

(a) It is an emergency situation and convulsive treatment is deemed a lifesaving treatment.

(b) This fact and the need for and appropriateness of the treatment are unanimously certified to by a review board of three board-eligible or board-certified child psychiatrists appointed by the local mental health director.

(c) It is otherwise performed in full compliance with regulations promulgated by the Director of Health under Section 5326.95.

(d) It is thoroughly documented and reported immediately to the Director of Health.

SEC. 9.5. Section 5326.85 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

5326.85. No convulsive treatment shall be performed if the patient, whether admitted to the facility as a voluntary or involuntary patient, is deemed to be able to give informed consent and refuses to do so. The physician shall indicate in the treatment record that the treatment was refused despite the physician's advice and that he has explained to the patient the patient's responsibility for any untoward consequences of his refusal.

SEC. 10. Section 5326.9 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

5326.9. (a) Any alleged or suspected violation of the laws governing the denial of rights herein described shall be reported to the Director of Health, who shall investigate and report each such alleged or suspected violation and the results of the investigation to the Board of Medical Examiners. The latter board shall investigate further, if warranted, and shall subject any physician or physicians to any penalty the board finds necessary as a result of its findings.

(b) Any physician who intentionally violates Sections 5326.2 through 5326.8 shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each violation. Such penalty may be assessed and collected in a civil action brought by the Attorney General in a superior court.

(c) Such intentional violation shall be grounds for revocation of license.

(d) The remedies provided by this subdivision shall be in addition to and not in substitution for any other remedies which an individual may have under law.

SEC. 11. Section 5326.91 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

5326.91. In any facility in which convulsive treatment is performed on a person whether admitted to the facility as an involuntary or voluntary patient, the facility will designate a qualified committee to review all such treatments and to verify the appropriateness and need for such treatment. The local mental health director shall establish a postaudit review committee for convulsive treatments administered anywhere other than in any facility as defined in Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code in which psychiatric evaluation or treatment is offered. Records of these committees will be subject to availability in the same manner as are the records of other hospital utilization and audit committees and to such other regulations as are promulgated by the Director of Health. Persons serving on such review committees will enjoy the same immunities as other persons serving on utilization, peer review, and audit committees of health care facilities.

SEC. 12. Section 5326.95 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

5326.95. The Director of Health shall adopt regulations to carry out the provisions of this chapter, including standards defining excessive use of convulsive treatment which shall be developed in consultation with the conference of local mental health directors.

SEC. 13. Section 5715.3 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

5715.3. In addition, expenditures subject to payment shall also include expenses incurred during the treatment of Short-Doyle patients through the implementation of this act. Payment shall be made of actual and necessary expenses of members incurred incident to the performance of their official duties and may include travel, lodging and meals while on official business.

SEC. 14. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

SEC. 15. No appropriation is made by this act, nor is any obligation created thereby under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, for the reimbursement of any local agency or school district for any costs that may be incurred by it in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by it by this act.

The regulations may provide that a permit shall be valid only for a specified period. CHAPTER 14.5. RETAIL SALES OF DOGS OR CATS 25995. Every retail dealer of dogs and cats shall conform to the provisions of this chapter. As used in this chapter, "retail dealer" means a person engaging in the business of selling dogs or cats, or both, at retail, and by virtue of such sales of dogs and cats is required to possess a permit pursuant to Section 6066 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. For purposes of this chapter, the separate sales of dogs or cats from a single litter shall constitute only one sale under Section 6019 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to publicly operated pounds and humane societies.

25995.2. All dogs or cats received by a retail dealer shall, prior to being placed with other dogs or cats, be examined for sickness. Any dog or cat found to be afflicted with a contagious disease shall be kept caged separately from healthy animals.

25995.3. Every retail dealer shall deliver to the purchaser of each dog and cat at the time of sale a written statement in a standardized form prescribed by the Department of Consumer Affairs containing the following information:

(a) If the person from whom the dog or cat was obtained is a dealer licensed by the United States Department of Agriculture, the person's name, address, and federal dealer identification number.

(b) The date of the animal's birth, unless unknown because of the source of such animal.

(c) A record of the immunizations administered to the animal as of the time of sale, including the dates of administration and the type of vaccine.

(d) A record of any known disease or sickness that the dog or cat is afflicted with at the time of sale. In addition, this information shall also be verbally disclosed to the purchaser.

25995.4. Every retail dealer shall maintain a written record on each dog and cat received by him which shall contain all information required to be disclosed by Section 25995.3 and any disease or sickness of the animal observed while the animal is in possession of the retail dealer, including, but not limited to, symptoms of illness, diagnosed illness, treatment and medications.

25995.5. Any person violating any provision of this chapter shall be subject to a civil penalty, not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250). An action for recovery of such a civil penalty may be prosecuted in the name of the people of the State of California by the district attorney for the county in which the violation occurred in the appropriate court.

SEC. 5. Section 597x is added to the Penal Code, to read:

597x. No person, peace officer, officer of a humane society, or officer of a pound or animal regulation department of a public agency shall kill any dog or cat by the use of nitrogen gas unless all of the following are satisfied:

(a) The nitrogen gas cabinet shall be equipped with a viewport providing direct visual surveillance of the collapse and death of any cat or dog within the cabinet, and internal lighting unless the cabinet is equipped with a clear door.

(b) The nitrogen gas cabinet and its compartments shall be thoroughly cleaned after every cycle of operation.

(c) Every dog or cat shall be placed in an individual container or compartment of the nitrogen gas cabinet, except dogs or cats from the same litter and their parents may be placed in the same container or compartment.

(d) The oxygen concentration within the cabinet shall be reduced to 1.5% or less by displacing air within the cabinet with nitrogen.

(e) The 1.5% reduction in oxygen concentration shall be reached within 60 seconds after the beginning of the cycle of operation and the animals shall be left within the cabinet at that concentration for a minimum of 10 minutes.

SEC. 6. Section 597y of the Penal Code is amended to read:

597y. Any violation of Section 597u, 597v, 597w, or 597x shall be a misdemeanor.

SEC. 7. Section 597z of the Penal Code is amended to read:

597z. A humane officer appointed under Section 607f of the Civil Code or the State Sealer may enter any facility utilizing a high-altitude decompression or carbon monoxide chamber or nitrogen gas cabinet for the purpose of inspecting the operation of such facility to determine whether there is compliance with Sections 597u, 597v, 597w, and 597x.

SEC. 8. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local government entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

An act to amend Sections 11383 and 11384 of, and to amend the heading of Article 6 (commencing with Section 11383) of Chapter 6 of Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to controlled substances.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The heading of Article 6 (commencing with Section 11383) of Chapter 6 of Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

Article 6. Precursors of Methamphetamine and Phencyclidine

SEC. 2. Section 11383 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11383. (a) Any person who possesses both methylamine and phenyl-2-propanone (phenylacetone) at the same time with the intent to manufacture methamphetamine is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than one year nor more than five years.

(b) Any person who possesses both piperidine and cyclohexanone at the same time, or a combination product thereof, with intent to manufacture phencyclidine (PCP) is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than one year nor more than five years.

(c) For purposes of this section, possession of immediate precursors sufficient for the manufacture of methylamine, phenyl-2-propanone, piperidine, or cyclohexanone shall be deemed to be possession of such a derivative substance. Additionally, possession of any compound or mixture containing piperidine or cyclohexanone shall be deemed to be possession of such substance.

(d) The provisions of subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) shall not apply to drug manufacturers licensed by this state or persons authorized by regulation of the Board of Pharmacy to possess such combination of substances.

SEC. 3. Section 11384 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to this section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local government entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

CHAPTER 1117

An act to amend Section 11100 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to controlled substances.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976 Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11100 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

However, the Department of Justice may authorize the submission of such reports on a monthly basis with respect to repeated, regular transactions between the furnisher and the recipient involving the same substance if the Department of Justice determines that; (1) a pattern of regular supply of such substance exists as between the manufacturer, wholesaler, retailer, or other person who sells, transfers, or otherwise furnishes such substance and the recipient of the substance, and (2) the recipient has established a record of utilization of such substance for lawful purposes.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be any appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local government entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 21, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 490.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

490.5. (a) Upon a first conviction for petty theft involving merchandise taken from a merchant's premises a person shall be punished by a mandatory fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50) and not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each such violation; and may also be punished by imprisonment in the county jail, not exceeding six months, or both such fine and imprisonment.

(b) When an unemancipated minor's willful conduct would constitute petty theft involving merchandise taken from a merchant's premises, any merchant who has been injured by such conduct may bring a civil action against the parent or legal guardian having control and custody of the minor. For the purposes of such actions the misconduct of the unemancipated minor shall be imputed to the parent or legal guardian having control and custody of the minor. The parent or legal guardian having control or custody of an unemancipated minor whose conduct violates this subdivision shall be jointly and severally liable with the minor to the merchant for the retail value of the merchandise, if not recovered in merchantable condition plus damages of not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500) plus costs. Recovery of such damages may be had in addition to, and is not limited by, any other provision of law which limits the liability of a parent or legal guardian for the tortious conduct of a minor. An action for recovery of damages, pursuant to this subdivision, may be brought in small claims court if the total damages do not exceed the jurisdictional limit of such court, or in any other appropriate court; however, total damages, including the value of the merchandise, shall not exceed five hundred dollars ($500) for each action brought under this section.

The provisions of this subdivision are in addition to other civil remedies and do not limit merchants or other persons to elect to pursue other civil remedies, except that the provisions of Section 1714.1 of the Civil Code shall not apply herein.

(c) In lieu of the fines prescribed by subdivision (a), any person may be required to perform public services designated by the court, provided that in no event shall any such person be required to perform less than the number of hours of such public service necessary to satisfy the fine assessed by the court as provided by subdivision (a) at the minimum wage prevailing in the state at the time of sentencing.

(d) All fines collected under this section shall be collected and distributed in accordance with Sections 1463 and 1463.1 of the Penal Code; provided, however, that a county may, by a majority vote of the members of its board of supervisors, allocate any amount up to, but not exceeding 50 percent of such fines to the county superintendent of schools for allocation to local school districts. The fines allocated shall be administered by the county superintendent of schools to finance public school programs, which provide counseling or other educational services designed to discourage shoplifting, theft, and burglary. Subject to rules and regulations as may be adopted by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, each county superintendent of schools shall allocate such funds to school districts within the county which submit project applications designed to further the educational purposes of this section. The costs of administration of this section by each county superintendent of schools shall be paid from the funds allocated to the county superintendent of schools.

(e) (1) A merchant may detain a person for a reasonable time for the purpose of conducting an investigation in a reasonable manner whenever the merchant has probable cause to believe the person to be detained is attempting to unlawfully take or has unlawfully taken merchandise from the merchant's premises.

(2) In making the detention a merchant may use a reasonable amount of nondeadly force necessary to protect himself and to prevent escape of the person detained or the loss of property.

(3) During the period of detention any items which a merchant has reasonable cause to believe are unlawfully taken from his premises and which are in plain view may be examined by the merchant for the purposes of ascertaining the ownership thereof.

(4) In any action for false arrest, false imprisonment, slander or unlawful detention brought by any person detained by a merchant, it shall be a defense to such action that the merchant detaining such person had probable cause to believe that the person had stolen or attempted to steal merchandise and that the merchant acted reasonably under all the circumstances.

(f) As used in this section:

(1) "Merchandise" means any personal property, capable of manual delivery, displayed, held or offered for retail sale by a merchant.

(2) "Merchant" means an owner or operator, and the agent, consignee, employee, lessee, or officer of an owner or operator, of any premises used for the retail purchase or sale of any personal property capable of manual delivery.

SEC. 2. Section 731.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

731.5. In addition to the provisions of Section 731, if a minor's conduct constitutes a violation of Section 490.5 of the Penal Code, the court may require the minor to perform public services designated by the court.

SEC. 3. The provisions of subdivision (e) of Section 490.5 as added to the Penal Code by the 1975–76 Regular Session of the Legislature do not constitute a change in, but are declaratory of, the existing law, and such provisions shall not be interpreted to amend or modify Sections 837, 847, and 849 of the Penal Code.

654. In the cases specified in Sections 648 and 668, the punishments therein prescribed must be substituted for those prescribed for a first offense, if the previous conviction is charged in the indictment and found by the jury.

SEC. 265. Section 664 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

SEC. 268. Section 667.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

667.5. Enhancement of prison terms for new offenses because of prior prison terms shall be imposed as follows:

(a) Where the new offense is one of the violent felonies specified in subdivision (c) and the defendant is sentenced to prison therefor, in addition and consecutive to any other prison terms therefor, the trial court shall impose a three-year term for each prior separate prison term served by the defendant where the prior was one of the violent felonies specified in subdivision (c); provided that no additional term shall be imposed under this subdivision in any case in which the defendant has remained free of prison custody and free of felony conviction for 10 years immediately preceding the filing of an accusatory pleading that results in such felony conviction. However, if the court determines that there are circumstances in mitigation of the additional punishment prescribed, the court may strike the additional punishment, provided that reasons therefor are stated on the record.

(b) Except where subdivision (a) applies, when the new offense is any felony for which a prison sentence is imposed, in addition and consecutive to any other prison term therefor, the trial court shall, unless specifically not ordered by the court with reasons therefor stated on the record, impose a one-year term for each prior separate prison term served for any felony; provided that no additional term shall be imposed under this subdivision in any case in which the defendant has remained free of prison custody for five years immediately preceding the filing of an accusatory pleading that results in a new felony conviction. For the purposes of this subdivision the defendant shall be deemed to remain in prison custody for an offense until the official discharge from such custody or until release on parole whichever first occurs including any time during which the defendant remains subject to arrest for escape from such custody.

(c) For the purpose of this section "violent felony" shall mean any of the following crimes for which the defendant served a separate prison term:

(1) Murder or voluntary manslaughter

(2) Mayhem

(3) Forceable rape as defined in subdivisions (2), (3), and (4) of Section 261

(4) Sodomy by force, violence, duress, menace, or threat of great bodily harm

(5) Oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace, or threat of great bodily harm

(6) Kidnapping as defined in Section 209

(7) Lewd acts on a child under 14 as defined in Section 288

(8) Any other felony in which the defendant inflicts great bodily injury on person other than accomplices has been alleged and proved as provided for in Section 12022.7 if convicted after the effective date of this section or as specified prior to the effective date of this section in Sections 213, 264, and 461.

The Legislature finds and declares that those specified crimes merit special consideration when imposing a sentence to display society's condemnation for such extraordinary crimes of violence against the person.

(d) The additional penalties provided for prior prison terms shall not be imposed unless they are charged and admitted or found true in the action for the new offense.

(e) The additional penalties provided for prior prison terms shall not be imposed for any felony for which the defendant did not serve a prior separate prison term which was at least one year in duration.

(f) A prior conviction of a felony shall include a conviction in another jurisdiction for an offense which if committed in California is punishable by imprisonment in state prison provided the defendants served one year or more in prison for such offense in the other jurisdiction. A prior conviction of a particular felony shall include a conviction in another jurisdiction for an offense which includes all of the elements of the particular felony as defined under California law provided the defendants served one year or more in prison for such offense in the other jurisdiction.

(g) A continuous completed period of prison incarceration imposed for the particular offense alone or in combination with sentences for other counts or sentences to be served concurrently or consecutively therewith including any reimprisonment on revocation of parole or new commitment for escape from such incarceration shall be deemed a single prior separate term for the purposes of this section.

(h) Serving a prison term includes time spent in any state prison or federal penal institution as punishment for commission of an offense including time spent in a hospital or other institution or facility credited as service of prison time in the jurisdiction of such service.

SEC. 269. Section 668 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

668. Every person who has been convicted in any other state, government, country, or jurisdiction of an offense for which, if committed within this state, such person could have been punished under the laws of this state by imprisonment in a state prison, is punishable for any subsequent crime committed within this state in the manner prescribed by law and to the same extent as if such prior conviction had taken place in a court of this state.

SEC. 270. Section 671 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 271. Section 1168 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1168. (a) Every male convicted of a public offense, for which a determinate period of imprisonment in any state prison is now prescribed by law shall, unless such convicted person be placed on probation, a new trial granted, or the imposing of sentence suspended, be sentenced pursuant to Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 1170) of Title 7 of Part 2. For any male not sentenced under such provision, but who is sentenced to be imprisoned in the state prison the court in imposing the sentence shall not fix the term or duration of the period of imprisonment.

(b) Every female convicted of a public offense, for which a determinate period of imprisonment in any state prison is now prescribed by law shall, unless such convicted female is placed on probation, a new trial granted, or the imposing of sentence suspended, be sentenced pursuant to Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 1170) of Title 7 of Part 2. For any female not sentenced under such provisions, but who is sentenced to detention at the California Institution for Women the court in imposing the sentence shall not fix the term or duration of the period of imprisonment.

SEC. 272.5. Section 1168a of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 273. Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 1170) is added to Title 7 of Part 2 of the Penal Code, to read:

CHAPTER 4.5. TRIAL COURT SENTENCING

Article 1. Initial Sentencing

1170. (a) (1) The Legislature finds and declares that the purpose of imprisonment for crime is punishment. This purpose is best served by terms proportionate to the seriousness of the offense with provision for uniformity in the sentences of offenders committing the same offense under similar circumstances. The Legislature further finds and declares that the elimination of disparity and the provision of uniformity of sentences can best be achieved by determinate sentences fixed by statute in proportion to the seriousness of the offense as determined by the Legislature to be imposed by the trial court with specified discretion.

(2) In any case in which the punishment prescribed by statute for a person convicted of a public offense is a term of imprisonment in the state prison of 16 months, two or three years; two, three or four years; three, four or five years; five, six or seven years, or any other specification of three time periods, the trial court shall sentence the defendant to one of the terms of imprisonment specified unless such convicted person is given any other disposition provided by law, including a fine, jail, probation or the suspension of imposition or execution of sentence. In sentencing the convicted person, the court shall apply the sentencing rules of the Judicial Council. The trial court, unless it determines that there are circumstances in mitigation of the punishment prescribed, shall also impose any other prison sentence which it is required by law to impose as an additional prison sentence. Nothing in this article shall affect any provision of law which imposes the death penalty, which authorizes or restricts the granting of probation or suspending the execution or imposition of sentence, or expressly provides for imprisonment in the state prison for life.

(b) When a judgment of imprisonment is entered the court shall order the middle of the three possible terms of imprisonment, unless there are circumstances in aggravation or mitigation of the crime. Such circumstances shall only be considered if set forth in a motion made prior to or at the time set for sentencing. The upper term may be imposed only when the circumstances alleged to be in aggravation of the crime are found to be true by the trial judge upon the evidence introduced at the hearing on the motion and any evidence previously heard by the judge at the trial, and factual findings and reasons in support thereof are set forth on the record at the time of sentencing. In no case shall the court impose an upper term upon a finding of any fact used to enhance the sentence under Section 667.5, 1170.1a, 12022, 12022.5, 12022.6, or 12022.7. In no event shall any fact be used twice to determine, aggravate, or enhance a sentence. The lower term may be imposed only when the circumstances alleged to be in mitigation of the crime are found to be true by the trial judge upon the evidence introduced at the hearing on the motion and any evidence previously heard by the judge at the trial, and factual findings and reasons in support thereof are set forth on the record at the time of sentencing.

(c) When a defendant subject to this section has been sentenced to be imprisoned in the state prison and has been committed to the custody of the Director of Corrections, the sentencing court may, at any time upon the recommendation of the Director of Corrections, the Community Release Board, or the court may, within 120 days of the date of commitment, on its own motion recall the sentence and commitment previously ordered and resentence the defendant in the same manner as if he had not previously been sentenced, provided the new sentence, if any, is no greater than the initial sentence. The resentence under this subdivision shall apply the sentencing rules of the Judicial Council so as to eliminate disparity of sentences and to promote uniformity of sentencing. Credit shall be given for time served.

(d) Any sentence imposed under this article shall be subject to the provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 3000 and any other applicable provisions of law.

1170.1. The trial judge shall state the reasons for his sentence choice on the record at the time of sentencing. The trial judge shall also inform the defendant that after the expiration of his sentence he shall be on parole for a period of up to one year unless for good cause parole is waived as provided in Section 3000.

1170.1a. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c) and subject to Section 654, when any person is convicted of two or more felonies, whether in the same proceeding or court or in different proceedings or courts, and whether by judgment rendered by the same judge or by different judges, and the second or other subsequent judgment imposes a consecutive term of imprisonment under Sections 669 and 1170, the aggregate term of imprisonment for all such convictions shall be the greatest term of imprisonment imposed by the judge for any of the crimes, including any enhancements which are imposed pursuant to Sections 12022, 12022.5, 12022.6, and 12022.7 plus one-third of the middle term of imprisonment prescribed for each other felony convictions for which a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed without such enhancements. The court shall not impose additional terms as described in Section 667.5, 12022, 12022.5, 12022.6, or 12022.7 to enhance the one-third of the middle term sentence for such consecutive terms of imprisonment.

(b) In the case of any person convicted of one felony which is committed while such person is confined in a state prison and the law either requires the sentences to be served consecutively or the judge imposes a consecutive sentence, the aggregate term of imprisonment for all convictions which such person is required to serve consecutively shall be the remainder of the term for which he was confined plus the term of imprisonment specified by the judge for the crime committed while confined in a state prison. If such person is convicted of more than one such felony in the same proceeding, and the law either requires each sentence to be served consecutively or the judge imposes a consecutive sentence, the aggregate term for all convictions which the person is required to serve consecutively shall be the remainder of the term for which he was confined plus the greatest term of imprisonment specified by the judge for any of such felonies and plus one-third of the middle term of imprisonment prescribed for each other such felony conviction. The provisions of this subdivision shall be applicable in cases of convictions of more than one offense in different proceedings, and convictions of more than one offense in the same or different proceedings.

(c) When the court imposes a prison sentence for a felony pursuant to Section 1170 the court shall also impose the additional sentences provided in this code for being armed with a deadly weapon or use of a firearm charged and proved in the case, for excessive taking or damage, for the infliction of great bodily injury charged and proved in the case, for each prior prison term charged and proved in the case as provided for in Section 667.5 and for any other sentence which the court determines in its discretion or as required by law shall run consecutive to the sentence imposed under Section 1170 except as provided in subdivisions (d), (e), and (f). However, if the court determines that there are circumstances in mitigation of the punishment prescribed, the court may strike the additional punishment, provided that reasons therefor are stated on the record. In considering the imposition of such additional sentences, the court shall apply the sentencing rules of the Judicial Council.

(d) Section 12022 or Section 12022.5 shall not apply where arming or use is an element of the crime. Section 12022.7 shall not apply where great bodily harm is an element of the offense or where the crime is assault by any means of force likely to produce great bodily injury. No more than one of Section 12022, 12022.5, or 12022.7 shall apply to the sentence for any single offense. A prisoner who is convicted of committing a felony, as provided in subdivision (b) and who is subject to this subdivision (d), shall be subject to the same term of imprisonment as any other person committing such felony except that the sentence shall be served consecutively and in addition to the remainder of the prisoner's current term of imprisonment;

(e) In no case shall the aggregate for enhancement for both prior terms as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 667.5 and consecutive sentences as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 1170.1a exceed five years.

(f) In no case shall the term of imprisonment exceed twice the number of years imposed by the trial court as the base term pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1170 unless the defendant stands convicted of a felony described in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 or an allegation of being armed with a deadly weapon as defined in Section 12022, the use of a firearm as defined in Section 12022.5, or the infliction of great bodily injury as defined in Section 12022.7 which had been charged in the indictment or information and found to be true by the jury upon jury trial, or found to be true by the court upon court trial, or admitted to by the defendant.

1170.1b. In all cases the Community Release Board shall, not later than one year after the commencement of the term of imprisonment, review the sentence and shall by motion recommend that the court recall the sentence and commitment previously ordered and resentence the defendant in the same manner as if he had not been previously sentenced if the board determines the sentence is disparate. The review under this section shall apply the sentencing rules of the Judicial Council and the information regarding the sentences in this state of other persons convicted of similar crimes so as to eliminate disparity of sentences and to promote uniformity of sentencing.

1170.2. (a) In the case of any inmate sentenced for a felony to state prison prior to the effective date of this section, who would have been sentenced under Section 1170 if sentenced after the effective date of this section, the Community Release Board shall determine what the length of time of imprisonment would have been under Section 1170 without consideration of good-time credit and utilizing the middle term of the offense bearing the longest terms of imprisonment of which the prisoner was convicted aggregated by any additional terms which were imposed by the court at the time of sentencing for such felony or aggravation.

(b) When the calculation required under subdivision (a) is less than the time to be served prior to a parole date set prior to the effective date of this section by the Adult Authority, the Community Release Board shall reset the prisoner's parole date, subject to subdivision (d) on the date calculated under subdivision (a) unless a majority of all of the members of the Community Release Board after reviewing the prisoner's file, determine that due to the number of crimes the prisoner was convicted of, or due to the number of prior convictions the prisoner has been convicted of, or due to the fact that the prisoner was armed with a deadly weapon when the crime was committed, or used a deadly weapon during the commission of the crime, or inflicted or attempted to inflict great bodily injury on the victim of the crime, the prisoner should serve a term longer than that calculated in subdivision (a), in which event the prisoner shall be entitled to a hearing, as provided for in Section 3041.5. At such hearing the prisoner shall be entitled to be represented by legal counsel, and a release date shall be set within 90 days of the effective date of this section and the prisoner shall be informed in writing of the extraordinary factors specifically considered determinative and on what basis the release date has been calculated. In fixing a term under this section the board shall be guided by the term which reasonably could be imposed on a person convicted after the effective date of this act of a similar crime under similar circumstances specifically in those cases which involve persons convicted of one or more of the crimes specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5. In fixing a term in any case involving a prisoner convicted of one or more of the crimes specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, the board shall be guided by the following finding and declaration hereby made by the Legislature: that the necessity to protect the public from repetition of such extraordinary crimes of violence against the person is the paramount consideration.

(c) When a parole date was not set by the Adult Authority for an inmate sentenced prior to the effective date of this section who would have been sentenced under Section 1170 if sentenced after the effective date of this section, the Community Release Board shall set the prisoner's parole date, subject to subdivision (d), on the date calculated under subdivision (a) unless a majority of all of the members of the Community Release Board after reviewing the prisoner's file, determine that due to the number of crimes the prisoner was convicted of, or due to the number of prior convictions the prisoner has been convicted of, or due to the fact that the prisoner was armed with a deadly weapon when the crime was committed, or used a deadly weapon during the commission of the crime, or inflicted or attempted to inflict great bodily injury on the victim of the crime, the prisoner should serve a term longer than that calculated in subdivision (a) in which event the prisoner shall be entitled to a hearing, as provided for in Section 3041.5. At such hearing the prisoner shall be entitled to be represented by legal counsel, and a release date shall be set within 90 days of the effective date of this section and the prisoner shall be informed in writing of the extraordinary factors specifically considered determinative and on what basis the release date has been calculated. In fixing a term under this section the board shall be guided by the term which reasonably could be imposed on a person convicted after the effective date of this act of a similar crime under similar circumstances specifically in those cases which involve persons convicted of one or more of the crimes specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5. In fixing a term in any case involving a prisoner convicted of one or more of the crimes specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, the board shall be guided by the following finding and declaration hereby made by the Legislature: that the necessity to protect the public from repetition of such extraordinary crimes of violence against the person is the paramount consideration.

(d) In the case of any prisoner sentenced for a felony to state prison prior to the effective date of this act who would have been sentenced under Section 1170 if sentenced after the effective date of this section, the good behavior and participation provisions of Article

2.5 (commencing with Section 2930) of Chapter 7 of Title 1 of Part 3 shall apply from the effective date of this section and thereafter.

(e) In the case of any inmate sentenced for a felony to state prison prior to the effective date of this section, who would have been sentenced under Section 1168 after the effective date of this section, the Community Release Board shall provide for release from prison as provided for by this code.

(f) In the case of any inmate sentenced for a felony to state prison prior to the effective date of this section, the length of parole conditions therein, revocation thereof, and other incidents thereto shall be the same as if the prisoner had been sentenced after the effective date of this section.

(g) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to keep an inmate in the custody of the Department of Corrections for a period of time longer than he would have been kept in its custody under the provisions of law applicable to him prior to the effective date of this section.

(h) Nothing in this chapter shall affect an inmate's eligibility for parole under Article 3 (commencing with Section 3040) of Chapter 8 of Title I of Part 3 of this code, for a period of parole as specified in subdivision (b) of Section 3000.

1170.3. The Judicial Council shall seek to promote uniformity in sentencing under Section 1170, by the adoption of rules providing criteria for the consideration of the trial judge at the time of sentencing regarding the court's decision to:

(a) Grant or deny probation.

(b) Impose the lower or upper prison term.

(c) Impose concurrent or consecutive sentences.

(d) Consider an additional sentence for prior prison terms.

(e) Impose an additional sentence for being armed with a deadly weapon, using a firearm, an excessive taking or damage, or the infliction of great bodily injury.

1170.4. 2042. Every person confined in the California Vocational Institution who escapes or attempts to escape therefrom is guilty of a crime and shall be imprisoned in a state prison, or in the county jail for not exceeding one year.

SEC. 276. Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 2930) is added to Chapter 7 of Title 1 of Part 3 of the Penal Code, to read:

Article 2.5. Credit on Term of Imprisonment

2930. (a) The Department of Corrections shall inform every prisoner sentenced under Section 1170, not later than 14 days after the commencement of the term of imprisonment of all applicable prison rules and regulations including the possibility of receiving a one-third reduction of the sentence for good behavior and participation. Within 14 days of the prisoner's arrival at the institution to which the prisoner is ultimately assigned by the Department of Corrections, the prisoner shall be informed of the range of programs offered by that institution and their availability at that institution. The prisoner's central file shall reflect compliance with the provisions of this section not later than 90 days after commencement of term.

(b) The department shall, within 90 days of the effective date of this section, inform every prisoner who would have been sentenced under Section 1170 if sentenced after the effective date of this act of all applicable prison rules and regulations, of the range of programs offered and their availability, and the possibility of receiving a reduction for good behavior and participation of one-third of the prisoner's remaining sentence after the effective date of this section. The inmate's central file shall reflect compliance with the provisions of this section.

2931. (a) In any case in which an inmate was sentenced to the state prison pursuant to Section 1170, or if he would have been sentenced under Section 1170 if sentenced after the effective date of Section 1170, the Department of Corrections shall have the authority to reduce the term prescribed under such section by one-third for good behavior and participation consistent with subdivision (d) of Section 1170.2. A document shall be signed by a prison official and the inmate, at the time of compliance with Section 2930, outlining the conditions which the inmate shall meet to receive the credit. The conditions specified in such document may be modified upon any of the following:

(1) Mutual consent of the prisoner and the Department of Corrections.

(2) The transfer of the inmate from one institution to another.

(3) The department's determination of the prisoner's lack of adaptability or success in a specific program or assignment. In such case the inmate shall be entitled to a hearing regarding the department's decision.

(b) Total possible good behavior and participation credit shall result in a four-months reduction for each eight months served in prison. Three months of this four-month reduction shall be based upon forbearance from any or all of the following activities:

(1) Assault with a weapon; or escape.

(2) Physically assaultive behavior; possession of a weapon without permission; possession of controlled substances without prescription; attempt to escape; or urging others, with the intent to cause a riot, to commit acts of force or violence, at a time and place under circumstances which produce a clear and present and immediate danger of a riot which results in acts of force or violence.

(3) Intentional destruction of state property valued in excess of fifty dollars ($50); falsification of a significant record or document; possession of escape tools without permission; or manufacture or sale of intoxicants. Activities specified in paragraph (1) may result in a maximum denial of good behavior credit of 45 days for each such prohibited activity. Activities specified in paragraph (2) may result in a maximum denial of good behavior credit of 30 days for each such prohibited activity. Activities specified in paragraph (3) may result in a maximum denial of good behavior credit of 15 days for each such prohibited activity. Nothing in this section shall prevent the Department of Corrections from seeking criminal prosecution for violations of law.

(c) One of the four months reduction shall be based solely upon participation in work, educational, vocational, therapeutic or other prison activities as specified in such document. Failure to succeed after demonstrating a reasonable effort in the specified activity shall not result in loss of participation credit. Failure to participate in the specified activities can result in a maximum loss of credit of 30 days. However, those confined either by choice or due to behavior problems so as to be unable to participate in any activities, in no instance shall be denied the credit because of physical inability to participate.

2932. (a) Denial of good behavior and participation credit is limited to whichever eight-month time period specified in subdivision (b) during which the misbehavior took place. Good behavior and participation credit shall be deemed to be earned in cases where the department fails to adhere to the time limitations of this section and the following procedure. Any procedure not provided for by this section, but necessary to carry out the purposes of this section, shall be those procedures provided for by the Department of Corrections for serious disciplinary infractions if those procedures are not in conflict with this section.

(1) The Department of Corrections shall, using reasonable diligence to investigate, notify the prisoner in writing within five days of the discovery of information leading to charges that may result in a possible denial of good behavior or participation credit, but not later than 30 days after the alleged misbehavior took place with the exception of those extraordinary cases where there is a discovery of new evidence which was not reasonably discoverable within the 30 days or any sooner than it was discovered, in which case the department shall have the burden of proof as to why the evidence was not reasonably discoverable within 30 days or any sooner than it was discovered; notify the inmate as soon as possible but in no case later than 90 days after the alleged misbehavior took place. The written notice shall include the specific charge, the date, the time, the place that the alleged misbehavior took place, the evidence relied upon, a written explanation of the procedures that will be employed at the proceedings and the prisoner's rights at such hearing; and in the case where the prisoner has been notified more than 30 days after the alleged misbehavior why the evidence was not reasonably discoverable within the 30 days or any sooner than it was discovered. Such hearing shall be conducted by an individual who shall be independent of the case and shall take place within 10 days of such written notice; unless for good cause shown by the Department of Corrections that extraordinary circumstances prevented the hearing from being conducted within 10 days and the prisoner is not prejudiced by the delay the Department of Corrections shall notify the prisoner in writing specifying the extraordinary circumstances and shall conduct the hearing as soon as possible but in no case later than 30 days after the initial written notice of possible good behavior or participation denial.

(2) The prisoner has the right to elect to be assigned an investigative employee who will gather information, talk to witnesses, prepare a written report and be present at the hearing.

(3) The prisoner may request witnesses to attend the hearing and they shall be called unless the person conducting the hearing has specific reasons to deny this request. Such specific reasons shall be set forth in writing and a copy of such document shall be presented to the prisoner.

(4) The person who will conduct the hearing shall determine if the prisoner shall need assistance with presentation of a defense at the hearing and if so, at the prisoner's discretion, the prisoner has the right to be assigned an employee of the Department of Corrections to assist in presenting the prisoner's defense.

(5) The prisoner has the right, under the direction of the person conducting the hearing, to question all witnesses.

(6) At the conclusion of the hearing the charge shall be dismissed if the facts do not support the charge, or the inmate may be found guilty on the basis of a preponderance of the evidence.

(7) If found guilty the prisoner shall be advised within 10 days in writing of the guilty finding and the specific evidence relied upon to reach this conclusion and the amount of good time loss. The prisoner may appeal such decision through the Department of Corrections review procedure, and may, upon final notification of appeal denial, within 10 days of such notification demand review of the department's denial of credit by the Community Release Board, and the board may affirm, reverse or modify the department's decision.

(b) The Department of Corrections shall recompute prison time to be served on the basis of good time earned at eight-month intervals for each prisoner and notify such prisoner of his redetermined release date.

(c) The Department of Corrections shall meet with each inmate at least 30 days prior to his good-time release date and shall specify the conditions of parole and the length of parole up to the maximum periods of time provided for by law. The inmate has the right to reconsideration of the length of parole and conditions thereof by the Community Release Board.

(d) If the conduct the prisoner is charged with also constitutes a crime and the Department of Corrections refers the case to criminal authorities for possible prosecution, the Department of Corrections shall not hold the good behavior or participation denial hearing unless the district attorney has certified in writing that no prosecution will be undertaken. However, such hearing must be held within 30 days from the time the prisoner is initially notified of a possible loss of good behavior or participation credit.

In the case where the prisoner is prosecuted by the district attorney the Department of Corrections shall not deny good behavior credit where the prisoner is found not guilty and may deny good behavior credit pursuant to the schedule specified in Section 2931 if the prisoner is found guilty.

(e) If good behavior or participation credit denial proceedings, or criminal prosecution prohibit the release of a prisoner who would have otherwise been released, and the prisoner is found not guilty of the alleged misconduct, the amount of time spent incarcerated, in excess of what the period of incarceration would have been absent the alleged misbehavior, shall be deducted from the prisoner's parole period.

(a) At the expiration of a term of imprisonment imposed pursuant to Section 1170, or at the expiration of such term as reduced pursuant to Section 2931, if applicable, the inmate shall be released on parole for a period not exceeding one year, unless the board for good cause waives parole and discharges the inmate from custody of the department.

(b) In the case of any inmate sentenced under Section 1168, the period of parole shall not exceed three years in the case of an inmate imprisoned under a life sentence, and shall not exceed one year in the case of an inmate whose prison sentence does not consist of imprisonment under a life sentence, unless in either case the board for good cause waives parole and discharges the inmate from custody of the department. This subdivision shall be also applicable to inmates sentenced prior to the effective date of this section to the extent specified in Section 1170.2.

(c) The board shall consider the request of any inmate regarding the length of his parole and the conditions thereof.

(d) Upon successful completion of parole, or at the end of the maximum statutory period of parole specified for the inmate under subdivision (a) or (b), as the case may be, whichever is earlier, the inmate shall be discharged from custody. The date of the maximum statutory period of parole under this subdivision and subdivisions (a) and (b) shall be computed from the date of initial parole, and shall be a period chronologically determined, without interruption, whether or not parole has been revoked and the inmate has been sentenced under Section 3057. If a prisoner absconds during the period of parole the running of such period shall be suspended until the prisoner is located and returned.

(e) It is not the intent of this section to diminish resources presently allocated to the Department of Corrections for parole functions.

All such transcripts shall be filed and maintained in the office of the Community Release Board, and shall be made available to the public no later than 30 days from the date of the hearing in which time is fixed and determined for such a prisoner. No such prisoner shall actually be released on parole prior to 60 days from the date of the hearing in which his time was fixed and determined.

(c) At any hearing to fix and determine time wherein a prisoner is convicted of the commission of any one or more of the crimes listed in subdivision (b), the presiding hearing officer must state findings and supporting reasons on the record.

One year prior to the inmate's minimum eligible parole release date a three-member panel of the board shall again meet with the inmate and shall normally set a parole release date. The Community Release Board shall set the parole release date in a manner that will provide uniform terms for offenses of similar gravity and magnitude in respect to their threat to the public. The board shall comply with the sentencing rules that the Judicial Council may issue and any sentencing information relevant to the setting of parole release date. The board shall establish criteria for the setting of parole release dates and in doing so shall consider the number of victims of the crime for which the prisoner was sentenced and other factors in mitigation or aggravation of the crime. At least one member of the panel shall have been present at the last preceding meeting, except where the last preceding meeting was the initial meeting. When release is recommended by two of the three members, that shall be the order. Any dissenting hearing panel member may appeal any decision regarding parole to the full board for an en banc hearing. In case of such an appeal, a majority vote of the full Community Release Board in favor of parole is required to grant parole to any prisoner.

(b) The board shall set a release date unless they determine that the gravity of the current convicted offense or offenses, or the timing and gravity of current or past convicted offense or offenses, is such that consideration of the public safety requires a more lengthy period of incarceration for this individual, and that a parole date, therefore, cannot be fixed at this meeting.

SEC. 281.8. Section 3041.5 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

3041.5. (a) At all meetings held for the purpose of reviewing a prisoner's parole eligibility, or the setting, postponing or rescinding of parole dates, or evaluating the prisoner's appeal of good-time denial.

(2) The prisoner shall be permitted to be present, to ask and answer questions, and to speak on his own behalf.

(3) He shall receive the undivided attention of all the board members who will vote on any decision concerning him.

(5) The prisoner shall be permitted to request and receive a stenographic record of all proceedings.

(b) (1) Within 10 days following any meeting where a parole date has been set, the board shall send the prisoner a written statement setting forth his parole date, the conditions he must meet in order to be released on the date set, and the consequences of failure to meet such conditions.

(2) Within 20 days following any meeting where a parole date has not been set for the reasons stated in subdivision (b) of Section 3041, the board shall send the prisoner a written statement setting forth the reason or reasons for refusal to set a parole date; at what time the prisoner can reasonably expect to be considered for the setting of a parole date; and suggest activities in which he might participate that will benefit him while he is incarcerated. The board shall review each such case before the inmate's statutory minimum eligible release date and annually thereafter.

(3) Within 10 days of any board action resulting in the postponement of a previously set parole date, the board shall send the prisoner a written statement setting forth a new date and the reason or reasons for such action and shall offer the prisoner an opportunity for review of such action within 90 days of the time the prisoner receives the statement.

of a previously set parole date, the board shall send the prisoner a written statement setting forth the reason or reasons for such action, shall offer the prisoner an opportunity for review of such action and shall, within six months, set the prisoner's parole release date in accord with the provisions of Section 3041 and this section.

SEC. 4. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 42 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1977, both bills amend Section 12020 of the Penal Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 42, that Section 12020 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 2 of this act shall remain operative only until the operative date of Senate Bill No. 42, and that on the operative date of Senate Bill No. 42 Section 12020 of the Penal Code as amended by Section 2 of this act be further amended in the form set forth in Section 3 of this act to incorporate the changes in Section 12020 proposed by Senate Bill No. 42. Therefore, Section 3 of this act shall become operative only if this bill and Senate Bill No. 42 are both chaptered and become effective January 1, 1977, both bills amend Section 12020, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 42, in which case Section 3 of this act shall become operative on the operative date of Senate Bill No. 42.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 30631 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

30631. The district may acquire, construct, own, operate, control, or use rights-of-way, rail lines, monorails, buslines, stations, platforms, switches, yards, terminals, parking lots, and any and all other facilities necessary or convenient for rapid transit service within or partly without the district, underground, upon, or above the ground and under, upon, or over public streets, highways, bridges, or other public ways or waterways, together with all physical structures necessary or convenient for the access of persons and vehicles thereto, and may acquire or contract for any interest in or rights to the use or joint use of any or all of the foregoing; provided, that installations in state freeways shall be subject to the approval of the Department of Transportation and installations in other state highways shall be subject to Article 2 (commencing with Section 670), Chapter 3, Division 1 of the Streets and Highways Code.

It shall be presumed that the use of the streets, highways, freeways, and other public places by the district for any of the purposes permitted herein constitutes no greater burden on adjoining properties than the uses existing as of August 22, 1964. In the event facilities, other than state highways or freeways referred to above, (including, but not limited to, streets, highways, pipelines, sewers, water mains, storm drains, poles, communications wires, and electric transmission wires) of another public agency, of the state, or of a private owner must necessarily be relocated, replaced, or altered in order for the district to construct or operate its system, or in the event the construction or operation by the district of its system makes necessary the relocation, replacement, or alteration of any such facilities of another public agency, of the state, or of a private owner in order to maintain the functioning of such facilities at their previous level of service, such facilities shall be relocated, replaced, or altered with reasonable promptness by the respective public corporation, state, or private owner and the district shall by prior agreement reimburse such public corporation, state, or private owner for the actual cost necessarily incurred in such relocation, replacement, or alteration.

The district may enter into an agreement with any city or county having jurisdiction over the street or highway involved, and, as may be provided in such an agreement, may close any such city street or county highway at or near the point of its interception with any district facility or may make provision for carrying such city street or county highway over or under or to a connection with such district facility and may do any and all work on such city street or county highway as is necessary therefor. No city street or county highway shall be closed, either directly or indirectly, by the construction of district facilities except pursuant to such an agreement or while temporarily necessary during the construction of district facilities if the district has first obtained a temporary street or highway closing permit.

each licensee's handle coming within the indicated brackets:

Daily Handle	License Fee Rate
$100,000 and under	2.00 percent of the handle
$100,001 to $200,000	$2,000 plus 2.50 percent of the handle in excess of $100,000

The amount remaining after deduction of the state license fee shall be distributed as commissions and purses.

The license fee rates provided for herein shall apply to any additional racing weeks allocated by the board to a qualifying association pursuant to Section 19531.

Every association which conducts a racing meeting pursuant to Section 19549 shall, in addition, deduct from its parimutuel pools the amount specified in subdivision (b) of Section 19614 as amended by Chapter 354 of the Statutes of 1976.

SEC. 2. The provisions of this act shall be effective the years 1977 through 1980.

An act to add Section 23306.5 to the Government Code, relating to the formation of counties.

(b) Such policy shall not be thus issued or delivered to any person in this state unless it contains all the following provisions:

(1) A provision that the insolvency or bankruptcy of the insured will not release the insurer from the payment of damages for injury sustained or loss occasioned during the life of such policy.

(2) A provision that whenever judgment is secured against the insured or the executor or administrator of a deceased insured in an action based upon bodily injury, death, or property damage, then an action may be brought against the insurer on the policy and subject to its terms and limitations, by such judgment creditor to recover on the judgment.

SEC. 1.5. Section 11580 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11580. A policy insuring against losses set forth in subdivision (a) shall not be issued or delivered to any person in this state unless it contains the provisions set forth in subdivision (b). (a) Unless it contains such provisions, the following policies of insurance shall not be thus issued or delivered:

(2) Against loss of or damage to property caused by draught animals or any vehicle, and for which the insured is liable, other than a policy which provides insurance in the Republic of Mexico, issued or delivered in this state by a nonadmitted Mexican insurer.

(b) Such policy shall not be thus issued or delivered to any person in this state unless it contains all the following provisions:

(1) A provision that the insolvency or bankruptcy of the insured will not release the insurer from the payment of damages for injury sustained or loss occasioned during the life of such policy.

(2) A provision that whenever judgment is secured against the insured or the executor or administrator of a deceased insured in an action based upon bodily injury, death, or property damage, then an action may be brought against the insurer on the policy and subject to its terms and limitations, by such judgment creditor to recover on the judgment.

SEC. 2. Section 11580.05 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11580.05. The Legislature declares that the public policy of this state in regard to provisions authorized or required to be included in policies affording automobile liability insurance or motor vehicle liability insurance issued or delivered in this state shall be as stated in this article, that this article expresses the total public policy of this state respecting the content of such policies, and that no provision of this article or of the Vehicle Code shall apply to policies affording automobile liability insurance or motor vehicle liability insurance in the Republic of Mexico issued or delivered in this state by a nonadmitted Mexican insurer. The Legislature further declares that it is the intent of the Legislature that the requirements set forth in Article 2 (commencing with Section 16450) of Chapter 3 of Division 7 of the Vehicle Code shall apply only to an owner's policy or operator's policy of liability insurance certified as provided in Section 16431 of the Vehicle Code as proof of ability to respond in damages, and that the requirements set forth in Article 4 (commencing with Section 11620) of Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code shall apply only to automobile liability insurance policies issued under the California Assigned Risk Plan. Except as provided above, any other policy issued or delivered in this state affording liability insurance with respect to ownership, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle shall comply with the requirements set forth in Sections 11580, 11580.1, and 11580.2.

SEC. 3. Section 11580.1 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11580.1. (a) No policy of automobile liability insurance described in Section 16054 of the Vehicle Code covering liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of any motor vehicle shall be issued or delivered in this state on or after the effective date of this section unless it contains the provisions set forth in subdivision (b). However, none of the requirements of subdivision (b) shall apply to the insurance afforded under any such policy (1) to the extent that such insurance exceeds the limits specified in subdivision (a) of Section 16056 of the Vehicle Code, or (2) if such policy contains an underlying insurance requirement, or provides for a retained limit of self-insurance, equal to or greater than the limits specified in subdivision (a) of Section 16056 of the Vehicle Code.

(b) Every policy of automobile liability insurance to which subdivision (a) applies shall contain all of the following provisions:

(1) Coverage limits not less than the limits specified in subdivision (a) of Section 16056 of the Vehicle Code.

(2) Designation by explicit description of, or appropriate reference to, the motor vehicles or class of motor vehicles to which coverage is specifically granted.

(3) Designation by explicit description of the purposes for which coverage for such motor vehicles is specifically excluded.

(4) Provision affording insurance to the named insured with respect to any motor vehicle covered by such policy, and to the same extent that insurance is afforded to the named insured, to any other person using, or legally responsible for the use of, such motor vehicle, provided such use is by the named insured or with his permission, express or implied, and within the scope of such permission, except that: (i) with regard to insurance afforded for the loading or unloading of any such motor vehicle, the insurance may be limited to apply only to the named insured, a relative of the named insured who is a resident of the named insured's household, a lessee or bailee of the motor vehicle, or an employee of any such person; and (ii) the insurance afforded to any person other than the named insured need not apply to: (A) any employee with respect to bodily injury sustained by a fellow employee injured in the scope and course of his employment, or (B) any person, or to any agent or employee thereof, employed or otherwise engaged in the business of selling, repairing, servicing, delivering, testing, road testing, parking, or storing automobiles with respect to any accident arising out of the maintenance or use of a motor vehicle in connection therewith.

(c) In addition to any exclusion as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (b), the insurance afforded by any such policy of automobile liability insurance to which subdivision (a) applies may, by appropriate policy provision, be made inapplicable to any or all of the following:

(1) Liability assumed by the insured under contract.

(2) Liability for bodily injury or property damage caused intentionally by or at the direction of the insured.

(3) Liability imposed upon or assumed by the insured under any workers' compensation law.

(4) Liability for bodily injury to any employee of the insured arising out of and in the course of his employment.

(5) Liability for bodily injury to an insured.

(6) Liability for damage to property owned, rented to, transported by, or in charge of, an insured.

(7) Liability for any bodily injury or property damage with respect to which insurance is or can be afforded under a nuclear energy liability policy.

(8) Any motor vehicle or class of motor vehicles, as described or designated in the policy, with respect to which coverage is explicitly excluded, in whole or in part.

The term "the insured" as used in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this subdivision shall mean only that insured under the policy against whom the particular claim is made or suit brought. The term "an insured" as used in paragraphs (5) and (6) of this subdivision shall mean any insured under the policy.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (4) of subdivision (b), or the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 16450) of Chapter 3 of Division 7, or Article 2 (commencing with Section 17150) of Chapter 1 of Division 9, of the Vehicle Code, the insurer and any named insured may, by the terms of any policy of automobile liability insurance to which subdivision (a) applies, or by a separate writing relating thereto, agree as to either or both of the following limitations, such agreement to be binding upon every insured to whom such policy applies and upon every third party claimant:

the benefit of any insured or any third party claimant while any insured motor vehicle is being used or operated by a natural person or persons designated by name. Such agreement shall remain in force as long as the policy remains in force, and shall apply to any continuation, renewal, or replacement of such policy by the named insured, or reinstatement of such policy within 30 days of any lapse thereof.

(2) That with regard to any such policy issued to a named insured engaged in the business of selling, repairing, servicing, delivering, testing, road testing, parking, or storing automobiles, coverage shall not apply to any person other than the named insured or his agent or employee, except to the extent that the limits of liability of any other valid and collectible insurance available to such person are not equal to the limits of liability specified in subdivision (a) of Section 16056 of the Vehicle Code.

(e) Nothing in this section or in Section 16054 or 16450 of the Vehicle Code shall be construed to constitute a homeowner's policy, personal and residence liability policy, personal and farm liability policy, general liability policy, comprehensive personal liability policy, manufacturers' and contractors' policy, premises liability policy, special multiperil policy, or any policy or endorsement where automobile liability coverage is offered as incidental to some other basic coverage as an "automobile liability policy" within the meaning of Section 16054 of the Vehicle Code, or as a "motor vehicle liability policy" within the meaning of Section 16450 of the Vehicle Code, nor shall any provision of this section apply to a policy which provides insurance covering liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of any motor vehicle in the Republic of Mexico issued or delivered in this state by a nonadmitted Mexican insurer, notwithstanding that any such policy may provide automobile or motor vehicle liability coverage on insured premises or the ways immediately adjoining.

(f) On and after January 1, 1976, no policy of automobile liability insurance described in subdivision (a) shall be issued, amended, or renewed in this state if it contains any provision which expressly or impliedly excludes from coverage under such policy the operation or use of an insured motor vehicle by the named insured in the performance of volunteer services for a nonprofit charitable organization or governmental agency by providing transportation to senior citizens or physically or mentally handicapped persons. This subdivision shall not apply in any case in which the named insured receives any remuneration of any kind other than reimbursement for actual mileage driven in the performance of such services at a rate not to exceed fifteen cents ($0.15) per mile actually driven. As used in this section, "senior citizen" means a person 60 years of age or older.

(g) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of this section, or the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 16450) of Chapter 3 of Division 7 of, or

03099 297540 664

Article 2 (commencing with Section 17150) of Chapter 1 of Division 9 of, the Vehicle Code, a Mexican nonadmitted insurer and any named insured may, by the terms of any policy of automobile insurance for use solely in the Republic of Mexico to which subdivision (a) applies, or by a separate writing relating thereto, agree to the limitation that coverage under such policy shall not apply to any person riding in or occupying a vehicle owned by the insured or driven by another person with the permission of the insured. Such agreement shall be binding upon every insured to whom any such policy applies and upon any third party claimant.

(h) No policy of automobile insurance which provides insurance covering liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance or use of any motor vehicle solely in the Republic of Mexico issued by a nonadmitted Mexican insurance company, shall be subject to, or provide coverage for, those coverages provided in Section 11580.2.

SEC. 4. Section 11580.2 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11580.2. (a) (1) No policy of bodily injury liability insurance covering liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of any motor vehicle, except for policies which provide insurance in the Republic of Mexico issued or delivered in this state by nonadmitted Mexican insurers, shall be issued or delivered in this state to the owner or operator of a motor vehicle, or shall be issued or delivered by any insurer licensed in this state upon any motor vehicle then principally used or principally garaged in this state, unless the policy contains, or has added to it by endorsement, a provision with coverage limits at least equal to the financial responsibility requirements specified in Section 16056 of the Vehicle Code insuring the insured, his heirs or his legal representative for all sums within such limits which he or they, as the case may be, shall be legally entitled to recover as damages for bodily injury or wrongful death from the owner or operator of an uninsured motor vehicle. The insurer and any named insured, prior to or subsequent to the issuance or renewal of a policy, may, by agreement in writing, in the form specified in paragraph (2), delete the provision covering damage caused by an uninsured motor vehicle (1) completely, or (2) with respect to a natural person or persons designated by name when operating a motor vehicle. Either of such deletions by any named insured shall be binding upon every insured to whom such policy or endorsement provisions apply while such policy is in force, and shall continue to be so binding with respect to any continuation, renewal, or replacement of such policy by the named insured, or with respect to reinstatement of such policy within 30 days of any lapse thereof. A policy shall be excluded from the application of this section if the only coverage with respect to the use of any motor vehicle is limited to the contingent liability arising out of the use of nonowned motor vehicles.

(2) The agreement specified in paragraph (1) shall be in the following form:

"The California Insurance Code requires an insurer to provide uninsured motorists coverage in each bodily injury liability insurance policy it issues covering liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle. Such section also permits the insurer and the applicant to delete such coverage completely or with respect to one or more natural persons designated by name when operating a motor vehicle. Uninsured motorists coverage insures the insured, his heirs, or legal representatives for all sums within the financial responsibility limits which such person or persons are legally entitled to recover as damages for bodily injury, including any resulting sickness, disease, or death, to him from the owner or operator of an uninsured motor vehicle not owned or operated by the insured."

Such agreement may contain additional statements not in derogation of or conflict with the foregoing. The execution of such agreement shall relieve the insurer of liability under this section while such agreement remains in effect.

(b) As used in (a) above, "bodily injury" includes sickness or disease, including death, resulting therefrom; the term "named insured" means only the individual or organization named in the declarations of the policy of motor vehicle bodily injury liability insurance referred to in (a) above; as used in (a) above the term "insured" means the named insured and the spouse of the named insured and relatives of either while residents of the same household while occupants of a motor vehicle or otherwise, heirs and any other person while in or upon or entering into or alighting from an insured motor vehicle and any person with respect to damages he is entitled to recover for care or loss of services because of bodily injury to which the policy provisions or endorsement apply; the term "insured motor vehicle" means the motor vehicle described in the underlying insurance policy of which the uninsured motorist endorsement or coverage is a part, a temporary substitute or a newly acquired automobile for which liability coverage is provided in the policy if the motor vehicle is used by the named insured or with his permission or consent, express or implied, and any other automobile not owned by the named insured or any resident of the same household while being operated by the named insured or his spouse if a resident of the same household, but the term "insured motor vehicle" shall not include any automobile while used as a public or livery conveyance. The term "uninsured motor vehicle" means a motor vehicle with respect to the ownership, maintenance or use of which there is no bodily injury liability insurance or bond applicable at the time of the accident, or there is such applicable insurance or bond but the company writing the same denies coverage thereunder or refuses to admit coverage thereunder except conditionally or with reservation, or a motor vehicle used without the permission of the owner thereof if there is no bodily injury liability insurance or bond applicable at the time of the accident with respect to the owner or operator thereof, or the owner or operator thereof be unknown, provided that, with respect to an "uninsured motor vehicle" whose owner or operator is unknown:

(1) The bodily injury has arisen out of physical contact of such automobile with the insured or with an automobile which the insured is occupying.

(2) The insured or someone on his behalf shall have reported the accident within 24 hours to the police department of the city where the accident occurred or, if the accident occurred in unincorporated territory then either to the sheriff of the county where the accident occurred or the local headquarters of the California Highway Patrol, and have filed with the insurer within 30 days thereafter a statement under oath that the insured or his legal representative has or the insured's heirs have a cause of action arising out of such accident for damages against a person or persons whose identity is unascertainable and set forth facts in support thereof. The term "uninsured motor vehicle" shall not include an automobile owned by the named insured or any resident of the same household or self-insured within the meaning of the Safety Responsibility Law of the state in which the motor vehicle is registered or which is owned by the United States of America, Canada, a state or political subdivision of any such government or an agency of any of the foregoing, or a land motor vehicle or trailer operated on rails or crawler treads or while located for use as a residence or premises and not as a vehicle, or a farm-type tractor or equipment designed for use principally off public roads, except while actually upon public roads.

The term "uninsured motor vehicle" also means an insured motor vehicle where the liability insurer thereof is unable to make payment with respect to the legal liability of its insured within the limits specified therein because of insolvency. An insurer's solvency protection shall be applicable only to accidents occurring during a policy period in which its insured's motor vehicle coverage is in effect where the liability insurer of the tortfeasor becomes insolvent within one year of such accident. In the event of payment to any person under the coverage required by this section and subject to the terms and conditions of such coverage, the insurer making such payment, shall to the extent thereof, be entitled to any proceeds which may be recoverable from the assets of the insolvent insurer through any settlement or judgment of such person against the insolvent insurer.

(c) The insurance coverage provided for in this section does not apply:

(1) To property damage sustained by the insured.

(2) To bodily injury of the insured while in or upon or while entering into or alighting from an automobile other than the described automobile if the owner thereof has insurance similar to that provided in this section.

(3) To bodily injury of the insured with respect to which the insured or his representative shall, without the written consent of the insurer, make any settlement with or prosecute to judgment any action against any person who may be legally liable therefor.

(4) In any instance where it would inure directly or indirectly to the benefit of any workers' compensation carrier or to any person qualified as a self-insurer under any workers' compensation law, or directly to the benefit of the United States, or any state or any political subdivision thereof.

(5) To establish proof of financial responsibility as provided in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) of Section 16054 of the Vehicle Code.

(e) The policy or endorsement added thereto may provide that if the insured has valid and collectible automobile medical payment insurance available to him, the damages which he shall be entitled to recover from the owner or operator of an uninsured motor vehicle shall be reduced for purposes of uninsured motorist coverage by the amounts paid or due to be paid under such automobile medical payment insurance. This subdivision shall become operative on January 1, 1971.

(f) The policy or an endorsement added thereto shall provide that the determination as to whether the insured shall be legally entitled to recover damages, and if so entitled, the amount thereof, shall be made by agreement between the insured and the insurer or, in the event of disagreement, by arbitration. The arbitration shall be conducted by a single neutral arbitrator. An award or a judgment confirming an award shall not be conclusive on any party in any action or proceeding between (i) the insured, his insurer, his legal representative, or his heirs and (ii) the uninsured motorist to recover damages arising out of the accident upon which the award is based. If the insured has or may have rights to benefits, other than nonoccupational disability benefits, under any workmen's compensation law, the arbitrator shall not proceed with the arbitration until the insured's physical condition is stationary and ratable. In those cases in which the insured claims a permanent disability, such claims shall, unless good cause be shown, be adjudicated by award or settled by compromise and release before the arbitration may proceed. Any demand or petition for arbitration shall contain a declaration, under penalty of perjury, stating whether (i) the insured has a workmen's compensation claim; (ii) such claim has proceeded to findings and award or settlement on all issues reasonably contemplated to be determined in that claim; and (iii) if not, what reasons amounting to good cause are grounds for the arbitration to proceed immediately. The provisions of Article 3 (commencing with Section 2016) of Chapter 3 of Title 3 of Part 4 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall be applicable to such determinations, and all rights, remedies, obligations, liabilities and procedures set forth in such Article 3 shall be available to both the insured and the insurer at any time after the accident, both before and after the commencement of arbitration, if any, with the following limitations:

(1) Whenever in such Article 3, reference is made to the court in which the action is pending, or provision is made for application to the court or obtaining leave of court or approval by the court, the court which shall have jurisdiction for the purposes of this section shall be the superior court of the State of California, in and for any county which is a proper county for the filing of a suit for bodily injury arising out of the accident, against the uninsured motorist, or any county specified in the policy or an endorsement added thereto as a proper county for arbitration or action thereon.

(2) Any such proper court to which application is first made by either the insured or the insurer under the provisions of such Article 3 for any discovery or other relief or remedy, shall thereafter be the only court to which either of the parties shall make any applications under such Article 3 with respect to the same accident, subject, however, to the right of such court to grant a change of venue after a hearing upon notice, upon any of the grounds upon which change of venue might be granted in an action filed in the superior court.

(3) A deposition pursuant to the provisions of Section 2016 of the Code of Civil Procedure may be taken without leave of court, except that leave of court, granted with or without notice and for good cause shown, must be obtained if the notice of the taking of the deposition is served by either party within 20 days after the accident.

(4) The provisions of subparagraph (a) (4) of Section 2019 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall not be applicable to discovery under this section.

(5) For the purposes of discovery under this section, the insured and the insurer shall each be deemed to be "a party to the record of any civil action or proceedings," where that phrase is used in subparagraph (b) (2) of Section 2019 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(6) Interrogatories under the provisions of Section 2030 of the Code of Civil Procedure and requests for admission under Section 2033 of the Code of Civil Procedure may be served by either the insured or the insurer upon the other at any time more than 20 days after the accident without leave of court.

(7) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the rights of any party to discovery in any action pending or which may hereafter be pending in any court.

(g) The insurer paying a claim under an uninsured motorist endorsement or coverage shall be entitled to be subrogated to the rights of the insured to whom such claim was paid against any person causing such injury or death to the extent that payment was made. Such action may be brought within three years from the date that payment was made hereunder.

(h) An insured entitled to recovery under the uninsured motorist endorsement or coverage shall be reimbursed within the conditions stated herein without being required to sign any release or waiver or rights to which he may be entitled under any other insurance coverage applicable; nor shall payment under this section to such insured be delayed or made contingent upon the decisions as to liability or distribution of loss costs under other bodily injury liability insurance or any bond applicable to the accident. Any loss payable under the terms of the uninsured motorist endorsement or coverage to or for any person may be reduced:

(1) By the amount paid and the present value of all amounts payable to him under any workmen's compensation law, exclusive of nonoccupational disability benefits.

(2) By the amount the insured is entitled to recover from any other person insured under the underlying liability insurance policy of which the uninsured motorist endorsement or coverage is a part.

(i) No cause of action shall accrue to the insured under any policy or endorsement provision issued pursuant to this section unless within one year from the date of the accident:

(1) Suit for bodily injury has been filed against the uninsured motorist, in a court of competent jurisdiction, or

(2) Agreement as to the amount due under the policy has been concluded, or

(3) The insured has formally instituted arbitration proceedings.

(j) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions (b) and (i), in the event the accident occurs in any other state or foreign jursidiction to which coverage is extended under the policy and the insurer of the tortfeasor becomes insolvent, any action authorized pursuant to the provisions of this section may be maintained within three months of the insolvency of the tortfeasor's insurer, but in no event later than the pertinent period of limitation of the jurisdiction in which the accident occurred.

(k) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (i), any insurer whose insured has made a claim under his or her uninsured motorist coverage, and such claim is pending, shall, at least 30 days before the expiration of the applicable statute of limitation, notify its insured in writing of the statute of limitation applicable to such injury or death. Failure of the insurer to provide such written notice shall operate to toll any applicable statute of limitation or other time limitation for a period of 30 days from the date such written notice is actually given.

(l) As used in subdivision (b), "public or livery conveyance," or terms of similar import, shall not include the operation or use of a motor vehicle by the named insured in the performance of volunteer services for a nonprofit charitable organization or governmental agency by providing transportation to senior citizens or physically or mentally handicapped persons. This subdivision shall not apply in any case in which the named insured receives any remuneration of any kind other than reimbursement for actual mileage driven in the performance of such services at a rate not to exceed fifteen cents ($0.15) per mile actually driven. As used in this section, "senior citizen" means a person 60 years of age or older. This subdivision shall apply only to policies of insurance issued, amended, or renewed on or after January 1, 1976.

SEC. 5. Sections 1 to 4, inclusive, of this act are enacted in response to the court case of Contreras v. America, Compañía General de Seguros, S.A., 48 Cal. App. 3d 270, and it is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to reverse the effect of the Contreras case, and to provide that certain provisions of any policy which provides insurance covering liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of any motor vehicle in the Republic of Mexico issued by a Mexican insurance company shall not be subject to the effect of the Contreras case.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1370.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1370.1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1370, if the court has reason to believe that the defendant's inability to understand the nature and purpose of the criminal proceedings taken against him so as to be able to conduct, or assist in, his own defense in a rational manner is a result of a developmental disability, the trial or judgment shall be suspended, and the court shall order the regional center for the developmentally disabled, which serves the counties in which (1) the individual resides or resided prior to apprehension, (2) persons found by the regional center to be responsible for or concerned with the welfare of the developmentally disabled person reside, or (3) the court is located, and which is established under the Lanterman Developmental Disabilities Services Act, Division 25 (commencing with Section 38000) of the Health and Safety Code, to examine the defendant and within 90 days report to the court the results of the examination and its recommendation for the care and treatment of the defendant. As used in this section, "developmental disability" means a disability which continues, or can be expected to continue, indefinitely and constitutes a substantial handicap for such individual. As defined by the Director of Health, this term shall include mental retardation, cerebral palsy, epilepsy, and autism. This term shall also include handicapping conditions found to be closely related to mental retardation or to require treatment similar to that required for mentally retarded individuals, but shall not include other handicapping conditions that are solely physical in nature. The court may make such orders as may be necessary to provide for the examination of such person by the regional center and for the safekeeping, necessary medical treatment, care or restraint of the defendant pending further orders of the court following receipt of the regional center's report, in the county hospital, his own home, in a state hospital, or in such other place, excluding a jail, as will afford access to personnel of the regional center for the purpose of examination and suitable provisions for the safety, treatment, care, and restraint of the defendant. If the regional center reports that the defendant is not developmentally disabled, the court shall make the appropriate order under Section 1370. If the regional center reports that the defendant is developmentally disabled and is a danger to himself or others and therefore subject to commitment to a state hospital pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 6500), Chapter 2, Part 2, Division 6, of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the regional center shall recommend the initiation of proceedings to commit the defendant to a state hospital pursuant to Article 5. If the regional center reports that the defendant is developmentally disabled but is not subject to commitment to a state hospital pursuant to Article 5, the regional center shall make such recommendations as it deems best for the care and treatment of the defendant. Upon receiving the report and recommendations of the regional center, the court shall order that commitment proceedings pursuant to Article 5 be instituted if such defendant is subject to commitment thereunder, or, if not so subject to commitment, it shall order the defendant placed in a home or facility, or state hospital recommended by the regional center for care and treatment or in some other home, facility, or state hospital approved by the regional center for the care and treatment of the defendant. The regional center shall reexamine each defendant placed in a home or facility or state hospital, or committed to a state hospital, at least once each year to make a report to the court as to its recommendations for the coming year. The regional center shall have the responsibility of reporting to the court the results of its reexamination, including the client's progress for the past year, and its recommendation for the care and treatment of the defendant for the coming year, the facility best able to provide care and treatment for the coming year, and the estimated period of time required for care and treatment. The regional center shall evaluate the defendant's behavior and his progress in the treatment of those behaviors related to the criminal offense or offenses for which criminal proceedings have been currently suspended, to determine if those behaviors have been sufficiently modified to warrant a recommendation that criminal charges be dismissed. If the regional center evaluation indicates that the individual presents the dual disability of mental retardation and mental disorder, and the presenting diagnosis is mental disorder, the regional center shall so indicate to the court, with a recommendation for commitment for the care and treatment of the mental disorder in a state hospital, or any other appropriate public or private mental health treatment facility approved by the regional center until such time as the mental disorder is in remission and the individual can be suitably placed in a treatment program for mentally retarded persons.

After the initial recommendation by the regional center is received by the court, the court may dismiss the charges or continue suspension of the charges. The regional center shall closely monitor the defendant and the program and closely monitor the defendant's progress. Should the recommended program be inappropriate to the specific needs of the defendant, or should his behaviors require a more restrictive program, the court shall be apprised of such requirements and subsequent recommendation for change of program plan for the defendant. If the regional center ascertains that the condition of the defendant has changed to the extent that the defendant is able to understand the nature and purpose of the criminal proceedings taken against him so as to be able to conduct, or assist in, his own defense in a rational manner, it shall certify the finding to the court wherein the defendant's case is pending, the district attorney and the defense attorney of record. Proceedings may be resumed, or the charges may be dismissed. In no event shall proceedings under this section exceed the maximum sentence prescribed by law for the offense charged, or three years, whichever is less. After such period of time, the criminal case shall be dismissed.

Any time spent in proceedings or programs under this section, whether in a facility or outside a facility, shall be credited against any sentence to which the defendant may be subject. If, at any time prior to the maximum period of time allowed for proceedings under this section, the regional center concludes that the behaviors of the defendant related to the defendant's criminal offense have been sufficiently modified during time spent in court-ordered programs, the court may, upon recommendation of the regional center, dismiss the criminal charges. In the event of dismissal of the criminal charges, the person shall be rereferred to the appropriate regional center for services under the Lanterman Developmental Disabilities Services Act, Division 25 (commencing with Section 38000) of the Health and Safety Code.

The board shall appoint four members to the committee, the Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint one member, the Senate Rules Committee shall appoint one member and the Governor shall appoint one member. The members shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing power.

This section shall be operative only during such time as federal funds are provided or made available for the purposes of Chapter 309 of the Statutes of 1974. This section shall remain in effect only so long as the provisions of Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 18950) of Part 6 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code remain in effect, and on the date such provisions are repealed, this section shall also be repealed.

321. The department shall administer this article and shall adopt standards for the approval of community child health and disability prevention programs and rules and regulations as necessary. However, such standards, rules, and regulations may be adopted only with the advice and written recommendation of the board. Standards shall be adopted for:

(a) Education and experience requirements for directors of community child health and disability prevention programs.

(b) Health screening, evaluation, and diagnostic procedures for child health and disability prevention programs.

(c) Public and private facilities and providers which may participate in community child health and disability prevention programs.

The department shall adopt a five-year state plan for child health and disability prevention services by October 1, 1974. The plan shall include a method for allocating child health and disability prevention funds to counties. The plan shall be reviewed and revised as necessary to provide a basis for allocating state child health and disability prevention program funds throughout the state.

The governing body of each county or counties shall establish a community child health and disability prevention program for the purpose of providing early and periodic assessments of the health status of children in the county or counties by July 1, 1974. Standards for procedures to carry out health screening and evaluation services and to establish the age at which particular tests should be carried out shall be established by the director, with review and recommendation by the board. However, a governing body may include additional health screening and evaluation procedures in its program if approved by the director and the board.

Each community child health and disability prevention program shall, pursuant to standards set by the director, establish a record system which contains a health case history for each child so that costly and unnecessary repetition of screening, immunization and referral will not occur and appropriate health treatment will be facilitated as specified in Section 308.5.

321.5. A city which operates an independent health agency may elect to provide the services described in this article with the approval of the state department. In such instance, the powers granted a governing body of a county shall be vested in the governing body of that city.

321.7. Each county shall appoint a local advisory board to assist in the administration of this article. The local advisory board shall include representatives from health professions concerned with child health and disability prevention and shall, to the extent feasible, not be created separately from other health advisory bodies in the county.

On or before October 1 of each year, each governing board shall submit to the department, in the form and according to the procedures specified by the director, a community child health and disability prevention plan for the next fiscal year. The plan shall provide for the most appropriate and efficient use of existing public and private institutions and providers for providing health services and evaluation and referral.

Each community child health and disability prevention plan shall include the following:

(a) A summary of the previous year's activity, including the number of children screened, the number of children referred for diagnosis or treatment, by condition, and the cost of screening procedures.

(b) A detailed description of the results of cases in which a treatable disability was identified and referral made.

(c) A projection of the number of children to be screened through the community child health and disability prevention program.

(d) An assessment of the adequacy and availability of the facilities and providers to provide health screening and assessment in the community.

(e) A description of the child health and disability prevention program to be offered, including expected participating facilities and providers, and additional health screening tests to be provided and outreach mechanisms to be utilized.

(f) An assessment of the adequacy of public and private facilities and providers which are available to provide diagnosis or treatment for disabilities as a result of health screening and evaluation.

On or before March 15 of each year, each governing board shall submit to the department a revised community child health and disability prevention plan for the next fiscal year which includes such revisions as are necessary or desirable to make the plan compatible with the budget for that fiscal year submitted by the Governor to the Legislature. By May 1 of each year, the department shall review and approve or disapprove each community plan, together with such revisions.

If a community child health and disability prevention plan is approved, the director shall determine the amount of state funds available for each county for specified services under an approved community child health and disability prevention plan from state funds appropriated for child health and disability prevention services.

If the amount appropriated in the Budget Act for such fiscal year as enacted into law differs from the amount in the budget submitted by the Governor for such fiscal year, each governing board shall submit an additional revised plan in the form and at the time specified by the department.

322.7. Counties shall be reimbursed for the amount required by the county to carry out its community child health and disability prevention program in accordance with the approved community child health and disability prevention plan. Claims for state reimbursement shall be made in such manner as the director shall provide. Each claim for state reimbursement shall be payable from the appropriation made for the fiscal year in which the expenses upon which the claim is based are incurred.

There shall be no reimbursement for expenditures for the treatment of disabilities identified as a result of the program or for capital improvements or the purchase or construction of buildings, except for such equipment items and remodeling expenses as may be allowed by regulations adopted by the director.

323. Counties shall be reimbursed for the amount required by the county to carry out its community child health and disability prevention program in accordance with the approved community child health and disability prevention plan. Claims for state reimbursement shall be made in such manner as the director shall provide. Each claim for state reimbursement shall be payable from the appropriation made for the fiscal year in which the expenses upon which the claim is based are incurred.

There shall be no reimbursement for expenditures for the treatment of disabilities identified as a result of the program, except for the costs of immunizations necessary to bring the child current in his or her immunization status as provided for by regulations of the department, or for capital improvements or the purchase or construction of buildings, except for such equipment items and remodeling expenses as may be allowed by regulations adopted by the director.

323.2. In order to ensure the maximum utilization of the California Medical Assistance Program and other potential reimbursement sources, the state department shall develop a schedule of reimbursement at reasonable rates for services rendered pursuant to this article. Inquiry shall be made of all recipients of services under this article as to their entitlement for third-party reimbursement for medical services. Where such entitlement exists it shall be billed. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (c) of Section 14000 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and Section 14005 of such code, the California Medical Assistance Program shall be billed for services rendered pursuant to this article for every Medi-Cal eligible beneficiary.

323.5. Each child eligible for services under this article shall, upon enrollment in the first grade, give evidence satisfactory to the governing body of the school district or the governing authority of the private school in which the child is to enroll that he has received within the prior year the appropriate health screening and evaluation services specified in Section 307, unless the child's parents or guardian has given written notice to the governing body of the school district or private school in which the child is to enroll that they do not want their child to receive such health screening and evaluation services.

323.7. Any child between birth and enrollment in the first grade and all persons under 21 years of age who are eligible for the California Medical Assistance Program shall be eligible for services from the child health and disabilities prevention program in the county of which they are a resident. The department, with review and recommendation by the board, shall adopt rules and regulations specifying which age groups shall be given certain types of screening tests and recommendations for referral.

The first source of referral shall be the child's usual source of health care. If referral is required and no regular source of health care can be identified, the facility or provider providing health screening and evaluation services shall provide a list of three qualified sources of care, without prejudice for or against any specific source.

324. Each community child health and disability prevention program shall provide the child or his parent or guardian with a copy of the results of the health screening and evaluation, as well as an explanation of the meaning of the results, and shall, where the need indicates, refer the child for further diagnosis and treatment.

SEC. 3. Section 1400 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1400. It is unlawful for any person, association, or corporation to establish, conduct or maintain a referral agency or to refer any person for remuneration to any extended care, skilled nursing home or intermediate care facility or a distinct part of a facility providing extended care, skilled nursing home care, or intermediate care, without first having obtained a written license therefor as provided in this chapter from the director or from an inspection service approved by the director pursuant to Section 1257.

SEC. 4. Section 28701 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

28701. Applications for such license shall be made in writing to the director of the department, on such forms and with such pertinent information as he may deem necessary. Such licenses shall be granted promptly as a matter of right unless conditions exist which are ground for denial of a license, as hereinafter set forth.

SECTION 1. Section 33350.1 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 33675 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

33675. (a) Prior to the adoption by the legislative body of a redevelopment plan providing for tax-increment financing pursuant to Section 33670, any affected taxing agency may elect to be allocated, in addition to the portion of taxes allocated to the affected taxing agency pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 33670, all or any portion of the tax revenues allocated to the agency pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 33670 attributable to increases in the rate of tax imposed for the benefit of the taxing agency which levy occurs after the tax year in which the ordinance adopting the redevelopment plan becomes effective.

(b) The governing body of any affected taxing agency electing to receive allocation of taxes pursuant to this section in addition to taxes allocated to it pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 33670 shall adopt a resolution to that effect and transmit the same, prior to the adoption of the redevelopment plan, to (1) the legislative body, (2) the agency, and (3) the official or officials performing the functions of levying and collecting taxes for the affected taxing agency. Upon receipt by such official or officials of such resolution, allocation of taxes pursuant to this section to the affected taxing agency which has elected to receive the allocation pursuant to this section by the adoption of such resolution shall be made at the time or times allocations are made pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 33670.

(c) An affected taxing agency, at any time after the adoption of such resolution, may elect not to receive all or any portion of the additional allocation of taxes pursuant to this section by rescinding such resolution or by amending the same, as the case may be, and giving notice thereof to the legislative body, the agency, and the official or officials performing the functions of levying and collecting taxes for the affected taxing agency. After receipt of a notice by such official or officials that an affected taxing agency has elected not to receive all or a portion of the additional allocation of taxes by rescission or amendment of the resolution, any allocation of taxes to the affected taxing agency required to be made pursuant to this section shall not thereafter be made but shall be allocated to the agency and such affected taxing agency shall thereafter be allocated only the portion of taxes provided for in subdivision (a) of Section 33670. After receipt of a notice by such official or officials that an affected taxing agency has elected to receive additional tax revenues attributable to only a portion of the increases in the rate of tax, only that portion of the tax revenues shall thereafter be allocated to the affected taxing agency in addition to the portion of taxes allocated pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 33670 and the remaining portion thereof shall be allocated to the agency.

(d) As used in this section, "affected taxing agency" means and includes every public agency for the benefit of which a tax is levied upon property in the project area, whether levied by the public agency or on its behalf by another public agency.

(e) This section shall apply only to redevelopment projects for which a final redevelopment plan is adopted pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 33360) of Chapter 4 on or after January 1, 1977.

CHAPTER 1163

An act relating to elections, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of three hundred fifty thousand dollars ($350,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Controller to be allocated and disbursed in the following manner:

(a) The sum of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) for allocation and disbursement to counties for the purpose of financially assisting them for costs incurred by them in complying with the voter assistance requirements of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended by Public Law 94-73, to furnish printed materials and oral assistance.

(b) The sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) to the Secretary of State for the purpose of assisting the counties in providing voter assistance in designated precincts and for the purpose of making a report to the Legislature.

The Secretary of State shall determine the maximum reimbursement available to each county on the basis of the number of precincts in that county for which the clerk has found that 3 percent or more of the voting-age residents are non-English-speaking citizens as of September 1, 1976.

Each county shall be reimbursed, at a rate to be determined by the Secretary of State, for each registration secured by deputy registrars in those precincts in which the county clerk finds that 3 percent or more of the voting-age residents are non-English-speaking citizens and in which the clerk has appointed at least one precinct board official who is fluent in that language and in English. Only such claims as have been approved by the Secretary of State may be submitted to the State Controller for reimbursement under subdivision (a).

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting such necessity are:

Under the provisions of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended by Public Law 94-73, certain counties are required to furnish election services in other than the English language. In order that the funds appropriated by this act may be made available to such counties for

Upon receipt of these documents the clerk of the court, without payment of a filing fee or other cost to the obligee, shall file them in the registry of foreign support orders. Proof shall be made to the satisfaction of the court that the obligor personally received the notice of registration by mail or other method of service. A return receipt signed by the obligor shall be satisfactory evidence of such personal receipt. He shall also docket the case and notify the prosecuting attorney of his action. The prosecuting attorney shall proceed diligently to enforce the order.

SEC. 4. Section 1699 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1699. (a) Upon registration the registered foreign support orders shall be treated in the same manner as a support order issued by a court of this state. In addition, the court may make any other order as may be appropriate to protect the parties or the witnesses from unreasonable or oppressive demands.

SEC. 2. Section 1987.2 is added to the Code of Civil Procedure, to read:

1987.2. In making an order pursuant to motion made under subdivision (c) of Section 1987 or under Section 1987.1, the court may in its discretion award the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred in making or opposing the motion, including reasonable attorneys' fees, if the court finds the motion was made or opposed in bad faith or without substantial justification or that one or more of the requirements of the subpoena was oppressive.

CHAPTER 1169

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1264 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 5013 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

5013. To the extent permitted by federal law the department shall not establish any priorities in assigning persons to work incentive programs that discriminate on the basis of sex.

SEC. 3. No appropriation is made by this act, nor is any obligation created thereby under Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, for the reimbursement of any local agency for any costs that may be incurred by it in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by it by this act.

CHAPTER 1170

An act to amend Sections 270a, 270b, and 270e of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1976 Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 270a of the Penal Code is amended to read:

270a. Every individual who has sufficient ability to provide for his or her spouse's support, or who is able to earn the means of such spouse's support, who willfully abandons and leaves his or her spouse in a destitute condition, or who refuses or neglects to provide such spouse with necessary food, clothing, shelter, or medical attendance, unless by such spouse's conduct the individual was justified in abandoning such spouse, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 2. Section 270b of the Penal Code is amended to read:

270b. After arrest and before plea or trial, or after conviction or plea of guilty and before sentence under either Section 270 or 270a, if the defendant shall appear before the court and enter into an undertaking with sufficient sureties to the people of the State of California in such penal sum as the court may fix, to be approved by the court, and conditioned that the defendant will pay to the person having custody of such child or to such spouse, such sum per month as may be fixed by the court in order to thereby provide such minor child or such spouse as the case may be, with necessary food, shelter, clothing, medical attendance, or other remedial care, then the court may suspend proceedings or sentence therein; and such undertaking is valid and binding for two years, or such lesser time which the court shall fix; and upon the failure of defendant to comply with such undertaking, the defendant may be ordered to appear before the court and show cause why further proceedings should not be had in such action or why sentence should not be imposed, whereupon the court may proceed with such action, or pass sentence, or for good cause shown may modify the order and take a new undertaking and further suspend proceedings or sentence for a like period.

SEC. 3. Section 270e of the Penal Code is amended to read:

270e. No other evidence shall be required to prove marriage of husband and wife, or that a person is the lawful father or mother of a child or children, than is or shall be required to prove such facts in a civil action. In all prosecutions under either Section 270a or 270 of this code, Sections 970, 971, and 980 of the Evidence Code do not apply, and both husband and wife shall be competent to testify to any and all relevant matters, including the fact of marriage and the parentage of a child or children. Proof of the abandonment and nonsupport of a spouse, or of the omission to furnish necessary food, clothing, shelter, or of medical attendance for a child or children is prima facie evidence that such abandonment and nonsupport or omission to furnish necessary food, clothing, shelter or medical attendance is willful. In any prosecution under Section 270, it shall be competent for the people to prove nonaccess of husband to wife or any other fact establishing nonpaternity of a husband. In any prosecution pursuant to Section 270, the final establishment of paternity or nonpaternity in another proceeding shall be admissible as evidence of paternity or nonpaternity.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local governmental entities which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes.

SEC. 2. Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 600) of Division 1 of the Elections Code, as added by Chapter 220 of the Statutes of 1976, is repealed.

SEC. 3. Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 600) of Division 1 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3. DETERMINATION OF RESIDENCE AND DOMICILE

600. (a) Except as provided in this chapter, the term "residence" as used in this code for voting purposes means a person's domicile.

(b) The domicile of a person is that place in which his or her habitation is fixed, wherein the person has the intention of remaining, and to which, whenever he or she is absent, the person has the intention of returning. At a given time, a person may have only one domicile.

(c) The residence of a person, as used in this chapter, is that place in which the person's habitation is fixed for some period of time, but wherein he does not have the intention of remaining. At a given time, a person may have more than one residence.

601. The term of domicile is computed by including the day on which the person's domicile commenced and by excluding the day of the election.

602. A person does not gain or lose a domicile solely by reason of his or her presence at or absence from a place while employed in the service of the United States or of this state, nor while engaged in navigation, nor while a student of any institution of learning, nor while kept in an almshouse, asylum, or prison. This section shall not be construed to prevent a student at an institution of learning from qualifying as an elector in the locality where he or she domiciles while attending that institution, when in fact the student has abandoned his or her former domicile.

603. A person who leaves his or her home to go into another state or precinct in this state for temporary purposes merely, with the intention of returning, does not lose his or her domicile.

604. A person does not gain a domicile in any precinct into which he or she comes for temporary purposes merely, without the intention of making that precinct his or her home.

605. If a person removes to another state with the intention of making it his or her domicile, he or she loses his or her domicile in this state. However, if such person moves 29 days or less prior to an election at which presidential electors are to be selected, he or she may apply for a "new resident" ballot under the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 750) of Division 1.

606. If a person removes to another state as a place of permanent residence, with the intention of remaining there for an indefinite time, he or she loses his or her domicile in this state, notwithstanding that he or she entertains an intention of returning at some future period.

607. The place where a person's family is domiciled is his or her domicile unless it is a place for temporary establishment for his or her family or for transient objects. Residence in a trailer or vehicle or at any public camp or camping ground may ripen into a domicile for voting purposes if the registrant complies with the other requirements of this chapter.

608. If a person has a family fixed in one place, and he or she does business in another, the former is his or her place of domicile; but any person having a family, who has taken up an abode with the intention of remaining and whose family does not so reside with him or her, is domiciliary where he or she has so taken up the abode.

609. The domicile of one spouse shall not be presumed to be that of the other, but shall be determined independently in accord with this chapter.

610. The mere intention to acquire a new domicile, without the fact of removal avails neither, neither does the fact of removal without the intention.

611. A domiciliary of this state who marries a person employed temporarily in this state in the service of the United States government, may elect to retain his or her domicile for the purpose of qualifying as an elector only, except that such domicile in this state shall terminate if such domiciliary qualifies as an elector in any other state or any territory.

612. If a person has more than one residence and such person maintains a homeowner's property tax exemption on the dwelling of one of the residences pursuant to Section 218 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the residence subject to the homeowner's property tax exemption is that person's domicile; provided, however, that such presumption shall not apply in the event any other residence is listed as the person's current residence address on any driver's license, identification card, or vehicle registration issued to such person by, and on file with, the Department of Motor Vehicles.

If a person has more than one residence and such person claims a renter's tax credit for one of the residences pursuant to Section 17053.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the residence subject to the renter's tax credit is that person's domicile; provided, however, that such presumption shall not apply in the event any other residence is listed as the person's current residence address on any driver's license, identification card, or vehicle registration issued to such person by, and on file with, the Department of Motor Vehicles.

613. Except as provided in this chapter, if a person has more than one residence and such person has not physically resided at any one of such residences within the immediate preceding year, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that those residences in which he or she has not so resided within the immediate preceding year are merely residences as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 600, and not his or her domicile.

614. As used in this chapter, a rebuttable presumption shall be deemed a presumption which affects the burden of producing evidence.

SEC. 3.5. Article 2 (commencing with Section 200) of Chapter 1 of Division 1 of the Elections Code, as added to the Elections Code by Assembly Bill No. 2606, is repealed.

SEC. 4. Article 2 (commencing with Section 200) is added to Chapter 1 of Division 1 of the Elections Code, to read:

Article 2. Determination of Residence and Domicile

200. (a) Except as provided in this article, the term "residence" as used in this code for voting purposes means a person's domicile.

(b) The domicile of a person is that place in which his or her habitation is fixed, wherein the person has the intention of remaining, and to which, whenever he or she is absent, the person has the intention of returning. At a given time, a person may have only one domicile.

(c) The residence of a person, as used in this article, is that place in which the person's habitation is fixed for some period of time, but wherein he or she does not have the intention of remaining. At a given time, a person may have more than one residence.

201. The term of domicile is computed by including the day on which the person's domicile commenced and by excluding the day of the election.

202. (a) A person who leaves his or her home to go into another state or precinct in this state for temporary purposes merely, with the intention of returning, does not lose his or her domicile.

(b) A person does not gain a domicile in any precinct into which he or she comes for temporary purposes merely, without the intention of making that precinct his or her home.

203. If a person moves to another state with the intention of making it his or her domicile, the voter loses his or her domicile in this state.

204. If a person moves to another state as a place of permanent residence, with the intention of remaining there for an indefinite time, he or she loses his or her domicile in this state, notwithstanding that he or she intends to return at some future time.

205. The mere intention to acquire a new domicile, without the fact of removal avails nothing, neither does the fact of removal without the intention.

206. A person does not gain or lose a domicile solely by reason of his or her presence or absence from a place while employed in the service of the United States or of this state, nor while engaged in navigation, nor while a student of any institution of learning, nor while kept in an almshouse, asylum or prison. This section shall not be construed to prevent a student at an institution of learning from qualifying as an elector in the locality where he or she domiciles while attending that institution, when in fact the student has abandoned his or her former domicile.

207. The place where a person's family is domiciled is his or her domicile unless it is a place for temporary establishment for his or her family or for transient objects.

Residence in a trailer or vehicle or at any public camp or camping ground may constitute a domicile for voting purposes if the registrant complies with the other requirements of this article.

208. If a person has a family fixed in one place, and he or she does business in another, the former is his or her place of domicile, but any person having a family, who has taken up an abode with the intention of remaining and whose family does not so reside with him or her, is a domiciliary where he or she has so taken up the abode.

209. The domicile of one spouse shall not be presumed to be that of the other, but shall be determined independently in accordance with this article.

210. A domiciliary of this state who marries a person employed temporarily in this state in the service of the United States government, may elect to retain his or her domicile for the purpose of qualifying as an elector only, except that such domicile in this state shall terminate if such domiciliary qualifies as an elector in any other state or any territory.

211. If a person has more than one residence and such person maintains a homeowner's property tax exemption on the dwelling of one of the residences pursuant to Section 218 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the residence subject to the homeowner's property tax exemption is that person's domicile; provided, however, that such presumption shall not apply in the event any other residence is listed as the person's current residence address on any driver's license, identification card, or vehicle registration issued to such person by, and on file with, the Department of Motor Vehicles.

If a person has more than one residence and such person claims a renter's tax credit for one of the residences pursuant to Section 17053.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the residence subject to the renter's tax credit is that person's domicile; provided, however, that such presumption shall not apply in the event any other residence is listed as the person's current residence address on any driver's license, identification card, or vehicle registration issued to such person by, and on file with, the Department of Motor Vehicles.

This section shall not be applicable to state or federal elected officials.

212. Except as provided in this article, if a person has more than one residence and such person has not physically resided at any one of such residences within the immediate preceding year, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that those residences in which he or she has not so resided within the immediate preceding year are merely residences as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 200 and not his or her domicile.

214. As used in this article, a rebuttable presumption shall be deemed a presumption which affects the burden of producing evidence.

215. Whenever the house number or the mailing address of a voter has been changed and the voter's domicile is the same, the public agency authorizing the change shall notify the county clerk in writing of the change and the county clerk shall make the change on the voter's affidavit of registration and a new affidavit shall not be required.

216. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a person domiciled in a house or apartment lying in more than one precinct shall be registered as domiciled in that one of those precincts designated by him or her at the time he or she registers. In the absence of such designation the county clerk shall register the person as domiciled in that one of those precincts that he or she considers appropriate. If a person is domiciled in a house or apartment lying in more than one city, the person's domicile shall be determined on the basis of the street address.

217. A person duly registered as a voter in any precinct in California who removes therefrom within 29 days prior to an election shall, for the purpose of such election, be entitled to vote in the precinct from which the person so removed until the close of the polls on the date of such election.

SEC. 4.5. Section 14226 of the Elections Code, as added by Chapter 220 of the Statutes of 1976, is amended to read:

14226. The precinct board in determining the place of residence of any person, shall be governed by the rules set forth in Article 2 (commencing with Section 200) of Chapter 1 of Division 1.

If Assembly Bill No. 2606 is not chaptered, and this bill is chaptered, Section 3 of this bill shall become operative, but Sections 3.5 and 4 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 6. Section 4.5 of this bill shall become operative if and only if Assembly Bill No. 2606 and this bill are both chaptered and become operative.

Such conversion rights shall not require a physical examination or a statement of health.

CHAPTER 1174

An act to amend Section 1735 of the Labor Code, and to amend Section 453 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to sex discrimination.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1735 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

1735. No discrimination shall be made in the employment of persons upon public works because of the race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical handicap, medical condition, marital status, or sex of such persons, except as provided in Section 1420, and every contractor for public works violating this section is subject to all the penalties imposed for a violation of this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 453 of the Public Utilities Code, as amended by Chapter 447 of the Statutes of 1975, is amended to read:

453. (a) No public utility shall, as to rates, charges, service, facilities, or in any other respect, make or grant any preference or advantage to any corporation or person or subject any corporation or person to any prejudice or disadvantage.

(b) No public utility shall prejudice, disadvantage, or require different rates or deposit amounts from a person because of race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical handicap, medical condition, occupation, sex, marital status or change in marital status. A person who has exhausted all administrative remedies with the commission may institute a suit for injunctive relief and reasonable attorney's fees in cases of an alleged violation of this subdivision. If successful in litigation, the prevailing party shall be awarded attorney's fees.

(c) No public utility shall establish or maintain any unreasonable difference as to rates, charges, service, facilities, or in any other respect, either as between localities or as between classes of service.

(d) No public utility shall include with any bill for services or commodities furnished any customer or subscriber any advertising or literature designed or intended (1) to promote the passage or defeat of a measure appearing on the ballot at any election whether local, statewide, or national, (2) to promote or defeat any candidate for nomination or election to any public office, (3) to promote or defeat the appointment of any person to any administrative or executive position in federal, state or local government, or (4) to promote or defeat any change in federal, state, or local legislation or regulations.

(e) The commission may determine any question of fact arising under this section.

SEC. 3. Section 453 of the Public Utilities Code, as amended by Chapter 447 of the Statutes of 1975, is amended to read:

453. (a) No public utility shall, as to rates, charges, service, facilities, or in any other respect, make or grant any preference or advantage to any corporation or person or subject any corporation or person to any prejudice or disadvantage.

(b) No public utility shall prejudice, disadvantage, or require different rates or deposit amounts from a person because of race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical handicap, medical condition, occupation, sex, marital status or change in marital status. A person who has exhausted all administrative remedies with the commission may institute a suit for injunctive relief and reasonable attorney's fees in cases of an alleged violation of this subdivision. If successful in litigation, the prevailing party shall be awarded attorney's fees.

(c) No public utility shall establish or maintain any unreasonable difference as to rates, charges, service, facilities, or in any other respect, either as between localities or as between classes of service.

(d) No public utility shall include with any bill for services or commodities furnished any customer or subscriber any advertising or literature designed or intended (1) to promote the passage or defeat of a measure appearing on the ballot at any election whether local, statewide, or national, (2) to promote or defeat any candidate for nomination or election to any public office, (3) to promote or defeat the appointment of any person to any administrative or executive position in federal, state or local government, or (4) to promote or defeat any change in federal, state, or local legislation or regulations; provided that until December 31, 1976, any such prohibitions shall not apply to any notice or statement relating to matters affecting rates or service to customers or subscribers where the public utility has requested and received the prior approval of the commission.

(e) The commission may determine any question of fact arising under this section.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to that section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the Legislature recognizes that during any legislative session a variety of changes to laws relating to crimes and infractions may cause both increased and decreased costs to local governmental entities and school districts which, in the aggregate, do not result in significant identifiable cost changes

SEC. 5. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1683 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1977, both bills amend Section 453 of the Public Utilities Code, and this bill is chaptered after Senate Bill No. 1683, that Section 453 of the Public Utilities Code, as amended by Section 1 of Senate Bill No. 1683, be further amended on the effective date of this act in the form set forth in Section 3 of this act to incorporate the changes in Section 453 proposed by this bill. Therefore, if this bill and Senate Bill No. 1683 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1977, and Senate Bill No. 1683 is chaptered before this bill and amends Section 453, Section 3 of this act shall become operative on the effective date of this act and Section 2 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 6. It is the intent of the Legislature, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 497 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1977, both bills amend Section 453 of the Public Utilities Code, and this bill is chaptered after Assembly Bill No. 497, that Section 453 of the Public Utilities Code, as amended by Section 1 of Assembly Bill No. 497, be further amended on the effective date of this act in the form set forth in Section 3 of this act to incorporate the changes in Section 453 proposed by this bill. Therefore, if this bill and Assembly Bill No. 497 are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 1977, and Assembly Bill No. 497 is chaptered before this bill and amends Section 453, Section 3 of this act shall become operative on the effective date of this act and Section 2 of this act shall not become operative.

An act to add Section 3074.1 to the Labor Code, relating to apprenticeship.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1976]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3074.1 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

3074.1. In compliance with the affirmative action requirements of California's plan for equal opportunity in apprenticeship, school districts maintaining high schools, community colleges districts, and apprenticeship program sponsors, shall provide students with information as to the availability of apprenticeship programs.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 2231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be no reimbursement pursuant to this section nor shall there be an appropriation made by this act because the duties, obligations or responsibilities imposed on local governmental entities or school districts by this act are such that related costs are incurred as part of their normal operating procedures.

CHAPTER 1176

An act to amend Section 91 of the Education Code, relating to public schools.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 91 of the Education Code is amended to read:

91. (a) It is the policy of the state that elementary and secondary school and community college classes and courses, including nonacademic and elective classes and courses be conducted, without regard to the sex of the pupils enrolled in such classes and courses.

(b) No school district shall prohibit any pupil from enrolling in any class or course on the basis of the sex of the pupil, except a class subject to Section 8506.

(c) No school district shall require pupils of one sex to enroll in a particular class or course, unless the same class or course is also required of pupils of the opposite sex.

(d) No school counselor, teacher, administrator, or aide shall, on the basis of the sex of a pupil, offer vocational or school program guidance to pupils of one sex which is different from that offered to pupils of the opposite sex or, in counseling students, differentiate career, vocational or higher education opportunities on the basis of the sex of the pupil counseled. Any school personnel acting in a career counseling or course selection capacity to any pupil shall affirmatively explore with such pupil the possibility of careers, or courses leading to such careers, that are nontraditional for that pupil's sex. The parents or legal guardian of the pupil shall be notified in a general manner at least once in the manner prescribed by Section 10921, in advance of career counseling and course selection commencing with course selection for the seventh grade so that they may participate in such counseling sessions and decisions.

(e) Participation in a particular physical education activity or sport, if required of pupils of one sex, shall be available to pupils of each sex.

of their normal operating procedures.

CHAPTER 1177

An act to repeal Article 1 (commencing with Section 1250) of Chapter 2 of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Labor Code, relating to labor.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1976. Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 1 (commencing with Section 1250) of Chapter 2 of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Labor Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 1178

An act to amend Sections 867 and 868 of the Penal Code, relating to preliminary examinations.

[Approved by Governor September 21, 1976 Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1976.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 867 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

867. While a witness is under examination, the magistrate may exclude all potential and actual witnesses who have not been examined. He may also cause the witnesses to be kept separate, and to be prevented from conversing with each other until they are all examined.

SEC. 2. Section 868 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

868. The magistrate must also, upon the request of the defendant, exclude from the examination every person except his clerk, court reporter and bailiff, the prosecutor and his counsel, the Attorney General, the district attorney of the county, the investigating officer, the officer having custody of a prisoner witness while the prisoner is testifying, the defendant and his counsel, and the officer having the defendant in custody; provided, however, that a prosecuting witness may, in the discretion of the court, be entitled for moral support to the attendance of one person of his or her own choosing otherwise not a witness. The person so chosen shall not discuss prior to or during the preliminary hearing the testimony of the prosecuting witness with any person, other than the prosecuting witness, who is a witness in the examination. Nothing in this section shall affect the right to exclude witnesses as provided in Section 867 of the Penal Code.

CHAPTER 1179

An act to amend Section 1070 of the Education Code, and to amend Sections 1777.5, 1777.6, 3071, 3073, 3075, 3076, 3077.5, and 3096 of, and to add Sections 3074.3, and 3075.1 to, the Labor Code, relating to apprenticeship, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 20, 1976 Filed with Secretary of State September 22, 1976]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1777.5 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

1777.5. Nothing in this chapter shall prevent the employment of properly registered apprentices upon public works.

Every such apprentice shall be paid the standard wage paid to apprentices under the regulations of the craft or trade at which he is employed, and shall be employed only at the work of the craft or trade to which he is registered.

Only apprentices, as defined in Section 3077, who are in training under apprenticeship standards and written apprentice agreements under Chapter 4 (commencing at Section 3070), Division 3, of the Labor Code, are eligible to be employed on public works. The employment and training of each apprentice shall be in accordance with the provisions of the apprenticeship standards and apprentice agreements under which he is training.

When the contractor to whom the contract is awarded by the state or any political subdivision, or any subcontractor under him, in performing any of the work under the contract or subcontract, employs workmen in any apprenticeable craft or trade, the contractor and subcontractor shall apply to the joint apprenticeship committee administering the apprenticeship standards of the craft or trade in the area of the site of the public work for a certificate approving the contractor or subcontractor under the apprenticeship standards for the employment and training of apprentices in the area or industry affected; provided, however, that the action by the joint apprenticeship committee or committees shall be subject to the approval of the Administrator of Apprenticeship. The joint apprenticeship committee or committees, subsequent to approving the subject contractor or subcontractor, shall notify the appropriate dispatch agency of such approval in order for the contractor or subcontractor to comply with this section. There shall be an affirmative duty upon the joint apprenticeship committee or committees administering the apprenticeship standards of the craft or trade in the area of the site of the public work to ensure equal employment and affirmative action in apprenticeship for women and minorities. Contractors or subcontractors shall not be required to submit individual applications for approval to local joint apprenticeship committees provided they are already covered by the local apprenticeship standards. The ratio of apprentices to journeymen who shall be employed in the craft or trade on the public work may be the ratio stipulated in the apprenticeship standards under which the joint apprenticeship committee operates, but in no case shall the ratio be less than one apprentice for each five journeymen, except as otherwise provided in this section.

The contractor or subcontractor, if he is covered by this section, upon the issuance of the approval certificate, or if he has been previously approved in such craft or trade, shall employ the number of apprentices or the ratio of apprentices to journeymen stipulated in the apprenticeship standards. Upon proper showing by the contractor that he employs apprentices in such craft or trade in the state on all of his contracts on an annual average of not less than one apprentice to each five journeymen, the Division of Apprenticeship Standards may grant a certificate exempting the contractor from the 1-to-5 ratio as set forth in this section. This section shall not apply to contracts of general contractors involving less than thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) or 20 working days or to contracts of specialty contractors not bidding for work through a general or prime contractor, involving less than two thousand dollars ($2,000) or fewer than five working days.

"Apprenticeable craft or trade," as used in this section, shall mean a craft or trade determined as an apprenticeable occupation in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the Apprenticeship Council. The joint apprenticeship committee shall have the discretion to grant a certificate, which shall be subject to the approval of the Administrator of Apprenticeship, exempting a contractor from the 1-to-5 ratio set forth in this section when it finds that any one of the following conditions is met:

(a) In the event unemployment for the previous three-month period in such area exceeds an average of 15 percent, or

(b) In the event the number of apprentices in training in such area exceeds a ratio of 1 to 5, or

(c) If there is a showing that the apprenticeable craft or trade is replacing at least one-thirtieth of its journeymen annually through apprenticeship training, either (1) on a statewide basis, or (2) on a local basis.

(d) If assignment of an apprentice to any work performed under a public works contract would create a condition which would jeopardize his life or the life, safety, or property of fellow employees or the public at large or if the specific task to which the apprentice is to be assigned is of such a nature that training cannot be provided by a journeyman.

The Administrator of Apprenticeship's may grant an exemption pursuant to this section to an organization which represents contractors in a specific trade from the 1-to-5 ratio on a local or statewide basis. In such cases member contractors will not be required to submit individual applications for approval to the local joint apprenticeship committees, provided they are already covered by the local apprenticeship standards.

A contractor to whom the contract is awarded, or any subcontractor under him, who, in performing any of the work under the contract, employs journeymen or apprentices in any apprenticeable craft or trade and who is not contributing to a fund or funds to administer and conduct the apprenticeship program in any such craft or trade in the area of the site of the public work, to which fund or funds other contractors in the area of the site of the public work are contributing, shall contribute to the fund or funds in each craft or trade in which he employs journeymen or apprentices on the public work in the same amount or upon the same basis and in the same manner as the other contractors do, but where the trust fund administrators are unable to accept such funds, contractors not signatory to the trust agreement shall pay a like amount to the California Apprenticeship Council. The contractor or subcontractor may add the amount of such contributions in computing his bid for the contract. The Division of Labor Standards Enforcement is authorized to enforce the payment of such contributions to the fund or funds as set forth in Section 227.

The body awarding the contract shall cause to be inserted in the contract stipulations to effectuate this section. Such stipulations shall fix the responsibility of compliance with this section for all apprenticeable occupations with the prime contractor.

All decisions of the joint apprenticeship committee under this section are subject to the provisions of Section 3081.

SEC. 2. Section 1777.5 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

1777.5. Nothing in this chapter shall prevent the employment of properly registered apprentices upon public works.

Every such apprentice shall be paid the standard wage paid to apprentices under the regulations of the craft or trade at which he is employed, and shall be employed only at the work of the craft or trade to which he is registered.

Only apprentices, as defined in Section 3077, who are in training under apprenticeship standards and written apprentice agreements under Chapter 4 (commencing at Section 3070), Division 3, of the Labor Code, are eligible to be employed on public works. The employment and training of each apprentice shall be in accordance with the provisions of the apprenticeship standards and apprentice agreements under which he is training.

When the contractor to whom the contract is awarded by the state or any political subdivision, or any subcontractor under him, in performing any of the work under the contract or subcontract, employs workmen in any apprenticeable craft or trade, the contractor and subcontractor shall apply to the joint apprenticeship committee administering the apprenticeship standards of the craft or trade in the area of the site of the public work for a certificate approving the contractor or subcontractor under the apprenticeship standards for the employment and training of apprentices in the area or industry affected; provided, however, that the approval as established by the joint apprenticeship committee or committees shall be subject to the approval of the Administrator of Apprenticeship. The joint apprenticeship committee or committees, subsequent to approving the subject contractor or subcontractor, shall arrange for the dispatch of apprentices to the contractor or subcontractor in order to comply with this section. There shall be an affirmative duty upon the joint apprenticeship committee or committees administering the apprenticeship standards of the craft or trade in the area of the site of the public work to ensure equal employment and affirmative action in apprenticeship for women and minorities. Contractors or subcontractors shall not be required to submit individual applications for approval to local joint apprenticeship committees provided they are already covered by the local apprenticeship standards. The ratio of apprentices to journeymen who shall be employed in the craft or trade on the public work may be the ratio stipulated in the apprenticeship standards under which the joint apprenticeship committee operates, but in no case shall the ratio be less than one apprentice for each five journeymen, except as otherwise provided in this section.

The contractor or subcontractor, if he is covered by this section, upon the issuance of the approval certificate, or if he has been previously approved in such craft or trade, shall employ the number of apprentices or the ratio of apprentices to journeymen stipulated in the apprenticeship standards. Upon proper showing by the contractor that he employs apprentices in such craft or trade in the state on all of his contracts on an annual average of not less than one apprentice to each five journeymen, the Division of Apprenticeship Standards may grant a certificate exempting the contractor from the 1-to-5 ratio as set forth in this section. This section shall not apply to contracts of general contractors involving less than thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) or 20 working days or to contracts of specialty contractors not bidding for work through a general or prime contractor, involving less than two thousand dollars ($2,000) or fewer than five working days.

"Apprenticeable craft or trade," as used in this section, shall mean a craft or trade determined as an apprenticeable occupation in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the Apprenticeship Council. The joint apprenticeship committee shall have the discretion to grant a certificate, which shall be subject to the approval of the Administrator of Apprenticeship, exempting a contractor from the 1-to-5 ratio set forth in this section when it finds that any one of the following conditions is met:

(a) In the event unemployment for the previous three-month period in such area exceeds an average of 15 percent, or

(b) In the event the number of apprentices in training in such area exceeds a ratio of 1 to 5, or

(c) If there is a showing that the apprenticeable craft or trade is replacing at least one-thirtieth of its journeymen annually through apprenticeship training, either (1) on a statewide basis, or (2) on a local basis.

(d) If assignment of an apprentice to any work performed under a public works contract would create a condition which would jeopardize his life or the life, safety, or property of fellow employees or the public at large or if the specific task to which the apprentice is to be assigned is of such a nature that training cannot be provided by a journeyman.

When such exemptions are granted to an organization which represents contractors in a specific trade from the 1-to-5 ratio on a local or statewide basis the member contractors will not be required to submit individual applications for approval to local joint apprenticeship committees, provided they are already covered by the local apprenticeship standards.

A contractor to whom the contract is awarded, or any subcontractor under him, who, in performing any of the work under the contract, employs journeymen or apprentices in any apprenticeable craft or trade and who is not contributing to a fund or funds to administer and conduct the apprenticeship program in any such craft or trade in the area of the site of the public work, to which fund or funds other contractors in the area of the site of the public work are contributing, shall contribute to the fund or funds in each craft or trade in which he employs journeymen or apprentices on the public work in the same amount or upon the same basis and in the same manner as the other contractors do, but where the trust fund administrators are unable to accept such funds, contractors not signatory to the trust agreement shall pay a like amount to the California Apprenticeship Council. The contractor or subcontractor may add the amount of such contributions in computing his bid for the contract. The Division of Labor Standards Enforcement is authorized to enforce the payment of such contributions to the fund or funds as set forth in Section 227.

The body awarding the contract shall cause to be inserted in the contract stipulations to effectuate this section. Such stipulations shall fix the responsibility of compliance with this section for all apprenticeable occupations with the prime contractor.

All decisions of the joint apprenticeship committee under this section are subject to the provisions of Section 3081.

SEC. 3. Section 1777.6 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

1777.6. It shall be unlawful for an employer or a labor union to refuse to accept otherwise qualified employees as registered apprentices on any public works, on the ground of the race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, sex, or age, except as provided in Section 3077, of such employee.

SEC. 4. Section 3071 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3071. The California Apprenticeship Council shall meet at the call of the Director of Industrial Relations and shall aid him in formulating policies for the effective administration of this chapter.

Thereafter the California Apprenticeship Council shall meet quarterly at a designated date and special meetings may be held at the call of the chairman. The California Apprenticeship Council shall establish standards for minimum wages, maximum hours, working conditions for apprentice agreements, hereinafter in this chapter referred to as labor standards, which in no case shall be lower than those prescribed by this chapter; shall issue such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the intent and purpose of this chapter, which shall include regulations governing equal opportunities in apprenticeship, affirmative action programs which include women and minorities in apprenticeship, and other on-the-job training, and criteria for selection procedures with a view particularly toward eliminating criteria not relevant to qualification for training employment or more stringent than is reasonably necessary; shall foster, promote, and develop the welfare of the apprentice and industry, improve the working conditions of apprentices, and advance their opportunities for profitable employment; shall insure that selection procedures are impartially administered to all applicants for apprenticeship; shall gather and promptly disseminate information through apprenticeship and training information centers; and shall maintain on public file in all high schools and field offices of the Department of Employment Development the name and location of the local area apprenticeship committees, the filing date, and minimum requirements for application of all registered apprenticeship programs. The California Apprenticeship Council shall make biennial reports through the Director of Industrial Relations of its activities and findings to the Legislature and to the public.

SEC. 5. Section 3073 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

The administrator shall coordinate the exchange, by the California Apprenticeship Council, the apprenticeship program sponsors, the Fair Employment Practices Commission, community organizations, and other interested persons, of information on available minorities and women who may serve as apprentices.

SEC. 5.5. Section 3074.3 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

SEC. 6. Section 3075 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3075. Local or state joint apprenticeship committees may be selected by the employer and the employee organizations, in any trade in the state or in a city or trade area, whenever the apprentice training needs of such trade justifies such establishment. All selection and disciplinary proceedings for apprentices or prospective apprentices shall be duly noticed to such individuals. The Division of Apprenticeship Standards shall audit all such proceedings.

SEC. 7. Section 3075.1 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

3075.1. It is the public policy of this state to encourage the utilization of apprenticeship as a form of on-the-job training, when such training is cost-effective in developing skills needed to perform public services. State and local public agencies shall make a diligent effort to establish apprenticeship programs for apprenticeable occupations in their respective work forces. In furtherance of this policy, public agencies shall take into consideration (a) the extent to which a continuous supply of trained personnel is readily available to public agencies to meet their skill requirements in the various occupations which are determined to be apprenticeable, and (b) the application of established programs in the private sector, where appropriate. Public sector apprenticeship programs should be fully compatible with affirmative action goals for the participation of minorities and women in apprenticeship programs.

SEC. 8. Section 3076 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3076. The function of the joint apprenticeship committee shall be to work in an advisory capacity with employers and employees in matters regarding schedule of operations, application of wage rates, working conditions for apprentices, the number of apprentices which shall be employed in the trade under apprentice agreements under this chapter, in accordance with labor standards set up by the California Apprenticeship Council except as specific written authority is delegated to the joint apprenticeship committee by the parent bodies they represent; and to aid in the adjustment of apprenticeship disputes as they affect labor standards. The joint apprenticeship committee shall establish selection procedures which specify minimum requirements for formal education or equivalency, physical examination, if any, subject matter of written tests and oral interviews, and any other criteria pertinent to the selection process; shall specify the relative weights of all factors which determine selection to an apprenticeship program; shall submit in writing to the Administrator of Apprenticeship an official statement of each selection procedure including filing date and location of the joint apprenticeship committee; shall provide a copy of the selection procedures to each applicant; shall provide in writing to each applicant not selected an official explanation setting forth the reason or reasons for the nonselection, copies of which explanation shall be retained as a public record in the files of the joint apprenticeship committee for a period of three years; and shall implement affirmative action programs for minorities and women in accordance with the rules, regulations, and guidelines of the California Apprenticeship Council.

SEC. 9. Section 3077.5 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

3077.5. No association of employers, organization of employees, or joint committee administering an apprenticeship training program under this chapter shall provide a maximum age for apprentices.

Whenever such a complaint is filed with the commission, the commission shall immediately send a copy of the complaint to the Administrator of Apprenticeship for investigation and action by the Division of Apprenticeship Standards pursuant to this chapter and rules and procedures prescribed by the California Apprenticeship Council. The division shall hold at least one open hearing relative to the complaint during the 21-day period following the day upon which the division receives a written copy of the complaint. If the commission finds that the complaint is not being processed in accordance with this chapter and such rules and procedures, or if the commission finds that the division has not taken action which has resolved the complaint within 30 days, the commission shall report such findings in writing to the administrator, who upon verification may cause the division to take conclusive action prior to the 61st day following the day upon which a written copy of the complaint was filed with the division. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the administrator shall, upon request of, and after written report by, the commission, relieve the division of the case and assign it to the commission, on or before the 61st day following the day upon which a written copy of the complaint was filed with the division. Upon receipt of such assignment, the commission shall immediately proceed to act upon the complaint. The commission shall hold at least one open hearing within 14 days following the day of assignment. The commission shall complete its investigations and any attempts to eliminate any unlawful practices discovered and shall issue an accusation thereon or advise the complainant that the evidence does not warrant further proceedings thereon, within 30 days after the complaint is assigned to the commission. The commission shall prepare such findings, determinations, and orders for issuance by the administrator, who shall notify the complainant and shall make available his findings within 10 days after review of such findings by the commission. Such findings, determinations and orders shall be subject to further legal processes as set forth in this chapter. In the event there is no action by the division or the commission within 101 days after the filing of a complaint with the commission, the person claiming to be aggrieved may bring a civil action under this part within one year after such 101st day.

The Division of Apprenticeship Standards shall inform the commission of the number and disposition of all complaints handled by the division pursuant to this section for inclusion in the commission's report to the Governor and the Legislature as required by this code.
